Chapter 1221: Three Powers

Han Fei had thought that he would be teleported to a certain secret realm, but with a swish, he returned to the Fire Spring.

Han Fei wanted to explore the outer sea, but for some reason, he kept wandering on the Ice Domain line.

At this moment, they stood above the Fire Spring and found that this place was completely empty.

The Fish Dragon King asked in confusion, "Did they all go to the front line?"

Yu Wendao shook his head slightly. "In recent days, the Fire Spring has been attacked by the Water-Wood World repeatedly. Later, a traitor in the Dao Seeking realm appeared in the Ice God Canyon and looted the Fire Spring. Everyone here is in a panic. Those who didn't go to the front line must have gone to the Ice Mountain City."

The Fish Dragon King curled his lips. "Traitor, such creatures don't exist in the Royal City. Let's go, continue to the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm."

...

Along the way, Yu Wendao and the Turtle Minister were escorting them. If Han Fei guessed right, Han Fei and the others were not the only ones going to the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm.

Yu Wendao explained to the Fish Dragon King, "Dragon King, you need to remember one thing on this trip. You are not the only one who came from the Royal City. You should know who to trust and who not to trust."

A fierce gleam flickered in the eyes of the Fish Dragon King. "Of course, I know it very well. Heh, just because I'm ranked tenth on the Genius List, there are more than one or two people coveting my position. But it doesn't matter. I'll resolve them once and for all on this trip."

As he spoke, Yu Wendao glanced at Han Fei and the others and then continued, "The Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm is said to be an ancient great realm, and some people call it the lost world. In a sense, that place can't even be considered a secret realm, because there are only endless undying souls and strange demon plants there. Because it's in a sealed state all year round, there are a lot of treasures there. It can be said that the worst treasures there are Divine Weapon materials. However, there is relatively little spiritual energy and energy there, so before entering, you have to prepare some spiritual fruits, which you should have no lack. Of course, although there are many treasures, you have to be alive to get them. And there's one thing you have to remember. If anyone here can use the power of the Dao Seeking realm, you have to be careful there are rules in the ancient realm. Whoever uses the power of the Dao Seeking realm there might encounter some inexplicable bad luck, or be targeted by the Great Dao in the ancient realm."

The Fish Dragon King smiled contemptuously. "Mr. Wendao, what's there to explain about a mere secret realm? I'm already invincible against peak-level law enforcers. The most dangerous ones are the people inside, the heavenly talents of the Water-Wood World, and the useless fools from the Blood Sea Divine Wood City.”

The turtle man added, “Young Master Dragon King, you have to be careful. After all, every race has peerless geniuses. Take Han Fei as an example. He has killed many geniuses of our Royal City in one battle. You can’t underestimate him.”

The Fish Dragon King said impatiently, “Humph, it’s impossible for him to enter the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm. Besides, even if he goes there, he will have to suppress his realm. A peak-level Sea Spirit, am I afraid of him? In the same realm, who am I afraid of?”

As he said this, the Fish Dragon King didn’t care at all. He even glanced back casually. “After you enter, kill anyone from the Water-Wood World. If you find a group of fiery red big fish that can sing or sexy women in red gauze clothes, kill them all.”

Han Fei’s heart did a flip. The Fish Dragon King seemed to be talking about the Millennium Snapper.

Han Fei couldn’t help but feel a little excited. The two Royal Cities and the Water-Wood World, the three forces were in the same place, so there must be a bloodbath.

Yu Wendao said leisurely, “Hunting treasure and lives are one thing. Rumor has it that there is a foundation in the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm that can help people to become a king. Although no one has ever seen it, you can still try finding it.”

Han Fei’s heart skipped a beat. Another chance to become a king? Heh, let me smash that damn place. Let’s see who can get it.

...

Two hours passed.

The place connecting the Ice Domain and the Fiery Sea was certainly not close to the Wall of Flame, but a sea area with a gentle weather.

In the sea, there were bubbling cold currents and warm currents converging, which turned into a warm current that washed the area.

And Han Fei perceived that at the place where the sea currents converged, there were thousands of people standing in different camps.

Han Fei didn’t dare to open his perception too early, so he immediately retracted it the moment his perception swept over.

After a minute, when Han Fei and the others arrived at the intersection of sea currents, he looked at the large group of women in red gauze instead of the Water-Wood World people. Yes, none of them were men, all of them were women. And they were all wearing thin gauze clothes, which seemed to be falling off their shoulders at any time.

Han Fei looked around and soon found Yang Ruoyun among the women in red who he had never forgotten.

When Han Fei heard that the Blood Sea Divine Wood City was full of the Big Red Trunk, he already knew where Yang Ruoyun went back then. Where else could it be except for the Water-Wood World?

And this Blood Sea Divine Wood seemed to be a special royal city independent of the Water-Wood World and the White Shell Royal City. For example, the Fish Dragon King didn't like the people in the Blood Sea Divine Wood City at all and threatened to kill everyone in red.

Han Fei discovered that Yang Ruoyun seemed to have great luck too. In the past few years, he had weathered through many dangers and hardships to get to where he was today. But Yang Ruoyun had also become a peak-level Sea Spirit.

"Interesting."

Han Fei smiled. He hadn't seen Yang Ruoyun for years, and she was no longer his opponent.

Han Fei suddenly thought of something. He dug out a book from the Big Red Trunk when he was in the level-three fishery. It was a pity that the Demon Purification Pot had used up all his resources during his tribulation. Otherwise, that thing would have been of great use now.

Of course, Han Fei didn't regret much. That thing was full of breathtaking demonic Qi. Now that he had two Sea Quelling Bizarre Treasures, he was much stronger than before.

As if noticing Han Fei's gaze, Yang Ruoyun tilted her head and looked at Han Fei.

However, not only did Han Fei not move his eyes away, but he even put on a weird smile.

Yang Ruoyun frowned. For some reason, that person didn't seem to give her a good feeling.

Beside her, someone said, "Ruoyun, that Half-Merman seems to be interested in you?"

Yang Ruoyun snorted. "Lowly bloodline."

Someone chuckled. "I don't believe you won't drink his blood if he gives it to you."

The Fish Dragon King suddenly looked at Han Fei. "Don't look at them. No matter how beautiful they are, they should be killed. The Blood Sea Divine Wood City has never been on good terms with our White Shell Royal City. Those Blood Demons will bewilder you, devour your blood, and absorb your soul... Don't be enchanted by them."

Han Fei wondered if the Millennium Snapper had such an ability.

However, he still responded first, "Master Dragon King is right."

Han Fei finally glanced at Yang Ruoyun and then at the Water-Wood World people.

On the Water-Wood World's side, there were people from all four races.

On this trip to the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm, most of the people from the Water-Wood World were human peak-level law enforcers, followed by the Insect Clan and the Sky Clan. However, among the remaining tree demons, there were a few little treants that made Han Fei stare in surprise.

Normal Tree Demons usually had tree-shaped roots, but the roots were like legs, so they were not slow at all when they ran. If they were on the ground, they could still burrow into the ground and were much faster than others.

However, among the less than 100 Tree Demons, Han Fei found three skinny little treemen with only a few leaves on them who looked like ordinary people.

The feeling these little treemen gave Han Fei was very similar to the little treeman in the Deep-Sea Jungle in the level-two fishery of the Blue Sea Town.

Oh, no, not similar, but exactly the same.

“Hiss!”

Han Fei realized that he had been in the Water-Wood World for too short a time, and there were many creatures that he had never seen. Since there was this little treeman in the Blue Sea Town, what did it mean? Why was there a little treeman in the Heavenly Water Village? Was there really only one demon forest channel in the Yin-Yang World that could connect to the Water-Wood World?

In fact, Yang Ruoyun’s appearance had given Han Fei an answer. The Sea Grassland in the level-three fishery could also connect the Water-Wood World!

It could be seen that there might be many places connecting the two worlds, but ordinary people didn’t know about it.

In the crowd, Han Fei also saw Shu Xiaoman who was fully armed, holding an eagle bow, carrying a saber, and looking serious. The only ones who didn’t look serious were the lying bugs.

There were Unicorn Heavenly Bulls, Golden Turtle Beetles, Blade Edge Centipedes, Blue-eyed Mantis, Ghost Eye Spiders...

In any case, the insect race gave Han Fei a creepy feeling. He felt that there were countless species in their races. Because of the various species, the insect race couldn’t easily defeat their enemies in combat. Who knew what special abilities these different insects had?

He glanced around. There seemed to be only about a thousand people from the Water-Wood World, and at least a thousand or hundreds of people had come from each of the two royal cities.

Their goal seemed to be very clear. They wanted to kill most of the people from the Water-Wood World. It would be great if they could kill all of them. They were the backbone of the Water-Wood World.

And the Water-Wood World certainly didn’t want their peak-level law enforcer to die in the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm, so they sent as few as they could.

However, before Han Fei could observe where the powerhouses of the three powers were, he heard someone laugh. “Phew! Isn’t this the Dragon King? We all thought you would go directly to the Dark War Port. Why did you come to the Ice Domain?”

The one who spoke was a Half-Merman who looked more handsome than the Fish Dragon King.

The Fish Dragon King's face immediately sank. "Yu Hong, straighten up your position first. Don't take yourself seriously just because you can come out with me to gain experience."

A woman in green floating on the sea chuckled and looked at the Fish Dragon King. "Dragon King, many people are looking at you. I hope you can maintain the tenth place on the Genius List with your pride."

The Fish Dragon King frowned. "Shui Hongyan, shut up. Otherwise, I will definitely 'visit' you in your shell someday."

"Hmph!"

The Clam Girl's face turned cold. "Maintain your position first!"

Han Fei couldn't help but glance at the Fish Dragon King. Good lord, it seems that this guy has a lot of enemies!

Buzz buzz buzz!

While they were bickering, they saw a peak-level Explorer walking out of the void. Han Fei knew the members of the human team. Perhaps because of Yi Yuchen's breakthrough, there were two peak-level Explorers from the Flying Feather Division on this trip.

The one who had met Han Fei a few times was Lu Lehan. As for the Insect Clan...

Wait, Han Fei's pupils were suddenly constricted. "The humans are Lu Lehan and a few others; the Sky Clan sent Little Red and a few other big birds over; the Insect Clan sent over a one-eyed spider; the Tree Demons sent an old tree over..."

If others were coincidences, the appearance of the old tree made Han Fei's heart skip a beat. Wasn't it the old tree he saw when he just came to the Water-Wood World? Wasn't this old tree supposed to guard the outer gate of the Demon Forest Channel? Why did it come today?

At that moment, Han Fei seemed to have guessed that someone had guessed that he was among the sea demons, so he deliberately sent these people over. What message was this person trying to convey to him?

Suddenly, Han Fei saw Shu Xiaoman looking around. Immediately, he realized his guess was right. Shu Xiaoman had been following him for two days and should be the person who knew him best here.

Therefore, if there was anything, he could just ask Shu Xiaoman after entering the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm.

Chapter 1222: Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm

Han Fei quickly calculated in his heart. Only Queen Life knew that he could hide among sea demons. He didn't know why Queen Life knew that.

In Han Fei's opinion, this didn't make sense! Why did Queen Life even know that he could sneak into sea demons? He was now a complete Half-Merman!

“Huh... the Venerable Token?”

Han Fei suddenly remembered that he still had Jing'er's Venerable Token.

Yes, this thing must have exposed his whereabouts, causing what he did in the outer ice sea area to be discovered by Queen Life or Jing'er.

However, Han Fei was still a little puzzled. Since the moment he went to sea, the Venerable Token had been thrown into Forge the Universe by him. How could they still feel his location? Was this a f*cking GPS locator?

After the Explorers came out of the battlefield one after another, the Venerable slowly opened the void and walked out.

Han Fei's first reaction was Wushang Xue. If it were her, it would further prove his judgment that they knew he was among sea demons.

As Han Fei expected, he saw Wushang Xue and Jing'er walking out of the void together.

