Chapter 1401: A New Broom Sweeps Clean (3)

Compared to these powerhouses from the Thousand Star City, Han Fei had experienced it from the grassroots. Especially when he was in the Ideal Palace, he and the group of people on the Avenger had wandered at sea for decades. What kind of battle had he not experienced?

Back then, the City of Hope had a population that was countless times larger than the Scattered Stars Island, but he managed the city well. And didn't the big clans in that world try to stop him back then too? But he easily solved them in the end.

As for Patriarch Thug that Chu Qing mentioned, Han Fei thought to himself, I'm not going to admit I know any Patriarch Thug. The one I know is my Junior Uncle Faceless, Li Daxian. What has he got to do with Patriarch Thug? Patriarch Thug is just a title, and he has already been poisoned to death. The one you see now is an undead creature.

But compared to the history of the Thug Academy, the big clans were simply trash.

In front of these millions of people, Han Fei wasn't worried that Chu Qing would attack him. He just chuckled. "Dear soldiers, look, these are the big clans of the Thousand Star City. The group of Venerables in the Thousand Star City just watched us die but refused to help. You worked so hard to collect resources on the coastline, kill sea demons, and grab their Sea Swallowing Seashells. In the end, the Refining Hall and the alchemy workshops refined excellent weapons, but you couldn't use them. All of them were taken away by these b * stards. How could you bear it?"

"Han Fei, shut up. You're slandering us."

"Roar!"

Han Fei roared, his voice echoing, "Shut up! Now that I'm the commander, who do you think you are? How can you be so impudent here? Either you swear to the Great Dao, or shut up. Otherwise, get the hell back to your Thousand Star City."

Han Fei's voice had its own magical power. It echoed in the air, making countless people's blood boil.

Everyone present was not stupid. Who didn't know that the big clans were extremely rich? Now they had come to stop Han Fei, only to have their dirty things exposed. Shame on them!

However, although the big clans were not good, no one felt that Han Fei was good at this moment. This was because Han Fei really didn't win any earth-shaking battles for the Scattered Stars Island.

Although Han Fei had indeed saved countless lives in the two Venerable-killing battles, the problem was that Han Fei won too easily and too frequently, and he took over the position of supreme commander too quickly. Inevitably, people couldn't accept it quickly.

At this moment, Chu Qing's face was all red because of Han Fei's scolding. He really wanted to kill Han Fei, but just as Han Fei didn't dare to attack him now, he didn't dare to attack him either.

If anyone dared to attack at this moment, as long as he killed or injured a single person, he would become the enemy of the entire Scattered Stars Island.

Han Fei said ruthlessly, "You said that I, Han Fei, can't take over the position of supreme commander. Was this Fei-Yan-Mu Furnace made by your Chu Sect? Were those Sea Clan Venerables killed by your Chu Sect? Have you ever killed a single sea demon since you entered the Scattered Stars Island? You haven't even killed a f*cking King Worm. How do you dare to claim that I, Han Fei, am not qualified to take over this position?"

Chu Qing calmed down a little. He had come out in a rush. Under such circumstances, if he still tried to stop Han Fei with his background, he probably wouldn't succeed.

He used the wrong strategy. Everyone knew that the big clans exploited them, so this exploitation would be considered a tacit agreement. If it wasn't emphasized, at most they would be scolded.

But Han Fei was different. Han Fei had become well-known on the Scattered Stars Island and had made great achievements. Now he was going to be the new supreme commander of the Scattered Stars Island. Han Fei's words carried a lot of weight, which was much more important than his.

Chu Qing immediately issued an order in his heart, and suddenly, a junior Explorer flew to the sky and shouted, "Please forgive me for crossing the line. I am Tian Heng, the head of the Command Center of the Tactical Command. May I say something?"

Han Fei's face immediately changed slightly. He was about to proceed to the next step when this person jumped out and interrupted him. He was definitely up to no good.

He remembered the name Tian Heng. Even if I can't kill you now, I will kill you later.

Xue Shenqi narrowed his eyes. Does Tian Heng work for the big clans?

Xue Shenqi said casually, "Tian Heng, if you have something to say, just say it. But you have to make sure what you said is true."

Tian Heng shouted, "Marshal Xue, don't worry. I have my principles. Han Fei was born on a small island in the Heavenly Water Village in the Blue Sea Town in the 36 towns. Before he was 12 years old, his aptitude was extremely poor. After he was 12 years old, he suddenly became exceptionally talented and coincidentally entered the Thug Academy. Since then, he had been walking very smoothly on the road of cultivation... However, according to all the information I have, there is an invisible hand pushing him behind the scenes. The rumors had it that Han Fei's father is a Venerable and forced Marshal Xue to give up his position. I think it's very likely. This matter has to be investigated from the ancient battlefield..."

This Tian Heng was quite bold. After showing a lot of information, he finally concluded, "Han Fei has a big shot behind him who is extremely strong even among Venerables."

However, Tian Heng didn't say who the big shot was. There was no telling if he didn't find out or if he deliberately didn't say it.

Tian Heng said, "Although Han Fei has made contributions to the Scattered Stars Island, all his contributions and his current character are not enough for him to be the commander of the Scattered Stars Island. Therefore, the Command Center is strongly against Han Fei taking over as the supreme commander."

At this moment, Chu Qing snorted coldly. "What is the person behind Han Fei's back up to? It's unknown whether he is trying to destroy our human race or not."

The entire Scattered Stars Island was dumbfounded by the debate. It was as if they were watching a show. What a horror!

On the Scattered Stars Island, Big Yellow, Jiuyin Ling, and He Xiaoyu were indignant.

Someone shouted, "B*stard, none of the big clans in the Thousand Star City are good."

Big Yellow meowed. "These people deserve to be killed. Han Fei is great. He can cook and send kittens to me..."

There were many discussions elsewhere.

Someone said, "It seems that Han Fei doesn't seem to be a good person!"

Someone sighed. "Then why did Marshal Xue pass on his position to him? Was he really coerced?"

While millions of people were deep in thought and discussing, hundreds of people suddenly soared into the sky.

The leader was Bei Huo, the official leader of the Scattered Stars Fourth Unit.

Bei Huo shouted, "Tian Heng, don't start that messy investigation. Everyone has their own secrets. Among the millions of people here, how many people have secrets? How many people on the Scattered Stars Island are weak?"

Beside Bei Huo, an old man shouted, "I'm Yu Xu, a five-star refiner."

A middle-aged man shouted, "Li Yunfei, a five-star refiner from the Refining Hall of the Central City."

Bei Huo roared, "The people of the Refining Hall know that the Fei-Yan-Mu Furnace is a blessing to all cultivators in all the generations to come. The creation of the Fei-Yan-Mu Furnace subverted the refining techniques of the billions of people in the Thousand Star City and the 36 towns. Isn't this contribution more important than those messy things investigated by the Command Center? Although we refiners are not strong enough, we think the appearance of the Fei-Yan-Mu Furnace is far more important than those big clans."

Immediately, all famous five-star refiners in the hundreds of refining halls shouted, "We'd like Han Fei to be our commander."

Tian Heng still wanted to say something, when Han Fei's voice sounded. "Whether or not you think I'm qualified to be the commander, I am. I'm showing you the ceremony not to make you approve or doubt me. Bei Huo, from today on, the Scattered Stars Island will cut off the supply of weapons and resources for the Thousand Star City, so will the Logistics Division. Those residents of the Thousand Star City who want resources can come to the Scattered Stars Island for duty. The seven major academies of the Thousand Star City shall arrange for batches of students to come to the Scattered Stars Island for trial, and we'll treat them the same as all the front line soldiers. Everyone's life is a life, and no one can be an exception."

Buzz!

Instantly, the void trembled, and Chu Qing, Yang Kun, Ye Kai, Sun Baisheng, and even the others who seemed to be hiding in the void all changed their expressions.

As they expected, it wouldn't do them any good if Han Fei took over as the commander of the Scattered Stars Island.

Now they couldn't enter the level-three fishery at all. It was the territory of Faceless, and any person they met there could be Faceless. With the mask on, Faceless could be anyone. They couldn't even find him. The big clans could no longer gain experience and obtain resources there.

Last time, when the Thug Academy attacked the Thousand Star City, the level-three fishery was also lost, and all the hundred dragon boats fell into the hands of Faceless.

Venerables didn't dare to descend. Otherwise, with Han Guanshu's ability, who could withstand him if he wanted to kill ordinary Venerables?

However, peak-level Venerables and even Half-Kings didn't dare to descend either. If they did, their lair would be destroyed, and they wouldn't even have a place to cry.

Now, with a few words, Han Fei cut off the Thousand Star City's channel to gain resources. How could the big clans still sit still?

Seeing everyone amazed and surprised, Han Fei continued, "From today on, the soldiers on the island have the preferential right to use the best resources and those that can improve the realm."

At this moment, Ye Kai, Yang Kun, and Sun Baisheng all came out, unable to sit still anymore.

Ye Kai asked, "Han Fei, without the help of the big clans, can you defend the Scattered Stars Island?"

Han Fei suddenly looked at Ye Kai. "If you don't, get lost. No one wants to keep you here. Now you want to beg me for mercy? But I don't buy it. If you have what it takes, you big clans can come to the Scattered Stars Island and kill me."

Ye Kai was stunned. Who the f*ck pleaded with you? Are you making this up?

However, how could ordinary people hear the voice transmission of a Venerable? They thought that Ye Kai had really begged for mercy. Instantly, even Chu Qing and the others wanted to tear him apart.

Han Fei looked very righteous at the moment, and his voice resounded in the sky. Ye Kai trembled in anger. He really wanted to kill Han Fei!

Tian Heng wanted to speak again, but Han Fei didn't give him a chance. Han Fei shouted again, "To be frank, I regard the big clans as my enemies. Now that I've taken over the Scattered Stars Island, you won't be able to get even a low-quality pearl on the Scattered Stars Island from now on. The big clans have exploited human beings for thousands of years and accumulated abundant resources, which can only be described with astronomical figures. How can I not know what your intentions are to appear on the Scattered Stars Island? You want to get benefits but don't want to participate in the war. How can there be such a good thing in the world?"

Chu Qing frowned. What does Han Fei mean?

Han Fei immediately shouted, his voice surging like a tide, "From today on, if the Venerables of the Thousand Star City want to stay on the Scattered Stars Island, firstly, they must send out one-third of the explorers in their clans to participate in the battle. Secondly, every family has to submit a certain amount of resources to be qualified to stay. As for the amount, it shall be no less than mine... I have been fighting in the outer sea for more than ten years and have collected some resources, and now I donate all of them to the million soldiers on the Scattered Stars Island..."

No one had expected this. What was the use of your resources on such a huge Scattered Stars Island?

However, Han Fei simply roared, "I'll donate:

Spiritual spring, 5 million kilograms."

When they heard this number, the Venerables didn't take it seriously at all, thinking that Han Fei was too petty.

Han Fei continued,

"50,000 spiritual fruits."

"Semi-Divine materials, 5 million kilograms."

"Huh?"

At this point, everyone below was in an uproar. F*ck, are you measuring the Semi-Divine materials by ten thousand catties?

The Venerables' faces all changed. "Five million kilograms of Semi-Divine materials! Although the materials are not very valuable, their value far exceeds that of five million kilograms of spiritual spring!"

And Han Fei was still continuing...

"Low-quality Divine materials, 1 million kilograms."

"Mid-quality Divine Weapon material, 500,000 kilograms."

"High-quality Divine materials, 100,000 kilograms."

"Heaven-level techniques and combat skills, 102."

The audience was all silent in shock. What was the meaning of this? When did Semi-Divine Weapon become so cheap? And the Divine Weapon-level materials were already measured by ten thousand kilograms?

Also, heaven-level techniques and combat skills?! For real?

Also, were these materials really prioritized for the Scattered Stars Island?

And these resources were only taken out by Han Fei alone?

Chu Qing and the others were already dumbstruck. Although the total amount was still nothing, wasn't this amount of resources a little too much?

And more than 100 heaven-level techniques?! Are you kidding me?

But Han Fei hadn't finished yet. He continued,

"1,242 techniques below the heaven-level."

Han Fei thought for a moment and said, "Well, that's all. Oh, I forgot that I can also provide Spirit Awakening Fluid... Ten million kilograms."

Everyone: "..."

Chapter 1402: Too Eloquent

Not just Chu Qing and the others, even Jing'er was dumbfounded. Where did you get ten million kilograms of Spirit Awakening Fluid?

On the entire Scattered Stars Island, those who could and couldn't see Han Fei... In short, every time Han Fei mentioned a kind of resource, they trembled in shock.

Han Fei had said that he donated all these resources to the million soldiers on the Scattered Stars Island!

What did donate mean? It meant that they were given away for free!

Not to mention the resources that Han Fei was asking the big clans to pay, just the resources that Han Fei donated had already scared these millions of people silly.

The Empyrean Waterfall...

"Meow ~"

Big Yellow was shocked and meowed. "Han Fei is too stingy. He donated ten million kilograms of Spirit Awakening Fluid but only gave me a hundred kilograms? No, I'm going to find him..."

