The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 41

“Yes, the boss said yes!” Bald head quickly apologized.

Dillon took out another cigarette and took a deep breath. There was a strange light in his eyes.

“It looks like we’re going to ask the one to do it.”

“You mean the one in prison?” Asked the man on the side.

“Get ready. I’ll see him myself.” Dillon didn’t answer, but arranged his clothes, went out, sat on an Audi and left.

Someone did call the police last night. But at last, the police came and asked Xiao Chen to go back, took a confession and let him go. Instead, he convicted a group of people of gathering people to fight.

The captain of the police station strongly invited Xiao Chen to sleep in the high-end hotel next to the police station. They came and paid the room rate.

But Xiao Chen refused, saying it was to avoid gossip.

Finally, Xiao Chen spent the night in a small hotel.

I woke up and found several unread messages in my mobile phone.

One of them was sent by Liu Xue to herself. Said he wanted to meet him and talk more.

In addition, several messages were sent by Chen Huimin, saying that Disney in the East China Sea was completed this weekend and invited him to be the first batch of tourists.

A few more were sent by Zhang Xian, mainly telling him the trial results of the last hospital.

After looking through the circle of friends, I found that Wu Yaqing's recent comments were all about her loneliness.

Xiao Chen couldn't help moving in her heart.

Let's go to the medical school!

On the bus, Xiao Chen suddenly received a call from Dong Wu, vice president of the central hospital.

Although he didn't know why the other party had his own contact information, Xiao Chen listened to him first.

"Doctor Xiao, it's like this. We have a special seminar on traditional Chinese medicine. Now several famous experts from abroad are present. It seems that they are here to kick the house. Now our doctors are not good enough. Can you come here?"

Hearing that foreign western medicine came to smash the field of traditional Chinese medicine, Xiao Chen frowned in an instant.

"OK, wait for me for a while. I'll get there as soon as possible."

Originally I wanted to have a look around the hospital. It seems that God is doomed that there is no fate between them.

When the bus passes by. Xiao Chen took a quick look at the situation of the hospital.

It seems that the business of the hospital is not as good as it used to be. It may also be because he left.

After sorting out his thoughts, Xiao Chen went to the medical technology building of the central hospital.

Dong Wu walked around the door with his hands on his back. Seeing that the visitor was Xiao Chen, he immediately greeted him with a smile.

“Here you are, doctor Xiao. Come on. It’s up there!”

Just on the fifth floor, a beautiful young nurse brought Xiao Chen a white coat.

There is also a nameplate with Xiao Chen’s name on it.

However, there was some doubt in the little nurse’s eyes. She thought it was an old master of traditional Chinese medicine who was coming.

I didn’t expect such a young man to be clean. But it’s just too shabby.

After changing clothes, the little nurse and Xiao Chen followed Dong Wu behind, and the little nurse deliberately kept a certain distance from Xiao Chen.

“Please come in, doctor Xiao. This is our competition of medical skills.”

As soon as I entered the door, I saw several doctors in white coats talking around a man lying on the hospital bed.

On the other side were three people from the United States. They are also wearing white coats, but they all have a bag in their hands. I don’t know what’s inside.

“Who is this?” A doctor noticed Xiao Chen and asked.

“This is doctor Xiao Chen!” Dong Wu said.

See him so young. A group of old doctors came over.

“Well... Dean Dong, are you mistaken? How can there be such a young old traditional Chinese medicine? Learning from the womb can't compare with any of us!” The doctor went to Dong Wu and whispered.

“Don't worry, I didn't make a mistake. This was introduced by an old leader I know in the city. He can do it. Other leaders believe him. What else can we doubt?” Dong Wu patted him on the shoulder.

All this was seen by Xiao Chen.

But he didn't say anything. He just observed the situation of the patients in the hospital bed.

Gently pressed on him and knew that he was a patient with kidney stones.

“What is this better than?” Xiao Chen asked Dong Wu standing aside.

“Several people over there claim to use advanced western medicine technology. It only takes less than ten minutes to eradicate kidney stones. So many Chinese medicine experts are working together to find a way, but we have to go back and drink the medicine for at least a few days to be effective.” Dong Wu replied.

Xiao Chen understood that the curative effect of traditional Chinese medicine is indeed slower, but its essence is to enhance people's own physique. On the whole, it is better than western medicine.

It is estimated that the speed of inviting Chinese doctors to lose is very fast.

“How's it going? Have you discussed it? Can we start?” The American doctor on one side said in a relatively stiff Chinese language.

“Hua Zibai, one of the doctors of traditional Chinese medicine, seems to think about it again.....”.

After all, Xiao Chen didn't say anything here. He had been looking at the patient's situation.

"Doctor Xiao, look..." Dong Wu was also worried.

"No problem. I've made a plan here." Xiao Chen answered easily.

The old doctors on one side were all dumbfounded.

You made a plan without saying anything?

"Well, wait, doctor Xiao, can you tell us the plan?"

One of the taller doctors interrupted Xiao Chen.

"It's very simple. This kidney stone is mainly in his left kidney. I'll just use acupuncture and massage a few times later." Xiao Chen didn't panic at all and talked freely.

"This... How is it possible? This kidney stone can be treated like this. Why do you need so many instruments?"

"That's right. Is your little doll talking in vain here?"

"Dean Dong, I think you are really mistaken. Is there something wrong with this boy? I doubt he is a charlatan!"

.....

For a time, several old doctors burst into flames and talked about it one after another.

“Have you had enough trouble? We’re still in a hurry. Since you can’t make a good plan, let’s use our instrument. We can ensure that the kidney stones can be solved within ten minutes!”

It seems that some Americans over there can’t wait.

The instrument in the bag was taken out and put on the patient.

After a while, the patient made a happy cry, then stood up and jumped back and forth.

“Oh, it’s really good. It doesn’t hurt at all.”

When the patient said this, he was slapping these old Chinese doctors in the face.

For a time, several old doctors felt that they couldn’t hang up on their face.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 42

One of the doctors looked at Xiao Chen with resentful eyes and said, “it’s all your fault. You didn’t help here at all, and you wasted everyone’s time. It’s more than enough to accomplish!”

“Doctor Xiao...” Dong Wu began to doubt now.

“Well, you’re all finished. It’s time to see me.” Xiao Chen never did it. It’s because the doctors in the three American countries over there were just operating the instruments.

If you don’t see how you do it, it’s not good to default.

The whole audience quieted down at his words. The needle dropping can be heard in the whole hall.

Is this boy really ready?

But now everyone has no choice but to treat the dead horse as a living horse doctor and let Xiao Chen do it.

“Bring me some silver needles.” Xiao Chen touched the patient’s stomach back and forth.

“Here comes the silver needle!” The little nurse hurriedly took out the silver needle from one side of the toolbox.

Xiao Chen stabbed down one by one, all stabbed at the accurate acupoints.

Then they were filled with a trace of disease.

Then he pushed the patient up with a cloud hand. He pushed back and forth on his back a few times. At the same time, the disease gas is also injected into the patient’s body.

In an instant, the patient also made a comfortable cry.

Then he stood up directly from the bed, more lively than the patient just now.

Because Xiao Chen not only cured his kidney stones, but also his kidney deficiency.

The whole process took less than three minutes.

“God, it’s God!” The doctor who was still scolding Xiao Chen was shocked beyond measure.

Several other doctors and the people present looked at Xiao Chen as if they were looking at immortals.

Dong Wu laughed: “I knew the old leader could be trusted!”

Three American doctors could not help but praise Xiao Chen for his excellent medical skills.

