The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 491

“I remember, didn’t I die in that battle? Did you save me?” Wu Zimei slowly got up from the hospital bed. Maybe it was because she had been lying for too long, so she still didn’t adapt. When she got up, she almost fell down.

But fortunately, Xiao Chen helped her and kept her from falling down.

“From the perspective of ordinary people, you are indeed dead, but fundamentally speaking. You are now alive, even many times stronger than your original vitality. Now you are. As long as you do not suffer serious fatal injury, and if you are treated in time after injury, you will not die. I said, you can live for 300 years.”

Xiao Chen still said faintly, with a trace of tenderness in her eyes.

After all, it seems to Xiao Chen now. In fact, Wu Zimei was his life-saving benefactor. If she hadn’t sacrificed her life to save herself, then everything would have changed in the future. Maybe he couldn’t have come to this step today.

Of course, in order to save herself, Wu Zimei paid a heavy price. At least from the perspective of the previous Xiao Chen, Wu Zimei had no chance to save her, but fortunately God gave him a chance to have the ability to save his life benefactor.

In this way, Xiao Chen’s sense of guilt has disappeared. Now Xiao Chen feels much more comfortable when he sees Wu Zimei intact. This is the benefit brought by the power of the spring of life.

But just now Xiao Chen just sent Wu Zimei one ten thousandth drop of the power of the spring of life, because she is an ordinary person, and ordinary people can’t bear all the power of the spring of life.

As a normal person, if he needs to absorb the power in the spring of life, he needs a monk to completely dissolve the power. Then integrate into the body of ordinary people. Normally, this process is quite long.

However, Xiao Chen's body now does not belong to human beings at all, but has reached another level, and the spring of life has become quite subtle after being melted by the furnace of the Dragon Emperor. As long as it is melted by Xiao Chen, it can be integrated into the body of ordinary people.

Therefore, Xiao Chen was able to integrate the power of the spring of life into her body as soon as she saw Wu Zimei, and directly saved her from waking up.

"Now, I live again?" Wu Zimei looked at her body in disbelief, and then looked at the sunshine outside the window. This feeling. It's the feeling of living. Indeed, she found that she was still alive, breathing and heartbeat. Everything before seemed to be a very long dream she had. Although she had forgotten almost everything, she still didn't forget some of her own things.

For example, she still remembers that she went out on a mission with Xiao Chen and was injured at that time. I also remember that I am a law enforcement officer in Wuling, and now I am in Kyoto.

The most important thing is to remember her mission, which she desperately wants to accomplish in her life, that is to protect those around her from unfair treatment and too many violations.

Although it is quite difficult to know this thing, Wu Zimei still firmly believes that as long as she persists. You will be able to see these things bloom and bear fruit one day.

"Xiao Chen, I really thank you very much. You saved me and made me live again." Wu Zimei looked at Xiao Chen very affectionately at this time.

Of course, this kind of feeling is not the kind of feeling between men and women, but more of a feeling of gratitude, a feeling of gratitude.

"Don't thank me. What to thank you for is yourself, because it is your persistence that allows me to see today's hope. Now our world hope is infinite, I just want to repay your kindness, and then our world will continue to be handed over to you."

Xiao Chen smiled faintly.

“Well, as long as you stick to it, you will see more and more hope, just. Are you leaving?” Wu Zimei asked in some doubt.

“Yes, I’m here to say goodbye. You saved me and I saved you. I’m grateful. Next, the place I may go is not our world, and I don’t know when I can come back again. Therefore, I’m also here to say goodbye.”

Xiao Chen replied.

“To another world?” Wu Zimei was stunned. Although she said she was a law enforcer, she also came into contact with many things that ordinary people could not touch. But for another world, she can’t understand it for the time being.

However, Xiao Chen can have the ability to save her directly, which also shows that what Xiao Chen said is true. There is indeed another world, and he will go to another world. As for what it is for. These things she doesn’t know.

“Then, I wish you, on the road of the future, not to mention plain sailing, at least there are not too many ups and downs, make good progress, and finally, take care!” Wu Zimei is also a free and easy person, so she immediately sent her blessing.

“Well, thank you.” Xiao Chen nodded and turned to say, “then I’ll go first.”

Then he was ready to leave the ward.

“Wait!” Wu Zimei suddenly ran towards Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen immediately felt that his face seemed to be gently bitten by something, and then a burst of warmth passed to his face.

This is Wu Zimei’s kiss. She gently kissed Xiao Chen’s face.

“This is... My thank-you gift. I don’t know whether you like it or not, but I know that we may never see each other again, so take good care!” Wu Zimei suddenly burst into tears.

“It doesn’t matter. You are still so young and your vitality is so strong. If I go, you will meet a better man to love you.” Xiao Chen naturally knows what Wu Zimei means.

In fact, from the beginning, Xiao Chen just regarded Wu Zimei as a companion, and there were not many other feelings in her heart.

Today, I can come here to repay my kindness. After the reward, Xiao Chen left directly.

As soon as Xiao Chen left, Wu Zijiao came in. During this period, she took care of her sister in Kyoto.

Fortunately, the Empire still has a little conscience.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 492

Although Wu Zijiao doesn’t have any job now, she still pays her salary normally, which ensures that she can stay in Kyoto and take good care of her sister.

But just after entering the ward, Wu Zijiao was completely blindfolded because she saw her sister standing in the ward.

She rubbed her eyes and slapped herself hard. He found that he was really not dreaming and rushed in immediately.

“Ah Mei!” Wu Zijiao burst into tears.

“Sister!” Wu Zimei also immediately laughed. The two sisters hugged each other like this.

Their parents have disappeared since childhood. They were brought up by their grandfather. His grandfather died a few years ago, leaving the two sisters dependent on each other. After Wu Zimei fell, Wu Zijiao's whole mental state was not very good. She even thought if her sister left.

I don't know how to go on in my next life.

But now her sister is waking up, which is just too good news for her.

"How did you wake up? Why did you get up? You'd better lie down in case you get sick again later." Wu Zijiao asked immediately after she was excited.

"It doesn't matter. Now I'm completely well. It's Xiao Chen. He saved me." Wu Zimei smiled faintly.

"Xiao Chen? He? How did he save you? Doctors say your breath of life is getting weaker and weaker. It is estimated that in another month, you may really want... Why can he save you!" Wu Zijiao is a little hard to believe.

"I don't know if it's the same thing that we saved him. But I don't know if it's the same thing that we saved him now." Wu Zimei said with a smile.

"This... Is amazing. Is Xiao Chen really an immortal?" Wu Zijiao also kept sighing at this time.

"Oh!" A doctor came in and was surprised to see the two sisters holding each other and talking.

"Is this... Your sister... Ready?" The doctor's eyes widened, too.

"Yes." Wu Zijiao nodded at her.

"My God!" The doctor almost cried out. But he held back, and then immediately went to another doctor to check it.

“Really recovered? No obstacles?” The most famous brain doctor of the first hospital in Kyoto was also surprised to see such a situation. Although he said such a miracle, he had seen it for so many years.

However, Wu Zimei’s life can’t be changed by miracles. In fact, she was already dead because of the yin-yang Qi of Xiao Chen, which forced her to stay alive. But it’s just a forced renewal of life without any substantive help.

