Chapter 951 Take Advantages

In the office, all of her father's stuff, which was used by her father, was all changed for something new by Claude.

For a moment, Gloria was so upset, but she knew that Claude would replace the furniture sooner or later, because he might not be willing to use the things her father used.

Gloria took a breath and said nothing.

Both Claude and Angela looked at Gloria coldly.

Then, Angela said with anger, "Gloria, do you think you won this time?"

Gloria looked up at her and said, "I've already become the new president. What do whether I've won or not?"

Angela nearly exploded with anger.

“Do you think you can always be young and beautiful, and make the two men go around you all the time? Who do you think you are? How could they like you? Now they just want to get close to you because they think you are profitable. Gloria, do you really think of yourself as an important figure?”

Gloria narrowed her eyes, and instead of being angry, she said with a faint smile, “It’s true. Youth and beauty won’t last forever, but what I know will last forever. I have skills and knowledge that would make them want to work with me. Thank you for reminding me that they would always want to work with me just because I have multiple identities as experts.”

Angela was completely speechless with rage.

Her heart seemed quite hurt.

Speaking of that, Angela’s eyes were full of hatred, and she nearly wanted to eat Gloria alive at that moment.

Gloria looked at the two people in front of her and said, “You volunteered to spend the money on the hackers. You can’t say that I cheated you, On the contrary, I didn’t mention it in the meeting, for the sake of your dignity. How about this? All the profits in the past few years will belong to you, and I only want my shares back.”

“You are talking nonsense.” Claude could help bust out. “You don’t want the profits because you know I don’t have any money now! You’ve cheated everything out of me. The hell with the profits.”

Angela’s eyes were a little red out of anger.

But Gloria sneered, “You may continue to make trouble like this. But I can ask you in court to compensate me for my profits lost these years. By then, you would owe me more than ten billion dollars. And people would hate you two to the guts. We will wait and see.’

Both Angela and Claude were dumbfounded.

Martha said, "I'll call your father first. Don't act rashly and don't talk to the mysterious person again."

Angela hesitated, but finally whispered, "OK, hurry up and call me back later."

"Sure."

After Martha hung up, she dialed Claude, and he picked up the phone soon.

"What's the matter?" Claude's voice was carried an irritated tone as if he had no patience to talk to Martha.

"Angela called me just now and told me everything." Martha frowned and said.

With that in mind, George called Jordy. The call was connected, but Jordy didn't speak. George, accustomed to his silence, said, "Has Gloria done something lately?" "What's wrong?" Jordy frowned but had no intention of hanging up. After all, George always droned on and on when he was on the phone with Jordy. When George heard that tone, he suddenly understood something. "So, the answer is yes." "What's going on?" George tutted. "I just got a call from a relative of mine. He's a part owner of the White Group. He asked me to look at a share transfer agreement." asked Claude for casually, "Isn't it too risky? She has given her enemy a loophole. There are several loopholes in the contract. If Gloria files a lawsuit, she’ll win easily. If Claude asks me for help, I won’t take his case. It’s not challenging, and Claude will lose without a doubt.

But if Jordy doesn’t step in, don’t blame me then!

I must do something, or Jordy will never know when to make a move!

If Gloria is sued, he’ll definitely help her. And when the time comes, I’ll go to him and have a good laugh!

George thought to himself and sent out a text message.

It read, “There is a big loophole. Redo it.”

Diaz was stunned to get the message. He immediately texted George back and called Claude.

The implication was obvious: they wanted to kill Gloria, but they couldn’t.

Angela let out a loud, angry shout. “So what now? Do we just sit around and do nothing? We want to kill her, but it’s not gonna be easy. She’s very careful! If this goes to court, we’re screwed!”

Martha frowned and said hesitantly, “Actually, I was thinking about something.” Claude and Angela looked intently at her. Martha always had the best idea. Claude and Angela automatically thought that Martha came up with a plan, but she just couldn’t get it started.

Claude asked edgily, “What is it? Say it.”

Claude and Martha didn't say a word. That Gloria became a tough nut was a total surprise to them. Neither of them imagined that Gloria would become so strong.

Why didn't they see anything wrong with Gloria over the years? They watched Gloria grow up, but why didn't they see anything of her versatility?

Was it that they never cared whether Gloria was brilliant or not?

After all, Gloria always excelled in school.
