

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 1121-1130

Chapter 1121 You Finally Called Me

He got a sense of safety when he was with Gloria?

Jordy looked even paler!

Gloria was in front of him, looking at him. Seeing his expression keep changing, she was puzzled. She paused for a moment, seemed to realize something, looked at him, and said, "Are you worried about grandma?"

Jordy came out of his trance and said calmly, "No, as long as you are here."

Gloria looked away and said calmly, "Go back. I will do my best."

She let him in for the sake of grandma. She had no interest in talking to him at the thought of what happened in the day.

Jordy had a complicated expression. He seemed to be unaware of Gloria's displeasure. Then he got up directly and walked out.

He didn't want to stay. It didn't feel very good.

It was quiet in the room again. Gloria was surprised that he left directly but it was good for her.

Then they had a peaceful night.

The next day.

They got up, got washed, and ate breakfast as usual. They did not choose to stay any longer but left.

They couldn't keep monitoring Karen here. Karen should have some symptoms these days, but she was doing just fine. Gloria was relieved.

At the moment, Angela was working in the company. Although she was having a hard time... she insisted on working here. If she left here, other companies might not hire her. The main reason was that she couldn't stand the scathing satires from the people of other companies.

At least her dad had a say in this company. She could loaf on the job here, otherwise, she couldn't make a living if she lost the job.

She looked at the spreadsheet on the computer. She had to deal with the work even though she was really upset. She had lost the treatment she once had and was no longer the manager. Now she was a small clerk, who had to deal with some boring work every day and even was picked on by other employees.

Moreover, she no longer had her personal office but worked in a large office with the others. Many people talked about her behind her occasionally.

Angela lowered her head and became more and more upset. Why? Why did it become like this?

Gloria, that bitch!

Damn it!

Sooner or later, she would make Gloria pay! She would make her die a very unpleasant death!

Angela wiped the coldness and menace off her eyes and took a deep breath. Her mobile phone suddenly vibrated, and she found that it was the virtual number. She immediately got up and walked to the public bathroom outside.

The others thought she was just going to the bathroom. In fact...

She went to a place where no one else was around and answered the phone. After a light breath, she said, "You finally called me."

For the past two days, she had been trying to contact the mysterious person behind her, but she couldn't get in touch with her. Her phone was hung up every time she called. She was worried and anxious, but she didn't know how to deal with it.

The person on the other side of the phone just sneered. It was still a little girl's sweet voice, but Angela only felt uncomfortable hearing her voice.

Chapter 1122 She Was the Superior

"You should stay patient."

Hearing the extremely calm voice, Angela almost got angry!

It didn't happen to her, so she wasn't worried at all!

Anyone would be worried and anxious if things like that happened to them! Gloria put her in such a situation and could make her desperate at any time, but the sweet voice wasn't being helpful at all.

Would she really be worried only when she was in deep trouble?

Angela took a deep breath and calmed herself down. The sweet voice was her last straw. She must seize it.

After a pause, Angela took another deep breath and asked, "What should I do now?"

She knew that the sweet voice had already figured out what she should do next before contacting her.

The sweet voice smiled, "You will receive interviews from journalists in the next three days. Don't worry. They are all arranged by me, and three days later..."

The sweet voice suddenly sneered. Angela subconsciously gripped her cell phone as if she were nervous and had a bad premonition. The sweet voice didn't continue. Angela was anxious, "Then what?"

"You'll know three days later. Just do what I told you."

Then, the sweet voice told her what she would do in the next three days. Angela looked paler and paler, "What? You want me to..."

Angela did not know how to finish her words, and her eyes were filled with disbelief.

The sweet voice snorted coldly, "Now that you have guessed it, do as I say. You don't have other choices, do you?"

Angela took a breath in panic and shook her head subconsciously, "I can't..."

Before she finished speaking, the sweet voice had lost patience and said, "You can only do this. If you don't, I will have to give up on you."

The sweet voice hung up the phone after saying that, leaving Angela no chance to speak. Angela turned paler, holding the mobile phone to stiffly.

"What are you doing here?" A slightly serious female voice suddenly rang behind her, which drew Angela's attention back. Angela quickly put away her mobile phone and turned around.