So Wu Zimei herself is dead. She doesn’t even exist in this world. Her soul has left her body. It’s just that the body still retains its original function, but this actually has no meaning.

Because in the end, after the power of Xiao Chen’s yin-yang Qi disappears, she will die completely after her physical function ends. There is not much difference.

But now, Wu Zimei has found her soul. And the body completely recovered.

What kind of ability is it to do such a thing? Is it true that the immortal came down to earth and gave Wu Zimei a second life?

Although they believe in science. However, the matter at hand is really unscientific, no matter how to explain it. Science can’t explain it.

As the saying goes, the end of science is metaphysics. Maybe some immortal came to earth and cured Wu Zimei.

Since then, there has been such a legend in the first hospital in Kyoto that it can really bring back the dead.

However, if this matter is placed in the immortal world, it is estimated that no one will ask about it, because it is too normal. Let alone, even after some monks are completely killed. As long as there is a breath on him, he can be revived by some experts.

Of course, such masters must be above the Mahayana period, and the following friars must not have this ability.

As for how to resurrect the friar, it's hard for Xiao Chen to touch it now. He won't know until he goes to some other world.

Now Xiao Chen just does all the things that he hasn't finished in this world.

After leaving the first hospital, Xiao Chen came to the third hospital again. There was also a benefactor lying here, but in the end, they were also destined.

After all, the way Hua Wenfeng met Xiao Chen was quite special. It was because of some strange things.

However, meeting is fate. Later, Hua Wenfeng also helped Xiao Chen a lot, and when he arrived in Kyoto, he also accepted Xiao Chen. Therefore, all this is actually arranged by God.

Until Hua Wenfeng was taken away, all this changed again. It was like a cycle of cause and effect. His fate seemed to end here. Even if Xiao Chen renewed his life with his own medical skills, someone would come and take his life in the end.

But this time Xiao Chen gave something different, which is completely different from the original.

Because this is the spring of life and the strongest source of life between heaven and earth. Even if God wants Hua Wenfeng to die again, there is nothing to do with the strong breath in the spring of life.

This time, Xiao Chen can be said to have acted against the sky, changed the fate of the way of heaven and treated Wenfeng in China.

Similarly, after the breath of the spring of life was integrated into Hua Wenfeng's body, Hua Wenfeng also woke up miraculously. At this time, his skin had changed greatly and was completely young.

Now if someone comes to see it, it's impossible to see how old Hua Wenfeng is, because he looks younger than Hua Qiye, just like a young and handsome young man.

"I... what's the matter with me?" Hua Wenfeng doesn't seem to understand and hasn't reacted yet.

After looking around, Hua Wenfeng's eyes finally fell on Xiao Chen.

"Xiao Chen, why are you here? Aren't I dead?" Hua Wenfeng seems to recall something. He was caught by a mysterious man last time and finally hung up. Then there was the killer before the man in black left.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 493

"Hua Lao, you are all right now. You are in good health." Xiao Chen smiled: "if you don't believe it, you can look in the mirror."

"Really?" Hua Wenfeng really doesn't believe it now. After all, he was actually shocked to death by people's skill. His brain has completely died. He only relied on Xiao Chen's medical skills to keep those functions of his body. It can be said that his injury should be much more serious than Wu Zimei, because Wu Zimei at least had no brain injury. Just physically injured, although he has completely died.

But compared with huawenfeng, the chance of resurrection is even smaller, in the view of normal people. He was dead, but now, with the help of Xiao Chen, he still survived, and he looks at least 40 years younger. He is simply rejuvenated.

When he came to the mirror, Hua Wenfeng was shocked. It's no good not to be shocked. What he looks like now is exactly what he looks like in his twenties, which is equivalent to being more than 40 years younger!

What kind of concept is this? Unimaginable!

But the fact seems to be that everything is so true in front of him. After some confirmation, Hua Wenfeng believes that he has indeed lived, and now he is living quite well and healthy.

"It's time to change the dressing." Behind his back, a nurse came in. When she saw Huawen peak, her eyes were about to stare out, so she shouted, "it's a corpse!"

He shouted and ran out.

Almost all the nurses were not disturbed by the doctor for a while.

Among them, several brave male doctors came to Hua Wenfeng's ward to confirm and found that Hua Wenfeng really woke up, and several people were full of surprise.

"Hua Lao, are you really Hua Lao?" Asked one of the male doctors. He is the responsible vice president of the hospital and has great power. Of course, his medical skills are also quite high. He can be said to be the person with the highest medical skills in the whole hospital.

Now it's incredible to see Hua Wenfeng standing there well and so much younger. I just think I'm too tired for so many days, so I'm dreaming.

But after some confirmation. He found that he was not dreaming, but really saw what was happening in front of him.

This is absolutely appalling!

A dead man is alive!

And I'm so much younger than before. There's no language to describe it.

"Of course I am. I don't believe it. You can come and check my situation." Hua Wenfeng smiled and said.

Several doctors approached Hua Wenfeng with some trepidation. After some examination, they found that all life values of Hua Wenfeng were quite normal, and even exceeded normal people several times in many aspects.

"This... This Hua Lao is Superman now." The vice president was surprised again when he saw the report.

Hua Wenfeng looked at Xiao Chen on the side and smiled. At this time, Xiao Chen has hidden his body shape with his true Qi. For these ordinary people, he can fool them with a little deception, so it's not difficult.

Hua Wenfeng also accepted Xiao Chen's various statements. Xiao Chen did all this.

After explaining everything, Xiao Chen left here. Flying towards Washington.

After a while, he appeared in Washington again. At this time, huaqiye and huaxuwan were still among them. They may receive the notice of the hospital soon.

"Xiao Chen?" Hua xuwan's detection ability is still relatively good. He suddenly found the taste of Xiao Chen.

Now Xiao Chen really exudes a smell. That smell will make everyone feel very comfortable. It's a smell that doesn't belong to human beings.

"Things are almost done. It's time for me to say goodbye to you." Xiao Chen came up with a faint smile.

"Almost done? But we still don't know who the murderer is." Hua xuwan was stunned.

"The murderer has been killed by me, and now it's all over." Xiao Chen still smiled.

"Ah? You won't say. The murderer is the one you dealt with on the roof that day?" Hua xuwan was stunned again.

"That's just one of them. I cleaned up some of his companions." Xiao Chen replied.

"So it is. It seems that what Xiao Chen said should be true. He really got rid of these people." Hua Qiye also nodded at this time.

Just as he finished. The mobile phone suddenly rang. He picked up the mobile phone and looked shocked when he picked it up.

“You mean. My father, he’s recovered? And he’s many times better than before?”

Hua Qiye was very excited at this time.

“What? Grandpa, is he all right?” Hua xuwan was also quite shocked at this time.

“Really! It’s true! OK, let’s go right away!” Hua Qiye quickly hung up the phone and began to prepare.

“Really good, really good!” Hua xuwan was too excited to himself at this time. He directly hugged Xiao Chen and cried happily.

Xiao Chen just looked plain and still kept smiling.

After calling for a while, Hua xuwan suddenly calmed down, looked at Xiao Chen and asked, “did you do it? Your medical skill is very high, and we all know it.”

“Well, you’ll know if you ask your grandpa later.” Xiao Chen answered flatly.

“Whether it is or not, I want to thank you for your contribution to our family during this time.” Wan Huaxu kissed her directly.

