Chapter 1201: I Heard You Can Turn Into A Bird

Wushang Xue estimated that Yi Yuchen must be putting too much pressure on him.

After all, he was about to become a Venerable, but Han Fei defeated him.

The reason why Wushang Xue sent him to the Fearless Barrier to kill a peak-level Dao Seeking cultivator before going back was actually to appease Yi Yuchen.

On the second day after Yi Yuchen came to the fearless battlefield, however, Han Fei arrived too.

Not only had Han Fei arrived, but he had also transcended the tribulation in front of him.

Not only that, Han Fei had also killed a lot of enemies in this battle. The Four Nine King Tribulation symbolized that he had become a new rising star.

On this day, many people were shocked by him.

All the strong masters of the Flying Feather Division were here today to guard him together with Jing'er.

Great, being stimulated by this, now Yi Yuchen wanted to make a breakthrough too.

He felt that if he hadn't made a breakthrough, Han Fei might have been able to fight him head-on.

"Tweet ~"

If he made the breakthrough successfully, the Water-Wood World would have one more Venerable. Realizing this, the Sea Clan panicked. They had planned to come to stop Han Fei from transcending his tribulation.

However, they failed to cause any trouble and ended up letting the Water-Wood World have one more Venerable. Who could stand it?

Immediately, a White-Eyed Wild Hawk broke through the void and shouted, "Jing'er, retreat and defend."

Buzz—

At that moment, Ning Jing, the Insect King, Wushang Xue, the White-Eyed Wild Hawk, and the hundred-odd Explorers of the various races retreated to the periphery of the fearless barrier.

At this moment, the tribulation clouds in the sky had already quickly dispersed.

Han Fei activated the Star Teleportation Technique and entered the tribulation clouds.

The Sea Quelling Painting was unfolded, and the five legend creatures were taken into the painting.

At that moment, Punishing Saber said via voice transmission, "Master, if it's possible, can you give us some resources? We've consumed a lot in this tribulation."

Han Fei threw over the resources he had just borrowed. The corner of his mouth twitched, and he thought to himself, I don't have any resources left now. I don't even have a single spiritual fruit.

Han Fei immediately said unhappily, "Use it sparingly and stabilize your cultivation base in the painting. Let me kill a group of great demons at the Dao Seeking realm and get you some resources."

"Huhu!"

A strong wind blew, the tribulation clouds dispersed, and all the Venerables looked at Han Fei.

They could see Tree Spirit and the others transcending tribulations.

The Venerables from the Water-Wood World were only curious. Han Fei must have a big secret! Five special creatures were following him.

Yes, they didn't think Tree Spirit and the others were Han Fei's contractual spiritual beasts. Otherwise, wouldn't he have too many contractual spiritual beasts?

And the sea demons had already remembered Han Fei.

Furthermore, some of them had already memorized the appearances of Tree Spirit and the others. To put it bluntly, from today on, Han Fei had become one of the key killing targets of the Sea Demon Royal City.

At this moment, Yi Yuchen was seeking a breakthrough. It would probably take him at least half an hour.

There must be Venerables coming over from the Water-Wood World.

After all, they couldn't treat the birth of a venerable man the same way they treated an ordinary tribulation.

A Shark-Headed Inferior Man-Fish shouted, "The Water-Wood World needs guards on its four battlefields. It's not so easy for you to enter the Dao."

Wushang Xue said indifferently, "If you want to fight, let's fight, as long as you can cross the fearless barrier."

The Insect King's voice echoed, "Worm sea tactics."

The moment the Insect King said that, in the dark waters, from hidden holes, coral crevices, and concealment arrays, a large number of insect creatures crawled out.

In the blink of an eye, hundreds of thousands of Insect Clan creatures emerged from the Dark Water. The battlefield in the so-called Dark Water was now one-sided.

For the birth of a new Venerable, the Insect King had unleashed all the worms that had been lurking in the Dark Water for an unknown period of time. Almost all of them were Hidden Fishers, and there were as many as 100,000 of them.

In the rear, the situation had been set. A one-sided slaughter was about to begin.

In the air, the smell of fighting was extremely strong. Both parties seemed to be waiting for someone.

In the endless sky, a deep voice sounded, "Undying Demoness, I originally thought you were here to help a junior transcend the tribulation. It turns out that your scheme is actually to nurture another Venerable? Heh, the last time we went to war was 100 years ago. What do you think of this battle?"

“Undying Demoness?”

Han Fei wondered who the Undying Demoness was.

But in the next second, Queen Life’s voice sounded, “Every time someone becomes a Venerable, there will be a battle. The Water-Wood World has been long preparing for this battle. What can you, the White Shell Royal City, do to us?”

“Humph! Then let’s wait and see. This brat is called Han Fei, right? Today, if he gets out of the Water-Wood World, he will be killed!”

Han Fei was surprised. Why was Queen Life called the Undying Demoness by the sea demons? He was stunned when he heard the king of the other party mention him.

Ning Jing and the others all looked over.

Someone shook his head slightly. Sometimes, being too high-profile was not good.

Han Fei was too outstanding. Not only had he surpassed the Four Nine King Tribulation, but he had also killed so many sea demon powerhouses! Great! Now he was targeted.

Han Fei immediately cursed, “Old b * stard, have I dug your ancestral grave? It’s none of your business whether I go to sea or not!”

“Silence.”

Wushang Xue glared at Han Fei. Are you out of your mind? It’s fine if you scold Venerables. After all, I admit that you are going to be a Venerable.

However, this was a f*cking king!

If the King really left the Royal City regardless of the cost and fought Queen Life, it was hard to say whether you could survive and whether Yi Yuchen could become a Venerable today.

Wushang Xue glanced sideways at Han Fei. “Go back to the Water-Wood World. What happened here has nothing to do with your tribulation battle. Now it’s the battle of Dao Entering.”

Han Fei was stunned for a moment. This battle started because of me. How can I leave?

Immediately, Han Fei took a deep breath. “I’m very strong now. I’m invincible in the Dao-seeking Realm.”

Everyone :” ...”

“F*ck off!”

Wushang Xue glared at Han Fei. “You’ll only get in the way if you stay here. The Sea Clan will only try to take you and Yi Yuchen down at the same time. If you want to fight, go to the Fiery Sea.”

Ning Jing looked at Han Fei. “Go!”

Then Ning Jing's voice resounded throughout the void. "Those who are not yet at the level of a Half-Venerable, fight in other domains. Those on the battlefield in the Dark Water Domain who are not members of the Insect clan, go fight in other domains."

Han Fei scratched his head. This seemed to be a bit beyond his expectations.

In his heart, the old turtle's reluctant voice sounded, "What are you waiting for? The Venerable-level battle is about to start. What's the use of you staying here? Have you become a Half-Venerable? Can you withstand a slap from a Venerable?"

"F*ck!"

Han Fei was shocked. So there is going to be a Venerable-level battle! No wonder I feel something is wrong. Even Queen Life had come out to speak.

At this moment, Han Fei discovered that the Water-Wood World was not much safer than the Yin-Yang World.

After all, in the Thousand Star City, if it weren't for the Thug Academy's revolt, he probably wouldn't have seen a Venerable appear a few times in 800 years. However, in the Water-Wood World, the Venerables and peak-level Explorers lived with ordinary people and would patrol the four domains.

Therefore, although the Water-Wood World seemed to be in a passive defense, the battles were more frequent. As for the Yin-Yang World, although the battles seemed fierce, in fact, they were incomparable to those here. After all, the front line was full of small potatoes.

With a thought, Han Fei seemed to be able to feel that there was an invisible barrier in the void. He extended his hand and pulled, tearing the void apart.

"Huh! Damn... It's so simple to tear through the void?"

Han Fei's heart skipped a beat. This was much more convenient than when he used the Heavenly Void Divine Movement!

Han Fei beckoned, "I'll be leaving first. If Yi Yuchen doesn't make it, I, Han Fei, owe the Water-Wood World a Venerable-level great demon. Jing'er, thank you for helping me today. I'll treat you to a complete Manchu-Han banquet in the future. I guarantee you won't be disappointed."

He would pay back the favor he owed.

Although he could transcend the tribulation here safely because Old Han had a deal with Queen Life.

However, it was the Insect King, Yi Yuchen, and Jing'er who protected him. Not only did they protect him from the tribulation, but they also helped Tree Spirit and the others transcend the heavenly tribulation.

In fact, at this moment, Han Fei could say that he had achieved all his goals in the Water-Wood World.

Except that he was a little poor now, everything went smoother than he expected.

When Han Fei shattered the void and rushed all the way to the Water-Wood World, hundreds of creatures followed him.

A Single-horned Longicorn flew at Han Fei. "Han Fei, Han Fei... Where are you going to fight? Let's fight together?"

Han Fei was stunned. But I don't know you, Bug!

A big green bird flew close. "Chong Fei, aren't you going to the Cave Sea yet!"

The big bug said with a buzz, "There are many Insect Queens guarding the Cave Sea. Why would they need me? Oh... That's not right. The Cave Sea is a place for training soldiers. It lacks explorers. I'd better go to the Cave Sea!"

The green bird glanced at Han Fei and said softly, "I heard that you can transform into a bird? Why don't you do it?"

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei said with a black face, "I don't know how to do it."

The green bird didn't believe him. "You're lying. Forget it. Which domain are you going to? You'd better not go out. A great war is going to break out in the Dark War Port. You can't be taken away now."

Han Fei asked, "Where are you going?"

The green bird said softly, "The Fiery Sea is not suitable for me. Our Sky Clan will mostly choose the Ice Domain."

Han Fei narrowed his eyes. He wasn't familiar with the Cave Sea, but he was familiar with the Ice Domain and the Fiery Sea.

Be it in terms of the enemy's strength or resources, the Fiery Sea was better than the Ice Domain... Wait...

Suddenly, Han Fei's pupils were constricted.

No! There was no point for him in staying in the Water-Wood World anymore!

He had transcended the tribulation, so had Tree Spirit and the others. He had already achieved his goal of coming to the Water-Wood World.

Besides, he still owed Queen Life 50 Dao Seeking great demons. At this moment, the best thing to do was to do his old business.

What was his old business?

Apart from robbery, what else was he good at?

Han Fei immediately said to the green bird flying next to him, "I suddenly remembered something. I'm leaving first."

Swish!

Under the astonished gaze of the green bird, Han Fei swooshed away.

The green bird was stunned for a long time before muttering, "Sure enough, only birds like me can fall in love."

Chapter 1202: Build A Preliminary Alliance

In the outer sea of the Ice Domain.

Han Fei hid in Forge the Universe when he was only ten thousand kilometers away from the outer sea.

As soon as Han Fei entered Forge the Universe, the old turtle's voice came out.

The old turtle said, "Sure enough, I knew that this space wouldn't be as simple as a warehouse. It's actually a small world created by this calabash?"

The old turtle's voice wasn't so sure either.

After all, Forge the Universe was still too small.

Besides, for some reason, Forge the Universe seemed to have been thoroughly cleaned. Nothing was left. Even the seeds of ordinary spiritual fruits were gone.

Seeing this scene, Han Fei felt that his heart was broken.

This meant that for a long time to come, he wouldn't even have any seasonings for food.

Han Fei couldn't help asking, "Aren't you surprised that there are living things in this space?"

The old turtle chuckled. "What's there to be surprised about? The reason that Sea Swallowing Seashells and Sun-Moon Shells can't store living creatures is that they're already dead. If living creatures can survive in them, it's against the rules of the Great Dao. But your calabash looks like a living creature. Giving birth to a space is nothing to it. Logically speaking, with this calabash's ability, it shouldn't have only produced such a small space! It might be able to create an entire world."

The old turtle mumbled something that Han Fei couldn't understand.

