The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 371

“We have to inform the headquarters to see if we can save the Oriental God of war.” The Gemini God of war said and changed back to two people.

Then one of them pressed a special watch in his hand.

After a while, the mysterious spaceship that had appeared on the other side of Nangong Lengshan appeared again on the top of the twin gods of war.

Both of them are watching silently. If they like the people above, they can have a way.

At this time, in the high-dimensional space, the desert God of war can no longer suppress the energy in his body.

“Xiao Chen. Although you defeated me last time, I still need to say sorry to you this time. After all, this battle was launched because of me, and finally implicated you and your country.” The desert God of war was now fully awake.

As the saying goes: when a man is dying, his words are good.

He is in such a situation now.

Xiao Chen smiled faintly and didn't say anything. The goal he set for himself had not been completed. But now it should be his real end.

He slowly closed his eyes and recalled everything he had done in the past five years. At this time, the person who felt the most indebted in his heart was ah Ling.

The little girl, who was alone since childhood, accompanied him through so many difficulties and obstacles. Before she could return her feelings to her, she had to stop here.

Although very unwilling, but now there is no choice.

Feeling the strong crisis, the Taichu Baolu in Xiao Chen's body also sent out a strong shock. It seems that he doesn't want to be destroyed under such circumstances.

But Xiao Chen was also very helpless at this time. He could not lift his current state. From the state of the desert God of war, his explosion would at least make no living creatures within a radius of thousands of miles or even tens of thousands of miles survive.

In order to protect this area of the East China Sea. That's all he can do.

Suddenly, a white light hit Xiao Chen. He suddenly felt his body light.

But I don't know what power it is. Now he has no choice but to let that power control his body.

"Farewell!" After the desert God of war said this, the whole body became a huge energy ball. The powerful energy is spreading around in a destructive way.

Xiao Chen could not see his body at this time. It seemed that everything was melted in the explosion.

Even the whole space had a huge vibration at this time.

At this time, over the East China Sea, many people saw a huge beam of light spreading over the whole city.

Everything has been settled. This time, due to the calculation of state m, the attack launched by the desert empire is completely over.

A month later, on the East China Sea comet building.

Liu Nianxin made Xiao Chen's various contributions to the company into a PPT and showed it on the podium. Nangong Lengshan, Bai Qianqian, Wu Yaqing and a Ling are all watching carefully.

The photographer of Donghai satellite TV broadcast this video. People all over the East China Sea saw this series of things and understood that Xiao Chen was a hero who saved the people of the East China Sea many times.

The statue of Xiao Chen was created on Jinying square, the largest square in the East China Sea.

Lin Shihao and others will visit here almost every day to see the hero who guarded the East China Sea with his life.

"Although he may never come back. But he will always live in our hearts!"

After Liu Nianxin on the stage finished speaking, his left hand was heavily buckled on his chest and maintained a respectful look for three minutes.

After that, there was a steady stream of applause.

"It is said that Xiao Chen has found some beautiful women to accompany him in Wuling." Nangong Lengshan suddenly said this with a smile.

"He's free to find as many as he wants, and now he's gone. What's the point of saying that?" Wu Yaqing is also the most sad one at this time, although her relationship with Xiao Chen is not the longest one.

But a lot of big and small things have happened between them. From the initial misunderstanding to the last two people trust each other. All this, in her opinion, is unforgettable.

And ah Ling didn't talk much since she came back and learned about Xiao Chen.

On the way back, she was once taken by the highest mercenary regiment of the Empire to a mysterious place for dialogue, talking about all kinds of efforts made by their organization outside for so many years.

At this time, Ling knew that the Empire had been fighting for the same goal as them for so many years, but now the situation outside was becoming more and more tense.

Many countries do not care about external invasion at present. Country m is just one of those who are bent on seizing all kinds of favorable resources and ruling the whole planet. They are not the only country behind this attack.

When a Ling heard this, she was shocked. She felt that Xiao Chen's sacrifice was not worth it, because he had been fighting for building a peaceful world for so many years, but the end was like this.

The regiment can only say that they are very sorry. After all, Xiao Chen's combat power really belongs to the first-class combat power of the current Empire, and none of the teams they sent at that time was able to save Xiao Chen.

Ah Ling is a little disappointed now. She doesn't know whether she is disappointed in the whole empire or the whole world, so now she doesn't want to hear anything except about Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen left, and she felt that her soul had been taken away.

At the same time, on the other side of the Empire, in the wind and snow in the northern region, in a secret underground base, a man was lying on an experimental machine. All kinds of researchers around were very busy, as if it was for the sleeping man in the middle.

If Wu Yaqing and others were here at this time, they would be very surprised, because Xiao Chen, who was said to have completely disappeared from the world, was lying on the test bench here at this time.

However, the skin of his whole body has disappeared. In addition to a face, some parts of his body can even be seen clearly.

“Dean, with our current technology, it’s too difficult to shape a perfect skin for him. Do you want to reduce the difficulty appropriately?” An experimenter said to a middle-aged man with long hair in great difficulty.

“Bastard, this time it’s the order of the head of the Empire. If we don’t do well, we’ll be punished by the head of the Empire!” The middle-aged man didn’t give the experimenter any face and yelled directly.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 372

The experimenter was yelled and his face looked ugly, but he knew that his Dean was a man of one word, so he had to go down dejected.

“No, something’s wrong. The patient’s body is recovering automatically!” Suddenly, a female experimenter hurried over and reported the matter to the dean who didn’t know what she was studying.

Hear that. The Dean immediately put down his research and followed the female researcher to Xiao Chen’s experimental platform.

At this time, Xiao Chen’s skin is recovering at a speed visible to the naked eye. The speed is almost beyond a large number of special abilities.

“Miracle. It’s a miracle!” The Dean couldn’t help but marvel at this scene.

At this time, Kyoto, Washington.

Hua Wenfeng, Hua Qiye and Hua xuwan all sat in a very hidden small pavilion, while sitting opposite them was a man in a green shirt, who seemed to be quite old.

“This time, my grandson will be arranged to enter your house as a door-to-door son-in-law. Several very hidden families in our empire have now defected to other countries, so his task during this period of time is to find out these families.”

“As far as I know, among the families, there are Situ family and Chen family. There is evidence to prove that they have cooperated with the enemy, but they can’t do it yet. First, there is insufficient evidence, and second, they also have a deep relationship with several other big families, which need close surveillance.”

The old man said and took out a Book of information: “when my grandson comes back, give him this. This is the document of this operation. Remember that he can only read it alone!”

Before the words fell, the old man in green shirt seemed to disappear out of thin air, and the whole person disappeared.

