The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 71

“In fact, sir, you can not be rude. Since you are our supreme customer, you should show your identity.” Fang Mulin seemed to want to ease the atmosphere.

“Oh, I don’t care. It’s mainly your manager. It seems that he is the biggest in the world!” Xiao Chen sneered at Zhang Tianxiang.

“Well, you don’t know what’s good or bad, do you? Well, there’s surveillance as evidence anyway. There will be both human and material evidence at that time. I see what else you have to say in the bureau!” Zhang Tianxiang is also in his twenties. He is vigorous. Of course, I can’t stand such stimulation.

The corner of Xiao Chen’s mouth bent, waiting for you.

“Well, who doesn’t go then? You have to kneel on the ground and call dad, and learn dog barking in the hotel hall for a day. How about it?” Xiao Chen looked at Zhang Tianxiang with a joking face.

But the female boss was a little worried. She was supposed to give Xiao Chen a refund today. She didn’t expect to cause so many things.

“Well... Sir, here is the extra money you paid on that day. I’ll bring it to you and give it back to you. Otherwise, the money will be used as the manager’s medical expenses. Let’s not make a big deal.” Her dress is not as good as the staff here, so her voice is also very small.

But the more he saw her like this, Xiao Chen remembered that he had been ruthlessly humiliated when wandering abroad.

“No, the money is for you. I won’t take a cent. Now this dog wants to annoy me, so I’ll naturally accompany it to the end!” Xiao Chen firmly pressed her on the sofa.

The female boss was restrained by the momentum that Xiao Chen suddenly showed.

Zhang Tianxiang seemed to calm down a lot, and he was a little afraid to see Xiao Chen's confident appearance.

But then he thought that there was a huge backer in his family. No matter how, there would be no big problem.

After a while, the police arrived and no one else came. It is Xiao Chen's old friend Zhang Xian. He happens to be idle and bored. Recently, the East China Sea has been too calm. He only comes out to deal with some civil cases.

I didn't expect to see my familiar face just when I got to the hotel.

"Oh, brother Xiao Chen, long time no see, long time no see!" Zhang Xian is like seeing his own brother. It can be said that he feels closer than his brother.

"Why are you brother Zhang Xian? Why are you so free to take care of these trifles? I thought it was brother Zheng coming!" Xiao Chen hurriedly went up to say hello.

The two looked at each other and shook hands tightly.

Zhang Tianxiang was dumbfounded when he saw such a scene, let alone him. Everyone present was dumbfounded.

Ruihua Hotel usually accommodates businessmen, who generally don't have too much relationship with senior officials, but why can Xiao Chen have such a good relationship with a policeman.

Moreover, looking at the policeman's clothes and the golden five pointed star on his chest, it is estimated that the position is not simple.

"Who called the police just now?" Zhang Xian still remembers his business.

"Here!" Fang Mulin said.

“Oh, ma’am, what’s the problem?” Asked Zhang Xian.

“Well, what about the gentleman before...” Fang Mulin said everything in front of the people present.

Her description is basically consistent with the facts. Without any embellishment.

And they called out surveillance.

After watching the whole process, Zhang Xian patted Xiao Chen on the shoulder and said, “Oh, I said, brother, you should do it gently next time, otherwise it will be really difficult for us to do it.”

Xiao Chen smiled: “it’s all right. Just enforce the law impartially. Do what you should do, regardless of our relationship.”

He’s telling the truth, but Zhang Xian is not stupid. Can he do this position today?

Suddenly a “understand” smile.

“Well, let’s deal with it fairly!”

Hearing this, Zhang Tianxiang, who thought he was finished, raised his head in an instant.

“I knew that the police in the East China Sea are quite fair! You’re finished! Lose money to me!”

“Take this childe back to the Bureau for tea first!” After that, two men in police uniforms came up and arrested him.

“Hey, you... Didn’t you mean to enforce the law impartially?” Zhang Tianxiang looked at a loss.

What kind of law enforcement is this? It's only right that the victim is himself.

At most, I insulted Xiao Chen in language. I didn't do anything else too much.

"Young man, the monitoring is very clear. You should move your hand first. This gentleman is self-defense. If you have to count, at most he has been too defensive. But generally, it's even harder for you to take notes in the Bureau. According to the Chinese civil law Article 321, the third provision stipulates that if a person openly insults another person in public and commits an aggressive act, he may be detained for ten days, or sentenced to six months. I wonder if you are interested?" Zhang Xian also looked at him with a joking face.

Now Zhang Tianxiang is smart. He doesn't say anything anymore. Instead, he is silent.

He knows that it can't be solved here, and other ways must be considered.

"Well, since there's nothing to say, I'll take it back. I'll go first. Brother Xiao Chen, please feel free to contact me if you have anything!" With that, Zhang Xian left with Zhang Tianxiang, who was disabled in his right leg.

Fang Mulin immediately looked at Xiao Chen with new eyes. Unexpectedly, people dressed in such ordinary clothes are not only quite rich, but also the background in the East China Sea is quite not simple.

But fortunately, she is very cautious in her life and work. So I'm not afraid to offend such a hidden boss.

"Well, open a room for this lady, and then you can prepare some clean clothes for her." Xiao Chen ordered.

"OK!" Fang Mulin nodded hurriedly, "Miss, take your ID card."

"Ah? No, I really don't. I'm smelly. I'll dirty the hotel at that time." The female boss looked embarrassed.

“It doesn’t matter. The hotel is used to dirty it.” Fang Mulin smiled at her.

“It’s all right. Listen to me. Go take a bath first, or how can I charge you if you pay me back like this?” Xiao Chen said.

Hearing that Xiao Chen said she would receive the money, the female boss nodded slightly and reluctantly: “well... OK, but I’d better pay the money myself!”

“Well, suit yourself. I’m in room 52 on the 7th floor. Come up to me then.” Xiao Chen was ready to go back to his room first. It was time for him to take a bath.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 72

Returning to his room, Xiao Chen was still thinking about whether to buy himself a decent suit while taking a bath, so that he could meet fewer people who look down on others.

But then I thought about it again and felt that there was no need. After all, this kind of thing completely lies in the other party’s idea. No matter how you dress up, people who look down on others will always look arrogant, while modest people will always be very modest.

Although the female boss is a woman, it seems to be the first time to live in such a high-end hotel. So the speed of bathing was much faster than Xiao Chen. Xiao Chen knocked at his door before he finished washing.

“Wait a minute, I’ll be ready in a minute!” Xiao Chen seemed a little embarrassed. He quickly rubbed his body and began to wear clothes.

“Ah... Well... You’re still washing, sir. It’s okay. I’ll just wait a little longer. Anyway, I don’t have anything right now.” The female boss said outside the door.

“It’s all right, soon!”

Just as the female boss was about to turn around and leave, Xiao Chen opened the door. He didn't pay so much attention. At this time, he was wearing a bath towel.

When the female boss saw Xiao Chen's standard figure, she immediately blushed, covered her eyes and said, "I didn't mean to, sir, put on your clothes first!"

Xiao Chen looked at herself and didn't think there was anything wrong, so she waved her hand and said, "it's okay. I'm dressed. Come in first!"

Then he opened the door directly.

After hesitation, the female boss covered her face and entered the room.

"Well... Are you dressed, sir?" She sat on the small stool by the door with her eyes closed.

"Just call me Xiao Chen. I've changed it. Come in directly!" Xiao Chen's voice came out from inside.

"Oh... OK, then... I really went in!" The female boss still seems very embarrassed.

