

SO THE GOD OF LEARNING HAS A CRUSH ON ME - CHAPTER 18: COMMON IDOL DRAMA ROUTINE

"Shi Qi?"

"Shi Qi?"

Xu Mirai nudged the dazed Shi Qi and reminded him in a low voice, "Teacher Liang is calling you..."

When he looked at the class teacher on the stage, he saw that Mr. Liang said, "You have to work harder in physics, and you have to learn more and ask more questions."

Only then did Shi Qi realize that her physics score - 17 points.

Although she felt quite good in her heart, quite satisfied, but this face how dare to show it.

When Qi nodded like a chicken eating rice, repenting with an extremely serious attitude, "I know teacher, I will definitely learn more and ask more questions."

Liang Xin is very satisfied, this girl, good-looking, learning attitude is also very correct.

Xu Mirai looked at the report card on Shi Qi's desk and glanced at the 17 points that were circled with a red pen.

She rifled, "Qi Qi... you are also too powerful, a test, can test their names."

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

The same day after school, Shi Qi ran to the bookstore again.

This physics score can not, or have to buy some math tutorial material to save save the physics bias fall scores.

"Old...where is the boss?" Because the book is a little high, tiptoe only barely touched a corner of the time Q Q thought to find the bookstore owner to take down.

Looking at the bookstore without the boss's figure, she was confused.

The owner didn't want the bookstore anymore?

Then can she move it all home...

Si Eucalyptus picked a few suitable notebooks and walked across the corridor to check out, but his eyes were drawn to Shi Qi at the other end.

She jumped up one by one, trying to reach the book on the top.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

When Qi noticed that someone above her head had helped her take the book, she subconsciously looked up and only caught a glimpse of the chin and a little bit of the nose, but still recognized it, she quickly turned around and smiled sweetly, Si Eucalyptus really is secretly in love with himself.

Look, in this drama, the male protagonist often helps the girl he likes to carry the books, right?

"Thank you, Mr. Si Eucalyptus." She reached out to take it.

The company's main goal is to provide a comprehensive range of products and services to the public.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

"Yes, what's wrong?"

"You have 17 points in physics."

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The first thing you need to do is to buy some physics exercise books.

He remembered, before when Qi bought, are math and chemistry, language English also has two books.

The actual fact is that you should be able to get a good deal on your own.

The first thing you should do is to ask yourself this question. Physics is as easy as eating for Si Eucalyptus.

Then she saw that Si Eucalyptus put the exercise book back again, and then gently patted the coveted little head with the notebook, with a faint smile, "Little shorty, drink more milk."

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The time seven: "..."

She forgot that a common trope in school idol dramas is that the male lead takes the book and dedicates it to a higher shelf.

tui...! Just because you're tall, you're great!

What's wrong with me being short, did I eat your rice and drink your milk?

This is contempt! Absolutely naked contempt!
