

Chapter 421 Return

The mayor's calmness was gone. He had suddenly turned crazy, and there was no telling what he was muttering. Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were confused. They found the mayor dreadful and pitiful at this moment.

As for Mr. Hexagon Starfish, it never dared to open its eyes since it saw the mayor, and it had been acting as if it were a pendant.

Looking at Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan in comfort, the mayor said, "Nature has its own mysteries. My city has been punished for two hundred years for stealing fortunes. So, this is how it will end."

After that, the mayor withdrew his smile and looked at Han Fei. "Your drop of Chaotic Original Water isn't as good as hers. However, it's still a great treasure."

Han Fei looked around at the destruction that he had caused. He asked, "This is not good enough?"

The mayor grinned and said, "I call your drop of Chaotic Original Water the Infinity Water. It can turn water into weapons. Of course, the weapons can't be higher than your own levels... This Infinity Water was the Chaotic Original Water that I borrowed power from, but I could never take it."

After that, the mayor turned to Xia Xiaochan. "Can you release it?" Blinking her eyes, Xia Xiaochan asked, "How do I release it?"

The mayor said, "With your mind, like how you release spiritual weapons." Xia Xiaochan opened her hands, and a stream of clear water was gathering in her palm.

Staring at it for a long time, the mayor suddenly remarked, "Is it the Metamorphosis Water?" The mayor said, "Try to imagine that it's you..." Xia Xiaochan was slightly stunned. Then, Han Fei saw that the water was growing large and assuming the shape of a human being on the ground. After only a few seconds, an identical Xia Xiaochan emerged. Han Fei was shocked. Her hairstyle, her clothes, her height, her body figure, and even Mr. Hexagon Starfish that was hanging on her leg had been reflected vividly. That was really hard to believe! The mayor, however, put on a smile. "That explains a lot. No wonder I've never been able to borrow its power."

Suddenly, the mayor gazed at Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan with confusion and relief. In the end, he simply said casually, "The Chaotic Original Water is not as simple as it looks. Maybe you can find it out later, but I won't be there to witness it."

Xia Xiaochan was rather startled by herself. What the hell? An identical copy of herself? Han Fei asked in shock, "Is the duplication capable of fighting?" The mayor slightly shook his head. "Maybe, if you share some of your spiritual power with it. If my guess is correct, this drop of Chaotic Original Water is known as Metamorphosis Water. It can transform into anything." Xia Xiaochan asked, "Metamorphosis Water?" The mayor said, "Battle suits, weapons, or living creatures, it can be transformed into anything by you. I didn't know that it was Metamorphosis Water. And I can't appreciate the potential it can have..."

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were both stunned by what the mayor said. A drop of Infinity Water contained infinite techniques, and a drop of Metamorphosis Water could transform into anything? It did sound amazing Han Fei couldn't help but ask, "Senior, what techniques does the Infinity Water boast?" The mayor said with a smile, "That's something that you should find out. However, you are too weak and can only use the fundamental power of the water. You might learn more later."

Maybe Han Fei was too shortsighted, but he didn't think that the two drops of water were worth a city. Frowning, Han Fei asked, "Senior, did your city fall because of the two drops of water?" The mayor snorted and asked, "You don't think they're worth it?" Before Han Fei replied, the mayor continued, "You don't know the value of the Chaotic Original Water yet. I would've exchanged it even if I had two cities and that were doomed." Han Fei swallowed. Those were human lives! And the water was just a treasure...

The mayor suddenly looked at Han Fei. "The destruction of my city is inevitable... However, since you have acquired the best treasures of my city, you must promise me something!" As he spoke, arcane runes rose from the mayor's feet and flooded into Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan crazily. Both of them were greatly shocked. Those black runes did not look like anything good... However, they couldn't move at all. Their bodies seemed to be frozen. Xia Xiaochan couldn't flash, either. "Don't panic. It's not anything that will control you or contract you. In the future, when the runes emerge from you, remember to rebuild my city above the clouds..."

Han Fei gritted his teeth. "What if we fail?"

The mayor laughed. "You won't! Or you will be haunted by demons in your heart! Now that I'm giving the Chaotic Original Water to you, you will have to return the favor sooner or later." "Hum..."

