

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 743-747

Chapter 743 Does He Want to Get Back at Her?

Karen insisted on staying here.

Gloria could not convince her, so she had to help her sit down.

Then they sat together and watched Jordy picking roses in the sea of flowers

Karen's smile widened, "It's relaxing."

Jordy was speechless.

He lowered his eyes, and a sneer crossed his eyes.

Gloria wanted roses, heh... he would fulfill her wish.

While Karen and Gloria were waiting and chatting, Jordy finally picked enough roses.

Karen had been helping him count them.

She would shout out the number when every ten roses were picked.

Although Karen was old, she was even more clear-headed than ordinary young people.

Gloria was not surprised to see that Jordy didn't look tired.

He always had that look, and he would do exercise even if he was very busy every day. He wouldn't be tired after picking those roses.

Gloria never felt that doing the labor job was a punishment. It was just a humiliation to him.

He was superior and loft, but so what? He was picking roses for the person he looked down upon and hated the most, wasn't he?

Gloria slowly showed a smile. Looking at Jordy's gloomy face, she chuckled, "Thank you, Mr. Collins."

Jordy glanced at her coldly and left without saying a word.

Karen frowned, "Hey! Watch your attitude! This is what you should do. Don't complain!"

Jordy didn't say anything. He had shown his patience by suppressing his anger.

Gloria looked at his cold receiving figure, and slowly showed a smile, "Grandma, he has done his best. At least people in the company won't talk about me in the future, and I will prove that they were wrong."

"You... You are so sensible!" Karen was somewhat helpless, but she knew she couldn't force Gloria to do anything.

Both of them kept silent for a while. Karen stood up and looked at the roses on the table and on the ground. She asked, "What are you going to do with these roses?"

As soon as she finished speaking, two maids came up to them, and one of them hurriedly said, "Mrs. Collins, Mr. Collins told us to put these roses away."

Gloria frowned slightly, and felt it was weird.

She humiliated Jordy like this. Would he get back at her?

She didn't speak, but just looked at the two maids, but she knew she couldn't get any clues from them. They might not know what was going on.

Karen looked puzzled, "What did he want you to do with these roses?"

"We don't know. He just asked us to put them away..."

Karen nodded, "OK, go ahead."

The two maids replied and began to sort out these roses.

Karen took Gloria's hand, "Come on, let's go back."

Gloria nodded with a smile, "OK."

After they returned, Gloria got up with a smile, "Grandma, it's getting late. I should go back now."

"Oh, you are leaving? We haven't eaten. Let's have dinner together!" Karen's eyes were filled with disapproval.

When they came here, it wasn't time for dinner.

Gloria mentioned those things to her, and she didn't want her to be bullied like that. Then she directly asked Jordy to pick the roses before they had dinner, which was considered a punishment.

Don't like

Gloria's eyes turned slightly, and she hurriedly nodded, "OK, let's eat."

She proposed to eat before they went to pick roses, but Karen didn't agree. Gloria regretted it.

She was afraid that Karen wouldn't be too upset to eat after she left. So, she directly walked to the dining room with Karen, supporting her.

However, when she raised her eyes, she saw that Jordy was sitting at the table.

She was confused.

Wasn't he supposed to leave in a fit of pique?

He was going to eat with them?

He was really hungry?

Tut.

He was not that strong.

After washing her hands, Gloria went to the table and smiled at Jordy, as if she were very concerned, "So you are really tired. I thought you were strong. I guess I was wrong?"

It was humiliating. Gloria was doing this deliberately!

Jordy's face darkened instantly. He said calmly word

by word, "You are funny."

There seemed to be a gust of cold wind in the room.

Gloria smiled, "It's okay. People eat when they are hungry. It's normal."

Jordy immediately glanced at her with fierce eyes. If it were someone else, he would have been scared.

God knew how sullen Jordy looked.

Karen was a little surprised. Gloria actually said such words?

Hmm?

It was fishy.

Gloria had never targeted him before. What did this guy do to her?

She needed to send someone to inquire about it. The two children wouldn't tell her the truth.

Jordy didn't speak, and Gloria's smile widened, "Thank you for vindicating me in the company. And thanks to grandma, you wouldn't have done this if it weren't for her. You did something you don't like, and you should remember not to force others to do the same.

Jordy suddenly sneered and looked at her, "Don't force others to do the things I don't like?"