It turned out to be directly talking to Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen didn’t react at once. But then he gave up the struggle.

Nearly half a minute later, Hua xuwan reluctantly loosened his mouth.

Then he blushed and said, "I know you don't like me very much. I also know that you have a family, but I just want to thank you."

With that, Hua xuwan hurriedly ran back to his room.

Xiao Chen didn't speak, just smiled and watched her escape.

This little girl is really good, but now he is a person who is about to leave, so there is no need to stir up each other's feelings.

When she just kissed, Xiao Chen deliberately integrated the breath of the spring of life into her body. In this way, Hua xuwan's constitution has also been changed, and then she can be with her grandfather for a long time.

This is also a gift left by Xiao Chen. Although there is no actual intersection with Hua xuwan, Hua xuwan also sacrificed her reputation for herself. After all, many people outside know that Hua xuwan is his wife.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 494

After sorting out her thoughts, Xiao Chen was ready to set off again. As soon as she was ready to leave, she saw that Hua xuwan and Hua Qiye came behind her.

"Xiao Chen, you are a great man. To be honest, I have never admired a few people in my life, but I still admire you very much. I hope you can still move forward bravely in the future!" Hua Qiye is smiling.

"Well, I will." Xiao Chen nodded and responded with a smile.

Hua xuwan is because of what just happened. There was still a flush on her pretty face. She opened her mouth and seemed to want to say something, but in the end, they all turned into silence and just stared at Xiao Chen with affectionate eyes.

“Well, I’ll go first. There are more important things to do.” Xiao Chen waved to them, and then turned into a streamer. There was no need for him to hide anything in front of them.

“Xiao Chen! You must come back and see me when you are free!” Hua xuwan shouted in the direction of Xiao Chen’s flight, and then crystal tears fell from the corners of her eyes.

“Silly boy, he didn’t say he wouldn’t come. We should live a good life in the future, and he will come to see us again.” Hua Qiye touched the head of Hua xuwan and said.

“Dad.” Hua xuwan tightly hugged his father, and tears couldn’t stop flowing out. Her heart is quite clear. Once Xiao Chen leaves this time and sees her next time, she really doesn’t know when it is.

After leaving Washington, Xiao Chen came to the Cang family again. At this time, the Cang family was already a scene of prosperity, and everything was in good order.

“Mr. Xiao Chen?” Suddenly, a man’s voice came. Xiao Chen turned his head and found that it was cangbei. But now he seems to be wearing a servant’s dress.

“Oh? How can our cangbei childe wear this suit?” Xiao Chen asked with a smile.

“Mr. Xiao Chen, please don’t laugh at me. It’s my own will. I’ve changed it. I know my original actions are wrong. Now I just want to be a servant in the Cang family, which is enough.”

Cangbei said blandly.

This words let Xiao Chen a little surprised, but then he was relieved. Now no one in the Cang family should have bad ideas, and Cang chestnuts should be completely safe. Can do everything you want to do.

“Mr. Xiao Chen!” A woman’s clear and sweet voice suddenly came from behind. Don’t guess, it’s the owner of Cang family, Cang chestnut.

“Miss Cang chestnut, I’m here to say goodbye this time. I hope you can live better in the future.” Xiao Chen looked back at Cang chestnut road.

“Ah? Where is Mr. Xiao Chen going? Can you take me with you?” Cang chestnut was stunned.

“No, there are many unknown dangers in the place I’m going to this time. If I have a chance later, I’ll come back and see you again. Goodbye!” Xiao Chen said and left the Cang family directly.

At this time, in a small hospital in Kyoto, a slim woman was giving several elderly people an infusion to see a doctor, with a smile on her face. It looks very warm and strong.

“Xiao Chen?” Zhao Yuxi saw the man standing in the corner dressed casually, and his face suddenly changed.

“Are you quite used to working here now?” Xiao Chen smiled faintly.

“Well, I’ve adapted. I really thank you for spending the most difficult days with me.” Zhao Yuxi smiled.

Now, although her smile is less lively than the original ones, it is also more mature and deep, which seems to make people more relieved.

“That’s good. Now you’re so good. Here’s my salary card. I haven’t told you what I do before. In fact, I’m helping the Empire do some secret work. What’s the specific work? I’m not convenient to disclose. Keep this card when you need it. You can use it.”

Xiao Chen said and handed the card to Zhao Yuxi.

“No, I can’t take it. What will you use after I take this card?” Zhao Yuxi quickly refused.

“You can rest assured. The mountain people have their own tricks.” Xiao Chen smiled and then disappeared into Zhao Yuxi’s sight.

Zhao Yuxi was surprised, but there was more attachment and sadness in her eyes.

She knows what it means for Xiao Chen to give her this card. Maybe they will never meet again in the future.

From their meeting to now, everything seems so coincidental. I almost experienced the trough and peak of life during the period when I became friends with Xiao Chen. Although I have regrets, I should be more happy.

“Xiao Chen. You must be well in the future.” Zhao Yuxi looked at the figure of Xiao Chen who was far away and prayed silently in his heart.

After leaving Zhao Yuxi’s Hospital, Xiao Chen came to a more remote quadrangle.

At this time, there was an old man sitting in the yard. He sat cross legged in his yard, as if he were practicing some kind of skill.

“Grandpa Ning!” Xiao Chen came to the hospital and shouted.

Ning Wangshu, who was practicing his medical skills, immediately opened his eyes and looked at the source of the sound. Immediately saw a smiling face appeared in front of him.

“Xiao Chen! Why are you here?” Ning Wangshu was also overjoyed.

“Let’s not talk about this. I brought some things for Grandpa Ning. Close your eyes and connect.” Xiao Chen smiled mysteriously.

“What good thing, and then close your eyes?” Ning Wangshu closed his eyes with a smile.

Then Xiao Chen’s body was a spring of life, and the breath flowed into Ning Wangshu’s body. Later, Xiao Chen also injected some of his four divine beasts into Ning Wangshu’s body.

Ning Wangshu's whole body began to change. Unexpectedly, his cultivation directly broke through to the level of foundation friar.

"This... What is this? So strong! I... how did I become so young!" Ning Wangshu suddenly opened his eyes and found that everything in his body had changed.

"This is a power belonging to another world. Grandpa Ning, I won't say much. My grandpa will come and explain to you at that time. I'll go first. There are still some things to deal with." Xiao Chen said and turned into a streamer and flew out.

"Xiao Chen, it's more and more elusive, but the boy's growth is good. He can finally live up to the cultivation of Xiao Qingyuan." Ning Wangshu looked at Xiao Chen's distant figure and stroked his beard.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 495

After leaving Ning Wangshu's yard, Xiao Chen flew directly to a city outside Kyoto, a city with many mountains and rivers, Wuling city.

Nearly half a year has passed since I left Wuling. I just don't know if Yi mengruo is okay now?

Think so. Xiao Chen accelerated his speed, and now at his speed. It can fly hundreds of miles almost in a few breaths, and it is only a few minutes from Kyoto to Wuling.

In fact, he wanted to find yimengruo before, but he didn't have time and was busy with all kinds of things.

Now all the invaders have been solved. He also temporarily had free time, so he came directly to find yimengruo.

At the same time, in a senior club in Wuling, a woman in a light blue dress was holding a jade pendant and giggling foolishly. She was as beautiful as heaven and gorgeous, but there was only missing in her eyes.

