Chapter 81 This Is Too Much

Gossip kept brewing in the office

Time ticked on. Soon it was afternoon.

Angela kept herself in motion. She went to the old house of the Collins family.

She brought with her many gifts to please the Collins family

Angela had notified Olivia in advance and Olivia went there before her.

As soon as Angela entered the house, she was immediately received by Olivia with a warm welcome. "Hi, Angela, you're here!

Angela smiled and greeted her, "Hi, Mis Collins."

Angela handed over the gift, which was an expensive skincare product and said, "Mrs Collins, I've asked my friend to send me this from abroad. It's a genuine brand and highly efficacious. Take it and try it. If you feel good about this, I'll ask my friend to send me some more."

Olivia took the gift and smiled politely, "Oh, thank you so much. It's so nice of you to bring me a gift. I also have to thank you for saving my son's life. You have suffered a lot. I will never forget your kindness."

Angela shook her head out of politeness. "Actually, I did that out of instinct. If it happened to me again, I might just run away without caring much."

"Come on, Angela, come and sit down."

Angela nodded. Then the two of them walked towards the sofa and sat down together.

Angela looked around and asked, "Mrs. Collins, are you home alone?"

Olivia paused with shock, and the next moment she smiled and said, "Grandma is at home as well, but she's not feeling well, so she didn't come downstairs."

Angela's eyes glittered. She nodded, wearing a smile. "Well, then, I'd better not disturb her."

"It's all right. But why don't we two have a good chat alone? So how are you these days? Are you busy?"

Angela smiled and shook her head. "No, not busy. But I'll go to Jordy when I'm free. I want to ask him to think it over. After all, I think we'd been husband and wife and we made a nice couple."

"My dear," Olivia shook her head with bitterness. "You are just too kind. If Gloria had a temperament like you do, I wouldn't have agreed to their divorce. Besides, she never gives birth to any child after marrying for three years. It is not what I'd wished for. And I had nothing to do about it."

Angela shook her head, showing her disagreement. "It's not like that, Mrs. Collins. They still need more time for them to get used to with each other in their relationship."

Besides, I saw Gloria and Mr. Collins in the cafe today. I saw them talking and laughing so I guess, like I do, Mr Collins must also want to persuade Gloria and Jordy to get back together."

Olivia suddenly looked stern. "Did you see Mr. Collins there?"

Angela nodded somewhat unexpectedly, "Yes, Mrs Collins, didn't you know?"

Suddenly a tinge of coldness flashed across Olivia's eyes while Angela continued, "There are photos spreading around on the Internet. Someone has posted photos of them together and then there come the rumors. But Mrs. Collins, you don't have to worry about those rumors because they are not true."

Olivia looked at Angela with a grim face, "What did people say about them?"

"Well..." Angela looked a little embarrassed at once. But she smiled the embarrassment away and said, "Mrs. Collins, people are just grasping the hot topic to gossip. You don't have to take it seriously."

Olivia noticed that something went wrong and immediately took out her mobile phone. She would occasionally check out what was going on Twitter among her circle.

That day, she had been so occupied that she didn't even have time to check out the information. But then as she turned on Twitter, she found photos of Gloria and Newell spreading all over the internet in all kinds of postures.

Angela sniffed secretly. When Angela took the photos, she didn't worry about the risk of doing so because she knew how hard people wanted to hear about some juicy stories of the two of them. It was afraid that this kind of slander was what everybody wanted.

"This is too much!"

Remarriage? Never and Go Away! Chapter 82

Chapter 82 Is It God's Power?

Angela pretended to agree, nodding and saying, "Yeah, the photos are really too much. But there are always slanders on the internet. Mrs. Collins, it happens frequently nowadays."

"No! I mean, they went too far." Olivia looked bitter. She didn't mind Angela being there and instantly dialed a number on her mobile phone.

It was quickly connected. Olivia gritted her teeth and asked, "Where are you now?"

Newell answered calmly, 'on my way home.'

Olivia was suppressing her temper, clenching her cellphone and said, 'why didn't you tell me you are coming back? And did you go to meet Gloria?'

