The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 61

Hearing what Xiao Chen said, old man Lin was very moved: “thank you, young man. Although I know that these things can’t be forced, I still want to find someone to try. Our family doesn’t believe me. Now we can only rely on you!”

During the conversation, the barbecue also came up.

They also chatted and ate.

Although the old man looks very edible and strong. But Xiao Chen could still see that there were some problems in his lungs. It seemed that a small tumor had grown.

However, their generation more or less liked smoking and drinking, and the probability of suffering from lung tumors was also relatively high.

These Xiao Chen are all in the eye. He didn’t say anything. He wanted to break the tumor on his body with disease Qi in the name of massage and health preservation, and then cure it.

They were clinking glasses and drinking wine. Suddenly, a group of uninvited guests came up from the stall. They were all wearing leather clothes and big gold chains. They looked like unemployed vagrants who fooled around outside all day.

Went to the female boss’s stall. Several people’s walking posture is quite abnormal. It seems that they want to show their very dragging appearance.

“Oh, where’s the little girl’s stall?” The head of humanity, he looks a little fat, with long hair covering one side of his face.

The female boss had to pile up a smiling face and say, “yes, what do you want to eat?”

“Come on, get two cases of beer for our brothers, then eight chicken wings, ten strings of roast sausage, and two large plates of leeks. Let’s have 30 strings of the remaining meat!” Chewing gum while ordering.

“So many...” the female boss didn’t know what to do for a while.

“Why? Grandpa has money, and you’re afraid that you won’t get credit!” With that, he took out his wallet.

But no one knows whether there is money in it.

“But... You ate here last time... It’s also on credit.” Although the female boss was afraid of him, she still told the previous situation.

“What are you afraid of? I’ll just check out this time. I have money!” With that, he arrogantly went to one side of the plastic chair and sat down.

The old man looked at such a fat man with anger on his face.

This area belongs to the “three regardless” zone, so there are often some people who eat overlord meals.

Although the female boss is very afraid, she is also a small business. The fat man ordered so much that she hesitated and didn’t move for a long time.

“I said, are you a shameless b*tch? I think highly of you when I eat here!” Seeing that the female boss hadn’t moved for a long time, the fat man patted the table and shouted.

“Sorry, I’ll do it right away.” The female boss’s face was full of grievances, but in order to make a living, she had to do so.

Old man Lin really couldn’t see it anymore. When he was just ready to stand up. He found a hand on his shoulder and pressed him down.

“Lin Bo, I’ll be fine with this little thing. Sit down.” Xiao Chen’s face was full of killing intention.

Even old man Lin once went to the battlefield and tried his best to see Xiao Chen's face. He shivered in an instant.

"Be careful, young man, don't try to be brave. This kind of thing can be handed over to the police!" Old man Lin still told me.

"Just leave it to me. Don't worry!" Xiao Chen gave him a thumbs up.

When he came to the female boss, he grabbed her hand and said, "don't bake, they won't give money."

"Ah? But..." although the female boss knows, she knows better that she doesn't bake these things and send them to the group. Then I can hardly do my own business.

"Don't worry, I said not to bake, it's okay." Xiao Chen patted her on the shoulder and said.

Among the men in leather clothes, it seems that a thin man with a strange thing hanging on his ears noticed Xiao Chen's action.

So he said something to the fat man, and the fat man stood up immediately.

"Boy! Where are you from? Looking for trouble? Want a hero to save the United States, don't you?"

Then he picked up a chair on the side.

"It doesn't matter where I am. I want you to know today whether you should be here or not!" Xiao Chen's eyes burst with cold.

The fat man made a force on his right arm and directly smashed the stool towards Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen directly punched through the chair and hit him in the ribs. Instantly broke one of the fat man's ribs.

The fat man was directly punched and flew, lying on the ground, foaming at the mouth.

"Mom, pull a Bazi! Dare to hit our spring brother! Brothers, go!" Behind him, a group of men in leather pulled up iron bars and bat rackets that didn't know where they came from.

"Ah!" The female boss let out a scream. Obviously scared.

"Young man, don't try to be brave. You'd better call the police first!" Old man Lin was worried when he saw so many people coming around.

"It's all right. Don't worry." Xiao Chen smiled.

A group of men came at him with iron bars.

In order to avoid a group of people leading Xiao Chen to the open space.

"You run? Where's NIMA!" With that, the thin looking man rushed up, directly waved his bat and hit Xiao Chen hard.

Xiao Chen kicked him out with a whip, fell to the ground and kept wailing.

The group of men behind also kept rushing up.

He punched and kicked Xiao Chen for a while, but they were all blocked by Xiao Chen. Then one person gave a punch, either breaking the hand bone or the ribs. They all lay on the ground and howled.

Xiao Chen went to the fat man who had been knocked down and took out his wallet. Unexpectedly, there were hundreds of dollars in it, but it was not enough compared with the things he ordered.

“Oh. Take it. He owes you.” Xiao Chen put the money in the hands of the female boss.

But the female boss shook her head desperately. She really didn't dare to accept it. She was afraid what if the fat man came to trouble her again in the future?

Xiao Chen also saw her worry, so she asked, “how about introducing you to a formal job?”

Formal work? Her eyes glowed for a moment, but faded. Because her family is in the mountains, she has not read any books and has no diploma, she can only set up a stall in the street. Although it is bitter, she can gain a foothold in a city like the East China Sea.

“Forget it, I don't have a diploma and I can't meet all the conditions.” She hung her head.

In fact, she is completely a beauty. She must be a superior beauty if she is well dressed. Many companies must like her, but they just lack an opportunity.

Old man Lin also came over and said, “yes, you are a girl. It's time to find a stable job.”

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 62

In fact, it's not that old man Lin didn't introduce her to work, but it's not that the last companies accepted it with hypocrisy, or that she thought she felt guilty and came here to set up a night snack stall.

“Well, you don't have to worry about the public security here. Take the money. I'll give you some advice later to strengthen the public security here.” Old man Lin remembered that he had introduced her to work before.

Xiao Chen also stopped and waited for the old man's statement.

Or decided to help her get things done here first.

So he made a direct call.

“Hello! Me. Yes, don’t build here all day. What projects are there? Now, I’m in Chengpu district. Isn’t there a ‘three no’s’ zone here? Many of these stalls are our traditional skills, so you should promote the preservation, not just eliminate them all? You know? There’s a problem with the public security here. Yes, your father, I was almost there just now Beaten by a group of unemployed vagrants! “

“Well, I won’t say anything else. You’ll show me the security here!” With that, old man Lin hung up the phone.

Xiao Chen and the female boss looked at each other. They didn’t know who old man Lin called. The tone seemed to be like his son.

“Hey, hey, well, it’s all right. These sons of b*tches dare to come again and catch them all in prison!” Old man Lin said and looked contemptuously at the fat man lying on the ground.

The fat man seemed to wake up and feel the pain in his chest.

“Oh, hey, you dare to act violently in broad daylight. Wait for me. You will be punished sooner or later!” He still bared his teeth and scolded Xiao Chen.

Xiao chenju raised his fist again. The fat man got up from the ground and ran away.

When I ran, I didn’t forget to put a cruel word: “boy, wait for me. I won’t let you go like this!”