When the mayor waved his hand again, Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan had reappeared on the roof that they had been standing on. However, different from when they left, four looming tides were pushing at the city from four directions, trying to drown the whole city. Han Fei saw almost ten monolithic shadows in the tides. He didn't know what they were, but they couldn't be weaklings considering how huge their shadows were... The mayor raised his head and looked at the sun. "If you two are really chosen by fate, this will probably be your only opportunity to go away..." Han Fei was horrified when faced with the tides that had risen to the sky! It almost felt like the end of the world... Han Fei didn't know which floating island could possibly resist any of the tides. All of a sudden, the mayor grabbed Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan and threw them to the only breach in the sky. "Remember, my name is Li Huang. Li Huang of the Heavenly Desolation City. My name shall return to the Divine Palace when the Heavenly Desolation City is rebuilt." Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan soared into the high sky as if they were on a rocket. Han Fei fused with Little Gold quickly and shouted at Xia Xiaochan, "Come here!"

Xia Xiaochan flashed and grabbed Han Fei's arm, before she exclaimed, "Look!" At this moment, Little Gold's wings were leaving a trail of fire. They were so fast that even the air had been torn apart. They saw that, down below, Li Huang stepped on the royal fortress and collapsed it. Then, he stood in the void proudly. "My wish has been fulfilled. There's no enemy that I'm scared of anymore... Hahaha... My sword can kill monsters, warriors, and all the sea demons in this boundless ocean..."

The sky was wreathed by the giant tides that soared thousands of meters high. At this moment, Han Fei couldn't see Li Huang clearly anymore. The only thing that he could see was his sword aura that was sent rippling out. Those sword aura was glowing!

For a moment, the whole Heavenly Desolation City was covered by the sword aura.

Han Fei had sickness and shortness of breath even though he was high in the sky.

“Pu!!

Xia Xiaochan was not as sturdy as Han Fei. She vomited blood.

BAM! They were ascending so fast that they dashed through the overwhelming tides like rushing swordfish. Han Fei saw a lot of sea creatures cruising in the water. Far away, a man-fish seemed to have noticed him too.

But everything was fleeting. Before Han Fei could observe them more carefully, he had sensed the light from above.

BAM!

The surface of the ocean exploded.

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan broke out of the water and saw the sunset. Han Fei immediately gasped. “Shoot. This is not the Undersea City. Are we not out yet?”

Xia Xiaochan suddenly flashed and left him. Han Fei turned around quickly, only to see that Xia Xiaochan was moving on the sea as a shadow.

On a boat, five advanced Dangling Fishers were staring at him, shocked. They all exclaimed, “Han Fei! It’s Han Fei!” Instantly, Han Fei grinned. “We’re out! Is this the level-three fishery?” “Not good. Xia Xiaochan is here too. Let’s run!” The five advanced Dangling Fishers were almost crying. Why are we so lucky? We were about to leave! How could we have run into those two horrifying people? In the sky, Han Fei took a turn and drew the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Bow, shooting out arrows of spiritual energy. Xia Xiaochan was even faster. She had killed one after a flash. Now that she performed the Thousand Strike Technique, Han Fei didn’t have to do anything, and all the five enemies could barely resist the blades from all directions.

BAM!

Someone detonated himself, and two dove into the sea. The last two were about to run, when they were tied up by two chains, and two daggers were stuck to their neck before they could jump into the sea. Seeing that Xia Xiaochan intended to chase the runners, Han Fei shook his head. “That’s unnecessary. Just let them go! They can inform other people that we’re out.” Xia Xiaochan said, “Those people are really annoying! They chased me for a long time.”

Han Fei said with a smile, “We’ll chase them as annoyingly later.” Xia Xiaochan mumbled, “I want to have a hotpot. The most delicious one.”

Han Fei said, “Just one moment.”

Then, Han Fei looked at the two survivors and said, “Hello! It’s nice to meet you. I’m going to ask a few questions, and you can go if you answer them satisfactorily.” The two men nodded quickly, trembling, with sweat all over their heads. Han Fei grinned and said, “Tell me, what happened in the Undersea City recently?”

Chapter 422 Hey! Don’t Attack Yet!

