Chapter 771: Like the sun in broad daylight

When she arrived at the Black Market, the Chief and Elder Gong were already waiting there. Elder Li was also together with them. When she saw Elder Li, Feng Jiu wanted to laugh.

Although she knew that her potion was the treasure that cultivators striving for, she did not expect that Elder Li, who had lived for a large number of years, also clung to it.

She had the potion, but she wouldn't give it to others casually. It was impossible for him to crave for her things.

"Young Master Feng, everything you asked for is ready. It's all in here." "The Chief handed her an interspatial ring.

"Haha, this small thing is for Young Master Feng to play with." Compared to her helping them advance, this interspatial ring was really not worth mentioning.

Feng Jiu nodded. "Alright, then I will take it. Let's settle the account!"

Then, the Chief took her to check-out at the back. Since these were the things she asked for, the spirit herbs' price was much lower than the price outside. It was given as some kind of reimbursement for her.

If he could give this kind of small favour, he would give it easily.

"Young Master Feng, I've prepared a feast for you. I'd like to invite you to have a meal."

"I can't, it's getting late. I have to go back before dark. Next time! Even if you don't treat me next time, I'll be the one inviting you for a meal." She smiled, gathered up her things and left.

Seeing this, the Chief and Elder Gong didn't urge her to stay. They just nodded in response and saw her off at the Black Market's gate. Elder Li wanted to speak several times, but he was embarrassed to speak because of the Chief and Elder Gong's presence. Finally, he could only watch her leave.

After returning to the academy, Feng Jiu was immersed in pill refining. When she encountered something that she didn't understand, she asked the two alchemists for guidance. With the results of her own research, her progress in Alchemy could be described as a thousand miles a day.

After another month passed, her alchemy room finally quietened down. After a bath, she came out of the cave-dwelling feeling refreshed. After several months of intensive research, her Alchemy knowledge was nearing completion. There were many pills that she had been refining recently, but those were never been tried or sold. Now it's time for her to rest.

However, when she was riding her flying feather to chat with Ye Jing and her brother, she met the deputy headmaster on the way.

“Feng Jiu? Just in time, I was on my way to see you!”

“What can I do for you?” She was surprised at his solemn expression.

“Mm, come with me.” He went to the main peak with Feng Jiu followed behind.

Arriving at the main peak, she saw the headmaster was there. She gave a salute, “I have seen the headmaster.”

“Sit down.” The headmaster motioned to her. Since there was only the three of them, he told her directly, “I’m looking for you because I have something to tell you.”

She sat down at the table and said, “Please speak, headmaster.”

“Since you are holding the Qingfeng sword, naturally, you have heard of Tianyuan palace. I think Chu Batian, the master of the Heavenly Dynasty palace, has some connections with you?”

When she heard that, her eyes moved in surprise and she nodded. “Mm. He’s my master.”

Although he had never taught her anything, he had left a lot of good things for her. Some of the things in her space were collected by her master all his life while some were inside the space originally.

“He was a powerful swordsman that transversed numerous countries. At that time, under his leadership, the Heavenly Dynasty Palace was very influential, like the sun in broad daylight. However, it only happened during those years.”

Chapter 772: A terrible mess

Feng Jiu listened without speaking. She just listened quietly. The headmaster wouldn’t talk about it for no reason. It was one thing that she had the Qingfeng sword. They all had seen it that day, but none talked about it nor leaked any information. Now, when this matter was raised again a few months later, it must have been something she didn’t know.

“All the people gathered in Heavenly Dynasty Palace were those evil disciples who treated human life like grass and those cultivators who were rejected by the upright path. However, after those years, Chu Batian’s whereabouts were unknown. All the Heavenly Dynasty Palace’s people scattered due to the fact that they were without a leader.”

“About a month ago, there was a faint rumour that people gathered in the Heavenly Dynasty Palace from all over the country. Because of the two factions were vying for the position of master of the palace, it led to some battles over territory. We received the news half a month ago, but everywhere, there were more such people than we’ve heard.”

He paused. “Chu Batian was a man who did whatever he wanted. When he was in charge of the Heavenly Dynasty Palace, he restrained the people under his command very well. Now the palace is in need of a leader. You are the master of Qingfeng sword. I want to ask you, do you have any plans?”

“Headmaster expects me to deal with this mess?” She smiled and looked at him.

