

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 1131-1140

Chapter 1131 You Are Trying to Argue?

These people were so annoying!

When did they all become Gloria's lackeys? When was Gloria so good at winning people over?

They were really mean and cruel!

Angela wished she could cut Gloria and these people into pieces! She wanted them to disappear from the world forever!

Anyone who was against her must die! Die!

She was more hysterical than ever.

But she didn't know how to deal with the current situation.

Now she could only be that mysterious woman's gun and do as she said. She didn't know who she would become after this...

Angela closed her eyes. The audience thought she was just trying to suppress her sadness.

But... in fact, she was just trying to suppress her anger.

The next moment, Angela raised her hand, wiped the tears from her face, and smiled again at the audience, "I did this to say goodbye and to tell you what happened in this period of time."

The audience was still scolding her. Angela's live stream was pushed to users of all kinds of apps, so users of other social media apps also knew she was doing a live stream.

Even George, who was playing the game, saw the push.

He was puzzled. Angela was doing a live stream? What the hell?

Instead of quitting the game, he logged on to the live stream app with another phone. When he opened it, he saw Angela's sad face immediately. George sneered. What was she up to again?

George clicked into it. Angela had a history with Gloria and Jordy. He didn't want her to slander his friend, so he wanted to see what she was going to do.

However, George was still beating his enemy in the game with his ultimate skill. He occasionally glanced at the other phone. Angela's pale and dry lips opened and closed.

"You thought I pretended to be a vegetable and deceived Jordy. Jordy was so powerful and rich, and was the best of the best among the young elites in the country. How could he be fooled by me?"

-Cynthia, [You indeed pretended! The evidence is here, and you still want to argue?]

-Janet, [I also have doubts about that. Was Jordy such a fool? He was deceived by you for so long? Although I don't like you, I do have some doubts.]

George frowned and snorted coldly. Of course Jordy wasn't a fool. But at that time, he hated Gloria the most. How could he notice that Angela was pretending? He thought that Gloria might give up on him because of Angela. At that time, he trusted the White family and did not look into Angela's accident. Who knew that the whole thing was just Angela's show?

George continued with his game, and Angela's sad voice sounded again.

"I couldn't fool him at all. It's just that he was sick of me and didn't want to marry me, a vegetable. Although I loved him, I knew I would never marry him. I am not worthy of such an excellent man."

You Are Trying to Arman?

Chapter 1132 Stop Insinuating Things!

-Cynthia, (You are never worthy of him, okay? What are you? You and your parents were once so humble that everyone looked down upon you. If it were not for Gloria's father, how could you gain your current status and even have the chance to speak in front of us? What makes you think you can talk about that here?)

George sneered. What Cynthia said made sense.

Angela said, as if she didn't see those comments, "So, I've figured it out. I'm not worthy of him and I am not qualified to be with him. I came to this situation because I deserved it. I don't blame Gloria for what she did to me, nor Jordy for not believing me. I know this is my fate."

Angela smiled sadly.

But the audience got the point.

-Cynthia, [Wait, what do you mean by that? You don't blame Gloria for what she did to you? She was the one who has been bullied by you all the time, okay? What could she do to you? Stop insinuating things!]

-Janet, [No, it sounds like there were bad feelings between them. They didn't get along? They were secretly against each other?]

said.

Irony flashed across Angela's eyes. This was what she wanted to see.

She did this live stream for making Gloria suspicious. If these people missed the point in her words, her efforts would be in vain.

After a pause, she continued, "I know you want to know some details, but I can't tell you too much. Things have become like this, and I don't want to talk too much about it.

Maybe I was born to be a mistake, and no one will think that I will hurt Gloria after I die.

Maybe Gloria's life will be much better without me. I am... bound to be a burden. I and Gloria...

At this point, Angela cried harder. She took a deep breath and sobbed, "I hope that we can really be sisters with the same parents in the next life. Gloria, I really want to have a sister like you. I'm really proud of you!"

-Cynthia, [Is she telling the truth?]

-Janet, [Is she really going to commit suicide?]

-Janet, [She's lying! She is just trying to win sympathy from men? See? Someone has begun to sympathize with her.]