When he heard what the old turtle said, Han Fei's heart did a flip. The Demon Purification Pot should be able to do that, right?

Han Fei said calmly, "Aren't you surprised at all? Have you seen many such soul treasures?"

The old turtle sneered, "Why should I tell you? You think about how to kill me every day! I don't want to talk to you."

Han Fei grinned. "What are you talking about? I can't kill you, can I? Let's be honest. Old turtle, you are so strong. It's impossible for me to let you go now. Besides, the calabash doesn't listen to me. In that case, we can cooperate. What do you think?"

The old turtle snorted. "Cooperate? Can you cooperate with others?"

Han Fei said leisurely, "That depends on who it is! I usually rob creatures of the same level as me. However, considering that you'll stay with me for a long time, you might still be in my body when I become a king. If we cooperate now, it will be beneficial for both of us."

The old turtle grunted. "Are you sure?"

Han Fei said leisurely, "Can you tell me where my countless spiritual springs and spiritual fruits are? We have to build a foundation of mutual trust first, right?"

The old turtle thought for a moment. "I can tell you that! However, since you're going to rob people, we have to divide the loot in advance. Otherwise, don't even think about cooperation."

Han Fei immediately said, "Tell me about your opinion. I'm listening."

The old turtle's eyes lit up. "Go rob them. All the treasures you grab will belong to you. However, the vitality of those creatures you kill must belong to me."

Han Fei raised his eyebrows. "All the vitality belongs to you? Can you still devour their vitality now?"

The old turtle sneered. "Nonsense, it's my soul in your body. However, I was seriously injured by your calabash and can only stay here. Without a body, I can only rely on the power of my soul. It's just because I'm very strong that I haven't fallen asleep!"

Han Fei frowned. "It's not good to swallow others' vitality, is it?"

The old turtle was lost for words. "Not good? Boy, how many bad things have you done? How do you have the cheek to say so?"

Han Fei said with a black face, "Hey, hey! That's a personal attack on me! If I give you vitality, what can I eat?"

The old turtle: "..."

Both of them were silent.

Then the old turtle almost roared, "Is my life not as important as your food?"

Han Fei smiled in embarrassment. "Don't get excited. What if you get vitality, break free from the shackles and want to kill me?"

The old turtle roared, "I failed to kill you even when my soul was at its peak. You don't have to worry about that, OK? Shouldn't the one worrying be me?"

The more he talked, the angrier he became. The old turtle said, "No, there's no trust between you and me. You have to swear to the Great Dao that you can't have any ill intentions towards me."

Han Fei was reluctant. "Why? Do you think I would betray my soul just to know something that I will find out sooner or later?"

Immediately, Han Fei thought to himself, I must find a way to kill this thing. It's too evil.

The old turtle roared again, "Look, how do you have the cheek to say that I'm evil? You want to kill me every day and you call me evil?"

The old turtle was speechless. He had been a devil for all his life, but he had never met anyone as disgusting as this guy. The guy just wanted to squeeze benefits out of him but didn't want to give anything away. Even as a devil, he still had some conscience left! But this b * stard... Bah, this brat, he has no conscience at all.

Han Fei was briefly stunned. It seemed that the old turtle could hear his thoughts.

Forget it, Han Fei didn't care anymore. He said leisurely, "Okay! Let's be honest. What you're worried about is nothing more than whether I will kill you or not. I can guarantee that I won't kill you. To be honest, as I become stronger, it's only a matter of time before I control this calabash. That's what you're worried about. In that case, you just need to promise to answer all my questions, and when I'm in danger, you must take action and don't try to kill me."

The old turtle said, "I'm only a wisp of soul now. How can I help you?"

Han Fei immediately said disdainfully, "Keep making things up. Do you think you're the first old grandpa living in me? He can attack, but you can't? Enough bulls * it. I know it shouldn't be a problem for you to kill a Venerable in one breath. If you agree, let's swear."

The old turtle was lost for words. "Forget it. You don't have to swear anymore. I'm dying of anger because of you. If my body were still there, I could've killed a king with one breath, let alone a Venerable. But look at me, can I do that now? If I were so powerful, I would've killed you long ago."

Han Fei realized that it did make sense.

He immediately said, "Then can you take me away from the hands of a Venerable?"

The old turtle snapped, "Why do you have to go against a Venerable? Did a Venerable steal your wife or your treasure? Don't you know what you are? Why do you keep provoking Venerables?"

Han Fei snorted and said without blushing, "Okay! Then I can lower the requirements a little. Once a Venerable-level crisis happens, you have to help us survive it. Otherwise, we'll be separated. Anyway, I can fight a great demon at the Dao Seeking realm alone now."

The old turtle was silent for a long time. "If you want me to take action, I should have the strength to do so first. I need to devour vitality to maintain my soul."

Han Fei said, "Swear first."

The old turtle said, "Boy, I can swear. However, you have to agree to one of my conditions."

Han Fei rolled his eyes. "What condition?"

The old turtle snorted. "I can help you, but don't kill me until you become a king."

Han Fei thought for a moment. "You have to swear first."

Although the old turtle wanted to tear Han Fei apart, he had to bow his head when he was under the eaves.

He had to find a way to establish an alliance with this kid. Otherwise, he would be killed by this kid sooner or later.

Immediately, the old turtle said in a deep voice, “I swear to the Great Dao of Origins that I will answer some questions of Han Fei that don’t involve great karma. If my strength permits, I will take action in time when Han Fei is threatened by a Venerable. If Han Fei doesn’t have the intention to kill me, I shall not have any intention of harming him. This oath requires Han Fei to swear as well, or it won’t count.”

Han Fei was stunned for a long time and then asked dumbfoundedly, “That’s it? That’s it?”

The old turtle snorted. “I swear on the Great Dao of Origins, once you violate this law of cause and effect, the consequences are not something you can bear. Okay, I’ve finished speaking. You can decide if I’m sincere or not.”

Han Fei certainly knew what the old turtle meant.

If this guy really wanted to kill him, he should have done so back in the Wind Rain Village. Obviously, this old turtle must have taken a fancy to his opportunities.

However, there was something that Han Fei didn’t understand. Since the two parties had developed a basis for cooperation, he wouldn’t think about killing him every day. Then why did this turtle insist that he couldn’t have the intention to kill him before he became a king?

Or rather, could he kill it after he became a king?

Han Fei didn’t understand it, but it wasn’t a big problem. He immediately said, “Okay, I, Han Fei, swear to the Great Dao of Origins that before I become a king, I won’t try to kill the old turtle. I need to provide the old turtle with basic vitality. This oath is based on the fact that the old turtle keeps his word. Otherwise, it won’t count.”

Although the old turtle knew that Han Fei had changed some words, such as changing “having no killing intent” to “not trying to kill” and only providing him with “basic vitality”, he felt that Han Fei was willing to compromise.

Neither the old turtle nor Han Fei had ever thought that their first alliance would be built like this.

In fact, Han Fei didn’t even know if the Great Dao would really care about his oath. If he regretted it, would the impact be really great?

However, thinking of the things that he promised Li Huang in the Heavenly Desolate City, and the things that Old Han had once said, Han Fei felt that he would rather believe such an oath than not.

But no matter what, he couldn’t feed this old turtle with too much vitality!

However, since they were already allies, Han Fei immediately asked, “So, why have all my resources disappeared?”

Chapter 1203: I’m Your Ancestor

Faced with Han Fei’s question, the old turtle sneered. “Haven’t you noticed that something is wrong with your spiritual heritage?”

Han Fei was stunned. There seemed to be no problem with his spiritual heritage. Although his level-nine spiritual heritage had become an unknown one, the effect didn't seem to be worse.

Instead, he could use spiritual energy more effectively now. The effect of automatically swallowing energy and spiritual energy was also better. He wondered if the recovery effect had become better.

All in all, he felt that everything was great except that his money was gone.

Han Fei couldn't help but ask, "So, what does the disappearance of my resources have to do with my spiritual heritage?"

The old turtle snorted. "I don't know whether you should thank your calabash or hate it."

Han Fei couldn't help looking at the Demon Purification Pot. "What do you mean?"

The old turtle said, "You have a level-nine spiritual heritage. In a sense, a level-nine spiritual heritage can be called a king's heritage. As long as your spiritual heritage is above level-seven, there is a chance that you can become a king. You have your own Dao Seed. Any path that can give birth to a Dao Seed is actually not weak."

"Wait a moment... Dao Seed? What Dao Seed?"

The old turtle sneered. "Haven't you noticed that the seed in your Dantian is gone?"

Han Fei's eyes glittered. "So? What happened?"

The old turtle said leisurely, "This calabash of yours probably despises your Dao Seed and level-nine spiritual heritage. Therefore, while you made a breakthrough in body tempering and had infinite vitality, abundant resources, and the support of my Great Dao... it forcibly shattered your Dao Seed and severed your path. Then, with my Great Dao as the foundation, it reconnected a spiritual heritage for you. Now, do you understand? It's not that your resources are gone, but that all your resources have been used by this calabash to change your fate."

"Hiss!"

Han Fei was dumbfounded. "Wait a moment! Let's take it slow... Are you saying that my seed is a Dao Seed? What's the use of a Dao Seed?"

The old turtle chuckled. "That's the seed of the Great Dao. The existence of the seed means that you will inevitably embark on a Great Dao. It's only a matter of time before you become a Venerable. You won't have any bottlenecks before you become a Venerable."

"Hiss!"

Han Fei was shocked. What? That small seed can make me become a Venerable?

Han Fei couldn't have felt more awful. I didn't even know what the awesome seed was for, and the calabash had crumbled it?

The old turtle said, "Humph, little seed, weren't you a little seed before you were born? Why are you panicking? Don't you have another path of invincibility?"

Han Fei's eyes lit up. "Is there a seed of the path of invincibility? Is it called the Invincible Seed? How can I create it?"

The old turtle: "..."

He suddenly roared in HanFei's heart, "An invincible seed? Are you kidding me? Do you think that all the cultivators who walk the path of invincibility can have an invincible seed?"

Han Fei curled his lips. "Not bad!"

The old turtle snorted. "There's no such thing as invincibility in this world. Therefore, it's impossible for there to be an invincible seed."

Han Fei said in disappointment, "Okay, okay! Then tell me, what's wrong with my spiritual heritage? Is it still a level-nine spiritual heritage?"

The old turtle seemed to be gnashing his teeth.

However, thinking of its own Great Dao, it said in a deep voice, "Level-nine spiritual heritage? Only the spiritual heritages of ordinary people are divided into levels. The spiritual heritages of real powerhouses are never divided into levels. Or, they are called Heavenly Heritage, or Special Heritage, Ancient Heritage, Growth Spiritual Heritage, and even the legendary Divine Heritage. How strong they can be depends not on the meridians themselves, but on how you cultivate them... In the Age of Gods, even if someone has mortal meridians, he can also cultivate a Divine Heritage. In the end, it depends on the person."

Han Fei keenly grasped a word. "Age of Gods? What era is the Age of Gods?"

Immediately, the old turtle shut up. "You can find an answer to that question on your own later. I don't know."

Han Fei raised his eyebrows. It seemed that the problem involved something deeper.

However, Han Fei didn't care about it much.

Now that they were allies, there was plenty of time for him to ask questions.

At least now he knew the whole story. So, the Demon Purification Pot despised him for his poor aptitude and forcibly used the resources to create a better talent for him.

That wasn't bad.

For some reason, his talent had become higher. It had already exceeded the realm of the so-called mortal meridians! This was a good thing that others couldn't even imagine.

Although Han Fei still had many things to ask the old turtle, now was not the time.

At this moment, a battle was breaking out in the Dark War Port. A large number of creatures must have gathered in the four domains of the Water-Wood World.

