Chapter 1021: Tang Ge's Wedding (1)

In the beginning, the Heavenly Sword Sect pursued the pinnacle of the Sword Dao. They wanted to transform all things into swords and create the Great Dao of the sword cultivators.

Because of this pursuit, the Heavenly Sword Sect had always upheld the Sword Dao.

However, with the passage of time, the experts of the Heavenly Sword Sect realized that the path of sword cultivation was still a little narrow. If they wanted to flourish? Just cultivating the sword might not be enough.

Thus, the Heavenly Sword Sect had added more cultivation paths. The Heavenly Halberd Art was one of them, and Tang Ge had learned it. Due to the conflict between the Heavenly Halberd and the Heavenly Sword, the experts of the Heavenly Sword Sect felt that no technique could compare to the sword, so they called the Heavenly Halberd Art the Battle Halberd Art.

However, the Heavenly Sword Sect had another rule: You could cultivate other techniques, but sword techniques had to be basic.

Therefore, apart from knowing the Heavenly Halberd Art, Tang Ge also knew how to use a sword.

However, the Heavenly Sword Sect had also said that to enter the Great Dao of the Heavenly Sword, one needed to find their own sword. If one couldn't comprehend the strongest sword that was suitable for them, they shouldn't cultivate the Heavenly Sword Art.

Clearly, Tang Ge hadn't figured it out either, so he couldn't enter the Great Dao of the Heavenly Sword.

However, regardless of whether he could enter the Great Dao of the Heavenly Sword, Tang Ge's Battle Halberd Art was pretty good. Coupled with the White Dragon Feather Spirit Shrimp, he was almost invincible among his peers.

Even disciples who had already figured out their own path of the sword had little chance of winning against Tang Ge's halberd technique.

How could Mu Tianfang not know this? Of course he knew, but Tang Ge's talent was too monstrous. He had to be taken in as a disciple. Once he comprehended his own sword path one day, he would sweep through many geniuses and become a true peerless genius.

On this day.

Tang Ge and Mu Ling were getting married. As the leader of the seven major sects, the Heavenly Sword Sect sent out wedding invitations and invited all the famous people in the city to attend the wedding.

When Han Fei and the others arrived, the Heavenly Sword Mountain where the Heavenly Sword Sect was located was decorated with lanterns and colorful banners. Fishing boats filled the sky.

It wasn't that the place where the Heavenly Sword Sect was located was called Heavenly Sword Mountain, but that the entire island was called Heavenly Sword Mountain. As the Heavenly Sword Sect's heritage was too deep, everyone liked to call it that.

The Heavenly Sword Sect was located in a mountain range. All the mountains here belonged to the Heavenly Sword Sect. The palaces and sword pavilion were all on it.

And the location of the wedding was at the training sword arena not far from the Heavenly Sword Sect's entrance.

As it was a distinguished gathering, not just anyone could enter the Heavenly Sword Sect. Only relatively famous figures in the Thousand Star City had the chance to come.

Of course, only relatively famous.

There were thousands of families in the Thousand Star City. For example, the Su family of Pure Sun Island received the invitation, and the person attending was the Su family's patriarch, Su Yang.

In fact, Su Yang didn't want to come because the Thug Academy had too many enemies. Although the Su family openly supported the Thug Academy, that was on Pure Sun Island. If others knew, they generally wouldn't go to Pure Sun Island to cause trouble for them.

However, it was different here. If someone were to stir up trouble, should he stand up for them or not?

The reason why Su Yang came was that he knew that Han Fei's abilities were not weaker than his. Therefore, in theory, even if something happened, he didn't need to do anything.

However, if someone wanted the Su family to express their stance...

Su Yang shook his head. "We've already come this far. Let's just face it. Besides, who would cause trouble here? This is a joyous occasion for the Heavenly Sword Sect after all. Those big clans wouldn't be so insensible, right?"

...

Han Fei and the others weren't with Su Yang.

The people from the Thug Academy who appeared in strange clothes naturally attracted the attention of many people.

Although most people didn't know Han Fei and the others, they could roughly guess their identities from their entourage.

As for those who couldn't guess it, they all drooled when they saw Luo Xiaobai, Jiuyin Ling, and Li Luoluo. Han Fei's high-quality fashion design attracted the attention of countless women.

Someone took the lead and controlled the fishing boat to fly over, ignoring Han Fei and the others. Although he was dazzled by Zhang Xuanyu's handsome face, he still approached Luo Xiaobai and the others.

"Miss, let me introduce myself. I'm a direct descendant of the Qian family from Money Island. Would you mind getting to know me?"

“Get lost!”

Luo Xiaobai’s eyes turned cold as she chased him away.

However, that person didn’t mind. To be able to come here, this girl’s background was probably not simple. Besides, as a man, how could he lower himself to the level of a woman?

The person changed the topic. “Well, I was actually talking to this young lady.”

The person looked at Jiuyin Ling and thought. “They are all beauties!”

However, Jiuyin Ling clasped her hand. “Seal!”

In the next moment, the young master of the Qian family froze and fell from the sky with his fishing boat.

Zhang Xuanyu turned his head and smiled. “How domineering.”

The Qian family’s young master’s eyes turned cold. He had actually been teased by two women! However, when he found out that the two were law enforcers, he could only swallow his anger. It was best not to provoke such young law-enforcers!

Young Master Qian had just fallen from the sky.

Another boat flew over. However, this fishing boat was very eye-catching. Embedded with all kinds of gems on it, it was especially dazzling under the sunlight.

A yellow-robed young man stood at the bow of the fishing boat, and a law enforcer was controlling the boat for him. This person came to Han Fei with his hands behind his back and said leisurely, “Jiuyin Ling, Luo Xiaobai, long time no see!”

Luo Xiaobai said, “I don’t know you.”

Jiuyin Ling pursed her lips. “Me neither.”

The person curled his lips. “Is that so! The Jiuyin Family owes our Zhang family some resources.”

At this moment, Han Fei spoke. “The Zhang family? Zhang Wen belongs to your family?”

The young man looked at Han Fei and said with a faint smile, “Yes, you are Han Fei?”

Han Fei asked, “Who are you?”

“Me? Zhang Mingkun. Zhang Wen is my younger brother, my biological younger brother.”

Han Fei scoffed. “What? You want revenge? I don’t mind beating you up too.”

Zhang Mingkun smiled faintly. “My Zhang family owes you a favor. Why don’t you use this favor to repay the debt of the Jiuyin family? After all, you were the one who sent Qiaoqiao back.”

Han Fei said disdainfully, “How much is your debt worth? Is it worth a favor?”

Zhang Mingkun smiled. “Sure, it’s equivalent to an ultra-quality divine weapon!”

Han Fei was instantly speechless. How poor was the Jiuyin family? However, on the surface, Han Fei said without blushing, "Is a mere ultra-quality divine weapon enough for me to owe you a favor?"

Zhang Mingkun smiled and said, "Then why don't you give me an ultra-quality divine weapon?"

Han Fei rolled his eyes at him. "This is a favor from a king. How can a mere ultra-quality divine weapon be enough? At least two."

Zhang Mingkun's eyes lit up. "Alright! Then I'll give you one?"

Han Fei curled his lips. "No! I'll go get the one the Zhang family owes me."

Zhang Mingkun smiled. "Anytime."

In Zhang Mingkun's opinion, he had plenty of money. The richest family in the Thousand Star City wasn't for nothing! He couldn't owe Han Fei a favor. Two ultra-quality divine weapons might seem extravagant, but that was only in the eyes of outsiders.

From Zhang Mingkun's point of view, how could a Venerable not be worthy of two ultra-quality divine weapons?

Jiuyin Ling hurriedly said, "Han Fei, I, I can..."

Jiuyin Ling's voice became softer and softer as her face turned red. She couldn't afford returning ultra-quality divine weapons!

Han Fei finally realized how poor Jiuyin Ling's family was. In the past, they couldn't afford a hundred thousand kilograms of spiritual spring, but now he learnt that they were even in debt?

Luo Xiaobai said to Ku Shui, "Later, inform the Jiuyin family that their debt has been cleared. The Thug Academy has paid it back."

This was a piece of cake for Han Fei.

Luo Xiaobai deliberately got Ku Shui to tell the Jiuyin family for another purpose. She specifically said that it was returned by the Thug Academy and not Han Fei. This was to separate them from Han Fei.

Ku Shui smiled and nodded. "Yes, Miss."

As Jiuyin Ling was pinching her fingers, she heard Zhang Mingkun say, "Out of kindness, I'll remind you that it won't be easy for the Thug Academy to go through this. If you go back now, you might still be in time."

Han Fei sneered. "Don't worry."

After Han Fei and the others left, the old man on Zhang Mingkun's fishing boat said, "Young Master, are you really going to use two ultra-quality divine weapons to return Han Fei a favor?"

Zhang Mingkun curled his lips and smiled. "No, I've already returned the favor."

"Huh?"

Zhang Mingkun said indifferently, "The Jiuyin family owes resources, not real ultra-quality divine weapons. It seems to be equal, but it's not. This bit of resources is dispensable to the Zhang family. So even if she repays it, so what? As for Han Fei, do you think he will really go to the Zhang family? Don't forget how he robbed Zhang Wen in the past. There's a saying that makes something out of nothing. Just because he said it doesn't mean he has to do it."

"Young master is wise."

Zhang Mingkun smiled faintly. "Let's go to watch the show. I'm not lying to them. This level isn't easy to pass!"

On the other side.

Luo Xiaobai looked at Han Fei. "Are you really going to the Zhang family to collect the debt?"

Han Fei nodded affirmatively. "Yes, but not now."

Chapter 1022: Tang Ge's Wedding (2)

Clearly, Zhang Mingkun was a relatively famous figure in the Thousand Star City. Therefore, when he made contact with the Thug Academy, many perceptions swept over.

"Humph!"

Han Fei's perception directly crushed those perceptions. This was the benefit of powerful spiritual power! As he became stronger, his sensitivity to perception became stronger.

After Han Fei shattered those perceptions, someone couldn't help but laugh. "Are these people from the Thug Academy?"

Someone laughed. "I heard that there's not even an explorer among them. There are only a few students coming to rebuild the school... How ambitious is the Thug Academy?"

Someone shook his head. "Can the big clans actually tolerate them? How magical!"

Familiar faces appeared in the crowd, and Mo Feiyan and Yang Deyu were talking.

Mo Xinyan said, "You believe that Sun Mu was killed by Cao Qiu?"

Yang Deyu shook his head. "Cao Qiu only talks about killing people, but in fact, he has never killed anyone. Although his War God bloodline has awakened and he has changed, I don't think he can change his nature. Most likely, it was Han Fei."

W Mo Feiyan couldn't help but say, "Sigh! What's the difference between Cao Qiu's War God bloodline and your War God will?"

Yang Deyu's face darkened. "Of course there's a difference! His is an authentic bloodline. Mine is just a secret technique. It can't be compared..."

Mo Feiyan sneered. "In any case, the Thug Academy is in an awkward situation now. They refuse to cooperate with the sects and insist on returning to Thousand Star City... How can there be such a good thing in the world?"