Angela suppressed her anger and forced her to ignore the unkind comments. She looked at the camera and said sadly, "Don't worry. I... I will disappear. I will never upset you or Gloria again. My world has always been dark, and there has never been any light. The only light has been wiped out at the beginning. Guys, I'm here to say goodbye to you. Goodbye, friends."

"It doesn't matter even if you don't treat me as a friend, because I treat you as my friends, and... I will disappear forever, and I will never upset any of you again. Gloria, if you see this, I hope that you can... stop hating me and accept me again. If you want, we'll be sisters in the next life!"

Chapter 1133 Live with a New Identity?

"Oh God! Damn it! This is infuriating!"

Nydia threw away her mobile phone, and she wished she could rush to Angela and tear her into pieces.

Jennifer was sitting beside her with anger in her eyes. She said, "This woman is good at making a scene!"

Nydia said, gritting her teeth, "You heard what she said. She was insinuating that Gloria was mean to her and hurt her and that she would commit suicide because of Gloria. Gloria forced her to do this. She wanted Gloria to be condemned by the public!"

Jennifer frowned, "What is her trick? Is she really going to commit suicide?"

"How could she do that? She's so afraid to die and only wants others to die. How could she commit suicide?" Nydia sneered.

Jennifer nodded, and looked at Nydia with a hesitant look, "I know. I mean, she is going to pretend to commit suicide, or she just wanted someone else to save her after she commits suicide?"

Nydia froze for a moment. After a pause, she said with hesitation, "They are both possible."

Jennifer saw Angela still shedding tears. Angela was like building up her sadness and waiting for the others to take pity on her. She said coldly, "She is building up her sadness and despair, so that all these people can see how pitiful she is. Then they would feel more sympathy for her when she commits suicide."

"What a bitch!" Nydia gritted her teeth and picked up her phone, "I need to tell Gloria about this. We don't know what crazier things Angela might do. We must tell her to get prepared.”

Jennifer nodded, “I will send the live stream we have recorded to her.”

“Hmm.”

Nydia called Gloria directly and she immediately opened her mouth when Gloria answered it. “Gloria, check your mobile phone. If you are not busy, watch the video that Jennifer has just sent you!”

“It’s about Angela?”

Hearing Gloria’s calm voice, Nydia was a little surprised, and then she opened her mouth quietly, “Yes, you... have seen it?”

“Yes, I’m watching her live stream.” Gloria’s expression was very calm, and no other emotions could be seen on her face.

Nydia suddenly became angrier, “What is that bitch going to do? She wants to discredit you and let everyone blame you?”

Nydia froze for an instant, “What do you mean?”

Jennifer took Nydia’s mobile phone and put Gloria on the speaker. Then she could hear her more clearly and talk to her more easily.

Then she said, “Gloria, you mean she... wants to live with a new identity?”

“I guess.” Gloria’s voice was as calm as ever, but Nydia was confused.

She gripped her cell phone and said, “What does that mean? What the hell is that bitch going to do?”

Light flickered in Jennifer’s eyes. She hesitated for a moment, and told them her conjecture, “I guess... she might want to live with a new identity. She commits suicide. and lets people believe that she has disappeared. She is doing this just to Gloria.

upset

Chapter 1134 She Doesn’t Cherish Her Own Life!

“What?” Nydia was still confused. She looked at Jennifer with a puzzled look, “What do you mean?”

“I mean, her real purpose is to change her identity. She would commit suicide and make the public believe she has disappeared. The public would think Gloria is the reason why Angela kills herself. Then they would give Gloria a hard time.”

“What new identity will she have?” Nydia was confused. She no longer cared about Angela’s insinuation but only wanted to know her real purpose.

Jennifer’s eyes turned. She looked at Nydia’s mobile phone and then looked at the length of the call, “Gloria, what are you going to do?”

“Let’s see what she will do first.” Gloria responded and didn’t say anything else.

Jennifer immediately asked, “You mean we’ll figure out her new identity first?”

“Hmm.”

“Look! She’s going to kill herself!” As soon as Nydia finished speaking, they looked at Angela in the live stream.

“Goodbye, friends. If I can’t make this quick, the police will come to rescue me. Goodbye for the last time.”

After saying that, Angela jumped off the building directly without reading the comments at all!

