Chapter 201 A Group of Daredevils

Han Fei did not continue to harvest the Soul-Attracting Jellyfish but quickly turned back to find Xia Xiaochan. Then he hurried back to Zhang Xuanyu when he failed to find Xia Xiaochan.

Halfway along, when he was only a few kilometers away from Zhang Xuanyu, Xia Xiaochan suddenly appeared beside him. He was startled and almost hacked at her.

Han Fei asked, "Why did you suddenly pop up? Where have you been?"

Xia Xiaochan looked at Han Fei strangely. "I was hunting Soul-Attracting Jellyfish! Where did you go?"

With that said, Xia Xiaochan pinched a Soul Resistance Pearl in her hand while staring at Han Fei.

Han Fei raised his hand awkwardly. "Oh! What a coincidence! I also accidentally killed a Soul-Attracting Jellyfish just now."

Xia Xiaochan tilted her head and looked at Han Fei. "Really?"

"Yes!"

Han Fei's heart was trembling. Did she keep following him? Seriously, if Xia Xiaochan followed her, he might not be able to discover her. Did she see Little Black's attack? And he also used the Demon Purification Pot just now. Did she see it?

Han Fei was about to speak when Xia Xiaochan swished away and landed beside Luo Xiaobai who was pale. At this moment, Le Renkuang had already awakened, rubbing his head stunned. He passed out just now, but he knew he had eaten a Soul Resistance Pearl. That was really great! He ate it without doing anything! Xia Xiaochan handed out another Soul Resistance Pearl. "Xiaobai, eat it."

"What about you?"

Xia Xiaochan casually said, "I'll go hunt some later! There are so many Soul-Attracting Jellyfish here. They are all ours!"

Zhang Xuanyu held a vine and breathed heavily. "How about resting for two hours? My mental energy consumption has been great and I'm a little tired."

Han Fei threw the Soul Resistance Pearl in his hand to Zhang Xuanyu. "Here you are! Although your mental energy is strong, we need you to be stronger. Eat this." Zhang Xuanyu was shocked. "Aren't you looking for Xia Xiaochan? Why did you also kill one?"

Han Fei gave him a smug smile. "Did you forget about my Million Knife Art?"

Zhang Xuanyu thought, No, I didn't. But even if you have the Million Knife Art, can you withstand so many waves of mental shocks in a row?

Although Zhang Xuanyu was still puzzled, he caught the Soul Resistance Pearl and stuffed it directly into his mouth. Then he exclaimed, "Let me take you to sweep the waters later! The Soul Resistance Pearls are all ours."

Han Fei smiled and didn't speak, sitting down next to Le Renkuang as if saying he was ready to go.

Then he took out a pack of Fish Dragon cards. "Let's play cards."

Everyone: "???"

Even Le Renkuang was stunned. Brother, we are exploring the dangerous land! How can you still have the time to play cards?

Han Fei continued, "Didn't Zhang Xuanyu say he wanted to rest for two hours? Then let's play cards!"

Zhang Xuanyu immediately sat down. "I like this..."

Soon, it became lively. Although Luo Xiaobai was interested in playing cards, she had always felt that it would take up her time and energy, so she would only play cards in her spare time. At this moment, she just sat beside Xia Xiaochan and gave her advice.

Han Fei announced, "Call the landlord."

Zhang Xuanyu nodded. "Grab the landlord."

Xia Xiaochan said, "I'll grab it!"

Xia Xiaochan became the landlord. They were playing with the cards happily, completely forgetting their purpose of coming here. In the depth of the sea, four or five miles away, Wenren Yu's face was all black. What the f*ck are you doing?! You came all the way from the town to the dangerous land of the level-two fishery to play cards?! Are you kidding me?!

Two hours later.

Xia Xiaochan raised her hand. "Zhang Xuanyu owes me 10,000 mid-quality pearls, Xiao Mania owes me 6,000, and Han Fei owes me 12,000. Pay me when we return to the town!"

Han Fei dropped the bad cards in his hand. "Xia Xiaochan, let me tell you, when I conceived the Fish Dragon Cards, I made it clear that it was not a gambling game and no one shall pay more than one low-quality pearl for this game." Xia Xiaochan glared at Han Fei. "Do you want to repudiate your debt? Don't even think of it!"

Zhang Xuanyu mumbled, "It's not fair. Xiaobai was helping you all the way. You would have lost right away if you had played by yourself."

Le Renkuang scratched his head. "Yes, it'll hurt our friendship! Now shall we go fight Soul-Attracting Jellyfish?".

Zhang Xuanyu and Han Fei looked at each other and quickly got up.

Han Fei agreed. "Yes, why are we here? Experience and cultivate... What about you, Xia Xiaochan? Is playing cards your pursuit?"

Xia Xiaochan was so angry that she pulled out a knife and stabbed Han Fei. Who took out the Fish Dragon Cards in the first place? And who lost to her? How did he have the cheek to say the rubbish to her... He was really shameless!

Han Fei blinked and tugged at Zhang Xuanyu's arm. "Let's go! Otherwise, we will lose a lot of money."

Zhang Xuanyu nodded. "Yes! I got what you meant from your glance." Zhang Xuanyu quickly transmitted his voice to everyone, "Xiaobai, cooperate with me. See how I catch a Soul-Attracting Jellyfish!"

Zhang Xuanyu rushed a few kilometers away. Seeing him, a Soul-Attracting Jellyfish was a little stunned. Um, it seems that there are five tiny little guys coming at me? Ok, let me teach them a lesson then.

Zhang Xuanyu, who was at the front, didn't feel much. Le Renkuang wanted to try the effect of the Soul Resistance Pearl and also ran forward. However, after being attacked, he covered his head with his hands. "Ouch, it hurts... I've gotta eat another Soul Resistance Pearl."

He patted his armor box and a large number of swords and knives flew out. If Le Renkuang could resist mental attacks, the jelly-like Soul-Attracting Jellyfish was a piece of cake to him.

Zhang Xuanyu was helpless. "Kuangkuang, I said this jellyfish was mine."

Le Renkuang grunted. "But you are too slow."

"Let me catch the next one."

A moment later, countless vines crushed a Soul-Attracting Jellyfish and Han Fei simply didn't need to do anything. In less than half an hour, each of them had eaten five or six Soul Resistance Pearls. However, their enthusiasm had not diminished, and they were still committed to hunting Soul-Attracting Jellyfish.

During the period, a total of three spiritual fruits were found from the seabed, which were not Crimson Sea Fruit but almost the same, with nearly ten thousand points of spiritual energy. One hour later.

Luo Xiaobai shouted, "Okay, stop. Soul Resistance Pearls are no longer useful to us. Shall we consider finding a second contractual spiritual beast?"

Everyone except Zhang Xuanyu shook his head.

Xia Xiaochan scoffed. "I don't want such a weak contractual spiritual beast."

Zhang Xuanyu said slyly, "It depends on who uses it. I'll use it very well. It can greatly strengthen my soul attack. Perfect!"

Le Renkuang said carelessly, "I will catch my second contractual spiritual beast in the level-three fishery."

Xia Xiaochan nodded. "Me too."

Luo Xiaobai handed the Soul Resistance Pearl in her hand to Han Fei. "I want to go to the Deep-Sea Jungle to see if there is a creature suitable to be my second contractual spiritual beast."

Everyone shivered. The Piercing Electricity Zone was the fourth most dangerous, but the Deep-sea Jungle ranked second! You cross the Stone Forest and go directly to the Deep-Sea Jungle. Is it appropriate?

Han Fei was also a little worried. "Let's search here first, OK? Maybe there are still some more spiritual fruit or something." "It's not necessary. The best thing we can find here is these Soul Resistance Pearls. They're much more valuable than spiritual fruits."

Luo Xiaobai nodded. "Yes, there are very few things that can increase spiritual resistance or soul resistance. Ordinary people can't get down here even if they know that there are Soul-Attracting Jellyfish. Even if they can get down, they must block the attack of the Soul-Attracting Jellyfish first."

Han Fei shrugged. "OK, it's up to you!"

Everyone smiled at each other. Then the vines bulged around them, enveloped them, and then closed, forming a road leading from the seabed to the sea surface.

He Xiaoyu cried, "Let's go." The vines went all the way up and crossed the explosion area of the Blue-Hat Jellyfish. Then, they experienced the current shock again.

Fortunately, this time, Le Renkuang was already prepared, although they were still paralyzed by the electricity and could not even speak clearly.

On the fishing boat.

Zhang Xuanyu took a long breath. "Shall we go to the Stone Forest or the Deep-Sea Jungle first? I personally suggest going to the former first. There must be a reason for it to be ranked third. If we can't handle the Stone Forest, Then the Deep-Sea Jungle will be very dangerous for us."

Le Renkuang agreed. "Let's go to the Stone Forest first. We should explore these places step by step."

Xia Xiaochan waved her dagger. "Whatever."

Han Fei agreed. "Let's explore them one by one! It's the safest choice."

Luo Xiaobai nodded. "OK, then to the Stone Forest we go."

Chapter 202 Stone Forest

Zhang Xuanyu closed his notebook and said, "This is the Stone Forest. Although there are many people who want to mine the stones here, their success rate is not high."

Han Fei was surprised. "Were they out of their minds?! They came all the way here to dig stones?"

"I haven't finished yet. It was said that someone had found traces of Rock-Holding Turtles in the Stone Forest, but I don't know if the news is reliable or not."

"Rock-Holding Turtles?"

The others asked in surprise.

Zhang Xuanyu nodded. "Yes, Rock-Holding Turtles that people often talk about but can't find."

Le Renkuang immediately became interested. "We can have a try. If I really find a Rock-Holding Turtle and make it my contractual spiritual beast, it'll be awesome! I will instantly become the No.1 armorist in the Blue Sea Town."