“Good! It’s amazing. Traditional Chinese medicine is amazing!”

Xiao Chen bowed low-key and said, “I’m rude. I just learned some fur.”

The people present were speechless when they heard this sentence.

You’ve learned some fur. What are they? Do you want to go back and start learning the basic theory of traditional Chinese medicine?

Doctors in three American countries were defeated by traditional Chinese medicine and had to lose and leave.

Dong Wu patted Xiao Chen on the shoulder: “it’s worthy of being a miracle doctor. You just pushed and pressed, it’s God!”

Xiao Chen smiled helplessly. In fact, where does he know any profound medical skills. It’s just taking advantage of the ill Qi of your own cultivation.

“Miracle doctor, I don’t know where you are?” Dong Wu chatted with Xiao Chen and talked about this problem.

But suddenly a group of little nurses appeared in front of Xiao Chen.

One eye is shining, like a flower maniac.

“Doctor Xiao Chen, sign for us!”

“Doctor Xiao Chen, you are so handsome. Do you have a girlfriend?”

“Doctor Xiao Chen...”

Suddenly surrounded by a group of beautiful women. Xiao Chen was embarrassed for a moment.

“Hey, how about going to work? What a formality!” Dong Wu also said with a smile.

Even so, there are still many young nurses peeking and talking about Xiao Chen.

“Doctor Xiao, you see these companions in our hospital are so enthusiastic about you. Do you want to consider coming to our hospital?” Dong Wu smiled.

“Ha ha, Dean Dong is very kind. I’ll think more about it on your side!” He can only go to work temporarily in this kind of environment. He can only see a doctor for a while.

“Sure! Doesn’t doctor Xiao have any transportation tools? Why don’t I have someone send you!” Before leaving. Dong wucai found that Xiao Chen didn’t drive here.

“Oh, no, I’m used to public transportation. Energy conservation and emission reduction, and make some contributions to the country.” Xiao Chen answered and left quickly.

Dong Wu looked at Xiao Chen’s back and couldn’t help admiring him.

“This is our pillar talent in China!”

Xiao Chen returned to the small hotel and stayed for another two days. There’s really no money in your pocket.

In desperation, I had to use my own black card from the world bank. You can only stay in the highest standard seven-star hotel in Donghai city.

The waitress in the hotel reception hall saw a young man in such poor clothes walking into the Seven Star Ruihua hotel.

They all cast disdainful eyes.

“This gentleman, do you want to stay or pack an hour room?”

Although despised. But there are still some professional qualities.

The welcoming ladies in the lobby of the hotel are all first-class beauties, which have a charming charm against the background of work uniforms.

Xiao Chen smiled, took out his black card and said, “please brush it. I’ll temporarily book a presidential suite for one year!”

The receptionist was shocked when she heard Xiao Chen say so. She seemed to doubt that she had heard wrong.

“Well, sir, please say it again. I’m really sorry. I didn’t hear it clearly!”

“I agreed to book a presidential suite for a year.” Xiao Chen repeated.

This sentence attracted people in the hall to cast strange eyes at him one after another.

Is this another rich man in the countryside?

After taking the black card in Xiao Chen’s hand, she saw nothing on it. The reception lady was a little suspicious.

Then I took it to the POS machine and brushed it. It showed that it was unrecognized.

Brush back and forth several times. The same reaction.

“Miss, you may need to try with the most advanced equipment on your side.” Xiao Chen kindly reminded.

“Sir, you can’t use this card. You’d better change it.” The receptionist didn’t seem to hear Xiao Chen’s words.

“Miss, I said you might need to brush it with the most advanced machine. My card is of high level.” Xiao Chen repeated again.

But the other welcoming ladies all covered their mouths and laughed.

Pick up a card on the ground and pretend to be a rich man in a seven-star hotel?

It’s shameless.

The receptionist kept smiling and said to Xiao Chen very kindly, “Sir, you can’t fool around here. If you disturb our work again, I can only inform the security guard.”

Xiao Chen also wanted to explain clearly to her, so she heard a familiar voice behind her.

“Brother Xiao Chen!” Chen Huimin’s sweet voice came.

“Miss Chen, are you here, too?” Xiao Chen was a little embarrassed and waved a hello.

“Don’t call me Miss Chen, just call me Huimin.” Chen Huimin came to Xiao Chen.

“My father wants to see an important client, so he arranged for me to come and book a room first. How about you?”

Seeing that their relationship was so close, the waitress on one side and the waitress who was laughing at Xiao Chen widened their eyes.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 43

“Chen... Miss Chen, do you know this gentleman?” The receptionist felt that she couldn’t speak clearly.

Chen Wen and his family are frequent visitors here, because investors from outside often want to meet and talk about business.

Generally, the first meeting is not suitable at home, so it is more appropriate to book in a hotel.

In order to show your identity, it is most appropriate to book in this seven-star Huarui hotel.

Moreover, Chen Wen and the boss of Huarui are good friends and college classmates. There is a 50% discount for almost every room reservation.

“Yes, brother Xiao Chen is the great savior of my family!” Chen Huimin wrinkled her small nose.

The receptionist almost fainted. Just now, she was still deliberately making trouble for the poor guy in front of her. She made it a long time and offended such a wonderful person.

That’s the Chen family, a famous real estate giant in Donghai city.

“Brother Xiao Chen, you haven’t answered me yet. What are you doing here?” Chen Huimin completely ignored the receptionist’s performance.

“Oh, I don’t have any cash for the time being, so I want to swipe my card here for a while, but this lady doesn’t want to believe me. This card can only be used with the most advanced card swiping machine.” Xiao Chen scratched the back of his head.

Chen Huimin recognized this card at a glance. It was the card he brushed in the bar that day.

“Brother Xiao Chen, you have no place to live. Why don’t you call me?” Chen Huimin said angrily.

“Well... Hey, I’m sorry to bother you again.” Xiao Chen said with a smile.

The female receptionist over there had neglected their chat and conversation. She took out the most advanced card swiping machine in the hotel and brushed the black card on it.

The string of figures made her think that the machine was broken.

“One, two, three... Ten digits!” She felt as if she had experienced the most unexpected thing in her life tonight.

“Well... First... Your card, sir.” Her hands trembled and sent the black card to Xiao Chen.

“Thank you!” Xiao Chen took the card and replied politely.

It’s true that real people don’t show their faces. We can’t judge people by their appearance in the future.

“Then help me arrange the room again. It’s the one we often book. I’ll go up with brother Xiao Chen.” Chen Huimin also took out a card and gave it to the receptionist.

“This, isn’t it not suitable? You are a girl’s family. What are you going to sit with me, a big man?” On the contrary, Xiao Chen seemed a little uninteresting.

“Oh, I’m not afraid of a girl. What are you afraid of?” With that, Chen Huimin took Xiao Chen’s hand and went to the elevator entrance.

“Hey...” Xiao Chen had no choice but to be led away by her.

Everyone is stupid again. Chen Huimin is usually very cold to the child of any family. I didn’t expect to meet such a poor guy now, but he is so enthusiastic.

But the receptionist knew that there was a reason why people could be favored by such a proud woman.

Don’t mention Chen Huimin. Now even if Xiao Chen makes her kneel down and be his slave, she is completely willing.

That’s nearly 100 billion dollars! It’s more than enough to buy this hotel!

Came into the room. Because it is the only seven-star hotel in the city, the luxury level is even no less than villa.

There is a special conference hall in the suite, and all kinds of equipment are quite complete.

The ordering system also guarantees delivery within half an hour.

As soon as Chen Huimin arrived in the room, she lay directly on the sofa in the living room, and her slender white jade legs were exposed outside her skirt.

