

THE GOD VIRUS

Volume 1 - 12 Mysterious Master

"Be done with everything in at most two months." Virus ordered the four uglies.

"Yes master." The four uglies replied at the same time.

"You four are dismissed." Virus ended his words.

The four uglies didn't know how exactly their master had made them or how he was giving blueprints out like it was nothing, lots and lots of things confused them about their master.

He was a complete mystery to them so eventhough at first they had tried to figure their master out, but after some time they gave up and stopped thinking about who or what exactly their master was or what capabilities he had, beside that they didn't even dare to ask.

In the end they were only sure of one thing and that was that their master was beyond even their highly advanced comprehension, eventhough they had come up with some possibilities like their master was from another world or that he has travelled back in time, and even the possibility of him being so smart that he could invent whatever he wanted whenever he wanted, so eventhough they had thought about these things, it seemed far fetched to them for these possibilities to be reality and true, as the knowledge they had was of only the 2002 so they had long stopped trying to figure their master out and instead just decided to serve him to the best of their abilities.

FLASHBACK TO COUPLE MONTHS AGO

The golden beauty was alone talking to her master's cartoonish image inside the screen, as she suddenly asked. "Master if it's not rude of me to ask, who are you exactly? how did you create us and how do you seem to know how to create such advanced things like making a body for yourself? If it's something you can't answer please ignore my question."

After hearing the golden beauty's question [Virus] was silent for little while before answering. "Well, actually it's not a secret or anything for you and the four others as you guys will eventually know about this even if I don't tell you, and you guys are my hundred percent loyal people, so there there is no problem in telling you about this lil beauty."

"So here's the answer you're looking for... I'm from the far future, so far you can't even imagine." The cartoonish [Virus] said without any change in expression like it had said the most normal thing in the future.

The golden beauty was shocked by the answer as expected but she cleverly decided to tactfully ask no more as somethings were better left unsaid as she probed no further and just said after calming down from her shock. "So that's how it is, this explains it all."

END OF FLASHBACK

"Now what master?"The golden beauty asked.

"Now? Now we wait for two months." Virus replied.

FIFTEEN DAYS LATER

Ella had waited for days for Virus' call but he never did, She even thought of going to that building to find him but she was too afraid to do that as she was scared of what Virus might tell her, afraid that he would tell her it was all a lie, that it means nothing to him.

As she was deeply sinking inside her own thoughts she was suddenly startled out of the daze by her best friend Jessica, Jessica was considered a beauty too but not on the same level as Ella, she had black eyes and black smooth straight hair with a white skin and and pinkish lips.

"What are you dreaming about Elle? you were so lost in your thoughts? what's wrong with you these days? you haven't been yourself for the past two weeks." Jessica said with concern showing all over her face to her best friend.

Startled out of thought Ella smiled as she said "It's nothing Jess, I was just thinking about something."

Seeing her not say anything Jessica was worried even more but didn't ask anymore and just said "You know I'm here for you right? you can always talk to me whenever you're ready. now, let's go to cafeteria and eat something."

"Okay, let's go." Ella said with a forced smile on her face. freewebnovel.com

As they went inside the cafeteria, they got food and sat on a table together, but after sometime a young man also came with her food and there were three other friends with him too, it was obvious they were all popular athletic boys in the university as they were huge muscly people.

The young man who seemed to be the leader in the group came and sat directly on the opposite side of Ella, he was a pursuer of Ella and he thought Ella would be eventually be his, his name was Tom.

"Hey Ella how is everything?" Tom said.

Seeing Ella give no response as she seemed to not even listen made Tom a little angry but he forgot about it and talked again. "Are you free today? Wanna go out on a date?"

"..." she didn't respond again and just continued eating her food and staring at her own food without even looking at Tom.

Tom was really angry this time as he was kept being ignored, so with a louder voice he said. "WHY are you keep ignoring me you... ."

It was at this time Ella came out of daze by his loud voice. Seeing Tom was there she was angry at him as he kept disturbing and bothering her eventhough she kept rejecting him, but she couldn't do anything about it as no one in the university dared to ever talk back to Tom, he was one of the people in the university who had an influencial and powerful background.

His father wassaid to be one of the powerful governmental people who had a lot of authority.

Still remembering she was already some one else, even if that person didn't call or come look for her ever again she still for now at least felt like she belonged to her, so eventhough she was a little afraid of what might he do to the people around her, even if not her, she still said "I told you multiple times stop pestering me! I don't like you how many times do I have to tell you that!!"

As she said those words with a loud voice Tom and his companions froze for a moment but then Tom became very angry as no one had ever talked to him like that before, so angry he said. "Good... GOOD, you dare talk to me like that you bitch, just you wait, you'll regret this." as ge said that he went away with his companions.

After they went away Jessica said worriedly. "Elle, why did you talk like that to them? you know how they are! we don't know what they might do... ."

"I don't care." Ella said obviously don't want to think any further about the matter.

After they went away Tom said to his companions who seemed to listen to his every orders, "Call that gang who does anything for money and tell them to kidnap her after she leaves the university, This bitch thinks she's someone just because I like her and pursued her like a humanbeing, but now I'm done doing things the nice way."

"After they kidnap her tell them to bring her to a warehouse and give us the address." "We're going to have some fun raping that bitch, first I'll play with her to my hearts content first and then you guys fill her every hole in her body with semen." Tom continued with a dark face that seemed to say he was extremely angry.

"Yes boss." one of the boys said.