Until Xiao Chen came to the door to meet her, she opened her eyes and went in.

"By the way, I don't know what's your name? It's always awkward for a female boss to call." Xiao Chen is very easygoing.

When the female boss came to such a high-end hotel for the first time, the whole person seemed very formal, but she was quite beautiful after she changed into the hotel's work clothes. Even without any dress, she didn't lose the beauty pageants on TV.

"Well... My name is Su Jiahui." Su Jiahui's voice is very soft. It makes people feel like spring breeze after listening to it.

“Jiahui? Then I’ll call you Jiahui. Your name sounds good.” Xiao Chen said.

When Xiao Chen said this, Su Jiahui’s face turned red again: “this... How embarrassed.”

“By the way, I’m 23 this year. How old are you?” Xiao Chen asked.

“Well, one year older than you.” Su Jiahui replied.

“That’s just right. I’ll call you sister Jiahui.” Xiao Chen said.

“Never, Mr. Xiao Chen. You are so young and promising, and you have a good skill. I can’t afford it.” Su Jiahui seems to have low self-esteem.

“What’s the matter? I think we have a good relationship, otherwise we can’t see each other again. I won’t want the money again. I said to give it to you, that is to give it to you. Besides, you look so beautiful. Why don’t you find a serious job and set up a stall in the night market every day?” Xiao Chen made his hair dry.

“Well... Don’t worry about these Mr. Xiao Chen. I can’t take the money like this. I’m also principled. I can’t take so much money from you casually. I’ll just take the money for supper.” With that, Su Jiahui handed the black bag in her hand again.

Xiao Chen felt helpless when he saw his persistence.

After thinking for a while, he said, “well, I’ll open a member at your place first. Then I’ll go to your place to eat when I’m free. What do you think?”

Su Jiahui frowned slightly. Seeing Xiao Chen like this, she insisted that the other party might be angry, so she nodded and said, “well, sir, you must come. This 50000 may have been eaten for a long time.”

Looking at her simple appearance, Xiao Chen couldn’t help feeling a little funny. But he suddenly noticed a trace of black air on her eyebrows.

“Well, sister Jiahui, is there anything unclean in your house?” Xiao Chen directly asked what he had just found.

“Ah!” Su Jiahui was very nervous in an instant. The black bag with money in hand also fell down and the money scattered all over the ground. She squatted down and picked it up.

“Mr. Xiao Chen, can you... Can you see that?” She looked at Xiao Chen with some surprise.

“It’s all small things. Tell me first.” Xiao Chen also squatted down and picked up the hundred yuan bills on the ground together.

“No, I’ll just come. Just sit down.” The female boss quickly sorted out the money.

“Now that you’ve seen it, I won’t hide it. In fact, I don’t want to go out to set up a nightstand every day. But a few years ago, my parents suddenly fell ill. I don’t know what strange disease they had. My sister and I were born relatively late. We had a brother before, but we died in an accident, so we had both of us.”

“My parents made a living by farming in the field. They also planted some small vegetables and fruits, but they suddenly fell ill, and it was my turn to earn money to support the family. I was still in high school, but I had to drop out of school and go home and start working outside to make money, but because of my parents’ illness, they were using up money all the time. My family’s savings soon ran out, and I had to find it as much as possible Money making work, so I set up a night snack stall on the recommendation of my friends. “

As she spoke, Su Jiahui lowered her head, as if to hide her inner sadness.

“Strange disease? How to treat it?” Xiao Chen is more concerned about the condition of this disease.

“I don’t know what’s going on. One day five years ago, when my parents came back from their farm work, they felt like they were burning all over. Then they couldn’t eat every day and their health was getting worse and worse. If there wasn’t a doctor in our town who knew something about this prescription and used medicine on their side every day, my parents might...”

As she spoke, she choked.

“Well, it’s all right. You said there was a medical school in your town?” Xiao Chen patted her on the shoulder and comforted.

“Yes, there is a Chinese doctor who is also an old traditional Chinese medicine, and it is quite affordable to fill medicine for the people in our town, so it has a good reputation. It’s just that my parents can’t cure this disease, so they can only take medicine.” Su Jiahui said.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 73

“Well, are your parents in the hospital or at home?” Asked Xiao Chen.

“The hospital is too expensive. My parents don’t want to live in the hospital, so they ask me to get some prescriptions from old doctor Hua every day. Moreover, his two sons are very kind to me and often give me something to eat. I know it’s not easy in our family. They give me a lot of medicine every time.” Su Jiahui seemed to be talking about her life-saving benefactor.

But the more Xiao Chen listened, the more she felt there was something strange in it.

“Well, sister Jiahui, if it’s appropriate for you, let me go and show your parents.” Xiao Chen said positively.

“You... Are you a doctor?” Su Jiahui was unbelievable. She didn’t expect that the young man in front of her was not only young and promising, but also full of martial arts. I didn’t expect to have medical skills.

“I know a little. I want to see my uncle and aunt first!” Xiao Chen said.

“This... Well, our environment is very poor. Mr. Xiao, you won’t dislike it.” Su Jiahui seems to be afraid that Xiao Chen is scared away when she sees the scene of their home.

Xiao Chen smiled. When he was wandering in a foreign country, he even spent the night next to the smelly ditch. These were nothing to him at all.

“Don’t worry. I’m not really a rich second generation. Today I work hard by myself.” Xiao Chen gave her a reassurance.

After hearing this sentence, Su Jiahui cast a respectful look at Xiao Chen.

“Let’s go now!” Xiao Chen said.

“Well, let’s go.” The female boss was just about to leave, but suddenly she screamed.

“What’s the matter?” Xiao Chen looked back.

“I’ll be scolded if I go back dressed like this. No. I’d better change my clothes and go back.” Su Jiahui said.

“It’s all right. Just say I gave it to you.” Xiao Chen didn’t care at all.

Hearing this, Su Jiahui blushed. Xiao Chen didn’t know what it meant to give a woman clothes in Su Jiahui’s village, but since he said so. Su Jiahui also did not refute.

She suddenly felt that Xiao Chen had become her biggest dependence. She had a sense of peace of mind since she met him.

Xiao Che drove his BMW to the countryside.

He remembers that he lived in the countryside with his grandfather when he was very young. Now when he came back, he felt like he was a child again.

Because Xiao Chen's driving skills are quite good, and there are no bumps in the whole process, Su Jiahui thought she would vomit on the road, but she didn't feel at all.

This can't help but increase her favor for Xiao Chen.

"Here we are!" She pointed to the front of the house that looked half decorated.

Just entered the house. Xiao Chen felt a strange smell in an instant. It didn't belong to the countryside.

Evil thing! Xiao Chen was surprised. Yes, someone in the family was evil.

Then came to the two old people.

"Mom and dad. Today I brought Dr. Xiao to see you." Su Jiahui's voice is very soft.

As soon as her mother opened her eyes, she found Su Jiahui's new clothes, so she questioned her and learned that it was sent by Xiao Chen. Her eyes were a little different.

After a burst of observation, Xiao Chen first took away the disease Qi from the two old men with the disease pulse.

"The two always suffer from deficiency because evil Qi enters the body. Just prescribe some tonics and take a few courses of treatment. As for this evil thing, do you have surplus glutinous rice in your family?" Xiao Chen said.

"Glutinous rice? Then I have to go out and buy it." Su Jiahui said.

She was very surprised. Unexpectedly, Xiao Chen could see his parents' symptoms as soon as he entered the door.