When Angela saw that it was her superior, her expression changed slightly and she responded, "I answered a call."

When she said this, she sized the woman up in front of her. Did she hear anything just now?

This woman was called Sydney, and used to be her subordinate. Sydney admired Gloria, so she always picked on her before. She knew that Sydney didn't like her, but she did not care and even made things difficult for her, because she was her superior in the company back then.

Now... Things had changed. Sydney became her superior. She knew that Gloria did this on purpose. Gloria just wanted her to be Sydney's subordinate. Life was hard!

But she wouldn't give up! Even if it was difficult, she would overcome it!

Sydney threw the folder in her hand to Angela. Angela unconsciously caught it. But when she responded, she turned extremely pale!

Chapter 1123 The Reporters Suddenly Appeared

Why didn't she just dodge, but catch what Sydney threw at her?

But before she could think about it, Sydney's cold voice sounded in her ears, "You answered the phone over working time. You are incompetent!"

Angela looked paler. She was never insulted like this before!

Sydney didn't dare to fight back even when she picked on her!

Sydney looked at Angela in front of her with a sneer. She had the pride of getting back at Angela on her face. She was in a working suit, slim and curvaceous. Angela didn't like her figure back then.

Then Sydney smiled at her and continued, "I hope you can reflect on this. This document will be handled and given to me this evening. If you can't do it, you'll leave your position."

Angela looked at her coldly, "Sydney, I know that you are my superior, and you have the right to do this, but you can't abuse your power."

Sydney immediately sneered, "You'll see if I'm really abusing my power."

After saying that, Sydney turned around and left without even looking at her.

Angela relaxed a little. Sydney picked on her like this, so she probably didn't hear what she just said on the phone.

She gripped the folder in her hand as resentment flashed across her eyes. Sooner or later, she would get back at her!

Angela walked back, and she felt a lot worse at the thought of what the sweet voice told her.

Should she do as that woman said every time?

What should she do after she did that three days later?

And could she really hurt Gloria by doing that?

Would Gloria really be criticized by the public?

Angela scratched her head in a fret. She took a deep breath, and walked to the office.

It was time to leave work soon.

Angela did her best and finally finished the work Sydney gave her.

She picked up

her

purse and walked out tiredly.

But...

Before she got to the underground parking lot, she was surrounded by a group of reporters.

Angela's eyes turned slightly, and she walked in another direction, but the reporters surrounded her quickly. Angela couldn't get rid of them at all.

The reporters didn't care what she was thinking. Someone had already spoken with a microphone. "Miss White, I'm sorry to waste your precious time. We have several questions for you."

Angela frowned and wanted to leave, but she could not move a step forward at all. She could only say to them irritably, "There's nothing worth digging on me. Why don't you interview the real stars?”

“Miss White, we’ll make this quick. It’s about your mother’s going to prison. Miss White, why did your mother kill your uncle?”

Angela’s uncle was Gloria’s father.

Martha was Declan’s sister-in-law. However, she actually did such a thing. It made people ponder and the reporters were also curious.

Angela turned pale instantly. At this moment, she didn’t seem irritated at all.

Chapter 1124 She Finally Made a Move

“Don’t talk nonsense. My mother didn’t kill my uncle!” Angela seemed to get a chance to clarify. She said directly, “My uncle was suffering from a terminal disease back then, and there was no cure for it. He was suffering every day and he begged my mother to put some pain relief herbs in the food. My mother asked the doctor about the herbs, and was told that those herbs would hasten people’s death! How could my mother listen to my uncle? She couldn’t do that!”

“But the court has already sentenced your mother, which proves that your mother did it. Why are you still lying?” The reporter’s questions as trappy.

Angela looked very painful. She took a light breath and shook her head, “No! It’s not like that! My mother didn’t agree, but my uncle kept begging her to do that. My uncle was in great pain every day, which was beyond ordinary people’s endurance. Do you understand?”

“So you mean your mother had to help your uncle even though she didn’t want to, right?” The reporter asked.

Angela nodded, “Yes, how could my mother do such a thing readily? She just accommodated my uncle.”