This jade pendant was given to Xiao Chen before she left. Seeing the jade pendant is like seeing Xiao Chen himself. After half a year, if Yimeng doesn't remember how many times she woke up and found that there is no one around her, her heart's yearning for Xiao Chen is becoming stronger and stronger.

If she had been allowed to choose again. She will choose to leave with Xiao Chen instead of staying here alone.

Now the sisters around us have found their own place one by one.

At the beginning, although it was said to go alone all the time, as a woman, I still hope to have a man who loves me all my life.

Now they have found it, and the suitor of yimengruo has moved from this row to the city center, but she sees that no one is moved. Everyone knew that there was no room for anyone in her heart.

"Xiao Chen, are you all right? I heard that you have been killed in a battle, but I don't believe that you won't die so easily, will you?" Yi mengruo inquired about the jade pendant. It's like asking your lover.

So affectionate, so gentle.

Suddenly, the jade pendant began to shine and flew directly into the air.

"Xiao Chen!" Emmeroton was shocked. Desperate to get out of his bed.

But as soon as I stepped on the ground, I saw a familiar and no longer familiar figure appear in front of her.

"Xiao... Xiao Chen? Is it really you?" If Yimeng directly covered her mouth, she even felt a little trance at this moment.

"Sorry, I'll never let you miss me like this again." Xiao Chen smiled.

“No, no apology.” Yimeng burst into tears.

Suddenly she felt a force coming, and she flew directly into Xiao Chen’s arms.

Then I felt that Xiao Chen’s warm lips had kissed her.

Next is the most familiar movement between the two. Xiao Chen almost didn’t start now. Relying only on his own true Qi, he made Yimeng reach the highest peak.

Yi mengruo was trembling all over. She felt that she had become one of the happiest women in the world.

After the two lingered for nearly an hour. Yimeng suddenly found that something seemed to have been born in her body. She felt that she was refreshed and could fly into the air in one jump.

“I’m... what’s going on?” She looked at her hands in disbelief.

At this time, Xiao Chen gently stroked her hair and said softly, “I have changed your body. Now you have become a monk. You can improve your ability through cultivation. From then on, you will not be troubled by the secular world.”

“This... Is this true?” Emmeroton was surprised.

“Of course.” Xiao Chen’s voice was still soft.

“Thank you so much, husband.” Yimengruo suddenly changed his name. Then he squatted down directly and gently kissed Xiao Chen’s body.

The two continued to linger for a while. Xiao Chen put on his clothes and flew towards the East China Sea with Yi mengruo.

"I'm going to take you to see your eldest sister this time." Xiao Chen looked at Yi Meng Ruo with a funny face.

"Well, what my husband says is what he says." Yimengruo is like a clever kitten at this time.

After flying for a while, they fell to the edge of a small medical center in the East China Sea.

The Spring Festival Hall, where Xiao Chen first came, started everything here. Now he is back here. In retrospect, it seems that all this is a dream.

They fell into the street. At this time, they were wearing ancient clothes and looked like gods and immortals, which attracted the attention of many people in an instant.

"Wow! Is this a Han suit? Or a Tang suit?" A young girl holding a camera is constantly photographing Xiao Chen and Yi mengruo.

If Xiao Chen and Yi Meng didn't answer, they just smiled gently.

"This is the eldest sister's hospital?" Yi mengruo asked softly.

"Yes, this is my first lover's hospital. Everything starts from here." Xiao Chen smiled and said.

"I don't know how the elder sister is now." Yi mengruo looked at the words of the rejuvenation hall and seemed to fall into thinking.

"Sister Yaqing, come out and have a look. There are a pair of men and women in ancient clothes. They are so beautiful! They are gods!" At this time, a little nurse in the spring hall stood outside and shouted.

"What's good-looking, isn't it ancient clothes? Many people are wearing them now." Wu Yaqing picked up traditional Chinese medicine on one side.

“They... They’re coming! They’re coming to our hospital!” The nurse suddenly called again.

“Come on, don’t make such a fuss.” Wu Yaqing’s eyes are still on traditional Chinese medicine.

“Yaqing, I’m back.” Xiao Chen said after entering the door.

Hearing this sound, Wu Yaqing froze instantly. Then she slowly raised her head and saw that Xiao Chen was wearing a white robe with various patterns. She looked like a real fairy.

“Xiao... Chen?” At this time, Wu Yaqing’s heart was full of five flavors. For a time, she was speechless and choking.

“I’m back. I’m really sorry I haven’t been able to see you for so long.” Xiao Chen still opened his mouth, like telling something.

“Xiao Chen!” Wu Yaqing directly threw down the medicine in his hand and ran towards Xiao Chen.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 496

He bumped into Xiao Chen’s arms, and Wu Yaqing kept saying, “great, you’re not dead! Great! Great...”

“It worries you.” Xiao Chen’s face showed a trace of guilt.

Just after that, Wu Yaqing stuck her fragrant lips with Xiao Chen’s thin lips.

The two kissed like this. I don’t know how long it took, Wu Yaqing slowly released Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen could feel the fanaticism in Wu Yaqing’s heart at this time. Even a lot of affection has emerged from her eyes.

“Xiao Chen... Who is this?” Wu Yaqing suddenly asked.

“I’m just about to introduce you. This is the one I met in Wuling. His name is Yi mengruo.” Xiao Chen smiled faintly.

“Yi mengruo?” Wu Yaqing was stunned for a moment, then looked at their clothes, immediately understood what, and then retreated slowly. His eyes flickered and asked, “Xiao Chen, you won’t come to say goodbye to me this time?”

“No, I came with you this time.” Xiao Chen gently pulled Wu Yaqing over.

“But this...” Wu Yaqing seemed to be a little hard to accept for a while.

“Come on, you come with me, and then you will understand.” Xiao Chen then took her directly out of the traditional Chinese Medicine Museum. Under everyone’s attention, he flew with Wu Yaqing and Yi mengruo.

“Wow! Fairy! Real fairy!” Many people behind took out their mobile phones to shoot.

But when they finished shooting, they opened the video and saw that there was nothing in the video.

Then, in a hotel room. From time to time, there was a woman’s groan.

“HMM... ha... Xiao Chen, no, I can’t stand it.” Wu Yaqing seems to be begging for mercy.

“Elder sister, no, you are also a monk now.” Yi mengruo was reminding him.

“Friar?” Wu Yaqing’s eyes widened in disbelief, and then she felt that there really seemed to be something flowing in her. Then I felt that the whole person seemed to be reborn and changed shares, which was very relaxed and comfortable.

“Really! My body seems to have changed!” Wu Yaqing immediately shouted happily.

Then laughter and groans continued to fill the entire hotel room.

In the process of intimacy, Xiao Chen found that his cultivation had slowly improved and reached the peak level of Valley opening. He was only one step away from entering the golden elixir period.

I didn't expect to get such benefits. Xiao Chen immediately felt a burst of joy in her heart.

“Next, we're going to find a Ling. She seems to have gone to country M. she doesn't know what to do.” Wu Yaqing was ruddy at this time, and she didn't feel any discomfort after the previous war. Instead, I want to go on like this all the time.

“Well, now there's only sister a Ling left.” Yi mengruo also said.

“Well, it's a little far away. I won't take you with me. I'll take her back and we'll go to Kyoto together.” Xiao Chen thought for a moment.

