Chapter 381 Does He Really Hope Jordy Would Have a Change of Heart?

She could see the side of his face that had a handsome jawline, but he looked like he made her feel at peace and safe at the moment. If it wasn't for him today, all the passengers on the plane could have been killed. Although they didn't know exactly what happened and why the three green helicopters suddenly appeared, it had been reported to the authorities. However, Jordy was calm in the face of danger. And he saved the lives of all the passengers on the plane and reassured the passengers. Then, they went back to their seats. For the first time, she realized that Jordy could sometimes be so warm-hearted. If he only wanted to keep himself alive, he didn't have to ask for trouble at all. He did it just to save all the passengers. At this moment Gloria no longer had to command him to fly the plane. She slowly got up but did not hurry to go outside. – She guessed that there would be passengers outside the plane who would want to see who had saved them. Gloria didn't look at Jordy until after the passengers had gone down, and then she said to him, "Now that we're back I'm going to leave first. Jordy raised his dark eyes and looked at her. The expression on his face looked more complicated. Gloria did not know what he was thinking and turned to walk out of the cabin. Suddenly, Jordy took her by the arm. Gloria looked at him in confusion and asked, "What are you doing?" She immediately withdrew her arm. Then Jordy looked at her with an icy gaze and said, "How much more are you hiding from me?" Just now, she commanded him in a professional manner. Because Jordy had just been busy controlling the plane, he did not have time to ask Harold for details. Every term she said was very standard. However, commanding a plane to fly required expertise. And in a crisis like that, she not only had to speak the right terms, but she had to stabilize her mind. Everything she did was excellent. If it were Angela, would she have just hugged him in a panic and not known what to do? Gloria looked at Jordy and smiled, "I'm not trying to hide anything from you. And I've told you about it more than once, but have you ever wanted to get to know me? Have you ever wanted me to be close to you and tell you everything about me? Jordy felt speechless. This time, Gloria turned around and left after saying that. Even though she had changed her mind about Jordy this time it didn't mean she would forget how he had betrayed her. After she left, Harold also walked in. His eyes flickered when he saw Jordy get up with a sullen face. Then he said, "Mr. Collins, we can leave now." "What's the matter with Gloria?"

When Harold glanced at Jordy, a sarcastic look flashed across his eyes. Everyone could see that he was loyal to Jordy, but he didn't approve of what Jordy had done to Gloria. Now, Jordy realized that Gloria was different and began to regret it, but Jordy didn't even realize it, and Harold felt happy that Jordy had been slapped in the face. When he saw Jordy learn the truth and then get a slap in the face over and over again, he wondered why he felt good about it. After all, Jordy was his boss, but did he really hope Jordy would have a change of heart? After Harold came back to his senses, he looked at the gloomy and complicated expression on Jordy's face. Then he collected his emotions and said in a respectful tone. "It was a course that Miss White took when she was in college. I found this out when I researched her information for you, but you were not interested in her at that time, so I didn't tell you." Jordy felt speechless.

Chapter 382 The Laughing Stock

In the beginning. Harold was to report every detail to Jordy But he still remembered what Jordy told him at that time "You don't have to talk to me about these things." Thus, Harold decided not to report the details to him Looking at Jordy's face darkened again, Harold said as if he didn't see it. "Mr. Collins, shall we go? Jordy didn't say a word and got up. Then Harold hurriedly followed fordy Gloria went home and called Jonathan as soon as she finished unpacking, Jonathan answered the phone quickly. He smiled and said, "What is it, my princess? Gloria frowned. She looked calm and said, "I'm back. I'm going to talk to the company about your previous request, so please give me some time. And I have two more project After that I will start to take full charge of your project. Is that okay with you?" A serious look flashed in Jonathan's eyes. "When did you get back? Gloria looked puzzled and did not reply to his question. What's wrong? Jonathan frowned slightly and said, "There was an accident on the plane. Did you guys deal with Gloria's eyes flickered. He is quite something. He is capable of knowing such things so quickly Then Gloria smiled and said, "He solved the problem. Mr. Brown, I'm going to the office now. Wish me luck

She didn't want to talk about it while Jonathan didn't ask for details, but he said, "Are you hurt?" "No." After a pause. Gloria said. Til go back to the office." "Are you free to have dinner with me tonight? Gloria laughed and said, "Mr. Brown, you're leaving me a bit at a loss. I just finished dealing with Mr. Waydell. Am I going to have to get involved with you again soon?" "Sooner or later." Jonathan put on a doting smile and said, "You'll have to get used to this. I'll let everyone know I love you with all my heart Gloria pursed her lips and was not touched by his words. She said, "I'll hang up now." "Alright." After hanging up the phone. Gloria headed straight to the office. Although it would be normal for her to deal with Jonathan's project, because it would be more beneficial to the company, she could not do that now. Jordy's relationship with Jonathan and her cooperation with Hunter may be seen as something unusual in the eyes of the public. It could make the public, as well as executives, think that she only relied on her connections to get her work done. So, she had to complete two other tasks that were very difficult to deal with first. It was how she could make people think that she was capable instead of relying on her luck and pretty face. It didn't take long for Gloria to arrive at the office When everyone saw her, there was a different look in each of their eyes. Everyone knew that Gloria was on a business trip with Jordy during this time. Although Angela didn't want everyone to know and intended to keep it from the others, Jordy and Gloria leaving together was not a secret. Moreover, given the live broadcast, everyone knew that the two of them were on a business trip together.