How did they return to the surface of the sea? Han Fei wasn't very clear. But it really felt great to return to the level-three fishery!

Han Fei casually sat down on the top of the boat and listened to the captives' description of recent events.

"It is said that the Undersea City was plagued by poisons the day when you and Yang Huan went on a killing spree. Hundreds of experts were killed. Then, many people escaped in a flurry and disseminated the news. It was eight days ago."

"Eight days?"

Astonished, Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan looked at each other. They had only spent one day in the Heavenly Desolation City. How had eight days passed?

Han Fei then asked, "What about the four entrances to the Undersea City?"

The captives looked at each other and smiled bitterly. "They're all crowded. Every gate is surrounded by thousands of people."

"Heh! They certainly do not want us to get away, do they?"

Han Fei's eyes were cold. That was outrageous! Tens of thousands of people were here just to block him?

The two captives looked at Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan in fright, wondering how exactly they got out of the Undersea City... Didn't it only have four gates? How did they escape so many people's attention and come out?

Suddenly, Xia Xiaochan raised her dagger and asked, "How could so many people have been gathered in only eight days?"

One of the captives said with a bitter smile, "Because a dragon boat is here."

Han Fei's face immediately changed. "A dragon boat is here? Where is it?"

Han Fei was quite upset. He really hated dragon boats. All his disasters had originated from a dragon boat.

"The dragon boat is about twenty thousand kilometers from here... However, some people would rather not wait, so they came in advance."

Han Fei's face slightly changed. "Where is the dragon boat from? The Seaborne Prairie?"

"Huh?"

Both of the two captives were stunned by the question. They shook their head and said, "No. It seems to be from the Sea Entrance Stairs."

Xia Xiaochan suddenly asked Han Fei, "Are we going to board a dragon boat? I haven't visited one yet!"

Han Fei peeped at Xia Xiaochan weirdly. "Forget it! Do you want to get yourself killed? It's time to slip away..."

Xia Xiaochan asked, "Where to? Are we going to the Sea Entrance Stairs?" Han Fei scoffed, "Of course not! The Sea Entrance Stairs is too dangerous. We're going to the Thousand Smoke Valley. I'm told that Le Renkuang was there." Then, Han Fei extended his hand and said, "Give me your Sea Swallowing Seashells and get the hell out of here."

The two advanced Dangling Fishers were almost crying now that they were losing their Sea Swallowing Seashells. However, they could only reluctantly submit their Sea Swallowing Seashells, while worrying that Han Fei might kill them afterward.

But out of their expectation, Han Fei kicked them into the sea after obtaining the Sea Swallowing Seashells.

Then, Han Fei waved his hand, and the red awesome Wind God Boat appeared on the sea.

"Ah!"

Xia Xiaochan was so shocked that her eyes almost popped out.

She exclaimed, "What a beautiful boat! Where did you get it? Did you rob someone? I want one too..."

Han Fei said gloomily, "Just drop it! I was almost killed in order to get this boat... Come on, let's go to the Thousand Smoke Valley."

Xia Xiaochan had flashed into the Wind God Boat without Han Fei's instruction. Curiously, she touched and tapped everything she saw. She even rolled on the windshield in front of the boat.

"Hey, hey, hey. Enough fun. It's time to go..."

Hum...

A huge pit was left on the sea when the boat took off. The water nearby was pushed a thousand meters away. After the boat soared into the sky, it left sonic explosion ripples in the splendid afterglow.

On the surface of the ocean...

After the Wind God Boat left, two heads craned out.

"Gudu... What a fast boat!"

"Hurry! Let's go back to the dragon boat! We're going to be rich!"

The other man was overjoyed too. "That's right! Let's go back to the dragon boat! The intelligence that Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan have escaped will be worth a lot of money, and it's even more valuable that they're going to the Thousand Smoke Valley. I don't know why they didn't kill us..."

At this moment, while clinging to the boat, Xia Xiaochan shrieked, "It's too fast! Too fast! Slow down!"

Han Fei simply said cockily, "Is it fast? I'm not feeling anything."

In the raging wind, Xia Xiaochan shouted, "How was my acting just now?"

Han Fei raised his thumb. "Very good. The intelligence that we're going to the Thousand Smoke Valley is definitely worth their lives."