Clatter!

Jiuyin Ling knocked Big Yellow's head with a hand. "Don't bother him. What you asked for is for your cat sons and cat daughters to improve their physique. But Han Fei's resources are for millions of human beings. They can't be wasted."

He Xiaoyu seemed to be used to Han Fei's unusual style, so she was just excited.

However, her teammates were all dumbfounded.

The armorer sighed. "Marshal Han is so domineering! He retorted a Venerable into speechless and forcibly claimed resources from them. He's too domineering."

The manipulator covered her face. "I love him! I love him! Marshal Han is a real hero! And he's so damn rich."

The spirit gatherer swallowed crazily. "I didn't know that a person could be so rich!"

He Xiaoyu spat. "Continue to consolidate your cultivation foundation. We'll return to the team in three days."

"Ahhh!"

...

Outside the central city, Sea God Square.

Under the gaze of millions of people, Han Fei immediately shouted, "Where is the commander of the Logistics Division?"

"Yes! Yes... Marshal Han, I'm here..."

Boom ~

An intermediate Explorer strode over. He was completely dumbfounded just now.

Han Fei said that these resources were accumulated over more than ten years. He had scoffed at it at first... But now, he was overjoyed.

All the resources were reserved for their own use. How could he not be happy that Marshal Han offered such great benefits on his first day in office?

Han Fei saw a fat guy flying over.

When he was on the Scattered Stars Island before, he was still weak. He had seen some ordinary deputy commanders, who could be peak-level Hidden Fishers or Law Enforcers.

However, the leaders of each large division couldn't be weak. Otherwise, what if something big happened?

However, these people generally didn't show up.

After all, the Ten Thousand Demon Valley in the past was actually not strong, and Xue Shenqi didn't really want to completely wipe out the Ten Thousand Demon Valley, but was using the excuse of defending and actually training soldiers.

But now the Ten Thousand Demon Valley was different from before.

And the Scattered Stars Island certainly couldn't lag behind!

However, in comparison, even if all the high-level forces of the Scattered Stars Island were deployed, they were still much weaker than the Ten Thousand Demon Valley.

The man flew close and shouted, "I am the inspector of the Logistics Division, Wang Lin. Greetings, Marshal Han."

Han Fei looked at him casually and shouted, "Wang Lin, lead the commanders, deputy commanders, and important members of the four Logistics Divisions on the Scattered Stars Island to cross-check the resources I donated and put them into warehouses in batches. If any mistake is made, you'll be subject to punishment."

Wang Lin shouted, "Yes, Master Han, if anything goes wrong with this batch of supplies, I, Wang Lin, will definitely cut my own head off."

Han Fei said again, "Wang Lin, remember my words. Even if the amount of the resources the big clans submit is one low-quality pearl less than the resources I donated, tell me."

Wang Lin sweated. What else could he do except for saying yes?

Compared to the big clans, he was more interested in the resources in front of him. He had seen a lot of money!

Were the resources Han Fei donated much?

Of course, there were a lot of them, but it was not enough to make Wang Lin excited.

What really shocked Wang Lin was the amount of Spirit Awakening Fluid Han Fei had. How many Undersea Chimneys had he robbed?

Even the reserve of Spirit Awakening Fluid at the peak of the Scattered Stars Island was not as many as ten million kilograms!

Just the Thirty-Six Towns and the Thousand Star City alone consumed a total of 2 million catties of Spirit Awakening Fluid every year. In addition to the daily exchange consumption of the Scattered Stars Island, the amount of Spirit Awakening Fluid consumed each year was as much as 5 million catties. Therefore, every year, they had to compete for the Undersea Chimneys.

But Han Fei had casually thrown out the amount required in two years, which was a shocking amount!

However, only the Venerables knew that the Spirit Awakening Fluid was nothing more than sea water containing the Dao runes. It wasn't anything good.

However, people in different realms had different visions.

Spirit Awakening Fluid was basically a treasure for people below the law enforcer realm.

And Han Fei thought to himself, Ten million kilograms, only ten Sea Swallowing Seashells. I still have more than 90 Sea Swallowing Seashells.

At this time, Han Fei looked at Tian Heng. "Humph, Tian Heng, do you still think I'm greedy? Do I deserve to be the commander?"

Tian Heng was already sweating. F*ck, is Han Fei crazy to donate so many resources? And where did you get so much money?

Tian Heng gritted his teeth. If Han Fei wanted to win people's support with money, he had already succeeded. He could almost imagine what the million soldiers on the Scattered Stars Island would think seeing him donate so many resources for free.

He couldn't say it was wrong for Han Fei to donate so many resources. If he still blocked the way of the millions of soldiers, he would probably be torn apart by the gazes of countless people.

Tian Heng gritted his teeth. "I will keep an eye on this matter."

Han Fei sneered. "Who do you think you are? When is your turn to keep an eye on it? The Command Center is in charge of commanding battles not supervising. Everybody knows where I am from. You just need to behave yourself."

Then, Han Fei shouted, "Where is Zhang Teng from Scattered Stars Prison?"

"I'm here."

Zhang Teng flew to the sky and bowed his head. "Marshal Han."

Han Fei grunted a response and said, "Transmit my order, the Scattered Stars Island will have a new unit, which is called the Supervision Unit. You can investigate everyone on the Scattered Stars Island, from me to any ordinary soldier. As for the position of the Scattered Stars Prison's warden, you'll be in charge for now."

Zhang Teng's heart did a flip. F*ck, why me? Doing this job will easily offend people. You son of a b * tch, you must be taking revenge on me.

Zhang Teng could only say, "Yes, Marshal Han."

This scene made Han Fei look selfless.

A new unit was set up to supervise the entire island. Besides, the big shot of the Scattered Stars Prison would be in charge of this new unit. Who wouldn't believe it?

Tian Heng's face alternated between green and red, and he could only step back.

Han Fei's move was really effective!

How could Zhang Teng, who was in charge of the Scattered Stars Prison, be simple? How could he have been in charge of the Scattered Stars Prison for so long if he wasn't capable?

Han Fei solved all the questions that Tian Heng raised with one move. When the questions turned into suspicion and died down, there would only be gossip left, which would become an extremely mysterious topic in the carnival shops and derive various strange stories.

After sending Tian Heng away, Han Fei looked at Chu Qing and the others with a cold face and said crossly, "Now please send someone back to inform your clans. If the resources are not delivered in three days, please leave the Scattered Stars Island! And the Scattered Stars Island will have nothing to do with the big clans of the Thousand Star City!"

Han Fei looked at Chu Qing with a smile, knowing that it was impossible for them to retreat.

The remains of a king were like the Sea Quelling Painting and the entrance to the Heavenly Palace. In their eyes, they were extremely important, far from what so-called resources could compare to.

Even if these big clans went back on their word and became public enemies, they would definitely take action. In that case, they had to give him the resources. If they didn't, they would become the public enemies of the entire Scattered Stars Island and the 36 towns. After all, the supply of the Scattered Stars Island and the 36 towns would remain unchanged and might even increase.

Besides, once the Scattered Stars Island completely disowned the Thousand Star City, all the resources that should have flowed into the Thousand Star City would go to the 36 towns.

In the long run, the foundation of the 36 towns would only become stronger and stronger. And the ordinary people of the Thousand Star City could come to the Scattered Stars Island through selection. Only the strength of the big clans would decline.

Even the big clans had a lot of Star Beads. However, the Star Bead secret realm was only suitable for exploration. How could it be as valuable as the Scattered Stars Island?

Yang Kun shouted, "Han Fei, if we leave and the sea demons attack again, how can you resist them?"

Because Ye Kai had been tricked by Han Fei just now, Yang Kun didn't dare to speak telepathically anymore and simply said it out loud.

However, the people of the Yang family were simple-minded and brawny. So what if they had become Venerables? Han Fei had never taken them seriously.

Han Fei's voice echoed between the heavens and earth, "The big clans didn't make any contributions to the Scattered Stars Island. In the battle at the Sea of Pearls yesterday, Sun Baisheng failed to hold back the Sea Demon Venerable and almost caused immeasurable losses. If you can't do anything, what's the use of keeping you?"

Sun Baisheng's face flushed red. "The enemy is too strong. It's normal that I was caught off guard and failed to hold him back."

Han Fei suddenly burst into fury. "Shut up. Tens of thousands of people were almost killed because of your carelessness. Who dares to use you? There are many strong masters in the big clans in the Thousand Star City. Which family doesn't have an intermediate Venerable? Why did they send you over? If I take action, I can kill you with three punches. How do you deserve to be called a Venerable?"

Han Fei's voice rumbled and shook the world.

On the field, countless people felt their blood boil as they listened.

Sure enough, those who could become a marshal were all extraordinary figures. Han Fei, as an Explorer, wanted to kill a Venerable with three punches. F*ck, wasn't this a fantasy?

However, everyone believed him, even including Sun Baisheng. He didn't dare to answer Han Fei's question, fearing that Han Fei would fight him to the death.

Someone below said, "Exactly. How does he have the nerve to call himself a Venerable? He almost killed countless people."

Han Fei sneered. "The big clans are too weak compared to the seven major sects in the Thousand Star City. In the battle yesterday, Patriarch Six Swords, Elder Bingyun, and Venerable Sword tried their best to protect the territory of the Scattered Stars Island and made the sea demon Venerable unable to go any inch further. They were much more useful than you guys!"

With that said, Han Fei smiled and said, "I'd like to cooperate with the seven major sects. Patriarch Six Swords, please inform the seven major sects. If they're interested, we can help each other."

Watching Han Fei use strategies skillfully, Xue Shenqi nodded slightly.

Han Fei had completely turned the big clans into villains. At the same time, he tried to rope in the seven sects to completely isolate the big clans!

Patriarch Six Swords, Elder Bingyun, and Jian Sanqing looked at each other and felt that it was possible. By doing that, not only could the strong masters of the seven sects enter the island, but they could also be on good terms with Han Fei. Why not?

Originally, the relationship between the seven major sects and the Thug Academy wasn't that bad.

Besides, Han Fei had a deep relationship with the Heavenly Sword Sect. Now that Han Fei was in charge of the Scattered Stars Island, shouldn't he be friendly to the seven major sects?

Instantly, Patriarch Six Swords walked out of the void and said seriously, "Alright. In at most a day, the seven sects will definitely send an envoy."

Han Fei nodded slightly. "That's good."

In the distant void, Ning Jing watched this scene the entire time and couldn't help patting her chest. She was startled. Han Fei could handle so many Venerables?

What a glib tongue he had! These Venerables combined couldn't beat him in eloquence...

Chapter 1403: Power of Will

Looking at Chu Qing and the others who were like clowns, Han Fei sneered in his heart. I may have a little problem, but so what? I have money to burn!

Being rich and generous was different from being rich but stingy.

Although the big clans had a massive amount of resources, they also had many children! The resources needed to nurture an excellent child were countless, let alone such a big family.

Therefore, in the big clans, resource allocation was firmly controlled by the people in the center of power.

But what about Han Fei? If he was full, his whole family wouldn't be hungry. If he had too much money, he would find it a burden! If that thing hadn't been a resource, he wouldn't be interested at all now.

The Spirit Awakening Fluid was useless to him now.

If he hadn't been afraid that throwing out a hundred million kilograms of Spirit Awakening Fluid would scare away the big clans and even cause others to covet it, Han Fei might have thrown it all out.

In the past, when he was blackmailing the big clans, Han Fei was too reserved. Ten thousand spiritual fruits and million kilograms of spiritual spring were simply nothing for the big clans.

In that case, he should be ruthless today!

Han Fei thought to himself, I have to take care of this matter personally. Whoever gives fewer resources won't be allowed to come to the Scattered Stars Island. If they come, I'll kill them, kill them openly.

Chu Qing gnashed his teeth. "Han Fei, you're good..."

Han Fei said in disdain, "Of course! Do I need you to comment on whether I'm good or not? Also, don't call my name next time. Please call me Marshal Han..."

"Hmph!"

Chu Qing tore open the void and slipped away.

As Venerables, Chu Qing and the others had never thought that one day they would be so humiliated!

When he left, he thought to himself, Just wait! I'll definitely avenge myself!

However, Chu Qing and the others lived in a different environment from Han Fei. It was impossible for them to beat Han Fei in eloquence.

After they left, Han Fei spoke again in a thunderous voice, "Now that I've succeeded the throne, I dare not let Xue Shuai down. I'll do my best to repay the human race."

After a pause, Han Fei continued, "The materials that I donated just now shall be classified by the Logistics Division in three days and distributed to the various units below. This matter is supervised by everyone on the island. Whoever embezzles will be executed."

Buzz!

At this time, the millions of people were refreshed. F*ck, what kind of efficiency is this? In three days, such a huge amount of resources would be distributed?

Wang Lin's face immediately darkened. F*ck, how can we handle this? Are you forcing us to die? In three days?!

However, efficiency was the most important when a big war was imminent. On second thought, Wang Lin decided to do it himself.

