

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 16 -

Hearing Wu Yaqing's words, the shepherd smiled proudly, "see, you are a low servant and worthless waste. As long as you draw 20 mouths and palms by yourself, I won't care about you."

Just then, a man in a suit came into the door, "have you heard that Xiao Shao is here?"

"What Xiao Shao?" The nurse standing at the door to greet the guests looked confused.

"It's Xiao Chen, young master Xiao."

The nurse looked stunned. "Xiao Chen... Is a young master?"

Are you kidding.

"You're looking for the wrong person. We do have a man named Xiao Chen here, but he's only doing chores in the outside hospital, not the young master you're looking for."

"That's right." The man smiled. "Please take me to see him."

When the man saw Xiao Chen, he happened to hear the shepherd say he was a worthless waste.

"Master Xiao, here is your car key."

The man is Jiang Haotian's subordinate. Today, he sent him to drive the car to Xiao Chen after completing the transfer procedures of Lexus.

There is a very eye-catching Lexus logo on the car key. If the shepherd is hit hard.

"Why do you have Lexus car keys?"

Wu Yaqing also looked at Xiao Chen with an unexpected face.

Xiao Chen noticed his wife's eyes and felt a little proud. From now on, I will change the image of waste.

He raised his head and held his chest high, playing with the Lexus keys in his hand.

"Just now you said I drove a ten million class luxury car and called me Grandpa."

"Lexus phantom, worth 14.88 million."

"Your key is fake." Mr. Mu seems to have found the answer, "now there are many fake car keys. You are a fake, or a lighter model."

Wu Yaqing remembered that a customer had brought such a model before. At that time, she thought the other party was driving a BMW, but the BMW key was a lighter.

Wanting to be here, she looked at Xiao Chen with contempt.

Xiao Chen threw the key to the shepherd. "The car is outside. See for yourself whether it's true or false."

The shepherd took the key and everyone ran to the outside of the hospital. He saw a domineering Lexus phantom parked at the door, and the red Maserati next to it looked unknown.

The girls who had gathered around to take pictures were completely attracted by the Lexus phantom and didn't even look at Maserati.

In front of the ten million level overtaking, Maserati of the shepherd is a brother.

Mr. shepherd pressed the key, and Lexus's car light suddenly came on.

"This... Key... Is it true..." The shepherd was completely stunned.

"Now believe it."

Xiao Chen said.

"All right, give me the key back."

The shepherd looks ferocious and grabs the key.

He couldn't understand how the waste wearing floor stalls could have a luxury car of tens of millions.

Suddenly, the shepherd's eyes brightened, "hahaha, I know. You must have rented it from the leasing company."

Xiao Chen was speechless for a while. He suddenly felt meaningless. No matter what kind of facts were in front of him, the other party would make up another truth by himself, which made him lose the pleasure of pretending to force.

"Forget it, you said it was. Now give me the key back."

The shepherd regained his confidence. He threw the key back. "If you can spend tens of thousands of yuan to rent a luxury car from the rental company, it can only show that you are a fool."

“You Wu family are so rich that you let the redundant waste to rent a car?” The shepherd took the opportunity to sow discord.

Wu Yaqing’s face was very ugly. “Xiao Chen, why do you have so much money to rent a car?”

“No, I...”

Wu Yaqing stared at Xiao Chen. “Did you steal it?”

Xiao Chen was silent. After a long time, he said, “I... Use the money I saved before...”

He found that he couldn’t explain it because no one would believe it.

Wu Yaqing looked disappointed. She sneered: “then you are really rich. No wonder the man called you Xiao Shao just now.”

“Yaqing, don’t pay attention to this waste. I’ll invite you to dinner.” The shepherd reached out and took Wu Yaqing’s hand.

“Don’t touch her.”

Xiao Chen kicked away the shepherd, and the other party hit the ground.

“Xiao Chen, what are you doing?” Wu Yaqing slapped Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen didn’t hide. His face was red and swollen immediately, and his palm was printed.

Xiao Chen told her, “this shepherd has syphilis and will be transfected to you.”

Wu Yaqing was stunned.

“You spit blood.” The shepherd got up.

“You’re a doctor. You should see.” Xiao Chen said, “you look at his face carefully. Although he wears thick makeup, he can’t hide the expression of yellow complexion and frivolous and weak lower limbs. This is the expression of excessive physical deficiency, and you’re observing his skin carefully. People with s*xually transmitted diseases will be like that.”

Wu Yaqing didn’t notice before. When she heard Xiao Chen’s reminder, she immediately saw that the shepherd had syphilis.

The woman named Zhang Jiao looked pale at this time. She had just spent the night with the shepherd yesterday.

Wu Yaqing's face turned blue. "Get out of the rejuvenation hall right away. If you get syphilis, you dare to harm others. If you don't go, I'll call the police immediately."

Seeing that his illness was exposed, the shepherd lost all his face. He ran out of the spring hall in embarrassment. Before leaving, he gave Xiao Chen a vicious look.

After the shepherd left, a woman holding a blind man cried and made trouble at the door of the Spring Festival Hall, which attracted the attention of countless people.

"God, please open your eyes. Unscrupulous doctors do great harm to people. This is a black shop. You can't come here to buy medicine in the future. My husband's eyes were blinded by the doctors in this hospital."

"Hey, elder sister, don't talk nonsense."

"Yes, why did we blind your husband?"

"You see, they don't admit it yet." The woman cried bitterly to the passers-by around her; "A few days ago, my husband said that her eyes became more and more blurred, so I took her to see a doctor in this medical school. As a result, the doctor here prescribed a lot of Chinese herbal medicine, then said a lot about clearing the liver and brightening the eyes, and took the medicine for just a few days. My husband's eyes can't see now. Wuwuwu... This is not what's blind, you harmful medical school."

"Elder sister, please calm down first. Is there any misunderstanding?" Wu Yaqing came out and comforted.

"How can you make me quiet? My husband's eyes have been blinded by you. How can I be quiet?"

Passers-by around pointed out one after another.

"This hospital is so bad."

"Don't come here to see a doctor in the future."

"Don't come here to buy medicine. It's said that people have died before."

Seeing this, Wu Yaqing said to the woman, "is this good, elder sister? You help the elder brother come in first, and the doctor in our hospital will help the elder brother to see what's wrong."

"I won't go in."

The woman said firmly, "what if we go in and get hurt by you? If you want to cheat us, I won't believe you."

The people around him booed one after another to support the woman.

“It’s all right. If you want to see a doctor, you can see it here.”

“Why look inside? Do you want to kill people and kill people?”

“Hurry up and call the police. There’s a crazy hospital here. It’s blind.”

The spacious street was soon crowded by pedestrians, and this scene attracted the attention of a traditional Chinese medicine shop across the road.
