Chapter 1631: Slaying A Venerable With Each Slash

After experiencing the cage, Han Fei basically had no feelings for the so-called experts of the Yin-Yang World.

Perhaps, in his previous opinion, Chu Menwang was very strong, someone that he couldn't reach back then. But now, he was two realms stronger than back then... How could he be afraid of him?

The moment the Sky Screen appeared, Chu Menwang was doomed.

Yes, Han Fei was very sure about this.

They stepped into a void at the same time.

Chu Menwang roared and had an ice dragon attach to him. He held an ultra-quality divine sword in his hand and cut through the sky.

Han Fei smiled and stepped forward, shortening the space.

At that moment, Han Fei reached out and grabbed at the void, and a Void Blade was drawn out by Han Fei.

Crack!

The huge sword shadow of Chu Menwang was instantly shattered. And Han Fei had already arrived in front of Chu Menwang.

Chu Menwang wanted to continue, but Han Fei simply said, "All laws forbidden in this space."

Chu Menwang's expression changed drastically, because Han Fei's saber had already reached him.

"Roar!"

Chu Menwang roared, "Ice Sealing Divine Armor."

A crystal clear ice armor appeared on Chu Menwang's body, with spiritual energy flashing on it.

Even though Chu Menwang was very confident in himself, he couldn't help being shocked.

He never thought that he would be forced to defend himself at the beginning of the battle.

However, Chu Menwang didn't panic. After all, Han Fei was only an advanced peak-level Venerable. Even if Han Fei's growth was terrifying, he was only an advanced peak-level Venerable However, when he was enveloped by Han Fei's knife light, he was shocked to find that the surrounding space seemed to be separated.

"Pet!"

Crack!

Before Chu Menwang had time to think, his body suddenly split into pieces. The so-called Ice Sealing Divine Armor didn't work at all.

At this moment, Han Fei stepped in front of Chu Menwang.

“Roar!”

The dragon roared, and Chu Menwang felt his soul tremble. His body was separated, and he, with only his head left, vomited blood from his seven orifices.

Han Fei pressed Chu Menwang's head with one hand, and the Void Lines instantly buckled all his limbs.

“Explode!”

Rumble!

Even in the void, the terrifying power of the explosion penetrated the void. In reality, one could see spatial cracks, and there was power penetrating down from the void.

Boom!

The millions of people on the Scattered Stars Island saw cracks appear in the sky, and a rain of blood poured down!

At this moment, everyone was dumbfounded.

Yes, everyone who saw this scene was dumbfounded.

Not just the strong masters, even ordinary Hanging Fishers and even Dangling Fishers... Although they couldn't see the details of the battle clearly, they saw that Chu Menwang slashed out a sword light that was three thousand meters long... However, the sword light was broken, and Chu Menwang was split into pieces. Han Fei grabbed his head and blew him up.

These ordinary cultivators didn't care about the complicated abilities... They only saw Han Fei kill a Venerable within less than a second as easily as killing a little white fish.

Therefore, the ordinary cultivators, Law Enforcers, and Explorers on the Scattered Stars Island were all shivering.

Someone grinned. “Marshal Han has returned. He's so powerful! He butchered a Venerable... That powerful Venerable from the Chu Sect was killed in one move?”

At the Empyrean Waterfall, the Star Turtle felt that its blood was freezing, and its shell was shaking, “This is horrible! This is horrible! I knew it! I know it! These people had occupied the Scattered Stars Island. When Han Fei returns, he will be furious.”

The Star Turtle had thought that Han Fei would come back and fight a big battle, but it didn't expect Han Fei to be so powerful! Nor did it expect that Han Fei could kill a peak-level Venerable so easily!

This was a peak-level Venerable! This was not a small fish or shrimp. Was he really so easy to fight?

Xue Shengi was speechless for a long time, Perhaps this was the so-called powerhouse bor at the right moment! Only such a person was destined to become a king.

He had been the supreme commander of the Scattered Stars Island for 50 years, and he had been very rational and enduring. He controlled the war between the Scattered Stars Island and the sea demons and used this war to nurture and mold talents for human beings.

But now it seemed that Han Fei had changed his conservative thinking in the past few years. Now that the sea demons had been annihilated... Judging from Han Fei's current strength, the big clans in the Thousand Star City were probably doomed.

As for the so-called king? That was pure bulls * it.

If anyone here could become a king, they would have done so long ago. Why would they wait until now? It was probably just an excuse for the big clans to easily rule the entire Yin-Yang World. Otherwise, they would really be killed!

Old Chen, who was in the Scattered Stars Archive Room, couldn't help but click his tongue when he saw this scene. He was writing something on a record of the supreme commanders of the Scattered Stars Island. "Now, Marshal Han has returned and opened the Sky Screen to challenge the Chu Sect Master, who is a peak-level Venerable. With one blow, Chu Menwang's sword was broken and he was killed..."

On the Scattered Stars Island, among the Venerables, only Xue Shengi, Old Chen, and the Star Turtle stood on Han Fei side.

'When the other four Venerables saw Han Fei kill Chu Menwang with a single blow from the sky screen, they were all scared out of their wits. That was Chu Menwang, a terrifying existence that could almost sweep across the Thousand Star City, yet he couldn't even withstand a single blow?

Their first thought was to run.

But it was too late.

At that moment, Xue Shengi, the Star Turtle, and Old Chen rose to the sky in unison, tearing through the void and blocking these people.

Not only Xue Shengi, but Ning Jing also appeared tens of thousands of kilometers away. She said, "You're finally back. Do you need my help?"

Han Fei smiled. "No."

In the next moment, Han Fei put on battle armor, his robe fluttered, and he walked in the air with Snowmourne in hand. In the eyes of ordinary people, he was like walking in the air.

Han Fei's voice echoed for tens of thousands of kilometers. "Everyone on the Scattered Stars Island, I, Han Fei, have returned today. The big clans of the Thousand Star City imprisoned Mr. Xue Shengi, occupied my marshal mansion, and exploited the people. They can't be forgiven. My city is called justice.

Our goal is the freedom of the people. Whoever stands in our way shall be killed. Whoever oppresses the people shall be killed... Well, in short, I'm telling you today that you won't be under anyone. You are the true masters of this land, this sea..."

While speaking, Han Fei didn't kill the other four.

He took a step out of the void and walked to the sea. The blue sea rippled and the void vibrated. An elder quickly walked out of the void.

Old Demon Chu had already rushed over as fast as possible the moment Chu Menwang sent out the message.

However, how could he have expected that Chu Menwang would die within a second after sending the message?!

When Old Chu saw Chu Menwang's life monument shatter, his heart almost exploded.

He couldn't think of anyone that could kill Chu Menwang in just one second, unless the other party had reached his level of strength.

However, as far as he knew, whether it was Han Guanshu, Tang Yan, or the woman who appeared with Han Fei... in fact, they were all only in the Half-King realm.

Old Demon Chu even thought that it would be great if the three of them could appear at the same time. He could take all three of them down in one go.

But now, Chu Menwang had died first.

"Elder Chu, Elder Chu..."

The four Venerables who were fleeing crazily breathed a sigh of relief when they saw Old Demon Chu.

The current Old Demon Chu had really broken through the limit of a Half-King.

The reason why Old Demon Chu was in the Thousand Star City recently was that Old Demon Chu attacked the Cao Family, forcing the Cao Family to use the family protecting array.

Seeing the four people relax, Han Fei smiled disdainfully. "Why, how do you know that Old Demon Chu can definitely save you?"

Among the four Venerables, Han Fei only knew one person, and that was Sun Baisheng.

Old Demon Chu looked into the distance and snorted. "Just the two of you?"

"Heh ~"

Han Fei sneered and activated the power of his Great Dao, his aura getting stronger and stronger. As Han Fei grew stronger, the void around him became unstable.

Bang!

Han Fei clenched his fist, and the void exploded like thunder. When the power gathered, Han Fei took a deep breath and infinite energy entered his body.

'When Old Demon Chu saw this scene, Sun Baisheng and the other three who were not far behind him felt their scalps tingle. They saw that the void around Han Fei shattered, turning into a storm of energy that poured crazily into Han Fei's body.

Old Demon Chu took a deep breath. "What great power. However, do you know what my Great Dao is?"

"Time, stop!"

Bang!

In the eyes of outsiders, the sky screen seemed to be frozen.

However, in the next moment, like the ice was broken, a scarlet and powerful fist mark penetrated the sky.

Rumble!

Old Demon Chu retreated hundreds of kilometers, his hands trembling.

Only he knew that his arms were completely shattered from inside.

However, this wasn't what surprised Old Demon Chu the most.

He asked in shock, "You can break the Time Technique?"

Han Fei smiled. "You aren't even in the Sea Establishment realm. What makes you think you can talk about time with me? Who do you think you are?"

As Han Fei spoke, his speed soared to the extreme, and he traversed thousands of kilometers with a single step. He clenched his fists again, and Old Demon Chu immediately collided with him.

But the void twisted, and Han Fei disappeared, bypassing him and appearing thousands of kilometers away.

"Roar!"

'A dragon roar exploded. Hundred Beast Soul Devouring was not something ordinary Venerables could resist.

The four people didn't even have time to run before their bodies exploded.

"Time Slash."

Old Demon Chu certainly wouldn't allow Han Fei to kill so many Venerables. After all, they were all subordinates of the Chu Sect.

However, Han Fei turned around, reached out, grabbed the void crack, turned it into a knife in his hand, and slashed at those people.

"Pu! Pu! Pu! Pu!"

'With just one slash, the three of them instantly decayed into dust.

Han Fei casually punched and blocked the remaining Time Slash. As he retreated, the Void Lines had already sucked towards the three dead Venerables.

At that moment, the remaining person managed to avoid Han Fei's attack because he ran fast.

Han Fei wasn't too bothered. He simply shouted, "All laws forbidden in this space."

Then, Han Fei flicked his finger, and the Infinity Water turned into a long saber that swept across the sky, chasing that man.

Boom!

Boom!

Four sky cracks appeared in a row, and a rain of blood poured down like a waterfall.

Chapter 1632: My Name Is Han Fei, And I'm Going to Kill A "King"

After all, Han Fei had fought two fake kings head-on and was quite familiar with the golden boy. He knew the power a fake king could have.

If it were before, Han Fei would have admitted defeat.

But now, Han Fei was really not afraid.

Apart from Xue Fan, no matter if it was the Golden Boy or the Black Evil Conch King, they could only kill three Half-Kings, or at most four.

However, in terms of combat power, he could fight four enemies alone. It didn't mean that his comprehensive strength had to be four times that of a Half-King. In fact, if a fake king could be three times or even only twice as powerful as Half-Kings... he could fight against four alone.

In terms of physique, Han Fei had definitely reached the fake king level.

He had already passed the Heavenly Tribulation twice. His Indestructible Body was so powerful that his flesh and blood couldn't be attached to it! His basic strength might be 20-30% stronger than ordinary Half-Kings. With this strength, plus the power of his Great Dao, he wouldn't be afraid at all even facing Old Demon Chu!

In particular, because of the Time Ring, Old Demon Chu's Dao was useless to him. Therefore, it wasn't difficult for Han Fei to fight Old Demon Chu.

Old Demon Chu saw that Han Fei easily... killed four Venerables in a row in front of him... Plus Chu Menwang who died earlier, Han Fei had killed five Venerables as soon as he showed up!

At this moment, he had to admit that Han Fei had risen to a level that even he might not be able to handle.

Old Demon Chu couldn't be more shocked. He had been looking for Han Fei all these years, but Han Fei seemed to have disappeared without a trace.

Now, when Han Fei appeared again, his strength was terrifying! If it weren't for his breakthrough, wouldn't he have been defeated by Han Fei?

Han Fei smiled and looked at the wound on his body that was cut open by Time Slash. A holy and gentle light descended, and the wound was fully recovered in the blink of an eye.

Han Fei said, "Old Demon Chu, I heard that you have become a king? Congratulations. Come, let's fight so that I can experience the horror of a king."

Old Demon Chu snorted coldly. "Han Fei, in fact, there's no need for us to fight like this. How about you ruling all the places outside the Thousand Star City? Let's not interfere with each other..."

"Hehe..."