Xia Xiaochan kicked Le Renkuang and scoffed. “Yes, in your dreams! Not everyone with a Rock-Holding Turtle can become the strongest armorist. It depends on the combat skill on the back of the Rock-Holding Turtle. It’s all about luck.”

Le Renkuang shrugged. “I’ll be glad if I can get a Rock-Holding Turtle. No one in the Blue Sea Town has a Rock-Holding Turtle. If I can get one, I’ll keep it even if its combat skills are good or not.”

Han Fei patted his shoulders. “Okay, if I can find a Rock-Holding Turtle, I’ll give it to you. I don’t want it that much. Guys, don’t forget, this place is even more dangerous than the Piercing Electricity Zone. No matter how strong the Stone Spirit Crabs are, they can’t be stronger than the Soul-Attracting Jellyfish, right? I don’t believe these Stone Spirit Crabs can kill all the great fishing masters who visited. I think there must be treasure below.”

Zhang Xuanyu said with a smile, “Yes, I agree. There must be a secret. Maybe it is a treasure.”

Xia Xiaochan rolled her eyes. “All you guys know is treasure, treasure. Let’s go down first.”

Luo Xiaobai warned, “Be careful. Don’t forget the lesson we learned in the Piercing Electricity Zone. Try to avoid new marine creatures.”

They were about to jump into the water, and suddenly Han Fei said, “Shall we eat hot pot before going down?”

Xia Xiaochan was about to jump. Hearing this, she stopped and looked back at Han Fei. “Couldn’t you have said this earlier?”

Le Renkuang rubbed his hands and chuckled. “Sure, sure. Oh, I suddenly feel hungry.”

Luo Xiaobai also nodded slightly. Continuous exploration exhausted them. Here might be an even more dangerous place than the Piercing Electricity Zone. They’d better have a rest.

Han Fei took out the hot pot, barbecue grills, and spices from the Sea Swallowing Seashell.

“Fatty, can you grill squid? I picked up a lot of squid tentacles a few days ago. One is enough for the five of us.”

Le Renkuang shook his head. “No, I can’t. I’ll make the hot pot. You grill squid tentacles!”

Wenren Yu was completely speechless. She couldn’t remember how many times they ate hot pot in the past month. However, as their protector, she couldn’t appear even at meals! So she could only watch them eating hot pot every day!

Half an hour later, after they jumped into the water, Wenren Yu secretly appeared on Han Fei’s fishing boat. There were only some dishes in the pan and a few pounds of shredded grilled squid left. She grunted and grabbed the barbecue to eat. As for the remnants of the hot pot, she certainly wouldn’t eat it. How could she eat the leftovers of these little bastards?!

As soon as they entered the water, a bunch of Strip Fish and Bony Spur Fish gathered around, which were cleared up by Luo Xiaobai and Le Renkuang, leaving a pile of minced meat.

Le Renkuang asked, "Isn't it impolite for us to leave our leftovers for the teacher? Why not ask the teacher to come on board and eat together with us?"

Xia Xiaochan winced. "Are you stupid? The teacher didn't want to show up!"

Luo Xiaobai elaborated, "The teacher doesn't want to interfere with our cultivation unless we are in danger. Therefore, we can't slack off."

Han Fei did not discuss with them but looked around. "Have you found that this water is a bit dark?"

Zhang Xuanyu shook his head. "No, it's not as dark as the Deep-Sea Jungle. The seabed is dark, and there are a variety of spiritual plants in the Deep-Sea Jungle. No one knows how many strange creatures hide there."

They dove all the way down, and along the way, they saw a variety of fish. In addition to Strip Fish and Bony Spur Fish, there were also Pearl Fish, Dragon-Headed Fish, Squid, and Big-Headed Shrimp in the level-two fishery.

Xia Xiaochan wondered, "Isn't this a dangerous place? Why are there so many ordinary fishes here? There is nothing in the Piercing Electricity Zone." Zhang Xuanyu responded with a smile, "Which fish can withstand those Piercing Electricity Jellyfish? The Blue-Hat Jellyfish alone can blow up a lot of fish in ordinary waters." They had been diving. Perhaps dangerous places were especially deep. They dove for 500 meters before seeing the array-like outline at the bottom of the water. Luo Xiaobai announced, "Attention, we're going to reach the seabed. Dive a little bit more. See what is below."

After a while, they finally saw the seabed clearly. No wonder it was called the Stone Forest. There stood many stone walls several dozen meters high on the bottom of the sea. Between the stone walls, it was very dark and it was unclear what was inside.

Le Renkuang swallowed. "Wow, this place looks eerie."

Han Fei said, "It's a maze. These stone walls stretch as far as the eye can see and the stone walls are not connected but have gaps. This is more complicated than a connected maze."

"Maze?"

Zhang Xuanyu was speechless. "Who made such a maze in this damn place?"

Luo Xiaobai wondered. "It looks like some kind of relic. It couldn't have been made by ordinary people anyway. Ordinary people don't have this ability."

Without saying anything, Xia Xiaochan took out her fishing rod and threw it to the sea surface. After several minutes, a Strip Fish was hooked over and was thrown into the stone walls by Xia Xiaochan.

Buzz...

In the blink of an eye, five or six white water arrows shot out of the stone walls. Xia Xiaochan withdrew the rod, only to find that the hook was gone and the line was broken.

Han Fei asked, "What did you see?"

Xia Xiaochan shook her head. "It happened so fast that I didn't see anything."

"Let me have a try."

Han Fei also quickly caught a Bony Spur Fish and threw it into the stone walls. His perception range was larger than Xia Xiaochan's. At the moment the Bony Spur Fish dropped to the crack of the stone walls, Han Fei saw water arrows shoot out from all sides. He quickly controlled the fish line to avoid the water arrows.

"A crab?"

Han Fei suddenly saw a crab with a rock on its head. Han Fei immediately retracted the rod, but when the rod was pulled over the stone wall, suddenly an unknown force tore the fishing line. The fish and the fish hook fell into the crack of the stone walls.

Everyone looked at Han Fei, who said with a strange look, "This crab can shoot arrows! And there seems to be a seal here."

Luo Xiaobai's eyes lit up. "It is a Water Arrow Crab, a rare spiritual crab, but few people can have this kind of crab as their spiritual beast. There are many treasure places with seals. No need to fuss."

Han Fei nodded. "Also, if we go down now, we might not be able to get up. I just tried it. It wasn't the Water Arrow Crab that cut my fishing line but the seal."

"Wow!"

The others were all stunned and looked at Han Fei in shock.

Luo Xiaobai pondered for a while. "So, if we go in, we may be killed if we want to come out."

Zhang Xuanyu took a tumble. "That's right. No wonder very few people came back from here. They must have been killed or got lost." "It must be because they couldn't breathe!"

Le Renkuang looked afraid. "Then let's not enter it! The Stone Forest is so big. What if we get lost in it?"

But Han Fei and Zhang Xuanyu glanced at each other and said simultaneously, "Let's go."

Luo Xiaobai scoffed. "Don't be impulsive."

"I'm not impulsive. The existence of the maze is to get people lost." Zhang Xuanyu followed. "Since the designer of this place tries to get people lost, there must be something that he doesn't want people to discover, or to be exact, a treasure."

Han Fei added, "Yes! And, don't forget that this is the level-two fishery. Since Teacher Wenren dared to let us come here, either she has confidence in us or she was not afraid of this maze. At least, with Xiaobai here, we don't have to worry about the problem of breathing."

Zhang Xuanyu nodded. "And if we can't even get out of the maze, what if there is a more dangerous place than the Stone Forest? Even in ordinary fisheries, there are many dangerous places. In the future, what we meet will only be more dangerous than this."

With that, they high-fived and finished blabbering

Chapter 203 Water Arrow Turtles

Obviously, everybody was convinced, but Luo Xiaobai still prudently connected everybody's waist with vines so that they wouldn't be separated from each other after they went in. Han Fei said, "I'll lead the way. You can follow me."

Everybody followed Han Fei as he descended. Hardly had they entered the gap of the walls when another eight water arrows were shot at them. Han Fei immediately unleashed his Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers and penetrated the Water Arrow Crabs.

The Water Arrow Crab was no better than a rare crab in a level-two fishery, but the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers were through-and-through spiritual weapons. Though they were not as powerful as legendary spiritual weapons, it was more than easy for them to cut those crabs.

The moment they landed, Luo Xiaobai slashed the top with a vine, and the vine was immediately chopped into halves.

Xia Xiaochan grabbed a dead Water Arrow Crab and threw it at the sky too, which was also cut into two parts.

Xia Xiaochan remarked, "It seems impossible to get out from the top now. I'm rather curious. Where are the Stone Spirit Crabs when there are so many Water Arrow Crabs?"

Luo Xiaobai extended her hand, and her vines began to search around the wall.

Han Fei said, "Stop searching. The Stone Spirit Crabs are right down there. Look."

Han Fei pointed at the pits below the wall. Along the wall were a couple of crabs that looked identical to rocks.

Zhang Xuanyu knocked the shell of one of the crabs, and the crab hurried to close its eyes and continued pretending to be a stone.

Everyone: "???"

Le Renkuang was amused. "Why did you knock it? They could've been alarmed and launched an attack at you."

Zhang Xuanyu replied lazily, "You're being silly. Not every creature in the ocean is aggressive. The Stone Spirit Crabs are the laziest crabs. They barely move when they hide in the ocean. That's the reason why the stones that the Stone Spirit Crabs occupy are the best materials for weapons thanks to the congregation of spiritual energy."

Le Renkuang scratched his head. "Those crabs do sound dumb. So, the stones that people are interested in are those down below?"

Le Renkuang found a dagger from his weapon box and tapped the stones below the wall, but he couldn't even leave a mark on the stones.

Le Renkuang was delighted. "Good stones. Let's dig them up! Huh? Why are you leaving?"