For example, when he escaped out of the ice and snow city wall just now, he hid in Forge the Universe because he sensed a great demon of the Dao Seeking realm coming.

Of course, Han Fei was not here to fight.

Only when he was forced to do so would he fight in the Water-Wood World. As an excellent but poor person, he should take this opportunity to press deeper into the enemy camp.

The old turtle said, "Although your Breath Concealing Technique is not weak, with such a small technique, any Half-Merman or Venerable on the other side will discover you immediately."

Han Fei's heart did a flip. "Humph, no rush!"

Han Fei's lips curled. He didn't expect that he would use the Heavenly Variation Technique on the Water-Wood World again.

The Heavenly Variation Technique could transform him into an ordinary sea demon, a Red Demon, or a Half-Merman. After the transformation, he would be no different from real sea demons. The transformation would take three days before he could undergo another transformation.

Of course, Han Fei had already tried the first one, an Azure Sea Blue Demon.

This meant that even the Azure Sea Blue Demon could barely be regarded as an ordinary creature among the sea demons. As for the real ordinary sea demons and Inferior Man-Fish, they were probably not even cannon fodder!

This time, of course, Han Fei would directly become a Half-Merman.

Otherwise, in the Water-Wood World, what if the Azure Sea Blue Demons and Red Demons were both rare species? If so, wouldn't he attract more attention if he changed into one of them?

"Roar!"

Han Fei sat on the ground, his face suddenly distorted, and scales began to grow on his body.

"Huh? Wait..."

Han Fei was already prepared for the excruciating pain, but this transformation didn't hurt much except for a little bit.

"Is it because Half-Merman look like humans?"

The old turtle said in surprise, "It turns out that you have such a technique. It's rare for a human to transform into other forms. Your technique is probably very high-leveled. Even a Venerable won't be able to discover it."

Han Fei was still in the mood to respond. "There are many shocking techniques left behind by human beings. If it weren't for a life-and-death moment, I would be no different from a real sea demon."

The old turtle chuckled. "Then you'll have to seal your spiritual heritage for the time being. Otherwise, its automatic absorption of energy will attract the attention of Venerables."

Han Fei frowned. "Seal?"

The old turtle said, "Since you have surpassed the mortal level, you should be able to control your spiritual heritage as you wish. However, you haven't learned how to control it yet. Try to suppress the spiritual energy circulating in your spiritual heritage later."

Han Fei didn't know if it was because his spiritual heritage had changed too much. This transformation was surprisingly successful. From the beginning to the end, it didn't even take him one minute.

Han Fei glanced at his tail and patted it on the ground, feeling that it was very flexible. However, this was not convenient! Immediately, spiritual energy surged from his body, and demonic energy suddenly appeared and cracked from his tail.

The Human Simulation Technique that Han Fei snatched back then was used, although he had deduced the Human Simulation Technique to the level of Demon Spirit Shift.

However, a Half-Merman who practiced the Demon Spirit Shift was too much like a human.

Besides, the basic restriction of the Demon Spirit Shift was a level-7 demonic heritage, which was an extremely high level. The Sea Clan would definitely try their best to nurture such a genius and not leave him outside.

Therefore, Han Fei chose the inferior Advanced Human Simulation Technique, which allowed him to grow legs. Although it was a bit unnatural, he had already turned into a human shape, which should be common in the Sea Clan.

"Hehe!"

Han Fei grinned, showing his sharp teeth. Now he only needed to get a set of sea demon weapons and clothes.

The old turtle said leisurely, "Your transformation technique is as smooth as flowing water. Did you often do this before?"

The old turtle seemed to know that this trip wouldn't be easy for Han Fei. Seeing that he had turned into a sea demon so easily, he knew that this person couldn't be up to anything good.

Han Fei bared his teeth. "The Sea Clan rules the vast sea area. If I don't become a sea demon, how can I survive in their territory?"

The old turtle muttered, "You can actually separate the sea clan from ferocious maritime beasts. If the territory you live in is big enough, you will find that the sea clan and the ferocious beasts in the sea are often on opposite sides."

Han Fei's eyelids twitched. "Oh? Why?"

The old turtle said awkwardly, "You see the Sea Clan driving all kinds of ferocious beasts now, but that's just because those ferocious beasts are too weak. When you get out of this sea area, you will find that in the Infinite Ocean, except for the Sea Clan, all kinds of ferocious beasts and itinerant cultivators are equally terrifying."

Han Fei said carelessly, "Then let's talk about it later. If I become a ferocious beast now, I'll only be controlled by the Sea Clan."

With a thought from Han Fei, he appeared under an undersea ice layer with a swish.

Because of the concealment of arrays, ordinary creatures couldn't discover Han Fei at all.

However, at the moment Han Fei suddenly appeared in Forge the Universe, a perception immediately swept over. Similarly, Han Fei immediately scanned back and found that it was a Half-Merman at the advanced Dao Seeking realm.

At this moment, the four domains were preparing for a battle, so it was not surprising that a great demon at the Dao Seeking realm appeared.

The Half-Merman asked, "Who are you? Why are you here instead of the front line?"

Han Fei thought of something and immediately walked out of the concealment array. While swimming towards the Half-Merman quickly, he said in the sea demon language, "My lord, I just discovered a secret. It seems that there is a human powerhouse crossing the void and passing the Ice City Wall. I am afraid that this person is up to no good, so I am here waiting for a strong master like you to deal with this matter."

"Huh? Really?"

Hearing that Han Fei spoke fluent and fast in the sea demon language, the Half-Merman didn't notice anything wrong. He noticed Han Fei's face and frowned. "Huh? Why don't I know you?"

Han Fei was already very close to the Half-Merman and grinned. "My lord, how can you not know me? I am... your ancestor!"

Chapter 1204: The Benefits of Good Acting Skills

Han Fei's voice was still echoing in the water, and he was already gone.

"Roar..."

As soon as the Hundred Beast Soul Subduing Roar sounded, the advanced Dao Seeking realm demon was stunned.

At that moment, Han Fei's speed soared to its fastest. At such a close distance, the Void Lines had already grabbed that sea demon.

However, the moment the Void Lines touched the person, he felt a trace of resistance, as if it was a soul treasure or the other party cultivated a soul secret method.

However, Han Fei was already an Explorer. Therefore, although the other party had some soul defense methods, he still couldn't block the Void Lines.

Not only that, he also activated the Sky Stealing Technique. At that moment, pure vitality poured into his body.

Han Fei said, "Old turtle, this is my gift for you. Eat it slowly. Let me see what information is in his soul."

In a flash, Han Fei inserted a hand into the Half-Merman's body. At the same time, he controlled the Half-Merman with the Void Lines to throw out all his weapons that had recognized him as their master. He threw out a dozen weapons, including a high-quality Divine weapon.

Puff, puff, puff!

The Half-Merman tried to struggle, but his soul was caught, and the weapons that had recognized him as their master became ownerless again one after another. Not only that, but these weapons also backfired their former master, causing blood to flow from his seven orifices and his internal organs to oscillate.

Han Fei even punched him, breaking his Dantian and injecting spiritual energy into his body, directly destroying half of his body.

Caught off guard, an advanced Dao Seeking great demon was directly killed by Han Fei in the blink of an eye.

The old turtle didn't think Han Fei's sudden killing was a big deal. He just felt more and more that Han Fei was suitable to be a demon... Oh, no, he was already a little devil.

Just a second ago, he was still smiling and reporting information to the sea demon, but in the next second, he killed him.

It was impossible to defend against him!

Who could have expected that a creature who spoke the sea demon language and looked like a Half-Merman would suddenly launch an attack?

The old turtle couldn't help but sigh. Han Fei's strength had soared so much, and he had such horrible means. It seemed that the Ice Domain was doomed.

How simple was it to obtain high-end resources when strong masters hunted?

Han Fei knew it very well now.

He had picked up a Sun-Moon Shell easily. Regardless of what was in the Sun-Moon Shell, the speed at which he searched for resources was completely different from before.

However, when Han Fei released his perception, he immediately cursed, "What the hell? A bunch of Divine Weapon materials with impurities? How did this guy have the cheek to put them in the Sun-Moon Shell? Tsk, there are less than 200 spiritual fruits and only 300,000 catties of spiritual spring? Is this person a beggar?"

Han Fei couldn't have felt worse. Come on, this was an advanced Dao Seeking great demon after all! He could understand that this guy spent all his money to refine an ultra-quality Divine weapon, but wouldn't refining itself require money?!

Han Fei was not in the mood to refine any weapons.

He had too many weapons to use. He threw the more than 180 spiritual fruits into Forge the Universe, opened a small pit in Forge the Universe, and threw in more than 300,000 catties of spiritual spring.

This amount of resources was not even enough for him to deduce a random combat skill. The deduction of the Beast King Technique would cost five hundred million.

Han Fei's face was black. While this Dao Seeking big demon was still alive, he was reading his soul.

There was no telling if it was because his soul had become stronger, but when he read other people's souls at this moment, the pictures he saw were much clearer and more detailed than before.

After a while, Han Fei frowned.

It turned out that in the depths of the ice domain, although there was no royal city, there was an extremely special place called the Ice God Canyon.

The Ice God Canyon was about 600,000 kilometers away from the Ice City Wall.

In the 50,000 kilometer radius around the Ice God Canyon, there were two mountain ranges like undersea snow mountains. There was a sea demon city on the periphery, where many sea demons lived all year round, like a place similar to the Ten Thousand Demon Valley.

However, Han Fei knew that there were Venerables in the Ice God Canyon. He just didn't know if the Venerables would defend the Ice God Canyon during the battle in the Water-Wood World.

Of course, Han Fei's first goal was not the Ice City Wall, but a hot sea area about 200,000 kilometers away from the Ice City Wall.

There was no telling if it was because of the influence of the Fiery Sea, but in these 200,000 miles, there was a large area of warm land called the Fire Spring. Many creatures liked to cultivate there.

Yesterday, if Han Fei and Shu Xiaomang kept going deeper, they would have come to the Fire Spring.

Han Fei shattered the big demon's internal organs and threw his body into Forge the Universe. Then he said to the old turtle, "The vitality of an advanced Dao Seeking big demon is sufficient, right? Old turtle, after finishing eating, you'll have to work."

The old turtle said in a low voice, "This little vitality is not enough!"

Han Fei sneered. "Stop pretending. Do you think I didn't see anything back then? A peak-level Explorer is enough for you to have a full meal. Today, it's a sea demon in the advanced Dao Seeking realm. Don't forget, we just had an agreement."

With that, Han Fei stepped into the void and ran towards the Fire Spring.

...

About 50,000 kilometers away from the Fire Spring.

Only three hours had passed since the battle began. Along the way, Han Fei easily killed three great demons at the Dao Seeking realm and six peak-level Sea Spirit-level sea demons.

At this moment of war, Han Fei had planned to land on the enemy's side.

However, as Han Fei ran, he found something wrong!

Now, all the creatures in the Ice Domain seemed to have received a summoning order. With a massive number, they were gathering towards the Ice City Wall.

If Han Fei wanted to land in the sea demons' camp, he would have to go in the opposite direction. If he tore the void, he could always meet sea demons in the Dao Seeking realm.

With the same realm, it was unrealistic to completely avoid their vision in the void.

Therefore, Han Fei simply waited in the void.

Because he had the ability to see through illusions with the Heavenly Void Divine Movement, Han Fei suddenly extended his hand from the void and killed a peak-level Sea Spirit shark with a slap.

For the current Han Fei, squeezing a peak-level Sea Spirit to death was no different from killing an ant. At most, this ant was stronger.

The old turtle said, "If it were me, I would've quickly locked onto your area after discovering that a large number of powerhouses on my side have died."

Han Fei's heart did a flip. "It's okay. I've already planned it out. I just need to put on a show. It's nothing."

