The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 91

Looking at the slowly moving team, Xiao Xi stamped her foot and made up her mind, so she wrote out all her money and other assets.

As soon as he wrote this, many doctors saw it and couldn't help sighing.

"Wow! This man made so much!"

"I'll go. I'm not even one percent of him."

Xiao Xi finished writing and went to the back to line up. Because of his superb medical skills, he also met some leaders of Donghai during his medical practice in Hehe Tang. I even know a department level cadre, so I can almost be said to be the biggest beneficiary of this miracle doctor quick success pill.

Xiao Chen glanced at the content written by Xiao Xi. In addition to the deposit of 200 million, there are several sports cars and two villas.

Xiao Chen couldn't help sighing. There are a lot of rich people in the East China Sea. The boy can make so much money in just six months, and he has reason to believe that Xiao Xi still underreported.

But he doesn't say it now. After all, it's not his turn.

Xiao Jiantian on one side saw that Xiao Xi was so decisive and determined. After hesitating for a long time, he also came to the white paper and slowly wrote down all his property.

He doesn't work as a doctor in Harmony Hall, but he has other more special channels. Even in Kyoto, he knows some senior leaders.

So every time he wrote a list of his assets, the doctors present began to marvel.

"I'll go, sea yacht?"

“What? There are people who send private planes directly?”

“Look at the promissory note of the Swiss bank. It’s inhuman!”

.....

A series of assets are listed, which is close to 1.5 billion Chinese dollars.

Even Xiao Xi was very surprised.

“Dad, you have such a good channel that you don’t even tell your son!”

“You know shit. You’re a waste. You know how to improve your medical skills by relying on some messy drugs all day. I’m ashamed of you!” Xiao Jiantian looked at Xiao xiton and was angry.

“You said as if you were not like this?” Xiao Xi held her hands on her chest.

“Get out of the way! I’m your father. Can you let your father line up behind you?” Xiao Jiantian denounced.

“Oh? I came according to the rules of brother Xiao Chen. Since I handed in something before you, I should be ahead of you!” Xiao Xi seemed totally unwilling to make any concessions.

“You little rabbit!” Xiao Jiantian is almost mad.

But he can only bear it. After all, so many people can’t let them see jokes.

But in fact, people have long seen that the father and son have nothing but interests.

Xiao Chen also knew quite well about them.

Soon it was eight o'clock in the evening. Xiao Chen told the doctors who had not received treatment to go home and come back tomorrow.

Xiao Jiantian and Xiao Xi were unhappy when they saw this situation.

Xiao Xi stopped Xiao Chen and said, "no, brother Xiao Chen, we've also handed in our things. We've written everything that should be written, and you can't do this. Work overtime today and help us finish it, okay?"

"Yes. Nephew Xiao Chen, we've been waiting all day, and you don't want to see us both really old at that time, do you?" Xiao Jiantian also said on one side.

"Didn't I say that? Just follow the rules. Now it's time for me to get off work, and according to the normal working system, I've been working overtime for several hours. No, I have to rest. My wife is still waiting for me to go home for dinner." Xiao Chen waved his hand and looked sleepy.

"Don't. brother Xiao Chen, if you like this, just take some time to help us. Soon, I think you can see the doctor in front of you quickly. It can be solved in a minute or two." Xiao Xi said.

"Oh? They were ordinary at that time. You are a special case and need to use some special methods, so you know. Some of the secrets of our medicine immortal sect sometimes take a long time to be effective." Xiao Chen said faintly.

"Then we have to treat in advance. No, otherwise, look at us. We're dying of old age!" Xiao Xi was even more anxious.

Xiao Jiantian on one side also showed great anxiety.

"That won't work. That's still according to the rules. Well, don't tell you more, I'll go home!" Regardless of their obstruction, Xiao Chen directly sat in his BMW and returned to the hotel.

Wu Yaqing specially prepared a table of dishes and waited for Xiao Chen to come back.

I was so happy to see him back that I jumped on him directly.

“You’re back. I haven’t seen you all day. I miss you so much!” Wu Yaqing jumped directly on Xiao Chen.

“Ha ha, my good wife has gone missing for a day, like three autumn days!” Xiao Chen pinched her nose.

“Don’t you miss me? Is there a little girl out there?” Wu Yaqing pretended to be angry.

“Where will it be? I hurried back at the speed of 300 yards as soon as I got off work, for fear of making my good wife wait a little longer.” Xiao Chen said and kissed her directly.

I don’t know how long later, Wu Yaqing patted Xiao Chen on the back and felt a burst of Yinning.

Xiao Chen stopped his action.

“I hate it. Eat first, or the dishes will be cold for a while. They are all prepared for you!” Wu Yaqing said angrily.

“Xiao Chen, I think I’ll stay with you tonight.” Wu Yaqing said while eating, his face slightly flushed, obviously thinking of something more shy.

Xiao Chen didn’t think so much, nodded and said, “OK, just sleep here. You can sleep anywhere you want.”

“No! They mean to sleep with you.” Wu Yaqing said, burying her head in her chest.

Xiao Chen reacted. Wu Yaqing meant that.

“Well, we’d better get the certificate first and then discuss it.” Xiao Chen is still relatively conservative.

He believes that doing so is actually a performance of being responsible to a woman.

“No! I’m going to sleep with you today!” A trace of displeasure suddenly appeared on Wu Yaqing’s face.

She came here today specially wearing her new underwear. If Xiao Chen doesn’t agree, doesn’t it make her waste her mind?

And this is no time. Since both people love each other, everything else is just a form. Originally, she always thought these were very important, but now she just wanted to be with Xiao Chen. Everything else is not important.

“That...” Xiao Chen had no choice but to scratch his head. He originally wanted to continue to cultivate his sick pulse tonight, but seeing Wu Yaqing’s determination, it is estimated that it is difficult to escape her “magic hand” tonight.

“Well, sleep together.” Xiao Chen nodded.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 92

“It’s very kind of you. Come on, eat more!” Wu Yaqing said and put a handful of leeks in Xiao Chen’s bowl.

It seems that until now, Xiao Chen has understood why Wu Yaqing specially cooked this table full of dishes today. It turned out that it was for preparation in the evening.

After cleaning up, Wu Yaqing began to play with Xiao Chen in her s*xy underwear.

Although Xiao Chen once thought about the scene with her, he felt a little nervous now that it really happened.

Wu Yaqing sat on him slowly. Then slowly began to unbutton his clothes, followed by his belt.

Xiao Chen instantly felt like dry firewood. Wu Yaqing is a raging fire. Now he has been completely lit.

So he couldn't wait to get straight to the point, but Wu Yaqing held him down and slowly put his hand on his lower abdomen to swim away.

At the moment when Xiao Chen felt that he couldn't help but push her down directly.

Suddenly the doorbell rang.

The atmosphere just created disappeared in an instant. Wu Yaqing was very angry, and her eyebrows were about to squeeze together.

"Who, it's so late. Doesn't it claim that there will be no interruption after eleven?" Wu Yaqing chuckled.

"Well, what important thing may it be? Be patient, good wife." Xiao Chen took a swipe in her face, then put on her clothes and went to open the door.

Wu Yaqing sat down unhappily.

Open the door, the person standing outside is no one else, it is Liu Nianxin.

