Chapter 931 That Damn Woman!

Gloria froze and stared at him in surprise.

She wondered why Jordy's tone became like this.

It even gave her an illusion that Jordy was so humble.

Light flickered in Gloria's eyes, and she didn't speak.

Jordy didn't let go of his grip on her hand but said coldly, "What are you up to?"

Gloria was speechless.

It was really her illusion. He spoke with such a tough attitude. She thought too much just now.

She sneered, "Why do I have to tell you? You also hide your big plans from outsiders, don't you?"

Jordy's expression turned extremely cold, and he looked at Gloria coldly, "Cancel your cooperation with Jonathan, and work with me. I'll change my attitude towards you."

"Sorry, you poached me when I was about to work with him before. This is the cooperation I owed him, and I..."

At this point, she paused and didn't finish speaking.

She never wanted to work with Jordy again.

It would only irritate him if she said that, and it was meaningless to do that. She struggled hard.

Jordy let go of her, gashing his teeth, "Get out of here! Don't step in here again, and don't ask me to do anything for you!"

Gloria curled her lip, "Don't worry. I'll stay as far away as possible from you."

Jordy was enraged. He was completely pissed off by Gloria.

Seeing Gloria, she said with a smile, “You came here for me specially? I’m just here to eat with my uncle.”

Before Gloria could speak, Ted’s laughter came from behind Nydia, “Hahaha, you girl, come on, let Gloria in.”

Nydia moved with a smile. Gloria closed the door, changed her shoes, and walked in.

“Mr. Maguire, I’m sorry to bother you in this late hour.”

“Oh, it’s okay. You can come to me at any time.”

Ted really admired Gloria.

She must be here for something important, otherwise she wouldn’t have come here in this late hour.

When they arrived at Gloria's house, Nydia said immediately, "Gloria, what are the odds this time? Are you going to bring them down once for all?"

"No, you don't need to worry about me."

Nydia hesitated and sighed, "My uncle will help you. That's a relief. Anyway, you should be careful. Those people are crazy. They even sent someone to kill you. I'm really worried..."

After all, they made several attempts to kill Gloria. Those people were really dangerous.

Gloria nodded, "Don't worry."

She just said these two words. Then they chatted for a while and went to take a bath.

Not only was the speaker confused. All the other people looked at Ted and thought he wouldn't mention this group of people without a purpose. Once he started to talk about this group of people, it must mean that Ted might be cooperating with them or that he might have the intention of doing so.

Ted had always been a prudent person.

He would not exaggerate things and make it sound untrue. He also wouldn't directly tell others things that were impossible to happen.

Since all the listeners were businessmen. They were naturally inclined to put profits in the first place. After Ted had said so, some people started to yearn for what he said, but they dared not get their hope too high.

After all, it was very hard for anyone to get close to Poppy. Many people might want to work with Poppy. It was said that both the Collins Group and the Brown Group had always wanted to cooperate with Poppy. But so far, no one had heard Poppy had any connections with the two Group, let alone the Group they were working at, which was so inferior to the two Groups.

Some of them could not help sighing in their hearts and then some of them began to speak with a sense of helplessness.

"We can never reach such a distinguished person as Poppy, Mr. Maguire. Why did you suddenly mention this person?" In fact, what he thought was to urge Ted to tell them all the truth instead of hiding it from them or delaying the disclosure of the information. Ted's words had instigated people's curiosity.

Thinking of this, someone could not help saying, "Does this have anything to do with Miss White?"

Or otherwise, why is she sitting here?

Yvonne instantly thought of something and immediately looked at Gloria.

Angela was sitting beside Gloria. When she heard this, she had already looked at Gloria with her eyes filled with jealousy and anger. It seemed that the next moment she would explode with envy and rage. She really couldn't suppress her feelings. Why? Why does it have anything to do with Gloria?

Gloria's presence must have indicated something related to what Ted said.

What on earth is he talking about?

At that moment, everyone seemed to be muted. They just looked at Ted closely, wondering what he would say.

But Claude smiled, "What do you mean, Mr. Maguire?"

Ted smiled and said, "You have been living in the White family for years. You and our former president are living under the same roof. Gloria grew up under your care. So I am surprised that you know nothing about this."

Angela was puzzled.

Something felt wrong! What is Ted talking about? Why am I in this panic and why is it getting stronger?

Claude and Angela had the same feeling. He stared at Ted and looked puzzled. "What do you mean? I'm a little confused by your words."

"Hahaha..." Ted seemed quite pleased to hear that. But what he said didn't seem like a joke, which was quite serious. Just as everyone was also confused, Ted chuckled and said, "At first, everyone thought that Gloria was just an ordinary girl. But now, after we learn about her identity, don't you feel shocked, Mr. White?"

Shocked?

was so angry when he heard this.

had learned that Gloria was Black Rose, he had wanted to revenge on Gloria brutally.

Ted was saying so. Then he answered, "Of course, I was shocked, but I feel more helpless. This lady has so many abilities that we don't even know about. Gloria might want to give us a surprise. I'm afraid her an arrow, directly hurt into Gloria's heart.

All of a sudden, the whole conference room was silent.

She is Poppy!

She really is Poppy!

What? How can this be true?

At that moment, Angela's eyes were widened with surprise, but she could hardly control her emotions.

Therefore, it is our great honor to cooperate with Poppy. If Gloria is Poppy, then we should be happy. Because we are now cooperating with our own staff.”

Ted sounded very calm. But there were many implications in his words.

His speech seemed to be intended to stop people from doubting anything with ulterior speculations.

He didn't want them to guess wildly and even think about it. It's also doomed to let them accept it.

But how could Gloria be Poppy? People still couldn't accept it or believe it.

Ted's words sounded quite reasonable. But as long as he finished, Claude's face turned grey and grave.

“You think there is a problem in my managing this company, don't you?”

After all, as the president, Claude still had a superior position in the company. That was why he dared challenge Ted in public.

People felt that things had grown complicated. Yet Ted still smiled at Claude.

“What I just said is true. Our company has no real competence to operate on its own. If so, the products Gloria designs would only suffer a loss in the sales. And it would bring harm to her reputation. ”

Claude frowned immediately. He gave his staff a look. Then suddenly a man stood out to back him up. He sneered and said, “You are not talking sense. Since Poppy is our own staff, she should contribute to the company without regrets. So we could run the company on our own pretty well. Besides, who knows what the result would be before advertising it? If the sales are bad, is it because of the company's problem or Poppy's own faults?"

Obvious, the man wanted to shift his responsibilities to Gloria.

Gloria sneered. She knew after she made it open to everyone, she would be confronted with such despicable challenges as that. She had already made preparations for it.