The intimate contact between Gloria and Jordy on that day shocked and envied the public! Angela became a laughing stock. And netizens kept gossiping about them on Twitter It was enviable that they were still so comfortable together even though Jordy and Gloria were divorced! However, Sheila didn't think about it that much. The first time she saw Gloria, she said, "Gloria, didn't want to bother you those days. Did something happen to you that day? How did you fall into the water?" In an instant, everyone looked toward Gloria.

After this incident many people said that Gloria fell into the water on purpose because Gloria wanted Jordy to save her in public However, some said that the two of them looked close at the party. Gloria was holding Jordy's arm the whole time. Did Gloria need to fall in the water to find an opportunity to get close to Jordy? That doesn't sound very realistic. What if Jordy doesn't want to save Gloria? Won't she be exposed right away? Many people stared at Gloria and wanted to know firsthand. Gloria smiled and said in a soft voice, "I'm alright. You don't have to worry about me. I'm standing right in front of you aren't I?" Gloria still had some good feelings for Sheila because she thought Sheila seemed simple and kind, She also found it pleasant when she came in contact with Sheila. And Sheila was always helping her with her work, which made Gloria like her. Then Sheila breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Okay." Gloria nodded her head. Then she leaned in close to Sheila and said in a voice that only the two of them could hear, "Sheila, Mr. Brown has agreed to work with us, but he has one request. He asked me to be in charge of the project, but if I am in charge of the project. I need to be away from here for about four months, which will affect my work "Gee! He agreed!" Sheila said in a shocked voice. She even raised her voice a little. Then everyone around her looked toward her. Gloria's eyes flickered, and then she nodded her head. Sheila took another breath. Many people were confused as to what Sheila was saying Immediately afterward, she said to Gloria with a serious look on her face, "This is not a trivial matter. I need to inform the manager of our department. Then she will take you to inform the other superiors. This has to be approved by the executives. You need to report to those superiors' step by step." "After you tell Miss Johnson, it will be my cousin to approve it right? Sheila nodded and said, "Yes. Miss White is in charge of our department, so Miss Johnson would have to report to her. Given your relationship with Miss White, you could have gone to her first." Gloria moved her eyes. Then she said, "No. I want nothing to do with her at the company. I'll follow the rules step by step and file an application." Sheila gave Gloria a surprised look. There was a look of appreciation in her eyes. "Alright. I'll you to see Miss Johnson now." Gloria gave Sheila a look of gratitude. "Thank you so much, Sheila." "You're welcome. That's all I have to do. Let's go." Gloria didn't say another word. With everyone watching, Gloria followed Sheila and walked out the door. Everyone in the department couldn't help but discuss with each other. "Did you guys just hear Miss Torres' words? What exactly did Gloria say to Sheila?" "Miss Torres said he agreed. Who agreed? The two of them went to see Miss Johnson together because of the project. Did Gloria sign another contract with another company?" At this moment someone seemed to suddenly realize something. Then he sucked in a breath and said, "Could it be that Mr. Brown has agreed to work with her?"

"Mr. Brown?" Everyone's expressions changed. Because everyone was very curious about what project Gloria was in charge of, they had already found out from Sheila "Gee! Mr. Brown is going to invest hundreds of billions of dollars in that project. That's not tens of millions of dollars. Is he crazy for Gloria? Not to mention that Gloria is divorced and the exwife of his rival."

Chapter 384 The Partner Has A Condition

"What's going on with Mr. Brown this time? "Although Mr. Brown is a playboy, that's why he won't be charmed by any woman. He may think Gloria is special, so he's willing to waste a little more time and energy on her. But that doesn't mean he would go crazy and agree to invest so much money for Gloria! That's hundreds of billions of dollars!"

"Yes. I also think Mr. Brown is not someone who will make impulsive decisions, and there are many people in his company who have shares. Although Mr. Brown has the power to make decisions, an investment of such a large amount of money has to be approved by the majority of shareholders. So is this proposal really that good?" "But I didn't think it was a good proposal. It is impossible for that proposal to be carried out."