Seeing Xiao Chen, Liu Nianxin quickly said hello, and then began to apologize.

"Let's get this straight!" Xiao Chen didn't want to talk to him.

So Liu Nianxin retreated slowly. Ling appeared behind him.

"Ling? Why are you here?" Xiao Chen was surprised.

“Nothing, just come and have a look.” Ling’s voice is very flat.

“Ah... Look, there’s nothing to see. Didn’t you come last time?” Xiao Chen touched the back of his head.

“Who, what, last time?” Wu Yaqing came out in her pajamas.

“There are women!” Ling’s eyes suddenly became very cold.

Xiao Chen felt like falling into an ice cellar.

“Ah... No, she is... This...” Xiao Chen didn’t know how to explain for a moment.

Ling pushed him away.

“Hey, Ling, don’t do this!” Xiao Chen suddenly remembered that Wu Yaqing didn’t seem to wear a coat.

But Wu Yaqing has come to the two, wearing pajamas.

Xiao Chen immediately felt relieved.

But at the moment of seeing Wu Yaqing, Ling suddenly burst into a colder momentum.

“Who is this woman?”

“I’m his wife.” Wu Yaqing went directly to Xiao Chen and took his hand.

Outside the door, Liu Nianxin quietly closed the door and left.

“Wife?” Ling looked at Xiao Chen in an instant.

“Well, Ling, why don’t you have a rest first? It’s a long way from there.” Xiao Chen wants to change the subject.

“Don’t change the subject!” The two women spoke in unison.

Xiao Chen was instantly frightened away by the momentum of the two people.

“Wife? Is it the kind of wife who has done everything?” Ling asked.

“Yes. We were just going to do it again!” Wu Yaqing refused to give in at all.

“You’re lying! Your clothes are well dressed and your eyes are flickering!” Ling noticed it in an instant.

“You... What makes you say I’m lying!” Wu Yaqing refused to admit it.

“Hum!”

Both women turned their heads to the past, and no one disagreed with each other.

“No, I said. In fact, we have something to sit down and talk about...” Xiao Chen also tried to persuade.

“Shut up!” The two women scolded him at the same time.

“Xiao Chen, thanks to my belief in you, didn’t you say you didn’t flirt outside? Who is she? Why bother our life!” Wu Yaqing said as if she was about to cry out wrongfully.

“I... no, Yaqing, it’s not what you think.” Xiao Chen hurriedly went up and wanted to comfort her.

But Ling looked at him directly.

This made his movement stop in an instant.

“Actually, Ling. I wanted to make something clear a long time ago.”

“OK, you say.” Ling’s voice seems so cold. But in fact, her heart has begun to collapse.

She and Xiao Chen had lived and died, and had known each other since they were very young. At that time, there was still no feeling between them.

Originally, the training in the organization was very hard. Xiao Chen was much stronger than other members, so she could finish the training quickly every time, and then helped her many times.

This time, Ling has actually relied on Xiao Chen in her heart.

She didn’t know her parents at all. She was taken away by her grandmother when she was eight years old.

In her eyes, Xiao Chen is her only relative. Now if Xiao Chen has his own lover. She was afraid that she would lose Xiao Chen.

“In fact... In fact, I’ve been helping you because you were really poor at that time. I saw you punished by the coach several times, but you were still training. So I...” Xiao Chen didn’t know how to speak for a while.

“Liar! Xiao Chen, you big liar!” Ling burst into tears and rushed out of the room.

“Ling!” Xiao Chen seemed to realize how much damage he had brought to her.

“Yaqing, you must believe me. I’m really innocent with her. What can I say when I come back?” Xiao Chen comforted Wu Yaqing before leaving.

“Xiao Chen!” When she saw that Xiao Chen was going to chase him out, she was so angry that she stamped her feet, and her silver teeth were about to break.

“When you go, don’t want to see me again!” She seemed to roar out at the top of her voice.

But Xiao Chen can’t care so much. If Ling’s state is unstable and her whereabouts are exposed, she is likely to encounter a sneak attack.

Because his constitution disappeared, Xiao Chen’s speed was actually much slower than before.

Fortunately, for so many days, the four diseased veins have grown from the original thin as silk to the thickness of chopsticks. Xiao Chen also felt the wind under his feet and caught up with Ling’s breath.

“Ling, listen to me. Many things are not what you think!”

They chased and jumped on the roof of a building.

This is the training item that Ling was most afraid of before, because she was afraid of heights, but with the encouragement of Xiao Chen, her speed on the training ground directly reached the second place of the whole staff, which was not far from Xiao Chen.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 93

“Ling, stop!” Although Xiao Chen’s speed is very fast now, he still can’t compare with ah Ling who has a special constitution. So he can only chase and shout.

But the more Xiao Chen called her, the more angry she became, and then ran faster and faster.

Suddenly, Xiao Chen felt a murderous spirit.

“No. Ling, get away!”

A red laser like ray passed by Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chenyun got sick and waved his palm.

“Xuanming palm!”

A blue palm print flew out.

“Boom -“

The intersection of the two produced a huge explosion.

Ah Ling seemed to react in an instant. Dodge in the direction of the laser. Then he swept his legs directly towards the void.

“Bang -“ a figure flew directly backward and hit the building on one side.

“Report! Find the No. 2 figure of the extermination organization and ask for support!” In an instant, Xiao Chen and a Ling heard the voice from above.

The two wore steel armor and armor. Using thrusters to fly in the air, the killer appeared in front of them.

“American God organization?” Ling narrowed her eyes slightly.

Xiao Chen can only stand on the top of the tall building. His current strength is not enough to stand in the air.

“You have been locked by us. Now even if your teammates come to reinforce you, it will take you two hours to get there. Let’s stand trial!” One of them speaks fluent Chinese.

“Are you Chinese? Why do you take refuge in the God organization?” Ling recognized his accent.

“Dead people don’t have to know this!” As he spoke, the laser ray in his hand came towards ah Ling.

They have been chasing ah Ling.

“With intermediate armor like you, do you want to hurt me?” Ling smiled coldly.

“Four section kill!”

Suddenly she made a gorgeous turn in the air, and then disappeared in an instant.

“The enemy’s speed is too fast. We can’t detect the whereabouts. Evacuate quickly!” The smart computer in armor issued a warning.

But it was too late for them to escape.

A beautiful figure appeared behind them, and their legs drew a beautiful arc in the air, but the air friction produced sparks because of the speed.

Then the two killers in armor were hit four times in a row, as if they had directly penetrated their armor.

Then he fell directly from the sky.

After the fight, ah Ling patted her hands.

“At this level, I dare to be a killer of God organization!”

But then I felt a killing behind me.

A golden light came straight at her.

She quickly dodged, and a killer covered in golden armor appeared behind her. Xiao Chen on one side condensed a huge black spherical energy.

“Ling, get out of the way!” He shouted, and ah Ling in the air heard his voice and hurriedly dodged.

Then the huge black energy directly hit the golden armor.

Then the two fled quickly.

The golden armor didn't avoid seeing the black energy ball. He directly drew the energy ball in half with the golden knife of his right hand. Then it exploded a few meters away from him.

“Want to run?” The killer in armor sneers.

A golden streamer was directly emitted from his left hand and chased directly to the position of a Ling and Xiao Chen.

