Chapter 12 - The Treacherous Li Yang -

C12 The Treacherous Li Yang

"To put it bluntly, your father is not a stupid person, but he has never been careful. He is always concerned about small matters and always drops the chain when it comes to important matters. I have to say, this habit is really not good..." Lan Ling'er's scolding made Huo Ming feel a little good.

"Alright, have you heard enough? You are clever. Quickly tell me what you have discussed with the old master." Lan Ling'er asked.

Huo Ming was enjoying himself when he heard Lan Ling'er's words. His expression changed as if he was about to get angry. "Mother, can't you say more?"

"What's the point of saying more? Why don't you say something more practical? Tell me, what do you want to discuss with the old master?" Lan Ling'er smiled.

I still can't hide it from mother. I have lived with grandfather for such a long time... "Yun Tian looked around and was relieved that no one was watching.

"Grandfather and I are in the fiefdom, training our troops and setting up formations..."

Lan Ling'er interrupted Huo Ming as soon as she said that. "Ming, you said that it was training troops to set up formations? You want to rebel?"

"Mother... can't you think of something good? Just like the old man, Why is it that training soldiers and setting up formations is a rebellion?" Yun Tian had a helpless expression.

"Alright, then continue!" Lan Ling'er's face turned red.

"Training soldiers to set up formations, burning the prison! This is the plan between me and the old master!"

"What, burning the prison and taking away the prisoners in and out of the Imperial City, was it also done by you? Even the Black Ice Prison, known as the most secure Black Iron Prison in the Baizhu Country, can't be broken by even a Spiritual Infant Stage warrior. How did you break it?" Lan Ling'er was shocked when she heard that.

Eh? That's not right. The higher-ups have ordered a strict investigation, but they didn't tell us the exact reason. It's just that the Monarch was extremely furious. These are all important prisoners from many years ago. Now that they have all been taken away, they are still silent. Naturally, this is impossible..."

"Could it be..." Lan Ling'er thought of this and immediately shut her mouth, "It's better not to tell me about Ming's matters. I don't know anything..." Lan Ling'er suddenly raised her eyebrows and said.

"Mother, what did you hear there? I was just joking..." Huo Ming naturally laughed and looked at Lan Ling'er.

Actually, after robbing the prison, everyone in Baizhu Country had caused a disturbance. After all, such a big matter could not be concealed. The imperial decree only ordered the entire country to investigate thoroughly and see who was the one who had the ability to take away all the prisoners.

On the Imperial Court, the one who was even more furious was naturally the Monarch. This matter was only reported after daybreak. At that time, all the flames were gradually extinguished. Only within the Inky Ice Prison, everything turned into nothingness. Everything was burned to ashes by the flames.

This was also the part that Huo Ming had designed. There was no evidence to prove that there was no one alive. It could be investigated for no reason. If it could not be investigated, then it could not be investigated. Hence, it could not be settled.

Not long after, the Monarch's Decree arrived in the feudal fiefdom. All the generals and officials convened a meeting in the royal court. They had to be careful about the prison robbery.

It was only after Huo Ming left that the Monarch Tokens arrived at the fiefdom. As for Huo Ming being pursued along the way, he naturally received the news.

The entire Imperial City. Because of this matter, the entire Imperial City was shaken. Because of this, the biggest joke had appeared in Baizhu Country.

As for the prisoners, they were all gone. There was not a single person, but thousands of them. Just like that, they disappeared for nothing. These are important prisoners, not ordinary ones. If they were to be dragged out, they would be generals and generals. Thus, this was what the Monarch was worried about. Once all of these people gather together, The Baizhu Country would be in danger.

The scariest thing wasn't these people. The prisoners in the Black Ice Prison were all A-grade war criminals. Old Master Lin Tian was one of the most important people in the Black Ice Prison. Even in the Baizhu Country, he was a man who feared everything.

However, he was helpless and lost to Old Master Huo Ye. He was captured and sent to the Black Ice Prison.

The so-called Black Ice Prison referred to darkness while the ice was heavily guarded. No one was allowed to enter or exit the Black Ice Prison. The black ice indicated that the Inky Ice Prison was the most terrifying prison.

Everyone knew about it, but it was also because of this that the Monarch was even more afraid. Such a person had disappeared overnight without a trace. Who wouldn't be scared?

Such a thing had never happened in Baizhu Country. Even if the Sovereign had sent many people to investigate, it was impossible to find it after such a long time. It was as if he had vanished from the face of the earth, and there was no trace of him at all.

The fury of the Imperial City had scared all the officials to death. If they could not find anything, it would not matter whether it was the Ministry of Finance or the Ministry of Finance. Whether it was the Internal Affairs Office or the Grand Council, there would be plenty of people who had been killed by the furious Monarch.

When Old Master Huo Ye received the decree, he instructed Old Master Lin Tian to conduct vigorous training in the territory of the Land of Oceans. When he returned, he must see an extremely powerful army with extremely high combat strength. The recruitment of soldiers was naturally handed over to Lin Tian.

This was no longer a matter of trust or distrust towards Lin Tian. It was a matter of life and death!