Immediately, Wang Lin said, "Marshal Han, I'd like to ask you to give me the resources immediately so that I can make preparations."

Han Fei was satisfied with Wang Lin's reaction and immediately nodded. "Okay. However, this is a huge amount of resources. Count them in front of my eyes! After counting them, put them into the warehouse."

Wang Lin smiled bitterly in his heart. Han Fei just wants to show off. But what can I do except for saying yes?

Immediately, Wang Lin shouted, "All members of the Logistics Division, come and assist me. Everyone, please make way..."

Han Fei casually waved his hand, and a million spiritual springs and tens of thousands of spiritual fruits floated in the sky. It was like spiritual springs hanging upside down and spiritual fruits flying all over the sky like stars, dazzling everyone's eyes.

When the Spirit Awakening Fluid fell like a waterfall, many people couldn't stand it anymore.

Xue Shenqi was speechless. Why do you have to do this? Do you have to make it seem like you bought the position?

Han Fei seemed to feel it wasn't good either. He casually threw out a bunch of Sea Swallowing Seashells. "Well! Take your time to sort them out."

"Silence!"

While the members of the Logistics Division were organizing the supplies, the million soldiers below were discussing telepathically or in small voices.

Hearing Han Fei's words, they immediately stopped discussing, waiting to hear what Han Fei was going to say.

Han Fei's voice became resounding. "Soldiers, as you know, the sea demons have been getting stronger and stronger recently. After repeated confirmation by Marshal Xue and me, we can speculate that the legendary Sea Demon Royal City has appeared."

"Huh?"

"Hiss!"

"What? Sea Demon Royal City?"

Immediately, the entire Scattered Stars Island fell into an uproar.

Even Wang Lin and the others who were counting the resources were stunned.

Someone was puzzled. "Where is the Sea Demon Royal City?"

Someone was stunned. "The Royal City? It's said that it's a very strong force behind the sea demons!"

Someone said solemnly, "In the past, Heavenly Talents from the Sea Demon Royal City appeared from time to time, but no one can confirm it for sure. Has it really been confirmed this time?"

Han Fei said, "Recently, you may have discovered that there are more and more strong masters on the Scattered Stars Island. Even Venerables have appeared. This is unheard of in the past. As for the sea demons, as many as 20 sea demons in the Dao Seeking realm have died at my hands, as well as two Venerables. It can be seen that the number of sea demon strong masters is rapidly increasing."

Immediately, someone exclaimed, "What should we do? Is a big war about to break out?"

Someone cursed, "No, a war has already broken out."

Someone sighed. "No wonder, no wonder there have been more and more big battles over the past few months."

Someone was dumbfounded. "It was already not easy for humans before. Now that the sea demons have become so strong, can we still resist them?"

When the million soldiers panicked, Han Fei shouted again, "Everyone, don't panic. The sea demons are getting stronger, but we humans have strong masters too. Although the sea demons are strong, they can't be endless. In the past wars, we humans always won! It was like this in the past and will be the same in the future. I'm telling you this because I'm going to do something big. Although I can decide this matter myself, I still need to respect your opinions."

Everyone heard that the supreme commander wanted to ask for their opinion? This Han Fei looked very democratic!

Some people guessed, What is the matter that even Han Fei dares not decide it on his own?

In the midst of the discussion, Han Fei said, "Soldiers from the 36 towns, how many of you didn't know the existence of this place until you came to the Scattered Stars Island? How many of you still have families waiting for you after you die? How many of you quietly contribute, but no one knows...? I understand you because I'm also from the 36 towns. Like many of you, I'm from the same hometown as you. Just like you, I've gone on an adventure in the level-one fishery, level-two fishery, and level-three fishery, boarded a dragon boat, and explored the secret realms..."

With a few casual words, Han Fei separated the soldiers of the Thousand Star City from the people of the 36 towns, because most of the soldiers of the Thousand Star City didn't feel this way.

Besides, the people in the Thousand Star City had always known about the Scattered Stars Island, which was kept a secret only to the 36 towns.

Why? Because the 36 towns were too weak and not many strong masters were born there. Most people hoped that the people of the 36 towns could live in peace and pursue strength in peace.

Therefore, when Han Fei said this, countless people felt the same.

Someone laughed. "I won first place in the resource competition in my village. At that time, I was the pride of our entire village."

Someone clicked his tongue and said, "You might not believe it even if I told you. When I boarded the dragon boat for the first time, I was so scared that I almost peed my pants. I was shocked that there was such a huge ship in this world!"

Someone sighed. "When I think about the past, although there were dangers back then, there were also thrills. Adventure, treasure hunting, becoming stronger, everything was simple..."

Amidst the exclamations,

Han Fei said, "Everyone, after discussing with Marshal Xue, I think that it's time for me to tell the people in the 36 towns about the Scattered Stars Island. We should let them know that their comfortable life was created by you in the front line. We'll let them know that the Spirit Awakening Fluid they used for spiritual awakening and the weapons they used for adventuring were obtained by you with your flesh and blood. Now that the Sea Demon Royal City invades, the entire human race is in danger. They need to be vigilant."

Instantly, many people fell silent. This question was actually quite perplexing.

Although deep in their hearts, they really hoped that others knew what they were doing on the Scattered Stars Island, in the Thirty-Six Towns, their life was so peaceful! Such a beautiful life was broken just like that? Reveal a bloody world to them? How cruel was that?

But when many people were silent, the people from the Thousand Star City said matter-of-factly, "Isn't this how it should be? I used to say that there is nothing to hide about the existence of the Scattered Stars Island. When a person dies, we don't even dare to tell how he died but lies that he was eaten by a powerful fish in adventuring? Hahaha..."

An ordinary person from the Thousand Star City said, "We're killing enemies outside, so our children at home are motivated to work hard to cultivate. We've been weaving them into a beautiful dream. What will happen to them if this dream is broken?"

Instantly, the millions of people and all the ordinary people from the Thousand Star City felt that it was a matter of course.

Half of the people from the 36 towns actually wanted to tell the truth to the people in the 36 towns. However, as for the other half, most of them had families and were very conflicted. They might not want their families to worry about them.

Han Fei said, "What I hope is that even if you die, your family, your children, your friends... Everyone will know that you are real heroes, heroes who have fought for the continuation of the human race."

Han Fei's voice echoed, "I hope that there is trust and hope behind each of you. If you don't die, you will become their heroes. If you die, you will motivate them to move forward."

Instantly, many people looked up at Han Fei.

Suddenly, someone shouted, "I agree. The Scattered Stars Island should tell the truth to the 36 towns."

The people from the Thousand Star City naturally agreed. This was a matter of course in their eyes, so at this moment, they also agreed.

With someone taking the lead, the situation immediately became one-sided.

The deafening cheers echoed in the sky above the Sea God Square.

The voices of millions of soldiers echoed, "We agree to inform the 36 towns of the Scattered Stars Island."

When the million people were united, a strange power seemed to suddenly emerge between the heavens and earth, which was drilling into Han Fei's body.

Han Fei felt it most clearly. This was not human energy or will, but a strange and gentle power. Once it entered his body, it would dissipate.

Han Fei's eyes glittered. He sensed it.

This was... Power of Will!

Chapter 1404: A New Reform

Han Fei was not overwhelmed by this Power of Will. As early as when he decided to succeed the position of supreme commander, he had already thought about some things.

The Thirty-Six Towns were no weaker than the Thousand Star City, just like the former City of Justice. Anyone in any village could go to the City of Justice and accept missions there.

There was no such thing as the people in the main city being stronger than the people in the villages. They were all ordinary in body and could all cultivate. Whether they could succeed in the path of cultivation depended on themselves.

For the first time, Han Fei had a true wish in his heart. He wanted to open a passage between the 36 towns and the Thousand Star City. He wanted to wipe out all the big clans in the Thousand Star City.

Furthermore, Han Fei wanted to change the relationship between the academies in Thousand Star City and in the 36 towns. If they were all academies, why couldn't they recruit students from the entire world with a fixed score?

When the Thousand Star City and the 36 towns were completely connected, the world would be truly unified.

After exchanging a glance with Xue Shenqi, Han Fei said to him via voice transmission, "What I care about is the future of the entire human race."

Xue Shenqi said solemnly, "Of course, or I would've objected to it."

While the crowd was cheering, Han Fei held the rod in his hand and raised it high. "Now that I've succeeded the throne, I don't want to see you risk your lives for human beings anymore. The leaders of the Trans-Island Inspectors and the Law Enforcement Team, come out."

Buzz! Buzz!

He saw two figures rushing over from a distance.

"I'm Meng Liang from the Trans-Island Inspectors. Nice to meet you, Marshal Han."

"I'm the inspector of the Law Enforcement Team. Nice to meet you, Marshal Han."

Han Fei shouted, "The two of you, from today onwards, check all the soldiers on the island. Anyone who is seriously injured or disabled shall remove their armors and return to their hometowns. Arrange jobs for them in their hometowns. For anyone who is below the Law Enforcer level and has fought on the Scattered Stars Island for more than eight years, if you want to stay on the Scattered Stars Island, you'll have to submit an application. Only after approval can you stay..."

Hum...

The crowd was in an uproar.

Someone was stunned. He met the requirements to return to his hometown, but what could he do after he went back?

Someone immediately shouted, "Marshal Han, I'm not going back. The Scattered Stars Island has already become our home. We're not leaving."

"We're not leaving."

Even the guardian soldiers shouted, "We're not leaving..."

Han Fei smiled bitterly. This discharge was a bit tricky! These people were used to risking their lives here. If they went home, they wouldn't be able to sleep well.

However, Han Fei's voice rumbled like thunder and he shouted, "The situation on the Scattered Stars Island is about to be announced to the Thirty-Six Towns. Do you want me to give an order and forcibly inform them? The Scattered Stars Island, the Unknown Place in their eyes, is a mysterious and sacred place. I can personally break their illusions. However, it can't be too abrupt and violent. I need you to tell them the history of heroes, the epic battles and the legendary tales on the Scattered Stars Island... You're heroes of the human race. What can stop you from returning home?"

Someone roared, "Marshal Han, I've already got no family left. Are we just going back to tell stories?"

"Yes! Do we have to make up stories?"

"I'm not going back."

Han Fei felt a strong headache and immediately shouted again, "If you insist on staying, write an application to stay. You have to know that if you don't retreat, how can the newcomers come up? Every generation has new talents emerging. The Scattered Stars Island in the future will be a battlefield, a place of flames of the war. Besides, the 36 towns need your encouragement..."

In the crowd, someone didn't listen at all and shouted, "I'm not going back!"

Pa!

Someone immediately slapped his head. "Shut up, idiot. I remember you have a son. Do you want your son to not even know if his father is still alive?"

A captain-level powerhouse cursed, "Marshal Han is merciful. Don't f*cking bark like crazy. If you don't want to return home, write an application. F*ck, others can't even get the chance to go back but you don't want it? I really want to kick you to death."

Meng Liang and Zhou Tianfang smiled bitterly. This task is f*cking tricky!

But Han Fei didn't care. After issuing this rather disputed order, Han Fei finally took Xue Shenqi's thirteen-star token. After he spent a huge sum of resources and fell out with the big clans of the Thousand Star City, he finally became the new marshal.

...

On the same day.

The entire Scattered Stars Island was undergoing a thorough reform. Han Fei's more than 100 heaven-level combat skills and cultivation techniques, as well as more than 1,000 combat skills and cultivation techniques below heaven-level, attracted the attention of everyone below the Explorer level.

Because the Logistics Division needed to sort out the resources, the Logistics Division's resource exchange window was drastically decreased by 90%.

As for those cultivation techniques, they were copied immediately and spread out. But no matter what, the original copies had to be kept in the Logistics Division in the Central City.

The squares inside and outside of the four Logistics Divisions in the east, west, south, and north was already overcrowded.

Someone shouted, "Haha, the Water-Stirring Seal Technique is too powerful. Once this technique is used, the seal technique may become a trend."

Someone scoffed. "That's bulls * it. The Water-Stirring Seal Technique is nothing at all. This War Soul Art is a heaven-level high-quality bow technique. It's really strong."

Someone sighed. "Although the War Soul Art is powerful, the spiritual energy it consumes is too terrifying. What kind of guy can shoot all the arrows?"

Someone laughed and scolded, "What do you know? Don't just be attracted by the big destructive combat skills. This Flying Fish Technique is a heaven-level high-quality movement technique. If I can master this technique, I can kill two sea demons of the same level as me alone."

Many people exclaimed, "All of you are wrong. Look at the 108 Spirit-Absorbing War Bodies. It's a demon-level divine-quality body refining technique. This is the only divine-quality body refining technique donated by Marshal Han. It's said that Marshal Han personally practiced it. Its rarity is unparalleled on the Scattered Stars Island."

At this moment, in the crowd, several people were smiling bitterly in the garden outside of the Logistics Division.

A short-haired girl said, "So, he used to practice this technique. Li Hanyi, do you still want to compete with him?"

Li Hanyi was Li Hanyi from the Blue Sea Town. He used to be a Heavenly Talent of the Blue Sea Town, but now he seemed to be mediocre.

