C11 Head to the Bureau of Military Personnel

Huo Tian's nervousness was beyond his expectation. When he heard that Huo Ming was severely injured, he subconsciously panicked. He didn't know anything about Huo Ming. Where did his son get his hatred from?

Seeing all these running around, Huo Tian gradually calmed down. "How is Huo Ming?"

"Reporting to the patriarch, young master has suffered a lot of injuries, but now he has been controlled, and his internal injuries are not light either. It was caused by a sneak attack!" Guan Family bowed and looked at Huo Tian as he explained.

"That's good. Who exactly is it? With such courage, even my Huo family's Young Master dares to touch him. Are you tired of living? Butler, who are those people chasing after them? Don't tell me they didn't try to stop them?" Huo Tian turned around and looked at the butler with a frown.

"Chief, these people are too strong. The Huo family army couldn't defend against them, so we let them escape..." The butler's face was full of fear as he lowered his head.

Currently, Huo Tian was furious. Naturally, the steward knew that everyone in the Huo family knew about Huo Tian's violent temper. It was also because of this that they fell out with Old Master Huo Ye in the end. Even during the annual meeting, the old tutor only came to see Huo Ming and left the Huo family. Therefore, everyone in the Huo family was naturally extremely afraid of Huo Tian. They could only secretly guard against him.

"Could it be that there isn't anything left that can be used?" Huo Tian thought of something and asked.

"Chief, I think so. This was secretly given to me by the Huo family army. I haven't given it to the chief yet..." The steward took out the token and handed it to Huo Tian.

The word "portrait" was carved perfectly. Even the official seal was very similar. There was almost no difference.

When Huo Tian saw the word "Prime Minister," his heart was moved. "How did this Prime Minister Mansion's token land in Huo City?"

"But those people might not be from the Prime Minister Mansion. It's very obvious that this is a case of pursuit..." Although Huo Tian had a fiery temper and had always been rough, he was also rough in the middle.

"Could it be that there is no other important evidence..." Huo Tian continued to ask, as if he wanted to get more useful things.

"Patriarch, there seems to be a saber. It is a saber. There is a serial number of the Bureau of Military Personnel carved on it!" The butler recalled something and replied immediately.

"Bureau of Military Personnel serial number? Alright, let's go check it out. Since this is a Bureau of Military Personnel serial number, we have the right to report this to the Monarch and settle this matter!"

Huo Tian was burning with anxiety. He headed out of Huo City. As for the serial number of the Ministry of War, Huo Tian naturally had to go to the Minister of War to check it out. Otherwise, if he made a mistake, it would definitely affect the situation. Currently, everyone in the Huo City and the entire Huo family had been eyeing him covetously.

This had changed his temper a lot. More or less, he had done his best to the entire Huo City.

However, he knew that this trip would be fraught with danger. However, in order to verify this matter, he had no other choice. His cultivation base was not the highest in the Huo family, but Old Huo was currently in his fiefdom, so it was inconvenient for him to look for him.

He still sent someone to inform Old Master Huo Ye. However, since he had already received the news, he would not be able to arrive at the moment, so he could only head to the Imperial City's Bureau of Military Personnel by himself.

However, he knew that Old Master Huo Ye and his son, Huo Ming, had set up an ambush on the way to the Imperial City's Bureau of Military Personnel.

It was the ambush set up by Huo Ming and Old Master Huo Ye that saved Huo Tian from danger. If Huo Tian died, the entire Huo family would be in a pool of dead water. It didn't matter if the Huo family was destroyed or not. The next one was naturally Old Master Huo Ye.

The Baizhu Country had always been the same. The relationship between the Sovereign Kings was extremely strict, and they had deep conflicts with each other. They were always worried about starting a war and plotting a rebellion. Although there were a lot of Immortal cultivators, it was also because of these people that they were more concerned about the position of the Sovereign.

After Huo Tian left, Not long after Huo Tian left, Lan Ling'er woke up from her coma. She was told by the butler that Huo Ming was fine. His injuries were basically under control, and he was in the middle of recuperation.

"Butler, I want to see Ming. Quickly take me there!" Lan Ling'er was still a little faint and forced the butler to bring her there to take a look.

"Madam, the young master is in his room. Come with me!" The butler said in a low voice.

"Okay, lead the way!" Lan Ling'er naturally knew that something had happened when she heard that.

In the Huo family, only Lan Ling'er and Huo Lan were extremely intelligent. If it was anyone else, without these two girls, the Huo family would probably have a hard time defending themselves. Just Huo Tian alone was already an internal and external problem, and he was exhausted.

In Huo Ming's room, Huo Ming was thinking about this matter when Lan Ling'er rushed in, scaring Huo Ming.

Looking at the injuries on Huo Ming's body, Lan Ling'er was extremely sad. "Ming, where have you been recently? Didn't my mother ask Huo Yun to follow you so that she could protect you? Why did you run away... "

"Mother, I'm fine. Isn't it safe for me to return?" Huo Ming comforted her. The more Huo Ming said that, the angrier Lan Ling'er became.

"Ming, did you know?" Lan Ling'er asked. This time, you almost couldn't come back, and you even said that you would come back safely. " Aren't you asking for trouble? "If it wasn't for the fact that you were discovered by the Huo family army in time, you would have been killed a long time ago..." Lan Ling'er's face was full of worry, her tears also gradually dripping down.

What Huo Ming feared the most was that women would cry. Looking at Lan Ling'er's tears, Huo Ming also felt a wave of bitterness in his heart. It's also to let that father of his know that the situation is beginning to change, but he still seems to have a temper. However, it had also changed quite a bit...

Huo Tian went to the Bureau of Military Personnel to look for the weapon serial numbers and the Prime Minister's Token. From these, he was able to confirm his identity. Who were the people chasing after Huo Ming this time?

However, Huo Ming and the old man had already planned it out. The token belonged to the Prime Minister's Residence. The weapons were also made by the Prime Minister's Residence. It just so happened that all of these coincided with the Prime Minister's Residence. At the same time, above the Prime Minister's Residence... Many people had lost their weapons. This was not a big deal in the Prime Minister's Residence. Although the Prime Minister reported it, he didn't find anything. So he didn't take it to heart.

"Mother, I'm really fine. I was just on my way back to my grandfather's fiefdom, and in the end, I was targeted. I escaped all the way to avoid being killed!" Huo Ming said casually.

"Housekeeper, you go out first. I will go back after taking care of Ming." Lan Ling'er was not a stupid person. She could not hear Huo Ming's words.

"Can you talk about this, little devil? Do you think I don't know that you caused all these things by yourself? Have you seen the old master?" Lan Ling'er touched Huo Ming's face and asked with a smile.

"Sigh, mother can't hide it from you. If father had half of your intelligence, it would be enough..." Huo Ming sighed and held Lan Ling'er's hand.
