Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 757 You Want Me to Carry You?

When Jordy talked to Gloria, he looked very gentle. He did so many things for her, so others might think he was sweet and nice.

But... what Jordy said just now was clearly intermingled with coldness. The people on the site could feel the menace in his words.

Even the aura around him was much stronger than before.

“If you like it, I can do such romantic things for you every day” Jordy looked at her with soft eyes, as if Gloria were his wife.

The others were shocked.

They were so envious!

Mr. Collins was actually so tender to her! How could he be so gentle? Why couldn't they be treated like this? Ah!

They were so envious of Gloria!

Gloria frowned. So many people were watching them. Some of them had started filming this. And the reporters were among them. If this continued, the whole situation would be out of control.

Even if she had to worry about grandma's feelings and the share price of the Collins Group, she was not a saint. She needed to spare a thought for herself.

With this in mind, Gloria said calmly, "If you like to do such things so much, you should do it for the right person. I'm your ex-wife. It's not worth wasting time on me."

The others were shocked.

Was she going to refuse Mr. Collins such a good man. She was a divorced woman. Remarrying Mr. Collins was a good choice. If it were someone else, who could accept her?

Although Mr. Brown was pursuing her, the result was unpredictable, wasn't it? Mr. Brown might be bored with her. After all, many people would think she was just a divorced woman who was unworthy of Mr. Brown.

The smile in Jordy's eyes stiffened gradually, but it soon returned to normal. He said, "Come on, grandma is waiting for us, and I've got another surprise for you."

Then Jordy grabbed Gloria's wrist.

Gloria frowned and struggled to shake off his hand.

Jordy knew what she was going to do. Before she reacted, he suddenly put his arm around her waist

Gloria turned sullen completely! What a jerk!

"Jordy!" Gloria was like warning him, but she didn't say anything else in case Jordy would be embarrassed.

Jordy looked at her with a soft look, and said in a pleasant voice, "You want me to carry you out of here?"

Although his tone was tender enough, Gloria knew that he was threatening and warning her.

Gloria immediately took a few steps to get rid of him, but Jordy followed her closely. The others watched them leave so intimately.

“That’s all?” The employees looked at each other.

“A whole lot of sizzle and no steak? Miss White just came out to have a look, and then they left?”

Aman pushed the glasses on his face and said with a shrug, “Mr. Collins said that his grandma was waiting for them at home. He has another surprise for Miss White!”

The girl beside him shook her head suspiciously, “Really? But why do I feel it’s weird?”

“Even so, they shouldn’t have left so quickly... They didn’t even take a good photo here. And they looked a little awkward.”

Someone immediately said, “It’s normal. Mr. Collins is pursuing Miss White, and Miss White hasn’t agreed to be with him. Of course it’s awkward.”

They watched Jordy and Gloria leave while talking about this.

But some people suddenly found a problem.

“Oh my God... all those roses. Mr. Collins and Miss White have left. What... should we do?”

The others reacted after hearing this.

Shoot!

The roses all over the ground had not been disposed of. How could they leave here?

Only the steps weren't covered with roses!

How could they leave here?

What if they stepped on it and destroyed Mr. Collin's surprise and made him angry?

All of a sudden, none of them was in the mood to gossip anymore. They just wanted to leave here and go home!

They could gossip at home!

At this moment, Gloria got in the car under pressure from Jordy. When the door was closed, she turned completely angry.

"What the hell do you want?"

"What do you think?" Jordy turned to her with ironic eyes.

Gloria was furious, grinding her teeth, "You know why I got back at you yesterday. However, you made such a big scene to embarrass me. You are so shameless now?"

Jordy sneered, "Grandma likes it. What would I mind being shameless?"

Gloria was speechless.

She turned her head in anger and kept silent. Jordy had started the car and the car dashed out.

On the way, neither of them spoke and they drove directly to the old mansion.

Gloria went in and saw Karen who was smiling, "Oh! You two are back! The meal is ready. Go to wash your hands."

Gloria recovered calm, mainly because she couldn't lose her temper in front of Karen.

But Jordy was relaxed. He was in a good mood after pissing Gloria off.

Gloria gritted her teeth in silence.

She was angry with Jordy.

If she couldn't get even with him, she couldn't vent her anger!

But if she did that now, Jordy might fight back madly.

Karen had no idea what the two children were thinking. On the contrary, she was very happy because of what happened recently. Although she had given up bringing them together, she still wanted to see them remarry.

Jordy had obviously changed his attitude towards Gloria, and she was happy to see that.

"Gloria, I heard that he sent flowers to you. Did he make it look good? Did you like it?"

Gloria's anger suddenly rose. At the thought of what Jordy had just done in the company, she wanted to kill him.

She took a breath, suppressed her anger, and said with a smile, "It's not bad."

She only said these words.

Jordy curled his lip, and Gloria saw his ironic smile when she raised her eyes. Her anger rose again. She looked at Karen and said with a smile, "What Jordy did shocked the people in the whole city, even the whole country, and soon it would be a trending topic on Twitter. At that time, you will see the picture. He said to me in front of so many people that he had got another surprise in the old mansion for me."

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 759 Prepare the Surprise

Jordy's eyes instantly froze.

He glanced at Gloria with cold eyes.

