

GOD! THERE ARE NO WOMEN HERE! - CHAPTER 8: A MAN AMONG MEN

After school ended at noon, Jiang Li was afraid that An Zhen would run away, and as soon as the bell rang, he immediately stood up and shouted.

"An Zhen! Don't go!"

An Zhen is packing his bag. He didn't rush off, but checked his lunch card, lunchbox and the books he wanted to bring, while asking, "What's wrong?"

Jiang Li: "What's wrong? You actually ask me what's wrong?"

An Zhen looked up and smiled at him.

Jiang Li stared into her sparkling eyes, "Don't think I'll let it go just because you showed me kindness! Do you still remember our duel at noon?"

An Zhen: "Oh, I almost forgot. But I want to have dinner first."

Jiang Li was about to say, "Eat a piece of shit," but he didn't expect An Zhen to turn his head and ask Vajra: "Let's go eat together at noon?"

Jiang Li was stunned, this shameless kid, dare to invite my brother Kong! Jiang Li looked at Kong, did not expect Kong hesitated, actually nodded!

Jiang Li felt that the whole world is metaphysical. The underage world, do not want to change so fast! The people who were threatened by them a few days ago are now going to eat with them?

No, there was no Jiang Li in this "they", he forgot that he had been ostracized by Kong and the others.

Jiang Li watched An Zhen actually followed Gang's group and left, hurriedly chased out, "Hey, you guys actually did not take me with you? Hey! You guys wait for me ah!"

An Zhen asked, "Where to eat ah?"

Qingzi: "Canteen! It's Thursday, the canteen has Kong's favorite pickled phoenix claws."

An Zhen: "They have pickled phoenix claws in the cafeteria?"

Qingzi: "Yes, you have never eaten? This time you can follow us! We know which window has phoenix claws."

Among King Kong's group, the one who accepted Anjin the fastest was Qingzi. While King Kong walked on his own, the others peeked at An Zhen.

The people who peeked at An Zhen were caught in An Zhen's line of sight, and An Zhen smiled and said, "What are you looking at me for?"

The others scratched their heads and didn't say anything.

Aoko said, "They only bullied you, but didn't talk to you, so it's not embarrassing."

"Hey, don't talk nonsense." Aoko was slapped on the head by the others.

Anjin laughed and asked, "Why did you guys bully me before?"

One of the boys saw that no one was talking, so he said, "To see that you were a good bully."

"Hey! Little A, are you still one of us?"

An Zhen said, "If you see someone is bullying, then bully them? Do you know how to be friendly among classmates?"

King Kong snickered.

The others also laughed "hehehe" twice.

Jiang Li yelled from the back of the group, "Friendship, you fucking skin. I bully is you, you do not submit ah! If you don't like it, come and hit me!"

The group ran to the back, Qingzi wrapped around Jiang Li and slapped him hard on the head, the others also gathered around Jiang Li to beat him up.

An Zhen said in the side: "Oh, don't hit the head, Little Red Riding Hood's head is going to be bald."

Jiang Li: "An Zhen I cao your mother than--"

The others ignored Jiang Li and gathered around An Zhen.

Little A: "An Zhen, I've never seen you smile before."

Qingzi: "Nerd, does An Zhen smile casually? You have to smile at our brother Kong, right, brother Kong?"

King Kong "hummed" and moved his head to the side. It was Sun Haofeng who smiled and looked at Kong twice. He made Kong feel uncomfortable.

Qingzi: "But An Zhen is not a little different from before."

An Zhen: "Where is different?"

Little A: "You used to be afraid of us! Why aren't you afraid of us all of a sudden?"

An Zhen: "Your brother Gang is so powerful, of course I used to be afraid of him."

Qingzi: "That's right. Our Brother Kong is the best of the Three Cleaners! Right, Brother Kong?"

King Kong gave him a smirking look, looking as proud as he could be.

Little A: "And now, now you're not afraid?"

An Zhen: "Now I find that in addition to being awesome, Kong is also very handsome!"

"Yo! Oh oh oh oh!"

A group of people started to cheer. King Kong raised his lips amidst a chorus of "Brother Kong, he said you were handsome" and "Of course our Brother Kong is handsome".

The group arrived at the canteen in a jostling mood.

A small tail was added to the already long line.

Little A: "Aoko, do you think there are more people watching us today?"

Aoko looked around and said, "Yes eh, what's wrong? Finally found my handsome?"

King Kong: "Dumbass."

King Kong glared back at all the people around him who were stealing glances this way. The mood was not happy.