Yang Deyu sneered and suddenly said, "Sigh! I heard that some people from the three Holy Lands have returned."

Mo Yanyan nodded irritably. "Forget it. I have to admit that Han Fei and the others are indeed powerful! My family has no choice but to call people back from... that place for emergencies."

...

At the gate of the Heavenly Sword Sect.

Han Fei and the others landed.

Here, a crowd gathered.

Apart from the students of the Heavenly Sword Sect, there was basically no one below the Hidden Fisher level. They were all Hidden Fishers, and there were even many law enforcers passing by.

Zhang Xuanyu said in surprise, "There are a lot of strong masters in the Thousand Star City!"

Luo Xiaobai said, "That's for sure. The Thousand Star City is huge after all. However, these people have more or less been to the Unknown Place."

While Han Fei and the others were discussing, someone passed by.

When he saw Su Daji and the others following behind Han Fei, he couldn't help but frown. "Where did these children come from? Why did you bring these children to such an event?"

Zhang Xuanyu turned his head and said, "What has it got to do with you?"

The man glanced at Zhang Xuanyu and snorted coldly. "You're just a peak-level Hidden Fisher. How arrogant."

Zhang Xuanyu sneered. "Do you think you're very strong? Go away, mind your own business."

The man's expression turned cold as he thought to himself, "If we were in another place, I would have long taught you a lesson."

Xing Yue and company were also very nervous.

Gu Qi followed behind Han Fei. Everyone here was a powerhouse. Any one of them could kill them with a breath.

Han Fei didn't bother with such a trivial matter. He had brought Gu Qi and the others here to let them take a good look at the strong masters in this world and let them know the status of the Thug Academy in the Thousand Star City.

At the entrance of the Heavenly Sword Sect, someone was checking the invitation.

Just as Han Fei and the others were about to walk up, they suddenly heard someone ask in puzzlement, "Is this... someone from the Yi family?"

Perhaps it was Yi Xiyuan's JK uniform that attracted the attention of others. After all, exposing one's thigh would always attract attention!

Even though Yi Xiyuan was still young, it was undeniable that an attractive appearance was useful.

Otherwise, Han Fei wouldn't have been tempted by Xia Xiaochan at first sight.

"Which family? The Yi family?"

As soon as the person spoke, people looked at Yi Xinyuan. She was so frightened that she grabbed Zhang Xuanyu's hand and said, "Senior Brother, you have to protect me."

Zhang Xuanyu's expression turned ugly. So be it! With her special status, she really couldn't be harassed by outsiders.

"Hahaha! She's indeed from the Yi family. I can smell the special fragrance coming from her."

Han Fei and the others frowned. Is there a fragrance? Don't girls usually smell good?

Someone exclaimed, "Heavens, there's actually someone from the Yi family in Thousand Star City?"

Instantly, a group of people surrounded them from all directions.

Luo Xiaobai shouted, "Make way."

Someone scoffed. "Hey! Where are you from? Where did this girl from the Yi family come from?"

Someone blocked their path. "Hi, I don't mean to offend you. However, my Wang family has a great young man, who is enough to match Miss Yi. Young lady, what do you think?"

Zhang Xuanyu shouted, "Scram! Who cares who you are? You'd better get out of my way."

Someone sneered. "Wang Feng, forget it. Do you think your Wang family can take this girl?"

"Make way."

The next moment, Han Fei saw Li Heiye, Li Baizhou, and another young man appear.

The young man's eyes flickered as he glanced at Han Fei and the others. He said to the Li brothers, "Are these the ones from the Thug Academy?"

"Hiss!"

Around them, some people who didn't know Han Fei took a deep breath. Thug Academy?

The crowd immediately dispersed.

Well, although their families were not weak, they had heard about the Thug Academy more than once.

Recently, many people on Pure Sun Island knew that the Thug Academy had returned.

This school was famous for being ruthless and domineering. If one didn't have enough power, one couldn't provoke it!

Li Heiye said, "Yes, Han Fei. Long time no see."

Han Fei curled his lips. "Why? Do you two want to see me?"

Li Baizhou grinned and said, "The Thug Academy is already in the eye of the storm. Now, you still dare to take in a Yi family girl? How bold."

Han Fei said with a smile, "Why? Is someone coming to the Thug Academy to snatch her?"

As for the young man in front of the Li brothers, he snorted and said, "If this girl from the Yi family marries into our Li family, the Li family will no longer participate in any matters of the Thug Academy."

Yi Xiyao was so nervous that her palms were sweating. She hadn't expected to be recognized so easily! She had heard of the Li family, but she didn't want to be taken like an item!

Before Han Fei could say anything, Zhang Xuanyu laughed and said, "How do you have the face to say that? Are you more handsome than me? I'll only tell you once. She's a student of the Thug Academy."

The young man's eyes were cold. "Do you really think... that the few of you can support the reputation of the Thug Academy?"

With that, the young man looked at Han Fei. "Remember, my name is Li Xuan. I heard that you are very strong? I want to experience it."

Han Fei said disdainfully, "A life-and-death battle is always welcome. If you don't dare to fight, get lost."

Just as Han Fei and the others were confronting Li Xuan, someone from the Heavenly Sword Sect finally came. It was the disciple who verified the invitation at the entrance of the Heavenly Sword Sect.

The disciple frowned and said, "Gentlemen, don't cause trouble in our Heavenly Sword Sect."

With that said, the Heavenly Sword Sect disciple looked at the five of them and asked in puzzlement, "Why did you bring children?"

Han Fei casually handed out the invitation and said, "The invitation is for everyone in the Thug Academy."

The disciple was stunned. They were from the Thug Academy?

It was said that Tang Ge and Han Fei from the Thug Academy were brothers.

The disciple couldn't help but look at Han Fei. "Are you Han Fei?"

Han Fei nodded.

The person looked at the Li family people and said, "These are guests of our Heavenly Sword Sect."

Li Xuan snorted softly and turned to leave.

At this moment, Mo Feiyan and Yang Deyu passed by Han Fei and the others and heard Mo Feiyan say leisurely, "I'm afraid you don't know the specialness of the Yi family women. This is... quite troublesome."

Han Fei curled his lips. "The next time you make sarcastic remarks, weigh yourself up! If it weren't for the array, you would already be dead."

Mo Feiyan's expression was ugly. She snorted heavily and walked straight to the Heavenly Sword Sect.

Li Luoluo couldn't help but ask, "Han Fei, have you offended all the families you can?"

Han Fei smiled. "Are you afraid?"

Li Luoluo curled her lips. "Tch... What's there to be afraid of?"

The Heavenly Sword Sect disciple said, "Please enter."

With that said, he hesitated for a moment before whispering, "Everyone, it's best if you stand in the square formation of the seven sects. Many people from the major clans have come this time."

...

In the Heavenly Sword Sect.

It was a huge training field, as though it was to showcase the power of the Heavenly Sword Sect. At that moment, ten thousand flying swords were spinning in the air, forming a huge circular sword formation.

Luo Xiaobai said, "It's the Heavenly Sword Formation. It's said that it can unleash a torrent of Sword Dao. The Heavenly Sword Formation at the Hidden Fisher level can kill peak-level Law Enforcers."

Le Renkuang said in surprise, "Ah, doesn't that mean that even my Ultimate Defence technique can't withstand it?"

Han Fei was also surprised. "What about the Heaven Sword Formation at the level of Law Enforcers?"

Jiuyin Ling: "There aren't that many law enforcers."

Han Fei immediately heaved a sigh of relief. You gave me a fright! I knew it. If it's that strong, wouldn't it be able to kill an Explorer?

"Our Grand Void Sword Formation is no weaker than this."

Everyone turned their heads and saw Chu Xun from Grand Void Academy standing behind them...

Su Sanqian hurriedly took two steps back. He could sense the sharp sword intent on this person's body.

Chu Xun glanced at Su Sanqian in surprise. "Can he actually sense my sword intent? This kid is quite keen!"

Chapter 1023: Tang Ge's Wedding (3)

Han Fei glanced at Chu Xun. "Eh, your strength seems to have improved significantly!"

The corners of Chu Xun's mouth twitched. He didn't want to talk to Han Fei.

In the Sea Quelling Painting, he was just a bystander. But now he had made some improvements. He didn't expect that Han Fei directly pointed it out...

Chu Xun snorted. "Han Fei, I'm here to ask on behalf of our sect master: Is the Thug Academy willing to return?"

Before Han Fei could say anything, he saw Gong Yuehan walk over. "Give it a second thought before answering. The Thug Academy came to the Thousand Star City and nothing happened for months... But today might be different."

Han Fei narrowed his eyes. "Oh? What's the difference?"

Han Fei looked at the seats of honor at the training field. It seemed that strong masters from the seven sects were sitting there. The remaining disciples were all standing below.

Everyone from the seven sects was looking at them.

This was because there was an empty seat beside the seven seats.

Luo Xiaobai asked, "Shall we sit there?"

Han Fei was silent and stood still. He didn't believe that the Heavenly Sword Sect had nothing to say.

On the right, closer to the front, there were some people he didn't know sitting in the seats. However, from the crowd, Han Fei discovered Chu Jian, who he had met once in the Thousand Star Proving Ground, and Li Xuan, whom he had just met.

However, there was no place for Mo Feiyan and the Li brothers to sit.

This meant that in the Thousand Star City, a genius like Mo Feiyan had already fallen from the top tier of geniuses. Or rather, they had never been on the top tier.

Han Fei said, "Follow me."

Han Fei walked all the way to the left where the strong masters of the seven sects were.

At this moment, the scene of thousands of people fell silent. This was because... many people realized that the gazes of the major families and sects were on Han Fei and company.

Han Fei ignored those gazes and directly came in front of the strong master from the Heavenly Sword Sect. This person only had the strength of a peak-level Law Enforcer, and Mu Tianfang didn't show up personally.

It made sense. Why would those bigwigs personally sit here to welcome guests? They probably wouldn't be seen before the official business began.

Han Fei looked at the expert from the Heavenly Sword Sect and asked, "What do you mean?"

The strong master of the Heavenly Sword Sect sighed. "Han Fei, there are two situations today. If you're alone, you can enter the inner sect of the Heavenly Sword Sect and go straight to Tang Ge. The Heavenly Sword Sect is completely open to you, and no one will stop you. However, if you represent the Thug Academy, we will treat you differently.”

Han Fei: “Oh? I’m all ears.”

The person said, “If you return to the sect system, the seven sects will immediately become eight sects. The sects will be united, and many problems of the Thug Academy can be resolved.”

Han Fei smiled faintly. “What’s the condition?”

The strong master from the Sea Cloud Tower suddenly said, “The reason why the seven sects are united is because part of the resources of the seven sects are shared. This is a tacit understanding to maintain a united front. The Thug Academy has a large number of Star Beads, right? We won’t snatch them from you, but we want the right to enter the secret realms.”

The guy from the Grand Void Academy said, “Similarly, as for all the Star Beads of the seven major sects, the Thug Academy can also enter the corresponding secret realms.”

The man from the Heavenly Sword Sect said with a solemn expression, “Han Fei, I know that you can represent the Thug Academy now. In fact, this isn’t a bad thing. With the return of the Thug Academy, you will definitely get more than us.”