Han Fei looked at Old Demon Chu as if he were an idiot. "Do you believe what you said? Now you know how to surrender? Where is your arrogance when you hunted me?"

Old Demon Chu narrowed his eyes and said, "If we fight, people will die. Since you want to become a king, don't you care about them?"

Han Fei put on a disdainful smile. "Okay, no need to waste time with me. Even if I give you a few seconds, so what? You're already a fake king, so let's be tough. Either the big clans give up all their properties and hand over their family's treasure trove, and I'll spare some people... Or, I'll go to the Thousand

Star City and personally destroy the big clans."

Old Chu narrowed his eyes. "Han Fei, do you really think you are invincible? Your current strength should be weaker than mine. Although you can block my Great Dao, your combat power may not be as strong as you think!"

Han Fei grinned. "So what? The Thousand Star City is only this big, and there are only those Venerables. Why don't you find another fake king? If you find another one, I'll let you live a few more years. Otherwise, you can come and hunt me."

Old Chu's heart surged. At this moment, he couldn't care less about the hearts of the people. The Chu Sect... or rather, a critical moment of the entire big clans had arrived. At this moment, only by killing Han Fei could everything return to normal.

With Han Fei's death, it would only take time to dilute the people's hatred for the big clans and even change the ruling mode of this place.

Old Chu snorted, and the void behind him cracked. He looked at Han Fei. "Then I'll wait and see."

Han Fei couldn't stop Old Chu from leaving.

In the void, Han Fei reached out and grabbed three more Sun-Moon Shells.

On the other side, the Infinity Water returned with a Sun-Moon Shell.

Han Fei grabbed a few Sun-Moon Shells and glanced at them. He didn't need the Spirit Awakening Fluid anymore. There wasn't a lot of spiritual spring in them, because Venerable didn't need much spiritual energy. He didn't really care about the other materials, but he could keep a small part of them.

Maybe he could use them in the future. As for the rest, he would donate them.

After quickly distributing the materials, Han Fei smiled.

The sky screen had been unfolded, and Han Fei's figure was slowly enlarged in the sky.

Clatter ~

"Marshal Han, it's Marshal Han."

"Oh my god! Marshal Han is back."

"Slaying five Venerables in a row? How strong is Marshal Han?"

For a time, the entire Scattered Stars Island was in an uproar. In the City of Justice, countless people flew into the sky, and endless pedestrians were walking on the streets, looking up at the sky.

Han Fei spread out his perception and found that the Scattered Stars Island was now 8,000 kilometers long. It was much bigger than when he first came.

It was not easy to do this.

Han Fei heard countless shouts and discussions.

Han Fei learned some things from these people.

For example, someone asked the person next to him blankly, "Is the hatred between Marshal Han and the big clans his hatred, or ours? That person just now seems to be... the one who has already become a king?"

As soon as this person asked, several people sneered. "Brat, what do you know? A king? He just said so. The king ran away when he saw Marshal Han?"

Someone cursed, "The grudge between Marshal Han and the big clans is the grudge between ordinary people and the big clans. The City of Justice was founded for the justice in our hearts, for the justice of the people, and for the freedom of the human world! Here, there is no exploitation. As long as we take risks, everyone is equal. This is the reason why we came to the City of Justice. But what about the big clans? How many people have they stationed here? There is already a shortage of supplies in the market... Some important supplies have to be bought in the black market. Is this still the City of Justice?"

Someone replied, "The old man from the Chu Sect moved Marshal Han's statues away two years ago. Not only on the Scattered Stars Island, but also in the Thirty-Six Towns. Why? Because only Marshal Han represents the heart of us

Many people who came later had only heard of Han Fei's legend, but didn't know the influence Han Fei had on the Scattered Stars Island. Especially as the Scattered Stars Island grew bigger and bigger, there were more and more adventurers in the City of Justice... Many people could only listen to Han Fei's legend.

Now that they had finally seen the real Han Fei, there were certainly disputes.

Standing in the sky screen, Han Fei couldn't tell how many people were on the island.

If it was just a million, he could quickly calculate it. However, there were at least twice as many people here as before. And these were only the people who were stationed on the island, not counting the adventurers in the outer sea.

Listening to the discussions, what Han Fei was thinking of was the power of faith.

Standing in the air with his hands behind his back, Han Fei grinned. "My fellow compatriots, my name is Han Fei, the current supreme commander of the Scattered Stars Island. Do you remember me?"

"Yes!"

"Of course! Who doesn't remember Marshal Han?"

"That's impossible to forget!"

Amidst the tsunami-like cheers, Han Fei felt that he was like a superstar.

It was like a concert. Everybody was waving their fluorescent sticks with him.

Han Fei extended his hand from behind and pointed at the rain of blood in the sky. "Everyone, let me tell you a secret. When a Venerable dies, a Great Dao crack will appear. There's a lot of energy in it. Maybe it's mixed with the luck of a Venerable. It can help you make a breakthrough. Feel it. Anyway, they're all Venerables of big clans. It's not a pity for them to die. What do you think?"

After that, Han Fei winked at everyone.

"Hahaha!"

Someone laughed. "Look, this is Marshal Han! Although he is extremely powerful, he is really good to us!"

Someone quickly sat cross-legged and shouted to his friend, "Come on, sit down and watch while you make the breakthrough."

The man shouted, "No... is breakthrough more important than listening to Marshal Han's speech?"

Han Fei put away the smile on his face and pretended to be sad. "Everyone, I heard that an idiot from a big clan came to tell you two years ago that he had become a king? I was confused. Can anyone become a king in this sea area? So, I came back today. Well... I'm pretty sure that person is crazy."

Han Fei paused before he continued. "Let me tell you, no one in the world we live in can become a king."

Hua!

Instantly, countless people were shocked.

Someone was shocked. "No one can become a king? Really?"

Someone didn't care. "It's a king! Those are all legendary existences. Anyway, they have nothing to do with us."

Someone was puzzled. "Why can't anyone in this world become a king?"

Han Fei smiled. "Let me keep you in suspense. This is a secret that even the big clans of the Thousand Star City don't know. However, I do... So, wait a few days. Let me beat them to death one by one before I tell you the secret... At that time, I will definitely not charge you... Haha..."

"Pett!"

Someone was speechless, "When did Marshal Han become so funny?"

Someone couldn't help but laugh. "Interesting. This is different from the previous Marshal Han!"

Someone couldn't help but sigh. "Now I wonder if this is the Marshal Han we know..."

But suddenly, in their eyes, Han Fei's face was full of cracks. His hands and his neck were also full of cracks.

At this time, Han Fei put away the smile on his face and became solemn and ruthless.

Han Fei said indifferently, "I don't want you to see this. I'm afraid it will scare you. But everyone, I've traveled through countless dangerous places, fought countless battlefields, and slaughtered countless Venerables... I did all these not to conquer a huge sea area and let the big clans bring disaster to it."

Han Fei's tone became heavier and heavier. "I know that some of you think that the conflict between me and the big clans extends to you. However, what I'm fighting for is power. I'm fighting for the future of the human race... Whether you like it or not, I'm going to destroy the big clans."

Buzz!

At that moment, countless people looked at Han Fei in shock. For a moment, countless people on the Scattered Stars Island were silent.

In the crowd.

He Xiaoyu, Lin Wu, You Lingyun, Mu Jiaer, and Guan Qingyan were all here.

Han Fei's former subordinates were all here.

These people looked at Han Fei. For some reason, their faces gradually became solemn.

Immediately, someone was moved. "Marshal Han, we support you."

Someone shouted, "Marshal Han, although we are not strong enough, we will never bow down to the big clans in this life."

Someone was shocked. "Kill them!"

Under the solemn gaze of countless people, Han Fei pointed at the sky. "The old monster of Chu Sect said that he has already become a king. If he dares to say it, I dare to fight him. My fellow soldiers, wait a few days... I'll show them whether this world is up to the big clans or us!"

With that, Han Fei turned around, left, and closed the sky curtain.

At that moment, a lonely voice echoed between the heavens and earth.

"My name is Han Fei. I'm going to kill a king..."

Chapter 1633: Opportunities in the Hot Pot Restaurant

Han Fei didn't go to the Thousand Star City immediately. He had to go there anyway, but he wasn't in a hurry.

At this moment, the first thing Han Fei needed to do was to get the power of faith back. Now, the power of faith on the Scattered Stars Island and the 36 towns had plummeted because of the destruction of his statues.

Of course, as long as someone sincerely prayed to Han Fei, Han Fei could always receive the power of faith. However, if the statue was moved away, it would definitely affect a large number of people. Some ordinary cultivators who didn't know what happened might even think that something had happened!

Therefore, he couldn't bear this!

Only at that moment did Han Fei clearly feel the power of faith enter his body.

However, the power of faith contributed by the people on the Scattered Stars Island was not enough. Han Fei needed a lot of faith power to disassemble spiritual energy... As he grew faster and faster, the disassembling degree of spiritual energy became more and more important!

For example, the old turtle once said that he could disassemble spiritual energy by 95%, and he couldn't be weaker than the old turtle.

But in fact, according to his current growth rate, when he reached the level of a Half-King, it was hard to say if his spiritual energy could be disassembled to 85%!

'The Insect King's disassembling speed was 88%.

He was the master of the Yin-Yang World and the master of the Heavenly Palace, but his spiritual energy was not as good as the Insect King's... That was outrageous.

Therefore, before the battle just now, Han Fei released the Sky Screen and successfully put on a big show. Han Fei's first step was of course to take back the power of faith from the Scattered Stars Island!

Obviously, this step succeeded.

However, he hadn't taken back the power of faith from the Thirty-Six Towns yet. After all, his realm was higher and his demand was higher. He couldn't only count on the Scattered Stars Island! After all, this was just an island. Everyone could see what happened here.

But the area of the Thirty-Six Towns was huge. Even if Han Fei traveled to them one by one and gave speeches, it would take him a few days.

So

The Marshal's Mansion.

Han Fei said, "Wang Lin, come here."

'Wang Lin, the former commander of the Logistics Division, who knew how to observe people, was transferred to the Department of Construction as a supervisor. He once built a cultivation tower with the bones of Venerables to facilitate the cultivation of the people on the Scattered Stars Island.

Today, Wang Lin was shocked to see how Han Fei killed five Venerables in a row. He thought to himself, Han Fei might be the most powerful supreme commander in history! He killed human Venerable without even batting an eye!

Besides, other people might not know how terrifying Chu Menwang was, but the management of the Scattered Stars Island knew a little about him.

He was the current family head of the Chu Sect, a peak-level Venerable. Few people on the Scattered Stars Island could withstand his slap.

But Han Fei killed such a strong master with a slap.

At this moment, Han Fei had just finished his speech and he thought that he had gone to the Thousand Star City. Who knew that Han Fei would summon him first?

In the construction department, Wang Lin didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

He replied in a hurry, "Marshal Han, I'm here. I'll be right there."

In the Marshal's Mansion, Han Fei stood in front of the sea chart with his back facing Wang Lin.

'Wang Lin smiled obsequiously. "Marshal Han, I knew you would come back. Those b*stards from the Chu Sect bullied us. I was too weak to do anything when your statues were pulled down... Marshal Han, don't worry. Your statues will be rebuilt in three days."

Hearing that, Han Fei finally turned around.

'When Wang Lin saw Han Fei's face full of cracks with his own eyes, he was horrified. Han Fei was already so powerful. How could he still be injured?

If he were to fight someone, how powerful must that person be to beat Han Fei to such a state?

Han Fei said unhurriedly, "Poor Thirty-Six Towns. Hundreds of millions of people just had hope, but their hope was shattered in just a few years. They must think that I lied to them..."

'Wang Lin was immediately refreshed. He immediately understood what Han Fei meant.

Han Fei's statues were destroyed. The Thirty-Six Towns thought that the era of Han Fei's rule was over and the City of Justice became a joke.

'Wang Lin bowed and shouted, "Marshal Han, the people of the Thirty-Six Towns will never forget your contribution to mankind. I will let them know that you have returned within a month. This time, we will wipe out the big clans in the Thousand Star City and create the glorious era of mankind..."

'The more Wang Lin talked, the more excited he became. Ning Jing felt that her scalp tingle when he heard Wang Lin's words. This guy almost worshiped Han Fei as a god.

