Chapter 2011 Heavenly Dao Demonic Music

The so-called purple heavenly tribulation actually came much less frequently than the normal heavenly tribulation of the Eternal Thunder Waterfall. On average, it would only strike two or three times a second. If you were in the Eternal Thunder Waterfall, it wouldn't be a problem for all the lightning to strike you more than a hundred times a second.

However, even so, the kings didn't dare to be negligent, because the purple lightning didn't seem to be exhausted at all. They were gradually paralyzed one after another by the purple lightning

As for Han Fei, he secretly activated the Yin-Yang Millstone. In his heart, the Yin-Yang Millstone was activated. As long as this powerful purple lightning rushed into Han Fei's body, half of the power would be swallowed by the Yin-Yang Millstone and then transformed into the purest energy that flowed in Han Fei's body.

"Ahhh~"

This pure energy was much stronger than ultra-quality spiritual stones, mainly because it was very efficient!

After only a hundred seconds, some transparent mucus appeared on the surface of Han Fei's body, which emitted a strong fragrance.

All the kings couldn't help looking at Han Fei. What's wrong with this guy? Why does he smell so good?

When they saw the mucus on the surface of Han Fei's body, they were shocked awake. Han Fei was f*cking using the purple heavenly tribulation to cultivate! The so-called mucus should be the impurities discharged from Han Fei's body.

However, had his impurities reached such a high level? Although it was a little sticky, it looked extremely crystal clear. Not only was it not smelly, but it was also fragrant.

Hong Yue decided that if he could get out this time, he would definitely get rid of Supreme Clearness and Infinity. Han Fei's potential was really beyond his imagination. He had seen Tai Yuan of the Chaos World opening sky, when his body was tempered and the turbid liquid in his body was emptied, but it had a faint fishy smell.

It could be seen that Tai Yuan's body refinement was not as good as Han Fei's. Han Fei hadn't opened the sky yet. After all, he had only been a king for a short time.

But this could better show his potential. He hadn't even opened the sky yet, but he was already like this. If Han Fei opened the sky one day, he would probably be able to directly resist Supreme Clearness and Infinity. Even if he faced them head-on, he wouldn't be afraid!

Boom!

"Puff ~"

“Cough, cough ~”

While everyone was distracted, the purple lightning fell, and many people groaned. A king from the Martial Emperor City had already begun to vomit blood.

Although Bai Yue was strong, he could only control three turtle shells to protect that person. It could be seen that this person had just transcended the tribulation and become a king. Otherwise, he could more or less withstand it. After all, although this purple lightning was powerful, after a few strikes, everyone discovered that it was indeed not as powerful as a real heavenly tribulation. Its destructive power was also slightly lacking.

After half an hour.

Except for those who were wearing Sea Quelling Bizarre Treasures, most of the kings had changed their battle suits. Many of them had lost more than 30% of their vitality and had used up their reserve resources.

After one and half an hour, the Sea Quelling Bizarre-level battle suits on Han Fei and a few others began to break, and the kings lost 50% of their vitality on average.

Among them, the giant beasts were an exception. There was no telling if it was because of their huge bodies, but the four giant beasts withstood the lightning the entire time. Just like Han Fei, they must have benefited from their physique.

After two hours, he suddenly felt that the power of the purple lightning had risen several times.

“Not good!”

The new king of the Martial Emperor City failed to withstand the purple lightning that suddenly strengthened. The three giant shields in front of him finally exploded after two hours.

Just when everyone thought that this person was about to die, he flipped his hand and picked up another turtle shell. On the turtle shell, a defensive array appeared, and around his body, more than 50,000 spiritual fruits shattered and were sucked into his mouth.

Everyone was speechless. The people from the Martial Emperor City were indeed rich. Because he was not strong enough, he lost three Sea Quelling Bizarre Treasure-level shields in a row and still had treasures.

On the human side, Xu Lian was the first to fail. Xu Lian was the master of the Spirit Refining World. His soul power might be strong, but his body was weak.

The Snow Lady had Ice Armor, Ice Shield, and Ten-Thousand-Year Ice Barrier.

Huang Jie had the Supreme Purple Smoke Furnace.