Han Fei suddenly stepped out of the void. For a moment, a large number of creatures in the sea sensed him.

However, Han Fei was a Dao Seeking powerhouse now. Although the sea demons didn't know Han Fei, many sea demons and sea spirit realm creatures said, "Greetings, my lord."

"Oh! All of you, come here."

The sea demons were still confused, and a few Sea Spirit creatures were still wondering why they had never seen this lord before.

However, the army was moving towards the Ice City Wall. Han Fei could summon many people with a casual wave of his hand.

"My lord, what can I do for you?"

Han Fei scanned with his perception, then pinched his fingers and calculated. His eyes lit up, and he said, "Well, I'll give you an opportunity."

"Opportunity?"

Some Sea Spirit powerhouses were refreshed. Did this lord have something important for us to do?

Han Fei casually threw a drop of water into the hand of the Sea Spirit Half-Merman closest to him. "Do you know what this is?"

The Half-Merman was stunned and then shook his head slightly. "My lord, what is this?"

"Hehe, this is your opportunity!"

Then, Han Fei opened his mouth. "Boom!"

Rumble!

Immediately afterward, a terrifying explosion swept the core area of more than 50 kilometers. The Infinity Water that levelled-up with Han Fei exploded again, and its power shattered all creatures within 10 kilometers.

Even Han Fei himself was sent tumbling in the sea.

At that moment, there were probably no less than ten thousand creatures killed by Han Fei. There were at least five or six Sea Spirits and nearly a hundred sea demons. Under this explosion, they were directly annihilated.

In his heart, the old turtle shouted, "Attention, here it comes."

Bang!

Han Fei put away the Infinity Water. The energy in his body surged and shattered his skin, and his chest was full of blood. He stepped into the void and ran towards the Fire Spring.

On the way, Han Fei didn't forget to change his face. That face belonged to a junior Dao Seeking sea demon that he had just killed. This level was neither high nor low, so it shouldn't be taken seriously.

Just as Han Fei ran in the air for about ten minutes, someone suddenly rushed over, blocked Han Fei's way, and shouted, "Yu Dafeng, stop."

Han Fei looked at the man in front of him in panic, his face pale, and he said anxiously, "My lord, don't go forward. There may be Insect Queens ahead."

As he talked, Han Fei kept bleeding from the corner of his mouth.

Of course, this blood was not Han Fei's own, but from the dead Half-Mermaid in Forge the Universe.

The old turtle reminded him, "This guy is at the peak of the Dao Seeking realm. Be careful."

"Insect Queens?"

The peak-level great demon was stunned for a moment. "Why would the Insect Queens go to sea in person?"

However, at the moment when the peak-level great demon was stunned, he suddenly heard an earth-shaking roar, and a terrifying soul-shaking power rushed into his mind.

"Not good!"

At that moment, this person knew that he had been tricked.

However, at this moment, although Han Fei's Void Lines couldn't control his soul, they could draw his vitality.

Snowmourne erupted with all its strength.

The experience of an Explorer using a Sea Quelling Bizarre Treasure was completely different.

Han Fei felt as if he could cut through the sky and the sea holding this sword. He drew out his sword, and the sword Qi was so powerful that it penetrated through the peak-level great demon.

However, the other party was at the peak of the Dao Seeking realm after all, and his physique and blood Qi were far superior to those in the advanced Dao Seeking realm. Han Fei's sword was already extremely fast, but most of it was still subconsciously neutralized by this person.

Of course, half of the body of this great demon at the Dao Seeking realm exploded, his soul was stabbed, and his vitality was forcibly taken away. He wasn't any better.

Han Fei roared, "Old turtle, attack!"

Chapter 1205: Split Up?

Buzz!

When Han Fei temporarily subdued the great demon, a large swath of black directly tied up the latter. Then he heard the old turtle say, "I can only trap him for a few seconds. Now quickly kill him."

Han Fei's lips curled. The battle between the strong was over in a few seconds.

At this moment, the peak-level great demon was dumbfounded. As soon as he vomited blood and his soul returned, he felt that his vitality was being deprived.

Not only that, his internal organs had been minced by the sword, and he was in a life-and-death crisis.

However, at the next moment, he felt something cold crawl into his body from his throat. He looked inside, only to see that it was a drop of water.

Before he realized what was wrong with the water, the Infinity Water exploded in his chest.

Rumble!

How could this demon who was already on the brink of death withstand the consecutive crazy attacks?

The explosion directly blew up everything below the head.

"Collect!"

Han Fei put away the sea demon's head and rushed backward. Those who didn't know him would think that Han Fei was running with his blood burning.

The old turtle said, "Boy, you are ruthless. Are you really not afraid of a Venerable noticing you?"

Han Fei was excited. "As long as this sea demon dies quickly enough, what can a Venerable do? Venerables are not omnipotent."

The old turtle sighed. "You're just lucky. Perhaps, it's just that a war is coming and the dead are not a top powerhouse, so the Venerables didn't pay attention. However, from now on, you can't do this kind of thing again."

Han Fei grinned. "It's exactly Venerables that I want to trick, haha."

Han Fei had four Venerable-level masters, so he knew that Venerables had extraordinary perception and observation methods.

However, one thing Han Fei could be sure of was that although Venerables could see through the void, they couldn't see the void cracks.

This was a different concept.

For example, a Venerable could ignore space and see what happened ten thousand kilometers away. However, what he could see was the real world.

Once something happened in a void rift, even if they were thousands of kilometers away, the Venerables might not be able to discover it. Otherwise, how could they understand the battle of Venerables?

Han Fei had killed this great demon who was at the peak of the Dao Seeking realm at an extremely fast speed. Even if a Venerable was extremely fast and could travel tens of thousands of miles with a single step, it would take him at least two steps.

Besides, facts had proven that ordinary Venerables weren't that powerful.

Those who traveled tens of thousands of kilometers with a single step had to be at least at the level of a Half-King. Ordinary Venerables couldn't ignore the distance of space either. They couldn't just appear wherever they wanted...

At this moment.

Five seconds later, a person in a tortoise shell tore through the void and appeared where the peak-level Dao Seeking powerhouse died.

"Huh? There are survivors?"

The turtle man turned his head and looked in Han Fei's direction. After a second, he saw Han Fei fleeing frantically.

At this moment, Han Fei looked a little miserable. One of his arms was drooping, one of his legs was limp, and his body was full of cracks. Blood oozed from all the wounds on his body.

Bang!

Han Fei felt that he had hit a wall. The terrifying force shook his internal organs and made him vomit a mouthful of blood.

At a life-and-death moment, he had no time to think much. Han Fei immediately bared his teeth and roared, and demonic energy surged on the Divine Weapon harpoon in his hand.

"Freeze!"

Han Fei felt a chill all over his body, but he knew that he had been frozen into a pile of ice.

When Han Fei took a closer look, he saw a bald man with long white eyebrows and beard and a blue and white turtle shell staring at him coldly.

“Tell me, what happened? Who killed Yu You?”

Han Fei calmed down. He looked shocked at first, then overjoyed, and in the end, he shivered and said, “My lord... It happened too fast. I couldn’t see clearly. Maybe a Venerable from Water-Wood World attacked us. The other party seems to be able to devour vitality. I can only see a black fog. Then, just the aftershock had already seriously injured me. I couldn’t resist it at all...”

Would a Venerable know a Half-Merman who had just entered the Dao Seeking realm? Han Fei thought to himself.

The Venerable looked at Han Fei up and down. “If I remember correctly, your name is Yu Dafu, right? Yu You has died, but you’re still alive? That’s amazing. Fine, go back and recover yourself...”

Han Fei thought his acting skills were superb. Anyway, halfway through his words, the old turtle suddenly focused his eyes, shattered the void, and struck at a certain void.

Han Fei couldn’t help being a little puzzled. Who had this Old Turtle discovered?

In his heart, the old turtle said leisurely, “Boy, this is what a means is. It’s called darkness under the light.”

Han Fei was speechless. “How did you do that?”

The old turtle snorted. “Have you forgotten that I’m an emperor? How can a wisp of my aura not attract its attention?”

Han Fei continued to rush to the Fire Spring with his seriously injured body.

At the same time, he thought to himself, I don’t have any concept of vitality. I don’t know how much of it I should give to this old turtle.

However, this old man is quite capable. He lived in my body but could leave his breath elsewhere? I must not underestimate him.

Han Fei, who was “seriously injured”, encountered many great demons of the Dao Seeking realm along the way. However, at this moment, he couldn’t take any action.

The old turtle reminded him, “It’s fine if you kill a batch in the front, but if there is a problem in the rear, the Venerable just now will definitely notice it.”

Han Fei curled his lips. “Don’t worry. I have experience. Speed is the most important thing in war! Let me destroy their lair first and then escape immediately.”

Han Fei spread out his perception in the Fire Spring.

At this moment, there were not many creatures in the Fire Spring. At least in his perception, there were no Dao Seeking perceptions, but seven or eight Sea Spirits.

“Huff!”

Han Fei immediately took a deep breath. What is an opportunity? This is what an opportunity should be!

Han Fei said, "Old turtle, I know that your perception range is definitely not worse than mine. Let's search together."

The old turtle said, "I need vitality."

Han Fei curled his lips. "We're already allies. Do you think you need to worry about that? How about this? Let's sweep this domain and snatch the vitality of a great demon in the Dao Seeking realm."

"Alright!"

In the old turtle's view, these resources that Han Fei pursued were actually useless to him. He wouldn't even bother to pick them up even if they fell to the ground.

Therefore, the old turtle was quite willing to exchange these so-called resources for vitality.

Buzz, buzz, buzz...

An hour later.

Han Fei was standing in the cave of a Sea Spirit, which was enveloped by a killing array.

However, in Han Fei's view, the level of this killing array was too low. It could be easily broken.

Han Fei certainly knew that the Half-Mermen' caves usually didn't have much good stuff.

At this moment, Han Fei saw that in addition to a few Sea Swallowing Seashells on the shell bed in this cave, there was only a pile of colorful essence stones piled in the cave.

Han Fei picked up a piece of iron essence and nodded. "It's a low-quality Divine weapon material. This Half-Merman is quite rich."

"Well, this seashell bed looks rather exquisite. I'll take it."

"There seems to be some spiritual stones under this cave?"

Buzz!

With a flash between Han Fei's eyebrows, Nine Tails appeared. He took out a string of Sea Swallowing Seashells and hung it on Nine Tails's neck.

Then Han Fei kicked him out. "Go, take out all the spiritual stones underground. I'll give you half an hour. Then come to me yourself."

Nine Tails was stunned on the spot, thinking, Why did you ask me to dig holes again?

However, Han Fei had already quietly left.

Now in this cave, except for the glowing seaweed, there was not even a table. He wondered how traumatized the Sea Spirit Half-Merman would be when he saw this scene.

The old turtle couldn't stand it anymore. He roared, "How long will it take for you to rob enough?"

Han Fei said again, "Don't be hasty. Let me tell you, collecting resources is a process of accumulation. Some things may seem useless to you, but they may be useful to you in the future."

The old turtle said, "Do you think this so-called war will last long? From the moment you left the so-called Fearless Barrier to here, that human should have broken through to the Venerable realm long ago. Or, he has already been seriously injured or killed. You don't have much time left."

Han Fei grinned. "No. It's rare for them to fight in such a grand fashion, and so many armies have just pressed on. Do you think the battle is over? You don't understand the sea demons' trick. They won't let go of any chance to weaken humans or other races!"

Han Fei was very sure that this attack was similar to the general attack of the Scattered Stars Island. If a large number of strong masters weren't killed, this battle would not end at all.

Sure enough.

Half a day later, Han Fei had already cleared more than 80 caves in the surrounding 10,000 kilometers. Resources were piled up like a hill in Forge the Universe, although most of them were useless to him.