“Unexpectedly, behind Mr. Xiao Chen is this adult. Now the lifeblood of the whole empire is in our hands. Xu Wan, you must cooperate well with Mr. Xiao Chen this time, you know?”

Hua Wenfeng said and looked at Hua Xuwan, as if waiting for her answer.

“I see. I promise that this task can be successfully completed.” Hua Xuwan takes things seriously.

In fact, she is still very fond of Xiao Chen. I didn’t expect to have long-term contact with Xiao Chen now. Although this is a fake marriage, in the eyes of outsiders, they become a couple with him.

This is obviously not a bad thing.

“Do you know that Miss Hua Xuwan of the Hua family seems to be getting married recently!”

“Of course I heard, but the identity of the other party seems a little unexpected. It’s a little Taoist from a small county or city.”

“I don’t know what it’s like for Hua to let a little Taoist be his grandson-in-law. At least Miss Hua Xuwan is also the number one beauty in our Kyoto row.”

There is a lot of noise outside about Hua Xuwan’s marriage.

There is nothing to say about her appearance, but more children of aristocratic families go for the forces behind her family.

Now I didn't expect that she would be betrothed by Hua Lao to a Taoist from the countryside. Most people still have a lot of opinions on this matter.

However, this matter has long been settled. Now even if anyone has any opinions, it is meaningless.

So most people just look at it with a sense of excitement.

But one person was particularly uncomfortable after he learned the news. This man is no one else. It is the fourth child of the flower family, the second largest family in Kyoto, who is full of flowers.

Learned that Hua xuwan was inexplicably arranged to marry a man from the countryside. His first reaction was that it was a task for Hua xuwan.

But in the end, after constant confirmation, he found that all this was true. It's not something that the Chinese family did deliberately for other purposes, but a real thing to let Hua xuwan marry off.

This can make the flowers all over the sky anxious. The dream lover he has been thinking about for so many years has been married. Such unexpected news makes him feel extremely dissatisfied.

But no matter what he thinks, he is not the master of the Chinese family after all. No one dares to say anything about this matter. I can only look around and see what the little country Taoist will look like.

Naturally, flowers will not be absent. He doesn't just want to see what the little Taoist in the countryside looks like. If he is not satisfied, he will make a big fuss at the wedding.

After all, Hua xuwan is too important for him. He is the most important woman in his life except his mother. He can't give such a woman to others so easily.

The time is approaching day by day. At the beginning, Hua xuwan can work normally every day, but in the last three days, she also began to have some bottomless in her heart.

Although they are familiar with Xiao Chen, they don't know how long they will live together as a fake husband and wife.

And in order to ensure that no one outside will notice, they are arranged to sleep in the same room. The most important thing is that there is only one big bed, although the bed is really big.

But the lone man and widowed woman live in the same room and still can only sleep in one bed. In this case, Hua xuwan met for the first time, and he is still a man who has such a good feeling in his heart.

If Xiao Chen can't help it when she starts to do it herself, she doesn't know if it will eventually become a fake. When the task is finished, the child may also be born.

The more he thought about it, Hua xuwan felt inexplicable and excited.

Later, she suddenly found that her ideas were too shameless, so she simply decided not to consider this matter.

Soon, three days later, a man in overalls and a straw hat came outside Washington.

"Hua Lao? Hua Shao? Anyone?" The straw hat man knocked on the door gently.

A servant hurriedly came and opened the door. Seeing the appearance of the straw hat man, he was stunned, and then asked, "who are you looking for in Washington?"

"Oh, I'm here to get married." Xiao Chen said and took out a piece of red paper.

The servant looked at it and immediately respected Xiao Chen: "you are here at last. The master and miss have been waiting for a long time! Please come in!"

Then he took Xiao Chen to the depths of the Huajia courtyard.

When he came to the lobby, Hua xuwan was ready.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 373

Beside her were the clothes used by the ancient bridegroom.

The moment Hua Wenfeng saw Xiao Chen enter the door, he immediately stood up: “nephew Xiao CHENXIAN has finally come! Come here, we’re all ready. After you worship, you’ll be husband and wife. You can get the certificate tomorrow.”

Xiao Chen was stunned when he saw this. He thought he would deal with these things after he came back. I didn’t expect that all the members of the Hua family were ready.

“We Huajia never do those big scenes. It mainly depends on whether the two people fit together. So it’s our honor for you to enter our Huajia. Come on, just pay homage!”

Hua Wenfeng said as he put Xiao Chen on the clothes of Xinlang official.

What else did Xiao Chen want to explain. But he had been pushed directly onto the lobby, and the next few in the back immediately shouted.

“Worship heaven and earth! Worship the high hall! Worship the couple! Send them to their bridal chamber!”

After shouting, they were rushed into the room.

When she entered the room, Hua xuwan couldn’t wait to lift her crown. When she saw Xiao Chen’s current appearance, she almost didn’t cry out.

But she covered her mouth and didn't shout.

Xiao Chen's face is full of beard and hair now. It seems that he hasn't paid attention to it for a long time, so he can't see his appearance at all.

At first glance, it looks like a Hairy Ape.

After a shock, Hua xuwan couldn't help laughing again.

"What are you laughing at?" Xiao Chen had some helplessness since he woke up. Because his vitality is too strong, and his hair growth rate is amazing. It took him three days to come from there, but his hair grew to this extent within three days.

So he originally wanted to ask people in Washington to trim himself before he came in, but he didn't expect Hua Wenfeng to be so anxious. He was allowed to marry directly without even giving him a chance to explain.

"In other words, is it too fake for you to do so? Can't outsiders see it?" Xiao Chen still feels a little inappropriate for Washington's rapid action.

"That's true. The custom of our Chinese family has always been like this. We're all slow this time. It took less than two minutes before and after my parents got married last time."

Hua xuwan explained with a smile.

"Two minutes? Is that marriage? How does it feel like reincarnation?" Xiao Chen looked puzzled.

"You just went to reincarnation!" Hua xuwan said with a white look at Xiao Chen: "it's our habit. Only the faster the wedding, the better the relationship between the two people in the future, and the happier the days after."

"Well, what about your parents now?" Xiao Chen is interested in this habit.

“My mother, she left years ago.” Hua xuwan said with a lost expression.

“Sorry to mention your sadness.” Xiao Chen immediately felt a little ashamed. I didn’t expect that I could talk about what the other party was most reluctant to mention when I asked.

“My mother was a workaholic when she was there. She worked outside all year round, so we all have a bottom in our hearts about her situation.” Hua xuwan seems to be recalling things in those days.

“Isn’t it true that the faster you get married, the happier your husband and wife will be? Then your parents are also happy?” Xiao Chen suddenly felt a little strange.

“Of course, they are very happy. Although my mother has always worked outside, I can see that. My parents love each other very much, just because they have to. That’s why they do it.”