“No, get away!” A Ling instantly felt that Xiao Chen was about to be pierced by the golden streamer.

Hurriedly pushed him away.

“Ah Ling!” Xiao Chen hasn’t reacted yet, but the golden streamer has passed through a Ling’s body, and a Ling is falling directly from the air.

“G series weapons!” Xiao Chen reacted in an instant.

Members of the extermination organization have special physique. Even if the weapons can cause damage to them. But it is not fatal. Now that a Ling is hit by G-Series weapons, he is almost certain to die.

Xiao Chen suddenly ran away, and a strange six pointed star Mark appeared on his head.

Flames were burning all over the body.

“Kill!” Like the judgment of the gods.

“Warning. The opponent’s ability value exceeds the current human limit. Please evacuate quickly!” The American killer in the golden armor received a prompt from the smart computer.

“What? How could it be? Didn’t the man in the legend disappear?” The killer was stunned.

But in his stupefied second, Xiao Chen caught him directly across the air.

“Warning! Warning! The body is subjected to pressure exceeding the upper limit and will be in two seconds...”

Before he finished, the whole armour had been crushed. The killer was instantly crushed to powder.

Then Xiao Chen waved again. Ah Ling, who was originally falling, immediately returned to him. Then he quickly disappeared on the spot.

Soon after he disappeared, several Americans in strange clothes appeared in the area where the battle had just been fought. Two men and one woman.

“This breath, he is right!” One of them, a muscular chicken head, said to the big man.

“Unexpectedly, he hid here after disappearing for so many years!” Said the extremely hot American woman on one side.

“But why can’t you feel that breath now?” The man in the white suit frowned slightly.

“Go back and talk to the boss first, and see if his sworn enemy appears and what he thinks.” With that, the three disappeared on the spot.

Everything that happened that night was blocked by Donghai municipal government because they received the above order and could not cause panic.

In a remote hotel. A man in a blue sportswear is sweating to help a woman lying in bed in leather clothes and trousers.

——It’s Xiao Chen and Ling.

With Xiao Chen’s efforts, ah Ling’s wound is slowly suturing, and Xiao Chen also feels that each other’s vitality is slowly recovering.

A few hours later. Xiao Chen finally felt Ling’s breath. Although it was very weak, it at least proved that she was alive.

Then he continued to work hard to run the pulse of the disease, even if his strength was exhausted and dried up, he did not stop the treatment.

Finally, Xiao Chen passed out because he was really over consumed.

I don't know how long it passed, Ling slowly opened his eyes and immediately recalled what happened that night.

But she didn't know that Xiao Chen temporarily used the power of the Oriental God of war under the condition of violent walking.

Seeing Xiao Chen lying on one side fainting, she quickly poured a trace of her vitality into Xiao Chen's body.

Xiao Chen also woke up and saw the pale Ling.

"Sorry, sorry!" Ling seems very guilty and apologizes to Xiao Chen when she comes up.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 94

"It's okay, it's okay!" Xiao Chen gently touched Ling's head.

"I will never be willful again. No matter how many women you have, I will be with you!" Ling is suddenly very serious.

"This....." Xiao Chen didn't know what to say for a moment, but suddenly remembered Wu Yaqing's angry look when he left, and hurriedly looked at his watch.

"It's over! It's been two days. Yaqing should be mad!" Xiao Chen suddenly stood up.

Ling is watching him quietly.

"Ah... Well, she is my wife now. Then..." what else does Xiao Chen want to explain.

But Ling came up directly and kissed him. He wanted to push her away immediately, but now he didn't have any strength. Ling held him firmly. Seems never willing to let go.

Then Xiao Chen directly felt something soft in his mouth.

His eyes widened in an instant.

Then the two did not know how long they were kissing. Xiao Chen felt that his whole body was going to melt, and Ling began to take off his clothes.

Xiao Chen hurriedly pushed her away with her last strength.

“Ling, we can’t do this!” Xiao Chen is very serious.

But Ling jumped up again regardless of what he said.

Xiao Chen instantly felt the girl fragrance on each other’s body overflowing his whole nostrils, and his brain was strongly stimulated in an instant.

Bursts of evil fire have been completely overwhelmed. However, Wu Yaqing’s angry cheeks reappeared in his mind, and he woke up in an instant.

Push Ling away again.

“Ling, listen to me first. Our relationship is not what you think. In fact, I always treat you as my sister.” Xiao Chen said.

“I don’t care who you treat me as. I have only one lover like you in this life. I don’t care what you become. No matter how many women you have.” Ling’s eyes are still full of autumn eyes.

Xiao Chen couldn’t help sighing. He knew Ling’s temper and decided that one thing would not change.

When she said that she would rush up again, Xiao Chen immediately stopped her and said, "Ling, it's really not the time to do such a thing now. We're still in a very dangerous situation. You'd better go back to the God organization first and communicate well with the above. If such an attack appears on other team members, it will be more troublesome."

"But..." Ling's eyes seemed a little lost.

"The second principle of organization!" Xiao Chen suddenly said seriously.

"You can't delay the important affairs of the organization because of any personal emotion. You must report the accident immediately!" Ling knows everything by heart.

But on her angelic cheek, except for loss, there was only sadness.

Xiao Chen couldn't help being soft hearted when he saw it, so he turned his back and said, "OK. Go back early, we can meet again!"

Ling finally gently hugged him behind his back, and then disappeared.

Xiao Chen felt that there seemed to be something more in his pocket.

When I took it out, it turned out to be a coin I left to Ling on New Year's Eve when I was 13.

At that time, he called it "lucky coin". As long as you carry it, you can always have good luck and no accidents.

Now that Ling returned it to him, what does it mean?

Do you? Xiao Chen suddenly thought of something, but it was too late. He couldn't catch up with Ling's speed.

“Ling. You must come back!” He shouted into the sky.

Feeling the fragrance of the girl left on her body, Xiao Chen looked at the sky for a long time.

Ling. You must come back, no matter what!

Tidy up your mood. Xiao Chen returns to Ruihua hotel again. Wu Yaqing is indeed gone, and her things in the hotel have been taken away.

It really hurt her heart to go like this, but Xiao Chen still had to make it clear to her. After all, the only person in his heart now was Wu Yaqing.

Came to Tongrentang, but the doctors inside said that Wu Yaqing asked for leave and didn't come to work today.

So Xiao Chen called Zhao Sulan directly. She also said that she was traveling outside now, and Wu Yaqing called her. But she didn't know exactly where it was.

Xiao Chen instantly fell into anxiety and thought about it, so she went to a small park in the east of the East China Sea, which they liked best.

When I came to the gate of the park, I saw Wu Yaqing playing ball with a little girl.

The little girl used her strength and the ball flew out directly. Then he rolled to Xiao Chen's feet.

The moment Wu Yaqing turned to see Xiao Chen, all the emotions surged up for a moment.

But there was disappointment in his eyes.

Xiao Chen picked up the ball and sent it to the little girl.

“Little girl, how about going there to play with other children? My uncle has something to tell this sister!” Xiao Chen said with a smile.

The little girl looked very mature and said, “uncle, you look very ordinary and wear very ordinary clothes. You don’t deserve this beautiful big sister. Give up!”

This sentence made Wu Yaqing laugh.

