Chapter 1321: Here Comes the Queen

After all, it was also an active flame.

Although it was not as good as the legendary flames like Fire Seed, as long as this flame could match the fish fire, it was worth taking it away.

Han Fei strode up, hoping to feel the power of the Strange Fire with the void hand. However, before Han Fei's big void hand touched the Strange Fire, he saw a purple mist burning through the air and directly burning the void hand.

Immediately, Han Fei's eyes glittered. Not only was the flame active, but it had also developed intelligence!

The old turtle also said, "It's stronger than it looks."

Seeing that the purple flame could stop him, Han Fei did it himself this time. Just now, he wasn't burnt to death even when he poked the bottom of the magma through. How could a mere Strange Fire stop him?

"Pfft!"

When Han Fei extended his hand into the purple mist, his hand began to smoke, and his skin and flesh were rapidly warming.

However, Han Fei's arm shook, demonic energy shook, and a golden dragon roar echoed.

Plop!

Han Fei didn't mind being seen by others. Even if Changshui Qin and the others had some doubts, how could he resist the grilling of the abnormal flame? They wouldn't ask him until seven days passed and he returned to the White Shell Royal City. If he didn't go back, who would they ask?

This time, Han Fei was determined to quit.

In the White Shell Royal City, it was different from when he was in the Ten Thousand Demon Valley.

In the Ten Thousand Demon Valley, even the strongest person, Blue Feather, was only at the peak of the Dao Seeking realm, or even the realm of Half-Venerable. But there were too many strong masters in the White Shell Royal City. With his strength at the Dao Seeking realm, even with the help of Little Black and Little White, he didn't have the ability to steal things under their watch.

In this way, it was meaningless to stay in the White Shell Royal City.

Therefore, Han Fei took action at this moment, showing some powerful physical strength. He grabbed the purple flame with one hand.

Han Fei shouted, "If you fall into my hands, you won't be able to escape no matter how powerful you are."

“Roar!”

The dragon roared, and Han Fei forcibly shattered the wisp of consciousness born in the strange fire.

Sure enough, after a slight struggle, the purple flame calmed down. Han Fei loosened his hand, because the hand that was holding the purple flame had begun to be charred.

The volcano was still erupting crazily, and the temperature was still extremely high.

However, Han Fei slapped a platform beside the chaotic volcano and sat cross-legged on it, holding the Strange Fire in his hand, and began to cultivate, forcibly absorbing this power.

Seeing this scene, the Insect King thought to himself, Is Han Fei also so high-profile in the White Shell Royal City? That’s an unusual flame, not something you can easily swallow. Wouldn’t it attract the attention of the Venerables in the White Shell Royal City?

Changshui Qin frowned. He had some doubts in his heart. By logic, the level of this abnormal flame should be similar to that of the Spirit of Thunder Heritage. This Fish Dragon King could take down an abnormal flame but not a Spirit of Thunder Heritage? Was he hiding his strength?

However, this strange fire seemed to have just produced consciousness and was still far away from the powerful spiritual fire of the world. It was not a big deal that Han Fei could subdue it so easily.

However, what confused the Venerables was that Han Fei didn’t leave after taking the Strange Fire. Did he stay there to wait for someone to come?

In the eyes of these people, and even Changshui Qin, Han Fei should know what to do. After all, this was not the time to be willful. Everyone who came was a top genius, not much weaker than anyone else.

In Changshui Qin’s view, the Fish Dragon King was really too arrogant. He seemed to be waiting for people to come over and then fight. He didn’t know where his confidence came from.

What made Changshui Qin most unhappy was that he had already told him that Han Fei was very dangerous. Did he really think that Han Fei wouldn’t come after causing such a huge uproar? He was already on his way.

While those people were watching the show outside, Han Fei was happily swallowing the Strange Fire. Although he couldn’t let Little Black and Little White appear in the outside world, he could do it in Forge the Universe. He seemed to be swallowing the Strange Fire, but in fact, he was just frantically absorbing the power of the Strange Fire into Forge the Universe.

The only thing that made Han Fei a little uncomfortable was that he couldn’t absorb it too fast, or he would seem too powerful. In fact, for Little Black, the speed at which Han Fei supplied the Strange Fire was too slow, which was not even enough for him to eat.

Half a day later.

Han Fei was still sitting cross-legged, and the abnormal flame had already shrunk by half its size.

But there were also anomalies elsewhere. The first such situation appeared in the orchard.

In the sky over there, a big mouth seemed to appear. Han Fei couldn't see through the void, but he could feel the energy turbulence there. The surrounding billowing spiritual energy was moving in that direction.

In addition to the loud noise, somewhere Han Fei couldn't see, Zhang Xiaotian and a treeman from the Water-Wood World collided, and the two parties were fighting in the swamp.

In the end, a piece of the root of the treeman escaped. After a while, he appeared high in the sky, and he was the first heavenly talent to leave the battlefield.

For the Water-Wood World, every Heavenly Talent was extremely precious. This must have been warned before they came. Life was everything. If you missed a chance, so be it. But if you lost your life, you would lose everything.

Therefore, for the powerhouses of the Water-Wood World, they wouldn't hesitate to escape. This was because as long as they survived, they would still have a chance.

However, there was no telling if the luck on the Water-Wood World's side was bad. This time, the only Sky Clan powerhouse who came was ambushed by two Blood Demons, sealed by the curse, and died on this island.

While all parties were fighting or hunting for treasures, Qing Siling from the White Shell Royal City found a dry tomb on a plain. There was no telling if they were doing it consciously or unconsciously, but all the people on the island were approaching the dry tomb.

However, in the eyes of the people in the outside world, even in the eyes of the White Armor Emperor and Queen Life, there was no Dry Tomb on this island at all. In the eyes of the Venerables and the kings, Qing Siling was trapped in a large array, which had nothing to do with a Dry Tomb.

On the island, although they couldn't enter the void to escape, their speed wasn't slow.

For example, someone had come to the crater.

However, when their eyes met, Han Fei found that the person turned out to be Xu Ye, who was ranked tenth on the Genius List.

This newly-advanced Heavenly Talent was also stunned to see Han Fei. Then he looked at the Strange Fire in Han Fei's hand, knowing that the chance here must have been taken by Han Fei.

Therefore, he asked, "Dragon King, shall we go together?"

Han Fei shook his head. "No, I still need to refine this fire."

Xu Ye nodded. "Okay, I'm leaving."

Under such circumstances, Han Fei certainly wouldn't attack his so-called "companions".

Not long after Xu Ye left, a bug burning with flames rushed to the crater of the volcano. When their eyes met, Han Fei grabbed the abnormal flame and had just gotten up when the bug turned around and slipped away.

Han Fei thought to himself, doesn't it seem too fake if he didn't even fight me?

Outside, Changshui Qin glanced at the Insect King and asked in confusion, "Insect King, aren't you insect race fearless? Why don't you fight when you see the Fish Dragon King?"

The Insect King said lightly, "The Insect race is certainly fearless of death. However, the Fish Dragon King is a Heavenly Talent who has shown his strength. How can we not know how strong he is?"

Not long after the insect ran away, another Blood Demon rushed over. At the same time, seeing Han Fei who was refining the Strange Fire, this person frowned and seemed to want to challenge him, but then she remembered something and quietly retreated.

However, this person didn't really retreat very far. She only retreated a hundred kilometers, surrounded herself with runic seals, and disappeared into the magma lake in the end.

Seeing a Heavenly Talent from the Blood Sea Divine Wood City do this, Changshui Qin and the Insect King both smiled in disdain.

In this kind of battle, if they could win, they would fight. If they couldn't, they would leave.

Hiding up and looking for an opportunity, the chances of success were not very high. Since you were not much stronger than him, if you couldn't kill him instantly, what was the point of an ambush?

Besides... With such a loud noise here, there would still be other people coming. If they were discovered, there would be no way to escape.

As for Han Fei, he pretended to be refining the Strange Fire, so he didn't take the initiative to attack, which made sense.

However, when there was only one third of the Strange Fire left, a figure that Han Fei didn't expect appeared.

This person was the fake Insect-Man Han Fei who impersonated him.

The moment he saw the Insect Man, Han Fei suddenly got up, holding the Strange Fire in his hand as if it were a weapon. He looked serious as if he were facing a formidable enemy, but he didn't escape.

Seeing this scene, Changshui Qin snorted. This Fish Dragon King is a little disobedient. If he can survive this time, he won't need to be taught a lesson.

When Han Fei and the Insect Man met, their auras quickly rose, and there was even a golden dragon hovering beside Han Fei.

When their eyes met, Han Fei felt that a voice in his heart suddenly sounded, and the insect man asked, "Where did you hide Master?"

"Hiss ~"

Han Fei's heart skipped a beat. F*ck? What's the meaning of this? Isn't this an Insect Man?

Han Fei had always thought that the Insect Man should be an independent individual. Han Fei even felt a little guilty for their swap.

However, it seemed that Queen Life was controlling this body?

Queen Life: "Don't show any expression. I guessed you would choose the orchard, so I was waiting for you there. I didn't expect you to come here."

Han Fei responded, "Is it okay to talk like this?"

Queen Life said, "I'm here, so we can talk. Remember, there's a plain more than 10,000 kilometers to the northwest. It's a little abnormal there. The Heavenly Secrets there are unstable. Go there. I'll disrupt the Heavenly Secrets and block the vision of the people outside.. Take the opportunity to change back."

Chapter 1322: Familiar

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Han Fei couldn't have felt worse. So it was that simple? She had even found the place where the Heavenly Secrets were in chaos and I just needed to go there?

Han Fei was lost for words. It was all the old turtle's fault. He had already chosen the orchard, but the old turtle disturbed his thoughts and insisted on coming to this volcano.

Fortunately, Queen Life had come in person. Otherwise, he wouldn't know how to find a chance to find "himself".

Han Fei said, "Got it. However, the Fish Dragon King can't leave too hastily. I need to die in front of everyone's eyes as the Fish Dragon King."

"Why? Attack first. Let's talk while we fight."

Shua!

As Queen Life extended her hand, the Blood-Drinking Knife flew out from her waist, and the Draw Technique cut across the air, which made Han Fei's scalp tingle.

Sweet mother of god, when a king attacks, it's really different! How did you learn the combat skills I'm good at?

Han Fei retreated to the smoke that was still spewing out, before he shot back.

Bang!

The terrifying explosion ripples tore apart the billowing smoke.

Queen Life said, "These smoke barriers can't escape the eyes of the Venerables and the Kings! What's the use of your identity?"

Han Fei stomped on the magma and activated the Near at Hand Technique. With a swish, he moved thousands of meters away. As for Queen Life, she quickly flew away and controlled the magma to transform into ten thousand knives.

The two passed each other and almost collided.

Han Fei said, "In the White Shell City, there is a person who needs to be rescued, and two chess pieces still need to be placed. I need to go to a place with chaotic Heavenly Secrets. Cover up for me. I'll find a way to make the identity of the Fish Dragon King retreat safely."

As soon as Han Fei said so, he pushed out a part of the Strange Fire in his hand and detonated it.

Rumble!

The flames erupted again, and the terrifying power of the Strange Fire knocked both of them away. Han Fei used the counterforce to rush towards the northwest without looking back.

In the end, Han Fei replied, "Master is fine. Let's talk later."

The communication between him and Queen Life was over. As long as the Heavenly Secrets could be concealed for an instant, he could use the Twin Divine Technique. At that time, wouldn't it be natural for the Fish Dragon King to disappear?

In the eyes of outsiders, the battle between Han Fei and Queen Life was a different situation.

When the two met for the first time, both of them were accumulating strength, trying to kill the other party in one fell swoop. However, in one move, the Fish Dragon King found that he was no match for the other party.