“Haha, that’s not the case. The Heavenly Dynasty Palace is a big power. Each one of its cultivators won’t lose to our academy’s teachers in their fighting power. It’s truly a mess, yet also a big piece of fat meat. I’m afraid that for a long time, this meat will be stared at by some forces and taken as his own. Then it will cause irremediable trouble.”

“I promised my master to reorganize the Heavenly Dynasty Palace. However, I knew little about the palace and I didn’t expect that it would be divided into two factions to fight in secret.” She smiled. “I will definitely take it over when the time comes, but I need to ask the Headmaster for a person.”

“A person? Who?” The headmaster was slightly shocked, as well as deputy headmaster nearby.

“Xiang Hua, the Law Protector.” She said these words with her eyes moving.

“Xiang Hua, the Law Protector?” The two men were stunned. “We don’t know him. How could you ask us?”

Feng Jiu’s lips curved. “It doesn’t matter. It’s okay as long as I know that person.” She smiled and stood up. “I’m leaving first. I’ll go back and prepare well.” She stepped out, then suddenly stop and walked back in.

They were stunned. “He returned to take care of some stuff and will come back later.”

“Oh, I see. Well, then! I have something here. I’ll trouble Headmaster to give it to him. Please tell him that it’s my compensation for his loss.” She took out the wrapped heavenly silkworm garment from the space and put it on the table.

“Alright.” The headmaster nodded while wondering inwardly. Did the two get acquainted a long time before?

Almost no one was alerted about her departure. Even Nie Teng, who had always paid attention of her whereabouts, knew only a few days after she left that she was no longer in the academy.

A few days later, at a certain area in the woods outside the city, Feng Jiu, in red garb, was resting on the tree. A faint, small voice came into her ears...

Chapter 773: Meeting Bai Xiao again

“Brother, if you have something, let’s talk properly. How could you do such a degrading thing? Brother, at most, I will not demand your family’s Miss for a reward, but you can’t do this, this...”

“Bah! Reward? Youngster, go down to the bottom of the earth, and ask the reward from Yama, the King of Hell!”

“We’re giving you a favour by leaving your corpse intact, hmph! If it were the Young Master today, your blood would have been shed on the spot.”

“Then, there will be no problem if I don’t demand the reward, right? Let me leave, okay? Treat it as your good deed!”

“Let you go? Don’t worry, we’ll let you go down.”

Not far away, Feng Jiu leapt lightly up a tree to watch. She saw two sturdy men were digging a hole in the forest. One of them jumped in and checked the depth. Finally, he came out and put a young man in blue in the hole and began to pour the soil in.

Burying a person alive? She lifted her eyebrows, feeling that the young man in dire straits was familiar to her.

“Brother, can you stop putting soil on my head?”

Seeing that scene, Feng Jiu unconsciously smiled. She remembered who the young man was. The man was called Bai Xiao, the former master of Old White. Unexpectedly, she met him again after such a long time.

She plucked two leaves at random and shot them off using the spirit energy breath on her fingers. The leaves stroke the wrists of those two sturdy men, making them screaming with pain. They clutched their wrists, looked around and shouted loudly.

“Who? Who is it? Come out!”

“You’re burying my friend.”

Feng Jiu, with her hands folded across her chest, leaned on the branch and looked at Bai Xiao, who was half-buried in the ground. She smiled at him. “Bai Xiao, long time no see. You’ve made a terrible mess of yourself.”

“Youngster! How dare you use concealed weapons to hurt us!” One of them, seeing a young man, snapped out. “You don’t want to live.”

Feng Jiu picked two more leaves. “Are you sure you don’t want to leave? My leaves are not aimed at your wrists this time.”

The other man looked down and saw that the thing that hurt them was really a leaf. He was shocked and hurriedly pulled the person next to him to leave, but he was called by Feng Jiu again.

“Wait a minute.”

“You — didn’t you say to let us leave earlier? We, we were just obeying orders. It’s not that we want to bury, bury your friend...” “They were frightened. Their legs trembled slightly and their faces turned pale.

How high one’s cultivation level to be able to use leaves as concealed weapons? In any case, the two of them couldn’t use leaves as concealed weapons. They were not the young man’s match.

“Oh, yes, yes.”

They answered in a hurry and pulled up Bai Xiao, who had his body buried in soil, with their uninjured hands. Then they started to run as if some vipers and ferocious beasts were after them.

