Chapter 586 We Are friends

“Gloria, do you know why the Collins Group could easily snatch your plan this time?”

Gloria pursed her lips and said, “I know.”

Jonathan handed her a tissue and said softly, “The White Group is your biggest enemy, so I’m willing to help you obtain your goal. But I will not let you get back together with him.”

Gloria looked at him calmly and said, “I told you there is no possibility between us.”

Jonathan sat still opposite her, and the soft smile on his lips did not waver in the slightest, but the dangerous look in his eyes was scary.

Of course, Gloria was not scared at all.

When Nydia who was sitting next door suddenly felt cold, she suspiciously glanced outside and found it was still sunny. Now wasn’t winter, so she shouldn’t have felt cold, right?

"Are you serious?" Gloria stared at him, not wanting to miss any emotion on his face.

"Of course, I am." Jonathan smiled as if he didn't want to pursue the matter anymore.

When he had said that he wouldn't allow her and Jordy to get back together just now, Gloria had thought he was going to make trouble and prevent her from cooperating with Jordy.

Now, it seemed she had guessed it wrong.

But maybe he just didn't want to talk about it for the time being and would hinder her in the future.

So, she kept silent.

Seeing this, Jonathan sighed, "I know either cooperating with Jordy or me this time will be of sufficient benefit to you. Because of the White Group's current situation, you must cooperate with the Collins Group. So, I will not stop you. Gloria, if you promise you will not get back together with him, I will not disturb your cooperation."

When he asked for her promise, he spoke more slowly than usual. Gloria didn't know if it was because he was nervous or because he wanted to emphasize his points.

Gloria breathed a sigh of relief and said calmly, "Don't worry, I won't be romantically involved with him. But Jonathan, we are friends."

She deliberately accented "friends" while speaking to make it clear that she would not date Jonathan either, drawing a clear line between them.

Gloria never disliked keeping things ambiguous or making anyone her “rebound guy” because it was immoral.

“OK, I see.” Jonathan smiled softly. He didn’t feel any discomfort at all but was even happy about her words.

She used to call him Mr. Brown, but this time, she had called him by his name. No matter whether it was because of her guilt or any other reason, he was very satisfied.

Gloria frowned slightly, not knowing what he was thinking. But his reply was very clear. If she continued to emphasize it, she would look high-maintenance.

So, she changed the topic and said calmly, “As for the new cooperative project plan, I will send it to you within ten days. What kind of project do you want? When do you plan to implement it?”

“We can start the implementation when you have time. My budget can be large, but you must keep it confidential. I don’t want our cooperation to be spoiled again.”

Gloria shook her head, "Don't worry. Everything is going on smoothly now. What's more, who do you think will be harmed?"

Jonathan blinked his eyes and then chuckled, "It seems you've already had a plan."

Gloria kept silent, not wanting to reveal more details.

Jonathan wisely gave up asking questions and continue to enjoy the meal casually.

The two ate in silence. Although Gloria didn't lower her guard against him, she felt much more at ease when getting along with him than before. She didn't have to deliberate over the choice of words or scheme against him all the time anymore. After all, they were cooperating in some areas for the sake of profits now.

They didn't speak again until they finished the meal. When they had just put down their forks, a ringtone suddenly caught their attention.

Gloria didn't move because it was Jonathan's phone that was ringing.

He glanced at her, nodded slightly, and picked up the phone, saying, "What's up?"

"Mr. Brown, Miss Andrew came to the company and wants to meet you. She said it is about the project that you are most interested in."

As soon as Gloria heard "Miss Andrew", she knew who the person was.

Miss Andrew must be Jess Andrew, the daughter of the Andrew family. The Andrew Group was well-known in Los Angeles. Although it was not as famous as the Collins Group or the Brown Group, it was stronger than the White Group.

Moreover, Jess was Mr. Andrew's only daughter, so she was spoiled and would take over the Andrew Group in the future.

She was a talented elite in the business circle but was too consistent in love, and she had been infatuated with Jonathan for years.

Hearing this, she raised her eyes and looked at him. She didn't ask him about the call but said calmly, "We're done talking. You can leave if you have other work to do. My friend is still waiting for me next door."

