Chapter 871 Jordan's Warning

"If we don't intervene, the company will become the White Group instead in the future. Jordy, you really let me down. Since when did you start caring about her?" Joseph was furious.

But Karen was delighted.

That was what she would like her grandson to do. You must be obsessed with Gloria!

Gloria was such an excellent girl. And she has another identity as Black Rose. How happy and lucky am I to have such a marvelous granddaughter!

You know, Black Rose is really a famous figure!

The next moment, she looked at Joseph and said seriously, "I'm happy about my son's happiness. You should pass down your position as soon as possible and don't bother yourself with these affairs."

Karen was in a good mood at that time.

Jordy looked indifferent and replied, "Whatever."

After that, he got up quickly without looking at Joseph, and walked out directly.

Karen looked at her grandson with worries, but Jordy was striding so fast that she soon lost sight of him. Karen immediately turned to Joseph angrily, "If you let me know that you are going to see Gloria, I will divorce you. And you will never see me again for the rest of your life."

"Karen!" Joseph roared.

But Karen walked out of the room directly without even seeing him.

Newell looked at Jordy intensely and said calmly, "So what do you think now? Do you really want to get married to Gloria again?"

"Yes." Jordy only burst out one word without any hesitation this time.

Newell gazed at him in surprise, "Have you really thought about it?"

"Yes."

Jordy uttered a single word again with composure.

Newell kept looking at him, "Do you really have feelings for Gloria or do you still feel the same way for her, that you only think she is a proper candidate as your wife?"

Jordan frowned as he heard the question. He turned his eyes to Newell and said, "Now, from your perspective, do you think Gloria will marry me because she likes me, judging from her state of mind? If there is no love in her callous heart, then I think it would be better for her to marry me than anyone else."

Chapter 874 Not to Offend Her

Soon it was the next day.

Gloria went to work as usual.

But rumors were festering.

Harold had already told people not to cross the line. Although no one was gossiping about it anymore, they still couldn't resist their feelings through their expressions and making eye contact.

Especially when they saw Gloria, people looked even more quizzically at her.

Gloria felt no different toward them and continued her routine work as usual.

Even if she was framed by others, she still could not stop her work. It didn't matter to her whether others believed the rumors or not. What mattered was whether Jordy believed in her.

She had argued with Joseph and if he was offended, he might cancel the cooperation between them. If so, she would feel that all her efforts would be wasted.

Gloria retreated her intense look, saying nothing. Because she sometimes thought there was nothing to say to Jonathan.

She was repulsed by this man, whose head was full of all those whimsical thoughts all day, which made her feel even more repugnant.

More than once, she had told Jonathan not to have any ulterior feelings for her, but he never listened. Soon she gave up trying.

Although many people thought that Jonathan was a tactful man, Jonathan still felt helpless and weak when facing

"I know. That's why I want you to know I care about you so much, Gloria. Don't you feel tired?"

Gloria looked at him without uttering a word.

Jonathan looked at her sincerely with those deep, dark eyes.

That was the first time that Jonathan had confessed his innermost feelings that sounded so sincere for the first time. after they knew each other. Hearing this, Gloria's eyes sparkled a little bit, but she could grow accustomed to the way Jonathan spoke.

The next moment, his magnetic and gentle voice was ringing near her ears.

"I know you don't like to depend on others. You only want to take revenge on your father by yourself. But you will feel more tired. In fact, friends always help each other. Why do you have to shut me off? Don't you ever believe that I am true to you?"

Another people commented online, saying, "Don't you feel shameful when you defend that woman? Did Gloria pay you to say so? We all know that Jordy and Jonathan were enemies but Gloria managed to exert her charm between the two men. Don't you think that there might be any deeper reasons behind that? It's ridiculous that you are still speaking up for this woman.'

The person replied, "What do you mean by I'm speaking up for her? I'm just telling the truth."

Then someone retorted, "But remember, when Gloria was divorcing Jordy, she appeared at the banquet with Jonathan and held his arms. She announced her divorce with Jordy that way. Think about that! It's clear evidence to show that she was having an affair with Jonathan, which has led to their divorce. After the divorce, she instantly helped Jonathan with the lawsuit against Jordy, making Jordy lose hundreds of billions. This is a huge amount of money! Everyone can see that Gloria is targeting Jonathan over Jordy. This time, Gloria chose to cooperate with Jordy, but in fact, we all know she only wanted to steal the confidential documents."

“That’s right. Gloria herself is already rich, having tens of thousands of properties. She is even an elite lawyer and first-rate hacker. She could earn a lot of dough for that. Besides, she used to be the heiress of the White Group and had once been the wife of Jordy. But look at you. How much property do you have? How bold and shameful for you to say you want to marry her! How ridiculous!”

Satires and ironies were surging on the internet. But some people soon suspected that they were deliberately digressing the topics. Some wouldn’t want to let them succeed in diverting people’s attention to other things, so soon they soon went back to the topic about Gloria. It was not long before all the netizens were criticizing and smearing Gloria, gossiping about her one after another.

With that, everyone attempted to think that Gloria had worked with Jonathan against Jordy to steal the documents. Jordy had locked down the system and added more protective defense to it. If Gloria continued to stay in his company, she would definitely bring calamity to the Collins Group. Many people commented online or sent messages to Jordy on Twitter to notify him not to trust that woman any more. They were warning Jordy to guard against this woman.

Gloria hesitated for a moment, but she still answered the phone.

But before she spoke, she could hear the man’s cold, stern voice sounded in the speaker.

“Why are you seeing him these days?”

Gloria’s eyes flickered. She sighed in her heart.

“I made a mistake. I will pay more attention in the future.”

Jordy’s face looked gloomy. There was a sinister look in his eyes which Gloria couldn’t see it in person. But she could imagine.

“Everyone is suspecting you. Don’t you ever want to explain what happened to me?”

“You don’t trust me?” Gloria asked, not in a tone of disbelief and shock, but in a calm manner.

It didn’t sound like she wanted to let Jordy completely trust her.

The girl laughed scornfully, and Angela frowned. It seemed that she was dissatisfied with the girl’s scornful mockery. But she didn’t question the girl. After all, Angela was clear that the girl was in a dominant position while she was not.

Before she could think deeper about the event, the girl sniffed scornfully into the speaker.

“If Jordy is so easy to cope with, why should I bother so much to nail it down with him? Why would I even care about him?”

Angela pursed her lips and didn’t say anything. She was right. If Jordy suspected Gloria only because of this incident, then he would not be that difficult to deal with and we wouldn’t have to rack our brains to divide them.

“What are you planning to do next?”

“This time, everyone was suspecting Gloria, but Jordy did not waver at all. But since we’ve made Gloria suspected once, we can make everyone suspect her another time. ”