One day passed.

On the way to the Sea Entrance Stairs on the sea.

Xia Xiaochan was preparing a hotpot on a plain-looking boat. She was complaining at this moment, 'You do it... Mine is not delicious as yours.'

Han Fei said, 'You wash up the lobsters first and get a few crabs for us. We want the crab oil.'

Xia Xiaochan leaned her head close and saw that Han Fei was working on a jade slip. She was lost for words. 'What are you doing?'

A minute later, Han Fei threw the jade slip to Xia Xiaochan and said, 'Okay! You will be mocked if you can't cook as a girl...'

Xia Xiaochan snorted. 'Why should I cook when you can do that for me? My food is not as delicious as yours anyway.' As she spoke, Xia Xiaochan peeped at the jade slip and exclaimed, 'The Thousand Face Technique? It's a demon-level divine-quality art for disguise. Where did you find it?'

Han Fei chuckled. 'That's a long story that I'll tell you later. Learn it now. We're the targets for the whole level-three fishery right now. We can't possibly approach the Sea Entrance Stairs with our current faces.'

Delightedly, Xia Xiaochan entered the cabin with the Thousand Face Technique.

Han Fei was in a good mood. This was probably the most enjoyable day since he came to the level-three fishery! He cooked lobsters in a pot and took out the meat, before he covered the meat with crab oil and roe. Fragrance was already spreading out.

In another wok, a dozen seasonings were being fried and had been turned into a pulp. There was also a sour smell in the air.

'Well, well. Infinity Water. Infinity Water. I'm a man with a great treasure now. I'm no longer a Mr. Nobody...'

At night, three moons rose in the sky, spraying brilliant moonlight on the sea. With the whirling breeze whirling and the blowing tides, the sea was even more magnificent than usual. Now and then, chains would be launched, before they returned with fish or broken shells.

The Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp was definitely the best watcher during the night.

Mr. Hexagon Starfish had already shrunk into a ball. It was holding a tank of liquor with its six tentacles that were greasy with the sauce that Han Fei just made. Han Fei kicked it to the head of the boat and said, 'That's too outrageous! I've never seen a starfish that drinks liquor and eats meat. What else do you not do?'

The Hexagon Starfish's big eyes were hazy. 'You don't understand the sorrow of the starfish...'

Han Fei scoffed, 'You're sad? Could you have lived such a thrilling life without me?'

The Hexagon Starfish almost turned into a small starfish and hid in the tank of liquor. It did not want to talk to Han Fei at all at this moment. This human being was too horrifying! There were too many times that it felt it would have a heart attack!

It didn't get any treasures or glittering stones, and it was not allowed to have some meat?

"Han Fei, come here."

Han Fei dashed to the deck, only to jump to his feet. "Hey! Which monster are you! Change back to your original look right now!" "Shua..."

A pair of daggers was stuck to Han Fei's belly. "Come again?"

Raising his head, Han Fei looked at the sky and said, "Can't you be more natural? Why do you have to change into Mrs. Wenren?"

Xia Xiaochan said angrily, "What about Mrs. Wenren? Is Mrs. Wenren not pretty?"

Han Fei was lost for words. "Of course she is... But have you considered my feelings? If you turn into Mrs. Wenren, I can't possibly kiss you!" "Go away! I won't let you kiss me anymore. I'll turn into Xiaobai." Han Fei hurried to stop her. "Wait, don't! That would be even more preposterous. Do you really want me to kiss Luo Xiaobai?"

Xia Xiaochan thought for a moment and tilted her head. "Then forget it. Who do you want me to turn into?"

Han Fei said solemnly, "First of all, we want to blend in as a regular guy and a regular girl. Since we're so strong, we have to give exceptional performances! Therefore, we have to give ourselves nicknames..."

Xia Xiaochan silently raised her daggers. "Like 'Thug Legend'?" Han Fei said solemnly, "That's not good enough... I've thought of many options. You can choose one."

Xia Xiaochan smiled weirdly and pulled Han Fei. "Sit down and let's talk slowly."

Han Fei: "???"

"Cough, cough..."