Hua xuwan is very firm and authentic.

Hearing what Hua xuwan said, Xiao Chen knew it was impolite to ask again.

“Let me cut my hair first. Where are your scissors?” Xiao Chen said and began to look for scissors.

“I’ll cut it for you.” Hua xuwan said and went to one side of the dresser and took out a pair of scissors.

“I said, even if you lie in the laboratory for a month, you won’t be like this. Does the dean of the laboratory over there see that you have too little hair and sprinkle you with some hair growth hormone?”

Hua Xiao Wan saw the appearance of Xiao Chen, but still could not help but make complaints about it.

“Don’t say it. I’m bored to death now. My hair grows too fast now. It’s not a month, it’s three days.” Xiao Chen reluctantly told the truth.

“Three days?” Hua xuwan was stunned.

“Yes, it took me three days to catch up from there. On the third day of the train, the staff at the railway station almost stopped me from coming out.” Xiao Chen said and sighed again.

“Ha ha!” Hua xuwan couldn’t help laughing again.

After laughing for a while, Hua xuwan slowed down, and then said, “that’s not a way for you. When we’re going to investigate something, your hair will grow out at once. Should I have a pair of scissors with me?”

“It doesn’t matter. This little problem is not difficult for me. Give me two days and I’ll deal with it.” Xiao Chen is very determined.

“Well, I hope you can really deal with it, or our fake marriage will be exposed soon.” Hua xuwan said as if he remembered something. He went to the head of the bed, took out the material and handed it to Xiao Chen

“Well, your grandfather gave it to you. We didn’t see it. He said only you could see it.”

“OK, thank you.” Xiao Chen nodded and opened the information.

All the above are the deployment of some tasks, as well as the family situation in Kyoto. It’s a fairly large relationship diagram. It took Xiao Chen some time to understand it.

Then there seemed to be nothing on the last page. When Xiao Chen was ready to close the book, the last page suddenly moved, directly turned into a streamer and flew into his mind.

After a while, four big words appeared in Xiao Chen’s mind: the formula of extreme Tao and God.

No wonder my grandfather told no one else to watch it. If someone took away the skill of the extreme way divine formula, it would be difficult.

Now, because of the previous explosion, the Taichu Baolu in Xiao Chen seems to have entered a dormant state. He doesn't know how to activate it.

However, Xiao Chen is still quite successful in the cultivation of Jidao divine formula. It seems that he has reached the third level of cultivation.

Xiao Chen looked at it roughly. There are nine levels of this skill, so now he still has a long way to go.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 374

"You can go out in half an hour." Hua xuwan suddenly reminded Xiao Chen in his ear.

Now Xiao Chen's appearance has changed a little, so no one knows him here in Kyoto.

"Half an hour? Why?" Xiao Chen has some doubts.

"That's because..." Hua xuwan blushed at the mention of this: "because it's also a habit."

After thinking for a long time, she can only use this reason to prevaricate Xiao Chen. In fact, they have just entered their bridal chamber. Normal people know why they have to wait so long.

But Xiao Chen was confused by the previous reception in Washington, so he didn't think of what should be done in theory at this time.

"There are so many habits in your family." Xiao Chen opened her hand. Make a helpless expression.

"Well, don't talk so much nonsense. Just leave soon." Hua xuwan whispered.

“Are you going to stay a little longer?” Xiao Chen asked again.

Hua xuwan suddenly blushed. She even thought Xiao Chen asked on purpose. As a man with a wife, didn't he even know these things?

But she can't say it clearly. I can only nod and say, “yes, this is also a habit of our family. I need to stay here for a while. I don't need to go out today.”

Just between the two conversations, someone outside has come to the gate of Washington and shouted.

“Open the door! Open the door! The flowers are all over the sky asking to see old Hua!”

.....

After a while, several servants came to the door and opened it.

“Where's Hua Lao? Let Hua Lao speak!” Spend all over the sky. At this time, his face is full of anxiety, and he doesn't pay so much attention to identity when talking.

“It's full of flowers. This is our Hua family, not your own family. You shout so loudly here. Do you want to have some friction with our Hua family?” Hua Qiye came out very unhappy at this time.

Today is a happy day for their family. Although it's fake, it should be done in a model. Being stirred by the flowers all over the sky, it doesn't look like a wedding. Of course, he will feel a little uncomfortable.

Besides, he actually hopes that his daughter can have some kind of relationship with Xiao Chen. Therefore, at this time, people come to call the door and make noise, which is also something that Washington doesn't like to see.

It took a lot of time to do such a thing, which almost offended the whole Washington.

“Hey hey, Hua Shaoshuai, actually I’m here to send gifts!” As Hua Mantian said, he took out all the jewelry he had prepared earlier.

Hua Qiye looked at the flowers all over the sky, and his unhappiness turned into anger: “boy, you sent these to us, do you mean we can’t take these things out of Washington? Or do you mean anything else?”

“No, of course not, but I think the new uncle may not have prepared these things. So I can just make up for some of their shortcomings.” Spend all over the sky and explain quickly.

“Sorry, we don’t need your things here. Please come back.” Hua Qiye immediately issued a guest expulsion order.

“No! No, Young Marshal Hua, in fact, I really want to see Xu Wan again! Please!” Flowers all over the sky immediately came forward and held the door.

“You let go!” Hua Qiye saw the action of flowers all over the sky, and his eyes suddenly showed a fierce light.

Flowers all over the sky, although afraid, but still shameless against the door.

“Die!” Huaqiye will go wild in an instant. Open the door directly and kick the flowers out of the sky with one foot.

“Young master!” The servants of the back flower family immediately went to pick it up. But I didn’t find the right place, so I let the flowers fall directly to the ground.

“Overestimate oneself!” Hua Qiye said he would close the door again.

“What’s going on?” The voice of Hua Wenfeng behind suddenly came.

“Oh. Dad, it’s all right. It’s just that the boy from the flower family came to make trouble.” Hua Qiye has a plain face.

“Flower house?” Hua Wenfeng came to the door and said, “open the door.”

“But...” Hua Qiye was a little stunned. He just sent the flowers away. Now he wants to open the door again. Isn’t that hitting him in the face?

It’s just that the other party is his own father. It doesn’t seem to be a way not to open it.

So huaqiye reluctantly opened the door again.

At this time, the flowers were being pulled up from the ground and saw the door open again. He seemed to forget his pain and ran up again to look at Hua Wenfeng and said:

“Grandpa Feng, it’s me, man Tian. I used to play with Xu Wan when I was a child. Now she’s married without a word. I really...”

When I said it, I was also full of voice and emotion, and even had the impulse to cry.

“Well, come in.” Hua Wenfeng didn’t stop him any more. He directly let flowers all over the sky into Washington.