Everybody looked at him in disbelief. Are you here for nothing better than those stones?

Luo Xiaobai said, "If it's a normal maze, we can always find a way out as long as we walk along one side of it. However, the walls here are broken."

Han Fei summoned Little Black and Little White. He petted Little White and asked, "Little Little White, can you sense anything unusual here? Is there any treasure or spiritual fruit?"

Seeing Little White, everybody recalled its extraordinary abilities to locate exotic creatures and wondered if it could find other treasures.

Little White was lost. It circled around for a long time, going left and then going right. Xia Xiaochan speculated, "Is there good stuff in both directions?" Han Fei touched Little White's head and said, "We'll only get the best treasures."

After that, Little White began to lead the way for them.

Xia Xiaochan asked in shock, "Why is Little Little White so smart? It can locate the treasure in a maze? Wouldn't you be able to find any treasure later?"

Zhang Xuanyu said enviously, "Amazing! This must be a Treasuring Hunting Spirit Swallowing Fish, isn't it? It's definitely one of the top five spiritual beasts in the Blue Sea Town."

Le Renkuang was also jealous. "Of course. Have you ever seen any spiritual beast that can hunt treasures? It's the only one capable of that in the Blue Sea Town."

Hiu! Hiu! Hiu!

After no more than ten meters, water arrows were spewed at them. Different from the Stone Spirit Crabs, the Water Arrow Crabs were not big but highly aggressive. Before Han Fei reacted, Le Renkuang and Zhang Xuanyu, who were bored, had already taken care of them.

Half an hour later...

Everybody was dizzy as Little White had led them to take multiple turns and go back and forth.

After another half an hour, everybody lost their way. Han Fei didn't know if Little White still knew the way, but he knew that he didn't.

Zhang Xuanyu asked helplessly, "Little Little White, are we there? You haven't lost your way, have you?"

Xia Xiaochan said, "If you know the way, lead

US!"

Zhang Xuanyu shrugged. "I can't. I... Damn it!"

Zhang Xuanyu roared and raised a furious tide to his one side with his robe.

Then, everybody saw an enormous water arrow coming at them. The arrowhead alone was multiple meters long.

BAM!

Zhang Xuanyu was forced to take multiple steps back because of the water arrow. He blushed because of the brutal force.

While Zhang Xuanyu retreated, another water arrow was shot at him. This arrow was even more powerful and even turned the water turbulent.

Le Renkuang patted his weapon box. "Shield armor!"

BAM!

The waves crumbled the Stone Spirit Crabs at the bottom of the wall, and one of Le Renkuang's shields was broken.

Han Fei gave Le Renkuang a hand and said in shock, "It's very strong. Is it a mutated Water Arrow Crab?"

Luo Xiaobai said, "No, the Water Arrow Crabs can't be so tough. It's a Water Arrow Turtle, an exotic creature that's much more powerful than the Soul-Attracting Jellyfish."

Han Fei was surprised. "More powerful than the Soul-Attracting Jellyfish?"

Luo Xiaobai nodded. "Soul attacks are useless to them. Such turtles have lived too many years and boast of enormous spiritual power."

As they talked, another thick water arrow was shot at them.

At this moment, Han Fei stepped forward and shouted, "Rod!"

A rod was released from Le Renkuang's weapon box, and Han Fei picked it up and stabbed it at the arrowhead quickly.

BAM!

The rod was bent, and the water arrow was broken. Han Fei was forced to step back, making everybody anxious. Xia Xiaochan was already gone. Zhang Xuanyu summoned his Bloodthirsty Shark. Le Renkuang darted out his saber, but it could only fly slowly in the water.

At this moment, thousands of dense arrows, instead of one huge arrow, were shot at them.

Luo Xiaobai waved her hands and protected everybody with layers of vines, but the vines were still penetrated.

Le Renkuang shouted, "Armor!"

Han Fei roared, "Water shield!"

When the vines were riddled with holes and the remaining water arrows were about to break the shield, still more arrows were coming. The power of the attack was enormous.

"Seven-Layered Waves in Furious Sea."

Standing on the top of a wave, Zhang Xuanyu commanded the waves and charged out with a rod in his hand.

Zhang Xuanyu's resistance was quite tough. The hundreds of dense arrows were blown thirty meters back by him. Everybody ran forth while the thirty meters before them were back to peace. In the meantime, an enormous vine thirty meters long slapped the arrows again and allowed them to move further.

At this point, everybody had surpassed the saber that Le Renkuang shot out.

Han Fei was lost for words. "Le Renkuang, can you optimize your battle technique a little bit? Wouldn't it be embarrassing if your saber doesn't reach the enemy even when the battle is already over?"

TAT

Zhang Xuanyu said, "I've been meaning to say that since a long time ago. Your saber is way too slow..."

Le Renkuang was speechless. "I want to be fast too, but it takes time for me to accumulate power for the saber."

Luo Xiaobai said, "Let's not dawdle. Xiaochan must've circumvented the arrows from above. Let's hurry."

So, everybody surpassed Le Renkuang's saber and pressed on.

A few moments later, they saw a huge turtle the size of a mountain with all kinds of weird rocks on its shell.

Han Fei glanced at the turtle.<Name> Water Arrow Turtle

<Introduction> This is a Water Arrow Turtle that has lived here for more than nine hundred years. It's highly aggressive and sturdy. It contains a Water Resisting Pearl that can help you stay at the bottom of the ocean all the time without need for air.

<Level> 39

<Quality> Exotic

<Spiritual Energy> 5,640 Points

<Effect> It can strengthen your body and increase your longevity when eaten.

<Collectible> Water Resisting Pearl

<Absorbable>

Chapter 204 Two Turtles Defending the Ocean

Everybody was shocked to see the Water Arrow Turtle which was essentially a small mountain. The turtle also had rocks with sophisticated patterns on its back.

Clink!

Xia Xiaochan appeared below the Water Arrow Turtle's neck and spiraled to launch a Supreme Stab. The attack was so powerful that Han Fei felt that it was enough to stab into him.

“Hooooooo!”

However, the Water Arrow Turtle simply roared, and Xia Xiaochan was entirely knocked away.

Han Fei charged forward because he saw that the Water Arrow Turtle had formed another water arrow.

Han Fei picked up Xia Xiaochan and tossed her to Luo Xiaobai. Then, spiritual energy surged out of his rod, helping him to resist the arrow.

Crack! Crack! Crack!

But to Han Fei’s shock, his rod was falling apart inch by inch, and seeing that it was about to be completely broken, Han Fei hurried to add a spiritual energy protective cover on himself.

BAM!

After an explosion, Han Fei was blown away into a stone wall like a cannonball, with such a powerful blast that the stone wall was crushed. The Stone Spirit Crabs near the wall were crumbled before they were able to do anything.

“Pu!”

Spewing out blood, Han Fei felt as though a mountain had just crashed into him, and that all his bones had been broken.

Everybody gathered around Han Fei in shock. They knew very well how sturdy Han Fei’s body was, but he was still heavily wounded by the close-range attack of the Water Arrow Turtle!

Han Fei struggled back to his feet. “Who can tell me what the Water Arrow Turtle is exactly? Why is it so strong?”

Han Fei remembered the Hexagon Starfish and was horrified, because the turtle left him the same feeling as the Hexagon Starfish did.

But at least, the Hexagon Starfish wouldn’t attack anyone randomly. This turtle, on the other hand, had started attacking them when they were still a long distance away. Luo Xiaobai’s face slightly changed. “Wait, something must be wrong with this Water Arrow Turtle. It shouldn’t be so strong.” Han Fei asked, “What if it’s close to level forty?”

Xia Xiaochan said, “Then it would be reasonable. A level-forty turtle is much stronger than a common Dangling Fisher. I don’t think we can defeat it.”

Luo Xiaobai said, “A Dangling Fisher might be able to deal with it, but this Water Arrow Turtle is beyond our anticipation. It shouldn’t be in a level-two fishery at all.”

Le Renkuang said, shivering, “I warned you before! As one of the three most dangerous places, this place is perilous!”

While retreating, everybody discussed the scene. Since it was impossible to weather through the turtle’s attacks, they’d better retreat for now.

They were no fools. Xia Xiaochan's fully-blown attack didn't even hurt the Water Arrow Turtle, and Han Fei's attack only caused himself to be blown away.

At this point, everybody looked at Le Renkuang sympathetically as he had to offer his own blood to his broadsword this time.

Le Renkuang almost shed tears. He didn't know that his opponent would be so strong. However, it was impossible to cancel the flying Bloodthirsty Broadsword now.

Then, everybody saw an enormous pillar of water hitting the saber. BAM!

Le Renkuang sat on the ground, but to everybody's surprise, the saber was still pressing forward.

Zhang Xuanyu was shocked. "Le Renkuang, I didn't know that your Bloodthirsty Broadsword had grown so powerful!"

Le Renkuang said bitterly, "No, I can't persist any longer."

BAM!

A second water arrow came and easily flung Le Renkuang's broadsword away.

Instantly, Le Renkuang vomited blood exhaustedly.

Han Fei performed the Divine Healing Technique on Le Renkuang, before he said, "No, this Water Arrow Turtle is too strong for us. We have to try other places."

Luo Xiaobai said, "Agreed. Thank god that it can't move, or it would be impossible for us to run."

Everybody was rather frustrated. If they couldn't defeat a monster in a level-two fishery, what could they do when they reached a level-three fishery?

Of course, other people would've cursed them to be snobs if their thoughts were known, because few in the Blue Sea Town dared to explore the four forbidden areas.

Some fishers might've survived the Piercing Electricity Zone, but fewer made it back from the Stone Forest. As for the two most dangerous places, nobody ever returned from there.

After they escaped by a thousand meters, the walls near them suddenly began to move.

Luo Xiaobai's face changed greatly. "Run! The walls are closing!"