At that moment, the fake Han Fei had a rough idea of the strength of the Fish Dragon King. He followed up, intending to stop the Fish Dragon King with speed and the Million Knife Art.

However, the Fish Dragon King had the Near at Hand Technique. At the expense of being hit by the void cracks, he forcibly used the Near at Hand Technique, causing the two to pass each other again.

At this time, the Fish Dragon King found that he was obviously no match for Han Fei. He detonated the remaining small half of the Strange Fire in his hand and fled quickly with the help of this terrifying explosion.

In this series of battles, there were actually only two attacks. However, both parties were extremely decisive and didn't hesitate to fight at all.

Seeing this scene, Changshui Qin's eyes lit up. Although it was obvious that the Fish Dragon King was not Han Fei's match, in terms of reaction speed and fighting style, the two were very similar.

The Insect King frowned, as if surprised that Han Fei failed to kill the Fish Dragon King in one fell swoop.

Changshui Qin said, "Insect King, are you expecting too much from him?"

The Insect King snorted. "Let's see."

As soon as the insect king said so, Han Fei, who had just been sent flying, stabilized his body and was about to chase after the Fish Dragon King. However, his figure stopped in mid-air. He waved his kitchen knife, and the Draw Technique appeared again. As he stretched out his hand, there were Void Lines that clasped the void in all directions.

As for the Heavenly Talent from the Blood Sea Divine Wood City who was ambushing the Fish Dragon King, she was even hoping to take advantage of the battle! Who would have expected that she would be exposed the moment the two of them started to fight?

“Pfft!”

This move was even more powerful than the Draw Technique. In an instant, the Blood Demon felt that her soul was no longer hers. She froze and was directly killed by Han Fei.

When the fake Han Fei grabbed the Blood Demon’s Sun-Moon Shell and wanted to chase again, the real Han Fei had already rushed hundreds of kilometers away and disappeared from everyone’s vision.

Of course, under such circumstances, Han Fei could still chase him. However, the Fish Dragon King was good at speed, so it would take Han Fei a lot of effort to chase him.

Outside the island, in the air, the Insect King said lightly, “Han Fei is naturally strong. If he has another chance, I’m afraid even the Fish Dragon King won’t be able to escape.”

Changshui Qin didn’t speak at the moment. A Blood Demon was killed easily. This was nothing in itself, and it didn’t seem to have any means.

However, no one was an idiot. If she wasn’t a top genius, why would she be qualified to come to this island? Why would she scheme to sneak attack the Fish Dragon King?

The richness of opportunities on this island could be seen from the magma lake.

Strange Fire could be said to be something that couldn’t be found even in the countless undersea volcanoes in the Water-Wood World.

Besides, although Han Fei seemed to have blown up the Strange Fire just now, in fact, very few people could do this. Of course, if a fire cultivator got Han Fei’s Strange Fire, his strength might increase several times.

When Han Fei flew from this desolate volcano, he found that the void was full of cracks of different sizes, which were much more than when he came!

There was no telling if it was because he had caused the volcano to explode that the void became so unstable. Every thousand meters at most, there would be a void crack suddenly appearing.

When Han Fei ran away, he activated the Fish Dragon Dance.

In order to show that he escaped in a panic, he let the void cracks cut him multiple times and was dripping with blood, before he managed to escape.

Thousands of kilometers away, Han Fei landed on the ground and began to run wildly. After all, the ground was relatively safer, provided that he didn't break into some dangerous creature's territory.

Unfortunately, it was almost impossible. Han Fei had just sprinted a hundred kilometers on the ground when he rushed into a sea of flowers.

"Son of a b * tch."

Han Fei was speechless, not because he had run into a sea of flowers, but because half of the flowers were actually big butterflies.

Some butterflies opened their wings, and some closed their wings, looking like a sea of flowers. There were also many big butterflies gathering together, looking like a bunch of flowers.

Han Fei even saw a flower with six colors, which was a strange flower formed by multiple butterflies.

This scene reminded Han Fei of the underground city. However, those he met there were big moths, while what he met here were butterflies.

Information popped up in Han Fei's eyes.

< Name > Nine-Colored Butterfly

< Introduction > An ancient butterfly that lives among the flowers of love. They are of the same species but have nine colors. When the nine colors gather, their spiritual power is extremely high, and they can create nine-colored poisonous barriers and illusion cages. If they are in a sea of love flowers, their enemies will be caught in endless illusions.

< Level > 68

< Quality > Rare

< Spiritual Energy > 2,0081 Points

< Edible Effect > Inedible

< Collectible > Nine Color Poison

<Absorbable>

As soon as he saw the information, Han Fei immediately thought of the Moon-Tailed Silkworm Moth. They were all poisonous and had extremely high spiritual power.

Needless to say, he would be at a disadvantage if he barged in, especially when his soul power was halved.

If he had used his own spirit gatherer methods, he would have set up a Soul Controlling Array at this moment. However, now that he was the Fish Dragon King, he had to use the Fish Dragon King's method to rush through this sea of flowers.

Han Fei walked a thousand meters with each step and used the Near at Hand Technique again. He had already forgotten what Changshui Qin said.

However, this couldn't be helped.

The Fish Dragon King's law enforcement ability was the Near at Hand Technique in the first place. How depressing would it be if he didn't use such a talented ability?

However, as he took this step, cracks appeared in the void, and a large area of the Nine-Colored Butterfly was alarmed by the slight wind raised by him. Suddenly, they flapped their wings and flew up.

Perhaps because of their high spiritual power, they immediately found Han Fei's location.

In order not to be caught in the illusions of these butterflies, Han Fei could only use the Near at Hand Technique faster and more frequently. After repeating this for more than a hundred seconds, Han Fei saw that at the end of this sea of flowers, masses of nine-colored flowers bloomed in the air.

Roar!

The dragon roared, and Han Fei attacked a random nine-colored flower with the God Scaring Stab. In his mouth, the Hundred Beast Soul Subduing Roar simulated the dragon roar.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

After all, he was in the Dao Seeking realm.

Faced with butterflies that hadn't reached the peak of the Sea Spirit Realm and had fragile bodies, wouldn't it be a breeze for him to destroy them?

Nine colors exploded, and Han Fei was shuttling through the smoke. When he looked back, he was already dozens of kilometers away.

As if he had just experienced a trivial matter, Han Fei was about to continue forward, but when he walked another hundred kilometers, some white giant mushrooms made his expression change slightly.

“Huh? The Bow-footed Umbrella Spider in the underground city?”

Han Fei recognized at a glance that those mushrooms were not mushrooms at all, but spiders disguised as giant mushrooms that he had encountered in the underground city.

However, the level of the Bow-Footed Umbrella Spider was not high. He wondered if this was of the same species.

However, when he first saw the Bow-Footed Umbrella Spider, it was already level-59, which was not much different from now.

Han Fei wanted to take out his fishing hook and catch one to take a look. However, thinking that there were Venerables and even kings peeping at him, he held himself back.

Han Fei grinned and began to sprint. The Bow-Footed Umbrella Spider was a jumping spider. Although it had set up many traps, they were blocked by the Fish Dragon King’s Near at Hand Technique.

Even without the Near at Hand Technique, the 64-Dimensional Fish Dragon Dance was enough to deal with it. In the end, if he had to, he could still pass through the sky.

At this moment, Han Fei already had a guess. What was inside the Wall of Death? Why were there demonic plants and ferocious beasts in the underground city? Why were there thunder leopards?

Perhaps under this seal that had never been lifted hid many shocking secrets, waiting for someone like him to unveil them...

Chapter 1323: Dead Spirit Grass

Along the way, Han Fei found that although this land was not the same as the underground city, many creatures here were similar to those in the underground city.

At least, he could confirm one thing:

The reason that the underground city had never been discovered was that it was hidden in a place that ordinary people couldn’t reach, and the Wall of Death was also a terrifying territory that had been sealed for hundreds of thousands of years.

Han Fei could even imagine how rich the resources in the Wall of Death were and how ferocious the demonic beasts in it were! After all, it was a place that no one had been able to reach for hundreds of thousands of years. Secluded from the world, it seemed to be a forbidden area for life.

Han Fei wasn't sure if anyone had ever come out of it alive. It was said that as long as one entered this place, they wouldn't be able to get out. Fortunately, a large island emerged from it this time, allowing people to see the situation inside.

It seemed that the Wall of Death must be another world. It was like a space magic tool. It was like the legendary painting wall that contained the space in the painting. However, the Wall of Death was several times larger than ordinary painting walls. After all, its territory was very vast, which was a huge land that was separated from the Water-Wood World.

Thinking too much was useless.

After a full day, Han Fei found the feeling he had when he broke into the underground city.

In this world, every place was dangerous. But because this was land, Han Fei was actually more familiar with this place than anyone here.

This was because the island was full of dangers. Even if Han Fei could keep flying in the air, it was only for a short distance. Otherwise, no one would be able to withstand the tens of thousands of space cracks.

Besides, some places were not just space cracks, but large-scale space collapses and turbulence. If one wasn't careful, he might be sucked in.

Even Han Fei spent a day traveling only more than ten thousand kilometers and experienced no less than a hundred battles. Each battle was extremely dangerous.

Such an island was definitely a holy trial for Heavenly Talents. Even Han Fei felt that his foundation was rapidly being polished.

Although the process of these battles was relatively complicated, in general, as long as there was a direction, it was not difficult for Han Fei to walk over.

Han Fei thought that if he and Han Fei, the Insect Man, walked on the same path and walked straight to the northwest, they might be suspected.

After all, how could the two of them have such a tacit understanding? Did they collude in advance?

However, Queen Life seemed to be very considerate. Since she had told him about the land with chaotic Heavenly Secrets, she should have a way to get there without being noticed by others. After all, a king was faster, so she could take many detours.

Of course, for these geniuses, they had a total of seven days to explore the island. If they wanted to go to more places, they could just run around randomly before the exploration was finished. Therefore, it was possible to meet them there again.

Now, a day and a half had passed. Even if Queen Life came a few days later, it wouldn't be a problem for them to meet.

When Han Fei stepped on the grassland, the old turtle suddenly said, "This place is weird."

Han Fei was slightly surprised. "Is there something wrong with the Heavenly Secrets here?"

The old turtle said, "No, there's an ancient and rotten smell here."

"Huh?"

Han Fei didn't doubt the old turtle's feelings. As an emperor who had lived for countless years, if the old turtle felt it ancient and rotten, he had to take it seriously.

Han Fei didn't believe that there was a guy as old as the old turtle in this place. If there was really such a powerful guy, wouldn't he have killed the Venerables who came to search the island?

After all, this island had already been explored by many Venerables. There was no reason for that ancient existence to deal with an Explorer instead of a Venerable.

Han Fei said, "We have to go in even if there's a problem. This is probably the only place on the island where I can change my identity. Besides, there have been Venerables exploring it long ago. Even if there is a special existence, I'm afraid it won't appear under so many gazes."

When Han Fei walked into the grassland, the old turtle didn't stop him. In fact, he thought so too. He just wondered why there was a rotten smell here.

After walking for a hundred kilometers, Han Fei found that he had lost his way.

Yes, his soul perception only slightly deviated. When he perceived it again, he found that there was no turning back.

At this moment, there was grass half the height of a human in all directions. This was not simple grass. The surrounding grass could move. Han Fei felt that spiritual energy was being sucked out of his body.

"Spirit Entangling Grass?"

Han Fei held the spear with one hand and swept it out with overwhelming demonic Qi. A huge ravine hundreds of meters long was drawn on the ground.

However, what happened next made Han Fei's blood freeze.

He saw that the ground was full of roots, all of which were wriggling like worms and crazily absorbing spiritual energy from the outside world.

"Hiss!"

"Dead Spirit Grass?"

Han Fei felt as if a heavy punch to his chest.

