The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 191

Seeing that they stopped talking, the man took his hoe and disappeared into the night with a crowd.

“Why are you stopping me? Such a person should be taught a good lesson!” Nangong Lengshan was very angry.

“Don’t forget our identity. We’re here to do research, not to fight, and did Xiao Hui have special strength just now?” Xiao Chen also observed that Tang Kaihui’s strength was somewhat unusual.

“Yes. He seems to be electrified. Just when I touched him, my hand was electrified. That’s why I was stunned.” Nangong Lengshan nodded.

“This village is not simple, and you didn’t find that the men just came from. Don’t you know where they came from?” Xiao Chen said in a deep voice.

Nangong Lengshan found something strange and immediately took a breath.

“These people should not be...”

“Where do you want to go? They’re human. It’s just that they don’t seem to build a house on the ground now.” Xiao Chen is not angry.

“Cut, what you said is so scary. No matter where they built the house, it has nothing to do with our investigation.” Lengzui South Temple.

“Of course it matters. You must find someone first and then investigate. Otherwise, there is no one in this village. What can you investigate?” Xiao chenbai glanced at him.

Then they were ready to go back to the city first. As soon as they turned around, an old woman stood behind them.

“Where do you want to go ~” her voice was very frightening, and both of them were startled.

Nangong Lengshan’s reaction was very violent, and he was scared back for several steps.

Xiao Chen calmed down and then found that the old woman was human. It just looks a little confused.

The old woman suddenly laughed when she saw Nangong Lengshan frightened like that.

“How timid.” She muttered.

“Old lady, are you a villager here?” Xiao Chen went up and asked.

“Who is the old woman? Who do you scold?” The old woman was immediately angry.

“So... Aunt?” Xiao Chen quickly changed her mind.

“What aunt? She’s only eighteen this year!” The old woman said, making a shy gesture and pinching her braid.

“Ouch ~” Nangong Lengshan can’t hold back there.

“Annoying, are people so ugly?” The old woman said and pointed to the guide Palace Lengshan with orchids.

“Little brother, I think you are so strong. Why don’t you come to my house to play!”

Nangong Lengshan suddenly got goose bumps and ran away with a shiver.

The old woman saw Nangong Lengshan running away and hurried to catch up.

“Well... Miss, can I ask you something?” Xiao Chen hurriedly shouted.

“Miss? Who do you say is a miss? Your whole family are miss!” The old woman scolded angrily again.

Xiao Chen couldn't help feeling a little ashamed. The old woman still has a lot to do. However, for the sake of her task, Xiao Chen once again made a smiling face and said:

“Girl, can I ask you something?”

The old woman stopped. Took a look at Xiao Chen.

“No, I still want that comrade to ask me.” She still held out the orchid and pointed to the guide Gong Lengshan.

Then Xiao Chen turned Nangong Lengshan back.

“No, I won't go. Who likes to go? You can see that kind of goods? I'm afraid you're not blind?” Nangong Lengshan kept struggling.

“It's not to let you do anything bad. We're investigating, you know?” Xiao Chen pulled Nangong Lengshan over.

“Investigation is no good. I won't go. Whoever loves to go will go!” Nangong Lengshan refused to live or die.

“Deduct salary!” Xiao Chen had to threaten.

“Don't go! Don't die!” Nangong Lengshan is very determined.

“Then the salary is gone this month!” Xiao Chen said coldly.

“No, no! I’m not going!” Nangong Lengshan’s face did not change at all.

Xiao Chen thought again and said, “if you can help me, I’ll arrange a welcoming lady for you.”

Hearing this, Nangong Lengshan’s struggling strength suddenly became much smaller.

“Are you serious?” He looked back at Xiao Chen.

“Come here!” Xiao Chen took advantage of the moment when he relaxed and pushed him directly to the old woman.

The old woman saw him coming. Hurriedly made a look of a little woman.

“Comrade, you’re a little too proactive. I’m a little embarrassed.” The old woman made a coquettish gesture.

Nangong Lengshan felt his stomach churn again.

But Xiao Chen looked at him on the side. He had to force his nausea and slowly said, “this... Lesbian, I have something to ask you.”

“You said, as long as I know, I’ll tell you.” The old woman said, covering her face with her hand.

Nangong Lengshan tried not to see her. Word by word: “where are the others in your village?”

“They, what Institute did they go to?” The old woman’s voice was very light, just like chatting with her lover.

“What... Institute?” Nangong Lengshan asked again.

“I don’t remember this very clearly. Why don’t you go to my house and have a look.” The old woman said and glanced at him. Deliberately close.

Nangong Lengshan hurriedly moved two steps to the side: “don’t go home... It’s too late...”

“Yes, of course.” Xiao Chen came over with a smile.

“Well, come with me!” The old woman smiled and directly took Nangong Lengshan’s hand.

“No... not what I said, it’s him. He wants to go home with you!” Nangong Lengshan quickly explained.

But the other party didn’t care what he said at all, just pulled him all the way to a room.

After a while, the three came to a thatched cottage. Xiao Chen looked, where is this home? This is clearly a cowshed!

But the old woman sat down directly on the straw.

“This is my house. Look for any records!” The old woman said and looked at Nangong Lengshan again.

Nangong Lengshan only felt that he was shivering all over and was very uncomfortable.

“I can’t bear it anymore. Let’s go! Let’s go!” He stood up and was about to go outside.

Seeing Nangong Lengshan gone, the old woman found Xiao Chen probing aside, and her face immediately changed.

“Who are you? What are you doing in my house?”

“Ah? I am...” Xiao Chen just wanted to explain, and the old woman pushed him out of the door directly.

Xiao Chen found that Nangong Lengshan had gone far.

But just as he was about to open the door again, he suddenly found a piece of yellow paper hanging by the door, which seemed to say something.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 192

Xiao Chen pulled the paper down and looked at it. It read askew: qianjizi Research Institute.

Xiao Chen frowned slightly. In his impression, he had not seen the name of the Institute elsewhere.

The crazy old woman inside probably saw something unknown before.

Xiao Chen originally wanted to open the door and go in to talk to her, but found that the door had been locked.

In order to avoid scaring the old woman, Xiao Chen decided not to open the wooden door by force.

Nangong Lengshan hid in the car long ago and just talked to the old woman like that. It was about to make him feel that his soul was going to be traumatized.

“I say you, can’t you wait until I ask clearly?” Xiao Chen got on the bus and began to accuse him.

“Your uncle’s. try it. Can you stand it like that to you?” Nangong Lengshan is still afraid when he thinks about it.

Xiao Chen couldn’t get angry when he saw his appearance. On the contrary, he felt a little funny.

“You can’t be confused by the surface phenomena of things. Look at other people’s hearts. At least she’s an 18-year-old girl in her heart. She’s still full of feelings for you.”

Xiao Chen joked.

“Go to hell! Hurry up! Get out of this damn place. I don’t want to come again!” Nangong Lengshan’s face was full of disgust, as if what happened today had become his psychological shadow.

“Well, don’t tease you. Don’t be like a three-year-old. Business is business. Just don’t have other emotions you shouldn’t have.” Xiao Chen put away the playful expression on his face and said.