Han Fei narrowed his eyes slightly. These guys are desperate to get our Star Beads!

However, that was impossible. Ignoring everything else, Xiaoci was still in that secret realm! It was absolutely impossible for him to hand over the Star Beads!

Han Fei smiled and said, “OK, except for ruins.”

The strong master from the Origin Returning Peak said, “Impossible. The reason we agreed to the Thug Academy’s return was to explore the ruins. Otherwise, there would be no point. Han Fei, if the Thug Academy shares the ruins, so will we. This is the only way to expose the ancient secrets.”

Han Fei curled his lips and smiled. “Not necessarily. Don’t the three Holy Lands have secrets? Have you been to the Central Holy City?”

The strong master from the Death Door Sect said, “If we found those ancient secrets from the three Holy Lands or had been to the Central Holy City, would we still need the Thug Academy?”

Han Fei said, “Do you know... how many ruins I have?”

The man from the Heavenly Sword Sect said, “You might not know this, but in the Star River, once you obtain a ruin-type Star Bead, it will shake the Star River. The Thug Academy should have 18 ruins.”

Han Fei narrowed his eyes. Is that so? If I take Little Ci back and put her in Forge the Universe, it’s not impossible for the Thug Academy to return to the seven sects.

After all, when Old Bai handed the Star Beads to him, he was probably already prepared.

However, Han Fei still had a few ruins-type Law Enforcer secret realms that he couldn’t explore now.

Han Fei immediately said, "You can have the Star Beads of the Thug Academy, but you have to wait until we finish exploring the Law Enforcer-level Star Bead secret realm."

Luo Xiaobai glanced at Han Fei, who gave her a look that said it was fine.

The strong masters frowned. The person from Origin Returning Peak said, "To be honest, if you want to explore ruins at the level of law enforcers, you have to wait until you reach the level of advanced law enforcers. In fact, it's best when you become peak-level law enforcers. If you agree now, our seven major sects can send people to explore those ruins with you."

The woman from the Jade Immortal Palace nodded. "That's right. You should have seen some ruins and know how difficult it is."

Han Fei said, "Sorry, that's my bottom line. Or you can wait for us to finish exploring."

"Haha!"

Just as Han Fei finished speaking, someone from the big clans laughed and said, "See that? The Thug Academy is trying to hide something. They have secrets and don't want to hand them over. Heh, Han Fei, how long will it take you to finish exploring the ruins? I think you're just stalling for time for your growth, right?"

Han Fei looked over and saw that it was an elder of the Yang family. People of this family were all crazy, shouting and going mad all day long!

A woman said sarcastically, "Since the Thug Academy doesn't return to the eight sects, the seven sects shouldn't get involved with the matters between us and the Thug Academy, right?"

A voice appeared in Han Fei's heart. "They want to force the Thug Academy to completely sever ties with the seven sects. Now, once you give an affirmative answer, there will be endless trouble in the future."

Han Fei didn't know who had sent him a voice transmission. Looking around, he didn't see anyone who he knew.

Han Fei didn't care. It was impossible to hand over the Star Beads. How could he just hand over the ruins that they hadn't explored? And it was even more impossible to allow the seven sects to send their people to explore the Law Enforcer secret realms together with them!

If he died inside, who would bear the responsibility? Who would Old Han seek revenge on?

Someone threatened, "The Luo family and the Jiuyin family are clearly on the side of the Thug Academy?"

Han Fei narrowed his eyes and looked at the person who spoke. Who is this guy?

Suddenly, Han Fei directly pointed at the person and cursed, "What's your problem? Is your family unhappy? Do you want to destroy the Thug Academy? Come on, just give it a try!"

Many people were surprised. Why did Han Fei start cursing?

Someone took a deep breath. "God, he just pointed at the Sun family guy cursing? Who is this fellow?"

Someone laughed. "Who? He's from the Thug Academy... The one that was once destroyed."

Someone shook his head. "What a hothead! He's cursing the Sun family people in front of so many people? Is he crazy?"

The middle-aged man of the Sun family scowled. "Han Fei, you brat, since the Thug Academy has returned, there has to be a legitimate reason. You can have someone to back you up, but what about the Thug Academy? Since you've chosen to rebuild the school, either you choose to return to the eight sects or hand over your Star Beads."

Han Fei sneered. "What if I choose neither of them?"

The Sun family guy said, "Fine. Then, you won't be able to become law enforcers in Thousand Star City."

Han Fei laughed. "What has it got to do with that? Do you think that after I become a law enforcer, you big clans can defeat me? Why don't you get someone to try challenging me?"

BAM!

The man slapped the table. "Han Fei, do you think you're the only one in the Thug Academy?"

Han Fei squinted at him. "Are you threatening me?"

Han Fei's heart skipped a beat. Did Old Bai and Old Jiang really have a trump card? The other party was blatantly threatening him. If they really attacked him in the future, should he fight or not?

He knew that in the eyes of these people, he had already been separated from the Thug Academy.

If Old Han didn't come out, he might be fine, but what about Zhang Xuanyu and Le Renkuang? What about the five children?

Clang~

Suddenly, a figure descended from the sky. The halberd in his hand struck the ground, producing a metallic sound.

Tang Ge appeared and glanced at the people from the big clans. "Why? Do you big clans want to cause trouble on my wedding day?"

"Ge'er, why are you here? Do you have any idea what you're doing?"

The strong master from the Heavenly Sword Sect berated him before sending a voice transmission to him. "This matter isn't that simple. They just wanted to take advantage of this chance... Stop fooling around. Go back."

Han Fei frowned. "Why are you here?"

Tang Ge glanced at Han Fei. "How can I not come?"

Tang Ge shouted, "Han Fei is my brother. It's fine if you want to disturb my wedding, but now you want to force my brother? You guys are too impudent."

Someone laughed. "Heh! Tang Ge, you have to know that you are from the Heavenly Sword Sect. Are these people from the Thug Academy your brothers and sisters?"

Someone laughed and said, "Tang Ge, it's your big day. Don't get involved in this matter."

A strong master from a large clan said disdainfully, "What? A junior can represent the Heavenly Sword Sect now? Is there no one in the Heavenly Sword Sect?"

"Ge'er, what are you fooling around for?"

Hum!

Mu Tianfang appeared and placed a hand on Tang Ge's shoulder. He said via voice transmission, "These problems can't be resolved by you. Han Fei will be fine, but it's because the Thug Academy refuses to return that the big clans are ganging up on them."

Chapter 1024: Han Fei's Choice

Tang Ge said, "Master, am I supposed to stand behind and watch these people bully Han Fei?"

Mu Tianfang said leisurely, "Bully? When did you see Han Fei being bullied? These people just want to see the trump card of the Thug Academy. With the trump card, no one will attack the Thug Academy. If they don't have it, there will be a problem. This proves that Han Fei's trip to the Thousand Star City was just a bluff. Someone might attack them, but no matter what, nothing will happen to Han Fei."

Tang Ge frowned. "But Master, what if..."

Mu Tianfang: "Ge'er, only the strong have the right to speak. You aren't enough. If you want to attack a big clan, you have to become the strong one first. Only under the protection of the Heavenly Sword Sect will you have this chance. This is also the reason why your foster father urged you to marry Little Ling'er."

Han Fei took a deep look at Tang Ge and immediately shouted, "Tang Ge isn't a member of the Thug Academy, so don't involve him in. However, do you really think that the Thug Academy is a pushover?"

Someone stood up and cupped his hands at Mu Tianfang. "Sect Master Mu, it's not that we are causing trouble. It's just that there are some matters that need to be cleared up..."

Someone nodded. "That's right. The Thug Academy came back without even noticing us. What do they take the Thousand Star City for?"

The Yang family's fool said, "Han Fei, don't bluff. You have your father to protect you. Fine, I'll let you do whatever you want. But the Thug Academy has nothing to do with your father, right?"

"That's right. If you're really bluffing, hand over the ruins-type Star Beads as soon as possible!"

Behind him, the expert from the Sea Cloud Tower said, "Han Fei, it's not too late to choose to return to the eight sects."

For a moment, Han Fei's mind was buzzing. No matter if they returned or not, Tang Ge couldn't be involved in this matter. He had thought that these people would use normal means to attack the Thug Academy after they became law enforcers.

However, he was wrong. These people were more disgusting than he thought.

Han Fei was speechless. Before they came, Old Bai didn't give him any trump cards! Ever since he came, he had been pretending as if he did have trump cards.

The people from the ordinary families present gulped.

As soon as the Thug Academy people showed up, they were besieged. At this point, if they didn't have any real trump cards, they probably wouldn't be able to get through this.

At this moment, Su Yang's forehead was covered in cold sweat. He was even more nervous than Han Fei! The fate of the Su family was now connected to the Thug Academy.

If the return of the Thug Academy was a bluff, the consequences were obvious!

A few peak-level Hidden Fishers couldn't make any waves.

No matter how talented Han Fei was, could he beat an Explorer as a peak-level Hidden Fisher?

Everyone else who had come to observe the ceremony was silent. Many people had just learned that Han Fei and the others represented the Thug Academy.

At this moment, these people were shocked. The Thug Academy isn't afraid of death! They still want to rebuild their school in the Thousand Star City? How did they get wiped out back then? Do they want to repeat the same mistake?

Han Fei narrowed his eyes, and a voice appeared in his heart. "This is the best opportunity. Consider it a thank-you gift for the cooperation of the Heavenly Sword Sect and your father. Think it through. It's impossible for Bai Congye not to give you any trump cards.

Han Fei couldn't help but glance at Mu Tianfang. Was Mu Tianfang reminding him?

However, why is Mu Tianfang so sure that this is the best opportunity? How can I not know if I have any trump cards?

Since Mu Tianfang has invited us over, he must have the confidence that we can get through this.

But damn it, I have no trump card!

The greatest force I have is the five legend-level henchmen. Any one of them can resolve many law enforcers.

However, this was clearly not enough!

Ever since he came out of the underground city, Han Fei knew that there were many explorers in the Thousand Star City. Even the declining Su family had two explorers. He estimated that the Thousand Star City experts could flatten the Ten Thousand Demon Valley in minutes.

As for the so-called Sea Demon Royal City, Han Fei didn't think that there were so many explorers and Venerables in that city ... Of course, this was only Han Fei's guess. After all, the sea demons weren't weak.

At this moment, someone walked over.

Han Fei's pupils constricted: Chu Nanfeng.

Chu Jian stood up and cupped his hands. "Uncle."

Han Fei frowned. Chu Nanfeng is a peak-level Explorer. Han Fei was relatively unfamiliar with the Chu Sect. However, he knew from Little Ci that the Chu Sect boomed because they snatched Little Ci's belongings. Did Chu Nanfeng, who was almost killed by Old Han, want to attack them personally?"

Chu Nanfeng said with a smile, "Sect Master Mu, Chu Sect has sent a congratulatory gift. We found an ancient sword manual and hope you can accept it."

Mu Tianfang smiled. "Thank you, Mr. Nanfeng."