The interview continued, and the reporters were still asking some trappy questions.

After some people pulled strings, Angela’s interview became a trending topic.

After dinner, people were all on Twitter. Some people cursed Angela after they saw the interview, and Gloria’s fans also commented that Angela was out of her mind. They couldn’t believe that she was still trying to whitewash her mother’s crime.

But...

Some people were pretending to be Gloria's fans and made up some stories that were unfavorable to Gloria.

Then...

Something was wrong.

Gloria had just come out of the shower, and her mobile phone kept ringing. She walked out without blowing her hair.

It was Nydia. She answered it immediately.

Nydia's slightly worried voice sounded before she could speak, "What are you doing? I've called you so many times."

"What's the matter? I was taking a bath." Gloria put Nydia on the speaker and wiped her hair with a towel.

"Angela is the trending topic. It doesn't feel right. I guess she had people done this on purpose. It has a very bad influence on you. Just have a look!"

Gloria's eyes turned slightly. Angela finally made a move?

These days, she was busy with grandma's illness and didn't have time to deal with Angela. Moreover, she was waiting for her to make a move. After all, there was a mysterious person behind

"OK, I'll have a look."

4

Gloria freed up a hand and clicked into Twitter. Angela's interview had been subtitled, so she watched it directly without putting it on landscape mode.

After watching it, she glanced at the comments as a cold look flashed across her eyes.

Nydia said anxiously again, "Have you finished? I think this is just the beginning. She will make other waves. Be careful!"

After all, Angela and her family were so vicious. They could even kill people. Nydia was really afraid that they would hurt Gloria again.

Chapter 1125 What Are You Going to Do?

Gloria responded, "I will. Relax, okay?"

"I can't! They are a bunch of bastards!" Nydia said angrily, "They hurt you so many times and even tried to kill you. I'm really worried that they will do something crazy again. After all, you have sent Martha to prison. What if they..."

Nydia didn't dare to continue. She was afraid that what she said would come true, and she didn't want to put such a curse on her best friend.

"I know. Don't worry. I won't let them get what they want." Gloria said calmly, as if she had got prepared for everything.

But Nydia was more worried. She felt something was wrong.

"Alas... Angela and her parents are so vicious! What do you think they are up to this time?"

Gloria looked calm, "I don't know, but I can cope with what they will do. Don't worry."

Gloria had asked Nydia not to worry about her repeatedly. Nydia sighed and could only say, "Alright, be careful. How are you doing in the company? I knew you were busy, so I didn't ask you about it."

Gloria smiled, "Everything is fine. Your uncle helped me a lot. I have no problem in the company."

Nydia smiled, "Hahaha, good! You are excellent enough. Although my uncle seems to be soft-hearted, he is actually the most difficult to get along with, especially in the company. Few people can make him change his mind, but he supports you in every way and listen to you. Gloria, you are really awesome. I'm so proud of you!"

"Come on, he did that for the sake of my father." Gloria was still wiping her hair and was going to dry it later.

“Oh, come on!” Nydia said with disapproval, “Don’t be so modest. My uncle has praised you many times in front of me. He has been telling me how excellent you are and asking me to learn from you. Oh... I really admire you! How can you be so capable? You are good at so many things!”

Gloria smiled helplessly, “I’m just interested in them. What are you doing now?”

“I’m already in bed! I have a sore back after working all day. When can I be the boss?”

Gloria frowned, “It’s easy. Go back home and outshine the two children of your stepmother. Then you can take over your family business.”

“Heh heh...” Nydia sneered and said, “Forget it. I’m not interested in my family business. I won’t take it even if they give it to me directly.”

Gloria knew how much Nydia detested the Maguire family, but she still persuaded her, “You can’t just give things that belong to you to others. Besides, they never think of you as their sister.”

Nydia’s stepmother and her two children always looked at Nydia as if they were looking at an outsider, and they always guarded against Nydia. Nydia shouldn’t just ignore it.

Light flickered in Nydia’s eyes, “What are you going to do? To help me get it back?”

Gloria answered, “You’ll go back to the Maguire family after I’m done with what’s on my plate. What do you think?”