On the Water-Wood World's side were Wushang Xue and Jing'er, and on his side was a Clam Girl, a Half-Merman, and a Mermaid.

The people from the Blood Sea Divine Wood made him even more puzzled. Two twin sisters came out. They were both at the Venerable realm and wore crimson clothes. There was no telling why they only loved red.

In addition, Han Fei was quite puzzled. Other powers could give birth to children, but how did the people in the Blood Sea Divine Wood have children? Why were they all women?

Besides, when he was fighting under the Big Red Trunk in the level-three fishery, not only women had become Millennium Snappers, but many men had also become Millennium Snappers. Could it be that when they came to the Water-Wood World, some strong master found that they were actually men and killed them all?

Jing'er shouted, “Some people from the Water-Wood World have just transcended a tribulation and stepped into the Dao. How can you force us to fight you in the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm for such a trivial matter? Do you two royal cities really think that the Water-Wood World is easy to bully?”

On Han Fei's side, the Mermaid Venerable said indifferently, “Water-Wood World will be defeated by the Sea Clan sooner or later. Graves are where you belong. Even if the Water-Wood World has a king-level genius, he won't have a chance to become a king. Ning Jing, it's been so long but you're still a Venerable.”

Ning Jing bared her teeth. “Say it again. I'll chop off your tail and make a hot pot!”

Everybody was stunned. What was a hot pot?

However, no one cared. How could ordinary people interrupt a Venerable?

The Half-Merman Venerable on Han Fei's side chuckled. "Ning Jing, to be honest, regardless of this battle, the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm will open anyway. Besides, we are already used to your Water-Wood World's defeats. I'm just surprised that nearly 300 human beings have come this time."

The Clam Girl said softly, "Well, insects used to make up half your people. Why, do you think you human race is invincible now because you have two new geniuses?"

Wushang Xue glanced at Han Fei and the others coldly. "Humph, you'll regret underestimating the human race soon."

Ning Jing echoed, "That's right. It remains to be seen who will win in the end in this Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm."

"Giggle..."

Happy laughs burst out from the Blood Sea Divine Wood, and Jing'er, Wushang Xue, and the Venerables on Han Fei's side all frowned. None of them seemed to like the women from the Blood Sea Divine Wood City.

One of the twin sisters said, "It's interesting to watch you bicker. Why don't you come to the Blood Sea with us?"

Another twin sister added, "That's right! There are so many red balls in our Blood Sea. After eating them, you can become good girls in our Blood Sea."

Many people shivered, including Han Fei. The Red Ball was the fruit that grew on the Big Red Trunk. Some creatures could eat it, and some couldn't.

As far as Han Fei could see, only the Hexagon Starfish, a special life, was fine after eating it, but the humans would turn into Millennium Snappers as soon as eating it.

Sure enough, a Half-Merman Venerable on the side of the White Shell Royal City snorted. "Xue Ran, Xue Qin, you'd better behave yourselves. Otherwise, don't blame us for sealing your Blood Sea."

"Heh! How arrogant."

"You can try."

"Girls, on this trip, apart from those bugs, these people are your goals too."

"But if you encounter an opportunity, your first goal should still be the opportunity."

The two Venerables echoed, not paying attention to the others at all.

Among the insects from the Water-Wood World, a Fire Ring Worm said, "What do they mean? Can't our Insect Clan's blood be eaten? Boys, these women look down upon us. When we enter the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm, eat them."

Relatively simple-minded, most of the insects echoed.

A One-Horned Longicorn said in a heavy voice, "I can poke a few of them with my big horn."

A centipede stood up. "I can cut them into thin slices."

A spider tapped its steel claws. "I really want to hang them up and make them my nest."

Because they had been provoked, all the nearly 400 insects began to hum. The sound was annoying. It could be understood at first, but towards the end, there was only a large buzzing sound. God knew what they were buzzing about.

Indeed, in the face of the agitated insect race, the twin sisters immediately snorted. "Okay, the number of the people from the three parties is less than 5,000, but it's about enough. Stop shouting here."

On the White Shell Royal City's side, a Venerable said to everyone via voice transmission, "Everyone, listen up. Whoever kills a person from the Water-Wood World will be rewarded with a mid-quality Divine weapon, ten thousand catties of spiritual spring, and a heaven-level high-quality combat skill, and whoever kills a blood demon will be rewarded with a low-quality Divine weapon, a 100,000 catties of spiritual spring, and a heaven-level high-quality combat skill..."

Han Fei was shocked. Gosh, this guy is really generous! There are nearly 3,000 people in the Water-Wood World plus the Blood Demons. If they are all killed, wouldn't the one-time reward be tens of millions of catties of spiritual spring?

Also, no matter how cheap mid-quality and low-quality Divine weapons were, there would still be more than a thousand of them. Han Fei seemed to see hope. No, there must be a share for him.

As he expected, the rewards given by the other two parties were similar.

Han Fei and the others felt the blast of airwaves and stepped back.

Yu Wendao said to the people who came from the Ice Domain via voice transmission, "After entering, if you have any trump cards, use them all. There won't be any weaklings in the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm."

The Turtle Minster glanced at Han Fei and the others. "After entering, you must listen to the Young Master Dragon King. Whoever dares to act rashly can be killed by others. I'll give you rewards."

Han Fei felt threatened. He also noticed that the two people who provoked the Fish Dragon King before cast a cold look at him. If he guessed right, they were going to attack the Fish Dragon King in the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm!

And the Fish Dragon King seemed to know what these people were thinking. He even snorted, unconcerned.

Rumble!

Black clouds enveloped the sky, thunder rumbled, and heavy rain fell. Above the sea, a circular vortex slowly rose. Immediately afterward, a huge vortex appeared, and in the vortex, a circle of huge white teeth appeared.

Han Fei was stunned. Are those f*cking teeth? There were three circles inside, which looked extremely creepy as if they were inviting him to jump into the mouth of a sea monster.

"Go in."

“All the three parties, go in together.”

“Speed!”

“Remember, the exit will be closed in three days.”

The Fish Dragon King shouted in a low voice, “Follow me. You’ll all be rewarded when we return.”

Everybody responded one by one, “We swear to follow you, Master Dragon King.”

Han Fei, on the other hand, glanced at Yang Ruoyun, then at Shu Xiaomang, and finally at Yu Wendao who gave him a meaningful look.

Han Fei didn’t seem to notice Yu Wendao’s gaze, but Yu Cailing, who was also a subordinate of the Fish Dragon King, frowned and took a few deep glances at Han Fei. She felt that Han Fei seemed a little strange, but she couldn’t tell exactly why.

As for the other subordinate, Lan Xue’er, she didn’t even notice Han Fei and Yu Cailing at all. She had been clinging to the Fish Dragon King for fear that he would run away.

Swish swish swish!

The three parties all dove into the “big mouth”. As soon as they did, Han Fei felt his body flip, his eyes lit up, and then he appeared on the sea.

At first glance, Han Fei didn’t see where the thousands of people were scattered, but was surprised to see mountains in the distance, towering above the sea.

Most of these mountains were submerged in the sea, and half of them protruded above the sea. Some were high and some were low. There were large gaps between the mountains.

Han Fei couldn’t help taking a breath. There was a world hidden here?

However, Han Fei felt that it looked a bit familiar.

The old turtle said, “Have you discovered that this world not only lacks spiritual energy and energy, but also lacks vitality and is full of death aura? Especially on those mountains, the death aura is rich.”

While Han Fei was thinking about this question, he suddenly heard the Fish Dragon King roar, “Come here, all of you!”

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Buzz! Buzz! Buzz!

Whoosh!

The three parties quickly gathered at this moment.

At first, on the Blood Demon’s side, a Blood Demon chuckled. “If you want to fight, fight. We’ll be leaving first.”

It had to be said that this Blood Demon camp composed entirely of women was very smart. They knew that the relationship between the White Shell Royal City and the Water-Wood World was very bad, so they chose to evacuate as soon as they met.

If they wanted to hunt, there was plenty of time. They didn't have to rush.

Han Fei quickly came behind the Fish Dragon King, and the old turtle suddenly said, "This Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm has a Great Dao seal, and the strength of the entrants will be limited to the Law Enforcer realm... Wait, if you can deceive the Great Dao here, you can temporarily use the strength of an Explorer."

Han Fei paused.. If the old turtle hadn't reminded him, he would have forgotten that he was an Explorer. As an Explorer, he had snuck into a law enforcer-level secret realm?

Chapter 1223: Blown Up

"Tweet!"

A big bird shouted in the sky, "Prepare to fight!"

A bug roared, "Prepare to eat these fishermen!"

On the sea demons' side, some people left without looking back. Among them, the Clam Girl who provoked the Fish Dragon King just now said, "Fish Dragon King, you are the strongest here. Don't flinch! Giggle..."

Yu Cailing immediately reminded him, "Master Dragon King, don't be provoked by words."

The guy named Yu Hong said with a smile, "Fish Dragon King, let's see who will kill more enemies when we go out?"

The Fish Dragon King's face was dark. "Fine, Yu Hong, do you think I don't know what you're thinking? You think you can take my position? Never in your life!"

On the Water-Wood World's side, more than 300 humans had come this time.

However, in the Water-Wood World, the human race had the fewest members. Logically speaking, there was no reason for so many humans to come. But since they had come, the leaders outside were all his acquaintances. He couldn't let these people die in battle.

Han Fei immediately said to Shu Xiaomang via voice transmission, "I am Han Fei. I'm staying by the Fish Dragon King's side for the time being. Yes, you are looking in the right direction. Among the dozen or so guards around this fool, I am the most handsome one."

When receiving Han Fei's voice transmission, Shu Xiaoman was immediately refreshed. Sure enough, Messenger Jing was right. Han Fei had such magical abilities! After a few days of not seeing him, he had blended into the sea demons' team.

Shu Xiaoman immediately responded, "Is it really you? Why did you sneak into the sea demons?"

Han Fei was lost for words. "Why are you talking about this to me at a time like this? Enough chit chat. We can at most have a little contact battle this time."

Buzz! Buzz! Buzz!

Needless to say, a strong master of the Insect race had already swept across the sky and launched his knives at the sea demons.

Shu Xiaoman shouted, "Let's fight and retreat. Our purpose is not to fight. Don't be busy fighting."

The Fish Dragon King roared, "You want to leave? It depends on whether or not you have the ability to leave!"

After all, this was not a random secret realm, or to be exact, this was not a secret realm at all. As soon as the two parties entered the battlefield, it was normal for them to fight a battle first.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

A storm of swords had already swept over.

In the sky, a tornado swept across, tore the sky, and clawed at the sea demons.

And among sea demons, there were almost no weaklings. Those who were sent to this Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm might not be strong, but definitely not weak. Besides, they were all peak-level Sea Spirits. How weak could they be?

Clang, Clang, Clang, Clang...

The surface of the sea exploded, strange lights flashed in the sky, and cries and howls instantly spread out.

At that moment, Han Fei was holding a harpoon in his hand. While following the Fish Dragon King, he used the Void Lines to catch ten peak-level Sea Spirits.

Although Han Fei couldn't directly use the power of an Explorer, his soul power was very strong in the first place!

Before he became an Explorer, he could control at least three peak-level law enforcers with the Void Lines. If it were an ordinary peak-level law enforcer, he could control at least five or six.

At this moment, he was already an Explorer, and his soul was so much higher than that of a peak-level Sea Spirit. So it was as easy as a breeze for him to control ten people at once.

After practicing the Sky Stealing Technique, Han Fei found that the Void Lines were stronger and could even break the soul protection of some people.

However, these sea demons were not weak after all. Besides, the materials Han Fei used to refine the Void Lines were not good enough.

The materials he found back then were basically the meridians of Sea Spirit creatures. At this moment, although the fishing line at this level was still very powerful, it was no longer invincible.

Han Fei didn't know who among them had soul protection. Therefore, he missed one of them.