A fierce look flashed across Angela's eyes. She thought if the couple had a quarrel, Olivia would look down on Gloria even more. If so, Gloria would be able to get back with Jordy and come back to the Collins family again.

Besides, old Mr. Collins was the true ruler of the family. He didn't like Gloria either. In fact, old Mr. Collins liked me very much and wanted me to marry Jordy instead. So I had a big chance.

Angela pulled the corner of Olivia's clothes. Angela didn't speak, but her eyes were full of worries.

Olivia held her hand firmly and said coldly to the person on the phone, come back to the house right now. I have something to ask you. Don't you know you are bringing shame to our family? Don't you know the media is full of your scandal?'

With that, she hung up the phone.

Angela was worried about her at that moment. 'Mrs. Collins, you don't have to quarrel with Mr. Collins if he comes back home later. It must be a misunderstanding. As long as you make a clarification to the public, people who slandered him would apologize soon.'

Olivia sneered, 'if it was really innocent between them, there is no need for clarification.'

Previously, she had thought Newell was being too nice to Gloria. Back then, she didn't think too much about it and thought it was just a good family atmosphere. But then it seemed things must not be as simple as she thought between them.

At that moment, Gloria had left work, but she had been observing things around. She had spotted a shopping mall and found it very promising there. It happened that the owner of the mall wanted to cash in because of some urgency

The mall was in good operation. It had always been a profitable business. Therefore she disguised herself after work and went there directly

She wanted to take the deal.

She had put on sunglasses and a mask so that it was hard for others to recognize her.

After arriving at the mall, she went to meet the owner and made clear her intention

Before that, they had already had the price negotiated and set. So that day, she would go there to check the mall the last time, and then she would buy it if there was no other problem..

The owner was showing her around the mall, introducing the condition of the mall intermittently. He couldn't help sighing. I've devoted all my heart to this place. But I'm a little bit light so I have to give up on this place. Young Miss, I think you're quite young. If you have any difficulties in the future, you can call me at any time, and I'll teach you how to do it."

Gloria was very grateful and said, "Thank you, Mr. Rodriguez."

Mr. Rodriguez shook his head with bitterness, "You're welcome. I'll soon hand over this place."

After a quick tour, Gloria was very satisfied with this place. I'll take this place as we've agreed, Mr. Rodriguez.

Let's sign the contract

She had prepared the contract in advance. She took it out and handed it over to Mr. Rodriguez, "you can check it with your lawyer first. If there is no problem, we will sign it."

Mr. Rodriguez took the contract. He knew people who were able to buy a mall, who must come from the wealthy circle and certainly were experienced in this. He nodded, "Okay, I'll call my lawyer now."

Gloria nodded and saw Mr. Rodriguez going to some corner to make a phone call.

The transaction would be completed that night.

However...

Things didn't go as she wished. It was either God's wishes or someone was deliberately playing against her.

Remarriage? Never and Go Away! Chapter 83

Chapter 83 Double Amount of Money

After finishing the phone call, Mr. Rodriguez went over and talked to Gloria. But suddenly he received another call.

Mr. Rodriguez seemed to be a little stern. From time to time, he glanced at Gloria, and there was a tinge of regret in his eyes.

Gloria naturally noticed something was wrong. But she was puzzled. Soon, Mr.

Rodriguez walked over and looked at Gloria with guilt, "Ms. White, I'm really sorry. I'm afraid I can't sell this place to you.'

Gloria was shocked with puzzlement 'Is there something wrong?

Mr. Rodriguez couldn't help sighing. "It's my fault I have no strength over my own mall.

A big shot just called me and asked me to sell it to him He said otherwise."

He didn't continue, but obviously it must have involved Mr. Rodriguez's own interests

Gloria frowned slightly. 'is it convenient to tell me who the person is?'

Mr Rodriguez said reluctantly, 'Fine, people will know who he is later on I have nothing to hide. It's the Collins group

Gloria's face suddenly turned grave.

Although Mr. Rodriguez's shopping mall was profitable and in stable motion, it was still impossible for the distinguished Collins Group to invest in this place. Besides, she almost made the deal. And out of the blue they intervened in her deal.

Isn't this deliberately tarted at me?

Isn't this deliberately tarted at me?