Chapter 1126 Her Only Family and develop

“Eh...” Nydia said with disgust, “Forget it! I won’t do that! The last thing I want in my life is to go back to my family! I don’t want to get involved with them. I can live well, make my own career by myself. It’s good not to see them.”

money,

For Nydia, the Maguire family was no longer her safe haven. She was an outsider when she was there. Why would she go back? To make a fool of herself?

“We’ll talk about this another day.” Gloria said. Nydia said yes, and Gloria continued, “I need to blow my hair. Bye.”

“Okay, be careful and safe, okay?” Nydia said with concern.

“Good night.”

Then they hung up.

After Gloria blew her hair, she went back to her room to rest.

Three days passed by.

Gloria went to the Collins family’s old mansion every day these days.

At the moment, she was in the old mansion, chatting with Karen. They just had dinner.

Joseph wanted to stay in the living room, but after Karen threatened and warned him by winking at him several times, he had to go to the study. In fact, he wanted to talk to Gloria.

But...

He knew that he had no chance to do that in the current situation.

But... he ran out of his patience after staying in the study for half an hour. He walked out directly. Karen saw him go out and asked with a puzzled look, “Where are you going?”

“I’m taking a walk.” Joseph said without looking back.

He usually went out for a walk after dinner. Karen didn’t doubt that. She turned around and continued to talk to Gloria with a smile.

She was in a very good condition and didn’t look like a person who had cancer. Gloria also found that her condition was much better than before by feeling her pulse, which was a relief.

After talking with Karen for more than half an hour, Gloria said with a smile, “Grandma, it’s getting late. I should go back now.”

Karen looked at the time and was surprised, “Oh, it’s over eight...”

Gloria smiled, while Karen was reluctant to let her go, "Okay, I guess you'll be in bed at ten. You came to see me every day these days and might have delays in your work. You don't need to come to see me every day. I know you are a filial child."

Gloria smiled, "I don't have much to do recently. You don't want to see me?"

"Nonsense! How could I not want to see you? You have taken over the White Group and become its chairman. You must have a lot of things to deal with. Don't wear yourself out, okay? You can come to see me after you stabilize the company."

A touched look flashed across Gloria's eyes. Grandma really cared about her. If she couldn't cure her, it would be a lifelong regret for her. Her father had been dead for a long time. Now, grandma was her only family.

She couldn't bear watching her die.

Gloria took a breath, suppressed her sadness, and nodded, "I see. I'm leaving then."

"Okay."

Then Karen got up and was about to walk her out.

Chapter 1127 What Are the Odds?

Gloria stopped Karen quickly, "Grandma, it's late. You don't have to walk me out. I drove here today, and I can go back by myself. It's alright."

"You'll go back alone? Well..."

"It's still light out." Gloria smiled softly, "It's okay. If you come out with me, I will be worried."

"Oh, I will only walk you to the yard. Don't worry about me!" Karen got up directly and followed Gloria out.

Gloria couldn't stop her, so she winked at the servants and let them follow Karen.

Karen was in a great mood. She watched Gloria get in the car and left before going back.

Gloria drove down the mountain all the way, but when she reached an intersection, a black car blocked her way. Gloria slowly stopped her car.

When she was wondering who it was, the driver's door in front of her suddenly opened, and then she saw a familiar figure.

Gloria was surprised. Joseph?

He... he stopped her on purpose?

Gloria paused for a moment and got out of the car slowly.

Joseph looked at Gloria with a very complicated look. Looking at her candid eyes, Joseph was somewhat guilty. He took a deep breath, and then said, "I'm sorry to stop you here. I need a few minutes of your time."

Joseph's tone was polite but stiff.

After all, he had never been so humble in front of anyone except Gloria. No, he also spoke in such a humble tone in front of Karen.

However, Gloria was surprised by his attitude. She even felt flattered.

It was not easy for the chairman of the Collins Group to speak to the woman he hated in such a tone.

"What can I do for you?" Gloria stood in situ and stared at Joseph in front of her.

Joseph took a light breath and looked around. After he was sure there was no one else around, walked up to Gloria and whispered, "What's Karen's situation now?"

he

Gloria's eyes turned slightly and she suddenly raised her eyes at him with disbelief, "You..."