“Shoot! She really jumped off the building!” Nydia’s voice was filled with disbelief.

Light flickered in Jennifer’s eyes, and she snorted coldly, “If she wants to live with a new identity, she has to make this look real. Maybe there’s already a fake corpse below.”

Gloria looked relaxed and analyzed it calmly, “It is possible. She must have got everything prepared before she carried out her plan.”

Nydia bit her teeth, “I wish she would really fall to her death!”

“How’s that possible... Look at these comments. Some people sympathize with her.” Nydia showed an ironic smile.

While they were talking about this, they looked at the comments.

-Hailey, (Damn it! She really did this!]

-Cynthia, [Oh my god! Is she really crazy? She actually committed suicide! A living dog is better than a dead lion!]

-Cynthia, [Call 911!]

-Hailey, [I have!]

-Cynthia, [The police often receive false reporting. We need more people to call 911, or they won't believe it.]

-Hailey, [Although we saw her jumping off the building, who knows what's the situation downstairs! Maybe it's just her show again.]

-Riley, [Are you serious? You have seen that but you are still talking about whether it is true or not? Is that so important? It's a life! If you guys hadn't scolded her like that, she wouldn't have done this, and you could have saved her!]

-Riley, [If she is really dead, all of you who scolded her today are murderers! Are you satisfied now? Huh?]

-Hailey, [Are you serious? She made such a scene. We don't even know whether it is a real suicide or not. And you actually said that we were murderers? She decided her own life and death. No one should be blamed for her death, let alone she might not die! She didn't cherish her own life!]

Chapter 1135 Don't Let Her Win!

Comments popped out one after another. Gloria was not interested in reading them anymore, and the live stream was already over.

She said directly, "I will keep an eye on the follow-up. You don't need to worry about me."

"Mm-hmm. You must be careful. Don't let her win!" Nydia reminded her repeatedly and was afraid that something would happen to Gloria.

Gloria curled her lip, "OK."

Then they hung up.

Gloria sorted out her things and left the company. She made an appointment to meet Jonathan.

She left the company and was going to get in her car. Unexpectedly, she saw Jonathan's car directly, the window of the co-driver's seat slowly rolled down, and Jonathan's handsome face appeared in front of her.

Gloria's eyes turned. She walked to him without speaking.

Jonathan slowly showed a smile. He looked at Gloria's beautiful face, and said softly, "It's been a long time."

Gloria raised an eyebrow, "Mr. Brown, you are funny."

It hadn't been long since they met last time, but he always made the atmosphere different, which was incredible.

Jonathan raised an eyebrow, "I'm telling the truth, okay?"

Gloria curled her lip and said nothing. Jonathan had got out of the car and opened the door for her, "Please, my princess."

Light flickered in Gloria's eyes. She wanted to say something, but she knew it was meaningless to do that. In the end, she didn't say anything but just get in the car.

Jonathan closed the door for her and walked back to the driver's seat.

Many employees came out and saw this. Jealousness immediately filled their eyes. Many women looked at Gloria with different eyes. They no longer judged her.

Someone said, "I'm so envious of Miss White. She was the daughter of the former chairman. After Claude and his family stole their company, I thought... her life would be ruined. When she returned to the company, I was shocked and even doubted whether she could survive in the company."

"What? You saw that she had a problem with Claude and his family?"

"Sure. They made things difficult for her on the pretext of training her after she entered the company, but in fact, they just wanted her to leave and no longer have the courage to stay in the company. Then people in the company would all hate her and judge her. No one can stand being picked on like that. If it were someone else, she might have left long ago. That's Claude's plan!"

"You... are really right. I felt it was strange back then, but I didn't know what was exactly wrong. So... the whole thing is like this!"

“Heh... Now Angela and her parents are finished. Have you seen the video of Angela committing suicide?”

“Yes, she made such a big sensation! But it’s fishy. Why could she get so much attention. with the live stream of her suicide? If we were to commit suicide, there wouldn’t be 200,000 people who would watch it. How much attention could a big streamer have? Don’t you think it’s weird?”

“Yes, but we have no evidence. Now all the public’s attention is on Miss White. I wonder how she will cope with this.”

Chapter 1136 Let It Slip!