“OK.” Wu Yaqing and Yi mengruo both nodded. Now they have all obeyed Xiao Chen's arrangement.

“Yes.” Xiao Chen kissed them on the forehead again, then turned over and got out of bed. With a wave of his hand, he put on his clothes again, and then disappeared directly.

“Mengruo. Have you known Xiao Chen for so long? Can you tell me something about your relationship?” Seeing Xiao Chen leaving, Wu Yaqing immediately came to Yi mengruo and asked.

At this time, the two women's bodies are clean and smooth.

If any man comes to see such a beautiful scene, it is estimated that he will have nosebleed in an instant.

“Things with Xiao Chen should start from the beginning when he participated in the antique auction over there...” Yi mengruo smiled gently and began to tell about some things about Xiao Chen over there.

Xiao Chen flew all the way. After nearly an hour’s flight, he came to the top of country M. he searched around and soon found the location of a Ling.

“Hey, hey, little beauty, we caught you this time! Just give in! No one can save you!” At this time, a Ling has been surrounded by some experts in country m, and there is no way out at all.

She is also seriously injured. There were all kinds of scratches on her clothes, and the men of the other party were looking at the spring light on her without any disguise.

“Brother Xiao Chen, I’m sorry, I still can’t take revenge!” A Ling opened the explosive in her hand in some despair.

“It’s over, this woman is crazy! That’s a G-Series destruction bomb! Let’s go!” A man from country m of the other party immediately prepared to escape.

But as soon as he finished speaking, a thunderbolt went straight through his body.

Subsequently, other masters also burst open one after another, and were completely destroyed in an instant and disappeared into the world.

“This is...” ah Ling was a little surprised at this time, but the bomb in her hand had been opened, and she was bound to die next.

At this critical moment, Xiao Chen appeared in an instant, completely eliminated the destruction bomb, and everything was calm.

“Brother Xiao Chen!” Ling looked at the man in front of her in disbelief.

“Let you suffer.” With a big move from Xiao Chen, ah Ling flew directly into his arms. Then his clothes changed into purple clothes.

“This.....” ah Ling was directly taken to the East China Sea by Xiao Chen before he had time to respond.

Then, after the four practiced together for a period of time, ah Ling also had vitality.

Then they all returned to Kyoto.

At this time, Xiao Qingyuan and others have come to a transmission array and have been waiting for a long time.

“Finally back.” Xiao Chen Qingyuan smiled after seeing Xiao Chen who came to the transmission array with three women.

“Next, we will embark on the journey of another world. Are you ready?” Xiao Qingyuan then looked into the transmission array behind him.

“All right!” Everyone present said in unison.

Xiao Chen, Yi mengruo, Wu Yaqing and a Ling also looked at each other and replied, “OK!”

“Then let’s say goodbye to the world for a while, go to the new world and pursue a higher realm!”

Xiao Qingyuan said and stepped into the portal.

Then came Xu Chuo and some other monks, all of whom poured in.

Finally, when Xiao Chen arrived, they all looked at the transmission array very calmly, and then looked around the world where they are now.

“The future may be full of thorns, but I still have no regrets and strive to move forward!” Xiao Chen said that and took the three women into it.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 497

“Father!”

”Yaqing! “

“Aya!”

Xiao Chen suddenly woke up from the nightmare. He looked around and knew that he was in the transmission array.

But here is

On the white wall, there is a huge word of medicine.

He didn't wait to sort out his thoughts, but felt that a memory that didn't belong to him suddenly poured into his brain like a tide.

Xiao Chen?

Same as your own name.

The redundant son-in-law of the Xia family in Binjiang city.

Son in law again?

what the hell!

Xiao Chen smiled.

"Xiao Chen, what are you doing? Did you sweep the floor? Did you buy breakfast for the young lady? "

It was Aunt Wang, a helper in this traditional Chinese medicine shop.

"When is it now?"

Aunt Wang stared at Xiao Chen sitting in a daze on the bed.

"You fool, are you sick again?"

Then she threw the mop in her hand into his arms.

"Drag the floor."

Xiao Chen looked at the mop. The man with the same name had the same past as himself.

This is life?

Xiao Chen got out of bed with a mop.

He saw the calendar on the wall at a glance.

The 27th year of the Republic of China!

How did the transmission array send me to the Republic of China!

But?

No. Why didn't Aunt Wang just wear clothes from the Republic of China? That's clearly the dress of modern people.

Bang!

The empty barrel was thrown at his feet by Aunt Wang from the outer room.

"Did you sleep all night and the ground won't drag. Go and fetch water!"

Xiao Chen picked up the barrel. He walked out of the traditional Chinese medicine shop full of worry. Suddenly, an Audi A4 passed quickly in front of him.

"Silly x watch!"

An angry scold floated out of the car.

Xiao Chen didn't seem to hear it at all. According to his new memory, he walked towards a water house across the street.

When he came to the water room, Xiao Chen had a comprehensive understanding of the new world he had crossed.

Xia family.

That's the summer family he joined.

It is one of the four families in Binjiang city.

Mainly engaged in traditional Chinese medicine business.

The Republic of China is actually a new world with the color of the Republic of China.

Strictly speaking, it has nothing to do with the Republic of China.

On the contrary, warlords separated China into three big countries and twelve small countries.

Binjiang city is located in a small country called North Korea.

The supervisor who rules North Korea is Zhao Tianqi. He is also one of the warlords. He is bloodthirsty and known as the king of murder.

“Doctor Xia, come and save my son!”

Xiao Chen was carrying a bucket into the hospital when she saw a woman running in with a three or four year old boy.

She saw Xiao Chen and pushed him away.

Xiao Chen’s bucket was pushed out by her, and the water in the bucket spilled all over the floor.

“Waste, what are you doing?”

Aunt Wang came out from behind the medicine hall and cursed at Xiao Chen.

The woman also looked disgusted. She stared at Xiao Chen and said ruthlessly, “a good dog is not in charge. Don’t you see I’m worried?”

Xiao Chen cries bitterly in her heart. How can one's life be a hundred times worse than the previous one.

However, he can also understand that Xiao Chen now, in fact, in the whole Binjiang City, even a three-year-old child on the roadside, knows that he is a silly man.

He is a big fool brought back by the late owner of the Xia family.

Just this fool. But he was unexpectedly accepted as a redundant son-in-law by master Xia.

“What's the matter?”

After the medicine hall, a charming woman came out. Her hair was wrapped in blue cloth, with willow eyebrows, red phoenix eyes, cherry mouth and melon seed face. It can be said that all the characteristics of a beautiful woman are included in her pretty face.

One word.

Beauty!

This is my wife?

Xiao Chen was stunned.

Compared with his former wives, this woman named Xia Yunshang. It's really like her name, which reminds people of that sentence.

Clouds think of clothes and flowers think of faces.

It's really like the elegant lady of the Tang Dynasty. It's protruding and warping. It's rich and graceful. It makes people think about it.

The woman who brought the child in suddenly ran into Xiao Chen in front of her. He held the child in front of Xia yunshang.

“Doctor Xia, have a look. He was just fine. Somehow, he suddenly fainted and lost consciousness?”

Xia yunshang asked her to put the child on one side of the bed.

After a careful inspection, the originally calm expression became more and more dignified with her in-depth inspection.