Joseph curled his lip and then said helplessly, "I already know. Jordy told me what happened."

Gloria frowned. He knew grandma had cancer? What exactly did he know?

However, she couldn't ask this question. She was afraid that grandpa would be suspicious. If Jordy only told him a part of the story and grandpa got the whole story from her, grandpa would be more worried.

Joseph seemed to have guessed something, and immediately said, "I know everything about your grandma's illness, and I know that you will treat her illness. And I know..."

At this point, Joseph sighed, "You are Orycho."

He said these words in a stiffer tone, and he still couldn't accept the fact that Gloria was Orycho, but now everything showed that it was true. He also knew that Jordy would not make such a joke in this situation.

Joseph sized Gloria up in front of him. Although Jordy had told him that Gloria could solve the problem, he still wanted to ask her in person, "So what are the odds?"

Chapter 1128 You Can Rest Assured

Light flickered in Gloria's eyes slightly.

The odds...

She didn't know. Up to now, she hadn't told Jordy or Carlos that she was 100% sure that she could cure Karen.

However, she didn't say that in front of Joseph.

Since Jordy had told Joseph about this, it proved that he had told Joseph that grandma could be cured and that she was Orycho and could cure her.

If she told Joseph she was not sure, Joseph would be worried and even fall sick for this. People often got sick but the diseases caused by emotional problems were more dreadful.

Otherwise, there wouldn't be many healthy people who died just because they thought they had cancer.

“Why aren’t you... saying something?” Gloria took a few more seconds to think about it, and Joseph was worried and anxious, so he asked this directly.

Gloria came out of her trance and whispered, “I’m not sure whether it will take a few months or a year to cure her, so I can’t make any promise to you.”

Joseph’s eyes brightened, “You mean you can cure her?”

Gloria had very complicated emotions, but she said calmly, “Yes, I was just thinking how long it would take to cure her

In fact, Gloria had just given Joseph the answer that Karen could be cured within one year.

Joseph naturally realized this. His mood was much better than before.

And he didn’t know what to say.

When Jordy told him that before, he was skeptical. Even if he knew Jordy was telling him the truth, he still had doubts.

But after he heard Gloria’s words, his doubts seemed to be dispelled. He felt much better.

He didn’t know how to express his feelings or what to say.

After a pause,

he looked at Gloria as if he had come to his senses, “Well... then I’ll leave Karen in your capable hands.”

Gloria nodded, “No problem.”

She had never been on good terms with Joseph, so she didn’t intend to talk to him too much.

Otherwise, she would only be annoying.

But Gloria was wrong. Joseph didn’t think she was annoying, but wanted her to talk to him about Karen’s condition.

Joseph sighed and said helplessly, "I'm really sorry that I always picked on you before. If it weren't for you, Karen might not have had a chance of surviving. I..."

Joseph didn't know how to continue.

Gloria felt flattered, but she shook her head calmly, "You don't have to apologize. Sometimes people don't need a reason to hate and like a person. You can rest assured that I don't want Jordy, and I won't be with him, let alone fight Rachel for the position of the young hostess of the Collins family."

To tell the truth, she didn't want to get involved with Jordy at all.

If it weren't for grandma, she wouldn't have come.

After saying this, she added, "You can rest assured of that."

Joseph was speechless.

He opened his mouth but didn't know what to say. When he...

Chapter 1129 Is Something Wrong with the App?

When he was about to say something else, Gloria suddenly said, "Is there anything else? If not, I'm leaving. It's late."

Joseph quickly shook his head and said, "Oh... No. Thank you for your time."

He said in a somewhat humble tone, but he didn't notice it. He just wanted to please Gloria and let her cure Karen readily.

Gloria looked at Joseph in surprise, and she was a little relieved. Although Joseph was mean to her, he was always nice to grandma. Otherwise, he would not have talked to the person he hated so much with such a tone and attitude.

He really looked... humble.

This wasn't something he would do in the past.

Gloria didn't say anything, but just nodded, "Then I'm leaving."

"OK, be safe." Joseph paused and said these words.