“I’ll go out and buy it now. I’ll borrow a small electric donkey from sister Wang’s house next door.” Su Jiahui was about to go out.

“Didn’t your family offend anyone?” Xiao Chen suddenly grabbed her hand and asked.

“Ah?” Was suddenly caught by Xiao Chen. Su Jiahui was embarrassed for a moment and said shyly, “no, my family has been poor farmers for three generations and are farming honestly. How can I offend anyone?”

“Well, you go. Be careful on the way.” Xiao Chen told me.

Being cared by Xiao Chen, Su Jiahui’s heart seemed to touch the secret. Smiled and nodded, “OK, I will.”

Xiao Chen took out a pair of silver needles from his car and made a set of acupuncture for the two old people first.

The two old men felt that their bodies were much more comfortable in an instant.

“Young man, how old you are! You are a miracle doctor!” Su Jiahui said to her father.

“No. I just know some medical skills. There may be some pain later. You two should bear it a little.” Xiao Chen asked.

“It doesn’t matter. We two old guys haven’t suffered anything. It’s just Jiahui.” As he spoke, the wrinkled old man seemed very sad and burst into tears in an instant.

“It’s great for Xiao Hui to be the manager of the company now,” she said

Hearing what Xiao Chen said, the two elders noticed something in an instant and asked, “Jiahui, is she working on your side?”

“No, she entered the company herself. I’m just her friend.” Xiao Chen didn’t have many ideas.

Hearing this, the two elders looked at each other, as if they had decided something.

“Young man, what year are you and what do you belong to?” Su Jiahui’s mother immediately asked.

“I’m one year younger than her. I’m a cow.” Xiao Chen said.

“One year younger, this...” the two elders seem to have other thoughts.

After a while, Su Jiahui bought the glutinous rice back.

“Cook the glutinous rice half cooked, and then take a few small bowls to put it.” Command Xiao Chen.

Next, Xiao Chen massaged the two old people into deep sleep with a cloud pushing hand, then tied silver needles all over their bodies and buttoned the glutinous rice directly on their mouths.

I saw a lot of black gas overflowing from the two old heads.

“Where are the demons? They don’t show up soon! Heaven and earth are limitless, and heaven and earth borrow the law!” Xiao Chen roared.

In fact, it was just to hide people’s eyes and ears. Secretly, it carried a sick pulse and made a sick gas, and the black smoke in front of us dissipated directly.

Su Jiahui’s parents are half evil and half poisonous. It seems that someone should be drugging the two old people, and this kind of thing needs continuous cultivation.

Xiao Chen immediately remembered what Su Jiahui had said about old doctor Hua.

“Well, now your parents should be all right. Then you can prescribe some tonics for them to make up. Don’t work for the last month until your body recovers.” Xiao Chen said, took out a pen and paper and wrote down a prescription for her.

“This... Doctor Xiao, how can I thank you!” Su Jiahui’s eyes glittered.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 74

The prescription was as heavy as Mount Tai in her hand. Remembering what Xiao Chen had done to herself before, Su Jiahui knelt down and said:

“Doctor Xiao, Jiahui’s life will be yours in the future. I’ll do whatever you want me to do. Even if I’m your slave, I have no complaints.”

Xiao Chen quickly helped her up: “what are you doing? We’re friends. Needless to say, now your parents are well. You can find a formal job and don’t set up a stall every day. In case you’re bullied by those bad guys again.”

Su Jiahui was already sobbing: “doctor Xiao, if... If you like me. Even if you accept me as a lover, I’d like to.”

Xiao Chen is ashamed. Where did this girl learn these things? But think about it, it’s common for many rich people to raise four or five little lovers outside with the rapid economic development outside.

Xiao Chen can’t have such a strange hobby. Now the only thing in his heart is the beauty who looks cold and gorgeous. Although Su Jiahui may not lose any beauty Xiao Chen has seen.

However, Xiao Chen is quite principled, so it is impossible to agree with Su Jiahui.

“Well, let’s not talk about this first. You can stay at home and take good care of your parents these days. The money should be enough. The hospital you said is right over the hole we just passed by.” Xiao Chen shifted the topic to the medical school.

“Yes. It’s just when we came in. Why don’t I take you there again?” Su Jiahui wiped away her tears.

“No, I’ll just go by myself. Just take care of the two old people.” Xiao Chen waved his hand and got on his BMW.

Soon after, I came to the so-called old Fahrenheit hospital.

It was evening and there seemed to be no one inside.

“What do you do?” Behind him came a man’s voice.

Xiao Chen looked back and found a thin man in thin clothes standing behind him.

“Oh, I’m looking for old doctor Hua. I don’t know where he went?” Xiao Chen said.

“You’re looking for my father? Then you have to wait. He’s going up the mountain to collect medicine now.” The man said.

Xiao Chen saw that the man was similar to his age, so he chatted with each other.

I learned that the old doctor’s name was Hua Guoguang. He lost his wife and two sons in his early years. One was Hua Kongqing. The other one is called Hua keel.

They are all named after traditional Chinese medicine. It seems that they are really the style of old traditional Chinese medicine. The one who chatted with Xiao Chen is Xiaoer Zihua keel, who is also 22 years old this year. My brother is three years older than him.

While they were chatting, Xiao Chen saw an old man and another young man coming here with a burden.

Xiao Chen knew at a glance that this was the old doctor Hua.

“Hello, Dr. Hua. My name is Xiao Chen. I happened to be here, so I came to visit you.” Xiao Chen arched his hand.

Hua Guoguang squinted at Xiao Chen. Then he put down his burden and said to Hualong bone, “two eggs. Tidy up these pills for me.”

After hearing this, Hua Longgu went to sort out the herbs with his brother.

“What’s the matter? What can I do for you?” Hua Guoguang lit a dry cigarette and asked.

“Oh. I also know some traditional Chinese medicine. I heard that there is a famous old traditional Chinese medicine here. I’ll see it.” Xiao Chen said.

“Oh?” When Hua Guoguang saw that Xiao Chen was so young, he couldn’t help shaking his head.

“You young man, you haven’t learned to climb yet. What are you doing here?”

In fact, Xiao Chen was distinguishing the taste of him when he came, and instantly felt the existence of that kind of thing on him.

“Oh, it’s normal for old Hua to look down on me. I really know a little about traditional Chinese medicine. But if old Hua doesn’t dislike it, how about we make a bet?” Xiao Chen smiled.

“Bet? Bet what?” Hua Guoguang had a trace of curiosity.

“As for me, I don’t have much level, but I remember that I’m familiar with the prescriptions of traditional Chinese medicine. So I’ll compare with you. How familiar is the prescription of traditional Chinese medicine?” Xiao Chen said.

“Traditional Chinese medicine prescription? You’re an interesting little doll. I’ve been prescribing prescriptions for so many years. Are you sure you want to compare with me? What’s the bet?” Hua Guoguang seems to have heard the funniest joke in the world.

On one side, his two sons couldn’t help grinning when they heard Xiao Chen’s words.

“I said, little brother, I’m afraid you didn’t wake up. Although our father is not a famous doctor, he has been practicing medicine in this town for 50 years and 30 years. What’s your comparison?” Huakong Qingdao.

“Oh, I’m only good at this, so I want to have a try.” Xiao Chen said.

“What’s your name, young man?” After Hua Guoguang thought Xiao Chen was a famous family, he asked.

“Oh, my name is Xiao Chen, Xiao He’s Xiao, hour of hour.” Xiao Chen answered without any hesitation.