Han Fei heaved a sigh. "Wang Lin, you're the one who knows me best in the management of the City of Justice. As you can hear, I'm going to kill the 'king' and let the people know that I've returned. I need the people's confidence and encouragement. Do you understand?"

"Got it!"

'Wang Lin broke into a cold sweat and felt that his back was all wet.

For some reason, standing in front of Han Fei, he felt fear from the bottom of his heart.

"Gulp ~"

'Wang Lin swallowed. "Half a month. In this half a month, I'll do my best to erect statues of you on every island in the 36 towns. I'll announce to the world that you've returned and will slaughter the king."

Han Fei immediately smiled. "Okay, thank you. Well... in half a month, I'll ascend to the sky. Spread the news. I need everyone in the City of Justice and the Thirty-Six Towns to know about this... During this period, as long as it doesn't affect the normal operation of the Scattered Stars Island, all personnel will be at your disposal."

With that, Han Fei took out his 13-star badge, which represented his authority and no one dared to copy it.

Han Fei threw it casually, and Wang Lin held it with both hands, excited.

This was f*cking exciting!

From this moment on, he would be a very powerful person on the Scattered Stars Island, but he didn't dare to abuse this token.

At this moment, Wang Lin felt hot all over. It was an excitement of being appreciated.

Wang Lin shouted, "Marshal Han, don't worry. I guarantee with my head that within half a month, except for the Thousand Star City, even the sea demons in the sea will know that you will ascend the sky and kill the Evil King."

Han Fei's lips curled. "Huh! You're a saber user, right? I have a saber technique. Now it's yours..."

The moment Han Fei handed over the jade slip, Wang Lin deeply understood what it meant to die for the one who appreciated you... At this moment, even if he had to sacrifice his life, he would definitely complete this task.

In half a month, he would build Han Fei's statues on every island in the 36 towns.

After sending Wang Lin away, Han Fei looked at the void and heard someone say, "You asked someone to erect statues for you? You're too narcissistic."

Han Fei smiled. "You don't understand. I'm doing this for human beings."

The void vibrated, and Ning Jing broke through the void and looked at Han Fei strangely. "I really don't see that you're doing this for human beings. Forget it. Have you been in the Wall of Death these past few years? Is it dangerous there? You seem to have been seriously injured..."

Jing'er kept chattering, "That's not right. How could your strength have improved so fast? You were only a junior Venerable when you left. How did you make two breakthroughs in just four years?"

Ning Jing kept chattering like a machine gun.

Han Fei immediately said, "Stop, stop... What I experienced in the past few years... It's very complicated, so I won't tell you everything. Tell me about the situation in the Thousand Star City first."

"Well, I don't know! I didn't go to the Thousand Star City, but I met your father twice. He said that the Thousand Star City is fine. Don't worry about it."

"Huh? Where is Old Han?"

Ning Jing said, "The last time I saw him was half a year ago in the outer sea. At that time, the old man from the Chu family wanted to kill me, but he wasn't as fast as me. So, I knew that what he said about becoming a king was fake. If the queen wanted to catch me, she could easily cut off my path... Later, L accidentally fell into that old man's ambush. Fortunately, your father saved me."

Han Fei was briefly stunned. "My father saved you?"

Ning Jing said, "Your father's strength has reached the Half-King realm. Besides, he's not an ordinary Half-King. He's very strong."

Han Fei raised his eyebrows. "Well, let's go to the Thirty-Six Towns..."

Three days later.

The statue of Han Fei on the Scattered Stars Island was rebuilt, and millions of people were watching, but Han Fei didn't appear.

Seven days passed.

Thirty-Six Towns, Blue Sea Town, Fish Dragon Hot Pot Restaurant.

Today's Fish Dragon Hot Pot Restaurant had become the trademark of the Blue Sea Town. The hot pot restaurant was famous because Han Fei personally invented hot pot. Therefore, many members of the Fish Dragons liked to call it Marshal Han Hot Pot Restaurant.

But in the past two years, business at Fish Dragon Hot Pot Restaurant had been declining.

Although no one attacked the hot pot restaurant, since Han Fei's statues were removed, many people began to guess what happened to Han Fei.

The members of the Fish Dragons waited in fear for four years.

Until recently, red raindrops fell from the sky, and Great Dao cracks appeared in the sky. Many people began to spread rumors that Venerables had died.

The death of five Venerables shocked the people of the 36 towns.

Venerables! What level of a powerhouse was that? Five Venerables had died in a row in just a few seconds? Who could have achieved such a combat record?

At first, some people thought it was the sea demons' counterattack.

But on that day, the mayors and village leaders of the 36 towns came out to refute the rumors and declared, "Han Fei has returned and ended the big clans' rule over the Scattered Stars Island..."

On this day.

At the gate of the Fish Dragon Hot Pot Restaurant, at noon, 3,000 members gathered.

Li Gang, accompanied by his wife, Xiao Hong, Li Qing, the deputy leader of the Fish Dragons, Chen Eryu, the manager of the Fish Dragon Card Room, Li Baixia, and Li Duoyu, who were responsible for making Fish Dragon Cards, were waiting outside.

The actions of the Fish Dragons shocked the entire Blue Sea Town.

What the hell happened?

Many smart people realized something.

So, in a moment, the Blue Sea Town was in an uproar. Everybody said that Marshal Han had returned to his hometown and was at the Fish Dragon Hot Pot Restaurant. Everybody on the island rushed to see Han Fei.

In the exclusive private room of the Fish Dragon Hot Pot Restaurant, Li Gang and Xiao Hong were serving dishes and wine to Han Fei and Ning Jing. Li Gang's son, who was only eight years old, was responsible for pouring wine for Han Fei and Ning Jing.

Ning Jing was stuffing herself. She had cleared one plate and then another. Her stomach was like a bottomless pit that extended into the ocean.

Ning Jing was about to ask Li Gang to serve the food after finishing a crab roe dumpling when Han Fei suddenly said, "Okay, that's all for today!"

Ning Jing couldn't help but say regretfully, "Why didn't you tell me this place until now?"

Han Fei shrugged. "Don't you know it now?"

Li Gang said with a smile, "Lord, to make it more convenient for you, I've ordered the kitchen to start a full operation. Hundreds of dishes have been prepared for you."

Ning Jing knew it. She grinned and said, "Okay, I'll take them all."

After that, Ning Jing glanced at Han Fei and then at the child who was pouring wine for her. She immediately said, "Fine, I won't eat your food for free. This child looks quite smart. I'll give him a drop of Crystal Essence, which can cleanse his body and improve his spiritual heritage to level six."

Li Gang and Xiao Hong were overjoyed.

Xiao Hong said, "Thank you, Leader. Han'er, come on, thank Leader and this lord."

The child must have been taught. He said eloquently, "Thank you, Leader, thank you, Lord."

Ning Jing pointed casually, and Li Han froze on the spot.

Han Fei shook his head slightly and looked at Li Gang. "Heh! It seems that this kid is quite lucky. But you really don't know how to name your son..."

"Heh, hehe..."

Han Fei got up, threw a Sea Swallowing Seashell to Li Gang, and said, "Cultivating a kid with a level-six Spiritual Heritage is very expensive. Take this as a bonus for your hard work over the years. If you don't know how to use it, go to the Scattered Stars Island to check it out... Now, go out."

Li Gang immediately stuffed the Sea Swallowing Seashell into his sleeve with trembling hands. While thanking Han Fei, he winked at Xiao Hong. "Stay here with our son..."

Chapter 1634: Ascend to the Sky

The gate of the Fish Dragon Hot Pot Restaurant was already crowded with people.

The entire Blue Sea Town knew that the Fish Dragons were a good gang. They did business without bullying the commoners and often helped the villages under the Blue Sea Town.

Many people in the Blue Sea Town wanted to join the Fish Dragons, but the scrutiny was very strict.

A few days ago, the news that Han Fei slaughtered five Venerates in a row and wanted to kill a king came... At that time, many people actually heard it as a story.

Then, on the third day after the story was spread, Han Fei's statues began to be rebuilt in every town, even including the villages under the Blue Sea Town

At this moment, it was unknown who guessed it.

In short, the news of Marshal Han's arrival spread like snowflakes.

For a moment, the entire Blue Sea Town went crazy. The presidents of the three academies rushed over with their teachers and students.

The others, including many great fishing masters and Dangling Fishers, all came to see Han Fei.

Outside the Fish Dragon Hot Pot Restaurant.

The three thousand members of the Fish Dragons waited eagerly.

Many people had never seen their leader since they joined the Fish Dragons. At this moment, they couldn't be more excited.

And Han Fei didn't disappoint them.

Since he had already shown up, the ones who should be nervous were Old Demon Chu and his party. They didn't have any means to stop him... Therefore, he could go to the Thousand Star City at any time. Anyway, he could come out of it a few years ago, let alone now?

As for Han Fei, he waited for all the statues to be rebuilt

The Blue Sea Town was the 13th town that Han Fei had taken Ning Jing to travel.

Han Fei called it an "inspection".

'When the two of them walked out of the Fish Dragon Hot Pot Restaurant, countless people looked up at Han Fei with burning eyes and short breaths.

In the crowd, there were whispers.

"Is that Marshal Han? Is that really Marshal Han?"

"Marshal Han? That's our leader. Others call him Marshal Han, but we call him our leader."

"Wow, is that our leader? He's so sturdy!"

Someone sighed. "I once followed Leader for a few days and watched a plantation for him."

Someone rolled his eyes. "You've mentioned this eight hundred times. If I were here, you wouldn't have been able to do it."

Immediately, Li Qing, Li Eryu, Li Baixia, Li Duoduo, and the others all stepped forward and shouted in unison, "Greetings, Leader."

Then, the three thousand members shouted in unison, "Greetings, Leader..."

Han Fei smiled and glanced at the mayor and the three presidents who were looking at him with complicated eyes.

Back then, they despised the Fourth Academy and hoped to win with numbers. But it turned out that even a million ordinary people couldn't resist the rise of a peerless genius.

Han Fei stepped into the void and set up a Spirit Gathering Array, and spiritual energy dragons gathered under his feet.

Buzz!

Han Fei activated the Invincible Golden Body, which was more than 30 meters tall.

This scene made countless people gasp. The golden color was always so charming, and the tall figure was always shocking. It represented strength.

Han Fei said casually, "Um! When I founded the Fish Dragons, I once said that the Fish Dragons should behave themselves, not cause trouble, and not lord over others... You've done a good job in these aspects. I'm now the commander of the Scattered Stars Island and the representatives of countless ordinary people. I can't treat you specially just because you're from a gang that I founded... This time, I'm back just to see the world before I ascend the sky and slaughter the king..."

Han Fei said casually.

'The members below didn't know why a super powerhouse like Han Fei still needed to fight. However, they knew that Han Fei was fighting for countless people and mankind. That was enough!

Li Gang shouted, "Leader must win! Leader must win!"

Down below, the three thousand members shouted in unison, "Leader must win!"

Han Fei smiled and motioned for the people to stop shouting. Then he looked around and said solemnly, "Since I'm here, I'd like to say something."

Han Fei said solemnly, "Since a long time ago, I have always wondered why the Blue Sea Town is a town and not a city. Because the city is above the Blue Sea Town and the Thirty-Six Towns. There are billions of people in the Thirty-Six Towns, but few of them can enter the city. This is obviously unfair.

For personal gains, the big clans don't allow the weak people of the Thirty-Six Towns to enter the city! Let me tell you, the spiritual energy there is stronger and the combat skills there are more abundant... But why do all the good things belong to the Thousand Star City? Why can't the people share them?"

Han Fei's voice was like rolling thunder, echoing above the Blue Sea Town.

Han Fei smiled casually. "Therefore, I'm going to conquer the Thousand Star City and wipe out the big clans in the Thousand Star City. I heard that two years ago, someone from a big clan in the Thousand Star City claimed to have become a king? That person looted a lot of resources when I wasn't around.

These resources were earned by countless people with their lives. How can he just take possession of the resources? Who does he think he is? Therefore, I'm going to take back everything they took away from us... Therefore, I'm going to ascend the sky and slaughter the king. I don't ask you to pray for me to return with a big victory. I just hope that you can know that this world, this sea, doesn't belong to one person alone. Everyone should have a share of it..."

Since ancient times, the people were the easiest to instigate, even if they were all cultivators.