“You are...Feng Jiu?” Bai Xiao hesitated, calling out Feng Jiu’s name.

“Mm, it seems you remember me.” She nodded and smiled with her eyes narrowed into half-moons.

“Bai Xiao, what’s the matter with you? How did you get yourself into such a mess?” As she spoke, she untied the rope from his body.

“Sigh, it’s a long story.”

After shaking the rope away, he patted the sand between his hair, shook his blue robe, and asked: “Feng Jiu, what about Old White? Why is he not with you? Is it obedient? Did you get into any trouble? ”

Chapter 774: I come from a noble beast tamer family

“Ah, Old White! It’s a long story. ” She smiled and shook her head. Looking at the dirt all over his body, she said, “There is a stream not far ahead. Would you like to take a bath and change your clothes? ”

“All right, let me get cleaned up first and then we’ll talk. I’m improper right now .” He spoke with some embarrassment. According to Feng Jiu’s direction, he found the stream, quickly took off his clothes and jumped down to bathe.

Feng Jiu didn’t follow him. While he was taking a bath, she caught a pheasant and roasted it.

“What a delicious aroma! Feng Jiu, I’ve been hungry all day. They didn’t provide me with food. ” With fresh clothes and hair still dripping with water, he came beside Feng Jiu and sat down, staring at the pheasant on the roasting fire.

“That’s enough.” He said, holding the bowl in both hands. “I can’t drink too much wine.”

“If you can’t drink much, then don’t drink on an empty stomach! Wait a minute. The pheasant is almost ready. ” She smiled and began to add some seasoning. “How come you are always wandering around every time I see you? Where are you going? ”

“I didn’t want to go anywhere. My family drove me away, they told me to gain some experience outside. However, I ran into a brick wall everywhere.” While holding the wine in both hands and keeping his eyes fixed on the roasted pheasant, he told her all the things he had met these past several days.

“Oh? Are you from a noble beast tamer family? ” She was slightly surprised at first, but then got a flash of insight. If he was not from that kind of family, it wouldn’t be possible to get such an odd horse as Old White.

“Mm, but it’s useless. I don’t have martial power. I can only control beasts, but sometimes there would be some mishaps, such as Old White, the odd horse that I can’t control. Also, those two men just now. Their Miss’ pet beast jumped out and scratched frantically for unknown reasons. It tore its owner’s new clothes and scratched the back of her hand to bleed.”

Feng Jiu cut a pheasant leg with a knife and gave it to him. “That is to say, you have no place to go now?”

“Mm, my family won’t let me go back. They say that I should temper myself through hardships outside and got some achievements. However, it’s too hard. I’m afraid I’ll lose my life.”

He gulped, then took the pheasant leg. Because it was very hot, he used tree leaves as insulation from the heat and then took a bite. The rich meat aroma filled his mouth and made the rim of his eyes red.

“Feng Jiu, you treat me so well. You don’t know. That family asked me to tame beasts, but they gave me some vegetables and steamed bread every day. I’m so hungry that I’ve lost a lot of weight. I didn’t get any food yesterday, and I was caught and got buried alive today. It’s too much.”

“Can you really tame animals?” She was also very suspicious. After all, when she saw him at that time, Old White threw him down from its back.

“Of course I can. I only occasionally had some mishaps, but I can tame animals, really.” He repeated as if afraid she would not believe him.

“Since you have no place to go, do you want to follow me?” She was like a big-tailed wolf with an innocent, harmless smile. “There are many beasts in the place I’m going to. It’s just perfect for you to gain some experience. What do you think, do you want to go?”

He didn’t answer immediately, but looked at her with a straight face, “If you see that I am chased by fierce animals with nowhere to escape, will you save me?”

Feng Jiu was stunned and then burst into uproarious laughter...

Chapter 775: Returning to the forest to gain experience

In this way, the journey that was originally had only one person now consisted of two people.

Feng Jiu took him on the flying feather to the forest where she had been cultivating. On the way, she told him about Old White...

One day later, early in the morning, they arrived outside the forest’s boundary. Looking at the forest, she couldn’t help thinking of her previous escape to this place.

Escaping from Hell’s Palace, it was unknown how long she had to walk and how many mountains she had to climb before entering this place. She couldn’t help shaking her head at the thought that she was caught by Uncle later.

Everything was fate.

As long as there was fate, no matter if she had escaped or avoided, she would meet him by accident, run into him, and end up going together.