Although Nangong Lengshan still felt sick, he also understood Xiao Chen’s meaning.

On the way back, they were silent for a long time. Nangong Lengshan suddenly asked, “that old woman, do you have a way to save it?”

Xiao Chen was slightly surprised, looked at Nangong Lengshan and said, “why? People are interested in you. Won’t you come back for real?”

“Cut, stop.” Nangong Lengshan’s face was cold when he heard Xiao Chen’s words.

“Well, I’m not kidding. I’ve thought about what you said, but things about spirit can’t be cured with medicine. The key lies in the patient himself.” Xiao Chen said.

“Just say whether it can be cured. I don’t know so many things that are not, but I remember that Grandpa Xiao Qingyuan cured a madman when he was a child?”

Nangong Lengshan is very serious.

Xiao Chen nodded. Of course, he remembered that time when Xiao Qingyuan cured a crazy old man.

I just stayed with Xiao Qingyuan when I was a child. Xiao Chen learned everything. It's just that he can't remember the mental medical methods.

It's not because there are too many acupoints in the brain, but because the operation is too complicated to find a direction at all. There are too many things to use.

Xiao Chen still remembers the tools Xiao Qingyang used when treating the crazy old man when he was a child. They add up to at least dozens of kinds, and they have to be changed in a short time.

Even today, he feels some obstacles when he wants to use these tools, let alone treat people. It's just like a fantasy.

"It's not that easy. I didn't learn all my grandfather's medical skills. And no matter how hard I tried, I couldn't learn them. Didn't you just give up at a glance?" Xiao Chen explained.

"Can it be the same? Who are you? You're a miracle doctor now. You can even prescribe prescriptions for those incurable diseases. Why can't a madman be cured?" Nangong Lengshan has a bad tunnel.

"It's not an outsider's evaluation that a miracle doctor is not a miracle doctor. Actually, I still know how many kilograms I have." Xiao Chen said faintly.

"Well, in that case, we have to think of other ways. I just think it's possible to cure her. We hope to know a clue." Nangong Lengshan road.

He seemed to nod at the thought of something. This time to Tianyang lake is the task assigned by the man who is mysteriously similar to his grandfather.

Maybe he wants to overcome the difficulty of being unable to treat mental diseases. If he thinks so, Nangong Lengshan may be right.

This crazy old woman is a breakthrough.

“I’ll try it tomorrow.” Xiao Chen suddenly said.

“Ah? Try what?” Nangong Lengshan was confused by Xiao Chen’s nonsense.

Nangong Lengshan looked at him and said nothing. But the corners of the mouth rose slightly.

As soon as they arrived at the door of the hotel, Nangong Lengshan came up to Xiao Chen with an evil smile and said, “boss Xiao Chen, you agreed. I need to arrange it tonight.”

Xiao Chen was a little helpless, but he couldn’t do anything about what he promised, so he came to the front desk and asked a young lady at the front desk:

“Hello, can you tell me how many beauties are still at work today?”

The receptionist looked at Xiao Chen and found that his clothes were very ordinary, so he continued to stare at the computer in front of him and said, “they are all off duty. If you have anything, please find our supervisor.”

“Oh, where is your supervisor?” Xiao Chen asked again.

“Go straight there and turn right to the first office.” The receptionist pointed to the side road of the hotel hall.

“OK, thank you.” Xiao Chen said and walked in that direction.

Nangong Lengshan is waiting for Xiao Chen to bring back the good news in the lobby of the hotel.

The feeling of ordering others to do things is simply not too cool.

Xiao Chen came to the office door that the reception lady said and knocked on the door.

Inside came a man's voice: "please come in!"

Xiao Chen went in. The man was wearing gold wire glasses and a high-end suit. He looked like an upper class person.

"Who are you looking for?" The man glanced at Xiao Chen and immediately gave him a score in his heart.

Because Xiao Chen has been to the cowshed today, he still has some bad smell.

The man feel shy to say that he has to spray some perfume.

Xiao Chen found that he had a smell, so he smiled and said, "I heard that you are the supervisor here. My friend is a little interested in the welcoming ladies in the previous day. I don't know if they still work now?"

Hearing Xiao Chen's words, the man immediately felt a little funny. In this case, if it was a big boss or something, he still wanted to answer, but Xiao Chen felt a little funny when he said it.

"What do you want? You don't want to do something illegal, do you?" The man chuckled.

Xiao Chen knows this. In fact, every hotel knows it.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 193

The reason why I chose those beautiful welcome ladies is that there are some special ideas in them.

Although Xiao Chen hasn't experienced it, he has stayed in the hotel for so long that he doesn't want to know.

Otherwise, Nangong Lengshan couldn't have called so many women that morning.

"My friend just wants to know about it. If you can, make an appointment for dinner. It's also good to talk about life." Xiao Chen cheekily said.

No way, I made a promise. Even if you're crying, you have to cash it.

"You go. We're all regular hotels. There's nothing you call." The man waved his hand.

Just as Xiao Chen was about to continue to speak, a woman's voice came from behind.

"Brother Feng, have you done any work recently? I'm short of money recently..."

As soon as Xiao Chen turned her head, she saw a woman dressed quite coquettish standing in front of the office door.

This woman Xiao Chen had met, and was one of the welcoming ladies who greeted them during the day.

After seeing Xiao Chen, the woman showed a disdainful look on her face and walked to the sea breeze.

"Brother Feng, didn't you say that a group of new bosses have come recently? Arrange to introduce two to me." She directly ignored Xiao Chen's dialogue with Haifeng.

Haifeng just said that the hotel was a regular hotel. As soon as a woman appeared, his face was a little ugly.

“Don’t talk yet.” The sea breeze is cold.

“Brother Feng, what’s the matter? There are no important people here.” The woman sat beside the sea breeze very charmingly.

Xiao Chen saw at a glance that there was a little unusual relationship between them.

The sea breeze coughed softly and said, “this guest, if you’re okay, please leave first.”

Xiao Chen shrugged and left the office without saying anything.

It wasn’t because of anything else. As soon as the woman came in, he saw that she was sick. And it should be more serious. Xiao Chen still decided not to let Nangong Lengshan touch such a dirty woman.

Back in the lobby, Lengshan of the southern Communist Party of China was excited to see Xiao Chen coming out.

“Boss, it’s done?” He greeted me.

Xiao Chen shook his head. Patted him on the shoulder and said, “listen to my advice, you’d better find a good girl to live and don’t touch these women outside.”

Nangong Lengshan was confused. Didn’t he say he would have fun when he came back?

How did you start pouring chicken soup now?

“No, boss, you can’t do things like this. We agreed that it’s not good for you to keep your promise.” Nangong is a little angry.

“I know your mood, but don’t touch the women outside, or you’ll kill yourself.” Xiao Chen is very serious.

Nangong Lengshan looked unhappy. Now he felt that he had been deceived by Xiao Chen. Xiao Chen had to tell him that he had seen AIDS in the woman just now.

Nangong Lengshan was slightly surprised: "true or false, shouldn't such people receive treatment?"

"This is a disease that even the highest technology can't solve at present, and the treatment process is too painful. No one will be willing to accept it. They'd rather die at ease."