“Alas... Anyway, Miss White has changed. She’s so excellent, young and beautiful, and even so talented. I never thought that there would be such a perfect woman in the world!”

“Yes! I thought that a perfect woman should be a princess who had a rich family and a good figure and was good-looking. Their family invested a lot of money in her and helped her gain one or two skills, but Miss White is different...”

She didn’t go on, and the others all nodded, because what she said was the truth!

“Alas... I really envy her. She has a successful career at such a young age, and owns such a powerful company. Moreover, she has so many skills. Don’t you think the Jewelry design thing has something to do with her?”

“Huh? Why?”

“In the past, many people wanted to cooperate with Poppy. Even the Collins Group and the Brown Group tried to do that, but they both failed. No matter what method they used, Poppy refused to work with them. But this time, Poppy was willing to cooperate with Miss White and the Brown Group. Don’t you think that this is Miss White’s credit?”

The girl spoke as she blinked her big eyes, and she looked very smart. Many people seemed to be enlightened by her words and one of them said, “What you said made sense! It’s exactly like that!”

“I was puzzled. Poppy refused all the people who wanted to work with her. How could she agree to work with Miss White? After all, Miss White can’t stand comparison with

Mr. Collins and Mr. Brown.”

“Is it because Poppy feels that there’s a mysterious bond between her and Miss White?”

“It’s possible, but I don’t think it is so simple. I guess Poppy...” The little girl rested her chin on one hand and stopped talking.

The others all looked at her, obviously waiting for her to continue. Seeing that she was deep in thought, someone asked, “Poppy what? Come on!”

The little girl suddenly came out of her trance and light flickered in her eyes, “Nothing... nothing. I was just saying. I don’t know what the truth is... It’s late. I’ve gotta go. See you tomorrow!”

After saying that, the little girl grabbed the purse in her hand and left quickly under the others’ curious gaze. She was flustered. If Miss White was Poppy, and she hadn’t made it known to the public, it meant that she didn’t want the public to know it yet. If she told those people her guess, she would be in trouble. She still had lingering fears, and could only pray that Miss White wouldn’t find out what she had just said.

What she said had already given those people a clue. Maybe some of them had guessed that and started to talk about it

The little girl looked more and more flustered. What... should she do?

She took a light breath and managed to calm herself down.

About half an hour later, Jonathan and Gloria arrived at the restaurant. Along the way, Jonathan had been trying to make an interesting conversation. Gloria was in a low spirit because of what Angela did, but what Jonathan said roused her interest and she chatted with him relaxedly.

Chapter 1137 Enough Time

“Come on, let’s get in.”

Gloria responded, and they entered the restaurant together. Jonathan had bought out the restaurant, so there was no one else here. The waiters would only serve them.

Gloria didn’t say anything about that. Maybe Jonathan didn’t want others to know the business they were talking about, or he just liked to squander his money.

Soon, they entered the box. Jonathan ordered some food Gloria liked. The waiter went out with the order and closed the door for them.

Gloria looked at Jonathan and said calmly, "Is it problems in our cooperation?"

They had been chatting in the car just now, but they didn't talk about work. The scene changed, so Gloria asked directly.

Jonathan said, "No, I just want to see you."

Gloria was speechless.

She looked at him in silence, knowing that Jonathan was just saying.

Jonathan took out his mobile phone and sent a document to Gloria, "Read it."

Gloria opened it. After reading it, she frowned slightly and looked at Jonathan, "You want to make a stunt first?"

The word "plagiarism" was very dazzling.

Jonathan put one hand on the table and occasionally knocked on the table with his fingers. He gazed at her with deep eyes, "You think it's a stunt?"

Gloria frowned and looked at Jonathan with a puzzled look.

This document was all about the works that Poppy plagiarized from others. The content seemed to be sane and grounded. Gloria almost believed it.

But she did not see anything about this on the Internet, so she did not understand why

Jonathan sent this to her.

However, after a short pause, Jonathan said with a smile, "Poppy is too famous, so many colleagues are jealous of her. I got this before it got around on the internet."

Gloria frowned and said nothing as if thinking about what happened recently.

After a pause, she looked at Jonathan, "This is what you wanted to talk to me about the other day?"

It had been a week.

But Gloria hadn't seen this document on the internet.