He didn't say anything else but just watched Gloria drive away.

In a twinkling of an eye...

Three days passed, and Angela took action as the mysterious woman told her.

At this moment, she was on the top of the building.

This building was not high, only seven floors.

And she stood above the seventh floor.

She had put her mobile phone on the phone holder and her whole person could be seen in the phone.

No one else was here, so she could make a good show here.

Angela clicked the button to start her live stream, and the background was dreary.

This thing was deliberately hyped and pushed to people's phones, so more than 100,000 people came to watch her live stream within a few minutes.

The comments were all question marks.

-Cynthia, [What's going on? Is this Angela?]

-Janet, (i guess it's her, but she doesn't do live streams, does she? She's desperate, so she's going to make herself an influencer? She has never been an influencer. Can she do this?]

However, as soon as Janet sent that, she immediately typed something else,

-Janet, [What? More than 100,000 people are watching this? Is something wrong with my eyes? Is something wrong with this app?]

-Patricia, [I thought so at first, but nothing was wrong with it.]

-Janet, [Shoot! This is amazing! How could she attract so many people to watch this?]

-Patricia, [Maybe she spent money on this?]

-Paula, [It's possible! Is she going to make a scene? I'll stay. Maybe there will be some surprises.]

-Janet, [Tut]

People sent comments to the live stream one after another. Angela, while pretending to be sad, also read these comments. She was angry, gnashing her teeth, but she could only hide it. She took a deep breath and looked at the audience sadly again.

“Guys, this is my first and last live stream. Although the world is beautiful, I have no reason to live in the world anymore.”

-Cynthia, [What is going on? What the hell is she talking about?]

-Janet, [This is just a V. She was beaten down by Gloria and is inferior to Gloria in every way. I used to think she was a noble young lady, but now she's finished. She is pretending to be pitiful and trying to attract attention.]

Chapter 1130 Extremely Pitiful

The audience didn't know what Angela was up to.

But they didn't leave. After all, there was going to be something fun.

Those who supported Gloria wanted to see what Angela was going to do so that they could help Gloria solve the problem in time. People who wanted to watch this didn't leave, either.

In a word... Angela's live room was becoming more and more lively. Tens of thousands of people came to the live room within tens of seconds when she paused, and 200,000 people were watching her live stream!

Few people could attract so many people to their live rooms, but Angela did it.

Angela started her speech again while the audience was sending question marks in her live room.

“I know that many of you hate me very much, and want me to disappear from this world, and never hurt others again but... I am innocent. Can you believe me once?”

Angela had tears, sadness and hopelessness in her eyes.

But... the comments were basically insults to her.

-Gregory, [Heh, are you kidding? You have done so many evil things, and now you are pretending to be pitiful? You think anyone can win sympathy like this? It needs ability, okay?]

-Hailey, [What a shameless bitch! I can't believe this. Is it funny to do this?]

-Gregory, [She's pitiful. No matter what she has done before, she has been punished. Would you stop cursing her? She is already desperate. If you keep doing this, she would kill herself! No matter what evil things she has done before, it is the past. If she is really wrong, the law will punish her. Can you stop pushing her to the cliff? If she is really dead, what good will it do to you?]

-Janet, [Bullshit! I'm not a fool, okay? You hurt Gloria so many times, and your mother even killed Gloria's father. Why are you and your parents so vicious? Go to hell. Only when you die can the world really quiet down and Gloria really live a happy life. Otherwise, you'll hurt her secretly again! You should go to hell!]

These comments insulted, abused and condemned Angela. A few people defended her, but their comments were drowned by other comments. Even... Angela did not see the comments defending her.

Angela took a deep breath and tried her best to suppress her anger. She continued to look at the screen with sad eyes and smiled gently, "I know you all want me to die. Don't worry. I will. This is the last time I talk to you. Can you give me a chance? You know... Men who are about to die are very honest, right?"

Then Angela's tears suddenly rolled down her cheeks and she looked extremely pitiful.

Some people who wanted to scold her suddenly stopped, as if they didn't expect that Angela would

But some people just sent sneer emoji and continued to condemn her. Angela almost blew her top after seeing that.