A jade slip flew to Mu Tianfang. Chu Nanfeng smiled at Han Fei and said, "If it weren't for your father, you wouldn't have lived to this day."

Han Fei sneered. "If the Chu Sect explorers don't come out, I can kill every single disciple of your sect. Do you believe me?"

Chu Nanfeng smiled. "Oh? You said that?"

Han Fei grinned. "I said it. I don't mind sending your Chu Sect people to their deaths! Come on!"

Chu Nanfeng looked at Mu Tianfang. "Sect Master Mu, if Han Fei represented himself, it wouldn't matter. But as you can see, he's clearly standing on the side of the Thug Academy. He's already made his stand. If our Chu Sect swallows this insult, people would laugh at us."

Luo Xiaobai immediately said, "Han Fei, be careful. Don't act rashly."

Han Fei really wanted to roll his eyes. I don't want to fight these people, but they're forcing me to fight them! If I don't accept his challenge, how can the show continue?

Mu Tianfang sent a voice transmission. "Han Fei, don't let your emotions affect your decisions. This is the best opportunity. All the famous people in the Thousand Star City are here. If you don't show your trump card now, it will be difficult to maintain the delicate balance in the future. No matter how strong your father is, he's not from the Thug Academy. He can't protect so many people. If others die, will your father really take action?"

Han Fei gritted his teeth. But I don't have any trump cards!

Han Fei roughly knew that if Old Han had set up the trap for decades just to make him strong, he wouldn't take action as long as it didn't involve him.

Han Fei smiled. "Senior Mu, can I borrow the Heavenly Sword Sect's venue?"

Wow!

The crowd was in an uproar. Han Fei was saying that if the explorers of the Chu Sect didn't come, he would kill all other disciples.

However, would a big clan care about faces? Everyone would just see who would win in the end.

Since the Chu Sect had accepted the challenge, it meant that they were confident enough to face Han Fei. Everyone knew there were five legend-level creatures in the Sea Quelling Painting.

However, those who entered the painting didn't know the strength of the five legends. They didn't have a standard to judge, so the Chu Sect came to test the depth of water.

Han Fei narrowed his eyes and looked at Chu Nanfeng. "You want to fight? Come, come! Today is my brother's wedding, so there shouldn't be any blood. But as cultivators, why would we care about such a trivial matter?"

Han Fei looked at Tang Ge. "Do you mind?"

Tang Ge frowned and said, "Han Fei, don't do that."

Han Fei smiled. "He's about to step on my face. How can I flinch back?"

"Fight!"

Han Fei's eyes turned cold as he looked at Chu Nanfeng. "My father can beat you silly... Just wait. One day, I'll beat you silly too."

Chu Nanfeng chuckled. "You sure have a sharp tongue. Since you've chosen to fight, I'll satisfy you. However, what's the prize for the winner?"

Han Fei thought to himself, Here comes the highlight.

Han Fei sneered. "What do you mean?"

Chu Nanfeng said, "If the Chu Sect wins, the Thug Academy's Star Beads belong to us."

Han Fei asked, "What if you lose?"

Chu Nanfeng smiled. "Name your conditions."

Han Fei said, "You have to make all the big clans here promise not to attack the Thug Academy for ten years. You can't harass us either!"

"Ridiculous."

Someone immediately shouted, "What has it got to do with us?"

Chu Nanfeng said, "Aren't you a little too greedy?"

Han Fei scoffed. "Are you talking about yourself?"

Chu Nanfeng: "Then how do you want to fight us?"

Han Fei grinned and said, "That's easy. For every battle I lose, I'll give you a Star Bead, but if I win a battle, you should stay away from us for the next ten years. How about that?"

Chu Nanfeng sneered. "Three months."

Han Fei said disdainfully, "That's it? That's the power of the famous Chu Sect? Don't you feel ashamed? You're the one who wants to fight me."

Chu Southwind narrowed his eyes. "Half a year, at most."

For the first time, Han Fei realized that if he didn't want others to cause trouble, he had to win through fighting. With so many big shots here, Chu Nanfeng probably wouldn't go back on his word.

If the Chu and Cao families didn't take action, the other large families probably didn't have the ability to challenge him.

Han Fei: "Fine! Half a year. If I beat you twenty times, it'll be ten years."

"Puff!"

Someone was rendered speechless. Has he gone mad? Beat the Chu Sect twenty times? Did he think the Chu Sect disciples were weaklings?

Chu Nanfeng smiled contemptuously. "If you can win."

With that said, Chu Nanfeng shouted, "Kuangren, come."

Hum!

Instantly, cries of shock rang out.

Someone said in surprise, "What? Chu Kuangren came out of the Monument of Gods?"

Someone was surprised. "This lunatic is here to fight?"

Someone was shocked. "This is bad! Han Fei is only a peak-level Hidden Fisher. He won't even be able to resist two slaps of Chu Kuangren!"

Jiuyin Ling's expression immediately changed as she sent a voice transmission. "Han Fei, Chu Kuangren is famous for being a lunatic, but he's also a genius! It's said that he has an ancient bloodline."

Han Fei said, "I've seen many geniuses in my life. There is only one who can defeat me. Unfortunately, he's not in the Thousand Star City."

Chapter 1025: Chu Kuangren

A pillar of fire descended from the sky, burning the entire mountain. All the vegetation instantly turned to dust.

As the Sun Essence was too domineering, Mu Tianfang immediately shouted, "Everyone, retreat 30 kilometers."

Chu Nanfeng's gaze changed as a result. He was somewhat moved. Has Han Fei gone mad? Perhaps he could resist this terrifying Sun Essence Energy for one or two seconds, but what about five or ten seconds? What would happen after ten seconds?

All the Hidden Fishers had tears in their eyes. Luo Xiaobai sealed the eyes of Su Daji and the others.

“Boom!”

In the Sun Essence Energy, Han Fei was like a man of fire, rushing up.

The terrifying power exploded into waves of fire that struck the Sword Essence Seal.

Within the entire seal, no one could open his eyes at a radius of twenty kilometers.

Boom Boom Boom!

Clang Clang Clang!

At this moment, no one knew what Han Fei was thinking. You say I don't have any energy? Fine, I'll call for some energy! Let's see who will be the first to collapse!

Booms rang out nonstop.

With a loud boom, Chu Kuangren's back slammed into the Sword Essence Seal, causing the entire seal to tremble violently.

“Boom!”

Han Fei's figure slammed into the seal.

With a cracking sound, a crack appeared on the Sword Essence Seal.

Mu Tianfang's expression changed slightly. “Not good.”

Before Mu Tianfang could release his hand, he saw a huge hand wave in the void. The Sword Essence Seal returned to normal. Upon seeing this scene, Mu Tianfang bowed slightly at the huge hand. It was a Venerable.

Everyone outside was shocked.

Su Yang looked at the figure that was flashing crazily in the Sun Essence Energy. The terrifying saber mark that tore through the void, the figure that collided with the bloody fist mark, and his heart almost jumped to his throat.

“This is crazy.”

Su Yang was certain that if Han Fei were to fight him in this state, he would have no chance of winning. He would probably be blasted to death in less than three seconds.

However, the two freaks inside were still fighting?

Most of the time, they were engaging in close combat. As they were too fast, they attacked a hundred times every second. The booms never stopped.

The sound of the punches hitting flesh and bones snapping left everyone's scalp tingling.

After just eight seconds, intense panting erupted from the Sword Origin Formation. A mountain peak collapsed, and the two of them were buried in rubble.

At that moment, the mountain-burning fire was suddenly extinguished. The remnant energy surged like a tidal wave as it drilled into the rubble.

The thousand-meter-tall mountain was now only about 600 meters tall. Han Fei and Chu Kuangren were still pressed down somewhere...

BAM!

All of a sudden, rubble flew everywhere as Chu Kuangren bent his back. His entire body was charred. His hair was burnt away and his body was pitch-black.

A set of battle suit appeared on his body. With a series of cracking sounds, the charred flesh fell off. Chu Kuangren roared, "Come out."

Swoosh!

The saber light soared into the sky, and the mountain rocks exploded. Han Fei, wrapped in a cyan battle suit, flashed out of the stone pile.

However, everyone could see that one of Han Fei's legs was twisted, and his left shoulder drooped unnaturally.

Han Fei stabbed the saber into the ground and grabbed his left shoulder with his right hand.

Crack! Crack!

"Crack! Crack! Crack!"

As the Divine Healing Technique fell on him, the charred flesh on Han Fei's body began to crumble.

Outside the arena, it was silent.

Due to the Venerable's protection, everyone returned to a spot less than twenty kilometers away. Yi Xinyan and company widened their eyes.

Is that Senior Brother Han?

He is only a peak Hidden Fisher! A mountain has been destroyed by the two of them?

Gu Qi gulped. She seemed to have just realized what it meant to join the Thug Academy. She looked at Luo Xiaobai and the others and thought to herself, These seniors aren't weak either!

Su Daiji was dumbfounded and even forgot to play the Cube.

Su Sanqian's heart surged. What is a powerhouse? This is a powerhouse! A Hidden Fisher has the strength of a peak-level law enforcer.

Luo Xiaobai and the others heaved a sigh of relief, but their hearts were still in their throats! The two people in the arena were definitely not as relaxed as they looked.

If the two of them were fine, they would definitely have fought immediately instead of resting on their feet. Chu Kuangren even allowed Han Fei to set his bones and cast the Divine Healing Technique on himself.

Chu Kuangren seemed to have swallowed something. At that moment, his aura was recovering.

He said coldly, "The ancient beast was born from blood. You have lost this battle."

Han Fei's expression was cold, but he said, "Bullshit."

Han Fei took three steps forward and extended his hand. The Punishing Saber fell in his hand.

Han Fei opened his mouth and said clearly, "Don't you want me to become a law enforcer? I'll do it now."

As the two of them were more than ten kilometers apart, Han Fei walked forward step by step. "You're very good. I originally wanted to choose Battle Body as my law, which can conquer and break everything. Wherever my fist goes, it becomes my Dao. However, you dismissed my idea... Do you know that I have many laws to choose from? I've been having a headache over what to choose... Damn it, what should I choose?"

Han Fei spat out a mouthful of blood and continued, "Now I understand. If I want to enforce the law, I have to be both offensive and defensive. I don't know what laws exist in this world, so I'll follow my lead. If I say that there is a law here, there is a law. If I say that this law can be a law, it is a law."

Hum!

A golden giant that no one had ever seen suddenly appeared behind Han Fei. Following Han Fei, the giant strode forward and glared at the crowd.

Han Fei said,

Rebirth proves Tathagata,

West Heaven Temple's Freedom.

On the path of invincibility,

There was a vajra to suppress devils.

Clang!

It was like a bell tolling as thunder rumbled in the sky.

Han Fei created a law, a law that belonged to him, a law that only he knew. It seemed to be incompatible with the world.

However, this wasn't a tribulation. Therefore, no lightning fell. Otherwise, someone would have intervened.

As the golden light on Han Fei's body became more and more resplendent, he had already turned into a golden man.

Outside, someone exclaimed, "He actually chose to become a law enforcer in the mid of a battle!"

