Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 753 Will You Blame Me for Being Selfish?

“Bryson, you don’t have to do this. You don’t need to watch over me.” Gloria finally finished what she was going to say, “You should have your own life and live for yourself, otherwise you’re just living for others.”

She wanted to say that his life would be meaningless if he watched over her.

But she was afraid that Bryson would imagine things.

However, even though she didn’t say it, Bryson still had some conjectures. His breath seemed to tremble, and he said with difficulty, “You don’t even want to be friends with me? Gloria, I won’t bother you, just like before.”

Gloria was stunned slightly, “That’s not what I meant. You got me wrong. We can still be friends, and you will always be my friend and brother in my heart. I just don’t want you to watch over me. I don’t want you to be tired.”

Bryson breathed a sigh of relief. He was very glad that he could still be friends with Gloria.

But he wouldn’t stop watching over her. Gloria was the most important woman in his life. He would protect her from being hurt with his life.

“I won’t make it difficult for you. Don’t worry. I’ve come to my senses. I know I was making you do that and I put you in a dilemma. I’m sorry.”

I’m sorry.

Bryson wanted to say these three words long ago.

He knew that he was really selfish. He knew Gloria did not love him, and that he was in one-sided love with her, but he still forced her to be with him. It was really unfair to her

But at that time, he was stubborn and didn't want to let her go. He shouldn't have done that.

"Don't say that, Bryson."

In fact, she understood what he did. When a man loved a woman deeply, he would want to own her.

Just like when she was in love with Jordy, she wanted to keep him around her all the time.

But in the end, she got nothing.

She knew this feeling, but thanks to Jordy's ruthlessness, otherwise, she couldn't break up with him so decisively.

Jordy taught her a lesson and let her know that she shouldn't expect anything and that she didn't deserve it.

She didn't know who could understand the despair and agony she had, so she couldn't be ruthless to Bryson like Jordy was ruthless to her. She couldn't bear to hurt him so much, so she chose not to contact him but to avoid him.

Fortunately, Bryson had finally come to his senses.

She was torn and wondering what to do. Anyway, the end was good.

Bryson wouldn't be shaken up and they could still be friends, which was the best result!

"Gloria, will you blame me for being too selfish?"

"Why?" Gloria hurriedly said, "I know how it feels to be in love with someone, but sometimes this is what happens. The person I love is not you, but the person Jennifer loves doesn't love her back."

Light flickered in Bryson's eyes slightly, and he didn't speak.

Gloria said quietly, "In fact, Jennifer is a very good girl."

Bryson forced out a smile, "She said that I am a good person."

Gloria pursed her lips and knew it was time to shut up.

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 754 It Still Happened

Gloria pursed her lips and kept silent.

Bryson also knew it was time to end the chat. He chuckled, "Well, I'll leave you alone. I hope you won't avoid me anymore and you can talk to me occasionally. Maybe we can have dinner together sometime. Believe me. I know what's what and will control my feelings."

Gloria's look was complicated, "Okay, I'm busy with work these days. After I finish this, we will get together."

"OK, I'll wait for you." Bryson smiled, "Get busy. Bye."

“Okay.” Gloria didn’t bother about it anymore and hung up directly.

But... after putting down her mobile phone, she still had a complicated face.

Well...

How should she get along with Bryson in the future?

After hesitating for a moment, Gloria opened her WhatsApp and sent a message to the group that Jennifer and Nydia were in.

Gloria, (Bryson called me just now and we talked. He knew that our relationship was just a lie.)

Jennifer, [What did he say?]

Jennifer replied instantly. Gloria could feel the anxiety in her eyes when she saw her words.

Nydia, (You’ve talked? How is he now?)

Gloria, (He’s okay. Jennifer was right. If you love someone, you should make her happy not trap her with your love.)

Jennifer, [It’s good that he could come to his senses.]

Nydia,(What else did he say?)

Gloria, (He said that we could be friends as before, and that he didn’t want us to be strangers. He will control his emotions, but... I don’t know...]

Gloria didn't finish speaking. She was torn.

Jennifer naturally knew what she was going to say. She was also worried. After hesitating for a moment, she typed a string of words.

Jennifer, (Nydia, he already knew my feelings for him. He might have misgivings when talking to me. Can you go to see him when you are free?)

Nydia, (OK. I'll go to him tonight.)

Jennifer, (Go and comfort him. I don't want him to take any more blows. Alas, I don't know whether it was right to tell him those things at that time...)

Nydia, [Of course it was right. If this continues, the three of you would be in pain! No, four! As a bystander and your friend, I also feel awkward. It's best to talk it over! I'll go and see him tonight.]

Nydia, (Forget it, I'd better ask for leave. I'll go and see how he is now. You are all my good friends. I don't want to lose any of you. None of you can leave our team! Ok, that's all. I'm going to him now.)

Gloria, [Go ahead. Jennifer, don't think too much. You did that right.]

She was at the party and couldn't tell Bryson the truth directly. If she did, it would be a heavier blow to him, but after Jennifer said those things to Bryson, he could take his time to accept it.

Jennifer, (Hum... I'm going back to work. See you.)