At this time, Hua Qiye just stood behind Hua Wenfeng. Hua Mantian hurriedly gave him another gift: “Hey, Young Marshal Hua.”

Hua Qiye ignored him, but followed behind Hua Wenfeng with a straight face.

He didn’t know Hua Wenfeng’s intention, but he knew that his father always did things for a reason and wouldn’t aim at nothing, so he didn’t say anything now.

In this way, the flowers came to a small attic inside Washington, and Hua Wenfeng entertained him with his own superior tea.

“I don’t want to talk to the bridegroom since I was a child. In fact, I don’t want to talk to her this time. I’m not willing to be married with her now.”

Hua Wenfeng said as he made tea.

“Bridal chamber.” Hua Mantian suddenly said to herself, and her expression was full of loss.

He had thought that Hua xuwan hadn’t found a boyfriend for so many years, just because he was waiting for him. He didn’t expect everything to become so fast. In a twinkling of an eye, people had already married.

“Oh, my God, don’t be discouraged. Xu Wan of our family has long said that she and you are just ordinary playmates. With such good conditions, you can choose a large number of beauties in the whole empire. Why do you always hold Xu Wan here?”

Hua Wenfeng was persuasive.

“I know, I know.” The flower answered with a dull look.

At this time, in the room, Xiao Chen’s hair had been completely cut off and looked very handsome.

“By the way, I haven’t taken a bath for three days. Can you take a bath?” Xiao Chen seemed to think of something and asked.

“Oh, yes, it’s right here. Towels and everything are ready for you.” Hua xuwan said and pointed out a position to Xiao Chen.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 375

“OK.” Xiao Chen said and took off his clothes and went in.

At this time, Hua xuwan was a little shy again.

At this time, she couldn't help smelling Xiao Chen's short clothes, but she didn't want to take them off. At this time, she even wanted to take them off.

“Hua xuwan, what do you think! You're just a fake marriage!” Hua xuwan slapped himself in the face.

But I didn't expect that I exerted too much force and accidentally called out.

Xiao Chen inside seemed to hear it, so he leaned out his head and asked, “what's the matter?”

“Oh. Nothing, nothing...” Hua xuwan responded quickly.

Soon. Xiao Chen washed it out.

Looking at Xiao Chen coming out, Hua xuwan felt his heart beat a lot faster.

“I have to say that the conditions here are different. Even in the hotel, it's not as easy to use as your water heater. It's very comfortable to wash.” Xiao Chen put on his clothes while admiring the bath tools in Washington.

“Hey, why is your face a little red? Someone just came in?” Xiao Chen suddenly found a red handprint on Hua xuwan's face.

“Ah... No, no, that's when I just wanted to fight mosquitoes.” Hua xuwan hurriedly found a reason.

“Mosquitoes?” Xiao Chen felt a little strange. Where did the mosquitoes come from in this cold day?

But since Hua xuwan didn't want to say, he didn't need to ask any more.

"It should be almost time now? I'll go out first." Xiao Chen said and walked out the door.

"Hey..." Hua xuwan was about to stop talking.

"What's the matter? Is there anything else I need to do?" Xiao Chen looked back and asked.

"No, you go." Hua xuwan lowered his eyes.

After all, it's just a fake marriage. If it's true, the man can't go out now because he wants to stay and talk with the woman and increase his feelings.

Hua xuwan thought for some reason. A sense of sadness suddenly rose in her heart, as if all this was not what she wanted.

It turned out that she was very resistant to marriage, just because she didn't meet the right person. Now Xiao Chen is a man who already has a wife, but in her opinion, this is the man she wants most.

Now Xiao Chen has no affection for herself. Just to complete your task.

Although this is indeed understandable, in Hua xuwan's view, this matter has caused some harm to her.

Of course, Xiao Chen didn't know what Hua xuwan was thinking at this time. He just felt that the old lady of the Hua family who seemed to have a bad temper was actually quite considerate sometimes.

For example, now that she has not delayed anything she wants to do, life may be much simpler in the future.

Originally, he thought he would be in trouble when he met Hua xuwan. Such a young lady will have many rules.

But now it seems that she doesn't have too many requirements, so he can carry out his task without worry.

Thinking so, Xiao Chen came to the hall. Originally, he wanted to communicate with Hua Wenfeng about the mission.

But I didn't expect to see a familiar person – flowers all over the sky.

“Xiao Chen!” The flower looked up and saw Xiao Chen.

Although Xiao Chen's appearance has changed a little, it is not a change. If people who don't know him see it, they may still not recognize it for a time, but if they know him, the situation is different. For example, now that the flowers are all over the sky, he can recognize Xiao Chen at a glance.

“Have you finished your work?” Hua Wenfeng asked meaningfully.

“Ah?” Xiao Chen didn't react for a moment. Then he suddenly remembered that he had come to get married, so he quickly nodded: “it's done. She's still resting.”

“Done?” When Hua Mantian heard this, a trace of jealousy rose in his heart. Although Hua Wenfeng had told him this fact before, now he heard it again from Xiao Chen, which still made him feel a little difficult to accept.

After all, it was the woman she loved from childhood to most, so she was occupied by a man who didn't know where to come from.

I don't think anyone can figure it out.

Hua Mantian is in the same mood now. He can't understand why Hua Wenfeng chose Xiao Chen, a hick.

Although when he was in Wuling, he knew that there were some forces behind Xiao Chen. But isn't it all from Hua Wenfeng? Now I've brought him home. What's the secret?

"Talk to you two young people. I'll go out for a walk." Hua Wenfeng then picked up his leading crutch and walked outside.

"Slow down!" Xiao Chen ordered behind his back.

After a while, there were flowers and Xiao Chen left in the whole hall.

"What means did you use? Hua is usually lukewarm to people of our generation. Why did he come to you, not only to help you finish what you want to do in Wuling, but also to give you his granddaughter when he came back?"

Hua Mantian immediately questioned Xiao Chen.

"How do I know? Maybe it's because of my strong personal charm. I can't explain this matter." Xiao Chen spread her hand and made a helpless gesture.

"Just fart! I know more about China than you do. He will take a fancy to you because of this? You don't boast like that." Flowers are all over the sky, with a sullen face.

"Then since you don't believe me, what else do you ask?" Xiao Chen said calmly.

"Hum, I won't ask you, I'll ask Xu Wan!" Flowers all over the sky said they were going to walk towards their wedding room.

"Hey, what are you doing? Now she's my wife. We just got married. What are you doing? She needs a rest now!" Xiao Chen immediately pulled him.

"I don't believe it! You and she are definitely not really married!" The flowers are all over the sky. At this time, they insist.

“Husband... What are you doing?” At this time, Hua xuwan suddenly came into the hall with a crimson face.