Someone was shocked. "Crazy, crazy, completely crazy! What's his law? It actually attracted the mighty heavenly might."

Mu Tianfang's eyes lit up. Han Fei was really a worthy son of Han Guanshu. His talent and strength were shocking.

Su Yang was excited. He had to win. If Han Fei won, the Su family would win.

Chu Nanfeng's expression was ugly. Han Fei's strength was beyond his expectations. Although he knew that there was something wrong with the Punishing Saber, he couldn't do anything now.

In such a battle, there was no cheating as long as no one interfered.

And Han Fei, as a peak-level Hidden Fisher, was already able to fight Chu Kuangren. If he became a law enforcer, wouldn't Chu Kuangren definitely lose?

Chu Nanfeng: "Kuangren, what are you waiting for?"

Chu Kuangren pounced forward wildly, his broadsword slashing down.

Han Fei, who was walking forward, waved his saber, and a crack appeared in the void. With a clang, the sword was sent flying.

"I didn't want to become a law enforcer here, but man proposes, God disposes! So be it. From the moment I become a law enforcer, who can stop me?"

"Hoooooo!"

Chu Kuangren was enraged. He didn't expect Han Fei to be so strong. At this moment, his scarlet fist exploded, reducing all the rocks along the way to dust.

Han Fei's expression was indifferent as he stopped and extended his hand. As he extended his hand, the golden giant behind him also extended its hand.

Clang~

The echoes reverberated.

However, Han Fei didn't retreat. He stood in the air, allowing the wind to crush the gravel behind him and the ground to cave in.

He caught the terrifying fist mark with one hand.

Outside, someone was shocked. "How is that possible? Even if he has become a law enforcer, it's impossible for him to be this strong."

However, one of the strong masters from the Mountain Sea Pavilion widened his eyes. "That's not right. That's not purely his own power. He's enforcing his law. He's using the power of his law to resist Chu Kuangren."

Han Fei grinned. "Law enforcement! Indeed, law is not the Dao. It's just a wisp of the will of the world... Heh heh..."

"Kylin Fiend Fist."

With a roar, a creature that was neither fish nor fowl appeared. The scarlet fist beam turned black with a demonic might.

Han Fei closed his eyes.

When he opened his eyes again, Han Fei had already flown a thousand meters away. He unleashed a dazzling fist mark. "Vajra Demon Suppression."

"Moo!"

A strange sound erupted as the demonic aura was crushed by the golden fist.

Han Fei began to speed up.

At this moment, the Agility of Wind had increased his speed by five times.

Faced with Han Fei, who had become stronger, Chu Kuangren naturally wouldn't admit defeat.

"Even if you become a law enforcer, so what? Have I ever been afraid of battle?"

The two instantly collided.

Instantly, the combat technique was activated again. At this moment, Han Fei's strength had improved. Furthermore, with the power of law enforcement, the two of them struck out with the sound of drums.

Around the two of them, the gravel was crushed into sand.

This was a melee combat that didn't have any fancy moves. Every punch and move made one's scalp tingle.

Unfortunately, it wasn't the right time for Chu Kuangren. He was powerful, really powerful! He destroyed Han Fei's fusion state and forced him to become a law enforcer on the spot.

Therefore, how could Han Fei let this grudge go?

At this moment, when Chu Kuangren struck Han Fei, it was as if he had struck a Sea Quelling Bizarre Treasure. Han Fei didn't move at all.

But when Han Fei landed a blow on Chu Kuangren's body, his blood exploded and his tendons snapped.

Han Fei grinned coldly. "Let me tell you a secret. This is called the Glaring Vajra. It's indestructible."

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Chu Nanfeng shouted, "You can stop now."

Han Fei suddenly unleashed all his strength. "Stop your ass! Die!"

"B*stard."

Just as Chu Nanfeng was about to attack, he saw a figure block dozens of kilometers away.

As for Han Fei's punch, it pierced through Chu Kuangren's chest. Han Fei seemed to have grabbed something and crushed it.

As for the explosion on the ground behind Chu Kuangren, it was caused by the wind generated by the fist.

In that instant, one of the legendary figures in the Thousand Star City, Chu Kuangren of the Chu Sect, died.

Chapter 1026: Law Enforcement in Battle

Chapter 1027: Ren Tianfei Appears

In the Boneyard, when Han Fei found the true path of invincibility, he already knew how to break through to a law enforcer...

However, back then, he realized that he had too many laws to choose!

The so-called law enforcement was to grasp a wisp of the rules of the world. This rule allowed cultivators to stand out in certain aspects, allowing them to achieve victory by surprise.

Back then, the law Han Fei wanted to enforce was strength. All cultivation could eventually turn into a battle of strength. Secret techniques might gradually weaken as one's realm and strength increased.

This was because the higher one's realm was and the stronger one was, the more one's body could withstand and expend. The enhancement of the secret technique's powers would become weaker and weaker.

However, pure strength wouldn't! It seemed to be a simple law, but when he fought the five people alone in the Scattered Stars Island, he found the strength-type law enforcer the most difficult to deal with.

But at this moment, Han Fei gave up the idea. Strength could be made up for in other ways. What was his greatest combat advantage? Constitution.

Only after breaking through to the third level of the Indestructible Body did Han Fei qualify to fight these law enforcers head-on. Ordinary Hidden Fishers were nothing to him.

The 108 Desolate God Body raised Han Fei's physique to another level, making up for the disadvantage of having meridians.

This was because Ren Tianfei's meridians were severed and his acupoints had been refined. Therefore, he could achieve the abnormally powerful Indestructible Body.

But Han Fei was different.

Since he had meridians, the Desolate God Body had combined the major acupoints in his body, making up for the difference between his Indestructible Body and Ren Tianfei's Indestructible Body.

Since his greatest advantage was physique and body refinement, Han Fei finally determined the direction of law enforcement.

He needed to magnify this advantage.

However, he didn't know if there was such a law in the world that strengthened one's physique. Therefore, he chose the one he was most familiar with—a Buddha Body that had never appeared in this world. It was also known as the Invincible Vajra Body.

As for what he had just said, it was just a cover.

However, when this law was enforced, lightning almost fell. It could be seen that Han Fei seemed to have embarked on an invincible path that led to an unknown destination.

Han Fei actually couldn't kill Chu Kuangren. However, it was only because of the descent of the law that Han Fei could use the power of the law to kill him.

Now, Chu Nanfeng was enraged and attacked Han Fei.

However, to everyone's surprise, a figure with messy hair blocked his path.

The person chuckled. "Are big clans that petty? You had agreed on a life-and-death battle. As an explorer, you want to bully a junior?"

"Ren! Tian! Fei?"

"Hoop!"

The big clans, the seven sects, and even everyone watching from afar gathered around. At that moment, their expressions changed drastically. This lunatic has returned?

Han Fei turned his head in surprise. He was somewhat surprised. Ren Tianfei once said that he would meet him in the Thousand Star City.

But today was clearly not the right time for them to meet!

All the famous figures in the Thousand Star City were gathered at the Heavenly Sword Sect. Are you here to court death?

Mu Tianfang's expression changed. "Ren Tianfei, you actually dare to come out?"

Someone from the Yang family flew across the sky with a huge ax in hand. "Lunatic Ren, now that you have taken the initiative to appear, there's no way you can escape."

Someone shouted coldly, "Everyone, retreat and return to the Heavenly Sword Sect."

"Great! So the Thug Academy is in cahoots with Ren Tianfei. No wonder... No wonder..."

Luo Xiaobai and the others looked at each other. This wasn't their first time hearing the name Ren Tianfei.

When Old Bai talked to them, he had said that three people had been to the Immortal Palace. One was the Patriarch of the Thug Academy, one was Han Guanshu, and the other was Ren Tianfei.

It was said that Ren Tianfei had stolen the Sea Quelling Painting from the Immortal Palace.

At this moment, Luo Xiaobai and the others couldn't help but wonder if there was a connection between the three of them.

However, no matter how they thought about it, they felt that something was amiss. These were people from three completely different eras! Why were they gathered together because of the Heavenly Palace?

"Hehehe..."

Ren Tianfei looked into the void. "Tianjian, I'm just a clone. Just stay in the Sword Pavilion!"

When everyone heard that this was only Ren Tianfei's clone, they were shocked. This guy could easily withstand a strike from Chu Nanfeng. How could it only be a clone?

However, Han Fei was somewhat surprised. Why did this guy look like a corpse?

Yes. After repeated confirmation, Han Fei was certain that this was definitely a corpse. Ren Tianfei had refined a puppet clone. Perhaps he had only given a portion of his soul to the puppet.

However, if this clone was very precious, why would Ren Tianfei casually throw it out?

Suddenly, Han Fei heard a voice in his heart. "Act."

Han Fei asked calmly, "Senior, who are you?"

Ren Tianfei chuckled. "I didn't expect the Thug Academy to have a junior who has reached this level in body refinement. Kid, what body refinement technique do you cultivate?"

Han Fei's heart did a flip. Ren Tianfei probably wants to cut ties with me.

Therefore, he said bluntly, “108 Desolate God Body.”

Everyone present frowned slightly. Previously, some people had guessed that Han Fei had inherited Ren Tianfei’s body refinement legacy, but now, that didn’t seem right.

However, what was this 108 Desolate God Body? They had never heard of it before!

Ren Tianfei said leisurely, “You need to work harder. Kid, are you interested in being my disciple? I’ll teach you the Indestructible Body technique. How about that?”

Immediately, someone’s expression changed as he shouted, “Lunatic Ren, that’s the fiendish way.”

Ren Tianfei laughed and ignored the man. Instead, he glanced at Han Fei and said, “You just need to destroy all your meridians. You won’t die.”

The corners of Han Fei’s mouth twitched. “Uh... Then... Forget it.”

Ren Tianfei despised him. “Tch! Petty. There’s no construction without destruction. You haven’t figured it out yet!”

Chu Nanfeng said coldly, “Ren Tianfei, how dare you, a stray dog, make a scene here? Even if your true body comes, you won’t have a chance to run amok in the Thousand Star City!”

“Bah! No one in Chu Sect is worthy of lecturing on me. Who do you think you are? You’re just a peak-level explorer. You’re not qualified to talk to me until you become a Venerable...”

Chu Nanfeng sneered. “Do you think you can escape?”

“Hahaha!”

Ren Tianfei laughed. “When did I say I was leaving?”

Ren Tianfei looked around disdainfully. “Don’t you want to see the trump card of the Thug Academy? I’m the trump card. I made a deal with the Thug Academy. As long as the people of the Thug Academy are in the Thousand Star City, if they’re treated unfairly... Hmph, just wait for my revenge!”

Han Fei sweated. This again. Old Han was standing behind him, threatening the big clans of the Thousand Star City.

Now, Ren Tianfei was standing behind the Thug Academy and threatening the big clans too.

However, Han Fei immediately realized that this method worked every time!

It seemed that Ren Tianfei was definitely not weak. It was very likely that he was also a Venerable.

However, when a Venerable went crazy, who wouldn’t be afraid? Who would dare to attack the Thug Academy without any scruples?