Xiao Chen also smiled helplessly.

“Children don’t think you deserve me.” Wu Yaqing looked at the tree path on one side.

“Yaqing, don’t you believe my feelings for you?” Xiao Chen knows that things are troublesome, but he is still willing to explain to Wu Yaqing.

“Yes, your feelings are very sincere and I can feel them, but I really can’t stand it. You suddenly have another woman you know before. How can you make me believe you? I don’t have any sense of security around you.” Wu Yaqing’s eyes are full of sadness.

“I know that everything is bad for me. I didn’t make it clear. I just treat Ling as my sister all the time, but she has such special feelings for me. I really don’t know.” Xiao Chen said.

“She is more beautiful than me, has a better figure, and has known you longer than me. Why did you choose me instead of her?” Wu Yaqing gently bit her red lips.

Although she was unwilling to admit it, all this was true. There may be only one woman like Ling in the world.

“You have to believe me. I really have only you in my heart!” Xiao Chen took Wu Yaqing’s hand.

Wu Yaqing sighed. She suddenly found that she didn't know Xiao Chen, at least not at all about his past. Now they can be together for the development of Chinese traditional medicine. Without this common goal, she can't think of any reason to let him stay with her.

"If you don't believe me, I swear to God that I Xiao Chen only love you in my life. Wu Yaqing is alone. If I have two hearts, I will be hit by thunder..." Xiao Chen swore with two fingers.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 95

"No." Wu Yaqing gently blocked his mouth with his hand.

"Then how can you trust me and what do you want me to do?" Xiao Chen actually doesn't like to see Wu Yaqing like this. It's clear that she has done well and excellent, but she always has an inexplicable sense of inferiority.

"I... I don't know. I don't know how to make myself believe in you... Or myself." Wu Yaqing's eyes revealed tangles.

Xiao Chen hugged her and kissed her.

At first, Wu Yaqing was still struggling. The powder fist kept beating Xiao Chen's back, but then the whole body softened. Intoxicated by Xiao Chen's offensive.

Then Xiao Chen directly picked Wu Yaqing up and said affectionately, "as long as you want, I can do anything. Let's go back and continue what we haven't done that day!"

Wu Yaqing's pretty face turned red in an instant. Struggling to get down from Xiao Chen, he said, "in fact, I don't care about this kind of thing, just..."

"There's nothing good, just say, I'll do what I can!" Xiao Chen interrupted her.

"No, no, that kind of thing still has to wait until the right time." Wu Yaqing suddenly coquettish way.

“Are you willing to believe me?” Xiao Chen put his hand on her waist.

Wu Yaqing did not look at him, but nodded slightly.

Xiao Chen happily picked her up.

Then they played in the park again before returning to the hotel.

Xiao Chen has encountered something these two days. These doctors with aging disease don't know. Seeing that he hasn't come to work for two days, he is anxious like an ant on a hot pot, but he doesn't know where to find him.

The doctors who knew some of Xiao Chen's friends in the East China Sea called them every day.

They couldn't get through to Xiao Chen. There was no way.

So Xiao Chen waited for “old men” outside the hospital opened in the city center every day.

If Xiao Chen doesn't appear again, it is estimated that they will really die soon.

“Damn, I was really obsessed at the beginning. How can I believe that there are such good things in the world? Now I'm really waiting to die!” An old man in gray scolded.

“Cut, you're gossiping here because the medicine has side effects. What if it doesn't? Won't you run to buy it like a madman?” Another old man in blue looked at him contemptuously.

“Why? Didn't you buy it? Don't you regret it?” Gray clothes.

“Yes, I did. If I did it again, I would still buy it. At least I’m honest. I don’t complain like you!” Blue clothes seem to dislike such people.

“Shit, find a fight!” Gray clothes said that they were going to go up and fight with blue clothes.

“Come on, I’m afraid you won’t succeed!” Blue clothes also roll up their sleeves.

I haven’t seen Xiao Chen these two days. These “old men” are already more upset. Anything you say is like dynamite.

“Here comes the miracle doctor Xiao Chen! Here comes the miracle doctor Xiao Chen!” I don’t know who shouted.

Suddenly, the crowd burst into a pot, and all rushed up and ran in the direction of Xiao Chen.

The two “old men” who wanted to fight ran the fastest and knelt directly in front of Xiao Chen.

“Doctor Xiao Chen, you’re back. We thought you gave us up!”

“Doctor Xiao Chen, you must help me cure my illness. No matter how much money you want, I’ll give it to you even if you lose everything. I don’t want to die so early!”

.....

Now Xiao Chen is the savior for them. Without Xiao Chen, they really have to wait for death and have no second choice.

“OK. Everyone line up. I said I would try my best to treat what I can treat. The requirements are the same as before. I have no time to inform you about something in these two days. I’m really sorry!” Xiao Chen also explained his situation.

But where do they care so much? Now Xiao Chen appears, that is, the Savior is back. As for what he did before, is that very important?

In addition to the East China Sea, other parts of China heard that there was a Xiao Chen in the East China Sea, and all gathered in the East China Sea in an instant.

In this way, the East China Sea will be completely paralyzed. Because there were so many people, at least millions of doctors who were victims of the incident poured into the East China Sea, and the city felt great pressure.

Fortunately, Xiao Chen already knew that there was such a general situation. If someone sends out the notice, he will inform doctors in other parts of China. If there are doctors who come to the East China Sea without notice, they will not be treated for life.

The news scared the doctors back in an instant.

All of a sudden, the orderly East China Sea was returned.

Xiao Xi and Xiao Jiantian have finally been treated. Of course, Xiao Chen can't help giving them "extra meals".

The first difference is that they need two days of acupuncture and moxibustion, and this acupuncture and moxibustion is stuck at the most painful acupoint of their whole body.

So two days later, Xiao Chen's Hospital heard the cry of father and son killing pigs.

Finally, some doctors couldn't bear it. They directly took them to the side of the hotel and "isolated" them directly.

On the third day, Xiao Chen asked them to eat a very bitter traditional Chinese medicine prescription, which was so bitter that even flies avoided it.

Then the father and son were made to vomit and diarrhea. Their faces were sallow and could be smeared with oil.

“Brother Xiao Chen! I know you hate us, but please don’t torture us like this. We’ll hand over all the money! Isn’t it? Dad, we’ve handed it all over!” Xiao Xi lay down in front of Xiao Chen’s examination table. The whole person seemed to have no bones and could only be paralyzed there.

Xiao Jiantian is even worse. He can’t say a word. He can only barely keep his breath. Now he is old to a certain extent. He has been “treated” by Xiao Chen for three days, and he is almost dying.

Xiao Chen looked at the father and son coldly. In fact, if they really died, Xiao Chen wouldn’t have any guilt and shame.

It was they who drove themselves out of the medical immortal gate and abandoned their own Dantian. At the same time, even their father’s Dantian was also abandoned.

Xiao Jiantian was in charge of the whole medical immortal sect, but they didn’t give a trace of affection at that time.

There are several old female doctors on one side who seem to be unable to see it. They can’t help but persuade Xiao Chen: “doctor Xiao Chen, you are also merciful. These two really belong to your relatives. It’s really immoral to treat them like this.”

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 96

Xiao Chen ignored what these people said. He said faintly, “I’m just here to help you treat your illness. If you have any opinions about me, you can find someone else to treat you.”

