Chapter 411 Fight to Get Married

Han Fei felt that in his arms, the body of Xia Xiaochan suddenly stiffened. And before he could speak, he had been stabbed twice in the lower abdomen.

Immediately afterward, Han Fei was kicked to the ground.

Han Fei clutched his stomach. "Cooperate, cooperate, understood?"

Xia Xiaochan's face was red. "How... How... How could you kiss me?"

Han Fei checked his belly. Seeing that it hadn't been punctured, he breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Look behind you first."

Xia Xiaochan looked back, only to see those boys were staring at her with glowing eyes like wolves at this moment.

A boy said, "It seems that they're fighting! Xia Xiaochan, marry me. I promise to treat you well."

The boys fought with one another to rush forward and Xia Xiaochan shuddered in fright. She quickly stood behind Han Fei and pointed at these people with a dagger. "Don't come any closer."

The girl looked at Han Fei. "It seems that she doesn't like you very much."

Han Fei glared at the boys and girls and said, "Don't you know that beating is a sign of affection and cursing is a sign of love?! You know nothing at all!"

Behind the girl, the other girls said, "We can also beat and curse you!"

Han Fei whispered to Xia Xiaochan, "Do you see it? They are desperate to get married."

Xia Xiaochan nodded, wondering if these people were out of their minds. If there were only one or two, it was understandable! But so many people who she had never seen before suddenly ran over and proposed to her! That was simply scary!

Han Fei said, "I will help you solve the boys and you help me solve the girls."

Xia Xiaochan nodded. "Okay, good idea! Let's do it!"

Han Fei took a step forward, carrying the Embroidery Needle on his shoulder and said harshly, "Listen, Xia Xiaochan is mine. F*ck off, you pieces of junk. Otherwise, I'm gonna beat the hell out of you guys."

Xia Xiaochan also shouted, "Yes, b*tches, get lost! Han Fei belongs to me."

"Ohhhh..."

"Haha, interesting! It's nice to have a show to watch before the battle! Great...".

"Hahaha, I really envy these children! What a storm of jealousy! It reminds me of when I was young."

"You must be kidding. I don't remember you ever falling in love!"

Under the roof, the on-lookers were watching this scene happily, forgetting to prepare for the battle.

Someone even began to sell sea melon seeds, which were sold out soon. Many people ate melon seeds while enjoying the show.

On the roof.

Those boys opposite Han Fei were burning with rage as if their sweetheart was snatched from them.

A boy pointed a sword at Han Fei. "I challenge you to a duel."

Han Fei smiled casually. "If you lose, you'll go away." The boy looked ferocious. "I won't lose! You are just an intermediate Dangling Fisher, I advise you to leave."

Without a word, Han Fei smashed the stick at him.

The sword-bearing boy smiled coldly. His sword glowed with a green glint, with a snake shadow entangled on it and shining with a dazzling sunglow. Facing Han Fei's offensive, he was not afraid at all.

Crack!

BAM!

As a result, the smile on the boy's face did not have time to fade before he was sent flying hundreds of meters away, bleeding from his mouth and nose, and his hands trembling.

Han Fei carried the Embroidery Needle on his shoulder again. "What I hate the most is people like you who are all talk and no action! Just shut up!"

"Wow!"

Someone in the crowd was surprised. "Huh? This kid is quite strong, not like an intermediate Dangling Fisher!"

Someone nodded. "Yes, the sword-wielding boy is an advanced Dangling Fisher but he couldn't even resist a single blow from him, which shows that the boy's strength is comparable to that of a peak-level Dangling Fisher."

The boys opposite Han Fei suddenly looked solemn. This person was stronger than they thought! It seemed that they had to use their spiritual beasts.

On the other side, the eyes of those girls who were attracted to Han Fei all glowed. Girls liked strong men, especially in this era.

Xia Xiaochan's face turned dark, and she pointed to the girls and said, "What are you looking at? Your opponent is me."

A girl came forward. "I'll fight her!"

This girl was an armorist. As soon as her armor box was opened, dozens of long whips swept out like vines.

However, unlike vines, these weapons seemed to be made with special methods, exceptionally flexible and they were all mid-quality spiritual weapons.

However, Xia Xiaochan didn't care at all. She immediately turned into a shadow. Before the girl opposite could react, the spiritual energy protective cover on the girl's body shattered, and then she was stabbed twice.

Xia Xiaochan would not be merciful when it came to fighting. Men might be reluctant when fighting a girl, but she didn't have this concept at all. She stabbed the girl twice in the waist without hesitation.

Her fighting speed was even faster than Han Fei. Han Fei would take time to swing his stick anyway, but Xia Xiaochan ended the battle in the blink of an eye.

Immediately, the combat power of Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan caused countless people to exclaim.

Someone was surprised. "So strong! These two teenagers are very strong."

Someone exclaimed, "He is only an intermediate Dangling Fisher! What if he becomes a peak-level Dangling Fisher?"

Han Fei grinned. Xia Xiaochan was still the Xia Xiaochan he remembered. She could never be gentle and the violent Xia Xiaochan was the real her.

Han Fei lazily said, "Who will come next? Or will you come up together? I have no problem either way."

Aware of Han Fei's toughness, a peak-level Dangling Fisher who was a hunter came out. He had fused with his spiritual beast and his arms were like two scimitars at the moment.

Han Fei smiled. "Come on, let me see if you are a qualified peak-level Dangling Fisher."

"Buzz..."

In the next second, the person disappeared. In Han Fei's spiritual perception, there were two rotating knives cutting towards him respectively in the left and right directions.

Han Fei swept the stick across the air, flames splashed in the air, and the shocking power caused a layer of air ripples within a hundred meters.

After that, Han Fei suddenly tilted his head and held the Water Dividing Seal in his hand. In an instant, the Water Dividing Seal shone brightly with spiritual energy. Clang! Clang! Clang!

In the air, the boy blocked with his arms, only to be sent flying backward, bleeding from the corners of his mouth.

However, the boy didn't admit defeat and suddenly kicked two daggers at Han Fei.

The next moment, someone exclaimed.

"F*ck, he grabbed the spiritual weapons by hand?"

Han Fei suddenly stretched out his hands, grabbed the two spiritual-weapon daggers, and threw them back at the boy in the air.

"Chuffing..."

However, what disappointed Han Fei was that the spiritual weapon didn't belong to him. Therefore, this blow did not hurt the opponent.

However, Han Fei had cast out his Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Rod. In the eyes of everyone, Han Fei was extremely fast and smashed the boy hard who was caught by the fishing rod with a small seal.

Under the horrified stare of everyone, Han Fei hoisted the boy by the neck with one hand. "Weak, you guys are too weak. Come and fight together!"

Han Fei clamored and took the lead to attack, carrying the Embroidery Needle and rushing directly into the crowd.

"Kill him."

"Let's attack together."

"Humph! This guy absolutely hid his real strength! Xia Xiaochan can't marry him."

"Don't cower. Kill him!"

They were locked in a melee.

And on the other side, Xia Xiaochan had just penetrated the vine defense of the peak-level Dangling Fisher manipulator and began to fight back.

In the eyes of onlookers, these teenagers were fighting very fiercely.

About half an hour later.

On Xia Xiaochan's side, all the girls who chased Han Fei, including the peak-level Dangling Fisher, lay on the ground, clutching their stomachs.

On Han Fei's side, all the boys had their noses and faces swollen and they supported each other.

Han Fei gave Xia Xiaochan a look. "Hey, your strength has improved so fast!"

Xia Xiaochan glanced at Han Fei's belly. "You seem to have become much stronger too!"

After the fierce battle, the girls tottered away, groaning, and some of them still looked back at Han Fei as if reluctant to leave.

On the boys' side, although they were all defeated, they were still reluctant to leave because they thought Xia Xiaochan was too beautiful. Han Fei scolded angrily, "What are you looking at? Get out of here! Do you still wanna fight?"

Immediately, a boy cursed, "I bet you won't survive tonight. At that time, Xia Xiaochan will be ours."

"Ha!"

Xia Xiaochan was very happy to see them leave and she tugged at Han Fei's arm. "Hurry up, let's get out of here."

A moment later, on a remote roof.

Xia Xiaochan blushed. "I'm still young. I can't have a baby yet!"

Han Fei: "???"

Chapter 412 Stupid Xia Xiaochan

Seeing Xia Xiaochan's serious expression, Han Fei was stunned. "Wait a minute, you have a baby? You?"

Xia Xiaochan glared at Han Fei. "It's your fault!"

Han Fei: "???"

Han Fei was dumbfounded. "No, wait, let me figure it out... I've just seen you. How can you blame it on me?"

Xia Xiaochan had already raised a dagger. "How can you say that?! You just kissed me!" "Ah! Well... I was just being impulsive."

"Yes, yes, you made me have a baby on an impulse?! How dare you?"

Han Fei felt his mind go blank. "But I only kissed you. What does that have to do with you having a baby?"

Xia Xiaochan stared at Han Fei angrily. "They say women will have children after being kissed."

"Puff..."

Han Fei almost burst into laughter and sank down to the roof. "Are you kidding me?! F*ck... How can you be so f*cking stupid?"

Xia Xiaochan picked up the dagger and stabbed at him, saying angrily, "Why do you give me this look? You don't want to be responsible, do you?"

Han Fei pushed the dagger away and said, "Are you an idiot? Who said women will have children after being kissed?"

Han Fei was speechless. He didn't expect Xia Xiaochan, who was a very smart girl, to be so stupid!

Xia Xiaochan snorted. "Ab*stard from this damn place said that. Just when I came here, he followed me, saying that the castellan was his father and emphasized it many times... And he wanted to kiss me. Of course, I can't let him do that, so I stabbed him!"

Han Fei was immediately furious. "B*stard. Don't worry, when I meet him, I will beat the hell out of him."

Then Han Fei asked, "Is the first time in your life that you've heard how women have a baby?"

Han Fei: "..."

In the end, Han Fei took a long while to educate Xia Xiaochan about common terms and relationships between “men and women”. Xia Xiaochan was stunned for a while and asked, “So, I’m not going to have a baby?”

Han Fei said with a black face, “Nonsense, do you think it’s so easy to have a baby? You’re still so young and you already want to have a baby?!”

Xia Xiaochan muttered, “But they said that I am a big girl. If I don’t get married as soon as possible, no man will want me.”