The fish that escaped the net shouted, "Attention, everyone, guard your souls. Someone in the Water-Wood World has a way to attack souls."

Hearing that, many sea demons changed their expression and became vigilant.

A soul attack technique? That was more unpredictable than physical injuries. It was similar to their mental penetration.

Han Fei cursed in his heart. It seemed that it was time to recultivate the Void Lines. They no longer worked well enough on Sea Spirits now. He had to upgrade them.

Of course, even so, Han Fei was still controlling nine people who were pretending to be sprinting.

Han Fei said telepathically, "Shu Xiaoman, play a scene with me."

Shu Xiaoman perked up. "Okay!"

...

In the blink of an eye, Shu Xiaoman shouted, "Everyone, be united. The number of enemies far exceeds ours. Let's fight with all our strength."

A man holding an eagle bow protected Shu Xiaoman and shouted, "Let's fight and retreat."

With that said, the man shot out arrows like rain, and the shadowless arrows burst out.

The Fish Dragon King sneered. "So you're the leader? Let me see what the Heavenly Talents of the Water-Wood World are like!"

"Six Collapsing Mountains of the Dragon King..."

The spear flashed and stabbed. In the void, there were clanging sounds, and the Shadowless Sword Art failed to work. The archer said in surprise, "This person is so fast. Xiaoman, let me..."

However, Shu Xiaoman simply pushed him away. Under the stunned gaze of the man, Shu Xiaoman bent her bow to shoot. "Explode, explode, explode..."

Boom Boom Boom...

The Fish Dragon King was about to see how strong the leading figures of the Water-Wood World were. But in the next second, three peak-level Sea Spirits beside him suddenly exploded.

In an instant, within a radius of tens of kilometers, strong wind and furious waves shook the sea. The sea surface was sunken from the explosion, and the Fish Dragon King was covered in dust.

Dozens of people around him were killed. Who the f*ck knew that his comrades-in-arms who were charging a second ago would explode in the next second?

At this moment, even the Fish Dragon King was dumbfounded! What kind of f*cking combat skill was this? Was there a combat skill that could be activated with a mouth?

After all, it was the self-destruction of peak-level Sea Spirits. Its power couldn't be underestimated. The Fish Dragon King was sent flying by the explosions, his face covered in dust and his body dripping with blood.

However, he was a super powerhouse ranked tenth on the Genius List after all. How could he be shaken by the self-destruction of ordinary Sea Spirits?

At this moment, he was still holding his spear, shaking the void.

He shouted, "Despicable! Let's see how easily I break it with my Dragon King Spear..."

However, Shu Xiaoman pointed at the Fish Dragon King. "Explode!"

"Huh?"

Boom...

The Fish Dragon King was blown into the sea again.

Plop...

In the surging wave, the Fish Dragon King hadn't killed anyone yet, but he had been injured by his four companions. If it was known by others, how f*cking embarrassing would it be?

Roar!

With a flash between the eyebrows of the Fish Dragon King, a weird and ferocious giant snake with red and white scales appeared.

The Fish Dragon King immediately cursed, "I'd like to see who else you control! Don't come over... I'll go..."

As soon as the Fish Dragon King turned over, he found that three more people had surrounded him, giving him no chance to attack at all.

As Shu Xiaoman shouted "Bang, bang, bang", terrifying self-explosion sounds came from the sea.

At this moment, the Fish Dragon King was really dumbfounded. He thought to himself, Am I really so lucky? Why is a random opponent I encounter so strong?

Or were the people in the Water-Wood World already so strong? He didn't even feel it, but the people around him had already been controlled by the other party?

The Fish Dragon King was a little scared. Who could resist this? He had prepared a spear, but before he could stab it out, he had been blown up seven times in a row.

This time, the Fish Dragon King immediately shouted, "No one shall come near me."

In Han Fei's heart, the old turtle's voice sounded, "I really feel sorry for this kid. How did he meet you?"

Han Fei responded, "What's wrong with him meeting me? It's his luck to meet me. By the way, are you going to make offerings or not? This is a good chance to not be suspected."

The old turtle said leisurely, "That's true."

Pretending to retreat, Han Fei shouted as he retreated, "Master Dragon King, don't panic. Although this person's means are strange, her attacks are not powerful enough."

Seeing that Han Fei could still talk, the Fish Dragon King let out a sigh of relief. Fortunately, there was nothing wrong with the attendants he chose himself. Otherwise, this scene would be too embarrassing!

Shu Xiaoman pointed her finger again and two explosions followed.

"Ahhh!"

This time, one of them who exploded was specially placed in the crowd by Han Fei just now.

There was a "lucky" guy who was picked by the God of Death. When he realized what happened, he was blown up to death.

Seeing this scene, the Fish Dragon King took a deep breath. "Let's go. Don't panic. The battle has just begun."

And the humans, the Sky Clan, the Insect Clan, and the Tree Demons who saw Shu Xiaoman point her finger... They were all dumbfounded. Where did this f*cking skill come from? Can a fight be like this? Nine consecutive explosions? Who still dares to fight you?

Shu Xiaoman secretly grimaced. This feeling... Why does it feel so good? If only it was true!

While Shu Xiaoman was dreaming, outside the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm, Yu Wendao was cultivating in seclusion and didn't intend to fight anyone.

Suddenly, he felt Han Fei's prayer.

Immediately, with a thought, he spread out a wisp of Great Dao in his heart, and what he exchanged for was a black mass of soul.

This time, Yu Wendao felt his heart skip a beat. An extreme thirst for blood and the pursuit of strength emerged in his heart.

"What a terrifying and tough soul. I've never seen anyone with such a strong thirst for power. This Yu Hanjia is probably stronger than I thought."

Yu Wendao's eyes glittered.. "I'm looking forward to it! I'm really looking forward to the day when he becomes a walking corpse."

Chapter 1224: Undead Creature

In the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm, there was actually only the Fish Dragon King who wanted to fight as soon as he came in.

Half of them had already rushed towards the mountains the moment they came in.

Things didn't go well at the beginning, and the Fish Dragon King was covered in dust. He, a Heavenly Talent, was actually at a disadvantage in the first round. He pointed his spear at Shu Xiaoman. "Human, I've remembered you. Don't give me a chance to catch you, or I will cut off your head."

Shu Xiaoman sneered. "I bet you won't survive the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm."

In the ears of others, it sounded as if the two strong masters were trash talking each other

But in fact, the Fish Dragon King was trash talking indeed.

But Shu Xiaomang... she was not. She knew that the Fish Dragon King would be dead soon for sure. Although she didn't know what Han Fei's purpose was, Han Fei was already by his side, so she couldn't figure out how this arrogant yet unlucky Heavenly Talent of the Sea Clan could survive Han Fei's hands.

However, Shu Xiaoman didn't enjoy pretending to be a Heavenly Talent.

Seeing that the Fish Dragon King and the others were about to retreat, she immediately said via voice transmission, "Han Fei, Messenger Jing said three things. Firstly, protect the Water-Wood World. Kill as many people from the White Shell Royal City and the Blood Sea Divine Wood as you can. Secondly, there are secrets in the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm. Try to find them out. Thirdly, can you become a woman?"

Buzz!

Han Fei, who was running with the Fish Dragon King, suddenly stumbled. Immediately, the others dodged warily.

The Fish Dragon King pointed his spear at Han Fei. "Speak."

Han Fei hurriedly said, "I'm fine. Just now, a soul power tried to attack me, but it didn't succeed."

"Huff!"

The others were all relieved.

Fortunately, Han Fei could still talk.

Otherwise, they would be horrified. How strong was the woman on the other side? If she could control someone as strong as Han Fei, then who couldn't be controlled by her here?

But Yu Cailing still asked, "Yu Hanjia, where was the first time we met?"

Everyone looked vigilantly at him. If Han Fei answered wrongly, they had to kill him.

Han Fei bared his teeth and smiled. "On the way to the Ice Mountain City, of course. At that time, I was looking for a place to make a breakthrough."

Yu Cailing was finally relieved. She turned around and said, "The woman from Water-Wood World has strange means. She can control dozens of people in a row. Her soul power must be extremely high. We need to be careful when we meet her in the future."

The Fish Dragon King snorted coldly. "If the other people weren't so weak, why should I be afraid? Fine, we'll have to fight them sooner or later. Let's explore the front first."

Seeing that Han Fei was fine, everyone was no longer worried. However, Han Fei's expression was very ugly. He responded from afar, "I can't. I'm a real man. Enough talking. I'm going to follow this fool into the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm."

When the initial battle stopped, the thousands of people dispersed.

Even though they were all Heavenly Talents of the White Shell Royal City, they were at least divided into four domains and each had their own territory.

Besides, there were more sea demons than humans in the first place. Who could recognize whom?

Except a leading Dao Seeking powerhouse had reminded the Fish Dragon King, Yu Hong, and the others to be careful before they came in, no ordinary sea demon wanted to hang around with top geniuses like the Fish Dragon King.

Just now, dozens of people had died around Fish Dragon King.

This scene made their scalps tingle. Heavenly Talents naturally had Heavenly Talents to deal with them. They didn't want to die!

Just now, Han Fei's Void Lines only attacked the two people around the Fish Dragon King. Those two people were not his attendants yet, but one of them was able to resist the power of the Void Lines and ran away.

It could be seen that although Han Fei despised the people around the Fish Dragon King, relatively speaking, these people were all Heavenly Talents. However, they were far from being Heavenly Talents like Han Fei.

At this moment, there were a total of 11 people around the Fish Dragon King, including Han Fei, all of whom were taken out of the Ice God Canyon by the Fish Dragon King. As for the other people who came out of the Ice God Canyon, the Fish Dragon King didn't take them seriously and only felt that they were a burden.

The Fish Dragon King shouted, "The Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm has thousands of huge mountains. Exploring them one by one will waste too much time. Follow me to rush into the depths of the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm first."

Han Fei finally knew why many people in the Royal City didn't like the Fish Dragon King. He didn't even use his brains to think! Do you know what's inside? Do you know the danger inside? Once you really rush in, if someone comes to ambush you, you'll be alone and helpless.

Han Fei couldn't help shaking his head slightly, asking in his heart, "Old Turtle, how is it going with Yu Wendao? I just felt a power being sucked into your body. Has he been resolved?"

The old turtle was lost for words. "How can it be so fast? This is only the second sacrifice. I can't offer sacrifices several times in an hour. In that case, Yu Wendao will definitely notice that my soul is corrupting his soul. No rush. With one or two more sacrifices, he won't be able to resist it even if he wants to."

On this side, Han Fei tried to be patient. "I'm afraid that I'll kill the idiot Fish Dragon King before Yu Wendao is killed."

The old turtle was silent for a moment. "Take it easy. After solving Yu Wendao, I'll have to find a way to kill that turtle under the Venerable's nose."

Han Fei shrugged. "Okay! I'm not sure how long I can wait. Once this Fish Dragon King threatens the people of the Water-Wood World, I'll have to kill him."

The old turtle said, "Boy, you can also possess others, right? Why don't you try to possess this Fish Dragon King?"

Han Fei curled his lips. "I can kill him, and I can become him. Why should I possess him? Possession can be dangerous. What if this guy has a soul treasure? Even someone like you is trapped in my sea of consciousness by the calabash, right?"

Hearing Han Fei's words, the old turtle was speechless. How could he expect to encounter Han Fei when he just picked a random guy to possess? What kind of luck was this?

A moment later.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

In the sky, the sky race was racing over.

However, what horrified Han Fei and the others was that when the first big bird rushed into the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm, a dense black mass of big black birds spread their wings and flew into the sky.

Because those creatures were particularly big, Han Fei and the others could clearly see that the black birds' bodies were incomplete. Some of their wings were full of holes, some had dry feathers, some had broken beaks, and some had lost claws.

Those were undead creatures of the Sky Clan.

However, what surprised Han Fei was that they would not attack the creatures of the Sky Clan.

