Remarriage Never And Go Away

Chapter 331

Chapter 331 Miss White? Why Is She Here?

Jordy's face looks even worse. Gloria couldn't get rid of his hand no matter how hard she tried. She cried, "Let me go!"

"Gloria! Are you deaf? Didn't you hear what I told you before?!" Jordy's face turned livid! However, Gloria laughed and said, "Then listen to a recording."

She played a recording. It was the recording of Angela, who had just ordered her not to go.

Jordy suddenly frowned but didn't want to mention Angela.

Gloria said, "Since we have divorced, we don't have any relationships anymore. Angela is my cousin. Of course, I had to help her, didn't I?"

Jordy glared at her with a sinister look, "Gloria, are you conscientious? Grandma needs you to visit her the most right now, but what are you doing?!"

Gloria coldly stared at him, "Who was the one that was not conscientious?!"

Seeing that Jordy's face was getting worse and worse, Gloria mocked him, "It's you! It's because of you that grandma became like this!"

She felt that Jordy's sharp eyes were like knives, but she didn't care at all and said, "Grandma has nese years. What she wants most is that you fall in love with me, but you failed to do it.

You divorced me and married Angela. grandma's condition is getting worse and worse. It doesn't matter if you don't love me, but as a man, you should take responsibility for what you have done. Don't blame it on me."

Seeing Jordy's gloomy face, Gloria once again coldly said, "Even if I didn't propose a divorce in front of everyone, do you think grandma would not be sad? As long as you don't love me, she might be sad for the rest of her life. Short-term pain is better than long-term pain. I can make grandma accept it as soon as possible by doing this so that she won't have to worry about you every night in the future."

After she finished speaking, she felt that the atmosphere around her had become colder.

Jordy was not angry. Instead, he smiled and said, "If it weren't for your plan, do you think I would marry you? Do you think grandma would like you?!"

With that, he shook Gloria off.

Gloria staggered a few steps, unable to refute a single word.

Should she refute that she didn't plot against Jordy? He didn't believe a word of it, and now she couldn't show any evidence.

But then again, was she the culprit?

From the very beginning, she had liked him. If she didn't love Jordy at all, would things have become like this?

Gloria took a deep breath and controlled her emotions. She lightly said, "I won't go back with you today. Also, I just called grandma and she said that she wanted to rest. She doesn't want me to go over either."

"She doesn't want you to go back, so you're not going? Why have I never found you so obedient before?"

Gloria laughed mockingly, "When did I not listen to you during the three years that I married you?"

Jordy could not respond a single word.

It seemed to be the case. She was like a marionette, and she would do whatever he asked her to do. She never knew how to refute.

It was also because of this that every time he saw her, he felt particularly annoyed.

He also felt that she was a ball of cotton that couldn't be crushed.

Angela had just followed them when she heard Gloria's words, and she frowned.

But because she was at the corner, she couldn't see anyone.

Just as Jordy was about to say something, George's voice came from the other side of the corner. "Hey? Miss White, why are you here?"

Angela's expression changed slightly.

Damn it! Jordy must have heard George. Why did this guy have a big mouth! And his voice was so loud!

She immediately looked toward George with a worried face, "I... I'm worried about Jordy and Gloria, so I came over to take a look."

George laughed, "They are an old couple. Even if they are divorced, it doesn't matter if they sleep together. No one will lose anything. Miss White, you don't have to worry about it."

Angela's expression changed abruptly. She looked sternly at the man and said, "George, don't say that. Gloria and Jordy are not that sorts of people!"

"Is that so?" Georgy said.

Carlos had told him before that there was something wrong with Angela. She even had analyzed

Jordy's thoughts with him.

To be honest, even if she had saved Jordy, he didn't have a good impression of her.

Angela looked at George in confusion. "George, you...?"

George smiled and did not say anything. Instead, he took a turn and walked to Gloria and Jordy's side.

Angela was found, so she had to let Brenda push her over to them.

Gloria looked at Angela and said with a faint smile, "So, if you take me to see grandma, you want my cousin to go as well? What will grandma think if she sees us? Our love triangle?"

"Gloria," Jordy warned her.

Gloria laughed sarcastically. She knew that he had been protecting Angela all along.