“This...”

“How’s it going“

The woman looked at Xia yunshang with a worried face.

”This eldest sister. The child may not be able. “

“What!” When the woman heard this, she was stupid. She took Xia yunshang. “Doctor Xia, you are a miracle doctor. You have to save him. Please, I’ll kneel down for you.”

Xia yunshang shook his head helplessly and said, “the child is suffering from sudden heart attack, which is an incurable disease.”

When the woman heard this, she sat down on the ground.

“My son!”

Xiao Chen looked at the woman crying to death, but he moved his compassion.

“Why don’t you let me see?”

His words stunned everyone in the house. Then he saw Aunt Wang take the lead and scold angrily:
“what a mess are you doing, a fool! Go mop the floor! “

“Yes!”

Even the other patients in the room and their families followed suit.

“A fool wants to see a doctor, too. It’s killing me with laughter.”

“Why does the Xia family have such a silly son-in-law“

“It’s a pity that there are people like doctor Xia.”

At this time, the woman crying on the ground didn’t vent her anger when she heard Xiao Chen say so. Seeing him say so, he jumped up from the ground.

Like crazy, he rushed to Xiao Chen at once.

“You’re still angry with me, I’ll kill you!”

Xia yunshang was angry when she saw him, but she was her husband after all.

She winked at Aunt Wang.

“Go. Pull him to the back.”

Aunt Wang nodded, came forward and pulled away the woman. Then she pulled Xiao Chen towards the back hall like a chicken.

“Wait, I can really cure this child. If I delay again, he can’t really cure it!”

Xiao Chen’s words, like thunder, suddenly quieted the already noisy medicine hall.

The crowd burst into laughter.

Xia Yunshang’s face was even more ugly.

“Aunt Wang, teach him well!”

“Yes, miss.”

A sneer flashed across the corner of Aunt Wang’s mouth.

Xiao Chen saw it in his eyes. He instantly remembered how he had been abused and whipped by this fat woman in the past, which came into his mind vividly.

He grabbed Aunt Wang’s hand and broke it away.

“You?”

Aunt Wang was stunned by Xiao Chen’s sudden force.

At this time, Xiao Chen looked at the child in bed.

There was already a trace of blue and black on his face.

It's important to save people.

He made one lunge to the bed.

The palm slammed on the child's chest.

"What are you doing!"

"My child!"

"Fool, dare you!"

Everyone looked at Xiao Chen in surprise.

At this time, Aunt Wang, who was enraged, picked up the mop beside the door and suddenly hit Xiao Chen on the back of his head.

Click!

The wooden stick with thick arms was broken.

Xiao Chen was shocked and fell down immediately.

At this time, the child's mother rushed to the bed, but severely kicked Xiao Chen on the ground.

"Mom, I, where am I? "

The child who had been sentenced to death by doctor Xia awoke magically at this time.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 498

Poof!

A basin of cold water poured on Xiao Chen's face. He slowly opened his eyes and saw a group of people around him, all with shocked and surprised eyes.

It's like watching a monster looking at himself.

"Benefactor!"

Just now he kicked himself and scolded his woman one by one. At this time, he knelt in front of Xiao Chen with his children.

"No, get up quickly. The child is fine."

"It's okay, it's okay. Thank you for your help. We don't know how to thank you. "

The woman took out a round jade pendant from her arms and sent it to Xiao Chen's hand.

"Benefactor. This is your man"

"It's too expensive."

"No, no, it's nothing compared to your saving grace."

Xiao Chen then climbed up from the ground. Pick up the woman and the child.

"Xiao Chen, come in! "

Xia yunshang said coldly, then turned and walked into the back hall first.

Xiao Chen could only follow in obediently.

"What's the matter with you?"

"I, I just want to save the child."

"Help? What would you do? If it hadn't happened just now, you didn't know how much trouble you would have caused to our medical hall, do you know?"

Xiao Chen was said to be wronged. Obviously, he saved the child by relying on the disease pulse in his body. How could he be in trouble?

"Get on your knees! "

"Ah?!"

Xiao Chen looked at his wife in surprise.

"I told you to kneel down. Didn't you hear me?"

Xiao Chen knows that his wife is going to enforce the family law.

This memory, in fact, has long been engraved in that memory.

Yes, Xia yunshang would beat himself with a cane whenever he was wrong.

Alas!

This fellow of the same name is really suffering!

Now, he was relieved easily, but it was bitter for Xiao Chen.

Pop!

Ah!

Pop!

Ah!

Xiao Chen fell with the cane and shouted with pain.

It's not that he has some thirteen Taibao horizontal kung fu training.

In fact, after he sent it to this world, his disease pulse was also brought over.

Not only that.

His golden elixir cultivation also fused with his own disease pulse.

The current disease pulse can not only absorb disease Qi, but also run these disease Qi around the body to defend against any invasion from the outside.

For example, I'm beating my own cane now.

And Aunt Wang's mop just now.

"Aren't you obedient?" Xia yunshang asked, putting down the cane in his hand.

Xiao Chen pretended to be in pain, struggling from the ground to look at her and said, "no, I don't dare."

"I hope you won't make the same mistake again."

Xia yunshang stared at him, put the cane back on several cases, and turned back to the front medical hall.

When Xiao Chen saw that she had gone, she simply lay on the ground, held her head in both hands and stared at the roof.

It seems that I can't go back now.

Unless we find the transmission array.

But why did you just come to this world by yourself?

What about the others?

"You're still lying!"

While Xiao Chen was busy trying to sort out his mind, the annoying Aunt Wang came in again.

It seems that she was born against herself.

Xiao Chen will feel uncomfortable for a moment.

“Go to work, miss. You’re busy outside. Do you just eat free food and quit your work?”

Aunt Wang said that without waiting for Xiao Chen to stand up, she kicked Xiao Chen to the ground again.

It’s hard to be a son-in-law!

Xiao Chen secretly complains.

In the evening.

A black Jeep Mustang Jeep stopped in front of the door.

Xia yunshang’s father got out of the car. He went into the medical hall and said, “yunshang, go home. “

Xiao Chen stood up from the counter and bowed to the old man in law.

“You fool, scare me. What are you doing?”

Xia Guowei, a small section chief of Binjiang municipal government units, was not interested in medical skills since childhood. Therefore, reading from politics, people are afraid of the inside, and they have made no great achievements in this officialdom.

“I’m cleaning up, and the cloud clothes are in charge. I’ll call her.”

Xiao Chen was about to go to the back hall.

“No” Xia yunshang walked out from inside.

“Yunshang, I heard today that our medical school cured a dead child, didn't it?”

Zhao Youzhen came in from the outside. She is Xia Yunshang's mother and Xiao Chen's mother-in-law. She is a fierce woman. Relying on her mother's family, she is also the Zhao family, one of the four families in Binjiang city. Take the service of his man Xia Guowei.

Just like the queen of this family.

Xia Yunshang nodded and said, “Xiao Chen also helped me.”

“What, he, ha ha, what can he do as a fool? He's not my daughter's excellent. Who doesn't know that my daughter is a doctor Xia in Binjiang city.” Zhao Youzhen said, gouging out Xiao Chen with her eyes.

Xiao Chen was not surprised by the neglect of his mother-in-law and father-in-law.

Outsiders treat themselves much less so. It's not surprising that the father-in-law and mother-in-law treat themselves like this.

