

The Girl He Craves by Demiah13

Chapter 4

Sophie's pov

A strange strangled gasp pushes out of my mouth when his warm lips meet my sensitive nub.

This, this was wrong.

We shouldn't have gone this far.

But instead of telling Aiden to stop, my hands capture his hair, and I found myself marveling at how soft his dark strands were.

A moan, so sharp yet breathless rolled out of my mouth as his wet tongue pushes out of his mouth and tickle my pussy lips.

My eyes, on their own fall down to stare between my thighs, and my breath hitches.

Because here was Aiden Xavier with his mouth on my pussy and his tongue swirling between my pussy lips.

My heart spikes and my hands tremble as I continue to look at him feast on my very sensitive flesh.

My bully was eating me out in the school's library!

I couldn't grasp on a good enough thought that would reveal to me exactly how we managed to find ourselves in this position. Everything that happened prior was almost like a blur.

How did we end up like this?

And when the thought comes into my head, Aiden's eyes which were closed, opens and our eyes connected.

Brown and blue connect, and everything around us just seems to be blurred out as all I can focus on were Aiden's eyes,

His lips leave my pussy slightly, his warm breath fanning against the throbbing part of my center. "You taste so good." He moaned, hands on my bottom squeezing as he pulls me closer to his mouth.

His tongue darts out and enters my hole. I gasp loudly, moaning his name which he seemed to love because he started to eat me even more.

My trembling fingers gripped his hair tighter as his eyes never left mine. "So sweet." He groans, slipping his tongue in deeper.

My pussy quivered, my stomach tightens and my breathing comes out like short pants as I try to control my breathing.

My heart, never had it beaten so quickly before.

Aiden continues to eat me out, groaning while he sucked me. He sucked my pussy lips in his mouth, moaning, and then let it go, only to push his tongue back into my hole.

I shuddered. "Aiden,

My thighs shook. The pleasure that courses through me was too powerful. Not able to take any more of it, my thighs were willing to shut, but Aiden had other plans

He's quick to grab a hold of my thighs and forces them to stay parted. And to make it worst, he suckled me harder and faster until I could no longer take the torture and my body gave up

I throw my palm over my mouth as a scream tore from my throat. My body convulses and my pussy weeps as it contracts and releases.

I was coming in my Aiden's mouth and he seemed to like it so much that he opens his lips and sucked my entire pussy dry.

My thighs shook, and my entire body trembles. When I thought it was over, Aiden quickly stands up and unbutton his jeans. He pushes it down and also pushes his briefs down to his thighs.

And then he comes jerking up. Huge and terrifying. He was also oddly beautiful.

I watch the veins that run along his length in fascination and gasp when his cock jerks as if saying hello to me.

Aiden settles back between my thighs, his cock gripped by his hand as he guides his massive head towards my tiny little pussy.

I squirm.

I had the chance to close my legs and I also had the chance to tell him no.

But somehow my voice had died at the back of my throat and strangely enough, I didn't want to stop.

No, I wanted him.

I wanted him badly.

I couldn't tell him to stop even though I knew I should.

Aiden groans when the head of his cock brushes my pussy lips, and he pushes in forward a little to part those said lips that tingled.

I moan when he starts to enter me slowly.

One of Aiden's hands reach behind my neck to hold me in place and forces me to look down at where we were connecting slowly.

"Look at us Sophie. Look at my cock stretching your little pussy." He grunts pushing in deeper and stretching me out.

I wince slightly. He was big and I was still a virgin.

"You're so fucking tight." He growls, rolling his hips when the head of his cock kisses my barrier. One more push and Aiden Xavier will take my virginity.

I should stop.

Why can't I stop?

Why can't we stop?

And then it happens. He thrust all the way in, breaking my hymen and locking us together. He was so deep. Really deep.

And the size of him...oh God. I'm stretched out to the maximum.

I let out a whimper as throbbing pain slices through me. If he wasn't so long and big perhaps I wouldn't be so much in pain. But he was. And he was stretching me out painfully.