Han Fei cast a sideways glance at her. “Are you stupid? There have been nearly 200 wars in this city in 200 years. Older people have all died. If they don’t work hard to have children, they will be extinct.”

Xia Xiaochan nodded. “That’s it... So, I really won’t have a baby?”

Han Fei just ignored her. How could she be so stupid! If he hadn’t come here in time, within three or five days, she would have been cheated into marrying someone. Suddenly, Xia Xiaochan leaned towards Han Fei and said, “Then kiss me again.”

“Ouff...”

“Cough... Cough, Cough...” Han Fei cleared his throat.

Han Fei was dumbfounded. He had never heard such a ridiculous request.

Han Fei stammered, “No... No, I... What did you say?”

Xia Xiaochan looked at Han Fei seriously. “Kiss me again. It feels very strange.”

Han Fei swallowed blankly. Xia Xiaochan was already a big girl, a beautiful girl. No matter how calm Han Fei was, he couldn’t calm down after hearing such a ridiculous demand!

Han Fei shrugged. “Then, then close your eyes.”

“Why do you want me to close my eyes?” Han Fei waved his hand and said, “Well... I just want you to feel it well.”

Xia Xiaochan tilted her head and grunted. “Hurry up.”

Seeing Xia Xiaochan close her eyes, Han Fei swallowed. Who the f*ck knew that the story would develop like this? But I kind of like it!

Han Fei cleared his throat and said, “Now I’m going to kiss you!”

“Hmm! Come on.”

It felt completely different from kissing her cheek!

BAM!

Before Han Fei could feel it well, he suddenly flew into the sky like a kite with a broken line. Xia Xiaochan's kick almost kicked the meal he ate last night out of his stomach.

"Puff... You let me kiss you!"

In the sky, Han Fei saw Xia Xiaochan's two little fists were folded in front of her chest, her face flushed, even her neck was red, her body stiffened and her eyes closed.

Han Fei did not dare to speak, nor did he dare to interrupt her. After he stabilized his body and fell from the sky, he rubbed his stomach and leaned against Xia Xiaochan.

After a long while, Han Fei saw Xia Xiaochan open her eyes tremblingly. Han Fei asked in a soft and careful voice, "Well, what do you feel?"

Xia Xiaochan looked at Han Fei with a weird look. "It... Feels strange. Will I feel the same when others kiss me?"

Han Fei was shocked and scolded angrily, "Shut up! Once a man kisses you, you can't let other men do it to you."

Xia Xiaochan was curious. "Why?"

Han Fei held his head high. "No reason!" "Not even Kuangkuang or Zhang Xuanyu?"

Han Fei's face became cold. "Of course not. You can only do this with a man in your life."

Xia Xiaochan looked puzzled. "Only with men? What about Xiaobai? Xiaobai is a woman."

Han Fei couldn't help but imagine the scene Xia Xiaochan and Luo Xiaobai were kissing and couldn't help shuddering all over. That scene made his skin crawl.

"No, no, neither with Luo Xiaobai, nor with anyone else."

Xia Xiaochan was annoyed. "Why?"

Han Fei said helplessly, "No reason! Anyway, remember don't ever do anything like this with a second person. Not only kiss, but also hold hands, let alone sleep together."

Xia Xiaochan snorted. "You just said that women will have a baby after sleeping with men."

Han Fei covered his head with one hand. "Ah, yes, sleeping with a man will bring you a baby. Therefore, from now on, you can only sleep with me."

"Bah! I'm not going to sleep with you! Don't even think of making me give birth to a baby."

Han Fei nodded. "It's up to you. I don't care anyway."

Xia Xiaochan licked her lips, blinked her eyes and said, "Now kiss me again."

Han Fei blinked. "Then don't kick me this time. Don't move."

"Okay, I won't move"

After a moment. BAM!

Han Fei, who was kicked into the air, was speechless... But it seemed to be a bargain only to be kicked after kissing her.

Han Fei didn't know how many times he flew to the sky. Anyway, at this moment, the two of them were sitting on a tall building, looking at the city.

Xia Xiaochan said solemnly, "I have been here for seven days and have run through the entire inner city and outer city. Without a teleportation formation, I was still preparing to go to sea... However, the outer city is guarded and the gate guards said that there was going to be a war recently and no one was allowed to go to sea." Han Fei asked in surprise, "So have you never gone out until now?"

Xia Xiaochan shook her head. "No."

Han Fei took a deep breath and said, "I suspect that we are in a different time all together."

"Huh?"

"We came to the Undersea City before it was destroyed. We must have crossed a certain timeline. If we want to go back, we must experience something special."

Xia Xiaochan seemed to be skeptical too. "So, are we not in the level-three fishery now?"

Han Fei shook his head. "We're still in the level-three fishery, but this level-three fishery may not be the level-three fishery we know from our time."

Han Fei couldn't help licking his lips. Is the Sea Grassland still there? If it is, then what about the Big Red Trunk? Can I go back and cut down the Big Red Trunk again?

Although it sounds weird, what if it is possible?

Toot...

Suddenly, a conch shell trumpet blared.

Immediately afterwards, conch shell trumpets began to sound in many corners of the city.

Han Fei unexpectedly saw Hidden Fishers flitting through the sky and shouting, "All Dangling Fishers within a hundred miles gather at the south gate. A big fish tide is coming..."

Toot...

For a time, the people in the city were in an uproar. The streets were crowded with people, and many people hopped forward on the roofs. Xia Xiaochan hurriedly got up and said, "Let's go and have a look. Maybe this is our chance to go back."

Han Fei grabbed her hand and said, "Wait a minute. No hurry. After all, this is not our war. We'd better look at it from the perspective of a bystander. Don't tell me you want to rush to the forefront?"

Han Fei thought more than Xia Xiaochan. He and Xia Xiaochan came here by accident when the 187th big fish tide occurred. It was probably in this war that the city was destroyed and everyone was killed. Therefore, he would certainly choose to retreat if he could...

Han Fei looked at Xia Xiaochan. "Give me your hand." Xia Xiaochan: "???"

“Spread your fingers, like this.”

While Xia Xiaochan was wondering, Han Fei grabbed her hand and nodded solemnly. “Well, yes, follow me now. Don’t run around.”

Xia Xiaochan frowned. “I feel uncomfortable. I’d better hold a dagger.”

Han Fei nodded. “But be good!”

Chapter 413 Heavenly Desolate City: Big Fish Tide (1)

While everyone ran to the south gate of the city with a solemn look, only Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan held hands and strolled on the roofs like they were sauntering about the street.

But Xia Xiaochan felt a bit uncomfortable.

One of her hands was held by Han Fei and she held her dagger in the other, thinking, Why is he holding my hand?

However, Xia Xiaochan found that holding hands with him, she could swing her arms casually, which was quite interesting.

The number of people on the street was rapidly decreasing. At this moment, a figure flew over their heads.

Swoosh!

A figure fell from the sky. It was a beautiful woman about 30 years old who was dressed in a red robe and seemed to be of high rank.

The beautiful woman glanced at Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan, then at their holding hands, and said leisurely, “Did you put the letters up in the sky?”

Seeing that she was a Hidden Fisher, Han Fei chuckled. “Yes, yes.”

The beautiful woman glanced at Xia Xiaochan. “What a pretty girl! Try to survive.”

With that, the beautiful woman spread her wings and flew away, saying, “Only by surviving can you be better able to fall in love.”

Xia Xiaochan sighed. “She didn’t notice our difference?”

Han Fei nodded. “Of course, we are real people and not fake. They certainly won’t find anything wrong about us.”

Half an hour later, Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were still walking leisurely on the empty streets. On both sides of the street, people were standing in front of their houses. They were not even Hanging Fishers, so they couldn’t go to the outer city to participate in the battle.

Although there were very few people left on the street at this moment, no one bothered Xia Xiaochan and Han Fei.

Many people even smiled at them and talked to them.

“Boy, don’t be reckless in the outer city. If you can’t beat the enemy, just retreat. Relax.”

“Girl, don’t get separated from him! It won’t be easy to find him if you get separated in the outer city.”

Their blessings and exhortations made Han Fei feel very strange, yet warm at the same time.

This city was better than he thought! The people in the city didn’t have much internal strife. Perhaps, they had no time or opportunity to fight internally. When Han Fei saw the gate of the city, the gate guards immediately shouted to the two of them, “Hurry up! If you can survive, you will have tons of time to fall in love. Get out of the city now!”

Although they were shouting at them, they didn’t rush them. These guards seemed to be able to understand them. Maybe this young couple would part forever this time, so they didn’t mind letting them spend more time together.

When Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan arrived in the outer city, the guards immediately said, “Come on, you two intermediate Dangling Fishers stay in the last batch, in the inner circle.”

As he said, the soldier looked at the two of them and said with a smile, “Don’t panic. We have fought 186 times in this kind of war. We could survive before, so can we this time. Just stand there and stay beside the inner city wall.”

Both Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were at a loss and obediently followed their arrangement. They had never seen such a scene before.

As far as their eyes could see, there was a sea of people. Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan stood next to the inner city wall. Even if they were going to fight, they would probably be the last batch to go out to fight, which was the special care for them.

Standing with them were mostly young couples or junior Dangling Fishers.

In the sky, there were eight Hidden Fishers, all with wings on their backs. Some were carrying armor boxes, some were carrying daggers, some were holding swords, and some were holding spears. The beautiful lady in a red robe that Han Fei saw just now was one of them.

And in front of these people, there was a person in the sky farthest away. The figure of that person looked conspicuous because there was no one in the front, back, left, or right of him. It was very likely that he was even more powerful than Hidden Fishers.

Han Fei looked over, secretly took a deep breath, and said to Xia Xiaochan, “I don’t think this battle will be easy. Stay by my side.”

Xia Xiaochan said impatiently, “I know, I know. Cut the crap.”

A couple in front of them looked back with a smile. “Hey, it’s okay. We experienced it once last year. At that time, we just went out of the city and came back shortly after.”

The girl of the couple was looking at Xia Xiaochan. “Sister, you are so beautiful.”

Yes, the girl seemed even younger than Xia Xiaochan, and Han Fei estimated that she was 13 years old at most.

was

Xia Xiaochan looked a bit embarrassed. "You are also pretty." The girl said, "My name is Yinyin, Sun Yinyin."