Han Fei looked back at the Water Arrow Turtle. Were the walls closing because they attacked the turtle a moment ago?

There was no time to think at this point. Everybody rushed while the walls were not closed yet. After they took multiple turns and passed through infinite gaps, the walls finally stopped moving. However, everybody was shocked after the movement of the walls. Earlier, the roads between the walls were smooth and had nothing except the Water Arrow Crabs and the Stone Spirit Crabs, but after the stone walls moved, the ground was brimming with gruesome corpses. "Gudu!"

Le Renkuang's eyes widened. "A lot of people... Died here!"

Zhang Xuanyu examined the corpses and found fishing poles, daggers, and deformed sabers and swords.

Luo Xiaobai said, "It's a circle. This whole area of walls is an enormous circle."

Zhang Xuanyu heaved a sigh. "Anyway, we've lost our way now. We can't tell the direction at all in this circle. We have to count on Little Little White now."

Han Fei asked in confusion, "Why do you think our teacher let us come here if she knew that we couldn't defeat the monsters here?"

Xia Xiaochan said, "While we couldn't defeat them, the Water Arrow Turtle can't do anything to us either, can it? I think we need to find an answer by ourselves."

Han Fei nodded and petted Little White. "Keep searching. Let's ignore the big turtle and look for something else this time."

It was not tricky for Little White, because fish did not tell the direction with their eyes but with their magnetic field. Also, Little White was highly sensitive about spiritual energy, and it was not hard for Little White to locate the places in this maze where spiritual energy was concentrated.

However, the search this time was much more arduous than the last time. Everybody walked for almost half a day in the maze but saw nothing but bones on their way.

As they pressed on, they suddenly found themselves on an empty ground. Then, they saw a huge turtle, which was covered in a black shell and was napping in it.

<Name> Stone Spirit Turtle

<Introduction> This is a Stone Spirit Turtle that has lived here for more than nine hundred years. It feeds on spiritual energy and is highly sturdy. It's lazy and spends most of its time in hibernation. It contains a Water Resisting Pearl that can help you stay at the bottom of the ocean all the time without need for air.

<Level> 39

<Quality> Exotic

<Spiritual Energy> 5,555 Points

<Effect> It can strengthen your body and increase your longevity when eaten.

<Collectible> Water Resisting Pearl

<Absorbable>

Everybody including Han Fei was stunned. Another one? Also, it had similar qualities to the Water Arrow Turtle, except that the Water Arrow Turtle was more aggressive. Also, was this turtle sleeping?

Le Renkuang asked, his voice shivering, "Is it asleep?"

Xia Xiaochan asked, "What turtle is this?"

Zhang Xuanyu was lost for words. "Are you kidding me? Is this place a turtle keep? This one can't be weaker than the Water Arrow Turtle. We would be brutalized again if it weren't asleep."

Luo Xiaobai said, "Let's not wake it up but observe it first."

The Water Arrow Turtle just now was too ferocious for them to approach, but this Stone Spirit Turtle was napping and gave them enough time for observation.

Xia Xiaochan circled the Stone Spirit Turtle delightedly and said, "This turtle must be more than twenty meters long!"

Luo Xiaobai said, "Look at the patterns on the ground."

Everybody gathered and fell silent. A moment later, Han Fei remarked, "It's a circle."

Zhang Xuanyu asked, "So, what is this circle for?"

Le Renkuang said, "To cage the two turtles, of course. What else could it be for?"

Han Fei asked, "Why are the two turtles caged?"

Chapter 205 Han Fei the Deceiver

Everybody circled the Stone Spirit Turtle and found nothing except the turtle.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Han Fei knocked the turtle shell noisily. Immediately, Le Renkuang and Zhang Xuanyu ran dozens of meters away, Xia Xiaochan went stealthy, and Luo Xiaobai backed off quickly. Zhang Xuanyu asked in shock, "Han Fei, are you crazy? What if it's woken up?"

Le Renkuang complained, "Han Fei, stop knocking! We can study it further."

Han Fei was lost for words. "You can still study it. Look, it must've slept for hundreds of years. Use your senses. It's inhaling and exhaling spiritual energy even though it's sleeping."

As he spoke, Han Fei kept knocking as he was studying the origin of the weird rocks on the turtle. He wondered if he could knock the rocks off and build them into weapons because the rocks seemed hard.

Clang, Clang, Clang...

Han Fei knocked off a rock. It felt heavy. He didn't know what it was exactly, but he simply threw it into Forge the Universe. Then, Han Fei ran to the turtle neck where there was a smaller stone that seemed to be better than those on its shell.

Right when Han Fei was about to knock the stone off, a head slowly craned out of the shell. "Human being, you're disturbing my sleep." "Shoot..."

Han Fei jumped back in fright, not expecting that the turtle could talk.

Not just Han Fei, his teammates also trembled and stepped back even further.

Luo Xiaobai's face changed greatly. "Han Fei, come back. It's... It's possibly a divine turtle!"

Xia Xiaochan, on the other hand, gazed at the turtle with great curiosity.

Han Fei stuttered, "Cough, cough... Well, Hi!"

The Stone Spirit Turtle had completely stretched its head out. It said lethargically, "Human beings, go away now. I need to sleep."

Everyone: "..."

Zhang Xuanyu remarked, "This turtle seems tired."

Han Fei rolled his eyes. "Well, Mr. Turtle, why are you staying in this place?"

Han Fei had seen a Hexagon Starfish before, so he regained his calmness after the initial panic. Since the Stone Spirit Turtle was lazy in nature, Han Fei thought that they were probably like the Stone Spirit Crabs which pretended to be stones near the wall. The Stone Spirit Turtle said slowly, "I'm in this place to sleep, of course."

Han Fei was lost for words. "Mr. Turtle, you can sleep wherever you want. Why do you sleep in this particular place?"

The Stone Spirit Turtle said lazily, "Why would I know? I had been sleeping and when I woke up, I was already here. But it doesn't matter, since any place is just a place of rest for me."

Everyone: "..."

Han Fei carefully leaned closer to the turtle head. "Mr. Turtle, do you know what this place is? We just ran into another Mr. Turtle on the other side, but it wasn't very friendly and kept shooting arrows at us."

The Stone Spirit Turtle looked at Han Fei and said, "Oh! That turtle keeps disturbing my sleep, but I'm too lazy to deal with it." Han Fei felt that he couldn't hold on anymore. He didn't know what to say about the turtle that had slept for a thousand years. Han Fei said, "Mr. Turtle, here's the situation: we've lost our way. Do you know how to get out of here?"

The Stone Spirit Turtle slowly moved its head back. "I don't know. I don't want to go out, either. When are you leaving? I need to go back to sleep."

Han Fei said, "Let's not rush into anything. You've slept for hundreds of years, and it wouldn't be bad to stretch out your arms now and then, would it? Chances are that you can make a breakthrough!"

The Stone Spirit Turtle was retreating its head while it said slowly, "A breakthrough? Don't they come naturally when you're sleeping?"

Han Fei: "???"

Han Fei found it impossible to continue the conversation anymore. Natural breakthroughs? You're only level 39 after a thousand years of sleep. Isn't that embarrassing?

Han Fei tried to be patient. “Mr. Turtle, can you tell me what the circle below us is? Let me tell you, someone has sealed you, and you can break the seal if you move a little bit. Then, you can sleep in a more comfortable place, say, a beautiful coral reef, where you can see colorful corals when you wake up and enjoy little fish when you’re hungry? Wouldn’t your life be much better over there?”

The Stone Spirit Turtle stopped retreating its neck. It glanced at Han Fei and said, “It’s tempting, but I don’t want to move. Can you move the corals to me?”

Han Fei was covered in sweat, and so were his teammates. This turtle wanted someone to move corals to him? Nice dream!

Seeing that he was getting somewhere, Han Fei pursued further, “Mr. Turtle, just think about it! All you need to do is to move a little bit to break the seal, and we’ll immediately lead you to the coral reef. Actually, there are coral reefs only several thousand meters away. It’s as beautiful as a fairyland. I saw a lot of turtles sleeping there.”

The Stone Spirit Turtle asked suspiciously, “Really?”

Han Fei patted his chest. “Of course! We won’t take the arrow shooter next door because it will only disturb your sleep.”

Zhang Xuanyu didn’t know what to say. Anybody with the slightest wisdom wouldn’t believe that many turtles were sleeping in the coral reefs, but this Stone Spirit Turtle seemed to have bought it.

The Stone Spirit Turtle said, “Then should I move a little bit?”

Han Fei was excited. “Of course! You can crawl out of the circle here first.”

The Stone Spirit Turtle said, “In that case, get out of the way.”

Han Fei hurried to run dozens of meters away. He said hopefully, “Mr. Turtle, the corals are waiting for you. You can eat fish and shrimp whenever you open your mouth over there. It’s possible that you would run into other female turtles... How wonderful does that sound?”

Zhang Xuanyu looked at the stone walls, Le Renkuang was busy with the weapon box, Luo Xiaobai slightly blushed, and Xia Xiaochan glared at Han Fei for his nonsense.

The Stone Spirit Turtle’s magnificent body moved. The moment it raised its limbs, the water surged, and the circle on the ground glittered.

Boom!

The earth was shaking after the Stone Spirit Turtle made its first step, and the stone walls behind everybody started moving.

An invisible shield appeared and blocked the Stone Spirit Turtle’s way after it made the second step.

BAM!

The Stone Spirit Turtle moved forward again, and the shield of spiritual energy began to quiver.

Han Fei was rather amazed by the circle and wondered if a spirit gatherer could learn it.

Though shocked, Han Fei cheered for the turtle. “Mr. Turtle, we’re only one step away from victory. Keep it up! We’re here for you!”

Bam! Bam! Bam!