The female boss felt some joy for a moment and couldn’t help laughing.

The charm between eyebrows and eyes. For a moment, Xiao Chen couldn’t move her eyes, but then Wu Yaqing’s beautiful cheeks and cold temperament flashed out of her mind.

No, you have to control yourself. How can you love one when you see one?

Xiao Chen patted his forehead twice before he remembered to ask old man Lin what his son does. It seems that he should have certain rights.

“Lin Bo, your son works in the government?” Xiao Chen and old man Lin sat in their own position again.

“Oh, right. Being a little official can’t do anything well.” Old man Lin seems to feel that his sons are humiliating himself.

In order to thank them, the female boss specially sent some kebabs and asked whether the one in front was cold or heated.

Both of them waved their hands and told her to stop working and have a rest.

The boss didn’t know what had happened here, so the girl didn’t know.

When I came back, I saw the debris of a stool on the ground and asked, “sister, what just happened?”

The female boss is serious: “nothing happened. Don’t ask. Work well and there will be more guests in a while.”

The girl had to nod her head.

Xiao Chen found that the two women did have some similarities between their eyebrows and eyes. It seems that they are still close sisters.

Old man Lin saw that Xiao Chen’s eyes had been stopped at the female boss’s side and couldn’t help laughing and saying, “why? Young man has a crush on him? It’s not bad. A beautiful little girl can bear hardships again. There aren’t many such girls.”

“No, I just think it’s really too hard for her to find a man. It’s really not easy for a girl.” Xiao Chen sighed.

“That’s good! Our traditional Chinese spirit is to bear hardships and stand hard work. Now some young people can’t stand a little hardship. On the contrary, I don’t like it!” Uncle Lin seems to have a great opinion that some young people are only interested in enjoyment.

“Ha ha! It’s not as bad as you said. It’s just some people. There are still many young and progressive people. Aren’t we getting better every day?” Xiao Chen smiled.

“OK. Let’s not mention this. Look at your skill just now. It looks like you’re still practicing your family!” Old man Lin patted Xiao Chen on the shoulder and said.

“Where. Medicine and martial arts are not separated. They all know a little bit.” Xiao Chen said.

It seems that old man Lin and Xiao Chen are like old friends at first sight. They talk while eating. Another hour passed.

There are more people in the night market.

Suddenly, a black Mercedes Benz Maybach came to the stall. The female boss was a little surprised. I didn’t know which big man or boss was coming.

A man in his forties appeared on the bus, with neat hair and a famous brand suit. He looked energetic.

“Sir, you’re looking for...” the female boss also wanted to speak up.

The man came directly to the stall of Xiao Chen and old man Lin.

“Dad, I told you not to eat these unclean things outside. It’s easy to get cancer. Did you forget that my uncle left with cancer?” His voice seems to have been specially trained. His words are correct and round. It is a solid standard Mandarin.

“You still have my father in your eyes? Your mother is so ill. Don’t you find a time to have a look. Look, this is the East China Sea you manage? Is it easy for a little girl to set up a stall here to make a living? Public security is not good, and she is threatened by some unemployed vagrants at any time.” When old man Lin saw the man, he became angry instantly, as if he was dissatisfied with him and his.

When Xiao Chen saw the man’s head, he saw that his identity was unusual, but he didn’t mean to please. Just sit by and watch it change.

“Dad, as you know, I’m usually busy dealing with things in the city, so I can’t worry about some small things. Moreover, the whole Donghai city is so big that I can’t know what happened at any time. Do you think so?” The man seems to have considerable respect for old man Lin.

“Well, stop talking. I’m quite happy today. I met this young man. He’s the one who does practical things. You, learn from others!” Uncle Lin patted Xiao Chen on the shoulder again.

“Lin Bomu praised me. I’m just a gangster running around. Where did I do anything?” Xiao Chen doesn’t know how many times he has been praised by old man Lin this night.

But his personality still doesn’t like publicity, so he is very modest almost every time.

“Look, look, learn from him. It’s like you say one thing and do another on TV every time.” Old man Lin seems to have found another gap that can be compared between the two.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 63

“All right, Dad, let’s go home first!” The man didn’t talk to old man Lin anymore.

Old man Lin turned back to say hello to Xiao Chen: “young man, leave him a call and we’ll contact you then!”

Xiao Chen nodded. The man looked at Xiao Chen suspiciously.

“Young man. What do you have to do with my father?”

“Nothing. I met him on the road. Uncle Lin just thought we had a bit of fate and had a drink together.”
Xiao Chen doesn’t have any special intention of climbing.

“Met on the road?” The man is a little silly.

“Dad, this... I don’t think we need to leave any contact information!”

“Stay, you must stay!” Although uncle Lin drank some wine. But still quite sober.

The man was helpless and had to take out his mobile phone. Xiao Chen could see that he was using the latest 5g mobile phone with promising brand in China, and the market price should be about 12000.

Xiao Chen’s mobile phone is just a bargain of hundreds of yuan, and the paint on it has fallen off a little.

He didn’t care at all, because he just regarded the mobile phone as a simple communication tool. If it weren’t for Wu Yaqing’s previous saying that his original Nokia was too old.

He probably still uses it now.

When the man saw Xiao Chen’s mobile phone, he couldn’t help showing more contempt.

Casually reported a mobile phone number and asked him to write it down, so he got in the car and left.

Until then, Xiao Chen noticed that the first number of the license plate was.

It seems that it should be a senior official in the city.

But Xiao Chen doesn't care. His most important thing now is to solve the five prescriptions he has in hand.

Otherwise, I don't have the strength to shake the position of Western medicine in China, and my medical skills are not good enough to revitalize traditional Chinese medicine.

Old man Lin must have had a good time. Unexpectedly, a note with three lines of numbers on it fell on the chair.

At the beginning are the eldest son, the second son and the youngest son.

It seems that it's a note he uses to record numbers.

I took it out and found that there was no number left by the man.

Xiao Chen couldn't help sneering. It seems that she still judges people by their appearance. I don't know what leader the other party is in the city.

However, this thing is still very important. After all, the elderly can't use any mobile phones. It's estimated that they are worried about losing this note.

Xiao Chen still called. The eldest son's phone was the man just now.

After receiving Xiao Chen's call, I was surprised. After learning that it was to return the note, the mysterious man drove back.

At this time, old man Lin was already asleep in the car. You can even hear a little snoring.

But the man didn't like Xiao Chen very much. After he got the note, he simply said hello and left.

It is estimated that Xiao Chen is regarded as a charlatan who specially swindles the old man's money.

But he felt nothing and didn't think much.

Come to the female boss's stall.

"Boss, how much is it? I'll pay."

"No, I invited this meal. How can I really ask for your money? You've helped me a lot." Although the female boss was busy, she still took the time to talk to Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen didn't want to entangle anymore. She took out her mobile phone and scanned the QR code hanging on the stall.

Originally, I wanted to turn more, which also represents my own mind. As a result, I didn't expect to press an extra zero.

I heard a sudden sound from the mobile phone on one side, and the system said, "pay through collection has arrived. 50000 yuan!"

In an instant, even the people who were eating supper looked at this side in surprise.

