C16 Threatening the Prime Minister's Residence

A group of soldiers and a group of a thousand men headed in the direction of the Imperial City. When they passed through the counties, many of them saw that it was Old Master Huo Ye, and immediately let him pass. They were curious as well. This was not the day of war, so why did they bring a group of a thousand men to the Imperial City?

Who would dare to not give face to Old Master Huo Ye? And it was these one thousand men. Even if there was a temporary army in a prefecture, it would still be hard for them to resist the sudden attack of these one thousand men.

The general and Old Master Huo Ye, the founding general, were both intimidating and capable. Many people were scared out of their wits.

Seeing the 1,000 soldiers leave, a county governor heaved a sigh of relief. If it was any other general, they would at least have to give orders. Otherwise, unless they brought the guards, if they really brought a thousand men with them and walked around, it would probably cause panic.

Old Master Huo Ye had been famous for a long time, and he could intimidate a region in the entire Baizhu Country. As for the Oceanic Land, with Old Master Huo Ye's intimidation, no one dared to disturb it. Actually, ten thousand miles away from the Oceanic Land, that was another small country.

It was precisely because the Oceanic Sea was suppressed by Old Master Huo Ye that very few people in the Baizhu Country had invaded the territory for many years. So, wherever Old Master Huo Ye went, everyone was afraid, and it was precisely because of this that everyone feared him.

With Old Master Huo Ye around, it was as if the Baizhu Country had a spiritual pillar. It was also because of this that the Monarch had never given up on Old Master Huo Ye. Once Old Master Huo Ye was dealt with by him or killed by an outsider, the entire Baizhu Country would immediately be in an uproar.

However, as time passed, after the prosperity of the nation, the marching and war seemed to have become a thing of the past, never to be seen in front of others. More importantly, as the war ended, there were more and more Immortal Cultivators.

It was precisely because of this that in a war, the more experts there were, the more motivated they were. As long as the experts were too strong, a battle would be instantly stopped.

Old Master Huo Ye and the others were covered in dust. They passed through many counties and some provinces, and it took them a day and a night to arrive at the Imperial City in the end.

In fact, this was only the outer Imperial City. The Imperial City was very far away. This was only the outer perimeter of the Imperial City. When the generals on top of the Imperial City saw that it was Old Master Huo Ye, they immediately went down the Imperial City and arrived outside the city wall.

"Old Marshal Huo, what are you doing?" A chiliarch asked very carefully.

"Could it be that you can't see? This marshal is going to enter the city!" Old Master Huo Ye raised his beard, scaring the chiliarch into taking a step back.

It was only a general who walked out. "Greetings, Old Marshal Huo. May I know why Old Marshal Huo came from afar?"

"You are the general of the city's defense here?" Old Master Huo Ye asked.

"Yes. I am the general of this city. Because someone broke into the prison last time. So this time, the Monarch ordered us to defend every pass strictly, and to prevent any similar incidents from happening. Therefore, I was transferred here to defend the city!" The general replied bitterly.

"I am going to Prime Minister's Mansion to seek justice. Please let me pass. I will let you go somewhere else next time." When Old Master Huo Ye spoke, the general's face darkened. "Old Marshal Huo. This, you go to Prime Minister's Mansion to seek justice. I can't wait now. Ah... "

"I won't make things difficult for you. Take my flag and look for Nangong Qiang. He will arrange it for you. As for this time, I will demolish Prime Minister's Mansion..." Old Marshal Huo Ye threw out a flag with the word 'Fire' and brought everyone into the city.

After entering the city, Old Master Huo Ye brought everyone to the Prime Minister's Mansion. The general who guarded the city had a bitter smile on his face. He looked at the flag in his hand and remembered to look for General Nangong Qiang.

Old Master Huo Ye and his group passed through the streets in a grandiose manner. The people who were not in the city were shocked and moved to the surroundings. When they saw that it was Old Marshal Huo Ye, everyone on the street knelt down in front of Old Marshal Huo.

"Welcome, Old Marshal Huo!"

"Everyone, get up. I, Huo Ye, am just here to talk to the old prime minister. You all should do your own things." Old Marshal Huo Ye looked over and ordered.

Just like that, the entire street returned to its usual liveliness. It did not change anything because of the army of a thousand people.

Prime Minister's Mansion wasn't far from the Imperial City to begin with. After passing through here, they would be able to reach the destination by walking through three districts.

When it was almost dusk, Old Master Huo Ye slowly arrived in front of Prime Minister's Mansion. When the servants in front of Prime Minister's Mansion saw that it was Old Marshal Huo Ye, they immediately went in to look for a butler in fear.

When the housekeeper came out, he immediately knelt down to Old Master Huo Ye, "Old Marshal Huo! I didn't know you would come, but this servant did not welcome you!"

"Where is Wang Chongxi, that old bastard? Ask him to get the hell out of here..." Old Master Huo Ye naturally didn't hold back when he opened his mouth and scolded.

This made the butler's face change, "Old Marshal, the Prime Minister is resting!"

"Men, tear down the Prime Minister's Mansion for me. This marshal is here, and he is still resting..." Old Master Huo Ye immediately said angrily.

Those people scared the old butler so much that he lost his mind. "Old Marshal, you can't do this. This old servant is asking the Prime Minister to come out and see you!"

As soon as the old butler entered, he naturally found Wang Yueming first. When Wang Yueming heard this, he immediately rushed out of the Prime Minister's Residence. When he looked over, he was immediately shocked.

With a glance, he saw a thousand men army blocking the Prime Minister's Mansion. It could be said that the Prime Minister's Mansion was impenetrable. This caused Wang Yueming to look at Old Master Huo Ye with a smile on his face.

"Old Marshal Huo, I've missed you. I hope you can forgive me. It's just that Old Marshal has brought so many people with him. What business do you have in coming to the Prime Minister's Mansion?" When Wang Yueming saw Huo Tian, his heart skipped a beat. He immediately understood.

But even if he understood, he had to pretend that he understood. Therefore, Wang Yueming could only ask with a laugh.

"What do you want? My grandson, Huo Ming, was seriously injured. My son, Huo Tian, has only just recovered from his injuries. What do you think I, Huo Ye, am doing here?"
"Men, tear down the Prime Minister's Residence. I want the world to know that my Huo family cannot act rashly!"

"Yes!" Dozens of people took a step forward one after another, scaring Wang Yueming so much that he almost fell down. "Old Marshal, this cannot be done. Nephew will go and invite Father out now. Old Marshal, please come with me to the residence to drink tea and rest for a while!"

"Is that so? Drink tea? I can't afford your Prime Minister's tea!" Old Master Huo Ye looked at Wang Yueming and said.

"Well, that nephew will go to his father now and invite the old marshal. Just a moment..."

"There's no need to wait. Wang Chongxi, old bastard, get the hell out here..." Old Master Huo Ye said. He let the prime minister who was resting fall to the ground. Then, he immediately got up. "Who is it?!"

"Prime Minister is in trouble. Old Marshal Huo Ye broke into the Prime Minister's Residence..."

"What? Quickly take me there..." The Prime Minister, who was in a daze, immediately woke up and ran out of the house.