When Han Fei's speech came to an end, many people cheered.

"Marshal Han, keep it up! Destroy the big clans!"

"Marshal Han, we support you."

"Marshal Han, you must conquer the Thousand Star City. Let's see what the hell that place is!"

'What Han Fei was advocating was freedom, a fairer world.

After the people heard Han Fei's speech, in their eyes, the Thousand Star City was no longer a mysterious place, and the big clans in the Thousand Star City were synonymous with exploitation.

Even Ning Jing believed that Han Fei was trying to save the human beings in the Yin-Yang World in a special way and leading them to prosperity.

However, only one person knew that Han Fei was doing this for the power of faith.

That was the old turtle.

If Han Fei was really doing this for the sake of the human race, there wouldn't have been a problem with the limits of his Dao heart. And Han Fei definitely didn't break through the limits of his Dao heart because of the human race!

Therefore, Han Fei's purpose of going to the 36 towns was just to give a tour speech so that more people could see him, hear him, trust him and pray for him.

When Han Fei really swept through the big clans in the Thousand Star City, it would be a huge harvest of the power of faith. From the Thousand Star City to the Scattered Stars Island and then to the 36 towns, Han Fei would use the slaughter of the king to harvest the power of faith of the entire human clan in the Yin-Yang World .

As one of the few people who could understand Han Fei's intentions, the old turtle felt that Han Fei wasn't suitable to be a righteous person.

'The Thug Academy, the Blue Sea Town.

This place was now managed by the Fish Dragons. The plantation here was now the source of materials for the Fish Dragons' hot pot restaurants. Therefore, it had always been heavily guarded.

After Han Fei finished his speech, he quietly came to this place.

There was no one here, but to Han Fei's surprise, there was another guy here. It was the Ghost Eye Giant Crocodile that Han Fei won back from the Wind Thunder Town.

At this moment, the Ghost Eye Giant Crocodile looked at Han Fei in shock. "You're back?"

Han Fei was puzzled. "Why are you still here?"

The Ghost Eye Giant Crocodile asked, "The spiritual energy here is suitable. Why should I leave?"

Han Fei sneered. At first, he wanted to catch this guy and make him the guardian beast of the school. However, now that everyone else had left, this guy was still here.

Han Fei said, "The ten-year agreement is over. You're free to leave now."

Then, Han Fei thought for a moment and threw a Sea Swallowing Seashell to the Ghost Eye Giant Crocodile. "This is a gift for you. Maybe someone will come back here in the future... But who knows? If you want to stay, stay!"

Half a month later.

Han Fei walked through the 36 towns, and the half-month agreement with Wang Lin had expired.

On this day, countless people on the Scattered Stars Island and the Thirty-Six Towns raised their heads from time to time to see if there were any Great Dao cracks in the sky.

‘There were endless discussions among the people.

Someone said, “Do you think Marshal Han can win this time?”

Someone said firmly, “Of course. Who is Marshal Han? He has slaughtered countless Venerables. He can definitely wipe out those big clans.”

On the Scattered Stars Island, someone exclaimed, “I wonder how many resources the big clans in the Thousand Star City have.”

The people from the Scattered Stars Island sneered. “I can only say that it’s like water in the sea, endless.”

The carnival shops in the City of Justice were very lively today.

Someone shouted, “Hey, why are there so many people today? Why don’t you go to sea?”

Someone sneered. “Who’s in the mood to go to sea? Today is a big day. Marshal Han said that he would kill the king today. Today, someone will die. It’s worth a look.”

“Tsk! Ah ~”

Someone took a sip of wine and said, “I’m really worried for the ordinary people in the Thousand Star City. That’s a battle between the Venerables. Even the slightest wisp of power slipping down from their fingertips is not something ordinary people can deal with, right?”

While everyone was looking forward to it.

Han Fei had already ascended the sky and left.

Old Demon Chu couldn’t block the entire Thousand Star City and all roads.

For the current Han Fei, it was easy for him to break through the void.

However, what Han Fei didn’t know was that the moment he set off, the old man who had been sitting in the Scattered Stars Island’s archive room for a hundred years left with a knife.

In the Transverse Mountain on the Scattered Stars Island, Xue Shengqi said indifferently, “Since you’ve picked a side, you should know you’ll have to fight this battle sooner or later.”

In the level-three fishery, Li Daxian sighed. “What a pity! Although I’m no longer a human, I can’t miss this battle.”

Inacertain market in the Thousand Star City.

An elegant middle-aged man was drinking tea. He said casually, “Although we didn’t work so hard for this day, all our goals will be accomplished today. From now on, that kid doesn’t need my help anymore...”

Chapter 1635: A Single Man, Like a Million-Soldier Army

In the past, Ren Tianfei bragged that he broke into the Thousand Star City and no one could defeat him.

At that time, Han Fei felt that it was quite powerful. Old Ren was indeed strong. However, after Ren Tianfei's identity was revealed, he was actually the controller of the Heavenly Palace. When he was still in his best state, his strength was probably still at its peak... At that time, it wasn't a big problem for him to sweep across the Thousand Star City.

Now that Old Demon Chu had reached the fake king realm, Ren Tianfei dared to try again?

However, Han Fei did.

Han Fei's declaration had spread throughout the Scattered Stars Island and the 36 towns.

Millions of people had known Han Fei through the stories about him. Now, after Han Fei's inspection of the 36 towns and re-erected his statues ... Even if some people didn't know Han Fei, 80% of them had probably heard of him.

Thousand Star City.

The big clans had long dismissed their disciples.

Those Heavenly Talents had basically been all dismissed. They usually stuffed them from one island to another to prevent anyone from recognizing them.

However, this method was useless for the more famous ones.

'The big clans were in a panic. The news that Han Fei killed Chu Menwang with one move had already spread. No matter how conceited they were, they didn't dare to challenge Han Fei now. After all, their family didn't have a peak-level Venerable.

However, although the juniors could be dismissed, where could the Venerables hide?

They couldn't hide, so they could only place their hope on Chu Sect. After all, Old Demon Chu was already a king!

However, Old Demon Chu was the only person in Chu Sect who knew he was not a real king yet. He actually didn't want to announce that he had become a king. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been so quiet. He attacked the Cao Family and controlled the Scattered Stars Island just to find something that others didn't understand: luck.

But clearly, his efforts only led to Han Fei's return and the fight.

The seven major sects had activated their sect-protecting arrays the day Old Demon Chu became a fake king, Because on that day, Old Demon Chu attacked the Heavenly Sword Sect first, intending to kill the Sky Sword Master to establish his dominance. But the Heavenly Sword Sect took out a sword, which sealed up the entire Heavenly Sword Sect. The sword edge collided with Old Demon Chu once, but Old Demon Chu left without any results.

At this moment, Old Demon Chu didn't get the treatment a real king deserved yet.

However, there was no doubt that Old Demon Chu had become stronger. This was because Old Demon Chu went to attack the Cao Family after the Heavenly Sword Sect. Cao Tianzhi and Old Demon Chu fought for less than three seconds, and after being seriously injured, he retreated and sealed the gate of the Cao family.

At this point, all the Venerables had guessed that Old Demon Chu hadn't become a king, otherwise, neither the Sky Sword Master nor Cao Tianzhi could escape.

Of course, although everyone knew it, no one came out to reveal the truth.

Old Demon Chu's strength had soared, causing the seven major sects and Cao family to seal their gates. This had established the Chu Sect's status as the strongest family in the Thousand Star City.

Unfortunately, no one knew how long they could be the strongest family.

For example, today, when Han Fei entered the Thousand Star City, all the Venerables were watching the battle between Han Fei and Old Demon Chu. These Venerables felt that this was probably just a duel between Old Demon Chu and Han Fei.

If Old Demon Chu was killed, the big clans could only admit defeat. After all, in the world of cultivators, the strong were respected. Which big clan didn't rise up like this?

They had no other choice but to admit defeat.

In fact, some people knew the secrets of this world. This place was enshrouded in cages and stretched across eight million kilometers of sea. They could only walk so far. Where could they hide?

Bang!

Suddenly, there was an explosion in the sky above the Thousand Star City.

The ordinary people in the entire Thousand Star City didn't know what happened yet. In the sky above the Zhang family, Han Fei came, and half of the Zhang family people here had already left.

It seemed that they had already expected Han Fei to come. There were not many Heavenly Talents in the Zhang family. To be honest, Han Fei didn't care about the remaining clansmen of the Zhang family.

Buzz ~ Buzz ~

Two Venerables showed up.

Zhang Zhihuo knew Han Fei from a long time ago. Seeing Han Fei at this moment, he felt a mixture of feelings. He remembered when he first saw Han Fei, Han Fei hadn't become a Venerable yet.

At that time, he couldn't beat Han Fei, let alone now.

The person beside Zhang Zhihuo was named Zhang Yun, a peak-level advanced Venerable. This was the strongest combat power of the Zhang family now, and one of the trump cards of the Zhang family that could stand tall in the Thousand Star City.

Zhang Xun cupped his hands at Han Fei. "I didn't expect you to come to our Zhang family first."

Han Fei grinned. "The Zhang family is rich! Since you're waiting for me here, you must have prepared all the resources, right?"

Zhang Xun was surprisingly calm. He waved his hand, and thirty Sun-Moon Shells floated in front of him.

Zhang Xun said, "The resources of the Zhang family are here. However, Han Fei, the Thousand Star City, the 36 towns, and the Scattered Stars Island can't do without the Zhang family. This world relies on the currency rules we set."

Han Fei sneered. "Monetary rules can be redefined. With your Zhang family's capabilities, you should have heard about this long ago. Since you took the initiative to hand over your resources, I can spare your lives. However, in the Zhang family, all the strong masters above the Law Enforcer realm will be enlisted. Don't even think about letting some people hide among ordinary people. It's useless."

Hearing that, Zhang Zhihuo immediately said anxiously, "Han Fei! The Zhang family has already done our part. If you want resources, we'll give them to you. You can even kill both of us, but why can't the Zhang family's bloodline be spared?"

Han Fei looked at Zhang Zhihuo as if he were an idiot. "You think I want to kill them? Do you think I would attack ordinary people with my current strength?"

Zhang Zhihuo asked, "Then what do you mean?"

Han Fei looked at the Chu Sect's side and grinned. "You need to gain your lives back. The Zhang family should kill as many Venerables as the Zhang family have. Your Zhang family has enjoyed glory for ten thousand years. Now it's time for you to pay back. All descendants of the Zhang family must go to war with me. When we win, they can become ordinary people."

"Go to war?"

Zhang Xun and Zhang Zhihuo were a little puzzled. Now, the sea demons had almost been annihilated. Where could they go to fight?

Han Fei reached out and grabbed the 30 Sun-Moon Shells.

Scanning it with his perception, he was secretly shocked even though he had once had a lot of resources. This family was too rich! There were hundreds of millions of kilograms of spiritual spring, and there were twenty Sun-Moon Shells stuffed with ultra-quality and mid-quality pearls. The other

Sun-Moon Shells were also full of spiritual fruits and other materials.

Han Fei couldn't estimate the value of these resources at all.

However, Han Fei glanced at Zhang Xun indifferently. "That's too little. When I return, remember to make up for it. Otherwise, don't blame me for forgetting what I just said."

Han Fei didn't believe a super clan that controlled almost the economy of the entire Yin-Yang World only had so few resources!

No matter what Zhang Xun wanted to say, Han Fei didn't want to listen.

He reached out and tore open the void. With a flip of his hand, the Sky Hanging Mirror appeared in his hand.

At that moment, in the sky above the Thousand Star City.

The sky screen unfolded, and Han Fei was wearing a scarlet red battle suit, his long hair fluttering. In the sky, Han Fei's body seemed to be flashing, because every step he crossed covered dozens of kilometers.

Han Fei said, "Everyone in the Thousand Star City, my name is Han Fei, the current supreme commander of the Scattered Stars Island. I'm from 36 towns. I heard that Old Demon Chu claimed to be a king, Today, I'm here to sweep the big clans in the Thousand Star City. I once told you that I would turn this world into a world of commoners. The Thousand Star City will be completely connected to the Scattered Stars Island and the 36 towns. The entire sea will be your adventure ground... Today, I'm here to fulfill my promise."