“Xiao Chen?” Hua Guoguang frowned. None of the famous doctors he had heard of had this surname. And there are no special cattle doctors in the East China Sea.

If the young man in front of him really has a certain strength, at least he should be famous in the East China Sea, but he hasn’t heard at all, which shows that he is actually a nobody.

“Then you say, how to bet, what’s your capital?” Huoguang.

“I’ll bet on this car. What do you think?” Xiao Chen pointed to the BMW behind him.

“Wow! No kidding!” Although huagulong lives in the countryside, he still knows this car.

This is a luxury version of BMW worth more than two million.

Seeing that Xiao Chen should gamble so casually, Hua Guoguang immediately became vigilant.

“What kind of mortgage do you want me to have, comparable to your car?”

“I don’t want any mortgage. I just need to ask you one thing.” Xiao Chen said.

“One thing?” Hua Guoguang has some doubts.

“Yes, just ask one thing, nothing else.” Xiao Chen said.

“What’s the matter?” Hua Guoguang is very sensitive to such words because he has some secrets in his heart.

“It’s some prescriptions you usually prescribe. Maybe I need to learn from you. I come with a learning attitude.” What Xiao Chen said was quite obscure.

He can’t directly mention the situation of Su Jiahui’s family, because even if he knows what Hua Guoguang did, he can’t help it if he doesn’t admit it.

“Since you want to study, how dare you gamble with me?” Hua Guoguang is very strange.

The two sons behind him also frowned and looked at Xiao Chen.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 75

“Well, I know some common prescriptions, but I still have less knowledge of some special prescriptions, so I went to some old traditional Chinese medicine in the township to study. Many drugs do not have to be configured according to the old prescriptions, but many new configurations have produced new effects.” Xiao Chen explained.

Hearing what Xiao Chen said, Hua Guoguang’s vigilance relaxed a little.

Originally, he thought Xiao Chen came for that matter. It seemed that it was just a coincidence.

The two sons saw Xiao Chen without the previous hostility.

However, all this was actually seen by Xiao Chen. Of course, he won't say or show that he knows the situation here.

"It's too sudden. I have to think about it." Hua Guoguang is still afraid of exposing some of the ugly things he has done.

"It doesn't matter. This is my phone. As long as you think about it, you can call me at any time. I'm waiting at any time." With that, Xiao Chen also shook the car key in his hand in front of his father and son.

Seeing Xiao Chen gone, Hua Kong Qing and Hua Gu Long quickly surrounded him.

"Dad, why don't we gamble with him? It's a two million car. We've been selling medicine here all our life. We don't even have enough money to buy a house in the city. If we get half of the car and sell it, we can buy several houses in the city. Then I can marry Jiahui openly!" Hua was the first to speak.

"Yes, I can go to Jiaqi school at that time. I'm sure I can catch up with her!" Chinese bone dragon also said.

Obviously, these two people are not talking about others, but the two daughters of the Su family. It seems that they are greedy for each other's beauty.

Hua Guoguang's greatest hope in his life is indeed that his two sons can marry a daughter-in-law and then have a child for himself.

But I didn't expect that they were both dead headed. They just fell in love with the Su family.

The Su family is also a particularly enlightened family. They originally wanted to send their two daughters out to study.

It was only because Hua Guoguang deliberately poisoned the two old farmers on the road a few years ago, which made them look like they were ill. It was expected that they would come to their home to get the medicine, so he added a small amount of Datura to the medicine every time, which led to the two old people's physical improvement, but they were in low spirits.

Now. The couple fell down and the tuition fees of his two daughters were gone. Originally, he wanted to take this opportunity to discuss with the Su family about the marriage of two boys in his family and two girls in their family.

But I didn't expect that Su Jiahui refused at that time, so the matter has been put off until now.

Su Jiahui didn't find any medicine in the evening, but Su Jiahui didn't think it was an accident.

But before long, Su Jiahui appeared as usual.

In fact, she came according to Xiao Chen's meaning.

Xiao Chen told her that the Hua Guoguang family was plotting against their two sisters, but Su Jiahui didn't want to believe anything. After all, Hua Guoguang has been in their town for many years. How could he do such a thing.

"Jiahui came to buy medicine again?" When Hua Guoguang saw Su Jiahui coming to buy medicine, he felt a lot of peace in his heart.

"Well, it's the same as before." Su Jiahui said with a smile.

"OK. This is your medicine. It's all ready. You must cook it well and give it to your parents." Hua Guoguang looks kind.

“Thank you, old doctor Hua. You are really a living Hua Tuo who saved our family!” Su Jiahui said she was still very grateful to him.

“It’s okay. It’s all from the villagers. Just help if you can. It’s dark at night. Be careful on the road.”
Huaguang.

“Don’t worry. I’ve been away for more than 20 years and I’m very familiar!” Su Jiahui is sweet and authentic.

Looking at her far back, Hua Guoguang is actually quite contradictory in his heart. He knows that he is morally corrupt, but poor parents all over the world are for his children. I have to.

In fact, Su Jiahui’s heart is also quite contradictory at the moment. She doesn’t know why Xiao Chen doesn’t let her tell her about her parents and asks her to come and buy medicine every day.

Xiao Chen began to practice after returning to Ruihua hotel. Recently, he has been in contact with many patients and collected quite a lot of disease Qi. Especially today, he collected the disease Qi of the two elders of the Su family. He vaguely felt that his disease pulse was about to break through and seemed to reach a new realm.

All night he was immersed in practice and knew he was awakened by a phone call in the morning.

Answered the phone. It was Hua Guoguang who called and invited Xiao Chen to their township for a medical fight.

Xiao Chen didn’t want to agree, and soon drove to Su Jiahui’s township.

Su Jiahui was also there. Seeing Xiao Chen coming in his car, he immediately went up to meet him.

“Doctor Xiao Chen, do you really want to gamble with old Hua in our town? He is indeed an old Chinese medicine. Although your medical skills are quite magical. But you are not necessarily his opponent in this respect. Otherwise, forget it. I really don’t believe what you said. Old Hua has never missed the prescription in our town for so many years, and has a good reputation Well, not like you said. ” Su Jiahui seems to have been persuading Xiao Chen.

“Don’t worry, I’ll prove it to you.” Xiao Chen touched her head.

So she didn’t say anything anymore and obediently followed behind Xiao Chen.

But this scene was seen by Hua Kongqing. He immediately clenched his fist and said to Su Jiahui, “Jiahui. Did you follow this boy because he has some money? We’ve grown up since childhood!”

“Big dog?” Su Jiahui glanced at Hua Kongqing, and then her eyes twinkled with helpless light: “I said, it’s impossible between us. You don’t pester me anymore. You can marry an individual girl!”

“I don’t! I want you!” Hua Kongqing seems unconvinced.

“Boy, stop. I have to bet!” He stopped Xiao Chen.

“Oh? Fill?” Xiao Chen turned back with interest.

“Don’t do this. Really, I don’t think it’s good to make a joke there. Otherwise, Mr. Xiao Chen, forget it!” Su Jiahui pulled up Xiao Chen’s hand.

Hua Kongqing on one side couldn’t see it at all, and directly rushed to open their hands.

“Jiahui, people in the city are different from those in our countryside. You can’t follow him!” His eyes were full of anger.

“I volunteered, I want you to take care of it!” Su Jiahui seems to be annoyed.

“Boy, listen to me. We need to raise. If you lose, give Jiahui to me!” Hua Kongqing pointed to Xiao Chen.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 76

“I will not let you has the final say, who is her freedom to follow, and I have no power to direct her life, neither do you!” Xiao Chen replied coldly.