Gloria eyes were full of bitterness. She felt it was ridiculous.

Mr. Rodriguez looked at Gloria with a guilty face, "Ms. White, I'm really sorry.'

He couldn't help sighing again, 'Mr. Collins is coming now, and he will be here soon. So you...'

No one would want to offend a powerful, wealthy family like the Collins. If it was just an ordinary person, he might not have given in. But it was different this time. It was the Collins family. Therefore he had to sacrifice the young lady's deal.

He had no power to say no to the Collins,

He had no power to say no to the Collins,

Gloria was looking more and more grim. This is near robbery."

As soon as Jordy walked in, he heard Gloria's cursing. He scorned, 'It is always the powerful who own the world. Since you are weak, you have no right to blame others for taking away your opportunity

Gloria immediately turned her head and saw Jordy with her disdainful looks. She grilled her teeth. She hated it when this man was being so ungenerous.

She couldn't believe he would come pick on her after they had divorced. She gruded heavily that he even came all the way around to ruin her deal.

Gloria sneered, "Mr Collins is not an ordinary man"

Jordy looked sharp Mr Rodriguez sensed that the atmosphere between the two of them was quite strange. He hurried to Jordy and politely said, "Mr. Collins, you are here. May I show you around?"

Jordy glanced coldly at Gloria and said calmly. "No need. We can sign the contract now I already have my people investigate it."

With that, he took the contract and handed him a credit card. "The money here is enough for you to buy two malls like this."

Mr. Rodriguez was shocked. He had no choice but to sell the mall because he needed money badly. But then Jordy offered to pay him the double amount.

"Oh it's. " he shook his head. Just as Mr. Rodriguez was about to say something, Jordy stopped him impatiently and said, 'check out the money. If there is no problem, then look at the contract and we may sign.

Remarriage? Never and Go Away! Chapter 84

Chapter 84 She Would Show No Mercy

Mr. Rodriguez knew what happened immediately. He knew Jordy wasn't kidding him or otherwise, he wouldn't need to prepare a contract. He took the credit card and signed the contract without hesitation. Then he smiled and said, "Done. I'll help you claim the ownership of the mall tomorrow."

Jordy looked calm and shoved the contract into Gloria's hands "Here you are."

Mr. Rodriguez was puzzled.

Gloria was shocked as well.

Seeing that the contract was about to fall out of her hand, she hurried to get hold of it.

But she looked at Jordy with puzzled eyes

Jordy sneered coldly, 'I know you hate me now, but there's no need to fight if you want this place, I'll buy it for you. I just hope that you won't come and bring disturbance to the Collins family again in the future.'

The disdain in his eyes made Gloria laugh. She threw the contract away, 'I remember I told you that whatever belonged to you was dirty and tainted'

Mr. Rodriguez didn't get hold of the situation,

So is she Ms. White? Mr Collins's ex-wife? That's why she is wearing sunglasses and a mask She did it because she didn't want other people to recognize her.

Jordy looked extremely sharp and stern, "Gloria.'

Gloria sniffed, 'Mr. Collins, you are so generous but I don't think I'm able to accept your generosity You might as well spend more time checking out who is plotting behind the scandals on the internet instead of picking on me. It's not like you. You have more demeanor than this. You are behaving like...'

Looking at Jordy's cold eyes, Gloria sneered slightly and said, 'a woman.'

Mr. Rodriguez didn't say anything

He was so dumbfounded that his eyes were wide open. He thought Ms. White should be a gentle and submissive lady

He didn't expect Ms. White to be so aggressive.

When he first contacted Jordy, he thought Jordy should be noble and inviolable, like a God descending from heaven. But at that time, he realized the pitiful hostility in Jordy when Jordy was talking to Ms. White.

The aura of these two people simply made Mr Rodriguez daunted so that he didn't even dare look directly at them. Not did he dare to intervene.

Jordy didn't get angry at her. He only laughed, "Gloria, don't be so ungrateful. I'm doing a favor for you."

Gloria was immediately enraged.

What a bastard!