"Sir, didn't I say I didn't want your money? There... There's so much more. I'll transfer it back!" The female boss was also frightened and quickly stopped her work.

After washing your hands, take out your mobile phone and refund it.

But Xiao Chen received a call from Chen Wen at this time, saying that Chen Huimin couldn't think of killing herself.

He instantly remembered that he had said too much that day. Now he must save her, or he will regret it all his life.

The female boss is still waiting for Xiao Chen to reply. But without saying anything, Xiao Chen swept a small electric donkey by the roadside and drove away at full speed.

The female boss didn't have time to say anything else.

Taking the 50000 yuan given by Xiao Chen, she didn't know what to do. Fortunately, there was Xiao Chen's information in the payment software.

So she decided to find Xiao Chen and return the money.

Xiao Chen felt that the little electric donkey was too slow on the road.

Passed a 4S store. Without saying a word, he got into a car and left his contact information. He said he bought the car and drove away.

When she came to the Xingwang hospital nearest to Chen's home, Chen Huimin was lying in the ICU. She took a lot of sleeping pills.

The whole person's face looked a little puffy and looked very painful. It seemed that he was struggling between life and death.

In fact, sleeping pills are difficult to die. On the contrary, various stimuli formed by drugs in the stomach will cause various problems in the body, and finally die in pain without treatment.

If it is necessary to treat, gastric lavage is also a very painful thing.

Seeing Xiao Chen coming, Chen Wen immediately lowered his face, because it had something to do with him.

Xiao Chen doesn't talk much nonsense. She wants to go in directly to treat Chen Huimin. A middle-aged beautiful woman dressed in quite fashionable and gorgeous rushed over and beat Xiao Chen.

“You beast, if something happens to my daughter, I’m not finished with you!”

Xiao Chen instantly recognized that this was Chen Wen’s wife Bai Wan.

Chen Wen pulled her away and said, “he is also a miracle doctor. Let him have a look.”

Xiao Chen opened the door, and the doctors inside were busy.

“How is the patient?”

“Normal heart rate!”

“Breathing is a little unstable!”

“Get ready for gastric lavage immediately!”

.....

“No! Let me do it!” In a burst of busy work, a strange voice suddenly appeared, and the doctors were startled.

“Who are you? Who let you in?” One of the doctors with a water filling machine said seriously.

“Doctor, please trust him. He can really cure it. Go out first!” Chen Wen also followed Xiao Chen to the ward.

“But... Mr. Chen, if your daughter doesn’t wash her stomach now, I’m afraid...” the doctor saw that it was Chen Wen and softened in an instant.

“It’s okay. We trust him.” Chen Wen pointed to Xiao Chen.

Without the slightest hesitation, Xiao Chen went directly to Chen Huimin’s bed, took out several silver needles and inserted them into her arm. The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 64

Several ICU doctors behind him were watching. Seeing that Xiao Chen used acupuncture to treat the patient with sleeping drug poisoning, they immediately felt that he was a fool.

Then, Xiao Chen’s actions made them more confused. She pushed her hand back and forth in Chen Huimin’s small abdomen.

What is this? Give a person’s stomach massage? Is it enough to eat? People take a lot of sleeping pills. How can they be treated in this way?

“I said, Mr. Chen, you invited this madman to come here, but it delayed your daughter’s life! His behavior is completely out of the behavior of a normal doctor!” The doctor told Chen Wen.

But Chen Wen didn’t express any of his views, just quietly watching what Xiao Chen did.

After a while, Chen Huimin seemed to have a reaction. White substances were constantly spitting out of his mouth.

The two doctors in charge of nursing rushed forward to clean up her vomit.

Just when everyone was still doubting Xiao Chen’s medical skills.

Chen Huimin has opened her eyes slowly.

“Xiao... Brother Xiao Chen.”

All the doctors behind them were surprised. This was the first time they saw a patient who committed suicide treated by gastric lavage and vomiting without any medical equipment.

Chen Wen and Bai Wan hurried over.

“Minmin, are you okay?” Bai Wan was very excited.

The trembling hand slowly put on Chen Huimin’s cheek.

“Mom and dad. I’m sorry, I’m really sorry!” Chen Huimin seemed to suddenly understand what a stupid thing she had done.

She is simply not allowed to commit suicide because of her love. She is not responsible not only for herself, but also for her family and those who love her. Even for Xiao Chen, it will only bring harm and regret.

Xiao Chen smiled faintly. He believes that the fate between the two people has long ended. Everything he met before is Chen Huimin’s wishful thinking. Although he once wanted to make a mess, at least he didn’t make the last step.

So now it’s really considered that they don’t owe each other.

“It’s all right now. I’ll go and live a good life in the future. Don’t do stupid things anymore.” With that, Xiao Chen turned and was about to leave.

“Wait, doctor Xiao, although I don’t know if there’s anything between you and my daughter, your behavior is enough to explain a lot of problems. We misunderstood you before. Now you not only saved the little girl’s life again, but also are so generous. I’m really sorry. Well, what do you want, just put it forward. Answer them all Should! “

Chen Wen held Xiao Chen.

“Well... This.” Xiao Chen touched his nose.

For a while and a half, he really didn't want to show up what he was short of. In fact, he wanted to deal with the prescription, but it seemed that no one could help except to find grandpa or do it by himself.

“If you can't think of it, I'll be more direct. Although I know you treat money like dirt, Chen Wen has only a few ordinary copper coins and some broken houses in his hand. If you don't mind, I'll directly transfer a villa along the Pearl on the Bank of Qingan along the river to your name. This is the gold card of Donghai Huitong bank. There are tens of millions in it. There's no password. You can't buy it You can take it first. ” Chen Wen said and took a card inlaid with gold to Xiao Chen.

“This... I can't, Uncle Chen. If you really cherish this relationship between you and me, I don't think we should talk about such vulgar things. I Xiao Chen has medical skills, which is to save people. If you really want to, I hope you can pay more attention to the development of traditional Chinese medicine in our country and give some support.” Xiao Chen refused all the benefits offered by the other party.

He would not have thought that Chen Wen took his words seriously. In the next few months, a real estate tycoon continued to subsidize the traditional Chinese medicine industry in the East China Sea.

Then there was a series of things. Finally, Xiao Chen also knows in the process of promoting the development of traditional Chinese medicine.

“Since you have said so, I have nothing to say. Everything is in my heart. I have remembered you Xiao Chen!” Chen Wen held Xiao Chen's hand tightly.

At this time, Bai Wan also came over with guilt on his face: “well, doctor Xiao, I was so excited that I bumped into you like that. I'm really sorry.”

“OK. Your family will be fine. I have other things to do, so I'll go first!” Xiao Chen stopped talking with them.

These two days he still figured it out. We must find Grandpa, so that these prescriptions have a certain hope.

Out of the hospital, he immediately dialed the mysterious phone he had called himself twice before.

But all calls are empty. It seems that the other party changed the number after calling him once.

Although he wanted to use the power of the organization again, he thought it over. After all, every time he used it, it would cause a trace of doubt. Although the organization has been arranged in a rather mysterious place in Africa, after all, there are still satellites, so it is easy to detect their position.

Just after hanging up, a call came in. The caller was a man's voice: "Hello, sir, you took a BMW in our store before. Do you need to buy it?"