The Death Spirit Grass was a demon plant similar to the Demon Shattering Vine. Back then, he didn't know much about demon plants. When he met the Demon Shattering Vine, he only thought that the growth of that kind of creature was too fast. As long as there was enough time, they could grow frantically. With given conditions, their cultivating one day could even match the speed of ordinary people cultivating for a hundred years. How monstrous was this!

In fact, when the Water Immortal taught him, in addition to the Demon Shattering Vine, she also mentioned another kind of demon plant that was extremely terrifying, which was the Dead Spirit Grass.

It was said that the Dead Spirit Grass was an extremely rare demon plant. Wherever there was a Dead Spirit Grass, it must have been a place of disaster. Unlike the Demon Shattering Vine that grew in water, the Dead Spirit Grass was a spiritual plant rooted in the corpse. The stronger the corpse was when it was alive, the stronger the Dead Spirit Grass rooted in it!

According to legend, the Dead Spirit Grass could fuse with the corpses of strong masters. It could even reverse the natural law and resurrect the dead.

However, even the Water Immortals couldn't be sure of the legend. But he would rather believe it than not.

And Han Fei found that the grassland under his feet might not be a f*cking grassland at all, but... all Dead Spirit Grass. How f*cking strong a creature must be to give birth to such a vast area of Dead Spirit Grass?

"Huff!"

Seeing that in the cracks that he had torn apart, the Dead Spirit Grass was entangled, the mud was turning, and the ground was slowly healing, Han Fei frowned.

Han Fei took a deep breath and said, "Old Yuan, do you know this kind of demon plant?"

The old turtle's voice was equally gloomy. "Yes. It's Dead Spirit Grass! There must be something extremely dangerous here. I got it. It's not that they missed this place, but that they don't recognize the Dead Spirit Grass at all, let alone that the Dead Spirit Grass is a symbiotic grass."

Han Fei frowned. "Is the Dead Spirit Grass famous?"

The old turtle said, "As long as you live long enough, you can recognize many things. After all, no matter how many creatures there are in the world, there's a limit."

Han Fei asked, "Even the kings can't detect the danger in this grassland?"

The old turtle asked, "What if the kings don't recognize the Dead Spirit Grass either? Don't forget that the two worlds are separated by the Wall of Death. The kings born in the Water-Wood World have never seen the land. How can they recognize this strange demon plant? Besides, the Dead Spirit Grass generally doesn't have any offensive characteristics."

Han Fei looked back and thought, They made me lost. How could you say they don't have any attacking characteristics?

In the grassland.

Changshui Qin looked at the grassland, deep in thought. This grassland seems to be strange. However, even the king had examined it, and there was nothing special here. Under the worm-like roots, there was nothing special, and it was not very aggressive.

Apart from the remnants of dozens of ancient arrays, there seemed to be nothing special in this grassland.

As for the remnants of those ancient arrays, Changshui Qin had personally hacked one, only to find that it was just an ancient and decaying cave. Inside, there were some remnants of opportunities and murals, but they were already useless.

It was for this reason that they let this grassland continue to exist.

However, Changshui Qin was also puzzled. Qing Siling had already been trapped in the array at the center of this grassland for more than a day but still hadn't come out? This array didn't seem to be that difficult to break, right?

Han Fei performed the Near at Hand Technique on the Dead Spirit Grassland, only to find that there were very few spatial cracks here, which made him feel safe.

Soon, only a moment later, Han Fei found an ancient remnant array on this vast grassland.

"Huh? A broken array?"

Han Fei's heart did a flip. You think you can stop me with me? Just as he was about to break this dilapidated ancient array, he couldn't help but feel a little speechless. The Fish Dragon King didn't know much about arrays!

After examining the array several times, Han Fei realized that it was a combination of a defensive array, a concealment array, a spirit gathering array, and a killing array.

Chi la!

All of a sudden, while Han Fei was staring at the array, he frowned and quickly retreated.

In the broken array, a cold knife light cut through the void, as if it wanted to cut Han Fei in half.

Han Fei took a step back.

But with a swish, a red shadow stuck to one meter in front of him. This person held a long knife and slashed from bottom to top.

Han Fei wanted to retreat again, only to find that it was a locking technique. And this knife cut through the void. The moment he retreated, it would appear again.

"Roar!"

Han Fei roared, and a golden dragon shadow erupted, colliding with the saber. The terrifying explosion crushed the surrounding grass within dozens of kilometers.

Han Fei took the opportunity to retreat, thinking quickly.

A woman? It must be a Blood Demon from the Blood Sea Divine Wood City.

She was extremely strong, extremely fast, had a terrifying physique, and fierce combat power. She was good at using knives and her attacks were extremely ruthless and tried to kill her enemy with a single slash.

As soon as Han Fei retreated, the woman appeared again. However, this time, two identical people appeared, leaving a terrifying saber mark on Han Fei's left and right, which shattered the void.

Han Fei didn't panic. He had never been afraid of close-quarter combat. He stepped on the Fish Dragon Dance and rotated his spear from his waist. Instantly, with Han Fei as the center, a vortex storm appeared.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

In an instant, after slashing hundreds of times, the woman seemed to find that she couldn't break Han Fei's stick technique. Therefore, she changed her speed technique, paused for a moment, and the long knife in her hand turned into a shadow of a thousand feet long and slashed down.

"Knock on the Heavenly Gate."

Han Fei grinned and pushed his spear out of his palm, showing no fear on his face.

Boom!

The violent airwave instantly exploded within a radius of dozens of kilometers, and a huge pit was left under Han Fei's feet.

But Han Fei didn't panic at all. He stood dozens of meters away from the ground, looked at the woman who was dragging the knife, and sneered. "Who are you?"

The woman tilted her head and glanced at Han Fei, her eyes extremely cold. "Tang Yue... Huo'er, from the Blood Sea Divine Wood City, is my biological sister..."

Chapter 1324: Prairie Graveyard

Looking at Tang Yue who was holding a long knife not far in front of him, Han Fei was lost for words. Did everyone he killed in the Thousand Mountain Ancient Realm have brothers and sisters to avenge them? What kind of luck was this?

However, unlike Yu Guang, Tang Yue's strength was astonishing. Her close combat ability turned out to be one of the best ones he had seen so far.

Vaguely, Han Fei felt that Tang Yue was a Heavenly Talent on the same level as Zhang Xiaotian.

Han Fei held his spear in front of him. "How did you know I came here?"

Looking at the remnants of the ancient array not far away, Han Fei remembered that Tang Yue should also be proficient in arrays. Otherwise, she wouldn't have hidden in the array and attacked him.

Tang Yue said bluntly, "There are only 50 people on this island in the first place. It's normal for me to meet anyone. Since you're here, let's settle the scores first."

Shua!

Tang Yue didn't seem to want to talk to Han Fei for long. She held the knife in both hands, and runes floated in the knife. At the moment she swung the knife, rows of knife waves appeared in the air like tides.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Han Fei counterattacked with the Monkey King's Three Thousand Sticks, and the two of them swept across the grassland like ghosts and phantoms.

Explosions were heard nonstop, and the battle went on for hundreds of kilometers.

Han Fei was more certain that although this Tang Yue was not as strong as Zhang Xiaotian, the strength she showed was even stronger than that of the Fish Dragon King he was disguised as.

Besides, as a woman, a Millennium Snapper, a member of a race that was not good at close combat or physique, this woman had broken all the rules and could match the strength he showed.

This also meant that although Tang Yue had also just entered the Dao Seeking realm, her strength had already reached about 150 waves, not much weaker than his.

Besides, such a bloody, violent, and ferocious fighting style was definitely tempered between life and death.

For Han Fei, this was not very strong.

However, for the Fish Dragon King, this was a terrifying enemy. The two sides fought for more than 300 rounds, and Han Fei deliberately revealed dozens of flaws, leaving more than a dozen knife wounds on his body.

Of course, Han Fei wasn't completely useless. He also left five spear marks on Tang Yue.

Outside the island.

Changshui Qin said, "Yun Chu, you're really generous this time. You even sent out such a Heavenly Talent?"

Yun Chu said indifferently, "The Heavenly Talents of the Blood Sea Divine Wood City are never afraid of anyone. That arrogant Fish Dragon King seems to be nothing more than this."

The insect king snorted and glanced at a figure passing by the river.

Changshui Qin and Yun Chu were both taken aback. It seemed that Han Fei was also heading west.

In their opinion, after the Insect-Man Han Fei and the Fish Dragon King separated, the Fish Dragon King went directly to the northwest, while Han Fei, because he was too lazy to chase the Fish Dragon King, went to the swamp. Then, from the swamp to the big river, he fought with an ancient big python.

But now, his direction had changed to the west.

Changshui Qin couldn't help being a little surprised. It seemed that the distribution of personnel on the entire battlefield was a little off. At some point, they had all deviated in the middle and west directions.

Not only the Insect-Man Han Fei, but seven or eight other people had also moved to the west. This made the three Venerables look to the west several times and find that there was indeed no special situation, so they were relieved.

On the west grassland.

The two of them were evenly matched. Although Han Fei seemed to be no match for Tang Yue, it was unrealistic for Tang Yue to kill Han Fei. After all, in this grassland, the Near at Hand Technique was not too restricted, and there were few void cracks, so Han Fei had the advantage in speed.

After getting rid of Tang Yue with difficulty, Han Fei encountered another dilapidated ancient array.

This time, the array was even more broken than the previous one. There was a visible crack on the array.

Han Fei told himself to hold it in for one more day, just one more day. When Queen Life arrives, it will be the time for him to be on a killing spree.

At this moment, Han Fei looked at the ancient array and said, "Old Yuan, do you think this array can conceal the Heavenly Secrets?"

The old turtle said, "The array is broken. It seems to have been cut open by someone. What do you think? If it hasn't been cut open, it can indeed conceal the aura and the vision of Venerables. But whether it can block the vision of kings depends on the power of this array."

Han Fei drilled directly into the array, only to find that the space inside the array was not large, and there was only an ancient house on it. This building was somewhat rotten, and part of the walls had already cracked.

As he scanned it with his perception, a sword intent was born in the void, intending to destroy his perception.

With a thought, Han Fei retracted his perception and thrust out the God Scaring Stab. An invisible wave exploded, but the shock wave didn't collapse the building.

Han Fei stepped into the building. The remnants of the array could only exert a little defense power. This place had been explored, so its strength was certainly weaker. Of course, it couldn't resist Han Fei.

Sure enough, after entering the building, Han Fei found that this was like a place where ordinary people cultivated. There were no good things here except for some murals on the walls.

Han Fei glanced around. The murals seemed to record: In ancient times, a strong master led a group of people to attack the sky...

Wait...

Han Fei's pupils were suddenly constricted. What did he see? He saw a huge dragon head poking out of the clouds in the sky. Behind it was a picture of a bunch of strong masters fighting an azure dragon. Furthermore, it wasn't one or two ancient azure dragons, but a bunch.

"Hiss!"

Han Fei gasped. "Old Yuan, are you familiar with the dragon race? What is this?"

The whole mural was about the battle with the ancient azure dragons. Both parties seemed to have suffered losses. In the end, the dragons fought in the wilderness, and the strongest leader died in the battle.

In the end, Han Fei could only see a dry tomb in the wilderness.

The old turtle was silent for a long time, seeming to be a little sentimental, and said leisurely, "Dragons..."

Han Fei: "???"

The old turtle said, "That's a terrifying race. In the endless years before I died, there have been legends about dragons. As for the dragons that appear here, I don't know."

Han Fei asked in surprise, "What? They're even older than you?"

"Humph! This is an unparalleled race from ancient times. Its history can be dated back to the Primordial Age, and all its deeds have long been buried in the dust of history."

Han Fei was a little stunned. What the hell was the Primordial Age? He had never heard of it. However, it must have been a long long time ago.

However, to Han Fei's surprise, there was a dragon race among the ten thousand races.