I can see that Xiao Chen has some Qi and blood surging up. It took a while to calm down.

“Brother Xiao Chen, come and sit down!” Cried Chen Huimin.

“Oh, good.” Xiao Chen sat on a sofa far away from Chen Huimin.

“Brother Xiao Chen, do you hate me so much? Can’t you get closer to me?” Chen Huimin coquettish way.

“No, but it’s really not good.” Xiao Chen felt very embarrassed. After all, he just regarded Chen Huimin as an ordinary friend.

“Oh, what’s the matter? Come on!” Chen Huimin came up and took Xiao Chen’s hands and was about to pull him to the sofa over there where she was.

Suddenly her center of gravity was unstable. Xiao Chen also tripped over her foot, and then they fell directly on the sofa.

Xiao Chen is pressed on Chen Huimin.

There was an ambiguous breath in the air.

“Xiao Chen... Brother.” Chen Huimin blushed. A pair of apricot eyes flickered with a trace of shame.

“Oh, that, I’m so sorry!” Xiao Chen reacted very quickly and immediately got up from her.

He kept apologizing.

Seeing Xiao Chen’s performance like this, Chen Huimin couldn’t help being disappointed, and the shame in her eyes turned into a trace of anger.

“Is brother Xiao Chen absolutely right? I’m still too young.” At this point, she also deliberately paused.

Xiao Chen didn’t know what she meant and shook her head: “you’re old enough to talk about marriage. The family conditions are good. In fact, you should have found a suitable husband to marry long ago.”

“Brother Xiao Chen is such a fool!” Chen Huimin angrily ran out of the room.

“Well, Chen... Miss Huimin.” What else does Xiao Chen want to say.

But the door is closed.

He didn't understand what he had done wrong. Could it make her angry?

But he didn't think too much. It happens that I haven't had a good rest these two days. The environment here is quite quiet, so I'm ready to have a good rest.

There was still a trace of juvenile fragrance on Chen Huimin in the room. After a while, Xiao Chen fell into a dream.

In his dream, he saw his grandfather Xiao Qingyuan again. His grandfather told him that the important task of revitalizing Huaxia traditional Chinese medicine was in his hands.

But he smiled bitterly. He was just sick. When it comes to real medical skills, even a novice intern is not as good as him. How to revitalize traditional Chinese medicine?

But grandpa told him not to worry, there will be a way out.

“Woo woo!” Suddenly, a warning sounded throughout the hotel.

This is an alarm only when there is a critical situation in the hotel.

Xiao Chen was awakened by the alarm and woke up vaguely.

Opened the door and found a lot of staff running back and forth.

“Hello, what happened?” Xiao Chen stopped a waitress and asked.

“Several guests suddenly fainted at the same time in the hotel. Now they are contacting the hospital for first aid!” The waitress said that and ran to the direction of a room.

Isn't that Chen Huimin's room?

Xiao Chen was impressed by Chen Huimin's room number at that time.

Can it be said that the people of the Chen family fainted?

So he quickly followed up.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 44

Came to the room booked by Chen Huimin, in which there happened to be several medical staff, and carried Chen Wen and another man dressed like Yadong onto the stretcher.

Chen Huimin was frightened and sat sobbing.

“Huimin... Miss, what's the matter here?” Xiao Chen asked.

“Brother Xiao Chen, I don't know. My father talked well with this uncle and suddenly fainted.” Chen Huimin was even more wronged when she saw Xiao Chen coming.

Then he came and hugged Xiao Chen and said, “brother Xiao Chen, please save my father and them. I know you are a miracle doctor. Please!”

“Don't worry, I'll see.”

He got sick and wiped his eyes. I immediately saw some strange substances on their bodies swimming away.

“This is? Poisoned!” Xiao Chen was very surprised.

Although he didn’t stay in yixianmen for a long time, he was quite skilled in how to judge whether he was poisoned.

Then he quickly turned and looked at Chen Huimin.

When Xiao Chen suddenly looked at it, Chen Huimin immediately felt a little shy.

“Brother Xiao Chen... Why do you suddenly look at me?”

“It’s okay. I’m just afraid you’re poisoned, too.” Xiao Chen explained.

“Can’t you? Check it out!” After hearing this, Chen Huimin hurriedly pulled him and asked him to look at himself more.

“It’s okay, you’re okay. You shouldn’t have any physical contact with them?” Asked Xiao Chen.

“No, no, but my father told him...” Chen Huimin looked at Chen Wen who was carried away with worry.

“This poison is quite powerful. Wait here first. I’ll follow up and have a look.” Xiao Chen patted her on the shoulder.

Then he went up and put the disease into their bodies, but they didn’t wake up. Originally, he wanted to continue to explore again.

When the medical staff saw a man dressed in such shabby clothes touching the patient, they immediately stopped him and said, “what are you doing? What are you doing to the two patients?”

Xiao Chen explained: "Oh, well, I study traditional Chinese medicine. I know something about this patient. I hope to go to the hospital with you later. I don't know which hospital you are from?"

"Who are you to learn so many traditional Chinese medicine? We are working. You are hindering our work. Please cooperate. The situation is urgent!" The staff member didn't want to be wordy with Xiao Chen.

But Xiao Chen followed them all the way to the elevator door. The worker stopped him.

"Sir, please don't interfere with the work of our hospital!"

"No, i..." what else does Xiao Chen want to say.

But they have taken the elevator down.

So Xiao Chen pressed another elevator. Although it was a little late, they were carrying a stretcher after all, but Xiao Chen caught up with them.

"Sir, if you do this again, we'll call the police. You're murdering, you know?" The medical staff really didn't like Xiao Chen. He warned.

"You have to believe me. They may be poisoned and can't have direct contact. Otherwise, the doctor may be poisoned at that time!" Xiao Chen is a little worried.

But the medical staff didn't believe him at all.

"Poisoning? Our doctors are wearing protective gloves! And you haven't tested with anything. How do you know it's poisoning? Poisoning will have abnormal symptoms, and the signs of the two patients are so stable!"

"Old clock, drive!"

Then he got into the car and drove away.

“This boy is crazy. He has to tell me that people are poisoned. He can see the poisoning at a glance. Why do so many machines have been invented in the world? Just give them all to him!” The medical worker didn’t forget to complain when he got to the car.

Watching the ambulance go away, Xiao Chen wrote down that this is the car of the people’s hospital.

So he hurriedly called Dong Wu.

“Hello? Dean Dong?”

“Hello, doctor Xiao. What instructions do you have?” Dong Wu’s voice is quite respectful.

“It’s not an instruction. Are you in touch with the people’s hospital? I just sent two patients from Ruihua hotel. I suspect they are poisoned, and the person who can contact them may also be poisoned. Now the situation is urgent. You may need to react with the people’s hospital first.” Xiao Chen’s tone was very anxious.

Hearing Xiao Chen’s tone, Dong Wu immediately paid attention to it.

“OK, I’ll inform the people’s hospital right away!”

“Well, there’s an emergency now. Let’s break up the meeting first. I’m going to deal with some important things!” Dong Wu was in a meeting. When he received a call from Xiao Chen, he immediately cancelled the meeting.

Xiao Chen was very anxious at the door of the hotel. Now I don’t have a car. I can’t get to the hospital temporarily. I don’t know what happens next.

So she quickly sent a message to Chen Huimin, and soon she came down.

“Brother Xiao Chen. Come here, my car is parked inside.”

The two rushed to the people’s hospital.

Today is the weekend, so many people go to the hospital. The people’s hospital is basically overcrowded.