However, she didn't mind. She just said lightly, "You guys go ahead with your work. I'll go to see grandma by myself. If you care about grandma, don't let us be together when in front of her. Otherwise, we'll let her feel sad."

Jordy gritted his teeth, but before he could speak, Gloria had already left.

Just as he was about to say something, Angela suddenly said, "Jordy..."

Jordy finally stopped and looked coldly at Angela, "Why did you tell Gloria? Don't go see grandma."

George laughed, "There's such a thing? What are you thinking, Miss White?"

Angela's expression changed slightly. Damn it! Gloria brought up this matter with Jordy?!

Gloria was a lawyer, so she had a habit of recording!

She was afraid that Jordy would hear the recording, so she quickly explained, "I'm doing this for the sake of my kindness. Jordy, if she goes over, grandma will think of the time when she was in the Jordy replied calmly, "You don't have to make decisions for grandma."

With that said, he left.

Jordy's figure made Angela's face slightly changed. "Jordy..."

Damn Gloria!

Oh! Is Jordy angry with me?

"Jordy, wait for me!"

She was so annoyed today that she made mistakes in these things again and again!

What happened to her? In the past, she could have won whenever she wanted and could have analyzed everything rationally. But now, how could she panic over such a small matter and even give Gloria a chance to retaliate?

Jordy's speed was so fast that Angela, who was pushed by Brenda, couldn't catch up with him.

George chuckled as he chased after Jordy to the door. However, Gloria was nowhere to be seen.

He looked at Jordy and asked, "Do you still want to take Gloria to the old house?"

Jordy pursed his lips, and didn't say anything. He walked to the underground parking lot.

George had been following him. She clicked her tongue and said, "I think Angela was very sad just now. This is your love debt. Aren't you going to go and comfort her?"

Jordy frowned. Somehow, he felt that Angela had changed.

It was no longer the same as before.

But he couldn't tell what had changed.

When he thought that she was his savior and had suffered so much, he couldn't bear to blame her.

George followed Jordy to his car. He chuckled and said, "So what are you thinking now? If you can't stop thinking Gloria, what about Angela?"

Jordy frowned. "Why don't you shut up?"

George laughed. "You feel annoyed? But this is your problem. You have to think about it carefully. If you don't want to be with Angela and can't keep your promise, then you have to tell her in advance. Don't let her keep thinking about it but be unable to get it.

Do you know what the consequences will be after a long time?"

Jordy looked at him in confusion.

"Damn it! No way! You're an elite! But you don't even know what you'll face if this goes on for long?"

Jordy frowned. "Just say it."

George said, "A woman's jealousy is very heavy. Don't you know this? If Angela still can't marry you, she will slowly accumulate more and more resentment! And if you continue to tangle with Gloria, who do you think her final rage will be directed at?"

"She won't," Jordy replied firmly.

George was so angry that he laughed. "Do you think Angela is a pure and flawless woman? Super kind? Hey, can you wake up? I didn't exclude the fact that Angela saved you out of instinct, but you should know that she loves you! If there is no problem with the White family, why did she take control of Gloria and his father's company? Don't you know that as an entrepreneur?"

Jordy's face looked worse, but George didn't bother to inquire about what he was thinking. He just sat in the car and closed his eyes. "Fuck, how did I end up with such an idiotic friend?"

As soon as he finished speaking, he suddenly felt a sharp gaze sweeping over him.

"Get out of my car!"

By the time Gloria arrived home, it was already very late. She planned to go to bed after taking a shower.

However, her phone suddenly rang, which made her frown slightly. Although she had never communicated with the number, she had seen it on Angela's phone.

This number was Angela's assistant, Brenda.

Gloria hesitated for a moment before picking it up.

"Miss White, nice to meet you. I'm Brenda, your cousin's assistant."

"What does she want to say?"

"No, I'm looking for you," said Brenda with a slightly panicked voice.

"Yes, I... I have something to talk to you about."

Gloria was a little surprised, "What do you want to talk about?"

"I, I'm downstairs right now. Can I go inside?" Brenda was polite and humble. Gloria didn't know why, but she wanted to see if Angela would come up with any new tricks, so she said, "Yes, sure."
"Okay, thank you."
Gloria could hear the surprise in Brenda's voice.
Not long after, Brenda came up, and Gloria gave her a bottle of juice and asked her to sit down.
"It's so late. Why did you come here?"

