

THE REINCARNATED GODDESS IS FIERCE

Chapter 7

Chapter 7: I Want Money

She wanted 200,000 yuan?

Xia Shahai thought that he either misheard or Xia Xibei was talking nonsense!

“Are you crazy? 200,000? You might as well go out and rob it!”

Xia Xibei’s mouth twitched. “I’m not crazy. If you don’t give me the money, I will go to your company to find you. By the way, I will figure out how much support you have owed me over the years.”

Xia Shahai was furious and spoke in a loud voice. “How dare you?!”

“Why wouldn’t I dare?” Xia Xibei snorted. “If other people knew that you only give your daughter three hundred yuan a month in support and then went out to eat, drink, and have fun with your current wife and children... Who will it embarrass? I think you know the answer really well.”

These words shocked Xia Shahai.

If Xia Xibei really were to do this, it would certainly have some impact!

If his business partners were to know this, they would either doubt his character or worry about his ability.

As Xia Shahaï was thinking about this, Xia Xibei's devious whispers had reached his ear, "You can't even support your own children. Wouldn't your business partners worry about your financial resources?"

"Don't you dare?!"

"If I can't even live anymore, why wouldn't I dare? And I really want to see my dear brother and sister, which school are they in? Is it that..."

"Shut up!"

Xia Shahaï was going to die of rage. Xia Xibei was usually mute and introverted, so why was she so sharp-tongued now?!

What's even worse was how she was threatening him with his younger children!

However, Xia Shahaï's instinct was telling him that Xia Xibei wasn't lying! She would really do this!

"In addition to the 200,000 yuan, I want the house I am living in now. You will transfer it to me."

'She wants the money and the house?!'

Xia Shahaï was so angry that this damn girl dared to make more demands!

"Tomorrow is Monday, I will take time off and wait for you. If you don't come, I will go and look for all of you. And maybe I will stay with you for a few days, we can work on improving our relationship."

Xia Shahaï gritted his teeth, his face turning dark; but he could only nod in the end. "Okay, I'll be over tomorrow!"

After talking, he angrily hung up.

Xia Xibei looked at the phone she got hung up on and raised an eyebrow. She then dialed another number.

“Why are you calling again? I am busy here...” On the other end, Dong Shulan sounded even more impatient than Xia Shaihai.

“Give me 200,000 yuan.”

Xia Xibei’s words were like a pinch to her neck.

“Two hundred thousand yuan?! Are you crazy?!”

Dong Shulan’s reaction was exactly the same as Xia Shaihai’s.

Who would have thought that Xia Xibei, who was silent and introverted before, would make such a demand?

She might as well rob the 200,000 yuan!

“If you don’t give me the money, I’ll go find you at your school, and by the way, I will discuss with the police about the crime of child trafficking.”

“You... how did you know?!”

Dong Shulan’s face was pale on the other end. She thought she was hallucinating.

Otherwise, how could Xia Xibei have known about this?!

“You don’t need to worry about how I know. Since you have brought me back, then you have to take the responsibility. Give me 200,000 yuan, and then sign a relationship-severance letter. I will not go look for you in the future. Of course, don't try to find me either."

Dong Shulan looked at the phone; her mind was blank.

"Two hundred thousand yuan. Transferred to my account tomorrow. Otherwise, I won't mind talking to your husband about what you have done. Anyway, I have a lot of free time."

Xia Xibei's "extortion" technique had leveled up after the first call.

"Fine! I'll do it!"