Xiao Chen said faintly.

After Xiao Chen explained. Nangong Lengshan's mood changed slightly. Xiao Chen simply struck while the iron was hot. Tell him a lot of other diseases and so on.

Moreover, there is no way to cure many diseases, which can only be temporarily suppressed.

After hearing Xiao Chen's introduction, Nangong Lengshan felt a chill on his back.

"His grandmother's. stop talking. If you keep talking, how can I live?" Nangong Lengshan complained.

"As I said, finding a good girl early is the best choice." Xiao Chen smiled.

"It's easy for you to say. How hard it must be to find a good girl at the end of the day." Nangong Lengshan sighed.

Xiao Chen could only be silent when he heard him say so. This matter is just a matter of different opinions. There is no fixed statement.

The next morning, they continued to come to Huanghai village. There was still no one on the road to the village. They came to the cowshed yesterday. I found that the door was still locked. It seemed that the old woman should have fallen asleep in the cowshed.

Nangong Lengshan was a little angry, so he pried the lock of the cowshed open.

When I opened the door, I saw the old woman lying on the straw.

Nangong Lengshan was still afraid that she would wake up and pester herself, so he asked Xiao Chen to wake her up, while he hid in a room aside.

Xiao Chen didn't hesitate to go up and shake the old woman. After a while, the old woman woke up.

Seeing Xiao Chen in front of him, his face was full of doubts.

"I am... Where is it?"

Xiao Chen saw her eyes and knew that she might be different today from last night.

So he said tentatively, "aunt, do you remember who you are?"

The old woman shook her head. "I don't know. Who are you? Why are you here?"

She looked at Xiao Chen, her face full of confusion, and then frowned again, as if she was remembering something.

"You... You're the goddamn ones! You're not good people. Get out of here!"

The old woman suddenly became angry and pushed Xiao Chen all the way out of the cowshed, still pushing out.

Xiao Chen had no choice but to knock her out first, and then put her in the house.

Nangong Lengshan saw that Xiao Chen directly carried the old woman back, so he ran over and asked, "why? She regarded you as her first lover today? You can't stand it?"

Xiao chenbai glanced at Nangong Lengshan and said, "what are you talking about? Her condition is very unstable. Let me try to cure her."

"Oh, can I help you?" Nangong Lengshan asked.

"Yes." Xiao Chen answered.

"How can I help you?" Nangong Lengshan rolled up his sleeve.

"Get out!" Xiao Chen said.

Nangong Lengshan walked out with his head down as if he had been suddenly hit.

When Nangong Lengshan went out, Xiao Chen took out a set of silver needles and stabbed them into the old woman's head one by one.

He doesn't remember Xiao Qingyang's method, and there are no tools here. He can only try to treat the old woman by relying on his own disease pulse and acupuncture.

As the sickness entered the old woman's brain, Xiao Chen felt that her spirit began to be in a trance.

He felt as if he were observing other people's lives. Fragments of his memory appeared in front of him, and now all he had to do was string them together.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 194

After piecing together for a while, Xiao Chen felt a big head.

It took him a long time to piece together some recent memory fragments of the old woman, but because there was a wrong situation, he had to start again.

After piecing together for a while, the old woman suddenly woke up, and all the efforts made by Xiao Chen in front were in vain.

“Where am I?” The old woman’s eyes are still at a loss.

Xiao Chen knew that it was futile to communicate with her now. During the inspection just now, he found that the old woman’s situation was very bad.

All the memories in the whole brain are in a state of disorder, which is not something that can help her recover with a little guidance.

Just between Xiao Chen’s thoughts. The old woman has gone out on her own.

Nangong Lengshan came in with a puzzled face.

“You didn’t cure her?” He asked.

“What should we do now? Let’s leave the old madman alone. Why don’t we try to find the child yesterday?” Nangong Lengshan tilted his head.

Xiao Chen waved her hand and said, “don’t worry. Maybe the old man can provide us with some clues. Now go and see her first. She doesn’t know anyone now.”

Nangong Lengshan went out to find someone after hearing what Xiao Chen said.

Xiao Chen arranges some memory fragments he just saw in his brain. Although they are blurred, he can still see the shadow of several people. He looks like a foreigner, but he can't see his face clearly. Xiao Chen is not sure.

After leaving the cowshed, Xiao Chen looked around for a long time and didn't see Nangong Lengshan.

He was finally found in an old house.

"How did you get here?" Xiao Chen said as soon as she entered the door.

"Shh!" Nangong Lengshan immediately made a silent move.

The old woman now has a smile that doesn't belong to her age. She looks a little silly.

Nangong Lengshan jumped on her and caught her.

"Don't... you cheat! You cheat!" The old woman struggled on Nangong Lengshan's hand.

Xiao Chen immediately understood that now the old woman is estimated to be insane again, like a few-year-old child. Nangong Lengshan took great efforts to catch her.

"You can't blame me. You're too dishonest." Nangong Lengshan tied the old man with a rope. Muttered.

Just then, a loud noise came from outside.

"Mom? Mom -" a woman kept shouting.

Before Xiao Chen could open the door of the old house, the other party had already broken in.

“What have you done to my mother!” Women have ordinary looks and small eyes.

She seemed a little annoyed.

Nangong Lengshan just wanted to explain something, so the woman ran over and pushed him away.

“Mom, are you okay? Haven’t they bullied you these two days?” The woman’s expression was quite sad. It seems very sad.

“You two bastards, how can an old man of this age treat her like this? You are animals!” The woman pointed to Nangong Lengshan and scolded.

Nangong Lengshan originally wanted to explain, but when he saw that the woman was so rude and savage, he disdained to go out.

However, suddenly a group of men gathered outside.

“What are you doing?” Nangong Lengshan snapped.

“What are we doing? What have you done? Do you know where this is? You broke into the forbidden area?” The head man’s face was very ferocious.

Nangong Lengshan has just been angry with the woman. Now he sees a man who dares to yell at himself and is about to fight with his fist.

Xiao Chen hurriedly stopped him and said, “sorry, guys. We’re here to do research. We don’t know what happened here, so we broke in by mistake.”

Then he took out his false certificate.

The man looked a little better after a long time with his certificate. He said to Xiao Chen, “there are many problems here now. It’s the matter a few days ago. You who are engaged in research should leave here.”

“I want to know what’s wrong here?” Xiao Chen immediately took out the cigarette in Nangong Lengshan’s pocket and handed one to the man.

The man looked at Xiao Chen and took down the flue: “you don’t know, a strange thing happened in Huanghai village recently. A team from abroad came here to investigate and disappeared. Then the villagers in Huanghai village continued to disappear.”

“Is there such a thing?” Xiao Chen was slightly surprised.

“Now all the villagers have moved to the other end. There are many statements here. It is said that the team may have met the Taisui in the village and angered the gods, so the punishment was lowered.” The man held the flue in his mouth.

“Too old?” After hearing the name, Xiao Chen began to search in her brain. Soon after, she thought of the name of a medicinal material called Taisui.

“Although you are engaged in scientific research, you should believe some things. Now the village is very strange. You’d better hurry.” The man said, turned around and left with the others.