“Well, big dog, stop talking. Come back!” Hua Guoguang stopped Hua Kongqing.

Listen to your father’s words, but his face is full of resentment. Hua Kongqing returned to Hua Guoguang.

“Mr. Hua, how do you compare the law?” Xiao Chen took advantage of the situation and asked Hua Guoguang.

“For the sake of fairness, let’s go to town. I’ll arrange the villagers to watch it. What do you think?” Huoguang.

“OK, I have no problem.” What Xiao Chen is most afraid of is that things have become big.

“Let’s win two of the three games, one by one, acupuncture, massage and the last prescription.” Hua Guoguang explained the rules.

Hearing this, Xiao Chen’s eyes lit up. Isn’t this what he is best at?

“OK, no problem. Let’s go to town first!”

After that, the party came to the town.

As a famous poverty-stricken Township in the East China Sea, Guyue Township doesn’t see anyone on the street even in broad daylight.

But today, it is very lively. Most people from all over the country come to see the excitement.

Because someone is advertising that the old Chinese doctor here will have a medical fight with an exotic young man today.

Old doctor Hua is a famous old doctor here. Someone dares to challenge his authority. This has aroused the curiosity of many people.

Just in the village, there are two old people who have worked in the fields all their lives. They are sick all over. They are similar in many ways.

So he was recommended as a “test object”.

At first, I still didn’t want to, but I promised after knowing that it was free treatment.

“Doctor Hua! Just help me!” Uncle Zhang looked more energetic. When he saw Xiao Chen and Hua Guoguang, he took the lead in opening his mouth.

Uncle Li on one side was not happy: “why should I help you? Help me first!”

The two quarreled.

The villagers were also dumbfounded when they saw Xiao Chen.

It seems that this young man in his twenties dares to challenge the authority of the old traditional Chinese medicine? Isn’t that stupid? Who wants to see a doctor in his hand?

“Don’t look down on doctor Xiao Chen so much. In fact, he took me...” Su Jiahui couldn’t stand it, so she had to argue with these villagers.

But Xiao Chen interrupted: “you can rest assured that I can’t walk here, and traditional Chinese medicine generally won’t cause great damage to the human body. Even if I make a mistake, isn’t there still our old Chinese doctor here?”

“Yes, please rest assured. I promise there will be no accidents!” Hua Guoguang also reassured these villagers.

Hua Guoguang was indeed an old doctor here. Everyone was convinced by his words.

Hua Kongqing also looked at Xiao Chen arrogantly, as if she despised him.

Xiao Chen smiled. He doesn’t know what Hua Kong Qing is proud of. All this is Hua Guoguang’s face and has nothing to do with him.

But Xiao Chen just laughed it off.

“Well, then we’ll make a quick decision. Traditional Chinese medicine pays attention to seeing, hearing and asking. First of all, it’s up to us to determine the symptoms of the two gentlemen.” Hua Guoguang began to check Uncle Li in front of him.

Xiao Chen looked at Uncle Zhang and waited with both hands.

“Mr. Xiao, why don’t you move? Old Hua is feeling his pulse!” Su Jiahui saw Xiao Chen motionless, and her face was very anxious.

“Yes. Young man, can you? If not, give up!” A woman said.

“Young man, are you going to give up? Then I’ll ask Dr. Hua to examine me!” Uncle Zhang also distrusted Xiao Chen very much.

“No, sir. I’ve finished checking.” Xiao Chen looked confident.

“What? Are you crazy? How can you see a doctor like this? I suggest you go back early!” Uncle Zhang was not happy on the spot.

“Uncle Zhang, no matter what, just cooperate. I’ll solve any problems at that time!” Hua Guoguang gave him another reassurance.

In this way, Uncle Zhang calmed down and didn’t speak. He just looked at Xiao Chen with very unfriendly eyes.

Xiao Chen kept smiling all the time, as if other things had nothing to do with him.

“Hum. Just pretend to force. I don’t know when you can drag it. When you want to get the result later, you’re afraid you can’t answer a word!” Hua Kongqing saw Xiao Chen.

In an instant, I felt that my father was winning. The boy is a rich second generation with little ability. He must have wanted to cheat. As a result, the wise old doctor didn’t invite him, so he had to fight his face here.

“Well, it’s time. Please state the disease of the patient in your hand.” Said the impartial doctor.

This is a doctor specially invited to be impartial. Xiao Chen and Hua Guoguang don’t know him.

“I’m a doctor here, so I’ll come first!” Hua Guoguang stood up first.

People looked at him with very kind eyes, as if they were looking at their friends.

“Obviously, old doctor Hua has won. The boy can’t even feel his pulse and doesn’t ask about the patient. What can he say?”

“Yes, I thought it was a powerful doctor from outside. It’s just like that. I don’t have much ability!”

.....

“First of all, Uncle Li’s mouth is sound, so I conclude that Uncle Li’s stomach should be relatively good.”
Hua Guoguang first expressed his views.

Uncle Li nodded: “I can still eat every day!”

“Secondly, Uncle Li’s legs, especially the part from the foot to the lower leg, have serious infection. They should be planted in the field and soaked in the field, and there is no timely treatment.”

Uncle Li also nodded.

“Then Uncle Li should have itching on his back and pain on his bones every rainy day!”

“Oh, it’s awesome. What a miracle doctor! You can see it!” Uncle Li’s eyes brightened when he saw old doctor Hua.

“Then, there are things you may not feel. First, there is kidney deficiency, kidney yang deficiency, and then there are signs of aging and failure of the liver and gallbladder. You should pay more attention to it at ordinary times. I’ll give you treatment and prescribe some prescriptions at that time.”

After Hua Guoguang finished, the villagers burst into applause.

“An old doctor is an old doctor. How long will it take to see so many problems.”

“I always take medicine from Hua Lao. I know his medical skills best.”

.....

The game hasn’t started yet.

It seems that everyone has decided that Hua Guoguang won.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 77

“Boy, it’s your turn!” Hua Kong Qing glanced at Xiao Chen.

“Well, everybody be quiet and I’ll tell you my judgment!” Xiao Chen came to the middle of the crowd.

Everyone was silent, and some people didn’t even want to see what Xiao Chen said.

“First of all, there are many similarities between Zhang’s situation and Li’s situation. I won’t repeat it. I just add something. Li’s back itches every rainy day. There is pain.”

“And Mr. Zhang is pure pain, don’t you think so? It’s not just his back, but also the joints of his hands and feet. It seems that Mr. Hua ignored the joints just now? I’ll add.”

“This...” old Zhang heard Xiao Chen say so, which is really in line with his situation.

Hua Guoguang’s heart suddenly slowed down. Yes, he was so excited that he forgot to mention arthritis.

“Yes, I just forgot to say that both old people do have arthritis.” Hua Guoguang quickly rounded up the game.

“It’s all right. In fact, you saw it, but you just forgot to say. Didn’t you just see my joint?” Li Lao also helped to speak.

But I didn’t know that his help made Hua Guoguang’s eyesight weak. He didn’t even see the disease he had seen with his own eyes.

But Xiao Chen didn't pay attention to it, but then said, "old Zhang, his stomach is not very good, and his teeth should be not very good. Secondly, there are certain diseases in his kidneys, liver and lungs, which are accumulated through years of neglect, which are more difficult to treat. There are gallstones."

"He... What he said is true?" Villagers on one side asked Uncle Zhang.