She was so irritated after Jordy came all the way there to offer double paid to the owner. She knew he professed to compensate her and to warn her to stay away from the Collins family

She knew he did this for two purposes. First, he must want to insult her for being a gold-digger by letting people believe that he could bribe her with money

Second, he must have come there to satirize her and brag about his advantage over her. The disdain on his face really made her uncomfortable.

Gloria didn't want to look at him again he turned away directly.

The last thing she wanted was to have anything to do with him. She simply left without any hesitation.

Jordy turned grave on the face, with the veins bulging on his forehead. He was so outrageous by Gloria's reaction.

Mr. Rodriguez tiembled and was at a loss. Jordy had told his people to take over the deal and strode away quickly

The two of them who were once husband and wife ended up like enemies when they met each other.

After Gloria left the mall, she felt the air outside the mall was much fresher.

She hailed a taxi and left.

When Jordy came out, he saw her getting in a car and left without looking back.

There was coldness in his eyes. But at last, he bit his lips and left.

Gloria sat in the taxi, leaning back in the chair as if she was recovering her energy that way.

She had made a decision.

Bastard! How dare he humiliate me today? When we arrive at the court in the future, I won't show any mercy to him

Time passed quickly, and soon the day of the trial was around the corner.

Remarriage? Never and Go Away! Chapter 85

Chapter 85 You Will See

Early in the morning. Gloria went out. At this point, a blue Lamborghini was downstairs. Gloria looked at it, and Jonathan opened the door next to the driver's seat and got out, His dark blue suit contrasted with his pale complexion, which made him look less like a young boy than a gentleman.

People who didn't know that lie was a cold man would think he was a caring guy
'Morning'

Jonathan came over and opened the passenger seat door for her with a surprised look
Gloria always gave him unexpected surprises

Today. Gloria was only wearing a black formal suit.

At the law firm, she was also wearing formal clothes, but at the moment, it felt different. She twisted her long hair up She looked very clean today Jonathan kept staring at her Gloria got into the car without hesitation and replied, 'Morning Anyway, the two were on the same side.

Jonathan handed her the breakfast. 'You didn't eat breakfast, did you?'

Without taking it, Gloria whispered, 'I'm in good habits, so I've already had breakfast Eat it if you haven't.'

Jonathan put down his breakfast and smiled. 'Okay. Let's go to court now.'

Gloria didn't speak Jonathan drove as usual, but he didn't seem accustomed to the quiet atmosphere in the car. He glanced at Gloria and said, 'Will you be nervous then?'
Gloria raised her eyebrows. What do you think?

Jonathan smiled. 'Norma certainly wouldn't be nervous if she was here, but I'm afraid you'll think you're Gloria.'

They were the same person, but his words made the two names different

Gloria had always been in love with a man, who was her ex-husband. But Norma was different She never cared about anything but the law. Gloria said with a calm expression, "Gloria is the same as Norma. They are both single Jonathan continued to smile I won't worry if you say that Gloria pursed her lips and said nothing However, thinking that Jordy would sit across from her late. she had an unnatural look Gloria took a breath and said nothing Jonathan was still chatting with her to ease the embarrassment

At the courthouse, Jonathan didn't let Glona get out of the car but went to the parking lot After turning off the engine. Jonathan looked at Gloria and said with a smile 'Let's go.' Glona nodded and the two got out of the car together Jonathan bent his arm if you're nervous, you can put your arm around mine" Gloria looked at him with a vague smile "Do you really think I'll be merciful? Jonathan smiled I just wanted an excuse to take advantage of you Gloria was speechless. She quivered the corners of her mouth. This time, I will double your interests Jonathan was a little surprised 'Are you sure?' He was questioning her emotions rather than abilities. Gloria smiled. You will see With that Gloria walked in A: the moment Jordy and George were also there and walking in He turned back and saw Jonathan and Gionia approaching

Chapter 86 A Grand Show

Jordy had a gloomy expression. Sensing that something was wrong, George turned his head and saw the two walking over with a happy chat, which made his lips quiver silently

"My ex-wife doesn't seem well-behaved."

At this moment, Jonathan and Gloria saw Jordy's ghastly expression and sharp gaze, Jonathan smiled, but before he could say anything, Jordy walked away.

George glanced at Gloria, gave her a middle finger, and walked away.