His voice was freezing.

Gloria felt chilly on her back, but the next moment she nodded with a smile, "Yes."

She would never forget how he forced her to do that thing!

But because Jordy was Karen's grandson, she just let it go.

Jordy sneered and said nothing. The ironic smile on his thin lips gave people doubts.

But Gloria just ignored it. She sat down and put food in Karen's plate.

"Grandma, eat your meal. I'm sorry. You eat so late because of me."

"Oh, I'm not that hungry. Come on, let's eat."

Jordy kept silent with a sullen face. He glanced at Gloria and Karen and ate silently.

The two people talked and laughed, as if he were invisible.

Gloria didn't plan to stay after she finished eating.

After all, it was late.

She smiled at Karen, "Grandma, I'm leaving."

Jordy got up in silence.

Karen immediately nodded, "OK, goodbye. Jordy, send Gloria back."

Jordy didn't speak, but just walked out.

Gloria didn't drive here. If she ordered an Uber, grandma would definitely disagree. She would watch her get into Jordy's car.

In the end, she didn't say anything. When she got outside, Jordy had been on the driver's seat, apparently waiting for her.

Chapter 745 Where Are My Roses?

Karen was afraid that Gloria would refuse to take Jordy's car. She took her to the co-driver's seat of Jordy's car, opened the door, and said softly, "Come on."

Gloria nodded, got in the car, and looked at Karen, "Grandma, go back."

Karen nodded with a smile, "Okay, I'll watch you leave. Fasten your seat belt."

Gloria did that obediently, and Karen closed the door with a soft smile.

Why did she think that these two children were getting back together?

Although Jordy was obedient, he picked nine hundred and ninety-nine roses himself. It was a lot of roses.

She forced him to do that, but he was happy when he agreed?

Jordy and Gloria did not know what Karen was thinking. When the door was closed, Jordy drove out.

Karen looked at the car for a long time before going back with a smile.

Seeing the housekeeper in the living room, Karen quickly waved to him.

"Dale, send someone to find out what had happened between these two children in the company. Do it secretly and hide it from them."

Dale said okay and went to give orders.

As for Jordy and Gloria, they were still in the car, but neither of them spoke. The air in the car was cold and calm.

If they felt it carefully, they could detect the danger in it.

Gloria was alert. She didn't trust Jordy at all.

Jordy kept silent and didn't intend to speak to her.

He drove silently.

If it were someone else, he probably couldn't stand the atmosphere in the car, but the two people didn't feel anything wrong with it. Similarly, others cannot affect the atmosphere between them.

About half an hour later, they arrived at Gloria's villa.

Jordy was motionless, and Gloria didn't intend to speak to him. She just unfastened her seat belt and got out of the car.

The moment she closed the door, Jordy started the car and left.

Gloria took a look at the rear of his car, and the car disappeared in the blink of an eye.

She looked away and went home. Because she had got back at Jordy, she was in a good mood. So, she slept sound all night.

The next day.

The old mansion of the Collins family.

A loud shout shocked everyone in the house.

“Where are my roses?” Joseph sounded extremely furious and he turned livid with rage. He was standing in the center of the sea of roses. However, the sea of roses had become an empty space.

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 745

Not all the roses were picked. There was half of them left.

But it completely upset Joseph’s plan.

He almost blew his top.

The servants did not expect that Joseph would suddenly get angry. One of them came forward trembling and told him what happened last night.

“Young master picked those roses.”

Joseph’s frown immediately deepened, “Why did he need so many roses? He couldn’t buy them but came here to pick mine?”

This was his effort!

He was really going to blow his top.

The servants look flustered. This thing had nothing to do with them

None of them dared to respond to Joseph.

He Made It So Romantic?

No one responded, so Joseph was more certain that the servant told him the truth. He said, gnashing his teeth, "That bastard! Damn it!"

No one on the site dared to speak. They stood aside and some of them went to work quietly.

Joseph picked up his mobile phone and called Jordy. Before Jordy could speak, he roared, "You brat, who told you to pick my roses? I planted them for your grandma. Why didn't you buy them if you wanted them? What are you going to do with my roses? Are you in a relationship? It's not Valentine's Day. Why did you pick my roses?"

Joseph was really angry. His voice raised a lot, and his words were harsh.