The whole Stone Forest was shaking, but Han Fei was excited because a major event had been triggered. If the Stone Spirit Turtle could make it out, would he find the treasure in the Stone Forest?

Suddenly, the Stone Spirit Turtle lay down and said tiredly, “I can’t walk out. Forget it. I’m not moving.”

Everyone: “...”

Han Fei was stunned. “Don’t! Mr. Turtle, the victory is only half a meter away from you! Let us not give up!”

The Stone Spirit Turtle said slowly, “I remember it now. A rod stabbed into this place a long time ago. You can’t get out until you pluck the rod. I don’t want to move. I’m too tired.”

Han Fei was interested. “A rod? What rod? Where is it?”

The Stone Spirit Turtle said, “I don’t know, but I think it’s been partly exposed because of my collision just now. You go for it! Come back and take me to the coral reef after you find it.”

Han Fei promised, “Not a problem. You can count on me. Little White, Little White, look for a rod. It’s definitely at a place where spiritual energy is most condensed.”

Luo Xiaobai looked gloomily. Hadn’t they agreed to call it Little Little White? Why was he calling it Little White again?

But Han Fei was too excited to care about that now. If this rod had been suppressing two powerful turtles, it was definitely an invaluable rod, and it had to be the treasure in the Stone Forest.

When Han Fei looked back, he found that the stone walls had been rearranged into straight lines.

Han Fei was stunned. “When did that happen?”

Other people were confused too. They were too focused on Han Fei’s deception just now to notice the change. It probably happened when the Stone Spirit Turtle crashed against the seal!

Chapter 206 The Turtle That Carries the Plaque

On the outside, Wenren Yu’s face changed. She had reached the bottom of the ocean from the surface when the Stone Forest had an earthquake.

Wenren Yu was frowning hard. She didn’t stop Han Fei’s team from exploring the Stone Forest because it was only a maze. She knew that the maze was based on an ancient circle but was not fatal. Most people who died here were actually suffocated due to the lack of air. Also, some of the explorers made it out from the Stone Forest alive.

However, Luo Xiaobai had a source of air. Her vines could grow wherever there was soil. When her level was higher, even soil wouldn’t be required.

Therefore, Wenren Yu felt that it was a matter of time before Han Fei's team returned. She had even been ready to mock them and tell them that not every place in this ocean has treasures when they were back.

However, the seal was shaking, and the whole Stone Forest was moving, which was different from what she anticipated.

Frowning hard, Wenren Yu released hundreds of sword grasses and tried to break the seal above the Stone Forest.

But out of her expectation, the Stone Forest only allowed those below the level of Dangling Fisher to come in, and her access was denied.

access

BAM! BAM! BAM!

A barrier of water appeared on the top of the Stone Forest, and the sword grasses resulted in nothing but ripples after they hit it.

"Damn it!"

Wenren Yu cruised on the top of the Stone Forest. However, the barrier blocked her sight and she couldn't see what was going on inside at all.

At this point, Wenren Yu remembered something that Old Bai said earlier: the Stone Forest was as treacherous as the Fiery Mountain and much more so than the Deep-Sea Jungle.

Down below, Han Fei's team went forward along the straight channel, meeting no obstacles this time. Everybody was excited.

Zhang Xuanyu said with a smile, "Han Fei, it never occurred to me that you were such a good liar."

Le Renkuang agreed with him. "That's right! I almost believed you."

Han Fei glanced at him. "A liar? I was telling the truth, alright? Wouldn't it be better to sleep in the coral reefs than to sleep in the Stone Forest?"

Zhang Xuanyu said, "That's true, but you told the turtle that you were going to set it up with a female turtle... Are you sure that you can find a second turtle that can talk? I highly doubt it!"

a se

Xia Xiaochan suddenly asked, "Do you think the Water Arrow Turtle can talk?"

Luo Xiaobai shook her head. "Probably not. That black turtle must be a special species that is more amazing than exotic creatures." Han Fei certainly couldn't tell them that it was named Stone Spirit Turtle and it could talk probably because of luck, like the Hexagon Starfish that he ran into before. Since the Hexagon Starfish could talk, it meant that other species in the ocean might be able to talk too. So, he didn't find it inexplicable that the Stone Spirit Turtle could talk.

Everybody moved quickly and they reached their destination half an hour later.

However, they saw nothing but a rising pile of mud and a rod that was full of pebbles on the top of it.

Luo Xiaobai frowned. "Watch out. Look at the ground."

There were complicated engravings on the ground, not very obvious but very creepy.

"Gulp!"

Le Renkuang swallowed and asked, "Is this someone's tomb? Seriously? Why do we keep running into tombs?"

Zhang Xuanyu went forward and said, "Don't bother the tomb. All that matters is this rod. We only need to draw it out..."

Zhang Xuanyu exerted his strength but failed to get it out. He said in embarrassment, "Don't be hasty. I was only trying. Rise..."

Spiritual energy was surging on Zhang Xuanyu's hands, and the water nearby was shaking because of his immense power, but the rod was still.

Le Renkuang asked bluntly, "So, you just can't draw it out, can you?"

Zhang Xuanyu was unhappy that he was scorned. "You do it if you think you're so good."

Le Renkuang waved his hand. "You are not as good as me and Han Fei in terms of strength. It'll be very easy for me to get this rod out."

Seeing no danger nearby, Le Renkuang grew bold and dropped his weapon box, before he began to pull the rod.

"Huh?"

"Rise!"

Zhang Xuanyu enjoyed the show. "Hey... What an easy task it is for you!"

Le Renkuang: "..."

Humiliated, Le Renkuang patted his weapon box and declared, "Violent..."

"Hum..."

He collapsed on the ground, failing to pull the rod out but successfully removed one of the pebbles on the rod, revealing the black color of the rod.

Luo Xiaobai's eyes glittered. "It shook."

Zhang Xuanyu said, "Alright, I've just tried it. The rod seems to be stuck, or it may be too heavy! Think about it. How can a rod that suppresses the seal in the Stone Forest be simple?"

Han Fei rubbed his hands. "Let me try it! But let's make a deal first. Whoever pulls it out will own it."

Le Renkuang didn't care. "I don't use rods. You two can compete for it."

Zhang Xuanyu was unconcerned. "You can't succeed. I've checked it out. It can't be plucked regularly."

Han Fei stepped forward, not caring if there were other approaches, because he was unwilling to be left out in this manly contest of strength.

Han Fei summoned spiritual energy in his hands.

When Han Fei exerted his strength, water was surging and veins were bulging on his hands and his neck, but nothing happened. Zhang Xuanyu said, "Enough. This rod can't be pulled... Out... Shoot!"

They saw that the stick moved slightly, as if it had been partly heaved. They were all shocked.

Xia Xiaochan remarked casually, "So, you're truly not as strong as Han Fei."

At this point, Han Fei roared, "Attach," and clutched the rod with seven chains.

Boom...

The water was rolling, and the earth was shaking. Even the walls were slightly quivering too.

Seeing that the rod was more lifted, Han Fei roared again, "Fury!"

Boom...

An enormous noise burst out, followed by an earthquake. Han Fei, however, lurched and blushed with the rod in his hands.

Luo Xiaobai shouted, "Han Fei, get out of there!"

BAM!

Han Fei fell on the floor, and his hands were pressed to the ground, unable to move.

Holding his breath, Han Fei shouted, "I want to leave too, but this rod is too heavy!" Han Fei was more than shocked. With all his training, he was confident that he was better than regular Dangling Fishers in terms of physical strength. He had the enhancement of the Indestructible Body! However, he couldn't even pick up a rod? Clinging to the rod, Han Fei complained, "Damn it. Are you the Monkey King Bar?"

There was no telling if it was intentional, but the pile of mud below Han Fei's feet fell apart, and both Han Fei and the rod fell off.

"Han Fei..."

Shocked, everybody stepped forward, but the vines that Luo Xiaobai bound to Han Fei earlier were torn off.

The earth was still cracking and shaking in explosions.

Hardly had they approached the pit when they were blown back by an invisible power.

Before they approached it again, they saw that the pile of mud broke apart, and an enormous tablet slowly surfaced.

Then, cracks appeared below everyone's feet one after another. The hundred meters within them almost all fell apart. Le Renkuang swallowed hard. "I sense that... Something is coming."

n

Xia Xiaochan said angrily, "Really? What was your first clue? The turtle shell?"

Everybody was shocked. Was it a turtle down below? But wouldn't the turtle be too huge? The part of the turtle shell that it revealed already covered more than thirty square meters.

"Han Fei..."

Suddenly, Zhang Xuanyu waved his hands in delight, and they saw that Han Fei was sitting on the turtle shell next to the tablet with the rod, his face red.

Han Fei said, "I'm fine. I'm fine. You stay there for now."

Though he said it was fine, Han Fei was actually more than freaked out by the data he saw.

Chapter 207 The God Scaring Painting

When the Rock Holding Turtle completely revealed itself, not just Han Fei, everybody else was panicked too.

The Water Arrow Turtle and the Stone Spirit Turtle were not worth mentioning compared to this gigantic turtle whose shell covered almost a hundred square meters.

"Human being, did you set me free?"

The Rock Holding Turtle spoke, not telepathically but through its mouth, and everybody heard it loud and clear.

"Gulp!"

Han Fei swallowed and said, "Hi! Senior Rock Holder, nice to meet you!"

Han Fei was of a mind to cut apart those people who spread rumors that they had seen the Rock Holding Turtle and received gifts from it. They were all liars! Han Fei had never seen any being whose information was full of question marks except a simple introduction, except when he saw a sea dragon on his first trip in the ocean. Back then, the sea dragon was more than ten levels higher than himself, but he could at least read the level and quality of the sea dragon.

However, he saw nothing but the introduction to this turtle. More importantly, even the Demon Purification Pot couldn't absorb its spiritual energy. This turtle was obviously terrifying.