Jonathan smiled and glanced at Gloria, who continued going inside without speaking.

At this moment, Jordy was already sitting on the dock,

However, seeing the name on the opposite table, he had a more ghastly expression!

George also saw that and said in surprise, "What? Gloria is also a lawyer?"

Jordy gritted his teeth and said nothing

George was speechless. "Did Jonathan sue you just to show off their intimacy in front of you?"

Jordy was angry but still whispered, "No."

'No?' George smiled. 'Then why is Gloria his defender? It's not a joke!'

Jordy didn't speak with a gloomy expression,

"Gloria went to great lengths to get your attention. Also, was Jonathan being too careless? If people know your ex-wife was his advocate, they will blame him and cause the stock to plummet.”

He seemed to be getting more and more interested while Jordy’s gazes were getting colder.

At this moment, the audience came and sat down.

They were curious about lawyers for both parties.

However, seeing Gloria, everyone was surprised and couldn’t help but talk about her.

It wasn’t until Gloria walked in with Jonathan and sat in the plaintiff’s box that everyone finally confirmed that this was indeed Gloria.

But the next moment, everyone was even more incredulous!

At the same time

Nydia in the audience widened her eyes ‘My God! Mr Brown’s lawyer is Gloria? Her opponent is George! Competing against George, Gloria will definitely learn a lot!”

Irene smiled. Just look You’ll find out later.”

Nydia was very envious When she came, she bumped into Irene and came in with her.

Because of Irene, they could sit in the front

The atmosphere in the courtroom was very solemn. After the judge came, everyone stood up with serious expressions. No one was whispering

The judge sat down, and so did the audience. Then, the lawsuit began.

At first, a guy introduced and summarized the case, setting the stage for the following judging.

The audience all stared at them. At present, the lawyers of the two parties had not started the debate, so everyone was looking forward to it.

Also, their expectations had changed because Jonathan’s lawyer was Jordy’s ex-wife! Mr. Collins’ expression seemed to indicate that he was about to kill someone. After all, no one could stand such humiliation.

However, seeing their state at this time, the audiences were all waiting for a grand show.

Remarriage? Never and Go Away! Chapter 87

Chapter 87 Possible Reversal

However, this was the courtroom, so they couldn’t use the camera. Otherwise, they would videotape this entire lawsuit!

They want everyone to see this wonderful show

No one thought Gloria was amazing They were just interested in this gossip.

While the audience waited, the case presentation ended.

The judge had a calm expression. ‘Defendant, what do you want to say about the plaintiff’s statement?’

George was prepared and guessed what his rival would mention, so he started without hesitation,

‘We are against it’

Jordy sat there and stared sharply at Gloria, not wanting to hear what George was saying

Jonathan raised his eyebrows, feeling that the following would be more and more interesting

“We have five objections to the issues raised by the plaintiffs ”

“First, according to the Contract Law and the General Principles of Civil Law, the virtual property is protected...”

Immediately after, George made five clear points, which could not be refuted. He thought Jonathan would definitely lose

But after he finished speaking, Gloria still had a calm expression

“Sorry, none of your five points makes sense.”

George was taken aback and saw Gloria suddenly smile. George would be terrified if she was Norma. Everything was flawed and rebuttable. Norma would definitely explain clearly

But if someone else was against everything he said, George could conclude that the opponent would lose completely

An incompetent one would surely fail if he or she dared to do this.

Even the judge had a surprised expression at this moment.

Nydia was suddenly worried. “Gloria... You jumped into the trap yourself...”

Irene smiled. “Why did you say that?”

Nydia pursed her lips. “Usually, no one would directly object to the five points he made. George explained each point very well. To disprove him, one needs super high expressive ability and sufficient evidence. But I have seen this case. Brown Group is not dominant. Gloria’s view is a bit far-fetched.”

Irene smiled. “So, this lawsuit is challenging.”

Nydia was a little worried, “Yes, but it’s going to affect Gloria a lot. She hasn’t worked for three years, which might make her a little bit oblivious to the law...”

She sighed. In any case, facing George, she would definitely lose, so Gloria could only take this as an experience

Irene smiled. “Don’t jump to conclusions so soon. There might be a reversal.”