What surprised Han Fei even more was that the ones fighting the dragons didn't seem to be sea demons, but humans. Humans and dragons were fighting? Was there any conflict between the two sides?

Han Fei thought that there should be more than one ancient array in this grassland to suppress such a large area of Dead Spirit Grass. He should find other ancient arrays.

The old turtle said, "I think you'd better not run around. Wait for Queen Life to come."

Han Fei asked, "What's wrong?"

The old turtle said, "Don't you think that the graveyard is a bit strange? Is it on this grassland?"

Han Fei grinned. "That's impossible. So many Venerables and even kings have explored this grassland. Even Queen Life asked me to come here. If the desolate graveyard that has existed for tens of thousands of years still exists, I'll eat it."

Han Fei didn't panic at all. Even if he met Tang Yue again, it would just be a chase and a fight. Tang Yue didn't have the ability to kill him. In terms of speed, he was slightly better than her with the Near at Hand Technique.

Besides, this grassland seemed to have the ability to make people lost. At least, when he chased her just now, he found that Tang Yue suddenly disappeared.

Therefore, Han Fei didn't mind being discovered by Tang Yue.

Therefore, half an hour later.

Han Fei looked at the deserted tomb a few hundred meters away, dumbfounded, feeling his blood freezing.

The old turtle said leisurely, "Are you going to eat it?"

"Shoot ~"

Han Fei immediately wanted to retreat. Was there anything more terrifying than this? The kings had swept across this grassland. Did they not find this desolate tomb?

Also, this was too scary, wasn't it?

He was just casually walking around and looking for some dilapidated ancient arrays to take a look. Why did he encounter such a thing?

The old turtle said, "Perhaps, it's not that they haven't cleared up this grassland, but that even the kings can't find it. The Great Dao is impermanent, and becoming a king is just the beginning of the Great Dao. There are still many things they can't see."

Han Fei stepped back, trying to retreat.

However, something even more shocking happened. The Near at Hand Technique seemed to have failed, and the distance between him and the grave didn't change at all... Wait...

Looking at the grass under his feet, Han Fei looked at the crushing traces in front of him, and his heart suddenly skipped a beat. It seemed that it was not that the Near at Hand Technique was ineffective, but that this desolate tomb was chasing him, and its moving speed was the same as his walking speed, making him think the Near at Hand Technique failed.

Han Fei had never encountered such a weird situation. Did the one in the tomb fall for him?

The old turtle said, "Han Fei, I don't think you need to wait for your junior sister to come. The Heavenly Secrets of this place have changed. I don't think the people outside can see what you're doing now."

Han Fei raised his eyebrows. "What do you mean?"

The old turtle said, "It means that you've entered the wrong area. It's not that you ate the tomb, but that it has already eaten you. It's hard to tell... Are you in the tomb or outside?"

Han Fei: "..."

Chapter 1325: A Pure Human

Standing outside the tomb, Han Fei was horrified.

He should have listened to the old turtle just now and not gone out to find the damn ancient arrays. Now he didn't find the ancient arrays but found the desolate tomb that shouldn't have existed.

Now, he couldn't even get rid of it.

Gulp!

Han Fei took a breath. "Don't panic. I think I can stand here for a while and wait for Queen Life to come."

Han Fei didn't intend to approach the deserted tomb. If he could maintain the current situation where they didn't offend each other, it would be good. At least he could stall for time.

The old turtle had said that the Heavenly Secrets of this place had been concealed, which meant that he could already call out Little Black and Little White.

With a flash between Han Fei's eyebrows, Little Black and Little White came out.

With a thought, Han Fei recalled Little Black into Forge the Universe. Now Han Fei had learned to be smarter. He had to be careful in such a dangerous place.

Only one of Little Black and Little White could appear in the outside world.

Han Fei looked at Little White who was kissing his cheek and couldn't help asking, "Girl, can you perceive any danger here?"

Little White tilted her head and stared at the grave, but in the end, she said, "Dad, I can't feel anything."

"Huh? You can't feel anything?"

Han Fei was surprised. This was the first time that even Little White couldn't perceive the danger.

Han Fei summoned Little Fatty and threw it into Forge the Universe, just in case.

Han Fei subconsciously looked into Forge the Universe.

This was a habit. Anyway, he could perceive the outside world at any time. Therefore, Han Fei closed his eyes and glanced at Forge the Universe as naturally as blinking his eyes.

However, after Han Fei "blinked", he suddenly saw the deserted tomb appear a hundred meters away from him.

"Shoot ~"

Han Fei shivered. F*ck, when did it come?

Gulp!

Han Fei couldn't have looked more awful. He had been watching the whole time! How did this tomb deceive his perception and draw him from hundreds of meters away to a hundred meters away?

"Is it because I moved my eyes away just now?"

To confirm his conjecture, Han Fei blinked again.

This period of time was extremely short and wouldn't even affect his visual senses.

However, in the blink of an eye, Han Fei discovered that the deserted tomb was only about 30 meters away from him.

Han Fei: "..."

At this moment, Han Fei felt that his forehead was suddenly covered in cold sweat, and he shouted in his heart, "Old Yuan, Old Yuan, what's going on? Can this tomb run? And it's running so fast!"

The old turtle said, "As I just told you, although you see it now, in fact, you should have been eaten by it. What you see now seems real but actually fake. Why don't you go in and take a look?"

The corner of Han Fei's mouth twitched. "Why would I leave? I can stare at it for seven days and seven nights without blinking."

The old turtle: "..."

Sure enough, Han Fei stared at the deserted tomb for a full half an hour, and when he saw that it didn't take a step closer, he heaved a sigh of relief and thought to himself, Sure enough, as long as I keep staring at it, everything will be fine.

But at the next moment, with a gasp, Han Fei felt a chill down his spine because a hole suddenly appeared in the desolate tomb, from which a cool breeze blew out.

Han Fei: "???"

At that moment, Han Fei felt his blood froze as if ten thousand Iron-Headed Fish were galloping in his heart.

"Hey! Close it. Why are you cracking open? We don't know each other well!"

Suddenly, as if attracted by the void in the crack, Han Fei wanted to take a closer look, only to discover, to his surprise, that the crack seemed to have become bigger.

"Huh?"

"Wait... something seems to be wrong."

Han Fei came back to his senses. He was attracted by the crack just now and was stunned for a moment. Although his reaction was already very fast, when he came back to his senses, his tears were almost falling. Because at this moment, the deserted tomb was only three meters away from him.

Han Fei couldn't have felt worse. Why do you have to press on when I'm not staring at you? Just do whatever you want!

"Huff!"

Han Fei took a deep breath. Although he was a little horrified, he didn't panic. At this moment, he was a little sentimental and curious. If only there was a girl by his side now. Then the two of them could jump into the tomb hand in hand and then fly out as two butterflies.

"Fuse."

Knowing that he couldn't dodge it, Han Fei decided to try using the Yin-Yang Divine Eyes.

However, this time, even the Yin-Yang Divine Eyes were useless.

Han Fei blinked and quickly calmed down. What was fear? Han Fei had already had no concept of it.

With this emotional state, Han Fei stepped into the deserted tomb.

Buzz!

What Han Fei saw was a barren and even slightly reddish soil.

The wind here was dry, and the wind was accompanied by heat waves. The mud under his feet didn't feel moist at all. The dust seemed extremely heavy and a little red.

As for the sky? There was no sky here at all. It was just a faint redness, which seemed to be very far away.

"Hu! What a huge tomb."

Han Fei looked around. This didn't look like a tomb, but more like a primitive Gobi.

In the distance, there was a dense red haze circulating. It was the symbol of an array barrier.

Since Han Fei had already come in, he was no longer afraid and walked straight into the depths of the graveyard.

Chi la!

Han Fei had just taken a few steps and looked down, only to find that there was a cut on the battle suit that originally belonged to the Fish Dragon King.

Han Fei: "???"

"My battle suit was cut?"

"Hiss!"

Han Fei gasped. No matter how lousy the battle suit was, it was still a low-quality Divine weapon. How could it be broken so easily?

Han Fei continued to take a step forward, only to feel that his arm seemed to be cut. From the corner of his eyes, he could see that as he moved, a red glowing knife passed him.

"Saber intent?"

Han Fei took a few steps quickly, only to hear swishing sounds around him. However, this level of power couldn't shake him.

Therefore, Han Fei began to run as he walked.

At this moment, Han Fei could see countless red lights cutting him like knives. It was just like when he was charging at the sword torrent in the Abyssal Chasm in the level-three fishery. Here, it was a knife torrent.

He didn't know how long he had run. Although the cutting power wasn't weak, it wasn't very strong either. It seemed that the knife intent hidden in the void wasn't deliberately set up, but existed naturally like air.

Even with the Yin-Yang Divine Eyes, Han Fei could only vaguely feel that this place was a little strange.

When Han Fei passed several barriers of red light, he suddenly stopped.

He saw several tombs.

The corner of Han Fei's mouth twitched, and he suddenly turned his head to look at a dark corner, only to see a gaunt figure with long dishevelled hair dragging something with one hand and chewing something that looked like an arm with the other.

Han Fei's heart skipped a beat. F*ck, what kind of old monster is this?

Fortunately, Han Fei had good eyesight and found that the slovenly figure was holding a lotus root.

"Hu! You scared me!"

However, Han Fei felt that something was wrong. Was the sap of the lotus root red? Why... was there red liquid dripping from the lotus root held by the slovenly figure?

Suddenly, Han Fei saw that the thing being dragged by the figure moved.

When Han Fei took a closer look, his eyes widened. Isn't that f*cking Qing Siling?

Yes, Qing Siling was still alive and didn't even dare to breathe loudly. Her two arms were gone, and at this moment, her ankle was being dragged by the figure on the ground.

Han Fei remembered that Qing Siling seemed to be a demonic plant and was good at using invisible threads. Then he suddenly figured out something from the lotus root in the figure's hand.

So Qing Siling was also a lotus!

"Fish Dragon King, save me!"

At this moment, Han Fei heard the voice of Qing Siling in his head, which sounded very scared.

It seemed that Qing Siling had been here for a long time.

Before Han Fei could speak, a hoarse voice sounded, and the slovenly figure tilted his head and looked at Han Fei. "Fish?"

Han Fei's eyelids twitched. Thinking of the person in the mural, he thought, This should be a human?

Han Fei hurriedly shouted, "Senior, don't get me wrong. I am a human, a pure human."

Qing Siling was almost speechless. You're a human? Except for the fact that you look a bit like a human, you're not a human at all! You are just a fish. Why do you pretend to be a human?

The figure tilted his head and looked at Han Fei again, saying in a certain hoarse voice, "Fish."

Han Fei broke into a cold sweat. "Don't move. I'll show you my human form."

At this moment, Han Fei didn't dare to pretend to be the Fish Dragon King. If he kept pretending, he might be eaten.

"Crunch!"

The figure took a bite of the lotus root and looked down. There didn't seem to be much lotus root left in his hand. Therefore, he took another bite and stuffed the remaining lotus root into his mouth.

At the same time, he pulled with his dry hand, and the thigh of Qing Siling turned into a lotus root and was grabbed by the slovenly figure.

Han Fei: "..."

Qing Siling trembled. It's over. It's over.

She thought to herself, It would have been better if the Fish Dragon King hadn't come, but now that he came, this monster felt that there was more food and his eating speed became faster!

But then she saw the Fish Dragon King's appearance quickly changed. His figure was slightly distorted, his demonic energy was quickly dissipating, and his spiritual energy quickly returned.

Seeing this scene, the slovenly figure was a little stunned, and Qing Siling was dumbfounded. What the hell is this method?

Han Fei quickly turned into a human and then saluted. "I'm Han Fei, a pure human and is going to be a human king. I'm a peerless genius of the human race."