Liang Yin could distort the heavenly tribulation with mystic music.

Hong Yue was even more ridiculous. Five corpses surrounded him, and only 1/6 of the power of lightning fell on him.

Only Xu Lian was still lacking in speed and physique. However, Han Fei thought for a moment and decided to save him.

While Xu Lian's body was cracking, thousands of black iron pillars suddenly appeared around him. A large amount of purple lightning fell on these iron pillars, causing them to explode one after another, but Xu Lian was safe and sound.

Xu Lian knew that Han Fei was saving him. Without any time to thank him, he took out ten thousand spiritual fruits and swallowed them to recover.

At the same time, a healing divine light descended, and the injuries in Xu Lian's body were healing.

After two hours, the purple lightning suddenly dissipated. Except for the new king of the Martial Emperor City, the others all survived with the help of their strong masters.

Pa! Pa!

Han Fei felt that his strength had improved slightly and should be thousands of waves stronger. He patted the Supreme Purple Smoke Furnace and said, "Old Huang, come out."

The lid of the Supreme Purple Smoke Furnace flew up, and Huang Jie walked out calmly without any injuries.

Huang Jie looked around and couldn't help but sigh. "It's really different with this furnace!"

Han Fei said, "Don't celebrate too early. This lightning is just the beginning."

He said that because a strange sound appeared in the sky.

Liang Yin's expression changed drastically. "Not good! The Heavenly Dao Demonic Sound can invade the soul, causing the soul to be messed up and lose itself. We have to guard the soul. Otherwise, once we are enchanted by the demonic sound, our souls will wither."

The kings couldn't help but look at the five tombs and suddenly understood something. The monarch failed in his first five lives. However, he didn't want the Great Dao of his first five lives to be wasted, so he needed a successor.

The purple lightning just now was clearly not a heavenly tribulation, but it had the pressure of Dao runes and was extremely powerful. It was probably a Great Dao.

Immediately, everyone looked at each other. If that was true, didn't it mean that in the past two hours, someone had actually inherited the Dao of lightning here?

For a moment, everyone looked at the king who had been struck the most miserably in the Martial Emperor City. Everyone had survived, but only this guy was struck so terribly. Could it be that he was actually inheriting this Great Dao?

The Snow Lady said, "He's probably stabilizing it. Just now, he used five Sea Quelling Bizarre Treasures and consumed more than 300,000 spiritual fruits and countless ultra-quality spiritual stones and Chaotic Qi. It's definitely not as simple as just blocking this purple lightning tribulation." However, since that person was from the Martial Emperor City, no one would touch him! Not to mention that the people from the Martial Emperor City had many treasures, and Bai Yue was one of the eight kings of the Martial Emperor City and directly controlled the super resource store. Therefore, anyone who wanted to touch the Martial Emperor City had to measure their own strength and treasures first.

At this moment, the Heavenly Dao Demonic Music attacked. Liang Yin flipped her hand and her long flute appeared in her hand. As the long flute sounded, everyone on the human side felt refreshed. Liang Yin's flute sound could actually wake up their souls. A musical note melody condensed between their eyebrows, protecting their souls.

Huang Jie also threw a pill to each of them and said, "This is a Soul Subduing Poison Pill, which can defend the soul. By the way, should I give one to Hong Yue?"

Huang Jie looked at Han Fei, and Hong Yue immediately said, "Of course you should give one to me. My Mad Corpse World will never be a lackey of Supreme Clearness and Infinity. When I leave the Monarch Palace this time, I'll definitely stand up against Supreme Clearness and Infinity."

Han Fei nodded slightly. "Then it's a deal. If you don't fulfill it, you have to think about the consequences."

Hong Yue nodded quickly. "Of course. I'll kill Ji Xuan myself if I have the chance."

Han Fei didn't kill Hong Yue because he was the master of the Mad Corpse World after all. If he died, it would be troublesome to subdue the Mad Corpse World. He might as well wait for Hong Yue to lead the Mad Corpse World to surrender to him, which would save him time and effort.

Ji Xuan glanced at Hong Yue coldly, which sent a chill down Hong Yue's back. However, compared to Han Fei, Hong Yue felt that it was not a problem to offend Ji Xuan.