Xia Xiaochan took a look at Han Fei. "Hello, my name is Xia Xiaochan."

And the boy quietly gave Han Fei a thumbs up, seeming to say, "Buddy, you're awesome to have such a beautiful wife!"

Han Fei tilted his head slightly, quietly gave the boy a triumphant smile, and then asked, "Bro, what's a big fish tide like? We haven't seen it before." The boy shrugged. "We haven't seen it either! I guess only the people in the front line can see it. It's said that blood can almost envelop our Heavenly Desolate City. I don't know whether it is true or not. However, when I went out last time, the smell of blood was really strong and many people didn't come back."

Han Fei's mouth hung open. This description is a bit exaggerated! Blood can almost envelop this city?! Then how many people have died?

A boy not far from the side snorted. "It's too late when you see it. All four of my brothers died in the front. I didn't find a girlfriend this year because I didn't want to have a child given that he will die sooner or later."

Everyone was silent, a little embarrassed.

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan looked at each other and couldn't help feeling a bit sad. The fate of these people is really tragic!

Everyone was waiting, but no one was impatient. Han Fei believed that if possible, everyone here hoped that the big fish tide could ebb away, and then they could return to the inner city with peace of mind and do what they usually liked to do. After waiting for a full hour or so, Han Fei suddenly heard the "toot" sound again, and the conch shell trumpet began to blare one after another, more and more loudly, lasting longer and longer.

On the remote city wall, the fish-skin drum thundered.

The lonely figure in the front suddenly shouted, "Attention, Team One to Team Ten, prepare to leave the city."

"Kill! Kill! Kill!"

In the blood-boiling sound waves, two Hidden Fishers suddenly flew forward as if going to leave the city with the others.

However, as soon as the two Hidden Fishers left, Han Fei saw another two Hidden Fishers fly over, replenishing their positions.

Xia Xiaochan squeezed Han Fei's hand nervously, almost breaking the bone of his hand.

Han Fei soothed her, "Don't panic. It's not our turn yet!"

The distance from the inner city wall to the outer city wall was not close and there were many obstacles along the way, so Han Fei was not sure what was happening in the front.

However, Hexagon Starfish suddenly said via voice transmission, I feel a dangerous breath. Han Fei responded, You're telling me. Everyone in the city has come out to prepare for the battle. Of course, it's dangerous! BAM! BAM! BAM!

Boom...

Bang...

Hiss...

Howl!

After the first few teams left the city, the sounds had never stopped. The battle was fierce! The sound of fighting had even crossed the outer city wall and reached inside.

Another Hidden Fisher in the sky left the team and flew outside the city. It could be seen that there was definitely a pitched battle outside.

Han Fei had seen how Xiao Zhan fought. In Han Fei's eyes, Xiao Zhan alone could be worth a thousand troops.

However, three masters at this level had joined the battle in such a short time.

The sound of fish skin drums never stopped and the trumpets blared ceaselessly.

The battle lasted for about an hour, and the man's voice came from the sky again, "The 20 teams in front go out of the city and fill in 50,000 people."

Han Fei heard the guards not far away said in astonishment, "50,000 people more? So quickly? This year's war is fierce!"

Han Fei guessed that there were probably around 50,000 people in the 20 teams just now. Then, the 10 teams that had gone out of the city should include at least 20,000 people or more.

20,000 people, after an hour, and another 50,000 people went out? Han Fei was a bit stunned. What kind of damn war is this?

This time, three Hidden Fishers left but only 2 Hidden Fishers came out and replenished their positions, so there were only 6 Hidden Fishers in the sky now.

Xia Xiaochan shivered. "There must be a tough war outside." Han Fei nodded. "Don't worry. We're different from them."

In fact, Han Fei was not sure. If he died here, wouldn't he also become a ghost?

It was getting dark, but everyone was staring nervously ahead, although nothing could be seen. There were still people chatting and talking just now, but now everyone was silent.

Two hours later.

A loud bang resounded through the entire outer city. But after this loud noise, there was another thud after less than two minutes.

“The 30 teams in front, out of the city. Hurry up.”

Above the sky, another three Hidden Fishers left. And this time, only one person filled up the position, resulting in only 4 Hidden Fishers in the sky.

Han Fei's expression became even more solemn. “Seventy to eighty thousand people went out again?”

Chapter 414 Heavenly Desolate City: Big Fish Tide (1)

Outside the city, cries of war echoed high in the sky and all kinds of brilliant lights were shining in the sky, unusually conspicuous in the dark night.

When it was late at night, the noise outside abated a little bit. And the people at the front inside the city wall were already in an uproar.

Han Fei and the others saw two Hidden Fishers flying back. One of them was the beautiful woman in a red robe, who looked miserable at this moment. There seemed to be a big hole in her chest and she lost a wing. She could barely fly in the air, even with the help of another Hidden Fisher.

Ahead, the crowd was roaring, “Make way, make way, make a passage.”

In the back, all the teenagers dodged to both sides of the road, all of them tense.

Because Han Fei was closest to the south gate of the inner city, after a while, he saw a lot of people sent to the inner city, being carried on stretchers, limping, or being carried on others' backs.

Among the wounded, some lost their arms, some lost their legs, and some were covered with wounds cut by sharp blades, blood streaming down.

Anyway, among the people Han Fei saw, no one was intact, all drenched in blood.

“Puff!”

Han Fei looked at the side tensely and suddenly saw a wounded man that was being carried back suddenly vomit a few mouthfuls of blood and there were worms in the blood he vomited.

He also noticed that someone had been deeply poisoned, his skin had completely turned blue, and the blood flowing from his mouth was no longer red but blue-black.

“Spirit gatherers, an urgent call for spirit gatherers to come to the inner city for help.” Xia Xiaochan seemed to be shocked by this scene. Although she was very violent and able to fight, she had never seen such a scene! Every minute, dozens or even hundreds of people were sent into the inner city, looking miserable.

Almost immediately, many people responded, “I am a spirit gatherer.”

“Me too. I can help.”

“I’m both a spirit gatherer and a hunter. I can help too.”

1111

Xia Xiaochan looked at Han Fei. She knew what an excellent spirit gatherer Han Fei was. In the whole Blue Sea Town, Xia Xiaochan hadn’t seen a spirit gatherer who was more talented than Han Fei...

However, Han Fei looked at her with a pale look and shook his head slightly. He said to her via voice transmission, I can’t help them! If this war destroyed the city, I may be able to temporarily rescue ten or a hundred people, but that won’t change the result of the war at all.

Xia Xiaochan frowned. But are we just gonna watch them die?

Han Fei took a deep breath. I know this choice is cruel, but I must preserve my strength. This is their world and their city, but our world is not here.

Han Fei clenched his fist tightly. He wanted to rush up to save these people. However, his reason told him this simply wouldn’t work.

A spirit gatherer was too powerless for this level of war.

If the city wouldn’t be destroyed if Han Fei chose to save these people, he wouldn’t hesitate to come up to help. But he and Xia Xiaochan both knew that the Undersea City had been destroyed countless years ago and now there were only undead creatures and hero souls left there.

Han Fei frowned. “I’m afraid this battle will not be easy. We’ve gotta get out. Remember not to flash around after going out.”

Xia Xiaochan nodded and her little face turned pale.

The rescue operation lasted for about half an hour and the trumpets blared again with a “toot”.

Immediately, the voice of the person in front echoed in the sky again, “The first 50 teams go out of the city. All Hanging Fishers go out of the city.”

Han Fei gasped. The first 50 teams? Hundreds of thousands go out of the city? What the hell is going on outside?

Han Fei looked at the four Hidden Fishers floating in the sky with an ominous premonition. Why did the person in front demand the Hanging Fishers to go out of the city? Does he want to conserve strength? He’s... Sending them to their deaths!

One night passed quietly.

Han Fei was already numb. About 60% of the teams had gone out of the city. The rescue operation like the one just now happened again at dawn.

This time, it was even worse than the last one. Some people had almost lost their human form when they were taken back. Had it not been for the fact that they still had the last breath due to their strong physique, they looked just like dead people...

The short R & R lasted until the sun rose above sea level and then until the sun half-set. Unconsciously, Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan seemed to have become the last batch of people who were about to go out of the city.

At this moment, they were only less than a kilometer away from the outer city wall. Han Fei counted it down, only to find that there were only 100 teams left.

Although each queue was very long horizontally, now they began to shrink from horizontal to vertical.

“All soldiers... Out!”

The strong master in the air stepped out. This was the first time he had left that place since last night.

This person didn't say any useless words from beginning to end, nor did he say anything inspiring.

Now even the commander had gone out of the city, which showed how pitched the battle was!

Han Fei found that every soldier looked determined including the little lovers around them. At this last moment, they were all pouring out their hearts to their lovers, encouraging each other and making promises that even they themselves didn't believe in.

Han Fei grabbed Xia Xiaochan's hand and said, “When we go out, you must not go crazy. If you have such feelings, tell me right away.”

Xia Xiaochan suddenly said, “If we die here, can we go back?”

Han Fei shook his head. “No matter what, we can't die. We can't bet our lives! Now that we came here alive, we can leave here alive. So, no matter what happens, you must retain your strength.”

Han Fei held Xia Xiaochan's hand and started to rush out with others. The people around all shouted in unison, “Kill! Kill! Kill!”

No one knew if they were encouraging themselves or what.

Anyway, when Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan left the outer city with the crowd, almost instantly, a strong smell of blood and fish came upon them. That smell was simply disgusting!

And Han Fei finally saw what it was like outside the city.

Above the distant sky, Hidden Fishers were fighting. Because the battle of strong masters of this level would affect the people around extensively, they couldn't fight too close to the city but could only stay in the distant sky, far away from the city!

Han Fei saw dozens of huge tentacles above the sky as if growing out of the clouds. The tentacles fought with humans, breaking out ripples of spiritual energy in the air and even the floating clouds were shaken away.

In front of his eyes, everyone was rushing forward. The battlefield was 3,000 meters away. It seemed that humans had kept the battlefield 3,000 meters away.

However, Han Fei could see that two-story-tall lobsters, giant crabs rampaging from side to side, and gigantic octopuses waving their huge tentacles from time to time, as well as mantis shrimp, red-haired big-mouthed crabs, Mess Swallowing Worms, spherical creatures, water-shaped creatures, and many nameless creatures, were crowded on the far frontline.