In his opinion, these were actually not undying souls. They still had remnant bodies, so they should be undead creatures. Undying souls existed to protect something, while the undead creatures might exist purely for the sake of living. Otherwise, they would have chosen to die instead of becoming undead corpses.

There was no need for Han Fei to ask. Many people around him expressed their doubts. Someone asked in surprise, "Undead Creatures won't stop their clansmen?"

The Fish Dragon King snorted. "They're just some birds. Let's kill our way through."

Buzz!

Everybody flew past.

In the blink of an eye, Han Fei and the others broke into the valley between the two mountains. However, the valley didn't fully show itself as it was submerged about 3,000 meters under the sea.

On the sea, clusters of dark green algae gathered around.

Han Fei's heart did a flip. Dream Eating Algae?

Yes, he recognized this kind of spiritual plant at first glance. Back in the Grand Myriad Mountains, he could often see this kind of demonic plant in the near sea area.

Sure enough, in the next moment, Han Fei felt a slight illusion in front of his eyes as if everything was covered in a mist.

However, the power of the Dream Eating Algae could no longer shake him. They didn't even have the ability to bewilder the people around him.

The Dream Eating Algae didn't work, and the Void Lines were barely working, so this time, Han Fei simply switched to mental piercing.

"Pfft!"

All of a sudden, one of the eleven people who came with him was bleeding from his nose, mouth, and chest.

The Fish Dragon King frowned. "Useless. You can't even resist a mere Dream Eating Algae? Why would I pick you?"

The man said, "Master Dragon King, a very strong mental attack."

Chi la!

The Fish Dragon King picked up a large area of Dream Eating Algae with his spear and cleared the sea area 2,000 meters in front of him.

He smiled contemptuously. "Just ignore the Dream Eating Algae. Let's fly over."

"Tweet!"

"Quack..."

On the top of the mountain, hundreds of corpses of the Sky Clan jumped out. Their leader turned out to be a Swallow-tailed Glede, a special bird that also mastered the Heavenly Void Divine Movement.

Back then, when he was learning from the Sky Swimming Falcon, Ximen Linglan was learning from this kind of bird, so its speed was extremely fast.

"Humph! How dare you dead bodies block my way? Break!"

The spear light of the Fish Dragon King pierced through the air from a hundred kilometers away. Before the Swallow-tailed Glede could react, it had been pierced through.

Han Fei's face turned cold. This guy's Near at Hand Technique was indeed not weak. Its speed was comparable to Zhang Xuanyu's Instant Mystic Spear. One was "Near at Hand", and the other was "Time Freeze". They looked similar, but they both had their own characteristics.

However, seeing the Fish Dragon King attack the Sky Clan, Han Fei secretly made up his mind, How dare you attack the Sky Clan? Even God can't save you this time.

Han Fei immediately shouted, "What are you waiting for? How can we let the Dragon King fight enemies in person? Are you the master, or is the Dragon King the master?"

“Huh?”

The Fish Dragon King was stunned. That’s right! I’ve taken so many attendants with me. Why do I have to fight myself?

Immediately, the Fish Dragon King looked at Han Fei and smiled. This kid is not bad!

Chapter 1225: All the Lackeys Are Dead

Hearing Han Fei’s words, the Fish Dragon King felt very comfortable.

He shouted in a low voice, “Training is an indispensable part of becoming strong. Don’t think that you can gain experience by joining in several battles here. War is just a kind of training...”

After preaching for a while, the Fish Dragon King pointed at a particularly high mountain in the distance and said, “Go there. The more conspicuous a place looks, the easier it is to find opportunities. Do you see it? Behind the mountain, there seems to be a green light rushing into the sky.”

Someone took a deep breath and said, “Master Dragon King, a Blood Demon has gone over.”

How far could the mountains be away from each other? Although these peaks were not connected as a whole, as far as Han Fei could see, there were only seven or eight mountains and more than 200 miles away from them.

In fact, in Han Fei’s perception, there was almost no one within a thousand miles who could escape his perception.

In his perception, however, there were as many as 50 places that couldn’t be scanned. Almost every mountain peak that he perceived would have one or even two places that his perception couldn’t work.

For example, at this moment, Yang Ruoyun and the others were about thirty sea peaks away from Han Fei and the others. Now they were investigating a place of spiritual plants at the bottom of the sea.

On the other side, Shu Xiaomang and a dozen men and women were speeding on the sea and had just rushed into the mountains.

In Han Fei’s perception, seven or eight Blood Demons had indeed rushed over to the mountain that the Fish Dragon King was pointing at. It could be seen that the other party indeed had a head start by going early.

Like the Fish Dragon King, Han Fei entered the mountains and immediately saw the peak. However, his eyes were not on the peak itself, but the green light that shot into the sky as mentioned by the Fish Dragon King!

“Heavenly Vine?”

Han Fei’s eyes suddenly narrowed. From that height, the degree of sealing off perception, and the vague feeling of vines, what could they be if not heavenly vines?

“Hiss!”

Han Fei seemed to have discovered something. While following the others forward, he perceived every mountain nearby and looked at it little by little.

Suddenly, Han Fei found a strange platform on one of the mountains. The platform seemed to be formed by a collapse of the mountain.

In his impression, there seemed to be such a place in the Grand Myriad Mountains.

Immediately afterward, Han Fei found a big sunken pit on another mountain. In his memory, a demon plant once told him that it was a place of seclusion for a dorbeetle.

Gulp!

“Grand Myriad Mountains?”

Han Fei was dumbfounded. If this wasn't the Grand Myriad Mountains, where was it?

As he spread out his perception, memories popped up in his head, and he gradually became familiar with the environment. He had travelled every mountain and tried every flying route here.

The reason why he didn't recognize it at first glance was that there were almost no demon plants on these mountains, so he subconsciously didn't connect here with the Grand Myriad Mountains.

No wonder he found these mountains familiar the moment he came in. It turned out that this was the Grand Myriad Mountains.

Back then, he and the Sky Swimming Falcon had flown almost everywhere in the Grand Myriad Mountains. Han Fei had even been to the Divine Son Peak where no creatures were willing to go.

“Stop! Let's kill those Blood Demons first. Don't listen to their weird songs.”

“Yu Hanjia!”

Yu Cailing quickly patted Han Fei's shoulder. “What are you thinking? You seem to be deep in thought.”

Han Fei took a deep breath and said, “Nothing. I just find the terrain here so weird.”

Han Fei's heart slightly sank. He scanned with his perception again and found that except for the undead creatures of the Sky Clan rushing at him and the others, there were no beasts or war giants here. Instead, there were some rotten insect bodies at the bottom of the sea that were getting up shakily.

The Fish Dragon King didn't intend to attack, so Han Fei, Yu Cailing, and Lan Xue'er naturally wouldn't do it either. The three of them were attendants of the Fish Dragon King, so the remaining geniuses of the Ice God Canyon had to attack.

At the moment when the seven of them rushed out, Han Fei sneered. All of a sudden, he heard a strange rhythm in the air.

“Roar!”

When Han Fei was still in the Law Enforcer realm, he couldn't use the Nine Sounds of Dao to kill Explorers.

But now, he was already an Explorer. Couldn't he use them to control Sea Spirits?

Swish! Swish! Swish!

The expressions of everyone including the Fish Dragon King changed. The Fish Dragon King roared, "It's the Blood Demons' Blood Demon Curse, guard your minds!"

The Fish Dragon King roared with a solemn expression.

He didn't expect that the Blood Demons would target him from the beginning. It didn't make sense! Besides, why didn't he find where the Blood Demons were? Was it a top Blood Demon of the same level as him?

In the sky, some people were dancing in anger, some attacked their companions with bloodshot eyes, and some fell into sadness and joy, rushing stupidly at the Sky Clan who had already become undead creatures.

Puff, puff, puff!

The hawks' claws tore through the air and their sharp beaks pierced through.

In an instant, four people were killed and crushed.

They probably didn't even know what they were doing when they died. They had just rushed out and hadn't had the time to show their loyalty before they died.

The other two were already driven crazy by the Nine Sounds.

Han Fei secretly activated it, and scenes of the environment appeared in his mind.

In the eyes of the two people, they saw that the Fish Dragon King was holding Lan Xue'er while pointing at them and laughing. "Honey, do you see that? They want to follow me, the Fish Dragon King, with such strength? Nice try..."

Then, the Fish Dragon King that Han Fei created shouted, "You two b * stars, why don't you go killing the enemies? If you're useless, you might as well die."

Immediately, the two of them burst into fury. We are Heavenly Talents after all! Why should we be so humble in front of you, Fish Dragon King? Why should we fight so hard for you? Why are you mocking us?

"Roar!"

"Flying Star Explosion!"

A Half-Merman was directly dyed in blood, and a Star Sea Flying Fish fused into his body. The harpoon in his hand flashed and he instantly rushed to the Fish Dragon King.

The Fish Dragon King was furious. "Are you crazy? How dare you fight your master?"

But at this moment, another person shot out a huge red scorpion tail needle, which pierced through the void.

“Die!”

Han Fei pretended that he didn't react in time, but Yu Cailing had already rushed out.

Han Fei glanced at Lan Xue'er who was pushed out by the Fish Dragon King, his eyes flashed, and he used the Soul Piercing.

“Pfft!”

How could Lan Xue'er expect things to turn out this way? The man beside her was the tenth on the Genius List in the Royal City! How could a few undead creatures of the Sky Clan threaten them?

However, it happened.

Those undead creatures were still attacking because they couldn't hear the Nine Sounds of Dao at all, while almost everyone else was affected.

Blood oozed out of Lan Xue'er's eyes, nose, and mouth as she was stabbed by Han Fei's Soul Piercing. Her body froze in midair and then pierced through by the Flying Star Explosion.

The Fish Dragon King roared, “B*stard, die!”

As the Fish Dragon King flipped his hand, a spear shadow instantly appeared in front of the person's chest.

Bang!

He stabbed the man to death.

Lan Xue'er was stabbed by a centipede sting again. The beautiful Half-Mermaid quickly turned dark green. Not only was her body pierced twice, but she was also poisoned.

“Ahhh~”

Suddenly, Lan Xue'er erupted with a terrifying power. It was the power of the Dao Seeking realm. It seemed that at the last moment, Lan Xue'er's desire to survive made her use her strongest combat power.

Lan Xue'er leaned on an ice pillar with one hand, and then the seawater surged and wrapped her, freezing her into an iceberg.

This should be a kind of self-protection power. However, through the ice, Han Fei saw that Lan Xue'er was almost turning dark green and should not be far from death.

Furthermore, when Lan Xue'er unleashed the power of the Dao Seeking realm, a bell suddenly rang. Even Han Fei was shaken to the point of instability.

“The rules of the Great Dao?”

Han Fei thought to himself, Fortunately, Lan Xue'er's strength came and went quickly. Otherwise, he wouldn't know what would have happened.

Han Fei didn't care about Lan Xue'er's life at all. He shouted, "How dare you attack Lord Dragon King? Who gave you the courage?"

Yu Cailing's expression was extremely ugly. For some reason, when they set off from the Ice God Canyon, she had been uneasy, feeling that something was wrong.

How long had it been since they entered the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm? Not even half an hour. They hadn't even climbed a mountain after entering, but her companions had almost all died.

Yes, a total of 11 people followed the Fish Dragon King into the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm. At this moment, only she and Han Fei were left.

Han Fei saw water current vibrating in Yu Cailing's ears, as if she was trying to resist the power of the Nine Sounds of the Great Dao. However, how could she resist the power of the Nine Sounds by merely sealing her hearing?

Han Fei and Yu Cailing attacked the last person who was already crazy almost at the same time.

"Pfft!"

Smack!

When the last person died in fury, Yu Cailing suddenly clutched her head and screamed.

Han Fei turned around and quickly stepped into the air. While rushing at the Fish Dragon King, he shouted, "Let's go! There's an ambush here."

Han Fei ignored Yu Cailing.