The woman also scolded them and took the old woman away.

It seems that the villagers of Huanghai village moved to the other end of the mountain.

The old woman should have sneaked out without knowing what was going on. They may have been looking for it since yesterday.

“What’s going on?” Nangong Lengshan came up and asked.

“According to the man. There are ghosts here.” Xiao Chen said with a smile.

Nangong Lengshan didn't respond. He said faintly, “these are the people who don't practice. Where are the ghosts in the world? They just scare themselves.”

Xiao Chen stopped smiling when she saw him like this. When she was a child, Nangong Lengshan was most afraid of some statements about ghosts. I didn't expect that after so many years, he was no longer afraid.

“This must be a cover. In my opinion, it may be that some strange people are doing special research here, or even endanger the villagers of the whole village.” Xiao Chen's face was calm.

“We searched the whole village and found nothing. Are we going to the other end of the mountain to find those villagers?” Nangong Lengshan looked at Xiao Chen in confusion.

“No, it's no use looking for them. They don't know anything. Now we need to go here!” Xiao Chen said, pointing to a hill behind the village.

“Why? I have nothing to climb the mountain to exercise?” Nangong Lengshan was speechless.

“Exercise your head!” Xiao Chen patted his head and said.

“Obviously, we haven't been to the mountain since we came here. It's likely that the secret is on the mountain.”

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 195

Although Nangong Lengshan has overcome his childhood fear now, he is still slightly afraid when he comes to the mountain with Xiao Chen.

But fortunately, it was day, so he pretended to be fearless and took the lead.

Xiao Chen felt funny when he saw that he was strong outside but weak inside, but he didn't say anything for the sake of investigation.

"Hey. Look, there's a strange big hole here." Nangong Lengshan suddenly said.

Xiao Chen looked in the direction he pointed. Sure enough, there was a big hole in a pile of shrubs, which felt like it was bottomless.

Nangong Lengshan threw a stone down and heard an echo a long time later.

"I'll go. How deep is it?" Nangong Lengshan couldn't help sighing.

"Why is there so much nonsense? Go down!" Xiao Chen urged.

Nangong Lengshan immediately panicked when he heard this. Came to Xiao Chen's back and said, "you go first."

Xiao chenbai glanced at him and said angrily, "what about monks? What are you afraid of in broad daylight?"

Then he got sick and jumped in directly.

After less than 30 seconds, Xiao Chen felt that he stepped on the ground, so he looked around. There was a little light outside, and he could probably see that there were roads on both sides.

But more things can't be seen.

"How's it going? Isn't there any danger in it?" Nangong Lengshan asked above.

"You don't have to come down. I'll go up in a minute." Xiao Chen responded.

Because it was too dark in the cave, Xiao Chen observed for a while and decided to go back and get lighting tools first, and then explore first.

“How’s it going? What’s going on inside?” Nangong Lengshan asked after seeing Xiao Chen coming back.

“I can’t see anything. I need to go back and get the flashlight.” Xiao Chen said faintly.

Got the flashlight and went back to the cave again. It’s noon. Now the sun is very dazzling.

After going down, you can see the situation inside.

“You go this way. I’ll go this way. We’ll check separately and find anything. We’ll come back and sum it up together.” Xiao Chen said to Nangong Lengshan.

“Ah?” Nangong Lengshan immediately frowned when he heard this.

“What? Is there a problem?” Xiao Chen asked puzzled.

The two set out. Xiao Chen found that the surrounding area began to get wet after less than a kilometer.

He also smelled a strange smell.

Less than a kilometer further, he came to a strange pool.

I saw several big pits on the ground. After smelling it, I found that the strange smell came from the big pit.

After careful study, he found that there seemed to be some fungi growing on the big pit, which reminded him of what the man said before.

“Have all the Taisui here been poached?” Xiao Chen murmured.

While he was talking, a dark shadow suddenly appeared behind him. Xiao Chen quickly became vigilant.

“Who!” He looked at the shadow.

“I... it’s me.” Nangong Lengshan came out with a smile on his face.

“Didn’t you go there? Why did you come here with me?” Xiao Chen was speechless.

“Oh. Since I’m your bodyguard, I have to follow you all the time. What if you have any problems here? Don’t you think so?” Nangong Lengshan still kept smiling.

Xiao Chen knew that he must be afraid, so he didn’t dare to explore there alone.

When Nangong Lengshan came over. Suddenly, a dark shadow appeared on the top of his head and flashed in front of them.

“Ghost! Ghost!” Nangong Lengshan was so frightened that he ran over and hugged Xiao Chen tightly.

Xiao Chen was ready to stop the shadow, but the shadow was so fast that it disappeared into the cave.

“Big brother, let go.” Xiao Chen looked helpless.

Nangong Lengshan calmed down and jumped down directly from Xiao Chen.

“I’m talking about you. You’ve been practicing in vain for so many years. You’re still so timid.” Xiao Chen looked contemptuously at Nangong Lengshan road.

Nangong Lengshan opened his mouth. I tried to explain something, but I didn’t make a sound. Obviously, it was just because he was afraid that he would behave like that.

“Well, let’s go over there.” Xiao Chen collected some samples from the pit and stood up.

It seems that he feels a little guilty. Nangong Lengshan volunteered to go ahead this time and promised not to be afraid of anything.

Xiao Chen didn’t have any confidence in him. He thought he was exploring the way ahead.

At the end of the other side, there was nothing except the same big pit as the previous one.

It seems that someone has emptied the Taisui in here. So many people are too old. At least they are worth tens of millions. According to the truth, it should be the property of the villagers.

Now I don’t know who moved it, and it’s quite clean. Not at all.

When the previous shadow appeared, although it was affected by Nangong Lengshan, Xiao Chen probably saw it clearly, like the figure of a child.

Xiao Chen quickly thought of Tang Kaihui he saw that day, so after coming out of this strange hole, Xiao Chen took Nangong Lengshan to the other side of the mountain.

“Why did the mysterious man ask you to come here? I haven’t got a clue for a long time. Why don’t you call back and ask?” After Nangong Lengshan came out, the whole person seemed to relax a lot and spoke with full confidence.

“Don’t talk so much nonsense. What? Now we’re probably close to the truth.”

Xiao Chen is not angry.

Speaking of this, Nangong Lengshan hardly helped himself, but complained all the way.

Nangong Lengshan also knew that he had not done well in some aspects, so he didn't say anything on the way back.

When you come to the village here, you can see that the houses are new, and the paint on some houses has not been dried.

Xiao Chen probably looked at it. There were people living in every family, and most of them were people in their fifties.

Seeing Xiao Chen and Nangong Lengshan come to the village, many people cast different eyes. After all, they are strangers.

"What did you two do?" A man who looked in his fifties came up and stopped them.

"Oh, we came to Huanghai village for research. This is our license." Xiao Chen took out his certificate.

"Don't you know the recent events in Huanghai village? You still need to investigate and hurry home." The man looked at the two people like a fool.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 196

With that, the man walked towards his house, and Xiao Chen put away his certificate.

He didn't say anything, but took Nangong Lengshan to go on.