Chapter 1326: Eating and Drinking

Han Fei completely changed into his original appearance and didn't suppress his strength or spiritual energy at all, showing them to the monstrous figure.

Qing Siling was the first to be shocked. Are you kidding me? Can Han Fei transform into a sea demon?

Wait...

Qing Siling quickly realized that something was wrong. All the Venerables and even the kings were watching the battle. Even if Han Fei had the ability to transform into a sea demon, where did he do it? Could it be that even the kings couldn't notice this?

"Hiss!"

Qing Siling's body trembled. It wasn't that Han Fei had become the Fish Dragon King... It was that the Fish Dragon King itself was Han Fei!

However, she saw Han Fei in the Water-Wood World team!

Qing Siling was confused. Could it be that Han Fei really had the ability to become a sea demon under the eyes of so many powerhouses?

However, whether the person in front of her was Han Fei or the Fish Dragon King, both showed that the other party was also accidentally caught in here and was frightened now..

He even needed to turn back into his human form to prove himself.

But why did he turn back into his human form to prove himself? Could it be that the old monster wouldn't attack him if he were a human?

Han Fei was different from Qing Siling. When he saw this desolate tomb, the first thing that came to his mind was the leader of the strong masters who fought against the dragons.

After all, there were so many people, but there was only one tomb. Who else could be buried here if not this big shot?

Also, from the murals, it was clearly a battle between humans and dragons, and no sea demon was involved. He didn't even see the sea.

This meant that in that era, the sea demons might not have become strong yet.

Sure enough, when the man perceived Han Fei's human bloodline, his throat made a few cracking sounds.

"Crunch!"

The man was chewing a lotus root with relish while looking at Han Fei, grinning from ear to ear. Han Fei felt a chill down his spine.

He had always taken other creatures as food. No creatures could eat him as food!

The figure seemed to be thinking and paused for about three seconds, and there was silence everywhere.

As the saying went, opportunities were always in the hands of the prepared.

Therefore, Han Fei shook his hand and threw out a serpent.

Han Fei put on a solemn look and pointed at the serpent. "Senior, you may not believe it, but I have a feeling that I may meet a strong master on this trip. So, I've prepared a large number of creatures to offer as sacrifices to you. Look at this Green-Scaled Flood Dragon. Its flesh is fresh and tender, and its guts are intact."

Han Fei carefully glanced at the body of the figure, but only heard cracking sounds from him.

"Huh? No response?"

Han Fei waved his hand again, and a Six-winged Flying Fish more than thirty meters long said, "Senior, this Six-winged Flying Fish has the most fresh and tender wings. If you only eat its wings, it will definitely be delicious."

"Crunch!"

As Han Fei spoke, the figure bit off a lotus root again with a chomp, and his eyes slightly moved.

Han Fei thought to himself, It worked.

Han Fei took this opportunity to throw out seventeen or eighteen fish. "Senior, I know you are definitely not satisfied. However, in order to prepare the best delicacies, I have traveled the world. Look at these lobsters, blue shells, and exotic creatures. And look at this Eight-Tailed Golden Carp, its meat is the most delicious. This Primordial Chaos Pill clam, coupled with the Sea Willow Sap, is so delicious that my teeth are sore..."

“Crunch!”

The figure raised his hand again and took a bit of the lotus root. However, this time, he didn't put his hand down.

He bit down again and swallowed the whole lotus root.

Qing Siling trembled, thinking that the monster was going to eat her other leg. However, the figure loosened his hand, reached out, and grabbed a blood-colored octopus, dragging it beside him.

Han Fei thought to himself, Not bad! This figure looks like delicious food.

“Huff!”

Han Fei was secretly relieved. As long as you like it, there's nothing I can't do.

However, before Han Fei dared to move, he saw Qing Siling try to escape with a swish.

However, as soon as she flashed less than a hundred meters away, her last leg was suddenly grabbed by a big hand, and the big skinny hand grabbed her over again.

Smack!

“Ahhh~”

With a scream, her last lotus root thigh was pulled off. The figure, who was holding the octopus in his right hand and the lotus root in his left hand, still stood where he was, but his eyes seemed to have softened.

Han Fei looked at dying Qing Siling and felt his hands and feet turn cold. He couldn't be like Qing Siling. That would be too f*cking miserable.

“Crunch!”

“Crunch!”

“Gulp...”

The figure finished the lotus root soon.

Under the panicked gaze of Qing Siling, he picked up the Green-Scaled Flood Dragon from the pile of creatures that Han Fei threw out. The man poked it and took out the snake gall that was bigger than a watermelon.

Although the figure was eating mouthful by mouthful, in fact, Han Fei found that this person was eating very fast. In just two hours, three of the creatures that he threw out were already eaten.

Neither Han Fei nor Qing Siling dared to speak.

Qing Siling really hoped that this monster had forgotten her.

However, Han Fei saw that there seemed to be a faint redness in the figure's eyes. He thought to himself, Not good! Her eyes have turned red. He can't have gone mad from eating, right?

Han Fei immediately asked carefully, "Senior, is it enough? If not, can I get you more?"

The figure's chewing mouth suddenly stopped, his eyes flashed, and a giggle sounded from his throat.

Han Fei waved his hand again and threw out another seventeen or eighteen creatures.

He didn't dare to throw them all out at once. God knew if this person would let him go if he threw them all out?

Han Fei said, "Senior, don't panic. Let me search for more! I remember I prepared more than one Sea Swallowing Seashell."

Therefore, Han Fei exclaimed now and then.

"Hey! Senior, I found seven or eight big sea cucumbers. They are definitely great tonics. It's not easy to get them."

"Oh, by the way, I've also prepared dozens of Aurora Jellyfish for you. If you cut them into filaments, they'll be very crispy and delicious."

"Senior, I have an exotic starfish here. Its eggs are very fragrant. Those who have eaten it all say it's delicious."

As if performing a magic trick, Han Fei gradually piled up five hills of creatures, and a large number of creatures were placed in front of the figure.

Qing Siling was dumbfounded. Are you here for treasure hunting or hunting? Why do you carry so many things with you when you're exploring an island? What's wrong with you?

However, Qing Siling was relieved too. As long as this monster didn't eat her, anything was fine.

Although she was very sure that this Han Fei was definitely real and definitely not the Fish Dragon King, so what? It was better than being eaten by this monster!

After all, she, Qing Siling, was ranked third on the Genius List of the White Shell Royal City. It would be a shame if she was eaten just like that.

After throwing away a lot of things, Han Fei slowly said, "Senior, perhaps I came in a hurry, so I might not have brought enough things. But don't panic, Senior. Although I didn't bring enough gifts this time..."

Han Fei suddenly pointed at Qing Siling and said, "However, there are still forty or fifty such sea demons like her outside. Some of them are transformed from dragons, and some are mutant octopus. They all take Sun-Moon Shells with them, which are filled with delicious foods. Senior, how about this? I'll go out and hunt them for you. I guarantee that you will be full!"

Qing Siling's expression changed drastically as she shouted, "Han Fei, I'm very valuable! You can exchange me for resources with the White Shell City. Take me away..."

Han Fei frowned. "Hey, you little sea demon, what are you talking about? I, Han Fei, am the commander of the human race. I fought sea demons and slaughtered dragons just for the righteousness of the human world. Why would I be with you for such a trivial benefit? Senior, this demon is slandering me. Senior, you can kill her directly to prove that I am a decent person.”

Chi la!

As soon as Han Fei said this, he saw the figure turn his head to look at Qing Siling, which stunned her.

In the next moment, before Qing Siling had any time to react, the figure pressed down with his hand and crushed Qing Siling.

“Hiss!”

Han Fei’s heart trembled. F*ck, you really killed her?

She was one of the top Heavenly Talents in the White Shell Royal City but she just died so easily?

“Crunch!”

The figure took another bite of the Overlord Squid, and then slowly said in an ambiguous voice, “Go, human, slaughter, dragon...”

The old turtle watched for a long time and thought to himself, What the f*ck is going on here? How could such a strong master be tricked so easily?

Suddenly, a door of light appeared behind Han Fei.

Han Fei trembled, slauted, and said solemnly, “Senior, don’t worry! I’ve made an agreement with my good friend to meet in this grassland, just to kill those sea demons and give them to you as a small gift. Senior, don’t panic. It will only take me a few days...”

With that, Han Fei straightened up and walked towards the door of light unhurriedly.

Shua!

When Han Fei took a step forward and looked back, he saw that the desolate tomb had appeared a thousand meters away. Han Fei blinked his eyes. There was no sign of the desolate tomb in the grassland now.

Han Fei gasped for breath, shivering. “Phew... F*ck, I was so scared...”

Chapter 1327: Someone Comprehended the Dao?

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

After Han Fei came out, his body immediately changed, and he turned back into the Fish Dragon King.

Han Fei asked, “Old Yuan, there’s still a problem with the Heavenly Secrets here, right?”

The old turtle said, "Yes! The deserted tomb hasn't really left."

Han Fei felt a chill down his spine. Fortunately, there were still a lot of creatures in Forge the Universe, but he couldn't give them to that monster now. He would be on a killing spree after he restored his identity as Han Fei to put on a show for the one in the tomb.

Also, he had to explain the situation to Queen Life as soon as possible. Han Fei estimated that even Queen Life didn't know what happened in the deserted tomb.

Therefore, Han Fei released Little Black and Little White and threw Little Black into Forge the Universe to prevent future troubles. Little White stayed by his side and stayed vigilant at all times.

Outside the island.

Suddenly, Changshui Qin frowned and took out a jade slip. His eyes were cold because the jade slip had been shattered too suddenly.

"Is Qing Siling dead?"

Changshui Qin frowned. There were three people in the grassland before, namely Qing Siling, the Fish Dragon King, and Tang Yue from the Blood Sea Divine Wood City.

In his eyes, the Fish Dragon King was caught in a large array and couldn't be seen. In fact, Tang Yue had already lost her way when she was chasing Han Fei and was also caught in an array.

In the eyes of outsiders, the three people on the grassland were all trapped in an array, but they were not in the same array. It didn't make sense that someone died.

Now, Qing Siling had suddenly died, which made Changshui Qin suspicious. However, a mere ancient remnant array might have some power, but it wasn't enough to kill a Heavenly Talent like Qing Siling!

The Insect King seemed to feel Changshui Qin's action and guessed something. He thought that the Fish Dragon King was fake in the first place, so it was only natural for him to kill the Heavenly Talents of the White Shell Royal City.

Although he also saw that the three people seemed to be trapped in three arrays, they had indeed disappeared in front of his eyes. Now that they had disappeared, the Insect King was suspicious if they were really in the arrays.

Buzz!

Suddenly, the Insect King, Changshui Qin, and the others all raised their heads and looked at the sky, only to see that there was a thick fog dissipating, and a light penetrated the layers of clouds and fell on the grassland.

"Huh?"

Even Queen Life and the White Armor Emperor frowned.

The White Armor Emperor was stunned for a moment and then smiled. "There's Chaos Energy, accompanied by the arrival of the Dao runes. Someone is meditating on the Dao? To be able to cause a weather anomaly, it seems that this person's Great Dao is very smooth and extraordinary!"

Queen Life was expressionless, because there were no people from the Water-Wood World in that grassland at the moment, so she had no reason to be happy.

However, the fake Han Fei, who was at the edge of the river more than 2,000 kilometers away from the grassland, suddenly looked into the air. He seemed to be stunned for a moment before he moved and flew quickly to the grassland.

Originally, Queen Life was only afraid that her purpose would be too obvious and others would notice the grassland.

However, the Chaos Energy immediately gave Queen Life a reason. Han Fei had been described as the strongest Heavenly Talent of the Water-Wood World, so he naturally discovered the anomalies in the grassland easily.