Qingzi suddenly: "An Zhen, all those people are looking at you!"

Anjin: "What are they looking at me for?"

Qingzi: "Look at your good looks! Anzi, what's wrong with you, why are you suddenly good-looking?"

Anjin: "Maybe it's because you suddenly have an eye for beauty."

"Hey, I don't just have an eye for beauty, I have a mouth for food! See this window?" Qingzi pointed to the front, "This window is lined up on Thursday, window 3 on Monday, window 8 on Tuesday, it's all prescriptive."

Anjin nodded his head cooperatively.

Aoko: "Of course, in the future, follow us, there is no need to worry about eating. We have the latest and most delicious information channels of the whole school."

An Zhen laughed, thinking he was funny. An Zhen also did not expect her to fit in with them so quickly.

Capture the thief first.

An Zhen had started out by using King Kong as a breakthrough, which was obviously the right move.

I just didn't expect them to get along better than they thought they would.

What An Zhen did not know was that they, too, found An Zhen to be better than they thought, or rather, An Zhen was completely different from what they thought.

Of course it's not the same, because it's a different person.

An Zhen is not only smarter, but also more open-minded.

The old An Zhen, whenever she saw King Kong and the others, avoided them like snakes and scorpions and hid away from them, instead provoking King Kong and the others to be more belligerent. Between boys, friends or enemies, again, just because of a trigger. Even a look, can also trigger a struggle. You do not like me, I still do not like you.

But now An Zhen's eyes, no longer so piercing. His eyes have become very gentle, always with a smile and tolerance when looking at people. As if they, the group, in An Zhen's eyes, is also worthy of being respected and loved.

To put it bluntly, they are to be seen.

People are inductive.

People and people get along very subtly.

King Kong and they vaguely feel that An Zhen treats them, they certainly also treat An Zhen.

Moreover, there is no relationship that cannot be brought closer by a meal.

Everyone sat by the playground with their lunch boxes and ate while talking.

At this time, there were people playing soccer on the field. In the distance, there was a dark sky, and under the canopy, there were street trees by the playground and a "J" shaped gray light pole. The red and green playground is lined with rows and rows of seats painted in different colors to watch the game.

Instead of sitting on the seats, King Kong and the others sat in a row on the railing. While eating, they yelled.

"Ouch, it's in!"

"Oops shit, slipped away!"

"Get after it! Quickly chase!"

"Hahahaha that kid kicked his shoes away hahaha."

"Crap kicked him in the head! Stupid it is!"

An Zhen while eating, while listening to their discussion. Occasionally respond to two sentences, followed by everyone laugh out loud.

Such a day is really too relaxed, too leisurely.

An Zhen liked the time she spent with this group of people.

After the meal, the group noisily went back to the dormitory to sleep.

Qingzi said, "Ah Anzi, you seem to be a walk-in student, right?"

Anjin nodded his head.

Qingzi said, "Redcap and Gang are also students, and they sleep at my place at noon. Can we join them?"

An Zhen: "No, I'll go back to my classroom and read for a while."

When the group heard An Zhen say this, they were a little uncomfortable. Because no one among them had ever said they wanted to read a book. King Kong turned around first: "Let's go."

The group didn't say anything and followed Vajra.

An Zhen then waved to everyone and walked to the other side.

There were a few students in the classroom.

Some were eating, some were playing with their phones, and some were sleeping on their stomachs.

As soon as An Zhen entered the classroom, she met Meng Hou's eyes. She smiled at her as a greeting.

Hou Hou Meng walked over to An Zhen's seat and said in a small voice, "An Zhen ....."

An Zhen: "Hmm?"

To be honest, when she was up close and personal with Hou Hou Meng, An Zhen always paid extra attention to the transgender thing. This made An Zhen feel strange somewhere. But that's the way it is in this society. Everyone has the freedom to choose gender, not to mention that this is the result of the current state of society.

And An Zhen's family An Zhen's mother had the surgery, she should adapt early.

An Zhen tried to make herself not to think about the issue of gender reassignment, treating the world's men as men and unnatural women as women. Do not dwell on transgender or not.

Thinking this way, An Zhen's heart adapted a little.

The girl in front of him is one of the few girls in their school. If a campus is full of boys, it would be a terrible thing.

An Zhen looked at Hou Hou, signaling that she could say what she wanted.

Hou Hou said, "An Zhen, I saw you go out with Jin Jin classmates at noon, you ..... are you okay?"

An Zhen was a little surprised, not expecting Hou Hou Chang to be concerned about her.

An Zhen: "Don't worry, we had a good time."