"That man was so arrogant just now. I really want to beat him up." Nangong Lengshan's face was slightly angry.

“Don’t hit people when you have nothing to do. I’ll do it when it’s time.” Xiao Chen said faintly.

After a while, they came to a three story building. This house is obviously much taller than other houses.

“What are you doing here?” Nangong Lengshan looked at the house in front of him. Although it was taller than other houses, it looked nothing special.

“You can do it now. Anyone who comes out later. You can take him down.” Xiao Chen said.

“Oh? That’s good!” Nangong Lengshan immediately walked forward with his hand rattling.

“Open the door! Is there anyone!” He knocked hard on the doorway.

After a while, the door was opened and the man they saw in Huanghai village came out.

“How did you find here?” The man’s face changed slightly after seeing them.

Nangong Lengshan didn’t say anything, so he went up and caught him directly.

“You... What are you doing? Do you know who I am? How dare you lay hands on me?” The man kept shouting.

Nangong Lengshan didn’t talk nonsense. He kicked him directly to the ground with one kick.

The man’s body was still strong. He got up from the ground and wanted to close the door.

However, Nangong Lengshan kicked the door open with one kick. The man was hit by the door panel and immediately fainted.

“What now?” Nangong Lengshan looked back at Xiao Chen.

“Go in, what else can you do?” Xiao Chen said and went inside the house.

As soon as he entered the door, he smelled a pungent smell. Xiao Chen distinguished it a little, except for the smell of some disinfectant. There is also a taste similar to the pit under the hole, and the rest is some other indescribable flavors.

“I’ll go. What’s the smell!” Nangong Lengshan immediately covered his nose.

“How did you get in!” A woman’s voice came from no one else, and she had seen it before.

Nangong Lengshan was so angry when he saw her that he knocked her out with a punch.

Xiao Chen soon found that the house had a very hidden basement. After opening it, the pungent smell came out, accompanied by a trace of blood.

Nangong Lengshan’s eyes could not open because of the smoke. Xiao Chen also ran the sick pulse to disperse the smell from his body.

After a while, the smell was not so strong at last. Xiao Chen went directly to the basement.

When I went in, I saw that the former crazy old woman was tied to an iron post by a rope. I’ve passed out now.

On the other side is a coffin, from which the bloody smell emanates.

In addition, the rest are large water tanks and the pale yellow Taisui that comes out of them.

“I remember it well. It should be called Taisui.” Nangong Lengshan covered his nose and said.

“Add it up here. At least more than 30 million.” Xiao Chen said faintly.

With that, he quickly loosened the old woman and took her out.

“Call the police.” Come to Xiaochen sidewalk outside.

“Oh.” Nangong Lengshan took out his mobile phone and said, “what are you talking about?”

“There was a homicide in Huanghai village, and some people hid their Taisui secretly. It’s a felony.” Xiao Chen said.

As soon as they came up, the previous man had disappeared.

Wait until Nangong Lengshan hangs up. There was a noise outside the door.

“Come out, you sons of b*tches!” The man just shouted outside again.

Xiao Chen first put the old woman on the recliner. As soon as they went out, they saw a group of villagers holding hoes, iron balls and shovels. They all stared at them fiercely.

“You dare to attack the police and break into my house in the open. You have no way to escape today, villagers, catch them!” The man roared and a crowd of villagers surrounded him.

“Poor mountains and rivers make trouble for the people!” Xiao Chen snorted.

The two men went straight up.

“Don’t put a heavy hand on it. You’d better faint.” Xiao Chen explained between the shots.

“Good!” After Nangong Lengshan answered, he held a trace of Qi in his hands, and all the villagers around him were knocked unconscious by him.

Xiao Chen’s hand was also haunted by disease. In an instant, he solved most of the villagers and fainted to the ground.

The man didn’t expect Xiao Chen and Nangong Lengshan to be so powerful. Nearly a hundred people were settled in less than five minutes.

He had to take out his pistol at his waist and said, “don’t move! I’ll kill anyone who dares to move!”

Nangong Lengshan didn’t hesitate after hearing this, and came to the man with a sneer.

Seeing that his threat didn’t work, the man fired directly.

But Nangong Lengshan grabbed it and squeezed the bullet in his hand. The other hand was wielded with genuine Qi and hit the man directly on the back of the head.

The man fainted. I don’t know how long it was before the police car in the city came here.

When the sheriff found out the truth, he immediately came to thank Xiao Chen:“

Thanks to you, there’s something wrong with Huanghai village recently. Those centenarians have been sent to a Research Institute for some reason. Their village is unified, and it’s not easy for us to investigate. Now that you find the truth, things will make progress immediately. “

“You say centenarians have entered the research institute? When did it happen?” Xiao Chen immediately asked.

“Just a while ago, it should be less than a week.” The sheriff recalled.

“No, where’s the research institute?” Xiao Chen’s face suddenly became very dignified.

“That seems to be the person sent from above. We don’t know the specific location. As you, it may be difficult to know.” The sheriff looked at Xiao Chen with some embarrassment.

“What’s the matter? Hasn’t the matter here been settled? What’s the problem?” Nangong Lengshan asked in a fog.

“The things at the Institute are the key. It’s just a cover up. We’ve been fooled!” Xiao Chen seemed very upset.

After that, he borrowed an electric car and drove in the direction of Huanghai village.

“I said, why did you explain it to me? Why were we deceived? Have we been calculated before we came here?” Nangong Lengshan asked, sitting in the back.

“You’ll know right away.” Xiao Chen said.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 197

After they came to Huanghai village, Xiao Chen went to check the luxury cars that had been parked on the roadside. Now they all disappeared.

“What’s going on?” Nangong Lengshan was very confused.

“In fact, they have always been in the village, but we haven’t found it.” Xiao Chen was helpless.

“What now?” Nangong Lengshan is a little confused.

Suddenly, a figure appeared in an old house. The man held a submachine gun in his hand and shot at Xiao Chen and Nangong Lengshan.

Both reacted very quickly. In a few moments, he escaped the man's shooting.

Nangong Lengshan is a real Qi.

Just smash the gun in that hand.

The man wanted to run, and several silver lights flew out of Xiao Chen's hand. He immediately screamed and fell to the ground.

"Catch him!" Xiao Chen said in a deep voice.

Nangong Lengshan hurriedly went up to catch the man and mentioned him in front of Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen saw clearly that this was a man with a big beard. Hair is brown, obviously not domestic.

"Say, who let you ambush here?" Nangong Lengshan asked.

The brown haired man just hated them and didn't speak.

"I'll beat you to death if I don't say it!" Nangong Lengshan raised his fist.

Xiao Chen stopped him, took out his silver needle and said, "I have a technique that can make you unable to survive or die. Do you want to try?"

The brown haired man was frightened when he saw the silver needle in Xiao Chen's hand.

"I said... I said, don't prick me with a needle." The brown haired man said in a strange accent.

But they both understood and were waiting for him to speak.

“I’m a researcher of qianjizi Research Institute. My name is Alex. We came to your country to study drugs for longevity. So we requisitioned the villagers of Huanghai village, which was approved by someone in your country.” The brown haired man said and looked at Xiao Chen.

