

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 626-630

Chapter 626

I Miss You

“Are you at home?”

Gloria responded calmly, “Yes, I was about to sleep.”

Jonathan smiled, “Okay, can we have lunch tomorrow?”

The corner of Gloria’s mouth twitched slightly, “Sorry, I’m not free.”

“Tut.” Jonathan raised an eyebrow, “You should come up with a better excuse.”

Gloria didn’t want to waste time on him, but just said calmly, “Is there anything else?”

“Yes.”

“Go ahead.” Gloria was not in a hurry to hang up.

“I miss you.”

Gloria was speechless.

She didn’t want to hear him say these rubbish things anymore, so she was about to hang up directly.

But Jonathan obviously had guessed she was going to hang up. When her finger was about to touch the screen, his voice had already been heard.

“Have you got any ideas about the plan?”

“Not yet. I’ve been thinking about it recently.”

She had a lot of things to do recently, and she couldn’t cooperate with Jonathan in the near future, so she was not in a hurry to think about the plan.

Gloria nodded, “OK, it’s getting late. I’m going to sleep. If there’s nothing else.”

She didn’t finish speaking, but she had made her intention clear.

Jonathan sighed, “Okay, have an early rest. I’ll see you at noon tomorrow.”

Gloria immediately said with a frown, “Jonathan.”

She only said this.

Jonathan smiled softly, "That's the only way to stop you from hanging up?"

Gloria frowned again, but before she could say anything else, Jonathan said with a smile, "I'm just kidding. Goodnight."

In fact, Jonathan wouldn't go too far in teasing her, and he had a good sense of propriety, so he wasn't very annoying.

Gloria said goodbye and then hung up.

But...

When she was about to sleep, she received a message.

She was annoyed, but when she saw that the message was from Claude, she suddenly felt wide awake.

Claude, (When will you continue the work today?)

She replied directly, [Now.]

Claude was so happy to see it!

He immediately replied something to express his gratitude.

Gloria decided to get out of bed. After all, it was only nine o'clock in the evening. She went to the computer, sat down, and directly began to crack the program.

As for Jordy...

He was watching the hacker, and when he found someone was trying to break into their program, he intercepted her himself.

The technicians of the Collins Group were all relieved when they saw this. Their president was more skillful than them. Now they were not that tense anymore!

But...

In the face-off.

Jordy was like being defeated, and was also like letting her in.

They negotiated. Gloria told him her intention again. She had the bottom line and wouldn't break into the last floor, but she couldn't stop now for some reason. She would give Jordy some compensation afterwards.

But how could Jordy believe her words? She was breaking into the program floor by floor. How could he watch her keeping do this?

But...

Jordy still let her in. Nobody knew what he was thinking

But...

Chapter 627

A Big Mistake

The people in the technology department had started talking about it.

"Is Mr. Collins using some kind of strategy? He didn't intercept the hacker, but was like trying to get the information about the hacker?"

The speaker was a young man in his early twenties, but he was ranked among the best in the country for his skills. He was handsome, wearing gold-rimmed glasses, which could easily attract girls' attention.

As soon as he finished speaking, a sturdy man retorted directly in a rough voice, "Are you serious? Are we going to watch the other side break into all the floors?"

The gentle young man frowned slightly, looked at the sturdy man and said in a deep voice, "But you know Mr. Collins' superb skills. He didn't stop the cracker. I mean, he might have got some plans. Maybe he could find the trails of the hacker when the hacker got dizzy with success."

Other people nodded, "Yeah, that is possible."

While these people were talking about it, Gloria had broken into the tenth floor.

The people in the technical department were flustered.

"What's going on... Why didn't Mr. Collins continue to stop the hacker?"

"Oh... God..."

"Mr. Collins might be checking the hacker's IP? He's trying to get her information?"

"It's not good. Is anything wrong?"

Jordy whom they were talking about was sitting in his office and clicking on the keyboard. The long codes on the screen were constantly changing, which could dazzle people.

He didn't feel anything wrong but just continued to tap on the keyboard quickly.

When he pressed on Enter in the end, he turned graver.

The camera was on for a moment, and he saw a thin figure.

He couldn't see her face at all.

But when he was trying to see it clearly, the camera was suddenly turned off by the other party.

He was familiar with the slender figure.

He even wondered if he was mistaken!

How could it be her?

Then he stopped, picked up his mobile phone and directly got up.

At the moment, Gloria looked grave.

She made a serious mistake!