He had been brooding over Lin Tian's defeat all those years ago. It was a scheme and courage, but now that he had rescued Lin Tian, it was a crime, but it was also a disaster. Invisibly, he had become sworn brothers with Lin Tian.

He believed in Lin Tian. Just like Lin Tian believed in him, he believed that he would return to the Boundless Sea. Although this place seemed extremely desolate, it was extremely boring to distribute it.

That night, Huo Tian continued on his way. At dawn, he arrived at the Minister of War Residence.

Outside the Residence of Minister of War, those who knew Huo Tian's temper and saw that it was Huo Tian who had arrived had also brought him into the Residence.

At this moment, the Minister of War was resting. When he heard the servant report that Huo Tian was here, he immediately woke up. He put on his clothes and went to welcome him.

Everyone was very familiar with Huo Tian. He had a fiery temper and was full of courage. He often committed crimes, but because of the special status of the Huo family, many people were wary of Huo Tian.

"Lord Li Yang, Huo Tian has come to visit us. Please forgive him!" Although Huo Tian's voice was rough, he knew how to behave.

"I see. Brother Huo Tian, may I know why you have come to my Bureau of Military Personnel?" Just as Li Yang was wondering what was going on, he saw Huo Tian draw his saber from his waist, which gave Li Yang a shock.

The sleepiness he felt when he just woke up instantly disappeared. "This, Brother Huo Tian, you can't do this. My Ministry of War isn't a place to play with knives and guns..."

"Uh, no, I just want Brother Li Yang to help me see where the number on the knife came from." Huo Tian waved his hand and immediately explained.

"This, let me see..." Li Yang looked at the knife in Huo Tian's hand and said doubtfully.

After looking at it for a long time, Li Yang frowned. He was even more suspicious. There was dried blood on the knife. It was obvious that someone had been injured. He was the Minister of War. When he saw the number, his expression changed immediately, but he quickly calmed down.

Li Yang looked around and sighed, "Brother Huo Tian, where did this weapon come from?"

"This weapon? Someone was secretly chasing after my son, and he was being chased by the Huo family army. He only landed when he was running for his life. And the blood on it is from my son's body!" Huo Tian did not think too much about it. He told Huo Tian about Huo Ming's assassination.

"This, Huo Ming's nephew, did he not say that he did not... oh... Isn't this Huo City? Why would he be hunted down again? He was even injured. I wonder how his injuries are? Li Yang's tone suddenly changed, causing Huo Tian to frown.

"His injuries aren't serious. He's currently being treated. Brother Li Yang is worried. However, Brother Li Yang, did you see the number on the blade? Where did it come from?" Huo Tian suddenly thought of something and asked.

"This number isn't someone else's. It's the Prime Minister's Mansion's Military Blade. These numbers are written by the weapon forgers of the Shang Book Department. All the numbers are recorded in the book of the Ministry of War. At the end of this weapon is the mark of Prime Minister's Mansion. I'm not wrong about this..." Li Yang explained as he looked at Huo Tian with a serious expression.

"The Prime Minister's Mansion is indeed them..." Huo Tian's expression changed and he flew into a rage.

Brother Yun Tian, don't act rashly. You can't tell that it was done by the Prime Minister's Mansion just by relying on the weapon. You have to think twice! However, I don't know if there are any other items." Li Yang's expression changed as he asked.

Other items? Is that it?" Huo Tian took out the token with the word "photo" from his waist.

When he took out the token, Li Yang's expression instantly changed, "This is all the duty tokens of the military knife guards of Prime Minister's Mansion... Why would they..."

"Oh? Brother Li Yang, you know this token?" Huo Tian asked.

This token is the duty token of the Military Blade Guards of Prime Minister's Mansion. There is a personal guard, which means there are nine people guarding the safety of Prime Minister's Mansion. However, these nine people will change shifts as well, so this token will be handed over as well... "Li Yang explained after hesitating for a moment.

"Doesn't that mean..." Huo Tian was about to speak when he was stopped by Minister Li Yang. "Brother Huo Tian, you can be careful now. " Don't you know? There are dozens of prisons in the Imperial City, big and small. They were all taken away in one night, and even the most heavily guarded prison... "Aren't you going to the Prime Minister's Mansion to cause trouble for yourself?"

Li Yang's words caused Huo Tian's expression to change. But, don't tell me that these things aren't done by Prime Minister's Mansion? "

"I don't know about these things, but they are all from the Prime Minister's Mansion. " Brother, I can only tell you everything. I have no choice but to tell you about these things. Therefore, Brother Huo Tian should be on his own..." When Li Yang's words changed, Yun Tian frowned as well.

Alright, Brother Li Yang, I'll take my leave first... "Huo Tian clasped his fists and walked out of the Minister of War Residence.

Seeing Huo Tian leave, Li Yang's face turned cold. "This obviously has something to do with the Prime Minister's Mansion. Of course, he knows this token. It's the token that the assassins of the Prime Minister's Mansion have. So, he is just making things up to disrupt Huo Tian's thoughts on purpose..."