Han Fei had no doubt that the Rock Holding Turtle couldn't be lower than level fifty.

Han Fei's teammates were shocked to hear what Han Fei said. Was it a Rock Holding Turtle? But it was different from what the rumors said!

Zhang Xuanyu secretly whispered to Le Renkuang telepathically, "Your second contractual spiritual beast has appeared."

Le Renkuang: "???"

Hardly had Zhang Xuanyu finished when the Rock Holding Turtle looked back at him, making him panicked.

The Rock Holding Turtle said, "He can't sign a contract with me. He will die of self-explosion the moment it's signed."

Zhang Xuanyu was shocked. Really? The Rock Holding Turtle could hear their telepathic conversation? Those liars who claimed that they had seen a Rock Holding Turtle obviously made things up!

Zhang Xuanyu said weakly, "S... Senior, I was only kidding." Han Fei was still sitting on the Rock Holding Turtle with the rod, stunned.

The Rock Holding Turtle said, "I don't like the rod. It has been suppressing me for far too long."

Raising his eyebrow, Han Fei immediately threw the rod into Forge the Universe, but he felt that his movement was very slow. Before he realized it, he had consumed tens of thousands of points of spiritual energy.

Han Fei smiled bitterly. "Why didn't you tell me that sooner? I would've stored it already if you had told me earlier. However, I do wish that the rod is as good as the Monkey King Bar."

Now that the rod was gone, the Rock Holding Turtle rose and opened its mouth, and all the stone walls within a thousand meters were shattered. Everybody was shocked.

Zhang Xuanyu secretly swore to kill those guys who had spread out rumors about the Rock Holding Turtles because he could've died thanks to their lies.

When the Rock Holding Turtle crawled out of the pit, the earth was shaking, and a tsunami was raised on the ocean above the Stone Forest.

On the surface, a storm was raging within thousands of kilometers.

At the same time, a streak of light rose to the sky and exploded into a character. Everybody wanted to read it, but it was so dazzling that their tears flowed out the moment they cast their eyes at it.

Many people in the level-two fishery saw it. They were all excited.

Someone roared, "A shocking treasure has been revealed!"

“Let’s go! Let’s go! Today’s our lucky day!”

Those who were fishing simply retreated their poles and sailed their boats forward.

Everybody who saw the light in the level-two fishery went nuts as they wanted to search for the treasure.

At the bottom of the ocean, Wenren Yu sensed the anomaly. She had wandered here for a long time, and the continuous earthquakes were almost too much for her.

If the five precious students died, there would be no hope for the Thug Academy.

The moment the Rock Holding Turtle appeared under the cover of brilliant colors, Wenren Yu appeared before Han Fei and his teammates. For some reason, the picture behind the seal became clear now.

Wenren Yu saw that Han Fei was seated on the top of a gigantic turtle, and his teammates were all looking at him dizzily. Wenren Yu called out, “Han Fei...”

While calling him, she attacked the seal with thousands of sword grasses.

Wenren Yu was shocked. A tablet on its back? Was it the legendary Rock Holding Turtle?

The Rock Holding Turtle, however, slowly raised its head. “You can’t come in. You have to wait a moment.”

Wenren Yu furrowed her brow. A turtle that could talk must be of a high level... As she expected, her sword grasses were all blocked by the seal and couldn’t breach it.

Wenren Yu said, “Senior Rock Holder, please don’t hurt my disciples.”

The Rock Holding Turtle did not respond, only because Wenren Yu’s voice did not pass through the seal.

The Rock Holding Turtle looked at Han Fei’s team and sighed. “I don’t know if it will be good or a curse for you, but since you set me free, you can watch the tablet on my back for an hour before you leave.”

Everybody was greatly surprised. They had seen the huge tablet on the Rock Holding Turtle’s back, and Han Fei seemed to be reading it in fascination. The rest of them looked at each other and immediately joined him, not caring whether or not the Rock Holding Turtle was malicious, because it could’ve killed them easily if it wanted to.

Han Fei was reading the tablet, but thanks to the Demon Purification Pot’s reminder that it must be read with the mind instead of the eyes, he simply focused his eyes on the center of the tablet after discovering that the tablet was empty at the beginning.

As he concentrated on the tablet, the tablet became a black brick in his eyes. It was like one couldn’t see anything except white if they stared at a white wall for a long time.

Han Fei vaguely sensed something different. He saw something moving fuzzily on the tablet. The more concentrated he was, the more fuzzy it became. After a long time, the fuzzy picture in Han Fei’s eyes suddenly became clearer, and Han Fei found himself in the middle of a chaotic ocean instead of the back of the Rock Holding Turtle. He saw the most dreadful tide that must’ve been hundreds of thousands of meters high. It was the only thing that he could see.

There seemed to be a person on the top of the tide, but Han Fei couldn't tell clearly. The person was obscure among the tides. Han Fei was not even sure that it was a human. However, he saw another person who was stabbing a rod into the tides from the high sky.

Han Fei saw that the rod fell like a meteorite and it created dazzling sparks as it rubbed against the atmosphere, leading to an intimidating fiery wave.

The moment the rod touched the water, Han Fei's heart was pounding and he could barely breathe. A hemispherical pit was left on the shocking side by the rod, and turbulence was rising in the pit. Even the air between the sky and the earth seemed to be shaking.

Han Fei's head was stinging. He felt that it was falling apart.

At this point, Han Fei's eyes changed. One of them was black and the other white, and they seemed to be resisting the infinite pressure.

It was at that moment that Han Fei was woken up. He was sweating hard even though he was in water.

Han Fei felt the thirst for blood, as he had been fused with Little Black and Little White without him knowing it. If there were enemies nearby, he would've gone on a killing spree.

Han Fei laid his eyes on the enormous tablet. In his Yin-Yang Divine Eyes, patterns were surfacing on the tablet and there turned out to be a strange painting. Han Fei didn't know what the painting was exactly, but the painting was etched in his head. "Huh? Yin-Yang Divine Eyes?"

The Rock Holding Turtle remarked in slight surprise.

At this point, data popped up in Han Fei's eyes.

Chapter 208 Troublemaker

Xia Xiaochan and the rest of them trembled and woke up. They were all at a loss.

Han Fei even saw devastation on their faces. He wondered if they had also witnessed the horrifying attack with the rod from the tablet. Han Fei had never seen such an eye-opening attack before.

The Rock Holding Turtle said grimly, "Off you go! This place will collapse, and you might be hurt."

Han Fei and his teammates got off from the Rock Holding Turtle, and the water trembled again. Spiritual energy was gathering, triggering some sort of tide that pushed Han Fei's team out.

The stone walls were all cracking as if they would collapse at any point.

Luo Xiaobai's face slightly changed. "An energy outburst. Let's go!"

Zhang Xuanyu was dumbfounded. "Where to? We're in a maze!"

Han Fei had already started running. "To Mr. Turtle! It's probably too lazy to move. We can take shelter below it if we can't find a way out."

Everybody looked at Han Fei and agreed that it was a good plan.

So, they all ran crazily. Behind them, some stone walls were cracking and some were collapsing. Many of the poor Stone Spirit Crabs that pretended to be stones were killed before they realized what was going on.

When everybody ran to the Stone Spirit Turtle, they found that the turtle had fallen asleep again.

Le Renkuang looked perplexed. "I... He's sleeping again? Isn't he too carefree?" Han Fei was about to step forward, when Luo Xiaobai said, "Wait, spiritual energy is gathering in here too."

Everybody realized that it was true. Just now, the spiritual energy on the Rock Holding Turtle was so intense that they didn't notice it here. But right now, they detected that spiritual energy was concentrating on the Stone Spirit Turtle.

A moment later, Han Fei saw sword grasses above his head. He asked in surprise, "Master?"

The seal was declining. Although Wenren Yu couldn't arrive in person, her sword grasses had entered the area.

Wenren Yu said telepathically, "Get out of there. The seal here is about to be broken. It's dangerous."

While Wenren Yu was speaking, the stones on the Stone Spirit Turtle were falling, and it was covered with spiritual energy. Zhang Xuanyu exclaimed, "It's making a breakthrough?"

Bam! Bam! Bam!

The stone walls were cracking on a large scale. Some were even exploding, adding to the chaos of spiritual energy. From up above, Wenren Yu said telepathically, "Find shelter."

Han Fei said, "Let's just hide below Mr. Turtle's shell."

Right after everybody hid in the shelter, the spiritual energy completely burst out, and Han Fei absorbed the rampant spiritual energy with his Demon Purification Pot crazily.

Very soon, a shocking wave of water blasted them and turned the place upside down. All kinds of bubbles, mud, bones, and pieces of the Stone Spirit Crabs were popping up.

Everybody clung to the Stone Spirit Turtle. Despite its enormous size, the Stone Spirit Turtle was also slowly slipping under the blast.

Boom...

Han Fei and his teammates almost vomited blood because of the deafening explosion.

"Huh? What's going on? Why am I woken up again?"

Han Fei was speechless. "Mr. Turtle, the seal is broken. Please protect us for a while."

The Stone Spirit Turtle said unhurriedly, "Oh? Did you pull the rod out?"

Han Fei didn't know what to say. Sir, our life is at risk here, and all that you care about is that rod?

"Huh? Why have I made a breakthrough?"

The Stone Spirit Turtle was rather stunned, which made Han Fei even more speechless. Do you really not know how much spiritual energy you've just absorbed?

Zhang Xuanyu said, "Han Fei, enough of the crap and absorb the spiritual energy now. It's the best time for cultivation."

Han Fei asked in shock, "You're in the mood for cultivation?"

Zhang Xuanyu said, "The more I absorb, the better. I feel that a moment here is worth months of hard training for me."

Luo Xiaobai scolded him, "Shut up and focus on absorbing spiritual energy and polishing your body."