At this moment, Li Hanyi heaved a long sigh. "I don't want to compete with him. But this 108 Spirit-Absorbing War Bodies technique appeared too late. I can't use it now, neither can you, Xiang Zuozuo. Han Fei probably wants someone to send this technique back to the 36 towns."

This was what countless people sighed about. Body tempering was not like other arts. If one didn't polish his physique in every realm, the further he went, the more difficult it became. No matter how hard he tried, he couldn't make up for his weak foundation.

Of course, if there were special opportunities, it was possible. However, there were not so many special opportunities in the world. After all, only a few people would encounter them.

In the crowd, another person was standing at the gate of the Logistics Division in the south of the city, looking absent-minded.

Lin Wu looked at the 108 Spirit-Absorbing War Bodies and was a little tranced. In the past five or six years, she had cultivated diligently, passed through many secret realms, and experienced thousands of disasters. Finally, she came to the Scattered Stars Island two months ago.

When she first came to the Scattered Stars Island, Lin Wu was shocked by the strong masters here. To a rookie like her who had just entered the Scattered Stars Island, almost everyone here had a higher realm than her.

But Lin Wu was confident of her potential. In just five or six years, she had continuously broken through the three realms of great fishing master, Dangling Fisher, and Hanging Fisher. This was because in her life, there once appeared a different person, her master who liked to eat barbecue.

Lin Wu stared at the 108 Spirit-Absorbing War Bodies in a daze, wondering, "Is Marshal Han my senior brother?"

Lin Wu never thought that Han Fei was actually her master. After all, her master once said that he walked in the world and had no fixed residence. Lin Wu felt that such a figure was at least stronger than those so-called Venerables. In any case, he was definitely stronger than Han Fei.

Lin Wu frowned, thinking to herself that this senior brother was really unreliable. He even provided the great techniques passed down by her master to everyone in the world for free.

However, she didn't blame Han Fei. She was still too weak now. Perhaps she couldn't see the problem that Senior Brother saw. Since Senior Brother did this, he must have a reason.

With this in mind, Lin Wu felt at ease. She just needed to cultivate harder. Her goal was never the Scattered Stars Island. But now, she had to grow on the Scattered Stars Island. She had already planned a growth path for herself. Her first step was to be able to walk a thousand miles away from the coastline.

...

The island was busy and bustling. On the second day after Han Fei took over as the supreme commander, people from the seven major academies came.

Among the people who came this time, there was an acquaintance of Han Fei, Mu Tianfang from the Heavenly Sword Sect.

Mu Tianfang was still a peak-level Explorer, but today, Han Fei discovered that Mu Tianfang was actually a Half-Venerable.

Besides, judging from Mu Tianfang's vigorous Qi and control of strength, Han Fei felt that Mu Tianfang was very likely suppressing his realm.

Four Venerables and fourteen Explorers came from the seven major sects in total.

Among them, except for Jian Sanqing, Patriarch Six Swords, and Elder Bingyun who were already here, there was also the Fire Moon Fairy from the Sea Tower.

Death Door Sect, Origin Returning Peak, and Mountain Sea Pavilion didn't send out any Venerables but only explorers. There was no telling if they had no Venerables or the Venerables didn't want to come.

This force was neither weak nor strong.

These four, plus Xue Shenqi, himself, and the hidden Elder Chen, now there were seven Venerables on the island.

With Old Han and Ning Jing as his trump cards, they definitely wouldn't appear for nothing. This also meant that no matter what happened, the combat power of these seven people was probably the limit he could use now.

On the big clans' side, even if they brought resources over and sent someone over, their people wouldn't take the battles seriously because their goal was not defending the island but for the corpse of the king.

At this moment, Han Fei said, "You should understand what I mean. No matter what happens on the Scattered Stars Island, the big clans are now monstrously powerful and have countless resources. They are our common enemies. If the big clans obtain the Empyrean Waterfall, the consequences can be imagined. You can think about it."

Mu Tianfang looked at the awe-inspiring Han Fei and thought to himself, It's only been a few years. Tang Ge has only just entered the advanced Sea Spirit Realm, which is already shockingly fast. But Han Fei is already capable of slaughtering Venerables. It's really incredible.

Mu Tianfang said, "We know about the big clans, but we need to confirm one thing.. The students of the seven major sects have to be treated equally... Besides, the resources given to us need to be doubled."

Chapter 1405: Take Off Armor and Return Home (1)

"Impossible!"

Han Fei said, "Uncle Mu, what you want is too much. Only four Venerables came, and you require double the resources. If each of the seven major academies sends one Venerable over, what's the difference between you and the big clans? I can give you 50% more. Among them, 20% shall be distributed among the common people, and the rest won't change."

In the past, if the Scattered Stars Island produced ten portions of resources, more than five of them would flow to the Thousand Star City, four would be digested by the Scattered Stars Island, and only less than one would go to the 36 towns.

As for the more than five portions that flowed into the Thousand Star City, the big clans and the seven major sects would almost occupy all of these resources. This led to the ordinary people in the Thousand Star City not obtaining many resources. If they wanted to get resources, they had to attach to the big clans.

This was just like the Thousand Star Proving Ground. Most of the Star Beads were controlled by the big clans and the seven major sects. Where could ordinary people go? If they weren't attached to large families or sects, they had nowhere to go.

And now, the share of the big clans had been directly canceled by Han Fei. Therefore, three of the five portions of resources were saved, which Han Fei planned to give to the 36 towns. How could he give them to others so easily?

Mu Tianfang, as the representative of the major sects, was about to say something when Han Fei said, "Uncle Mu, there's no need to say anything else. This is a life-or-death moment for the human race. Let's talk about it when the sea demon disaster is over. At this critical moment, we have to resist the invaders and consider the continuation of human beings. Don't bother with trivial matters such as resources."

Han Fei didn't give Mu Tianfang a chance to speak at all.

You're already here. If you leave, it'll be equivalent to falling out with us. Once you leave, you'll be a sinner to all mankind. The seven sects will be reduced to the same level of reputation as the big clans.

Mu Tianfang and the others exchanged looks.

Han Fei was in the prime of his life, and his style of doing things was extremely domineering. If they annoyed him now, it would affect the relationship with him.

Mu Tianfang took a deep breath. "Okay! We can talk about this after this disaster is over. However, Han Fei, we have to remind you that if the Sea Demon Royal City really appears, the number of strong masters will be several times more than mine... If the big clans really don't help, we seven sects dare not take action casually. Otherwise, the strength of the seven sects will suffer a heavy loss and the big clans will dominate."

Han Fei grinned and said, "It doesn't matter. The big clans will definitely send many people over. Just wait and see!"

...

Thirty-Six Towns, Wind Thunder Town.

While Han Fei received the seven major sects and met with the strong masters and leaders of the Scattered Stars Island, someone suddenly walked out of the teleportation array in the Wind Thunder Town.

And that array was a teleportation array leading to the Unknown Place.

Immediately, the guards of the Wind Thunder Town shouted, "A lord has returned from the Unknown Place!"

Immediately, seven or eight guards rushed in, and the leading guard hurriedly said, "Greetings, my lord. The mayor has instructed that any lord who returns from the Unknown Place is an esteemed guest! Would you like to take a rest in our Wind Thunder Town? The mayor may come to receive you in person."

Looking at this strange yet familiar place, You Lingyun narrowed her eyes and shook her head. "No, there are still many people behind. Which teleportation array leads to the Cloud Soaring Town?"

"Huh? Cloud Soaring Town?"

The guard said, "My lord, wait a moment. Our mayor will come soon."

Buzz!

Immediately, a suppressing pressure fell on them, and they all fell to the ground.

You Lingyun asked intimidatingly, "Which teleportation array leads to the Cloud Soaring Town?"

The guard leader almost peed his pants. He couldn't move at all just because of the suppressing power? This lord is so strong!

He hurriedly said, "My lord, the teleportation array at the end of the left-hand corner is it."

You Lingyun calmed down and walked to the teleportation array without hesitation.

For her, she had no family left and had no one to worry about, so she had never been willing to return.

For her, Wu Xiaoxiao was the only one worth remembering.

This time, You Lingyun listened to Han Fei and came back to take a rest. In fact, she just came back to visit Wu Xiaoxiao. She would still return to the Scattered Stars Island and join in the final battle .

Buzz!

You Lingyun stepped into the teleportation array without hesitation and disappeared in the next moment.

Only then did the guards get up from the ground in a panic.

The leader of the guards roared, "Hurry up, inform the mayor that a top powerhouse has returned from the Unknown Place."

After about ten minutes, the person who sent the message hadn't returned. However, the teleportation array in the Unknown Place lit up again.

Buzz!

Buzz!

Buzz!

Immediately, five or six people walked out.

In a moment, another dozen people appeared from the array.

The leader of the guards was dumbfounded. What... What the hell is going on? He was supposed to happily receive the strong and try to keep them in the Wind Thunder Town, but what happened today? The teleportation array that only flashed once every ten days or half a month suddenly spat out a dozen people?

However...

Buzz buzz buzz!

One figure after another appeared in front of the teleportation array. Before the guards went up to ask, hundreds of people had already appeared from the array.

“Hiss!”

The guard leader thought to himself, “Oh, something big must have happened. Why have the strong masters from the Unknown Place returned in batches?”

The people who appeared in front of the array looked sad.

Among them, someone sighed. “How long has it been since I left? This is the Wind Thunder Town, right?”

An armorist looked at the guard. “Hey! Are you the guards of the Wind Thunder Town’s teleportation field?”

“Yes, my lord.”

The armorist said, “Go call more people over to direct us to return home...”

The guard: “???”

Buzz—

More and more people came out of the teleportation array. After only a moment, there were already five or six hundred people, causing the entire teleportation hall to become noisy.

“Son of a b * tch! I’ve already submitted an application, but I’m still kicked out. Why? It’s so boring in the village...”

“Heh! What’s the point of submitting an application? I used my connections, but it was still useless. They said that I had been in the front line for too long and needed to come back to rest. Why would I need to rest?”

Someone shouted, “We are not weak. If we leave just like that, won’t the combat power there be weakened?”

Someone sighed. “Even you can think of it. Can’t Marshal Han? Maybe he has a solution! Although it’s for our own good, I really don’t want to come back!”

“Hey! It doesn’t matter. At most, I’ll rest for a while and have a few idle days. Then I’ll go back. Hey, anyone here? Why is there no one guiding us?”

“Yes! The teleportation hall of the Wind Thunder Town is too poorly guarded. Why are there so few people in such an important place?”

Someone shouted, “Hey! You, yes, yes, I’m calling you guys. Why are you still standing there? Come here and tell me which teleportation array leads to Million Gold Town? I’ve forgotten about it.”

Someone said, “Come here, boy. Don’t be afraid. Come here. Tell me, which teleportation array leads to Peace Town?”

The guards were already dumbfounded. What the f*ck is this? Thousands of people have come out. Did something happen in the Unknown Place? Why are they all back?

More terrifyingly, the aura of any random person made them panic.

Even the old soldiers who had lost a leg or a hand had a murderous aura, which made their hearts skip a beat.

“Humph! Shut up, all of you! I’m He Laoliu, the deputy commander of the law enforcement team. You guys are too noisy!”

He Laoliu’s roar immediately made everyone’s voices weaken.

Then, He Laoliu grinned at a guard and said, “Boy, come here. Each of you, write the name of a town on a fish skin map and stand at the corresponding teleportation array.”

Plop!

The guard leader almost fell to his knees. “My, my lords, this matter is serious. Please wait for the mayor of the Wind Thunder Town to come...”

“Hahaha!”

Everybody laughed.

Someone said, “Master He, stop scaring them. Let’s wait!”

He Laoliu was speechless. “Am I scary? I’m such a gentle person. Why do you think I am scary?”

At this moment, someone appeared in the teleportation hall with a swish. This person was not weak and had reached the peak of the law enforcer realm. He was the mayor of the Wind Thunder Town, Xu Xin.

As soon as Xu Xin heard that something happened in the teleportation field, he immediately came.

However, this scene stunned him. When he arrived, there were already nearly 5,000 people waiting here. There were so many people that some had to wait outside the hall.

These people were of varying strength.

Some were only Hanging Fishers, and some were Law Enforcers. However, there were very few Law Enforcers. Most of them were physically disabled. If they weren’t, they could be treated on the Scattered Stars Island.

Han Fei didn’t treat them personally. Otherwise, none of these people would be willing to leave.

Xu Xin’s face changed slightly and he shouted in a low voice, “All guards, retreat ten kilometers away from here. Don’t come here without my permission.”

Xu Xin released his aura, but how could the strength of one person compare to the strength of a thousand people? The people who had returned from the Scattered Stars Island were all full of murderous aura. No one would flinch.

After the guards left, Xu Xin asked solemnly, "May I ask what happened on the Scattered Stars Island? Why did you come back in groups?"

Immediately, He Laoliu stood out. "Sir, under the order of the new supreme commander of the Scattered Stars Island, Marshal Han, we will return to our hometowns. May I ask the mayor to arrange for someone to lead the way for us?"