Xiao Chen remembered that she was too anxious when she came, so she went to a 4S store and took a car at random.

"Oh, that's right. Please report the location of your store and I'll pay right away." Xiao Chen replied.

"Yes, sir. Our store is located at No. 159, Furong Avenue, Tianhe District. We are waiting for you at any time." The man heard Xiao Chen so cheerful, and his voice was full of joy.

Soon. Xiao Chen then drove to the store, and the sales lady inside quickly welcomed him in.

Because he drove away a BMW 7 Series luxury version, with a market price of more than 2 million, and a discount of 1.99 million in the store, which is not affordable for ordinary people.

The manager told her that this business can be counted as hers. How much commission can she get.

It was the manager of the store who called Xiao Chen earlier. He was not very old. He wore a pair of silver rimmed glasses and kept smiling at Xiao Chen since he drove in.

When the sales lady saw that it was a young man coming down from above and wearing cheap sportswear, she suddenly turned ugly.

“Sir, do you want to buy the car in full?” Although she was a little unhappy, she still corrected the color and asked.

“Yes.” Xiao Chen answered.

“In that case, how much do you want to borrow?” The sales lady seems to be ready.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 65

“Loan?” Xiao Chen is a little confused. Didn't he agree to buy the whole money? Is there something wrong with this man.

However, he was quite elegant. He waved his hand and said, “I'll just buy it in full. You can quote directly for how much money. I'm in a hurry.”

The sales lady was a little surprised, but then she remembered that many such people thought they had some money and installed rich people in the 4S store. As soon as I heard the price, I immediately counselled.

Just sent off a team. A man won more than one million lottery tickets. I wanted to come and install it in front of my girlfriend. Who knows that it costs more than two million to look at a car casually.

Finally, he went out of the store with a red face.

“Think more, sir. Our car is not cheap. The price after discount is 1.99 million. Why don't you take out a loan first!” The saleswoman is also smarter. First quote the price and leave a bottom in Xiao Chen's heart.

“Come on, I'll pay with my mobile phone.” Xiao Chen took out his mobile phone.

“Sir... This mobile payment will be limited one day...” the saleswoman quickly reminded.

The male manager in the back also came over: "what's the matter, what's the problem?"

"Manager, he needs to pay by mobile phone." When the saleswoman saw the manager coming, she quickly said hello.

"Oh, sir, well, there is a limit for mobile payment every day. You can see what your limit is." The male manager is very polite.

"Well, I don't know. I paid 50000 today. See how much is left." Xiao Chen directly showed her mobile phone to the other party.

"Three... More than three hundred million!" The male manager got Xiao Chen's mobile phone and was surprised to see the numbers on it.

The saleswoman behind her also has a big mouth open. I thought it was a rich man who pretended to be rich. I didn't expect people to be really low-key gods.

Fortunately, I'm a little literate. I didn't say too much just now, otherwise I'll be in trouble.

"Sir, your limit is enough. Here is my collection code." The male manager bowed to Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen didn't see the money and some small gifts. Just throw them all in the trunk.

Although he doesn't have any requirements for his car, to be honest, it's better to drive the Rolls Royce phantom Liu Nianxin gave him earlier. Unfortunately, he gave it away to save Wu Yaqing.

If Wu Yaqing knew about it, he would probably hammer his chest and scold the loser.

However, recently, it is estimated that they rarely have this opportunity to go to Wu Yaqing. At least they have expressed their feelings, and she can feel at ease there. Now there should be no trouble for anyone to rush to the rejuvenation hall.

The last time he taught the evil god of huoyun, Dilong should be at ease.

If my grandfather can't get in touch for the time being, he may have no progress in these prescriptions.

Thinking for a moment, I suddenly remembered Liu Nianxin. It seems that I need to call him to get some useful things.

"Hello. I'm Xiao Chen."

"Doctor Xiao, it's a great honor for you to call me. What can I do for you? Oh, the three prescriptions you gave last time are amazing. The profits of our company soared to an amazing figure in an instant!" Liu Nianxin's respectful voice came.

But hearing the soaring profits, Xiao Chen couldn't help frowning slightly. His original intention was not to use these prescriptions to create huge profits. In order to make traditional Chinese medicine more affordable to the people of the country.

"You say profiteering?"

"That's right. The three prescriptions you gave are all for the treatment of stubborn diseases, and the curative effect is quite good. We sold out of stock in the market just after we came out! After that, the price rose again and again. Now the medicine produced by our company has been sold at a sky high price!" Liu Nianxin seems to be announcing his achievements to Xiao Chen.

"How dare you use the prescription I gave you to make money?" Xiao Chen's tone slowly became cold.

"Ah... Doctor Xiao, what's the problem?" Liu Nianxin noticed something wrong in an instant.

"What's the problem? You have a big problem. Now come to me immediately!" Xiao Chen said seriously.

"But... Doctor Xiao, I'm not in China now. I'm in the United States. Your request..." Liu Nianxin immediately felt very embarrassed.

He happens to be giving a lecture at the drug research center in the United States. Several medical research centers in the United States have a strong interest in the prescriptions given by Xiao Chen and are ready to take them for good research. At that time, they will create more strengthened new drugs and have an impact on the Chinese traditional medicine market.

Liu Nianxin is not even sensitive to this point, just because the other Party promised to give him shares and ran over.

“Are you still going to the United States? I tell you. If these prescriptions fall into the hands of the Americans, you are finished, you are completely finished!” Xiao Chen was very angry.

After hearing this, Liu Nianxin felt that he began to sweat all over.

Now he knows that he has committed a great disaster. How can he forget that Xiao Chen wants to revive traditional Chinese medicine? Isn't he helping the tyranny and helping western medicine occupy the market?

“Mr. Liu, haven't you finished answering the phone? Experts and professors in the United States are waiting for you to analyze the prescription!” Asked a Chinese man in a suit behind him.

Xiao Chen has hung up the phone, but he is still very tangled at the moment, because once he announces the cancellation now, it is not only his loss in profits, but also likely to cause dissatisfaction on the American side. At that time, whether he can go back or not will become a huge problem.

After hanging up Liu Nianxin's phone, Xiao Chen actually thought of this for a long time. Liu Nianxin has such a secret. Since he has arrived in the United States, it is estimated that he will not be put back so easily.

He had to call the mysterious phone again.

“Ah Ling, now there is a Chinese domestic business tycoon in the United States. His name is Liu Nianxin. He has small eyes, high nose and melon seed face. He is about 1.8 meters tall. Now he is in the medical research center of the United States and tries to get people out!”

Two days later, Xiao Chen was practicing in the presidential suite of Ruihua hotel. Recently, he felt that his pulse seemed to break through to a new level, which might be helpful to solve the five incurable prescriptions.

“Ding Dong -” the doorbell rang.

Xiao Chen waved a palm in the air and the door opened automatically.

Liu Nianxin stood in front of the door in a panic, followed by a woman in leather.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 66

The woman’s figure is extremely tempting against the background of leather clothes. Her angelic face is full of seriousness, her hair is naturally on her shoulders, and her eyes are also full of cold. It seems that she is a murderous God from hell.