So the old women doctors didn’t say anything anymore, just lined up in silence.

“Brother Xiao Chen, really, please. Give us a way to live!” Seeing that other people’s remarks had no effect on Xiao Chen, Xiao Xi begged again.

Although I thought of what the two father and son had done. Xiao Chen really didn't want them to be so relaxed, but she thought she was related to each other by blood.

No matter what the other party has done, if you are as ruthless as them, what is the difference between yourself and such a person?

So Xiao Chen waved his hand and said, "OK. You go to one side to have a rest first. Today's patient is about to finish treatment. I'll help you treat it then!"

"Thank you! Thank you, brother Xiao Chen. You are really Guanyin alive. You are the reincarnation of a saint. You will be rewarded!" Xiao Xi was grateful for a moment and kept flattering Xiao Chen.

"Well, take your father aside first. Don't block others from seeing a doctor here!" Xiao Chen's face didn't change, just urged them to hurry to one side.

So Xiao Xi used all her strength to pull Xiao Jiantian to lie down on the sofa, while other doctors helped them.

Xiao Chen saw it in her eyes, but she didn't say anything. If these doctors know that these two are the culprits who made them become like this, they don't know whether they will dismantle them directly at the scene.

In the evening, all the patients had finished reading. Xiao Xi and Xiao Jiantian had slept on the sofa because they were old and in poor spirit.

Until Xiao Chen came and called twice. Xiao Xi gradually woke up, and then woke up her father.

"Check it out for you. Your deposit here is 75 million, two sports cars are worth 25 million, a villa along the river is worth 10 million, and all kinds of jewelry are worth 10 million. The total is 120 million. This is your income, isn't it?"

Xiao Chen took out the list previously written by Xiao Xi and Xiao Jiantian.

“Yes, yes, yes!” Xiao Xi pounded her head like garlic.

“Well, I’ll treat you first!” After Xiao Chen said it, Yun got sick, and a trace of black breath entered from Xiao Xi’s right hand. Then it went directly to his brain, forced out the three b-born silkworms in his brain, and then received them in his own body.

“You are so greedy. No wonder you are so old that you ate three!” Xiao chenbai glanced at Xiao Xi.

“Hahaha, brother Xiao Chen taught me!” Say. He touched his head and instantly he screamed.

“I... I’m young again!” He looked at his hands. Back to the young skin and tender meat.

I touched my face and didn’t feel any wrinkles. Hair also grows a lot.

“Brother Xiao Chen. Thank you so much!” He said he would kneel down again.

Xiao Chen lifted him up with a wave of his hand and said faintly:

“Well, don’t do these surface work.”

“Yes.” Xiao Xi then said nothing more.

Then Xiao Chen counted the bill with Xiao Jiantian.

“... a total of 420 million, right?”

Xiao Chen looked at the bill and said.

Xiao Jiantian was so old that he could only nod slightly and open his mouth without saying a word.

Xiao Chen then nodded, and the disease gas entered his brain and forced out four b-born silkworms.

I couldn't help shaking my head. My son is greedy. I'm more greedy than my son. I swallowed four at one time. No wonder I'm dying of old age in just over half a year. You deserve it.

Seeing that he was well, Xiao Jiantian also fell to his knees and thanked Xiao Chen for his great kindness.

But Xiao Chen didn't catch a cold about it. Then he asked them to leave and packed up his things and returned to the hotel.

Seeing Xiao Chen leaving slowly, the grateful eyes of Xiao Xi and Xiao Jiantian turned into ferocious and evil: "this boy really thought he would be invincible in the world if he could order medicine? We have suffered for so long. Let's go back to the medical immortal gate and find some experts to bind the boy at that time, even my money!"

"Father, now we have broken with ouyangchen. Why should people send me experts?" Xiao Xi is a little strange.

"Hum! Do you really think I'll let the medical immortal gate out so easily? That's just a cover. I'll calculate ouyangchen's account sooner or later. Now the master seal of the medical immortal gate is in my hand, and the experts of the medical immortal gate don't want to listen to me!" With that, Xiao Jiantian had an extra piece of jade with the words "medical Fairy" engraved on it.

"My father is really farsighted. It seems that I still want to learn from you for a few years!" Xiao Xi is flattering on one side.

"Don't talk nonsense in front of me. What's your mind? If it weren't for your mother, I would have driven you out of the medical fairy gate! Success is not enough, defeat is more than!" Xiao Jiantian stared at Xiao Xi.

"Yes, my father taught me!" Xiao Xi lowered her head and looked like she was listening to the instruction.

But there was a cold light shining at the bottom of my eyes: “you old man, after you die, the whole medical immortal gate is mine, as long as I try to get close to you and make you seriously ill, hum!”

Xiao Xi followed him closely. On the surface, he seemed to be a father and son who got along well with each other.

Xiao Chen returns to the hotel. Wu Yaqing obviously doesn’t come to the hotel. Although Xiao Chen asks for her forgiveness, her mind seems to have changed.

Xiao Chen can only try to understand her. After all, this thing is fundamentally wrong.

That night, Xiao Chen’s accomplishments broke through again and reached the level of five diseased veins. According to the records on the ancient books of that year, when the diseased veins reached ten, there would be unexpected changes. I don’t know what would happen.

Xiao Chen looked forward to it for a moment. Although the event of b-born Tianchan was indeed a disaster for some doctors, it was also a good thing for Xiao Chen.

At least my cultivation has been improved a lot. Although it is far less than when I had the God of war system, it is more than enough to deal with some simple killers.

But it’s not enough to help the organization now.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 97

Then Xiao Chen saw the huge figure on his account. These days, the money he received from these doctors has added up to a terrible figure: 85.269.41 million.

There are many other physical assets, which are estimated to have exceeded 100 billion. They are not a small amount above the country, and these money is only saved by Xiao Chen in less than half a year. There are still doctors in some northern provinces who have not been treated.

However, Xiao Chen certainly wouldn't have any thoughts about the money. At the beginning, he had a number in his heart. In fact, some of the money belongs to the doctors themselves, and the rest is donated to more people in need.

After all, most of it is the money of the rich, because only the rich can have so much money in exchange for their own health.

Xiao Chen took it and donated it. It was a good deed for them.

Then Xiao Chen contacted Liu Nianxin, because he was an old hand in charity. It is most appropriate for him to deal with the money.

Liu Nianxin was very happy to learn that Xiao Chen was going to give him such a huge sum of money, but he also knew Xiao Chen's temper. After telling Xiao Chen that he promised to complete the task, Xiao Chen didn't talk to him anymore.

After seeing the strength of the organization last time, Xiao Chen still believed that the boy didn't dare to listen to his orders now.

After dealing with these things, Xiao Chen originally planned to continue to practice, but suddenly received a strange phone call.

"Hello?"

"Is it doctor Xiao Chen? Please, help doctor yuan. He is dying of old age in the hospital now!" A young woman's voice came.

Xiao Chen immediately recognized that she was the little nurse who followed yuan Zhenqi.

“OK, don’t worry. I’ll go there now!” Xiao Chen comforted.

Although that yuan is really greedy, he can’t kill a living person because of such a thing.