Seeing the ruddy color on Hua xuwan’s face, the flowers were all over the sky. At this time, I was silly.

This only happens on the faces of married women. Is it true that they are not acting?

“Xu Wan, are you really with him?” Flowers all over the sky asked in great amazement.

“Yes.” Hua xuwan nodded slightly shyly.

Seeing that Hua xuwan nodded, Hua Mantian almost didn’t stand firm and fell directly into the chair behind him.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 376

“Husband, I was a little uncomfortable just now. Come and have a look.” Hua xuwan said and took Xiao Chen’s hand.

Seeing the appearance of Hua xuwan, Xiao Chen couldn’t help swallowing a mouthful of saliva.

This woman is so changeable. She just looked very serious. Now she looks like this. How can it become like a delicate peach? People are itching to see it.

But Xiao Chen woke up immediately. He knew that this was Hua xuwan’s trick, in order not to let the flowers all over the sky have doubts. After all, his identity was extraordinary.

So Xiao Chen also stood up and took Hua xuwan into his arms: “madam. Maybe I hurt you just now. Come on, I can learn medicine and I’ll mend it for you.”

So they walked into their room.

As soon as he entered the door, Hua xuwan immediately pushed Xiao Chen away: “what are you talking about? What a shame!”

“Oh, then you’re not ashamed of what you said? As soon as you came out, it was one sentence: husband ~, it scared my goose bumps out.” Xiao Chen is also in charge at this time. Anyway, both of them are acting.

“Why do you do this to a girl? Are you still not a man?” Hua xuwan immediately looked at Xiao Chen angrily.

“What’s the matter? I haven’t done anything to you. Aren’t we all just acting? Now just spend all day believing.” Xiao Chen said calmly.

“Hum!” Hua xuwan seemed dissatisfied, but she didn’t continue to say anything.

The flowers are all over the sky. At this time, I understand that I am completely dead.

It really shows that there is something between them that can make a woman like Hua xuwan behave like that.

He knew there was no point in sitting here and waiting. So he got up and prepared to leave.

“Yes, thank you, Mr. Hua, for giving me this opportunity to see the truth. Goodbye!” Hua Mantian said with a gloomy face and walked in the direction of the gate.

Looking at the back of flowers, Hua Wenfeng knew that his plan had succeeded again this time.

At this time, Xiao Chen came out of the room again.

“Mr. Hua, can we discuss with you about this mission now?”

“Of course.” Hua Wenfeng nodded and smiled.

“Shall we choose a safer place?” Xiao Chen asked.

“No, just here. It’s quite safe here.” Hua Wenfeng said and sat down on an old-fashioned chair.

“That’s good.” Xiao Chen also sat down.

“This time, we mainly need to find some traitors within our empire. At present, I have only found one situ family, and now the situation in Kyoto has not been determined. The situ family in Wuling has disappeared.”

Xiao Chen said the information he already knew.

“There is also a Chen family. Now the evidence has been found.” Hua Wenfeng added.

“Chen family. Is that the family I met when I came here earlier?” Xiao Chen recalled that she had come here with Nangong Lengshan before.

“Yes, you found out after you left. Now they have been controlled. Many families know this secretly, so now they are not the focus.” Hua Wenfeng nodded.

“Please make it clear that we need to focus on those families.” Xiao Chen continued to ask.

“This still needs you to explore slowly. Now the situation in the whole world wants to be tense. I don’t have time to deal with these things. Just deal with it by yourself.” Hua Wenfeng doesn’t seem to have a deep understanding of this area.

“Oh, talking?” Huaqiye also happened to pass by the small pavilion here at this time. Seeing that they were chatting here, they came together.

“Hua Shaoshuai, now do you know the situation here in Kyoto? Can you analyze it with me?” Xiao Chen asked again immediately when he saw him.

“I just know a little about this, but if you want to check, you can start from several big families in the north.” Hua Qiye smiled and said.

“North?” Xiao Chen thought for a moment and immediately remembered a family he had seen in the book given by his grandfather – cangbei family.

He once met this family in the East China Sea. It seems that it is also the top 10 family in Kyoto. The main industries of the family are several industrial chains of heavy industry. It mainly makes some large excavation machines and so on.

“Well, thank you for reminding me.” Xiao Chen wrote it down.

“Also, when you go out to investigate, you must be careful not to be seen by the people of the flower family or the Xuanyuan family. This will have a bad impact.” Hua Wenfeng explained on one side.

“Oh, OK.” Xiao Chen nodded.

Although he didn't know the reason why Hua Wenfeng said such words, he knew that Hua Wenfeng wouldn't be aimless.

So he doesn't need to know the reason for these things.

“I'll send two experts to follow you.” Hua Qiye added.

“Yes.” Xiao Chen still nodded. Although no one in the Empire could hurt him, after all, this was also the meaning of the Chinese family, and he also knew that the other party needed to send someone to monitor him.

Now all kinds of spies are fighting in the whole world, so I don't know who's identity is. Maybe I'm a teammate one second ago, and I'll be an enemy the next.

In fact, such things are not uncommon. The Chinese family did so just to prevent it from happening.

“Then I'll write this down. Do you have anything else to say?” Xiao Chen said and looked at them.

“That's about it. You'd better not rush to investigate. We need patience. Although the situation outside is tense, we don't worry. The key is to find out who is really hiding.”

Hua Qiye nodded aside.

“OK, I will certainly remember your teachings.” Xiao Chen continued to nod.

“Well, I also remember to play the trick fully today. When you take xuwan to Yueliangwan in the evening, the more people see it, the better.” Hua Qiye said and took a look at Xiao Chen and Hua xuwan's current room.

Obviously, he is still a little worried about his baby daughter.

“OK.” Xiao Chen promised to come down.

Everything seems to be so determined. Xiao Chen knows that he may not be very busy in the next period of time, but he needs to be very careful.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 377

While the three were almost chatting, Hua xuwan came out of the room.

Seeing the appearance of Hua xuwan, Hua Qiye hurriedly came forward and said, "you silly child, you can't come out now, you know?"

"But it's so boring for me to stay in the room alone. No one talks with me or anything." Hua xuwan tooted his mouth slightly.

"But you can't come out now. Go back quickly, or you'll be exposed later. It'll be difficult!" Hua Qiye persuaded. He also walked up to take her to the room.

At this time, there was a sudden noise at the gate, and Hua Qiye hurried to take Hua xuwan away.

Then a group of attendants accompanied a man who liked more than half a hundred last year to the courtyard where Xiao Chen and Hua Wenfeng were located.

"Oh, you are both here? This must be my uncle?" The man laughed and showed a very kind expression on his face, which seemed quite approachable.