Although I don't want to admit it, what Xiao Chen said is true.

Uncle Zhang nodded in embarrassment.

"This..."

"Hiss..."

In an instant, many people took a breath, and some cold sweat came out on Hua Guoguang's forehead.

"Young man, you can! Did you start to learn traditional Chinese medicine from the womb?" Being a fair doctor is also an old traditional Chinese medicine. He didn't see it so carefully.

Xiao Chen just smiled. Then he added: "by the way, Mr. Zhang may be angry recently, and we should pay attention. Don't catch a cold, because it's hot and some heat evil has entered the body."

"Miracle doctor! Miracle doctor!" Uncle Zhang immediately stood up from his chair and suddenly grabbed Xiao Chen's hand.

"Don't get excited, sir. Our competition hasn't started yet!" Xiao Chen slowly helped him back to his seat.

"Dad, is he really right about everything?" Hua Kongqing doesn't want to believe that a young boy like Xiao Chen can see the disease of the old man without any contact.

“The patients have this reaction. Do you still ask me?” Hua Guoguang was also a little angry at this time. If his son had one percent of Xiao Chen, he wouldn’t have to worry so much.

Seeing that Hua Guoguang was in a bad mood, Hua Kongqing murmured in a low voice: “I didn’t beat you. Why are you angry with me!”

This sentence was just heard by Hua Guoguang. He was angry and stared at him fiercely.

He quickly hid himself in the crowd. I dare not look at Hua Guoguang again.

The more I think about Hua Guoguang, the more I feel bad, but what can I do? This is my own son.

“Well, this is just our appetizer. The next step is the formal competition. Now let’s ask two doctors to give acupuncture to two patients for a quarter of an hour. If the effect is more remarkable, it will be regarded as a victory!” Said the impartial doctor.

With that, they both began to act.

When it comes to acupuncture, Hua Guoguang really hasn’t been afraid of anyone. He doesn’t believe Xiao Chen is so young and familiar with acupuncture, and different people’s acupoints will be slightly different, so it takes a lot of experience to judge.

Just as he slowly pierced his silver needle one by one, Xiao Chen over there had finished.

“What! How is this possible?” He suddenly raised his body and looked. Almost all of them were in the right position, and even some were in the position where he didn’t dare to start.

Because the old man’s body is fragile, special attention should be paid to acupuncture.

“Oh, doctor Hua, are you too deep?” Suddenly, Uncle Li, lying in front of him, shouted.

He reacted in an instant. He concentrated again and stabbed all the needles in his hand into Uncle Li one by one.

A quarter of an hour later, Uncle Zhang stood up directly. Originally, he was more energetic. Now it seems that it is almost ten years younger, especially powerful.

On one side, Uncle Li's face changed slightly, but it didn't change much.

Stand up and make a judgment!

Hua Guoguang instantly felt his dignity fall to the ground and fell back as soon as his feet were soft.

"Dr. Hua! Dr. Hua!"

"Dad!"

Then Xiao Chen came up and grabbed his people with his hands, and then several silver needles pierced his head.

In an instant, Hua Guoguang woke up and saw Xiao Chen in front of him.

"God... Miracle doctor!" He sighed.

"Old Hua, you are serious. In fact, your medical skills are quite superb, but they are used in some places that shouldn't be used," Xiao Chen also saw at this time. Hua Lao is still quite good. He has to use some invisible means only for his two sons.

"I'm not human! I'm really not human!" Hua Guoguang suddenly stood up and slapped himself in the face.

The villagers present at the moment were very surprised.

“Dr. Hua, what’s the matter? You didn’t do anything wrong? Didn’t you just lose a medical fight?”

“Yes, Dr. Hua, we are looking forward to seeing you in the future!”

.....

The villagers comforted Hua Guoguang one after another.

Su Jiahui also walked up to him and said, “yes, doctor Hua. You are so kind to my family. Without you, I don’t know what my parents will do now.”

“Jiahui, I’m not human! I’m really not human! I’m inferior to animals! I poisoned your parents for my two sons who don’t grow up!”

Hua Guoguang knelt down in front of Su Jiahui.

“What?”

“Impossible?”

“Old doctor Hua is usually so kind. How can he poison him?”

.....

In an instant, the crowd burst into flames, while Su Jiahui suddenly went blank.

Everything was true, as like as two peas of Xiao Chen said.

She looked at Hua Guoguang, who knelt down in front of her, and didn't know what to say.

Anger? disappointment? Payback? Or compensation?

She doesn't think it's important.

"Dad, it's our fault! It's our fault!" Hua Longgu and Hua Kongqing also knelt down together.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 78

"You... All get up. Everyone will make mistakes. I just hope old doctor Hua can continue to stay in the town to see everyone. As for my family, I can only say thank doctor Xiao Chen for his presence, which saved our family's lives!"

With that, Su Jiahui knelt down towards Xiao Chen.

"Hey, come on!" Xiao Chen quickly helped her up.

"Doctor Xiao, if it weren't for you, I don't know how to live in my life!" Su Jiahui burst into tears.

"Get up, what are we talking about!" Xiao Chen forcibly pulled her up from the ground.

.....

Finally, Su Jiahui forgave the Hua Guoguang family. Hua Longgu and Hua Kongqing also vowed to study medicine carefully and work hard with Xiao Chen as an example.

"Well, your family affairs have been handled clearly. You can go wherever you want in the future. I should go back. I still have a lot of things to deal with!" Xiao Chen stood at the door of Su's house.

“Also. There’s nothing delicious and fun to keep you from the villagers. Then... I can only wish you a pleasant journey!” Su Jiahui looked at Xiao Chen with a strange light in her eyes.

The cold Xiao Chen felt uncomfortable all over.

So I got into a BMW and was ready to leave. Suddenly I heard someone knocking at the door.

“Doctor Xiao Chen, why don’t I follow you to the city? My parents told them... They were so relieved to let me follow you.” As she said this, a faint blush appeared on her face.

“Ah? That’s OK. I’ll contact you and arrange a serious job for you.” Xiao Chen thought for a while and then let her get on the bus.

The two elders behind him also showed a happy smile, as if they had helped their daughter find a suitable husband.

Back at the hotel, Su Jiahui said she would take a bath in Xiao Chen’s room. Xiao Chen didn’t think so much and let her take a bath in it.

Xiao Chen originally wanted to calm down and practice, break through the existing accomplishments and cultivate the second disease pulse, but suddenly Su Jiahui came to him with a red face wrapped in a bath towel.

“You... What are you doing?” Xiao Chen was at a loss.

“Doctor Xiao, my parents said. We really have nothing to repay you. I can only promise you by example. I hope you don’t dislike me. Even if you dislike me, I’ll leave after this time!”

With that, he took away his bath towel and showed his attractive body directly in front of Xiao Chen.

Su Jiahui can be said to be a natural beauty. It’s just that I was born in the countryside. Otherwise, even being a star in a metropolis is more than enough.

“You... What are you doing? I told you that Xiao Chen is not such a person! I really just took a fancy to the fate between us. Moreover, the doctor cherishes benevolence. These are the small things I should do.” Xiao Chen quickly avoided her “attack”.

But Su Jiahui seems to have made up her mind. She has to dedicate herself to Xiao Chen today.

“Ding Dong!” Then the doorbell rang.

“Someone is coming. Go into the room first!” Xiao Chen covered his eyes and said.

Although she was ashamed, Su Jiahui had to hide in the room next to her first.

“Coming!” Xiao Chen opened the door and saw someone coming. He was stunned in an instant.