As they talked, Han Fei was less than 3,000 kilometers away from Chu Sect.

In the Thousand Star City, countless people looked up.

Someone sighed. "It's Han Fei from a few years ago. He's back again. However, can he really make it in such a short time?"

Someone sighed. "How confident is he to face the big clans alone?"

Someone was puzzled. "That Old Demon Chu declared that he had become a king, but Han Fei still dared to challenge him. Has he also become a king?"

Someone sneered. "Become a king? Maybe it's just an improvement in strength. If he really becomes a king, how can the Central Holy City not open? How can a king not show a miracle? How can a king be challenged?"

Seven major sects.

Many people were also watching this scene.

The so-called Heavenly Talents of the same era as Han Fei had lost their pride as early as when Han Fei became the supreme commander of the Scattered Stars Island.

Gong Yuehan of the Jade Fairy Palace, Chu Xun of the Grand Void Academy, Lu Wuwei of the Death Door Sect... These people were quietly looking up.

Above the void, Han Fei was walking forward.

'When he was only a thousand kilometers away from Chu Sect, he suddenly heard Old Demon Chu shout, "Han Fei, I didn't expect you to really come. Since you're here, stay here forever."

At that moment, a star light appeared behind Han Fei without any warning.

In the sky curtain, no one could react, but Han Fei disappeared into thin air.

'When a red light pierced Han Fei's shadow, the void within thousands of kilometers was instantly frozen. Han Fei grabbed Snowmourne, and before anyone could see clearly, his sword cut through the sky.

Boom!

All of a sudden, a crack appeared in the sky. Before anyone could see anything, a Venerable had died.

"Hiss ~"

Countless people gasped.

"Shoot... What just happened?"

"F*ck! That's a Venerable! He was killed but no one saw how he was killed?"

Amidst countless exclamations, Han Fei felt that the void was sealed. Someone who had mastered the Great Dao of Space had come.

"Heh ~"

Han Fei smiled contemptuously and waved his hand, and Infinity Water poured out.

At this moment, the Infinity Water was as hard as an ultra-quality Divine weapon and the Blade Inferno instantly formed.

Behind Han Fei, billions of blades were slashing forward like a tide.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Above the nine heavens, in the void, the saber aura surged like a tide.

Han Fei stood on the tide like a billion-soldier army..

Chapter 1636: Suppress Thousand Star

How could ordinary cultivators easily watch a battle between Venerables?

Clang!

At the moment when Han Fei killed a Venerable, a loud laugh came from afar. Who else could it be but Ren Tianfei?

Han Fei roared, "Old man, this is my battle. You don't have to interfere."

While absorbing the soul power and vitality of the dead Venerable, Han Fei shouted at Ren Tianfei to retreat.

Ren Tianfei laughed. "I'm just a clone. Many people have been waiting for this show. How can anyone stop you?"

Ren Tianfei roared loudly, his voice rumbling and shaking the entire Thousand Star.

"The Mo family of the Thousand Star City, an advanced Venerable, Mo Yu, has died."

Ren Tianfei didn't speak. Many people didn't know who the dead Venerable was... After all, how could ordinary cultivators know about Venerables?

At this time, when Ren Tianfei roared, the entire Thousand Star City was in an uproar. Was the advanced Venerable the one who was killed by Han Fei without even showing his face?

Someone sighed. How long would it take to become an advanced Venerable? How talented did he have to be to become an advanced Venerable? But he was killed in the blink of an eye! Marshal Han was truly powerful.

On the contrary, the Chu Sect and the Mo Family didn't feel good.

Since they had chosen to go against Han Fei, they should be prepared to die.

There was no trickery in this battle. Han Fei challenged them aboveboardly, and they had nowhere to escape, so they could only accept the challenge.

In order to deal with Han Fei, the Chu Sect didn't care much and sealed off the entire island and a large area of space. A strong master who looked like a young man held a bean-like strange weapon in his hand and scattered it into the void array.

In an instant, a void storm condensed in the sealed void.

Countless void blades tried to cut Han Fei.

The Snowmourne in Han Fei's hand had been replaced by the Embroidery Needle. Han Fei activated the "Knock on the Heavenly Gate", and a dark passage appeared out of nowhere.

In the Blade Inferno, the blades whirled and Han Fei sneered. "Set up a space mess... But you don't dare to come up? I want to see which Venerable this is."

With Han Fei's current strength, he might not know much about the Great Dao of Space and the Great Dao of Time. However, he also knew that it was impossible for a Venerable to fully exert the power of these two Great Dao.

Therefore, the person who set this up wanted to defeat him through his Great Dao when they were at the same level?

That was unlikely.

It was not a joke to say that tricks didn't win over strength. No matter how many tricks one had, in the end, it was just a show.

This space was penetrated by Han Fei's spear.

The void twisted, and Han Fei's figure disappeared from the sky curtain. In the next moment, Han Fei appeared in the sky curtain again after crossing thousands of kilometers.

At that moment, Han Fei grabbed a black saber beam and slashed at the young man who set up the array.

The young man's face changed greatly and he was about to take action, when Han Fei's lips curled. "All laws forbidden in this space."

The young man was shocked. The power of his Great Dao had been sealed?

In the blink of an eye, an old man with white hair and beard suddenly appeared in front of the young man, holding a thick shield with four protruded comers.

"Hmph!"

Han Fei's eyes turned cold, and a murderous aura rose from his body. He activated the Ancient Desolate War Body and doubled his combat power. As he slashed out, a clang resounded through the sky.

Crack!

In the next moment, the huge shield that looked extraordinary was shattered by Han Fei.

The old man's arms exploded, and he vomited blood and was sent flying.

Protected by the old man, the young man activated the power of space and opened a portal. In the next moment, the two appeared thousands of kilometers away.

However, Han Fei arrived like a shadow.

"Hey! Did Old Demon Chu... send you guys here to die?"

The old man and the young man were shocked. How could Han Fei be so fast? Could he even catch up with such a space teleportation?

With Han Fei's speed, he caught up with them in the blink of an eye.

However, as soon as he arrived, a white shadow rushed over, holding a sickle-like weapon, trying to compete with Han Fei in speed.

On the other side, an acquaintance of Han Fei finally appeared, which was Sun Xiaotian from the Sun Family. This person locked the void with his sword and condensed starlight with his strongest attack, attacking Han Fei.

For a moment, four advanced Venerables attacked Han Fei. With such strength and cooperation, they could completely kill a peak Venerable.

As early as in the battle in the Immortal City, there was such an example. If fighting with their lives, three advanced Venerables could kill a peak-level Venerable... It was completely possible at the expense of sacrificing two Venerables.

At this moment, the four peak-level advanced Venerables attacked Han Fei at the same time.

No... Han Fei suddenly raised his eyebrows. There was another person behind him!

“Five peak-level advanced Venerables? You really think highly of me.”

Therefore, the young man who controlled the space technique and the shield-bearing old man were only bait. They knew that two people couldn't resist Han Fei, so they arranged for five people to attack Han Fei at once.

Han Fei could even be sure that Old Demon Chu was looking for an opportunity to attack. Now, he just wanted to test Han Fei's real strength.

However, Han Fei knew very well that these five people were likely to be used as cannon fodder by Old Chu. This was because if he were a Half-King, none of these five people could escape.

In fact, that was true.

‘When the fastest powerhouse of the Ye family slashed Han Fei with a strange blade, Han Fei suddenly used the Near at Hand Technique. The person from the Ye family suddenly slowed down.

His eyes met Han Fei, and the spatial knife light in Han Fei's hand was pressed into the Ye Family Venerable's body in the blink of an eye.

“Roar!”

As soon as the Hundred Beast Soul Devouring was activated, the man's body suddenly exploded.

As soon as Han Fei waved his saber, the Sacrificing Punch burst out again, bombarding the person chasing him.

On the other side, Han Fei saw Sun Xiaotian retreat quickly... However, how could he give this person a chance to escape? Therefore, Han Fei stepped on the void and activated the Near at Hand Technique.

The young man who controlled space immediately attacked Han Fei, trying to break his Near at Hand Technique.

Han Fei smiled weirdly and turned the Embroidery Needle in his hand. “I was waiting for you.”

‘When he activated the space technique, the young man paused, which gave Han Fei a chance.

“Pett!”

‘When he used the Knock On the Heavenly Gate, the space effect was useless, but time was temporarily frozen.

Boom!

Two Venerables were killed in a short time.

At this moment, a Great Dao crack appeared, indicating the death of a Venerable.

Ren Tianfei's voice echoed throughout the entire Thousand Star City. “Ye Gan, an advanced Venerable from the Ye family of the Thousand Star City, die

Before he finished speaking, Ren Tianfei continued to shout, "Li Family of the Thousand Star City, peak-level advanced Venerable, Li Gan, died."

In the sky, a rain of blood poured down.

Han Fei attacked too fast. In the blink of an eye, two people died. Who could resist him?

Behind Han Fei, the strong master who took Han Fei's punch flew away. He had planned to launch a sneak attack, but now he didn't want to fight.

Han Fei ignored that person and tapped his finger, and the knife waves thousands of kilometers away rolled back.

Han Fei roared, "Sun Xiaotian, I'd like to see whether your Sun Family's Immortals Slaying Array or my saber is stronger!"

Trapping Sun Xiaotian with countless saber waves, Han Fei casually blasted out hundreds of golden fist marks, all of which were directed at the white-haired old man holding the shield.

The old man's speed was not so fast, but his strength was quite high. At this moment, he could actually withstand Han Fei's blow. Han Fei knew that he must be from the Yang family.

At this moment, the old man took out another big shield and held a big axe in his other hand.

Han Fei shouted in a low voice, full of fighting intent. The golden giant stepped on the void, setting off ripples.

"God of War."

The old man also roared and his body bulged explosively. All his muscles bulged and his fighting intent soared.

A hundred-meter-tall giant appeared in the sky.

On one side was a giant of a hundred meters, and on the other was a golden giant more than thirty meters tall. It seemed that the gap was a bit big. However, the moment the two sides collided, countless people in the Thousand Star City exclaimed.

The hundred-meter-tall giant unleashed a shocking axe light, and Han Fei met it with his fist, causing golden ripples.

After three punches, everyone saw the difference. The hundred-meter giant was shattered by Han Fei with seven punches.

And every time the old man collided with Han Fei, blood would spurt out.

Bang!

On the eighth punch, the big axe in the old man's hand was shattered by Han Fei's terrifying power, and the old man's arm exploded on the spot.

His only barrier was the big shield.

Knock, knock, knock!

Like starlight flashing, in the blink of an eye, a hundred golden fist marks struck the huge shield. And the old man behind the shield was shattered by this terrifying force.

“Fuse!”

Han Fei glanced at it, grabbed the shield with one hand, and slashed at the bloody body in the void with the other.

Crack!

The Great Dao crack appeared again, indicating that the old man had died again.

Ren Tianfei’s voice echoed again, “Yang Yue, the patriarch of the Yang family of the Thousand Star City, died.”

At this moment, the Thousand Star City exploded!

How long had it been since Han Fei appeared? Four Venerables had died in a row! And they were all advanced Venerables.

“Hiss ~”

“So strong! Is this Han Fei? Is this that Han Fei who was almost driven to desperation by the big clans in the Thousand Star City?”

On the islands of the Thousand Star City, countless people exclaimed in shock, “Marshal Han is invincible! Marshal Han is invincible!”

Someone shouted, “Kill the big clans and revive the human race!”

On the top of the Heavenly Sword Sect, on an ancient tree, a woman in white looked up at the sky with a complicated expression.

If Han Fei were here, he would’ve recognized this was Luo Xiaobai.

Beside Luo Xiaobai, her father, Luo Tianhe, was also watching this scene. “I really don’t know how this person grew up! It’s too terrifying! After thousands of years, the Thousand Star City is finally going to have another super powerhouse..”

Chapter 1637: The Doomsday of the Big Clans

Four Venerables had died in a row.

Han Fei’s strength was undoubtedly recognized by everyone in the Thousand Star City.

Those who died were Venerables, not cabbages!

How long had it been since Han Fei appeared on the sky screen and fought? In just a short moment, four peak-level advanced Venerables had died... Even an idiot knew that the Thousand Star City was about to change.

Pure Sun Island, Su Family.