Even if it was a large clan like the Chu Sect, would they really dare to ignore Ren Tianfei’s words and attack the Thug Academy, much less those who didn’t have any Venerable at home?

At this moment, Luo Xiaobai and the others were stunned. Another Venerable-level powerhouse was standing behind the Thug Academy?

“Haha!”

Suddenly, Han Fei laughed and said, “Thank you, Senior.”

Then Han Fei walked out of the Sword Essence Seal, looked at Chu Nanfeng, and said leisurely, “Well! Don’t you want to see the trump card of the Thug Academy? Isn’t your Chu Sect arrogant? If you have what it takes, continue to be arrogant!”

Chu Nanfeng’s expression was ugly. He realized that Ren Tianfei didn’t have any aura of a living person on him. Immediately, he confirmed that it was indeed a clone. If Ren Tianfei’s true body didn’t come, what was the point of killing a clone?

At the same time, his heart sank. Has even Ren Tianfei’s clone reached the level of an advanced explorer? Then has his true body returned to the Venerable realm?

This matter needed to be taken seriously.

Han Fei glanced around. “Now, I, Han Fei, have already become a law enforcer. If anyone wants to call for trouble, I’ll be waiting. Like I said, I’ll kill whoever comes. If there’s one, I’ll kill one. If there’s a pair, I’ll kill a pair. In addition, the Chu Sect’d better keep its promise. In the coming half a year, get out of my sight... Heh, if your Chu Sect is shameless, the previous bet can be voided.”

“Gulp!”

Many people from ordinary families swallowed their saliva. They certainly dared not to mess with Han Fei now! If Ren Tianfei didn’t show up, who would dare to touch the Thug Academy?

Someone said to each other, “It’s not easy this time. If the Thug Academy really joins forces with Ren Tianfei, I’m afraid these lunatics will do anything...”

Someone frowned. “The key is Han Fei. What kind of law is his? Did he use the power of the law to kill Chu Kuangren, or does he really have such strength after enforcing the law?”

Someone said decisively, “It must be the power of the law. It might seem like a huge leap for a Hidden Fisher to break through to become a Law Enforcer, but he couldn’t kill Chu Kuangren before. The law must have descended, and he took the opportunity to win.”

In the distance, many Hidden Fishers sighed.

“I still can’t believe it. Lunatic Chu died just like that?”

Someone smiled bitterly. “He’s already dead. His five viscera have shattered and turned into mush. How can he still be alive?”

At this moment, Ren Tianfei said, “Does anyone want me to stay today? If not, I’m leaving. Remember, I, Ren Tianfei, dare to barge into the Thousand Star City twice. I don’t mind doing it a third time. Anyone who wants to make a move should consider their strength first.”

Chapter 1028: Premarital Talk

Since they knew that Ren Tianfei was only a clone, no one wanted to attack him.

Clearly, everyone knew that it was meaningless to attack a clone. Furthermore, this was an Explorer's clone after all.

The Venerable from the Heavenly Sword Sect didn't attack. Even if Chu Nanfeng and Mu Tianfang attacked this clone together, they would probably be injured.

Furthermore, this was the territory of the Heavenly Sword Sect.

If Ren Tianfei picked a crowded place to fight, it wasn't something the Heavenly Sword Sect wanted to see.

Ren Tianfei didn't say anything to Han Fei, but when he left, a voice appeared in Han Fei's heart.

"First the Sky Meditation Garden, then the Ideal Palace, and finally the Monument of Gods."

Han Fei's expression remained unchanged. Old B*stard Ren had placed the Monument of Gods at the end. Clearly, this Monument of Gods was the way to the Central Temple.

As for the Sky Meditation Garden and the Ideal Palace, what were they? Han Fei planned to go there directly after Tang Ge's wedding. He would leave Jiuyin Ling and Li Luoluo at the Thug Academy.

Mu Tianfang saw that the war was settled and the crisis of the Thug Academy had been resolved. It was time for the wedding to continue.

Mu Tianfang: "Everyone, please return to the arena and continue watching."

Mu Tianfang gave Han Fei a deep look. He knew that the Thug Academy wouldn't be so rash as to send Han Fei and the others here and leave them alone.

However, he never expected that the Thug Academy would cooperate with Ren Tianfei. This was beyond everyone's expectations.

Ren Tianfei was a real lunatic! No one knew where he came from, nor did anyone know how he rose to power. No one noticed where he transcended the Heavenly Tribulation.

In any case, the first time Ren Tianfei appeared was when he attacked the Thousand Star City alone. For some reason, he directly attacked the big clans.

Back then, Ren Tianfei slaughtered more than 30 explorers bare-handed. He even killed a Venerable.

The second time was when Ren Tianfei entered the Heavenly Palace and stole the Sea Quelling Painting.

It was also that time when the Venerables of the Thousand Star City attacked him together and defeated him. That time, a Venerable was killed by Ren Tianfei too.

They had thought that even if Ren Tianfei hadn't died that time, it was impossible for him to rise again.

But who knew? This time, Ren Tianfei's appearance made everyone nervous. This fellow seemed to only target big clans. Without any reason, he directly attacked the big clans. How could the big clans not be afraid?

As expected!

Although many people stayed behind to attend the ceremony, some Hidden Fishers bade farewell and left. They had probably gone back to report the news.

It was supposed to be afternoon when the guests all arrived. After the incident at the Thug Academy, the Heavenly Sword Sect had specially set up seats for the Thug Academy.

However, Han Fei wasn't among them. After saying a few words to Luo Xiaobai, he ran to Tang Ge and entered the inner sect of the Heavenly Sword Sect with him.

Along the way, all the disciples of the Heavenly Sword Sect looked at Han Fei with strange expressions.

Behind him was the girl who had been robbed by Han Fei. At this moment, she stole a few glances at Han Fei and thought: How did this guy grow so fast?

In just a few years, he had grown to a powerhouse who could kill a peak-level law enforcer!

After a moment.

Han Fei came to Tang Ge's residence. At this moment, a group of Tang Ge's fellow disciples were gathered here.

However, it was the Heavenly Sword Sect! A group of sword-wielding fellows were usually rather old-fashioned and calm. For example, Nameless.

At this moment, Tang Ge entered.

Someone said, "Tang Ge, I think you can put away your halberd. Why don't you wield your sword?"

Someone analyzed, "Remember to be handsome and have ten thousand swords follow you when you head out at night. That way, you will have an imposing aura."

Someone agreed. "Your clothes have to be white. White looks good."

Someone shook his head. "Is white appropriate? It has to be black. It looks imposing."

"Puff!"

Everyone was talking. Suddenly, they heard laughter at the door and turned around, only to see Han Fei laughing.

Tang Ge was like a log. His fellow disciples were there, some holding swords, some holding clothes. These clothes were either black or white, and one disciple was even holding a green set of clothes.

Looking at Han Fei, Tang Ge was embarrassed. "This... This is quite troublesome."

The disciples looked at Han Fei strangely. How could Han Fei enter the inner sect?

Han Fei said leisurely, "It's a big wedding! Big wedding, brothers! Why are these clothes all black, white, yellow, or green? Of course it should be red!"

"Huh?"

Instantly, these fellow disciples were surprised and wore looks of astonishment. They thought to themselves, We sword cultivators are very handsome, but we are all in white or black. How can we wear red?

Immediately, someone disagreed. "That's not right. How can a man wear red?"

"Yes, yes, yes. That's for women."

Han Fei was speechless. "Make way. It's already the wedding, but you haven't even prepared the clothes?"

Someone was speechless. "In any case, red doesn't look good. It's ugly."

Tang Ge also frowned. Red is not that good, right?"

Han Fei scoffed. "You haven't felt the charm of red! Come, come, let me, the number one refiner of the Scattered Stars Island, make a set of clothes for Tang Ge."

Someone was surprised. "You want to do it now?"

The corners of Han Fei's mouth curled up. Whoosh! A pile of cloth appeared.

Hum!

The spiritual energy flames erupted as golden threads spread out in a swath of crimson. As they swam across the red robe, a robe took form.

Under everyone's dumbfounded gazes, the golden threads transformed into a dragon. Golden and red intertwined as a coiling dragon red robe appeared.

In addition to the dragon robe, there was also a phoenix robe, which was embroidered with a golden phoenix...

The girl behind Han Fei said in shock, "Wow! This is even better than the clothes of the Linglong Tower."

Han Fei curled his lips and said, "The essence of clothes lies in creativity. This robe represents prosperity brought by the dragon and the phoenix. It's very auspicious."

The girl said in surprise, "Why are they all ordinary gold? Apart from the red silk, these clothes are only low-quality spiritual weapons, right?"

Han Fei couldn't help but laugh. "Miss, the clothes are for a wedding! Not for a fight. You can only wear them once."

After that, Han Fei casually refined a pile of jewelry and handed it to the girl. "Take them. Tell Mu Ling to wear them. She'll definitely look gorgeous."

With that, Han Fei said, "Everyone, allow me to have a private chat with Tang Ge."

Everyone was still shocked by the dragon-phoenix robes. Could clothes be made this way?

But soon they left one after another. The guy who had said that red didn't look good had already thrown away the clothes in his hand.

After a moment.

Inside the soundproof formation.

Han Fei said, "Although I know that a Venerable should be able to hear us, I don't think he's eavesdropping, right?"

Tang Ge laughed. "Of course not."

Tang Ge hurriedly said, "Are you alright? Don't be rash in the future. You can't underestimate the Sun Essence Energy! This time, you've become a law enforcer, but you have to remember one thing. Chu Kuangren isn't the strongest person in this generation. Apart from him, there's another person in Chu Sect who's ranked third on their generation's Prodigy Roll. He's very strong."

Han Fei nodded. "Who?"

Tang Ge said with a serious expression, "Chu Qingyan, the pride of the Chu family. It's said that she's even more talented than Chu Kuangren."

Han Fei said in surprise, "Female?"

Tang Ge nodded. "Don't underestimate her. There will always be some outstanding ones in every generation. None of the top three are simple."

Han Fei nodded. "Got it. I'll take note. Don't worry about that for now. What I want to tell you is that after your wedding, no matter what happens at the Thug Academy, don't get involved."

Tang Ge's expression changed. "No, although the Thug Academy is temporarily safe because of the balance, once this balance is broken..."

Han Fei said, "When the balance is broken, what can you help with? Old Han wants you to marry Mu Ling because he wants you to be in an absolutely safe environment to cultivate and grow. Even if you want to help, you have to at least have the strength of an explorer, right? Calm down and transcend the Explorer's Heavenly Tribulation. We'll talk about the rest later."

Tang Ge frowned. "What about you? Now that you're in the Thousand Star City, if you want to improve your strength, you can only try the Thousand Star Proving Ground and the Three Holy Lands. The Three Holy Lands are mysterious, and they are mainly places to temper the soul. The Thousand Star Proving Ground is quite difficult to pass. Many of the secret realms in the Star River have been mined, and the rest are not easy to mine. I'm afraid the Star Beads of your Thug Academy aren't enough for your long-term cultivation, right?"

Han Fei patted Tang Ge on the shoulder and said, "Don't worry. I'll leave the Thousand Star City when I become a peak-level law enforcer."