So Xiao Chen drove his BMW to the Tian’an cell area in the East China Sea, where there were some prisoners who had committed serious crimes.

Originally, Xiao Chen arrived at the door of the cell and was not allowed to enter without prior contact. But after Xiao Chen called Zhang Xian, the Deputy cell chief came out to pick up Xiao Chen.

Along the way, Xiao Chen saw many prisoners tortured to death, and immediately understood that even in the current cell, there would be many unspeakable secrets, and even some prisoners might have been beaten into tricks.

However, these were only his own guesses and could not be confirmed, so he didn’t take them to heart.

Came to Yuan Zhenqi’s cell. He had become an old man in his 70s and 80s, lying motionless in the corner like a candle in the wind.

“Such changes have taken place in less than half a year since he came. I also read the news and learned that he is suffering from aging. I didn’t expect that doctor Xiao Chen is so compassionate that he is willing to treat such a serious offender.” The Deputy cell chief looked at Xiao Chen with a smile.

“I’m just doing what I can. He shouldn’t have died so early. Since I can help him, help him!” Xiao Chen said faintly that he didn’t think it was great to do so.

Studying medicine is to save people. What else would you do? Even knowing that some people are doing bad things. But he still respects everyone’s life.

When the cell opened, Yuan Zhenqi woke up and saw Xiao Chen in front of him. It was like seeing his father murderer. His eyes were full of blood.

Since he was framed into prison by Xiao Chen, he wanted to peel off Xiao Chen every night.

Now I see Xiao Chen in front of me. I can't wait to tear him to pieces.

Seeing this scene, the prison guard subdued him directly. Firmly grasped his hands.

"You really don't know what's right or wrong. Dr. Xiao Chen is coming to help you treat your illness. You still want to attack him. It's like a wolf in the heart and a dog in the lung! Dr. Xiao Chen, I think such a person will let him die of old age!" It seems that the Deputy cell chief can't see it.

The deputy warden waved Xiao Chen's hands aside, but he didn't know why. The deputy warden didn't want to do so.

"Let him go!"

Just released. Yuan Zhenqi rushed up like a mad dog to kill Xiao Chen.

But Xiao Chen gently grabbed his neck and let him open his teeth and claws. He couldn't hurt himself at all.

After a while, Yuan Zhenqi had no strength because of his age.

"No strength? We'll have a rest if we don't have strength. If there's any problem, we'll communicate later." Xiao Chen looked at him coldly.

The two prison guards were very surprised. Unexpectedly, Xiao Chen's strength was so strong that Yuan Zhenqi, who was almost uncontrollable by both of them just now, was caught by one of his hands.

Then Xiao Chen asked the others to go out, but he stayed in the cell alone with Yuan Zhenqi.

Seeing Xiao Chen's means, the Deputy cell chief was quite relieved and directly asked the two prison guards to follow him out.

Xiao Chenyun starts the disease pulse and forces out the b-born silkworm in Yuan Zhenqi's brain and receives his own disease pulse.

Then Yuan Zhenqi returned to his young state, but the hatred had made him very ferocious, completely unlike the original kind doctor.

"You hate me?" Xiao Chen stared coldly at Yuan Zhenqi's way.

"Hate! Special hate!" Yuan Zhenqi still looked at Xiao Chen with the look of wanting to kill.

"Do you know why I came to save you?" Xiao Chen continued to ask.

"I don't know, I don't want to know." Yuan Zhenqi seems to dislike Xiao Chen very much.

"Because of the one who always loves you, but you pretend you don't know." Xiao Chen licked his lips.

Hearing this, he seems to be a little moved, but in his heart, he has never paid attention to it. His family has been very poor since childhood, so he wants to make money when he comes back from studying medicine, and then let his parents live a good life, so that people in the village who once despised him can look at him, and he can be a person.

But after meeting Xiao Chen, all his dreams were destroyed. Now he has only one idea, that is to find a way to kill Xiao Chen after going out, and then commit suicide.

Xiao Chen can feel the strong killing intention in his heart, but he is still ready to pull him. Xiao Chen also had such a stage at the beginning, but he also figured out that revenge can't solve any problems and can only add more troubles to his plan.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 98

“You still hate me now. I think it’s good. At least you have the courage to live. Anyway, I’m waiting for you as a doctor. If you just want to make money with medicine, you’d better not be a doctor again!” Xiao Chen said these words and left the cell.

Then he arranged to commute yuan Zhenqi’s sentence. And there was no record left in his personal file. He was also the victim of the storm, but he was punished for his greed.

Now he has nothing. Xiao Chen hopes he can understand what he means. Let go of your hatred and meet your future life.

The little nurse called to thank Xiao Chen after learning about yuan Zhenqi.

Xiao Chen didn’t pay special attention. For more than half a month later, he was still helping these doctors with treatment every day, and the sick pulse was slowly cultivated to a nearly complete state of five roots.

Now, with the Pharmacopoeia previously integrated into his Dantian, Xiao Chen should have a way to treat the diseases in the whole world.

Almost all doctors in the country have been cured by Xiao Chen, and everything seems to have returned to the state before the emergence of the miracle doctor quick success pill, but it is also heard that some people die of old age.

It seems that some people are really willing to sacrifice their lives just to keep the money they earn.

However, such people are very few, and Xiao Chen doesn’t care, because he still has more important things to do next, that is to find the medicine immortal gate.

He didn’t ask Xiao Xi and Xiao Jiantian about the medical immortal door before because he knew that these two people couldn’t be sincere to themselves. At that time, he would definitely find a way to make a trip for himself.

After several days of running, Xiao Chen came to the land where he had left for nearly six years again.

The plaque hanging on the mountain gate is still the vigorous and ancient three characters of “medicine immortal gate”.

It was left by the ancestor of the medical immortal sect. Xiao Qingyuan’s generation is the 53rd generation of sect leaders, and it has been inherited for nearly 2000 years.

“Who!” Two young disciples dressed in the Taoist robes of the medical immortal sect stopped Xiao Chen’s way.

“The doctor is only three paragraphs. How dare you be so arrogant?” Xiao Chen snorted coldly, and two silver needles flew out in an instant. They couldn’t dodge. He was stabbed by a silver needle and fainted in an instant.

Xiao Chen slowly went to the two men’s bodies and took back the silver needle, and then changed into one of them’s Taoist robes, so that he would not be found immediately, which was conducive to sneaking in.

But Xiao Chen walked all the way through the three checkpoints set outside the medicine fairy gate and didn’t find a disciple, which immediately made him feel very strange. No matter how big changes have taken place in the sect, the three elders of these three levels should not leave. Why doesn’t anyone see it now?

Xiao Chen probably guessed something. It seems that there should be some serious things in the medical immortal gate.

Can it be said that the whole medicine immortal door has used the magic medicine quick success pill?

Xiao Chen thought. But the two gatekeepers are not like them. If they are used, they should look at least like an old man in his sixties.

It’s impossible to be so young.

Xiao Chen continued to run towards the inside, and soon came to the outside of the medical ethics hall, the core of the medical immortal gate.

This is the place where the master of the medical immortal sect and other elders discuss business. Even if there is nothing special, they will meet here every day according to the Convention.

It's time for discussion now, but there is no one in the lobby.

Xiao Chen observed carefully, but there was no sign of battle.