How should he put it? This woman was probably one of the few sea demons who was quite serious. If it weren't for the fact that they were on different sides, Han Fei didn't think he would attack her.

At this moment, she must've been caught in the sound of fear. Han Fei glanced at her one last time and found that the girl was shivering in fear.

The Fish Dragon King had never seen such a battle before. In terms of fighting, he was definitely not afraid.

However, ever since he entered the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm, all kinds of strange things had come to him. There was a woman on the Water-Wood World who could control the soul. With a point of her finger, one of his men would blow up. It was terrifying.

Now, he hadn't even seen the shadow of his enemy yet but only saw a few bird corpses and heard a melody...

He was surprised to find that all his subordinates had been wiped out.

Besides, the Fish Dragon King felt that he was losing his cool.

However, Han Fei's roar woke him up.

"Stop staring. Let's go to the bottom of the sea."

Chapter 1226: The Poor Fish Dragon King

The Fish Dragon King was dragged into the bottom of the sea by Han Fei, mainly because he couldn't bear this blow for a while.

He wanted to say, "It's not that the enemy is too strong, but that I haven't seen the enemy at all. How do you expect me to fight him?"

But in any case, Yu Hanjia was the only one left among the people he had brought with him. Yu Cailing, who had just killed the traitor, seemed to have been poisoned too.

Looking at Han Fei whose eyes were bloodshot, the Fish Dragon King was touched and shouted, "Don't worry. I will never allow such a ridiculous thing to happen again. As long as we can get out safely this time, I will send you to the Royal City."

However, Han Fei simply ignored him, pretending to be fighting something. Seeing this, the Fish Dragon King frowned and narrowed his eyes, ready to attack Han Fei at any time.

In fact, Han Fei was talking to the old turtle. "What do you think? When can you kill Yu Wendao?"

The old turtle was stunned. "Wait, it hasn't even been half an hour since you last asked. Why are you in such a hurry?"

Han Fei said, "I still have a lot of things to do! You can't expect me to take such a burden with me, can you? How about me crippling him first? I promise I won't take his life!"

The old turtle said helplessly, "That's fine as long as you're happy. By the way, can you absorb his soul memories? Although this technique isn't particularly powerful, ordinary Venerables don't know it."

"I do."

The old turtle: "..."

The old turtle couldn't help but feel a little guilty. This brat was too autonomous and decisive. He knew very well that even if he killed this Fish Dragon King now, it wouldn't matter. At most, he would go out and not pretend to be the Fish Dragon King.

However, in this Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm, he could do whatever he wanted disguising as the Fish Dragon King. After he went out, he would at most not pretend to be the Fish Dragon King.

Sure enough, Han Fei muttered, "Old turtle, what do you think of Yu Hong? He doesn't look weak either."

The old turtle said helplessly, "I think you might as well pick this guy! Don't you think he's more stupid?"

Han Fei said angrily, "Hey, hey! What do you mean? You mean I'm stupid, right?"

The old turtle snorted. "It's up to you! However, you'd better not kill this person. You can cripple and hide him. Your calabash space is such a good place!"

Han Fei curled his lips. "Just for him? Do you know how much spiritual spring it takes for me to bring a living person into that space? Depending on the strength, the degree of consumption is different."

The old turtle said leisurely, "You can disable him first."

Han Fei: "..."

"Hiss!"

Han Fei immediately gasped. The old turtle's words gave him a very special idea. Yes, why couldn't he disable the Fish Dragon King first before dragging him into Forge the Universe?

In this way, not only could he not kill Fish Dragon King immediately, but he could also disguise as him. Oh no... He could disguise as anyone below his realm.

After a long silence, Han Fei said slowly, "The old turtle is truly ruthless. He's a genius."

...

"Yu Hanjia, how do you feel?"

The Fish Dragon King held his harpoon. He felt that something was wrong with Han Fei. Maybe, like Yu Cailing, he was corrupted by the weird sound.

Even he was almost affected just now although he was relatively far away. If he were closer, the consequences would be disastrous.

It must be noted that Han Fei had killed more than one Explorer with the help of the Nine Sounds of Great Dao, Punishing Saber, and Water Luster. This weird and terrifying sound might really be a kind of Great Dao. How could a peak-level Sea Spirit like the Fish Dragon King resist it?

"Huff!"

Suddenly, Han Fei straightened his body and stood straight.

The Fish Dragon King instantly thrust his spear at Han Fei's neck and said coldly, "Are you OK?"

Han Fei pretended to be stunned. "Master Dragon King, what are you doing? Let's talk nicely. Can you put down your weapon?"

Seeing that Han Fei was sober and his eyes were no longer bloodshot, the Fish Dragon King finally moved his spear away proudly and said, "I thought you were enchanted by that voice too. Since you're not enchanted, let's go! Although we were ambushed this time, the fact is that only the strong can survive in such an extremely harsh and dangerous environment."

The Fish Dragon King made a bunch of excuses for himself. After all, he still didn't understand why he had run into all these weird things.

Han Fei asked in surprise, "Yu Cailing, should we go help her?"

At this moment, they perceived that Yu Cailing was a hundred kilometers away, in a state of panic, being attacked by a group of Immortal Bird Corpses.

Even though she was wearing a battle suit and protected by a Purple Sand Eel, she was still covered all over with bruises and wounds.

The Fish Dragon King glanced in the direction of Yu Cailing and gritted his teeth. "We don't have to wait for her. That Blood Demon Heavenly Talent might still be lying in ambush there. Perhaps, she is waiting for us to go back to rescue Yu Cailing. The enemy is in the dark, while we're in the light. We shouldn't take action now. This is my experience."

After that, the Fish Dragon King turned around and was about to go in another direction.

The moment he turned around, the Fish Dragon King was greatly shocked. Having no time to think or summon his Companion Spirit, he extended the distance behind him and activated the Near at Hand Technique to send himself out.

"Huh!"

Han Fei was slightly stunned. Although he was surprised at the Fish Dragon King's perception of danger, how could a peak-level Sea Spirit escape from him?

The void twisted, and Han Fei appeared directly behind the Fish Dragon King.

Pa!

Han Fei slapped the Fish Dragon King's shoulder, and without any delay, all the Void Lines were released at this moment and clutched the Fish Dragon King's soul.

However, as Han Fei expected, the Void Lines were indeed unable to shake the Fish Dragon King.

When the Void Lines were thrown out, Han Fei even felt a quaint vibe coming at him.

"Roar!"

At that moment, a dragon roared, and a dragon shadow appeared in Han Fei's eyes.

"Dragon King bloodline?"

At that moment, Han Fei unhurriedly set up a concealment array. Then, he activated the Hundred Beast Soul Subduing Roar, and at that moment, the hundred beasts roared and stomped in the air.

The beasts shattered the dragon phantom in one fell swoop, roaring so hard that the Fish Dragon King's face was bleeding and his eyes were bulging. With a flip of his hand, Han Fei stabbed out and directly shattered the Fish Dragon King's Dantian.

"Ahhh~"

"Yu Han... Ah..."

Han Fei sneered.

Since he had already attacked, he certainly wouldn't hold back. Han Fei cut the Fish Dragon King's spiritual heritage with the Blood Drinking Knife as if he were dissecting a cow.

At this point, the Void Lines were attached to the Fish Dragon King, sucking his vitality. In a few seconds, the Fish Dragon King was sucked dry and was overflowing with death aura.

The tenth place of the Genius List of the White Shell Royal City couldn't even resist one second and was directly crippled.

Han Fei smiled and scanned Yu Cailing with his perception, only to find that Yu Cailing was also seriously injured and the Purple Sand Eel was almost torn apart.

Han Fei thought to himself, Girl, you can't blame me for this. Different people walk different paths! Bye bye.

Buzz!

Han Fei's figure disappeared at the bottom of the sea. When he reappeared, he had already appeared in Forge the Universe with the crippled Fish Dragon King.

Buzz!

The center of the eyebrows of the Fish Dragon King was flashing. It seemed that he was calling his Companion Spirit.

Han Fei looked down at the limp Fish Dragon King and said, "Hey! You want to summon your Companion Spirit at a time like this? Although it's just a thought, your demonic heritage has been severed, the demonic energy in your body is chaotic, your Dantian is destroyed, and your soul is injured. Can you summon it out? But fine. Go on. I'm waiting..."

The Fish Dragon King widened his bloody eyes in disbelief. Didn't this person just save him a moment ago? Why did he suddenly want to kill him? Why was he so strong? And what the hell was this place?

Han Fei glanced at the Fish Dragon King first, and then his body began to change, his bones began to change, his face blurred, and then he became the Fish Dragon King.

"You... Shameless..."

Han Fei smiled and took out the Sun-Moon Shell of the Fish Dragon King matter-of-factly. He scanned it with his spiritual power and smiled.

He had really underestimated the Fish Dragon King.

In this guy's Sun-Moon Shell, there were more than 2,000 spiritual fruits, more than 300,000 catties of spiritual spring, 200,000 catties of Spirit Awakening Fluid, a pile of various materials, a dozen sea demon combat skills, and there was even an extra high-quality Divine weapon.

"Tsk, tsk... Dragon King, to be honest, you are the richest person I have ever robbed. Of course, you can't compare to the Free Trade Valley of the Ice Mountain City. I'm not exaggerating at all. With your wealth, you are comparable to those in the Dao Seeking realm..."

The Fish Dragon King's face was grim, and he was terrified.

This person brought deep fear to his heart. He had never been so afraid of a person. From the first time he saw him, Han Fei had been pretending. He was so strong that he could easily kill him, but he had kept it a secret until now.

The Fish Dragon King struggled and moved on the ground, staring at Han Fei with two bloody eyes.
“Who are you?”

“Hehe!”

Han Fei smiled and said, “Well, you’ve mentioned me more than once. Think about it?”

The Fish Dragon King was surprised. When did I mention you? I don’t even know you, okay?

Han Fei shrugged and said, “Okay, I don’t have time to talk to you anymore. I still have a lot of things to do! By the way, my name is Han Fei, from... the Water-Wood World.”

Chapter 1227: Does Anyone Still Remember Wang Han?

The Fish Dragon King looked at Han Fei in disbelief. Is this Han Fei? Isn’t Han Fei a human being? How did he become a Half-Merman?

However, when the Fish Dragon King saw that Han Fei had already transformed into his own appearance, there was nothing he couldn’t accept. From the beginning, Han Fei had been preparing to replace him, right?

The Fish Dragon King roared in a low voice, “What do you want? You can’t kill me. Yu Wendao and Gui Sanqing are not stupid enough to believe that you are me.”

Han Fei chuckled. “So, both of them have to die!”

The Fish Dragon King’s body twitched. Is Han Fei crazy? He has just transcended the tribulation and is already planning to kill a Half-Venerable?

However, Han Fei had snuck into the Ice God Canyon without consolidating his foundation after the tribulation. How strong must he have been to do such a crazy thing?

Han Fei chuckled. “Don’t move. Let me see your soul first.”

The Fish Dragon King: “???”

“Ahhh...”

...

Outside Forge the Universe.

Han Fei, the brand-new Fish Dragon King, appeared at the bottom of the sea with a spear in his hand.

Han Fei didn’t look very happy, because he saw a real seabed city in the Sea Demon Royal City.

It was like a human town. There were buildings, shops, streets, and various trial secret realms.

Not only that, Han Fei finally knew why the sea demons he saw all yearned for the Royal City, but no one knew anything about the Royal City.

This was because the so-called Royal City only accepted elites.

In the Sea Clan's Royal City, the weakest demonic heritage was the level-six demonic heritage. And the reason for them accepting the people with level-six demonic heritage was that the Sea Clan always needed people whose strength was between the strong and the weak. These people's greatest role was to follow a certain strong master.

However, unlike the Yin-Yang World or the Water-Wood World, how many human beings or the creatures of the Insect Clan and the Sky Clan, could really have a level-six spiritual heritage? Each of the people with level-six spiritual heritage would only be nurtured regardless of cost.