Han Fei secretly said that he had to resort to lightning strikes if he wanted to polish his body. He'd better focus on absorbing spiritual energy for now. After a few minutes, the waves of spiritual energy were finally gone. When everybody opened their eyes, they found that the stone walls had collapsed to the ground, and that the Stone Forest had been reduced to rubble.

Xia Xiaochan pointed far away. "Look, is that the Rock Holding Turtle?"

Everybody looked over and saw a gold point. It was too far away for them to see clearly, but it was likely to be the Rock Holding Turtle.

An enormous vortex emerged before the gold light, and before everybody had a closer look, the Rock Holding Turtle dove into the vortex and disappeared. Then, the Stone Forest was back to peace. Everybody looked at each other in bewilderment. What had happened? They wandered for such a long time in the maze, only to destroy the Stone Forest in the end?

At this point, the Stone Spirit Turtle said slowly, "My home is gone."

Han Fei said guiltily, "Mr. Turtle, I'll lead you to your new home."

When Han Fei was talking, Wenren Yu arrived before them. She exclaimed when she saw the Stone Spirit Turtle, but seeing that Han Fei and his teammates were all clinging to the turtle, she knew that it must be a docile creature.

The Stone Spirit Turtle said, "Another human being?"

Wenren Yu asked, "What happened? What have you done exactly?"

Han Fei replied, "Well, we didn't really do anything. We simply promised Mr. Turtle that we would find him a new home in the coral reefs."

Wenren Yu: "???"

Wenren Yu felt like beating them up. She thought that the trip would be a good way to teach them a lesson, but they had destroyed the Stone Forest within a day.

Furthermore, Wenren Yu had never seen a Rock Holding Turtle before either. Amazed by the formidableness of the turtle, she wondered what Han Fei did to get such a legendary creature out.

Wenren Yu said, "Now is not the best time to talk. Tides are raging on the surface thousands of meters high, and I've collected your boats. Since you're going to the coral reefs, you'd better go underwater."

The Stone Spirit Turtle nudged Han Fei with its tail. "Can you carry me there?"

"Pu..."

Han Fei was lost for words. Are you kidding me? Don't you see how big you are and how small I am? Even laziness should have limits!

Wenren Yu didn't know what to say either, and Han Fei's teammates simply looked at him sympathetically. This turtle is your responsibility, and nobody is helping you.

Han Fei said, "Sir, it's just a short swim away. More importantly, I can't carry you!"

The Stone Spirit Turtle said, "I'm sure you can!"

Han Fei shook his head. "No, I can't."

As they spoke, everybody saw that the Water Arrow Turtle swam by a thousand meters away and even glanced at them when it was close.

Han Fei said, "Sir, that's your girlfriend that I've found for you. Go chase her..."

Everyone: "???"

The Stone Spirit Turtle: "???"

The Stone Spirit Turtle was slightly tempted, but the Water Arrow Turtle had already been gone when it was dawdling. Eventually, under Han Fei's fancy persuasion, it finally swam to the coral reefs unhurriedly.

On the way, Wenren Yu asked, "Where did you find this turtle? Why is it so lazy?"

Everybody looked at Han Fei, and Han Fei could only manage a smile. "We couldn't have survived without Mr. Turtle. We should find a nest for him as our thanks."

Wenren Yu asked, "Is it a level-forty Stone Spirit Turtle? Fine. You can do whatever you want, but go back to the town after!"

Immediately, they were all upset.

Han Fei said earnestly, "Master, we were planning to go to the Deep-Sea Jungle!" Zhang Xuanyu seconded him. "That's right. We're looking for a second contractual spiritual beast for Xiaobai." Le Renkuang didn't really care. "I don't think going back is the worst idea."

Xia Xiaochan glared at him. "Just shut up!"

Luo Xiaobai asked, "Why don't you come with us, Master?"

Wenren Yu snapped, "Shut up, all of you! Look at all the trouble you've caused in the past few days! Did I send you down here for treasure hunting? Le Renkuang and Luo Xiaobai, you aren't even capable of spiritual senses yet, and you're following them in treasure hunting? They're gifted, but you're not. Isn't it embarrassing if they're capable of something that you're not?"

Luo Xiaobai blushed. For the first time in her time, she felt that she had been left behind in cultivation.

Luo Xiaobai declared solemnly, "Master, I will not go to the ocean again until I grasp my spiritual senses."

Wenren Yu asked, "What about you, little fatty?"

Le Renkuang looked around and said gloomily, "Me... Me neither."

Chapter 209 Mr. Turtle Is Flying?

Han Fei did find a nest for the Stone Spirit Turtle in a cave of coral. He had planned to fool the Stone Spirit Turtle into going to the Fire Cloud Cave. After all, that place was much remote, and nobody would disturb the turtle in the next thousand years.

However, the Stone Spirit Turtle stopped swimming and descended the moment it heard that the place was thousands of kilometers away. In the end, Han Fei finally managed to lead the turtle to the coral reefs.

In the cave, Han Fei asked, "Mr. Turtle, do you really not want to reconsider? It's only ten thousand kilometers away. It won't be good if you're caught and end up as a contractual spiritual beast when you rest in here."

The Stone Spirit Turtle, however, simply crouched and attracted the coral, stones, and seaweeds nearby to itself. Very soon, the turtle turned into a huge coral reef. The Stone Spirit Turtle said, "Human being, you can go now! I have to sleep." Han Fei was lost for words. What an ungrateful turtle. Does our friendship mean nothing to you?

Zhang Xuanyu patted Han Fei's shoulder and said, "Han Fei, let's go! It probably won't even remember you after it wakes up again."

Xia Xiaochan remarked, "If only all the creatures in the ocean were as lazy as that turtle. In that case, we could catch them easily."

Wenren Yu didn't know how to comment on that. "Nice dream! The ocean is a place where the strong prey on the weak. The Stone Spirit Turtle is only an exception."

Everybody returned to the surface of the ocean, which was now being savaged by storms and tides. But even so, Han Fei saw that plenty of boats were sailing to the Stone Forest. Le Renkuang sighed. "Fools! I wonder what they will feel when they learn that we ran into a Rock Holding Turtle."

Now that the Rock Holding Turtle was mentioned, Wenren Yu suddenly asked, "What did you see on the tablet? The Rock Holding Turtle said that it was a gift. Did you get it?" Luo Xiaobai said excitedly, "I saw an enormous tree at the center of the ocean. It's more than a million meters tall and covers hundreds of thousands of square kilometers."

“Huh?”

Everybody was stunned. How could a tree be so big?

Han Fei raised his eyebrow as his vision was different from hers. He saw someone hitting tides with a rod, but Xiaobai saw a tree? Xia Xiaochan said, “I saw a fish thousands of feet long. It was cruising among the clouds lonesomely.”

Wenren Yu furrowed her eyebrow. Was that the gift? I believe what Luo Xiaobai and Xia Xiaochan say, although it sounds rather surreal... How could a tree rise into the sky, and how could a fish be thousands of feet long?

VWds

Le Renkuang looked at Xia Xiaochan in shock. “Really? But what I saw was a sword move. I can’t describe it. It’s just a sword floating before my eyes. That’s all.”

SWO

Zhang Xuanyu gazed at everyone. “I didn’t see any of those things. I was washed over by tides in an ocean again and again, and I almost had a meltdown.”

Le Renkuang snorted. “Then you’re really poor. At the very least, the sword I saw didn’t attack me.”

Everybody looked at Han Fei, and Han Fei scratched his head. “I saw a man piercing through a tsunami with a rod.”

Han Fei felt that the picture was indescribable. It was not a simple stab. When the rod hit the tides and left a hollow in it, he was really amazed, but he couldn’t quite describe it.

But of course, Han Fei decided to keep the God Scaring Painting to himself. After all, the Rock Holding Turtle had always been a legend, and nobody could’ve seen this painting.

Wenren Yu grew suspicious about their description, wondering if they were only bragging and they had exaggerated the stuff that they had seen.

She said solemnly, “Whatever you’ve obtained from the Rock Holding Turtle, just keep it to yourself, or other people may try to take it from you. I’m sure you understand that.”

Luo Xiaobai nodded. “Got it, Master.”

Wenren Yu said, “Spiritual energy was gathered here when the Rock Holding Turtle emerged. Everybody believes that unusual treasures have emerged. You’ll stay here until Xiaobai and Le Renkuang grasp their spiritual senses.”

Everybody accepted the task.

Wenren Yu left. She hated the trouble-making students most.

After Wenren Yu left, the rest of them looked at each other.

Le Renkuang asked, “Well, should we start practicing?”

Xia Xiaochan said, "We can communicate with one another somewhere else. This place is too stormy."

Three days had passed.

None of the treasure hunters got what they aimed for, but they did find something. The courageous ones among them found that the Stone Forest was gone when they dove into the ocean.

Everybody was shocked to know that. Instead of telling this to the public, they all searched for treasures in the debris of the Stone Forest.

In the end, some captured a few Stone Spirit Crabs, some dug a few stones, and some picked up ragged weapons from the remains. After all, no matter how ragged the weapons were, they could still be sold for money since they were from the Stone Forest.

As the incident was leaked out, all kinds of rumors were spreading. So, most great fishing masters in the Blue Sea Town were attracted. Hundreds of thousands of people were gathered in the level-two fishery.

At this point, Han Fei and his team were having hotpot on the deck, when Luo Xiaobai said, "I think I'm making progress, but I may need my vines. I regarded my hook as my vine, and I vaguely sensed something near the hook, but it was still fuzzy."

Xia Xiaochan was confused. "You can control the seaweed, can't you? That's vision too."

Luo Xiaobai shook her head. "That's different. I can control the seaweed within a thousand meters, but not those a thousand kilometers away."

Han Fei suggested, "What about binding a part of your vines to your hook? Can you sense the hook by doing that?"