Chapter 334

Chapter 334 I'm Willing to Be Your Follower

Brenda took a deep breath and did not directly respond to Gloria. Instead, she said softly, "Miss Gloria's eyes moved slightly as she looked at Brenda without saying a word. Her eyes were full of scrutiny.
Brenda was implying something, but she felt that it was like Angela's style. If there was anything, Angela would not let Brenda come over to say that.
"What do you want to say?"
Brenda took a slight breath and hid the nervousness. She looked at Gloria with a calm expression and said, "If I hadn't added fuel to the fire today, I don't think Miss White would have been able to strike back so easily."

Gloria squinted her eyes. It was true that it was easy for her to strike back this time. At the same time, she felt that Angela's action today was a bit stupid, but it would make sense if it was Brenda who messed with it.
Angela trusted Brenda the most at the moment. If Brenda lies, Angela will be blind. Gloria was not in a hurry to ask Brenda what she had done this time. She only looked at her indifferently, "So you want to tell me that you intended to help me?"
Brenda shook her head, "I'm not helping you. I'm helping myself."
Gloria looked at her, still silently.
Brenda sighed and said, "I've been with Angela the whole time. I'm really tired. She never sees me as a human being. She asked me to be her ox and horse. When she's angry, she even vented her anger on me."
With that, Brenda rolled up her sleeves. When she saw that her arm was covered with scars, Gloria's face changed, "She did this to you but don't you know how to fight back?"

"How can I fight back? She threatened my family. She also said that if she found that I was wrong, she would ban my whole family. We are all humans, and we have to eat and fill our stomachs. How can my family continue to live?"

Brenda's voice was trembling, while Gloria looked at her, "Since you have such thoughts, why did you come looking for me? If she finds out, she will ban your entire family."

Brenda firmly shook her head, "No, she won't."

Gloria did not say anything and only looked at her.

Brenda was prepared so she only had to listen.

Brenda sighed and said, "I know everything that you and Angela have done over the past few years. I also know what Angela has done. But she is too smart and I was too timid before, so there is no evidence left. But from now on, I will keep the evidence and tell you everything I know. Similarly... I also hope that you can save me and help me get out of trouble."

Gloria's eyes narrowed slightly.

Brenda was Angela's confidant whom she had trusted all these years. She was smart and capable. Would she vent her anger on Brenda?

No matter whether Brenda was telling the truth or not, Gloria couldn't believe her because it was very likely that the two of them had teamed up to fool her.

When the time came, Brenda would tell Angela her plan. Angela would make the defensive work and pretend to be attacked by her. In the end, he would give her a heavy blow, and everything would be over.

Brenda did not get a response from her, but she was not surprised. She said sincerely, "Although you and Angela are cousins, you are not like each other at all. She is a hypocrite and you are kind. I can see that over the years, but unfortunately, I was under her control at that time. But it is different now, Miss White. You are very powerful, and I am willing to be your lackey."

Chapter 335 Sin

Gloria did not say anything.

Brenda knew that Gloria was suspicious of her, so she calmly spoke again, "I know you don't believe me, Miss White, but I will express my sincerity to you in the future. Please give me this opportunity. If you accept me, I guarantee that I will be your greatest helper on Angela's issue."

Gloria smiled, "Is there anything else for you to do here today?"

Brenda shook her head, "Nope."

Brenda stood up and politely said to her, "Then I won't bother you today. I hope that Miss White can consider my plea just now. I just said that if there is any false word, my whole family will die a terrible death.”

Although the current society was full of atheists, no one dared to say something like that easily. Besides, Brenda was very concerned about her family, and she would never swear an oath.

Gloria looked at the woman in front of him. Seeing that she seemed to be waiting for her reply,

Gloria pondered for a moment before replying softly.

“Tell me what Angela did.”

Brenda’s face was full of joy and her eyes were full of surprise. Since Gloria had said such words, it was sufficient to give her a chance.

Brenda nodded excitedly and said, “Okay, I’ll tell you right now.”