But the Sea Clan was different. They controlled the entire sea, and billions of creatures had awakened. Some people were specifically responsible for searching the four seas to find those talented.

This made Han Fei feel pressure because in the information he read, there were many people in the Royal City, probably as many as 100,000 people.

Thinking about that, Han Fei frowned. He was more and more worried about the Yin-Yang World now.

He stood proudly and stared arrogantly.

Han Fei scanned with his perception, only to find that Yu Cailing was gone and the sea was still rolling. There must have been a big battle there.

Han Fei didn't care at all. The life of Yu Cailing didn't affect him at all.

However, Han Fei didn't notice that Lan Xue'er, who should have died in the ice cube, had also disappeared.

Swish!

Han Fei rushed out quickly. His goal was the mountain where the Heavenly Vine was.

Having been in the Grand Myriad Mountains for so long, Han Fei knew how to get along with spiritual plants.

At this moment.

On the mountain.

Seven or eight women in red were fighting. Their enemy was a field of green and purple thorns. Among the thorns, there were black and purple cannibal flowers.

"Hiss..."

From the big cannibal flower's mouth, thousands of black stamens extended out. And there were especially many big cannibals gathering around. Instantly, the sky was full of black stamens.

"Hyah..."

A woman shouted, "Curse Killing Technique."

"Hum..."

He heard seven or eight women in red muttering something. He didn't know what they were singing, but as the girl spoke, weird symbols that looked like runes appeared one after another.

Those curse techniques turned into shadows such as sea demons, humans, and insects, fighting with the thorn demon plants.

Han Fei had already perceived it clearly. He couldn't help but ask in surprise, "What kind of demonic technique is this?"

The old turtle said, "There are many ways of fighting in this world. In addition to the five major professions of you humans, there are fishing arts, many weapons, and so on. There is also a kind of curse technique, such as the Majestic Mystic Spell that I left behind in my early years. It is actually a kind of curse technique. By conforming to the Great Dao of Heavenly Secrets with a curse technique, you can borrow the power of certain existence. Or, you can borrow the power of that law or the Great Dao."

Han Fei was a little surprised. "A curse technique? Can it block my punch?"

"Heh..."

The old turtle said disdainfully, "As long as one cultivates a technique to a high level, every technique can be extremely terrifying. The curse technique can kill an enemy millions of kilometers away and use the power of the Heavenly Dao to increase one's own strength by several times. Their technique is simple to say. It's nothing more than a universal curse that can summon the souls of creatures that once existed here."

Han Fei took a look. Sure enough, the black shadows summoned didn't seem to be very strong, but only had some simple combat characteristics.

Han Fei curled his lips and said, "How can these be used for fighting?"

The old turtle said, "Keep watching!"

Han Fei was not in a hurry to attack. He simply observed for a while longer. Then, he discovered, to his surprise, that these Blood Demons were continuously injecting power into the bodies of these creatures.

Han Fei wondered, "Where is the power from?"

The old turtle explained, "This is the power of a curse technique. It can bestow the summoned with power to fight for the summoner through sacrifices, summoning, and secret rituals."

Han Fei saw that the summoned shadows could actually use combat skills. A human soul warrior even activated the Shadowless Arrow Stream and killed a bunch of thorns and man-eating flowers.

Besides, those Blood Demons didn't only know curse techniques.

Red leaves floated around the Blood Demons like fire. They were the leaves of the Big Red Trunk.

Among these leaves, there was always a strange red leaf-shaped weapon, like a flying knife, that would circle around these Blood Demons.

Whether it was weapons or attacking methods, Han Fei had never heard of them.

This group of people pressed forward with irresistible force. Along the way, a large number of undead insects appeared, but they were all crushed by the weapons around them.

Those demon plants were mostly killed by the flying red leaves and the summoned black shadows.

This kind of means and strength was not at all inferior to the five major professions or sea demons. They didn't even need to do anything themselves.

All in all, these Blood Demons from the Blood Sea Divine Wood gave Han Fei the feeling that they were a group of women who didn't need to do anything but to recite spells.

However, after pondering for a long time, Han Fei said leisurely, "It seems that they can't withstand a punch of mine."

The old turtle: "???"

The old turtle was speechless at Han Fei's logic. This is not the same combat type. Do you have to measure it with your fists?

On the mountain, black shadows suddenly appeared in the clouds.

Pa!

A rotten black vine fell from the sky, and the terrifying vine shadow finally extracted a wisp of black gas from the void.

"Not good, it's the Ancient Heavenly Vine."

A crimson mark appeared on the forehead of the leading Blood Demon, and a sword mark was slashed out from it.

"Pu... Pu... Pu... Pu..."

The huge Heaven Hanging Vine exploded, and the air was filthy, full of black smoke and some filthy grayish-black liquid.

Han Fei frowned. Is this Heavenly Vine alive or dead?

Regardless of whether it was dead or alive, the combat power of this Heavenly Vine seemed to be greatly reduced. Although the blow just now was still very strong, it didn't make sense for it to be shattered so easily by a peak-level Sea Spirit.

If it were the Heavenly Vine in its normal state, it would've killed at least half of the Blood Demons easily!

Han Fei decided not to wait anymore. With a swish, he disappeared from the spot.

On this side, the Blood Demon, who had turned into a group of red-clothed beauties, was about to continue to ascend. The leading woman suddenly looked at the void and roared, and a red leaf-shaped blade swept into the void.

Ding!

In the distorted clouds, a hand extended out, and two fingers clamped the red leaf.

An arrogant voice floated in the air, "Oh, I thought it was some big-deal weapon. It turned out to be a weapon similar to an amulet knife wheel. Heh... How can it be used as a weapon?"

"Let go."

A blazing flame burst out on the leaf knife wheel, producing an extremely hot temperature. A strange curse erupted, as if trying to activate this weapon.

However, Han Fei extended another hand, clasped the weapon with both hands, and suddenly exerted strength.

Crack!

The leaf knife wheel that was at least a Divine Weapon was broken by Han Fei with his bare hands.

At this moment, the seven or eight Blood Demons were shocked. Who is this person who can shatter Divine Weapons with bare hands?

Chi la!

As the clouds dissipated, the arrogant face of the Fish Dragon King appeared in the sight of these blood demons.

"Fish Dragon King?"

Just now, when Han Fei sneak attacked the Fish Dragon King and the others, he was actually still some distance away from the mountain. Not all peak-level Sea Spirits had a large perception range, so these villains didn't see the Fish Dragon King and Han Fei.

At most, they knew that a big battle broke out not far away from them, and that was it.

At this moment, seeing the Fish Dragon King that Han Fei transformed into, their expressions changed drastically, and the woman in the lead shouted, "Soul Sealing Spell!"

"Hum..."

Han Fei had already seen that someone was muttering, and weird runes were popping up from her mouth.

But Han Fei was not an idiot. He was even faster than the Fish Dragon King. How could he give others a chance to react?

"Pfft!"

Han Fei used the Instant Mystic Spear. Although he didn't know Near at Hand Technique, he knew a little bit about Zhang Xuanyu's Instant Mystic Spear.

In an instant, a spear pierced through a Blood Demon and killed her.

Swish swish swish!

"I poke, I poke..."

Although Han Fei's spear skills were not good, he was fast! In the blink of an eye, six of the eight Blood Demons were stabbed to death by his Instant Mystic Spear.

The other two, including the leader, were released by Han Fei.

In the end, Han Fei even laughed. "You women want to compete with me for opportunities? Who do you think you are? You'd better come with the strong masters in your race!"

Han Fei roared domineeringly, and the two Blood Demons who escaped were enraged.

One of them said, "Zi'er, why didn't we use the Demonic Illusion Sound just now?"

The leader of the team shook her head with a black face. "It's useless. It's not easy for someone who ranks tenth on the Genius List in the White Shell Royal City to be trapped by our illusions. However, this person is too arrogant. Let's go find Ruoyun and the others..."

...

After killing the blood demons, Han Fei stood on the mountainside and looked at the thorny vines that were pouncing at him.

Han Fei frowned and shouted, "Is Water Immortal here? I am the disciple of the four Venerables of the Grand Myriad Mountains, Wang Han. Does anyone remember Wang Han?"

When he said "Water Immortal", the infinite thorny vines suddenly paused.

In the sky, two long vines quickly descended, but they didn't attack him.

Chapter 1228: Water Immortal Is Alive

Because Han Fei didn't make a move, the thorny vines and the cannibal flowers didn't attack him.

The undead insects, on the other hand, had surrounded Han Fei and seemed ready to swallow him at any time.

However, to Han Fei's surprise, the purple thorns and purple vines that shot at the Blood Demons that Han Fei had just killed dragged the Blood Demons' bodies together.

Then, in the mist seal, the heavenly vine was trembling, and rotten roots extended out of the ground.

These roots directly penetrated into the bodies of the Red Demons. Their bodies withered at a visible speed, and in the blink of an eye, they were sucked dry.

Han Fei frowned. Could it be that the Heavenly Vine has become a real demonic creature and is swallowing flesh and blood?

Swish!

Two black vines extended from the mist.

When Han Fei saw the dark and decaying vines up close, his face sank.

This space was not an illusion, but a separate world like the underground city. There shouldn't be only undead creatures here!

Suddenly, the old turtle's voice echoed in his head, This vine seems to be still alive.

"Huh?"

Han Fei's pupils were constricted. "What do you mean? Are these vines alive?"

The old turtle said, "Yes, they're alive, but their vitality is pathetically low. Otherwise, it wouldn't have been chopped into pieces by a peak-level Sea Spirit just now."

Han Fei asked, "How did they become like this?"

The old turtle said, "You've just come to this space. How do you know? However, I have a feeling that something is wrong with this space. Including you, your vitality is slowly dissipating."

Han Fei took a breath and said, "I don't feel anything!"

The old turtle said, "It means that you're still weak. This vine in front of you is just rotten, but there should still be a trace of vitality in it, but it's running out. Just now, although these people died, their flesh and blood were still fresh. Although their souls were in chaos, the essence of their lives is still there, so their bodies can provide this vine with some vitality."

Han Fei's face became extremely dark. Was this world already so decayed? There was not enough spiritual energy, not much energy, and even vitality was scarce.

At this moment, the big rotten vine slowly fell beside Han Fei. Then, Han Fei saw a scene that he didn't know whether to laugh or cry. This scene even made Han Fei a little sad.

On the thick rotten vines, a few sprouts extended out.

This hilarious scene looked very shocking from a distance. A huge vine that was a thousand meters long seemed to be about to crush Han Fei, but in fact, it stopped half a meter away from Han Fei.

Seeing this scene, Han Fei was about to extend his hand, only to see the thorny vines rioting, and the Undead Worms hissed as if warning Han Fei not to do anything rash.

Han Fei said, "Don't panic. I am not a sea demon."

With that, Han Fei let out a low roar and his body began to change, turning into a big ape.

No matter when he was a human or when he became a sea demon, he would eventually turn into the human form. As for the Beast King Technique, it was just a simple transformation technique, different from the Evolution Technique.

The Art of Evolution seemed to make him completely become a sea demon. With the help of the Deceit Technique, he could basically become any sea demon who was not stronger than him.

However, the Beast King Technique was a technique to simulate transformation. No matter how realistic it was, it was fake, not real.

Sure enough, when Han Fei turned into a big ape, the Thorn Purple Vine and the undead insects began to stir. Even though their souls were lost, they were still shocked by Han Fei's sudden change.

Han Fei said, "I am Wang Han, the head disciple of the four Venerables of the Grand Myriad Mountains."

After that, Han Fei extended his finger again.

There were many ways to communicate with spiritual plants. Some spiritual plants could directly produce human faces, some spiritual plants could produce fruits to help them speak, and some spiritual plants could use the bodies of other creatures to speak...

As for the Heavenly Vine, it was one of the special ones. It was like a silent guardian, without a human face, communicating through consciousness.

Therefore, when Han Fei extended his hand, the fresh leaves wrapped his hand.