In fact, Han Fei was not the only one who noticed the anomalies in the grassland. Within a radius of 5,000 kilometers, at least 20 people discovered the anomalies.

Zhang Xiaotian looked at the sky and mumbled, "Someone has comprehended the Dao? What a powerful Dao."

Yang Ruoyun's figure was moving quickly. Although she was in a mess and her battle suit was damaged in many places, she was running towards the grassland. Unlike in the Yin-Yang World, most people here might not understand the Dao runes well enough, so such a phenomenon was thought to be an astronomical phenomena at most.

However, those who lived in the Water-Wood World knew that the appearance of treasures was different. The power that came from the sky was probably related to the Great Dao.

However, the Great Dao wouldn't suddenly descend, so there must be someone who had comprehended the Dao. But why did that person comprehend the Dao here? Was there something unknown in the grassland that could help one comprehend the Dao? This was the key.

This was because if they could comprehend the Great Dao, it basically meant that they had a chance of entering the Venerable realm. Therefore, this kind of opportunity was what these Heavenly Talents really wanted.

At the center of the storm, Han Fei was also looking up at the sky and talking with the old turtle.

Han Fei said, "I didn't comprehend the Dao! I had already done it. Is it the girl who hunted me just now?"

The old turtle said, "This doesn't make sense! The speed seems to be too fast. It just started abruptly. At the beginning of the Great Dao, there was already Chaos Energy. This is definitely not a minor Dao."

Han Fei's face turned black. "But there isn't any Chaos Energy when I comprehended my Dao! What, is mine a minor Dao?"

The old turtle said, "That's different. You've even produced a Dao Seed. How can the Chaos Energy compare to the Dao Seed? Your Dao should be stronger than this."

Han Fei was relieved to hear that. "Okay."

But he was still puzzled. It wasn't him, and Qing Siling had died too. Was it Tang Yue? Or was there someone else in the grassland?

However, he felt that something was wrong, because the place where the light fell was a bit like the place where the tomb disappeared.

Han Fei couldn't help taking a breath. "Old Yuan! Do you think the figure just now hasn't recovered his strength and is just bluffing me?"

The old turtle said, "He didn't have to bluff you. Although that person is rotten and has existed for countless years, he is definitely a super powerhouset. Even I couldn't see through him, which shows that his strength is definitely not to be underestimated. He can't be a person who hasn't entered the Dao, butâ€¦!"

"But what?"

The old turtle said, "This weather anomaly may not necessarily be caused by Dao! Although Chaos Energy and Dao runes are appearing, it's also possible that they are returning. I guess that maybe it's because you gave him too much food, his strength is recovering."

"Hiss!"

Han Fei gasped. I didn't give much! There were only less than 200 creatures, half of which were below the level of Dao Seekingâ€¦!

In the end, Han Fei's voice became smaller and smaller. It seemed that there was indeed a lot. The spiritual energy might not be much, but it contained a lot of energy. Besides, those who could catch his attention all had some strength.

For that strong master, they were probably enough for him.

It was just like the old turtle, who could kill Half-Venerables without a body. Now that he had the body of Gui Sanqing, Han Fei felt that he could be counted a Venerable in a crisis.

This power lasted for about half an hour.

After the power disappeared for only a hundred seconds, Little White suddenly kissed Han Fei's cheek. "Dad! Someone is here."

Han Fei's eyelids twitched. "Do you know him?"

Little White grunted and said cutely, "There's something familiar about it."

Han Fei's eyes glittered, and he asked in a hurry, "Is it the smell of the Big Red Trunk? That wood."

Little White was quite familiar with the Big Red Trunk. He had used it too much in the past. Even the library of the Thug Academy was built with the Big Red Trunk.

Little White rolled and wagged her tail. "Yes, it's that wood."

Han Fei's heart did a flip. That was easy.

Han Fei was overjoyed. Queen Life had finally arrived and he was about to be freed.

Han Fei was about to ask Little White to take the initiative to look for her, when he suddenly saw a figure in red appear leisurely. The person was holding a long knife. It was Tang Yue.

Han Fei was speechless. “Why you again?”

Tang Yue frowned. She lost him when she was chasing Han Fei just now. Although this person was not very strong, he was not to be underestimated. In terms of speed, she was not his match.

However, she had to find a way to kill him. After all, he was her mortal enemy.

Tang Yue shouted, “This time, you can’t escape.”

Shua!

Swish!

In an instant, one took out her knife, and the other moved horizontally.

Han Fei sneered. “You think you can kill me? Wait until you catch up with me.”

Han Fei took advantage of the chaos of the Heavenly Secrets in this place and jumped a thousand meters away, turning back and launching the God Scaring Stab. Tang Yue was not afraid of soul attacks either and launched a mental attack back.

Boom!

As their minds collided, a violent explosion occurred between them.

“Cough!”

Tang Yue groaned. This Fish Dragon King seems to be stronger than before.

“Twin Divine Technique.”

This was exactly the timing that Han Fei wanted. Because the duration of the use of the Twin God Technique was limited, Han Fei had used it when he just came out of the deserted tomb.

At this moment, Little White had already sensed that Queen Life was coming, so she naturally had no scruples.

In the blink of an eye, Han Fei split into two, and the white mist immediately turned into a human.

After transforming into mist, Han Fei was not in a human form, so he could transform into anything. Ordinary people couldn't see the black mist that Little Black transformed into because it couldn't reflect light, so Tang Yue didn't see two Han Fei at all.

Han Fei quickly retreated to Queen Life in a white mist and sneered.. “Tang Yue, right? If you keep chasing me, don't blame me for killing you.”

Chapter 1328: Death of the Fish Dragon King (Part I)

Tang Yue certainly would not be threatened by Han Fei.

After all, as far as she knew, although the Fish Dragon King was extremely strong, he was still weaker than her.

On the grassland, Han Fei was madly using the Near at Hand Technique, and Tang Yue seemed to be going on a rampage, with a red mist spurting out of her body. This feeling of going on a rampage was a bit like when Xia Xiaochan went on a rampage.

If he guessed right, this woman should have a similar personality to Xia Xiaochan.

The two of them passed through the grassland like two phantoms, beating the grass and leaves away. If the picture was slowed down, one would see that Han Fei's figure was as graceful as immortals with the Fish Dragon Dance. Every step he took covered a kilometer. Tang Yue, on the other hand, raised her knife and slashed, and energy surged out. Every slash of her knife was like cutting wheat. In an instant, the grass within thousands of meters was minced.

This picture was really beautiful, but also full of horror.

Han Fei thought to himself, Chop... If you have what it takes, keep chopping!

The existence of the Dead Spirit Grass was to serve the only powerful being. If you cut down the entire grassland, the one just now would eat you.

The entire island was not big in the first place.

This grassland spanned more than 1,000 kilometers. However, on the grassland, space seemed to be changed, so one was easy to get lost here. Therefore, the grassland felt extremely huge.

However, the grassland was only so big in the first place. Now that Queen Life had come, how could Han Fei not find her?

In Tang Yue's eyes, the Fish Dragon King was fighting her.

However, among the traces of airwaves where they caused in fighting, a shadow that was so black that it was almost invisible was also rushing at a great speed.

Even if Little Black wasn't so black, he wouldn't be seen by ordinary people. After using the Twin God Technique, Han Fei had inherited the same characteristics.

The battle between the two seemed fierce, but in fact, it only destroyed a large part of the grassland.

Suddenly, Tang Yue looked around and saw a smiling figure standing in the grassland.

"Han Fei?"

Han Fei and Tang Yue immediately separated, both of them wary.

The visitor was the fake Han Fei.

All this was part of the plan. Therefore, Han Fei had been attracting Tang Yue here.

Queen Life said, "You're quite fast. The Heavenly Secrets are in chaos here. I didn't expect you to find me so quickly."

Han Fei had no time to chit-chat with Queen Life. He simply replied, "Two things. There's an ancient desolate tomb in this grassland that contains a powerful dragonslayer. I don't know if it's a corpse or a living person, but it's been held back by me for the time being. Secondly, the black mist under your feet is my..."

The fake Han Fei's expression remained unchanged, but his heart was in turmoil. There is a tomb in the grassland? Why didn't I know that?

Different from Han Fei's thoughts, the first thought of Queen Life was that if there was really a place that she couldn't discover, it could only be that the hidden existence was at least stronger than her in strength, definitely above the level of a king. Or rather, he had borrowed the power of the array.

However, from what Han Fei said just now, could this ancient existence kill dragons? What kind of powerhouse was this? How did Han Fei hold him back?

At this moment, she didn't feel any residual Dao runes from Han Fei or Tang Yue.

It meant that the Chaos Energy and the Great Dao that descended just now didn't come from these two people, but were related to the tomb.

Queen Life gasped. "Are you saying that someone is recovering?"

Han Fei nodded. "Yes, that person should be a human. However, now is not the time to talk about this."

As she spoke, Queen Han Fei held a knife in one hand and looked down, only to see nothing. However, with a thought of her, Han Fei's black fog body was discovered.

Queen Life was a little surprised. What kind of technique was Han Fei using? A mist-type avatar?

"However, why do I feel that there is a trace of Dao runes on this black fog?"

Han Fei said, "Can the outside see the grassland now?"

"Yes."

Han Fei said, "Allow me to make the Fish Dragon King disappear."

Perhaps Han Fei and the others had fought far away, or maybe the deserted tomb could easily envelop them again, so at this moment, they could be seen from the outside.

From the moment the two began to fight, in the eyes of outsiders, Tang Yue first left the array, then met Han Fei, and then the two began to fight.

Of course, during this period, some pictures were hidden. For example, Han Fei disappeared for a while.

It could be said that even the Life King and the White Armor Emperor failed to see through the mysteries of this grassland.

At this moment, in the eyes of the Venerables, Tang Yue, Han Fei, and the Fish Dragon King were representatives of the three parties.

Logically speaking, it was very difficult for them to fight under such circumstances.

After all, in terms of strength, Han Fei should be the strongest. However, in their understanding, even if he was strong, he should only be strong in a limited way and not too strong.

In fact, how could they know that Han Fei's strongest state had reached the level of a Half-Venerable!

Han Fei shouted, "Tang Yue, let go of the grudge between you and me for now. Let's work together to deal with Han Fei."

Tang Yue slightly narrowed her eyes and didn't speak with a cold face. Demonic energy rolled on the long knife in her hand as if she was considering.

The fake Han Fei, on the other hand, chuckled and said, "Tang Yue? Well... Water-Wood World and the Blood Sea Divine Wood City have never fought. I don't have any intention of killing you, but this Fish Dragon King must die today... If you want, you can join forces with me. If you don't, you can leave or watch the show. But if you join forces with him, don't blame me for being ruthless."

Tang Yue was briefly stunned. "If I watch the battle, aren't you afraid that I'll attack you?"

The fake Han Fei grinned and chuckled. "If you want to fight, you can come at any time."

When Tang Yue heard this, her heart did a flip. This person is so arrogant. He actually ignored my existence? He is not afraid of me joining forces with the Fish Dragon King at all.

This also meant that he had absolute confidence that he could kill her and the Fish Dragon King.

As a Heavenly Talent, Tang Yue had her own pride, so she was very unconvinced at this moment. This Fish Dragon King had a big grudge against her after all. How could she just watch him being killed by the side and not do anything? Wasn't that admitting her weakness? Wasn't that like insulting her?

Tang Yue said coldly, "I have a great grudge against the Fish Dragon King! I want to attack him too. Why don't we join forces?"

Han Fei's white mist body immediately shouted, "Ridiculous... Tang Yue, our strength is the same. If I die, you will be his next target."

The fake Han Fei looked at Tang Yue and said, "Well! I have no objection. If you think I will kill you, you can leave now."

It had to be said that Queen Life vividly portrayed Han Fei's temperament. Although he spoke softly, his voice was full of pride.