But after he finished speaking, he did not hear any response from Jordy. He thought Jordy wasn't on the phone.

"Damn it, are you there?"

The anger in his voice was stronger.

Jordy responded in a flat voice, "I'm in a meeting, and the information in my mobile phone is on screen.

The whole conference room was silent.

All people were dumbfounded when they heard what Joseph said. Jordy's voice broke the silence and drew their attention back.

They all knew that Joseph had a bad temper, but they didn't expect that he would be so grumpy.

And he planted roses for his wife?

He was still so romantic at this old age?

Didn't he say that he would never be humble in front of his wife? He said that men shouldn't spoil women. Then what was he doing? Wouldn't he feel embarrassed?

Moreover, he was surprised by Jordy. Why did Jordy pick all the roses in the yard? It seemed that he picked a lot of roses. Joseph was right. Jordy wasn't in any relationship. Why did he pick those roses? Could it be that those rumors were real?

Jordy really liked Gloria? He wanted to get back together with her?

Everyone in the meeting room had complicated faces, but none of them dared to say anything, for fear that they would offend Joseph and Jordy.

And Joseph was dumbfounded when he heard that Jordy was in the conference room. He looked so gloomy.

Damn it. Why did he answer his phone during the meeting?

Joseph wanted to hang up the phone directly, but when he saw the bare land in the yard, he said angrily, grinding his teeth, "Come back after the meeting!"

After that, he hung up the phone in case he would embarrass himself.

Karen was startled by his angry roar. When she came out, she saw Joseph hanging up the phone.

She said with a puzzled look, "What's wrong?"

Joseph was angry. Seeing Karen, he said in a rage, "Why did that brat pick so many of my roses? Was he insane?"

Karen did not expect that Joseph would be so angry. She opened her mouth with surprise, "Why are you so angry?"

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 747 Why Did That Guy Pick My Flowers?

"I planted those roses myself! That brat ruined my effort!"

Joseph was going mad.

Karen said in surprise, "You planted those roses by yourself?"

Why didn't she know that?

Joseph said, gnashing his teeth, "Of course. Why would I lie to you? What's the point of doing that?"

Karen was more surprised

“When did you plant them? Why didn’t I know it?”

Joseph looked so sullen, but he didn’t want to answer Karen’s question. He said angrily, “Why did that bastard pick my flowers?”

Those flowers were planted with great care, and they had a meaning.

He planned to pick some roses on Valentine’s Day and the rest of the roses would form a romantic shape and represent lucky numbers. It could be a huge surprise, but Jordy ruined it. How could he not be angry?

Karen didn’t want to respond to Joseph, but asked, “When did you plant these roses? I didn’t know it at all.”

“Of course you didn’t know.”

This was the surprise he prepared for her. He didn’t tell anyone but sent everyone away when he planted them. No one knew that he planted the roses himself!

But...

They were all ruined!

“What the hell was Jordy doing? Why did he pick my flowers?”

Karen was a little surprised. Her husband actually did such a romantic thing? She was moved and couldn’t help gazing at him.

“Were you going to give me a surprise? You let me know it. It’s already a surprise!”

“Oh, come on, it’s different!” Joseph flushed and said very awkwardly.

He didn’t want to admit it, but he was angry.

Karen immediately walked to him with a smile. She took his arm, and comforted him, “It’s our grandson who picked those flowers. Let’s go inside to talk about this. Just calm down. Romance is not for old couples like us.”

Our grandson’s happiness is more important. Karen didn’t say this, because she knew that Joseph didn’t like Gloria.

“Then why did he pick my flowers?” Joseph really didn’t know why.

Karen looked grave. It would be disclosed sooner or later, and Joseph would know it. Since he had asked it several times, she should tell him the truth directly.

After hesitating for a moment, she whispered, “Because our grandson is already in love with someone.”

When Joseph heard that, he was suddenly refreshed and said with expectation, “Who? The girl of the Roberts family?”

At this moment, Joseph’s eyes seemed to have lit up, as if implying that if Jordy picked the roses for Rachel, he could forgive him.

But Karen’s frown deepened at this, and she no longer felt touched.

“Why are you always thinking about Rachel?” She sounded displeased.

Joseph could tell that something was wrong, and his face darkened, “Then for whom he picked those flowers?”

Karen also seemed to be irritated, “It’s none of your business!”