Luo Xiaobai shook her head again. "Yes and no. I can't sense anything if it's too far away. So, it's about fishing all over again."

Le Renkuang was eager to pick up spiritual senses, but Le Renkuang wasn't. His mouth full of meat, he murmured, "I vaguely saw something too, but I didn't practice. When I fished, I remembered the sword I saw on the tablet, and then I detected the things near the hook."

"Huh?"

Everybody looked at Le Renkuang. They had found their visions to be useless.

They thought that the amazing lives they saw did exist in the boundless ocean and that they just happened to see those lives.

Le Renkuang bit a part of the squid fish off and said, "I kept thinking about that sword, and then controlling the fishing pole became easy for me. Sometimes, I felt that casting the hook was like casting the sword... Why don't you try casting a tree?"

Zhang Xuanyu was lost for words. "Yours was a sword, but Xiaobai saw a gigantic tree. You really think it's something you can throw?"

Han Fei pulled Zhang Xuanyu back. "Hey, even if you can't throw it, you can still think about it. Didn't you hear that he could sense the things near the hook just by thinking about the sword?" Luo Xiaobai's eyes glittered. That's right. Was what she saw on the tablet meaningless? If it was, would it really count as a gift?

In fact, not just Le Renkuang, Han Fei had been thinking about the astonishing stab and the God Scaring Painting during his fishing too. He did feel that he was particularly energetic when he thought about those things.

At this point, Han Fei saw six boats flying in the sky dragging a huge turtle behind them.

The meat in Le Renkuang's mouth dropped off. He asked in shock, "Isn't that... Mr. Turtle?"

Zhang Xuanyu's eyes bulged. "It really is. Was Mr. Turtle found?"

Xia Xiaochan said anxiously, "That's outrageous! Mr. Turtle was only sleeping. Those people can't let go of an old turtle?"

Han Fei declared angrily, "Damn it! We can't let them take Mr. Turtle away, or Mr. Turtle will definitely be killed! Let's ascend and chase them!"

Chapter 210 No Bloodshed

Everybody in Han Fei's team, including Luo Xiaobai, was infuriated.

The Stone Spirit Turtle was the most adorable turtle they had seen, and it gave them a hand. So, they couldn't allow it to end up as a contractual spiritual beast.

In the sky, a lot of people were talking to each other.

Someone was laughing. "We're going to be rich! A Stone Spirit Turtle above level forty! We'll earn enough for money for the rest of our lives after we sell it!"

Someone remarked, "Thank God that it was still sleeping, or we might not have been able to catch it."

Someone else shook their heads. "We have a dozen people here. You think we couldn't subdue a Stone Spirit Turtle?"

"Stop there, you people in the sky! Release the turtle!"

Han Fei was more than infuriated on the deck. "Huh? A boat is after us?"

"Hehe! Do those kids want to get themselves killed? They're chasing us?"

"Don't be careless. Kids who have come to a level-two fishery can't be simple."

"Nobody will know who they are after they're dead. Old Yang, go deal with them. The remaining five boats are enough."

Since the Stone Spirit Turtle was very heavy, the other five boats slightly dropped when one boat broke away, but they managed to support the Stone Spirit Turtle.

"Where are you from, kids? Do you want to die?"

The moment their boats arrived, vines flew in the air and tied the boat up, weapons were unleashed from Le Renkuang's box, and Xia Xiaochan simply appeared on their boat with a flash.

"What the f*ck..."

The three people on the boat were all shocked. What kind of weird abilities were those?

"Hum..."

Everybody knew that Xia Xiaochan was brutal, but the strangers didn't. One of the middle-aged men tried to resist her attacks, but Xia Xiaochan simply broke his spiritual energy protective cover from one side and stabbed deep into his abdomen. The man was heavily wounded before he was able to fuse with his spiritual beast.

His two partners were stunned at the toughness of Xia Xiaochan. Before they had the time to react, the Torrents of Knives and Swords were here, followed by Xia Xiaochan's dual attacks. They only had the time to roar, "Fuse," before their spiritual energy protective covers were broken and they were brutalized. Their spiritual beasts did not play a role at all.

Their boat fell from the sky, and Xia Xiaochan flashed to her own boat and Le Renkuang retreated his weapons. The battle was over after no more than three seconds.

The people up there were completely dumbfounded.

Someone came back to himself and muttered, "Who are you? Don't make any mistakes. We're from the Black River Chamber of Commerce of the Blue Sea Town."

Luo Xiaobai said indifferently, "There are three chambers of commerce in the Blue Sea Town: Linglong, Colorful Clothes, and Black River... Those people are the great fishing masters hired by those organizations to acquire resources from the ocean."

Zhang Xuanyu said in disdain, "Wherever they're from, they can't take Mr. Turtle away."

Han Fei shouted at them, "We can spare your life if you let go of the Stone Spirit Turtle!"

The people looked awful as Han Fei's team was too strong. They wondered which academy these youngsters were from, but whichever academy it was, they couldn't give up such an invaluable Stone Spirit Turtle easily.

Seeing that Han Fei was approaching them, people of the Black River Chamber of Commerce were all anxious.

They shouted, "Don't make any mistakes. We found this Stone Spirit Turtle first. If you rob us, you will be attacking the Black River Chamber of Commerce!"

Han Fei raised three fingers. "I'll give you three seconds to reconsider. Are you letting the turtle go or not?" They all looked afraid. After a brief discussion, they left one of them to sail the boats while the rest of them gathered on one boat to fight Han Fei's team and protect the Stone Spirit Turtle that they had secured.

"Fuse."

All kinds of shadows were emerging. Bony Spur Fish, Iron-Head Fish, Mysterious Armored Turtle, and Lightning Crab... Twelve of them had fused with their spiritual beasts.

They sneered, "Boy, you think you can challenge us with only the five of you? You're not going back alive after ruining our business today."

Han Fei looked at Xia Xiaochan. "Do we take action?"

Xia Xiaochan flashed and disappeared. The great fishing masters on the other boat all looked around, only to see nobody. However, they heard a crack in the next second, as the rope that pulled the Stone Spirit Turtle was cut off, and the other four boats were all shivering under the weight.

Crack...

Another rope was broken.

Xia Xiaochan was standing on the turtle shell. But then she disappeared again and appeared on the boat where a guy was left to sail it.

"Ahhh!"

The sailor was stabbed in the abdomen and fell into the ocean, and the other three boats couldn't support the Stone Spirit Turtle anymore. They began to collapse with the turtle.

Han Fei shouted, "Zhang Xuanyu, crash into them!"

"Okay! It's been a long time since I fought a human. Haha..."

In the eyes of the great fishing masters, Han Fei was crazy. A crash from such a high altitude could easily hurt them even though they were great fishing masters, and if they were attacked by the fish in the level-two fishery, they might even be killed.

"Stop! Stop!"

They shouted nonstop, but Han Fei showed no intention of stopping. Then, they shouted again, "Fight them!" Hiu! Hiu! Hiu!

Hooks were cast at Han Fei's boat, but Han Fei simply waved a Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Dagger and cut all the fishing lines.

Standing at the head of the boat, Han Fei declared, "None of your fancy tricks will help you. This Stone Spirit Turtle is ours now."

even

When the two boats were only dozens of meters from each other, they all took action. Han Fei had just shot out his seven chains, Le Renkuang had just released the weapon box, and Luo Xiaobai just sent out her vines, when they saw that the enemy's boat trembled and Xia Xiaochan had boarded it. She stabbed through the sailor and then destroyed the controller of the boat.

Before Han Fei and his pals attacked, their enemies had already been falling to the ocean. Some attempted to jump on Han Fei's boat, only to be blocked by Han Fei with his daggers.

Then, Xia Xiaochan appeared behind everybody casually. "Are you silly? Why do you want to fight a dozen people the hard way when you can let them fall?"

Everyone: "..."

Le Renkuang murmured, "Isn't this a little bit unscrupulous?"

Zhang Xuanyu was speechless. "Has it never occurred to you that Xia Xiaochan is more terrifying than a dozen great fishing masters?"

Xia Xiaochan turned to look back at Zhang Xuanyu. "What did you say?".

"N-Nothing. I said that you were adorable... I've never seen a girl as beautiful and capable as you."

Han Fei slapped his thigh. "Right! Since when have I become a battle maniac? I have to change that bad habit."

Han Fei remembered that he had planned to pursue a career in hidden weapons earlier, but he forgot after Jiang Qin's teaching. He was amazed by how Xia Xiaochan finished the enemy with no bloodshed.

Zhang Xuanyu sailed the boat down to the three boats that were slowly dropping.

Han Fei shouted at the sailors on the boats, "Land the boats now! Do you want me to give you a hand?"

The sailors on the boats couldn't have looked more awful. They had personally seen a dozen of their partners falling from the sky just now. Thankfully, this altitude was not very high, and they wouldn't be killed by the crash as great fishing masters. However, they were a dozen great fishing masters, and they couldn't defeat a bunch of kids?

The sailors dare not say anything at this point. Having no advantages right now, their only option was to land and run as quickly as possible.

Han Fei was not hasty either. At this point, Han Fei was knocking the turtle shell with a Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Dagger.

Clang, Clang, Clang...

Han Fei knocked for almost two minutes before he finally woke up the turtle. "Who is it? I'm sleeping."

The great fishing masters on the three boats were all shocked. What was the meaning of that? Why could this turtle talk?

Le Renkuang clicked his tongue. "Mr. Turtle probably doesn't know that he has been flying in the sky."

Han Fei didn't know what to say. "Mr. Turtle, you were almost captured. Look at where you are right now."

The Stone Spirit Turtle stretched its head out and immediately grew anxious. "Where is the water and the coral?"

Han Fei's eyes bulged. "Mr. Turtle, you almost end up as their contractual spiritual beast, did you know that?"