Bai Xiao looked at the stone tablet over there that read: A strategic place to learn from experience, the boundary acts as a guard, utterly evil villains and fierce beasts are everywhere.

Seeing those words, he couldn’t help giving up. What if he entered and couldn’t get out of such a dangerous place?

“What we’re here for is the inside. Besides, it’s not the place where you can get in and out at will.”

She smiled and raised two pieces of white jade cards in her hand. “In addition to the fierce beasts, there are also some villains caught by Three Clan and Nebula Academy. However, they can’t get out without this thing. They are trapped inside and become part of Three Clan’s disciples and Nebula Academy’s students to experience danger.”

“The man you said you were looking for was in there? You said only villains were trapped here...”

“Haha, there are exceptions to everything. Alright, stop talking and let’s go in!” She put her hand on his shoulder and pushed him in without hesitation.

Their bodies seemed to pass through a layer of airflow. The atmosphere was slightly warped and they were squeezed inside. She was a bit baffled about this boundary. After all, the last time she did not have a jade card and entered directly.

“Feng Jiu, it’s eerie inside. It gave people a very dangerous feeling.” With almost no power to protect himself, he held on Feng Jiu’s clothes nervously.

No wonder he was timid. Even if he came from a noble family of beast tamers, there were people protecting him when he was taming beasts. Even in the forest of dangerous beasts, he was not afraid, because he knew that people around him would protect him from any harm.

But it’s not the same here. Although he was familiar with Feng Jiu, he had only met her twice. Who knew whether she would run if they met with danger?

Feng Jiu wasn’t aware that he thought of her like this in his heart. If she did, she would have given him a kick first.

Seeing that his face was white with fear, Feng Jiu couldn’t help chuckling and patting him on the shoulder. “You have to train your courage. Just in time, I’ll find someone here to train your courage.”

“There’s no need, right? I’m just a beast tamer, not a warrior. I really don’t need to.” He repeatedly made a gesture of disapproval. However, even though he refused, he was not a match of Feng Jiu’s persistence.

In the end, Feng Jiu took him to gain outside experience. As they went deeper inside the forest, they ran across some beasts possessing less powerful attack to let him get some practice. It also let her see his method of taming animals. It was really extraordinary. When they met some fierce animals with obviously higher level, he was still failed.

Chapter 776: I'm the flower thief Jade Fox

In the evening, Bai Xiao dragged an injured boar under the tree and shouted, "Feng Jiu, take a look. This is the one-horned rhino that you caught for me. It's so big, enough to last a few days if roasted."

"Deal with it! I'll have a rest." Feng Jiu, atop the tree, said lazily. After a day of wandering around here, except for meeting fierce animals, they hadn't seen any villains.

The forest was so big that she wouldn't finish exploring it for two or three days even if she sat on the flying feather. How could she find Xiang Hua in this forest? It's a little nerve-racking.

"Well, then, rest! I'll call you when I've finished roasting the meat." He didn't look up while handling the wild boar. When he was ready to light the fire, but found that there were not enough branches. He decided to go to the vicinity to pick up some.

"I'll pick up some branches for firewood and come back later." He told Feng Jiu and went ahead.

Feng Jiu didn't mind. They had passed by this area before. It's not dangerous. However, when she glanced at his back and closed her eyes again, she heard a frightened scream.

She immediately opened her eyes, lifted her vital energy and swept away toward the sound. When she came to Bai Xiao's place, she saw some tall and sturdy men drew swords around his neck. Her eyes couldn't help jolted in surprise.

"What are you guys doing?" She leaned against the tree and asked with a voice as light as a feather. She didn't come close but looked at them with her hands folded across her chest.

"Youngster, are you two new-comer here?" Asked a big man in a rough voice.

She nodded, her eyes flickered. "Well, we just came in today."

"Which road? How did you get in?" The big man was still asking. He seemed to guess Feng Jiu's reliability.

"Which way? Are there different routes to get in?" She looked at those few big men with a slight surprise and saw that some of them had a strong smell of blood. It could be assumed that they had killed a lot of people.

"Of course, put out your name and the means you get in. Speak!"

Feng Jiu's lips curved up. With one hand playing with her drooping strand of hair, she spoke, "Listen well. I'm the handsome, elegant, suave and uncommon man known as the ruthless hand ravaging and gathering flowers with skills unequalled in the world, the flower thief Jade Fox."