Tang Ge's expression changed. "Foster father found a place for you to break through?"

Han Fei thought for a moment and nodded slightly. "Sort of! Therefore, I might not stay in the Thousand Star City for long. Few people in the Law Enforcer Realm can threaten me. As long as nothing happens to the Thug Academy during this period of time, I'll have a way out!"

...

Han Fei and Tang Ge were chatting.

And a hundred kilometers away, deep underground, an elder narrowed his eyes slightly and muttered, "Could it be... I made a mistake back then? The one who caused the heavenly change was Han Fei? It looks like Han Guanshu paved a path for his son! What a... good plan."

Chapter 1029: Dazzling Fireworks

Night!

In the sky above the Heavenly Sword Sect, rays of light danced as sword shadows flashed and silver light shone. Lanterns and decorations were everywhere, and the training arena was crowded and clamorous.

Mu Tianfang appeared in midair. He was dressed in azure robes and had a smile on his face.

"Everyone, today is a joyous day for the Sword Sect. Thank you for coming. The Heavenly Sword Sect has existed for ten thousand years and upholds the Dao of the Sword. Those who enter this sect have noble hearts. Today, my beloved disciple and my beloved daughter will fuse the Dao and dual cultivate. In the future, I hope the two of you can support each other and climb high to explore the Great Dao together."

Pa! Pa! Pa!

"Congratulations, Sect Master Mu."

"Sect Master Mu's beloved disciple and daughter are the envy of everyone."

"Congratulations, Sect Master Mu!"

...

At the Thug Academy, Yi Xinyan sat next to Zhang Xuanyu. "Darling, how romantic it is!"

Zhang Xuanyu's expression changed. "Have you forgotten how you should call me?"

Yi Xinyan stuck out her tongue. "Senior Brother."

Zhang Xuanyu said, "Why isn't Feifei out yet? It's not his wedding. Why is he so busy?"

Le Renkuang was munching on his sea spiritual melon seeds. "It's his brother's wedding! Who knows what he's doing?"

Luo Xiaobai and Jiuyin Ling looked at each other and said, "Based on Han Fei's personality, he must be doing something..."

Jiuyin Ling pursed her lips and waited curiously. She didn't know Tang Ge, but she was curious. Of course, she also wanted to see the fireworks Han Fei made... If only Han Fei could show them to her often!

Clang~

Clang~

Clang!

Three consecutive gongs shook the world.

Hiu! Hiu! Hiu!

Tens of thousands of swords floated in the air, forming a sword tide that stacked up. A sword hum erupted in the sky like the cry of a sparrow.

A leisurely melody slowly rose, ethereal like the sound of nature.

“Hoop!”

The phantom of a white dragon appeared in the distant sky. Han Fei stood proudly above the phantom, wearing a gold-inlaid red robe with a dazzling golden dragon on it.

The moment Tang Ge came out, Han Fei appeared in the camp of the Thug Academy.

Zhang Xuanyu rolled his eyes. “If you hadn’t come back, I would have thought you were going to be the groom.”

Luo Xiaobai glanced at Han Fei. “You’ve become a law enforcer. When are we going to the Three Holy Lands?”

Han Fei said, “Tomorrow, man proposes, God disposes. Since I’ve become a law enforcer in advance, we’ll go to the three Holy Lands tomorrow.”

Luo Xiaobai nodded. “Alright!”

Li Luoluo: “Great!”

Han Fei said in surprise, “You’re not staying at the Thug Academy?”

Li Luoluo widened her eyes and said, “Of course I won’t. If you go, I’ll definitely go too! I want to experience what the three Holy Lands look like.”

Han Fei looked at Jiuyin Ling, who blinked and pursed her lips. “Then should I stay and teach them?”

Yi Xiyao immediately jumped for joy. “Great!”

Han Fei snapped, “Shut up! Nine Tails is also staying at the Thug Academy.”

Instantly, Gu Qi, Xing Yue, and the others looked at Yi Xiyao, wishing they could throw her out. Who told you to speak? With Nine Tails around, how can we have a good time?

At that moment, Jiuyin Ling’s eyes flashed as she looked into the distance.

Everyone hurriedly looked over and saw that Mu Ling had come with Tang Ge.

Mu Ling was an array master. At this time, she was wearing a phoenix robe and stepping on the void as arrays appeared one after another.

Beside Mu Ling were three female disciples of the Heavenly Sword Sect. They were all manipulators. At that moment, flowers bloomed in midair and surrounded Mu Ling.

In the sky, pink petals fell, making Mu Ling look like a fairy that had walked out of a sea of flowers.

Mu Tianfang couldn't help but nod. Not bad, not bad. I wonder who made these clothes? They look pretty good.

Tang Ge and the others all looked at Han Fei. The clothes were so strange that they were definitely made by Han Fei.

Subconsciously, Jiuyin Ling crossed her arms in front of her chest. "How beautiful."

Yi Xinyan shouted, "Darling, I want it too. I want it too. Senior Brother Han Fei, I want this dress too..."

Zhang Xuanyu snapped, "Shut up. You're only twelve."

Yi Xiyun scoffed. "So what? At twelve, I'm already an adult."

Zhang Xuanyu covered her mouth. "What are you shouting for? Watch the ceremony."

At this moment, Tang Ge was riding on a dragon and swords while Mu Ling was surrounded by countless petals. Everyone present marveled.

When the two of them landed, they looked at each other. Tang Ge looked a little shy, and Mu Ling smiled. At this moment, they could only see each other.

"Cough, cough!"

Mu Tianfang coughed slightly. Tang Ge immediately reacted and bowed. "Tang Ge greets Master."

"Huh?"

Han Fei said to him, "Master? Call him father."

Tang Ge's face flushed red as he said nervously, "Tang Ge greets... Father."

"Good."

Mu Ling's lips curled up slightly. "Ling'er greets Father."

Mu Tianfang laughed and said, "Good, good. Tang Ge, the Dao merge and dual cultivation are important in life. Don't let me down."

Tang Ge's expression turned serious. "Yes, I will treat Ling'er well in this life. I won't abandon her even in the face of death."

Mu Ling's eyes were filled with tears. She was so happy!

Han Fei looked at the stage. It was noisy and lively. Mu Tianfang gave gifts, Tang Ge and Mu Ling toasted each other, and the two of them held hands to greet everyone.

Amidst the din, Han Fei couldn't help but fantasize. This is Tang Ge's path. I still have a long path to go!

He would go to the Water-Wood World and take control of the Heavenly Palace... as well as the distant Infinity Ocean, meet the merfolk, and rebuild the Heavenly Desolate City...

For a moment, Han Fei sighed. The way ahead is so long without ending, yet high and low I'll search with my will unbending..

Jiuyin Ling silently looked at Han Fei and saw that he was in a daze. She lowered her eyes slightly. Is he thinking about that woman?

Zhang Xuanyu kept pouring wine into his mouth with a smile. Interesting! This dual cultivation seems to be good!

Yi Xinyan giggled and stole glances at Zhang Xuanyu from time to time, thinking, "The man my parents found for me isn't bad. He's really good-looking."

As for Luo Xiaobai, her expression remained indifferent, as though she had never thought of the matter of dual cultivation.

Le Renkuang was stuffing himself.

In fact, the etiquette here was only slightly different. It was actually quite simple for Han Fei. It was just a public announcement that the two would start a dual cultivation. Then, the guests would wish them well.

Of course, the wedding was also meant to protect Tang Ge. Tang Ge was the son-in-law of Mu Tianfang. Who would dare mess with him?

Han Fei was speechless. "Why did these people give gifts ahead of time? There aren't any gifts left."

Han Fei jumped out with a whoosh and said loudly, "I, Han Fei, have come to celebrate Tang Ge and Mu Ling's dual cultivation. I have a huge gift for you."

Mu Tianfang was exchanging pleasantries with someone. Tang Ge and Mu Ling were surrounded by a group of fellow disciples.

Han Fei's sudden appearance stunned everyone. Is this the gift-giving segment? I don't think so.

Furthermore, Han Fei said that he would give a huge gift.

What gift could be said to be "huge"? Even Mu Tianfang couldn't help but be taken aback. From the looks of it, this gift is very valuable!

After what happened in the afternoon, although Han Fei was a genius, the Thug Academy wasn't popular. Therefore, although some people were curious about Han Fei's so-called gift, not many people were willing to pay attention to him.

Tang Ge took Mu Ling's hand and walked out of the crowd. "Han Fei, it's already enough. Foster Father has already given me and Ling'er a Sea Quelling Bizarre Treasure."

Han Fei smiled. "My gift is one of a kind."

However, a girl sneered. It was Mo Feiyan. She said in disbelief, "Unique? Are you bragging? I want to see what kind of gift can be called one of a kind?"

Yang Deyu mumbled, "The wine cup in my hand is also one of a kind."

"Hey! What gift? Take a look."

Han Fei turned his head and saw a young man holding a fruit in his hand with a frivolous look.

Swish!

1314 cylinders landed on the training arena. There was one every few meters and they were spread over thousands of meters.

Instantly, someone scoffed. "What's this? It's not even a spiritual weapon."

"Heh! Han Fei, is this your gift for your brother's wedding?"

Someone was speechless. "What's this? You might as well grab some rocks and put them on."

Someone was puzzled. "Is this a formation? It doesn't look like a formation!"

Mu Ling looked at Tang Ge in puzzlement. "Your brother is probably going to cause trouble again? 1314. The meaning is not bad."

Tang Ge was also curious. What was Han Fei doing?

However, Luo Xiaobai and Jiuyin Ling gasped at the same time. How many fireworks did Han Fei get? More than a thousand?

Han Fei grinned. "Look carefully. This is the only time you can see this in your lives. Everyone, rub your eyes and open them wide. Look clearly."

With that said, Han Fei stomped his foot and the fireworks were ignited by the spiritual energy flames one after another, producing sizzling sounds like rows of sparks.

The crowd was still puzzled. What was this?

Zhang Xuanyu wondered, "What's this? Even we haven't seen it before."

As Le Renkuang stuffed the dried fish into his mouth, he said, "I haven't seen it before. But I'll see it soon."

Li Luoluo asked curiously, "What's he up to this time?"

Upon hearing Han Fei's words, Xing Yue and the others stared at the burning fuse with widened eyes.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Just as everyone was staring at the fuse, rows of flames instantly shot into the sky.

Anything would look spectacular once there were too many of them. Unfortunately, this was the Heavenly Sword Sect. Usually, there were ten thousand swords hanging in the sky. Therefore, this scene didn't give anyone a shock...

Li Xuan couldn't help but chuckle. "That's it?"

However, just as he said that, a crackling sound came from the sky.

Everyone saw that every flame in the sky exploded into hundreds of colorful points of light.

And that was just one fireball exploding. At that moment, there were thousands of them that were constantly spewing out flames.

Instantly, the sky above the Heavenly Sword Sect seemed to be filled with stars of all colors.

"Wow!"

Finally, someone couldn't help but cry out.

For a moment, Mo Feiyan, Li Xuan, and the others were speechless as if they had eaten a fly. In terms of congratulations, this method was indeed shocking.