Xia Yunshang said in a voice that was almost inaudible to others, “in fact, he saved the child.”

Zhao Youzhen and Xia Guowei were stunned, but the next second, Zhao Youzhen walked to her daughter with a smile.

“Well, I don't know you yet. Although he is stupid, he is also your husband. I can only blame your dead grandfather, alas!”

Xia Guowei glared at Zhao Youzhen with some dissatisfaction. But I dare not say anything.

“Yunshang, go, let's go home.”

Then she looked at Xiao Chen and said, “look at the medical hall, you know?”

“Yes, mother-in-law.”

Xiao Chen replied expressionless.

Xia yunshang got on the bus with her parents.

“Yunshang, how are you thinking about your pregnancy?”

Xia yunshang frowned slightly, “I haven’t thought about it yet. “

“Yunshang, you’d better have a baby as I said. Then we can drive the fool out of Xia’s house.”

“Yes, your grandmother has the same attitude. Quickly drive this fool out of Xia’s house and save him from being in our house and affecting our reputation. At that time, your grandmother said to introduce you to a superior family in person, so you can live the life you want.”

Xia yunshang didn’t say anything, but looked out of the window.

His marriage was decided by his grandfather. Although the whole family opposed it, he was the owner of the house. But he defied all opinions and made a rule. Even if he was gone, unless Xia yunshang gave birth to Haizi with Xiao Chen, he could not apply for divorce.

In fact, from marriage to now, Xia yunshang is still a virgin.

“Yunshang. You’d better admit it. For your own future, you’ll have s*x with him. At that time, as long as you have children, you’ll be free.” Zhao Youzhen turned back and advised.

But when she saw that Xia yunshang was completely absent-minded, she could only sigh and said, “yunshang, in a few days, it will be our annual family banquet. I don’t know if you have prepared a gift for grandma?”

Xia yunshang made a noise.

The family chat ended in the silence of Xia yunshang.

The medical hall at this time.

Xiao Chen is about to close the door of the medical hall.

But I saw a black Rolls Royce parked in front of the door.

Four men in black woolen overcoats came down from above. They all wore sunglasses. They walked to Xiao Chen together. One of them asked, “is doctor Xia there?”

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 499

“My wife is home.”

Xiao Chen stood in front of the door and looked at the people wearing woolen army coats. These people are the soldiers stationed in Binjiang city and the men of Li bearded.

There is a battalion stationed in Binjiang City, and this Li bearded is the local emperor here.

If you have a gun, you have the right.

As for those dignitaries in Binjiang, which one doesn’t look at the two box guns in Li beard’s hand?

Li bearded is said to like women on weekdays, so he married sixteen rooms just as his aunt.

“Our eighth aunt of battalion commander Li has a strange disease and wants to see doctor Xia. Call her quickly and let her come back.”

Xiao chenzhen was baffled by the soldier. First of all, his wife was tired all day. I still love it. After all, it's my wife.

Although she is sometimes fierce.

Moreover, if you call at this time, I'm afraid your mother-in-law will complain again. It's likely that you'll deduct all your monthly money this month.

Xiao Chen thought for a moment and said, “sir. Do you think I can go? “

“You? Aren't you a fool? What do you know? “

No one in this Binjiang city doesn't know his Xiao Chen.

The soldier's contempt made Xiao Chen feel a little dissatisfied. He smiled and said, “in fact, I have learned medicine from my wife on weekdays. Therefore, when my wife is away, it's up to me.”

“Really?”

“Elder brother, can I make fun of my head? Who is battalion commander Li? If I deceive you, I know I can't come back today“

When he said this, the soldiers believed him.

These people still know their battalion commander's temper.

And if you go back late, I don't know how the battalion commander will punish them.

The eight aunts are at home now. They are in pain.

"Then come with us."

Xiao Chen nodded, locked the door and got into the car with these soldiers.

Binjiang garrison headquarters.

Li big beard was pacing anxiously back and forth in front of aunt BA's house.

This little old man is his favorite one. He is beautiful. The most important thing is that this little old man has the best job.

But a few days ago, I didn't know what I had eaten. It was midnight for several days. My abdomen hurt as if I had been stabbed.

As a result, the eighth aunt screamed in the middle of the night in too much pain, and her good deeds were delayed.

"Battalion commander, here comes the man."

When Li bearded saw that the sent men ran in, he looked like a smile on his face.

Can see Xiao Chen following behind, his face suddenly drooped down.

"You f*cked Bazi, don't you want to live? I asked you to take doctor Xia. How did you bring this fool?"

These soldiers have long thought out their words.

“Battalion commander, you don’t know. This fool is powerful now.”

“Hmm? How powerful? Where can a fool be?”

Lee’s beard was curling his mouth and looked incredulous.

“Battalion commander, did you hear about the boy saved by doctor Xia today?”

“Ah, I heard my aunt mention it when she was eating. What’s the matter?”

“That’s him. That’s what the fool showed you.”

“Really!”

Li big beard waved to Xiao Chen and said, “come on, you come.”

Xiao Chen came up to him.

“What they said is true?”

This is true, Xiao Chen nodded.

“Damn it, you fool is so powerful. OK. If you cure aunt BA’s disease, I will reward you a lot, but if you can’t cure it...”

Li big beard said, took out the box gun pinned to his waist, pointed to Xiao Chen’s temple and said, “I’ll shoot you!”

Xiao Chen smiled and said, "just don't break your promise, battalion commander."

Lee's beard pulled him into the room.

Xiao Chen looked. A short gown in Tulle on the bed was humming there. There must be no doubt that it was the eighth aunt.

She was covered in sweat. Obviously tortured by the pain, he looked haggard and saw Li's beard. She took his hand.

"Master, help me!"

"Baby, didn't I find a miracle doctor?" Li Beard said and pulled Xiao Chen to the bed.

Eighth aunt looked too much. Cried, "isn't this the fool Xiao Chen? Sir, are you going to kill me?"

Li beard looked at Xiao Chen and said, "you say, can you cure it"

In fact, Xiao Chen has seen the problem of this eight aunt since she came in.

He nodded.

"Eight aunts are too relieved. Xiao Chen will cure you today."

"Well, you don't hurry up, I, I'm starting to hurt again!"

The eighth aunt screamed. She covered her lower abdomen with her hands and rolled back and forth on the bed. It was really painful to see her.

Xiao Chen then asked Li big beard to help hold down aunt BA's hands.

And he stood up and pointed to Aunt BA's belly. "Madam, is it painful here?"

"Yes, yes, it hurts like being stabbed by a knife!"

Xiao Chen reached out and lifted the tulle blouse, then looked at Li's beard and said, "battalion commander, I need to press my hand on the place where my wife hurts, so..."

"Good. As long as you cure the disease, you can let the little old man take off."

Xiao Chen laughed to herself.

Reach out here and take off some of aunt BA's pants.

Maybe it was because the eight aunts swayed too much. This time, they took off their pants more, and they could see the sensitive parts faintly.

Xiao Chen didn't care about these, so he put his hand on the sick part of aunt ba.

"Ah! Well"

Xiao Chen had a pulse in his body, so he put his palm on the affected area and immediately absorbed the disease Qi into his body.

The pain immediately lost most of it.