"Boom, Boom, Boom..."

The frantic demonic sounds became louder and louder. The humans were fine, but after only half an hour, on the side of the Hundred Demons and the undersea humans, other than Pang Jia and Zhou Bai, another king of the Hundred Demons suddenly attacked Zhou Bai.

Zhou Bai said, "Not good. He's gone crazy."

Pang Jia took the opportunity to slap the clam demon, which buzzed, but the latter turned into a huge shell and spun like a blade, intending to kill Pang Jia.

At this time, Zhou Bai shouted, "Brother Pang, he's already crazy. Kill him!"

The two kings joined forces and launched their strongest attacks in the demonic music, eyes bloodshot. The crazy Clam Demon's combat power seemed to have plummeted, and in only five seconds, it was destroyed by the two of them.

It couldn't even be reborn. The Heavenly Dao demonic sound swept across and completely annihilated it.

This was the first king to die in the second round. When this person died, Han Fei actually felt that his blood was surging too, and deep in his heart, he was full of killing intent. He stared at Ji Xuan, who was horrified and thought that Han Fei was going to kill him. He vomited blood and retreated again and again.

When the Clam Demon died, an eight-eyed spider revealed its true body and its body expanded. If it weren't for the fact that it was only 500 kilometers large here, the entire electric ring space would have been burst by this spider.

"Pu! Pu! Pu! Pu!"

At first, spider silk filled the sky, sweeping across everyone, and then sharp claws stabbed down.

The toad shouted, "Eight Eyes, wake up! I told you to work harder on your soul power but you never listen to me. Now this mere voice can bewitch you."

Clang!

The spider knocked on the toad's back, but the toad was fast and dodged it with a leap.

The Single-Horned Flood Dragon shouted, "Eight Eyes has gone crazy. We can't let him live."

After the Eight-Eyed Spider went crazy, one of the Merman Royal Family went mad too and attacked Li Dian.

Li Dian shouted, "Kill all the lost people!"

Chapter 2012 Death of the Kings

Han Fei felt that his resistance to the Heavenly Dao Demonic Music was not bad, mainly because Liang Yin's flute played a good protective role.

Many people of the other races died, but the human race was safe.

However, the good times didn't last long. Han Fei and the others resisted the Heavenly Dao Demonic Sound while watching the giant beast named Eight Eyes being killed. Then, a king of the Merman Royal Family was also besieged by Li Dian and the other two. On the Martial Emperor City's side, Bai Yue personally killed a person.

Three kings had died in a row because of a mere voice. Han Fei felt that his head was dizzy, as if there were huge furious waves attacking his soul.

He felt a headache.

"Bang... Cough, Puff..."

Suddenly, the flute sound stopped. Han Fei looked back, only to see that Liang Yin was bleeding from her seven orifices. A certain faint blue soul fire was beating, notes surrounded her, and a sound barrier was protecting her.

However, this protection still couldn't resist the terrifying Heavenly Dao demonic sound.

Almost at the moment when the sound of Liang Yin's flute stopped, Qiu Yueming and Huang Jie's breathing changed.

When Han Fei looked over, he saw Huang Jie quickly take out a pile of pills and swallow them. In the next moment, chains appeared on his body.

Huang Jie roared, "Ten Thousand Poison Soul Lock!"

Han Fei was shocked. Because of the Heavenly Dao Demonic Music, Huang Jie had sealed his soul with great poison.

As soon as Huang Jie said so, a big-headed doll appeared on Hong Yue's shoulder. The big-headed doll was holding a string in his hand and babbling, "Fake Death, string control."

Hong Yue's eyes were already glazed, and the big-headed doll that appeared was actually a puppet controlling Huang Jie's body. They were actually using this method to avoid Heavenly Dao Demonic Music.

Because Xu Lian was the master of the Soul Refining World, his soul power was extremely strong. At this moment, his strength was revealed. The Heavenly Dao Demonic Music couldn't shake him at all.

The Snow Lady wore an ice crown and held the Ice Snow Divine Staff. She raised her hand to the sky. "Freeze, freeze all Daos."

