The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 101

“How’s the business of the hospital recently?” Xiao Chen asked Wu Yaqing with a piece of chicken.

“Very good. Since you treated people and the prescriptions you gave, there are many patients in the hospital almost every day.” Wu Yaqing nodded, as if to affirm what Xiao Chen had done.

“That’s good. We’ll make more money in the future. We’ll be able to go back to the countryside and live a peaceful life as soon as possible.” Xiao Chen looked forward to the tunnel.

“Look at you, here you are again. I agreed to contribute to the development of traditional Chinese medicine. I want to live in seclusion in the mountains and forests every day.” Wu Yaqing couldn’t help staring at him.

“That’s not because my wife is so charming. I can’t help but want to see how beautiful our children are!” Xiao Chen said.

“You can pull it down!” Wu Yaqing is not angry.

“Just kidding, why are you so serious.” Xiao Chen smiled and said.

“Hey. Xiao Chen, I ask you, are you willing to accept that I’m just an ordinary doctor?” Wu Yaqing suddenly said solemnly.

“What’s the matter? Aren’t you a doctor from the beginning? You’re not an ordinary doctor. You’re a good doctor like a goddess in my mind!” Xiao Chen said.

“Why are you willing to pay for me like this?” Wu Yaqing frowned slightly. It seems that she has always had some incomprehension about this problem.

“There are so many reasons. If you have to say it, you are the only one who doesn’t discriminate against me when I am in the most depression.” Xiao Chen thought and said.

“Because of this little thing?” Wu Yaqing doesn’t seem to believe it.

“It’s not a small thing for me. I don’t know what I would be like without you.” Xiao Chen looked at her seriously and said.

“Well, I know what you’re worried about. Don’t worry. No matter where I go in the future, no matter who I become, your position in my heart will never change.” Xiao Chen said, suddenly pulling up her hand.

“Well, have a good meal!” Wu Yaqing gently pushed his hand away.

Although Xiao Chen quite understood her, Wu Yaqing was still uneasy inside.

After seeing Ling that day, she had a great sense of inferiority. Such a perfect woman also loved Xiao Chen deeply. She really can’t think of what ability she has to let Xiao Chen stay by her side.

Now she even wants to learn medicine from Xiao Chen. Even if it is only one tenth of Xiao Chen, she is satisfied.

However, this thing is a bit like a fantasy. After all, Xiao Chen is Xiao Chen. She is her. Their physique is completely different. She also knows why her grandfather has been in contact with Xiao Qingyuan for so long. Still an ordinary person.

It’s not because he doesn’t want to learn. These things depend on talent. There’s no such component in their family’s genes. No matter what she thinks, it doesn’t have any effect.

After dinner, they sat on the sofa and talked for a while. Now Wu Yaqing takes that matter less seriously.

Even if Xiao Chen let her stay, she didn’t intend to sleep with Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen understood that there was still a lot of uneasiness in her heart, but she also showed full understanding.

Anyway, he can practice all the time without sleeping. There is no need to avoid suspicion in front of Wu Yaqing. After all, the two people will live together in the future.

So Wu Yaqing fell asleep on the sofa in the living room. Xiao Chen spent the whole night in cultivation.

Soon after, the instrument for treating tumor diseases also appeared in the East China Sea. Every day, many people go to the central hospital and the first people's Hospital for treatment, and everything seems normal.

Until one day. At Wu Yaqing's request, Xiao Chen went to the hospital for treatment. A woman in her 40s came.

She said she had been suffering from tumors for several years. Seeing that there were instruments to treat tumors, she immediately felt that she was saved.

But after arriving at the hospital, I found that the charge was very unreasonable. Originally, these projects were subsidized, but now the price of each treatment has been as high as hundreds of thousands of yuan.

It is totally beyond the support of ordinary people.

Xiao Chen smiled faintly, so that she didn't have to complain anymore, so she wrote her own incurable prescription for her. Let her go home to recuperate, there will be hope.

Because she also knew Xiao Chen, she felt very complicated when she heard Xiao Chen's words.

So he went home and had been using the prescription given by Xiao Chen.

Within a month, Xiao Chen's treatment of a woman's tumor with a traditional Chinese medicine prescription spread in the East China Sea.

Some newspapers directly deified Xiao Chen into an omnipotent immortal.

Then those cancer patients who could not afford advanced instruments came to Xiao Chen for prescriptions. Some people are even willing to spend a lot of money on it.

However, Xiao Chen had already applied for his own patent for the prescription. He originally wanted to plan with Liu Nianxin when to launch the prescription, but he didn't expect the opportunity to come to the door by himself.

So he simply asked Liu Nianxin to set up a tumor treatment company.

Subsequently, the three prescriptions for tumor treatment were listed in the form of traditional Chinese medicine.

After that, there was a nationwide rush to buy.

However, under the supervision of Xiao Chen, Liu Nianxin did not dare to raise the price, but even so, the sales volume of this prescription directly exceeded hundreds of billions of yuan in just a few months.

And many other countries have come to buy their prescriptions.

This time, Xiao Chen's prescription caused a great sensation in the whole world. Even many regions set various awards for Xiao Chen to receive, but Xiao Chen rejected them one by one.

Some people were happy and others were sad. Just when Xiao Chen was in the limelight, several presidents of the Research Institute in the West sat together and were discussing an amazing plan. They were ready to fight the people around Xiao Chen

“This boy has cut off our money. We must give him enough warning!” Dean git, with white hair and a very fat body, was red with blood in his eyes.

This latest instrument is the achievement that he spent his whole life and studied for several decades. It was so simple that it was buried by Xiao Chen’s prescription.

Whoever it is, I won’t be reconciled.

Later, after investigation, they found that Wu Yaqing was the closest person around Xiao Chen, so they targeted Wu Yaqing.

At this time, someone in China also received the news. He is the boss of a joint venture, Zhao Longhua.

He is the agent of the latest tumor treatment instrument. Now he is facing bankruptcy because of the emergence of Xiao Chen’s prescription.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 102

Zhao Longhua’s business was originally a small business without income, but because his relatives happened to be in the Research Institute of the latest tumor treatment machine.

Therefore, he seized this seemingly once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, and every day he dreamed of reaching the leading position of domestic pharmaceutical enterprises with this investment.

However, the emergence of Xiao Chen’s prescription completely destroyed his dream and made him see clearly the reality of bankruptcy.

He wants to find Xiao Chen for revenge. He can’t wait to kill Xiao Chen directly to vent his hatred.

But he didn’t know Xiao Chen’s skill. He just knew that Xiao Chen was a miracle doctor.

The meaning of the Institute is to let him start with Wu Yaqing first. But he couldn't wait. He wanted to avenge Xiao Chen directly.

And he privately prepared guns. He thought that he was finished and had no future after bankruptcy. He simply kept on killing Xiao Chen.

On this day, Xiao Chen sat in Wu Yaqing's Hospital as usual. The people in line have been discharged from the hospital.

Xiao Chen's speed of seeing the doctor has been quite fast, but there are a steady stream of patients, so it seems that the whole hospital will be very crowded all day.

Suddenly, a man in a Ferrari stepped down from the car and directly pushed away all the patients in front of him, looking very overbearing.

So many people began to blame him.