Hearing that series of long names, those fierce-looking men were stunned. With an odd expression, they sized Feng Jiu up and then they curled their lips. "To put it bluntly, you're just a low-class rapist? But what about this youngster?" He patted Bai Xiao's face.

“Mm, that’s good enough. But I have a name, Jade Fox. That youngster is my little brother.” She smiled with her eyes squinted.

“Whether you are a flower thief or Jade Fox, if you enter this place, you will either die or be obedient. Which one do you choose?” The big man clapped Bai Xiao on the shoulder with his dagger and made a thumping sound, making his face white with fear.

“This...doesn’t this mean surrendering and paying allegiance to you?” She stroked her chin and looked at them.

“Ah, you’re new here, so you don’t know! There are rules and regulations in this place. If you follow the Boss, you can eat meat. Even if you are trapped here, you will be able to go out and kill them all one day”

“Oh, so that’s it. Then, of course, we are going to surrender and pay allegiance to you! Who doesn’t hug the powerful guy’s thigh? Correct?” She said with a smile. Her eyes fell on the swords on Bai Xiao’s shoulder.

“Big brothers, can you remove the swords now?”

Chapter 777: Forces in the forest

Hearing this, the sturdy man removed his sword. “Let’s go!” While talking, several people surrounded Feng Jiu and Bai Xiao to prevent them from escaping.

“Wait!” Feng Jiu shouted.

“Don’t tell me that you want to back out?” That big man glared at him ferociously.

“Of course not. I’m just thinking that when I’m paying a visit for the first time, what kind of gift to bring to the big brother?” She smiled and pointed to a place not far away. “There is a wild boar that we previously caught. Let’s carry it together!”

“Tch, I didn’t expect you’d be good.” One of them sneered and strode to the other side. Soon, he came with the wild boar that Bai Xiao had handled.

Those several people then followed them all the way to the deep forest. On the way, Bai Xiao pulled Feng Jiu’s sleeves and winked, asking what to do next.

“What are you two talking about?” Someone was yelling in the back.

“My little brother is timid. I’m telling him not to be afraid. There are people protecting us here.” Feng Jiu turned around and smiled. Her dazzling smile made the big man muttered in a low voice.

As expected, she is a flower thief. Her face is more attractive than that of a woman.

With them leading at the front, those people went to the deepest part of the forest and walked along the array. Her eyes flickered. Actually, this place contained a large number of talents. The array here was cleverly arranged, which was totally out of her expectations.

“Who made this array? So clever?”

“Hey, I didn’t expect you to have quite a good taste. You can see the exquisiteness of this array at once?”

The big man behind grinned. “This is the Boss’ work. It’s because of this array that our activities in this area have become more and more comfortable. Moreover, those fierce beasts couldn’t catch us.”

“Oh? So that’s why! The Boss is the most powerful person in this area?” She asked.

“Here, people generally have the strength of the Great Spirit Master approximately. There are also those at the peak level Great Spirit Master. It seems that the boss is at that peak level. However, I heard that Xiang Hua is also here. His cultivation strength is not only above the Great Spirit Master, but also it is said that this man is vicious. The boss is trying to rope this man in.”

“Shut up! What are you trying to do, telling him that much?” A big man in front turned his head and yelled. He glared at the big man behind him.

“It’s all our own people. What’s the harm in talking?” Feng Jiu smiled in disapproval and followed them until an hour later, she passed the last array and finally saw burly men standing or sitting on both sides.

When those people saw two new faces, each one of them sized those two young men up, but most of their sights were fixed on the handsome young man in red.

Seeing that the young man was more beautiful than a woman, several big men’s eyes were jolting. They didn’t conceal their interests and just stared at Feng Jiu.

“We met them on the road, then caught and brought them back. The youngster in red said that he’s a flower thief.” The man leading the way in front answered, then asked, “Where’s the boss?”

Chapter 778: No offence

“You want to get these two youngsters to meet the boss? They look like weak chickens. Da Shan, why did you bring anyone to this place?”

The burly man, who just spoke, stood up and his eyes roved over Feng Jiu and Bai Xiao. His eyes flitted with interest from Bai Xiao then to the red-garbed and dazzling Feng Jiu.

“Youngster, so you’re the flower thief. With this kind of body, you’re taking others? Or are you taken by others? Hahahahaha...”

