Chapter 1192: Who Can Withstand A Single Finger of Mine?

Han Fei looked calm. He had already judged the strength of the so-called Yu Wangyou. He was good at spear technique and had a certain amount of armor-piercing power. However, he didn't master the time law, so he wasn't very strong.

If they were at the same level, this person would not be a match for Zhang Xuanyu.

Of course, this was not the time to speculate.

No matter how Han Fei evaluated him, this person's true combat power was still very strong.

On the Water-Wood World's side, someone frowned. "Dachui's defense power is so strong. Yu Wangxue might not be able to defeat him."

A bug clamored, "Dachui, as long as your strength is big enough, anything can be smashed through."

On the sea demons' side, someone laughed contemptuously. "The Insect race is the Insect race. Their brains are never enough. Even if they have strength, they should be able to use it. With such powerful momentum, they think they are practicing a locking technique?"

Yu Wangyou grinned and chuckled in a low voice. "How dare you be so arrogant with such little strength?"

His spear stabbed into the sky, and a tide rose around him. Under the huge wave, it seemed as if a long spear of water condensed in the sea and pierced the sky.

However, in Han Fei's eyes, this was just a kind of array. This sea demon could use arrays?

Bang!

A terrifying collision and a violent explosion set off surging waves within a hundred kilometers, and water splashed all over the sky.

While the tide was roaring, Yu Wangyou stepped in the air, and a big black seal appeared on the spear in her hand. He thrust the spear out, and two spear shadows penetrated the wave and the void, attacking the soul.

"Pfft!"

One small hole after another exploded on Chong Dachui's body, and dark green blood was spraying out.

"Dachui~"

"Be careful."

Yu Wangyou appeared in front of Chong Dachui contemptuously. He waved his spear and turned it into a hundred-meter shadow in mid-air, directly piercing Chong Dachui through and smashing him to the sea surface.

“A*shole.”

“I’m going to eat him.”

“Damn you! Come and fight me if you’ve got what it takes!”

On the Sea Clan’s side, someone chuckled. “Yu Wangyou, may I fight in your place?”

As if not hearing him, Yu Wangyou shouted proudly, “Where are the Heavenly Talents of the Water-Wood World? Where is Han Fei? If you’re really scared, junior explorers will do.”

A member of the Sky Clan shouted in a low voice, “It doesn’t need a Heavenly Talent to deal with you! I’ll tear you apart with one claw.”

Someone shouted in a low voice, “Don’t be impulsive. This guy’s true combat power has reached the level of an Explorer. He’s provoking us just to consume our strength.”

Yu Wangyou grinned. “Let’s be honest. If we hadn’t heard that a Heavenly Talent appeared in the Water-Wood World, how could we have rushed all the way here from the Royal City?”

In the distance, a woman said lazily, “Tsk, if there is no one coming out in Water-Wood World, let’s kill them one by one! I heard that Han Fei fought a hundred alone. Why don’t I have a try too?”

The person who spoke was wearing a colorful dress and looked gorgeous.

Han Fei realized that this was not a Half-Mermaid, but a legitimate Mermaid.

Han Fei’s pupils were constricted. “There are mermaids in the Royal City?”

Yi Yuchen nodded slightly. “Yes, but there aren’t many of them. Do you want to fight them? They are here to seriously injure you before you transcend the heavenly tribulation. In fact, they won’t underestimate you at all.”

Han Fei’s lips curled. “Yes, why not? These people want to seriously injure me? They do underestimate me.”

On the Water-Wood World’s side, the various factions roared and wanted to fight.

Some insects dragged the remains of Chong Dachui, angry and agitated.

A bird shouted in a low voice, “The battle has already begun, but why aren’t there any top Heavenly Talents coming here?”

In the human camp, a middle-aged woman in a red battle suit and holding a longbow was about to step into the battlefield. “This battle is probably not small. The rear is preparing for war. Let me first...”

Before the woman finished speaking, a roar burst out in the sky, “I heard that there are top geniuses from the Sea Demon Royal City seeking a battle. How can I, Han Fei, not accept the challenge?”

Bang!

Under the public gaze, above the sea, nine dragons came out of the water, and Han Fei stood proudly at the top of the water dragon in front. Behind him, eight dragons followed, roaring and diving into the water as vividly as real dragons.

Han Fei, on the other hand, was shining with golden light. Facing the scorching sun, he looked like a god of war.

Yi Yuchen was lost for words. He had just asked Han Fei if he was going to fight, and this guy had already rushed out? The problem was, why did he have to be so dramatic?

Seeing Han Fei rushing over from the sea, the human beings, the powerhouses of the Sky Clan, and the Insect Clan at the forefront couldn't help but narrow their eyes. Is this guy Han Fei...

On the sea demons' side, when Han Fei appeared, the void trembled.

One after another, Dao Seeking powerhouses walked out of the void.

There was even an extremely huge Mantis Shrimp appearing from the bottom of the water. It was ten thousand meters long and had a shiny carapace. It appeared more than 800 kilometers away.

Hualala...

Han Fei narrowed his eyes, only to see waves rising above the sea.

A huge terrifying yellowish-red creature emerged from the bottom of the sea.

Its body was so huge that it was more than ten thousand meters long. Its front limbs were like axes, its claws were like silver spears, and its sixteen long limbs looked extremely heavy yet sharp. Its huge blade made Han Fei's scalp tingle.

Information popped up in his eyes.

< Name > Insect King

< Introduction > An insect grown up in an abnormal environment, incompatible with the traditional insect race. Every strong master who can grow into an insect king has extraordinary talent and extremely high intelligence. Because of the myriad of insects, it is impossible to judge this insect king's talents and combat skills.

< Level > 86

< Quality > Legendary

< Realm > Dao Entering

< Spiritual Energy >???

< Battle Techniques >???

< Collectible > Insect limbs, insect cores, insect eyes, insect carapace, insect origin

<Absorbable>

< Remarks > It's easy to produce an Insect Queen but hard to produce an Insect King.

Han Fei immediately took a breath. Of the 28 Venerables of the Insect Clan, there were 27 Insect Queens but only one Insect King. From this ratio, Han Fei knew how terrifying this thing was.

However, Han Fei was surprised to find that the Demon Purification Pot could now read the information of Venerable-level creatures. Although some of the information still couldn't be shown, at least he could see the level of this insect king!

86 levels. According to this level, wasn't it at the peak of the intermediate Venerable realm?

In an instant, Han Fei's nine water dragons were like nine jumping fish. Compared to the huge and ferocious insect king, they were not beautiful at all.

Han Fei was speechless. Wait, why is a Venerable here? Venerables are trump cards, aren't they? Now that you come out, who will dare to fight you?

However, the insect king twisted its head, and its two fly eyes-like eyes that were hundreds of meters long seemed to be looking at him.

Han Fei: "..."

The Insect King said, "I'll guard the sea. You, go kill them."

In fact, both the Sea Clan and the Water-Wood World were waiting for Han Fei.

Han Fei was the star of the show.

Therefore, as soon as Han Fei appeared, the people on both sides who should show up appeared one after another.

The insect king had expressed his thoughts clearly.

Since the other party had Venerables, he would show up too. However, the Insect King didn't know that his appearance accidentally ruined the image that Han Fei deliberately created.

Seeing the Insect King steal his thunder, he immediately thought of the terrifying image of the Sky Dissecting Finger.

Immediately, the Infinity Water fused with the Sacrificing Punch, turned into a finger in the air, and pointed at Yu Wangyou.

This finger contained all of Han Fei's energy and spiritual energy. It was so powerful that wherever the finger marks passed, the void was shattered inch by inch.

Han Fei shouted, "I heard that in the Royal City of the Sea Clan, there are countless Heavenly Talents. I wonder who can withstand a single finger of mine?"

As he spoke, Han Fei opened his mouth and swallowed. The four-sided energy and spiritual energy enveloped him, causing his body to flash with fluorescent light, which looked very scary.

However, most of the powerhouses were speechless. Who the hell did you learn this from? Why do you have to point your finger at your opponents?

More importantly, when you point your finger at a person, it's the power condensed from your finger. But why is your finger so huge and almost a thousand meters long? Who the heck do you want to kill?

Yu Wangyou was shocked by Han Fei's high-handedness.

However, when he saw the big finger that spanned thousands of meters, he couldn't help but be speechless. This big finger seems to be useless except for being big!

"Hahaha... Is this 'the' Han Fei who fought a hundred alone?"

Yu Wangyou laughed out loud, his face full of ridicule. "I've never seen anyone with such poor control of energy. How can such a person be my opponent?"

Even the creatures from the Water-Wood World were stunned.

An insect creature was speechless. "Such a big finger, it looks shocking but useless!"

A White-Headed Sea Hawk was lost for words. "Are you sure this person is Han Fei? Can this blow kill anyone?"

A human powerhouse shook his head. "In terms of energy and spiritual energy, this giant finger is indeed shocking. However, his control ability is too poor. This won't do! Can this Han Fei really kill a hundred people alone?"

Yu Wangyou shook her spear, which was sharp and green and left a big hole on Han Fei's big finger.

Yu Wangyou stood proudly. "It turns out that the so-called Heavenly Talent is just like this. In that case, die..."

Just as the momentum of Yu Wangyou was soaring and he was about to attack, Han Fei raised his finger and tapped Yu Wangyou's forehead.

Yu Wangyou: "???"

Suddenly, a peak-level Explorer frowned. Something is wrong with this big finger.

Behind the sea demons, the mermaid shouted, "Retreat."

Someone keenly noticed that in the huge finger mark, three meters in front of Yu Wangyou, a small finger suddenly condensed.

Yu Wangyou was shocked. Where did this little finger come from?

However, before he could think further, the little finger exploded.

Rumble!

The huge mushroom cloud and the big hole in the deep sea covered an area of more than 50 kilometers in the blink of an eye. The terrifying power of the explosion swept hundreds of kilometers around, raising a huge circular wave and a tsunami.

In such a violent explosion, Han Fei chuckled cruelly and stepped into the tide.

The self-destruction of the Infinity Water at such a close range would even injure Han Fei, let alone a genius from the Sea Clan's Royal City who couldn't even rank among the top ten!

In the tide of explosions, Han Fei even saw Yu Wangyou, who was dragging his broken shell, trying to escape despite his heavy injuries...

Shua!

Han Fei appeared beside Yu Wangyou, activated the Law of Gravity, and a huge hand in the void clenched.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

The big void hand kept slapping Yu Wangyou on the surface of the sea like slapping a fly. However, after only a few slaps, the conch, which had already been shattered, was reduced to dust.

When it was calm again, the Void Chain grabbed the dead fish-like Yu Wangyou and appeared in front of everyone.

Han Fei sneered.. "The so-called top Heavenly Talent from the Royal City is actually a waste who can't even withstand a single finger of mine. Fine, let me ask again, who can take a punch from me?"

Chapter 1193: Thunder Tribulation

At this moment, everyone was stunned.

On the Water-Wood World's side, the creatures who had thought that Han Fei was weak just now all widened their eyes. What was going on?

Someone asked in confusion, "If he could've used such a terrifying finger at the beginning, why did he create such a gigantic finger?"

A bug sighed. "Is it for the sake of looking good?"

Hearing this, all the creatures were dumbfounded. It seemed that this was the only reason to explain. Otherwise, it didn't make sense!

Of course, the sea demons had a different opinion.

Immediately, someone yelled, "Han Fei, you human, how can you be so despicable? Let go of our heavenly talent and have a fair fight!"

"Huh? Release him?"