Xu Xin's face suddenly changed. "Ah? Did something happen to Marshal Xue Shenqi?"

Someone immediately shouted, "Of course not. Since you're the mayor of the Wind Thunder Town, we can tell you. Now that the situation on the Scattered Stars Island has changed. The Sea Demon Royal City has emerged. The new marshal, Han Fei, is very powerful. He killed two sea demon Venerables in a row, killed more than 20 Dao Seeking greater demons, and has succeeded as the supreme commander of the Scattered Stars Island..."

Xu Xin was stunned. F*ck, this is too much information...

Killed two sea demon Venerables in a row? When did sea demons have Venerables?

Also, the name Han Fei sounded familiar. He somehow felt he had heard this name.

Xu Xin suddenly realized. It seemed that the sky had changed...

Chapter 1406: Take Off Armor and Return Home (2)

For three consecutive days, the teleportation field of the Wind Thunder Town was overcrowded. In just three days, as many as 80,000 soldiers of the Scattered Stars Island returned one after another.

And it had only been three days.

One after another, people returned at every moment. This wasn't something that could be completed quickly. After all, there were still people who wanted to stay there. Therefore, there would be a process of examination.

Most of the people were quickly examined. Their ages and physical conditions were checked, and their family conditions were asked about...

If nothing was wrong, they would be directly sent back.

In fact, although there were as many as seventy or eighty thousand people, it would be only about 200 people for each village and town.

Even if another seventy or eighty thousand people returned, it wouldn't be much.

Few of these people who were sent back were prepared to live a low-key life. In the villages and towns, they were undoubtedly strong masters. Why should they live a low-key life?

They needed to tell their stories to many people, to publicize the danger of sea demons, and to spread the legendary stories they often heard in carnival shops on the Scattered Stars Island. Of course, the most important thing was to nurture the weak.

The reason Han Fei wanted these people to come back was that the overall combat power provided by the 36 towns to the Scattered Stars Island was too weak, and most of the deficiency were made up by the people from the Thousand Star City.

This wouldn't do. If the 36 towns had good teachers to nurture talents, they might not be any weaker than the Thousand Star City. Therefore, it was very necessary for these strong masters to return to their hometowns. With their help, the overall strength of the youths in the 36 towns could be improved.

In recent days, the people in the 36 towns witnessed various ways of glorious return.

In the Triumph Town, when the first batch of people returned from the teleportation array, there were 236 people in total.

Someone said, "Everyone, remember the purpose and significance of our return. From today on, there will be no Unknown Place in this world. We must tell many people about the Scattered Stars Island and let them remember what the Unknown Place they respect and expect to see is like..."

Someone smiled. "Of course. Let's go and report to the mayor first."

Everyone looked at each other and laughed. "Let's go... Let's go."

"Hualala..."

Among the 236 people, 56 suddenly opened their wings and flew into the sky.

The rest 180 people couldn't have felt more regretful. They regretted that they weren't Hidden Fishers. Otherwise, they would have been able to soar in the sky like they did.

Someone cursed, "You show-offs! Brothers, let's release our strength and go to the mayor."

"Ha! Let's go..."

"I don't want my face anymore. Let me play with you."

These people lined up in an array and moved extremely fast. Even if some had broken legs, they still moved very fast.

Behind them, inside and outside the teleportation hall of the Triumph Town, everyone was dumbfounded.

"Oh! Angels, more than 50 angels have come at once."

"Oh my god, what happened?"

When these more than 50 people flew in the sky, countless people were dumbfounded. Did something big happen in the Triumph Town? Why did so many angels suddenly show up?

A child raised his head and shouted, "Dad, Dad, I saw many Hidden Fishers."

A child rushed home, yelling, and his father scolded, "I haven't even seen many Hidden Fishers. How can you?"

However, there were exclamations outside the house, and the person cursed and walked out of the house. "Why are you crying and howling in the day... Wow..."

...

Heavenly Martial Town, War God Village.

Heavenly Martial Town valued martial arts. Most of the people came back together with their townsmen, while the people from this town advocated individual bravery and often liked to fight alone.

At this moment, Qin Cang returned alone.

Qin Cang's eyes were covered by a black cloth. His eyes were injured in a battle, and from then on, he could only see the world with his perception.

Perhaps because he was blind, although Qin Cang was a soul warrior, his soul power was very strong. Among Hidden Fishers of the same level, his soul power was more than twice that of others.

When the fishing boat came to the War God Village, Qin Cang was excited. In his mind, there had always been a beautiful figure.

Back then, he was still young and resolutely went to the Unknown Place to pursue a bright future, and didn't choose to stay to accompany the girl who was waiting for him. Although he wanted to come back countless times, he didn't due to guilt.

He failed her and left her alone. How could he have the face to return?

But now, he had to return.

Before he returned, Qin Cang was excited. He wondered if the girl was married. In a place like the War God Village, she must have been married.

Qin Cang's mind was filled with guilt for the girl.

Besides, he was blind, and there was no such thing as a glorious return for him! He would consider how to perform the missions after he settled down!

Qin Cang pulled the black cloth over his eyes slightly, put away the fishing boat, and soon returned to his yard.

Qin Cang used to be a Heavenly Talent of the War God Village.

Therefore, his yard had always been there. However, when he came to the door of his house, he found that the yard was well equipped with living facilities. There were dried sea linen clothes, a clam in the tank, a lot of dried fish hanging in front of the house, some exquisite handmade items, and a half polished fishing pole.

"Huh? Someone is living here?"

Qin Cang couldn't help but frown. He hadn't returned for a few years. Who dared to occupy his yard?

However, he immediately detected the clothes of women in the room.

“Hey! Who are you looking for?”

Beside him, a chubby middle-aged woman said warily, holding an iron rod in her hand. Because of Qin Cang’s height and the black cloth covering his eyes, he didn’t look like a good person.

Besides, Qin Cang smelled of blood, which made people think that he was a wicked man.

Qin Cang turned his head and smiled. “Auntie Qing, it’s me...”

The chubby woman was surprised that this man knew her name... Then she looked at Qin Cang’s face. Although it was covered by a black cloth, it still looked familiar.

“Ah! Are you... Qin Cang?”

Qin Cang nodded slightly. “It’s me. I’m back.”

The chubby woman exclaimed, “Xiao Cang, you’ve been gone for eight years, haven’t you? Why are you back now? Ouch, what’s wrong with your eyes...”

Seeing the chubby woman begin to nag, Qin Cang couldn’t help but say, “Auntie Qing, my house...”

The chubby woman exclaimed, “Oh, Jin’er has been living here! Jin’er has been guarding your home for you. She has been waiting for you for eight years and has rejected so many good boys! Qin Cang, you must not let Jin’er down this time! Otherwise, although I can’t beat you, I must still whip you!”

Qin Cang trembled. “What? It’s her... Where is she?”

The chubby woman said, “She was badly injured. Although she still has strength, she still has to make a living, so she is doing some small business while cultivating! At the port in the east, Jin’er rented a small shop to make some jewelry to sell...”

...

War God Village, the eastern port.

A few hooligans were causing trouble, and an ape-faced guy led two or three men to block the door of a small shop.

The short and thin leader chuckled and said lasciviously, “Lin Jin, just say yes! Xiaolei Family is very powerful! The second young master of the Xiaolei family is very talented. If you marry him, your life will be wonderful!”

Pa!

The girl called Lin Jin was thin and pale, but her face was still pretty. At this moment, she glared at the short and thin young man. “Get lost!”

Another man suddenly reached out and slapped Lin Jin’s butt. Lin Jin was so angry that she pulled out the long knife on the table and slashed at him. “If you dare to touch me again, I’ll kill you.”

The rascal giggled. “Lin Jin, if you kill me, can you still wait for your Brother Cang? Aren’t you afraid of being exiled?”

The short and thin man smiled and said, "Lin Jin, if you want us to stop harassing you, marry Young Master Xiaolei! Or you can marry me!"

"Hahaha!"

As the scoundrels laughed, they grabbed a box of jewelry and sneered. "Okay. I'll come back tomorrow!"

"Put it down."

The short and thin man grabbed the jewelry box and was about to leave, when he suddenly saw a brawny young man with black cloth covering his eyes blocking the door of the shop.

The short and thin man cursed, "Where are you from, blind man? Get lost, or I'll kill you."

Shua!

Silver light flashed and a cold glint swept across. An arm flew up, and the box of jewelry appeared in the blind man's hand at some point.

"Ahhh~"

The short and thin man fell to the ground and rolled. The expressions of the other scoundrels changed drastically as they shouted angrily, "B*stard, do you know who you injured? This is Master Hei from the Xiaolei Family. You are doomed."

The short and thin man roared, "Don't let him go! Chop him up!"

Shua!

Silver light appeared again, and the other arm of the short and thin man was gone.

Qin Cang's voice was cold, his body was steaming with murderous aura, and he pointed the long knife in his hand at a hooligan. "You, tell the Xiaolei Family that if they don't come within half an hour, there will be no Xiaolei Family in the War God Village."

The hooligan quickly ran away, but the shop was already surrounded by people.

"Brother... Brother Cang?"

The moment Qin Cang appeared, Lin Jin had already known who had come. At this moment, she covered her mouth and two streams of tears rolled down.

Qin Cang looked at Lin Jin. After a long while, he said, "I'm sorry. I... I came back late."

At this moment, a group of guards from the port rushed over and shouted, "Where? Where is the thug?"

Someone rushed in and yelled, "Thief, how dare you commit assault in public? Who gave you the courage..."

Plop!

Those people had just run ten meters away from Qin Cang when they all fell to the ground, vomiting blood, shaking like shrimp, unable to say a word.

Qin Cang ignored these people and walked forward, reaching out to wipe the tears at the corner of Lin Jin's eyes.

Instantly, Lin Jin fell into Qin Cang's arms and wailed. "Why have you only just come back? Where have you been all these years? Do you know how long I've waited for you..."

Qin Cang hugged Lin Jin, his voice trembling. "I'm back. I'm not leaving. In this life, I, Qin Cang, will never leave you alone again."

In the crowd, many people sighed. "Qin Cang? He seems to be a former Heavenly Talent!"

"Huh? He is blind?"

"He's still so powerful even though he's blind? His talent is not bad."

"What's so good about him? He probably couldn't hold on outside so he came back."

After a while, someone shouted from afar, "Which thief dares to touch the people of our Xiaolei Family?"

An armorist rushed over with two junior fishing masters. Without saying a word, he rushed straight into the shop without even looking at the guards lying on the ground.

Qin Cang gently stroked Lin Jin's hair and said lightly, "Only a great fishing master came? Heh, from today on, there will be no Xiaolei Family in the War God Village."

All of a sudden, a thunderous voice came from Qin Cang's mouth, and many onlookers fell to the ground in fright. "I am Qin Cang, the deputy commander of the 76th Division of Pioneer Group in the Unknown Place.. The head of the War God Village, the master of Xiaolei Family, come to see me."

Chapter 1407: Take Off Armor and Return Home (3)

Qin Cang's situation was actually not uncommon.

In the villages and towns, it was said that people were simple-minded. However, the so-called simple-mindedness was just because these places could hardly cause any big uproars. In the eyes of true powerhouses, it was nothing at all. They even felt that this was life.

Unlike Qin Cang, the others were not as low-key.

Someone descended from the sky with wings, shocking the entire village.

Someone laughed and shouted loudly. When father and son met, the son suddenly had a father who was a strong master.

Someone discovered that his family and friends had passed away or had a difficult life. Immediately, he was furious and eliminated evil and brought peace to his village...

In short, in the past few days, the entire 36 towns were in an uproar. In the ordinary fisheries, a massive number of strong masters returned from the legendary Unknown Place.

Each of them was terrifyingly strong.

...

Cloud Soaring Town, Cloud Soaring Academy.

The Cloud Soaring Town had been weak for a hundred years and lacked teachers. This was people's impression of Cloud Soaring Town.

Wu Xiaoxiao had been working at the Cloud Soaring Academy in the town since she came back. She even became a Hidden Fisher in front of the students and became the most popular teacher in the town.

Wu Xiaoxiao knew that she didn't have enough potential or strength, and she would die if she stayed on the Scattered Stars Island, so she might as well return early. Therefore, she was particularly attentive when teaching students.

At this moment, six manipulator students were besieging Wu Xiaoxiao, and a hundred students were watching.

Some Spirit Entangled Grasses were entangled, trying to absorb spiritual energy; some green vines were like snakes, crawling through the ground; and some stings were like blades, piercing through the air.

Petite Wu Xiaoxiao was, she didn't panic at all as she shouted, "No, Spirit Entangling Grass is too slow. Do you only know that? Who will stand still and wait for you to entangle them?"

With that, Wu Xiaoxiao pointed her finger, and frost appeared in the air, freezing the Spirit Entangled Grasses that were extending. Then, she stomped, and the vines that were trying to break out of the soil hit a wall.