"Help me..." a faint cry came from behind Xiao Chen.

Xiao Chen immediately followed the sound. He immediately saw Shen Qianshan, the elder of the medical immortal sect when he left.

"Qianshan elder!" Xiao Chen jumped to his side, and then condensed Qi into his body. In an instant, Xiao Chen was shocked and Shen Qianshan's meridians were broken. The vitality has been completely cut off.

"Poisonous! Highly poisonous!" Xiao Chen immediately thought of a colorless and tasteless poison he had heard when he was training abroad. Once a person is infected with it, his meridians will be cut off, his vitality will be cut off and he will die in less than three days.

This is the case with Shen Qianshan now, and there is no antidote to this poison at all.

Xiao Chen can only temporarily maintain his vitality with the disease Qi in his disease pulse, but he can't last for two days. Finally, after Xiao Chen's current disease Qi is consumed, he will die.

"Elder, why does this happen to the whole medical immortal gate!" Xiao Chen's eyes were full of anxiety.

The current medicine immortal sect was built by Xiao Qingyuan for half his life. Now if it is destroyed. Xiao Chen really doesn't know how to face her grandfather again.

"Ouyangchen! Ouyangchen!" Shen Qianshan's eyes were burning with resentment and repeated ouyangchen's name.

Then Shen Qianshan told Xiao Chen about what had happened in the medical immortal gate in the past half a month.

After returning to the sect, Xiao Jiantian and Xiao Xi are ready to take back the power of the medical immortal sect from ouyangchen, because Xiao Jiantian has the master jade Fu of the medical immortal sect in his hand, although his accomplishments can't convince the public. But some elders still respect the sect leader Yufu.

The doctor was very angry, but Ouchen didn't see that Ouyang was going to lose his power on the spot.

Only their father and son used the magic medicine quick success pill privately, so the rest of the medical immortal sect didn't know what happened. At the beginning, Xiao Jiantian wanted to support ouyangchen to be the head of the medical immortal sect.

Now he suddenly changed his statement. Everyone was very strange at once, but he had the sect leader Yufu, and everyone could only do as he said.

Then ouyangchen left a sentence: "you will regret it!"

He left yixianmen angrily. Originally, everyone thought ouyangchen was just putting down his cruel words. In fact, Ouyang family didn't have the strength to fight against yixianmen.

Then Xiao Jiantian began to discuss with the public about catching Xiao Chen back to the medical immortal gate as a rebel. The reason was that Xiao Chen secretly practiced the forbidden art of the medical immortal gate and developed a disease pulse.

This was originally the secret of the medical immortal sect, but now it fell into the hands of the outsider Xiao Chen.

Hearing this, Xiao Chen immediately felt that he was still too kind. At that time, he should not cure them directly. He should leave something in their body.

But now it is estimated that these two people are likely to die of poisoning, and Xiao Chen doesn't think about what they have done.

After that, Shen Qianshan always found strange things in the medical immortal gate for a few days, but he couldn't say what was strange.

Until today, he realized that someone had poisoned the well water for yixianmen with colorless and tasteless poison.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 99

It was late when he realized the poisoning. Many disciples of the medical immortal sect had poisoned into the bone marrow. Even he tried his best to force the poison out of his body. Finally, he was eaten back by the poison, which became what he is now.

"Ouyang family!" Xiao Chen's eyes lit up a raging anger.

"Xiao Chen... Our elders originally agreed to let you be the sect leader of the medical immortal sect. Although you were expelled from the sect, you have the real inheritance of the old sect leader. But I didn't expect such a thing to happen..." Shen Qianshan seemed very guilty.

"OK, elder. Don't talk first. Other things are no longer important. I have to find a way to see if I can save you!" Xiao Chen has been protecting his heart pulse with his ill Qi. As soon as he releases it, it is estimated that he will die on the spot.

"You... Don't waste your energy. I'm already a dying man, but it's a pity that the sect leader Yu Fu isn't in my hand and can't pass it on to you." Shen Qianshan's breath gradually faded.

Xiao Chen suddenly used 100% of his skill, but he still didn't respond. He looked like he was asleep.

Seeing his appearance, Xiao Chen can only slowly take back his illness. He has given up his life and chose to leave safely. Xiao Chen can change anything again.

Then Xiao Chen came to the inner gate of the medical immortal gate, where he found most of the disciples lying on the ground, and other elders were found in some rooms. But it's all cut off.

In the main hall of the door, Xiao Chen also found the bodies of Xiao Jianming and Xiao Xi. Both of them are already out of breath.

But Xiao Chen saw a blood letter in Xiao Jianming's hand, which read:

Shuijing villa.

"Shuijing villa, are you talking about ouyangchen's position?" Xiao Chen looked at the four words and thought. In addition to this meaning, Xiao Chen couldn't think of any other meaning.

Shuijing villa is located in a remote suburb junction in the East China Sea. Generally, few people will go. It is used as the place for some company annual meetings or some groups to carry out activities.

When Xiao Chen arrived in his BMW. I happened to see ouyangchen and nagris with some suitcases ready to run away.

At first ouyangchen didn't recognize Xiao Chen's car, but when he saw Xiao Chen, he recognized it immediately.

He pointed a pistol at Xiao Chen and said, "boy, how dare you come from the way of death? Don't you see the end of the medical immortal gate?"

Then grace also took several big men with submachine guns and aimed at Xiao Chen.

Grace stood on the high slope and laughed at Xiao Chen: “ha ha! What, we just made your money. Now take back our own research and develop more advanced medical equipment, and then continue to sell it to you to make money!”

Xiao Chen calmly counted. There are eight people on the other side. The weapon in his hand is probably not an ordinary weapon, but a super-a weapon with special ammunition. Even the vigorous Qi of the medical practitioner can be broken.

But they still underestimated Xiao Chen. Ouyangchen deliberately shot Xiao Chen at his feet and said arrogantly, “what’s the matter? Boy, is it that the medicine immortal door left by your grandfather has been destroyed? Don’t worry, you’re going to see them soon!”

“Now!” Xiao Chen caught the moment when everyone was ready to shoot at him. Suddenly, eight more silver needles appeared in his hand and all flew out in an instant.

In the sun, only eight silver lights flashed directly. Then all the eight people standing on the hillside fainted when Xiao Chen accurately inserted the acupoint.

In the cell. Ouyangchen and grace slowly opened their eyes.

Xiao Chen looked at them with a smile.

“Where am I? Why am I handcuffed? You... You are not qualified to arrest me. I am a professional researcher in country M. you are not qualified to arrest me!” Grace roared wildly.

“Mr. grace, here is our arrest warrant. If you have any opinion, you can appeal!” The Deputy cell chief took out the arrest warrant and showed it to him.

“Impossible, no, they promised me to protect me!” Grace looked at the arrest warrant in front of him in disbelief.

Ouyangchen didn't say anything. He knew that even if he used weapons privately, he would be sentenced to many years. Don't talk about the crime of colluding with the enemy to earn money from the people of his country and trying to abscond.

"OK, you two. You shouldn't have too many questions. Now that the witness and material evidence are available, you're free from going to court. If there's no problem, just sign on it. Let's go all the way." The Deputy cell chief asked someone to bring two more pieces of paper full of their crimes and put them in front of them.