Han Fei was surprised. He glanced at the Half-Merman who spoke, and then at Yu Wangyou who was almost smashed to death by him, and said leisurely, "Release him? OK, but I don't believe that such a Heavenly Talent is not worth a hundred thousand spiritual fruits. As soon as you pay the money, I'll release him."

The sea demons: "..."

An insect laughed out loud. "Yes, pay a hundred thousand spiritual fruits and he'll be released."

Someone shouted, "They should add some ultra-quality divine weapons."

A Dao Seeking great demon snorted. "Han Fei, right? Don't make the wrong decision."

"Pfft!"

As soon as the Dao Seeking realm demon said so, Snowmourned slashed at him.

Under the surprised gaze of countless people, Han Fei cut Yu Wangyou into two pieces.

Han Fei pointed his sword at the big demon and scolded, "If you don't pay, how can you expect me to let him go? Oops, he's dead now."

An insect instantly shouted, "Alas, why didn't you wait for a while? They will give us money!"

Han Fei glanced at him. "Oh, really? That's a pity. Don't panic. Let me catch another person..."

In the distance, a group of peak-level Sea Spirits stared at him resentfully, but they didn't rush up to fight Han Fei...

Yu Wangyou's original purpose was to test Han Fei's strength. However, now they failed to sound out Han Fei's real strength yet, but their morale was sapped.

Han Fei couldn't have looked more awful. "Why? Didn't they say that the Heavenly Talents from the Royal City are very strong? Why aren't any of them strong?"

As he talked, Han Fei took out the Sea Swallowing Seashell of Yu Wangyou and stuffed it into Forge the Universe.

Han Fei pointed at the thousands of sea clan powerhouses opposite him, and his gaze wandered and finally fell on several peak-level law enforcers.

If he guessed right, this group of people was very likely to be the strong masters who were going to stop him from successfully transcending the tribulation or transcend the heavenly tribulation with him together.

In this case, Han Fei felt that he should take the initiative to kill these people first. He could transcend the tribulation tomorrow!

On the sea demons' side, Han Fei heard someone speaking in the sea demon language, "Han Fei's real strength hasn't been found out yet. That finger just now doesn't seem to be his own strength. Shall we test him again?"

Someone replied, "It's best if Han Fei can be injured or even killed before the tribulation. However, this person is definitely not weak. We can't fight him alone. We have to find a way to make him provoke us again. Or, let a Dao Seeking master take action and forcibly suppress him."

A woman said via voice transmission, "Let me fight him first. I'm going to transcend the tribulation this time. If I lose, I'll transcend the tribulation in battle and kill him."

Han Fei's eyes suddenly flickered. Do you think I can't understand you just because you use the sea demon language? Fortunately, I have been in the Ten Thousand Demon Valley.

Han Fei shouted, "I heard that the Heavenly Talents on the opposite side are all from the Royal City? Today, I, Han Fei, would like to challenge you all. The strong masters at the same level as me, come up together!"

Yi Yuchen: "???"

The insect king: "..."

All the creatures: "???"

A bug shouted, "Han Fei, don't underestimate these people. They are really strong."

Among all these people, the only one who had fought Han Fei head-on was Yi Yuchen. He knew how terrifying Han Fei's full-strength attack was.

Yi Yuchen said telepathically, "Don't be careless. The Heavenly Talents from the Royal City are not that weak. The mermen and mermaids are even stronger. Both their bloodline and heritage are not weak."

Han Fei smiled. "Got it."

In the eyes of the sea demons, Han Fei was humiliating them. They were all Heavenly Talents. How dare he challenge all of them?!

Buzz!

A Half-Mermaid came over on a green shark, holding two cone-shaped spears. This weapon looked very strange. With a tip half a meter long, the spear was slender and smooth.

The woman shouted, "Bei Ying, from the White Shell Royal City, a peak-level Sea Spirit. Han Fei, do you think you're invincible just because you beat Yu Wangyou by a fluke?"

Han Fei pretended to frown. Isn't this woman the one who plans to kill me during the tribulation?

However, Han Fei didn't panic at all. Wasn't this an opportunity for him?

Since the other party had already made a plan, he might as well go with the flow and kill her first.

Han Fei held his head high and said contemptuously, "Just you? Who gave you the confidence to challenge me alone?"

With that said, Han Fei pointed at the Sea Clan powerhouses in the distance. "I gave you a chance, but you couldn't grasp it. What a bunch of salted fish! Cowardly as crabs. How do you have the cheek to call yourselves the top Heavenly Talents in the Royal City?"

Someone shouted, "Arrogant and conceited. Bei Ying once killed an Explorer and killed Heavenly Talents of the insect race in the Fiery Sea seven times in a row. How can you insult her like this?"

A strong master of the Insect race immediately shouted angrily, "Nonsense, how can the heavenly talents of our Insect race be defeated?"

The powerhouses of the Insect Clan were enraged. Killed their heavenly talents seven times in a row? That's too humiliating!

However, a bug's eyes flickered. "This woman is indeed not to be underestimated. The shark under her feet is called the Thunder Fire Green Shark. It can swallow clouds, spit out smoke and summon thunderbolts. It's quite powerful."

Han Fei didn't care at all. He stepped out. "Since no one is coming, I can only kill you first."

In the blink of an eye, Han Fei flashed like a bolt of lightning. In less than 0.01 seconds, the Draw Technique had been launched against the wave that Bei Ying was standing on.

Bang!

However, a mass of green mist dispersed, and within a radius of 3,000 meters, the mist steamed.

Bei Ying's figure appeared in all directions, in mid-air, above the water, at the bottom of the sea, and in Han Fei's ears.

Bei Ying giggled. "I know you are fast, so I was fake from the beginning. Now that you've entered my Blue Thunder Illusion, let's see how you can get out."

Boom!

All of a sudden, a bolt of lightning struck Han Fei's head.

Outside, everybody saw an enormous mist cover more than 3,000 meters above the sea.

Someone said solemnly, "It's the power of a domain. This woman not only mastered an illusion domain, but also has a thunder technique."

Crack! Crack!

Ice-blue lightning and fire erupted in this illusory domain, and the sound rumbled without stopping.

Every time the lightning struck, the eyelids of many strong masters of the Insect Clan would twitch.

The Heavenly Talents of the insect race were most afraid of transcending tribulations. In their opinion, no one who could master the power of lightning was weak.

However, in the green mist, when Han Fei sensed the first so-called lightning, he almost laughed out loud.

Is this thunderbolts? Are you out of your mind? If this is thunderbolts, I can f*cking sit in these thunderbolts for an entire day without running away!

Of course, on the surface, Han Fei seemed to be attacking in all directions, and his golden fist marks were extremely violent. Han Fei shattered the void and cut the sea apart. Both the Water-Wood World people and the sea demons' eyes flickered. Everyone guessed that the battle inside must be very fierce.

After all, it was the domain ability of a peak-level Sea Spirit and the talent ability of the Thunder Fire Green Shark. Even an Explorer couldn't see through it.

“Roar, Roar...”

Han Fei was roaring, and his body was cracking as if he was struggling to resist the lightning hell-like bombardment.

And among the countless clones, Bei Ying held two spears, piercing through the void. The sky was full of spear shadows, and it was difficult to see clearly.

However, when Bei Ying launched this move, she suddenly saw strange array patterns spreading under Han Fei's feet who was bathed in the lightning and fire.

After Han Fei set up the Breath Concealing Array and the Concealment Array, he looked up and smiled. “Have you had enough fun? It's my turn.”

“Hiss! How is it possible?”

Buzz!

Bei Ying was trying to flee with her clones, only to find that she couldn't fuse with any of her clones.

Han Fei smiled contemptuously. “You think you can control a clone with a little bit of your soul in front of me? You must be dreaming...”

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Hundreds of clones shattered in an instant, and Han Fei's figure had already disappeared.

“Roar!”

With a deafening roar that sounded like a dragon roar, the green mist shattered.

Everybody saw that Bei Ying was cut off from the waist down and she had escaped by burning her blood.

Instantly, many Heavenly Talents of the Insect Clan buzzed, “Good job!”

“Haha, what heavenly talents from the Royal City? They can't even withstand a single blow.”

“As expected of the top Heavenly Talent of the Water-Wood World!”

On the other side, many people's faces turned cold. Someone said in a low voice, “Not good, then Han Fei's strength...”

Han Fei raised his knife and stood in front of Bei Ying. “Do you think you can run away?”

Han Fei was not in a hurry. He thought to himself, Didn't you plan to transcend the tribulation in battle? Come on, transcend the tribulation now!

Bei Ying gritted her teeth, and a Thunder Fire Shark attacked from the void.

Seizing the opportunity, Bei Ying looked at the sky and roared.

At that moment, Han Fei could feel that Bei Ying was frantically increasing her strength.

However, Han Fei had seen many such cases in reincarnation.

Bei Ying was too seriously injured to transcend the tribulation. Therefore, she tried to use this temporary power to fight another battle against him...

Rumble!

Buzz!

Black clouds swept across, thunder and fire burst out, and electric arcs began to disperse in the sky.

Someone shouted, "Not good, Han Fei, this person is transcending a tribulation. Kill her quickly."

Several explorers shouted in a low voice, "This is a method of mutual destruction. Han Fei, come out quickly."

Han Fei's hands tore the Thunder Fire Green Shark apart, and blood splashed in the sky.

Han Fei, drenched in blood, grinned ferociously and pointed at the sky. "It's not my own heavenly tribulation. What can a small tribulation like this do to me?"

Everyone was speechless. Why are you still pretending at this moment?

Bei Ying dragged her half body and rushed over, shouting coldly, "Let's die together!"

Han Fei smiled, glanced at her casually, and punched out. The Sacrificing Punch was completely activated, which Bei Ying couldn't resist at all.

After only one punch, Bei Ying was crushed.

However, although Bei Ying died, the lightning did not stop.

Crack...

Chapter 1194: Fire and Ice

Crack!

Amidst the cries of shock, a blue electric arc fell from the sky. Han Fei stood on the sea, as if he didn't notice it, letting the lightning strike him.

At that moment, on Han Fei's arms, in his eyes, and all over his body, electric arcs flashed.

"Hu! Hu!"

Both the people on the Water-Wood World's side and the sea demons' side heard heavy panting sounds.

Someone exclaimed, "Oh... Is he swallowing the power of the Heavenly Tribulation?"

An insect said in shock, "Heavens, can heavenly tribulation be swallowed?"

A big bird was horrified. "He's crazy. He's a lunatic."

On the sea demons' side, they were all solemn. Sure enough, Han Fei was definitely not weak. Although Han Fei's performance was too fancy, the strong were still the strong.

In Han Fei's heart, the old turtle's voice sounded. "The so-called lightning is just a test for cultivators. Since it's a test, of course there are benefits, which is that the lightning itself is the purest kind of energy. Unfortunately, this lightning bolt you snatched is too weak. In the future, if you are strong enough, maybe you can get a real supreme lightning bolt. Under that lightning bolt, your body can be greatly strengthened."

Han Fei sneered in his heart. "Then let's talk about it later."

Boom!

Another thick lightning bolt struck down. With a crack, Han Fei's body was suddenly full of cracks, and pale golden blood oozed out.

"Hu... Hu..."

Han Fei was still crazily absorbing the power of lightning.

At this moment, there were electric arcs in his limbs, flesh, blood and bones.

Han Fei didn't care at all. He pointed at the Heavenly Talents of the Sea Clan and cursed under their stunned gaze, "What can a mere Heavenly Tribulation do to me? Who dares to enter the arena and fight me again?"

Boom!

Another lightning bolt struck down, making Han Fei's body soften, and he almost sat on the sea.