Han Fei peeped at Xia Xiaochan and asked, "What do you think of Black Wind Spooks? Two shadows in a dark night in the sea... Hey! Don't attack me yet! I have other options..."

Chapter 423 Black and White Ghosts

Gululu...

The Hexagon Starfish had never drunk any alcohol before. It was the first time that it had dinner with Han Fei and got in touch with alcohol.

The Hexagon Starfish fell in love with alcohol almost right after the first mouthful.

At this moment, while holding the bottle of liquor, it stared at Han Fei who was hopping nonstop under the poking, frightened. It thought that Han Fei was horrifying enough, but this Xia Xiaochan seemed even more dreadful than him!

However, it rolled its big eyes for a long time but still failed to understand why human beings liked to keep their heads together.

BAM!

Lying on the ground, Han Fei shouted, "Xia Xiaochan, that's too much! Stop! I have many more creative ideas. Listen to me first!" "Two Hotpot Deities."

"Two Dagger Warriors."

"Two Demons in the Sea."

"Two Treasure Hunters."

"Two Envoys of the Nether World."

"Two Villains."

"Two Wonders."

Clang, Clang, Clang... Clang, Clang, Clang... "Black and White Ghosts... Stop! You'll have to choose one!"

"Huh?"

Suddenly, Xia Xiaochan squatted and asked, "Black and White Ghosts? That's a good name."

She then declared, "It's official then. We'll go by Black and White Ghosts!"

Han Fei quickly rose back to his feet. "Are you sure?"

Xia Xiaochan nodded. "Yes, I'm sure."

Han Fei said, "Okay, don't regret it! Here, I'll draw a picture for you. You're truly wise! Black and White Ghosts are too unique. If we dress up like them, nobody will possibly realize who we actually are."

One hour passed. The Hexagon Starfish watched two idiots, one in black and the other in white, both wearing high hats, staring at each other.

Han Fei repositioned Xia Xiaochan's hat and said solemnly, "From today on, you will be Xie Bi'an, and I will be Fan Wujiu. You are a soul warrior, and I'm a cook!"

Xia Xiaochan immediately pulled her hat aside. "I don't want to be called Xie Bilan. That's clearly a boy's name. My name will be Xie Xiaochan."

Han Fei said, "Are you silly? Do you want everybody to guess that your actual name is Xia Xiaochan? Can you be more obvious?"

Xia Xiaochan shook her head. "Okay, I'll be Xie Xiaoan then. Also... Your name is too ominous. Wujiu, meaning helpless, is too pitiful. Since you are a cook, you will be Fan Datong, meaning food bucket!"

Han Fei was stunned. "Hey. That's too much! Are you calling me a food bucket, a lazy person who sits around and eats all day?"

Xia Xiaochan extended her hand and pulled Han Fei's hat aside too. "Don't think that way. You are a cook anyway, and you should be named like a cook. Is there a better name for you than Datong?"

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei said gloomily, "Can we be more serious? At least, straighten your hat, okay?"

Xia Xiaochan said, "It's more comfortable this way."

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei had never revealed his identity as a cook in the level-three fishery, except for the one time in the restaurant on the dragon boat. But everybody was having food back then, and he wasn't the only person who added seasonings to the pot.

More importantly, Han Fei's identity as a soul warrior and as a spirit gatherer had been too well-known. But those who had seen Han Fei's Blood Drinking Knife were all dead, so he could use that...

As for Xia Xiaochan, she never used daggers at the beginning, so she could use rods now.

Searching the numerous Sea Swallowing Seashells and finding the only high-quality spiritual rod, Han Fei gave it to Xia Xiaochan and said, "Don't use Shadow Kill anymore. Few people can defeat you in a head-on clash. Besides, since we are a team, we should always take action together as a team."

Xia Xiaochan was confused. "Do we have to go to the Sea Entrance Stairs?"

Han Fei nodded. "We know too little about the Abyssal Chasm, and we're only pretending to go to the Thousand Smoke Valley. As for the Sea Entrance Stairs and the Cave of Death, they've been explored by us. So, the Sea Entrance Stairs is the only option now. The level-three fishery is a place where geniuses gather anyway, and most of them are near the famous treasure troves. We will not raise suspicion if we go there in our new disguises..."