“Xiao... Doctor Xiao.” Liu Nianxin seems to have suffered from inhuman torture, and his voice is very haggard.

Xiao Chen naturally knows that she did it herself.

“Here you are. Ling.” Xiao Chen spoke slowly.

Yes, the woman behind Liu Nianxin is no one else. It’s the current leader of extermination organization, a Ling, code name: Ling.

It is also the existence of the whole extermination organization second only to Xiao Chen.

Although Xiao Chen didn’t live in yixianmen since childhood, he has been running all over the world. Completed one impossible task after another. Finally, I don’t know why, my physique suddenly disappeared.

So I had to go back to China anonymously.

Then I got the inheritance of my grandfather's ancient book. I became an abandoned son-in-law in the Wu family for three years. Up to now, my cultivation has only begun to improve slowly, but compared with the original myself, it is not at the same level.

A Ling kicked Liu Nianxin to the ground and threw a dog to eat the mud.

I stepped into the room with elegant cat steps.

Liu Nianxin instantly felt the chill from the woman.

"Why did you leave without saying a word!" Her voice is like a wind chime, crisp and pleasant.

"I... ah." Xiao Chen originally wanted to explain something, but in the end it turned into a sigh.

"Do you know how much suffering the organization has experienced since you left? Mad dogs and mad bears are dead! Now even Xiao Mu is lying in the hospital bed!" A Ling seems to be questioning Xiao Chen.

"What are you talking about!" Xiao Chen's pupil contracted instantly.

Mad dog and mad bear were his most proud men in the past. They handled affairs neatly. He is the bravest dragon and tiger general on the battlefield.

"Impossible, their physique is so special, how can they die!" Xiao Chen was shocked and the whole person stood up directly.

"It's a G-Series weapon. They were plotted!" Ah Ling's face became gloomy for a moment.

Liu Nianxin secretly climbed into the room on one side. He didn't know what the two were talking about. But he knew that it was not appropriate for him to stay.

"G series again? What does it say?" Xiao Chen looked out of the window with deep eyes.

"There is no way. This is the strongest weapon on earth at present." Ling Dao.

G series weapons Xiao Chen has the most contact with. They seem to be ordinary guns and ammunition, but in fact, once used, they will burst out deadly life rays. Directly smash all the cells of the other party, even if it is a special constitution, there is no possibility of regeneration.

He clenched his fist tightly, but then loosened it, because he is now compared to his former self. It's just a waste, even worse than waste. It can only be installed in front of ordinary people. Relying on the disease pulse, it is known as the so-called "miracle doctor".

It's ridiculous to think so.

Ling suddenly walked up to him and took his hand.

"Your constitution has disappeared!" She instantly felt that the power in Xiao Chen's body like the star core was gone.

Xiao Chen sighed: "yes, that's the day I left. It's gone."

"Why don't you tell us!" There seemed to be a trace of fog in Aileen's eyes.

"There's nothing to say. I'm a waste now. My only goal is to do something for China." Xiao Chen let go of her hand.

"You won't be able to scare the enemy out now, but you won't be able to scare the enemy out. I don't know how much prestige you will have!" A Ling took Xiao Chen's hand again.

“If you want to come back, you’ll come back long ago, and you don’t have to wait until now, mad dogs and them...” Xiao Chen thought of his subordinates again, and instantly felt a burst of pain in his heart. Unspeakable.

Suddenly, he knelt down directly and said that there was gold under the man’s knee. As a generation of Oriental God of war, he is now known as a miracle doctor. He fell to his knees.

“I’m sorry! I’m really sorry for you!”

A Ling looked at Xiao Chen painfully.

“Get up! It’s not your fault! After all, you saved everyone’s lives at that time. You brought up the organization all by yourself. You’re not wrong!” A Ling leaned down and picked up Xiao Chen.

But Xiao Chen seemed to have lost his support and couldn’t hold it up.

Finally, ah Ling had to kneel down and hold him and cry bitterly.

Indeed, the disappearance of the group who once lived and died together is a great blow to anyone.

Although she is so strong that people can’t understand it, in the final analysis, she is just a female generation, and she will feel heartache.

Seeing Xiao Chen like this today, the inner pain was immediately released.

Unexpectedly, she cried louder than Xiao Chen. Finally, Xiao Chen calmed down, and she kept crying.

I don’t know how long it took, Liu Nianxin fell asleep on the bed in the room beside the hotel, and ah Ling also fell asleep safely.

In fact, Xiao Chen knew at that time that she was interested in herself, but her ability disappeared. Coupled with the marriage arranged by her missing grandfather, she had to learn from it.

So even Xiao Chen didn't tell her, but left the number.

There was a trace of thought in my heart. I didn't expect to need her help in the end.

Xiao Chen puts a Ling on his bed, and walks into the guest bedroom to wake up Liu Nianxin.

Liu Nianxin is really sad these two days. He was supposed to give a speech at the American Medical Research Conference that day.

But Xiao Chen called, so he didn't dare to publish the prescription. Then he wanted to delay on the podium. Unexpectedly, a man dressed as an agent directly pulled him into the helicopter.

But then American agents also dispatched, and then planes, cars, trains, ships, and then all kinds of planes were chased.

I didn't sleep for two days and nights. When I got off the plane, I was brought to Xiao Chen.

Although he had been forced to cheer up, he couldn't hold on to sleep in the end.

Now he was awakened by Xiao Chen in the middle of the night. He felt that his life seemed to be tossed to the end.

"Xiao... Doctor Xiao, please let me have a rest. I... haven't slept for two days and nights." He seems to be asking for help.

But Xiao Chen ignored him.

He lost his mobile phone and said, “now call the people in your company and tell them that the three prescriptions are fully reduced by 10% more than the cost.”

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 67

This sentence instantly sobered Liu Nianxin.

“You... Seriously, in this way, the company will definitely fall into a state of loss. Soon I will go bankrupt and your shares will be cleared. At that time, you will also lose money!”

When he said this, Xiao Chen felt that he might be a little thoughtless.

So he nodded. Of course, he doesn’t care about his own interests, and he can’t really let other people’s companies do charity.

In this way, in case the domestic pharmaceutical enterprises collapse because of his operation. It’s not worth it.

“Can you tell me what your price was at the beginning?” Xiao Chen calmed down and asked.

“It’s twice the original price, but it’s only sold for a few days and the price has risen rapidly.” Liu Nianxin replied.

“How much is the price? You can maintain the operation of the company without loss. You have to tell me the truth. Otherwise, after I verify it, you will be finished!” Xiao Chen snapped.

“Probably... Probably more than double. I still need to hold a meeting in the group. At that time, I still have to wait for the technical department to calculate the results.” Liu Nianxin also wants to be careless.

After all, in today’s society, if you don’t make money, you’re a real fool.

“No, just double the price of raw materials. Don’t talk about other reasons. If you really don’t have enough money, come back to me.” Xiao Chen’s voice cannot be denied.

“Then... All right.” Liu Nianxin is still very afraid of Xiao Chen. Although he has never seen his means, even such a female agent is his subordinate. His means must be extraordinary.

Besides, there is the old man behind him, which he can’t afford to offend.

Liu Nianxin called and announced the matter in the group.