Just as Han Fei recalled Nine Tails and was about to kill the people in the caves...

Suddenly, Han Fei perceived a Dao Seeking great demon.

The Dao Seeking realm demon scanned with his perception and found Han Fei.

Immediately, the man shouted, "Yu Dafeng, why are you still here?"

Han Fei didn't panic at all. "It's a long story. I was ambushed on the way and almost died. So I came to find some resources for recovery."

The Dao Seeking big demon quickly stepped over, looked at Han Fei who was limp and had lost his hand, and then scanned him with his perception. He immediately said with a strange look, "Damn, did you take the opportunity to loot all the caves here? Good! Yu Dafeng, I didn't expect you to be like this..."

Han Fei thought to himself, Good, although you're only a junior Dao Seeker, since you insist on sending me this package, I don't mind accepting it.

However, the great demon in the Dao Seeking realm shouted, "Yu Dafeng, you must give me half of what you snatched."

"Huh?"

Han Fei was stunned. Is this person... here to rob too?

Han Fei couldn't help narrowing his eyes and looking at the man.. "Hehe, brother, you are the first person who made this request to me."

Chapter 1206: Scum Among Sea Demons

Just like human society, in the sea demons' society, they were not flawlessly united. Among the sea demons, there were many cunning sea demons.

Yu Jing was exactly such a person.

In such a sudden battle, logically speaking, a great demon at the Dao Seeking realm like him had to go to the battlefield.

However, Yu Jing made people feel that he was about to make a breakthrough, so he was allowed to stay in the Ice God Canyon. When everyone who should leave had left, Yu Jing said that he couldn't make a breakthrough, so he went out two hours later than others.

Coincidentally, Yu Jing came to the Fire Spring and happened to meet Yu Dafeng who was looting around.

At this moment, Yu Jing heard Yu Dafeng's ironic words and immediately shouted, "Yu Dafeng, I've seen everything. Do you think you can refuse to share benefits with me?"

Han Fei grinned. "I'm not going to refuse you! I'm going to eat you!"

In the blink of an eye, Han Fei disappeared.

Yu Jing was shocked. Yu Dafeng was weaker than him. Was he going to fight him?

However, in the next second, he felt a terrifying gravity pressing down.

Yu Dafeng appeared right in front of him and slashed at him with a dagger.

"No, this is not Yu Dafeng."

Yu Jing was about to escape, when something shocking happened.

He discovered that his soul seemed to be controlled, and he couldn't move.

In a flash, Yu Jing's soul immediately begged for mercy. "Brother, I surrender. I surrender. Spare my life."

"Pfft!"

However, there was no turning back.

With a thought from Han Fei, this Dao Seeking realm demon seemed to be a little spineless. He immediately changed from slashing to stabbing Yu Jing.

Chi la!

Han Fei pulled out the Blood-Drinking Knife that he had just stabbed into Yu Jing's body.

At that moment, Yu Jing vomited blood, and Han Fei punched his abdomen.

"Ew!"

Yu Jing vomited another mouthful of blood. He was stunned. Is this Yu Dafeng? Is Yu Dafeng so strong that he can make me vomit blood with a casual punch?

Han Fei smiled.

If he had a spy, he would definitely be able to get more information. For example, where were the powerhouses' caves? This would save him a lot of trouble.

Han Fei grinned and pretended that his voice was hoarse and creepy. "I can let go of your soul, but you have to cooperate with me. Otherwise... Hehe, I will tear apart all your bones and swallow your vitality."

Gulp!

Yu Jing trembled, with only one thought in his mind: Yu Dafeng had been possessed. Besides, the guy who took Yu Dafeng's life was very strong, and he was definitely no match for him.

When Han Fei only left a Void Line, he said hoarsely, "Okay, you can talk now."

Yu Jing shivered and quickly moved his hands and feet, but for some reason, he felt that something was wrong, as if he hadn't left the demon's claws.

Han Fei sneered. "Don't look around. I've done something to your soul. As long as you cooperate with me obediently, I won't kill you. However... if you harbor other thoughts, I can make your soul corrode within seven steps and your body collapse."

Yu Jing shivered and said in fear, "I'm at your command, Master. Your will is mine. As long as you give an order, I'll lead the charge..."

"Hehehe!"

Han Fei sneered. "Good. Don't worry. I've been asleep for ten thousand years. Now that I've woken up, I need someone to work for me. As long as you listen to me, I won't mistreat you. I'll even give you eternal life..."

Han Fei was bragging outside, and the more the old turtle listened, the more he felt something was wrong. Isn't this my line?

The old turtle felt a chill down his spine. Back then, when he took the demonic path, he had experienced many twists and turns. However, this brat was born to be a devil.

Han Fei asked leisurely, "You should know what I'm looking for..."

Yu Jing was refreshed. Although he guessed that Han Fei was bragging, he didn't dare to contradict him!

Yu Jing asked quickly, "Are you looking for spiritual springs and Divine weapons, my lord?"

Yu Jing thought that since Han Fei had possessed Yu Dafeng, it was probably because his conditions were limited. What did Yu Dafeng have? A poor loser who lacked everything.

This showed that Han Fei's pursuit shouldn't be too high.

Pa!

Han Fei slapped Yu Jing away. "Can mere spiritual spring and divine weapons satisfy me? What I want to rob is the entire Ice God Canyon."

Yu Jing: "..."

Yu Jing was stunned. Keep bragging. F*ck, if you can rob the entire Ice God Strait, what else do you need me to do?

Han Fei said leisurely, "You, go rob the six Sea Spirits nearby first. Only rob them. Don't kill them."

Yu Jing's face immediately turned green. Are you kidding me? You want to rob me, but you don't allow me to kill them. Wouldn't I be exposed? Then how can I survive in the Ice God Canyon in the future?

Han Fei casually set up a sealing array and chuckled. "Take this as a sign of your allegiance to me. Don't worry. In three days, I'll be able to finish robbing the Ice God Canyon. At that time, the Infinite Ocean will be my target. I won't waste my time because of this tiny place."

Yu Jing's heart skipped a beat. Three days? Didn't it mean that three days from now might also be the day of his death?

Han Fei certainly knew what Yu Jing was thinking. He couldn't help but sneer. "Humph, a mere Dao Seeking realm is nothing to me. I've just woken up and need a servant. Let's see how you'll perform in the next few days."

"Gulp... Yes, my lord."

Yu Jing was helpless. What could he do? He absolutely didn't trust Han Fei. He could only take advantage of these three days to create conditions to escape.

However, to create conditions? The first thing to do was to obey orders.

Yu Jing trembled because he found that Han Fei's cold eyes seemed to be staring at his head.

Yu Jing hurriedly said, "My lord, why would you bother to rob people yourself in this mere Fire Spring? Let me do it for you..."

A moment later.

In a certain cave.

A lobster was surprised. "You are, Master Yu Jing... Hey, Master Yu Jing, what are you doing?"

Seeing Yu Jing grab all his resources with his big hands, the lobster said in panic, "Master Yu Jing, I'm going to contribute these to you. Please spare my life."

Yu Jing's expression was complicated. He really wanted to kill this guy! However, he had to let this guy see him. Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to gain Han Fei's trust.

Yu Jing could only snort. "I'm robbing you because I respect you. These resources will be temporarily used by me and will be returned to you later."

After a while.

An octopus roared, "Yu Jing, I am a junior of Long Zhang. How dare you rob me?"

Bang!

The big octopus was slapped into the mud pit. Yu Jing was too lazy to talk nonsense. I can't care who you are!

One, two...

When Yu Jing caught the fifth person, it was a Blood Sea Cucumber that was almost killed by Yu Jing.

Yu Jing snorted. "Humph, I'm robbing you because I respect you, OK?"

However, the void trembled, and Han Fei appeared with the Star Teleportation Technique.

Yu Jing's heart skipped a beat. Han Fei pointed a finger at the Blood Sea Cucumber and poked a hole through it, killing it.

Han Fei clicked his tongue. "This thing tastes good and should be kept. Oh, you just secretly left him a message. Why? Do you think I can't detect it?"

Buzz!

Yu Jing's body immediately softened, and he burst into tears. "I deserve to die. I shouldn't have played such tricks in front of you, Master. Please give me another chance. If I do it again, you can kill me!"

At that moment, the great demon at the Dao Seeking realm actually fell to his knees.

Han Fei was stunned. Is this really possible? Does this guy not need to seek the Great Dao anymore? If he kneels, at least half of this guy's Great Dao will be gone.

Han Fei was stunned for a long time before he said gloomily, "Humph! If you do this again, I'll kill him."

Yu Jing almost shed tears of gratitude and hurriedly shouted, "Thank you for not killing me, my lord."

Han Fei waved his hand. "Have you robbed enough of this place? Is there any place that you haven't robbed? If I find it myself, then... Humph..."

Yu Jing's heart did a flip. He knew that he couldn't slack off anymore.

Yu Jing said, "My lord, the Fire Spring is actually only suitable for recovery. However, because it's too close to the Ice City Wall, only 200,000 kilometers away, there are often human powerhouses peeping at it. Therefore, most strong masters won't really build their mansions here. There are mostly sea spirit creatures cultivating here, and usually two or three Dao Seeking powerhouses guarding here. Now that the war has started, there is basically no place to plunder in the Fire Spring. I'm afraid..."

Han Fei: "Huh?"

Yu Jing said carefully, "If you really want to plunder, you'll have to go to the Ice Mountain City or the Ice God Canyon."

Han Fei narrowed his eyes. Where was the Ice Mountain City? But since it was already called a city, it should be of a higher level than the Ice God Canyon, right? He'd better rob a city later.

Han Fei asked, "How many Venerables are there in the Ice God Canyon now?"

Han Fei's eyes were full of brutality.

Yu Jing's heart skipped a beat. He didn't even ask about the Ice Mountain City? However, fearing that Han Fei would find something wrong again, he immediately said, "The Ice God Canyon is not a strategic location compared to the Fiery Sea and the Dark War Port. Therefore, there are often three Venerables guarding it. I know that none of the three Venerables are around. There are only a few peak-level Dao Seeking powerhouses guarding it. The army in the Ice Mountain City should be weaker now because most of the strong masters have gone to war."

Han Fei secretly smiled. That's good. But on the surface, he looked at Yu Jing with a vague smile. "Then you have to confirm it. Even if a Venerable is here, I can still easily kill you. If anything happens, don't say that I didn't give you a chance."

Chapter 1207: Who Are You?

Yu Jing knew that he was doomed this time.

He had robbed the Fire Spring blatantly and hadn't killed the witnesses on the spot. No matter what, he couldn't go back.

Even without Han Fei, it was impossible for him to return to the Ice God Canyon.

In fact, as soon as he submitted, his road back had been cut off. Although the White Shell Royal City occupied a large area, he definitely couldn't stay in the Ice Domain anymore.

Otherwise, he would be easily killed.

Even in the entire White Shell Royal City, Yu Jing wasn't sure if he could survive.

As for the Blood Sea Divine Wood? Although it was possible for him to be accepted as a Dao Seeking powerhouse, the people on the Blood Sea Divine Wood usually didn't treat people from the White Shell City well. It was almost impossible that he could stay long on the Blood Sea Divine Wood's side...

Yu Jing took a deep breath and said, "My lord, you should know that I have no way out now that I've pledged allegiance to you. In that case, as long as you don't kill me, with my understanding of the White Shell Royal City over the years, there is definitely more than one place to loot."

"Oh?"

Han Fei raised his head and glanced at Yu Jing, before he said leisurely, "The current Royal City can't be compared to what it was in its golden age. A hundred thousand years ago, I could fight the Sky Clan Venerable, Tianqing, for three thousand rounds. Now, this damn place is such a mess. How can a human Venerable cause such a stir in the Sea Clan? I'm really disappointed!"