"Money is amazing! Dr. Xiao Chen is a doctor who serves everyone. Even if you have money, you have to queue up!"

"How can you jump in the queue! Dr. Xiao Chen! Dr. Wu! You take care of this man!"

"Young man, don't bully us old, weak, sick and disabled people because you think you are strong!"

.....

The voice of criticism is getting louder and louder, which directly affects the patients in front of them.

Xiao Chen also noticed that this person, who was dressed more brightly and very unsociable, appeared in the team.

After hearing the accusation, the man quickly stood behind a middle-aged man and said:

“Which eye of yours saw me jump the queue? Don’t talk nonsense!”

“Oh, why are you so incompetent! Everyone comes to see a doctor. Are you going to die? Jump in the queue like this!” The middle-aged man in front also accused.

“Yes. I’m dying! What’s none of your business?” The man looks like a dead pig is not afraid of boiling water.

“All right, all right, be quiet. Don’t affect the environment of the whole hospital. I’ll deal with some people without quality!” Xiao Chen stood up and shouted.

So everyone was silent.

The man in the suit was quite conspicuous in the crowd, so Xiao Chen naturally had a grasp in her heart.

The speed of seeing a doctor is very fast. It’s going to be the man in a suit.

But the more it’s the man’s turn. Bursts of cold sweat began to appear on his head.

This man is no one else. It’s Zhao Longhua. Now he has a gun pinned to his waist and is going to shoot Xiao Chen when he sees a doctor.

But anyway, he is also the first time to do such a thing, and his heart is quite nervous. But the thought that Xiao Chen had cut off his financial resources made him bankrupt.

Now the lover and even his wife outside have to leave him with their children. He has the courage to kill Xiao Chen in an instant.

“Next!” Xiao Chen said faintly.

“Hello, doctor Xiao Chen. Please help me see my current situation.” Zhao Longhua smiled as if he were helping himself relax.

“OK, stretch out your hand.” Xiao Chen said.

“OK.” Zhao Longhua smiled and put his left hand on the table, while his right hand was put to the position of the gun at his waist.

In fact, Xiao Chen has seen all this. Even the cold sweat on his forehead is clearly seen by Xiao Chen.

Since five of the diseased veins coagulated. Xiao Chen’s eyesight has reached an unprecedented peak. Even a microscope hundreds of times may not be as clear as his eyesight now.

So Zhao Longhua’s every move from entering the medical school to now has been clearly touched by Xiao Chen.

“This patient. As for you, there’s nothing wrong with your body, but there’s something wrong with your psychology.” Xiao Chen closes her eyes and pretends to help Zhao Longhua analyze her condition.

“Oh? What do you say?” Zhao Longhua is also quite cooperative.

But his right hand had touched the trigger of the pistol. Be ready to take out and shoot Xiao Chen at any time.

“Psychologically, you are a little unwilling. Why not? Because there are some problems in your enterprise, aren’t you?” Xiao Chen’s expression was like some old people who were divining on the roadside. It seemed that she knew everything.

“The miracle doctor is indeed a miracle doctor, which can be seen.” Zhao Longhua pretended to be surprised.

“Of course, what’s more, you have to do a very thrilling thing now. It may be the only time in your life.”
Xiao Chen continued to analyze.

“Yes, that’s right. You’re a miracle doctor. You’ve guessed this kind of thing. Then I’ll show you what I did for the first time in my life!” With that, Zhao Longhua pulled out the pistol directly from his waist.

He pulled the trigger directly at Xiao Chen’s head.

“Bang -“

With a shot, the whole scene fell into chaos.

“Ah ~ this man is a gangster and has a gun! Come on! Call the law enforcement officers!”

Someone is shouting.

Wu Yaqing, who originally filled the medicine in the back, also ran out in a hurry.

“Xiao Chen!”

But what I saw was Xiao Chen smiling faintly, and Zhao Longhua’s whole face was extremely distorted.

Zhao Huachen directly pinched the other hand and dislocated the bullet.

“I’m not willing! I’m not willing! Why can’t I kill you like this! Are you really an immortal?” Zhao Longhua roared at the top of his voice.

Then he held out his left hand to take the gun off the table.

But how could Xiao Chen give him another chance to take the gun? He directly picked up the pistol with his right hand, and then slightly carried the sick pulse. A huge force was generated in his hand, which directly crushed the pistol on the spot.

“This... How is this possible! Are you a qigong master?” Zhao Longhua can’t believe what he just saw is true.

“There is no separation between medicine and martial arts. Since I know I am a miracle doctor, I still have some strength. Otherwise, how can I see a doctor for treatment? Mr. Zhao Longhua.” Xiao Chen sneered.

“You know it’s me? Why did you let me jump in line to find a chance to kill you?” Zhao Longhua’s eyes are full of discontent.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 103

“Stay in prison and think about these problems clearly! I Xiao Chen didn’t do anything against the law and discipline. I was just serving all the patients. You just came to kill me for your own self-interest. Do you think it’s reasonable for you to do so?” Xiao Chen looked at him steadily.

It’s like a teacher looking at a student.

“I.....” Zhao Longhua was speechless for a moment, but then he said in a vicious way:

“It’s you. It’s you. You broke my company. You separated my wife and children. You ruined my life, so I’ll kill you. Only by killing you can I vent my resentment!”

“Since you are in business, don’t you know that the market is unpredictable? Even if I don’t appear, if other companies are under the banner of curing cancer, your company will also face bankruptcy. Thanks to you, you are still a businessman. Don’t you even know the most basic thing?” Xiao Chen looked at him as if he were looking at a fool.

“Just because you are the winner, you can blame me from a commanding height, but if you succeed in my sneak attack today, everything will change.” Zhao Longhua is almost crazy.

“Hum, there’s no cure. It’s because there are people like you who boast of being entrepreneurs in China. They don’t pursue their own innovation, but only pursue opportunism. Earning the hard-earned money of the public can only be self destruction in the end!” Xiao Chen threw him out like a dead dog.

Then law enforcement officers took him away.

When he took it away, Zhao Longhua also shouted: “don’t say it’s me, you’ll become a capitalist in the future. Don’t say yourself so noble. You’re just a civilian! You made too many enemies and killed me. There are thousands of Zhao Longhua!”

All these words were ignored by Xiao Chen. When he became the God of war in the East, many people were very dissatisfied with some of his practices, so now he has been chased by various killers sent by state M.

Finally, he retired from the current implicated a Ling.

As for himself, he doesn’t regret it at all. He just feels that he has been implicated. Ah Ling is very sorry.

Therefore, we should collect disease Qi as soon as possible and break through our cultivation to an unprecedented height as soon as possible, so that all those who oppose us can see it. Whether the path they adhere to is correct.

Although Xiao Chen has no psychological feelings about such things, Wu Yaqing, who witnessed the whole process, doesn’t think so.

Ruihua Hotel, room 752.

Wu Yaqing hugged Xiao Chen directly as soon as she entered the door, which made Xiao Chen a little flustered.

Then she directly pasted her red lips on Xiao Chen's lips.

Then the hand moves very fast. Directly began to untie his clothes, and then attacked the part of Xiao Chen's lower abdomen.

Xiao Chen hurriedly stopped her, and then pushed her head away gently.