This scene stunned Han Fei. Oh, her acting skills are really awesome!

Tang Yue grinned. "Kill!"

Shua!

At the moment Tang Yue launched an attack, Han Fei activated the Near at Hand Technique. He chose to escape first. After all, he had to make the show look real.

The fake Han Fei's speed was no slower than the Near at Hand Technique. When the insect queen gave birth to this insect man, Queen Life had specially instructed that the insect queen should prioritize speed.

"God Scaring Stab."

"Knock on the Heavenly Gate."

Han Fei had burned 200 years of vitality and attacked with all his might, and his strength instantly soared.

Seeing this scene, Queen Life was speechless and couldn't help saying to him via voice transmission, "You burned your vitality, but wouldn't it be me who will replenish it for you? Is vitality free?!"

Han Fei smiled bitterly in his heart. I have to act after all!

Han Fei said, "It's okay. I have other ways to make up for it."

Anyway, Han Fei had lost so much of his soul, so 200 years of vitality was nothing. When he absorbed the soul, he could steal some vitality too. It would be like killing two birds with one stone!

Han Fei, who was burning his vitality, seemed very strong and even blocked the Draw Technique. He moved in the air as if he were dodging the Void Lines.

Han Fei couldn't help but sigh. Queen Life was so good at imitating that she could even imitate his Void Lines? Although he could feel that the threads were different from his Void Lines, it at least showed that Queen Life had noticed him and noticed the existence of the Void Lines.

The three of them were fighting and walking, mainly because the Fish Dragon King was fleeing, while Han Fei was chasing him quickly. To Han Fei's surprise, the Life King also knew about the Heavenly Void Divine Movement, which stunned Han Fei.

Han Fei activated the Near at Hand Technique and the Heavenly Void Divine Movement at the same time, and the two of them flashed on the grassland. After fighting for less than ten minutes, Tang Yue suddenly put away her knife. Now she just wanted to catch up with these two people because they were too fast.

In the outside world.

Changshui Qin frowned as he watched. The Fish Dragon King had tried to soar into the sky three times, but every time he was going to reach the height, he would be slapped down by Han Fei.

This made Changshui Qin a little chilled. It wasn't that the Fish Dragon King was weak, but that Han Fei was too strong.

In fact, Han Fei didn't use his full strength when he challenged Zhang Xiaotian in the White Shell Royal City.

At this moment, after using the Twin God Technique, his strength was only about 70% of before.

However, because he burnt his vitality, he gained some extra combat power.

At this moment, Han Fei had almost used all his strength and had fully carried out the Fish Dragon King's Near at Hand Technique. No matter how strong it was, it had already exceeded the limits of the Fish Dragon King.

Even so, the Fish Dragon King played by Han Fei was still bombarded by the fake Han Fei.

Bang!

Han Fei blasted a big hole in the ground, raised his feet, and swept a kilometer away.

The fake Han Fei, on the other hand, activated the Draw Technique with a flip of his hand and was about to attack Han Fei, when the latter moved away again.

The battle outside was tense. In Forge the Universe, Yu Wendao stood in front of the Fish Dragon King, holding three red pills in his hand, which made the latter's scalp tingle.

The Fish Dragon King roared, "Han Fei, what do you want?"

In Forge the Universe, Han Fei's voice sounded leisurely, "You don't want it? Fish Dragon King, there are only two choices for you now. One is that you die, and then you don't have to worry about anything. The other is that you eat this red pill and become a top Heavenly Talent in the Blood Sea Divine Wood City. As a Heavenly Talent, you still have the chance to become a Venerable. My time is limited. I'll give you ten seconds. After ten seconds..."

The Fish Dragon King's face was twisted and he struggled. Is this something a decent human will do?

Han Fei added, "Oh! Right, after eating it, you'll have to give me a wisp of your essence blood and soul. What's it for? You should know. But as long as you can survive, anything is possible. Think about it?"

Chapter 1329: Death of the Fish Dragon King (Part II)

The Fish Dragon King had complicated feelings.

On the one hand, he couldn't return to the White Shell Royal City any longer. Han Fei had increased his strength too much, which was already comparable to Zhang Xiaotian's.

At this speed, his bloodline couldn't afford it at all.

Although the Fish Dragon King was proud, who wanted to die? After eating the Red Ball, he would just become a Millennium Snapper, a woman... But he was a fish in the first place! For fish, the boundary of gender was not very clear. Therefore, it was not difficult to choose.

As for his essence blood and soul, Han Fei had turned himself into a Millennium Snapper. If he really hid in the Blood Sea Divine Wood City, Han Fei probably couldn't come in.

In this way, he probably couldn't control his life through his essence blood and soul.

He knew this kind of thing better than Yu Cailing and Lan Xue'er did. Beyond a certain range, this kind of control would become extremely weak.

Originally, the Fish Dragon King didn't have that much loyalty to the White Shell Royal City. He wasn't that attached to the White Shell Royal City.

If he could become a top Heavenly Talent in the Blood Sea Divine Wood City, it wouldn't be bad! As for his status, it probably wouldn't be lowered much.

The Fish Dragon King said, "Okay, I'll eat it."

However, Han Fei said, "I'll give it to you later. Let me think about it."

The Fish Dragon King was anxious. The red pill that was sent to his mouth was taken back by Han Fei. He thought that Han Fei was going back on his word...

Immediately, the Fish Dragon King shouted in a low voice, "Han Fei, you promised me that you would let me go."

Yu Wenren stepped him under his feet. "Don't talk. Let me think about it."

The Fish Dragon King: "..."

Outside Forge the Universe.

While fleeing, Han Fei said to Queen Life, "Wait a minute. I'll die in thirty seconds. I sensed the breath of an acquaintance."

Han Fei had already detected Yang Ruoyun as soon as she entered the grassland. After all, Han Fei had Little White's sense of smell.

Yang Ruoyun thought that she was very careful. She had calculated it well before entering the grassland.

As the saying went, fortune came from taking risks. In the past six months, her life in the Blood Sea Divine Wood City wasn't easy. She was still being pushed aside.

And this grassland might be dangerous, but she had already set up a directional teleportation array outside. If anything went wrong, she could tear open the fish skin map and be teleported back.

Yang Ruoyun thought that she had been through a hundred battles and had experienced all kinds of battles. But unfortunately, this time, she met Han Fei. He had become the strongest Heavenly Talent in the Water-Wood World and had even transcended the tribulation. His strength and speed of growth amazed her.

In the past two days, although she had gained a lot, even some ownerless souls, these were not enough. What she needed was a leap of growth, a growth that could support her to transcend the heavenly tribulation.

Suddenly, Yang Ruoyun heard a voice, "Yang Ruoyun, what a coincidence! I didn't expect that we would meet again after all these years."

Buzz!

At that moment, Yang Ruoyun was horrified and was about to flip open the fish skin and escape.

She thought to herself, Han Fei pretended not to know me before.

Han Fei said, "Wait a moment, let's cooperate."

Bang!

Hardly had Han Fei said that when he heard explosions far away.

Runes glittered on Yang Ruoyun, and she hid in the grass.

Following the voice, Yang Ruoyun replied, "What do you want?"

Han Fei said leisurely, "I'll give you a big gift. The Fish Dragon King is seriously injured by me and dying. You can take the opportunity to ambush him. However, you have to promise me one thing."

Yang Ruoyun didn't know what Han Fei was up to. Kill the Fish Dragon King? Why was he so kind as to leave him to her?

Also, if Han Fei could kill the Fish Dragon King, wouldn't it be easier for him to kill her?

Han Fei said, "Don't worry. If I want to kill you, I won't talk to you and would have hunted you. I guess you're not very loyal to the Blood Sea Divine Wood City, right? Why don't we mutually benefit each other?"

Yang Ruoyun realized that Han Fei was right. With Han Fei's current strength, it wouldn't be a problem for him to hunt her.

Originally, she wouldn't have attended this trial at all. The reason she appeared on the trial list was that some people wanted her to die, and some people wanted to see if she was worth nurturing. All parties had different purposes, which led to her coming to this damn place.

But since she had come, this was an opportunity. From what Han Fei said, he seemed to be targeting the Blood Sea Divine Wood City?

Yang Ruoyun asked, "What is it?"

Han Fei said, "Well, it's like this..."

Han Fei quickly said a few words, and Yang Ruoyun was secretly shocked. "You want me to be a traitor?"

Han Fei said, "Don't make it sound so nasty. What do you mean by 'traitor'? You are a human being in the first place. Even if you become a Millennium Snapper, can you really blend into the Blood Sea Divine Wood City? Is there really no one who bullies you? However, if you think about it another way, you sacrificed yourself heroically for the sake of mankind, turned into a sea demon, and threw yourself into the Blood Sea Divine Wood City... How heroic is that? This can totally be written as a moving story to motivate future generations. How can you describe it as 'traitor'? It's superficial."

Yang Ruoyun rolled her eyes. Han Fei was as arrogant and conceited as before. He had begun to scheme against the Blood Sea Divine Wood City the moment he met her on this dangerous island.

Han Fei said, "There are only ten seconds left. The Fish Dragon King can't hold on any longer. Do you really not want to consider it? If not, run! Otherwise, after I kill the Fish Dragon King, the next one will be you."

Yang Ruoyun: "..."

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Yang Ruoyun suddenly raised her head, only to see that the Fish Dragon King was bombarded by the fake Han Fei from a height of thirty thousand feet, like a meteor, like a big fireball.

The fake Han Fei, the Insect-Man, shouted, "The top Heavenly Talent of the White Shell Royal City is nothing but a piece of junk."

Yang Ruoyun watched this scene dumbfounded. She had personally experienced how strong the Fish Dragon King was. To be honest, it shouldn't be a problem for the Fish Dragon King to easily beat her.

However, at this moment, Han Fei was abusing the Fish Dragon King as if he were beating a fish!

Yang Ruoyun thought that Han Fei was showing it to her. Her heart sank, and she had to consider Han Fei's opinion again. As Han Fei said, she was indeed ostracized in the Blood Sea Divine Wood City.

Needless to say, less than one hundredth of the Millennium Snappers that she brought from the level-three fishery in the Yin-Yang World were still alive. Although her parents were still alive, their aptitudes were limited, and she didn't know if she could protect them.

Yang Ruoyun couldn't help but say, "Okay, we can cooperate."

In fact, it was just a radius of a thousand kilometers here. How long could the fight last?

Only about ten minutes had passed since he found Han Fei.

If Yang Ruoyun hadn't appeared on the grassland, Han Fei wouldn't have bothered, because he had the Fish Dragon King. Then he could negotiate with the Fish Dragon King and break into the inner part of the Blood Sea Divine Wood City through him.

Now that Yang Ruoyun was here, he had one more choice. If plan A failed, he would still have plan B.

Han Fei, drenched in blood, shouted, "Han Fei, I want you to die with me."

Bang! Bang! Bang!

On the surface of Han Fei's body, small holes exploded, and demonic energy and blood energy intertwined. He suddenly roared and used the power of the Great Dao.

Han Fei roared, "Knock on the Heavenly Gate!"

Han Fei integrated all his demonic energy, blood energy, and even spiritual power into this blow, and then used the power of the Great Dao to make this force stronger. It could be said that if the real Fish Dragon King used this move, he should be able to resist a blow of his.

Crack!

The red spear in Han Fei's hand shattered and fused with this final blow. A shocking spear shadow condensed in midair.

In the outside world.

Changshui Qin's pupils were constricted. She felt that the Fish Dragon King's blow was comparable to the nine bloody spears.

So, could the Fish Dragon King really grow to the level of Zhang Xiaotian?

The Insect King frowned slightly. "This kid is not bad, but still not good enough."

Suddenly...

When the Venerables were about to see the result, they suddenly saw an arrow of runes. On closer inspection, it turned out to be a small branch, which was a high-quality Divine weapon thrown out by Yang Ruoyun.

