C9 The Two Elders Went into Battle

"Huo Ming? You are?" Lin Tian frowned and asked.

"I am the grandson of Huo Ye. The son of Huo Tian. His name is Huo Ming! I have seen Old Master Lin Tian here. What do you think of what Old Master Lin Tian said to me? " Huo Ming smiled and looked at Lin Tian.

"If that's the case, I, Lin Tian, will do anything even if I have to risk my life. Since I have been abandoned by the world and have been valued by you, I, Lin Tian, will do anything for you!" Lin Tian knelt down on one knee and said while looking at Huo Ming.

Huo Ming immediately helped Lin Tian up. "There's no need to kneel and salute. I just want to ask Old Master Lin Tian to help me get those old generals to join the army of Huo family. From now on, I will use nineteen of you to reorganize the army of Huo family!"

"What is it? You want to rebel?" Lin Tian frowned and guessed.

"Haha, conspire. Our prison has already become a crime that will wipe out all of our family. So, conspiring against us is nothing. " We are preparing for the rainy day. He has been the emperor of Baizhu Country for a long time. His position has become a bit high and dangerous. Since he wants to use someone as his target, he can't do anything about it. And if we can't find someone, then we're not ready. Huo Ming's words caused Lin Tian to be silent for a long time.

"I understand. With the status of Huo family and the old marshal, Huo family won't be in danger for the time being. However, as time goes by, once the old tutor dies, Huo family will be uprooted. It's just that they are still in a state of preparation. The dark waves are surging, and they don't dare to truly activate their power..."

"That's right. It was a long time ago. There was an internal conflict in Huo family, and the purpose was to be seen by others. However, it would definitely cause an accident if it happened in a short period of time. That's why I discussed it with my grandfather before starting the army. Reorganize and get ready for battle! " Huo Ming said slowly. As for Lin Tian, since they were now together, Then I'll tell you everything.

"Lin Tian, I, Huo Ye, have already given all the power to Ming. This time, the thirty thousand men of the Huo family's guards are only left with ten thousand men. We will continue to organize them. It won't be long before they are formed. I think Ming should have a plan as well..." Old Master Huo Ye looked at Lin Tian with a smile and said.

Huo Ye, I lost to you in the battle back then. I never thought that I would lose to your grandson. I'm afraid that he is your son, Huo Tian. I have never lost before. I lost because I don't have a good son like him. Haha! " Lin Tian said seriously, but then he burst into laughter.

"Since Huo Ye has given you the power, you will be the new marshal from now on. Although there is no handover, I don't think it is necessary. " From now on, you will be the marshal of all of us. As for the remaining 18 people, we are imprisoned in the same cell. We are all very familiar with each other. They should agree to it, but if not... You two go again!" Lin Tian thought for a moment and looked at the two of them.

"Alright, I have been waiting for Old Master Lin Tian to say this. Old Master Lin Tian, let's summon them."

"Men, bring those war criminals up here!" Old Master Huo Ye shouted. Immediately, someone brought the eighteen men to the main hall.

The eighteen men came to the main hall and looked at Lin Tian. Then, they went up and asked one by one. Old Master Lin Tian looked at the 18 men and said, "I am Lin Tian. He's been in prison for 20 years. It was because of Marshal Huo Ming who saved my life. This life belongs to Marshal Huo Ming. From now on, he was willing to enter the tent of Marshal Huo Ming. "I wonder what the eighteen of you intend to do? Are you willing to join Marshal Huo Ming's tent as well?"

The eighteen of them looked at each other. Not long after, they all knelt down. "We are willing to join General Huo Ming's tent. I wonder if you are Marshal Huo Ming."

The eighteen of them looked at Huo Ming with respect. They did not look down on Huo Ming. Instead, they looked at Huo Ming very seriously.

"I am Huo Ming, the grandson of Huo Ye. In this place, I welcome all of you to join the Huo family army. In addition, I will be here. " The eighteen of you, including Old Master Lin Tian, will be divided into different groups. You will lead the ten thousand men. In addition, we raided many prisons in Baizhu Country last night. In the end, we saved a thousand prison war criminals. I see that these one thousand prisoners will be led by Old Master Lin Tian and the rest. "What do you think?" Huo Ming looked at the eighteen men and said slowly.

"This, robbing many prisons in Baizhu Country..." Initially, they thought that they had only robbed one of the prisons, but they never thought that they would have robbed so many people at the same time.

"I wonder why Marshal Huo Ming is here?" The eighteen of them asked in unison.

"We must prepare for the rain. We must plan to leave!" Huo Ming looked at the eighteen men and let out a breath before speaking slowly.