"You're not in the mood now, are you? Let's wait a little. I brought the clothes last time." Wu Yaqing said and was ready to take a bath.

But Xiao Chen pulled her: "what's the matter, Yaqing? You're very wrong today."

"What's wrong? I just figured something out. All right. Don't think about it!" Wu Yaqing pretended to easily scrape Xiao Chen's nose.

But Xiao Chen's insight was so sharp that he saw through her mind at once.

"Yaqing. You're worried about my life, aren't you?" Asked Xiao Chen.

Suddenly, Wu Yaqing sank his face.

Then he looked at him with red eyes and said, "your situation today is really too dangerous. If you don't have this Kung Fu, I really can't imagine what things would be like."

"Well, good wife, don't think too much. This little thing is worthless for me, doctor Xiao Chen. You don't have to worry about my safety. I'm mainly worried about your safety." Xiao Chen gently hugged Wu Yaqing.

But Wu Yaqing pushed him away: "yes. Now some ordinary people come to assassinate you, but what will happen in the future? There are so many experts in the world. What if one day a peerless expert comes and you accidentally get caught? I don't want it, I don't want anything. Let's retreat! Hide in a place where no one can find it."

Sure enough, the woman's mind is still quite soft. Wu Yaqing is really just an ordinary woman. She is really hard to accept that Xiao Chen has to face dangers from all sides every day.

Hearing this, Xiao Chen didn't know what to say for a moment. In fact, he knew he couldn't escape, but Wu Yaqing didn't want to give up.

Suddenly, they both fell into silence.

"I'll take a bath first." After a long time, Wu Yaqing spoke first.

This time Xiao Chen didn't stop her. He knew what he was facing meant to Wu Yaqing.

Living in danger at any time, you may be injured or even lose your life at any time.

But now the whole organization is still fighting, a Ling's life is in danger at any time, and the medical immortal door can't be lost like this. It took more than half of Grandpa's life to create it.

Xiao sat on the sofa meditating, which was almost an unsolvable proposition for himself.

"Husband ~" a soft cry came.

Later, Xiao Chen sniffed the smell of perfume.

Wu Yaqing was wearing his last suit of clothes. Her exquisite figure loomed against the light clothes.

Although Xiao Chen had intimate contact with Wu Yaqing many times, she stopped at the step of kissing. Now seeing such a scene, she instantly felt bursts of evil fire coming out of her lower abdomen.

Then he saw Wu Yaqing walking towards him step by step and sitting directly on his body.

Xiao Chen even felt something unreal for the first time.

That night, everything that should have happened happened.

The next morning, Xiao Chen woke up early. Looking at Wu Yaqing lying next to her, she was very tangled, but she still hugged her tightly.

Until the sunrise, Wu Yaqing woke up with a loud hum and found Xiao Chen looking at herself.

He smiled and said angrily, "what are you looking at? I haven't seen enough last night!

"If you don't see enough, you won't see enough even for a lifetime!" Xiao Chen giggled as if she had married the best daughter-in-law in the world.

"Look at your bear. I made you light last night. You didn't take it lightly. Today I punish you for taking a day off with me!" Wu Yaqing said and leaned towards Xiao Chen again.

"I wanted to be gentle last night, but my wife is so attractive that there is no way but to make you feel wronged." Xiao Chen looked helpless.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 104

The two wanted to keep making out, but suddenly Wu Yaqing's phone rang. When they opened it, it was Zhao Sulan.

But she told her family about staying at Xiao Chen's place last night. Why would she call now?

Despite her doubts, she answered the phone: "Hello, mom. What's up?"

"I'm not your mother. Now your parents have been caught by us. If you want to save them, let your boyfriend come!" A strange voice came.

Wu Yaqing's face immediately became quite ugly. She checked her mobile phone number several times and found that it was Zhao Sulan's.

Then he slowly opened his mouth and said, "don't embarrass them. We'll give you all the money you want. Don't hurt them!"

"Hehe, we're not just asking for money. Well, let's listen to your parents' cry. Before 10 o'clock tonight, let your boyfriend wait at the memorial archway of Huanghua village in the suburb west of the East China Sea. If our people can't see him, this cry will be their last cry!" The mysterious man then heard the screams of Zhao Sulan and Wu Changqing.

"Yaqing! You must save us! Let Xiao Chen go!"

"Yaqing! You can't watch your father die when something happens!"

"Dad, mom!" Wu Yaqing shouted anxiously.

"Doodle doodle..."

But there's obviously hung up.

"Something's wrong, isn't it?" Xiao Chen has heard all the phone calls just now.

"Xiao Chen, what should I do?" Wu Yaqing is almost ready to cry now.

On one side are their parents. One side is the person you love most now, and both sides seem unable to give up.

“Don’t worry, isn’t there me? I’ll save my parents. Just rest assured.” Xiao Chen gently comforted Wu Yaqing.

Originally, they wanted to kidnap Wu Yaqing directly, but recently Wu Yaqing has been with Xiao Chen. They had no choice but to kidnap Wu Yaqing’s parents.

After all, now their research institute is suffering losses every day. It’s not easy to hire a B-class killer now. At that time, there’s no money to hire a killer. How can we revenge.

So they must make an end with Xiao Chen as soon as possible.

After Xiao Chen got ready, he came to the memorial archway of Huanghua village early.

Then a group of five people came towards Xiao Chen with heavy weapons.

Xiao Chen only wears simple sportswear and saves silver needles on his face. He believes that no matter how big the other party’s background is, it’s quite good to invite A-class killers. And his current skill can be said to be beyond the solution of the killer organization.

You have to invite an expert of that level last time to pose a certain threat to him.

“Search!” Five people with heavy weapons came to Xiao Chen, and one of them began to search whether Xiao Chen had weapons or not.

Then a black Lamborghini appeared. Xiao Chen was put on a Headcover and escorted in.

I don’t know how long it took. But Xiao Chen has completely written down the path in his heart. According to his calculation, now he should be on an abandoned construction site at the junction of the East China Sea and Ningchuan city.

Then his whole body was shackled with class B shackles, and it was very difficult for the whole person to move forward.

He was taken to the underground attic of the construction site. After taking off his head cover, he saw Zhao Sulan and Wu Changqing hanging in mid air by chains.

“Xiao Chen, Xiao Chen, you’re here! Help us!” Zhao Sulan saw Xiao Chen coming. Hurriedly cried.

Wu Changqing obviously passed out.

“Let my father-in-law and mother-in-law go! You want to target me!” Xiao Chen said coldly.

“Yes, of course, but there are also statements about how to release them. For example, let them go to hell!” With that, a killer on the side directly pointed his heavy rifle at Wu Changqing’s head.

“No! No! You scum. You don’t mean what you say!” Zhao Sulan immediately shouted like a madman.

“Since you are in such a hurry, let you die first!” Then the killer was about to pull the trigger.

But at this time, a sudden change occurred. Two small black balls suddenly appeared in Xiao Chen’s hands, which had been handcuffed to death, and directly hit the abdomen of the two killers around him.

They fell to the ground in an instant.

Then Xiao Chen broke free from the shackles. Directly kicked the killer with a heavy rifle upside down and flew out, bumped into an iron box and fainted.