However, among the lightning pillars seven or eight meters thick, Han Fei bent his back and chuckled creepily. "So, this is how it feels to transcend a tribulation. Is this the power of a tribulation?"

Everyone : "..."

In the void, the corner of Wushang Xue's mouth twitched. "I really want to slap him."

Jing'er asked in surprise, "What, what's going on? Has he transcended someone else's tribulation? Does this count as him transcending a tribulation?"

The insect king's voice sounded here, "Of course not. It's not that he transcended other people's heavenly tribulation, but that he forcibly swallowed other people's heavenly tribulation. This child practices an extremely domineering body tempering technique just to temper his body."

Jing'er: "..."

While thousands of creatures were dumbfounded here, in the Water-Wood Heavenly Palace in the sky, Queen Life looked at the void mirror and muttered, "War Body, Beast King Technique, Heavenly Void Divine Movement... When have the Yin-Yang World people ever learned these techniques?"

...

The old turtle reminded him just now that heavenly tribulation was also a kind of power. Since he was a body refiner, he wouldn't be afraid of heavenly tribulation.

This was indeed the first time Han Fei had transcended a lightning tribulation. Oh no... Swallowed a lightning tribulation.

This was the heavenly tribulation of an ordinary person.

However, Bei Ying's third lightning strike was indeed rather powerful.

Han Fei's body went limp, and in an instant, a hundred cracks appeared on his body, making him bleed.

However, the War Body was revving up.

Han Fei didn't feel that his physique was better. Instead, he felt that if he were to transcend the tribulation, it would be best if he could push the War Body and the Indestructible Body to a new height.

At this moment, Han Fei felt that the power in his body had expanded to the point where he had no place to vent. His whole body was flushed and dripping with blood.

Han Fei didn't sit cross-legged but stood on the surface of the sea, panting hard. Every time he took a breath, it was like thunder rumbling and his blood was surging.

On the sea demon's side, someone shouted in a low voice, "Not good. This person is a pure body refiner. He is borrowing Bei Ying's heavenly tribulation to cultivate. This shows that he hasn't reached the peak of the law enforcer realm. Quickly stop him."

"Humph!"

The Sea Clan Venerable frowned and looked at a group of peak-level Sea Spirits. These people had been arranged in advance, and their task was to injure Han Fei as much as possible before Han Fei transcended the tribulation.

At this moment, these people felt a chill down their spines. They looked at each other and stepped out simultaneously.

A Half-Merman shouted in a low voice, "Han Fei, don't you want to fight? Then come and fight me."

A shrimp soldier screamed, "Kill!"

A thousand-foot-long dragon roared, "Human, do you dare to fight me?"

At this moment, the creatures on the Water-Wood World's side had just reacted.

Han Fei had just endured someone else's heavenly tribulation, and now there came... seven peak-level Sea Spirits? This was too much!

A winged insect stood up. "Thieves of the Sea Clan, do you dare to fight me?"

A giant green gull set off tornadoes. "Come and fight me if you've got balls."

"Hehehehe..."

All of a sudden, above the sea, the tide of blood caused by Han Fei's breathing began to subside.

Han Fei grinned. "Didn't you want to stop me from transcending the tribulation? I'll give you a chance today. I won't refuse anyone in the same realm. You can come together."

Buzz!

Instantly, countless people's faces changed. There were really Heavenly Talents here.

On the sea demons' side, there were some peak-level Sea Spirits who were about to make a move, but they were forcibly stopped.

A sea race powerhouse shook his head. "No rush. No matter what path he takes, it is impossible for him to transcend the tribulation today."

"Roar!"

The seven peak-level Sea Spirits all rose at the same time.

The big dragon slapped its tail and gathered the Law of Gravity on it.

A bright red light bloomed on the shrimp soldier's spear, and a strange power stirred the blood and qi in Han Fei's body, trying to devour Han Fei's vitality.

A Half-Merman held a green blob in his hand. When the green blob bloomed, Han Fei's heart trembled. Is this the Bone Dissolving Spiritual Lamp? The kind of strange power that can dissolve blood and bones.

Buzz!

Han Fei twisted his body and avoided the area illuminated by the Bone Dissolving Spiritual Lamp in an instant.

However, even so, half of his skin had been removed.

At the moment Han Fei flashed out, a piece of frost enveloped thousands of meters. Han Fei felt that his soul was slightly frozen. This frost seemed to have the power to freeze his soul...

At this moment, a huge tail was thrown at him and a long spear thrust at him.

Han Fei grinned. "Is that all you've got?"

All of a sudden, Han Fei stepped in the air and threw out a Sacrificing Punch. Wherever the fist mark passed, the giant tail and spear marks were all crushed.

"Water Luster."

"Fire Seed."

"Chirp!"

With a clear phoenix cry, the ice thirty thousand feet high spread in the void. The ice just now was frozen by the more condensed ice.

Buzz!

A sea of fire burned the sky, and the surrounding temperature soared by more than a thousand degrees in an instant. The space was burnt and distorted, and a large amount of white mist was burnt out on the sea.

“Ahhh~”

It was obvious that a sea cucumber was burnt out of the icy mist and was twisting its body.

“Pfft!”

Under everyone’s stunned gaze, a huge flame mouth opened, chewed the air, and swallowed the sea cucumber.

The seven Heavenly Talents of the Sea Demon Royal City had just attacked, and one of them had already died. Furthermore, the way he died was so strange that both the Water-Wood World people and the sea demons were a little frightened. What kind of method was this?

“Boom, Boom, Boom...”

Suddenly, in the sky, a strange rhythm vibrated. The sound was faint and celestial.

However, the dragon snake roared and spewed black venom. Its sharp teeth tore the sky, and its tail, like a gold chain, whipped at Han Fei.

Someone shouted in a low voice, “Not good. Quickly seal your perception. That sound is weird.”

Han Fei grinned. “You just figured it out now? Don’t you think it’s too late?”

Han Fei twisted his body and stood in front of the head of the flood dragon. As he clasped his hands, the hundred-meter-long body of the flood dragon was torn in half by Han Fei.

For a moment, a rain of blood fell from the sky.

Han Fei looked like a butcher walking out of a slaughterhouse, his eyes terrifying. He had learned all this from the Tiger King, who called this “Momentum”.

When the Nine Sounds vibrated, the shrimp soldier roared and brandished his spear. “Sky Stabbing Forbidden Technique.”

Faced with this spear, Han Fei held the Blood-Drinking Knife in his hand. With a swish, the knife light bloomed a kilometer in the air.

“Roar!”

Immediately afterward, the phantom of a hundred beasts appeared and their feet stomped on the void. Only a great demon at the Dao Seeking realm could withstand the roars of a hundred beasts.

The shrimp soldier paused in midair and seemed to be stunned.

Han Fei unhurriedly stabbed him through, injected spiritual energy into his body, and his body instantly exploded.

Three of the seven Heavenly Talents of the Sea Demon Royal City had died. It was not until this moment that the creatures of the Water-Wood World were amazed by Han Fei's strength.

A powerhouse of the Sky Clan sighed. "What kind of creature is that? It can directly freeze the soul?"

An insect creature asked in surprise, "Where did the fireball come from? Is it an unusual flame from the Fiery Sea?"

Water Luster and Fire Seed spiraled out like red and blue lights, besieging the Half-Mermaid who could control the Bone Dissolving Spiritual Lamp.

How could the so-called Heavenly Talents from the Royal City compare to legendary creatures in the same realm?

The Fire Seed trembled, and the sea within ten kilometers turned crimson.

Water Luster's true talent was water, not ice. At this moment, the sea was rising, and a cage appeared.

Including Han Fei, everyone was surprised to find that both Water Luster and Fire Seed had disappeared, only turning into two pieces of light. Fire and water were intertwined, and the red and blue light enveloped them.

The Half-Mermen was so frightened that it tried to defend itself, but to no avail.

In the perceptions of the strong masters, the surface of the Half-Merman's body quickly dried up. He didn't become old, but dried up. The water in his body seemed to have been extracted and he turned into a mummy!

It was the first time that Han Fei had seen Water Luster and Fire Seed fight in cooperation. It was so terrifying that it directly drained the enemy's body.

Of course, Han Fei also knew that three others had already retreated when the Hundred Beast Soul Subduing Roar was activated.

Perhaps they knew that Han Fei was extraordinary, so when the three of them attacked again, they surrounded Han Fei in a triangle and triggered their Heavenly Tribulations at the same time.

At that moment, the three of them looked at each other and their strength soared.

Someone roared, "Han Fei, try swallowing all our tribulations!"

Chapter 1195: Tribulation Transcendence Battle

Perhaps the Sea Clan had long made a plan against Han Fei. These three people didn't plan to attack Han Fei at the beginning.

In order to show off, Han Fei intended to sweep his opponents domineeringly, so he didn't win with speed, which gave these three people a chance.

Of course, it was impossible for Han Fei not to see them. He just wanted to see what the three of them were up to.

However, what he didn't expect was that these three people, like Bei Ying just now, took the tribulation as a means of attack.

Han Fei immediately sneered. "Is this all the Heavenly Talents from the Royal City have? You want to kill me by transcending the tribulation?"

However, in Han Fei's mind, Wushang Xue said to him via voice transmission, "Why don't you run? You're facing tribulations of three people. Do you really think you are invincible?"

"Hmph!"

In the void, a voice scolded, "Wushang Xue, this guy wants to fight. Why are you so nosy?"

Although all this happened very quickly, the others thought that Han Fei had enough time to escape, so they didn't remind him.

However, Han Fei had no intention of escaping at this moment.

At this moment, an Explorer shouted, "Han Fei, escape quickly. The three tribulations will be superimposed. These people are not Heavenly Talents from the Royal City at all. They're here to die with you."

Someone shouted, "Han Fei, run! The combination of the three tribulations can't be underestimated. If you're careless, you'll be annihilated."

A sea creature shouted, "Han Fei, you little thief, didn't you use the lightning tribulation to temper your body? If you have the ability, don't flinch. If you flinch this time, none of the Heavenly Talents in the White Shell Royal City will respect you."

A Half-Merman sneered. "Humph, the number one genius of the Water-Wood World? In my opinion, he's probably trying to escape despite his serious injuries."

A bug buzzed. "Han Fei, don't listen to them. Run!"

Buzz, buzz, buzz...

For a moment, everyone was talking.

In the sky, thunder rumbled, waves surged in all directions, vortexes appeared, and arcs kept cracking.

Amidst the mocking and anxious voices, Han Fei suddenly grinned. "Tribulation is the power of the heavens. One more person will cause changes. Since you pulled me into this trap, you three have already achieved your goal. Anyway, you will die sooner or later. Let me send you off!"

Buzz buzz buzz!

Han Fei's speed that was comparable to that of an advanced Explorer was completely unleashed. Unable to dodge at all, the Void Lines dug into their souls.

Han Fei grinned coldly. "Let me borrow your vitality."

At the moment when the lightning tribulation had just condensed and the other party was about to reveal it, Han Fei had already attacked.

The sixth level of Void Fishing was originally called the Luck Stealing Technique. After being deduced, it was called the Sky Stealing Technique.

At present, the most direct effect Han Fei could use was to steal their vitality.

Boom!

The faces of the three immediately turned dark.

The center of the crab's shell suddenly turned black.

A Venerable was surprised. "Huh? The death aura on them suddenly became intense?"

"Hiss! Their vitality is rapidly disappearing."

Boom! Boom...

Four lightning bolts struck down. It seemed that the Heavenly Tribulation felt that there were creatures fighting the lightning tribulation together, so when the first lightning struck, the tribulation clouds became thicker.