Chen Wen and the man from Yadong have not been sent to the corresponding department for diagnosis.

“Let’s spread out quickly. These two patients are poisonous. In order to avoid accidents, please spread out!” Xiao Chen shouted loudly.

“Ah? What poison?”

“No? Isn’t this a hospital?”

.....

In an instant, the crowd seemed to burst into flames and immediately dispersed.

“Hey, where are you from? What are you talking about?” A man who seemed to be in charge came over.

Looking up and down at Xiao Chen.

“I’m not talking nonsense. Those two patients are really poisoned!” Xiao Chen said.

“It’s this boy again. He’s been talking nonsense since we went to pick up these two patients. You said that you were poisoned, you took out the evidence! Crazy! Unreasonable!” Seeing that it was Xiao Chen again, the medical staff carrying the stretcher couldn’t help scolding directly.

“Don’t believe the rumors spread by this man deliberately. What he said is groundless. We are a hospital and won’t poison you. Please rest assured!” The man in charge also spoke loudly.

“This looks like a speaker.”

“At least people wear work clothes. Look at this. What are they wearing? They must be mentally abnormal!”

.....

So the crowd slowly gathered again.

“You have to believe me, otherwise there will be a problem and it will be serious later!” Xiao Chen is really helpless now. For the time being, she can’t prove that what she said is the truth.

Just then, from the emergency building of the hospital came down a man who looked a little rich in a white coat.

“I’m Peng Lin, the vice president of the hospital. This is doctor Xiao. He’s right. These two patients may be really poisoned. Please disperse quickly!”

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 45

“Ah? Is that true?”

“This looks like the person in the hospital. It should be true!”

“Come on, spread out!”

... the crowd dispersed again.

The person in charge who had previously claimed that the hospital would not expose people to toxic substances was stunned when he saw Peng Lin coming.

The key is that he even agrees with the opinion of the boy dressed like a beggar.

“Dean Peng, this...” he wanted to say something, but Peng Lin had waved him not to say.

The medical staff who had always felt that Xiao Chen had a brain problem was now frozen.

“Send the patient to the isolation room first!” Peng Lin urged.

Several medical staff rushed into the elevator with stretchers.

“Doctor Xiao, do you want to wear protective clothing?” Peng Lin said to Xiao Chen with great respect.

“Well, just bring me a pair of gloves and a mask.” Xiao Chen answered.

Seeing Peng Lin’s respect for Xiao Chen, the former person in charge was a little confused.

I didn’t expect the young man to have such a big background.

Peng Lin is not only the vice president of the people’s hospital. He is also the attending doctor of the general department, and his reputation is quite great in the medical field of the East China Sea.

But he has such respect for such a young man.

What he didn't know was that Dean Peng Lin was Dong Wu's former closed disciple. Now the master gave him a word. Everything should be done according to what a young doctor Xiao Chen, who is not well dressed, said. There must be no mistake.

Chen Wen and the businessman from Yadong were sent to the isolation room of the people's hospital. When the doctors saw that it was sent by President Peng Lin himself, they didn't dare to neglect them.

"Now first do a full set of physical examination, and then determine what kind of poison it is, and then apply the medicine to the case. Move quickly!" Peng Lin commanded, and then looked back at Xiao Chen with a smile.

"Doctor Xiao Chen, if you have any opinion, you can say it. I fully believe you."

Suddenly, another male doctor in a white coat also appeared in the isolation room.

It seems that they should also be high-ranking people in the hospital.

"President Peng. I heard that two patients who are poisoned and need to be isolated have been received from our hospital. How are you sure?" His voice was so loud that the whole isolation room could hear him.

"Wang Yuan!" The doctors on duty saw president Wang and said hello to him one after another.

"Xiao Chen is now recognized as a miracle doctor in the East China Sea. That's what he said." Peng Lin answered confidently.

"Who is this?" Xiao Chen saw that the male doctor came to Peng Lin, and Xiao Chen asked by the way.

"This is another vice president of our hospital. President Wang Peng."

“Oh, Hello, President Wang. This is Xiao Chen.” Xiao Chen stretched out his hand to show kindness to him.

But Wang Peng didn't seem to like Xiao Chen. He didn't even bother to stretch out his hand.

He gave Peng Lin a meaningful look.

“I said to Dean Peng, this is not a small matter. You made this decision without asking the dean for instructions. You can know how much it costs to open an isolation room? So many equipment and a full set of physical examination.”

“I know all this, but we must take precautions, even if it is misdiagnosed. I would rather do wrong than do nothing!” Peng Lin's speech is very sonorous and powerful.

But Wang Peng didn't think so. Instead, he said:

“Well, if President Peng Lin makes a mistake, the president's election next year will be...”

Then he took another look at Peng Lin.

Xiao Chen can see that they should be sworn enemies.

“It won't bother president Wang Peng. If there is any problem this time, I'm willing to automatically withdraw from any competition in the hospital.” Peng Lin said as if he were taking an oath.

“Good, good courage. I just like President Peng Lin's warm blood. Work hard. Come on, young man!” Then he patted Peng Lin on the shoulder and Xiao Chen on the shoulder.

Then he strode away.

It seems that he has won by now.

“Ignore him, doctor Xiao. You’d better talk about your opinion.” Peng Lin doesn’t seem to like Wang Peng very much.

“Well, this is the case. The poisoning of the two patients is mainly in the lungs. Now they are out of danger, but further treatment is needed to completely cure them.”

Xiao Chen said his thoughts.

Now their lives are saved by Xiao Chen. The key lies in how to prescribe the prescription and how to apply the medicine to the case.

“Oh. OK, we’ll certainly take doctor Xiao’s suggestion. If it’s convenient for you, why don’t you come to my office to have a rest?” Peng Lin agreed with Xiao Chen’s suggestion.

“This, also.....” just when he wanted to promise Peng Lin, suddenly the mobile phone rang.

“I’ll answer the phone!” Xiao Chen made an embarrassed gesture to Peng Lin..

“It’s all right. You answer first.” Peng Lin smiled.

“Hello?”

“Is it Xiao Chen?”

“I am, who are you?”

“Someone sent me to send you some things. Maybe you can use them. I’ve put them on the second dustbin in the inpatient Hall of the people’s hospital. If you think it’s necessary, come and take them!”

The other end hung up.

“Hello? Who are you?” Xiao Chen felt a little confused.

“What’s the matter, doctor Xiao? Is something wrong?” Peng Lin saw Xiao Chen frowning and seemed very unhappy.

“Dean Peng, where is the inpatient Hall of the hospital?” Although he didn’t know who called, Xiao Chen still felt it necessary to have a look.

Now that the two are isolated, there will be no further infection, so he can leave for a while.

“Oh, this, I’ll ask someone to take you, that, Xiao Yang!” Peng Lin shouted a few times.

A female nurse came out of an office. She was tall and pure.

“What’s up? Dean Peng?” Her voice is quite special. It sounds Su Su and is very recognizable.

“Take this doctor Xiao to the hall of the inpatient department.” Peng Lin Road.

“OK, doctor Xiao, come with me.” Nurse Xiao Yang said softly.

Nurse Xiao Yang looked at Xiao Chen up and down, smiled and said, “doctor Xiao, you are young. Are you married?”

Xiao Chen smiled helplessly. Why did the girl ask this question first when she saw him.

“Well, let’s not talk about this first. We have to get down to business.” Xiao Chen wants to change the subject.

“In fact, men are the most handsome when they are serious.” Nurse Xiao Yang is still deliberately looking for a topic when she hears Xiao Chen say so.