Hearing this, all the people around laughed loudly and their gazes fell on Feng Jiu’s body.

“You, you guys shouldn’t bully people too much!” Bai Xiao yelled in anger and glared at them with his fists clenched. But then he shrank cowardly beside Feng Jiu.

“So what if we’re bullying you? Don’t you know that all the newcomers have to be bullied?” The big man looked sideways at the two men and suddenly reached out his hand to lift Feng Jiu’s chin. “Don’t tell me about picking flowers. You see, even this face is more beautiful than the ladies...Hiss, ah!”

Before he finished teasing her, he suddenly gasped and screamed loudly. All the people around him stood up in succession.

They saw Feng Jiu was playing with the dagger in her hand. With slow and deliberate motion, she wiped the blood off the dagger. She stepped on a finger dripping with blood at her feet.

“Youngster, you’re looking for death!”

The big man shouted angrily. He endured the pain of his sliced off finger and clenched his other fist to attack Feng Jiu. His speed was so fierce, carrying the sound of the wind whirling. He had formidable strength.

Feng Jiu pushed Bai Xiao back, lifted her foot and kicked out. Her red figure flashed, leaving only a flit of cold light seen. The robust man fell to the ground in an instant.

Blood was seeping out of his neck and his body twitched on the ground. His eyes fixed on Feng Jiu. He wanted to talk, but nothing came out from his mouth. At last, he couldn’t breathe and his body turned stiff and completely dead.

Seeing that the young man attacked and killed a robust man at the Great Spirit Master level, those who wanted to go forward were hesitant. Their eyes were staring at her with vigilance.

All the people around who were laughing at her also calmed down and their eyes were fixed on him. Those gazes were filled with both astonishment and understanding.

Those big men who came with Feng Jiu were stunned. They came back to their senses after a long time. They recoiled and put some distance between them and Feng Jiu.

“Don’t be afraid. I won’t attack as long others don’t attack me first.”

She wiped the dagger with an innocuous smile. “I truly don’t like killing people, but sometimes no one listens to me. I can only hit directly. No offence.”

There was silence around. No one responded to her. They just stared at the young man in red as if they were watching a monster. They were all evil people and they had killed a lot of people.

At that moment, they knew very well that the horror of a man who took another’s life with a smile was far greater than that of any of them present.

When the crowd was silent and the atmosphere in the air became solemn and oppressive, the wooden door in the treehouse creaked open.

Hearing the sound of the wooden door opening, Feng Jiu raised her eyes and looked at the treehouse. When she saw the figure walked out, surprise flashed in her eyes.

Chapter 779: It's easier to invite god than to send him away

Feng Jiu previously thought that the one who could be called Boss by these robust men should have been a tall and sturdy man or a nefarious and bloodthirsty villain. However, the one who came out was far beyond her expectations.

It's a young man in his early twenties. He was dressed in a uniform – it was unknown from which Spirit division student at the Nebula Academy. His temperament seemed to be so gentle and harmless. His smiling eyes also gave off the same feeling. However, in Feng Jiu's eyes, he felt like a smiling tiger, a man with a big smile and evil intentions.

Those at the peak level Great Spirit Master seemed harmless but deadly. No wonder that this man could become these people's boss at a young age. Obviously, he couldn't sway these vicious people without some means.

"How should I call this distinguished guest?" The man stood on the treehouse and looked down arrogantly at the red-robed Feng Jiu.

Before Feng Jiu said anything, the man who led the way said in a hurry. "Boss, this kid said that he is some Flower Thief Jade Fox."

"Mm, that's correct. I'm a flower thief called Jade Fox." Feng Jiu nodded and smiled with her eyes narrowed to a crescent.

The man's eyes were gleaming with a smile. "This distinguished guest has no immoral or obscene breath, how can you be a flower thief? Please speak! Why did you look for us?"

Feng Jiu smiled when she heard this question. "That's incorrect. It's obvious that you're the one who took me here. How could you say that I'm looking for you?" As she spoke, she took a glance at those people who were leading the way here.

"Boss, we caught and brought them here after we met. If Boss finds them pleasing, we will drive them out." Those strong men spoke, worried that the boss atop the treehouse was angry. After all, his means still made people tremble.

"It's easier to invite god than to send him away. Now that he's here, do you think he'll leave easily?" The man cast a glance at the men with a smile, but his expression was murderous.