After hearing this, Xiao Chen nodded and said, “continue.”

“So the experiments we are doing now are legal, but the people on your side don’t quite understand it, so we can only operate in the dark.”

Alex said with a helpless expression on his face. It seems that because these people don’t understand, it makes their research difficult.

“Just in time, I’m also doing research. Can you take us to the research institute?” Xiao Chen said and took out his certificate.

Alex’s face immediately showed a very happy expression when he heard this: “of course, we welcome scientists here to discuss research related matters with us.”

“Let’s do one more thing before you go to the Research Institute.” Xiao Chen said and took out the silver needle again.

“You... What are you going to do? Didn’t you agree to go to the research institute together?” Alex turned pale with a brush.

“No! No!” He shouted in panic, but then he didn’t feel any pain. Xiao Chen had already pulled out the silver needle from him.

“What did you do?” Alex looked at Xiao Chen suspiciously.

“Nothing. If you dare to deceive us, your body may have some problems, so you’d better take us to the research institute honestly.” Xiao Chen said faintly.

“Let him go.” Xiao Chen said to Nangong Lengshan.

Nangong Lengshan just let Alex go. Alex’s eyes flashed with a sense of killing, but he immediately felt his internal organs and suddenly felt a deep pain.

So he rolled directly on the ground, screaming as he rolled, as if in great pain.

“What did you just do?” Nangong Lengshan also didn’t understand Xiao Chen’s technique.

“Oh, it’s useless for me to prick the needle. Now he’s sick in his body. As long as he has a different mind, his viscera will be unbearable.” Xiao Chen was very calm.

“You are so cruel.” Nangong Lengshan couldn’t help sighing.

“He’s going to kill us. That’s cruel? He died long ago, not to find the laboratory.” Xiao Chen looked at Alex like a dead man.

“Hey. I told you, if you’re dishonest, something will happen to your body. You’d better take us to the laboratory honestly, or you’ll spend your whole life in pain.” Xiao Chen said to Alex, who was lying on the ground and rolling.

When Alex heard this, he slowly stood up. At this time, his face flushed and his forehead was covered with cold sweat.

The clothes on the body are also stained with many stains because of the just rolling.

“How’s it going? Big man, have you figured it out?” Nangong Lengshan looked at him with a sneer and said.

Alex stopped killing himself. The viscera are no longer painful.

Xiao Chen drove over and said to the two people, "get in the car and go to the research institute now."

Alex's face changed slightly, but he got on the bus with Nangong Lengshan.

"Tell me the route." Xiao Chen said coldly.

Alex gestured on the map with his hand and said, "our institute is in this position. Just follow the navigation."

According to him, Xiao Chen quickly drove the car to a suburb near Wuling city.

"There's nothing here!" Nangong Lengshan looked at the empty tunnel in front of him.

"I need to wait until I get down to the code. Our laboratory is underground." Alex said.

"Take him down." Xiao Chen said to Nangong Lengshan.

"Go!" Nangong Lengshan said and dragged him down directly.

Then Alex spoke a paragraph of English. Suddenly a hole opened in the open space, and two women in white experimental clothes came out.

Xiao Chen saw that they were also foreigners, all blonde.

"Who are they?" Asked a slightly taller woman on the right.

"They are... My friends who came to visit our laboratory." Alex lied.

Xiao Chen also showed her ID: "Hello, I'm a doctor of medicine. I'm still very interested in your experiment, so I want to come and have a look."

"Come with us!" After seeing Xiao Chen's certificate, the two women didn't have too much doubt. They directly asked Xiao Chen and Nangong Lengshan to follow them to the underground laboratory.

"I have to say that m people can play. This good open space is not needed. We have to build an underground one." Nangong Lengshan muttered.

"Most laboratories are underground. Many studies need low temperature. The temperature underground is generally higher than that on the ground." Xiao Chen explained.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 198

"If you turn on the air conditioner, it'll be over." Nangong Lengshan road.

"If you have to raise your eyebrows, we can end this topic." Xiao Chen arrived unhappily.

After a while, several people came to the laboratory. The whole laboratory looked very spacious, and there were all kinds of instruments everywhere.

The two women took them to an office, where a man from China sat.

"Dr. Sun. These two are here to visit our laboratory. Do you agree?" A woman asked.

Sun Libin was reading materials. I frowned when I heard someone visiting the laboratory.

Looking back, I was surprised that it was a person from the same country as myself.

“Who are you two?” He put down the information in his hand and asked.

“Oh, Hello, Dr. Sun. I’m Xiao Chen. I’m a medical doctor who graduated from the University of Massachusetts and technology. I want to do a research here in Huanghai village. I didn’t expect you to be the first.” Xiao Chen took out his certificate and said.

Then he introduced Nangong Lengshan.

Sun Libin looked at the two people and said to the two women from country M: “Weiss, go and bring our plan to Dr. Xiao Chen. Lily, go and pour a cup of coffee for you.”

“Yes!” Both women went down as ordered.

After a while, the planning book was brought over. When Lily offered coffee to Nangong Lengshan, Nangong Lengshan inadvertently saw her exposed snow-white and became interested immediately.

So he said to Xiao Chen, “boss, you talk here first. I’ll go outside?”

“Don’t walk around!” Xiao Chen frowned slightly.

Nangong Lengshan had to sit where he was.

Xiao Chen opened the planning book, which introduced the situation that sun Libin wanted to develop drugs to prolong life in cooperation with country M.

Xiao Chen looked at it and his face was very dignified.

“Dr. Sun, it’s illegal for you to do so!” Xiao Chen looked at Sun Libin and said.

“Hey, Dr. Xiao Chen, how can you say that? We have obtained permission here, and all operations are legal.” Sun Libin is very calm.

“You’re doing a human experiment. Even in any country, it’s illegal. How can it be legal here?” Xiao Chen asked.

Nangong Lengshan also pricked his ears when he heard this.

“That’s not true. We’re not doing any harm to the researchers’ bodies. We’re just investigating what special elements are in their bodies. Their relatives agreed. If you don’t believe it, you can see the agreement we signed.”

Sun Libin looked confident and authentic.

Xiao Chen seems to understand the meaning of the mysterious phone call to let herself come over. It seems that this research should not have started this time, but may have started a long time ago.

“Can you take us to see those old people?” Xiao Chen closed the planning book.

“Of course, no problem. They are here. Life is very rich every day.” Sun Libin got up and opened the door of the laboratory and said, “lily, take them to see the old people.”

Then they followed lily to a huge room. There were more than ten old people, all of whom had a lot of fun. Some were playing cards and some were playing mahjong. Others are playing chess.

Xiao Chen saw something fishy at a glance. Although the expressions on those old people’s faces were more soothing.

But it’s unnatural.

“This is the paradise for the elderly created by our doctor. They can play safely in it. We are also equipped with various medical facilities. We can deal with emergencies at any time.” Lily introduced it.

Suddenly, an old man was so happy after winning chess that he directly lay down on the ground. Lily immediately went up and pressed the alarm button.

Soon, other personnel from the laboratory came to give the old man first aid, and then arranged a special room for him to rest.