Wu Xiaoxiao said, "Your use of spiritual energy is so scattered. Who will be afraid of you? If you encounter something like a sea scorpion, your manipulation technique will be easily broken."

Before the grasses came close, Wu Xiaoxiao had brandished her whip and made an ice wall in midair.

With a swish, an ice cone shot out, shattering all the thorny grasses along the way.

In a moment, these students fell to the ground one after another, none of them able to get up.

Wu Xiaoxiao snorted. "What a mess! Six of you can't even take me down although I've reduced my strength to your realm. You are the worst batch of students I've ever taught. If you go to the Unknown Place, I'm afraid you won't survive a day."

Immediately, someone shouted, "Teacher Xiaoxiao, who can compare to you? You are too strong."

Someone echoed, "Yes, Teacher Xiaoxiao, why don't you tell us what's in the Unknown Place?"

"Teacher Xiaoxiao, is it really so dangerous there?"

"Teacher Xiaoxiao, how can I become a Heavenly Talent like you?"

Wu Xiaoxiao was lost for words. "Who told you I am a Heavenly Talent? There is always someone stronger than you. For a real strong master, even a hundred of me combined wouldn't be able to hurt him."

"That's impossible!"

“Absolutely not.”

“Teacher Xiaoxiao, you’re lying to us again.”

While the students were yelling, a cold voice suddenly sounded.

“She didn’t lie to you.”

Wu Xiaoxiao, who was having a headache over the students, suddenly froze and then looked back, only to see a woman in red standing behind them.

“Captain?”

All the students looked back, dumbfounded.

When they saw the scar on the woman’s face, their hearts skipped a beat. What a horrible woman!

Everybody had the same thought. Apart from the scar, this woman was quite beautiful. But how could she be so horrible? Their legs had gone soft after they just glanced at her.

“Ahhh~”

Wu Xiaoxiao suddenly screamed, “Captain, Sister Lingyun... Why are you here? I miss you so much...”

Wu Xiaoxiao pounced at her.

Because of her liveliness and childish personality, the teachers and students of the Cloud Soaring Academy liked her a lot.

Looking at Wu Xiaoxiao who was hanging on her like an octopus, You Lingyun’s face was slightly relaxed.

“Come down. You’re a teacher now. How can you be so frivolous?”

Wu Xiaoxiao quickly made a face. Sister Lingyun still lacked femininity as before.

Getting off You Lingyun, Wu Xiaoxiao asked in delight, “Sister Lingyun, why... are you back?”

You Lingyun said casually, “The Unknown Place is going to be known to the world.”

“Huh?”

Wu Xiaoxiao was stunned and didn’t understand what she meant.

You Lingyun said, “Captain Han Fei has succeeded to the position of supreme commander. He has ordered hundreds of thousands of people to return to their hometowns.”

“Ahhh!”

“Huh?”

“What?”

Ignoring Wu Xiaoxiao’s stunned expression, You Lingyun looked at the students and said, “Your teacher is right. In the same realm, she is not strong, but not weak either. There is indeed someone who can fight a hundred people in the same realm alone. There is more than one such person.”

Some students looked at You Lingyun in surprise. Fight a hundred people in the same realm alone? And there is more than one such person?

You Lingyun knew that they hadn't seen such a person with their own eyes, so they couldn't understand it.

Suddenly, You Lingyun looked at a figure a thousand meters away.

The man seemed no weaker than her.

Their auras collided, and You Lingyun sensed that the man seemed to be shrouded in an evil aura. She extended her hand and summoned a huge fiery sword, before she slashed at the man.

"Ahhh!"

"Oh my god!"

"What technique is this?"

"So scary."

The students staggered and some of them even fell to the ground.

As for the person a thousand meters away, he chuckled, stretched out a hand, and wrapped the fiery sword in the air, before he snatched it.

"Hehe... May I ask why a Law Enforcer has come to our Cloud Soaring Academy?"

Wu Xiaoxiao quickly said, "Sister Lingyun, this is Qiu Lie, the president of the Cloud Soaring Academy."

If Han Fei were here, he would have exclaimed, "This temperament! Isn't this Uncle Faceless? Damn, when did you become the president of Cloud Soaring Academy? And when did you grow such a handsome face?"

You Lingyun crossed her hands. "Sorry, President. My name is You Lingyun. I've just returned from the Unknown Place and I'm here to visit my good friend, Teacher Wu Xiaoxiao from your school."

Qiu Lie looked gentle without any evil aura at all. He nodded with a smile. "Oh! That's a rare visitor. I found that energy is overflowing from your body, so I think you're going to make a breakthrough soon. Why don't you stay in our Cloud Soaring Academy for a while? Firstly, you can visit your friends. Secondly, I have some selfish motives. I hope you can instruct the students of our academy occasionally."

You Lingyun nodded quickly. "That's good. Sorry for the trouble."

Qiu Lie nodded slightly and left, leaving You Lingyun puzzled.

Everyone knew that the Cloud Soaring Town was weak. However, the president of the Spiritual Cloud Academy was so strong! He could break her attack with a wave of his hand? Then why didn't he teach the students?

After Qiu Lie left, You Lingyun couldn't help but say, "Xiaoxiao, do you know that your president has reached the peak of the Law Enforcer realm?"

Wu Xiaoxiao nodded and said, "I do! The Cloud Soaring Academy is the face of the Cloud Soaring Town after all! If the president is weak, wouldn't it be a disgrace to the Cloud Soaring Town? Oh, forget the president. Our president has always been weird. Sister Lingyun, what did you just say? If I heard it right, you said that our captain has become the supreme commander? Are you kidding me?"

You Lingyun said solemnly, "I'm not kidding. Captain Han Fei is also called Marshal Han. A few days ago, he killed two sea demon Venerables and more than 20 Dao Seeking great demons on his own and shocked the entire Scattered Stars Island. Because of that, Marshal Xue Shenqi resigned..."

"Hiss!"

Wu Xiaoxiao was stunned. If someone else told her that, she would've thought that he was a fraud, but she was too familiar with You Lingyun.

Before Wu Xiaoxiao could come back to herself, You Lingyun said, "Marshal Han wants to tell the 36 towns about the Scattered Stars Island. Since I'm living here for the time being, let's specially open a course to tell the students about the Scattered Stars Island!"

"Ah... Oh... Sister Lingyun, I'm a little stunned. I've only been away for a few years. Why do I feel that even the sky has changed? Where are Daliang and Leng Hui?"

You Lingyun looked up at the sky. "Dead."

...

Blue Sea Town.

The Thug Academy, which used to be prosperous, was now empty without any students.

When the Thug Academy disappeared, rumors were everywhere. However, there were also credible rumors that the Thug Academy's Han Fei had offended a strong master from the Thousand Star City, causing the entire academy to be suppressed by the Thousand Star City and have to flee.

With the departure of the teachers and students of the Thug Academy, no one would protect the businesses that Han Fei had left behind.

Fish Dragon Cards, Fish Dragon Hot Pot Restaurants, all changed owners.

Fortunately, Han Fei had opened a school in the Heavenly Water Village and supplied resources, so some members of the Fish Dragons still had somewhere to go. Even so, The Fish Dragons had been weakened to the extreme.

The Black River Chamber of Commerce used to be suppressed by the Fish Dragons and bore a grudge. After the Thug Academy disbanded, they quickly took revenge.

Poor Brother Gang of the Fish Dragons used to be a gangster, sell barbecue, and even work as a shopowner. He used to be rich and be respected by everyone, but now he only had two hundred members in the gang.

The strong masters who were not from the Heavenly Water Village but recruited from outside all quit the Fish Dragons, which made the Fish Dragons decline.

At this moment, Li Gang was in the gang. Someone had been bullying Little Red recently, which was intolerable to him.

Suddenly, someone rushed over. "Brother Gang, bad news! The Black River Chamber of Commerce came again!"

Li Gang frowned and gnashed his teeth. "Jin Yuncheng."

Outside the gang, a fat middle-aged man looked at Li Gang in disdain and said sarcastically, "Hey, Brother Li, who made you so angry?"

Li Gang immediately shouted, "Jin Yuncheng, what do you want? Do you think the Fish Dragons are easy to bully?"

"Hahaha!"

Everybody laughed, and Jin Yuncheng pointed at Li Gang. "Look, I called you Brother Li because I gave you a face. If I don't give you a face, you aren't even a fish poop. Look at you, you're only a great fishing master after consuming so many resources. Your talent is too f*cking weak."

Someone from the Fish Dragons shouted angrily, "Brother Gang, let's fight it out!"

"Shut up!"

Li Gang thought to himself, How to fight it out? We obviously can't beat them!

Li Gang took a few deep breaths. "Jin Yuncheng, what do you want?"

Jin Yuncheng smiled coldly. "Hand over all the secret recipes of the dishes. Um... the Black River Chamber of Commerce will take the land outside the Thug Academy today."

Li Gang burst into fury. "Motherf*cker! Our leader is such a Heavenly Talent. If he learns of it, your Black River Chamber of Commerce will be doomed!"

"Humph! Han Fei? The teachers and students of the Thug Academy all ran away. I heard that it was all because of Han Fei. Han Fei, that little b * stard, must have been beaten to death and fed to the fish. Do you still expect him to come back to save you?"

Bang!

Suddenly, a suppressing power descended, and the terrifying power directly pressed Jin Yuncheng to the ground, making him vomit blood.

A full twelve Hidden Fishers fell from the sky.

Someone shouted, "What a bold thief! How can you insult Marshal Han?"

Jin Yuncheng was stunned and horrified. His more than 300 subordinates all fell to their knees.

Jin Yuncheng didn't know where so many Hidden Fishers came from, and he shouted, "Spare me, angels. You may have mistaken me for someone else. I'm just talking about the leader of a small gang."

Crack ~

“Ahhh~”

Jin Yuncheng’s legs were broken, and someone fell to the ground, releasing a murderous aura. “You’re talking about Han Fei, Marshal Han. Marshal Han is dominating the Unknown Place, killing invincible enemies, and protecting our human race. Now he is the supreme commander of the Unknown Place. How can you insult him?”

“Who? Who dares to insult Marshal Han?”

Bang! Bang! Bang!

In the distance, a group of nearly a hundred Hanging Fishers came in an array.

Jin Yuncheng almost peed his pants. What the hell is going on here? This is just a small gang! How did things suddenly become like this? The supreme commander of the Unknown Place? What is that?

When the group of ferocious soldiers surrounded them, someone looked at Li Gang. “Is this the Fish Dragons?”

Li Gang was stunned and quickly said, “Yes, yes, this is the Fish Dragons.”

The Hidden Fishers and Hanging Fishers breathed a sigh of relief and smiled. “Yes, it’s here.”

Someone said with a smile, “I didn’t expect I was from the same town as Marshal Han. I must go to the Heavenly Water Village to see what kind of a paradise it is! How could it nurture a Heavenly Talent like Marshal Han.”

Someone echoed with a smile, “Let’s go together.”

Swish!

A Hidden Fisher flew over in a hurry. Who else could it be but the mayor of the Blue Sea Town?

The mayor was shocked. “Everyone, you are...”

Someone shouted in a low voice, “We returned from the Unknown Place and came to visit Marshal Han’s former residence. Who would have expected that there would be a thief who dares to attack Marshal Han’s disciples? This is unforgivable.”

The mayor was stunned for a long time. “Marshal Han? Han Fei?”

“Humph, how dare you call Marshal Han’s name?”

Plop!

Jin Yuncheng fell to the ground, his eyes full of despair. He was doomed.

Li Gang felt that his spirit had returned. He hurriedly got up. “Hey, Jin Yuncheng, your time has come.”

...

The Thirty-Six Towns suddenly became lively.

The return of all kinds of strong masters caused countless people to go around to learn from them. The major academies in the 36 towns all offered an olive branch, recruiting strong masters as deputy presidents.

The stories about the Scattered Stars Island were told by the powerhouses. In fact, they didn't need to emphasize anything but just needed to tell what they had experienced in person.

There were too many stories to tell on the Scattered Stars Island..

Chapter 1408: Secret Power of Will

After Han Fei became the supreme commander, he immediately got the feeling when he planned the City of Justice. At that time, he and Ximen Linglan were so busy all day long that they didn't even have time to rest.

But now Han Fei certainly wouldn't devote all his time to the planning and construction of the Scattered Stars Island.

At this moment, in the Marshal's Mansion.

There were seven or eight plates of fruits on Han Fei's table, and Xue Shenqi was sitting opposite him.

Yesterday, the representatives of the big clans, including the six Venerables, came together with the intention of negotiating with Han Fei. However, they were rejected by Han Fei. They almost fell out on the spot and were scolded away.

Han Fei declared that if they didn't bring resources next time, the big clans on the Scattered Stars Island would be the enemy of millions of people. It must be noted that the Scattered Stars Island had millions of people. Unlike in the 36 towns, every person here was an elite.

Today, the big clans hadn't come.

Han Fei invited Xue Shenqi over for a talk. Over the past few days, Han Fei had been troubled by a few questions and wanted to ask Xue Shenqi for an explanation.