But Hua Wenfeng's face was not very good-looking, and Xiao Chen instinctively realized that this man was a bad comer.

"Guo Shuai, why are you free to visit my humble abode? I should be very busy outside recently." Hua Wenfeng asked quietly.

"No, it's not. Just after the M country finished their action, I have time to come back and breathe. I just heard the news that our chief star will marry our granddaughter. Can I say it? Come on, send me the things."

Guo Xiangshan still kept a smile on her face, but there was some strange brilliance flashing in her eyes. Xiao Chen looked at all this, but didn't say anything, but waited for each other's gift.

“Ha ha! Ha ha! Dong!”

After a while, a huge bell was lifted up, which seemed to weigh at least three or four hundred kilograms.

The big men came to the courtyard and put the clock on the ground with great effort, but it still made a loud noise.

When he saw the clock, Hua Wenfeng’s eyes narrowed slightly and there was a trace of displeasure on his face.

“How’s it going? Hua Lao, this gift is OK. It’s a imitation Chinese product I bought at a great price. You must keep it!” The smile on Guo Xiangshan’s face became deeper and deeper.

“Hum, my surname is Guo. Although I don’t know where I offended you, you can scold me if you want, fight me if you want, and dismiss me if you want. But do you really want to be the enemy on my granddaughter’s happy day?”

Hua Wenfeng stood up as soon as he patted the stone table.

“Hua Lao, how can you say that about me? I’m sending such a big bell on your granddaughter’s happy day. This is to bless the two new couples to grow old together. Look, I sent the bell directly. Isn’t it not sincere enough?”

Guo Xiangshan pretended to be a little wronged and said.

“Mr. Guo, although I don’t know why you targeted me on my wedding day, I must remind you that your bell is not imitated from the Han Dynasty. And it was imitated earlier.”

Xiao Chen kindly reminded him with a smile.

“Oh, don’t you know this, boy?” When Guo Xiangshan heard this, his face suddenly looked strange.

“Understand a little bit, and your sculptor is really poor. I guess only those who collect rags will want them outside. But since you like such rags, I’m going to take them reluctantly.”

“But if you see your big clock in a waste company one day, don’t blame me for not reminding you first.”

Xiao Chen is neither hot nor cold.

“Hum, boy, you seem to be good at looking for trouble. OK, I’ll show you whether it imitates Han!” Guo Xiangshan said and said to several men behind him, “open it!”

After hearing this, several men immediately opened several similar buckle parts on the clock, and then several people forced to open the outer layer of the clock. There was another bell inside.

It doesn’t look as big as the one outside, but the pattern carving on it is quite clear, with a trace of master style.

“How about it? Is this a work imitating the Han Dynasty? Is this craft particularly exquisite?” Guo Xiangshan said proudly. It seemed that he had expected this step long ago.

Seeing that it seemed that Xiao Chen was going to suffer a loss, Hua Wenfeng immediately said to Guo Xiangshan:

“Guo Xiangshan, you are not welcome here. Now take your things for me and get out now!”

“Slow.” Xiao Chen suddenly stood up and walked in front of the big clock: “generally speaking, this kind of vessel in the Han Dynasty is quite strong, because they used the bronze technology at that time, and paid more attention to the durability of this vessel than the current tempering technology.”

“Then I’ll try. What degree have you imitated the bronze ware of Han Dynasty?”

Xiao Chen said, a trace of vitality ran in his hand, and then seemed very relaxed and comfortable to beat on the big clock.

“Dong!” A very dull voice came out, and everyone was amazed at Xiao Chen’s palm power. He could beat the ground at once, and the big clock made such a loud noise.

But then something even more amazing happened. I don’t know what happened to the big clock. It began to appear cracks one after another. Finally, it broke directly like a vase.

The debris fell all over the floor.

“It seems that your imitation is not fine enough. I slapped it gently. Now that it’s broken, it’s really not very interesting. We have to sell it as scrap iron.” Xiao Chen spread her hands and looked helpless.

“You! I spent a lot of money to build this big clock. You smashed it like this. You’re wasting art, you know!” Guo Xiangshan didn’t expect that all the bronze clocks he brought could be broken by Xiao Chen. Originally, he just came to ridicule Hua Wenfeng on purpose.

Although he and Hua Wenfeng now belong to the relationship between superiors and subordinates, Hua Wenfeng is old after all, and his prestige in the whole empire is much higher than him. Therefore, many times, he wants to say something or have any task arrangement in the whole Corps.

Will be restrained by Hua Wenfeng. In the back, the marshal of his empire is just like decoration and has no real power, so he has long been dissatisfied with Hua Wenfeng. Originally, Hua Wenfeng was going to die, and he thought his spring was coming.

But I didn’t expect him to live again.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 378

But not only live, but also live well, full of energy and spirit. It seems that there will be no problem in another thirty or fifty years.

As the marshal of the whole imperial corps, Guo Xiangshan had nothing to pursue in his life. But at least something needs to be done, so that when it is recorded in history, some achievements can be written.

But now he's retiring. The Huawei peak is still in the nest of the dove and the magpie. How can he bear it? This is not the first time he has come to deliberately annoy Hua Wenfeng.

Every new year's day, he must find a way to make trouble here in Washington, whether it has any effect or not. In fact, it's obvious that you don't make me comfortable in my career.

I won't let you have a comfortable life. Let's not think about peace.

I just didn't expect to kill a Cheng Yaojin on the way today, which broke his farce. Moreover, it didn't leave him any sympathy. It broke a copper clock directly.

"If anything like you can be called a work of art, do you think I'm an art?" Xiao Chen said, picked up a piece of copper directly, and then pinched it casually in his hand. Unexpectedly, he pinched out the appearance of a thousand paper cranes.

The people present were shocked again. What was this man's hand made of? Is he a robot? This is a piece of copper. It's very difficult for ordinary people to break it. And Xiao Chen turned out that the copper piece was generally folding thousands of paper cranes as a piece of paper!

Knowing that he had hit a nail today, Guo Xiangshan gave a thumbs up and said, "OK, your boy is tough enough. Don't let me meet you in Kyoto! Let's go!"

With one big move, he left Washington with his entourage.

"Good. Mr. Xiao Chen is really not an ordinary person. These people are scared to death by his copper pieces and paper cranes!" After seeing this scene, Wenfeng couldn't help laughing.

In the past, when Guo Xiangshan came to make trouble, he didn't have any good way. Every time, he could only directly bombard him away, although it was effective. But in fact, I have lost a layer in face.

It's just that Guo Xiangshan is his superior after all, and he can't do anything special to this person, so Guo Xiangshan is becoming more and more arrogant, so this will happen today.