Then Lily took them to see all kinds of instruments. The more Xiao Chen looked, the more anger in her eyes gradually increased.

He can fully see that this is a human experiment, just under the guise of not causing any harm to the elderly. The old people at this age should enjoy their old age in the village. Those children sold their biological parents for their own interests.

Xiao Chenyue thought so, and he couldn't help clenching his fist.

After the visit, sun Libin asked Xiao Chen whether to join the experiment together. If the development is successful, 10% of the shares will be returned to him at that time.

This is a wonderful drug. Once it comes out, it is estimated that someone will buy it at any high price.

Xiao Chen declined, and they left the laboratory. On the way back, Nangong Lengshan sighed:

"Wow, Lily's figure is really great. If only she could make an appointment."

Xiao Chen looked at him with great disdain.

Nangong Lengshan felt Xiao Chen's eyes and turned to say, "in fact, I think that laboratory is also good. The old man has a good time in it, and someone will take care of him at any time. Isn't that good?"

"When did you become so cold-blooded?" Xiao Chen glanced at him and said.

“Why am I cold-blooded and ruthless? I think it’s really good for old people to live together like this. They have company and are taken care of at any time, aren’t they?” Nangong Lengshan suddenly felt a trace of displeasure on his face.

“What were they supposed to be? What are they now? Haven’t you thought about it?” Xiao Chen is not angry.

“They were? They were old and helpless in the village. When they were going to die, no one could take care of them. Now at least someone can help them collect their bodies.” Nangong Lengshan looked puzzled.

“You really only look at the surface, not the inside.” Xiao Chen rolled her eyes.

“What’s all this and what? You have to make it clear.” Nangong Lengshan was in a hurry. He felt that he didn’t understand what Xiao Chen said now.

“Those old people were obviously drugged just now. They are now in a state of excitement, which is not what a normal old man should have.” Xiao Chen is not angry.

“If you hadn’t told us earlier, wouldn’t it be better if we just dismantled their laboratory?” Nangong Lengshan held his hands in front of his chest.

“It’s so easy? You can dismantle it if you say it? It’s estimated that there are many forces behind them. They can do laboratories in such places and also do such research. I think there may be big people behind them.” Xiao Chen said in a deep voice.

“What are you afraid of? We’re not afraid of anyone at all now. I’ll fight one for one, and I’ll fight ten for ten.” Nangong Lengshan glanced away.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 199

Xiao Chen no longer talks to Nangong Lengshan. He is thinking about something now.

What kind of consequences will happen if some big people are involved? He must reasonably solve this matter. If he doesn't know it's OK, but now he knows it, he must take care of it.

When you go back. Xiao Chen called Lin Shihao directly.

"Doctor Xiao Chen, why are you free to call me so late?" The voice at the other end is a little lazy. Obviously, it could be just getting ready for bed.

"I'm sorry to bother you so late, but I do have some important things here." Xiao Chen apologized.

"No, Doctor Lin Chen's business is my business. Just speak if you need it." Lin Shihao's voice seems to have become a lot more energetic.

"That's right. We found a laboratory in Wuling. You may need to help me find out who is behind it." Xiao Chen said.

"OK, you say." Lin Shihao replied.

Then Xiao Chen reported the name of the laboratory and some materials he saw on the plan to Lin Shihao.

At noon the next day, Lin Shihao called.

"Doctor Xiao Chen, I personally advise you not to take care of this matter. You and I may not be able to afford the one involved." Lin Shihao's voice was very heavy.

"Go ahead." Xiao Chen was not afraid and asked directly.

"This is one of the oldest star generals in our country. This thousand machine laboratory is supported by his eldest son. If you have to stop the process of this laboratory, I can call people out for you. The rest can only depend on yourself." Lin Shihao said.

“I see. Then call someone out. I’ll wait in Wuling.” Xiao Chen said faintly.

The other end was silent for a moment and said, “OK, I’ll have someone arrange it right away.”

Hua Jia. In Washington, a 70 year old man in Tang clothes sat opposite a middle-aged man in a mink coat.

“Seven nights, what’s the situation in the Northeast recently?” The old man spoke first. Although his voice was a little hoarse, it was more dignified.

“Dad, you can rest assured. Now, although people from several countries are eyeing us, they dare not act rashly when we have a green dragon in hand.” Hua Qiye is very confident and authentic.

“Well, my health is getting worse day by day. The drug still needs to be developed as soon as possible. Many things have not been completed. I don’t want to put our country in danger.” Old Hua said and coughed twice.

“Dad, didn’t I get you a prescription recently? Isn’t it effective?” Huaqiye seems a little excited.

“That prescription is for curing diseases. My body is aging. What I need is a prescription to prolong my life.” Hua Lao said with a helpless look on his face.

In fact, he knew that his time was running out. But he can’t just fall.

Suddenly, a man in military uniform appeared in the lobby.

“Young Marshal. A mayor wants to meet you in Wuling city.” The man knelt on the ground.

“Wuling city?” Hua Qiye frowned slightly, thought for a while and said, “OK. Go and prepare, and I’ll rush there today.”

“You should be careful when you go out. Now the form of the world is very tense.” Old Hua told me.

“Don’t worry, Dad. I’ll be right back when I go out.” Huaqiye road.

Xiao Chen received the news from Lin Shihao. The other party said that he would come to Wuling tomorrow to make him ready.

So Xiao Chen first took Nangong Lengshan to the high-end clothing store and was ready to buy a decent dress for them. After all, the person you want to meet is a high-level leader. It’s better to respect a little.

“In fact, I don’t like suits. Look how comfortable I am wearing now. It’s generous and decent.” Nangong Lengshan smiled.

“Stop talking nonsense and choose a dress by yourself.” Xiao Chen began to choose.

Just after watching it for a while, suddenly a broadcast came from a shopping mall:

“Ladies and gentlemen, today our store was booked by Mr. Yuan Jiayuan. Please leave quickly. We are deeply sorry for the inconvenience. Every guest will get a gift certificate of 1000 yuan from our store to express our apology.”

Some passers-by immediately complained.

“What? Booking? It’s unreasonable! But it’s good to get gift certificates. I can buy a few clothes for 1000 yuan.”

“You haven’t heard of Mr. Yuan Jia. He is the only heir of the third largest family in Wuling. It’s easy to buy this mall.”

“Let’s go, let’s go. We’ll be late. There’s no gift certificate.”

.....

Xiao Chen didn't pay attention to the radio at this time. She was still choosing clothes by herself.

"Sir, you can't choose any more. This place is reserved by child Yuan Jia." A waitress came up and stopped him.

"Why not? I just came to buy a suit of clothes." Xiao Chen said with a cold face.

"What's going on?" A man in a suit came over.

"Manager, this gentleman doesn't want to leave. I'm afraid Mr. Yuan Jia will come later..." the waitress said with a difficult face.

"Sir, this place has been reserved by child Yuan Jia. Please leave quickly." The manager has a good voice.

"I'll buy one and leave after buying it." Xiao Chen's eyes were still on his clothes.

"Sir, if you do this again, I'll call security." There was also a trace of anger on the manager's face.