Yu Jing really wanted to roll his eyes. Didn't you say it was 10,000 years ago just now? Why was it 100,000 years now?

Forget it, if you say it was a hundred thousand years ago, so be it. Anyway, I dare not contradict you!

Han Fei waved his hand and said, "Let's go! Since there are no resources in this Fire Spring anymore, let's go to the Ice God Canyon!"

Han Fei had always believed that as long as his robbing speed was fast enough, even if the other party discovered it, so what? With the speed of these law enforcers, by the time they went to the front line to inform the strong to return, he might have already finished robbing the Ice God Canyon.

As for the people Yu Jing didn't kill, Han Fei still didn't intend to kill them.

In the Water-Wood World, a Sea Spirit was nothing at all.

Different from the Yin-Yang World, a Sea Spirit could strut freely in the sea...

But not here!

The backbone forces here were all at the Explorer level.

It was not until he reached the Water-Wood World that Han Fei realized that if all the creatures in a domain worked together, the number of strong masters accumulated would be much more than he imagined.

Chi la!

Han Fei tore the void and glanced at Yu Jing. "How fast is your fastest speed? Let's run and see."

Yu Jing's heart did a flip and he immediately rushed at full speed. As a special junior peak-level Dao Seeking cultivator, speed was one of his advantages.

Of course, it would be best if he could get rid of Han Fei.

However, after only several minutes, Yu Jing saw Han Fei casually walking beside him, frowning. "Why are you so slow?"

Yu Jing: "???"

Perhaps because Han Fei was used to the Heavenly Void Divine Movement, Yu Jing's speed was unbelievably slow in his eyes.

Even though Yu Jing's speed was half as fast as when he was still a peak-level Law Enforcer, Han Fei still felt it was too slow.

Han Fei roared, grabbed Yu Jing, and rushed out with a swoosh.

Buzz!

Almost instantly, Yu Jing discovered, to his shock, that Han Fei's speed was more than five times faster than his own. He was completely shocked.

Although Han Fei had always said that he had lived for tens of thousands of years, Yu Jing only thought that Han Fei was bragging. Did he really live for so long? So powerful? Then why did he have to possess Yu Datong?

However, at this moment, he was surprised to find that Han Fei had relied on his strength that had just reached the Dao Seeking realm to reach a speed close to the peak of the Dao Seeking realm.

Gulp!

Yu Jing was quite confused. Was Han Fei really a prehistoric demon?

Damn Yu Dafeng, where did you run into such a prehistoric demon?! It doesn't matter that you were possessed, but you implicated me and made me suffer too.

...

The Ice God Canyon was the origin of the Ice Domain.

The Ice God Canyon was made of countless icebergs. Some floated above the sea, and some, like normal mountains, were connected to the undersea mountains.

As for its core, which was the place where the name of the Ice God Canyon came from, it was a super glacier that spread from the bottom of the sea to the surface of the sea, or it could also be called the ice layer.

The Ice God Canyon and the surrounding ice mountains had existed for tens of thousands of years, on which the sea demons had long established countless caves.

Here, even though countless creatures had already rushed to the Ice City Wall, a sea demon city had already been formed about 30,000 kilometers away from the Ice God Canyon, which was also called the Ice Mountain City.

Only then did Han Fei know that Ice Mountain City was a village one level lower than the Ice God Canyon.

Han Fei and Yu Jing, at this moment, had concealed their identities and strength, hiding on a statue of a mermaid carved from ice.

Han Fei licked the corner of his mouth. "Where is the most valuable place here?"

Yu Jing said respectfully, "All the major refining rooms have a small amount of spiritual spring and materials. The rest belong to the Free Trade Valley, which is the business of the great demons at the peak of the Dao Seeking realm. There is a battle at the front line today, so there aren't many people in the Free Trade Valley today. I just wonder how many resources there are in the Free Trade Valley."

Han Fei frowned. Is this a place similar to the Logistics Division?

That was an entire Logistics Division! How could Han Fei not be tempted?

Although he knew that the center of the Ice God Canyon was not the gathering place of ordinary people, it didn't mean that these ordinary sea demons had few resources!

As the saying went, the power of the masses was enormous.

Even if each of them contributed a drop of spiritual spring, it would be an astronomical number.

Han Fei's eyes glittered. "Okay, let's rob the Free Trade Valley."

Yu Jing said awkwardly, "My lord, as you know, this place is very close to the Ice God Canyon after all. Under normal circumstances, no one would guard this place. However, yesterday, someone seemed to be ambushing Sea Spirit-level sea demons in the Ice Domain. Therefore, there must be a strong master in the Free Trade Valley now."

Han Fei didn't scan it with his perception.

At the Explorer level, his soul strength was relatively not as high as before. Although it still seemed abnormally strong, if there was really a peak-level great demon guarding there, the probability of him being discovered was extremely high.

However, was he stupid not to use his allies?

Han Fei immediately asked in his heart, "Old turtle, is there a peak-level Dao Seeking powerhouse inside?"

The old turtle said in a low voice, "Can you stop calling me old turtle? I'm called Emperor Yuan..."

Han Fei said impatiently, "Old Yuan, Old Yuan OK? Come on, I'm busy robbing. Can you stop slacking off?"

The old turtle snorted and said unhappily, "One in the peak-level Dao-Seeking realm, one in the advanced Dao-Seeking realm, and no intermediate or junior ones. They should be on the battlefield."

Han Fei frowned. "Old Yuan, how about we each solve one? You solve the peak-level one, and the advanced one is mine?"

The old turtle said angrily, "I only have a wisp of soul now, and I was seriously injured by you. At this moment, I don't have much strength..."

"Its vitality is yours."

Han Fei certainly had a way to deal with the old turtle.

Hearing this, the old turtle immediately said, "Okay!"

Han Fei snorted. What can you do even if I give you some vitality? You were still almost drained by the calabash when you were in your peak state.

Han Fei glanced at Yu Jing casually and said, "I'm going to kill the peak-level Dao-Seeking realm sea demon. Hehe... you can try escaping if you want..."

Yu Jing was stunned. Are you dreaming? Even if you are really a prehistoric demon, how can you kill a peak-level Dao Seeking powerhouse with your junior Dao-Seeking realm ability?

However, Han Fei tore the void with a swish.

Yes, Han Fei didn't conceal his abilities, but directly tore open the void and flew over. After all, the two sides were more than 2,000 kilometers away.

"Huh?"

For a powerhouse at the peak of the Dao-Seeking realm, 2,000 kilometers was definitely not a long distance.

When Han Fei tore open the space, the Half-Merman who was cultivating in the Ice Mountain Alley suddenly opened his eyes.

When he looked at the void, he saw that the void was torn apart a hundred kilometers away, and a Dao Seeking creature appeared.

"Huh! You are... Yu Dafeng, right?"

Han Fei was helpless. It seems that the one I disguise as is quite famous! Why does everyone know me?

He forgot that no matter how poor a Dao-Seeking realm sea demon was, it was still in the Dao Seeking realm. It wasn't a nobody. It was only natural that it would be recognized.

Han Fei didn't answer but rushed to the Free Trade Valley in a panic. This was a big iceberg. Maybe the sea demons were too lazy to build houses for themselves, so they dug a big hole on the iceberg and used this place as a warehouse. Outside the warehouse, there was an array. Han Fei observed the defensive array a little and didn't care.

Han Fei replied to the void, "My lord, something big happened. Has Yu Jing been to the city?"

Suddenly, the advanced Dao Seeking sea demon said, "Yu Jing? Didn't he just go out not long ago? I saw him when he passed by. What happened?"

Han Fei stopped outside the array and said with a grim face, "My lord, Yu Jing has just looted the Fire Spring. He has betrayed us."

"Huh? What happened?"

The shark at the peak of the Dao Seeking realm swam out of the void, a little surprised.

Han Fei grinned. "Because I asked him to do that, hehe..."

"Not good, retreat..."

In the valley, a voice roared, and Han Fei saw a spear beam stabbing at him through the void.

However, Han Fei was already prepared. How could he let go of such an opportunity? He twisted his body and appeared beside the shark.

Buzz!

The Law of Gravity descended, the Void Lines erupted, Snowmourn pierced the shark that had just opened its mouth, intending to fight back.

"Pfft!"

Unfortunately, Han Fei's series of actions were too fast. The shark was still waiting for the answer to its question when it was killed in the next second.

Someone in the valley shouted, "Who are you?"

Chapter 1208: Mysterious Explosion in the Ice God Canyon

The peak-level Dao Seeking sea demon was shocked. How strong was Yu Dafeng? How could he kill Qing Sha, who was an advanced Dao Seeking powerhouse, in one clash?

While the Half-Merman hesitated, Han Fei slightly twisted his body and appeared in the array.

"How dare you..."

The Half-Merman's expression changed drastically. How did this guy get in? Space law, a space law that can break through the restriction of arrays?

Under normal circumstances, how could Han Fei, a junior Dao Seeking cultivator, face a peak-level Dao Seeking powerhouse alone?

Therefore, the moment Han Fei came in, the Half-Merman's heart sank, and he thought to himself, Not good! Have I been tricked?

As he expected, when he was about to retreat, intense black fog suddenly appeared in the surrounding space. This person roared, unfolded his fish tail, and whipped the void.

However, he had no idea who he was facing.

Back then, even Venerable-level powerhouses didn't dare to enter this black fog, let alone him.

"Hehehe! What rich vitality."

Han Fei watched on coldly, full of contempt.

The old turtle seemed to have said the same thing when he possessed him last time. Why was he still saying that now? He wasn't creative at all.

It seemed that taking the demonic path was just a bluff.

However, looking at the thick black fog, Han Fei felt a chill down his spine.

Wasn't this old guy locked in the depths of his sea of consciousness by the Demon Purification Pot? Why could he come out now?

Suddenly, Han Fei heard a voice from the bottom of his heart. "Don't be surprised. My soul is still in your body. This black fog is just the ominous aura I control to absorb vitality. The ominous aura I summon from afar can at most trap this guy for one minute and absorb no more than a thousand years of life. Therefore, you might need to take action."

Han Fei couldn't help being surprised. That worked?

Han Fei sighed. This old turtle is a bit fierce! He can devour the lifespan of a peak-level Dao Seeking powerhouse by a thousand years by Summoning an aura from afar!

Fortunately, he had the Demon Purification Pot. Otherwise, he wouldn't even know how he died.

One second passed!

Two seconds!

Three seconds!

Roar!

The black mist exploded, and a hunched figure rushed out of it.

However, as soon as the Half-Merman tore open the black mist, he saw Yu Dafeng looking at him with a smile.

"Roar!"

In the valley, there were shadows of a hundred beasts. Under the soul impact, Han Fei held the Embroidery Needle and activated the Monkey King's Three Thousand Sticks.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

In the blink of an eye, half of the body of the Half-Merman at the peak of the Dao Seeking realm was blown up. His bones were 80% shattered, his Dantian was pierced through by Han Fei, and he was nailed to the ground.

Han Fei said to the old turtle, "If you kill him immediately, it will definitely attract the attention of a Venerable, right? Swallow his vitality. When you're done, spare his life."

The old turtle nodded casually.

In the air, a black claw shadow was stabbing the Half-Merman.

The latter was horrified and couldn't even detonate himself. He had never thought that one day he would be nailed to the ground in his own territory!

And Han Fei had already reached out and picked the Half-Merman's Sun-Moon Shell.

At this moment, he was sizing up the resources that had been randomly classified, almost drooling.

The sea demons didn't divide resources that well.

There were only more than a hundred items in this place. Apart from a huge spiritual spring and a pool of Spirit Awakening Fluid, there were dozens of unrefined stones, spiritual energy fruits, and energy fruits. The rest of the items were placed randomly. Anyway, there were a lot of them.