The glow from combat skills almost obscured the entire battlefield. The phantoms of various spiritual beasts and contractual spiritual beasts appeared and fought from time to time.

Someone shouted, "Block it. Dash forward! We must guard the outer city."

Someone roared, "Choose a target! If you can't beat it, just change one, and hand it over to the strong."

As Han Fei approached the battlefield, he heard some crying and some howling.

Han Fei saw that a person lost his direction and ran to his side. He looked in pain as golden nematodes were drilling out of his body.

When Han Fei was about to help him out of his misery, a layer of flame suddenly burst out of his body and then a dagger flashed and killed him quickly.

Xia Xiaochan made a move, faster than Han Fei.

Han Fei turned to look at her. Xia Xiaochan looked serious. "No matter what, now that we've been here, we should fight this battle well. Let's retreat when we can't resist them..."

Han Fei glanced at her deeply and then nodded.

Suddenly, Han Fei felt something soft underfoot. He took a look and found that there was sand under his feet and seawater had spread here.

"Huh! Beach?"

Han Fei knew that the city had fallen from above. But was there a beach outside the city? Did it mean that this city would be submerged at any time?

As he was thinking, a hundred teams had already rushed into the battlefield.

It was like a meteorite collision.

Han Fei saw countless rocks rolling in the water, human-eating fish jumping out of the sand, countless moon-like blades cutting at the crowd, and huge crabs rampaging everywhere... This was not the point. The point was that... Han Fei saw an Inferior Man-Fish.

Chapter 415 Desolate City Drenched in Blood

Xia Xiaochan was surprised. "Inferior Man-Fish?"

Han Fei smashed a Mess Swallowing Worm with the Embroidery Needle and said without looking back. "Yes, very powerful, a marine creature equivalent to a Hanging Fisher."

As they talked, many thread-like worms gushed from under Han Fei's feet. Han Fei's eyelids twitched and he replaced the Embroidery Needle with the Water Dividing Seal. As he swung the seal at the worms, spiritual energy exploded, shaking all the worms within tens of meters into dust.

He looked back, only to see that Xia Xiaochan had turned into a shadow and jumped onto a big octopus, and hundreds of shadow blades rotating around and cutting the big octopus frantically.

Upon seeing this, Han Fei summoned dozens of Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers out of his body and drove them at the octopus. In a blink of an eye, under the offensive attack of the two, the big octopus was cut into many sections.

At this time, the big phantom of a crab behind had already attacked them with its pincers. Not only crabs, but at least five Mess Swallowing Worms also suddenly rushed over. In the distance, nematodes also began to gather.

Not far away, someone wailed, "Yinyin!"

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan froze and then looked back, only to find that the girl named Sun Yinyin had a scorpion tail pierced through her abdomen and the light blue venom had spread in her body.

And her young lover drove the weapons in the armor box to attack the sea scorpion frantically and controlled a large sickle to cut the scorpion into two pieces.

BAM!

With Xia Xiaochan as the center, thousands of shadow-less knives flashed in the air and instantly cut a few Mess Swallowing Worms that dashed at them into dozens of segments.

Han Fei instructed, "Calm down."

Xia Xiaochan appeared beside Sun Yinyin with a dark look and pulled out the scorpion tail. After Han Fei killed the surrounding marine creatures, he rushed over and immediately used the Divine Healing Technique on Sun Yinyin.

However, he found with regret that the girl was not only pierced in her lower abdomen, but also in her heart.

The boy was crying bitterly. Xia Xiaochan frowned, clenching the dagger in her hands hard.

Han Fei gritted his teeth and stomped. Amidst the shock of spiritual energy, all the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers rushed out of his body and rotated crazily ten meters away from him, and the blade light turned into a circle of cold light, shattering all the creatures in this range.

Han Fei raised his eyes and looked around. There were sea beasts everywhere. The water was full of creatures like Mess Swallowing Worms, sea scorpions, and crabs.

Compared to marine creatures, humans were much smaller in size but also much more flexible, so they could jump around in the water. Every blow was an extremely dangerous challenge.

Han Fei suddenly successfully repelled so many sea creatures, which cheered many people around him up.

A spirit gatherer took the initiative to lead spiritual energy into Han Fei's body and shouted, "Brother, take it easy. Don't use too much force at the beginning."

Someone acclaimed, "Well done."

It was just because of Han Fei's outburst that when a sharp howling sounded, the creatures around Han Fei all retreated and in the water, a black shadow swam over quickly.

Han Fei shouted. "Xia Xiaochan, watch out."

"Swish...."

Xia Xiaochan flashed and appeared dozens of meters away. The two daggers in her hands were burning with flames, setting off two blazing lights in the water.

The shadow in the water jumped up and a harpoon shot out of the water, setting off waves and blocking Xia Xiaochan's attack head-on.

A string of data appeared in Han Fei's eyes.

<Name> Inferior Man-Fish (Low-level Sea Demon)

<Introduction> A sea demon with immature intelligence, cruel and murderous. Because the species is inferior, it is impossible to judge which creature it evolved from.

<Level> 42

<Spiritual Energy> 4216/4998 <Demon Heritage> Level three, mid-quality

<Realm> Awakened

<Associated Spirit> Blue-Tailed Scorpion

<Unabsorbable>

Han Fei's face changed slightly and he immediately said, "Let's go up together! Cooperate with me!"

Xia Xiaochan turned into a shadow again, and Han Fei followed closely behind her, pushing the Embroidery Needle at the harpoon with his palm.

Boom!

The impact shook the surrounding seawater nearly 100 meters away. Han Fei was shaken several tens of meters away by the harpoon and then slid for several tens of meters on the sand but he felt a sense of comfort.

"What great strength!"

The Inferior Man-Fish seemed to be stunned by Han Fei, and he rolled dozens of times under the water because of the blow from Han Fei.

It had never thought that a Dangling Fisher could actually resist its blow head-on.

Han Fei shook his hand, stomped a pit on the ground, and attacked again. This time, the Embroidery Needle flashed with spiritual energy and nine tails appeared instantly behind Han Fei.

But the Inferior Man-Fish didn't move and suddenly a big blue scorpion appeared, stabbing its tail at a shadow.

The shadow was naturally Xia Xiaochan. She flashed and appeared behind the Inferior Man-Fish, thrusting her daggers into the Inferior Man-Fish's shoulders with Supreme Stab.

Crack!

The Inferior Man-Fish stumbled. Its back was laid open to the bone with two huge knife marks and blue sticky blood flowed out of his body.

When the scorpion tail whipped at her again, Xia Xiaochan dodged the scorpion tail and appeared on its head like a shadow. Then, she slashed and thrust daggers into the scorpion shell.

Xia Xiaochan's offensive created a favorable opportunity for Han Fei. While the Inferior Man-Fish leaned back, Han Fei flashed in the air and hit the Inferior Man-Fish's chest with the Embroidery Needle.

"Puff!"

A large amount of blue blood spewed from the mouth of the Inferior Man-Fish. Its chest was sunken, and the bones on its back were exposed by the blow from Han Fei.

Before Han Fei attacked again, a cold light pierced the Inferior Man-Fish's back neck. With the flick of the cold light, an ugly fish head fell into the water.

"Hiss..." With the death of the Inferior Man-Fish, the big blue scorpion lost its strength and reeled right and left. After three minutes, it lay down in the sea and stopped moving.

"Great! Good job!" "Good! Amazing!"

"Awesome, these two are really strong."

When the people around applauded, a figure arrived quickly. Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan immediately recognized that this was a Hanging Fisher whose strength overawed them.

However, the man took a deep look at Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan. "Two intermediate Dangling Fishers can kill a low-level sea demon? Great! You guys just support us in this sea area. Don't come to the central battlefield..."

With that, this person immediately disappeared.

He saw an Inferior Man-Fish here, so he quickly came over to help. However, although he came extremely fast, when he rushed here, the Inferior Man-Fish's head had been cut off.

If at ordinary times, he would definitely bring Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan into the inner city, train them well, and help them develop.

But now it was a critical moment of the battle, and he couldn't be distracted. He thought if the two of them survived this battle, he would take them back to train them.

Killing the Inferior Man-Fish, Han Fei grinned and immediately sent some spiritual energy into Xia Xiaochan's body. "It seems that we can kill a Hanging Fisher now!"

Xia Xiaochan tilted her head. "That big scorpion seems to be its contractual spiritual beast."

Han Fei didn't speak. He was not clear what exactly an associated spirit was. However, he thought it should be something like humans' spiritual beasts.

At this moment, he couldn't help being curious about what Yang Ruoyun's associated spirit was. He didn't see it back then.

While the people were still cheering for them slaying an Inferior Man-Fish, suddenly there was a loud shout in the sky. "Big Blade Slaying Dragon."

Under the shocked stare of many people, in the distant sky, a middle-aged man was surrounded by three creatures.

A spherical creature, an octopus monster, and a gigantic crab.

The knife in the middle-aged man's hand broke inch by inch. In the next second, a sky-shaking sword light cut through the sky and the three creatures that were at least the Hidden Fisher level were killed by this slash and their bodies fell from the sky.

And the man was not dead yet, his whole body was burning with blood and qi, and his arms had turned into ashes. But he was still standing proudly and shouted again, "Man and knife in one!"

Then he was like a meteorite falling from the sky, smashing into the deep ocean far away.

Boom...

A wave hundreds of meters high was set off and a strong ripple spread across the sea.

Han Fei's eyelids trembled as he saw this scene. A Hidden Fisher died so easily? Before he died, he turned into a sword and plunged into the sea, trying to take away one more marine creature with his life!

Han Fei felt that under his clothes, Hexagon Starfish was clinging tightly to his shoulders. He was probably frightened.

The battle continued and Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan had been fighting for nearly two hours.

Strong as Xia Xiaochan, her combat power was getting exhausted at this moment. What was getting exhausted was not her spiritual energy, but power.

After all, Xia Xiaochan was only a Dangling Fisher, and after two hours of killing, what she lacked was not merely spiritual energy.

Han Fei immediately threw her a spiritual fruit. "Eat it. Take a break!" Xia Xiaochan flashed with the spiritual fruit in her mouth and landed next to a girl in the next second, helping her kill the man-eating fish around her.