This made the eighteen people frown. "General Huo Ming, please give the order. We will start to organize everything and start everything in an orderly manner. We will give the order for General Huo Ming."

Everyone's expression was extremely solemn. In this place, no one treated Huo Ming as a child. Instead, they placed Huo Ming in the most important position.

"Alright. Today, we will rest for a day. I will make arrangements tomorrow!" Huo Ming thought for a moment and said.

After all, it would take time to train the soldiers and set up the formation. Although there was a plan, it was still a bit lacking. He still needed to ask these generals about the formation of these phalanxes. "By the way, I will gather everyone in two hours. We will discuss the plan and strategy for this formation training. I hope that all of you will be able to arrive on time!"

"Of course. As for what Marshal Huo Ming said, of course, he has to do it!" Everyone cupped their fists and bowed to Huo Ming.

The eighteen of them knew the person who was killed at the beginning. That person had that personality. If he joined the fight, he would be killed. He only had that kind of ability. If he died, so be it. Huo Ming's display of strength was extremely effective.

In the afternoon, the eighteen of them arrived at the main hall. Old Master Lin Tian was chatting with Old Master Huo Ye and even forgot about Huo Ming.

"Alright, everyone, come and take a look. As of now, let's just report the situation. Among the ten thousand soldiers, many of them are experienced veterans. Some of them were ruffians and hooligans. This was also because of the lack of people in the camp. The other thing is that we obtained war criminals from the prison. These people... These people seemed to be criminals, but regardless of their strength, they were all criminals. I think they're all good. Plus, among the ten thousand people, we need to get rid of the dark lines. It's not a small matter, but I believe... It won't be difficult to give it to the generals. The various combat armies are ready, and a total of 11,000 people. I'll be responsible for those hooligans. From now on, they'll be divided into 19 armies led by Old Master Lin Tian and the 18 of you. In addition, there will be a subordinate lieutenant, Great General. I will leave all of them to you. What do you think?" Huo Ming took out the strategy that he had thought of at the beginning. He looked at everyone and explained.

"Yes, the strategy of the marshal is very good. These plans are also very good. Since the marshal believes in everyone, everyone will work together for the marshal!" Lin Tian took the lead and said.

"Haha, the old master is too polite. Let me say one more thing. With Old Master Lin Tian and my grandfather... The two of them are both Overlords. As the last leader, I will take full responsibility. From now on, The Huo family army will be fully developed. Wait until the battle arrives! " Huo Ming smiled and said.

"Alright, we will follow the general's orders." The nineteen of them, including Old Master Lin Tian, all looked at Huo Ming kneeling and cupping their fists.

"Everyone, please rise. You don't have to do this in front of me. It's just that I still have something important to do. I should go and do it now. As for this place, please take care of it. I will come back later." Huo Ming said meaningfully.

"Oh, I wonder what Marshal Huo Ming is talking about?" Old Master Lin Tian suddenly asked.

"I haven't been back for months. I'm afraid my mother is going to beat me up." Huo Ming's. Just one sentence, and it made the whole place laugh. At this moment, everyone remembered... Marshal Huo Ming was still a child. While everyone was still in awe, Old Master Huo Ye suddenly frowned. "Ming, come with me!"

Huo Ming naturally knew what Old Master Huo Ye wanted to ask, so he gave the order to let these people take over the command. Only then did he follow Old Master Huo Ye to his study with a smile on his face.

Looking at Old Master Huo Ye's tightly knitted brows, Huo Ming chuckled, "Grandpa, why are you looking for me?"

"Ming, what is that flame of yours?" Old Master Huo Ye asked slowly. However, his heart was shaken. This was a flame that even darksteel was nothing difficult to deal with. Even Spiritual Infant Tier elites were extremely afraid when they saw it. How could he not ask when it appeared on Huo Ming's body for no reason? Huo Ming was the child Lan Ling'er gave birth to with his own eyes.

"Grandpa, do you mean this flame?" Huo Ming suddenly pointed deep into his finger. A spark appeared on his finger.

However, this spark emitted an extremely high temperature, as if it could melt everything in the world. Old Master Huo Ye took a deep breath. "Is this the flame? Why?"

"Why is it so small?" Huo Ming smiled bitterly.

"Mars has followed me since I was born. I'm afraid you know that on the day I was born, I think it was my Mars that did it. In order to protect me, it burned the servant girl into ashes..." Huo Ming slowly said. Even if Old Master Huo Ye didn't believe him, Huo Ming only said these things. He didn't hide anything.

He couldn't possibly say that he came from the Divine Realm and was reborn in Spirit Fate Continent. After Huo Ming's death, his divine soul merged into one and became a new Huo Ming!