The current situation was that Brenda didn’t want to follow Angela for a long time, but she knew that Angela had a lot of secrets so Angela would never let her leave at will and would even threaten her with all kinds of things.

In that case, even if Gloria was not willing to cooperate with her, she had to say everything. Only if Angela was over would she not do anything to her family.

While Gloria was waiting, Brenda started talking about it.

“I’ve been with Angela for six years, and officially became her henchman in the third year. She asked me to do a lot of things. The key is the car accident.”

Gloria’s face instantly turned cold. During this period, she had been thinking a lot and felt that something was wrong with the car accident. Angela was a coward who was afraid of death, how could she possibly sacrifice herself?

However, the incident happened a long time ago. By the time she wanted to find something, evidence was scattered and could not be pieced together. It was like a complete jigsaw puzzle that could only be found in the corners.

It seemed that she was right.

Brenda did not see any surprising expression on Gloria’s face. She laughed lightly and said, “Looks like you’ve been suspicious for a long time.”

Gloria did not wait long this time. She asked, “What did she ask you to do?”

Brenda sighed and looked guilty, “In fact, I was committing a crime. But at that time, that woman controlled my life and all my family members were threatened by her. I had to obey Angela’s order.”

“Get to the point.” Gloria was not in the mood to listen to Brenda speak her thoughts.

There were many things she was stuck between a rock and a hard place, but that didn’t mean she could do bad things for her family.

Gloria would not judge her for this matter, but she would not sympathize with Brenda either. Since she had made her choice, she had no right to regret it.

Brenda’s eyes flashed and she could only nod awkwardly. She took a deep breath and said.

“That day, someone did intend to kill Mr. Collins. Not everything was planned by Angela.”

Chapter 336 Are You Willing to Believe Me?

Immediately after, Brenda slowly sank into her memories.

Ten days before Angela had a car accident.

Brenda had already given all the documents to Angela and was waiting for her reply.

Angela quickly finished reading all the information with a sneer on her face.

Brenda said in a panic, "Miss White, are you going to do this? If the truth is revealed, the consequences will be very serious."

Angela sneered. "We can't win a big one if we don't take a risk"

Brenda opened her mouth. She wanted to persuade Angela, but she couldn't change her mind. Besides, she didn't want to do it herself, but she was forced to do it.

Then she heard Angela say again, "Ask someone to observe Jack for two days. He has always been vicious. Since he wants to hurt Jordy, he will do it in a sinister way. Contact him by the way and tell him that I want to ask him for dinner."

Jack was the enemy of Jordy, but he was also a distant relative of Angela's mother.

They were distant relatives, and they seldom interacted with each other.

As for the hatred between Jordy and Jack, Angela didn't know, but since she wanted to plan this, she must succeed.

"But if that's the case..."

"No buts! Do what I say!"

Brenda clenched her fist and took a deep breath before continuing to speak to Gloria.

"Later, I did what she said and found out Jack's purpose. I also invited Jack to dinner.

Angela lured him with her body. After all, the two of them could be together when they were in their fifties."

Gloria frowned and did not say anything.

Brenda sighed. "Later, on the day Jack took action, after her series of calculations, Angela's plan finally succeeded."

"Then what about the vegetative state? Is it also fake?"

Brenda was full of shock. "You..."

She knew everything!

Gloria did not say anything. She looked at her calmly, "You can continue."

Brenda took a deep breath and could only nod. "That's right. Everything was planned by her. She just suffered a slight injury and then became vegetative. After all, the hospital she is in is also owned by the White Family."

Gloria sneered. All in her expectation.

But she had to admire the fact that Angela was so cruel to herself. Once she had an accident that day, she might really lose her life.

Brenda took a deep breath and said, "As for the other things, I don't think there's a need to tell you because you've already guessed it.”