Han Fei's clothes were torn to pieces. He looked around, only to find the rhythm of the battlefield seemed to never change. The battlefield looked exactly like what it was when they came out...

The only difference was that the seawater under his feet had already been dyed red. Along the coast, as far as he could see, there were corpses everywhere, piled like mountains.

Boom...

“Let’s go, come on! Danger!”

At this moment, Hexagon Starfish who hadn’t spoken for a long time suddenly shouted, giving Han Fei a startle.

He looked up and saw that in the sky, a sword shadow traversed dozens of miles in an instant and was nailed into the deep sea.

Chapter 416 Shrimp Soldiers? A Crab General?

Not only Han Fei, but many other people were also retreating towards the gate of the city. A Hidden Fisher shouted in the sky, “Move the front line back. Stop fighting. Retreat!”

Suddenly, Han Fei felt something was wrong. He looked down, only to find that the seawater under his feet had flowed back into the sea.

“Damn it...”

It was definitely not a good thing to see the sea flowing backwards! He didn’t know who released the sword light just now, nor did he know what the sword light would do... He only knew that the sword light was so strong that he would be crushed as soon as it touched him.

Xia Xiaochan said to him, “Something’s wrong. The ground is shaking.”

Han Fei looked at the trembling gravel with a solemn look.

Suddenly, someone beside them shouted, “Look! What is that?”

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan quickly looked back, and then they were stunned as if being struck by lightning. What came into view was a crab, a huge crab, nearly one thousand meters wide and several hundred meters tall.

Gulp!

Han Fei swallowed. “F*ck...”

Xia Xiaochan’s eyes widened. “What a big crab!”

Perhaps because the crab was too huge, the data that Han Fei could only read at close range under normal circumstances was already in his eyes now.

<Name> Crab General (Sea Demon)

<Introduction> The king of crabs who rules a certain sea area. It was born after countless transformations and evolutions in the endless years and has very strong defensive ability. With extremely high spiritual knowledge and excellent intelligence, it is the king of a sea area.

<Level> ???

<Spiritual Energy> ??? <Demon Heritage> ???

<Realm> ???

<Associated Spirit> ???

<Unabsorbable>

At that time, Han Fei was almost desperate. I'm never afraid of fighting! Little crabs are simply a piece of cake for me.

But how can I handle this Godzilla?! I'll just leave this thing to those who have the ability to handle it! I don't have this ability anyway. I'm leaving!

But Han Fei was relieved to see that one of the claws of this crab had been broken, the big tong was gone, and only half of its claw was left. The crab waved its only claw, leaving a shining shadow in the sky, and cut through the clouds. In the end, a thunderous roar broke out in the sky.

Boom...

When the clouds dissipated, Han Fei saw that the commander was standing in the sky, with one hand behind his back and the other holding a sword.

"Back off."

The man's voice was deafening and echoed over the vast sea.

"Human! Die..."

As the crab waved its only claw, devastating floods formed in the distance.

In the sky, the sword-holding man looked back. "Everyone, fight and retreat into the city."

The city gate opened and the guards, drenched in blood, were organizing a retreat. However, too many people were retreating and there was still a sea of marine creatures chasing behind, making it impossible for them to retreat in time.

Fortunately, some people climbed the walls and entered the city. Although the city wall was high, it was only 500 meters or so tall, which wouldn't be an obstacle for Dangling Fishers.

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were evacuating, following the crowd.

Han Fei turned pale. "We're going to lose this city. Such a big wave will definitely fill the whole city with water."

Xia Xiaochan retreated and looked at the ground. "No, have you noticed that the city is descending. Just now, when we came out, the ocean was 3,000 meters away. But now, look at the watermark..."

Han Fei was stunned when he heard the words. And then, he was surprised to find that there were signs of flooding only 500 meters outside the city.

Han Fei couldn't help thinking, If this city fell from the sky, how can it still float on the sea?

Either, there was something holding the city underneath; or...

Han Fei suddenly looked at the city wall. "This city has a huge formation!"

That was the only reason that Han Fei could think of! Although he couldn't believe that there would be such a big formation guarding this city... There didn't seem to be another possibility!

"Retreat, retreat! Stop fighting!"

"Hiss..."

The ground was shaking and the Hidden Fishers were shouting. Han Fei looked back and found that countless shrimp shadows appeared on the huge waves.

Yes, he saw it clearly. These were definitely shrimp. He certainly could recognize shrimp heads!

Swish! Swish! Swish!

In the shadow of the waves, shrimp spines shot out like locusts all over the sky, and every shrimp spine flashed with spiritual energy.

At this moment, Han Fei just arrived at the city wall with Xia Xiaochan. Because they couldn't get in the city gate, they could only climb the wall.

Han Fei shouted, "After you."

With that, Han Fei suddenly grabbed Xia Xiaochan's hand and shook it upward. The huge force made Xia Xiaochan's petite body shoot straight into the sky like a sharp arrow.

In the end, Xia Xiaochan flashed, standing on the city wall and shouted to Han Fei, "Come on, climb up."

Han Fei glanced at Xia Xiaochan. "Wait for me, I'll come right away."

Then he suddenly stopped in front of the city gate and took out the Water Dividing Seal, which turned into a large seal more than 30 meters high in the blink of an eye.

Xia Xiaochan stomped her feet with anger. He told her not to be stupid but what was he doing now? Being stupid? Han Fei knew that this city was going to be destroyed and there might be stronger creatures showing up soon. But at the gate of the city, there were tens of thousands of people, many of whom had no combat power left at all and were even unable to climb the city wall. All they could do was look back at the shrimp spines all over the sky and wait to die...

When Han Fei saw those desperate eyes, his mind suddenly went blank.

Han Fei murmured to himself, "I can block the shrimps... But I'll only block one wave. I can only block one damn wave."

Hexagon Starfish was shocked. "Are you crazy?"

"Master Hexagon, at this moment, you've gotta trust me."

"No, I just want to return to the land of starfish."

Han Fei scoffed. "Shut up."

Behind Han Fei, someone yelled, "That boy, go away. We don't need a kid to rescue us."

“Leave! Don’t waste your talent, kill as many sea demons as possible for me.” “Hey! Don’t try to block them. It’s not going to work. Don’t waste your life in vain.”

Han Fei turned his head, grinned, grabbed the Embroidery Needle, and thrust it into the ground. “Grow larger...”

Then the Embroidery Needle became thicker and taller. However, when the Embroidery Needle grew to a height of about 50 meters, it stopped.

Han Fei sighed. “Hey! What’s wrong with you? Monkey King’s Golden Cudgel can even break through the sky. I don’t expect so much from you but can’t you even grow as tall as this city?!”

However, the Embroidery Needle did not respond.

Clank, Clank, Clank...

Suddenly, Han Fei felt that the Water Dividing Seal was being attacked frantically. In the blink of an eye, there seemed to be hundreds of shrimp spines bombarding it.

“Majestic Mystic Spell.”

Han Fei used the Majestic Mystic Spell, the muscles on his body burst, and the terrifying power spread to his limbs.

Even with the Water Dividing Seal and the Embroidery Needle blocking the shrimp spines, Han Fei still felt deeply helpless. There were too many shrimp spines, which almost blotted out the sky and covered up the earth with overwhelming power.

“Fool.”

Suddenly, Han Fei felt that something was wrong under his feet. A shadow entangled his feet and then turned into Xia Xiaochan. Han Fei was furious. “I told you to stay up there!”

Xia Xiaochan grunted. “If you don’t go up, I won’t either. If you die, I will die with you.”

Han Fei’s body shuddered. No one had ever said this to him in his two lives. Xia Xiaochan was the first one! He looked at her again who looked so serious and resolute.

Han Fei suddenly grinned, injected all his spiritual energy into the Water Dividing Seal, and roared gritting his teeth. “I, Han Fei, am the chosen one! I will not die here.”

Clank Clank Clank...

Puff...

Behind Han Fei, at the city gate, someone cursed, “Shit, children nowadays are too disobedient.”

“You’ve got guts! Boy, if you survive this battle, I bet you will reach the peak someday.” “Okay, kid, you’ve blocked a wave of the shrimps. Now you can get the hell out of here.”

Han Fei turned around and smiled with difficulty. Then, he saw a cyan light mask emerging from the city wall. All the shrimp spines were actually blocked out of the light mask.

“Sure enough, there is a formation!”

Puff...

Han Fei sank to the ground, the Water Dividing Seal became palm-sized, and the Embroidery Needle turned to its normal size without the support of spiritual energy.

Han Fei was exhausted but still smiled. “F*ck, I’m almost shaken to death.”

As soon as he put away the Embroidery Needle and the Water Dividing Seal, Han Fei felt like he was being picked up. Xia Xiaochan grabbed him by the collar, jumped several times, and landed on the city wall that was full of spines.

Han Fei had tried his best and could only buy some time for those people. He didn’t think he could block another wave of shrimp attacks.

He didn’t know how many shrimp spines he had blocked. Anyway, he should have saved many people.

Xia Xiaochan said angrily, “From now on, you need to listen to me. Don’t run around.”

With that said, Xia Xiaochan took Han Fei’s hand, jumped down the city, and ran towards the inner city.

Han Fei ran and said, “Hey, slow down. I’m afraid we can’t get into the inner city.”

Xia Xiaochan asked, “Why not?”

Han Fei smiled bitterly. “Don’t forget, when we entered the Undersea City, the outer city was also a battlefield. At this moment, the top priority is not to run to the inner city, but to take a rest, regain physical strength, and restore our combat power to its peak.”

Then he took out the Yellow Blood Sea Cucumber that he hadn’t finished eating and handed Xia Xiaochan a large piece of sea cucumber meat.

Xia Xiaochan was speechless. Even at this moment, he was still thinking about eating!

Xia Xiaochan took a bite of the sea cucumber, regardless of the taste, and asked, “As you can see, we are not going to win this battle. But can we only go back when we win this battle?”

Han Fei gave a wry smile. “Who knows? Anyway, try to stay alive. Unless there are only two of us left in this city, unless we are besieged, we must stay alive...” Xia Xiaochan nodded hard. “I have a feeling that this secret realm is not meant to make us fight this battle! The city was destroyed countless years ago. What’s the point for us to fight this war? Even if we win, can these dead people in the Undersea City come back to life?”