“What’s the origin of the man surnamed Guo just now? Is he from any big family in Kyoto?” Xiao Chen was not particularly happy at this time. He just took his copper box and slowly sat down in the pavilion. As he walked, he asked about Guo Xiangshan.

“This guy is my boss. He has always been restrained by me in everything he does, so he is dissatisfied with me. Before you came, he would come to our house every new year’s day. I’m getting used to it.”

Hua Wenfeng had a plain face and seemed to be saying something he was really used to.

“Oh? Your superior?” Xiao Chen frowned slightly and said, “isn’t that the position below one person and above ten thousand people in the Empire? Why do you have to deal with you and be restrained by you?”

“It’s a long story. Let me briefly say that his current position can dispatch the three armies, right?” Hua Wenfeng said slowly.

“Yes.” Lin Chen nodded, which should be clear to everyone.

“But the problem is that he is actually a monk halfway. It turns out that he has nothing to do with our Corps, but he did well in his original post, so he was transferred, but the situation here is actually different from his original job.”

Hua Wenfeng said, picking up the tea at hand and sipping it. Then he continued: “so, he is not as sophisticated as me in the arrangement and planning of many things. People under many things listen to me, so he is naturally a little unconvinced.”

“Oh, so it is.” Xiao Chen understood. To put it bluntly, Guo Xiangshan didn’t want to admit that he was worse than Hua Wenfeng.

However, in the Corps, everyone is a martial artist and doesn’t have much culture. For many things, they also pay more attention to practice, so the leadership of Hua Wenfeng is certainly more effective.

Naturally, few people listen to some of his orders. It’s understandable to make such a fuss.

“This guy is actually angry. However, he is still thinking about the Empire wholeheartedly, so you don’t have to care too much about his affairs. Just let him go. He can do whatever he likes.” Hua Wenfeng said faintly.

“I see.” Xiao Chen nodded again.

“It was just Guo Xiangshan. Did the old guy come again?” At this time, Hua Qiye also came back from the room. It seems that she should have explained some things to Hua xuwan, otherwise it wouldn’t take so long to send her to the room.

“Well, I was driven away by Xiao Chen twice. It’s really our blessing that Xiao Chen comes to our house now.” Hua Wenfeng smiled and said.

“Xiao Chen, come here and I’ll tell you something.” Hua Qiye suddenly winked at Xiao Chen in a very mysterious way.

“Ah? This...” Xiao Chen glanced at Hua Wenfeng. Is there anything that can’t be said openly here? Is there any outsider here.

Hua Wenfeng was very knowledgeable. Hearing what Hua Qiye said, he also pushed the boat along the river and said, “well, anyway, I have nothing to talk to you about. Just talk to Hua Qiye.”

“That’s good.” Xiao Chen then stood up, bowed respectfully to Hua Wenfeng, and then followed Hua Qiye.

After a while, they came to a side hall in Washington. In fact, it was strange. Xiao Chen saw that Washington didn’t have much area from the outside, but when he came in, he found that there were all kinds of conference halls hidden everywhere.

However, this is also in line with the situation that the Chinese family are all star generals and various positions.

“Xiao Chen, in fact, there is one thing I have to ask you.” As soon as Hua Qiye came to the side hall, he began to pour tea for Xiao Chen.

“It’s all right. I’ll do it myself.” Xiao Chen hurried forward to catch the tea poured out by the other party.

“Well, Hua xuwan is actually a little weak since she was a child, and she has some problems with her heart. So, it’s just that you’re here. Why don’t you give her acupuncture every day?” Hua Qiye was not polite to Xiao Chen, so he put forward his request directly.

“This.....” Xiao Chen immediately felt a little flustered. After all, the Taichu treasure dew in his body has failed.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 379

Because in the last battle, most of the big explosion of the desert God of war actually was the ability of Taichu Baolu to keep Xiao Chen alive, although the mysterious spaceship of the Empire came out again.

But it was only to rescue Xiao Chen from that space. All the replies depended on the yin-yang Qi flowing in the Taichu treasure dew.

Therefore, there is no yin-yang Qi in Xiao Chen’s body, which means that his medical skills are gone. That’s why he can’t even solve his symptom of growing hair all the time.

But I haven’t waited for Xiao Chen to finish. Hua Qiye took a selfie, patted Xiao Chen on the shoulder and said, “I know, it’s no big deal. You are now husband and wife in the traditional sense. It’s not impossible for you to meet honestly at that time.”

“So don’t have any pressure. I talked to Xu Wan. She has no opinion on this matter. So you can do it safely and boldly.”

“No... i...” Xiao Chen wanted to explain something. Hua Qiye was very determined and said, “really, don’t worry. I’ve called all kinds of greetings. With your medical skills, I can handle it at one time. Well, stop talking, otherwise I won’t be happy for a while.”

With that, Hua Qiye hugged Xiao Chen's shoulder with his hand and took him to the courtyard again.

"Your whispers are over?" Hua Wenfeng smiled when he saw them coming out.

"Well, it's all unimportant. What's the matter? Does Xiao Chen have anything else to ask about Kyoto?" Hua Qiye has a plain face.

"No, I'm going to start tomorrow. I'll go to Cang's house to investigate first." Xiao Chen straightened his face and said.

"Well, that's good." Hua Wenfeng and Hua Qiye both nodded, as if they would not interfere with Xiao Chen's arrangement.

After talking about all this, Xiao Chen returned to the room again.

I just went back to my room. Hua xuwan immediately shouted, "stop, you can't get too close to me, you know!"

"Ah?" Xiao Chen was confused. He didn't know what the girl was doing, so he put the information in a cabinet.

"Your father said, that..." Xiao Chen was just about to explain something to Hua xuwan. Hua xuwan immediately interrupted Xiao Chen with a red face: "don't say anything. I won't agree!"

"No, I mean..." Xiao Chen wanted to continue to explain, but Hua xuwan immediately picked up two pillows on the bed and covered his ears. "I can't hear! I can't hear!..."

Seeing this scene, Xiao Chen was really helpless. He just wants to tell the other party that his medical skills are gone. As for the conditioning, he can actually invite some traditional Chinese medicine outside. It happens that Ning Wangshu should be here in Kyoto. He can also call Ning Wangshu.

However, seeing Hua xuwan like this, Xiao Chen had to say nothing more.

Time soon came the next day. In order to keep a distance, Xiao Chen put together several chairs in the room. I slept all night, although it was not particularly comfortable. But he was almost practicing, so he didn't feel anything.

Xiao Chen went out early to investigate things related to the Cang family.

Now, due to the problem of identity, and the cards on his predecessor were all destroyed in that battle.

So now he is almost penniless. Fortunately, huaqiye has considered this matter, so he has prepared a sum of money for him. Although it is not much, but his daily life in Kyoto is enough.