In fact, if it were in the past, it wouldn't have been so troublesome. He just needed to press his hand on the Heavenly Vine to communicate with it. The difficult one to communicate with was Heavenly Red Hibiscus, and the most annoying one was the Hydra Grass.

Sure enough, when the young leaf wrapped Han Fei's hand, a voice immediately appeared in Han Fei's mind, Who are you?

Han Fei spoke telepathically, "I'm Wang Han, the Water Immortal, the Beast King, Venerable Tianqing, and the Giant King are all my teachers."

After a long time, the voice said, "Never heard of these names."

"Uh..."

Han Fei asked, "Have you heard of Ximen Linglan?"

After a long time, the Heavenly Vine said, "Venerable Ximen lived 20,000 years ago. Were you and Venerable Ximen in the same era?"

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei was dumbfounded. Ximen Linglan lived 20,000 years ago?

Han Fei took a deep breath and said, "You mean, 20,000 years before you, Ximen Linglan had already died? How did she die?"

The Heavenly Vine replied subconsciously, "I don't know. I only heard that Venerable Ximen led the Avenger to launch a battle. Then, she never came back. At that time, the ground veins of the Grand Myriad Mountains split and we had to fend for ourselves... Master Green Lotus told me all this."

"Hiss!"

Han Fei took a deep breath and said, "Is Green Lotus still alive? I know her well. She fought for me."

The Heavenly Vine paused for a long time. "Who... are you exactly? How do you know Lord Green Lotus? Lord Green Lotus was born in the Age of Doom."

Han Fei thought for a moment and said, "Would you believe me if I said that I had once crossed the river of time?"

"Hum..."

Han Fei felt that the Heavenly Vine's huge body was trembling. The Heavenly Vine seemed to remember something and quickly asked, "You are that person, you are that person..."

Han Fei was stunned. "Which person?"

The Heavenly Vine seemed to be a little excited and said, "Master Green Lotus once mentioned that there was a peerless talent who came across time and had decided the fate of the world for the next 50,000 years. Is that you?"

Han Fei was stunned. Am I that powerful? When did I decide the fate of the world for the next 50,000 years?

Han Fei immediately responded, "So, is Green Lotus still alive?"

Han Fei clearly felt a trace of sadness from the Heavenly Vine and it said, "Master Green Lotus has given her life to the Water Immortal. She may have... died."

Han Fei's heart skipped a beat. Just as he was feeling sad, he suddenly asked in shock, "What did you say? You said that Green Lotus sacrificed her life to the Water Immortal? What do you mean?"

The Heavenly Vine trembled slightly. "Water Immortal is still alive. She's not dead."

"Hiss..."

Han Fei gasped hard. How long had it been? Was the Water Immortal still alive? How many years had it been?

This Heavenly Vine was born 20,000 years later than Ximen Linglan. And then, 50,000 years later... Damn it, how many years had passed since he was there?

Han Fei was shocked and then overjoyed. "Where is she? Where is she?"

The Heavenly Vine trembled and said, "The Water Immortal is on the Divine Son Peak. Do you know the Divine Son Peak? The Water Immortal is in a very bad state, very bad. Although she sealed this world with her own power, without enough spiritual energy and energy to support her, she has already fallen asleep. We can only sacrifice our own vitality to ensure that the Water Immortal won't die."

The old turtle suddenly asked in surprise, "Boy, have you really passed the river of time?"

However, Han Fei frowned. "Lack of vitality? So this is the reason why there are so many undead creatures in the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm?"

Hum...

Han Fei was about to ask for more information, when the Heavenly Vine said, "Someone came."

Han Fei suddenly opened his eyes and perceived, only to see five or six Half-Mermen rushing at him from behind.

Of course, they had perceived Han Fei, but Han Fei was a big ape now. How could these Half-Mermen know him? They thought that they had a fortuitous encounter.

"Roar!"

Han Fei turned his head, twisted his body, turned the void, and hit a Half-Merman's head with the Embroidery Needle.

Bang!

His body was instantly blown up by Han Fei's terrifying force. At that moment, another five people shouted, "Retreat!"

They discovered, to their shock, that this strange creature was too fast for them to react at all.

However, the Void Lines had already extended and caught the three of them in an instant.

Two of them felt that they were too slow. Instead of fleeing, they fused with their Companion Spirits. However, they were hit more than ten times in a row and ended up being reduced to mud.

They were only peak-level Sea Spirits. How could they withstand the terrifying power of 200 waves? Not to mention 10 strikes, even if they were hit by Han Fei only once, they would be half dead.

Han Fei's body quickly changed back into the appearance of the Fish Dragon King. He sent these people's bodies to the vines and said, "You can get their vitality. I'm going to the Divine Son Peak."

However, a young leaf from the Heavenly Vine reached out to Han Fei. After it fell on Han Fei, it said with a mental wave, "Give all their vitality to the Water Immortal."

Han Fei grinned. "Don't worry. Most of the sea demons who came in today will become sacrifices. You seriously lack vitality. Recover first. I'll take care of the rest..."

As if touched by Han Fei, the Heavenly Vine was silent for a while, and countless roots extended to the sea demons' bodies.

It seemed to see hope.

Chapter 1229: Kill Her First

Han Fei never expected that he would accidentally find the remnants of the Grand Myriad Mountains.

However, why were the Grand Myriad Mountains in the Water-Wood World?

Or rather, in the era he had been in, the 36 worlds hadn't been divided. Therefore, he could find the remnants of the Grand Myriad Mountains in the Yin-Yang World and the Water-Wood World?

The old turtle said, "Brat, were you bragging? Have you really crossed the river of time?"

Han Fei asked, "Why? Is there a problem?"

The old turtle snorted. "What you said is too mysterious. Although I can travel through a section of time river with special means, I can't interact with people of different times from me, let alone learn things from them."

Han Fei curled his lips and said, "Don't think you know everything just because you were once an Emperor. There are still many secrets you don't know."

The old turtle didn't argue but said in a low voice, "Although I don't know what opportunities you had before, you need to be careful of that Water Immortal."

"Huh?"

The old turtle said, "According to the little vine, this person must have already become a king. But even if she becomes a king, under normal circumstances, she can't protect this world for tens of thousands of years. If this world really existed, the kings of the Water-Wood World wouldn't sit idle. Therefore, the world you see now should be the true body of the so-called Water Immortal. I guess that in an extreme situation, she tried to open the sky, but she wasn't strong enough, so she forcibly swallowed the real world, and in the end, her body turned into this place, containing an incomplete world. But now, she's equivalent to a half-dead Sky Swallowing Seashell. She shouldn't have any consciousness now."

"Wait... wait a moment... What did you say? You said she has already become a king? The world we are in is the original body of the Water Immortal?"

The old turtle said, "That's right. How do you think the Sea Establishment realm comes about? A king establishes his own world sea, which is the Sea Establishment realm. However, only establishing a sea is not enough. Heaven and earth make up for each other. The Great Dao comprised of Yin and Yang. With a sea established, there should be a sky opened. Only in this way can a world be formed."

Then, the old turtle said solemnly, "If you want to awaken a king who is extremely lacking in vitality with your vitality, even ten drops of Life Spring Water won't be enough. You can get some people to let her swallow first."

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei was stunned. Even ten drops of Life Spring Water is not enough?

However, Han Fei's heart did a flip. "Old turtle, do you think Queen Life knows that there is a king in the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm?"

The old turtle hummed. "Of course she knows! Not only her, but the king of the Sea Clan also knows. It's just that they can't enter, so they can't find this person's location through an entrance. Besides, the reason they keep about 5,000 people in this ancient realm is to prevent this person from resurrecting and achieving a true return by swallowing those people in one go. 5,000 people, plus the resources they carry, shouldn't be enough to revive a king."

Han Fei took a deep breath. "Isn't Queen Life on the side with the Water Immortal?"

He couldn't be sure of this. Who knew what happened after the Age of Doom? He didn't know either. He only stayed in that era for a few decades.

Han Fei thought to himself, Should I get some information from Shu Xiaoman?

Swish...

When Han Fei quickly flew across the sky, he perceived that there were at least more than 20 people climbing mountains.

He saw a Sky Clan member pull out a green sword leaf from a decaying leaf of the Thousand Sword Banana.

Immediately, Han Fei frowned. The Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm had been reduced to such a state. Would Queen Life and sea demons still send people over to take the treasures here?

Treasure materials were very common in the Grand Myriad Mountains. Once, when the Giant King taught him the Hundred War Divine Hammer, he said to him, "Don't worry about materials. We've got plenty of materials."

The materials the Giant King referred to were not only the bones of sea demons, but also the mother lode of the Grand Myriad Mountains, as well as the precious materials on dead animals and various spiritual plants in the Grand Myriad Mountains.

For example, on the distant mountain, the Thousand Sword Banana that the Sky Clan member had plucked away could produce a jade sword from its stamen every hundred years. After a hundred years, if no one took it away, this jade sword would become a special sword leaf of the Thousand Sword Banana. The more special sword leaves it had, the stronger the Thousand Sword Banana would be.

In Han Fei's impression, he seemed to have seen a Thousand Sword Bananas with 72 special sword leaves. This meant that the Thousand Leaf Banana had lived for at least 7,200 years.

Han Fei had never interacted with the Thousand Sword Banana, but he had interacted with the Sky Slaying Sword Hemp before. When the Water Immortal was tutoring him, he once made a Sky Slaying Sword Hemp attack him, which caused holes all over his body. It was extremely dangerous.

However, Han Fei heard the conversation of the two big birds.

One of them said, "What a pity. According to my sister, when she came last time, this Thousand Sword Banana hadn't died yet. But this time, it seems that it has been dead for decades."

The other one said, "Alas! Not only this one, more than 20 of them have died on this mountain. Let's pick them all. Anyway, we can't let them fall into the hands of sea demons."

"Phew ~"

Han Fei was relieved to hear it. Did they pick a sword leaf of a dead Thousand Sword Banana?

Han Fei was still thinking, The big clans in the Grand Myriad Mountains are on very good terms with me. What should I do if Queen Life is hostile to the creatures here?

At the very least, he would definitely be wary of Queen Life.

Now, knowing that they were only taking away the treasures of the dead creatures, Han Fei was relieved.

He spread out his perception and found that five hundred kilometers away, sea demons were attacking a swath of purple bamboo and a red-bellied spider. Among them, someone was very strong and had killed dozens of spiders.

Of course, the whole mountain was full of spiders. It was not easy for them to rush up to get treasure.

However, since he had encountered them, he might as well kill them.

At this moment.

A sea demon shouted, "All of you, attack with all your strength. The treasure is not the key. All three parties, disperse. When the time comes, the treasure competition will also be a hunting battle. Hunting is much faster than searching for treasure by ourselves."

As soon as he said so, with a swish, a figure appeared in their perception.

Instantly, everyone was surprised.

"Huh? It's the King Fish Dragon. Why is he here alone?"

Someone said, "This kind of genius has always been a loner. He probably doesn't like being followed, right?"

Someone was confused. "Why is he coming at us?"

When Han Fei was a hundred kilometers away, someone said, "Nice to meet you, Master Dragon King."

Han Fei grunted and didn't slow down at all. In the blink of an eye, he had passed fifty or sixty miles. Before they realized what was going on, Han Fei had arrived.

At this moment, Red-Bellied Spiders surrounded them, and those people were standing and wondering, What does the Fish Dragon King mean? Does he also need the materials here?

Holding the spear, Han Fei glanced at the people fighting and shook his head slightly. "Goodbye."

Swish...

"Puff~"

Bang!

Almost in an instant, these sea demons were stabbed to death by Han Fei before they could react.

Even they themselves didn't know why the tenth on the Genius List of the Royal City would suddenly attack them.

Even the red-bellied spiders were stunned. What's going on here? Are they infighting?

However, these spiders immediately realized that Han Fei might be a more dangerous person. Just as they were about to surround him, they saw Han Fei twist in the air and then disappear.