Chapter 417 City Fall

“Opportunity?” Xia Xiaochan was greatly confused. She really couldn’t see where the opportunity was... Han Fei explained, “We can travel back in time here! What great experts do you think are capable of that?” Xia Xiaochan shook her head. “I don’t know.”

Han Fei put on a smile. “I don’t think any of the people we saw today are capable of doing that. The swordsman we saw just now was strong, wasn’t he? But I think that he is only as good as a Law Enforcer, or an Explorer at best. Anyway, he can’t be stronger than Old Bai... Do you think Old Bai can go back to the past?”

Xia Xiaochan shook her head again. “Of course not. If he could, he would’ve gone back a long time ago... And what happened to the Thug Academy thirty years ago wouldn’t have happened.”

Han Fei nodded. “That’s right! Therefore, this power must be something that we can’t understand. So, whoever put us in this place definitely has a purpose...”

Xia Xiaochan glanced at Han Fei. “That doesn’t help at all. I too know that they have a purpose. But what is the purpose exactly? To save everybody in the city?”

Han Fei shrugged. “Why don’t we take a guess? Assuming that we’re not here to save anyone, we will not be fighting the grand fish tides... Then why are we back here?”

Xia Xiaochan thought a long time but eventually shook her head, indicating that she didn’t know the answer.

Squinting, Han Fei said, “Either they have something that they want to tell us, or they have a last wish that they want us to carry out for them. Obviously, when everybody in this city is dead, certain secrets would be buried, and whoever is behind this doesn’t want to see that...”

Xia Xiaochan’s eyes glittered. “Huh? I think I’ve got it!”

Han Fei was stunned. “Huh? What have you got?”

Xia Xiaochan said in delight, “It’s the royal fortress. There’s a royal fortress at the center of the inner city. If there are indeed secrets, they must be buried in the royal fortress.”

Blinking his eyes, Han Fei said, “Then let’s go to the inner city already!”

Regretfully, by the time Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan came to the gate, many city guards had been gathered there. Most of them were drenched in blood and looked ferocious. It was impossible for Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan to sneak in.

A Hidden Fisher returned, with a missing arm. He shouted from a high place, “Everybody, march to the outer city and hold it...”

In the crowd, someone asked, “My lord, how long do we have to hold it? Can we win this war?”

The Hidden Fisher said coldly, “The inner city must not fall whether or not we win. Here, the lifelong efforts of our ancestors are kept. Your family and friends live here too. The inner city must not fall!”

After the Hidden Fisher’s roar, all the city guards bashed their spears on the ground, with intense brutality emanating from them... Xia Xiaochan asked, “What do we do now?”

Han Fei said, "We wait."

Han Fei didn't have a choice. He couldn't simply break into the inner city now that it had been locked down.

The people around him were upset and angry, but eventually, they all heaved a sigh and accepted their fate.

What could they do? They had to protect the inner city. Who would fight if they went away? If everybody backed off, it would only be a matter of time before the inner city fell...

In the distant sky, a battle was going on. A glittering sword cut through the clouds, and the shocking pincers seemed able to squeeze the earth apart!

A tide almost a thousand meters high was pushed close. Under everybody's watch, it crashed into the array that protected the city like a mad bull.

Hum...

Instantly, the earth was shaking, and buildings were collapsing

Han Fei saw that the green array suddenly dimmed and was almost broken by the terrifying power.

After the clash of tide, Han Fei knew that the places outside of the city must've been drowned.

Everybody raised their heads and looked at the aftermath of the tide. When the tide passed, seawater was flowing down from the top as if it were running on a glass cover.

Though not a drip of the seawater entered the city, it was definitely a magnificent, shocking and devastating scene.

Someone sighed next to Han Fei. "There's no need to run. A fight is inevitable no matter where we escape to! It's better to fight and die here than to flee."

Someone grinned crazily. "I will sacrifice myself for the peace of this city. Even if I die and turn into a ghost, I will not yield to those goddamn creatures." A man even took out a dried fish and chewed it. "Fish are just food. No matter how strong they've become, someone stronger will put them in their mouth and eat them."

Many people were desperate at this moment, but desperation did not seem helpful at all... So, everybody abandoned their weakness and decided to have one last try.

Han Fei wouldn't have been touched if only one or two of them did that, but when hundreds and thousands of people did the same, even Han Fei was touched by their emotion.

Xia Xiaochan, on the other hand, gritted her teeth, with tears shaking in her eyes.

They waited about half an hour. Instead of a second tide, what came to them was a gigantic, sky-reaching pincer.

"Break."

At that moment, everybody in the city saw that someone turned into a streak of light and waved his sword mysteriously in front of the giant pincer.

After his slash, the clouds dispersed, and the aura of the sword swept across half of the sky. Even space was torn apart with black gaps.

Crack... Crack... Crack...

The crab's charge remained inexorable, but it was already full of cracks. When it was about to crash into the array, its pincers were shattered to smithereens.

Every piece of its pincers were sparkling brilliantly in the air before they hit the green array in the next second.

BAM! BAM! BAM!

For a moment, ripples were spreading out on the array that protected the city because of the overwhelming pieces.

After each crash, the city would shake.

The ground below Han Fei's feet had always been trembling without a moment of tranquility.

Xia Xiaochan took a deep breath and asked, "Is that giant crab dead?"

Han Fei swallowed. "I don't know! You saw the slash just now. I think it's probably dead, isn't it?"

Han Fei wasn't very sure. He was truly amazed by the sword attack just now. The aura of the sword pressed infinitely and cut the mountainous crab into pieces instantly! It was not hard to imagine how powerful the attack was.

Crack...

When everybody saw that the array that protected the city blocked the crab's attack, an enormous crack suddenly appeared on the green array.

Humming noises echoed along with an earthquake. The moment the green array was cracked, another overwhelming tide came close.

Many people forgot what they were doing and they looked up at the sky.

Crack... Crack...

The one crack on the circle suddenly led to thousands of cracks, sprawling over everybody's head in the blink of an eye.

Right when everybody thought that the green circle would be broken, the tide ebbed, and the array survived it.

"Hu..."

Everybody took a breath of relief subconsciously. Many had anxious sweat all over their head.

"Look. What's that?"

Someone saw that a crab that was not large in size was hanging on the green array.

BAM!

Crack!

Instantly, as if a scorching sun was rising, the green array exploded, and the tide that hadn't fully ebbed simply flooded into the city.

"Attack! Attack!"

"Be prepared for battle!"

"Everybody, cheer up!"

"Son of bi*ch, it's now or never, brothers!"

Many people lost their hope when the array was broken, although they knew that it would've been broken all the time when a few more tides came...

At this moment, the Hidden Fisher shouted from the city wall, "Sorry, everybody. I ask you to sacrifice yourselves!"

Someone said with a smile, "We've resisted for so many years. It's enough. We aren't scared of anything!"

Someone exclaimed, "Finally, we don't have to hold it back anymore! Brothers, let's hope that we can fight side by side again in our next life."

Everybody was excited. Han Fei could clearly sense that they were fearless of death. They had probably long been determined to be sacrifices.

Han Fei grabbed Xia Xiaochan's hand, fearing that she would be reckless.

He could tell that the people around him were crazy! They had fused with their spiritual beasts and attached their contractual spiritual beasts before the tide came.

Some of them even ran forward, as if they were going to greet the next tide.

Undoubtedly, there would be tremendous sea treasures in the tide.

Han Fei spoke telepathically, Don't charge! Let's just stay here. We'll enter the inner city after the city guards and the Hidden Fisher are out.

Han Fei was not planning to fight this battle. They weren't here to fight a battle, and certainly not one that they obviously couldn't win. As they spoke, the huge tide came close. The war had come to an end.

Chapter 418 Go Away, and Stay Alive!

This was different from a regular tsunami. Han Fei couldn't possibly estimate how powerful a tsunami of such a level could be.

Many people underestimated the power of water. Under the scourge of the flood, no obstacles in its way could stand.

The tide rolled and fell.

After just one slap, the defensive positions in the front were instantly reduced to debris.

The people up ahead had been knocked away by the tide before they were ready. They floundered in the seawater, before they were killed by the sea creatures in their dizziness.

On the top of the tide, some man-fish were screeching while they rode on the tide. There was no telling what they were saying. Those man-fish had great control over water. They stood on the tide, entered the water, and came back to the surface. It seemed that the tide was a trench for them.

The Hidden Fisher on the city wall was the first to charge out. Though he only had one arm left, his sword was still too brutal to be resisted by regular creatures.

As for the Hanging Fishers, Han Fei didn't see any of them. They seemed to have always been in the front line without coming to the rear.

At this point, only several city guards were left to defend the gate to the inner city, and the rest charged forward too.

"Gu... Gu..."

The tide came very fast. Probably because it was too huge and advanced, it took only an hour for the tide to drown the outer city. It was not hard to imagine how ferocious the tide was!

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were consumed by the tide almost in the blink of an eye.

But thankfully, by the time the tide reached this place, it had lost most of its momentum. Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan waved their weapons now and then in the water. Every time Xia Xiaochan's Shadowless Blade appeared, a sea creature would die.

Han Fei was even more unstoppable. His Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers spun like a torpedo. The Million Knife Art couldn't be more effective in a group fight.

No creatures could survive one second around Han Fei or Xia Xiaochan.

But there were too many creatures! After only a few minutes, Han Fei couldn't stand it anymore. He couldn't see anything now, and he could only perceive the sea creatures with his mind.

Under his mental senses, broken pieces were everywhere, including fish meat, crab shells, shrimp tails, and worm claws...

Earlier, Han Fei had doubted how the city could be enshrouded in blood, but he was now convinced. The blood flowing in the seawater was enough to pave a floor for this city!

When two man-fish got their eyes on Han Fei, Han Fei knew that he couldn't stay in the outer city anymore, as the man-fish had surpassed the resistance and made their way to the rear. Han Fei said, "Xia Xiaochan." Xia Xiaochan replied, "We'll each take one of them." Xia Xiaochan was as good as Han Fei in terms of individual combat. Han Fei had seen that when they hunted the man-fish in the outer city. So, Han Fei did not keep anything to himself. When a harpoon was stabbed to his chest, his Blood Drinking Knife glowed.

“Puchi!”