After entering Washington, Xiao Chen also learned. In fact, Washington is not particularly rich, and the people in the whole yard are usually quite simple.

Moreover, he was surprised to find that Hua xuwan, as the eldest lady of such a family, seldom buys expensive clothes and bags.

So look at the whole. Xiao Chen has a deep affection for the Chinese family. After all, it's not easy to maintain such an attitude towards life in such a position.

Sitting on the bus, Xiao Chen has been thinking about how to act after Cang's family.

Just then, someone in the car screamed. Unexpectedly, an old man suddenly fainted in the car.

"Hospital! Master! Send it to the hospital!" The old ladies on the side all turned pale with fear.

I saw the old man twitching on the ground and foaming at his mouth.

Although Xiao Chen doesn't have the ability to treat people now, he can still recognize this situation. It's a case of draught, so he used to want to help the old man up first, but then he found that the old man seems to have a draught plus a stroke.

In other words, if we don't deal with it urgently now, the old man is likely to be unable to hold on until he is sent to the hospital.

"Water! Who has water!" Xiao Chen immediately shouted.

"I have!" At this time, a woman sitting in the back stood up.

Xiao Chen didn't have time to see her appearance, so she directly took the water from the other party's hands. Then Xiao Chen immediately poured the water on the old man to cool him down, which can effectively reduce the symptoms of convulsion.

But the effect is still too small.

In desperation, Xiao Chen had to take out the silver needle he carried with him and try it.

He doesn't have the Qi of yin and Yang in his body and almost has no medical skills, but it's important to save people now. He can only be a dead horse as a living horse.

After pulling out the silver needle, Xiao Chen recalled that his grandfather had taught him the first aid method. He pricked several acupoints on the old man's forehead, and then found several acupoints on him.

After a while, the symptoms of the old man's convulsion were significantly reduced, and the people around him were relieved.

Several men also gave Xiao Chen a thumbs up: "miracle doctor! Little miracle doctor!"

Finally, in the eyes of everyone's admiration, Xiao Chen got out of the car.

Because the old man was sent to the hospital, the bus had to return to the starting point again. Xiao Chen had to take a bus.

Just as Xiao Chen got off the bus and came to the platform to wait for the bus, suddenly a gentle voice like the warm sun came up: "Hello, sir."

Xiao Chen looked back and found a young girl just staring at herself. Her smart eyes seemed to be able to speak.

"Are you looking for me?" Xiao Chen asked slightly hesitantly.

"Yes, I'm looking for you. I just gave you water in the car. Have you forgotten?" The girl smiled and felt comfortable like the spring breeze.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 380

"Oh, I remember. What's the matter? Can I help you?" Xiao Chen remembered the identity of the girl in front of him. At that time, the situation was very urgent, so he didn't care about looking at each other's appearance.

Now calm down and have a look. I found that the other party's appearance was quite good, and there was almost no make-up. Although the dress looks a little mature, it may actually be female students and so on.

Because except for some students, Xiao Chen can't think of any kind of women who don't dress up in Kyoto.

Here in Kyoto, you may pull a person casually on the road. It is likely to be the senior management of a group or the boss of a company, or the senior management of some empires. After all, it is the center of the whole empire and a big city that many people yearn for.

Almost everyone is very busy every day. Because of the pressure and competition, few people will have the leisure to wander around. Looking at the woman's appearance, she doesn't seem to be in a hurry because she took the bus to the hospital.

Many passengers have to find another one. In fact, the time lost is very valuable to many people, but the girl looks indifferent. There are only two possible situations.

Or she has a special task like Xiao Chen. Or she is currently a vagrant without a job. Now she can wander around at will, and nothing has any restriction on her.

"I don't need your help. I'm just very curious about your medical skills." The girl then smiled, gently pulled her hair and said, "my name is Zhao Yuxi. I'm an intern in the hospital of traditional Chinese medicine in Kyoto. I'm an intern."

"Oh, Hello, my name is Xiao Chen." Xiao Chen quickly responded. Only then did she understand why the other party stared at herself. It turned out that she was an intern in the hospital of traditional Chinese medicine.

It's not surprising to keep up with yourself. It seems that you should be more interested in your own medical skills. But Xiao Chen's medical skills were forced out. Just now he didn't even know how to save the old man. Now what can we talk about when facing a person who really wants to become a doctor?

Anyway? Xiao Chen still hardened her head and chatted with Zhao Yuxi.

"The acupuncture you just did is amazing. It can be said that few doctors in Kyoto have your acupuncture. I think you must be a very powerful descendant of old Chinese medicine! Are you a disciple of Qi, a disciple of the elder, or a descendant of the sun family?"

Zhao Yuxi asked the names of several families at once, but Xiao Chen had never heard of any of them. It didn't appear on the information given by my grandfather.

"I'm not a famous family. I'm just from other places. I just come here to do business." Xiao Chen quickly explained his identity clearly, otherwise God knows which direction Zhao Yuxi is going to guess.

“Oh. Well, you must be the son of a powerful medical family in other places? Your last name is quite rare.” Zhao Yuxi said, and the light of admiration flashed in his eyes.

Xiao Chen was a little uncomfortable with such eyes, so he waved his hand and said, “Miss Zhao, in fact, I just tried casually. My own medical skills are not high. If you want to find me to guide your medical skills, you may be disappointed.”

“How could it be? Your medical skills are so excellent. I don’t believe you must say so for modesty and to avoid me.” Zhao Yuxi immediately denied Xiao Chen’s statement.

Xiao Chen was helpless. But what he said is true. Zhao Yuxi doesn’t believe it, and he doesn’t have any way.

“Miss Zhao, you really have to believe me. Even if I can do this, can I teach you on the street? You have also learned traditional Chinese medicine. You know that this discipline needs to be accumulated slowly by practice and experience.”

I hope Zhao Mingchen can understand what he means.

“I.....” Zhao Yuxi said and suddenly lowered his eyes. It seemed that Xiao Chen mentioned something sad about her. After a while, he was still sobbing.

Xiao Chen suddenly got confused. He didn’t do anything. Why did the sister cry?

Just wanted to comfort her, suddenly several good people came over: “why, boy, you are a big man bullying a woman in broad daylight. What kind of hero? Get up, I want to fight with you alone!”

The person who spoke immediately put on a posture and seemed very professional. Several people on the side naturally retreated to one side, as if they were ready to see a good play.

Some people around avoided this scene, while others didn’t see it. It seems that such things happen from time to time on the streets of Kyoto. Everyone reacted quite quickly, as if they were used to it.

Although Xiao Chen had some doubts, he was still ready to explain. At this time, Zhao Yuxi suddenly raised his head and saw the posture of the big man in front of him. He couldn't help crying out: "ah! What are you doing?"