Xiao Chen had no choice but to chat with her.

She followed her around and finally came to the downstairs of the inpatient department. Sure enough, an envelope was found on the second trash can.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 46

When he opened it, Xiao Chen was surprised. It seemed that what was written on it was a prescription that could solve the poison in Chen Wen and Yadong’s human body.

“Doctor Xiao, did you find anything?” Nurse Xiao Yang felt a little strange when she saw Xiao Chen pick up an envelope from a dustbin.

“Well... It’s okay, it’s okay. Let’s go back now. I have something important to tell Dean Peng.” Xiao Chen said.

“Oh, actually, I still want to talk more with doctor Xiao Chen. You must know a lot.” Nurse Xiao Yang looked at Xiao Chen and said.

“Where, in fact, I just learned some fur.” This sentence Xiao Chen is really not modest.

Because he mainly relies on his own disease Qi to treat people. The real traditional Chinese medicine is in addition to acupuncture and moxibustion. The others are not very good.

Taking the prescription back to the emergency building, Peng Lin just came back from the ward.

“Hey, doctor Xiao, what a coincidence. Go up to my office!” Peng Lin began to say hello to Xiao Chen all the way.

“OK.” Xiao Chen didn’t say much either. At the right moment, he wanted to give the prescription to Peng Lin.

“The patient’s body surface hasn’t changed. Generally, people who are poisoned will have some abnormalities. I don’t know how Doctor Xiao judged it. The results just came out. They are indeed poisoned!” With that, the happy look on Peng Lin’s face could not be hidden.

In fact, he was still a little discouraged before. After all, he only heard Dong Wu’s affirmation of Xiao Chen, but he didn’t see Xiao Chen’s medical skills with his own eyes.

Now he believes Xiao Chen 100%.

“These are small things. Now the most important thing is to cure them.” Xiao Chen didn’t feel relaxed. Instead, someone he didn’t know could prescribe a prescription to treat the poison, which made him feel a great threat.

If this group of people do good things, and if they use this advantage to do bad things, the whole medical industry in the East China Sea and even China may face unprecedented challenges.

When she got to the office, Xiao Chen opened it for Peng Lin according to the prescription on the envelope she had just written down.

Then Peng Lin took it and praised it constantly.

“Wonderful! How did you think of it? These traditional Chinese medicines are cleverly combined. It’s not just this poison, but even some other poisons can be solved. Your prescription is God.”

“In fact, it’s nothing. You’d better prescribe the medicine first and let the patient take it.” Xiao Chen now wants to know how they were poisoned.

Wait until they wake up to their relationship with Chen Wen. It should not be difficult for him to help ask the Yadong people some detailed questions.

Then Peng Lin took the prescription and ran to the prescription to fill it.

Xiao Chen is recalling the voice of the man who called him earlier. It sounds like the voice of a man once in yixianmen.

But I can't remember who it is.

"Wake up! Doctor Xiao, really wake up!" Peng Lin hurried up all the way.

"OK, transfer them to the general ward." Xiao Chen said.

Then he came to the ward where Chen Wen and Yadong men were arranged.

At this time, Chen Huimin was also in the ward.

"Thank you so much, brother Xiao Chen. It's not you this time. I really don't know what will happen to my father." Chen Huimin came up and gave Xiao Chen a big hug.

Xiao Chen gently pushed her away and said, "well, Uncle Chen, could you please ask your friend what he had contacted before? It's best to record in detail what he did 24 hours before he came to the hotel."

After hearing Xiao Chen's words, Chen Wen thought for a while, and then nodded.

The two people communicated in a foreign language for a long time.

Then Chen Wen repeated to Xiao Chen:

"Before he came by plane from there, he stayed at his home and didn't contact anyone except his family. Moreover, he also determined that his family was safe, except by plane. He stayed in the hotel most of the time and didn't contact special people."

After listening, Xiao Chen frowned into a “few” words.

In this way, it’s more troublesome. There’s no way to find out. I don’t know who wants to target them, or simply wants to give him a threat. Let him know that his illness is not everything?

But why did you give yourself a prescription later?

After thinking about it, Xiao Chen didn’t have any clue, so he had to put these aside for the time being.

Now that the matter here has been solved, Xiao Chen also feels that there is no need to stay here and is ready to go back to the hotel.

But Peng Lin rubbed his hands and came to Xiao Chen and said to him, “well, doctor Xiao, I just applied with the hospital. Can you put your prescription in our hospital? We are willing to pay five million to buy it with you.”

Xiao Chen shook his head. This prescription is really easy to use, but he didn’t think of it. So he actually doesn’t have any right to use it, otherwise he would have given the prescription directly to Peng Lin.

“Well, I’m really sorry. Dean Peng, I can’t give you this prescription for the time being. It’s not a matter of money.” Xiao Chen can only say sorry.

“Doctor Xiao, are you an apprentice? I want to learn from you!” Peng Lin added.

“President Peng is serious. Where can I be your master? I just know some Chinese medicine.”

Hearing this, Peng Lin’s expression seemed to change slightly, but he didn’t say anything.

“Well, doctor Xiao, go slowly. Come and see us often!”

Then he waved with Xiao Chen.

“It seems that my relationship with doctor Xiao is not enough, but this is also the freedom of others. Such a good prescription is really not enough to change anything.” Peng Lin shook his head and walked to his office.

In fact, he really wants to make some contributions during his stay in the hospital. He will retire in a few years. In terms of medical skills, he knows that his attainments have come to an end.

Originally I wanted to learn from Xiao Chen for a while. Maybe I can make a breakthrough in traditional Chinese medicine in addition to western medicine. At that time, the combination of China and the West will be integrated. Isn't it a good thing in pairs.

Unfortunately, he didn't know that Xiao Chen mainly relied on the disease Qi in his body, not medical skills.

Because she came in Chen Huimin's car before, Xiao Chen didn't have cash when she went back. She thought she was going back again. Unexpectedly, Chen Huimin caught up.

“Brother Xiao Chen, you saved my father's life again this time. I privately decided to invite you to a big meal!” She stepped on high heels, but still ran towards Xiao Chen.

Afraid of her careless wrestling, Xiao Chen hurried up and helped her.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 47

Seeing Xiao Chen so nervous about herself, Chen Huimin showed a happy smile on her face.

“I knew brother Xiao Chen still had feelings for me, didn't he?” She was about to hug Xiao Chen.

But Xiao Chen dodged sensitively, which made her jump into the air and almost fell down. Xiao Chen still sideways helped her.

“In fact, I really just regard Miss Huimin as a friend.” Xiao Chen explained.

“It doesn’t matter. I believe you just haven’t come out of the shadow of the previous marriage for the time being, and you can change it soon.” Chen Huimin looked at him with a smile.

“Besides, just call me Huimin and add a ‘Miss’. It sounds strange.”

Xiao Chen had to shrug helplessly.

I’ve been busy all day. I’m really hungry for so long. This is the first time he has failed to treat patients with disease Qi.

So it also put a lot of pressure on his heart.

“Where shall we eat?” Chen Huimin asked.

Xiao Chen thought for a moment and thought of a Japanese restaurant that Wu Yaqing loved to go to earlier.

Unfortunately, she did not have money at that time. The only time she went with her was when she paid for food.

“Let’s go to the Japanese restaurant in the north of the city.”

“It turns out that brother Xiao Chen likes Japanese cuisine. I’ll start learning it later!” Chen Huimin’s beautiful eyes bent into crescent moon.

“No, actually... Just think I like it.” Xiao Chen originally wanted to explain, but he did find it inappropriate for him to tell the truth. So there was no further explanation.