Ice pillars rose from under the Snow Lady's feet like flowers blooming underground. In a moment, the Snow Lady turned into an ice sculpture.

Han Fei's heart did a flip. Sure enough, no one who could become the master of a palace was simple. Among everyone, only Qiu Yueming wasn't the master of the Heavenly Palace. But Qiu Yueming tried to burn her soul to resist the Heavenly Dao Demonic Music.

However, the murderous aura on her body soared, and her eyes were bloodshot. She no longer blocked the Heavenly Dao Demonic Sound.

"Not good!"

Everything happened too fast. Han Fei immediately activated the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique, trying to save Qiu Yueming. However, Qiu Yueming held two knives in her hands and attacked him. Blood sprang burst out of the knives. This was Qiu Yueming's weapon, the Blood – Drinking Demon Knife.

When Qiu Yueming came at him, the Blood-Drinking Demon Knife caused the Qi and blood in Han Fei's body to be unstable. At the same time, Han Fei felt that a pillar in his mind was attacking his soul.

"Roar!"

The Hundred Beast Soul Devouring erupted, and Han Fei was instantly refreshed, and many array patterns surrounded him.

Bang!

While withstanding the Heavenly Dao Demonic Music and slapping Qiu Yueming away, Han Fei looked solemn. Did he use the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique too late? Or had Qiu Yue Ming been bewitched too thoroughly?

With a thought from Han Fei, he activated his Great Dao and carried a strange stone. It was the Gravity Origin Magnet he had obtained from the King Ba Crab.

While Qiu Yueming was sent flying by him, Han Fei flashed to her side with a golden light and pressed the Gravity Origin Magnet on her. Immediately, Qiu Yueming stopped moving, because she had to use all her strength to resist the Gravity Origin Magnet. This was a stone that had suppressed the King Ba Crab for more than 80,000 years. It could even suppress a giant beast, let alone a human. Han Fei also felt the malice of the Heavenly Dao Demonic Music. Since the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique failed to save Qiu Yueming, he could only wait for the Heavenly Dao Demonic Music to end.

If it still didn't work, Qiu Yueming could only be killed! Or be controlled...

Now that Qiu Yueming was temporarily suppressed, Liang Yin was already kneeling on the ground. Liang Yin had probably released all her resources. At this moment, countless spiritual fruits had shattered and were absorbed by her.

Han Fei thought that this could still be saved. He threw the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique at Liang Yin. Liang Yin was obviously refreshed and absorbed the surrounding resources faster.

As for Han Fei, he still had a headache. It was extremely unlikely that the Heavenly Dao Demonic Music could penetrate his soul. However, in order to prevent the Heavenly Dao Demonic Music from suddenly erupting like the purple lightning just now, Han Fei took out a fishing pole and cast the fishhook into the void twice before he caught a Soul Suppressing Pill and stuffed it into his mouth.

Bai Yue: "???"

Bai Yue was in charge of the super resource store. The moment the Soul Suppressing Pill appeared, he immediately recognized it. However, where did Han Fei get the Soul Suppressing Pill?

Han Fei stuffed the Soul Suppressing Pill into his mouth without thinking. Then, he glanced at Bai Yue and didn't intend to explain. Just figure it out yourself!

Anyway, he couldn't tell others about his ability to fish from time. God knew if anyone in the Martial Emperor City had connections with the people from the Time Temple.

As soon as he swallowed the Soul Subduing Pill, Han Fei felt that his soul was clear, and the Heavenly Dao Demonic Music was immediately blocked outside. In this way, after half an hour, the Heavenly Dao Demonic Music stopped.

Immediately, everyone was relieved. Han Fei quickly went to Qiu Yueming and put away the Gravity Origin Magnet.

mon

Clang! Clang! Unfortunately, the moment Han Fei retracted the Gravity Origin Magnet, Qiu Yueming attacked with all his strength and slashed Han Fei with his double knives.

Although Han Fei was hit, he took the opportunity to use the Void Lines to grab Qiu Yueming.

But as soon as the Void Lines touched Qiu Yueming's soul, Han Fei instantly felt his soul tremble, as if a strange power was trying to contaminate his soul.