Many group vice presidents have raised objections. However, he accounts for more than 51% of the total shares of the group and has one vote of veto, so no matter how other people oppose it, it is invalid.

Many shareholders even withdrew their shares that night because they almost expected to make no money.

Then all three stocks in Liu Nian’s novice fell sharply the next day. This situation lasted directly for a week.

But then things turned for the better. At first, Liu Nianxin thought he had miscalculated the whole pricing problem.

But by the opening of the next Monday, his stock immediately rose by the limit. And it happens every day.

A large number of funds were continuously remitted to his company, and more and more shareholders entered. For a moment, he felt that he had reached a new peak again.

Compared with before, he can be said to have really made more money now!

Although Xiao Chen is not proficient in business, he fully understands that there will be no big problem with the pricing he gave that day.

The business of the company is to feed its members. As long as the money earned is enough for the operation of the company, many employees below are willing to continue to work.

And this itself is a thing that benefits the people, so he doesn't have to worry that the medicine won't sell.

The rest is just waiting for the market to regulate and control slowly.

But with such a simple idea, Liu Nianxin gave Xiao Chen a new name: Shang God. God of business.

However, Xiao Chen certainly didn't know that the first investment that brought Liu Nian's novice industry back to life happened to be from the East China Sea, from the Chen family, and the investor's name was Chen Huimin.

Originally, ah Ling wanted to stay with Xiao Chen. At the beginning, she was just an orphan in the war. It was Xiao Chen who took her in that made her what she is today.

But Xiao Chen still persuaded her back. After all, he has no role in the organization now. This is why he is unwilling to use organizational power.

Although she was reluctant to give up Xiao Chen, ah Ling decided to go back to the organization first. After all, her current status is also quite dangerous. If she is not careful, she may bring disaster to the people around her.

Before leaving, Xiao Chen specifically told her to ensure her safety. We must wait until the day when he is able to return to the organization.

Not long after saying goodbye to ah Ling, Xiao Chen received another strange call. He seemed to have some impression, but he couldn't remember who's mobile phone number was.

"Hello?"

“Is it the young man I met that day?” There was an old voice.

“Oh, Lin Bo! What’s up?” Xiao Chen suddenly remembered the old man Lin he met on the road that night.

“Yes, it’s me. I’m glad you remember me. Didn’t we have an agreement at the beginning? Let you see my wife. The doctor seems to say that she may be tonight...” old man Lin seems to be choking.

“Oh, well, don’t worry, Mr. Lin. where do you live? I’ll go now!” Xiao Chen just remembered that he was busy these days and forgot this stubble.

“It’s all right. I know that people’s life, age, illness and death are normal. I’ll be like you at first sight. You’re really like my comrades in arms. I just hope you’ll come and accompany me if you’re all right!” Old man Lin doesn’t seem to expect Xiao Chen to save his wife.

No matter how heroic and brilliant a soldier once had on the battlefield, he needs someone to accompany and care when he returns to life.

If a person who has gone with himself for most of his life suddenly wants to leave, no one can bear it.

“OK, please say the address first. I’ll be there in a minute!” Xiao Chen said.

“I’m on the eighth floor of the central hospital now. You can see it when you come in!” Lin Laotou said.

“OK.” Xiao Chen hung up the phone and rushed there without stopping.

When I arrived at the Central Hospital, I found that the eighth floor was arranged for special patients. I immediately remembered that old man Lin’s son worked in the municipal government.

However, these Xiao Chen didn’t pay special attention. When he came to the eighth floor, he saw old man Lin wearing sportswear.

At first glance, Xiao Chen's dress is somewhat similar to him.

Seeing Xiao Chen coming, old man Lin was very happy.

"I'm so sorry! You were busy just now. I'll disturb you in the daytime."

"It's all right. I happen to be idle and have nothing to do, so I came to have a look." Xiao Chen smiled.

"Your wife, she..."

He inquired about old man Lin's wife.

"Come on, I'll take you!" Old man Lin took Xiao Chen's hand tightly and walked to ward 8 in front of him.

Xiao Chen looked at it casually. Where is this ward? It's no worse than the luxury suite of the hotel.

All kinds of furniture are available, and the decoration is also beautiful, which makes people feel at home as soon as they enter.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 68

Looking at this ward, Xiao Chen sighed that there are differences between people. Some people can't even afford to live in the hospital, while others can get the general feeling of going home in the hospital.

But he came to save people today, and he didn't think too much about it.

After entering the door, I saw an octogenarian old lady lying on the bed, as thin as wood, waiting for two women next to her, one of whom looked like she was in her 40s. Wearing exquisite makeup and wearing gold and silver, she looks like the wife of a rich family.

The one standing on the other side is quite young. Without any dress, she is more casual. She has a white T-shirt on her upper body and ordinary jeans below. However, seeing her side face makes Xiao Chen feel like a spring breeze, and her posture is quite tall and straight. It should be practiced.

“Grandpa, who did you bring?” The young woman looked back at old man Lin.

“This is a noble man I came across earlier. Although he is very young, we are very congenial. By the way, the young man has forgotten to ask your name?” Old man Lin seemed to suddenly remember that he didn’t know Xiao Chen’s name.

“Surname Xiao, Cheng also Xiao He, defeated Xiao He, single name Chen.” Xiao Chen said.

“Oh, Xiao Chen, what a name! It’s quite loud and full of vitality, which is in line with a young man like you!” Old man Lin smiled and introduced Xiao Chen to the people present.

“I forgot to introduce myself. My name is Lin Feng. You can always call me Lin Bo. This is my eldest granddaughter, Lin Zihan, and this is my eldest daughter-in-law, Zhang Manni.”

“Then. That’s my wife, Li Xianglan.”

After that, he looked at the dying old man lying in bed with a heavy heart.

“Dad, why did you bring an outsider in? Didn’t Shihao tell you not to bring anyone in casually? You see you brought another stranger in, which is noisy with your mother!” Zhang Manni seemed a little unhappy and didn’t like Xiao Chen at all.

In particular, he has known old man Lin Feng for so long that he doesn’t even know his name. More suspicious.

But life may be like this. It's rare to meet a confidant. Why do you need to know your name?

"Sir. This is the professional nursing ward of the hospital. You have nothing to do. You'd better go out first. You're not welcome here." Zhang Manni immediately ordered her to leave.

Old man Lin interrupted him: "what are you talking about? I invited Xiao Chen. Do you want to drive him away, even me?"

"Dad, aren't you fooling around? Mom needs to be quiet now, and Shihao has explained..." Zhang Manni seems to be a little embarrassed.

"How many times has that bastard come? His mother has been lying in the hospital bed for so long. He doesn't even look at it. His mother pulls an egg. I don't have such a son! You just take time to have a look these days!" With that, old man Lin seems to have been wronged by heaven.

Zhang Manni and Lin Zihan were silent.

Old man Lin has three sons, and now there are only two people guarding here.

Although the family is prosperous, the old mother is leaving, and there is no one to die. How can ordinary people understand this grief.

"Well... Limber. I think I can help your wife find a way." Xiao Chen saw that everyone had no voice, so he broke the silence.