“No, the enemy’s strength is stronger than expected. Shoot quickly!” The remaining killers took out their weapons in an instant, and even the bazooka aimed at Xiao Chen’s position.

Zhao Sulan also fainted with fear, while Xiao Chen broke the iron rope that bound them directly.

Then he took them out of the underground attic.

Xiao Chen remembered the location of the car just now, so he sent them to the car first.

And I went back to the abandoned construction site.

The four killers had caught up at this time. He aimed his weapon at Xiao Chen.

“Fight!” One of them roared.

So the four pulled their own trigger at the same time.

Heavy firepower directly surrounded Xiao Chen, and bursts of smoke and dust shook in the middle of the whole abandoned construction site.

“All right, stop! The boy should be dead!” The killer who gave orders earlier.

“Oh? Really? Are you sure I’m dead?” Xiao Chen’s voice came from behind him like a ghost.

“Captain, be careful!” The killer on one side quickly shot at the killer’s back.

But it was too late. Xiao Chen had a slight pulse of illness. He pinched a trace of black gas in his hand and blew it out directly at the silly fist. His head was like a watermelon.

“Damn, avenge the captain!” The other three killers were furious in an instant. They were originally outlaws. Now they saw their captain dead and they estimated that they had no way out, so they took out their grenades and were ready to die with Xiao Chen.

However, their speed could not catch up with Xiao Chen. In an instant, Xiao Chen came behind one of them and knocked the person out with a hand knife.

The remaining two didn't see Xiao Chen's movements at all, but one of them had raised a rocket and hit Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen pinched a trace of sickness in his hand and directly intercepted the rocket in the air and threw it on the ground. It was obviously a misfire.

"Ah! Go to hell with me!" Another killer is holding a grenade in his hand, and the other hand is directly shooting at Xiao Chen's position with a heavy rifle, trying to die together.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 105

Xiao Chen dodged his strafe flexibly, kicked a small stone directly from the ground and hit the killer's knee directly, so he fell directly to the ground before Xiao Chen, but he desperately threw out the grenade in his hand at the moment of falling.

Xiao Chen directly kicked the grenade in front of the killer with the bazooka.

"Bang -"

The killer was blown to ashes before he could even scream.

Xiao Chen walked slowly to the killer who fell to the ground and directly pulled him up from the ground.

"Say! Who sent you!" Xiao Chen looked at him with cold eyes. It's like looking at a body.

The killer just sneered and didn't want to say a word.

“Don’t say yes. I’ll see how long you can last!” The ill Qi on Xiao Chen’s hand directly poured into each other’s viscera and even brain.

The killer’s expression twisted in an instant, and his whole body began to vibrate violently. It seemed that he had suffered more terrible pain than death.

“Don’t say anything. I can make you suffer like this for three days and nights, and I promise you, you can’t die if you want to!” Xiao Chen warned again.

Maybe it was too painful. The killer opened his mouth, but he couldn’t say a word.

Xiao Chen took back some ill Qi.

The killer’s forehead was covered with cold sweat, and his face became very pale, as if he had just been seriously ill.

“Yes... A Research Institute in country m asked us to come. Their Dean’s name is... Git!” The killer spoke slowly, as if he had exhausted all his strength.

Then Xiao Chen tried again, and the killer broke his breath and lay on the ground.

Because Zhao Sulan and Wu Changqing fainted, they woke up again and had returned home.

The two were originally very afraid and hugged each other as soon as they woke up. But after seeing Wu Yaqing in front of them, he was relieved.

“Yaqing, I remember Xiao Chen came to save us. Where did he go?” Zhao Sulan was sober when Xiao Chen just came, while Wu Changqing was knocked unconscious by the killers because he was too noisy.

“Xiao Chen is out to work now. You don’t have to worry about him. Come on. Have some medicine porridge. You’ve just been frightened. It’s to calm the nerves and replenish the brain.” Wu Yaqing said and put the two bowls of porridge in front of the two old men.

“Oh, that Xiao Chen is so divine. I was really blind at the beginning. I didn’t expect him to be so powerful! You didn’t see him at that time. He divided three times into five and two...” Zhao Sulan also wanted to describe Xiao Chen’s heroic posture at that time.

But Wu Yaqing forced him back with a strange look.

“OK, I’ll stop talking. Drink porridge, drink porridge.” Zhao Su came down when Langton.

It seems that Wu Changqing was quite silent after being beaten because he was talkative.

“Dad, are you... All right? Why don’t you talk all the time?” Wu Yaqing also asked with some worry.

But after Xiao Chen came back, he checked for the two elders. They all suffered some skin trauma, and there was no other substantial injury.

“Nothing, just don’t want to talk.” As an old leader, Wu Changqing encountered such a thing in the last two years when he was about to retire. He really had a great shock in his heart.

The world is not as safe as he thought. Even within China, there will be such terrorist attacks. It’s really frightening to think about it.

“Well, it’s all over. You’ll rest for a few days. You won’t go anywhere these days. I’ll take good care of you at home.” When Wu Yaqing finished, he took the medicine porridge bowl they had drunk and prepared to go out.

“Well... Yaqing, it was all our fault before. Then you can help us thank Xiao Chen!” Wu Changqing suddenly said.

“Well, I see. Just have a good rest.” Wu Yaqing promised from a distance.

In a medical research institute in country M.

A group of big bellied people in black suits are carrying black suitcases to get on a helicopter.

“Dean git, are we really going to give up our research institute for so many years and take refuge in the Nordic continent?” Asked one of the young looking m people with light yellow hair.

“Fool, don’t you know that we are in great danger? If this sneak attack is unsuccessful, even if we have the support and protection of state m, we will be retaliated by Xiao Chen! Flee to northern Europe. It’s the best choice!” Kit’s nose was almost crooked. He never dreamed of inviting a group of B-class killers.

And Xiao Chen was handcuffed, or killed all the killers.

Now he doesn’t know whether his situation has been exposed, but he has always been a person who plans ahead, so when things fail, he immediately wants to go as a last resort.

However, just as they were boarding the plane, a voice came from above them.

“Dear Dean git, is it too much for you to want to leave after you treat my father-in-law and mother-in-law like this!”

“Who! Who is it!” Kit panicked instantly. They didn’t understand what his father-in-law and mother-in-law meant.

Kit looked up and found that there was a flying object he had never seen before, just like the spaceship seen in the movie.

Directly above their heads.

“Come on! Come on! Those who don’t come up don’t have to come up. Let’s go!” Kit directly urged the captain of the helicopter.

“But your wife hasn’t come up yet!” Humane.

“Don’t worry about her. Go wherever you like!” Kit is already a little hysterical.

So the helicopter took off directly, producing bursts of cyclones.

“Do you want to launch missiles directly?” Ling, sitting beside Xiao Chen, asked.

Although Xiao Chen knows that this is very dangerous, if others have bullied you and don’t fight back, it’s not his style.

“No, that’s too obvious. How long do we have to hide now?” Asked Xiao Chen.

“About three minutes and more.” Ling looked at the data on the ship.

“OK, that’s enough. I’ll go down and come back in a minute!” Xiao Chen said and jumped down directly from the spaceship.

“Be careful!” Ling reminded.

But it was obvious that Xiao Chen had fallen from the spacecraft.

