

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 13 -

How did he know I was from the rejuvenation hall?

Xiao Chen was surprised.

However, he didn't know that Liyan and the deceased old man of the Wu family, that is, Wu Yaqing's grandfather, were sworn enemies, and his medical school and huichuntang were competitive. As an enemy, how could he not investigate the situation of his competitors.

"Now I see what else you have to say." Jiang Haowen waved his hand, and his bodyguards rushed up one after another.

"Wait a minute."

Xiao Chen said again, "I'm doing chores in the Spring Festival Hall, but who says I can't do medicine?"

Xiao Chen looked around and suddenly burst into an inexplicably powerful momentum, confident and arrogant: "I have excellent medical skills in huichuntang. Even if I'm just a small handyman, I don't know how many times higher than you!"

"Presumptuous!"

"Talk big!"

"I don't know heaven and earth."

The two doctors were almost fainted by Xiao Chen's arrogant speech.

Xiao Chen proudly held out his chest, "I don't believe we can compete."

"Just compare. I'll see if you have the ability to speak wildly."

Tong Mingjie's face was gloomy and his tone was not sharp.

He opened a private hospital himself. Due to poor management, he is now facing bankruptcy and urgently needs a sum of money to recover his blood. Jiang Haowen told him that if he could cure master Jiang, he would get a high medical fee. When he was full of joy, he didn't expect to think he was an opponent. When he was depressed, he ran out of a Xiao Chen and said that his medical skill was higher than him. How could he bear it?

In front of father Jiang's hospital bed, Xiao Chen stood with two doctors.

“Since we have to compare medical skills, it is natural to compare who can wake up old man Jiang faster.”

Xiao Chen said.

“We each diagnose the old man once, and then say how we can treat him and how long it will take.”

“The one with the simplest method and the shortest time starts first. If he can wake the old man up, it will prove that he has the highest medical skill. How about it?”

“Yes.”

“As you say.”

“Who will come first?” Tong Mingjie said.

“I don’t care.” Xiao Chen shrugged and looked confident and publicized, “the elderly first, I can be the last one.”

“I’ll come first.” Liyan came out first. He first felt the pulse for the old man, then pulled his eyelids, observed the condition of his eyes, and then retreated back.

It was Tong Mingjie’s turn. He first took out a stethoscope from his briefcase to check the old man’s heartbeat, and then took out a lot of instruments to check the old man. Xiao Chen was dazzled. In order to win the high medical expenses, Tong Mingjie did everything he could. The instrument in his hand was the latest medical equipment.

At this time, the three brothers of the Jiang family obediently stood aside to watch Xiao Chen’s performance. They knew that the three were fighting for medicine. Whose medical skill was the highest was related to their three brothers who had the most filial piety.

After Tong Mingjie’s inspection, it’s still Xiao Chen’s turn, but Xiao Chen stands still.

Tong Mingjie reminded, “it’s your turn.”

Li Yan sneered, “didn’t you just go crazy? Why don’t you dare to move now?”

“I’ve already finished reading it.”

Xiao Chen looked disdainful. “Traditional Chinese medicine pays attention to seeing, hearing and asking. As soon as I entered the house just now, I read the old man’s symptoms through my eyes.”

“Play tricks.” Tong Mingjie didn’t believe it. “I think you’re a liar.”

“Is it a liar? You’ll know later.”

Xiao Chen’s expression was faint. “Well, now tell me about your treatment and see who has the best way.”

The three brothers of the Jiang family suddenly became nervous.

Li Yan said, “I only need to use acupuncture and moxibustion three times, once a day.”

Tong Mingjie smiled and said, “just hang the potion for two days to ensure that the medicine will cure the disease.”

“What’s so troublesome.” Xiao Chen waved, “just give me two minutes and massage right away.”

“Really, brother Xiao Chen?” Jiang Haotian was excited.

Tong Mingjie and Li Yan were shocked, “how is this possible!”

“I think you are not only a liar, but also a prodigy.” Tong Mingjie looks at Xiao Chen.

Li Yan looked disappointed. Fortunately, he still had some expectations for Xiao Chen. He thought that the other party was so rampant because he had confidence. He didn’t expect that the liar had such a thick skin.

“Mr. Jiang, drag him out.”

When Jiang Haowen and Jiang Haosen heard Xiao Chen’s words, they were so angry that they wanted to beat Xiao Chen half to death on the spot.

The boy dares to tease us.

It can be cured in two minutes. Do you think you are an immortal?

At this time, the two brothers finally understood why the shrewd Jiang Haotian was cheated by Xiao Chen.

Look at his appearance at this time. There is no panic after being exposed.

At first glance, he is an old hand.

Just when the Jiang brothers were going to have Xiao Chen driven out, Xiao Chen came out.

“What you can’t do doesn’t mean that others can’t do it.”

“Am I a liar? Open your eyes and see clearly.”

With that, Xiao Chen began to massage old man Jiang.

In the place where everyone can't see, Xiao Chen absorbed the old man's sick Qi into his body by pushing the cloud hand.

Two minutes later, Xiao Chen released his hands.

At the same time, Mr. Jiang slowly opened his eyes.

“Oh, my God.”

“How is this possible!”

“I don't believe it's true.”

All the people were surprised. They opened their eyes wide and couldn't believe what they saw.

“Dad.”

Jiang Haotian knelt excitedly in front of his old father's bed.

Tong Mingjie and Li Yanhe still can't believe what they see. They want to check the old man regardless of Jiang Haotian's objection.

Xiao Chen knew that they would not give up until they tested it in person, so he asked Jiang Haotian not to stop it.

Tong Mingjie and Liyan checked the physical condition of old man Jiang through various means, and found that The old man's body has completely recovered!!!

Tong Mingjie stamped angrily, packed up his medical instruments and left Jiang's house with his briefcase.

It's strange that he can feel better because of the high medical expenses.

“Do you still think I'm a liar?”

Xiao Chen walked up to the two brothers Jiang Haowen and Jiang Haosen.

“Yes, we don't know gold and jade. You are a miracle doctor.”

Jiang Haowen and Jiang Haosen couldn't believe that Xiao Chen was so young and had such superb medical skills. If they hadn't seen it with their own eyes, they would never believe it, so they had to bow their heads reluctantly.

With such a miracle doctor, they want to compete for family property with Jiang Haotian, which is tantamount to a fool's dream.

But soon they were refreshed and excited.

From another point of view, it is also a good thing for Xiao Chen to have such medical skills.

The rich are afraid of death, and the existence of Xiao Chen has a great guarantee for their life safety. Therefore, Jiang Haowen and Jiang Haosen can't help flattering Xiao Chen for fear that the previous events will annoy the young miracle doctor.