Han Fei didn't know if it was because of the tribulation, but he could tell the approximate data after a quick scan with his perception.

"The spiritual spring is less than 5 million catties, the Spirit Awakening Fluid is only 300,000 catties, about 60,000 spiritual energy fruits, about 30,000 energy fruits, and about 20,000 other kinds of spiritual fruits. In addition, there are no ultra-quality Divine weapons, only one high-quality Divine weapon, 12 mid-quality ones, and 39 low-quality ones... As for the messy pile of materials, Han Fei simply ignored them."

Han Fei rubbed his head. What should he do? He didn't seem to have any concept of money now, although this batch of materials was several times worse than the ones he had accumulated.

However, it wasn't easy for him to accumulate those resources. And these were the things he got the second day he came to the Water-Wood World.

"Hiss! Don't panic. It should be no problem to exchange these things for three drops of Life Spring Water."

"Heh..."

He heard that in his heart, the old turtle sneered, "Do you really think you can get the Life Spring Water as you please? What makes you think you can exchange for three drops with these things?"

Han Fei asked in confusion, "Didn't I exchange for ten drops before?"

The old turtle said leisurely, "That's just because they took care of you for the sake of your upcoming tribulation. When you reach a certain realm, you will find these things are a bit useful to creatures at the Explorer level at most... And once you become a peak-level Explorer, these things are almost the same as garbage. If you really want to exchange them for value, it's already the limit for these things to be exchanged for a drop of Life Spring Water. This still needs to be added to the ones you snatched before."

"..."

The corner of Han Fei's mouth twitched. "What do you know? Not everyone is strong. Although I can't use them, I can give them to other humans, OK?"

Han Fei quickly took all the resources.

Even one drop of Life Spring Water would be great.

If I can get ten more such warehouses of these things, then I can get ten drops!

A weird gleam flickered in Han Fei's eyes.

For others, this pile of things might not be of much use, but for him, it was a different story!

He had the Demon Purification Pot.

Before he felt that it consumed too much spiritual energy to deduce combat skills with spiritual energy.

But now, Han Fei felt that spiritual energy was probably the easiest thing to get in this world.

The deduction cost had begun to be measured in billions of spiritual energy.

However, there were many ways to get spiritual energy!

He would set a small goal first and get ten billion points of spiritual energy! The total amount would be enough for him to deduce most of the combat skills he had.

After collecting the resources in the Free Trade Valley, Han Fei perceived that a peak-level law enforcer had come to the array.

The man respectfully held a Sun-Moon Shell and said, "Master Ya, Master Qing Sha, this is the resource collected this month."

Han Fei was overjoyed. Someone came to give me resources before I leave?

As for "Master Ya" who was nailed to the ground by Han Fei, his eyes widened. He felt very aggrieved and seemed to want to struggle.

Pa!

Han Fei knocked him out with a slap, twisted his body, and disappeared.

The next moment, when Han Fei reappeared, he was holding a dead Half-Merman.

Han Fei threw the man to the ground and put the Sun-Moon Shell into Forge the Universe. He narrowed his eyes and said, "It seems that people come here a lot. Since I'm here, shouldn't I do something?"

The old turtle said carelessly, "Time is tight. You won't have a chance if the battle is over."

The old turtle was speechless. Yesterday, he had tricked this kid into robbing the Ice God Canyon. But now, it had only been a day, and this kid had really come. And he had robbed the Ice God Canyon thoroughly.

Looking at Han Fei who was drawing arrays, the old turtle felt that if this kid became a king, he would probably reach the peak of the demonic path.

...

At this moment, Yu Jing was hesitating whether to leave or not.

If he left, what if Han Fei won and caught up with him? Besides, Han Fei said that he had done something to her soul. Was it a big problem?

If he didn't leave, what if Han Fei lost?

While he was hesitating, he suddenly heard a voice in his head, "Hehe, you're still here. You've passed the test. Okay, there's only one peak-level Dao Seeking powerhouse and a shark in the valley, which have been killed by me. Something will happen in the valley later. Remember to seize the chance and rob those refining shops."

Yu Jing trembled and immediately replied, "Yes, my lord."

Yu Jing was a little dumbfounded. How long had it been? It had only been half an hour, but the peak-level great demon guarding this place was already dead? He didn't know who it was, but the shark in Han Fei's mouth must be Master Qing Sha.

Thinking of this, Yu Jing felt his mouth go dry. Qing Sha, an advanced Dao Seeking powerhouse, had died so quietly? He didn't even feel the void fluctuations.

However, Yu Jing was finally relieved. Fortunately, he didn't run away. Otherwise, the consequences would have been disastrous.

Boom!

All of a sudden, thousands of kilometers away, terrifying spiritual waves spread out.

Yu Jing immediately tore open the void and walked over.

However, as soon as Yu Jing came out, a long and low voice roared, "Today, I'm going to become a Venerable. Everyone in the city, come to the Free Trade Valley and receive the baptism of the Dao runes."

"Hiss..."

"Venerable?"

"Master Ya is about to become a Venerable?"

“Great news! Master Ya is about to become a Venerable!”

Someone exclaimed, “Come on, this is a great opportunity. It’s too mysterious for ordinary people to observe.”

Someone rushed forward. “The baptism of the Dao runes! I didn’t expect Master Ya to be so generous! I can’t believe I have such a chance!”

There were also a few people who were puzzled. “Become a Venerable? Why does it seem different from the rumors?”

Someone was surprised. “Can the Dao runes baptize people?”

Yu Jing was stunned for a moment, and a curse suddenly rang in his mind. “What are you waiting for? Hurry up and take all the resources you can get for me.”

Yu Jing trembled again, shocked.

He was thinking, Since this person could create an illusion of a Dao rune, he must be a prehistoric demon. Besides, Master Ya, who was a senior peak-level Dao Seeking powerhouse, had also died quietly?

“Half an hour later...”

Han Fei attracted the attention of thousands of creatures and made Yu Jing steal a lot of resources.

Outside the iceberg warehouse of the Free Trade Valley, a weird rhythm echoed, and the five-colored brilliance was eye-catching.

Someone was shocked. “What kind of Dao runes are these? It looks like they’re from the heavens.”

Someone sighed. “Come on, sit cross-legged. This is a once-in-a-hundred-year wonder. We have to comprehend it well.”

Someone grinned. “The Water-Wood World made such a fuss about the fact that they were going to have one more Venerable. How hilarious! Who could’ve known that there would be one more Venerable in the Ice God Canyon too?”

While these people were discussing, Han Fei had recalled Nine Sounds and ire Seed and suddenly appeared beside Yu Jing.

Yu Jing was stealing resources from a weapon shop. When he saw Han Fei suddenly appear, he asked in a daze, “My lord, aren’t you... going to be a Venerable?”

“Venerable my ass! Let’s go!”

Boom...

Rumble...

As soon as Yu Jing said so, a terrifying explosion resounded thousands of kilometers away, the sea trembled, and the waves surged.

Chapter 1209: Cannon Fodder Jellyfish

There had never been such a terrifying explosion in the Ice God Canyon.

The mushroom cloud was beyond description! The entire area of the Free Trade Valley had been blown up. The surrounding area was blown to pieces, and at least ten iceberg bodies nearby were instantly blown to pieces.

When Han Fei and Yu Jing drilled out of the void thousands of kilometers away, they could still feel the terrifying impact coming at them. The ice underneath them broke and collapsed. In the sky, large chunks of hailstones fell like small bombs.

Yu Jing looked at Han Fei in shock, wondering what he had done to cause such a horrible explosion.

Han Fei nodded in satisfaction. Although this explosion cost him a lot, it was worth it.

Han Fei had planned to escape at the last moment. After all, he had already made a fortune.

However, on second thought, Han Fei realized that the old turtle was right. He didn't seem to need much of the spiritual spring now.

All in all, he had looted the Fire Spring and Free Trade Valley and accumulated as many as 7 million catties of spiritual spring. This didn't include some of the spiritual spring that Yu Jing seized the opportunity to grab.

In short, at the last moment, Han Fei didn't hesitate to put five million catties of spiritual spring in the array and detonate it.

Five million catties of spiritual spring? That was equivalent to five billion points of spiritual energy. No one would do that even if they didn't consider the spiritual spring as money.

Han Fei chose to play this game for two purposes. First of all, this tribulation battle was caused by him. Then, there would be the matter of Yi Yuchen entering the Dao.

Now, the Water-Wood World was in a tense situation.

Logically speaking, he should help attract some attention.

Otherwise, if he borrowed someone else's place to transcend the tribulation and caused them a huge trouble, but then ran away, that would be too ungrateful.

However, ordinary squabbles couldn't attract the attention of the strong masters. Venerable-level powerhouses wouldn't care much about the death of a few Dao Seeking great demons.

With what Han Fei did, it could be said that the sea demon gathering place that occupied nearly ten thousand square kilometers was almost destroyed.

Besides, Han Fei was used to taking advantage of troubled waters. He wouldn't have a chance to rob other places until it became a chaos here. After all, the Ice God Canyon itself was the most important place.

...

At this moment, the gathering place of the sea demons in the Ice God Canyon was a mess. The center of the explosion that ranged about 3,000 kilometers was directly crushed into pieces.

Within a radius of 500 kilometers from the core, even the Sea Spirit was not spared. They were directly blown to smithereens by the terrifying power of the explosion, without even a trace left.

As for the distance of 500 kilometers, to a range of 1,000, the total damage was 60%.

In other words, in this explosion, Han Fei killed an astronomical number of sea demons.

At this moment, in the void above the Ice City Wall, five Venerables were fighting.

At the moment the Ice God Canyon exploded, a sea demon Venerable immediately roared, "A*shole, I didn't expect the Water-Wood World to be so despicable!"

A Clam Girl shouted, "How dare you, ice domain! We haven't fought in a hundred years, but this time, you dare to go deep into the Ice God Canyon and launch a sneak attack? I'd like to see which one dares to attack our territory!"

On the Water-Wood World's side, a big ice bird was dumbfounded. It asked a human Venerable next to him via voice transmission, "Do we have such a plan? Why didn't I know?"

The human Venerable replied in confusion, "I don't think so. The battle is getting intense. There's no time to arrange a sneak attack on the Ice God Canyon. However... the timing is perfect. Something happened the moment the Venerable of the Ice God Canyon arrived. It seems that our people have already planned it. They even hid it from us!"

However, among the three Venerables of the Sea Clan, the old turtle man fell into a state of confusion.

"That's not right! I searched myself and chased them all the way to the Ice City Wall. Why did something still happen behind me?"

A human Venerable said via voice transmission, "One more Venerable. The Ice Domain won't stop fighting today."

...

While the Venerables were fighting, two phantoms were standing in the sky. They were a beautiful woman and a cold young man.

If Han Fei were here, he would have recognized that this woman was Queen Life. To be able to confront Queen Life in person, the identity of the young man could be imagined.

When the terrifying explosion echoed in the Ice Domain, both of them looked at the Ice Domain.

The cold man's eyes narrowed as if he wanted to see through the space fog and land his vision on the place of the explosion.

However, a scene that exceeded his expectations occurred. The heavenly secrets there were in chaos, and he couldn't see anything.

The cold man wasn't the only one who didn't see it through. Queen Life couldn't see it through either.

"Huh?"

Queen Life frowned slightly. A place that even a king couldn't see through could only mean that someone in that place had messed up the heavenly Dao there with their divination technique. Therefore, she couldn't see it through.

The cold man snorted and glanced around. When he saw Jing'er in the Dark War Port, he frowned. "I'm rather curious. Which Venerable from the Water-Wood World is behind this?"

Queen Life smiled without saying a word.

How could I not know what kind of Venerable there was in Water-Wood World? The only one who could avoid my investigation was the Insect King.