Jonathan helplessly sighed again, "If you had felt a little uncomfortable in your heart, I would be so happy that I couldn't sleep for three days."

Gloria frowned slightly and looked at him calmly without saying a word.

Jonathan sighed helplessly, thinking he couldn't do anything about this smart woman. So, he could only say, "Okay! Ask your friend to come over. I'll leave after she arrives. Otherwise, I would worry about you."

Hearing his words, Gloria was slightly moved and looked at him with a complicated look in her eyes. She knew it would be useless to persuade him because he would definitely not leave until seeing Nydia.

He was always so thoughtful that Gloria almost suspected he had really fallen in love with her.

But she also knew how fickle in love he was. It could be said that he was very skilled in flirting with girls.

However, Gloria had misunderstood Jonathan. His bad reputation as a playboy was just a public persona he had built up by himself. And when others said so, he had never retorted. But in fact, he had never allowed any other women to approach him except for Gloria.

When Gloria took out her phone and called Nydia, the latter quickly answered the call and asked, "What's up? Are you done?"

"Yes. Please come here."

"Okay!"

After hanging up the phone, Nydia rushed over in a hurry. Opening the door, she didn't take a look around but said with a smile, "I am a judicious friend, right? If I had joined your meal, I would have become the third wheel and disturbed your date!"

Gloria was speechless.

As soon as Nydia finished speaking, she found Jonathan looking at her with a smile in a chair, so she also fell silent. But he said, "Yes, you're very judicious. I'm glad Gloria has such a good friend."

Both Nydia and Gloria were at a loss for words, and the latter covered her forehead with her hand in embarrassment.

Jonathan's smile grew bigger when he looked at Gloria and said softly, "Would you like to have dinner with me tonight?"

"No, thanks. I'm sick, so I need to rest," Gloria declined without hesitation.

Nydia closed the door embarrassedly, looked at Gloria, and coughed, "I... I didn't know SO..."

she had seen Jonathan just now, she had and she couldn't change it. After all, there was had said later had completely distracted her attention. She Gloria touched her forehead and said helplessly, "Let's go."

Then, she stood up. Seeing this, Nydia coughed awkwardly and said, "Anyway, you've made your attitude clear. Jonathan is so smart, so he must know I was just joking."

Gloria shook her head helplessly, "Forget it! Let's stop talking about him."

"OK. Are we going home?"

"Yes."

Now that Gloria had not fully recovered, she naturally did not need to go to the company.

But after she had said those words to Claude today, he would give her a promotion soon before she went back to work.

After half a month, Claude really promoted her.

Gloria and Nydia had been at home all the time recently. Jonathan had occasionally contacted Gloria, but the latter had always been cold to him.

Now, Bryson could be discharged from the hospital.

Gloria was happy that he would fully recover soon, but at the same time, she had a headache because she didn't know what to do next or how to get along with him.

During this period, Gloria had stayed connected with Bryson. So, when he called her now, she could only helplessly pick up her phone and said, "Bryson, what's up?"

"Gloria, are you at home? Can I go to meet you?"

"You haven't recovered yet! Don't leave the hospital. Otherwise, you would make us worry. When you fully recover, there will be many opportunities for us to meet. And I will go to your home to visit you then."

Bryson's eyes darkened when he said, "But I miss you."

Gloria subconsciously clenched her phone, and the nasty feeling in her heart got stronger and

Nydia knew

Gloria must be depressed, so after a pause, she sent a message and asked, (How about we go to your home tonight? Jennifer, are you available?)

Jennifer replied, (Yes! Let's talk about it tonight)

Gloria immediately expressed her gratitude with a meme.

When Jennifer and Nydia arrived in the evening, Gloria decided to have a meal at home.

So, they happily cooked together. Because Gloria was still ill and couldn't be tired, they just cooked three dishes including soup.

During the meal, no one mentioned Bryson.

Gloria didn't want to mention him, for fear of making the other two girls uncomfortable.

As for Nydia and Jennifer, they were afraid that Gloria would lose her appetite, so they were always chatting about interesting topics.

After the meal, both Nydia and Jennifer rushed to do the dishes, so Gloria sat still and let them do it.

When the three sat on the sofa after finishing all the other things, they had to face up to the problem of meeting Bryson tomorrow.