The helicopter below is slowly starting.

“What’s that!” A man from m pointed to the small black spot from above.

“Yes... It’s a person!” The captain of the helicopter was surprised.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 106

While they were still surprised, silver lights flew out of Xiao Chen. The helicopter captain was directly inserted into the acupoint on his neck and fainted.

Several researchers around kit also fainted, leaving him alone shouting in panic.

“What’s the matter with you? Jerry! Mike! Brown!”

The helicopter also lost its balance because no one operated it and fell down obliquely.

The concrete floor below was smashed with some cracks.

Xiao Chen stood not far away and sneered at the situation in front of him.

I saw a fat old man climb out of it. It’s obviously kit who didn’t get shot by the silver needle.

“You are Xiao Chen!” Only now did he know that the visitor was not someone else, but Xiao Chen.

“That’s right. It’s me. Don’t you really want to kill me? Come on, I’ll be here as long as you can. I’ll kill you!” Xiao Chen provoked.

JIT suddenly didn’t know where to take out a pistol and directly aimed it at Xiao Chen’s head. He fired several shots.

“Go to hell! Go to hell! Go to hell!” He kept yelling, as if a wild animal was going crazy.

“Click! CLICK!” He emptied all the bullets.

But when he saw Xiao Chen holding all the bullets in his hand, he softened his feet and knelt down directly, pleading:

“Lord Xiao Chen, I have no eyes and don’t know the true face of Lushan Mountain! Please forgive me!”

“Oh, you can still use our Chinese poetry? But I tell you, our poetry is not so useful! And you also deserve it?” Xiao Chen threw the bullet in his hand to the ground, and then walked slowly to GIT.

“Lord Xiao Chen, everything you say is right, as long as you are willing to let me go. This is all my property, you can take it away. Please let me live!” Kit directly threw the black suitcase in his hand at Xiao Chen’s feet.

“You old devil, you don’t have a few years to live. Are you still so afraid of death?” Xiao Chen grabbed him directly from the ground. Look at him coldly.

“Daddy!” Suddenly a cry came from a distance.

It seems to be the language of country m, but Xiao Chen can also understand it. He glanced faintly. A pretty cute little girl from country m looked at Xiao Chen and then from a distance with a teddy bear in her arms.

Behind him stood a blonde woman who looked young.

“You’re not as good as an animal. You just run for your life and don’t even want your wife and daughter. Now they’re saving you!” Suddenly, Xiao Chen’s eyes were filled with anger.

Such a man is one of the people he hates most. He can’t wait to kill git right now.

But he knew it was no different from terrorists who had lost their humanity.

He put a trace of sickness directly into kit’s body, and then said faintly:

“It’s your luck. If your daughter and wife don’t come today, you may have gone to hell. But you can avoid death, but you can’t escape life! Enjoy the pain!” Xiao Chen said and turned to leave.

Kit didn’t know what Xiao Chen had put on him, because there was no feeling of disease Qi entering the body.

But soon he began to regret. Every rainy day, his internal organs were as painful as being bitten by countless small insects. It was even worse than death.

Xiao Chen quickly returned to the spacecraft, and ah Ling immediately started the propeller. The two returned to China in less than a few minutes.

“Trouble you again this time.” Xiao Chen felt a little embarrassed when she left.

Ling didn’t speak. Directly came up and kissed Xiao Chen.

“This is your gift of thanks.” She is playful and genuine.

Xiao Chen was stunned on the spot, but then he smiled. Nothing more.

Back at Wu Yaqing’s home, the two old men were watching the news on TV. It’s all about prescriptions for incurable diseases.

Of course, no one knows that Xiao Chen did this. He specially found someone else to represent him. He just took a stake in technology.

Now, if you want to rank the richest people in the world, it is estimated that Xiao Chen is already the first stable one, but he is very low-key, so few people know who he is.

The legal holder of these prescriptions is Liu Nianxin, so he also firmly took the position of the first person in domestic medicine and completely crushed other enterprises.

Even the previous several well-known enterprises in country m in the world have been surpassed by Liu Nianxin's enterprises.

"How's it going? Are your parents in better health?" Xiao Chen stood behind the sofa and said.

Hearing that Xiao Chen came back, Zhao Sulan and Wu Changqing quickly stood up from the sofa.

"Xiao Chen is back!"

"Come on, sit down quickly. My good son-in-law is back!" Zhao Sulan then took Xiao Chen's hand and let him sit between them.

Suddenly, the two people were so enthusiastic that Xiao Chen immediately felt that it was not very interesting.

But after this. The two elders' views on Xiao Chen have also completely changed.

That's why there is such a big change in the attitude towards Xiao Chen.

"Mom and Dad, you're too polite. I'll just sit down as if I were the head of the family." Xiao Chen scratched her head with some embarrassment.

"Oh, don't say that. You must be the head of the family in the future. Now it's almost the same. When your father retires, won't you be the head of the family?" Zhao Sulan was flattering.

"Yes, yes, yes! I will retire in two years. After that, you will be in charge of this family!" Wu Changqing also spoke.

"That's not a success! I can't afford it. Then you should say I don't respect my elders!" Xiao Chen quickly declined.

“Who said that? I’ll knock whoever said that!” Wu Changqing pretended to be angry.

“What are you talking about? So happy?” The voice of Wu Yaqing came from behind.

“We’re talking about Xiao Chen’s authority. Come on, Yaqing, you’re just here. Come and listen to your parents!” Zhao Sulan quickly greeted Wu Yaqing.

“Oh, what time is it? There’s no question of authority. I want to live a good life with Xiao Chen.” Wu Yaqing couldn’t help rolling his eyes.

She has long been tired of the traditional concept of her parents. It was also because of this that there was an unnecessary contradiction between her and Xiao Chen.

“Who said, Xiao Chen is now the pillar of our family. After marriage, you have to ask him for advice on everything, do you hear me!” Wu Changqing looked serious and authentic.

“Just respect your husband, okay?” Zhao Sulan is also helping.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 107

Wu Yaqing was speechless after listening.

Xiao Chen laughed: “Mom and Dad, don’t be kidding. I will cherish Yaqing. It’s really not easy for us all the way.”

Then he pulled Wu Yaqing to his side and sat on his lap.

“Tut tut Tut, look at this couple. It’s a perfect match!” Wu Changqing also laughed.

“It’s not what I said at the beginning. Where to find such a son-in-law, only Xiao Chen deserves such an excellent daughter.” Zhao Sulan also hurriedly added.

Xiao Chen couldn't help but feel a little ashamed. Now their attitude has changed too much. It's a little crazy.

"Well, parents, watch TV. We have some things to discuss. I won't bother you." Wu Yaqing said and took Xiao Chen's hand.

"Well, you have to refuel. Let's have grandchildren early!" Zhao Sulan showed a smile on her face, which seemed to imply something.

"Oh, what are you talking about? We are discussing business." Wu Yaqing looked helpless. Unexpectedly, her parents suddenly became like this.

Come to the room. Xiao Chen already knew what Wu Yaqing was going to say.

"Xiao Chen, this kind of life is too thrilling. Let's find a suitable place to live in seclusion as soon as possible!" Wu Yaqing's face was a little ugly. It was obviously this time that gave her a big blow.