At this moment, everyone in the Su family looked up at the sky. The current head of the Su family, Su Yang, was weeping with joy. He knew that the Su family's glorious day was coming.

su Yang mumbled, "Patriarch, you won the bet..."

Outside the Thousand Star City.

On the Scattered Stars Island, on the streets of the City of Justice, on the windows and roofs of the carnival shops, and at the doors of the Refining Halls... all the pedestrians stopped what they were doing.

'When the first sky crack appeared, the crowd was in an uproar.

Someone shouted, "Marshal Han has ascended to the sky and started to slaughter Venerables!"

Someone chugged the liquor and laughed out loud. "Great! I don't respect anyone but Marshal Han in this world!"

A moment later, when the second Great Dao crack appeared, hundreds of millions of people were in an uproar.

On the Scattered Stars Island, people were yelling everywhere.

"Good! Good job!"

"Only Marshal Han can do that."

Thirty-six towns.

The people widened their eyes and looked at the sky. Some were praying, and some were shouting.

The teachers of almost all the academies in the Thirty-Six Towns were yelling, "Cultivate! Come on... Sit down. Don't think too much! Marshal Han once said that the blood rain contains an inexplicable power that can help people make a breakthrough."

Blue Sea Town.

All the properties of the Fish Dragons were not open today.

Li Gang organized three thousand members and prayed for Han Fei's victory.

Nobody could say anything to what the Fish Dragons did. Han Fei was the leader of the Fish Dragons, and Li Gang was just a deputy leader. If it weren't for Han Fei, the Fish Dragons would have been wiped out.

Heavenly Water Village.

The old village leader lay on his chair facing the sky with a smile on his face, his face full of pride.

"You have to win! Our village only has one peerless genius that is you, so you have to win!"

Before the first Venerable one died, Han Fei felt a tremendous amount of power of faith pouring into his body.

It seemed that what he did on the Scattered Stars Island and the Thirty-Six Towns was starting to work. Some people began to pray that they would win.

'When the first Venerable died, Han Fei felt that the power of faith suddenly increased by more than 30%.

'When the second Venerable died, the power of faith doubled.

The third, the fourth, the power of faith surged into Han Fei's heart.

At this moment, Han Fei had killed four Venerables in a row.

Because Han Fei's fighting speed was too fast and too fierce, most people were killed by Han Fei before they could react.

Sun Xiaotian, who was trapped in the Blade Inferno, roared, "Old Demon Chu, do you want to see us die? Come on, do something!"

However, Han Fei sneered. "Oh! I thought you came to ambush me voluntarily."

"That wanted to say that if you took the initiative to sacrifice your lives, I might consider showing some mercy to your family. It turns out that you are reluctant! Humph... who told you that Old Demon Chu can save you?"

At this moment, Han Fei's Blade Inferno had shrunk to a radius of a thousand meters.

At this moment, Sun Xiaotian roared, "Han Fei, don't force me to blow myself up to crush the three thousand kilometer radius and kill all the creatures."

Han Fei curled his lips and said, "Self-explosion? Who gave you the illusion that you could explode in front of me?"

"Huh?"

Sun Xiaotian was about to detonate himself.

The Sun Family was the first to become enemies with Han Fei. It could be said that they accompanied the growth of Han Fei... So, it was almost impossible for Han Fei to let him go.

At this moment, the only thing Sun Xiaotian could do was to preserve his dignity. At least, he couldn't die as easily as others.

But how could Han Fei let him?

How much damage would it cause if a Venerable detonated himself? Although someone would take the blame, Han Fei didn't want them to blow themselves up. He still needed to absorb the souls of these people

In this short moment, Han Fei's Void Lines had been swallowing crazily. Han Fei's soul power had increased by more than 5,000 points.

“Come my knife!”

Han Fei stepped into the Blade Inferno and walked a thousand kilometers with one step, holding the void as a knife. When he slashed out, the void collapsed, and billions of knife lights rushed into the Deity Slaying Array, Han Fei had already pressed Sun Xiaotian’s head.

“Huff!”

Han Fei swallowed a large amount of energy. With a flip of his hand, he launched the Embroidery Needle and blew up Sun Xiaotian’s soul.

Boom!

At this moment, five of the grand Venerables of the big clans had died, and one Venerable took the opportunity to escape. If he hadn’t fled fast enough, he would have become the sixth.

Ren Tianfei’s voice sounded again. “Sun Xiaotian from the Sun Family of the Thousand Star City, an advanced Venerable, died.”

Ren Tianfei’s voice was like thunder.

The billions of people in the Thousand Star City were shocked.

Someone gasped crazily. “Slaying the five Venerables in a row? And the strongest ones? I’ve never even heard of these super powerhouses he killed!”

Among the descendants of the Sun Family, there were no longer any outstanding Heavenly Talents. After hearing the news of Sun Xiaotian’s death, they were all devastated.

In the Yang family, Yang Nanxi almost went crazy. “B * stard Han Fei, you killed our patriarch. I can’t live under the same sky as you.”

Yang Deyu caught Yang Nanxi who was in a crazy state but he had already been slammed to the ground a dozen times.

Yang Deyu roared, “That’s enough! You’d better stop! You’re nothing compared to Han Fei!”

Yang Nanxi roared, “I’ll smash him to death with my hammer!”

“shut up!”

An old man from the Yang family stood out and yelled, “Yang Nanxi, remember now, the most important thing is to preserve your lives. Han Fei is vengeful. However, the higher his status is, the less likely he will attack you. Remember, no matter what happens, don’t go to him for trouble.”

In the Ye family, Ye Baiyu clenched his fists.

Today, the big clans in the Thousand Star City only existed in name. Their top Venerables had died. How could they still be called big clans?

In front of him was a magic book named “Heavenly Void Divine Roc Secret Technique’. It was said that if one practiced this technique, they would become extremely powerful. However, because this technique was still in the research stage, it was very likely to turn the cultivators into birds

Of course, this was just a rumor. After all, most of the ancestors of the Ye family who practiced this technique died.

However, Ye Baiyu took a deep breath. "Isn't being a human and being a bird all about cultivation? As long as I can become the strongest, what's the big deal of becoming a monster?"

In the Chen family, Chen Aochen said excitedly, "Why is the patriarch of the Chen family involved in this matter? Han Fei obviously can't be meddled with. Now that the patriarch failed, the consequences are obvious..."

Someone sighed. "What do you think the Chen family could do? We are a recognized big clan. The Sun family and other big clans wanted a joint action. Do you think our Chen family could refuse to participate?"

The man heaved a long sigh. "It seems that Han Fei not only wants to suppress the Thousand Stars, but also wants to sweep the Thousand Stars!"

The entire Yin-Yang World was discussing, shocked, and looking forward to what Han Fei would do next.

Ren Tianfei said, "The one who escaped is Chen Long from the Chen family."

Han Fei's lips curled. "Oh! So he's from the Chen family... No wonder he burned his blood to escape when he found things were not right!"

Han Fei shouted, "The big clans in the Thousand Star City, except for the Chu Sect, listen to me. Prepare all your resources and wait at home. Wait for me to send people to collect the resources one family after another. In addition, all the people above the Law Enforcer realm in the big clans are on standby at home. In the future, follow me to battle and use military exploits to redeem your freedom... My orders can be supervised by everyone. Anyone who violates my order will be killed."

After saying that, Han Fei stood in front of the Chu Sect's family-protecting array.

There were not many people on the island. Those who could escape were all fleeing.

Through the array, Han Fei looked at Old Demon Chu who was sitting in the array and smiled contemptuously. "Old Demon Chu, do you still want your Chu Sect to continue? If you do, then die! If you kill yourself, I'll treat your descendants kindly."

There were seven Venerables in the Chu Sect. Now, there were only six left.

Among them, Old Demon Chu was already a fake king.

Although Chu Menwang had died, there was still one junior peak-level Venerable, three intermediate peak-level Venerables, and one advanced peak-level Venerable.

Han Fei was confident that he could end the battle in three seconds if Old Demon Chu didn't participate in the battle.

The Venerables were powerful, but there was the difference of the strong and the weak in this realm too.

If you grasped the Great Dao, others could grasp it too. If you were strong, the others were stronger. After all, if I could crush you in all aspects, how could you survive?

Han Fei was not in a hurry. He stood in the void and looked at Old Demon Chu quietly.

After a long time, Old Demon Chu slowly stepped into the sky and looked at Han Fei. "Do you know how many Venerables there are in the Thousand Star City?"

Han Fei shook his head with a smile. "I don't know!"

Old Demon Chu said, "Just a moment ago, there were 28 Venerables left... You killed five Venerables alone."

Han Fei smiled. "Really?"

Old Demon Chu said, "Including me, there are six Venerables from the Chu Sect and six ones from the Cao family. Not including those in the seven major sects... heh, there aren't many Venerables left."

Han Fei tilted his head and asked, "So?"

Old Demon Chu looked at Han Fei indifferently. "There are only these Venerables in this world, but you almost killed them all! Hmph... Just to pursue your so-called freedom?!"

Chapter 1638: Moon Leech

Han Fei looked at Old Demon Chu as if he were an idiot. "I'm very curious about something. I really don't understand... Why do so many of you take it for granted that it's you Venerables who support this world? You speak as if the world can't do without you..."

Old Demon Chu narrowed his eyes. "It's a matter of course for the strong to support the world."

"Heh ~"

Han Fei couldn't help but laugh. The ignorant are truly fearless!

If you know what is going on in the cage, would you still be so smug?

Han Fei looked at Old Demon Chu seriously and said, "Now I know why we are on opposite sides."

"why?"

Han Fei sneered. "Because you think too highly of yourselves, because you are too stupid. People like you, even if there is no Heavenly Dao Dharma Eye, even if this cage doesn't restrict you from becoming a king... and even if you become a king, none of you will become a powerful king. Your... vision is too narrow."

At this moment, Han Fei suddenly figured it out.

Perhaps this was the disadvantage of ancient families. They were too arrogant and thought that they were the greatest in the world! But they were nothing but frogs in a well!

Han Fei believed that not all families were as stupid as these ones.

Han Fei didn't bother to argue with Old Demon Chu. He pointed his sword at Old Demon Chu and shouted in a low voice, "The Venerables of Chu Sect must die today. No one can escape. Everyone in Chu Sect, from Hidden Fishers to Explorers, are to join the army."

Old Demon Chu sneered. "I'd like to see... how a mere peak-level advanced Venerable like you can destroy my Chu Sect today?"

Han Fei laughed and said loudly, "Seven major sects, is anyone willing to join my side? You just need to hold off the other Venerables of Chu Sect before I return. When I return, I'll kill them."

"Cough, cough ~"

suddenly, the Heavenly Sword Sect's patriarch spoke, "A year ago, Old Demon Chu attacked our sect. Now, although I haven't recovered, it's not a problem for me to hold off a mere advanced Venerable."

In the Sea Cloud Tower, Fire Moon Fairy stepped out. "As a woman, I think I can only keep one junior Venerable."

A big sword from the Grand Void Academy swept across.

An Ice Kiss flew out of the Jade Fairy Palace, and the void swayed as the Ice Kiss crossed the sky.

Boom!

Someone from the Death Door Sect and the Mountain Sea Pavilion broke through the sect-protecting array and crossed the void.

At this point, Han Fei was the only one who came to the Thousand Star City. Was it because he had no one to use? Of course not.

Han Fei shouted these words just to get people to stand on his side.

The seven major sects were on the same side. Now Han Fei had risen to prominence and was unstoppable.

If they didn't join Han Fei's side now, there wouldn't be another chance for them to join his side.

With Han Fei's lightning-like methods and vengeful personality... today, if any of the seven major sects didn't take sides with Han Fei, it would be taken out of the seven major sects!

A Venerable of the Zhang family, the only big clan that was wise enough to surrender to Han Fei, heaved a long sigh. Even if they took sides with Han Fei now, Han Fei wouldn't show mercy to them.

Fortunately, on the last day, they didn't fight against Han Fei.

Zhang Xun didn't know if Han Fei could win or if Old Demon Chu was stronger.

However, in terms of potential alone, Old Demon Chu was far inferior to Han Fei. Han Fei's growth was a miracle! This kind of miracle shouldn't exist at all.

'The moment Han Fei killed Chu Menwang... In fact, the big clans already knew that Han Fei was invincible. However, the other families weren't as strong as the Zhang family.