After only half an hour, Han Fei had already killed as many as 50 Half-Mermen and Blood Demons.

However, Han Fei was quite generous this time. He didn't take a single one of these people's Sea Swallowing Seashells but casually scattered all the resources on them.

According to the old turtle, if this world was the original body of the Water Immortal, then these resources were actually all left for her.

Furthermore, as soon as the people he was hunting entered the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm, they were attracted by some of the outermost mountains. With such poor insight and knowledge, they wouldn't have any chance to become strong.

Although the Fish Dragon King seemed a bit impulsive to rush in as soon as he came in, it didn't mean he was wrong.

However, Han Fei's understanding was different. You've just entered an unfamiliar place, so you should at least know what this place is and what rules there are.

At this moment, he had spent some time solving some short-sighted people.

Han Fei stepped in the air, adjusted his direction with his body's instinctive reaction, and flew out with a swish.

Han Fei flew without paying attention to others at all. Disguising as the Fish Dragon King, he was flying fast.

The Thousand Mountain Domain was not as big as he imagined. He would meet some people along the way.

A member of the Sky Clan saw Han Fei and immediately shouted, "Isn't this person the Heavenly Talent of the Sea Clan? Come on, chase him. Let's see where he is going!"

At the bottom of the sea, a Blood Demon was surprised. "Fish Dragon King? Why is he alone? This is a good opportunity. If I can hunt him, my strength will definitely improve greatly."

A human frowned when he saw Han Fei. "This person seems to be a Heavenly Talent from the White Shell Royal City."

There was also a Clam Girl who seemed to be familiar with the Fish Dragon King. At this moment, she was leading more than a dozen people to climb a high mountain with special protrusions.

On the sea, withered algae rolled towards them overwhelmingly.

On the mountain, conical shadows appeared occasionally and attacked them.

Not only that, two of them seemed to be in an illusion and going crazy.

"Shui Hongyan?"

Han Fei's heart stirred. Wasn't this one of the geniuses who didn't get along with the Fish Dragon King? After reading the Fish Dragon King's soul, Han Fei knew that Shui Hongyan was the 12th place on the Genius List in the Royal City. In three years, she rose from the eighteenth place to the twelfth place.

"Hey! Let me kill her first..."

Chapter 1230: Death of a Heavenly Talent

As the saying went, a Heavenly Talent vs a Heavenly Talent, each more arrogant than the other.

When Shui Hongyan saw Han Fei, her aura surged up.

She wondered if she should attack the Fish Dragon King. However, it was clearly not the time to do that. If Fish Dragon King was heavily wounded, she would definitely take action. Even if she couldn't kill him, it would be good to injure him.

However, at this moment, although the Fish Dragon King didn't take anyone with him, he seemed to be in good shape. Although she didn't quite like the Fish Dragon King. This guy who was so conceited and arrogant just because he had the bloodline of the Dragon King disgusted her.

But when it came to fighting, she really didn't have any confidence in defeating the Fish Dragon King who used all his strength. If Yu Hong was here, there might be a chance for them.

As for the followers around her, to be honest, they were just cannon fodder. It was impossible for them to stop the Fish Dragon King in his peak state.

However, what Shui Hongyan didn't know yet was that the talented and powerful Fish Dragon King in her eyes had been disabled by Han Fei before he summoned his Companion Spirit. At this moment, he was still lying in Forge the Universe, groaning!

At this moment.

When Han Fei saw the Water Red Flame, he seemed to see a pile of treasure, but unfortunately, this treasure had to be left to this world.

Creatures like the Clam Girl always had their own space. After they died, the clam shell would turn into a space, so she must have many resources on her.

At this moment, besides the Water Immortal, what Han Fei wanted to see most was this kind of ATM. He certainly wouldn't let go of this opportunity.

Therefore, when Shui Hongyan thought that Han Fei would fly over, Han Fei swooshed at her.

Shui Hongyan's face suddenly changed. "Fish Dragon King, do you think you can defeat me alone? Don't forget, you haven't entered the top five yet. It's impossible for you to penetrate my shell."

Han Fei grinned. "Since we're not in the Royal City, who can beat me? You, a mere Clam Girl? I order you to hand over your Sea Swallowing Seashells, and I can spare your lives. Otherwise, die."

Buzz!

Many people's faces changed. Someone said, "Master Dragon King, this is a secret realm. We are of the same clan. How can we kill each other?"

Han Fei grinned ferociously. "Who the f*ck are you? Do you think you deserve to be called a clansman of mine? Junk, die..."

Everyone's expression changed. How f*cking arrogant was this guy?!

Everyone roared, "Fight!"

Shui Hongyan roared, "Star Scar..."

Swish ~

Void rifts appeared one after another.

In the blink of an eye, a white shell appeared in the air. Han Fei could see that behind every crack was an invisible blade.

Therefore, his charge was not only against the void cracks, but also the invisible blades.

This was different from the kind of crack that tore the void. This kind of void crack was cut out and had a powerful tearing ability.

However, this strike was meant to deal with the former Fish Dragon King. The Fish Dragon King's Near at Hand could change the distance of space, but this didn't mean that it could ignore space.

Therefore, when his speed was extremely fast, he was very likely to be injured by these void cracks and invisible blades. However, Han Fei was different. He only saw Han Fei twist his body.

With a buzz, Han Fei appeared in his camp.

"Pfft!"

Smack!

Boom!

In the blink of an eye, the three people closest to Han Fei were killed without any chance to fight back.

Han Fei, who was at the peak of the Law Enforcer level, was equally terrifying when facing creatures of the same level. The Void Lines only caught five people, and some people blocked the Void Lines.

"If it's not the Near at Hand Technique, who are you?"

Shui Hongyan seemed to pull out a thread from the void, and she was fleeing at an extremely fast speed.

Han Fei stomped, and the illusion of mountains and rivers appeared. Punishing Saber, Water Luster, Fire Seed, and Tree Spirit appeared. Because Earth Nine didn't fight, Han Fei didn't summon him, which saved him some effort.

Han Fei stepped into the air and chased after Shui Hongyan, shouting, "You guys solve the remaining people. You can only use the strength of a peak-level law enforcer."

Swish!

Han Fei stopped pretending and slashed out with the Draw Technique. Infinity Water condensed in the void, and in only half a second, it blocked Shui Hongyan's escaping way.

At this moment, Shui Hongyan had already drilled into her shell, and her voice was echoing. "You are not the Fish Dragon King. Who are you?"

Han Fei glared at Shui Hongyan ferociously and said, "Who said that I'm not the Fish Dragon King? Don't I look like him?"

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Han Fei stepped in the air, his hands behind his back, and looked at the shell that was being cut crazily by the Infinity Water. "By the way, I've always thought that you Clam Girls are a weird creature. Shouldn't you contribute such a powerful shell to make Divine Weapons?"

Han Fei looked very leisurely, because this shell couldn't resist the Infinity Water at all. As the Million Knife Art swept out, countless white marks and cracks appeared on the white shell.

Shui Hongyan shouted in shock, "Let me go! Since you are not the Fish Dragon King, we have no conflict."

When Shui Hongyan shouted, Han Fei felt that there were invisible threads in the surrounding void, which seemed to be trying to control him. He had already experienced this trick back in the Sea of Pearls on the Scattered Stars Island. How could he let Shui Hongyan succeed?

Han Fei grinned and extended his finger. "Ten Thousand Knives in One."

A cry seemed to burst out of the shell. "Wait a minute..."

Clank ~

Crack!

The white jade-like shell was cut open by the sword. The Void Lines were directly attached to it. Ignoring the soul resistance of Shui Hongyan, Han Fei began to extract her vitality.

"What can I do to make you let me go? We're all of the same race. Why kill each other?"

Han Fei smiled. The Void Lines were indeed about to be upgraded. In the face of these Heavenly Talents whose souls were not weak and probably had soul treasures, the Void Lines lost its former unflinching accuracy. Of course, they could still steal vitality.

BAM!

Han Fei stood on the shell and nailed Shui Hongyan with the long spear of the Fish Dragon King. "Who told you that I'm from the same race as you? I, Han Fei, am a legitimate human with a pure bloodline that only the royal family of Mermaids can match. Who do you think you are?"

Without giving Shui Hongyan a chance to self-destruct, the Infinity Water had already minced what was inside the shell.

Before Shui Hongyan died, her eyes widened when she heard the name "Han Fei". Wasn't this the peerless genius of the Water-Wood World?

In the end, she was still a little puzzled. Why does it have to be the royal family of Mermaids to be comparable to you? Ordinary Mermaids are already high and mighty, let alone their royal family.

However, she never had a chance to know it.

Han Fei scanned with his perception and found that the battle on Punishing Saber's side had already ended. The five people he controlled with the Void Lines but hadn't killed had already been wrapped in a spider web by the Red-Bellied Spider.

There were only a dozen of them in the first place. Han Fei killed eight ordinary peak-level Sea Spirits and Shui Hongyan, and Punishing Saber and the others easily killed the remaining.

At this moment, Han Fei casually threw Shui Hongyan into the purple bamboo wood and shouted, "Red Star Sky Bamboo, use up the vitality here. Try to recover as soon as possible! As for the Water Immortal, I'll work out a way to help her."

"Da da da!"

Han Fei heard a lot of bamboos knocking, and a pleasant melody came from the bamboos. Han Fei picked up the meaning of the Red Star Sky Bamboo based on the melody. "Who are you? Why are you helping me?"

Han Fei smiled. "I am the disciple of the four Venerables of the Grand Myriad Mountains, Wang Han is! If you want to know my story, I'll tell you after I rescue the Water Immortal."

After easily solving a group of powerhouses, Han Fei rushed out again.

After all, there was only one road to the Divine Son Peak.

On this road, he would meet some people, but not many. The Grand Myriad Mountains were huge. Back then, it took him and Ximen Linglan a full day and night to fly over the Grand Myriad Mountains.

According to the mountains in his memory, Han Fei quickly judged which mountain these peaks belonged to, so as to determine the direction.

Very soon, it only took half an hour for Han Fei to find the location of the Divine Son Peak under the pursuit of a large group of big undead birds. Han Fei could only sigh at these birds. What a pity.

Compared to demon plants, races like humans, beasts, birds, and war giants had much shorter lives.

Han Fei remembered that when the Water Immortal taught him the first lesson, she had already said that the lifespan of demonic plants was very long.

Before, Han Fei didn't quite understand it, but now he did.

How long had it been since that era? The Water Immortal was still alive? It was a miracle.

The Divine Son Peak was extremely steep. There was wind and rain outside, so it was in this world.

At this moment, Han Fei stood proudly in the sky and looked at the shadows in the storm. He said, "Hydra Grass, I don't know which era you are from. I am Wang Han from the Grand Myriad Mountains. If you haven't heard my name, let me put it another way. I am the disciple of the Water Immortal."

With that, Han Fei's body slightly trembled, and he wanted to twist the void and enter the Divine Son Peak.

It was impossible to barge in by force. Having stayed in the Grand Myriad Mountains for so long, Han Fei certainly knew the danger of the Divine Son Peak. Heh, he wouldn't be able to get out of this mist if he entered it.

However, Han Fei didn't expect that even the Star Teleportation Technique failed.

The Divine Son Peak was sealed by an inexplicable force, and even space was blocked. The Star Teleportation Technique lost its effect.

Bang!

Just as Han Fei frowned, wondering if he should walk straight into the mist and try to take a look, he suddenly saw two huge heads sticking out of the mist. It was none other than the Hydra Grass.

And these two heads were mostly dead at this moment. One of them was almost rotting, and no green could be seen. As for the other one, it was dark green and black. It was no longer the awe-inspiring Hydra Grass he remembered.

Han Fei's heart sank. The Hydra Grass that protected the Divine Son Peak had become like this?

With a thought, Han Fei threw out ten thousand catties of spiritual spring and a hundred energy fruits. "Take them and recover."