It was beyond the man-fish’s expectation that an intermediate Dangling Fisher could’ve performed such a skillful attack. Half of the man-fish was cut open. When its codependent creature showed up, Han Fei cut it again quickly. Crack!

The harpoon was broken. After drawing his blade three times, Han Fei finally executed the man-fish. When Han Fei swam at Xia Xiaochan, he found that the girl was threading a red lightning bolt through a man-fish, which was riddled with holes from head to webs.

Han Fei was rather surprised. “Xia Xiaochan, what’s that battle technique?” Xia Xiaochan landed on Han Fei’s side after a flash. “It’s the Thousand Strike Technique. I dug it out from the Cave of Death.”

Both of them were nauseous when they jumped out of the water. The outer city had just completely turned to hell. The seawater here couldn’t be filthier. Exactly at this moment, a Hidden Fisher flew backwards at them.

Han Fei saw a harpoon in his chest, which seemed to be from a man-fish.

The Hidden Fisher was flying exactly towards Han Fei. As it happened, a red man-fish emerged from the tide a thousand meters away and glanced at them coldly.

The Hidden Fisher was rather grave. He was briefly stunned to see Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan. Suddenly, he clapped his hands and raised a tide that pushed Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan, while he said, “Go to the inner city.”

The Hidden Fisher was too fast and strong for Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan to resist.

Hardly had Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan seen the tide when they found themselves in the inner city. The inner city wasn’t any better than the outer city. It was now half drowned, and people were fighting everywhere. The city guards, in particular, were fighting in the inner city. At first, the experts above the level of Dangling Fisher were fighting in the outer city, resulting in the weakness in the inner city area. Therefore, many city guards who retreated earlier did not go out again but stayed to defend the inner city. Han Fei’s and Xia Xiaochan’s sudden appearance stunned a city guard not far away, who did not see them coming at all. Those two were already here after a flash. The city guard immediately shouted at them, “To the center of the inner city! If you’re already here, don’t get yourselves killed.”

This city guard’s spiritual beast was a big octopus, and only four of its nine tentacles were left. Han Fei did not see other contractual spiritual beasts. They might have been killed.

Silently, Han Fei dragged Xia Xiaochan to the center of the inner city.

However, two man-fish had jumped out before Han Fei ran ten kilometers.

This time, neither Han Fei nor Xia Xiaochan attacked, because they saw a scarlet man-fish dozens of kilometers away.

Though it was not near, they remembered that the Hidden Fisher in the outer city was defeated by a scarlet man-fish.

Shua!

Attaching Little Gold to himself, Han Fei soared with Xia Xiaochan. Why would he fight when he might not even be able to escape? Far away, the scarlet man-fish seemed to be attracted when Han Fei soared in the air. But it seemed to be occupied in another fight, so it simply threw a harpoon at Han Fei. Han Fei's face changed greatly. "Damn it! I'm so far away from you! Am I in your way?" The harpoon came so fast that Han Fei had no time to take any reaction.

BAM!

Han Fei sensed an enormous force, because Xia Xiaochan had thrown him out. When Han Fei looked back, he saw that the harpoon was only several dozen meters from Xia Xiaochan.

Han Fei immediately exclaimed anxiously, "Xia Xiaochan!"

But Xia Xiaochan arrived at him in the next second. She grabbed Han Fei's arm and said palely, "Why are you yelling? Keep running!" Han Fei was greatly relieved. Immediately, he flew to the center of the city at full speed. In the meantime, he cast the Divine Healing Technique on Xia Xiaochan, because he felt blood on Xia Xiaochan's back.

With an awful look on his face, Han Fei took out a couple of spiritual fruits and gave them to her. "Take them. They're all healing spiritual fruits." Xia Xiaochan was dazed. "Where did you get so many spiritual fruits?" Han Fei accelerated again. "I bought them!"

Far away, after the man-fish's failed attack, it was fighting three Hanging Fishers. It was rather shocked to see that Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan dodged its harpoon.

The three Hanging Fishers were shocked too. They were not as strong as the man-fish, but it was not a problem for them to see Han Fei clearly. "An intermediate Dangling Fisher?" Immediately, one of them quit the battle and chased Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan.

In the sky, Han Fei watched the city that had been half drowned, the man-fish that were leaping out of water now and then, and the unstoppable sea creatures. He was greatly shocked.

He simply used the Majestic Mystic Spell again and further increased his speed. Because of that, many man-fish tried to stop him.

However, Han Fei couldn't be more brutal at this moment. He roared, "Whoever is in my way will die!"

A man-fish jumped horizontally to him, but its head was squeezed and blown up by Han Fei with one hand.

Han Fei was rather frightened on the way. What if the Heavenly Water Village or Blue Sea Town fell into the sea from the sky someday? It probably couldn't survive half a day in the level-three fishery, could it?

This city here, on the other hand, endured 187 attacks! Han Fei found it rather hard to believe. After flying about five hundred kilometers, Han Fei saw a few athletic creatures chasing him in the water.

Xia Xiaochan said, "They're not the scarlet man-fish, but they seem stronger than the man-fish we met earlier."

Hui! Hui! Hui! Another few harpoons were thrown at them, and Han Fei tried to block them with the nine-star chains.

But after the first impact, Han Fei felt that the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp was injured. Even he rolled multiple times in the air. He had to fend off the last harpoon with the Water Dividing Seal. His face was rather pale, because he had consumed too much energy and the Majestic Mystic Spell couldn't last much longer.

Xia Xiaochan asked, "How are you doing?" Han Fei said, "I'm fine."

Coldly, Han Fei was about to have another try, when he saw a man moving on a roof with a long bow.

The man shot arrows of spiritual energy, locking onto the man-fish that were hunting Han Fei.

Because of the unexpected attack, the man-fish were disrupted and had to jump out of the water. This time, Han Fei finally saw their look clearly. To Han Fei's surprise, those man-fish were much more like human beings than the inferior man-fish he saw before.

"Hiss!"

The inferior man-fish Han Fei saw earlier were simply hideous, but the few man-fish here were more or less acceptable. They were like unevolved primates, closer to regular human beings. Furthermore, Han Fei could even tell their gender from their face, which was another shock for Han Fei! Xia Xiaochan asked, "Huh? Can they really turn into human beings?" Han Fei replied awfully, "I don't know! But we may have an answer if we can look at the red man-fish more closely." Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan dare not stay any longer, because their helper down below was shouting at them, "Go away now! There's only hope if you're alive!"

Chapter 419 Opportunities From the Past

Han Fei gritted his teeth. He didn't know why the man would help him and Xia Xiaochan, when it was impossible for him to defeat three man-fish as a mere Hanging Fisher.

But before Han Fei figured out what was going on, he had goosebumps all over his body, as an enormous hand emerged behind him and Xia Xiaochan. Everything became hazy in their eyes. In the next moment, they appeared on the roof of a building that hadn't been drowned yet.

This building was more than fifty meters tall. It was white in general, dotted with black mysterious stones, which indicated that it was not common.

When Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan came back to themselves, they saw a white-haired young man standing before them. The man's face was handsome without any wrinkles. Judging by his face, he was only in his twenties." Han Fei said, "Bro, you..."

Smack...

Instantly, Han Fei was slapped in the forehead, and he fell on the ground because of the force. After a flash, Xia Xiaochan pressed out a Supreme Stab.

"Huh?"

The young man moved and dodged Xia Xiaochan's attack easily.

Han Fei said quickly, "Xia Xiaochan, stop!"

Han Fei exerted strength in his feet and stood up. He said palely, "Dude, that's too much. I..."

Smack...

Hardly had Han Fei stood up when he was slapped and fell again. He couldn't be more stunned at this moment, because he didn't know how the man attacked at all.

Xia Xiaochan yelled angrily, "Hey, who are you exactly? What do you want?" The young man said peacefully, "You two kids have no respect for your seniors at all. Bro? Dude? I'm older than than your grandpa, do you know that?" "Huh?"

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were both stunned. Who are you trying to fool? You're pretending to be old when your face is so young? Just because you've dyed your hair white?

But Han Fei was smart enough not to call him bro or dude anymore. After he rose, he stepped back with Xia Xiaochan.

Who was this guy exactly? He hadn't quite figured out yet, but he knew that the man was strong.

Then, the man gazed at Xia Xiaochan, with contentment in his eyes.

Han Fei immediately stood before Xia Xiaochan and declared, "Hey? What are you staring at?" The young man replied with a casual smile, "Yesterday, my 186th son told me that he met a very beautiful girl. He must've been referring to you..." Han Fei: "???"

Xia Xiaochan: "???"

Dazed, Han Fei asked, "No... Wait a moment, your which son?"

The young man grinned. "My 186th." "Huhh!"

Han Fei gasped hard and looked back at Xia Xiaochan with disbelief.

Xia Xiaochan asked, "You are the mayor of this city?"

The young man nodded. "That's correct. I'm the mayor. But I don't think you belong to my city." Han Fei looked rather uneasy. "How so?"

With his hands behind his back, the man said casually, "If you were from my city, I would've known you a long time ago. How can I not know a genius who has a legendary contractual spiritual beast... Or more exactly, two legendary contractual spiritual beasts?" Xia Xiaochan: "???"

She pinched and twisted the flesh on Han Fei's waist. "Legendary? Didn't you say that the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp was exotic?" Han Fei swallowed too. "Well... Is it possible that you're mistaken, senior?" The young man looked at Han Fei with a smile. "You're addressing me as your senior now?"

Han Fei chuckled. "Senior, you really know how to take care of your face! What exactly do you do? I'll ask Xia Xiaochan to try it too!" The mayor: "???" The mayor was lost for words. We're in the middle of a crisis, and yet you're talking about beauty treatment? "Hehe. I don't know where you're from, but you've come to my city. I only want to ask you this: can you leave here alive?" The young man was extremely serious when he said that. His eyes seemed to be staring at Han Fei's and Xia Xiaochan's hearts through their skin.

Han Fei knew that it was impossible for him to trick the man. He simply shook his head and said, "Xia Xiaochan and I came here by accident. We've been looking for ways to leave." "You've been looking?" The mayor frowned. "Is your way of leaving right inside this city?"

Han Fei nodded. "Probably."

The mayor's eyes glittered. "Can you take anyone away with you?"

Han Fei shook his head. "I don't know, but my guess is no."