Gloria was calm, “What happened to her injury two days ago?”
Brenda's expression changed slightly. “Of course, it's all fake.”
Gloria smiled, “Got it.”
However, it was obvious that she did not want to pay too much attention to these words.
Brenda looked at her and said softly, “Then... are you willing to believe me...”
Gloria looked up at her, “I already know what you're thinking. Even if I can't trust you now, I'll take care of you when Angela is over in the future.”
If Brenda was sincere today, she would naturally keep her promise. However, if Brenda lied to her, she would not keep her promise.
Brenda's face was full of surprise as she said excitedly, “That's enough! Just tell me what you want me to do in the future!”
Gloria looked at her and nodded with a smile.
Brenda didn't want to bother Gloria for this long and said, “Then I'll go back first, Miss White. If you need anything, you can call me at any time. This is my personal number.”
After she handed the paper to Gloria, she did not wait for her reply. However, Gloria said, “Please wait...”

Chapter 337 Your Dad Can Help You!

Brenda looked at Gloria, “What do you want me to do?”
“There must be something wrong with Angela's visit to the hospital two days ago. I hope you can provide me with evidence.”
Brenda nodded her head, “Okay.”
Since Gloria did not say anything this time, she left.
Gloria was standing by the window, seemingly waiting to see when Brenda would appear.
She seemed to be thinking about something.
What Angela wanted to do the most now was to marry Jordy, who she thought would marry her. It had nothing to do with her, after all.
However...
Since Angela had provoked her again and again and even plotted against her whole family, she could not let Lin Angela get what she wanted.

Then, getting Jordy to hate Lin Angela was her first step.
In fact, she was now looking for evidence herself.
Moreover, she had found out that there was a good-looking young man who took Lin Angela to the hospital that day.
It should be a very important guy.

The whole process was driven by him.
Gloria stood by the window for a while before slowly returning to the bedroom.
The next day.
According to yesterday's agreement, Gloria went to the Collins family's old house.
Karen was extremely excited when she found out that Gloria had come over, so she asked the maids to prepare the food early in the morning.
She did not stop until Gloria arrived at the scene.
"Gloria, you are here. Come, come sit beside grandma."
Her voice sounded extremely gentle. Gloria changed her shoes and walked forward with a smile. When she saw the dark circles under her grandmother's eyes, she frowned, "Grandmother, did you not sleep last night?"
"Nonsense! How come I didn't sleep?"
Gloria held Karen's hand and checked her pulse.
Not knowing what was going on, Karen just smiled and said, "Girl, you haven't been here for a long time. Do you want to stay here for lunch today? Don't worry. I didn't tell Jordy that you would come. Besides, your grandfather and aunt are not here. Only the two of us will be here at noon today."
Gloria's hand slowly shifted away, and she looked at Karen in surprise, "Grandma, did you send . them away?"
"No." Karen rebutted, but Gloria was clear that her grandmother had done so.
Feeling touched, she said softly, "You don't have to do this, grandma..."
"Well, let's not talk about this."
Gloria pursed her lips and didn't say anything. Karen looked at her with a loving gaze and said gently, "You've recently returned to the White family. How are things over there? Did you have a hard time?"
"I didn't have a hard time." Gloria smiled freely
Karen had actually heard some news about Gloria's company. She frowned and said, "Oh you, don't restrain yourself too much. You should know that the White Group is yours and not your uncle's. Your father can help you!"
Dad.
She knew that his grandmother was referring to his father-in-law.
If her father-in-law were to help her get back the shares, it would not be difficult.
However, Gloria did not want to do so.
Gloria smiled and shook his head, "Grandma, I know, but I want to do it step by step in the company. If I really have any problems in the future, I can ask my dad for help.
Actually, it's still alright now, I can handle it. Furthermore, this is also a challenge for me. In the past, I have always been living under everyone's wing. Now, I also want to do it by myself."

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 338

Remarriage Never And Go Away

Chapter 338

Chapter 338 Why Are You Still Here?

“But you...” For the first time, Karen did not know what to say.

She always felt that this child had a hard life!

Her biological father passed away early, and her husband did not like her much. Her mother-in-law mocked this girl, so she had been trying to treat her better.

Gloria smiled, “Grandma, please don’t think about it too much.”

“Well... All right.”

The two of them continued to chat and laugh. Gloria felt that she was concerned when she was with grandma. In recent years, her relationship with her grandmother had always been very good.

In Karen’s mind, Gloria was her granddaughter. In Gloria’s heart, Karen was also her grandmother.

Gloria stayed here to chat with Karen for a day and no one came to disturb them.