She forgot to invert the camera completely!

The other party had taken a picture of her.

If she guessed right, the person who just turned on her camera was Jordy.

She knew Jordy's hacking skills.

At least, she was sure that none of the employees in the Collins Group could break into her computer, but Jordy...

He should be staying with grandma, shouldn't he?

Gloria frowned more deeply.

Her phone suddenly beeped again.

Claude, (I've remitted another 300 million dollars to you. Thank you!)

Gloria didn't reply. Recently, she had received more than one billion dollars from Claude. She felt great.

She didn't know if Jordy was still there. She wanted to have a look.

Jordy didn't try to stop her. He was trying to figure out who was breaking into their program.

Then he was probably going to find out her IP.

Gloria sighed. She was also helpless when she met powerful rivals.

Chapter 628

Silence Was a Yes

An hour later.

When Gloria continued to crack the program and nobody stopped her, her doorbell rang.

She froze in surprise, tapped on the keyboard twice, and stopped. Then she got up and walked toward the door.

She was a little surprised. Who would come to her so late?

Was it Bryson?

Bryson chatted with her on the phone for a while, and she only responded to him indifferently.

But...

When she came to the door and saw it was Jordy, she suddenly turned grave.

She immediately went back to the computer and quickly tapped on the keyboard. After the desktop was restored to its original state, she directly turned off the screen.

The doorbell was still ringing. Gloria went back to the door and opened it.

"Why did you come to me at this late hour?"

To her surprise, Jordy didn't knock on her door hard this time.

However, when she saw there was no anger in Jordy's calm and cold eyes as she used to see, she was a little flustered.

Had Jordy found out it was her?

But...

The camera didn't capture her face at that time, and it was only on for a moment. Could he really find out it was her?

But if he hadn't found it out, he should be in the company at this time, right? The cracker was breaking into their program. Why did he come to her?

A cold look flashed across Gloria's eyes. She didn't speak

Jordy didn't care whether Gloria got out of the way or not, but walked in directly, smelling the smell of her in the house. Somehow, all his annoyance seemed to have been dispelled by the fragrance.

Gloria didn't say anything but closed the door.

Without looking for Gloria's computer, Jordy went to the sofa and sat down, resting his eyes on her.

"You are working for Claude? You want revenge?"

Light flickered in Gloria's eyes. He indeed had found out it was her.

He had given up stopping her but come to her. What else could she say?

Gloria went to the sofa on the other side and sat down, "Since you've known it was me, I'll be frank with you. I won't do anything to your Collins Group. I'll stop after breaking into the 19th floor."

It was really her!

Jordy's eyes froze for a moment.

Although he felt that the figure was similar to hers and saw a small red mole on the figure's arm, he was so shocked when Gloria admitted it!

It was her...

How could it be her?

Gloria was one of the Three Musketeers!

"You are Black Rose."

It was known that the Three Musketeers were two men and one woman, but no one knew their real identities.

Black Rose was Gloria's alias.

Black Roses was also known as rudbeckia hirta. They were called Black Roses for the color of their center, but it had nothing to do with what they meant. Black Roses meant fair and just and to judge whether it was right or wrong with a standard. They looked like sunflowers, facing the direction of the sun, representing the good conduct of being upright, fair and just.

Black roses looked very unique. They were beautiful, and special, and represented unique love. People could use them to express their feelings and love.

They also represented purity, elegance, faithfulness, integrity and perseverance.

Gloria did not speak, but her silence was already a yes.

Chapter 629

Awesome

Jordy suddenly laughed with anger. Gloria, good for you!

Light twinkled slightly in Gloria's eyes as she looked at him.

After all, she was breaking into his company's program. He might not believe what she said.

Thinking of this, she said, "Claude has done so many evil things. He killed my father, and his daughter ruined my marriage. His whole family is evil. I must take revenge on them. After I break into one floor, Claude will give me a hundred million dollars, and no refund if I fail."

Jordy was speechless.

He looked at Gloria and said nothing.

When he heard her say "his daughter ruined my marriage", his heart suddenly did a somersault.

She earned two billion dollars so easily.

In fact, she could get the thing done in one day with her superb skills.

But to keep Claude guessing in anxiety, she decided to get it done in several days.

At this moment, this woman was stealing the most important secret information of their company, but when he knew it was her, he wasn't angry.

He looked at her calmly, "I won't stop you if you want to break into the last floor."

Gloria's eyes froze slightly. She looked at him and opened her mouth slowly, "What's the condition?"