Gloria, [OK]

Gloria put down her mobile phone and tucked her hair before her forehead behind her ears. She got those things out of her mind and went back to work.

Gloria was slow with her work for the rest of the day..

It was time to get off work.

She copied some files to the USB flash drive and went downstairs.

But...

What she was afraid of still happened!

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 755 Envy!

Gloria stood in the elevator and found that the others in the elevator were looking at her with strange eyes All of them were looking at her Even if she wanted to ignore it, she felt something wrong. Looking at all the people in the elevator, she asked quietly, "Why are you looking at me like this?"

She was even wondering if she had a smeared face or got something dirty on her Some people quickly looked away and stopped looking at her Some people still looked at her silently.

Some people said, "Miss White, you and Mr. Collins are going to get back together, aren't you?"

Light flickered in Gloria's eyes slightly. It was because of the post on Twitter?

She said quietly, "No."

Her tone was firm and decisive.

She would never get back together with Jordy.

The people in the elevator looked at Gloria again, "Wow, is Mr. Collins still thinking about you? He not only picked roses for you, but also did such a sensational thing!"

Gloria was confused.

He not only picked roses for her, but also did such a sensational thing?

Why did it sound so weird?

What did Jordy do?

She looked at the girl who said that, "What do you mean by such a sensational thing?"

Some people were surprised, "You didn't see the message in the WhatsApp group? Everyone is talking about it."

Gloria was confused

A girl in pink next to her said, "She's not in that group."

Gloria was more confused.

What on earth was happening? She stopped asking. She would know it when she got downstairs.

That girl asked her if she was going to get back together with Jordy. Maybe Jordy did something big?

But he hated her so much, how could he do anything for her?

Gloria was confused, and sarcasm rose in her heart.

They were going to get back together?

They were never in love with each other, were they?

Gloria stopped thinking about it. After the elevator door was opened, the others waited for her to go out first and made way for her.

Gloria was speechless.

She nodded to the crowd without speaking and walked out.

Usually, when they got off work, they would leave the company in tandem. Even if they left in groups, they would disappear from the gate soon.

But it was different on this day. The hall on the first floor was filled with people, and it was so crowded.

But...

Even if there were so many people, it wasn't noisy. They whispered and talked to each other quietly. If Gloria listened to them carefully, she could hear what they were talking about.

After seeing Gloria, they stopped talking, and the hall was strangely quiet.

They made way for her one after another. Many of them looked at her with envy and many of them hated her!

Why was Gloria so lucky?

Why could she always meet affectionate men?

Why were so many excellent people around her?

They envied her and hated her!

Men didn't think like that. They had different ideas. They wondered why they couldn't be as capable as Jordy and why they couldn't be more powerful. Otherwise, Gloria might become their woman.

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 756 He Is Suddenly Scared!

Under different gazes, Gloria stopped wondering. She walked out quickly along the way that they made for her.

She just wanted to know what Jordy was doing!

Along the way, she only felt that those people were staring at her with fierce eyes.

She knew they were the eyes of some girls.

When she got to the gate of their company, her eyes froze and she turned a little pale!

Damn it!

No wonder these employees were still here!

The road was blocked! And no one dared to walk on it!

The road under the steps was covered with roses, and a man in a black suit was in the center.

He was surrounded by roses, and there was a line of words of roses, TO MY LOVE.

It was vulgar and disgusting!

But so many girls were jealous.

Jordy looked at Gloria and said softly, "You finally came out."

Hearing this, Gloria was gooseflesh all over her!

Jordy could really pretend to be an affectionate husband, just like he did before they got divorced.

Was something wrong with him?

None of the employees in the company left.

They couldn't leave even if they didn't want to watch this! Who dared to do that...

Gloria looked a little sullen, as if she were embarrassed.

She looked at the roses on the ground, gashing her teeth. Good for him!

Jordy was in a much better mood. He rarely saw Gloria being embarrassed like this.

And the people behind Gloria were following her out with different looks.

Although some people didn't want to gossip about this... This was related to their boss!

Such a person sent flowers to Gloria to express his feelings for her, which was really... interesting!

So many people were watching this and wanted to see what Jordy would do next, and how Gloria would respond.

Gloria looked at Jordy coldly. When she was about to say something harsh, Jordy suddenly said, "Grandma said you would like this sea of flowers."

Gloria was speechless./

Good for you, Jordy!

He threatened her with grandma!

Maybe grandma was watching this somewhere!

If she rejected Jordy directly, grandma would feel sad.

Moreover, the share prices of the Collins Group might fall.

Gloria looked sullen at the thought of this.

She stepped on the sea of flowers and walked up to Jordy.

Gnashing her teeth, she said in a voice that only the two of them could hear, "Do you have to do this?"

Jordy showed a smile slowly. He had a gentle look that he rarely had, "Yes, you like it, so I did this for you."

Gloria was speechless.

She took a breath and was about to say something. A brave employee said, "Mr. Collins, are you going to pursue Miss White again?"

Jordy glanced at the speaker, "Can't you see?"

Gloria was speechless.

So was the speaker.

He was suddenly a little scared!

ca

It must be an illusion just now!