"What nonsense are you talking about? People's doctors have confirmed it. We've hired the best general practitioner in the city. You still say there's some treatment? You're afraid you're not a charlatan? You don't look like a doctor at all. You must be a charlatan!" Zhang Manni seems to insist that Xiao Chen is a liar.

Specifically deceive these inexperienced old people.

“Get out!” Old man Lin Feng seemed to have had enough and shouted at her.

Zhang Manni was very frightened. But then he pulled Linzihan away.

“No matter what you like to do, let your Lin handle it!”

I left with a word.

Seeing that everyone was gone, Lin Feng sat down slowly and came to his wife.

“Xianglan, are you happy that my good friend came to see you? I know you’re suffering from tubes all over your body. But I really don’t want you to leave like this! I’m really afraid you’re going!” He burst into tears in an instant.

“Lin Bo, please get out of the way. I’ll say hello to Grandma Li.” Xiao Chen patted him on the shoulder and said.

“Hey!” Lin Feng stood aside. Xiao Chen came up and touched the pulse of old man Li Xianglan.

It’s quite weak, there’s only one breath, and there are all kinds of tubes all over the body. In fact, this situation is a kind of torture for patients.

It’s worse than death, but they have no choice but to be controlled by their families.

The internal organs have been extremely exhausted, and the blood flow of the whole body is also quite slow.

Xiao Chen felt that death was waving to the old man.

Fortunately, however, he got the “baijue Pharmacopoeia”. The old man’s body can last another half a year or so. The main diseases are kidney and liver.

Receive all the ill Qi from the old man into his own body. Then use the pulse to pressurize her heart.

After a while, the old man's breath gradually became stronger.

Xiao Chen carefully pulled out the tubes on her body one by one.

"Hey, young man, you can't pull it out. She can't pull my wife out!" Lin Feng was shocked to see Xiao Chen's action and hurriedly came up to stop him.

"Old man... Let him pull it out. Even if it's dead... I'll suffer a lot..." Li Xianglan opened her mouth, and her voice was like the cry of words.

But the whole room was quite quiet, so her words could still be heard clearly.

"Old lady! You... Have you spoken? You haven't spoken for half a year!" Lin Feng looked at his wife in disbelief.

"Young man, no, doctor Xiao, you are really an immortal!" Lin Feng looked at Xiao Chen who was pulling out the pipes one by one. He couldn't express his horror in words.

"Lin Bo, I'm not an immortal. I just know a little about medicine. Please keep it a secret today. Then I'll give you a prescription to let your wife take it. She should live another six months." As she spoke, Li Xianglan's pipe had been pulled out.

She seemed to breathe a sigh of relief.

"Old man... I don't want to come back to the hospital, really, no more..." she said, and she fell asleep.

"Old woman! Old woman, what's the matter with you?" When Lin Feng saw his wife finish speaking, he was silent and worried again.

“Lin Bo, don’t worry, Grandma Li. She’s just tired.” Xiao Chen comforted.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 69

“Oh, that’s good, that’s good!” Old man Lin Feng sat down in a chair beside him.

Xiao Chen took paper and pen from one side of the cabinet and wrote a prescription according to the records in the baijue Pharmacopoeia.

Then gave it to Lin Feng.

“Lin Bo, you must keep this prescription and give Granny Li two copies every day. Each time you suffer for at least an hour. It will take a week, and Granny Li’s body is expected to recover by then. Please keep it a secret, because these things are handed down by my ancestors.” Said, Xiao Chen heavily put the prescription in his hand.

“This... Such a valuable thing, how can I take it for nothing? Young man. Just say it. I’ll give you whatever you want! As long as I can do it!” Lin Feng immediately felt the massiness of the prescription.

“No, I’m a doctor. Doctors should treat diseases. You and I do have this fate. This is one of the reasons why I’m willing to help. If you want to add some interests to the feelings between us, this friendship is not true!” Xiao Chen said.

He did not regard money as dirt, but really valued feelings, just like soldiers. He also had such feelings for his former companions.

So this feeling can’t be measured by any value. It’s enough to keep it in mind. No need to say more, no need to do anything more.

After hearing this, Lin Feng nodded heavily: “noble man, noble man! The motherland really needs talents like you!”

“Well, stop talking. You must remember to prescribe medicine for Grandma Li, and I’ll go first!” Xiao Chen said and was ready to leave.

At this time, the mysterious man of that night came in angrily.

“You! Stop. Don’t move. I have something to tell you later, Dad. I didn’t say it. Don’t let any strangers disturb my mother...” before he finished, Lin Feng slapped him in the face.

“Dad. What do you... Mean?” He looked at Lin Feng in disbelief.

He hasn’t been beaten by his father since he was 12 years old. Now he’s suddenly slapped like this, and some don’t respond.

But the anger of losing face in front of outsiders came to my heart.

“Are you crazy?” He questioned.

Lin Feng shook his head. He didn’t lose his temper or say anything. But full of disappointment at his eldest son.

“Why did I give birth to such a thing without filial piety? You dare to give yourself a hundred filial generals. You don’t deserve it!” Lin Feng seemed to be scolding with blood.

Lin Shihao also found that there were some problems with what he just said.

So he sank his face and said, “sorry, Dad, what I just said is wrong, but you can’t slap me like this. It’s insulting, you know?”

“You’re not insulting your mother’s life-saving benefactor? Do you know what you’ve done?” Lin Feng pointed to his nose and scolded.

“He? Help benefactor? How possible. Dad, I think you are fooled by him. My mother is critically ill now, how possible...” he said, looking at his mother.

“Who pulled the pipe?” He immediately looked at Xiao Chen standing behind him.

At this time, Zhang Manni also rushed over. I saw the ground full of unplugged pipes. Her mouth also opened directly into an “O”.

“We were fine when we just left. How long has it been? You’re finished. You’re murder!” Zhang Manni pointed to Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen was helpless. He had to stand aside and say nothing, waiting for them to verify the situation before talking.

As the saying goes, facts speak louder than words.

“You’re looking for death, aren’t you? Do you know who I am? I saw you feel something wrong that night, and you came here. I won’t sentence you to death. I’m not Lin!” Lin Shihao pulled Xiao Chen’s collar and said fiercely.

“Old man... It’s too noisy. Let them all go out and quarrel!” Mrs. Li suddenly spoke.

Suddenly, the whole room was silent, and Lin Shihao slowly put down Xiao Chen’s collar. His eyes stared bigger than a brass bell.

On the other hand, Zhang Manni was completely shocked and couldn’t say anything.

“Mom... Are you... Really good?” Lin Shihao moved slowly to Mrs. Li.

He can’t even lift his feet now. He couldn’t believe it was true. He even wanted to slap himself to prove that he was dreaming.

But when I think of Lin Feng slapping himself just now, the feeling is very real.

Really, really, he was sure he wasn't dreaming at all.

But why can a person who has been notified of critical illness by the hospital be resurrected for no reason?

He looked at Xiao Chen, who was wearing sportswear, slightly handsome and not very tall.

Is it really him? Did he really save his mother?

"Poop!"

Lin Shihao knelt down directly.

Maggie Cheung covered her mouth directly.

"Miracle doctor, I'm wrong. Forgive me! I'm really wrong. I... I'm not human, I deserve to die!" He kept slapping himself in the face.