Drove to this Japanese restaurant. Although it is not a special luxury, the boss did study hard in Japan for a period of time and then came back to open a shop.

The business in the shop has always been quite good.

“Welcome, how many are you?” A waiter greeted him immediately.

“Two!” Chen Huimin stretched out her finger and compared.

“Yes, sir and madam. This way, please!” The waiter took two people and sat down in a room.

Japanese restaurants are directly separated by a door, so it will appear crowded, but men and women will have an ambiguous feeling in a narrow space.

“Brother Xiao Chen, what do you want to eat? Can you order?” Chen Huimin takes the menu to Xiao Chen.

Looking at the menu above, Xiao Chen recalled what he had eaten with Wu Yaqing last time, and then ordered the same.

“... and this, Kanto cook, this, and then have another glass of juice!”

“OK, sir and madam, wait a minute. You can serve in about half an hour!” The waiter said that and left.

Then they started chatting. Of course, Chen Huimin kept asking Xiao Chen some questions. She seemed to be very interested in everything about Xiao Chen.

Suddenly. A couple of men and women also came to dinner at the next table.

Xiao Chen was stunned when he saw the woman.

Her dress is still so fresh, wearing a white pleated skirt, her hairstyle is still the popular romantic curly hair, and she can hardly see any makeup on her face, but it is very elegant.

Next, Xiao Chen was a little absent-minded and listened to the conversation between the two people next door all the way.

“Yaqing, I haven’t seen you for ten years. You’re a lot more beautiful.” The man’s voice is very magnetic and seems to be a senior intellectual.

“No, just the same.” Wu Yaqing’s voice is still plain and can’t hear a trace of waves.

“I heard that your ex husband has been married for three years. Do you really sleep in separate rooms?” The man continued.

“Well, he never touched me.” Wu Yaqing road.

“I knew you would still wait for me. When I went abroad to study medicine, I came back to revitalize our small medical school. When I saw you still insist on opening the medical school, I knew you had been waiting for me, right?” Then the man put his hand on Wu Yaqing’s face.

“Brother Xiao Chen? What’s the matter with you?” Chen Huimin seems to feel something wrong with Xiao Chen.

“Nothing.” Xiao Chen choked because of her throat. The voice is a little hoarse.

I have been married to her for three years, and I haven’t even formally held my hand. This man, who has just come back, can do such excessive behavior to Wu Yaqing.

If anyone can’t stand it, the key is in this case.

“Mao, I didn’t say that I didn’t open the medical school for you, but also for Grandpa. For myself.” Wu Yaqing pushed Mao’s hand away.

“It doesn’t matter. I won’t go to any big hospital as long as you’re still running the hospital. I’ll concentrate on helping you in your hospital, okay?” The man’s words are very gentle and attractive.

“I just came over for dinner. Let’s talk about these things later. I’m not in the mood now.” Wu Yaqing doesn’t seem to want to talk too much about these things with him.

“OK, let’s not talk. Let’s eat. Let’s eat this.” The man kept courting Wu Yaqing.

Then there are all kinds of actions that want to be intimate with Wu Yaqing.

After drinking some sake, I became bolder with the strength of the wine.

But Wu Yaqing has been resisting.

Xiao Chen has been clenching his fist. Now he knows that he has nothing to do with Wu Yaqing, but he doesn’t know why. Now he feels great pain when he sees her eating out with a man.

“Let go, Mao, don’t do this!” Wu Yaqing seems to be resisting the man.

Xiao Chen could no longer sit still. He got up directly and opened the door separating the two rooms.

“Pa!” A slap directly slapped the man named Ah Mao in the face.

Just fan him out.

“Xiao... Xiao Chen?” Wu Yaqing was a little shocked.

Chen Huimin on the other side was also shocked. She didn't expect Xiao Chen to be so angry.

"This man is just looking for your beauty. He doesn't mean it to you at all. He's so frivolous when he meets you. What's this?" Although Xiao Chen shouted at Wu Yaqing.

But you're actually losing your temper with yourself.

"Who are you? Dare to beat me like this. Don't want to live?" Mao got up from the ground, picked up a plate and threw it at Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen turned his hand into a claw and grabbed it directly at Ah Mao, but then he stopped, because if he tried his best, he might kill the man directly.

So he took back most of his skills. The plate hit his hand directly, making a hole, and the man was hit and spread on the ground again.

"You... Do you know who I am? How dare you do this to me!" Mao lay on the ground and wailed.

"Your hand is bleeding!" Seeing the blood flowing out of Xiao Chen's hand, Wu Yaqing hurriedly took out his towel and wrapped it up.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 48

"No, Huimin, let's go!" Xiao Chen pushed Wu Yaqing away, reached out and took Chen Huimin, and walked outside the door.

"Brother Xiao Chen, are your hands all right?" Chen Huimin looked at the wound on his hand with concern.

Although I have a wound on my hand now, I also feel pain. But Xiao Chen's heart is more painful.

I thought I had put it down, but today I saw Wu Yaqing dating other men. I still can't bear it. A woman I have loved silently for so long will be so frivolous.

"Sir! Madam! You haven't checked out yet! Sir..." a waitress followed up behind.

Looks pretty, wearing Japanese clothes. It looks elegant.

But seeing Xiao Chen dressed so shabby leading a woman dressed so noble and beautiful, he couldn't help looking at him more.

After Chen Huimin wrapped Xiao Chen's hand with her own towel, she smiled and said to him, "wait a minute, I'll settle the account."

She knew that Xiao Chen's card might not be swiped out in these places, so she felt that she deserved to pay the bill.

But the waiter didn't think so. When Chen Huimin went to check out with her, she couldn't help asking, "madam, you are beautiful and have good taste according to your clothes. Why do you like such a poor boy? You can't even afford a meal!"

He also glanced at Xiao Chen.

"This is a secret!" Chen Huimin gave a careless eye. She didn't intend to reveal any information about herself to strangers.

"OK, I'm talkative." The waitress patted herself on the mouth.

Although Xiao Chen was angry. But in fact, he saw all this in his eyes. Originally, he saw that there was something abnormal about the waitress. Seeing that her service attitude was very good, he wanted to tell her.

I didn't expect the other party to think so about himself behind his back.

Many diseases are not found in time when they are young, and the disease is already very serious, so many diseases are becoming younger and younger.

“OK. Brother Xiao Chen, let’s go!” Chen Huimin happily returned to Xiao Chen and took his arm.

Wu Yaqing behind him seemed to have just handled the situation of the man named Ah Mao, and then chased him out.

She caught up with them and shouted to Xiao Chen:

“Xiao Chen, in fact, things are not what you think!”

However, Xiao Chen’s steps did not stop. He believes that this should be a complete end, and there will be no more if between him and Wu Yaqing.

“Xiao Chen... Xiao Chen! Can you believe me? I don’t know where you’ve been these days, and your phone number has changed. In fact, I’m really not used to it after you left. Please, can we be good with each other? I must treat you sincerely this time!” Wu Yaqing is still entangled.

“Miss Wu, please show some respect. Now Brother Xiao Chen is my boyfriend. What’s the matter with you talking to my boyfriend in public!” Chen Huimin took the lead.

Xiao Chen did not speak or explain.

Wu Yaqing looks at Chen Huimin. Shook his head, red eyes and said, “I know I was wrong. I shouldn’t say that you cheated without any evidence and hurt Dad... I’m really sorry!”

I heard her talking about Xiao Jianming. Xiao Chen was finally moved.