However, the Insect King was fighting at the Dark War Port.

In other words, the one causing trouble in the Ice God Canyon wasn't a Venerable. Could ordinary explorers go to the Ice God Canyon? Even if they went to the Ice God Canyon, a peak-level explorer wouldn't be able to cause such a huge uproar!

Queen Life's heart stirred as she had a guess.

She swept her gaze again, this time not at the people in the Ice God Canyon, but at the wisp of green.

"Jing'er's Venerable Token... It's really him."

There was no need to speculate.

On the second day after Han Fei came to the Water-Wood World, things kept happening. Things like looting the Ice Domain, sweeping the Fiery Sea, and transcending the Four Nine King Tribulation... At this moment, Han Fei had already run away.

With such a troublemaker, there couldn't be a second person who bombed up the Ice God Canyon.

Queen Life looked at the cold man and smiled. "Emperor White Armor, it's not the first time that your White Shell Royal City has bullied my Water-Wood World. Why? I just arranged a little trick, and you can't stand it?"

The cold man snorted. "It's just a Venerable. I'd like to see how much trouble he can stir up. Mu Wuhua, if you want to stop the war, you'll have to open the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm and..."

Queen Life smiled without saying a word, thinking, If you knew that this was just a junior Explorer, I wonder what your mentality would be.

Queen Life wasn't worried at all.

Since Han Fei was the only one who could come to the Water-Wood World and was so good at making troubles, he couldn't have done all this without some means or luck.

Suddenly...

Through Jing'er's Venerable Token, Queen Life could barely see that space. However... Why did she see two Half-Mermen?

Queen Life was intrigued. Was Han Fei related to the Sea Clan?

But on second thought, she was sure she knew Han Fei's identity... Since he wasn't related to the Sea Clan, did Han Fei have a way to transform into a sea demon?

"Interesting..."

...

Han Fei didn't know that he had been seen through. Taking advantage of the big explosion, he and Yu Jing traversed the void.

While flying, Han Fei said, "On the way, if you meet any strong masters, tell them we're going to report the situation of the battle."

Yu Jing asked, "Master, there are at least five peak Dao Seeking powerhouses in the Ice God Canyon at the moment. Can we really rob here?"

Han Fei sneered. "Didn't it just explode? Will the strong masters in the Ice God Canyon turn a blind eye to it?"

All of a sudden, Han Fei stopped with a thought and clutched Yu Jing with the Void Lines. "Lend your body to me first."

As he spoke, the arrays under Han Fei's feet were interlocked, and the Breath Concealing Array and the Stealth Array were activated simultaneously. Only Yu Jing was still trying to rush forward.

Buzz!

In the void, three figures flew over one after another.

In his heart, the old turtle said, "One is in the peak of the Dao Seeking realm, and two advanced."

Han Fei made up his mind. "Therefore, be fast! After we rob the Ice God Canyon, we'll have to run. Old turtle, keep attacking."

"Stop, Yu Jing, didn't you go to the Ice City Wall? Why are you here? What happened in the iceberg city just now?"

Three Dao Seeking great demons were already standing in front of Yu Jing.

At this moment, one of the advanced Dao Seeking demons held Yu Jing down with one hand. Whenever Yu Jing moved, he would tear him apart.

Yu Jing was desperate because he couldn't control his body at all except for his soul.

"Roar!"

What answered the three of them was a terrifying beast roar.

Chapter 1210: Awakening

Han Fei was very glad that he had been to the Grand Myriad Mountains, inheriting many combat skills, and at the same time, getting to know the combat skills of various races.

He could catch them off guard and sneak attack them, but the creatures he didn't know naturally had different attacking methods. Similarly, they could catch him off guard.

At this moment, Han Fei seemed to be controlling Yu Jing's body, but in fact, he just regarded Yu Jing as the carrier of his Void Lines.

In an instant, Yu Jing was taken down.

With a roar, Han Fei and the old turtle moved out one after another. The Void Lines shot out, and the black fog enveloped them. A shocking sword light slashed across the sky, and two advanced Dao Seeking creatures were directly killed by this slash.

In terms of absolute strength, an advanced Explorer was completely no match for Han Fei now.

The sea demon's body withered.

However, the moment he was enshrouded by the black fog, an ultra-quality Divine weapon exploded. In an instant, Han Fei was blasted hundreds of kilometers away. He felt his internal organs tumbling, multiple wounds appeared on his body, and golden blood dripped.

The big demon who was at the peak of the Dao Seeking realm was even more miserable. The explosion was closest to him. After being struck by the explosion, he was almost blown to pieces on the spot.

At this moment, Han Fei saw that the big demon at the peak of the Dao Seeking realm had turned into a big octopus. However, at this moment, four of its tentacles had been blown up, and there were only five left. At this moment, the latter had just torn open space and ran out.

Han Fei's heart did a flip. Huh, Yu Jing? Where is Yu Jing?

The old turtle was lost for words. "That little jellyfish was weak in the first place. Now that an ultra-quality Divine weapon exploded, he, a junior peak-level Dao Seeking sea demon, was certainly crushed."

Han Fei said in surprise, "How can it be? He's in the Dao Seeking realm anyway..."

Han Fei was speechless. I just found a spy to bewilder the Dao Seeking realm demons who came to chase me... I didn't expect that the spy would die so quickly...

Han Fei roared, "A*shole, I'm gonna kill that octopus!"

Han Fei didn't tear open the space but chased in the void. He could see the outside world in the void and found that the big demon was holding a big conch and howling.

Han Fei's face changed greatly. "Not good. Kill him now."

In the blink of an eye, Han Fei didn't even have the time to cast the Divine Healing Technique on himself before he rushed out. At this moment, he had no time to hide anymore as Snowmourn thrust at that sea demon in the void.

At the moment when space was torn apart, torrents of knives gathered. The big octopus's reaction was not slow either. A big eye suddenly appeared on the octopus's head.

Swish!

A laser-like terrifying ray shot directly at Han Fei.

Han Fei's face immediately changed. Was his skin burnt?

What kind of attack was this? Even his current skin was easily burnt through?

And the big octopus was also dumbfounded. What kind of skin is this? My Purple Electric Light didn't even penetrate his body?

"Pfft!"

Han Fei glared and roared, "Roar!"

The Hundred Beast Soul Subduing Roar was launched, and Snowmourne was activated.

Under this blow, Han Fei actually pierced through this peak-level great demon. This was a rather terrifying battle record!

Buzz!

At that moment, the black fog enveloped the Dao Seeking realm demon again. Han Fei lowered his head and looked at his chest. His chest, a little to the right of centre, was pierced by the purple light that startled him, and almost penetrated his chest.

"What a terrifying power."

In his heart, the old turtle's voice sounded, "Not good, go now!"

Two seconds after Han Fei tore open the void, he suddenly trembled. Then, he heard the old turtle's reminder. How could he dare to be careless at this moment? He tore open the space crack again and drilled in.

"Hum..."

Arrays popped up under Han Fei's feet, which were all concealment arrays and mist arrays.

"Hmph!"

A big hand pinched, and dozens of arrays shattered.

A silver-blue seahorse appeared in the void and transformed into a human.

"Huh?"

The seahorse squeezed the array, only to find that among the arrays, there was a short-distance teleportation array that was being annihilated.

With a thought, the Sea Horse Venerable immediately swept the area, but his frown deepened.

"Why is there no one here?"

After searching the surrounding 50,000 kilometers, the Sea Horse Venerable didn't find anyone. He said to a conch via voice transmission, "I found the target, but he ran away. He's not a Venerable but a peak-level Explorer. This person's concealment technique is quite exquisite and can avoid my perception. I'll personally guard the Ice God Canyon and wait for him to appear next time."

There was no telling who the seahorse was talking to, but Han Fei couldn't hear it. He had already entered Forge the Universe.

Half an hour later, in the undulating sea, a little jellyfish suddenly stretched its body and quietly swam to the sea beyond the ice domain.

Yu Jing panicked!

Han Fei, including the Venerable, didn't know that Yu Jing's original body was an extremely special jellyfish, known as the Misfortune Jellyfish.

The reason why Yu Jing refused to go to the front line, just like his name, was that he would basically never come back. He would really trigger bad luck!

He was still 200,000 kilometers away from the Ice City Wall when he met Han Fei, this punk.

He had finally formed an alliance with Han Fei but this troublemaker was targeted by a Venerable.

He didn't know if Han Fei had been killed or not, but he didn't care. It would be better if Han Fei was killed. He had snatched a batch of resources and didn't give them to Han Fei.

Yu Jing fled unhurriedly.

As a Misfortune Jellyfish, his recovery ability was unimaginably strong.

Although bad luck was bad luck, if it wasn't the Ten Ultimate Deadly Sites, he generally couldn't die. As long as he didn't die, he could recover in less than 10 years.

Besides, he still had resources on him, which could greatly shorten the time of recovery.

"Heh! I won't stay in the front line anymore. I'm going to the Royal City!"

...

Han Fei's strategy of quickly attacking and looting failed.

At this moment, Han Fei cursed, "Yu Jing, that b * stard, didn't he say that there was no Venerable in the Ice God Canyon? Sure enough, those who are not of our race can't be trusted. I'm too innocent. I need to take a lesson from it."

Hearing Han Fei muttering to himself, the old turtle was simply lost for words.

Innocent? How are you innocent? Isn't Yu Jing a nice guy? He was blown up into nothingness because of you.

Han Fei took out a few Sun-Moon Shells regretfully, which he had taken from the peak-level great demons just now.

“F*ck!”

The old turtle asked, “What’s up?”

Han Fei’s pupils widened. “I forgot that there is still a batch of resources on Yu Jing. That son of a turtle! I screwed up.”

The old turtle roared angrily, “Come on, tell me, what’s wrong with being the son of a turtle? Do you know how many people in the world want to be my son?”

Han Fei was speechless. “Why are you so angry?”

The old turtle snorted. “Actually, you’re not bad. If you can take me as your foster father...”

Before the old turtle finished speaking, Han Fei sneered. “You owe me a peak-level Dao seeking demon for what you said. Remember that you owe me... Who are you? What makes you think you can take advantage of me? I’m going to be a king. How can I be defiled by others?”

The old turtle: “...”

The two chatted for a while, and Han Fei looked at his more than 2 million catties of spiritual spring, thinking: I can’t go out for the time being. I have to take my time to explore this Ice God Canyon.

But if he really took things slowly, he would have no chance to sneak into the Ice God Canyon after the war in the Water-Wood World ended, and he would be in danger.

Han Fei murmured, “If I were a Venerable, I would definitely have stared at this space.”

The old turtle said, “It’s your fault for drawing a short-distance teleportation array. If it were a long distance teleportation array, no one would be watching this place.”

Han Fei said with a black face, “In such a short time, I had to have the time to carve a long-distance array!”

“Humph, no, the sea is dangerous. I have to draw hundreds of fish skin maps in advance.”

The old turtle: “...”

A day later, a lot of fish skin maps had been placed in front of Han Fei.

He wondered if he should go out first.

Suddenly, the old turtle said, “Do you think Venerables are so impatient?”

Han Fei: “...”

Han Fei gritted his teeth. If the Venerable watched here for eight or ten years, how could he escape?

At this moment, Han Fei really wanted to hide his real realm and then turn back into a Sea Spirit.

“Huh? Wait...”

Suddenly, Han Fei’s heart stirred. How long had it been since he paid attention to the progress of his cultivation technique?

Han Fei suddenly straightened his body. Right, he had learned too many combat skills. Up to this day, many combat skills had been eliminated by his subconscious.

However, he had the Demon Purification Pot! Why should they be eliminated?

At that moment, Han Fei's heart was ignited again.. He found that he still had a lot of room for growth.