*Oh luck." Aiden hisses, stopping his movements and leaving his very huge dick inside me.

"So fucking tight." He grills, the hand behind the back of my neck tightens firmly as his hips buck.

"Shit

i moan, wincing when his cock jerks and throbs inside me.

"You okay?" He asked, shocking me by actually sounding worried,

I looked up, my breathing coming out so harshly. I'm even more stunned by the worried look in his eyes. The first emotion I had ever seen he showed me other than anger and annoyance.

It feels strange to be stretched out so much. There was a slight burning pain but now it was becoming bearable. In fact, there was a slight tingle of pleasure that was quickly replacing the pain the longer he stayed inside me.

The feeling became so intense in a few more seconds that I was unable to hold back and tried to push my hips forward; taking more of his length that I thought was already inside me.

I gasp. How long was he?

"Sophie," Aiden growls, holding me steady. But I wanted something

I didn't know what exactly but that intense pleasure made me want more. "I want I stop, dropping my eyes down to stare at where we are connected. His entire cock was inside me now.

And it looked so good and felt good too.

"What do you want Sophie?" Aiden grunts, rolling his hips slightly. My lips part in a moan as his cock kisses every inch of my walls.

"I want

I lift my gaze to his eyes and when I saw the hunger in his eyes, I finished. "I want more. Give me more Aiden."

And Aiden does. He groans, pulling all the way until only his head was inside me, just being kissed by my lips until he pushes back in.

My walls tighten around him and he growls. "If you keep squeezing me like that I won't last, Sophie."

I gasp he tries to pull out only to get stopped by the gripping of my walls. 'Dammit, Soph!' He growls and reaches between us to start rubbing my pulsing nub.

I gasp and my pussy relaxes.

He slides out a little only to push back into me. Aiden glides inside me slowly and with the purpose to have my pussy quiver.

And it did.

I tried to hold in my cries as he fucked me slowly.

But then when our eyes connected, Aiden's actions became hasty. He starts thrusting inside me, barely making me catch my breath.

That's what you wanted right? You wanted me to fuck you? Look at me fucking you now Sophie." He growled, forcing my head to lower so that my eyes can watch him pull out and enter me.

'Aiden" i pant

Sophie." He growled and then in a second his lips were on mine and his tongue was inside my mouth.

His hips push forward, his cock stretching me. The head of cock was so deep inside me that I wasn't sure exactly where he touched.

"That's right. Take all of me, Sophie." He grunts on my lips as one of his hands comes to cup my breast over the material of my dress and bra He squeezes it while groaning "Fuck." He growled, thrusting into me harder. His breathing was labored as he fed me his cock over and over. My toes curled, my thighs tightened around his hips and then it happens.

I call out his name so many times as my walls clamp around him, squeezing him so tightly that he could no longer move. I feel him pulse inside me as I came around him.

Stars fluttered in my vision and the sound of Aiden's loud growl had me latching onto his voice to keep me present.

"Fu-ck!" He grunts, quickly pulling out of me when my walls finally loosened around him a little.

Seconds later I felt warmth on my pussy and looked down to see that it was his release. He slaps his cock on my pussy, grunting as he continued to spurt out the creaminess of his release on my sensitive flesh.

His forehead land on mine and he shook his head as he shuddered. "Fuck Sophie." He whispered and pecked my lips. When he wasn't satisfied, he kissed me slowly.

When he stops and takes a step back, that's when reality hit me. I looked down at myself and saw a little blood and then when I looked at him, I saw a little bit of blood on his cock too.

I had just given my bully my virginity.

Gulping in shame and confused as hell, I waited for him to move away from me completely to start putting on his jeans. When he does, jump off the desk, wincing slightly at the pain in between my thighs.

I bend down to grab my ruined lacy panties and then quickly grab my bag. I don't look back as I run out of there despite the protest of my vagina.

I hear his shouts but don't look back or stop.