Gloria looked quite calm, and it didn't seem that she was going to get back at Jordy.

Karen looked at Jordy with a surprised look, "What's the surprise?"

Jordy curled his lip, "Sorry, I can't tell you."

"Then you should at least show your surprise to Gloria and then I can have a look at it."

A sarcastic look flashed across Gloria's eyes. She knew Jordy was just lying, but she wanted the surprise. Since he said he had prepared it, then he should present it to her.

Only when he was unhappy could she be happy.

Jordy did not speak but continued to eat.

Gloria smiled, "Maybe he didn't prepare it. It was just a show for the outsiders, and he was doing that for my fame."

Karen looked at Jordy with a frown, "I told you that one should act on what he says, didn't I? You have forgotten what I told you when you were a child?"

Jordy pursed his lips. Karen said in a cold voice, "You are less well-behaved than when you were young. Young Jordy would never do this! It's not allowed in our Collins family's family precepts!"

Gloria took Karen's hand with a smile, "Grandma, it's different. He lied just to help me. Don't take it seriously. But he never lied when it comes to other things, didn't he?"

Jordy's fierce eyes immediately rested on Gloria's face. Karen was here, so he couldn't argue with her.

But Karen said coldly, "I don't care what you do! You must show the surprise to Gloria! If Gloria says it's not a surprise! You will re-prepare it!"

Gloria was surprised, "Oh, it's not necessary."

Karen said in a deep voice, "Yes, it is!"

Jordy's face was darker, "Grandma..."

Before he finished speaking, Karen put down her chopsticks heavily and said with a sullen look, "What? You are a big boy now, and you don't want to listen to me anymore, do you?"

"Oh, that's not true," Jordy said this.

Gloria curled her lip in silence. She just wanted to vent her anger and let Karen teach him a lesson.

However, Gloria did not expect that what Karen said next would upset Jordy instantly.

"You picked those roses for Gloria in person, then you should prepare the surprise for her in person again. You will keep doing this until she is satisfied!"

Gloria couldn't help giggling. She didn't care whether Karen was there or not but smiled at Jordy, "So grandma is backing me up. If I want to get back at you, I can just keep telling you that I'm not satisfied."

Karen suddenly smiled, "You can do that! No matter what he prepares, no matter whether you are really dissatisfied, you can just tell him that you are not satisfied! It's a punishment for him!"

Gloria knew Jordy was sullen even if she didn't look at him.

She nodded, "Okay, then please go to prepare a surprise for me personally, Mr. Collins! Grandma was right. One should act on what he says. As the president of the Collins Group, it would be a bad influence if you can't keep your words, right?"

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 760 Is That How You Pursue a Girl

Jordy laughed angrily, looking at Gloria, "You are right, so I will tweet the surprise for you and let everyone see that I did not lie."

Gloria was speechless.

What a jerk!

Why couldn't she win for once? Why did he win every time?

Karen suddenly felt happy. He was quite smart.

He actually knew he should tweet it. He was putting effort into this! If it was made public and people knew that he was pursuing Gloria, some people who were thinking about Gloria would give up. Jonathan was excellent, but he was Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 760s a dandy. Jordy was a better choice for Gloria. At least he wasn't a dandy.

Jordy promised to marry Angela just because he was deceived and thought Angela was his lifesaver.

He just wanted to repay her and he didn't love her at all. Moreover, he had some wrong ideas about Gloria, so the relationship between them became tenser and tenser. It was good that he could repent, but she didn't know if Gloria would agree to get back together with him or not.

Karen suddenly became worried.

She was worried about their future.

Jordy nodded in agreement, "No problem, I will prepare it now."

With that, Jordy put down his chopsticks.

Karen frowned, "It's no hurry. Finish the meal."

Gloria suddenly turned pale. She didn't expect that Karen would also support Jordy and thought it was a good idea to tweet the surprise. She quickly said, "Grandma, don't bother. I was just saying. I don't need any surprises. What's more, Jordy and I just pretend to get along as before."

She felt that she and Jordy were like mortal enemies in private!

She must find an opportunity to teach him a good lesson!

But she had to change her strategy. Grandma was not a good helper anymore...

Karen immediately shook her head. She looked at Gloria and said softly with a smile, "Oh, no. He must do what he said! Wait a minute. Let me see if there are any videos about you two on Twitter."

Then Karen got up to get her mobile phone.

Gloria was confused.

Just now, she asked Jordy to finish the meal first, but she put down her chopsticks for Twitter?

Jordy didn't say anything, just sat there in silence.

"There it is!" Karen was so excited. She clicked on the video and played it.

But...

After she finished watching the video, she looked sullen. She frowned at Jordy, "You just did this with so much effort?"

She wanted to say that it was too perfunctory!

Gloria was speechless.

She wanted to satirize Jordy in front of grandma for this, but she didn't do that for fear that grandma would ask Jordy to do something grander for her.

But now...

She suddenly had a bad premonition and even felt that she was shooting herself in the foot.

She didn't know what to say.

Jordy didn't reply. Karen looked up at him and said angrily, "You must prepare this surprise carefully! If you can't, you know what will happen! Were you really trying to protect Gloria's reputation or you just wanted others to talk about her? Was that how you pursue girls?"

It was so perfunctory! They got in the car only after a few words?