“Ya... Ya Qing!”

The person who came was no one else. It was the one Xiao Chen couldn't let go of now.

“Where have you been these days? I'm looking for you. Why don't you answer the phone?” Wu Yaqing used the mouth and airway of questioning.

“How does this room smell?”

As soon as she entered the door, she smelled a fragrance.

“Ah... No, that... I just came out of the bath.” Xiao Chen felt that his tongue was about to knot.

The aunt didn't come at a good time, but she chose this time. It's killing people!

While talking, Xiao Chen stood in front of the door that Su Jiahui had just entered.

But he suddenly saw Su Jiahui's clothes.

Fortunately, he is the Oriental God of war. He still has this determination. He pretended that nothing happened and said:

“What's the matter? Our Miss Wu came to me herself?”

Hearing Xiao Chen's words, Wu Yaqing blushed: “well, I haven't thanked you for the last time. I've been blaming you all the time before. I'm really sorry!”

“Well, it's okay. It's okay. Is that what you're here for? I've long forgotten. Why don't we go out for dinner later? It's my treat.” Xiao Chen quickly changed the topic.

“No, I'm here today because I have something important to discuss with you.” Then she sat on the sofa. You can just see Su Jiahui's clothes.

Xiao Chen hurried to her.

“Oh, what's up? You say, I'll do my best.” Xiao Chen felt that he was about to be killed.

Suddenly, Wu Yaqing hugged him: “after you left for so many days, I didn't sleep well every day. I think of you every time I go home from work. I really know I'm wrong. I'll never doubt you again!”

“Ah?” Just when Xiao Chen wanted to push her away first, Su Jiahui suddenly came out of the room. Although she was wrapped in a bath towel, she was still quite attractive.

Xiao Chen quickly hugged Wu Yaqing and kept her from moving.

“Yes. In fact, I still miss our days in the Spring Festival Hall. It's really good.”

“Yes, in fact, I know your medical skills are very good. Even many doctors in the city hospital know you. Therefore, I still hope you can come back.” Wu Yaqing road.

Su Jiahui took her clothes into the bathroom and put them on.

“Well... Yaqing, why don't we go inside and talk?” Xiao Chen is really anxious now. If Wu Yaqing sees it, he may not be able to jump into the Yellow River.

“Ah?” Wu Yaqing suddenly pushed Xiao Chen away, his face flushed, lowered his head and said, “it's too fast. Although we used to be husband and wife, we don't really have husband and wife, and I heard it would hurt for the first time...”

“Oh, don't worry. I study medicine and it doesn't hurt!” Xiao Chen directly picked her up and went to bed.

Last time, Wu Yaqing was also in this bed. Because she was drugged, something almost happened with Xiao Chen.

This time, I didn't expect Xiao Chen to take the initiative.

Although Wu Yaqing felt extremely ashamed, she still let go of her girlish complex, put a “big” word on the bed, closed her eyes and said, “come on!”

But I didn't feel any noise for a long time, so I secretly opened an eye. Found that Xiao Chen was not in the room at all.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 79

Xiao Chen was relieved to see that Su Jiahui had finally left, but Wu Yaqing just came out of the room.

“Xiao Chen, what medicine are you selling in this gourd? Do you want to insult me?” Wu Yaqing’s face was ugly.

Obviously, she just put down her reserve. Unexpectedly, Xiao Chen was playing with her.

“Ah... That. In fact, Yaqing, listen to me.” Xiao Chen quickly began to conceive in his mind. How to get this thing back.

But Wu Yaqing turned and left: “since you have no interest in me at all, you just vented your hatred. We don’t owe each other, Xiao Chen. Goodbye and wish you happiness!”

“Hey, Yaqing, don’t hurry. Don’t you have something to tell me?” Xiao Chen hurriedly went up and grabbed her.

Unexpectedly, she was already in tears. What Xiao Chen did just now really hurt her self-esteem.

Seeing her like this, Xiao Chen immediately softened her heart.

“Listen to me, I don’t hate you at all. Just because of this, I’m also on a whim, but later I think it’s really inappropriate now. We still need to find a suitable opportunity to take the next step.” Xiao Chen said.

“Really?” Wu Yaqing wiped her tears.

“Really, how could I have the heart to lie to you!” With that, Xiao Chen gently stroked her cheek from behind.

“What is this?” Suddenly, Wu Yaqing seemed to find something amazing.

“Ah?” Xiao Chen hurriedly looked at her squatting direction.

“Su Jiahui, 24 years old? She looks quite pure. OK, Xiao Chen. I said why are you so wrong today and hiding a woman? You’ve been covering her to escape just now, haven’t you?” Wu Yaqing knocked over the vinegar jar in an instant.

The powder fist kept beating on Xiao Chen.

“Ding Dong!” Then the doorbell rang again.

Wu Yaqing stopped the movement on his hand, then pointed to Xiao Chen and said, “don’t move, don’t give me an explanation today, I’m not finished with you!”

It’s su Jiahui, not someone else.

“Ouch. Little fox spirit, dare to come back, you know he is...” Wu Yaqing originally wanted to say that Xiao Chen is now a married man, but suddenly remembered again. Now Xiao Chen is divorced from her.

Isn’t she really making trouble just now.

She immediately became dumb and stopped saying anything.

“Well... This beautiful lady, in fact, you misunderstood the miracle doctor Xiao Chen. I just volunteered, but the miracle doctor Xiao Chen refused me sternly. I believe he is just like this because of you. Therefore, in fact, he has such a position in the heart of the miracle doctor Xiao Chen. You are the happiest woman in the world!”

Su Jiahui explained the situation just now.

“Ah, so it is!” Wu Yaqing felt ashamed for a moment.

“That... Miss. Can I have my ID card back?” Su Jiahui was a little embarrassed.

“Oh, here you are!” Wu Yaqing quickly handed her the ID card in her hand.

“I wish you happiness!” Su Jiahui slammed the door.

“Xiao Chen... I...” Wu Yaqing slowly turned around and didn’t know how to face Xiao Chen.

“In fact, if you trust me completely at the beginning, I know you doubt because you care about me, right?” Xiao Chen went to the door and took Wu Yaqing’s hand.

Wu Yaqing suddenly hugged Xiao Chen and kissed him directly.

They stood and kissed for a while. Until Xiao Chen stopped. Wu Yaqing reluctantly separated from him.

“I will never doubt you again!” Wu Yaqing said softly.

Now her whole body is soft, and she wants to hold Xiao Chen like this all the time.

“Well, my good wife. Let’s have a rest first!” Xiao Chen sat on the sofa with her in her arms.

“Didn’t you say there was something? Tell me about it?” Xiao Chen said.

“Oh, yes, recently, there has been a medical museum called ‘harmony Hall’ in various regions. The doctors in it are superb in their medical skills. Our other traditional Chinese medicine museums are facing bankruptcy and acquisition, but I don’t think it’s so simple. How can there be so many miracle doctors in China?” Wu Yaqing lay in Xiao Chen’s arms and said.

“Is there such a thing?” Xiao Chen’s sword eyebrow frowned slightly.

“Yes, a few days ago, we also opened one next to the Spring Festival Hall. Now we are also facing bankruptcy.” Wu Yaqing frowned slightly.

This attracted Xiao Chen's attention. Most of the disciples of the medical immortal sect only learned some fur. Because there is no aura that can provide monks' Cultivation on earth, most of the medical cultivation realm is not enough to use the vitality in their body to cure diseases.