Jonathan didn't respond directly but just smiled, "I had been holding them back, so they couldn't release it."

Gloria's eyes froze for a moment, and then she whispered, "I'm not sure who did this."

"I will send you the information I found, but I think maybe we can let them do what they want and see what will happen?"

Gloria suddenly looked up at him. Although she didn't speak, she looked hesitant, "Are you sure?"

"We might need such a stunt. You know, if Poppy is accused of plagiarism, it would cause a sensation. Then we can clarify it and take down the people who do that."

Gloria looked calm, "Now we have just worked out the cooperation plan. I haven't made the specific design steps known to the public, and they won't get any information about it."

"Then we can leak something to them." Jonathan raised an eyebrow with a meaningful smile, "What do you think?"

Gloria didn't answer, as if pondering on what Jonathan said.

Jonathan did not urge her to make a decision immediately, but gave her enough time to think about it. It suddenly quieted down in the box

Chapter 1138 The Enemy's Success or Failure

Gloria kept silent. Jonathan didn't know whether she was really thinking. Then the waiter knocked on the door and broke the silence.

A few waiters brought in the food together with respectful and polite smiles. After putting all the food on the table, they asked if they needed anything else and then went out together.

Jonathan looked at Gloria with a smile, "Let's eat first?"

"Hmm."

Gloria responded and then picked up chopsticks. She would never hesitate in front of delicious food.

Neither of them spoke. Gloria ate attentively, and Jonathan seemed to have gotten used to this.

After finishing eating, Gloria put down her chopsticks, and Jonathan looked at her, "Have you decided?"

Gloria wiped the corners of her mouth with a paper towel, and then said slowly, "We can do this, but I don't have the energy to deal with it. Can I leave it to you?"

Jonathan smiled, "No problem."

Gloria nodded and said nothing else.

What they talked about seemed to be unimportant, but in fact, it was quite important and could even decide the success or failure of their enemy.

"Shall we go?" Gloria looked at Jonathan in front of her and didn't intend to continue staying here with him.

Jonathan raised an eyebrow, as if he didn't know what she was thinking, but said relaxedly. "Are you free tonight? I want to take you to a place."

Gloria looked at him without saying anything, but her expression was already telling him her answer.

Jonathan understood it.

If it was something about the cooperation, she would go.

He said with a smile, "It's about the cooperation. You'll know after you see it."

Gloria pursed her lips and her silence was a yes.

She picked up her purse and walked out.

Jonathan was beside her, like a knight guarding her.

Some people passing by saw them and took pictures of them secretly with their mobile phones from behind and from the front. A moment later, these photos were posted online.

They appeared together for the second time on this day.

The first time was when Jonathan appeared downstairs the White Group to pick up Gloria. They were still talking about it, but some people had started to talk about the second time they appeared together.

-Avery, [Ah, they are a perfect match! Ah, they are a handsome couple. They are perfect for each other!]

-Madeline, [Hahaha, a perfect match? You are funny!]

-Avery, [They both have a good family background. Maybe they often saw each other when they were young. They might have known each other for a long time. They are indeed a perfect match.]

-Madeline, [Hahaha, really? I really envy them! My goddess is so excellent! If I could be as half excellent as her, I would be ecstatic!]

-Avery, [Be as half excellent as her? Are you serious? How's that possible? Do you know what that means? A person who is as 10% excellent as her could already be a leader!]

-Madeline, [You are right... I'll be satisfied as long as I'm as 10% excellent as her... But I can't!]

In this way, the news about Gloria and Jonathan showing up together stayed on the top of the trending topics for a long time. Those who wanted to make themselves the first trending topic gave up. They didn't even hate Gloria anymore, because.....

Chapter 1139 They Are Actually Together!

They had got used to it, and could only accept it...

They had to admit that Gloria was more famous than them.

They couldn't fight Gloria for popularity. They... were not qualified to do that!

Soon, Gloria and Jonathan went out together, got in the car, and Jonathan drove away directly.

As long as he was with Gloria, he would drive by himself. He would be her driver himself. Then no one would ruin the atmosphere between them.

During the half an hour on the way, Jonathan did not mention anything about work. He talked about an easy topic with Gloria. Gloria was not very interested in the topic, but she felt very comfortable in the conversation.