The mayor instantly asked, "Where are you from?"

Han Fei paused and hesitated a moment. If he were to say that he came from the future, wouldn't it sound too uncanny? The mayor said, "Since the crash, this city has lost contact with other cities and has been secluded for two hundred years. Nobody has visited us except for you. Maybe, I can take care of the problems that you can't."

Xia Xiaochan said, "You can't take care of them either."

The mayor laughed. "Girl, don't be too confident!" Han Fei said with a bitter smile, "I'm afraid that you really can't. This city has been sunken for many many years in our normal lifetime. The city guards, and the warriors who are fighting in the outer city, have already turned into hero souls."

The mayor suddenly became threatening. He stared at Han Fei coldly and asked, "If I understand you correctly, you're saying that you're from the future?"

The mayor looked back at the devastated city, the crying people, and the fighting city guards. Then he said with a casual smile, "So, my city will be destroyed in the end." After about five minutes of silence, Xia Xiaochan couldn't hold it back anymore. Xia Xiaochan asked, "If you are the mayor, you're definitely the strongest. Why don't you participate in the battle?"

The mayor looked back at Xia Xiaochan and said, "Because the time has not come yet... If the city will be destroyed eventually, I wouldn't mind letting all the invaders die with us." Han Fei's eyes constricted. "Senior, do you have any last wish? Or do you have any heritage that you must pass on?" The mayor's lips curled. "So that's why you're here?" Han Fei said, "We're here purely by accident..." The mayor burst into laughter. "There's no need to explain. In your age, this city will have become a treasure trove. So you're here to hunt for treasures, aren't you?"

Han Fei instantly swallowed. This man was really horrifying! He had inferred Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan's purpose here from a few simple words, and he accepted the fact that they were from the future very quickly without much shock! "I didn't know that I would have to entrust the essence of this city to two young treasure hunters." After that, the mayor looked at Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan and said, "There are many treasures in this city. I don't know whether it's a coincidence or it's fate that you come at the day of this city's destruction. Is this really destiny?" As he talked, a wriggling beast came close from the sky and spewed out icy flames, ruining a huge area in one second.

In the next second, the mayor snapped his finger, and a water-made sword was launched. It passed a hundred kilometers in the blink of an eye and expanded into a huge sword.

That creature, which might be a dragon, spurted out a brilliant pearl from its mouth, trying to resist the sword.

But after only one moment, the pearl was broken, and the enormous body of the dragon was annihilated, without even leaving a scale.

Han Fei nearly peeped his pants. This man seems too strong!

As if he had just done something trivial, the mayor looked back at Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan and said, “If it’s destiny, just come with me!”

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were both excited. Just now, the mayor had said that there were treasures in this city, and the treasures were the essence of the city. Han Fei could hardly imagine what treasures could comprise the essence of the city after witnessing how powerful the mayor was just now.

Chapter 420 The Chaotic Original Water

The mayor waved his hand, and Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan suddenly found themselves inside a cave.

This was a cave about a thousand square meters, no different from other caves, except that there was a jade ritual table at the center of the cave.

On the table, two watery pillars of light three meters in diameter connected the ceiling and the floor of the cave.

From the pillars, blue, thread-like light was emitting and floating in the cave, illuminating the whole cave and making it dreamy. Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were quite amazed. Actually, they didn’t sense anything inside the two pillars of light, which were supposed to be empty. With his hands on his back, the mayor said casually, “Here are two drops of Chaotic Original Water. It’s safe to say that the disasters in my city are related to them too. However, I’m the only one in the whole city that can borrow the power from one drop of the water. Nobody can use the second drop. If you are destined to come here, you have a try!” Han Fei asked in surprise, “Chaotic Original Water? What’s that?” The mayor slightly shook his head. “I don’t know! Nobody knows where the Chaotic Original Water is from, and every drop of Chaotic Original Water has a different purpose. I only know the usage of one drop and can manage to borrow its power. As for the other drop, someone luckier has to figure it out.”

Han Fei did not even dare to breathe aloud at this moment. How strong was the mayor of the city? Han Fei was totally awed by the mayor’s casual attack just now.

However, the mayor was so strong because he borrowed the power of this Chaotic Original Water. Then how precious must the treasure be?

Xia Xiaochan asked in confusion, “What if we’re not lucky?”

The mayor chuckled. “These are the only treasures in my city that are worth passing on. I think only they can take you back.”

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were both serious. There were millions of people in this city. If none of them could make use of the water, could Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan?

After observing it for a long time, Han Fei finally asked, "How can we try it?" The mayor replied, "Just go into it. It all depends on your luck." Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan looked at each other. They'd be lying if they said that they weren't nervous. They had never seen a treasure as important as this one in their whole life.

Looking at his wrist, Han Fei said to himself, Master Calabash, it's all up to you whether or not I can make it this time!

Han Fei knew himself very well. Different from Xia Xiaochan, who had an unusual spiritual heritage and other deeply-hidden secrets, he would've only been an ordinary person with his spiritual heritage and aptitude if he didn't have the Demon Purification Pot.

Han Fei said, "Let's go."

"Wait a moment."

The mayor suddenly snatched Han Fei's shoulder. Before Han Fei could react, he had already grabbed the Hexagon Starfish. "Interesting. A Hexagon Starfish. That's rare. However, it cannot go in." As he talked, the mayor casually threw Mr. Hexagon Starfish to the ground. Mr. Hexagon Starfish was trembling hard and did not have the courage to open its eyes. It had failed to escape the mayor's senses even though it had deployed multiple Stealth Arrays.

Han Fei said, "Mr. Hexagon Starfish, wait for me outside."

Then, Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan walked to the ritual table at the center in silence.

On the ritual table, Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan each stood before a blue pillar of light. They looked at each other and stepped in simultaneously. Not meeting any resistance, Han Fei felt that he had just entered a common pillar of water, except that the water here was smoother and clearer than regular seawater.

Outside.

Outside, the mayor clenched his fists on his back. Was it really a coincidence that he met these two young people on the day of the city's destruction? Could they really inherit the two drops of Chaotic Original Water? Inside the Chaotic Original Water, Han Fei closed his eyes and perceived a moment. A moment later, he opened his eyes and looked up. "Huh? Nothing is happening?" Han Fei frowned. Though the water seemed different from seawater or fresh water, he didn't sense anything special about it.

It only reminded Han Fei of the fresh water in the Mirror of the Sky in the Misty Salty Swamp... They were both pure and flawless, but apart from that, nothing special. Han Fei turned to Xia Xiaochan, only to see that Xia Xiaochan was circling inside the pillar. She then looked back at Han Fei. She didn't seem to have any reaction either.

When Han Fei was about to extend his arms, he was suddenly pulled by an invisible force, and he appeared out of the water pillar.

After that, Xia Xiaochan was ejected too in two seconds.

“Well...”

The mayor heaved a sigh. “It still doesn’t work?” Xia Xiaochan said, “Let’s swap and have another try.”

Han Fei was intrigued. That’s right! Didn’t he say that every drop of Chaotic Original Water was different? It might work if they swapped! Therefore, under the mayor’s watch, they each entered the other blue pillar of light. The mayor’s eyes were glittering. It was the last chance! His face seemed slightly red. After Han Fei entered the pillar, he hadn’t felt anything yet, when he saw that the pillar where Xia Xiaochan was simply disappeared. “Great!”

The mayor roared and clenched his fists in excitement while he stared at Xia Xiaochan. He had lost all his hope, but the pleasant surprise came unexpectedly. Han Fei was shocked too. There was a reaction on her side already?

He saw that a water current was rolling on Xia Xiaochan’s body from left to right and from top to bottom, until it sank into her in the end.

Han Fei even saw that Xia Xiaochan was confused. She turned around and fumbled around, as if she was trying to find out where the Chaotic Original Water was...

However, after searching for a while, Xia Xiaochan immediately turned her eyes to Han Fei.

The mayor was staring at Han Fei too. Xia Xiaochan had succeeded. What about Han Fei?

Han Fei was rather stunned and nervous himself.

“Master Calabash, I’m counting on you now! Please help me! It’s time to collect such a great treasure!”

There was no telling whether Han Fei’s prayer worked, or if the Demon Purification Pot had sensed it, but Han Fei sensed that the pillar trembled.

Yes, it trembled. During that moment, Han Fei felt that the Chaotic Original Water was alive. He sensed that a life was throbbing! Because of the tremble, the picture before Han Fei’s eyes changed. After a trance, Han Fei found himself on a boundless ocean when he opened his eyes. Han Fei looked around hurriedly. Where the hell am I now?

Suddenly, Han Fei felt that his feet were painful. He looked at the waves below his feet, only to see that the waves were made of blades instead of water.

Han Fei felt that his blood was freezing. The ocean below his feet seemed to be made of infinite watery blades, which were rolling and surging like tides. When Han Fei blinked his eyes, the dense blades were gone, and the waves were just regular waves. The blades were nowhere to be seen.

“Shoot. What’s going on?”

But when he raised his hand, a tide was lifted on the ocean. He was immediately stunned. Is this ocean under my control? Han Fei raised his other hand. As he expected, another tide rose on the ocean. When Han Fei put down his hands, the lifted tides became regular waves again.

“Hiss!”

Han Fei swallowed. He tried raising one hand and waving it. Then, he saw blades of water emerging in the lifted tide and darting into the ocean not far away. Han Fei tried spinning his arm, and the waves were rolling in circles and curves in midair too.

Inside those caves, countless watery blades were spinning so fast and densely that Han Fei was shocked. When Han Fei put his hands down and lowered his head, he saw something floating at him from the bottom of the ocean. In the blink of an eye, Han Fei sensed that something was shot into his forehead. Instantly, he was woken up with cold sweat all over his body. "Pheww!"

After Han Fei woke up, he found that the mayor was holding a light shield with one hand. Xia Xiaochan was standing next to the mayor, and Mr. Hexagon Starfish was clinging to her.

Han Fei looked around in confusion, only to see that the ritual table he was on had been ruined, and that blade marks were everywhere on the wall in the cave.

The mayor's eyes were shining. He laughed aloud when Han Fei woke up.

"Haha... Hahahaha..."

The mayor laughed so wildly that the rocks were falling and a strong wind was blowing.

"My city deserves this! Whoever owes us will pay their debt sooner or later!"