Han Fei said, "Marshal Xue, I've been too busy these past few days. I have too many questions to ask you."

Xue Shenqi said with a sullen face, "First of all, I'm not the supreme commander now. We don't know each other well. You can just call me Mr. Xue. If there's anything, just say it."

Han Fei grinned and said, "I think Mr. Xue must be puzzled. I went to the Emyrean Waterfall, but why did I suddenly appear in the Sea of Pearls?"

Xue Shenqi nodded. "That's right. You can't have come from the Scattered Stars Island. It means that there is a channel under the Emyrean Waterfall that leads directly to the Sea of Pearls."

Han Fei couldn't help but sigh. Xue Shenqi was really smart. But that was the truth. Since you didn't come here on the main road, you must have come here by a side road.

Han Fei immediately said, "Mr. Xue, do you know what kind of creature is under the Empyrean Waterfall?"

Xue Shenqi shook his head. "I don't know! But since you went down, didn't you take away the king's corpse?"

Han Fei thought to himself, I did take away most of the things inside. The world contained in the Cloud Whale's demonic origin has returned to reality. Now, except for that body, there is only some diluted Spirit Awakening Fluid left.

In the next few decades, the number of Spirit Awakening Fluid might increase again and he could collect Spirit Awakening Fluid from there continuously. But the battle was imminent, so he obviously didn't have the time. Now, the only thing he could use was the huge corpse of the Cloud Whale.

If it was used to refine Divine Weapons, there was no telling how many tens of thousands of pieces the corpse could refine. But how could the corpse of a king only have the use of refining Divine Weapons?

Whether it was the corpse of a king or the corpse of a Venerable, it could be used to comprehend Great Daos, which was why everyone wanted it.

Especially the king's bones, it was the essence of his Great Dao. If one could absorb it, it would be of great help to comprehending the Great Dao and the King realm.

With the experience from last time, Han Fei could go there at any time now. However, he was not in a hurry to comprehend it. The Cloud Whale's corpse was there. Anyway, it couldn't escape.

The Ten Thousand Demon Valley started a series of battles, Han Fei didn't believe that the number of people there was really endless. Two Venerables of them had died. Would they not take it seriously at all and still dare to invade?

Regarding Xue Shenqi's question, Han Fei shook his head slightly. "How can I just take away the corpse of a king so easily? However, I have a guess. Maybe, there was another person who went in before."

"Impossible!"

Xue Shenqi frowned. "If someone had entered that place before, the Star Turtle would've known. Besides, if that person had the ability to enter that place without being detected, why did he leave the corpse there?"

Han Fei said, "As we all know, twelve-year-old children need Spirit Awakening Fluid when they're awakened. And the Spirit Awakening Fluid seems to be something that only the king's Dao runes can produce. If that person took away the corpse back then, then we humans would have no Spirit Awakening Fluid to use. Although someone can awaken naturally, the overall strength of humans would have inevitably decreased."

Xue Shenqi couldn't help looking at Han Fei. "Huh? Since you said that, I guess you've known who that person is?"

Han Fei paused. "Mr. Xue, do you know Tang Yan?"

Xue Shenqi's eyelids twitched slightly, and he looked at Han Fei quietly. "Are you talking about the supreme commander of the Scattered Stars Island a thousand years ago?"

Han Fei grinned. "It seems that you know this person."

Xue Shenqi said, "I have been in charge of the Scattered Stars Island for so many years, so I naturally know. Tang Yan is a genius. He served as the supreme commander for five years. It can be said that he was the supreme commander with the shortest term in the history of Scattered Stars Island. But this person became Venerable on the seventh day of the throne. After three years, he surpassed the intermediate Venerable realm, and after five years, he reached the advanced Venerable realm. In the end, because Tang Yan's strength improved too fast, it caused a big battle between humans and sea demons. It was also in that battle that the sea demon Royal City completely faded out of human vision, and even its shadow couldn't be found. As for Tang Yan, he seemed to have left, saying that he was going to find the sea demon Royal City. Therefore, he resigned as the supreme commander."

What Xue Shenqi said was actually a bit rough.

Han Fei had already read all the information about Tang Yan. However, the information seemed to have been deliberately left behind. It was like a resume, recording all the great things that Tang Yan had done ... But the Cloud Whale was never mentioned.

And Star Turtle once said that the Cloud Whale was brought back by Tang Yan.

This didn't make sense. There must be something wrong with Tang Yan.

Because of this, Han Fei didn't touch the corpse of the Cloud Whale. There must be some secrets in it that he hadn't figured out.

Xue Shenqi narrowed his eyes and looked at Han Fei. "Has Tang Yan been there?"

Han Fei nodded slightly. "According to some traces, it should be possible. I need to check the specific situation again."

Han Fei didn't intend to tell Xue Shenqi now. Now he was sure that Xue Shenqi knew much less than he did. Then, there might be some other secrets. He'd better wait and see.

Seeing that Han Fei was perfunctory, Xue Shenqi didn't ask further.

Xue Shenqi asked, "Are you done?"

Han Fei said, "Well, there's something else."

Han Fei said, "A few days ago, I checked the time when the previous supreme commanders became Venerables at Elder Chen's place. They all had one thing in common, which was that before they became supreme commanders, they were all at the Explorer level. There was even one person who became the supreme commander when he was only a junior Explorer because of his intelligence. And it usually takes these people no more than 30 years from the moment they became supreme commanders to the moment they became Venerables. Just now, the intelligent powerhouse I mentioned took 27 years to go from a junior Explorer to a Venerable."

Han Fei was not a fool. Although he cultivated very quickly, how many opportunities had he taken to walk so fast?

However, these guys who could become the supreme commanders all cultivated at an abnormally fast speed. Only two of them used more than 30 years to enter the Venerable realm.

Among them, Xue Shenqi was the one who took the longest time. It took him 50 years to become a Venerable.

As for Old Han, according to the records, it took him 21 years.

However, after knowing Old Han's life, Han Fei felt that Old Han must have done it on purpose. By logic, Old Han's strength should have dropped from a very high realm. He was already a Venerable. Why would he need 21 years to become a Venerable again?

Among them, Tang Yan was the fastest. It only took him five years to go from a peak-level Explorer to an advanced Venerable, so fast that the sea demons even initiated a great battle to kill Tang Yan.

Xue Shenqi looked at Han Fei calmly. "With your intelligence, you should have noticed it."

Han Fei nodded. "Of course I did. When I stood in front of millions of people, when I became the person everyone wanted me to be, I felt the Power of Will."

Han Fei asked the old turtle this question.

The old turtle said that this power was a kind of power of the Great Dao between the heavens and earth, used to repair the Dao heart. If the Dao heart was firm, one could become a king, or even an Emperor, and be omnipotent.

Han Fei had asked Ning Jing about it too. Ning Jing was at a loss and didn't feel anything about it.

The old turtle said, "Ning Jing doesn't walk this path, so if Ning Jing wants to become a king, her way of becoming a king will be different from yours. The Power of Will in the Water-Wood World should go to Queen Life, not Ning Jing."

Han Fei felt that this Power of Will might only belong to the leader of the race. The old turtle talked about the Dao heart. Ning Jing couldn't feel it, but Xue Shenqi should be able to feel it.

"Power of Will?"

Xue Shenqi thought for a moment. "That's a good word. In this case, there's an explanation for this power."

Xue Shenqi said, "You can try fusing this energy with the Great Dao ... I don't know what this power is exactly, but I think it's the power of faith. Under the nourishment of this power for a long time, the cultivation speed doubles, the perception of strength becomes stronger, and the perception of the Great Dao becomes more sensitive. Therefore, this is why all the supreme commanders make breakthroughs quickly."

"Fuse it with the Great Dao?"

Seeing that Han Fei was a little stunned, Xue Shen got up and said, "This power can help you become a Venerable, or even a king. However, the Power of Will merely from the people on the Scattered Stars Island is not enough. If you want to become a king on this road, you have to hold the 36 towns in your hand.. This is why I didn't stop you from revealing the Unknown Place to the 36 towns."

Chapter 1409: Reappearance of the Great Dao

Han Fei nodded and decided to give it a try.

His Great Dao should be a bridge, not just a seed.

But since the last time his Great Dao first appeared, he had never seen the bridge again.

The old turtle's voice suddenly sounded, "Everyone's path to becoming a king is different. You call the power you feel the Power of Will, but just like he said, it might be a power of faith. However, in my opinion, it's a kind of embodiment of the Dao heart. When millions of Dao hearts gather, it appears what you call the Power of Will. In fact, it's just that the power of their Dao hearts is too small."

Of course, Han Fei knew the importance of the power of the Dao heart that the old turtle mentioned. However, this word Dao Heart was too mysterious. What was the use of Dao heart? Dao heart couldn't chop wood or fish. It couldn't be materialized.

However, Han Fei couldn't help exclaiming, "No wonder, no wonder the former supreme commanders have grown so fast. It turns out that they are not cultivating alone!"

Suddenly, Han Fei came back to himself and looked in the direction where Xue Shenqi left.

"Son of a b * tch."

Han Fei couldn't help cursing, "Xue Shenqi has been a peak-level Explorer for so long. He must have been suppressing his strength. With Xue Shenqi's reputation, it took him 50 years to become a Venerable, twice as long as the other supreme commanders. Once he becomes a Venerable, how can he be ordinary? Therefore, Xue Shenqi should be very strong. Therefore, he deliberately gave Blue Feather to me?"

"F*ck! Trick! All tricks!"

Han Fei's face immediately turned dark. He thought that he was awesome because he killed two Venerables in a row, but it turned out that they deliberately left them to him. Who could be happy about that?

"Huff!"

Han Fei shouted to the outside, "I'm going to meditate. No matter who comes, let them come tomorrow."

Outside the door, two Hidden Fisher guards accepted the order.

Before Han Fei entered a meditative state, he set interconnected arrays in the mansion . Thousands of arrays covered all the secrets in the mayor's residence. As early as in the Age of Doom, Han Fei could spend a lot of time drawing arrays for the Avenger. Now, it wasn't a problem for his arrays to conceal the perception of a Venerable.

On that day, when he took over the position of supreme commander, he had donated a tremendous amount of resources and forced the big clans of the Thousand Star City to surrender resources. Because of it, many people had a good impression of him. Therefore, a large amount of Power of Will entered his body that day, so Han Fei could clearly feel that power.

After a few days, Han Fei discovered that this power was almost omnipotent. It could not only nourish his body, but also improve his physique and soul power.

Of course, no major changes could be seen in a few days. However, over the years, this improvement would be terrifying.

However, with Han Fei's current physique, it could be said that he had cultivated to the limit of what he could reach.

Therefore, Han Fei could feel that the weird power entering his body didn't consume much at all, but was hidden in every piece of flesh in his body, which was difficult to mobilize.

"Hidden in every piece of flesh in your body?"

Suddenly, Han Fei was shocked by a thought that suddenly popped up in his head. The power of the Great Dao was also hidden in every point of spiritual energy, which couldn't be found at all. This Power of Will was the same.

In the old turtle's words, the Power of Will was also a manifestation of the power of the Great Dao, a manifestation of the Dao heart.

"Is Power of Will actually equivalent to the Great Dao?"

In order to verify his guess, Han Fei immediately removed some arrays and scanned the Thousand Star City with his perception.

Immediately, Han Fei found Jing'er on the top of the Empyrean Waterfall, with a yellow fat cat next to her.

At this moment, this girl and the cat were making hot pot.

Big Yellow said, "Let me tell you, I've learned seventy to eighty percent of the essence of Han Fei's cooking skills. This hot pot is only delicious when it's hot. And this red pepper is very precious. Han Fei only planted a few of them in his yard, but I dug them all out. After careful cultivation, I've grown a lot of them."

Jing'er rolled her eyes. "Do you have to nurture them with care? Wouldn't there be a lot of them if spiritual energy is poured in?"

Big Yellow shook his head. "That's different! Although I have a lot of red peppers, I usually keep them for myself... Uh, I'll give some to Xiao Jiu... as well as Granny Yin... Anyway, there are only these few people. No others can have it. Isn't it rare?"

Jing'er said, "Then why don't you put it into the hot pot? Why are you just holding the red peppers?"

Big Yellow was stunned for a moment. "I forgot how much I should put in. Xiao Jiu told me just to put a little bit... a little bit is..."

Hearing that, Jing'er realized that this was an unreliable cat.

Suddenly, she looked up at the central city and said, "Take six of them, crush them into powder, and throw them in."

Big Yellow was overjoyed. "Ah! Thanks to me, you've learned the essence of hot pot."

Jing'er echoed Big Yellow, but she was already talking to Han Fei in her heart.

Han Fei asked, "Jing'er, let me ask you something. Before the queen became a king, was she worshiped at the Cloud Sea Divine Tree?"

Jing'er wondered why Han Fei asked that.

However, she still said, "Of course, the queen is an unparalleled Heavenly Talent that appears once in ten thousand years. Every time she reaches a realm, she will be invincible in that realm in the Water-Wood World. But that was tens of thousands of years ago. The queen became a Half-Venerable in ten seconds, a Venerable in a hundred seconds, and a peak-level junior Venerable in an hour. This shocking achievement has been eulogized for tens of thousands of years."