Eight aunts felt so comfortable that she had time to look at Xiao Chen. She saw that the fool was beautiful, fair skinned, and stole a different style between her eyebrows and eyes.

I couldn't help but look stunned.

Xiao Chen sucked all the sick gas here, stood up and said, "well, look, my wife doesn't cry pain. She should be cured."

"So fast?" Li big beard didn't expect that with such a grasp, he was cured by the fool after bothering them for several days.

"OK, fool, you're really good at it."

"Master, this fool's medical skill is really good. You should reward others well!"

With aunt BA's words, Li beard nodded, turned back and said to her, "little old eight, you can keep it. We're out. I'll see you again in the evening"

He deliberately accentuated the word "evening".

Aunt Ba didn't know what it meant. Although she didn't want to, she smiled and stared at him and said, "I know, sir. "

Xiao Chen and Li bearded went out of the house.

"Come on, how do you want me to thank you?"

Xiao Chen didn't dare to put forward any conditions in front of him. He could only say with a smile: "it's a little effort, the battalion commander doesn't have to. "

"That's not good. I have a clear reward and punishment for my beard," he said, thinking about it and said, "yes, someone gave me a jade Ruyi a few days ago. I'm not very interested in this thing, so I'll give it to you."

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 500

Rolls Royce with a big beard sent Xiao Chen and Yu Ruyi in a brocade box back to the hospital.

Watching the car go away, Xiao Chen felt that he should do something for the fool.

Entering the hospital, Xiao Chen opened the brocade box, which was carved from a foot long jade.

In fact, from the moment he saw this thing, Xiao Chen knew that it was a good thing.

It's just that battalion commander Li, as he said, doesn't understand the value of this thing.

Xiao Chen estimated that the price of this jade should be around 50000 silver yuan. At this price, we can buy two of the hospital, and there will be surplus.

Just to cure the eighth aunt, he earned two medical schools. It's a good deal.

Xiao Chen took Yu Ruyi away. At this time, he remembered that the disease pulse on his body and the just sick Qi had not been integrated.

He went to the counter and put the bedding on it. Sit cross legged on the bed.

He was also familiar with the integration of meditation. After about an hour, the ill Qi absorbed by the eighth aunt was transformed into true Qi by him.

Now this genuine Qi is included in his pulse. As long as he wants to use it, he can release it from his body at any time.

Don't underestimate this Qi. If it hurts people, although it can't compare with the power of those guns, it can also play the power of weapons such as arrow feather.

This is also a new function he studied from the disease pulse.

However, when he came from the transmission array this time, he lost the cultivation of Jindan.

Although the existence of golden elixir can also be felt in the body, there is no movement at all for some reason.

Fortunately, I can still have this pulse.

It seems that everything has to start over.

After absorbing the disease Qi, a layer of black mud appears on the body surface, which is the result of the disease Qi expelling the impurities in the body.

In fact, this is also a process of hardening his body. Xiao Chen knows that as long as he persists, he may return to his peak one day.

Wash your body.

Xiao Chen then lay down to rest.

There was nothing to say this night.

The next morning. Xiao Chen got up, folded the quilt and went to the back to wash.

But he just stood in front of the mirror and was surprised to find that his face seemed to have changed.

He studied it carefully for a long time.

In general, their facial features are more handsome, and their skin is more compact and delicate.

In addition to this, Xiao Chen found that his body also lost a lot of fat.

He thought for a while. This must be the result of his own fusion and refining of those sick Qi last night.

I didn't expect this time. Ill pulse can also have such benefits.

I don't know what effect can it bring if I continue to practice?

Xiao Chen looks forward to it.

Then a horn sounded outside the door.

Xiao Chen knew it was Xia yunshang. He ran to the door and opened the door of the medical school.

Xia yunshang didn't look at him and went straight into the medical school.

Zhao Youzhen gouged out the silly uncle in the window and said coldly, "yunshang didn't eat breakfast this morning. Go and buy her something to eat. "

Xiao Chen nodded, turned around, took his coat and walked to the morning market in front of him.

In the street at this time. The flow of people is increasing. Those who go to work, do business, flow of people and vehicles, and the morning market Xiao Chen goes to is in a downtown area of Binjiang city.

He just walked into the morning market. I only heard a cry in front of me.

"Hit people!"

Someone pointed to the front and the flow of people was blocked.

Xiao Chen walked along the crowd and saw a woman in her forties lying in front of a black A8. At the moment, the man was bleeding and seemed to have been hit on the head.

“Call, come on!”

When someone called for an ambulance, people saw the driver in the car. He was still sitting in the car with an impatient face.

“Just now I saw the car and suddenly rushed out of there. The eldest sister had no time to hide“

“So it’s the whole responsibility of the car?”

“In the morning market, cars are not allowed at all. Of course, it is the responsibility of the car“

“This man is really. How did he hit him so seriously? I don’t want to get out of the car and have a look.”

“OK, don’t you see who’s inside? This man is the second son of the Zhao family. The Zhao family has money. When they come down, they will lose money. Don’t mention hitting, they will kill people. It’s all right“

Xiao Chen looked at the man in the car. He knew him. It should be said that he had this man in his memory.

Zhao Youquan.

He is actually his mother-in-law’s nephew.

I used to bully myself.

Right now.

Someone pointed to the woman on the ground and said, “isn’t this the wife of Captain Liu, the new patrol room?”

This voice. It was nothing to watch, but it frightened Zhao Youquan in the car.

Although relying on his money, he thought he could deal with people with money, but now he hit the official’s wife, which is not the same thing.

Zhao Youquan got out of the car and came to the woman. He stepped back with his hand, shouted and said, “elder sister, are you okay?”

“It’s all right? People have been smashed into blood gourds by you.”

“I guess I can’t live.”

Toot!

Zhao Youquan was a little scared, but there was a siren in the distance.

Then someone shouted, “get out of the way.”

A dozen policemen separated the crowd and stood beside Zhao Youquan.

“Really, sister-in-law, did you hit it?”

A patrolman pointed to Zhao Youquan and asked.

“Yes, yes, but I didn’t mean to.”

“Not intentional? I’ll let you know what is intentional later!”

With these words, these people came to catch Zhao Youquan.

Zhao Youquan got up and wanted to hide, but he saw Xiao Chen on one side.

“Fool, why are you here? Go and help me tell my family and let them save me.”

Xiao Chen actually wanted to turn around and leave, but the scouts saw that Xiao Chen and Zhao Youquan knew each other, so they came up and caught him.

“Since you are an accomplice, come with us.”

“Why are you catching me? I’m not hitting people.”

“Wait until you go to the patrol room.”

At this time, the ambulance also came. A doctor in his forties and two nurses ran down from the ambulance.

The doctor looked up, shook his head and said, “how can I call? This man is dead.”

When Xiao Chen heard that the doctor said he was dead, he was also stunned. Isn’t this a foolproof disaster?

When I came to buy breakfast, I was urged by Zhao Youquan’s bad luck and pulled myself on my back.

no way.

Xiao Chen looked at the woman on the ground.

“People are not dead, there is still salvation!”

The middle-aged doctor looked at Xiao Chen and said with a sneer, “you fool, you know a fart. This man was hit in the brain. Now even if he has signs, he can’t do it.”

Xiao Chen said to the policeman holding her: “your captain’s wife is still saved. Let me see. I’m the husband of doctor Xia. I can save her.”