Old Demon Chu could force other families, but he couldn't force the Zhang family. This was because even Old Demon Chu knew that if the Zhang family really fought to the death, the entire human world would be in trouble.

Anyway, Old Demon Chu didn't lack the combat power of an advanced Venerable, so he didn't force him.

In fact, apart from these big clans, the Wang family where Wang Zitian was also had a peak-level junior Venerable. There were only three such families in the entire Yin-Yang World.

Old Demon Chu didn't care about the strength of a junior peak-level Venerable. At this critical moment, Old Demon Chu didn't have the time to care about it.

According to Han Fei's personality, apart from the seven major sects, all the big clans with Venerable-level existences were his targets.

At this moment, the strong masters of the seven major sects all came out.

Voices echoed in the void, indicating that the Star Turtle had also entered the Thousand Star City.

'The Star Turtle shouted, "Han Fei, I'm here to help you fight."

Han Fei said without looking back, "Mr. Xue, Elder Chen, please check the big clans in the Thousand Star City."

Han Fei's voice echoed, "All the big clans with explorers in the Thousand Star City, listen to me and register. As for where to go in the end, wait for me to return victorious. Heh, you can pray that I can't return."

Then, Han Fei said, "Star Turtle, it's indeed time for you to fight. I happen to need someone to block an intermediate Venerable from the Chu Sect's side. You can do this job."

Old Demon Chu didn't stop Han Fei.

In the Chu Sect, Han Fei's former opponent, Chu Qingyan, had a complicated expression.

She didn't choose to leave, because she knew that she couldn't. Han Fei must remember her. She wanted to bet on whether Han Fei would attack her or not.

However, when she saw all this, she sighed inexplicably.

In the past, she even thought that Han Fei was no match for her. But reality slapped her face again and again.

When Han Fei was still a Law Enforcer, he could easily defeat her.

All these years, she had been cultivating like crazy and had great luck. However, she had only just become an advanced explorer. This speed was already extremely fast. It had only been thirteen years! However, the gap between her and Han Fei was getting bigger and bigger, to the point where she suspected that Han Fei might not even remember her

Since Han Fei said that he would kill the king today, Old Demon Chu had been waiting.

No matter what Han Fei did, as long as he died, everything he did would be meaningless.

Old Demon Chu was waiting, waiting for Han Fei's arrogance to rise to the highest point, and waiting for Han Fei to be so arrogant that he thought he would definitely win.

At this moment, Han Fei reached out and grabbed, and the Infinity Water returned.

Old Demon Chu nodded slightly and all the Venerables of the Chu Sect took action. They were members of the Chu Sect, and the Chu Sect's prestige couldn't be violated.

Buzz!

The Chu Sect's mountain-protecting array was melting. Old Demon Chu stepped on the void, creating ripples.

"Hiss..."

In the next moment, Han Fei saw a weird green worm that was a thousand feet long and looked like a centipede. It arched its body and thousands of its tentacles were wriggling.

Information popped up in Han Fei's mind.

< Name > Moon Leech

< Introduction > A Moon Eating Leech, a special creature from ancient times. It has the ability to eat the moon and time. After swallowing a certain amount of moonlight, it can activate the Great Time Technique, disrupt the world, and cause the enemy to fall into a time domain.

< Level > 89

< Quality > Ancient Descendant

< Great Dao > Time

< Edible Effect > Inedible

< Collectable > None

< Unabsorbable >

< Remarks > As long as there is moonlight, the domain remains unbreakable.

When Han Fei saw the information, suddenly, a green light burst out of the eyes of the Moon Leech. This insect actually used light to transform its domain.

Buzz!

In the next moment, above the Thousand Star City, Han Fei and Old Demon Chu disappeared without a trace. The Sky Hanging Mirror lost its effect, and people couldn't see Han Fei through the Sky Hanging Mirror anymore.

Han Fei felt that the scene in front of him changed.

This was a strange domain wrapped in time. Han Fei could see a large number of blue halos flowing outside the domain. If it weren't for the fact that they flowed very slowly, Han Fei would have suspected that he had entered the river of time.

The old turtle said, "Not good! This bug forcibly changed the timeline, separating you from the world just now. In this case, if you want to break this space, you have to kill Old Demon Chu. Otherwise, you won't be able to get out."

Opposite Han Fei, Old Demon Chu looked at Han Fei coldly. "From now on, no one can help you. If you die, the Thousand Star City will still be the Thousand Star City, and I will still be the strongest in the Thousand Star City. The Chu Sect's glory will continue."

Han Fei curled his lips and smiled. "I have to admit that I admire you. You are the only person I know who can apply the Great Dao to such an extent in the Venerable realm. However, if pulling me into an independent domain is all your preparations... then, I can only say that you are digging your own grave."

Buzz!

In the next moment, Han Fei activated the Great Dao, and his aura soared. Blades were everywhere. In his hand was the Sea Quelling Bizarre Treasure, Embroidery Needle.

Han Fei grinned ferociously. "As it happens, I haven't fought a real fake king yet. Now I can have a try."
"Cut the crap."

Old Demon Chu didn't want to give Han Fei any time. He chose to attack directly. With a shake of his hands, two swords appeared in his hands.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

The two swords slashed, and three thousand sword shadows bloomed like a lotus flower, sweeping in all directions. Old Demon Chu's sword rose and broke through the air, and his sword Qi was mystic and powerful. He wanted to kill Han Fei as soon as possible.

Seeing the overlapping sword auras, Han Fei thought to himself, this move of Old Demon Chu is even stronger than Sun Xiaotian's Immortals Slaying Array.

Boom! Boom!

However, Han Fei grinned and said, "I have many tricks to try. Take two punches from me first."

'The two Sacrificing Punch marks were just appetizers. Wherever the fist marks passed, the void energy was triggered and blasted out with magnificent void power.

Old Demon Chu sneered. "I know that you can be unaffected by the Great Dao of Time, but so what? Can't it affect your attack?"

Old Demon Chu waved his hand casually, and something seemed to be wrong with the time in front of him.

Han Fei's Sacrificing Punch was dissolving when it passed that area.

'The old turtle: "He used time to corrode your power."

Han Fei roared, "Hundred Beast Soul Devouring!"

"Let me see... how many great techniques you can influence!"

Chapter 1639: Chu Sect's Annihilation

In the Thousand Star City, when Han Fei and Old Demon Chu disappeared, even Ren Tianfei exclaimed.

Ning Jing, who had come to protect Han Fei, saw this scene and appeared where Han Fei disappeared. Then, Ning Jing's expression changed drastically as she looked at Ren Tianfei. "Where is he?"

Ren Tianfei's clone also frowned. "I haven't found him either. Wait for my original body to come."

The moment Ren Tianfei spoke, he saw an elegant middle-aged man walking over slowly. It was none other than Han Guanshu.

Ning Jing's eyelids twitched. "Your son is gone. I can't sense him at all."

Han Guanshu said, "Old Demon Chu's spiritual beast is called the Moon Leech. It has the ability to leave the current timeline for a short time. In other words, they are not in this world now."

"Hiss ~"

Ren Tianfei and Ning Jing both gasped. Not in this world? Change the f*cking timeline? How could there be such a strange spiritual beast in this world?

Ren Tianfei looked at Han Guanshu in surprise. "Don't you panic at all?"

Han Guanshu grinned. "Panic? He is going to become a king. How can a king be defeated by a fake king?"

Ning Jing: "But he's only a peak-level advanced Venerable now."

Han Guanshu smiled. "His experience is enough for him to deal with everything."

In the Time Domain.

Han Fei activated the Hundred Beast Soul Devouring. Such a soul attack couldn't shake Old Demon Chu at all.

This guy had set up the Time Technique on him.

The old turtle said, "He extended the range of sound infinitely, so he couldn't hear it himself."

Han Fei was confused. Could time be used like this?

But fortunately, he could still fight Old Demon Chu head-on.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Clang! Clang! Clang!

After only ten seconds, Old Demon Chu was already defeated.

He discovered that Han Fei's strength was beyond his imagination. How could a peak-level advanced Venerable have a super strength of more than 30,000 waves?

Old Demon Chu had lived for almost 5,000 years and believed that his strength had reached its limit. Even if he failed the tribulation and became a fake king, his strength was only 21,000 waves. It couldn't compare to Han Fei's at all.

Fortunately... his Great Dao of time could slow down Han Fei's power. After all, the power Han Fei used would decrease with distance and time.

Otherwise, with Han Fei's pure strength, even Old Demon Chu would be defeated!

At this moment, Han Fei also saw that Old Demon Chu could still persist under his power... It must be because of the time barrier on him.

However, how could he break the time barrier?

Han Fei roared, "All laws forbidden in this space!"

However, this time, it didn't work.

Old Demon Chu sneered. "This is my time domain. How can your technique work?"

Han Fei sneered. "If you're so capable, why didn't you break my other techniques?"

In an instant, Han Fei knew that the reason why his Forbidden Technique couldn't work was probably that he wasn't in the normal timeline. It was equivalent to being in a parallel space. He wasn't even sure which space he was in.

Seeing that this trick didn't work, Han Fei changed the Great Dao of Heaven Enlightenment into the Great Dao of Gravity.

Buzz!

Even though Old Demon Chu had changed time, Han Fei was very sure that Old Demon Chu was subject to the same restrictions as him.

Therefore, Han Fei pressed down with the Great Dao of Gravity, and the irregular gravity descended, directly disrupting Old Chu's rhythm.

Boom!

At the moment when the Great Dao of Gravity took effect, Han Fei grabbed the Embroidery Needle and activated the Knock on the Heavenly Gate.

“Pfft!”

‘The technique of Knock on the Heavenly Gate condensed the technique of space and time into a rod, which happened to deal with Old Demon Chu’s time barrier and shattered half of Old Demon Chu’s body.

Once the power weakened, Han Fei naturally seized the opportunity. When the time domain around Old Demon Chu became unstable, the Embroidery Needle struck again.

However, this time, Han Fei used the Heavenly God Stab, which pierced into Old Demon Chu’s soul.

Bang!

Old Demon Chu’s Great Dao collapsed. Han Fei twisted the void and appeared in front of Old Demon Chu in an instant.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

In the blink of an eye, the two collided a thousand times, and Old Demon Chu’s body was shattered.

Buzz!

Han Fei activated the Void Lines, but Old Demon Chu’s figure suddenly appeared elsewhere.

‘The old turtle said, “He changed the time. Knowing that he would face great danger in the next moment, he consumed a lot of the power of time and returned to his peak state a moment earlier.”

Seeing that the old guy was covered with a time barrier again, Han Fei sneered. “Old Demon Chu, this time-refining technique must have consumed you a lot of energy, right? But my Great Dao of Gravity doesn’t consume much... I’d like to see how long you can last.”

Like a cat and mouse game, Han Fei clearly realized the horror of the Time Technique!

In a sense, as long as he completely controlled the Great Dao of Time, he was almost immortal.

Even if he knew that he was going to die in the next second, he could return to the time earlier. This magical power was simply a bug. Han Fei felt that it shouldn’t exist.

After a hundred seconds, Han Fei felt that the power of his Great Dao could last at most another hundred seconds. If he couldn’t take down Old Demon Chu within a hundred seconds, he could only temporarily enter Forge the Universe to recover.

“It can ignore time and rules and crush the opponent’s Great Dao...”

Suddenly, Han Fei couldn’t help cursing. He had forgotten such an important thing! He still had the Supreme Yin-Yang Wheel!

Buzz!

‘When the Yin-Yang symbol appeared, Old Demon Chu asked in shock, “What kind of technique is this? Why do you have such an inheritance?”

It seemed that Old Demon Chu knew something about the Supreme Yin-Yang Wheel.

But now, Han Fei was full of killing intent. He had consumed ten wisps of Chaotic Qi in his body! He had been fighting crazily.

If it weren't for the time secret technique that saved Old Demon Chu time and time again, Old Demon Chu would have been reduced to powder by Han Fei.

"Pfft!"

Han Fei secretly breathed a sigh of relief when the Supreme Yin-Yang Wheel cut into Old Demon Chu's time barrier.

Sure enough, a Fake King was actually not much stronger than a Half-King... However, after being tempered by part of the heavenly tribulation, his understanding of the Great Dao was deeper, and his body's comprehensive qualities were stronger.