"Gloria has altered that proposal." "She actually has the ability to do that? "Let me tell you something. Don't tell anyone else." There was a person who suddenly said in a mysterious tone, which attracted many people. And everyone looked at this young man who spoke. One of them couldn't help but say, "Shoot. We won't-tell anyone else." At this point, the young man glanced outside of the office before whispering. "The project that Gloria and Mr. Collins worked on was the one that Mr. Collins selected after she made the changes. Although he did it for Miss White's sake Mr. Collins preferred the proposal in the first place. "Really? How do you know about that?" "That I can't tell you anymore, but what I said is true. At this moment the employees in the office couldn't help but keep chitchatting.

While they were talking. Gloria and Sheila arrived at Helen's office. Sheila gave Gloria a look. She encouraged Gloria and smiled before knocking gently on the door "Please come in Miss Johnson's voice still sounded cold and indifferent After Sheila opened the door, Gloria followed her into Helen's office. Helen looked at the two of them and said, "What can I do for you?" Sheila looked at Gloria and said, "Miss Johnson, Gloria's deal with the Brown Group is a done deal Sheila looked at Gloria and said, "Miss Johnson, Gloria's deal with the Brown Group is a done deal." Helen looked at Gloria with shock and asked, "Really? That project required Jonathan to invest hundreds of billions of dollars. Any smart person would know that Jonathan was not the kind of person who would make impulsive decisions. So, the proposal must be profitable, and Gloria was indeed capable. Gloria didn't say anything. Then Sheila nodded and said, "Yes. But Mr. Brown has a condition." "What condition? Sheila coughed lightly and said, "Gloria altered the original proposal. And Gloria modified the proposal. She refined the proposal based on the original one. And it makes sense. And Mr. Brown liked that proposal, so he asked Gloria to be in charge of the project Helen looked at Gloria with surprise and said, I need to see the proposal now." Gloria immediately handed her the folder in her hand and said, "Here it is.

Helen took it and immediately read it over. The more she looked at it, the more shocked she became. There was a look of disbelief in her eyes. The next moment, she said, "I can't make a decision either. I need to take you to talk to Miss White." Gloria nodded and said, "Thank you, Miss Johnson." Helen got up. She didn't like to exchange pleasantries either and said, "Let's go. We'll go to see her now."

Chapter 385 I Disagree

Sheila said to Gloria in silence "Go for it Gloria smiled and nodded her head. Then Gloria followed Helen to Angela's office The moment Angela saw Gloria, she immediately felt energized. She simply wanted to destroy Gloria now. Although the look in Angela's eyes quickly disappeared, Gloria sensed Angela's hostility. She did not have to sit in a wheelchair. Could it be that Angela is trying to recover as soon as possible to be closer to Jordy now that they are back? Angela looked at Sheila with a smile and said in a soft voice, "There you are. May I ask what you want to see me about?" Helen hurriedly handed Angela Gloria's proposal and said in a respectful tone, "Miss White, Gloria went to negotiate with Brown Group for a partnership this time. Mr. Brown has agreed to work with our company, but he asked Gloria to go there personally to take charge of the project. She may have to leave the company for about four months. I can't make the decision, so I still need to ask your opinion." Angela was a little surprised and said, "Did he agree to invest several hundred billion dollars?" Is Jonathan that stupid? No! He was definitely not doing it for that reason She had seen the proposal before, and it was not attractive enough for Jonathan to agree to it Has Gloria altered the proposal again? As Helen replied to her, Angela couldn't wait to check out the proposal. When Angela saw that the proposal had many highlights and could be implemented perfectly, a jealous look flashed in her eyes! If it were her, she might not have been able to write such a good proposal And she had seen the proposal that Gloria had worked on with Jordy before How could Gloria be so capable? If word gets out that Gloria is so capable. Gloria will be appreciated by those executives. After all, she is the daughter of the previous CEO! And she was also Norma. And Gloria might ask for Angela's father's shares back. No! I would never let so many people know Gloria has so many strong points! The next moment, Angela closed the proposal and frowned. "Gloria, I won't agree." Helen's eyes flickered, and she stood by without saying a word. Gloria looked at Angela with a calm expression and asked, "Why?" Angela felt helpless and sighed. "Gloria, if Mr. Brown agrees to this proposal, then his people will be in charge of the project. If he wants to get someone professional from our company to take charge of this project. I have no problem with it. And I'm going to hold a party to celebrate your hard work After all, this is a partnership worth hundreds of billions of dollars. Besides, the White Group can make a lot of money without funding that project! Who wouldn't be happy about that? Helen stood by and didn't say anything. It was as if she was carefully analyzing what Angela had said. Gloria waited for her to continue. "But you have to understand that since he has put you in charge of that project, if you do make the money, that will be a great thing. But what if you can't?"

Angela thought Gloria wanted to speak, so she quickly pretended to be helpless again and said, "Even if the Brown Group were to take the loss you have to realize that it would have an impact on your reputation. And it will also cause Brown Group to stop working with the White Group in the future. If we make him lose so much money at once, who will think highly of the White Group again? It will affect the future development of the White Group. It's too risky." Helen's eyes moved. She thought Angela had a point Angela then looked at Gloria. She had a sarcastic look in her eyes.