"Pfft!"

The branch pierced through the back of the "Fish Dragon King" and his chest.

Yang Ruoyun reached out and grabbed his Sun-Moon Shell. Then, a fish skin map appeared in the air.

Rumble!

A terrifying explosion swept a hundred kilometers, shaking the grass and ravines, and crushing the grassland nearly a hundred kilometers.

The last moment was beyond everybody's expectation. They had seen that Yang Ruoyun was already lying in ambush, but they did not expect that she would attack so decisively.

The Fish Dragon King failed to launch his attack on Han Fei before he was ambushed and killed. It was rather sad.

Shua!

The moment Yang Ruoyun disappeared, the fake Han Fei suddenly appeared and reached out, only to grab nothing.

The fake Han Fei stood quietly in midair, with his hands behind his back and a cold smile on his lips, as if he were angry that Yang Ruoyun had snatched his prey.

Crack!

Changshui Qin took out a jade slip and clenched his fist. Among the top ten Heavenly Talents, the Fish Dragon King and Qing Siling, who were ranked second and third, had both died. This time, they had lost too much.

If Zhang Xiaotian couldn't get that opportunity, the White Shell Royal City would suffer a heavy loss this time.

"Hmph!"

The White Armor Emperor frowned and his eyes flickered. "Han Fei, very good! Mu Wuhua, you'd better guard him all the time. Don't give me a chance."

Queen Life said casually, "Why? You're a king. Are you going to attack him yourself?"

Yun Chu, on the other hand, was quite surprised that Yang Ruoyun could sneak attack the Fish Dragon King.

However, her sneak attack and escape only lasted an instant. She even snatched the Sun-Moon Shell of the Fish Dragon King. The timing was perfect.

If she was one step slower, she would have been captured by Han Fei.

This time, Yun Chu secretly remembered that Yang Ruoyun was indeed promising. At least, few people were as courageous as her.

Many people would look at Yang Ruoyun in a different light after this.

...

In Forge the Universe.

The white-mist Han Fei appeared. Looking at the Fish Dragon King who had become a wriggling big red fish, he couldn't help but exclaim, "What a horrible fruit!"

Chapter 1330: One Day, I'll Return

At this moment, in the eyes of outsiders, the top Heavenly Talent of the White Shell Royal City, Fish Dragon King, who had just risen, fought Han Fei of the Water-Wood World and died.

This undoubtedly made Han Fei's name imprinted in the eyes of these strongest powerhouses.

Apart from the people from the Water-Wood World, from the king level, the half king level, and the powerful Venerables, everyone felt that this person was too monstrous and must be killed!

In Forge the Universe, the Fish Dragon King had already turned into a Millennium Snapper. Han Fei casually threw him a Holy Light Technique. "Can you hear me? You should be able to transform into a human being now."

The gigantic Millennium Snapper that had just taken shape was enshrouded in a fiery mist. A moment later, when a hand extended from the red mist, Han Fei felt a chill down his spine.

However, the powerful hand of the Fish Dragon King turned into a fair slender hand. Seeing this scene, Han Fei felt terrible. This was much more perfect than cosmetic surgeries.

Her hands were fair, and her legs were fair and tender. She was in a red gauze dress and her long hair fluttered.

Han Fei saw a woman who looked only a bit like the Fish Dragon King, but looked completely different.

Han Fei was willing to bet that even if a king were here, he would never think that this woman was the arrogant Fish Dragon King.

"Oh, my eyes hurt."

Han Fei said, "Give me a wisp of your essence blood and soul."

The Fish Dragon King opened her mouth slightly and said in a crisp and pleasant voice, "Will you let me go after I give it to you?"

Han Fei said, "I'll let you go, but not now. In a few more days, you will shine in the Blood Sea Divine Wood City."

Outside Forge the Universe.

Queen Life was standing on the grass, surrounded by some black fog. Everybody thought that it was Han Fei's power. However, even the White Armor Emperor didn't notice that this Han Fei was fake. After all, he was outside.

Queen Life asked, "What kind of technique is this? The clone technique shouldn't be so powerful, let alone to make the clone have such a powerful soul power."

Han Fei grinned. "It's just a distraction technique! Well... Junior Sister?"

Suddenly, Han Fei felt that the fake Han Fei released a suppressing power and his face became even colder, and a voice sounded in his heart, "I'll give you another chance to organize your words."

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He was probably the most timid senior brother in the entire universe. As Queen Life's senior brother, he couldn't even call her Junior Sister.

Han Fei went straight to the point. "Cough, cough. Well, do you have a way to conceal the Heavenly Secrets here? If you don't, how can we swap?"

Queen Life said, "I didn't intend to swap with you in the first place. I'll take you out with the Hidden Flower technique."

Queen Life raised her hand slightly, revealing a ring on her finger.

Han Fei, in the black-mist form, waited for about five seconds, when Queen Life suddenly said, "Not good, the Heavenly Secrets of this place are beyond my control."

Han Fei: "???"

Han Fei couldn't have felt worse. He thought to himself, Are you reliable or not? You are a king anyway. How can you just abruptly tell me that you can't control the Heavenly Secrets here?

Han Fei asked, "Seriously?"

Queen Life: "I gave a wisp of my soul to an Insect Queen, which has completely fused with this body, sealing some special power. However, it's useless now. There's something wrong with this grassland."

Han Fei was lost for words. "Didn't you notice that there was something wrong with this grassland?"

Queen Life seemed to be thinking, Is this matter beyond my expectations?

In the end, Queen Life said solemnly, "No."

In Han Fei's heart, the old turtle's voice appeared. "There's no need to think. The one in the tomb has clearly woken up. If I guessed right, his strength would be recovering quickly. The energy of this place has been completely taken back by him."

Han Fei said, "That's impossible! You said he could recover quickly after eating those things... I believe you, but he can't control the place immediately, right? Even if he didn't waste any spiritual energy or energy, those foods can't support him to do that, can they?"

The old turtle said, "Don't forget where you are. This is the Dead Spirit Grass. This Dead Spirit Grass may be part of his body. Do you still think it's difficult for him to control this place?"

Queen Life seemed to want to try again, but Han Fei said, "I'm afraid that guy has taken action."

Queen Life asked, "Are you talking about the person in the deserted tomb?"

Han Fei nodded. "Yes, but he hasn't come out yet. I'm afraid that if we want to leave this grassland, we'll have to get his permission."

Han Fei thought to himself, I've been running for so long but haven't seen the boundary of the grassland. This shows that there is a problem with this space.

Queen Life said, "I'm just a wisp of my consciousness. It's already extremely difficult for me to fool the White Armor Emperor. This time, if I release my power to search for the tomb you mentioned, I'm afraid I will be discovered."

Han Fei's heart did a flip. "I have an idea."

...

A moment later.

Looking at the pots and pans in front of her, Queen Life felt terrible. She had never cooked in her life. After all, as a plant life, she didn't need to eat or drink.

In the outside world, Changshui Qin, the Insect King, and the others were all dumbfounded. What was Han Fei doing? Was he out of his mind?

Queen Life waved her hand, and a big octopus more than 50 meters long and a Mystifying Dragon more than 30 meters long landed on the grassland.

According to Han Fei's instruction, Queen Life took out a sledgehammer and made a large iron plate with clangs.

Buzz!

Swish swish swish!

Then, the Infinity Water appeared, and the Million Knife Art flew across.

In an instant, the big octopus and the Mystifying Dragon were dismembered. The tentacles of the octopus, in particular, were cut into filaments as thick as a finger by Han Fei.

Whoosh!

Spiritual fire erupted, and the whole iron board was burnt red.

Han Fei shouted in his heart, Yes, Put in a hundred spiritual fruits and spiritual spring, add some seasonings to it... If there is no seasoning, replace it with seaweed juice.

Fish oil was brushing over the big iron plate over and over again.

In mid-air, the spiritual spring stirred the spiritual fruit juice and dripped on the iron board like rain.

"Chiliu!"

The spiritual spring and seasonings collided with the iron plate, making sizzling sounds. In an instant, the fragrance spread out thousands of miles.

Looking at the roasted juicy octopus and Mystifying Drago on the iron plate, Queen Life asked in her heart, "Are you sure that mere food can summon that man?"

At the moment when Queen Life said this, she suddenly turned around and saw a desolate tomb appearing out of blue a thousand meters away.

As soon as Han Fei saw the tomb, he immediately transformed from the black mist into a human. The white mist appeared out of thin air, the two instantly combined and turned into Han Fei.

Queen Life was shocked.

There was really a deserted tomb here!

Besides, as soon as the tomb appeared, the Heavenly Secrets here were instantly concealed. This was too simple!

She looked at Han Fei again, thinking that the white mist must be the body of the Fish Dragon King that had just been killed.

Queen Life's heart stirred again. As expected of someone with great luck and many means, Han Fei even had such an opportunity.

At this moment, Han Fei changed back into himself completely and cupped his hands at the desolate tomb. "Senior, these foods are specially for you. Now, the sea demons are powerful, our human race is declining, and the strong masters outside the island are eyeing us covetously. Just now, it was just for show."

As he spoke, Han Fei said to Queen Life in his heart, "Step back. Leave the barbecue to him."

Queen Life frowned. "Will he come out?"

"I don't think so."

After the two of them retreated, the iron plate slowly collapsed, and the whole iron plate, together with the octopus and the dragon, sank into the grassland.

Han Fei slauted. "Senior, you can wait a little longer. When more and more people come to this grassland, I will definitely give them all to you."

Smack!

A crack appeared on the grave, and fish bones were thrown out.

Cracking sounds came from inside as if from the bottom of hell. The hoarse voice said, "Spare... no one... except for... humans..."

Queen Life's pupils were constricted slightly. The one in the tomb is so cruel. Does he even want to kill me?

When Han Fei heard that, he hurriedly said, "Senior, human beings, demonic plants, and the Insect race have been on good terms with each other for generations. Only those sea demons are the great enemies of the human race and all the other races."

There was a long silence in the tomb. "Where are... the dragons?"

Han Fei was stunned. "Uh! The dragons might have disappeared long before the Age of Gods."

Queen Life looked at Han Fei in surprise. Dragon race? Age of Gods? What are you talking about?

There was no telling if the strong master in the desolate tomb had recovered a little, but after a while, he said in a hoarse voice, "On the island... there is... Dragon Essence... Energy... Take it... It will... benefit you."

As he said this, Han Fei had already seen a figure reflected in the place where the deserted tomb cracked.

The figure stood at the entrance of the crack and seemed to be looking at the sky, only to see scorching pillars of light passing through the clouds and shining on the desolate tomb.

Queen Life asked in surprise, "Repair the Great Dao? Are you a king?"

The figure suddenly jerked a hand out of the tomb. There was no telling if he was trying to walk out.

However, what Han Fei didn't know was that at this moment, the White Armor Emperor and Queen Life both took action and reached for the seal on the grassland.

Queen Life extended her hand and took out a red flower. "The evil anomalies in this grassland have been discovered. I've already taken action. It's a pity to abandon this body. Take it back. Open your soul and let me in."

Han Fei immediately said, "Don't enter. You won't be able to leave after you enter."

Han Fei hurriedly stopped her and stomped, and the illusion of mountains and rivers appeared.

Han Fei said, "Enter here. Teacher's reincarnation body is also in it."

Queen Life was briefly stunned but didn't argue. She simply let the shadow of the mountains and rivers envelop her and then disappeared.

Ka ka ka!

When only Han Fei and the deserted tomb were left, Han Fei quickly turned around. "Senior, there are two kings outside. The woman is on our side, and the man is on the sea demon's side."

"Giggle..."

The figure's hand that had just stretched out began to crack, and a giggle sounded from the figure's throat. "One day... I... will... return..."