“When my father was sent to the hospital, he had no money and almost died after the doctor stopped treatment. Do you know how worried I was? None of you Wu family showed up, even if you paid a little money for my father first!”

Once excited, the blood on his hand began to flow out again.

“Brother Xiao Chen, let’s stop fighting and go to the hospital to bandage first!” Chen Huimin was very worried when she saw that the blood on his hand could not stop flowing.

In fact, this injury has no impact on Xiao Chen. As long as he gets sick a little, he can recover.

But he wants to make himself feel such pain and make himself soberly realize that some people, even if you are all kinds of flattery. Nor can it bring any forgiveness and understanding.

“Really... I’m really sorry!” Wu Yaqing has now become a tearful person.

Seeing her like this, Xiao Chen seemed a little softhearted again, so he stopped looking at her and turned to walk towards the parking lot.

“Yaqing, Yaqing!” Mao caught up and saw Wu Yaqing sobbing on his knees.

He picked her up, patted her on the back and said, “it’s not worth it! You’re really not worth it for such a violent maniac! It’s right for you to divorce him!”

But Wu Yaqing still struggled to push him away: “what do you know? Liu LingHong, you left without saying a word. Over the years, do you know how difficult it is for me to support a medical school?”

“I finally met him. Although we are not really husband and wife, he paid silently for three years. Finally, because of my wrong judgment, he went out of the house. What about you? What have you given me? Have you died for so many years?”

Liu LingHong was just greedy for her beauty, and she just wanted to finish it.

I didn't expect Wu Yaqing to come to such a play with him.

"Wu Yaqing, who do you think you are? If it weren't for your grandfather's reason, I could see you, that is, you have a good-looking face! Do you think you really love you? You b*tch, I change three a month! Bah!" After scolding him, he shook his hand and left.

Xiao Chen's strength just hit him. Now his chest still hurts. He has to check whether his ribs are broken.

Wu Yaqing now has 10000 regrets in her heart. Unexpectedly, what Xiao Chen said is true.

Such a man is just greedy for his beauty.

Having suffered a great emotional blow, she now feels at a loss in her life.

"Brother Xiao Chen, are you really not going to the hospital?" Chen Huimin looked at Xiao Chen with some worry.

"It doesn't matter. I'll be fine in a minute. Thank you just now." Xiao Chen is still remembering Wu Yaqing's performance just now.

He seemed to feel that he was a little too heartless. He took out his mobile phone and pressed the number he was most familiar with.

After hesitating again and again, I still didn't dial out.

Returning to the hotel, Chen Huimin knew that Xiao Chen didn't have any fixed job at present, so she invited him to his home as a private doctor, but Xiao Chen refused.

After they said goodbye, Xiao Chen returned to his room.

Just sat down, his ass was not hot, and he received another mysterious phone call. His voice seemed to be similar to that of the man who gave his prescription last time.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 49

“What I want to say next is very important. You must remember that we have registered a pharmaceutical company called clover in your name, which is located on the third floor of Lindong building, No. 58, Hongqi South Road, Tianhui District, Donghai city. There are some important traditional Chinese medicine prescriptions in it. Now you need to promote these prescriptions.”

“Western medicine is gaining momentum recently. Its influence is also growing throughout China. Many doctors rely too much on Western instruments for medical skills. If it continues to develop like this, traditional Chinese medicine is bound to decline, and there are more powerful enemies in front of you, so I hope you can use your ability to help traditional Chinese medicine rise!”

Finish. The man hung up the phone.

Xiao Chen was silent for a long time after hearing it. After thinking about it, he probably guessed who this person would be.

At first, Grandpa Xiao Qingyuan was the closest person in yixianmen. He left this person's name in his letter: Ning Wangshu.

According to the classification of medical skill level, Xiao Qingyuan was a medical saint in that year, and his medical skill has come to the realm.

Although Xiao Chen now has the pulse of disease, his medical skills are still far inferior to his grandfather.

And Ning Wangshu has been following Xiao Qingyuan for so long, and his medical skills are already very advanced.

From this clue, we may be able to find the reason why grandpa disappeared that year.

The next day, Xiao Chen rented a small electric donkey early in the morning and came to the position reported by the phone last night.

Sure enough, I saw a sign of clover on the third floor, which also said clover company.

Because the matter was urgent, Xiao Chen didn't have time to report it. Since he informed himself. There should be someone to greet themselves.

So he took the elevator directly upstairs.

It wasn't particularly crowded in the elevator, but a female staff member deliberately stayed away from Xiao Chen after seeing his clothes.

Xiao Chen has long been used to it and doesn't care much.

I just didn't expect that the female clerk got off the elevator on the same floor as herself.

"Er... Are you from clover company?" She asked Xiao Chen tentatively.

"Yes, I was told to come. There are some important things to do." Xiao Chen didn't hide anything.

"Excuse me, I'm the HR supervisor here. What's your name, please?" Female staff are relatively polite.

"Oh, my name is Xiao Chen." Xiao Chen said.

"Xiao Chen?" She seems to be thinking carefully.

"What's the matter, Xiao Lu?" A man in an expensive suit came over.

“Oh, Mr. Han. This gentleman said he would come to our company to do something. His name is Xiao Chen.” Wang Xiaolu answered quickly.

Han Shixuan listened and looked at Xiao Chen for a long time. He is now the general manager of the company, but he didn't hear any news from the people above that there is any special person coming today.

“Mr. Xiao. Who asked you to come here?” Although he saw that Xiao Chen was not well dressed, he politely asked Xiao Chen.

“Oh, I don't know the man's name, but there are important things, so I came here so early.” Xiao Chen repeated his words just now.

They looked at each other.

“Mr. Xiao, if you want to make trouble in our company on purpose, please go back immediately. We don't welcome neuropathy!” Han Shixuan seemed a little impatient.

“I'm not a psychopath. I really have something important to deal with!” Xiao Chen looked more serious.

“Xiao Li, Xiao Tan! Take this gentleman down!” Han Shixuan doesn't seem to want to pay attention to Xiao Chen anymore.

Two strong and tall men came over. Directly want to put Xiao Chen up and take him down.

But Xiao Chen did a little work, and they immediately felt that Xiao Chen was like a thousand jin tripod, motionless.

“Yo! You're still on the line with us, aren't you?” The man on one side seems to be angry and will try his best to carry Xiao Chen away.

“Ding Dong!” Then the elevator doorbell rang.

From inside came a man in a white suit, followed by a woman dressed quite beautifully and appropriately.

As two people working in a pharmaceutical company, they can see who it is at a glance.

It is Liu Nianxin, a Chinese domestic pharmaceutical giant, who has direct or indirect participation in more than half of China's pharmaceutical industry.

The four leaf clover company is actually a small pharmaceutical company that he fully invested in and managed.

Both of them were dumbfounded. They didn't expect such a well-known entrepreneur to visit such a small company.

"Liu... Mr. Liu. Hello!" They quickly stopped the movement of their hands.

"Didn't you say Mr. Xiao Chen was coming today? Is he here now?" Liu Nianxin ignored them.

Han Shixuan inside saw Liu Nianxin from a distance. Hurriedly ran over and bowed: "I don't know Mr. Liu's great drive. I'm really sorry to meet you far away!"

Seeing Han Shixuan coming, the two men whispered in his ear. Then he left quietly.

"Xiao... Mr. Xiao Chen?" Han Shixuan looked at Xiao Chen standing aside, dressed like a beggar.

"Yes, what about Mr. Xiao Chen? We can receive instructions that Mr. Xiao Chen has important things to do today, so we came here specially." The very elegant woman behind Liu Nianxin is crispy.