Ka ka ka!

Han Fei trembled under the attacks and more than a hundred cracks appeared on his body. However, these cracks disappeared in an instant.

Someone was shocked. "Han Fei is forcibly taking other people's vitality."

Wushang Xue frowned. "It's not the time law. He's really just snatching others' vitality."

Jing'er said in surprise, "Taking other people's vitality by force. Is this a demonic technique?"

Wushang Xue shook her head slightly. "Probably not! Otherwise, how could the queen not know?"

On the sea demons' side, a Venerable had already shouted, "He's really evil. No wonder he's so monstrous. It turns out that he has fallen into the demonic path and forcibly takes others' vitality."

Jing'er shouted, "Stinky shrimp, shut up. Whether Han Fei is evil or not is the Water-Wood World's business. It has nothing to do with the White Shell Royal City."

That being said, the creatures of the Water-Wood World felt a little strange. Has Han Fei really taken the demonic path?

The Insect King said in a low voice, "We can tell whether Han Fei has taken the demonic path or not when he transcends the tribulation. If he really has, the heavens will punish and kill him."

...

Ordinary people only had a three-layer tribulation, which was often called a minor tribulation.

As the old turtle in his body said, the minor tribulation was very weak. He could pass it after a nap and couldn't even feel it at all.

However, for ordinary people, this was the most dangerous disaster since they started cultivating. Normally speaking, ordinary people could at least survive one lightning bolt, but after Han Fei absorbed their vitality...

Rumble!

When the second lightning struck, he saw that the two of the three had lost all their vitality and their bodies were shattered. The other big crab's carapace was shattered, but it wasn't dead yet.

As for Han Fei, his body was cracked like a porcelain doll.

He sat cross-legged and activated the Indestructible Body. Before the third lightning bolt struck, the crab's soul shattered with a crack and was sucked to death by Han Fei.

However, although these three had already died, their heavenly tribulations were still there. Their vitality had been swallowed by Han Fei. If the heavenly tribulation didn't target Han Fei, who could it target?

Boom!

The third lightning struck down, and Han Fei's flesh and blood were blurred. Seeing this scene, the people of Water-Wood World were horrified, while the sea demons were overjoyed.

Boom!

When the fourth lightning struck down, someone exclaimed, "Why is there still lightning? Haven't there already been three lightning strikes?"

Someone sneered. "Are you stupid? The vitality of those three guys was swallowed by Han Fei alone. So, to a certain extent, none of these three guys died. When the heavenly tribulations of the three of them stack up, isn't it nine bolts of lightning?"

Someone was stunned. "Oh my god!"

In the blue lightning, half of Han Fei's body was charred, but everyone could see that his body was wriggling and recovering at a terrifying speed.

Jing'er said in slight disgust, "The little vitality he swallowed can at most help him resist two more bolts of lightning. After that, he'll have to rely on himself."

Wushang Xue glanced at Jing'er. "Don't you think very highly of him? Don't forget, these are others' heavenly tribulations, not his own. Therefore, this kind of heavenly tribulation can't hurt him."

"Hu! Hu!"

Han Fei swallowed the power of lightning and the electric arcs in the air hard.

Han Fei could feel that the Indestructible Body and the War Body were almost at the bottleneck. However, this energy was not enough. As soon as it entered his body, it was obliterated into unknown elements by the Indestructible Body.

If it weren't for the upcoming Heavenly Tribulations, Han Fei would've used energy fruits.

Boom!

Boom!

Under countless gazes, Han Fei's flesh and blood were melting, being burnt, peeled, and growing.

Whether on the Water-Wood World's side or the sea demons' side, countless people were shocked. This was the first time they saw someone cultivate by swallowing heavenly tribulations.

Besides, Han Fei's body tempering technique was too terrifying. He seemed not to take his life seriously at all!

Of course, the price of this cultivation method was too high.

Someone frowned. "This cultivation method seriously injured him first, right?"

A great demon at the Dao Seeking realm said, "Although this guy uses the heavenly tribulations to temper his body, how can the heavenly tribulations be so easy to withstand? His vitality fluctuates and his flesh melts several times. Even if he survives this tribulation, he will definitely be seriously injured."

Boom!

When the last thick lightning struck Han Fei, amid the blue lightning, a creepy and terrifying laughter was heard.

Han Fei grinned. "Anyone else want to fight me?"

The lightning dissipated, and a burnt figure was sitting cross-legged on the surface of the sea. His chest and abdomen bulged and his breathing was like a tide. Not only was the surrounding energy and spiritual energy constantly being absorbed, but there was also rich vitality in Han Fei.

"Huh? Where did he get such strong vitality?"

Someone was puzzled. Theoretically speaking, the vitality of the three people couldn't support Han Fei through the nine bolts of lightning. However, not only did Han Fei survive, but he also had some vitality left...

Jing'er and Wushang Xue looked at each other. Did Han Fei use the Spring of Life? This was the only possible explanation. A drop of the Spring of Life was enough for Han Fei to survive the nine bolts of lightning.

Crack!

When the charred flesh on Han Fei's body shattered, the new flesh was still full of cracks.

At this moment, Han Fei's breath flickered. "Is there anyone else who wants to fight me? I've given you a chance. This is the best time to kill me. If you miss this chance, it will be my turn to hunt you."

The mermaid who had been clamoring at the beginning fell silent. She was a Heavenly Talent, but it didn't mean that she didn't know her limits. At this moment, Han Fei's killing intent was at its peak, so she had no confidence in going up now.

A great demon in the Dao Seeking realm seemed to have noticed this too. Although Han Fei's body was full of cracks, he had swallowed more than a dozen bolts of lightning. If he died easily, he wouldn't be so arrogant.

A great demon at the Dao Seeking realm shouted in a low voice, "Don't fight him. Although he is seriously injured, his strength is still unknown. In that case, all soldiers, attack and force him to transcend the tribulation now."

Toot! Toot!

A conch tooted, and a sea demon shouted, "Army, press on!"

On the Water-Wood World's side, the Sky Clan immediately flew around and shouted, "Everyone, prepare for battle ~"

A big insect in the Water-Wood World shouted, "The tribulation transcendence battle begins."

Han Fei's heart did a flip. The so-called tribulation transcendence battle, Shu Xiaomang had mentioned to him. In order to prevent human powerhouses from transcending their tribulations, the sea clan would launch a war during their tribulation transcendence with the attempt to shake the determination of the transcendents with the death of many creatures.

The sooner he transcended the tribulation, the better. Otherwise, the more tragic things he saw, the more upset he would be, which would affect the success rate of transcending the tribulation.

The sooner he transcended the tribulation, the sooner the battle would become a normal battle, and their attention would be returned to Han Fei.

They would try to cast a shadow on Han Fei's Great Dao after Han Fei's tribulation, giving birth to inner demons, and prevent Han Fei from seeking his Dao.

Jing'er said telepathically, "Okay, transcend the tribulation quickly."

After all, the battles before the tribulation had always been tentative.

This time, it was also because they heard that Han Fei was an unparalleled genius that so many sea demons tried to stop him before his tribulation.

But what they heard was true. Han Fei was indeed as strong as he was said to be.

How could a true genius from the royal capital attack so easily? It was unwise to fight someone at the peak of the law enforcer realm. They would have other chances in the future.

"Kill!"

At that moment, cries of killing sounded, and the battle was extremely intense.

Chapter 1196: Transcend the Tribulation

In Han Fei's perception, hundreds of kilometers away, they were already fighting.

Behind him, the Insect Clan and the Sky Clan who had been watching the show dispersed like a tide and attacked in all directions.

The battles in the Dark War Port were divided into three types: one was between the strong, one was between the life and death lines of the Fearless Barrier, and one was chaotic battles in the Dark Water.

During the tribulation, the army of the Water-Wood World's guardians had already rushed into the Dark Water Realm.

As for the sea demons, all the creatures below the Dao Seeking realm rushed into the Fearless Barrier.

When they really started fighting, they would have to face all kinds of opponents. The goal of the Fearless Tree had always been great demons in the Dao-seeking Realm.

As soon as the battle started, Han Fei looked back, only to see that the Insect King was still lying on the sea.

The Insect King shouted, "Transcend the tribulation."

Han Fei's heart stirred, and Water Luster transmitted a message to him, "Master, we can also transcend the tribulation."

Fire Seed's voice sounded, "Master, once we transcend the tribulation, we can remove some restrictions of the Sea Quelling Painting."

Han Fei frowned. Water Luster and the others were only trapped by the Sea Quelling Painting. Otherwise, they would have succeeded in transcending the tribulation long ago.

Han Fei was thinking, This time, the tribulation for me alone has already caused such a huge uproar. If the number of tribulations suddenly change from one to six, who knows what will happen?

However, it seemed that Punishing Saber and the others could only transcend their tribulations in the Water-Wood World.

Once they returned to the Yin-Yang World, if the five of them went through tribulations in a row, it would be strange if they weren't discovered.

At that time, as long as the big clans discovered that, they would definitely know that he appeared and would definitely cause trouble.

Han Fei gritted his teeth and replied, "I have my own considerations. I'll transcend my heavenly tribulation now."

Han Fei certainly didn't dare to ask Punishing Saber and the others to come out to transcend the tribulation together. After all, they were five real legendary creatures.

Han Fei shouted in a low voice, "Insect King, please guard me."

Buzz!

Han Fei stood proudly on the surging sea, looking at the sky, and his aura began to rise crazily.

He had seen tribulations and helped others transcend tribulations more than once. Han Fei knew very well how strong an ordinary person's three-layered tribulation was. As long as he had enough time, a mere three-layered tribulation was nothing to him!

Besides, during the four years he stayed in the Wind Rain Village, he had done a lot of things. He had painted more than a hundred large arrays. Han Fei wasn't afraid of heavenly tribulation at all.

Of course, Han Fei planned to break through to the fourth level of the Indestructible Body in one fell swoop.

The Indestructible Body was gradually improving his physique, first refining the body, then refining the flesh and then the bones. Now his bones were glowing, and his blood even turned faintly golden.

The fourth level was the level of mastery of the Indestructible Body. The difficulty of the breakthrough could be seen!

"Come on!"

As Han Fei roared, spiritual energy swept crazily within 300 kilometers.

As if feeling that he didn't have enough spiritual energy, Han Fei waved his hand, and hundreds of thousands of catties of spiritual spring flew into the air, turned into billowing spiritual energy, and swept into his body.

Boom... Buzz...

Above the sky, the tribulation clouds were dense, and within 300 kilometers, it instantly turned from day to night. The black clouds pressed against the sea, like a black dragon turning over, blocking most of the light.

"Hiss!"

Beside the Insect King, many insect explorers exclaimed, "This tribulation cloud is so big."

On the sea demon's side, a Venerable shouted, "Transcend the heavenly tribulation."

At that moment, a total of five sea race Heavenly Talents transcended the tribulation together. In an instant, the tribulation clouds in the sky suddenly dispersed. Just now, the tribulation clouds were only 300 kilometers away, but in the blink of an eye, they were reduced by half.

Someone frowned. "The bigger the tribulation clouds are, the more powerful they seem to be, right? However, they chose such a close place to transcend the tribulation this time. Are they trying to snatch the thunder tribulation?"

Jing'er sneered. "What are you thinking about? Someone even took the initiative to snatch the lightning tribulation?"

Wushang Xue frowned slightly. "Wait, if the other party's heavenly talents are not weak and really snatched half of Han Fei's thunder heavenly might, is he considered to have completed his tribulation?"