Nydia glanced at Irene suspiciously, wondering why she said that. After all, it was a doomed defeat.

Before she could ask, Gloria had already started a defense.

“First of all, according to the Contract Law and the United States Code, the virtual property is protected by law, but it depends on the circumstances. Collins Group’s conduct seriously violated the interests of Brown Group and was warned several times, which is an act of domination.”

“Secondly, according to the law of the United States, part of the design scheme adopted by Collins Group is plagiarism from that of Brown Group. In this project, Collins Group adopted this scheme without our permission and provided false evidence. For Brown Group, this is a serious infringement. For the outside world, this is fraud.”

Remarriage? Never and Go Away! Chapter 88

Chapter 88 The Harsh Argument

“Thirdly, after the project started, the defendant...”

Gloria articulated five arguments against George perfectly, which made Jordy slumped for a moment.

At this time, George's expression also changed. He had always regarded Gloria as an ordinary lawyer, but every word she said was perfect, like a bullet hitting his heart! If these five arguments couldn't be refuted, Gloria would be the balance-breaker Jonathan smiled. Gloria didn't lie to him. Gloria hadn't looked at Jordy the whole time. After speaking to George, she looked at the judge. "We have explained the five points they raised, so I will elaborate on our lawsuit next "

The judge was surprised and puzzled about Gloria, but he nodded anyway, "Go ahead." Gloria nodded while everyone found a very important problem at this time! Nydia was dumbfounded "Oh my God! Gloria doesn't even have the material!" Irene smiled. In this regard, she used to worry that Gloria would forget something, but later, she found that the material was useless 10 Gloria. Also, these might be stolen by adversaries and become their weapons. As Gloria elaborated, Nydia said again in disbelief, 'So Gloria just said what was in her mind, right? She could precisely come up with some legal terms, which were exactly the rebuttals to George's remarks."

"Lawyers need to guess the opponent's arguments in advance, but who can guess so accurately? Gloria..."

Nydia couldn't believe it and lost her suspicion of Gloria. As George's opponent, Gloria prevailed, which showed that it wasn't that simple! At this moment, not only Nydia, but all the audiences were dumbfounded. They thought Gloria was just a rookie, but no one expected her to be so amazing. George was caught off guard

Soon, Gloria made three other well-founded and irrefutable arguments, making the crowd realize that the Collins Group really went too far this time. It was as if Gloria made up a story but made everyone think it was true Jordy's gazes were sharper, which revealed his anger!

Gloria!
Gloria!
You are hiding so much from me!

He knew Gloria had studied law but didn't care about it, thinking she was just a normal one So, he didn't expect George to go through a hard time at this point The judge looked at George "Defendant's turn."

George took a deep breath. He had guessed that Jonathan would get a great lawyer After all, Jonathan knew he would help Jordy Therefore, he was also fully prepared and could refute all of Gloria's arguments, except for the third one.

George frowned It was hard for him!
No one but Norma could make such an argument against him, but Gloria made it!
George began his defense.

"First point...
'Second point..."

His rebuttal was very reasonable. Even the judge nodded. For the third, however, George didn't know what to say for a moment.

Remarriage? Never and Go Away! Chapter 89

Chapter 89 Defeat

Everyone in the audience was worried about George. He was a very famous lawyer, and it would be a shame to be beaten by Gloria, who was a nobody in the legal world.

While the audience waited, George finally refuted her third argument

‘Thirdly, Miss White’s views do not meet the terms of appeal. According to...’

Gloria smiled. On this point, his response was somewhat far-fetched but acceptable.

She seemed to be a luminous object at this time. Jordy kept his eyes on her.

However, Gloria never looked at him. She seemed to be putting all her energy into the lawsuit

“Plaintiff’s turn.”

Gloria still didn’t have any material, and neither did Jonathan. However, Gloria could explain without any pause, seeming able to convince everyone

This time, George didn’t know what to do

He was a genius. He had some material in front of him, which was just his outline. All the legal terms were in his head. However, he didn’t know how to refute Gloria now.

Subsequently, George’s arguments became increasingly far-fetched, putting him in a weak position.