"Shihao, get up. How can you see people when you spread it like this!" Zhang Manni hurriedly came up and took him.

"You know shit! Women don't care about men's affairs!" With that, he pushed Zhang Manni away.

Xiao Chen also didn't want to see such a scene. He was very indifferent. He went up and directly helped Lin Shihao up and said, "no, I don't want to believe everything just now. Lin Bo and I have also explained it. That's good. I have other things. I won't disturb your family reunion. I'd better spend more time with you!"

Then Xiao Chen patted his hand and left.

The others behind him looked at him with reverent eyes.

In fact, he didn't know who Lin Shihao was, and Lin Feng never said it.

Lin Shihao is no one else. He is the current mayor of Donghai city. He has just been in office for less than two years.

Later, Xiao Chen was surprised to know that Lin Shihao might be a cadre at the department level, but he didn't expect to be the mayor.

However, it doesn't have much to do with him, but Lin Shihao played a key role in promoting the development of traditional Chinese medicine in the East China Sea.

Just after answering the hotel, Xiao Chen saw a familiar figure at the door of the hotel, wearing a very ordinary pair.

Even some rich people look a bit like a tramp.

"Female boss?"

The man was no one else, but the female boss who set up a stall in the night market that day.

Xiao Chen hurried over and found a black bag in her hand.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 70

The female boss stood at the door very uneasy. Originally, she wanted to go in and find Xiao Chen, but she didn't know which room he was in. Secondly, her dress made people look like beggars.

She really didn't mean to stay in the hotel, but now it's dog days and the sun is very hot outside. People can't stand standing down for a while. She doesn't know how long she's been standing.

See Xiao Chen is a burst of heartache.

"That... Female boss. Who are you looking for? Why don't you go to the hotel?" Xiao Chen had a dialogue with her all the way.

"I finally found you!" When the female boss saw Xiao Chen, she immediately showed a happy smile.

But she just took one step and fainted directly.

"Bad!" Xiao Chen rushed over with an arrow and hugged her.

"Heatstroke!" Xiao Chen touched her forehead.

So he took her directly to the hotel and came to the idle sofa in the hall. Directly transported the diseased pulse and extracted the diseased Qi from her body.

At this time, a man in the lobby who looked like a manager came over.

"Hey, hey, do you know what kind of hotel this is? You two are dressed like beggars. You've soiled our hotel sofa, you know? Security guard! Security guard! Get these two people out." Then he waved and called the security guard.

"I'm your guest. What's wrong with using your sofa? Besides, your hotel claims to be open to everyone in the world? Why can't I borrow your sofa for the time being?" Xiao Chen despised such a person who looked down on others.

“Yo, you’ve learned to pretend to be forced? How many rooms are you in? Show me!” Two security guards in suits have appeared behind the man.

With rubber batons in their hands, they were eyeing them.

At this time, the female boss woke up and found herself lying in Xiao Chen’s arms. She bounced up from the sofa in an instant.

“I... I’m so sorry, sir...” her face was red and her ears were almost red.

“It’s all right. You just had heatstroke. I treated you with acupuncture and moxibustion. It’s much better now.” Xiao chenrou said.

“Hey, where’s your room card?” The man saw that the female boss woke up, but Xiao Chen looked like he didn’t want to pay attention to him. His face was very unhappy.

“I think you’re just pretending. Pull them out!”

“Yes!” Two security guards will answer the call.

“Wait, didn’t I say I’m your guest? You dare to do this to your guests. I don’t think you need to do it here!” Xiao Chen was disgusted with the man to the extreme.

Lao Tzu? Lao Tzu, it’s a big joke. Do you know who I am? I can’t do it. I can’t get you to be a beggar has the final say! Give Lao Zi to die outside!

He said that he wanted to kick Xiao Fei.

And the security guard at the female boss is ready to do it.

Xiao Chen transports the diseased pulse and hits it with one punch. Only heard the man's leg bone "click" sound constantly.

The man's face suddenly turned from arrogance to pain. Finally, it had been completely distorted and kept howling.

"Ah! Ah! Ah! My foot, my foot is broken! There is a madman making trouble under our hotel. Come on! Call the police and catch him!" He kept shouting at the other staff.

But Xiao Chen completely ignored him and held the tea table with one hand. The two security guards who surrounded him with their legs kicked directly out for a few meters.

The female boss was completely shocked, but she just covered her mouth and didn't let herself cry out.

After all, Xiao Chen's shot has something to do with her.

The man seemed to have finished the pain and looked at Xiao Chen with red eyes.

"You're dead. My uncle works in the municipal government. Don't you dare beat me, you're dead!"

"Oh? Really? Your uncle is so capable?" Xiao Chen looked at him contemptuously.

"Do you know who I am? I'm the son of Guo Wenda, the largest oil refiner in the East China Sea. The boss here and my father are good friends. If you dare to treat me like this, you're sick of it! There's surveillance in the hall and everything is evidence! You can't get rid of it without eight million!" The man is very arrogant.

It seems that he is sentencing Xiao Chen to death.

"Oh. Your father is so rich, I'm so afraid!" Xiao Chen pretended to be afraid.

“Hum. Now I know I’m afraid. It’s too late!” The man sneered.

A waitress ran over immediately after hearing the cry.

“Manager Zhang. What’s the matter with you? Your leg...”

“Leave me alone, call the police and catch the madman. Don’t let him run away!” Zhang Tianxiang pointed to Xiao Chen.

“Don’t worry, I won’t be afraid, you call the police!” Xiao Chen sat quietly on the sofa in the hall.

“What’s the matter? What’s the matter?” On the other side came a woman in a navy blue uniform. She looked in her thirties, with fresh short hair and looked very capable.

“Sister Mulin. Look, this man has injured manager Zhang and two security guards. Let’s call the police.” The waitress said.

“Well, call the police first.” Fang Mulin said.

Then they began to check their injuries. The two security guards didn’t have any big problems, just a slight fall, while Zhang Tianxiang was more serious. It seemed that he had a broken leg.

Several people were helped to one side of the sofa.

“Oh, easy, my bones are broken!” Zhang Tianxiang kept wailing.

He has been well protected since childhood. Where have you suffered such losses.

“Sir, why are you so cruel? Do you have any grudge against manager Zhang?” Fang Mulin came to Xiao Chen and asked.

“Oh, no, now there is. The slogan of your Ruihua hotel should be ‘a hotel open to people all over the world’?” Xiao Chen’s face was light and cloudless.

“Yes.” Fang Mulin nodded.

“I just said, I’m a guest of your hotel. Here’s the room card. But even if I’m not a guest of your hotel, it’s right to borrow your lobby sofa?” With that, Xiao Chen took out his room card.

“It’s really our room card. Xiao Wang, take it and check it!” Fang Mulin called a waitress.

After verification, Xiao Wang trotted over and said, “sister Mu Lin, it’s really our hotel. It’s room 752, and it’s booked directly for a year.”

“A year?” Fang Mulin was surprised.

Zhang Tianxiang looked at Xiao Chen more, but he was sure that he had never seen a rich son like him in the East China Sea.

“Can you beat people casually in a year? Is there any royal law or justice?” He is still not ready to spare Xiao Chen.