Jing'er's face stiffened. She pinched her fingers, calculated, and looked up at the void.

Suddenly, Jing'er said to him via voice transmission, "Han Fei, don't let them snatch your tribulation. You are different from others. You walk the path of body refinement. Although you can still become an Explorer after breaking through the tribulation, without enough baptism of heavenly tribulation, it won't benefit your cultivation."

Han Fei turned his neck. "Snatch my heavenly tribulation? Can they?"

"Roar!"

At that moment, a golden giant stood proudly on the sea.

The golden giant pointed its finger at the air, and the invincible fighting intent was fully activated. The golden light dazzled and pierced the soul. "You want to snatch my heavenly tribulation? Don't you know what you are?"

With that, Han Fei held the Blood Drinking Knife and roared in a low voice, "Today, I, Han Fei, have a knife that can kill the heavenly tribulation and annihilate all my enemies. Can anyone here be my enemy?"

Boom!!!

When the path of invincibility was revealed, the tribulation clouds in the sky rolled thousands of kilometers away. The blue electric arcs, like dragon shadows, roared nonstop.

"What? The path of invincibility?"

On the Water-Wood World's side, the insect king suddenly raised its head. It was guarding the area, but it was also shocked.

Wushang Xue exclaimed, "Does this guy take the path of invincibility?"

Jing'er was also a little surprised. "Yes! I just found out too."

On the sea demon's side, a Venerable shouted, "Not good, the path of invincibility. We can't resist this heavenly tribulation. Retreat."

The five powerhouses of the Royal City who had just triggered the Heavenly Tribulation were all shocked. Are you kidding me? The Heavenly Tribulation is already here. Where can I retreat to now?

This heavenly tribulation spread thousands of kilometers, and the five sea clan powerhouses still wanted to retreat when they heard the sound of thunder.

"Not good, I can't run away. Block it."

"Hahaha!"

Han Fei opened his arms, and his flesh and blood were cracking inch by inch.

Boom ~ ~

At that moment, in the lightning hell ranging thousands of miles, infinite electric arcs streaked across the sky, illuminating the surroundings.

Han Fei was enshrouded by a pillar of lightning that was a hundred meters thick. Electricity flashed around him.

On the other side, four of the five peak-level Sea Spirits who failed to escape in time were crushed in an instant, without even a wisp of smoke left.

Only the mermaid had three green scales blocking in front of her. However, even though the defense power of the three scales was shocking enough to withstand such a terrifying lightning tribulation, they were still full of cracks.

“Hu... Hu...”

When Han Fei appeared again, his flesh was blurred and his skin could no longer be seen. One could even see the white bones on his hands.

However, Han Fei’s chest was heaving, and his terrifying vitality was recovering. His veins and flesh were recovering at a visible speed.

Han Fei was also horrified. Wasn’t his heavenly tribulation a little too strong? He had thought that his heavenly tribulation would be difficult at most to the third one, but the first ones shouldn’t be so difficult.

But who could have known that even the first lightning tribulation almost killed him and destroyed his body?

At this moment, Han Fei remembered the Heavenly Heart Pill. Old Bai said that this thing could increase the success rate by 30% when one was breaking through to the Explorer level.

Shua!

Han Fei didn’t hesitate. He knew how strong the lightning tribulation was. He decided to eat it first.

As soon as he swallowed the Heavenly Heart Pill, a lotus leaf appeared on his head.

Jing’er, who was watching from a distance, said in surprise, “Huh! Isn’t this the Heaven Heart Lotus?”

Wushang Xue said in surprise, “Is this a natural spiritual creature? I didn’t expect him to have such a spiritual treasure.”

Jing’er shook her head slightly. “It’s a pity that the Heaven Heart Lotus isn’t that powerful. For ordinary people, it can help them block a heavenly tribulation, but for Han Fei’s lightning tribulation, it can’t even block half of it.”

But Han Fei didn’t feel it. He felt the vitality in his body suddenly burst out. His body was still broken a moment ago, but now his flesh and blood had been regrown, and his skin had regrown.

Shua!

Han Fei didn’t forget to cast the Divine Healing Technique on himself to speed up his recovery.

At that moment, Han Fei felt that his body was full of explosive power. Every drop of his blood seemed to be swallowing energy.

Rumble!

The second lightning struck.

However, this time, everyone was surprised. The lightning this time actually carried some redness?

Bam! Bam! Bam!

The three green scales in front of the mermaid exploded.

When the lightning struck her, she still wanted to block it with her Divine Weapon, but with a bang, even her Divine Weapon was shattered and turned to ash.

This was the heavenly tribulation of the path of invincibility. Ordinary people wouldn't even have a chance to withstand it.

The heavenly tribulation seemed to know that it had killed the uninvited guests and slowly began to gather and shrink, from more than 1,000 kilometers just now to about 900 kilometers.

Han Fei, who was also struck by the second lightning bolt, wasn't any better than before.

The petal turned completely blue, as if it had absorbed infinite lightning. It floated above Han Fei's head, and Han Fei's flesh was blurred again. Electric arcs were dancing inside and outside of his body nonstop.

Han Fei discovered that the so-called Heavenly Heart Pill was only to block more than 30% of the power of the single heavenly tribulation. It didn't increase the success rate of the tribulation by 30% like Old Jiang said.

In fact, Han Fei had really wronged Old Jiang this time.

The Heavenly Heart Pill could block an entire heavenly tribulation for ordinary people, but was Han Fei an ordinary person?

Of course, thanks to the Heavenly Heart Pill that dispersed more than 30% of the power of the heavenly tribulation, Han Fei continued to breathe and quickly swallowed the second bolt of lightning's energy.

At that moment, Han Fei felt his bone marrow liquefied. On his bones, there were spots of golden light, which could be seen with the naked eye.

However, in the sky, the lightning was getting more and more intense, but no lightning tribulation came down.

Suddenly, Han Fei thought of something. The Heavenly Heart Pill didn't help him digest the energy, but helped him temporarily absorb more than 30% of the heavenly tribulation.

Immediately, Han Fei raised his head, and the petal fell into his mouth.

Crack! Crack!

Dozens of cracks appeared on his body that had just recovered, shaking Han Fei's internal organs.

However, the second heavenly tribulation was digested in two parts, and he passed it safely.

Chapter 1197: Four Nine King Tribulation

After the two heavenly tribulations, both the Water-Wood World and the sea demons had a plan.

At this moment, at least a thousand pairs of eyes from both sides were staring at Han Fei.

They all saw Han Fei's tribulation clearly and were shocked.

When the first lightning struck down, they discovered that the first lightning of Han Fei's heavenly tribulation was probably much stronger than other people's last one.

After only one attack, the four Heavenly Talents of the Royal City were killed.

Even the Heavenly Talents of the Royal City were killed by a bolt of lightning, which showed how talented Han Fei was.

There was still a mermaid left, trying to block the lightning with her life essence green scales, but she only managed to resist the first lightning bolt. When the second lightning bolt came, her body was completely shattered.

At this moment, Han Fei had swallowed two lightning bolts of the heavenly tribulation in a row and felt that his War Body had been pushed to its limit. Through breathing techniques, the energy he swallowed had reached the limit of transformation.

At this time, all the energy in Han Fei's body seemed to be undergoing subtle changes, as if his body was being remodeled. Not only was the energy demand too high, but the spiritual spring in Forge the Universe had also begun to consume spontaneously.

All in all, the power of the two lightning bolts of the heavenly tribulation was swallowed by Han Fei. It seemed to have reached its limit, but it was actually not enough.

Han Fei's body was working at full capacity, but his digestion speed still didn't keep up with the speed of his physique's transformation.

At this moment, the shadow in the sky had turned blue and purple, and many tribulation clouds had begun to change color.

Wushang Xue's expression changed drastically. "It's coming. If the law enforcer is strong enough, the Purple Tribulation will come! If Han Fei doesn't die today, he will definitely become a Venerable someday."

"Purple tribulation?"

On the sea demon's side, the Venerable-level powerhouse's expression was solemn as he thought to himself: No wonder this person is favored by Queen Life, however, why hadn't I heard of this guy before? Logically speaking, the sea race should know more or less about the powerhouses, heavenly talents, and subordinates of Queen Life.

However, where did Han Fei come from? How did such a genius suddenly pop up?

At this moment, Han Fei was still calm.

The higher the talent, the stronger the strength, the greater the heavenly tribulation. In history, there had been purple tribulations, but Han Fei's purple tribulation cloud hadn't completely condensed. Could he survive it? It was still a question.

Han Fei was also a little stunned. Oh, I've never seen such a situation!

Han Fei had helped many people through their tribulations.

Han Fei was already proficient in transcending tribulations.

Han Fei had seen people have special-colored heavenly tribulations before, but he had never seen a purple one. Just now, the cloud was still f*cking blue! How did it suddenly turn purple?

In his heart, the old turtle's voice sounded, "Boy, if you have the ability, try to survive this heavenly tribulation. If you can transcend it, your golden body will be half complete. Then, in this desolate land, there should be no one among the Explorers who can shake your body."

The cracks on Han Fei's body were recovering, his vitality was strong, and his blood was surging. He looked at the sky and said, "A half-complete golden body? What do you mean?"

The old turtle chuckled. "This is a sublimation of the level of life. After crossing this realm, as long as you cross another realm, you'll be out of the category of human beings. Your body can be called the Golden Body."

"Golden Body?"

The old turtle said frankly, "As for cultivation, in the end, all roads lead to the same destination. It's fine to build a golden body through body refinement. However, a golden body belongs to a king. If you can create a king-level golden body in the Explorer realm, the benefits will be obvious, understood?"

"Hu! Hu!"

As Han Fei absorbed the energy around him, the energy fruits and spiritual spring in Forge the Universe were still shattering, and these powers were being transformed frantically.

Han Fei had thought that this was the process of a peak-level law enforcer transforming into an Explorer.

However, hearing what the old turtle said, it didn't seem right! Was this the process of his body's evolution?

Crack! Boom ~

Seven or eight purple lightning bolts suddenly appeared in the sky, which startled Han Fei. He thought to himself, Why are there so many lightning bolts?

However, at the next moment, multiple lightning bolts gathered and struck down.

"Pu! Pu! Pu!"

Crack!

Ka ka ka ~

At that moment, Han Fei felt that his flesh and blood were exploding.

Almost every cell in his body was exploding. The moment he vomited blood, his blood was vaporized by the lightning. His battle suit and hair disappeared in an instant.

“Hu! Hu!”

Swish swish swish!

Vitality surged crazily, but it couldn't keep up with the collapse of his body.

At the moment the lightning struck him, Han Fei immediately understood why Queen Life used the Spring of Life to exchange resources with him. Even if he wasn't dead, it would take days for him to recover from such a lightning strike.

However, under such circumstances, how could he have a few days to slowly recover?

Click!

In the purple lightning, a drop of green liquid instantly shattered, circled around, and was sucked into Han Fei's body.

All of a sudden, a tremendous amount of vitality gushed out.

Han Fei felt that the golden light spots in his bones and blood began to multiply.

At the moment of the lightning strike, Han Fei felt that at least one tenth of his blood turned golden. His bones changed more, and golden spots appeared on his crystal-clear jade-like bones.

“Roar!”

A low roar came from Han Fei's throat.

Han Fei felt that every part of his body was trembling. However, this didn't stop him from being excited.

Han Fei thought to himself, This Spring of Life is too powerful! Just a drop of it has helped me pass the most difficult obstacle? At this moment, he could still feel the infinite vitality in his body.

The feeling was countless times faster than the natural-born vitality of the Indestructible Body.