"Puff ~"

In an instant, All Great Daos in One Sword erupted, and Han Fei personally killed Qiu Yueming.

Huang Jie, Xu Lian, and the others had just woken up. When they saw this scene, their hearts sank.

Han Fei didn't feel guilty at all. He said, "She's beyond help. What a pity..."

Then, Han Fei looked at Liang Yin. "What happened?"

Liang Yin said to everyone via voice transmission, "Inheritance! The inheritance of Great Daos! Just now, I comprehended a lot, and my strength increased by at least 50%. I guess the person from the Martial Emperor City was in a similar situation as me."

The Snow Lady said, "However, five kings died this time."

Everyone couldn't help being shocked. In order to pass down his Great Daos, this Monarch would kill five persons for each of his Great Daos.

No wonder the Snow Lady and the others said that they would wait for the sun, moon, and stars to come out. It seemed that it was indeed dangerous here, but there was also a golden arm outside. If they stayed outside, the golden arm could kill most of the people here.

Huang Jie said, "What's important is not that five have died, but that this is only the second Great Dao. There are still three tombs over there."

At this moment, there were the most people left on the human side. Including Han Fei and Ji Xuan, there were a total of seven people alive.

There was only one from each of the Hundred Demon Clan and the Undersea Human Race.

There were only three left from the Martial Emperor City.

As for the Merman Royal Family, only three left.

And there were only three giant beasts left.

There were a total of 17 people left, but counting the people who came later in the past two days, there were actually 27 kings. In just a few days, 10 people had died. This terrifying number once again proved that the Monarch Palace was extremely dangerous.

According to the law of survival, only three people could survive this time.

Bai Yue said, "Han Fei, if we can leave this place, can we restrain the golden arm together?"

Han Fei asked, "Can you maintain the combat power of the Sky Opening realm?"

Bai Yue shook his head. "No! Thirty seconds, at most."

Han Fei said, "Let me tell you, I'm not afraid of the golden arm, but if we really go out, the probability of death is actually about the same as now."

The toad beast said, "Everyone, shouldn't we put aside the personal grudges for now? This is only the second Great Dao inheritance. What about the third?"

Ji Xuan also said, "Han Fei, is it worth it for so many people to die just to chase me?"

Han Fei sneered. "Who do you think you are? You think I'm chasing you?"

Zhou Bai from the undersea human race suddenly said, "Stop! Did you see something?"

All the kings: "???"

Among the giant beasts, the petite squid girl said, "I think I saw something too."

Han Fei and the others were stunned. What did they see?

"Pfft!"

Immediately, everyone looked at the humans, Han Fei looked in Hong Yue's direction, and even Hong Yue looked at his left hand. He felt that his body suddenly became lighter.

However, when everyone looked over, they found that one of Hong Yue's arms and his upper half were broken and falling.

Huang Jie said, "No, Old Hong, your lower half is broken."

Hong Yue: "???"

In everyone's vision, they saw that Hong Yue's upper half body was sliding down to one side. At some point, Hong Yue's body had been cut off.

"Corpse King Possession."

At that moment, Hong Yue was horrified. When was he killed? Why didn't he feel anything?

Hong Yue's body suddenly dried up, and he grabbed his lower thigh with his left hand, moved his upper body, and his bloodline that was like interwoven worms restored his body.

Hong Yue's reaction was fast enough, but everyone only felt their vision blur for a moment. Hong Yue's body seemed to be cut by a sharp net, and blood lines appeared all over his body. He was directly cut into countless small pieces, but these small pieces didn't fall apart for the time being.

"Hiss -"

All the kings were horrified. What the hell is this thing? Isn't it too fast?

Bai Yue shouted, "It's speed, the ultimate speed in the normal world. This Dao has always been a guess, but I didn't expect it to really exist."

Buzz!

While Bai Yue was surprised, Han Fei had already thrown out a Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique. Hong Yue, who hadn't been broken into countless pieces, was smashed by the Healing Divine Light and the blood lines all over his body disappeared almost instantly.

Hong Yue was horrified. The moment he sensed the Heaven Enlightenment Divine Technique, he almost cried. Fortunately, Han Fei was willing to help him! Otherwise, he would have died.