Seeing that Han Shixuan couldn't open his mouth, Xiao Chen stood up and said, "I'm just you. Are you looking for me?"

Seeing Xiao Chen, the woman was still a little surprised, because in her likeness, this kind of miracle doctor should be older and still have a style. Unexpectedly, she was a young man.

Liu Nianxin looked at Xiao Chen carefully, which was basically the same as the one who told him earlier. He quickly bowed to Xiao Chen and said, "Mr. Xiao Chen, you've arrived so early, why don't you inform us!"

The woman behind him bowed quickly.

All the staff of clover company stood neatly ready to welcome Liu Nianxin's visit, but unexpectedly, he bowed to a man dressed so ordinary.

All the people were shocked. They couldn't believe that this young man had such a noble status.

"Mr. Xiao Chen, please come inside!" Liu Nianxin showed Xiao Chen the way.

When the HR supervisor saw that Liu Nianxin was so respectful to Xiao Chen, he was a little nervous. He remembered that he had shown disgust to Xiao Chen before, and his feet began to tremble.

"Mr. Xiao Chen, it seems that I saw someone embarrassing you when I came up earlier. I don't know if there is such a thing?" Liu Nianxin glanced at Han Shixuan with his head down behind him.

Han Shixuan immediately felt that he was going to finish playing with a cold sweat on his head.

But unexpectedly, Xiao Chen just smiled faintly: "no, I don't know who I am."

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 50

Hearing Xiao Chen's words, Han Shixuan was grateful for what he said. Unexpectedly, Xiao Chen was young, but he had a great deal of talent. He didn't care about the previous things with himself at all.

"Well, since Mr. Xiao has chosen to forgive you, you can go out first!" Liu Nianxin waved his hand.

Behind him, Han Shixuan and Wang Xiaolu thanked again and again, and then launched the chairman's office.

"Come on, Mr. Xiao Chen. You do it!" Liu Nianxin hurriedly asked Xiao Chen to sit in the most comfortable boss's chair.

"No, I got the news. Some important information seems to be here, right? Give it to me quickly." Xiao Chen didn't want to waste time. He mainly wants to get some prescriptions first.

"Oh, OK, OK, Zhilan, open the safe here. The things are in it." Liu Nianxin told the woman behind him.

It looks like it should be his personal secretary or assistant or something.

Yuan Zhilan quickly took out the key in her bag. Opened the safe, which contained a sealed document.

Then he put it in Xiao Chen's hand.

When he got the document, Xiao Chen felt an ancient and simple smell. It seemed that there was something terrible in it.

"Well, it should be this. That's right. Well, I've got what I want to take. I should go, too." With that, Xiao Chen put the file bag under his arm and prepared to leave.

"Well... Doctor Xiao Chen, could you wait a moment?" Liu Nianxin rubbed his hands and looked at Xiao Chen with a flattering smile.

"Oh? What's up?" Xiao Chen actually doesn't know him and doesn't want to have more communication, but think about it and know that it may be the person arranged by Ning Wangshu.

“Well, I’ve heard of doctor Xiao’s medical skills. I’ve always wanted to treat some hidden diseases, but I haven’t been cured for a long time, so I don’t know where Doctor Xiao is...” Liu Nianxin’s voice became smaller and smaller. In the end, I could hardly hear it.

Then Xiao Chen reacted and found that Liu Nianxin’s dark circles were particularly heavy, and although the one behind him was beautifully dressed, it seemed that he had never been satisfied.

“OK, I think you’ve helped me. You can’t help me in vain. It’s not very convenient here. Come to Ruihua in the afternoon. My room is room 752. I’ll cure you then.” Xiao Chen is not a stingy person. Besides, the other party has done him a favor.

Otherwise, it won’t be so smooth to get this thing today.

“OK, OK! It’s a deal!” Liu Nianxin was very excited when he heard Xiao Chen’s answer.

He is only 48 years old this year, but his dick has not been active for a long time, so even if he succeeds again outside, the women around him are changing all the time.

Others think he is a playboy. In fact, who knows that he has been abandoned by women all the time?

I don’t know how many green hats I’ve worn.

Hearing that Xiao Chen promised himself, he was very happy for a moment. Regardless of his face, he hugged Yuan Zhilan and kissed him fiercely.

“Annoying. This is the company!” Yuan Zhilan said angrily.

“Sorry, I’m a little excited.” Liu Nianxin was reminded that his behavior was inappropriate.

Hurriedly arranged his clothes, and then trotted to keep up with Xiao Chen.

“Well, doctor Xiao Chen, do you have a car? Shall I send someone to drive you?”

“Oh, no, I have a small electric donkey myself.” Xiao Chen answered lightly.

“Mr. Xiao, take your time. You are welcome to visit the company at any time!” Han Shixuan’s voice came from behind.

Only now did he understand that Xiao Chen was the largest shareholder of the company, just taking shares with technology.

“No, you’re busy. These superfluous etiquette will be saved!” Xiao Chen waved his hand.

In fact, he didn’t know when he would come again. Maybe he would never come again.

“How can this work? How can we, doctor Xiao, ride a small electric donkey? I happen to have a Rolls Royce phantom here. It’s just a small old car. It’s not worth money. So I gave it to doctor Xiao.” Say. Liu Nianxin took out the car key from his pocket and forced it into Xiao Chen’s hand.

Originally, Xiao Chen didn’t want it, but he ran away after he stuffed it.

Xiao Chen couldn’t help laughing bitterly. He also said he was in poor health, which ran very fast.

In desperation, I had to use this car as a means of transportation for the time being.

Back to the hotel, Xiao Chen impatiently opened the secret document.

There is a very old looking book with several big words printed on it: baijue Pharmacopoeia.

This is the top secret script that disappeared from the medicine immortal sect. It records all the treatment methods of incurable diseases from ancient times to now. Unexpectedly, it was brought out.

Now Xiao Chen can be 100% sure that these things must have been done by his grandfather Xiao Qingyuan, but he doesn't know what he wants to do.

Open this ancient book, which records various prescriptions.

But some of the pages seemed to be gone, so Xiao Chen found five prescriptions printed on modern A4 paper in the document.

The five prescriptions shocked him.

Each is a prescription for a disease that is difficult to treat in modern medicine.

However, after reading it, Xiao Chen found that it seemed that each copy lacked some key drugs.

Didn't my grandfather find out?

What's the use of handing it over to yourself?

A prescription that can't be detected even by his medical skills. I'm just cultivating my sick pulse.

After understanding for a long time, Xiao Chen gave up. He may not be this material.

Just when he felt very bored, Chen Huimin called.

"Brother Xiao Chen, how's it going? Are you free today? Didn't you invite you to Disney last time? There's a special event today! Let's play together!"

“Well... I’m still busy now. I have an appointment in the afternoon, so I’ll go again when I have a chance.” Xiao Chen didn’t really want to go, and he just promised Liu Nianxin today.

So I told the truth about myself.

Hearing that Xiao Chen said she had an appointment in the afternoon, Chen Huimin couldn’t help feeling a little disappointed. She thought Xiao Chen had met Bai Fumei again.

“Well... Well.” She hung up.

Chen Wen on one side saw his daughter’s appearance and probably guessed Xiao Chen’s answer.

“It doesn’t matter. An excellent man like doctor Xiao is very dedicated. He won’t mess around outside. You have to trust him.” Chen Wen patted his daughter on the shoulder and said.

Chen Huimin nodded, which she knew best. At that end, she was really drunk in the bar, and Xiao Chen didn’t take advantage of others’ danger. That’s why she was always willing to pester him.