Han Fei asked, "Then how long did it take for her to become a king from a Venerable?"

Jing'er said without hesitation, "You'll probably be scared to death if I tell you."

Han Fei said, "Just tell me."

Jing'er said, "It took a total of 38 years. It took 18 years for the queen to subdue the four races and become the king of the four races. It took 10 years for her to fight the White Shell Royal City. In these 10 years, the queen killed 13 Venerable-level great demons alone. No one could achieve this before in the Water-Wood World. In the last ten years, her strength soared and she broke through in one fell swoop."

Han Fei was stunned for a long time. Was Queen Life so awesome? She seemed quite gentle!

However, Han Fei immediately asked, "Hey, before the queen became the king, how did you resist the White Shell Royal City?"

Jing'er said, "At that time, the White Armor Emperor hadn't become a king either! You have to know that when a king appears, many Heavenly Talents will rise too. At that time, when the queen became a king, the White Armor Emperor in the White Shell Royal City became a king too. The days the queen and the White Armor Emperor became kings was only seven days apart. Even if the White Armor Emperor became a king first, he couldn't stop the queen from becoming a king."

Han Fei: "So, the queen has been worshiped by many people since she was young?"

Jing'er nodded. "Yes! What's up?"

Han Fei was silent for a moment. "Okay, you can continue to eat barbecue!"

...

After asking Jing'er, Han Fei already had a general idea.

It seemed that the Power of Will from the millions of people on the Scattered Stars Island alone wasn't enough for him to become a king!

What if these millions of people could turn into billions of people...?

Han Fei couldn't help sighing. What if he replaced the Sea God statue with his own?

However, as soon as the idea popped up in his head, Han Fei put it out.

He didn't know it before, but now he knew that the Sea God statue should be his mother.

He didn't know where she was at this moment. If he stole her Power of Will, he would harm his own mother.

Han Fei thought to himself, It seems that becoming a king is still a long way to go!

However, he was not in a rush to become a king. The first priority now was to comprehend his own Great Dao. Then, he could use this Power of Will to become a Venerable as soon as possible.

Once he became a Venerable, there was basically no place in the world that he couldn't go. Even the Thousand Star City was not a place he couldn't explore with his means.

Han Fei continued to sit cross-legged.

Although he could feel this Power of Will, it didn't seem to exist. According to the old turtle, it was a kind of Great Dao. But the Great Dao was invisible. How could he see its appearance?

Therefore, Han Fei immediately changed his thinking. Since he couldn't find where the Power of Will that entered his body was hiding, he would let them come out themselves.

In fact, this was what Han Fei was best at.

Han Fei immediately activated his Dao Seed and recited in his head, "The Great Dao gathers".

Sure enough, as soon as Han Fei thought so, the Dao Seed immediately revolved. Although Han Fei couldn't see it, he could feel invisible energy gathering and entering the Dao Seed.

Buzz!

Suddenly, a small bridge wrapped in mist appeared in front of Han Fei.

"Hiss!"

Han Fei was overjoyed. The bridge appeared again! He had seen this bridge when his Great Dao first appeared. Now this was the second time it had appeared.

Han Fei's heart trembled. "Can I go up to it this time?"

The old turtle said, "Did you see that? There seems to be less white mist covering the bridge."

Han Fei was stunned. Yes, last time he saw this bridge, it was shrouded in white mist and nothing could be seen. This time, although the feeling was similar, the white mist covering the bridge was at least one-third less.

Han Fei immediately said, "It's because of the Power of Will!"

With this in mind, Han Fei was excited.

Power of Will could be integrated into the Great Dao, which could make the Great Dao stronger! Even at this moment, Han Fei still felt an invisible power gathering.

This time, Han Fei didn't go up to the bridge immediately, because the amount of white mist was gradually decreasing.

After half an hour, the number of the white mist decreased to about half of its original amount, and then no longer decreased. And Han Fei felt that the Power of Will he had obtained had almost been consumed!

"Hiss! Seriously? The power of faith of millions of soldiers is gone just like that?"

The old turtle couldn't help but say, "Be content! This power is already a lot. If you have this Power of Will once or twice again, the true body of your Great Dao might be revealed."

Han Fei thought to himself, How can there be so many f*cking times? If you want to win the faith of millions of people, shouldn't you do the corresponding things? If you don't do anything, how can they believe you?

Chapter 1410: First Awakening of the Great Dao

At first, Han Fei felt that he might not be able to figure out how to use the Power of Will for a while.

Who would have expected that it could reveal his Great Dao so easily?

In fact, not only had the bridge come out, but his Dao Seed seemed to have grown a little bit, which Han Fei didn't know if his eyes were deceiving him or what. At this moment, his Dao Seed was about the size of a small green bean.

"The Dao Seed has grown bigger, and the bridge is out. No wonder my mother has to erect a statue of herself no matter where she goes. The Power of Will from billions of people is immeasurable."

At this moment, Han Fei looked at the bridge of mist in front of him. Since it was a bridge, he definitely had to walk it. It was his path and his bridge. If he didn't walk it, who else could?

At this moment, the Power of Will he had saved had been exhausted. What else could Han Fei do except walk it by himself?

Han Fei took a deep breath. "I'm going up."

BAM!

Han Fei stepped on the bridge.

However, it was different this time.

Last time, when he walked to the middle, he felt relaxed. This time, although it was the same, Han Fei felt that his strength was expanding and his Dao Seed was trembling.

“Huh?”

Feeling different twice, Han Fei hurriedly said, “Old Yuan, have you found anything wrong?”

However, Han Fei discovered that at some point in time, there seemed to be a blurred mist barrier in his spiritual perception, blocking the old turtle from him.

Han Fei was shocked.

Last time, it wasn't like this. The old turtle had been walking to the center of the bridge with him. But this time, the old turtle had been separated from him after he only climbed one step?

“Is my Great Dao so strong?”

Han Fei couldn't help but feel excited. He didn't feel the slightest worry because the old turtle was separated from him. The old turtle knew too much about him. The more he knew, the more he couldn't let him go. Otherwise, what if all his secrets were exposed by this guy?

The old turtle couldn't see his own Great Dao now, which should be a kind of self-protection of the Great Dao.

Without hesitation, Han Fei continued to climb the bridge. One step, two steps. Every time he climbed a step, Han Fei felt that the more powerful the vibration of his Dao Seed was, the more powerful the fluctuation of his strength would be.

For some reason, Han Fei had a feeling that he could already use the power of his Great Dao. However, apart from “creating something from nothing”, he didn't know how to make use of this power.

As soon as he climbed seven steps, Han Fei suddenly felt that his legs were soft, as if he was suddenly carrying two mountains on his back. The gravity was astonishing, and his legs were bent.

However, it was different from the last time when Han Fei only had a Half-Golden Body and his flesh and bones were much worse than now.

Today, Han Fei had fully cultivated his golden body, and his flesh and blood had undergone qualitative changes. Therefore, Han Fei managed to withstand the terrifying gravity that fell like a mountain.

Last time, he fused with Little Black and Little White and seemed to see another him, an invisible power, and a void...

This time, through the mist, Han Fei still couldn't see clearly, which seemed to be the same.

However, Han Fei felt that he could still go forward.

“Hu... Hu...”

Han Fei gasped for a long time before he slowly and tentatively moved another step.

BAM!

When this step landed, Han Fei felt that his body bent a little again, and the weight on his head seemed to increase by a lot.

Han Fei immediately realized that he was no longer on the bridge, but off the bridge.

After this step, Han Fei realized that if he took another step forward, he might be able to hold on. However, if he continued, he might not be able to hold on anymore.

“Roar!”

Sure enough, Han Fei took another step down without hesitation.

Pa! Pa!

Han Fei put his hands on his knees. He felt that he was about to squat down and couldn't hold on anymore.

“Fuse.”

When the Yin-Yang Divine Eyes appeared, Han Fei's face suddenly turned cold. Through his eyes, Han Fei saw three paths in the mist.

“Huh?”

Different from last time, this time he saw three roads. Each road was about three to five meters long and then was cut off by darkness as if it didn't allow him to look back.

And these three roads seemed extremely strange.

Under the bridge, there were three forked roads. On the one in the middle stood a person, a person who looked exactly like him, looking at him quietly on the bridge.

This feeling was very creepy.

Han Fei stared at this person for more than ten seconds, only to find that the man was as still as a statue.

Was it his other self?

He looked at the left road, which was full of twisted complicated arrays and was filled with vast and unpredictable weird lines. In those lines, Han Fei felt vitality and a soft brilliance that was full of purity and warmth.

“The Great Dao of Heaven Enlightenment?”

Gulp!

When he saw that road, Han Fei immediately sensed that it was the Great Dao of spirit gatherers, the Great Dao of Heaven Enlightenment. But why did it appear in his Great Dao?

Han Fei looked at the road on the right. There were no complicated lines on this road but a strange kind of energy. Occasionally, there was golden light circulating, occasionally there was tide energy, and what was left was the intense murderous aura and fighting intent. That kind of will was reflected in his mind.

Han Fei subconsciously said, "The path of invincibility?"

Han Fei was stunned for a moment. The Great Dao of Heaven Enlightenment was on the left, and the Invincible Path was on the right?

Han Fei seemed to understand a little bit now. As a spirit gatherer, he had learned the Great Dao of Heaven Enlightenment. Therefore, the Great Dao of Heaven Enlightenment appeared in his Great Dao.

And because what he was walking on now was the path of invincibility, and what he cultivated was body refinement techniques, this path of invincibility appeared too.

If the old turtle hadn't told him before that he had never seen this bridge-like Great Dao, Han Fei would have felt that everyone was the same. In the Explorer realm, there would be a bridge. After crossing the bridge, one would discover multiple choices and choose a Great Dao that was most suitable for him.

However, the white mist bridge itself was his Great Dao. Did he have one more step than others, which was to cross the bridge?

However, after crossing the bridge, would he still have to choose a Great Dao to walk on?

But if it wasn't a choice, why were there three Great Daos? It was obvious asking him to choose.

Han Fei knew the left and right roads.

However, he couldn't understand the one in the middle at all! Why was there another him standing on the opposite side? What Great Dao did it represent? Han Fei didn't understand this at all.

Han Fei didn't want to choose now and he probably couldn't make a choice now. Descending two steps, he thought to himself, I'm afraid I still can't pass it this time.

But in any case, the mist had decreased, and he walked two more steps than last time. The day when the white mist dissipated might be the day he walked to the opposite side of the bridge.

And the day when he reached the opposite side of the bridge of white mist should also be the day he became a Venerable.

"Roar!"

At the last moment, Han Fei exerted all his strength and took another step forward. However, as soon as his feet moved away, he sat on the steps.

Then, Han Fei felt dizzy.

When he came back from the dizziness, there was no bridge in front of him.

"Phew ~"

Han Fei was panting and drenched in sweat. This time, what Han Fei saw was much more vivid than last time. He saw the three roads under the bridge.

The old turtle's voice sounded immediately, "What happened? The moment you stepped on the bridge, the power of the Great Dao blocked me. Have you mastered your Great Dao?"

Han Fei said angrily, "Look how sweaty I am. Do I look like I've mastered the Great Dao?"

Han Fei looked at his data.

However, this time, there were only some slight changes. It should be the nurturing effect of the Power of Will on his body after it filled his body.

This matter of climbing the bridge should have nothing to do with strength, but only with the Great Dao.

Although he didn't pass it this time, Han Fei knew the way to cross the bridge. He had to think of a way to accumulate more Power of Will. As long as he got enough Power of Will, his Great Dao would eventually be revealed. As for what the third path was, he would eventually have an answer.

In that case, Han Fei didn't think too much about it. There was no need to cultivate in seclusion at this moment.

The Power of Will had been used up, and it would take time for him to master how to disassemble the spiritual energy. What he couldn't afford to lose now was time.

After all, only four percents away, he would be able to reach the Venerable level.

Originally, Han Fei felt that he should polish it and cultivate it to reach the 70% disassembling degree as soon as possible.

However, even if he reached 70%, Han Fei didn't think he would become a Venerable immediately. What if he could reach 80%?

He had spent too little time in the realm of Explorer. It had only been three years. To reach the peak of this realm in three years, this speed was even comparable to Tang Yan's. And Tang Yan cultivated with the Power of Will, but he didn't.

Just as Han Fei was thinking about what to do next, he suddenly felt that the array outside the residence was moving, and there was a force trying to break the array.

Through the array, Han Fei saw a Venerable who he had never seen trying to break the array angrily.

Seeing this scene, Han Fei immediately knew which side this guy was from. Who else could it be other than the big clans?

His guards had been thrown hundreds of kilometers away and were all lying on the ground.

"Roar!"

Han Fei's voice rumbled thunderously in the sky.

"The thief of the big clans! How dare you break into my residence and injure my subordinates? Are you rebelling? Venerables of the seven sects, please return and help me kill this b*stard."