This difference created the illusion that a fake king was stronger than a Half-King, but in fact, it wasn't.

At this moment, Old Demon Chu blocked with his double knives, but the double knives were immediately full of cracks.

Han Fei took the opportunity to fuse the Infinity Water into Old Demon Chu's body.

Buzz!

Sure enough, in the next moment, Old Demon Chu disappeared and appeared in another place.

However, judging from Old Chu's pale face, he seemed to be waiting for Han Fei's power to fade.

Both of them had their own schemes, but Han Fei suddenly grinned. "I was thinking, if you completely reversed time, where would my things be? Who knew that my things would stay with you."

"Huh?"

Old Demon Chu's face suddenly changed. He seemed to realize something and was about to reverse time again, when his body suddenly exploded.

Rumble!

The terrifying explosion directly blew Old Demon Chu into dust. After all, not everyone could have an Indestructible Body like Han Fei.

The moment Old Demon Chu exploded, Han Fei controlled the Supreme Yin-Yang Wheel.

Immediately, he fused with Little Black and Little White.

He scanned with his Yin-Yang Divine Eyes and immediately saw that a soul light was releasing a large amount of energy.

"Humph, you won't be able to revive. Let's see how you can reverse time!"

Chi la!

Han Fei drew his knife from the void, and a space crack was cut out by Han Fei.

After one attack, another soul fragment appeared.

Han Fei aimed the Void Lines at one of the soul fragments.

“Roar!”

The Hundred Beast Soul Devouring was activated.

Bang!

He used the “Knock on the Heavenly Gate” again. This time, the real explosion blasted countless holes in this time domain.

At this moment, Han Fei sensed that soul power was returning to his body through the Void Lines.

‘At this moment, Han Fei grinned and removed the power of the Great Dao, and his body slightly softened.

“Huff!”

Han Fei took a long breath of energy, and the time around gradually changed.

Although the location of the battle was exactly the same, there were still differences between the environment and the people on the island at two different times.

Boom!

At that moment, in the sky, there was a huge crack that stretched across the north and south of the Thousand Star City.

Thirty-Six towns.

Scattered Stars Island.

‘When everyone saw the huge crack, they all exclaimed, “Who died? Why is the weather so terrifying?”

Outside, as soon as Han Fei appeared, he saw Han Guanshu, Ren Tianfei, Ning Jing, and Li Daxian waiting.

On the other side, Old Jiang, Old Bai, and the others were also on their way to the Thousand Star City, and some had just appeared in the Thousand Star City.

However, they never expected Han Fei to finish the fight so fast.

At that moment, Han Fei looked at Han Guanshu. “Can you give me some time?”

Han Guanshu nodded slightly and glanced at Ning Jing and Ren Tianfei. “Let’s go!”¹

Li Daxian mumbled, “As expected of a disciple of the Thug Academy. He’s indeed powerful!”

‘When they left, the sky curtain opened again.

After more than three hundred seconds, the sky curtain opened again.

'When Han Fei's figure appeared before the billions of people in the Thousand Star City, the entire Thousand Star City burst into cheers.

At that moment, Han Fei grinned and said, "I announce that the Chu Sect is destroyed today.."

Chapter 1640: The Situation Has Changed

The destruction of Chu Sect was not just the destruction of a family, but also the end of an era.

Han Fei had never fought a fake king before, so he didn't know how strong a fake king was.

However, after the battle with Old Demon Chu, he knew the combat power of a fake king and how strong he himself was.

His flesh and blood were separated from his bones twice during the two tribulations. The price he paid wasn't for nothing, Every experience seemed devastating, but it actually made Han Fei stronger.

From this moment on, Han Fei dare not say that he was invincible below the King Realm, but in the entire Yin-Yang World, Water-Wood World, or the cage, there were probably only the three Kings who could continue to suppress him.

At this moment, Han Fei stood proudly in the sky and scanned the entire Thousand Star City with his perception. Listening to the countless cheers, Han Fei felt greatly comforted.

This was a special feeling. Victory? Or hope?

This was completely different from when he took down Yu City. Yu City was Ximen Linglan's era, Ximen Linglan's dream. And the Thousand Star City was his era.

"Phew ~"

Han Fei took a long breath and felt that the magnificent power of faith was pouring into his body.

In addition to the power of faith, Han Fei felt that a stone in his heart had been dropped. Since entering the Thug Academy, he was destined to have an opposing relationship with the big clans. Today, the big clans were at the end of their road. And his strategic layout in the Thousand Star City could be said to have been completely achieved.

Han Fei felt that his state of mind had changed greatly, as if he had been sublimated in an instant. At this moment, Han Fei deeply felt the opportunity for a breakthrough.

This surprised Han Fei.

He desperately wanted to make a breakthrough, but his body wasn't in its peak state yet. Would it affect his foundation?

Han Fei asked, "Old Yuan, what will happen if I make a breakthrough now?"

The old turtle said, "Logically speaking, there shouldn't be any difference. Your problem isn't whether to make a breakthrough or not... It's just that your body is uncoordinated. Logically speaking, it's better to make a breakthrough after your body is coordinated."

Hearing what the old turtle said, Han Fei suppressed the urge to make a breakthrough.

In the sky, in the eyes of outsiders, he was only silent for a moment.

At this moment, everyone was still immersed in the waves of cheers! Therefore, they didn't feel that Han Fei paused for a second.

Han Fei said, "My fellow human beings, please wait for a few days... When the people from the Scattered Stars Island come and finish counting the big clans, the passage from the Thousand Star City to the Scattered Stars Island and the 36 towns will be fully opened... Everyone, a new era, a free era, an era that belongs to you is coming."

"Roar!"

"Marshal Han, Marshal Han..."

"Marshal Han is awesome."

In fact, many people knew about the City of Justice. After all, there were many people from the Thousand Star City on the Scattered Stars Island. Therefore, many people, especially the low-level cultivators, were full of anticipation for the future.

Amidst the carnival, Han Fei said leisurely, "But before that, I have something to do. The remaining Venerables of Chu Sect, you can't atone for your crimes even if you die a hundred times. I may spare the others, but I won't spare any of you."

Han Fei's voice was firm. As soon as he said so, all the Venerables and explorers in the Thousand Star City gasped.

Han Fei had already killed Old Demon Chu. He was invincible.

The extra Venerable meant more combat power. Wasn't Han Fei too bloodthirsty?

Even Ren Tianfei asked, "Didn't you kill too many people? Why not keep the Venerables? That way, you can have more people to use in the future?"

Han Fei sneered. "I don't lack these Venerables."

With that, Han Fei stepped into the void.

A moment later.

Boom!

Boom!

Five more Venerables died within a hundred seconds.

Just as Han Fei said, none of the Chu Sect's Venerables were spared. Han Fei's powerful methods frightened the remaining members of the big clans in the Thousand Star City.

All the big clans seemed to have lost their backbone and were all hiding at home.

Waiting for Han Fei's people to deal with them.

All the Chu Sect's Venerables were killed without mercy? At this critical moment, who dared to stand out? Wouldn't that be like courting death?

The ordinary people in the Thousand Star City didn't feel this way. At this moment, they were very happy. After all, they were never the masters of this city. Only when Han Fei appeared and the end of the big clans came did they have freedom.

'What did those Venerables have to do with ordinary people?

All this time, big clans like the Chu Sect had monopolized the massive resources of the Thousand Star City. The Chu Sect had monopolized more than half of the Thousand Star Proving Ground. Many people had no money and didn't even have a chance to participate in the trial.

At this moment, Han Fei had solved the Chu Sect for them. Did this mean that they wouldn't have to pay to enter the Thousand Star Proving Ground in the future?

And these ordinary people felt that even if they still had to pay, they didn't have to pay as much as before

At this moment, Han Fei killed five Venerables in a row.

Since then, he had slaughtered 11 Venerables in a row.

Even in the full-scale war with the sea demons last time, only so many Venerables died. However, Han Fei swept through the Thousand Star City in one day and killed so many Venerables.

Han Fei was overjoyed. His current soul power had reached 136,114 points. In less than a month, his soul power had increased by more than 10,000 points.

At this moment, Han Fei was holding a massive amount of resources, especially the Sun-Moon Shells he found from Old Demon Chu. Among them, one Sun-Moon Shell contained the Star Beads controlled by the Chu Sect.

Only then did Han Fei remember that Luo Xiaobai once said that Old Demon Chu could advance to a Half-King because he went to the Thousand Star Proving Ground.

The nine-star beads in the Thousand Star Proving Ground corresponded to the Venerable realm.

Han Fei looked at the Star Turtle and said, "Go to the Scattered Stars Island and inform the inspectors on the Scattered Stars Island that... all explorers, bring your men here to clean up the big clans. If anyone resists, kill them."

The Star Turtle was startled.

At this moment, the Star Turtle was quite sure that Han Fei was a killer, and that Han Fei was using it as his subordinate.

However, the Star Turtle didn't dare to say anything. It said quickly, "Okay, leave it to me."

Buzz!

A moment later, Han Fei appeared in the sky curtain again.

This time, Han Fei shouted, "I, Han Fei, order all the big clans in the Thousand Star City to hand over the Star Beads in the Thousand Star Proving Ground, including the seven major sects and the Cao Family... Hand over all the Star Beads. The Star Beads of our Thug Academy will also be supplied. In the future, these resources will be provided for the training of the people in the Thousand Star City for free."

"Hiss!"

"Roar!"

"Marshal Han is my hero!"

"Marshal Han is really our savior."

"Son of a b * tch, look... This is a real powerhouse! This is the leader of our human race!"

Someone exclaimed, "Sure enough, Han Fei supplied the Star Beads for free!"

Han Fei chuckled. "My fellow countrymen, although the Star Beads are free to be used, there are only so many of them in total. Therefore, I will arrange for people to use the Star Beads in an organized way. According to the difficulty of the Star Beads and the number of people they can bear, they will be opened in an organized manner. I also encourage... you can walk out of the Thousand Star City, walk out of your comfort zone, take a look at the vastness of the outside world, and go to the Scattered Stars Island... There, it may be a hundred times more interesting than the trial inside the Star Beads!"

In fact, the channel to the Scattered Stars Island was already crowded.

Many people yearned to go to the Scattered Stars Island for a long time.

However, the number of people allowed to pass the Scattered Stars Island every day was too few.

Seeing this scene, Han Fei immediately said, "You don't have to worry. You can just wait at home for a few days. I'll immediately arrange for a teleportation array between the 36 towns and the Thousand Star City. The Scattered Stars Island is limited, but there are plenty of places in the 36 towns. You can go sightseeing. In the future, no one will stop you. However, remember not to cause trouble! Otherwise, I won't let you off easily."

Someone laughed. "That's impossible... We're not the kind of people who cause trouble."

Someone said with glowing eyes, "That's great! I didn't expect to see the Thousand Star City being cleared in this life."

Someone exclaimed, "I have to go through the 36 towns and see what the different places are like."

Amidst the talks and laughter of these people, Han Fei said, "Okay, I hope you can spread the battle of the Thousand Star City to the public and convey my thoughts to more people. Now that the war has just ended, there are still a lot of things to do. I have a lot of things to do, so I have to go now... See you."

Han Fei's casualness infected too many people.

The entire Thousand Star City went crazy.

Han Fei felt the power of faith surging wave after wave.

In addition to the Thousand Star City, the people of the Thirty-Six Towns and the people of the Scattered Stars Island were also crazily supplying power of faith.

The people of the Thousand Star City naturally knew that Han Fei was very busy.

Although the big clans were destroyed, only the Venerables had died. These big clans still had so many islands under their rule, so many properties, and so many resources. There should be new arrangements!

Han Fei could be said to be the supreme commander of the Yin-Yang World. He had to tend to these matters.

Therefore, everyone understood why Han Fei was busy.

However, these people didn't know that Han Fei came to the Heavenly Sword Sect immediately.

On the top of the sword energy mountain of the Heavenly Sword Sect, Han Fei walked to Luo Xiaobai in white with a smile.

At this moment, Luo Xiaobai was no longer that little girl but a cold and wise young woman.

Seeing Han Fei's signature smile, Luo Xiaobai rolled her eyes.. "Humph...."