This feeling was the same as when he swallowed the Destiny Holy Fruit. However, the Destiny Holy Fruit could only be encountered by chance. But he had ten drops of the Spring of Life.

As long as he survived the Heavenly Tribulation and became a peak-level Explorer, he had plenty of ways to obtain resources.

However, Han Fei was seriously injured. Before he had the time to feel excited, the old turtle's voice suddenly sounded, “Boy, use the remaining nine drops of spring water together.”

Han Fei: “Huh?”

Han Fei's face was gone. At this moment, only his flesh and blood were left, What do you mean?

This time, before the old turtle said anything, a big octopus suddenly intended to tear open the void and attack Han Fei.

“Get lost.”

Wushang Xue’s cold voice echoed, “Who wants to force me to kill today?”

Jing’er said to him via voice transmission, “Han Fei, don’t be stingy with the Spring of Life. You still have one lighting bolt to withstand. No matter what, you must survive it.”

“Huh?”

Han Fei was stunned. Aren’t there only three layers of the Heavenly Tribulation?

Han Fei’s flesh had just been regrown and his skin had just been reborn when he saw Jing’er take a step in the air and whip out a long whip.

The Insect King shouted, “Han Fei, this is the fourth tribulation, commonly known as the Four Nine King Tribulation. This shows that the Heavenly Dao recognizes that you have the talent to become a king, so this last tribulation is extremely difficult.”

Han Fei was horrified. “Four Nine King Tribulation? I’ve never heard of it before!”

In Han Fei’s heart, the old turtle said indifferently, “What’s there to be surprised about? I had already guessed that there would be such a tribulation. My only surprise is that you seem to have a smooth journey. Transcending this tribulation means that you have infinite potential. As long as you don’t die, there is a high chance that you can become a king.

Han Fei took a deep breath. “You’re telling me! I knew it long ago.”

The old turtle was lost for words. “Just keep showing off! Not everyone can withstand the Four Nine King Tribulation. You were lucky enough to survive three lightning strikes because of your strong foundation and physique. However, if you forcibly resist the fourth lightning, even a Heavenly Talent is very likely to be killed. But you are different. You have the Spring of Life, which can extend your life by 900 years, and forcibly swallow the fourth tribulation.”

Han Fei’s face that hadn’t fully recovered couldn’t be seen even if it was dark.

He had just traded all the resources he had earned for the Spring of Life yesterday, but he had to use them all now?

Five minutes later, Han Fei’s eyes grew again. He didn’t notice that his appearance seemed to have become better after this tribulation.

It was not that his appearance had changed, but that his skin had become whiter, and there was even a faint sheen on it. His temperament seemed to be more like Old Han’s.

Of course, this was not the time to study his appearance.

This was because the tribulation clouds in the sky had changed. The third tribulation cloud was still purple. But at this moment, the tribulation clouds had turned red. Fortunately, the coverage of the tribulation clouds had changed from a thousand miles to about 500 miles.

However, the range for the lightning tribulation to absorb energy was beyond thousands of kilometers.

“Hiss!”

On the battlefield, a member of the Insect race shouted, “Why haven’t you finished your tribulation yet? Why is there a fourth one?”

A human exclaimed, “Oh my god, is it the legendary Four Nine King Tribulation? The tribulation of a king. Anyone transcending it can be called a half-king.”

“What? Water-Wood World is going to have a new king?”

A Heavenly Talent of the Sea Clan’s expression changed drastically. How was it possible? This was probably a Heavenly Talent that only appeared once in a thousand years!

A human powerhouse shouted angrily, “Messenger Jing also transcended a Four Nine King Tribulation. As expected, Han Fei is someone the queen values. Everyone, kill the enemies.”

The fearless battlefield was in an uproar as the great demons of the Dao Seeking realm and the Fearless Tree Demons fought to the death.

Sea Spirit creatures fought in the Dark Water.

Peak-level Explorers fought on the battlefield not covered by the Heavenly Tribulation. Some peak-level Dao Seeking powerhouses attempted to step into the Heavenly Tribulation’s range, forcing it to change.

However, the powerhouses of the Water-Wood World all rushed out.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Yi Yuchen shouted, “If you dare to provoke us again, believe it or not, I’ll become a Venerable today!”

The Insect King hadn’t moved at all, and its voice resounded. “I’d like to see who can touch a single hair of his under my watch.”

People were fighting fiercely a thousand kilometers away from Han Fei.

And he couldn’t be distracted at all. The red lightning was about to strike...

Chapter 1198: A Brand-new Power

Rumble!

The red lightning clearly exceeded ordinary people’s understanding of heavenly tribulation. At the moment this tribulation fell, Han Fei had already soaked himself in a mass of spiritual spring.

Because he was still a little stingy, Han Fei gritted his teeth and only threw eight drops of the Spring of Life to himself, not daring to use the last drop.

Even so, Han Fei was almost struck stunned in an instant. He didn’t know if he was alive or dead.

When the last tribulation came, the only thing Han Fei had time to do was to throw Little Fatty into the seabed.

He thought that he probably wouldn't die, but what if he died?

He summoned Little Fatty first. If he died, someone would save him.

Han Fei had been prepared for his possible death.

Sure enough, as soon as the red lightning tribulation came, he was knocked over. It wasn't that he lost consciousness, but that his flesh and blood began to disperse.

The Indestructible Body was still running, and the absorption technique was still frantically absorbing the energy in the lightning. However, Han Fei could only subconsciously absorb the energy.

He found that he couldn't feel his face and mouth anymore. Not only that, he also felt that his body was sticky and blurred, as if his broken flesh was recombining.

Terrifying energy kept pouring into his body.

Han Fei's perception at this moment was limited to his own body.

At that moment, Han Fei's bones were full of spots of golden light.

However, every time Han Fei felt his vitality swell to the extreme and was about to repair his broken body, the terrifying energy burst Han Fei's meridians in an instant.

Han Fei didn't know or feel the repeated collapse of his veins and flesh. He didn't even know where his limbs were.

Han Fei felt that he was recovering. He felt that his hands and feet were intact, but he couldn't get up. He seemed to be squatting on the ground and squeezed into a ball.

He speculated that some parts of his body were collapsing and exploding.

However, he didn't panic at all.

Eight drops of Spring of Life, which was almost all his properties. If he still died in such a case, what else could he do?

However, what Han Fei didn't know was that after the terrifying energy of the red lightning washed over him again and again, his originally crystal-clear meridians were completely shattered again and again and thoroughly stopped growing.

Instead, the seed that had been hanging in his Dantian was enveloped by a black mist for some reason and shattered.

"Hiss!"

The pupils of the old turtle who had been deep in Han Fei's sea of consciousness were constricted, and his heart trembled. "What's going on with this guy? Why did he take two paths? Before the path of invincibility, he had taken another one?"

At this moment, the old turtle smacked his lips and said, "It's quite rare to see someone with two spiritual heritages. One is a heavenly heritage, and the other is a level-nine spiritual heritage. Both of them are unparalleled spiritual heritages, but one hasn't awakened yet, and the other has been broken. Doesn't that mean that he has no spiritual heritage to use now?"

"Huh..."

The old turtle was a little surprised to find that the seed that Han Fei had just shattered didn't seem to be weak. Otherwise, it couldn't have survived under the oppression of the Invincible Path until now.

But at this moment, Han Fei was transcending the tribulation.

This naturally-born spiritual seed was broken, so was his level-nine spiritual heritage.

The old turtle thought to himself, If it's broken, won't Han Fei become a big meatball in the future? He probably won't even be able to keep the parts of his body together.

However, at the next moment, the old turtle was furious.

"Roar! Damn it, no... My Great Dao, my Dao... Thief, don't use my Great Dao..."

In the old turtle's roar, it saw that a golden path was crushed inch by inch.

"Shameless... Robber..."

"You're stealing."

"You shattered my Great Dao just to help a brat rebuild his meridians?"

The old turtle was furious, but the Demon Purification Pot didn't listen to him.

All the energy fruits, spiritual energy fruits, spiritual springs, and the black bead, as well as the bodies of the creatures, the seasonings that Han Fei planted, and the last drop of Life Spring Water that Han Fei secretly kept in the Demon Purification Pot all crumbled at this moment.

The Demon Purification Pot seemed to be extremely short of energy and had used up all the resources available in Forge the Universe.

In the mass of flesh and blood, a clear blue vein began to slowly be born.

As the vein became more and more complicated, a brand-new spiritual heritage was born.

Trembling, the old turtle said, "I see! It's not that he can't make it through this tribulation, but that you forcibly attracted an insurmountable tribulation to destroy his Dao Seed and spiritual heritage. What the hell are you?"

The three small vines of the Demon Purification Pot swayed gently as if nothing had happened. However, in the eyes of the old turtle, he was already dumbfounded. Where did this calabash come from? If it was a top-notch treasure, why had he never heard of it?

...

Han Fei felt that everything was very natural.

Earlier, he felt that he must have been dizzy from the lightning strikes, so he didn't feel his limbs.

When the endless energy was swallowed, he finally felt his limbs. Although they were still a little soft, he didn't panic. As long as he could feel them, it meant that his limbs were still there.

After another moment, Han Fei felt that he should have made it through. He could already see his bones, which had turned golden.

However, the color wasn't deep enough. This made Han Fei a little unhappy. Didn't they call it the half-Golden Body? I thought it would be half golden and half white, but it turned out to be faintly golden.

Han Fei didn't pay much attention, but then he realized that something was wrong with his meridians.

"Huh... Why can't I feel my meridians? Well, aren't they still there? Have I not fully recovered?"

"Wait, why is my blood golden? Does being golden mean it's very expensive? I can't bleed easily in future, can I?"

"Hey, hey..."

Suddenly, Han Fei was shocked. "My seed? Where is my seed?"

Han Fei looked inside, only to see that the Heaven Spirit Detoxifying Insect was spinning with the demonic origin. As for his seed, it was gone for some reason.

"Did something just happen that I don't know about?"

When Han Fei's flesh, skin, eyes and hair all regrew, he raised his hand and felt it.

Bang!

As Han Fei clenched his fist, the void exploded.

"Shoot... Why have I become so strong?"

Han Fei subconsciously looked at the Demon Purification Pot.

What he saw shocked him.

Owner: Han Fei

Level: 70 (Junior Explorer)

< Spiritual Energy > 12,001 / 12,001

< Spiritual Power > 2,001 / 2,001

Perception range: 1,668 kilometers

Enforcing Law: Invincible Vajra

Strength: 198 Waves

First Spiritual Heritage: Unknown

Second Spiritual Heritage: Unawakened

First spiritual beast: Twin Yin-Yang Spirit Swallowing Fish (level-59)

Second spiritual beast: Unawakened

Main Art: Sky Stealing Technique, level six of Void Fishing (Venerable Level, Divine Quality)

...

“Hiss!”

Han Fei was stunned. Of course he knew that it was a huge leap from the peak of the Law Enforcer realm to the Explorer realm. It was an improvement in the level of life.

To put it bluntly, no matter how weak an Explorer was, ordinary law enforcers were definitely no match for him. Of course, Han Fei was an exception. After all, when Han Fei was still a law enforcer, he wasn't an ordinary law enforcer, but a law enforcer with the qualifications to become a king.

In the past, Han Fei and Ximen Linglan had calculated that even the weakest Law Enforcer who transcended the tribulation to become an Explorer had more than 50 waves of strength. Usually, most of them had more than 70 or 80 waves of strength, but very few could have 100 waves of strength.