They didn't stop talking when they got to the place. It was already evening, and the sun had set.

But people just started living their nightlife. The vehicles on the road were coming and going like a stream.

The street lights were turned on early, making the street look more prosperous.

There were many pedestrians on the street, talking and laughing while moving forward.

Because of the night, many people did not recognize them, but... they had a special aura. When they appeared, they attracted some people's attention.

"Look... are they... I'm not sure. You guys have a look."

"Shoot! It's Gloria! The man next to her..."

"It's Mr. Brown! Why are they together at this late hour?"

"Ah! Come on, them!"

let's go and have a look! What a cute couple! I'll take a closer look at

When the woman said that, someone else had already walked towards Gloria and Jonathan.

However... after a few steps, they found they had already entered the huge bar here.

"Come on, let's go in!"

A girl chased after them, but when she got to the door, she was stopped by her companion.

"Come on. They would take the box. If you follow them in, they'll think you are stalking them."

"What? Even if Mr. Brown is in love with others, he shouldn't regard me as a stalker, right?"

"All right! Let's get out of here!" The speaker didn't want to argue with her but dragged her to leave directly.

But some people couldn't suppress their curiosity. They seldom saw Jonathan and Gloria and naturally wanted to get closer to them. Even the bar tender found that there were many new faces in the bar on this day. Why? He would be worn out again!

As for Jonathan and Gloria, they did not pay attention to the people outside and those who followed them in. They went into the box directly.

The people behind them... 'stopped reluctantly. After all, they couldn't enter the box with them and could only enter other boxes.

And...

This bar was famous, and its boxes might have all been taken.

Gloria followed Jonathan in, and the people in the box immediately looked at her with weird expressions.

Chapter 1140 Regretted Not Clarifying It

Gloria's eyes turned slightly. There were four men in the box, each wearing a suit. One of them was sitting erectly. One of them was sitting casually, and the other two people were shaking the red wine in their hands.

After Jonathan and Gloria appeared, no, strictly speaking, after Gloria appeared, they all stopped and looked at them.

Douglas narrowed his eyes, pushed the gold-rimmed glasses on his face, and said with a smile, "You are trying something new, huh?"

He said this to Jonathan.

Noah, the gentleman beside him, also smiled, "To be exact, it's something very new."

Jonathan never brought a woman to such a place.

No, to be exact, he never had a woman around him.

Although there were many rumors about Jonathan, he was not a playboy at all. He had never been in any relationship for so many years and never dealt with those fake pictures. Some people made up stories about him, and eventually, people all thought that he was a playboy.

If Jonathan had known this, he would have regretted not clarifying it back then.

Although they knew Jonathan and Gloria contacted often and Gloria was special to Jonathan... they never thought that Jonathan would bring her to them.

This had a different meaning.

This woman was important to him, otherwise, he would not have brought her to them. To put it bluntly, he was telling them that he was serious this time!

The four people had complicated feelings at this moment.

Some of them thought they could be together as long as they liked each other, but the others thought that Gloria was Jordy's wife and that things would become complicated if they were together.

Some of them thought that Gloria was excellent but... she was not perfect. In their view, Jonathan was really perfect!

However, times had changed. Besides, Gloria was indeed excellent. Many men didn't even have a chance to get close to her. In fact, they were worthy of each other, and it was difficult for Jonathan to get Gloria.

Gloria did not mind. Since he had brought her here, he must want her to meet some people. However, when she saw that these men were all his friends, she was a little surprised.

She didn't expect that the people he brought her to were them.

Jonathan raised an eyebrow, and did not respond to them. He just turned to Gloria and said calmly, "They are all my friends. You should know them."

Gloria nodded, "Yes."

A man sitting in the corner tucked his long hair reaching his neck. He looked a little sullen. After a pause, he looked at Gloria and said, gritting his teeth, "I also know you, Miss Black Rose. Didn't you feel sorry when you hacked my computer? The victim is in front of you now."

Gloria turned to him and smiled, "Mr. Wilkerson, good memory. I just helped you clean the garbage in your computer."

Clarence gnashed his teeth and looked at Jonathan, "I had a history with this woman. You must let her recover all the porn in my computer!"