"No! No! I ask to see my lawyer. I won't admit it!" Grace roared, quite loudly.

Although ouyangchen was silent, he was not ready to sign an autograph.

Xiao Chen said faintly, "well, I have explained the situation here. The rest depends on yourself, deputy cell chief. Please deal with the rest. I have other things to deal with."

"Well, doctor Xiao Chen, take your time! Come often when you're free!" The Deputy cell chief respectfully said.

"I don't want to come to this place often!" Xiao Chen laughed.

Returning to the hotel, Xiao Chen originally wanted to have a good rest, but he didn't contact Wu Yaqing for a few days. He was ready to take her out for a walk.

But suddenly the phone rang again.

Xiao Chen picked it up and saw that it was Dong Wu.

"Hello, Dean Dong, what's the matter with you?" Xiao Chen answered the phone.

“Doctor Xiao Chen is really a clever plan. Another big event has happened this time. Do you pay attention to the medical industry recently?” Dong Wu’s voice was very heavy, as if something bad had happened.

“Oh? Please.” Xiao Chen said.

“It seems that you have been very busy recently and haven’t noticed a major breakthrough in the medical field. A few days ago, a research institute in the West made a technical breakthrough and developed the first machine in history that can treat most tumor diseases!” Dong Wudao.

“Treatment of tumor disease?” Xiao Chen was interested in it in an instant. He got the five prescriptions for incurable diseases by using the combination of Pharmacopoeia and disease pulse some time ago.

Three of them are about tumor diseases. Now someone in the West has developed tumor treatment instruments. Is it a coincidence?

“OK, where are you now? I’ll go there right away!” Xiao Chen said.

The God Of Medicine Son-in-law Chapter 100

“I’m in the hospital now. Are you coming?” Dong Wu asked.

“Well, here we are. Let’s talk about this instrument again. Do you have some information about this instrument?” Xiao Chen’s main purpose is to see the instrument.

“Oh, we don’t have this thing right now, but I have some information here. You can come and have a look later!” Dong Wu replied.

After a while, Xiao Chen rushed to the president’s office of the medical technology building of the second municipal hospital.

Several vice presidents of the whole hospital came out to meet him. Because the Dean was undergoing an important operation, there was no notice.

Although Xiao Chen still wears a set of simple casual clothes, the return rate along the way is still quite high.

The storm of the miracle doctor quick success pill made him famous again. More and more people began to pay attention to his every move. It can even be said that some stars in the East China Sea are not as famous as him now.

But Xiao Chen didn't care. He just keeps focusing on his own business.

When I came to Dong Wu's office, I saw some information about the latest tumor treatment instruments on his desk.

Xiao Chen picked up a book and read it. The name is a strange foreign name. He doesn't care, but pays attention to its principle.

This instrument is a combination of science and technology and medicine. Some of the drugs also exist in the prescriptions for the treatment of incurable diseases known to Xiao Chen, but some main drugs are not written in.

Then use the special light in the instrument to remove the cancer cells in the patient's body every day. Finally, the two complement each other to achieve the effect of cure.

After reading it, Xiao Chen smiled and said: "This instrument is not perfect. You can see that this step can not completely kill the free cancer cells in the human body, and this instrument will still cause a lot of damage to the human body. Although it says that the radiation has little impact on the human body, it will kill the cells in the human body after all, and it will have an impact on the patient's body, especially that disease More serious patients. "

After hearing Xiao Chen's analysis, Dong Wu and several other presidents nodded yes.

But the problem now is that someone in the West has confirmed the feasibility of this instrument. Moreover, they have applied for patents in China, and several companies have reached cooperation with them.

Now almost many big hospitals in big cities are ready to use this instrument. Even as Xiao Chen said, it will take many years for patients to know whether it is good or bad.

In this way, they have enough time to take away part of the funds, which is also a big loss for the territory.

But Xiao Chen doesn't think so. He believes that although this instrument has some exaggerated components, it has at least played a certain role in tumor diseases, but it is not a radical cure.

Since some people are willing to spend money to renew their lives, this can't stop them. Let them not go.

Then they talked about this problem again. Xiao Chen didn't tell them that he had a prescription for the treatment of cancer incurable diseases. First, it was too shocking. He just used the instrument for the treatment of cancer to overcome this sense of shock. Second, if he said it now, he would inevitably encounter some inevitable problems. So he decided to keep it a secret.

At that time, I will contact Liu Nianxin and come up with an excellent way to release these prescriptions slowly.

Originally, Xiao Chen was going to find Wu Yaqing, but when she arrived at the hospital, she found that she was not there. Then I went to her house and still didn't see her.

This could not help worrying him. Then I made a phone call and found that she took the initiative to go to her hotel room.

Although the last thing between them was reconciled, Xiao Chen could still feel the sense of estrangement in her heart.

However, it has always been his principle to solve any problem, so he didn't hesitate to go back to the hotel directly.

As soon as he entered the door, Wu Yaqing greeted him as before: "back!"

"Well, I just came back from the second hospital. I heard that a tumor treatment instrument has been newly developed in the west, so I went to have a look." Xiao Chen is also very easygoing and authentic.

"Yes, I just wanted to tell you. What do you think of it?" Wu Ya said while cooking.

"What do you think? I go there to sit and look at the information. Of course, it's OK to stand and look." Xiao Chen said.

"Stop talking nonsense. I'm asking your opinion!" Wu Yaqing gave him an angry reply.

"Ha ha. What else can I think? If there is such a thing, it is certainly a good thing!" Xiao Chen immediately felt the atmosphere relaxed a lot.

"Don't you doubt what kind of conspiracy they made?" Wu Yaqing road.

"Of course, I doubt it, but they all used it first. Even if they want to pit, everyone will be hurt together. I don't think there's anything wrong." Xiao Chen said, picked up an Apple bought by Wu Yaqing and ate it.

"Well, this apple is so sweet! Would you like to try it?"

With that, Xiao Chen handed the fruit to Wu Yaqing.

Wu Yaqing gently bit: "OK."

"I don't believe you don't have any ideas. You don't even want to tell me now, do you?" Wu Yaqing said as she chewed the apple.

“Why? I’m just going to tell you.” Xiao Chen hugged her from behind and said.

Wu Yaqing patted his hand and said, “your hands are full of apple juice. Isn’t it difficult for me to wash clothes?”

“No matter what, I’ll hold my good wife like this!” Xiao Chen is very cheeky.

“You have to hold it later. People don’t forbid you to hold it!” Wu Ya gave him an innocent look.

“Well, that’s what you said. Then I remember. I miss my wife so much when I haven’t seen her for so many days.” Xiao Chen smiled.

“Well, don’t be glib. You’re ready to eat!” Wu Yaqing seems to be immune to his words.

“OK!” Xiao Chen immediately chewed the apple in her hand, and then washed her hands.

Looking at Xiao Chen’s behavior like an ordinary person, Wu Yaqing suddenly sighed gently, but even if it was very light, Xiao Chen noticed it.

“What’s the matter? Why sigh?”

“Oh, it’s all right. I just cooked. I’m a little... Tired.” Wu Yaqing casually found an excuse to prevaricate.

But Xiao Chen actually noticed Wu Yaqing’s mind.

He knew that there were some things they had to face, so he didn’t say anything. He was happy and ready to eat.