"Yaqing, you can rest assured that such a thing will not happen in the future. I didn't think well before. Now no one can find any information about the people around me, so I promise you it won't happen again." Xiao Chen looked serious.

"But... What do you do? If someone wants to do something against you, I don't know how to live." Wu Yaqing still seems worried.

"Well, good wife, I promise you that I will quit this fight at the right time, but you know, as a man, I have my own mission to complete. Before that, I can't shrink back. Because once I shrink back, I won't be me anymore, do you understand?" Xiao Chen held Wu Yaqing's shoulders.

"Is that really so important?" Wu Yaqing was puzzled for a moment.

"Yes, it's like we want to revitalize traditional Chinese medicine. These things are the cream left by our ancestors. We can't let them be wasted on the hands of our generation. We need to carry forward them, and there are many things you don't know. I have to finish them. Only in this way can I truly guarantee the safety of people around me." Xiao Chen is very firm in her eyes.

He hoped Wu Yaqing could understand his current mood.

After a moment of silence, Wu Yaqing's eyes gradually returned to the clarity of the past, and then slowly said:

"You're right. I didn't think well before. We can't solve many problems by avoiding. We should face it together and overcome it! Xiao Chen, I want to learn medicine from you!"

"Ah?" Xiao Chen was a little confused in an instant.

"What's the matter? Is there a problem?" Wu Yaqing was puzzled by Xiao Chen's reaction.

"That's not true. It's just that you can't do it. If you don't have this talent, you know, your grandfather studied with my grandfather for so many years and didn't cultivate real medical skills." Xiao Chen is quite rational. He knows that this thing depends on talent, not blood.

"I know. But I just don't want to see you fighting on the front line and I can't do anything. In this way, I will feel very useless. I want to do my best!" Wu Yaqing's eyes and her firmness reminded Xiao Chen of Ling's eyes in the face of crisis.

Their eyes were strangely consistent.

Xiao Chen had no choice but to lower her head and smile. It seems that the women around her are willing to become their own helpers. Is it because they are too unreliable?

But in retrospect, what you have done is very reliable.

"What are you thinking?" Wu Yaqing couldn't help asking when she saw that Xiao Chen hadn't spoken for a long time.

“No. well, good wife, let’s go out with our parents!” Xiao Chen said and took her back to the living room.

Five days later. Xiao Chen took Wu Yaqing to the Mountain Gate of Yixian gate.

“This is where I stayed when I was a child.” Xiao Chen pointed to the archway.

“Medicine immortal gate!” When Wu Yaqing first came to this place, he felt very magical.

She did not expect that there would be such a paradise hidden in the reinforced concrete of the city.

All the way up the mountain, there is no pollution. This season is the season when peach blossoms bloom brightly.

The peach blossom trees fluttering in the wind and all kinds of grass and flowers on both sides burst out in her heart.

“Well, now there are few people left in the whole medical immortal sect. You can be regarded as the wife of the sect leader.” Xiao Chen said with a smile.

“Me? Sect leader’s wife?” Wu Yaqing was surprised. Yu pointed to herself.

“Of course, your husband, I’m the master of the medical immortal sect!” Xiao Chen is proud.

After the last incident, he reorganized the whole medical immortal sect. Fortunately, the medical skills and ancient books in the Sutra Pavilion of the medical immortal sect have not been stolen, so the foundation is still there. Now it’s just a lack of disciples.

What I practice is the disease pulse, which is different from the general medical practice, but it is not that I can’t guide. There are also five disciples in the door. Xiao Chen directly appointed them as five elders.

Although the highest cultivation is the eighth paragraph of the doctor, it is better than nothing. As long as you practice slowly, you can achieve something.

So did the previous elders.

Moreover, Xiao Chen can now use the Pharmacopoeia and disease pulse in her body to develop some pills conducive to medical repair, among which Peiyuan pill and Zhenshen pill have excellent effects. The cultivation speed of the five elders is also much faster.

“Well, this is my hall!” Xiao Chen pointed to a magnificent building in front of him, which was as magnificent as the palace of the ancient emperor.

The four words “main hall of the door” are written in ancient Chinese.

“Wow! What a style! These need to cost a lot of money!” Wu Yaqing is obviously still looking at the medical immortal gate from the perspective of modern people.

“Cough! Mrs. Xiao, I want to remind you that all the buildings you see are handed down from generation to generation by the disciples of our medical immortal sect. They don’t cost a penny, but they are priceless!” Xiao Chen said with an affectation.

After hearing this, Wu Yaqing gave him a blank look: “yes, you medicine immortal sect is the most imposing. Well, when will you teach me medicine?”

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 108

“Why are you in such a hurry, wife? Let’s get familiar with the environment first. Let’s see how these elders practice.” Xiao Chen smiled.

Wu Yaqing was eager to start practicing quickly.

Then they watched the remaining five elders of the medical immortal sect begin to practice.

They are all doctors, so they use the most primitive method of Cultivation: boxing.

Of course, it's not a general boxing, but a unique practice boxing of Yixian sect.

There are 28 moves in a set, and each move is a very strange gesture. Of course, some are similar to the Wuqinxi founded by the ancient medical Saint Hua Tuo, but it is more perfect and mysterious than Wuqinxi.

After the whole set is played down. It is equivalent to that the true Qi of the medical practitioner runs for a week, which will make his cultivation further.

"You see, they don't punch once. Each move is simple, but each move uses 100% of their own strength. You see, the elders with low cultivation are sweating. They can only bear such boxing once a day, so the speed of cultivation is relatively slow." Xiao Chen explained to Wu Yaqing.

At this time, Wu Yaqing saw clearly that the five people were sweating all over. The medical immortal gate was on a high mountain, not to mention how cool it was, but the temperature would hardly be higher than 20 degrees.

So sweating can only prove that they are doing this set of medical boxing with all their strength.

"There is no separation between medicine and martial arts, so practicing medicine is also practicing martial arts. When your medical skills are superb, martial arts will naturally become stronger." Xiao Chen continued to explain.

"Can I practice this boxing now?" Wu Yaqing asked.

"No, your internal organs and meridians are too fragile. Don't look at them. It's very easy to fight like this. But each of them has undergone some special training since childhood, so they have such cultivation as today." Xiao Chen shook his head.

“What can I do to reach their bodies?” Wu Yaqing asked again.

“Well, it depends on your physical fitness. This is also natural. Come on, come to the hall.” Xiao Chen took her hand and came to the empty hall.

In addition to the Dragon chairs similar to ancient emperors on both sides and in the middle of the hall. There are no other decorations.

They stood in the center of the hall. Xiao Chen silently read out a series of formulas. I don't know from there, bursts of strange characters flew towards Wu Yaqing.

At first, Wu Yaqing was still a little afraid, but she was relieved to find that these touches disappeared after touching her body.

After Xiao Chen finished the formula, he slowly opened his eyes and looked at the characters slowly gathered together in the center of Wu Yaqing's eyebrows.

Finally, a strange symbol is formed. Of course, he can understand it completely. The original intention of this symbol is to represent that Wu Yaqing has no talent of cultivation, and there is no breath of medical cultivation in Dantian.

“How's it going? Are you talking?” Wu Yaqing is obviously a little anxious, just like a candidate eager to know his answer after the exam.

