Chapter 961 No Respect for Him

After a long discussion, they decided to ignore Gloria's threats. They all agreed that Gloria would never take any shares from them. And they seemed unafraid.

The deadline finally came.

At the last minute, Gloria called Claude again.

Claude answered the phone with a grim face, "Hello."

Immediately after, Claude heard a cold voice over the phone. "Have you decided yet?"

Claude's face turned gimmer. Gloria's voice was icy, and she didn't even call him uncle. She showed no respect for him.

Claude spoke quietly, "You are too young to take over the company, and..."

Rachel was at work, and there was a knock on her office door.

"Miss Roberts."

Rachel came back to her senses and lifted her eyes towards the door.

“Come in.”

Soon, a secretary in office attire pushed the door open and entered with a document in her hand.

“Here is the document you asked for. You have a meeting with the design department in fifteen minutes.”

“I see.”

Without receiving further orders, the secretary went out.

Rachel rubbed her eyes and glanced at the document her secretary brought over.

Rachel pursed her lips and said nothing, signaling her to continue.

The head of the design department pushed her glasses back onto her nose and said, "Actually, our design hits a bottleneck, but this is not about our style. It's just that customers become pickier, and designers find it hard to deal with that."

She sounded as if she was trying to evade her responsibility.

Rachel looked at her with a frown. "It's hard to satisfy every customer indeed, but you have to make adjustments."

The director shook her head and said, "No, no, Miss Roberts, I wasn't saying we had a design problem. Instead, I'm stating the fact that there is no problem with our design in terms of color palette and distribution. Our team works hard. I think if a top designer joins us, or we just use good her name, we'll have a breakthrough."

After thinking about it, Rachel held her forehead with one hand and said in an expressionless voice, "I have other plans. Go ahead with your design concept. I'll send people to find Poppy, but you'd better prepare yourselves for the bad news."

They nodded and said nothing more.

The meeting broke up.

Poppy was getting extra attention from Rachel.

Rachel planned to work with Poppy before, but Poppy was unapproachable and mysterious. And she had not revealed her true name so far. Rachel never succeeded in finding her.

In Rachel's opinion, the design department came up with a reasonable idea. If they worked with Poppy, they could make a breakthrough in design.

Also, Jordy would look up to Rachel afterwards!

Only if Rachel became a better person could she be worthy of Jordy and get him to focus on her instead of... his ex-wife.

Nydia, Jennifer, and Bryson were at Gloria's house.

It had been a while since the last time they gathered together.

Gloria prepared a big meal with their help.

By the time they were all seated, Nydia couldn't wait to pick up her knife and fork.

Gloria’s eyes flickered as she said, “I’ll get a bodyguard. You don’t have to...”

“You’re just saying it. It’s decided. Bryson lives downstairs and the three of us live upstairs! To repay our kindness, you have to cook for us!” said Nydia expectantly. She began to imagine what it was like to have lots of delicious food in the coming days!

Jennifer laughed out loud, “Gloria works so much every day. She doesn’t have time to cook for you!”

“Hahaha... just cook for once!”

The three of them looked like they really meant it. Gloria felt nothing but warmth.

Bryson acted fast, and it didn’t take long to get Gloria some bodyguards. There were three males and two females.

Gloria paused, not expecting Harold to send it to her so soon.

She frowned, "Jordy told you to send it to me and me only?"

Harold coughed discreetly. Sometimes he was caught in the middle. Jordy and Gloria seemed to be able to guess what each other had in mind.

They were both smart and always in sync with each other. Harold could not lie to Gloria at this point.

Harold answered, "This project is newly approved by the company, and it'll deliver huge benefits. The Tamah Group is always our first choice, but this time, Mr. Collins has changed his mind. He asked me to contact you.

Gloria saw what Harold meant even though he did not say it outright.

It was known that the Tamah Group did better than the White Group in the current situation. Every businessman pursued win-win cooperation. The best option was to work with a more powerful company.

The Collins Group.

Jordy was in no mood to deal with work.

His handsome face was taut. Later, he got up from his seat, walked to the window, and looked out.

He was on the top floor. Looking down, he could only see the sky and clouds outside.

It was a beautiful day, and the air was fresh. Jordy opened the window to let the cold wind in so that he gradually calmed down.

Jordy stood by the window for what seemed an eternity, staring into the distance as if he could see something afar.

Angela gritted her teeth. "I wish that day would come, but that mystery person has been sitting on her hands till now. When will these miserable days end? I want Gloria dead right now!"

"She'll die one day!" A murderous look shone in Martha's eyes.

Claude and Martha both lost their appetite because of Angela.

Claude looked at the big meal on the table and picked up his knife and fork. "Eat, or we can't think of a good way to deal with her with an empty stomach. If you starve yourself, you may never have a chance to fight with her."

Martha nodded, looked at Angela, and handed her the fork and knife. "Let's eat."

Angela bit her lip, took the fork and knife, and said nothing more.

However, a phone call came in, and the family of three completely lost their appetite!

In the blink of an eye, it was court day.

Claude and his family had been waiting for Gloria to contact them for days, but...

Gloria ignored them the whole time.

Claude and his family panicked, but then they thought Gloria would never do anything shady with the contract. They believed that she was just bluffing.

Thus, after discussion, they decided to wait until it was court day. Things went ugly anyway. What happened to them was known to the whole world. People gossiped about them whether they gave up their shares or not. They just let them talk and held onto their shares.

As they were tormented by anxiety, the court day came.