Feng Jiu couldn't help chuckling. "Don't worry, I don't want to trouble you, but I want your help finding a person."

She stopped speaking, turned around and saw the wild boar. "Look, I've even brought you a thank-you gift."

Everyone's mouth was twitching. A wild boar for a thank-you gift? This person was really rude.

Hearing this, the man on the treehouse smiled and asked, "Who are you looking for?"

"Xiang Hua." She looked back at the man.

"Xiang Hua, the Left Protector of the Law of Heavenly Dynasty Palace?" The man's eyes jolted. "How did you know he's here?"

"Of course, because I've met him before."

"May I ask, what do you want to do with Xiang Hua?"

"I'm lacking a supporting cast, why? Are you interested?" She looked at the young man jokingly. She was curious. How could this young man be caught and trapped here?

The man smiled. "You want Xiang Hua to support you? This distinguished guest is talking big."

He walked down the treehouse with a smile. "We've been looking for Xiang Hua for a while and we know where he is in the forest. However, it's not so easy to catch him. If you are interested, you can go with us to meet him tomorrow."

"Of course." She nodded. Then she told the two big man beside him, "Roast that wild boar."

"Tch! Why should we listen...listen to you?"

Chapter 780: Losing one's life for you

Before the big man finished speaking, he saw a sharp dagger was put on his neck. He saw a cold light from the corner of his eyes, making his entire body stiff. He stared at the young man in red with shock.

"I understand that here you use strength to speak. If you don't mind, can we exchange blows? Hmm?" Her indifferent voice seemed languid and harmless. However, people around her frowned and their eyes were filled with gravity.

They were all villains with hundreds of lives in their hands. Some of them took more than hundreds of lives. They were not afraid of death. However, no one would be willing to fall by the hand of a young man whose background was unknown.

The strong man obviously understood this. After being stiff for a moment, he took the wild boar and roasted it expressionlessly.

"What are you staring at me for?"

She raised her eyebrows and her eyes swept the crowd. After a glance, they either turned away or withdrew their gazes.

That man's eyes caught sight of the waist ornament half covered by the boy's red coat. After seeing the rainbow-coloured glazed feather, he asked, "Are you Nebula Academy's student? You must not be a mediocre person, seeing that you obtained one of the Sky Building's Three Treasures – the rainbow-coloured glazed feather."

"Recognizing my waist ornament at a glance, your eyes are not bad!" Feng Jiu chuckled and sat down at the stake beside the four-legged wooden table made from a tree stump. He took out the wine and two cups from the space.

"What about a drink?"

The man came to the table and sat down and Bai Xiao stood behind Feng Jiu. Those around the big man see the youngster took things out leisurely, looking confident and unafraid of being stared at. Each one of them seemed lost in thought.

"You are still young, how did you get here?" She poured a glass of wine and handed it over, asking casually.

"I was caught by some old people in the same faction." He picked up his cup and inhaled the fragrance. "I've been here for more than 2 years. This is the first time to smell this kind of wine fragrance."

Feng Jiu smiled. After a light sip, she spoke, "Perhaps you can consider it. If you follow me in the future, it's not a problem to live well."

"You've got a way to get me out of here?" His eyes flickered and he stared at the young man in front of him.

"Of course."

"So, do you have the academy's jade card?"

"That's correct."

She smiled, feeling that the big men who were originally sitting had stood up one by one, staring at her like a fierce tiger or a hungry wolf. She was no stranger to these savage plundering gaze.

That man sipped his wine and lowered his eyes. "You are very confident. I have no idea, do you really have confidence in your ability?"

Feng Jiu played with the wine cup and her lips curved in a smile. A wanton and evil look flashed in her eyes. "Perhaps you can try, just, there is no free trial here."

"If I lose, I'll be yours." As soon as the voice rang, the wine cup in the man's hand was shot to attack. At the same time, he flipped his palm over and a dagger materialized in his hand to attack Feng Jiu fiercely.

Feng Jiu tossed the wine cup up into the air. Spirit energy flew out between her raised hands and the breath of the invisible spirit moved like ripples of water, flinging the wine cup in the air. She reached out and clasped the dagger's grip, turned back, and dissolve the attack coming from his other hand. She lifted her foot and kicked out. The opponent's calf was aching and knelt on his knee.

Just when he was still trying to make a move, a weapon's ice-cold sensation was pressed against his neck...