Meng Hou showed a distrustful look. Although they helped themselves this morning. But they were not the same to An Zhen. We all know that the gang often makes fun of An Zhen, and often bullies her after school.

Meng Houcheng took a closer look at An Zhen's face and exposed skin and found no injuries, but was still a bit uneasy, so she asked, "Really? If they bully you, you can tell me and I'll go talk to them."

An Zhen smiled, she could hear that Meng Chang was also a little afraid of them. But this girl was quite kind.

An Zhen: "It's okay, we're reconciled now. Didn't you see it this morning? King Kong and the others aren't that bad."

Although Meng Chang was a bit worried about An Zhen, she said so, so Meng Chang couldn't say anything else. She saw two exercise books on An Zhen's desk, one of which was open for math, and said to An Zhen, "An Zhen, you ..... can come and ask me if you don't understand anything."

"En?" An Zhen blinked and smiled again, "Yes, I will, thank you."

"En ....." Meng felt a little abrupt with that comment she just made, after all, it was a little bad for her to suddenly say that to someone. Although An Zhen's grades had been bad, he had worked hard to learn. Once the teacher asked An Zhen by name in class why he didn't bring his books to class. It is obvious that Anjin has been listening in class.

This morning, An Zhen could have ignored himself, but he bravely came to face the group of people. Meng Hou was grateful to him and wanted to do something for An Zhen.

Houng thought Anjin would not come to her and ask her questions. But when the class was about to start, An Zhen actually came to her.

Meng Hou was fine, but the students around her were very surprised.

"Who's that? That coward?"

"Isn't he always gloomy? Why did he dare to come and talk to someone this time?"

"Asking questions? Oh my god, he's just trying to talk to our school girl."

Meng Hou said, "Don't say that, I asked An Zhen to come over."

When Hou Hou said that, everyone felt even worse about An Zhen!

They had been coaxing Hou Hou for so long, but they had never seen her take the initiative to talk to them, and this man had done nothing, and Hou had taken the initiative to spend time with him? How could they swallow this anger?

Meng Houg stopped paying attention to the students around her and gently said to An Zhen, "Which question are you talking about, let me see if I can do it."

An Zhen's face remained as usual, although she heard the others' comments. An Zhen pointed to the exercise book she brought over, "This one."

Meng Chang looked at the problem, which was a little difficult, but she happened to know it, so she smiled at An Zhen, "This one is done like this, look, first ....."

Meng Hou Hou told the problem, but it was much clearer than her tablemate. The table is a brush brush brush the steps a write, and then let An Zhen see for themselves to understand, but Meng Hou is worthy of the name "school flower", body has "school flower" quality, treat people especially gentle and affable, talk about the problem is not only a soft voice, but also often stop to see An Zhen is not understand The next step is to talk about the next step, but the people around the eyes of the bad. They weren't treated so well!

When Hou Hou finished, An Zhen expressed her gratitude and left without saying a word to Hou Hou. But even so, there were still many people around who were not used to him.

This kid looks like a white boy, he's a womanizer!

But you can't say that, An Zhen doesn't necessarily like women. For example, Yu dot does not like her. She doesn't like An Zhen, but she doesn't like him. Although she doesn't like An Zhen, but An Zhen can't dislike her!

For the boys, everyone's attitude toward An Zhen was also mixed. Aoko, for example, saw An-jin walking back and asked An-jin, "An-jin, why did you run off to talk to Meng Chang! Can't you see those eyes that want to kill you?"

An Zhen blinked: "I'm afraid of who if I have Brother Gang to cover me?"

Qingzi: "Eh? It's not wrong to say that. But our brother Kong, never talk to women."

An Zhen laughed at that, that's not necessarily true.

An Zhen asked, "Why?"

Little A sat next to Qingzi and said, "Girls are so weak, and Kong is a man among men, he is afraid of accidentally touching the girls."

An Zhen snorted out a laugh.

The man of men.

Haha.

Students of this age are really between not knowing and not pretending to know.

An Zhen returned to her seat and saw that her tablemate was looking at her with a "hurt" look on her face.

An Zhen: "?"

An Zhen thought about it and said, "Is it because I went to ask someone else a question and didn't ask him?"

Not only because of this, there is also a very important reason, that is, the object of An Zhen's deflection is the unattainable goddess at the same table ah!

An Zhen did not think much about it.

In fact, right, An Zhen has long been a high school exam once, and there is nothing that does not understand. But she in order to let her classmates see their serious attitude to study, so make an effort, otherwise after how to explain the direct academic performance all of a sudden become better things?