Countless women looked up in amazement, fantasizing about something.

Li Luoluo said in shock, "Heavens, there's such a wonderful thing in the Thug Academy? Why didn't I know about it?"

Mo Yuyan, who had mocked Han Fei just now, widened her eyes. How can there be such a beautiful thing in this world?

Mu Ling couldn't help but open her mouth. "So... so beautiful."

Tang Ge grabbed his head with one hand and laughed foolishly. "Haha, haha..."

At this time, Yi Xiyuan shouted, "Look, there are words. There are words."

Everyone hurriedly blinked, only to see that some of the fireworks had turned into words.

It read:

A couple for one day, a hundred lives of marriage.

A decade makes an encounter, while a century makes a couple.

Tang Ge and Mu Ling.

Will grow old together.

Until the end of time...

Chapter 1030: Demon King Contract

Thug Academy.

Last night, after attending Han Fei's wedding, Han Fei knew that he needed to draw a clear line with Tang Ge for the time being.

Before leaving, Han Fei sent a voice transmission to Mu Tianfang to express his intentions. Mu Tianfang also knew the pros and cons. Han Fei's identity was very special. After obtaining the Sea Quelling Painting, he had the opportunity to become a king.

However, it was precisely because Han Fei had obtained the Sea Quelling Painting and was a member of the Thug Academy that he was destined to be in the limelight.

Did they really think that the big clans would just let it go? No, if one plan didn't work, there would naturally be two.

Since they couldn't openly deal with Han Fei and the others, there were naturally other reasonable ways to deal with them. For example, Han Fei had already become a law enforcer. Even Mu Tianfang didn't expect Han Fei to choose this opportunity...

At this moment.

On the mountain behind the school, Luo Xiaobai frowned and said, "Yesterday, you didn't have to kill Chu Kuangren. The time to become a law enforcer wasn't right."

Han Fei nodded. "I know. However, I have to use a powerful method to kill him and intimidate those big clans. Now that Chu Kuangren is dead, I'm afraid these people won't immediately arrange for others to cause trouble. After all, they don't know my real strength."

Luo Xiaobai said, "You exposed a lot of things yesterday. If I'm not mistaken, the major families are searching and asking about your Wild Divine Body and Yin-Yang Divine Eye."

Han Fei nodded. "Therefore, we have to leave quickly and try our best to consolidate our strength in the Three Holy Lands. Since I've become a law enforcer, there will be more trouble in the future. In the Three Holy Lands, you have to become law enforcers as well."

Luo Xiaobai nodded. "Are we really leaving the school to Jiuyin Ling?"

"Give it to her. Now, anything in the world can become a way for her to grow. Going to the Three Holy Lands isn't her path."

Luo Xiaobai said indifferently, "The Sky Meditation Garden is fine, but entering the Ideal Palace will probably be troublesome. There are all kinds of people there. The big clans will most likely attack us in the Ideal Palace."

Han Fei grinned and said, "Then you can become law enforcers in the Sky Meditation Garden. I'll go to the Ideal Palace first."

Ever since Han Fei embarked on the path of invincibility, he no longer had any hesitation. The path was here. He just needed to cross it. His strength gave Han Fei the confidence to speak.

Han Fei said, "Go inform Zhang Xuanyu and the others. Wait for me for a moment."

"OK!"

After Luo Xiaobai left, Han Fei observed his data. He was planning how to become a peak-level law enforcer from a junior law enforcer.

Information appeared in his mind.

Owner: Han Fei

Level: 60 (Junior Law Enforcer)

Spiritual Energy: 4,325,681 (4,4852)

Spiritual Power: 9999/9999

Perception: 500 miles

Enforced Law: Invincible Vajra

Strength: 3 Waves

First spiritual heritage: Low-quality, Level Seven

Second spiritual heritage: Unawakened

First spiritual beast: Twin Yin-Yang Spirit Swallowing Fish (Level 52)

Second spiritual beast: Unawakened

<Main Art> Divine Manipulation Technique, Volume Five of Void Fishing (Heaven-Level, Divine-Quality)

...

Due to the bad timing of his breakthrough yesterday and the intense battle, Han Fei was stuck at level 60. However, he felt that he could advance at any time.

Just as he had expected, there were no changes to his spiritual power. It was because it had increased too much after he consumed the Origins Water. He still needed some time to digest it.

His Invincible Vajra Body didn't mean that it was really invincible. There were many law enforcers who had their laws broken. In this world, there was no such thing as absolute invincibility.

However, it would be very difficult for law enforcers to break Han Fei's Invincible Vajra Body.

As for strength, Han Fei had increased it by about one wave.

However, the augmentation power of the Devil Change became seven times. It was lower than before.

However, even so, when he unleashed his secret method, his strength exceeded 20 waves. This was already comparable to the Green Touring Flood Dragon he had encountered in the underground city.

Of course, if the Green Touring Flood Dragon also had a mystic technique, he was still far inferior.

It couldn't be said that Han Fei's current strength was very strong. At the level of law enforcers, the difference in strength was too great.

In fact, as far as yesterday's Chu Kuangren was concerned, his strength far exceeded Han Fei's.

The reasons why Han Fei could win were the Agility of Wind, the Punishment Saber, and the Indestructible Body. Although Chu Kuangren was also a Body Refiner, he was clearly weaker than him.

He couldn't help but sigh. The old b*stard Ren Tianfei's Indestructible Body was really powerful! At least up to now, he had never seen a body-tempering technique stronger than the Indestructible Body.

Of course, without the Punishing Saber, Han Fei would have been defeated.

Apart from Cao Qiu's War God bloodline, that fellow was famous for its defense. The ten-fold defense of the Cloud Dolphin was no joke.

Furthermore, yesterday, Chu Kuangren's spiritual beast made Han Fei realize that there were even more powerful spiritual beasts in this world. If there were no accidents, the one that appeared yesterday should be a Kylin, a true legendary creature.

Apart from strength, the second spiritual heritage and the second spiritual beast probably wouldn't be able to be awakened before he obtained the other half drop of Origins Water.

After all, the appearance of the second spiritual heritage was because of the Origins Water. How could it be awakened if the Origins Water was incomplete?

As for the sixth level of the Void Fishing, there was no way to deduce it in Thousand Star City. This would have to wait until he went to the Water-Wood World. Otherwise, with everyone's attention on him, he couldn't find the time or place to deduce it.

He remembered that he had almost been discovered by Xue Shenqi when he was doing the divination on the fifth level. Back then, they were 300,000 kilometers away from the Scattered Stars Island.

As for the seventh level, he had to think of a way to get it from the Zhang family. But how? When?

Han Fei didn't know either.

This needed an opportunity, an opportunity for him to suppress that thing of the Zhang family. Now, there was no chance at all.

"Heh! I can only continue deducing."

Han Fei sat cross-legged.

Now, the only way to directly increase his strength was to deduce Devil Change and push it to the Venerable realm.

However, after reaching the Venerable realm, the Demon Purification Pot was probably helpless. It was probably at its limit.

In such a situation, he needed to see if he could continue strengthening the Demon Purification Pot after obtaining the third vine...

"Deduce."

A hundred million points of spiritual energy were rapidly consumed.

A moment later, information appeared in Han Fei's eyes.

Demon King Contract (Venerable-level, Low-quality)

Note: The descending will of the Black Turtle Demon King. It uses a huge amount of energy as a sacrifice to summon the Demon Body Overlord. For a short period of time, the user's combat strength will increase several times according to his specific realm.

Current improvement: 10 times

Disadvantage 1: The stronger one is, the more energy is expended. Once the energy is expended too much, it will overdraw one's potential.

Disadvantage 2: If it's often used, it may produce a mental demon barrier.

Disadvantage 3: Users tend to be demonized

Deduced Art: N/A

Note: You have reached the Demon Purification Pot's current limit. If you deduce again, it will involve the profound mysteries of the world and damage the Demon Purification Pot.

Upon seeing this message, Han Fei's expression changed slightly. The descending will of the Demon King? Could it be that there really was such a king among demons?

Furthermore, being called a Demon King was clearly problematic.

He had just chosen the law of Invulnerable Vajra, so he should be considered a Buddhist, right? Although there was no Buddha in this world, it seemed to be the opposite of the Demon King contract.

The user is easily demonized and may have a mental demon barrier? It seems that the further one progresses in this mystic technique, the greater the side effects! Forget it. Unless it's absolutely necessary, I won't use this. In theory, the Devil Change is enough. As long as I quickly break through to level 61, my strength should still increase.

"Unfortunately, the effect of the Spirit Awakening Fluid is already very small. It can only be used to nurture Little Fatty and Little Gold. After all, they haven't become law enforcers."

Han Fei reigned in his thoughts.

If he had the chance to see Ren Tianfei again, he would have to ask how to continue cultivating the Indestructible Body in the future. The path of body refinement was too difficult. Although the Indestructible Body could be deduced, it was already extremely difficult to cultivate. If he were to deduce again, it would be a problem if he could continue cultivating... He had to communicate with Ren Tianfei well and not blindly deduce.

After organizing his thoughts, Han Fei got up and teleported to the Cube's library.

Today, Le Renkuang didn't even cook. The other people gathered here, waiting to set off for the Three Holy Lands.

After three months of cultivation, the physiques of Su Daji and the others were almost equally strong. Other than Su Daji, the others were almost unable to suppress their strength and were about to break through to become advanced fishing masters.

"Let's set off?"

Han Fei said, "Wait a minute."

The Cube's library began to spin rapidly. A moment later, it returned to its original form. Han Fei pressed his palm on one side and entered from the teleportation array.

After some thought, Han Fei threw more than 2,000 combat techniques into it. Then, he placed more than ten Star Beads and maps of the fishing master level inside.

After finishing these, Han Fei came out and messed up the Cube again.

Han Fei said, "Xing Yue."

"Yes, Senior Brother."

Han Fei looked at the Cube and said, "The body refinement stage has come to an end for now. Each of you, go to the Cube to find no more than five combat skills. After you're done cultivating, you shall begin actual combat. Teacher Jiuyin will watch you. If you dare to slack off, heh heh..."

The appearance of Nine Tails made Xingyue and company's scalps tingle.

Han Fei kicked Nine Tails and said, "Watch these guys here during this period of time. Whoever is naughty and doesn't cultivate seriously will be whipped."

Han Fei looked at Yi Xiyan and Su Daji when he spoke.

Yi Xiyan pouted and thought, "I won't mess around."

As for Su Daiji, she ran to Han Fei and reached out her hand. It seemed that she realized that Han Fei might be gone for a long time, so she wanted to get a new toy from him.

With a black face, Han Fei threw a sixth-order Cube over. "You can only play it when you're free."

After that, Han Fei looked at Jiuyin Ling. "When they can work as a team and can be said to have few opponents of the same level, set up an arena outside the Thug Academy. Anyone who can defeat them will be rewarded with five ultra-quality spiritual weapons and fifty catties of Spirit Awakening Fluid."

Jiuyin Ling thought for a moment and nodded slightly. "Be careful."

Han Fei nodded and looked at Xing Yue and the others. "Don't slack off. We might be back at any moment."

"Yes, Senior Brother."