But Gloria didn’t stop and said with a calm expression, “We have the right to ask the defendants to hand over this project, as well as the profits they have earned from it, to the Brown Group. In addition, they need to pay 1.5 billion dollars in compensation.”

‘My God!

Nydia widened her mouth in surprise.

Unexpectedly, Brown Group, which was destined to be defeated, reversed and demanded additional compensation from Collins Group!

Jonathan smiled and looked at Jordy defiantly.

Jordy pursed his lips while his eyes glowed gloomily.

George had a ghastly look. They seemed to go too far!

“We are against it!

“Defendant’s turn.”

George clenched his fists, knowing they would lose

However, they could not be defeated so tragically, so he immediately said, ‘In response to the above statement of the plaintiff, we agree to hand over the project to the plaintiff without compensation.’

Immediately afterwards, he again made a series of arguments

Nydia couldn’t help taking a deep breath. “It’s amazing! Gloria is amazing!”

Irene smiled. Seeing Nydia so naive, she didn’t know what to say. It was normal that other people didn’t know about Gloria, but Nydia should be able to guess if she was smart enough

Gloria got along well with her, but everyone knew that she only took Norma as a friend and would definitely appear in a lawsuit in which Norma was involved.

However, Nydia had yet to realize their relationship.

People also thought Gloria was going too far. The Brown Group got the project again, which was a blessing and a testament to her abilities. However, it was unreasonable to ask for such a large amount of compensation. Jonathan smiled. Sure enough, Gloria didn't break her promise. He was very happy to receive so much compensation. Everyone initially disliked Gloria and didn't expect such an ending... Gloria's next words knocked down George's arguments one by one.

Remarriage? Never and Go Away! Chapter 90

Chapter 90 Everything I Own Will Be Yours

She talked calmly with a flat expression. There were no redundant or missing remarks. It was very quiet. Even the judge and some reviewers were a little dumbfounded. George clenched his fists. At this moment, he stopped talking. Because he had no chance to win. He looked at Jordy with a ghastly expression. 'Sorry I tried my best.' Jordy pursed his lips and said nothing. Failure was inevitable. After the small hammer in the judge's hand fell, Gloria looked at Jonathan with a smile. "How would you thank me?" Jonathan chuckled. 'With a marriage?' Both microphones were still on. Gloria lowered her voice so no one could hear what she was saying. However, Jonathan seemed to be deliberately trying to make everyone here hear it clearly! Jordy's cold gaze seemed to kill Jonathan in no time. Immediately afterwards, Jonathan smiled and said, 'Everyone, please let me introduce the women beside me.' Everyone was silent. It was Gloria. Someone so famous didn't need to be introduced. Startled, she looked at Jonathan. But before he could speak, George suddenly whispered, "You're Norma." People present were surprised. Everyone widened their eyes in disbelief. "My God! Norma?" At this moment, everyone suddenly came back to their senses. "Makes sense, or why did George lose? Only Norma could beat him! Jordy pursed his lips and said nothing while staring at Gloria with cold and sharp eyes, as if he wanted Gloria to explain it! Jonathan smiled. "You are very smart."

George's ghastly expression recovered a little. Before that, he felt humiliated to be defeated by a lay woman, but knowing she was Norma, he didn't feel so tragic. However, he still wanted to defeat this woman!

George whispered, 'I'll appeal.'

Gloria said flatly with a calm expression, "Always welcome."

Even if Jonathan won the case, George would appeal.

Jonathan was in a good mood. If they appealed, he could contact Gloria more and make her his girlfriend in the future.

Watching Jonathan smile at Gloria, Jordy had a somber expression. "No. I'll give in."

George was startled, "What?"

After appealing, they might have a chance to win. After all, this was the worst ending, He could try again.

Not only would they lose the project and the benefits gained from it, but they would also pay a lot, which was a tragedy for them.

Jordy got up and walked out coldly.

George quickly followed him.

Jonathan smiled at Gloria. "Thank you."

'You're welcome. I took your money'

'That compensation is extra, so I'll give it to you'

Gloria raised her eyebrows unexpectedly. 'Have you always been so generous to women?'

Jonathan smiled. Of course not only to you. If you agree to marry me, everything I own will be yours."