“Yaqing. There are some things we can't force, so...” Xiao Chen seems to be a little hard to say.

After all, the other party is his wife. He doesn't want to say something to hurt Wu Yaqing.

“I see.” Wu Yaqing lowered her head, but then raised her head and showed a smiling face

“Since I don't have that talent, I'll be a doctor honestly. From today on, I'll study traditional Chinese medicine. Even if I can't help you, I must be worthy of myself!”

Originally, Xiao Chen thought Wu Yaqing would have a degenerate state of mind because of this matter. Unexpectedly, she could immediately get out of this low mood and couldn't help smiling and nodding:

"My good wife will always be the greatest doctor in my heart!"

"Well, don't flatter me any more, my miracle doctor Xiao Chen." Wu Yaqing said angrily.

"Ha ha, I'm telling the truth!" Xiao Chen hugged her slender waist.

"Door master! Door master! There is a secret letter!" Suddenly, the elder with the lowest cultivation among the five people hurried over with a letter.

"Secret letter?" Xiao Chen had never known about the medical immortal sect before. Now he suddenly received such a secret letter, which was strange for a while, but he still took it and opened it.

"May 10, Xinglin top, medical training conference?" Xiao Chen was a little strange. Besides the medicine immortal sect, he has never heard of other medical schools in the world.

"Sect leader, you've been traveling all year round. You may know little about the medical profession. I grew up here when I was a child. I just heard some fur. It's said that some advanced medical practitioners have even lived for hundreds of years, but they still look young and powerful." The veteran.

"Is there such a thing?" Xiao Chen suddenly had some interest, but then he said faintly:

"But I don't have much time to attend this medical training conference for the time being. Just send two representatives to attend. Our medical immortal gate doesn't value such a position."

"Yes! Door master!" The elder retreated.

"Why not?" Wu Yaqing is a little curious.

“This matter is of no help to me. I don’t know enough about the whole medical profession. Wait until I find my grandfather and discuss with him then make a decision.” Xiao Chen said.

This time he came to the medical immortal gate, so he took Wu Yaqing to visit it. When he knew that his physique was not suitable for cultivation, Wu Yaqing was not discouraged. Instead, he returned to the medical school and began to seriously study a lot of medical books every day.

Xiao Chen also recommended a lot to her.

After everything settled down, Xiao Chen dialed the mysterious phone again. Although he always suspected that his grandfather Xiao Qingyuan gave him some help behind his back, it seemed that the other party was not Xiao Qingyuan after verification last time.

So Xiao Chen called again. First, he wanted to verify it again and tell what happened in yixianmen. Second, he wanted to see if the other party had any other plans.

“Doodle doodle ~”

The phone was connected again.

“Hello?”

“Hello, I’m Xiao Chen. You helped me last time. I’m very grateful, so I’m calling to thank you.” Xiao Chen quickly explained what he meant by calling.

“Young sect leader?” There was an unexpected sound at the other end.

“Grandpa Wangshu?” Xiao Chen immediately heard each other’s voice. It was not the mysterious old man, but Ning Wangshu, a confidant of his grandfather.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 109

“Oh, young sect leader, why do you have the time to call me? Where are you now? How are you? Do you need anything? Money or something?” Ning Wangshu came up with a series of problems.

“Grandpa Wangshu, you think I’m too Philistine, too. I don’t lack these, but is this phone number yours?” Xiao Chen said with a smile.

“Yes, I’ve been using this phone number all the time. What’s the matter? Where are you, young sect leader? Why don’t I go and see you!” Ning Wangshu is very enthusiastic.

This is quite different from the previous very cold “Ning Wangshu”.

“Don’t worry about this. Don’t hang up. I have something to deal with.” Xiao Chen seemed to think of something and hurriedly asked Wu Yaqing to come.

At this time, she was studying the synopsis of the golden chamber and saw that it was rising. Seeing Xiao Chen waving, he reluctantly ran over.

“What’s the matter?” Wu Yaqing’s pretty face showed a trace of displeasure.

“Wife, use your mobile phone to make this call!” Xiao Chen couldn’t care to explain so much, and directly asked Wu Yaqing to dial this mysterious number.

“The mobile number you dialed is empty. Please check and dial again...”

Then Xiao Chen tried several times in succession and didn’t dial.

Suddenly, he thought of the special mobile phone number he had previously used in the organization. Only when the user of the mobile phone number needs it, or a specially designated mobile phone can dial this number.

Now Xiao Chen can't guess where the mysterious man's intention is, but at least the other party is helping himself after this series of things. Xiao Chen is at least quite relieved now.

"What's the matter? Young sect leader?" The question came from Wangning.

"It's all right. I just met something. Let's see. You dial my wife's number with your mobile phone and we'll contact you when you're free." Xiao Chen said.

"No problem. Please report the number of Mrs. Shao!" Ning Wangshu quickly agreed.

Then Ning Wangshu dialed Wu Yaqing's mobile phone number, which was completely different from the number he dialed.

"What's the matter? Is there a problem?" Wu Yaqing looked at Xiao Chen and frowned at the number on his mobile phone.

"Oh, it's all right. A mysterious person asked me to get the book through this number. But the person I call and answer the phone is different every time." Xiao Chen said faintly.

"Should there be such a thing? Why don't we go to the mobile phone business center to check?" Wu Yaqing said.

"No, I still understand this method. Read first. I just disturbed you." Xiao Chen said and touched Wu Yaqing's head.

"Well, you can handle it yourself. Don't get into any danger." Wu Yaqing nodded obediently. He went to one side and continued to study the book in his hand.

While Xiao Chen was still thinking, the mysterious phone number called him instead.

"Hello?"

"It's me." Ning Wangshu's voice came, but the other party's tone was quite stiff this time, without any feelings. Like a robot.

"Grandpa Wangshu? Didn't you just talk to me?" Xiao Chen immediately had a question.

"Something has happened in Huining city. You'd better deal with it. You'll know what it is when you arrive." Then he hung up the phone.

Although Xiao Chen was confused, he didn't ask why in a hurry. Instead, he was calmly thinking.

This means of simulating human voice was only seen in the extermination organization. However, it does not rule out that other organizations will also use it.

I just don't know who has been talking to me with the voice of Ning Wangshu and his grandfather.

The last time I called, I instructed myself to get the baijue Pharmacopoeia. Every time I called, the instructions given would not be aimless. This time I even told myself that there were some problems in Huining, so I guess something happened.

"Wife. I may have to go to Huining. Just stay at home or the hospital these days and try not to go to other places, okay?" Xiao Chen said to Wu Yaqing in a slightly louder voice.

"Are you going out or to Huining?" Wu Yaqing suddenly felt a little uneasy.

"Don't worry, your husband, I'm so strong that I won't have any problems. I promise you, if I lose a hair this time. It's up to you!" Xiao Chen was like a soldier reporting to the general.

"Well, don't brush your mouth. Huining is not far from the East China Sea and faces the sea. You should always pay attention to your safety!" Wu Yaqing began to help Xiao Chen tidy up his clothes.

Since the two lived together, Wu Yaqing had requirements for Xiao Chen's clothes, although Xiao Chen didn't pay attention to these things, and he was quite modest and low-key.