Gloria wanted to go back before dinner, but Karen had held her back and refused to let her go. She even asked her to have dinner before leaving. In the end, she had no choice but to stay. But she didn’t expect that there was the sound of the engine of the car coming from the yard.

Gloria thought that it should be grandfather, right?

The two of them looked at the door together.

Upon discovering a tall, elegant figure, Gloria’s eyes narrowed.

Why did he come?

Even grandma was stunned. “Why is he here?”

In the past, Karen had always been pleasantly surprised to see her grandson arrive.

But today...

Karen really didn’t want him to come over. It was very likely that as soon as he came, her granddaughter would leave.

Jordy slowly walked in. When he saw the two people on the sofa, he said calmly, “Grandma.”

Karen looked at him with a bit of suspicion, but her tone was not very welcoming. “What are you doing here?”

Jordy was speechless.

This question made his heartache.

Gloria did not say anything.

Jordy coldly glanced at Gloria and said plainly, “I’m here to deliver the medicine to you.”

As he spoke, he showed the bag in his hand.

Karen frowned. “I’ve been taking my medicine for the past few days. I’m completely fine.”

Gloria quickly held Karen’s hand. “Grandma, you can’t sleep for a long time, it’s already bad.”

Jordy’s face softened a little.

Karen sighed, “Okay, okay, okay. Put the medicine down and go.”

Gloria was speechless.

Jordy was also speechless.

How worried was Grandmother that Gloria would run away?

Gloria stood up and walked to Jordy. Jordy stared at her and did not say a word. Gloria took the medicine from his hand and did not look at him at all. The atmosphere in the room once again became code. As Gloria walked toward Karen, she opened the bag and carefully examined the medicine inside. After looking at the names of the several boxes of medicine, she walked over to Karen. She sat down and said with a smile, "Grandma, there is still some time before dinner. Why don't you take it first? Maybe it will take effect in the evening." "Okay, then I'll listen to you. Just take it." Karen had a helpless look on her face. "You only know how to feed me medicine. The medicine has been so bitter." Karen hated to take medicine the most. She had been like this all these years. Gloria often coaxed Karen to take medicine. Karen was unable to reject Gloria since she was unable to say no to Gloria. Basically, Gloria would follow through with whatever she said. However, just as Gloria was about to open a box of medicine for her to take, Karen suddenly looked toward the guy still standing at the door, "Why are you still here?"

Chapter 339 Do You Want to Come with Me?

Jordy was also speechless. He looked at Karen, "Do you hate me that much?" Karen looked at Jordy in confusion. Couldn't he tell that Gloria didn't like to see him? How could he be so blind? She frowned, "Aren't you busy?" Jordy was speechless. Gloria was speechless. It was inappropriate for her to say anything now, but she felt really happy! She liked to see Jordy suffer a loss! The more shriveled he was, the better! In the end, Jordy said helplessly, "I'll leave after you finish your medicine." "Okay, I'll take them."

Jordy was so annoyed when he saw that she was taking her medicine so happily this time. In less than a minute, Karen drank all medicine. Jordy said helplessly, "Call me whenever you have any questions." "Alright, you can leave now." Jordy closed his eyes and said lightly, "I can't leave. I'll pick her up and leave after having dinner here." Gloria glanced at him with a bit of surprise. He's here to pick her up?

Maybe Jordy knew that grandma was in poor health, so he didn't say something unpleasant to upset grandma.

But then again, apart from her, this man was good to everyone else. Today was their business trip. When Jordy told her, she thought it was this morning, but she didn't expect it to be at night.

This was also the reason why she agreed to come to her grandmother.

However, Karen was stunned at that moment. She looked at Gloria in confusion. Karen looked towards Jordy, "What do you mean? Are you here to pick up the Gloria?"

There seemed to be uncontrollable excitement in Karen's voice.

"What's going on...?"

"He is here to pick up Gloria?"

Could it be the chance that the two of them make up?

In an instant, flames of joy seemed to be continuously spewing out from the bottom of Karen's heart.

Gloria, who was afraid that Karen would misunderstand, quickly explained, "Here's the thing. The While Group and the Collins Group had a cooperation project. I'm going on a business trip with him tomorrow."

Jordy's face didn't look nice.