It's impossible for Xiao Chen to cultivate the disease pulse like this. There are only a few strong medical cultivation of the medical immortal sect. After his grandfather disappeared, his uncle was in control of the medical immortal sect, and he was not good at learning, so the opportunity didn't get any inheritance.

"The doctors in the traditional Chinese medicine center you mentioned are all from China?" Xiao Chen asked again.

"Yes, they all wear white coats, and they all look young. They are close to you." Wu Yaqing road.

"Close to my age?" Xiao Chen instantly connected with the medical immortal gate again, because medical cultivation really depends on talent and root bone. The younger people can achieve something in a fairly short time if they have the qualification to cultivate them. However, when they left the medical immortal gate a few years ago, those with advanced medical cultivation all have a certain age.

On the contrary, those young disciples of the medical immortal sect have not learned anything. Did you find any secrets and rise?

However, this is not a bad thing, at least it is also helping to publicize Chinese medical skills.

"That's OK, at least to help the revival of traditional Chinese medicine." Xiao Chen nodded.

"It looks like a traditional Chinese Medicine Museum. In fact, they sell all western medicine prescriptions, just under the slogan of our traditional Chinese medicine. Those people have been deceived!" When Wu Yaqing said it, Xiao Chen could feel her anger.

"If so, I will take good care of this matter!" Xiao Chen straightened up his body.

“But... Are you sure you can beat them? They have chains all over the country now.” Wu Yaqing was worried again. It seemed that she was afraid of Xiao Chen’s accident outside.

“Don’t worry, my good wife, you actually don’t know your husband. I’ll open your eyes tomorrow!” Xiao Che gently stroked her cheek.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 80

Seeing that Xiao Chen was so confident, Wu Yaqing nodded and said, “well, I believe you. Originally, I have always distrusted you a lot. Now I believe in you in everything. Whether we succeed or not, let’s do it boldly!”

Hearing what Wu Yaqing said, Xiao Chen, who was already full of confidence, felt that his heart was full of strength.

“Thank you!”

He held Wu Yaqing tightly and felt the fragrance of her. For the first time, I feel so down-to-earth in my heart.

This is the first time in so many years that they have had such close contact.

“Well... Well... I’m going home tonight.” Wu Yaqing’s voice is very soft.

“OK.” Of course Xiao Chen won’t force her. So many years have passed. He won’t worry for a while.

The next day, Xiao Chen drove her BMW to the rejuvenation hall. Most of the staff had left. Even the intern nurse left. Wu Yaqing and another old doctor were left in the whole rejuvenation hall.

There are almost no guests to and from. At first glance, it seems very cold.

Wu Yaqing saw Xiao Chen coming. Hurriedly went up to meet, as if the wife saw her husband coming home from outside.

“Here we are.” She took Xiao Chen’s hands.

Here, she has never looked down on Xiao Chen, and Xiao Chen is also here to slowly collect disease Qi, and finally succeed in breaking through and activating her own disease pulse.

Seeing all aspects of the rejuvenation hall again, Xiao Chen also felt that some things seemed to be arranged. He returned to his own country from the former Oriental God of war, and finally won a world for himself with medical skills.

Now, I still have such a beautiful wife to accompany me.

“Sit down and I’ll make you some tea.” Wu Yaqing asked him to sit on the sofa originally used by patients.

“Xiao Chen?” Of course, the old doctor knows Xiao Chen. He had a good impression of Xiao Chen. He has hardly been upset about Xiao Chen in the past three years.

“Hello, Dr. Zhu, everyone is gone. Are you still there?” Xiao Chen half joked.

“In my whole life, I spent half of my life in the Spring Festival Hall, not just to make money. I have feelings for many things in the Spring Festival Hall, and I’m old. No one wants them anywhere else. Miss Wu Yaqing doesn’t dislike me, so I stay.” Dr. Zhu spoke slowly.

Xiao Chen laughed: “ha ha, doctor Zhu, your medical skills are great. Don’t belittle yourself. Since you chose huichuntang, I won’t let you down. I must revitalize huichuntang!”

“Oh, young people just like to boast. Your medical skills deceive me. It’s just some tricks. All the doctors in the harmony hall are really proficient in medical skills, and the combination of Chinese and Western medicine. An old traditional Chinese Medicine Museum like ours really needs to be compared with others.” With that, Dr. Zhu shook his head and went outside.

This harmony hall is really so divine. Even some old Chinese doctors admire it?

Xiao Chen became more and more curious about the harmony hall.

After a while, Wu Yaqing brought a cup of tea.

“Come on, it’s just soaked. It’s a little hot. Drink slowly.” She slowly put the tea on the small table in front of Xiao Chen.

Seeing her virtuous appearance, Xiao Chen couldn’t help holding her in her arms. Gently whirling her face with her own face.

“I hate... How embarrassed I am to be seen in the medical school!” Wu Yaqing said angrily.

“It’s okay. We’re both husband and wife. We’re afraid of these.” Xiao Chen said.

“Who says it’s husband and wife? We’re all divorced, okay?” Wu Ya gave him an innocent look.

“Oh, forget, it’s all right. Let’s go and apply for a new marriage certificate today.” Xiao Chen smiled.

“Well, didn’t you say you wanted to help see if there was a bright hall in the harmony hall? Now let’s go there.” Wu Yaqing stood up from his arms and said.

“Yes, my wife!” Xiao Chen saluted Wu Yaqing.

“What are you doing? We’re not on a mission.” She could not help but get angry again.

Then, when Wu Yaqing changed his clothes, there was a harmony hall just five minutes away from the Spring Festival Hall. You can see the signboard in red from a distance.

There is a long line outside. There are old people. There are also women with children and some middle-aged men.

The weather is relatively hot, and so many people are crowded together, which makes it all the more irritable.

But even so, I don't want to go to other hospitals. Is it really so magical?

Xiao Chen went to the front of the hospital. It was already crowded, so she couldn't see where the doctor was.

But after observing for a while, I found that there was a small room that seemed to be the place to see a doctor. Every time, a woman who looked like a sweet nurse came out and shouted to the outside, "next!"

Then the long line will wriggle a little.

"Hey, brother, is this little beauty the doctor here?" Xiao Chen casually asked a young man who looked about his age.

"No. It's obviously a nurse. Well, the doctor is in there. There are too many people to see. I'm just coming for the second time." The man said.

"Oh, is the doctor really so divine?" Xiao Chen continued to ask.

"Of course. Last time, I had a cold and inflammation, and I didn't get well after taking medicine for more than ten days. When I came here, someone gave me a few injections at random, and I just went home. It felt like the whole person had never been ill. It was amazing!" The man seems to be boasting about his honor.

"The key is that the charges here are cheap. I only charge more than 200 after being cured at one time. I didn't know how much I paid for my medicine before. It's really worth it!"

Yuan? Xiao Chen really didn't remember that there was a disciple surnamed yuan in the medical immortal sect. Isn't it from the medical immortal sect?

But listening to this man's description seems to be very similar to the skill of yixianmen, although he only uses acupuncture and massage every time to hide people's eyes and ears.

However, in practice, these two are the main medical means of yixianmen.

"Hey, the young man in front! Don't try to jump in the queue! We all came early in the morning!"

Suddenly there were other people in line behind him.

Xiao Chen apologized and stood aside.

Next, Xiao Chen observed all day. Everyone who went in had some symptoms, and then he did get better after coming out.

And the key is really good. Xiao Chen can't see any clue.

Until more than eight o'clock in the evening, all the patients finally finished seeing the doctor.