As for the peak of the law enforcer realm, when Han Fei was at the peak of the law enforcer realm, his strength was only 54 waves. Even after four years of precipitation in the Wind Rain Village, his strength was only 76 waves.

In terms of strength alone, even an abnormally strong genius like him could barely defeat a junior Explorer without using a secret technique.

As far as Han Fei knew, the limit of his strength after this breakthrough was about 120 waves.

He didn't estimate it out of thin air, but based on the experience he gained on the Avenger.

At first, his strength could reach more than a hundred waves.

Then, when he was a junior peak-level Explorer, his strength might be able to reach more than 200 waves at most.

Of course, with his conditions, it shouldn't be difficult for his strength to reach 200 waves when he became a junior peak-level Explorer.

However, the terrifying thing was that he had only transcended a heavenly tribulation, but his strength was approaching the 200 waves mark. This number had even reached the level of the most ordinary intermediate Explorer.

Besides, he didn't use any secret technique.

Compared with the enhancement of strength, his spiritual power and soul strength didn't seem to be very outstanding. His perception range had only increased by more than 300 miles, not too much.

Just as Han Fei was wondering if he should continue to consolidate his strength, he was suddenly stunned.

He suddenly noticed something special. Why had his first spiritual heritage become unknown?

“Huh? Where is my level-nine spiritual heritage? Why did it become ‘Unknown’?”

Han Fei immediately looked inside and felt it, only to find that his meridians seemed to have changed. In his brand-new meridians, spiritual energy and energy shuttled extremely fast without the slightest feeling of obstruction.

“Huh? Why is it so smooth?”

“Wait... What kind of meridians are these?”

Han Fei suddenly widened his eyes and stopped looking inside. Instead, he looked at his arm and pinched his veins.

Gulp!

After a long time, Han Fei slowly swallowed.

He seemed to have discovered something incredible!

Although he seemed to have made a breakthrough in the fourth level of the Indestructible Body, his meridians seemed to have disappeared... Uh, or to be exact, it became invisible. He couldn't feel them with his finger, but they did exist.

Han Fei immediately took a breath. “Is my body not fully recovered? Don't panic. I still have a drop of Spring of Life.”

But at the next moment...

“Ohhh... Where is my Spring of Life? Where are my spiritual fruits? Where is my spiritual spring? Where is my food...”

Chapter 1199: A Man Walking Out of Thunder

To be honest, Han Fei was dumbfounded.

His first reaction was that it was not true! How could the things he hid in Forge the Universe be gone?

Not only were the treasures gone, but even the hot pot that he usually used was gone. The entire “Forge the Universe” was clean without even a blade of grass. The ultra-quality materials that hadn't been forged, the fish skin array he had once drawn, the black bead that hadn't been used, and even the Sea Demon Evil Book he had once obtained... were all gone. This didn't make sense!

In Forge the Universe, the Spirit Awakening Fluid that he kept for his pets were all gone! He should've used it sooner!

Suddenly, Han Fei's heart did a flip. The old turtle, it was definitely the old turtle!

This old guy knew the existence of the Demon Purification Pot and might have discovered the secret of Forge the Universe. While I was transcending the tribulation, he secretly stole my resources.

Han Fei roared, “Old b * stard, come out! Tell me, did you steal my things?”

The old turtle was licking his wounds alone. His Dao had been forcibly obliterated by the other party. His Dao had been used as the foundation of a little bastard's new meridians. Was there anything more outrageous than this in the world?

Suddenly, Han Fei cursed him like crazy. How could the big turtle bear it?

Han Fei shouted angrily, "I know it's you. Except for you, I don't have another person with me. I can tolerate you stealing my food, my seasonings, and even my pearls... But, how do you have the cheek to steal the spiritual fruits and the Life Spring Water I only have?"

The old turtle roared, "Little bastard, don't slander me. I stole your things? Who do you think I am? You robbed me of my Great Dao. If it weren't for this little calabash, I would've swallowed you."

Han Fei bared his teeth. "Okay! Swallow me? Humph, calabash, suck it to death!"

However, there was no response from the Demon Purification Pot, which made Han Fei rather embarrassed.

The old turtle roared, "Little bastard, just you wait. You used my Dao, and for the sake of this relationship, I can still guide you. But now, humph, I won't say a word... Are you surprised that your level-nine spiritual heritage is gone? Have you discovered that your Dao Seed is broken? Have you discovered that you feel everything is wrong with you? Heh... I won't tell you why."

Han Fei: "???"

Han Fei wondered if he had misunderstood the turtle.

Wait, what else did the old turtle know?

Han Fei lowered his voice. "Hey! Do you know what happened? Tell me. If you don't tell me, how can I know that you didn't steal anything?"

"Get lost!"

The old turtle's thunderous voice echoed in Han Fei's head.

Han Fei's eyelids twitched. This old turtle seems to be really angry.

The problem was, why was it so angry? Was it still angry about its Dao? Wasn't that thing snatched by the Demon Purification Pot four years ago? Why was it so angry now?

Han Fei really didn't understand this turtle.

"Forget it. Let's go out first. I don't know what's going on outside."

When Han Fei broke through the ball of spring that wrapped him, he was suddenly stunned. In his eyes, thunder rumbled, and electric arcs fell from the sky.

Boom!

As soon as Han Fei came out, he was struck by lightning.

However, just now, he was struck by lightning because he was transcending the tribulation.

Then what was this now? Was this still considered a tribulation?

Being struck like this, Han Fei didn't find any pain at all!

He even scratched his head, only to find that the power of lightning seemed to be mediocre now. Was it because he was already used to it?

Releasing his perception, Han Fei immediately discovered that the area where the lightning struck was less than 300 kilometers large.

The reason for the lightning was that the thick tribulation clouds had accumulated too much before, so they couldn't disperse for a while.

Han Fei's heart did a flip. Since it can't disperse, why do I have to make it disperse? Isn't it better to continue transcending the tribulation?

Anyway, it had already come to this point. Because of him, the Sea Clan and Water-Wood World started a war.

There was no such thing as guilt or inner demons that hindered his cultivation.

If it were the old Han Fei, even a resource competition in the village could become his inner demon.

But now, he didn't even know if he still had a heart... A heart demon?

Immediately, Han Fei issued an order in his heart, "Punishing Saber, Tree Spirit, come out."

Buzz!

With Han Fei's current strength, he could actually support the five of them coming out.

However, could they transcend the tribulation together?

As soon as Punishing Saber and Tree Spirit came out, with a bang, Tree Spirit was cut through. Then, smoke began to rise on him in an instant.

Of course, this was just ordinary lightning, not the so-called lightning tribulation. Of course, it was impossible to kill Tree Spirit instantly.

Otherwise, the identity of the legendary creature would be a joke!

Tree Spirit was struck stunned and looked up. "Master, have you finished transcending the heavenly tribulation?"

Han Fei said, "Take the opportunity to transcend your tribulation quickly."

Punishing Saber's blade trembled slightly. "Master, we have long reached the peak and have a complementary array. In fact, we can transcend the tribulation together."

Han Fei frowned. "Oh? Will your lives be in danger?"

Tree Spirit said leisurely, "No, nature-born spiritual plants are blessed by the heavens. Besides, Earth Nine's defense is very strong."

Han Fei's heart stirred as a mountain and river appeared. Immediately afterward, he saw Fire Seed, Water Luster, and Earth Nine appear one after another, floating above the sea.

The scene in the lightning tribulation might be able to block the vision of ordinary people, but definitely not the vision of Venerables.

"Good, good. It seems that Water-Wood World has been preparing for a long time. They actually want to let six people transcend the heavenly tribulation at once. My men, smash the area of the heavenly tribulation."

"Humph! Do you think I don't exist?"

The insect king roared, and Han Fei saw that its huge body began to rapidly shrink.

In an instant, he successfully turned into a bald young man about 2 meters tall.

Han Fei was shocked to see him. This bald man was cold-faced, bald, and his armor was full of sharp blades. His arms, legs, elbows, and even the back of his head were all black sharp blades.

Was this the human form of the Insect King?

He looked like a murderous killer.

However, that was not the end of it.

In Han Fei's eyes, the insect king directly cracked, and a new insect king appeared.

The Insect King pointed his knife at the void and said arrogantly, "I don't mind how many Venerables come, but if any Dao-Seeking realm demons dare to cross the line, I'll kill them all."

The Mantis Shrimp that had been confronting the insect king also had a human transformation technique, which was even weirder than the insect king.

Two limbs grew out of his back.

It could be seen that although these Venerables could turn into humans, they were far from being like real humans. Or rather, they needed this half-human half-demon state to facilitate their battle.

The Insect King shouted, "When has Water-Wood World ever been afraid of fighting?"

The two of them didn't take action immediately, and the Venerable on the opposite side shouted, "What a battle of tribulation. The Water-Wood World has done a lot for this tribulation, hasn't you? In that case, let's see if you can stop our powerhouses in this battle!"

Buzz!

In an instant, Han Fei felt the void tremble.

Then, a gigantic crack appeared in the sky 500 kilometers away. Then the Insect King and the Mantis Shrimp Venerable both disappeared.

Han Fei took a deep breath. Nine Tails, you're too weak. Look at this Mantis Shrimp, he is already a Venerable.

However, once the Venerables left, the situation outside the Fearless City wall was out of control.

Behind Han Fei was the Fearless Barrier, with the Fearless Trees rooted in the air.

A strange green light stabbed into an old turtle. The old turtle's shell that was as hard as a rock was completely useless. Starting from his shell, a piece of green moss that looked like shattered seaweed grew.

"Ahhh~"

In a low scream, the turtle was soon covered by moss. No matter how it struggled, even if it tore the void, it couldn't resist the erosion of his soul and body.

Of course, the price to pay for killing a sea race powerhouse was that after the Fearless Tree launched this strange parasitic strike, its body immediately began to wither.

In the end, it became dead branches at the bottom of the sea, which would soon be dismembered and eaten by plankton.

Due to the departure of the Venerable, on the Fearless City wall, an old tree soon stuck up from the bottom of the sea. He was also a Venerable, but he was protecting the Fearless Barrier.

Seeing that Han Fei had successfully transcended the tribulation, a Dao Seeking creature immediately shouted, "Han Fei, do you dare to fight me?"

At this moment, all kinds of perceptions swept over.

Everyone discovered that Han Fei was as broken as a porcelain doll and walked out of the Heavenly Tribulation with a limp.

"Huh?"

Yi Yuchen, who had been paying attention to Han Fei, shot an arrow through the air and asked, "Why is someone else transcending a tribulation?"

Lu Hanle from the Flying Feather Division, who had met Han Fei once, also shattered the void with her sword, trying to charge at Han Fei.

However, a Golden-Winged Flying Fish flew in the air, setting up a domain with thousands of scales. A big ball bubble wrapped the two of them in the void again.

Someone shouted, "Why are there still creatures transcending tribulations?"

At this moment, not only did the tribulation clouds in the sky not disperse, but they also showed five colors as if they were rays of light passing through from billions of kilometers away.

However, Han Fei was penniless and had no properties at all.

Han Fei shouted, "Everyone, whoever lends me some resources, I'll pay you back double in the future."

Han Fei's cry attracted almost everyone's attention.

Someone took a breath. "This person still alive? He survived the Four Nine King Tribulation safely?"

However, Han Fei's miserable appearance was also seen by everyone. How could it be easy to transcend a kingly tribulation? At this moment, Han Fei must have been like a spent arrow and his resources must have been exhausted, so he had to borrow resources from others.

A big bird from the Sky Clan rushed over. "Here you are."

A Sea Swallowing Seashell cut through the sky.