But Wu Yaqing still asked him to wear a suit every time he went out. According to her, this is the least respect for the people he wants to see.

Xiao Chen was helpless, but she didn't feel much influence, so she obeyed her wife's orders.

Therefore, every time Wu Yaqing goes out, he will help Xiao Chen sort it out, and then they hug and kiss affectionately, and then let Xiao Chen leave.

Because it was less than 300 kilometers to Huining, Xiao Chen drove and arrived in less than two hours.

Huining city faces the sea, facing the Japanese island country, so it has also accepted many cultures from there, and its economic development is quite rapid. Compared with the East China Sea, it is more like a high-speed train.

A few years ago, it was still far behind the East China Sea, but now there are signs of catching up and surpassing. Many businessmen also make a lot of money here.

Many pharmaceutical enterprises have their headquarters in Huining, and many enterprises in Japanese island countries have set up branches in Huining.

So when she came to Huining, Xiao Chen felt the feeling of metropolis. In contrast, the East China Sea seemed to have a sense of town.

The phone said he knew what had happened when he arrived in Huining, but he drove a BMW around and didn't see anything.

So he parked his car in a small parking lot, got off and walked around.

At first, he didn't go to the busy street, because it was close to evening when he came. Anyway, he was a medical practitioner and could stick to it for a long time without eating or drinking. Therefore, there was no difference between day and night for him.

As a city close to the Japanese island country, Huining is also developing very rapidly. Xiao Chen didn't go far before he saw a naked girl standing in the streets.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 110

Seeing this scene, as long as it was a man, he knew what they were doing. At first, Xiao Chen didn't care much.

It caught his attention when he knew that a middle-aged woman dressed in rich clothes came towards him and began to introduce herself.

"Hello, handsome boy, you are wearing famous brand suits. It seems that you should come to Huining to play!" The voice of the middle-aged woman spoke with a trace of whine, which made Xiao Chen feel a little uncomfortable.

But he didn't show it. Just coldly replied, "Yeah."

"Oh, handsome boy, there are many younger sisters here who want the best products like you!" The middle-aged woman grabbed Xiao Chen. Stopped him from moving forward.

"This aunt, I am a serious person and do serious business. I won't do these things." Xiao Chen looked at her impatiently.

"Ouch, young people, they have all come to Huining. Look, the streets are full of young and beautiful little sisters. I can find you whatever you want. If you want something cleaner, I can make a lot of money in the school." Middle aged women seem to know the mentality of men like Xiao Chen very well.

Xiao Chen originally came with the idea of investigation. He simply smiled and said, "Oh? There are students? Is it the kind that is very clean?"

“Keep it clean, and we have a new medicine here recently to ensure your satisfaction after taking it!” The middle-aged woman smiled mysteriously, and there was something wrong in her eyes looking at Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen also noticed that her eyes were puffy and dark circles were heavy. She couldn't help being a little strange.

Although it is said that women are thirty like wolves and forty like tigers. But generally speaking, women in China are relatively conservative, and they should be excessive about these things.

And as this kind of “mother sang”, many are indifferent to the things between men and women. And now the middle-aged woman in front of her is obviously excessive in that regard.

The middle-aged woman took Xiao Chen to the nearby hotel and rubbed her body against Xiao Chen from time to time.

Although Xiao Chen's cultivation was very good, he couldn't help such harassment and immediately stopped. But instead of getting angry, he asked:

“Aunt, do you feel that you are often dizzy recently, and it should be considered towering. You can't work hard all over?”

After hearing this, the middle-aged woman immediately widened her eyes: “you are so powerful, handsome boy. Can you see it?”

“No, have you been acting too much in that area lately?” Xiao Chen continued to ask.

“This...” the middle-aged woman suddenly had some bad ideas.

“It doesn't matter. I don't have any discrimination against you. I just want to know the situation.” Xiao Chen quickly dispelled each other's doubts.

Seeing that Xiao Chen was so professional, the middle-aged woman quickly took him aside and sat down. Then he spoke slowly:

“The thing is to start with this new drug. At the beginning, I don’t know where a new drug named ‘total love’ appeared. It’s a product from Japan. At first, we thought it was just similar to the general drug, but we didn’t expect that the more we eat, the more addicted we become, and then the more addicted we become, more and more people want to do that kind of thing, our Business is getting better, but the bodies of our little sisters can’t support it.” There was a trace of concern in the eyes of the middle-aged woman.

“Did you use it yourself?” Xiao Chen said.

She nodded slowly. You can’t deny Xiao Chen’s words.

“What about the medicine?” Xiao Chen continued to ask.

“Here, I was going to give it to you later, but now this medicine is really harmful, and the more I eat, the more I want to eat. I think if it goes on like this, there will be a big problem in Huining.” Then the middle-aged woman gave Xiao Chen a box of medicine in blue.

Xiao Chen took a look at the explanation, then took out one and put it to his nose to smell it.

“Fake poppy!” Suddenly he smelled one of the unmarked drugs.

“Fake poppy? What is it?” The middle-aged woman was dazed when she heard what Xiao Chen said.

“This kind of thing is also an addictive substance, but it has disappeared for many years. No one knows how to cultivate it. Unexpectedly, it has been studied in Japan.” Xiao Chen frowned.

He quickly used the pharmacopoeia in his elixir field to calculate, and then found a prescription that can solve the fake opium poppy poison.

“Aunt, do you have a pen and paper?” Asked Xiao Chen.

“I didn’t bring it, but the hotel should have it.” Said the middle-aged woman.

“Oh, by the way, what do you call it?” Xiao Chen suddenly remembered that he didn’t know each other’s name.

“Everyone calls me Shen Niang. Just call me Shen Niang. What’s your name, handsome boy?” Shen Niang said.

“Just call me Xiao Chen.” Xiao Chen got up and borrowed a pen and paper from the front desk of the hotel.

At the same time, he found that the two front desk receptionists also had puffy eyes, heavy dark circles under their eyes, and their faces were not very good-looking.

It seems that this situation is quite serious.

“Take this prescription first. Go back and take it for yourself and the people around you for a week. Don’t touch it again.” Xiao Chen said and gave the prescription she had written to Shen Niang.

So he turned and left.

“Hey, handsome boy, don’t you want a student’s little sister tonight?” Shen Niang doesn’t seem to forget her job.

“I have no luck to take it. You must remember to take the prescription!” Xiao Chen waved back to her.

Then he drove his BMW luxury version to Huining central hospital.

Sure enough, gynecology and andrology have been crowded with people, and many doctors and nurses have been so tired that they lie down directly.

Seeing Xiao Chen in this suit, a man like a director hurriedly came forward to meet him: "where are you from?"

"Oh, I'm not, but I can help the hospital alleviate the situation here." Xiao Chen said faintly.

"Ease the situation here?" The director immediately looked at Xiao Chen with strange eyes.

"Forget it, sir, this is a hospital. No matter what you do, it's messy enough now. Please don't make trouble again!"

"Oh? Don't you know me?" Xiao Chen was a little surprised that the last time the miracle doctor quick success pill made so much trouble that even some doctors didn't know him.

"Why should I know you? Since you're not a VIP, please go out, or I'll have you kicked out later!" The director suddenly got a little angry.