At this time, a simple and honest looking, fat man led a woman with exquisite dress in.

The woman has bright eyes and eyebrows, Joan's nose is upright, and a little red lips are properly dotted under her nose. There is a trace of ruddy on her cheeks, which highlights her charm. The long glossy black hair is casually placed on her shoulders, which makes people feel a trace of purity.

Nangong Lengshan was dumbfounded when he saw the woman.

Xiao Chen is still choosing clothes by herself.

“Didn’t you agree to clear the scene? Why are there two redundant people in it?” When the man saw Xiao Chen and Nangong Lengshan inside, he was angry immediately.

“Young master Yuan Jia, don’t be angry. I’ll take them out right away!” The manager hurried up to apologize.

Then he pointed to Xiao Chen and Nangong Lengshan and said, “take them away!”

The security guard was close to Nangong Lengshan and was ready to catch him when he went up, but he didn’t expect Nangong Lengshan’s skill was very good. He fell to the ground twice and sent out bursts of wails.

Seeing this, Yuan Jia’s face changed slightly and said, “why? Can you be arrogant if you think you are a martial artist?”

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 200

“Young master Yuan Jia, don’t be angry here. Let’s talk about something.” The manager hurried forward to dissuade Yuan Jia.

But Yuan Jia was obviously irritated and pushed the manager away directly and walked towards Nangong Lengshan step by step.

Xiao Chen doesn’t care about the situation here. She just buys clothes by herself. Seeing that Nangong Lengshan was not available, he simply bought it together with his.

“Just these two sets. Wrap them up.” Xiao Chen took out her card and handed it to the waitress. After receiving the card, the waitress didn’t know what to do, so she asked for help and looked in the direction of the manager.

The manager gave her a look and she hurriedly wanted to swipe her card. But suddenly a playing card in Yuan Jia’s hand flew out and directly knocked out the card in the waiter’s hand.

The waitress screamed, and one of the two sets in her hand fell to the ground.

Seeing this, Xiao Chen's face immediately sank down and said to Nangong Lengshan, "just fight and don't die."

"OK!" Nangong Lengshan moved as soon as he heard it. It was so fast that he had to come to Yuan Jia in half a breath.

"Hum! Let me show you the power of my yuan family boxing!" As Yuan Jia said this, she pinched her fists and burst into a burst of clothes. The fat on her body was exposed, but she looked a little happy.

Nangong Lengshan made no superfluous moves at all. He punched Yuan Jia directly in the right face. One punch directly knocked him out.

But this is not over yet. Nangong Lengshan quickly moved to the direction where Yuan Jia was about to land. A whip kicked out, and Yuan Jia immediately had an extra shoe print on his lower abdomen, and one tumbled and fell to one side.

Nangong Lengshan is not satisfied yet. I want to continue to teach him a lesson. Just raised his foot to kick Yuan Jia again, a jade leg suddenly appeared at his foot. The beautiful woman stopped him directly.

Nangong Lengshan quickly withdrew his feet and said, "I don't beat women. Since you protect him, it's OK."

Then he turned and prepared to leave, but who knew the woman looked beautiful. He was also a ruthless person, and immediately kicked Nangong Lengshan on the head.

Because she is wearing pointed high heels, if she doesn't take any precautions, she is likely to be seriously injured.

Nangong Lengshan didn't notice. When he realized the danger, it was too late to dodge. Seeing that the sharp high-heeled shoes like a sharp blade were about to kick on the back of his head.

Just then, a silver light flew out, and a silver needle directly pierced the woman's knee. The woman immediately felt her body stiff and her strength seemed to be out of ordinary, so she quickly accepted her moves.

"Your boy will die in the hands of a woman sooner or later." Xiao Chen came to Nangong Lengshan and said.

Nangong Lengshan felt his head in embarrassment and said, "I didn't know her skill was so good. I didn't pay attention just now. I tried my best. She specified that she couldn't hurt me."

The woman pulled out Xiao Chen's silver needle directly, and her pretty face was full of cold.

"Who the hell are you? Don't you know the identity of our child Yuan Jia?" The woman said coldly.

"We just came to buy a dress." Xiao Chen's face remained unchanged. Light way.

"This place has been booked by our young master Yuan Jia tonight. You have been notified in advance. You still don't understand the rules?" The woman said again.

"Advance notice? I saw half of the clothes come in. This is advance notice? Are you so rich and unkind, arrogant and unreasonable, and reasonable?" A chill came out of Xiao Chen's eyes.

The woman was speechless for a moment. Seeing Yuan Jia struggling, she hurried up and helped him up.

"Oh, it hurts me." Yuan Jia got up from the ground. Whining.

"Child, I'm not well protected. Please cure me!" The woman bowed and said to Yuan Jia.

"I don't blame you, butterfly. It's not your fault." Yuan Jia's face was full of tolerance.

Then he looked at Xiao Chen and Nangong Lengshan fiercely:

“You two wait for me and don’t go out to inquire. Who dares to challenge me in Wuling? Even if the mayor sees me, he has to make way for me! If you hit me today, I want you to pay ten times! Butterfly, let’s go!”

With that, the beautiful woman helped Yuan Jia leave the mall. When she left, the woman looked back at Xiao Chen.

Nangong Lengshan seemed to be thinking about the butterfly in his heart. His eyes were full of pity and sighed:

“Hey, you said such a beautiful sister, why did she follow such a black sheep?”

“You really love each other. Where’s the cold and gorgeous sister in the East China Sea? I’m afraid you don’t even remember her appearance?” Xiao Chen turned his eyes.

“That can’t be. Of course I remember. That’s really a good wife and mother. He’s quite suitable to be a wife, but men just have to be careful outside. People don’t waste their youth. The ancients told us.”

Nangong Lengshan is full of fallacies.

Xiao Chen didn’t want to argue with him any more. He continued to choose two sets of clothes and left with Nangong Lengshan.

The woman just gave Xiao Chen a familiar feeling. He always felt that he might have seen her somewhere before, but he couldn’t remember it for a moment.

Early the next morning, Xiao Chen and Nangong Lengshan came to the agreed cafe, where they were waiting for the arrival of huaqiye.

“I said, you have a bad taste in clothes. These clothes are only worn by middle-aged uncles. How can a young man like us wear such rustic clothes?” Nangong Lengshan looked discontentedly at his clothes.

“Who makes you have so much nonsense? You haven’t chosen a dress for a long time.” Xiao Chen is not angry.

“But you’re too ugly to choose this place. Didn’t you say you wanted to see big people? Isn’t it impolite for me to dress like this?” Nangong Lengshan looked at his clothes repeatedly and was still complaining.

“If you don’t want to wear it, you can take it off now. No one stops you.” Xiao Chen said, picked up the impurities on one side and looked at them.

“Oh, forget it. Anyway, I’ll wear it all day.” Nangong Lengshan seems to have compromised.

After a while, several men in black coats followed a man in a white high-end suit and walked into the cafe.

The whole cafe was chartered by Xiao Chen, so there were only him and Nangong Lengshan.

Xiao Chen, who came here, naturally knows without thinking. He is the eldest son of the first star general in China and the youngest Young Marshal at present – huaqiye.