Swish! Swish!

Dozens of arrows shot over, with Sea Swallowing Seashells on them.

Han Fei was overjoyed, and a phantom hand grabbed at the void.

Immediately, intermediate Dao Seeking powerhouses rushed over.

After all, Han Fei had never killed a cultivator of this level head-on before. The Half-Merman was confident that he could beat Han Fei because he was two levels higher than him.

Besides, he also had a secret method, so he should be no worse than Han Fei. Besides, Han Fei was seriously injured. He must not let him get resources.

"Although you survived the Heavenly Tribulation, you still can't escape from death."

As soon as this person shouted, there were shouts from all directions.

It was mainly because Han Fei was too fierce before the tribulation.

The five Heavenly Talents from the Royal City were directly killed because of the Heavenly Tribulation.

In head-on battles, Han Fei was domineering.

And in the battle over the Heavenly Tribulation, the Sea Clan lost too.

At this moment, the Heavenly Tribulation had just passed, and Han Fei was obviously seriously injured. If they didn't take action now, when would they?

Han Fei, on the other hand, looked ferocious. "Even if I, Han Fei, am seriously injured, do you think you can hurt me? Get lost!"

Chapter 1200: Tribulation of Five Elements

In the blink of an eye.

The moment Han Fei walked out of the lightning tribulation, many strong masters came from all directions.

Some people wanted to protect Han Fei, some wanted to kill him, and some people began to fight on the way.

Compared to breaking through the Fearless Barrier, these sea demons were actually more willing to fight normal people of the same level as them.

After all, the old trees guarding the Fearless Barrier were all determined to die. They were not even afraid of death.

On Han Fei's side, the danger seemed to be much less. This battle was originally meant to hunt Han Fei. This purpose was so obvious that there was no need to hide it at all.

At this moment, Han Fei looked so miserable that it seemed that he would break into pieces with a gentle push. Of course, countless sea race powerhouses came at him.

This was a person who had passed the Four Nine King Tribulation. This was a peerless genius whom no people in the same realm as him could defeat.

In the void, Ning Jing was stopped by two Venerables.

However, she was not in the mood to fight. Instead, she said with disdain, "Do you really think that the person the queen values is weak?"

Someone sneered. "How can it be so easy to transcend the Four Nine King Tribulation? Let's take the chance to kill him!"

...

Outside the tribulation cloud vortex, Han Fei had no weapon in his hand. He looked at the Half-Mermen who was rushing at him, and there was a giant scorpion tail on his harpoon, which pierced through the void.

Boom... Crack...

In the next second, Han Fei grabbed the harpoon with both hands and seemed to have narrowly blocked the attack of the scorpion tail, and several cracks appeared on his chest.

"You stinky fish! You're not worthy of attacking me!"

The golden fist mark was no less powerful than the Sacrificing Punch.

He shattered the divine weapon-level battle suit on the Half-Merman with a punch. Although he tried to resist Han Fei with the law of distortion, in terms of space law, the Star Teleportation Technique was much better than that law.

"Pfft!"

Han Fei inserted one hand into the Half-Merman's body and clasped his hands.

Chi la!

A rain of blood fell. Han Fei roared and looked around. "Who else?"

The people from the Flying Feather Division who were about to come to rescue Han Fei were all speechless. You're still being arrogant when you're so badly injured? Are you kidding me?

However, Yi Yuchen thought to herself, That's not right! Han Fei doesn't even need half a second to kill an intermediate Explorer! His strength seems to have increased a lot!

Besides, he knew that Messenger Jing would personally guard Han Fei.

But at this moment, neither Messenger Jing nor Venerable Xue was around. What were they up to?

If they wanted to leave, could the Sea Demon Venerable really stop them?

Yi Yuchen's heart did a flip. Han Fei feigned being weak?

He immediately shouted, "It's okay. Just stop the peak-level Dao Seeking-realm sea demons."

Han Fei glanced around. Why had all the people who were supposed to guard him retreated?

However, he didn't panic at all. Looking at the more than 20 sea demons rushing at him from all directions, he shouted, "Only these few people? Are you looking down on me?"

Bang! Bang!

Han Fei rose to the sky, and his fists were like dragons. Every time a golden fist mark appeared, the waves surged and the void exploded.

Someone slashed Han Fei's body, leaving a deep cut. However, as Han Fei turned his hand, a kitchen knife swept across and cut him in half.

A big turtle pressed down like a mountain. "Han Fei, watch my Mystic Turtle Sea Suppressing Technique."

A hundred-meter-long turtle shadow appeared in the sky, smashing through the void and falling at Han Fei.

"Roar!"

Han Fei's face changed greatly, and one of his arms was full of cracks. His fist glowed red. "Break!"

The punch penetrated the turtle shell and killed the old turtle.

It was lost for words, wondering why Han Fei was still so strong.

Someone shouted, "Han Fei's already spent force. Everyone, let's attack him together."

Han Fei shouted, "Even if I die today, I'll kill you first!"

What he said seemed to be true.

At this moment, however, Han Fei was thinking, Why are there only so few of them? Come more!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Bam! Bam! Bam!

In the battle covering a hundred kilometers, furious waves surged, golden fist shadows filled the sky, and occasionally saber marks tore the sky.

From time to time, Han Fei was hammered away, and his body was full of cracks. After killing only ten people, Han Fei seemed to be about to collapse at any time.

Someone shouted, "Let's try harder and kill him!"

A hundred seconds passed.

There were only three or five people left.

Someone was speechless. "Why is his body still not broken?"

However, Han Fei didn't seem to be pretending!

Han Fei wiped the blood at the corner of his mouth, and a muffled roar came from his throat. "Since I've already made a breakthrough, how can a group of mere Dao Seeking demons kill me?"

Boom Boom!!

Suddenly, a second five-colored lightning bolt fell. The terrifying lightning didn't seem to be much weaker than Han Fei's Four Nine King Tribulation.

Punishing Saber and the other four were too strong. During the first tribulation, they resisted it with their own bodies together and were completely fine.

On the second lightning strike, the five of them used their own methods and helped each other.

Water Luster froze Tree Spirit as if he were wearing heavy armor.

Tree Spirit's infinite branches were injected into Fire Seed whose body burst into flames.

Fire Seed used essence fire as the basis, burning the void, and Earth Nine hid in the void rift.

Punishing Saber was half inserted into a strange stone, and the lightning bolt struck Punishing Saber and penetrated the stone. After the lightning bolt, Punishing Saber even slashed the sky and shattered half of the lightning tribulation.

The rest of the lightning was swallowed by Water Luster and absorbed.

Seeing this scene, Han Fei couldn't help but feel enlightened. The five elements mutually augmented and restrained each other. He wondered if Punishing Saber and the others were caught and thrown in by his mother. This was a bit too fierce.

Suddenly, someone shouted, "Let's ignore Han Fei and blast into the heavenly tribulation first. Let's see who's transcending the tribulation inside!"

Hearing that, Han Fei immediately shouted, "Crab, if you dare to provoke me again, I'll kill you first!"

However, the crab simply ignored him.

Han Fei was really not easy to deal with. He had just become an Explorer, but his physique was too strong. Even if there were cracks all over his body, he was still unshakeable.

At this moment, the crab's giant pincer extended into the tribulation clouds.

Shua!

A figure flashed in the air. Han Fei had traversed nearly 500 kilometers in an instant and arrived.

“Hiss!”

“Not good, he is pretending.”

“Damn it!”

Bang!

A huge hammer fell from the sky.

Ka ka ka!

The crab’s pincer was shattered, and the crab had just torn through the void and hadn’t had the time to escape when Han Fei punched its shell. Then, the crab’s vitality declined and its body was full of death aura.

“Hey! You idiot, I told you not to provoke me... Didn’t you hear me... Just die!”

The so-called cracks on Han Fei’s body were recovering at a visible speed. That was just a fake scene caused by him activating the Indestructible Body just now.

In fact, Han Fei was full of energy at the moment.

He wouldn’t feel tired even if he fought for another day and night.

Buzz buzz buzz!

A group of great demons at the Dao Seeking realm hurriedly retreated. Someone shouted in shock, “Impossible. You’ve just transcended a heavenly tribulation. How can you be safe and sound?”

Han Fei curled his lips and laughed. “Do you think I’m as useless as you? What can a mere heavenly tribulation do to me? Now I feel that I can kill a peak-level Dao Seeking powerhouse with one punch. Any strong master want to fight me?”

“Hmph!”

A sound wave shattered the void and struck in front of Han Fei.

Han Fei’s eyes turned cold. He stomped, and the Vajra Giant appeared behind him. However, a gentle snort was suddenly heard and Han Fei was pushed back a thousand meters in the air, his face dark.

Han Fei gritted his teeth and grinned. “A Venerable attacked me in person? Don’t let me find a chance in the future, or I will sweep across your Sea Spirit Realm.”

At this moment, in the sky, the five-colored misty brilliance was even more dazzling.

Many people were actually stunned and had no idea what was going on inside.

What surprised them was that since Han Fei had come out, who else was transcending the tribulation inside?

Han Fei sighed.

Although he had used all his resources in this battle, his comprehensive strength and confidence had indeed become a lot stronger.

The five legend creatures had become Explorers, so had him.

From now on, he wouldn't have to worry about being hunted by others.

In any case, Explorers represented the top powers of the Yin-Yang World and the Water-Wood World. As long as no Venerables appeared, Explorers could almost dominate the two domains.

At this moment, the brilliance unleashed by Punishing Saber and the other four dyed the sky five-colored. Therefore, from the outside, it looked like a five-colored lightning tribulation.

In fact, Earth Nine was covering the other four spirits with its own power, and Tree Spirit and the others were trying their best to feed Earth Nine back. That was why there was such a magnificent scene.

"Humph! Whoever is transcending the tribulation, come out!"

A peak-level Dao Seeking-realm sea demon thrust a spear over.

Han Fei sneered. "You think you can see it as you please? Who do you think you are?"

Han Fei took a deep breath, activated the Beast King Technique, and punched out. The terrifying power and the power of the spear exploded at the same time.

"Wow!"

Han Fei took seven or eight steps back and felt his strength. There was a blood mark on his fist, indicating that the power of the punch he just gave was still a little weak.

However, he didn't panic at all. Just now, he didn't use all his strength.

"Huh?"

"How is that possible?"

"How can a beginner Explorer be comparable to a peak-level Dao Seeker?"

The explorers of the Flying Feather Division shouted and fought crazily.

Especially Yi Yuchen, he shouted in a low voice, "How dare you be distracted under my arrows? Today, I'll kill you to prove my Dao."

Chi la!

In mid-air, there was a dazzling flash as if there were stars flashing in front of his eyes. Then, he heard an explosion more than 300 kilometers away.

Smack!

"One arrow breaks the barrier, and two arrows take the soul."

Yi Yuchen appeared out of nowhere and pointed the longbow in his hand.

Han Fei could only see two black spots in the air. Then, he saw the head of the shrimp soldier who narrowly blocked Yi Yuchen's arrow explode.

At that moment, spiritual energy surged within thousands of kilometers. Yi Yuchen stood proudly in the void. He was about to enter the Dao.

Rumble!

At this moment, the lightning tribulation arrived too. The five-colored mystic light struck the sky at the same time. Tree Spirit and the others resisted for more than three seconds, but they survived unscathed.

At this moment, Wushang Xue took a step forward and threw the spiritual spring and energy to Yi Yuchen as if they were free. At the same time, a drop of Life Spring Water was injected into Yi Yuchen's body.

Then, Wushang Xue glanced at Han Fei with a complicated look.