His eyes were even much sharper than before.

Karen's joy vanished in an instant, but in the next moment, Jordy came over and said softly, "She's just too embarrassed to say that I can take anyone, but I will only take her with me."

Gloria was speechless.

She inexplicably looked at Jordy, is there something wrong with his brain?

Karen's face was full of shock when she heard that. "You... you changed your mind?!"

Jordy was speechless.

How come she make such a conclusion?

What drug had she fed her grandmother?!

Gloria's eyes flashed. She understood that Jordy had said so because he didn't want grandma to be in a bad mood. He wanted grandma to be happy so that she could have a good sleep.

This time, she was silent.

Jordy nodded at Karen when he saw that she was finally enlightened. He walked over to Karen and Gloria and sat across from them. His gaze landed on Karen.

"We are leaving for seven days this time. Grandma, would you like to go with us? She can take you out for a walk."

Gloria's eyes flickered slightly. If Grandmother were to follow along, they would have to put on a show. It seemed that he was even more filial than she had imagined.

A trace of unnaturalness flashed across Gloria's eyes. If grandmother were to go, she would come into contact with Jordy.

She looked at Karen.

Chapter 340

Chapter 340 How Did You Do It?

Karen shook her head, "I'm not going. What about your grandfather if I leave?"

"But I'm surprised to see you being like this."

However, this was also good, Gloria thought. Her grandmother had to recover as soon as possible.

Her body was indeed unable to withstand too much stress and torment, Jordy did not say anything.

Gloria had also completely neglected him. Then Gloria and Karen were chatting and laughing. After dinner, they were about to leave.

Karen looked at the two of them standing together. She had a gentle smile on her face.

She said, "Be careful when you go out this time. If you have plenty of time, go around.

Don't let down the beautiful scenery. You're too busy to handle it. You have to know how to have a good rest, understand?"

Gloria nodded her head obediently, "Got it, grandma, then you should rest early tonight.

You have to take your medicine on time, okay?"

Gloria purposely mimicked Karen's tone.

Jordy smiled.

Karen couldn't help but chuckle. "Okay, okay! I'll do what you say."

Gloria couldn't help but laugh, "Then, grandma, take a good rest."

"I'll walk you out."

As she spoke, she took the lead to walk out.

Gloria and Jordy followed closely behind.

This time, there was a driver. Jordy took the lead to open the door in the back seat.

Gloria stood at the back waiting for him to get on the stage, but Jordy did not move.

Instead, he turned to look at her.

Karen, who had figured out what was going on, immediately nudged Gloria's arm.

"Gloria, get in the car."

A trace of unnaturalness flashed across Gloria's eyes. She wanted to go to the front seat to avoid being next to him.

Seeing that Jordy did not move at all, she had no choice but to step forward.

Jordy followed her into the car and sat next to her.

Karen's mood instantly recovered a lot, and she smiled as she watched their car slowly depart.

She didn't go back to her room until she couldn't see the car. Today, she was really in a good mood!

It seemed that she could sleep soundly at night!

Inside the car.

Gloria and Jordy had changed from their earlier gentleness to their usual indifference.

When the driver was driving, he wanted to turn on the heater. It was too cold..

It was so cold that he felt his hand was freezing while driving.

It was particularly quiet on their way to the airport.

And this time, only the two of them went on the business trip.

Gloria didn't even see Harold.

They boarded the plane smoothly, and their seats were also next to each other.

Gloria did not say anything. Seeing that Jordy was waiting by her side like a gentleman, she walked inside and sat down.

Jordy sat next to her, and then closed the curtain next to him.

The space seemed to shrink again.

It was as if there were only the two of them here. The strange feeling in Gloria's heart became more and more difficult to perceive.

Meanwhile, on the other side.

When Angela found out that Jordy and Gloria had left, she was furious!

She slammed her hand on the table and looked coldly at Brenda. "What the hell are you doing?!"

Brenda's face turned pale, and she quickly shook her head. "Miss White, I didn't expect Hunter and Gloria to have such a relationship. According to my investigation, Hunter wanted..."

Lin Angela couldn't wait to eat her up at this moment. "What are they thinking? Didn't you find out that Jordy was also there when they were having dinner?"
