

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 9 -

Xiao Chen turns to find that the one who calls his name is the next door neighbor.

The neighbor aunt has always been the person who likes gossip most in the whole community, so she saw Xiao Chen come over at the first time.

“Who is the person who sent you back just now? Why haven’t you seen him before? The car he drove just now is very expensive? When did you have such a friend in your family?”

Xiao Chen casually perfunctory two words, turned and left.

Aunt looked at Xiao Chen’s back and spat: “I think highly of you when I talk to you, but I’m also perfunctory. Is it polite? I won’t go to your house to sue you tomorrow!”

Hearing this, Xiao Chen didn’t even look back and walked into the corridor.

As soon as I entered the house, I got a white eye from Zhao Sulan.

“You’re a loser. You know you’re coming back? Why don’t you die outside?!”

The voice fell, the door opened and Wu Changqing came back.

Today is his day on duty. As soon as he got home, he couldn’t help sighing.

“What’s the matter, frowning!”

“There will be a party tomorrow. Several colleagues invited me together. It is estimated that it is for the change of position.”

He has been sitting on this deputy for so many years, and he also wants to raise his strength.

“That’s a good thing.”

Zhao Sulan said something, then turned to Xiao Chen and said impatiently, “what are you looking at? Clean up the kitchen quickly.”

Xiao Chen went to the kitchen, and the conversation in the living room could still be heard clearly.

“It’s not Lao Li’s guy. He proposed to bring all his sons-in-law to the party. After all, he didn’t want to embarrass me?”

Wu Changqing and the man surnamed Li are in the same department. They both sit in the position of deputy.

Hearing this, Zhao Sulan flashed a dislike in her eyes and took Xiao Chen. Isn't that to make everyone laugh to death?

"Just that loser. If you take him there, you will be laughed at by everyone. Don't mention promotion at that time. You can't even lift your head in front of your colleagues at that time."

Wu Changqing sighed. Why didn't he know?

But everyone agreed that if he didn't bring it, he would break the appointment.

After thinking for a long time, he finally decided to take Xiao Chen there.

"Everything has been settled. It doesn't make sense not to take him there."

Wu Changqing then turned and went upstairs. There was some anger in Zhao Sulan's house and turned to scatter the anger on Xiao Chen.

"After cleaning the kitchen, drag everything inside and outside the house for me. Don't sleep until it's finished, waste!"

Zhao Sulan then went back to the room to rest. Xiao Chen finished all these things in silence and returned to the room to meditate and practice.

At noon the next day, Wu Changqing took Xiao Chen to the Haitian feast. Although Wu Changqing didn't scold Xiao Chen too much, he always didn't like this son-in-law, so he kept telling him on the way.

"Don't talk too much when you arrive. Just smile if you can't answer. And remember your identity. You're a doctor in my daughter's Hospital, not to mention that you're a chore."

Wu Changqing was afraid that Xiao Chen would humiliate him. When he got to the place, a group of people warmly welcomed Wu Changqing in. Xiao Chen stood next to him as a foil.

"This is your son-in-law. He was hidden at previous gatherings. Now he looks really talented."

Many people said a lot of compliments. Wu Changqing didn't take it seriously, but he was still comfortable.

There was only one person sitting with a strange smile on his face.

This person is Li Ruilin, Wu Changqing's sworn enemy. This promotion of associate subject has made Wu Changqing a thorn in the eye.

"Lao Wu, where is your son-in-law?"

Before Xiao Chen could speak, Wu Changqing spoke first.

"He works as a doctor in my daughter's hospital."

After hearing this, Li Ruilin curled his mouth. "It's a doctor. What level of doctor? Ordinary doctor? Attending doctor? Or chief doctor?"

Hearing this, everyone turned their eyes to Xiao Chen.

Wu Changqing was about to say something. Li Ruilin suddenly burst out laughing with a sarcastic tone.

"Come on, Lao Wu, we've been together for so many years. You've made up such a lie for me. I've known your son-in-law for a long time. Isn't it just doing chores in your daughter's hospital?"

As soon as these words were said, many people frowned and looked at Xiao Chen with a trace of ridicule.

What's more, the man who just shook hands with Xiao Chen quietly wiped his hands with a paper towel, and his face showed a look of disgust.

Wu Changqing's face suddenly became ugly, but Li Ruilin talked and laughed with others.

"A door-to-door son-in-law even brought it out. Speaking of your daughter, she is also beautiful. Why did she marry such a waste?"

Wu Changqing was on fire. If it wasn't for the wrong venue, he would have been angry with Xiao Chen. His fingers curled up slightly and soon suppressed it.

"Lao Wu, what do you mean?"

"What do I mean? I should ask you."

The expression on his face was like a smile.

"Who are you looking down on when you bring a loser to the party? What's more, if you bring him, can he understand us?"

Xiao Chen said faintly, "I can understand what people say, except dogs, of course!"

Hearing the speech, the instant on Li Ruilin's face solidified.

Grass, he was ridiculed by a waste door-to-door son-in-law.

"Lao Wu, your son-in-law is really unruly. If my daughter marries such a person, I think she can be humiliated and killed directly. Isn't everyone pointing behind her back when going out? Even if you find a son-in-law, you can't find such a bad one!"

There are several people who have a good relationship with Li Ruilin. They immediately agreed.

"That's right. Eating with people like this will lower our grades."

Wu Changqing's face was livid, but he couldn't attack, because what they said was the truth!

He looked at Xiao Chen and found that he was still eating hard. He was not angry at all.

He was going to find an excuse to leave,

Just then, there was a loud noise outside, and then a group of people swaggered in.

"This box is good. I think I'll order this!"

The leader took it for granted.