He clearly had a condition.

Jordy said, "Promise me that you will visit grandma more than 20 times in the next two months. I know you will keep your promise."

His implication was that he would not stop her as long as she agreed.

Gloria would get the benefits before she fulfilled her promise.

She was a little surprised, "Are you sure this is the only condition?"

She could visit grandma 20 times and it was not a condition for her at all.

A while ago, she was busy and didn't have time to visit grandma. She felt guilty and wanted to visit her more frequently in the future. However, Jordy made such a request?

"You've got a problem with that?"

"No, I can do that."

Jordy gave her a calm look, "Okay, go back to your work."

Gloria was confused.

He was not leaving?

Did he want to stay here and see how she broke into the program?

When she was thinking, Jordy had already walked to her study.

Gloria immediately frowned, "Jordy."

"Let me see how Black Rose cracks a program."

Gloria got up and followed him, as if she were afraid that he might tamper with her computer. She said in a flat tone, "You have seen me through the camera. There's no need to see me crack it, isn't it?"

Jordy pulled a chair to her computer desk.

Obviously he wanted to sit beside her.

Gloria frowned slightly but didn't say anything.

Since he didn't stop her, she should try to be nice. She simply went to the computer and clattered on the keyboard.

Her fingers were fair, tender, slender, and perfectly proportioned.

Jordy couldn't take his eyes off her beautiful fingers. He completely ignored the screen.

Her fingers danced quickly on the keyboard. Jordy seemed to see double. He slowly raised his eyes at Gloria who was looking at the computer calmly.

Her long hair fell down on both sides of her cheeks, hiding part of her face, which made her face look smaller.

Her eyes were calm without any other emotions. Jordy looked at her eyes carefully but he couldn't see the emotion hiding beneath her eyes.

She pressed "Enter" and sent Claude something to prove that she had done her work.

Claude, (Thank you! Good job! You are awesome!)

Chapter 630

You Really Think Jordy Will Do Nothing About It?

Gloria sneered as a cold look flashed across her eyes.

After seeing the payment information, she continued to break into the next floor.

She seemed to... have ignored the man beside me.

Jordy was surprised to find that he could stay with Gloria so casually

Every time he saw her, they would be aggressive toward each other.

Now, although they were not talking, the air was relaxing

As for the people in the technical department of the Collins Group...

They were even more confused.

The sturdy man opened his mouth with shock, "Shoot! This guy has broken into the eighteenth floor. Why hasn't Mr. Collins let us stop her?"

The man with golden-rimmed glasses was also dumbfounded, "Mr. Collins has left the hacker alone and told us to leave this behind. Maybe he has got a plan.”

The others have been staring at the computer screen, “Which one of the Three Musketeers is doing this? It’s really terrifying!”

“Maybe... Mr. Collins does not intend to stop her anymore. They might have reached an agreement. Since he has told us to leave this behind, we don’t have to worry about it anymore.”

The others kept silent.

The White family.

Martha was very worried about Claude even when she was taking care of Angela in the hospital.

She was really afraid that Claude would fail and they would lose all their money.

Claude laughed happily but she was more and more worried.

Claude saw Martha’s cold face and immediately sneered, “Why are you having such a look? See? We will get the secret information of the Collins Group soon!”

Martha looked grave, “The Collins Group is powerful. You really think someone has the guts to mess up with them? We came to this point just because we took a small risk. Claude, you’ve been fooled! But you still don’t realize it. You are really crazy!”

“Look! Look! Now that guy has broken into the 19th floor! Then there will only be the last floor. I’ll succeed! Come here and have a look!”

Claude had cold-shouldered Martha because of the stupid things she did before. In addition, she made so many waves these days, so he had already disliked her.

Martha came over angrily, “Claude, you are crazy!”

She couldn’t stop Claude at all. All their money was on him. He could do whatever he wanted.

Now she could only watch Claude do stupid things!

Seeing that Claude showed her all the evidence, Martha was dumbfounded, “They...”

She unconsciously stretched out to hold Claude’s mobile phone, but...

Claude retracted his hand holding the phone, “You can only look.”

Martha frowned and felt that something was wrong, but she fixed her eyes on the mobile phone for fear of missing something.

Just after Claude showed her all the evidence, Martha was still in a daze.

Claude snorted coldly, "Will you believe me now?"

Martha took a light breath and shook her head, "The hacker broke into the 19th floor so easily? You really think Jordy will do nothing about it?"