Xia Xiaochan asked, "Are we not going to look for Zhang Xuanyu and the rest of them?"

Han Fei said, "I bought Zhang Xuanyu's intelligence before, but it's outdated. How can we look for him in this vast sea? As for Le Renkuang and Luo Xiaobai, I never received any information on them. I suspect that they're still exploring some place..."

Xia Xiaochan took out a Wanted List and asked, "Why are you the third place and I'm the 32rd?"

Han Fei closed the list and said, "That's fine. We have plenty of opportunities to get you into the top three too. Chances are that you may even become the first place..."

Han Fei's mouth was about to reach her face, but Xia Xiaochan pushed it away with her fist. "No. You can't kiss me unless I want to be kissed."

Han Fei asked, "Then do you want to be kissed now?"

Xia Xiaochan said, "No, I don't."

After a minute, he asked again, "What about now?"

BAM!

Han Fei was kissed and fell on the ground. Lost for words, he sighed. Women are really weird and complicated creatures...

The next day after Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan left, something big happened in the Undersea City.

At first, rumor had it that Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan had escaped and crushed several advanced Dangling Fishers.

But nobody believed it back then. When all the four gates of the Undersea City were blocked, even a crab that came from inside would be opened and examined. It was impossible to imagine that two people could have slipped away...

So, the news did not raise any attention but was considered a rumor. Nobody believed that Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were leaving for the Thousand Smoke Valley...

However, at the next dawn, waterspouts rose around the Undersea City and surged, followed by an earthquake. Then, everything was changing. Overwhelming tides were rising... Then, witnessed by countless people, the Undersea City cracked and collapsed!

In the meantime, many people ran out of the Undersea City, but they were all blocked by the people at the gates. Neither the advanced Dangling Fishers nor the peak-level Dangling Fishers escaped.

Eventually, nobody found Han Fei or Xia Xiaochan.

After a day, the Undersea City completely exploded in a deafening explosion. It was said that a black hole appeared in that area, absorbing countless people and resulting in numerous casualties.

The nearest dragon boat immediately changed its course and sailed away from the area.

After thousands of victims ran to the dragon boat, all kinds of rumors were starting.

Someone said that Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan acquired unparalleled treasures, which led to the destruction of the seal in the Undersea City.

Of course, it was the simplest and crudest version that could be made up easily. So, it was not very trustworthy.

Not many people believed that Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were powerful enough to destroy a huge city.

Then, another rumor stated that Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan triggered a certain defensive mechanism in the Undersea City and died with the city.

Some other people claimed that an unknown creature emerged from the Undersea City and caused the catastrophe.

According to all the theories, it was not clear whether or not Han Fei found Xia Xiaochan in the end, but it was agreed that he did something similar to what he had done in the Seaborne Prairie. At this moment, those who spoke most vehemently were the survivors who met Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan. They swore in the name of the Sea God every day on the dragon boat that they would die a miserable death if they were lying.

Eventually, they failed to sell their intelligence for money, but people were gradually convinced by them.

But the problem was, though they believed that Han Fei had probably left for the Thousand Smoke Valley, nobody followed him anymore.

This time, more than five thousand people had died in the Undersea City. Although most of them died in the uncanny explosion of the Undersea City, it was certainly Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan's fault because they wouldn't have been there if it weren't for Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan.

For that reason, the new Wanted List was issued. It was stated that Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan triggered a disaster maliciously and caused the death of countless people.

But why were those people in the Undersea City? The list was quite ambiguous about it and simply focused on the nefariousness of Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan.

When Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were going to the Sea Entrance Stairs, another big thing happened. It was said that, five thousand kilometers away from the Flowing Stone Pit in the level-three fishery, a fatty was chased by many people after acquiring a treasure.

Perhaps because he was pissed, the fatty opened his mouth and swallowed the chasers as well as their boat and their spiritual beasts. It was the most unusual news in the level-three fishery recently and caught a lot of attention.

Chapter 424 Black and White Maniacs

Eight days later. Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were sitting on the fishing boat eating hot pot. What was in the pot turned out to be a person who was about to be cooked.

Not far from the two of them, a young man was shivering, looking scared out of his pants.

"Please... Let me go. I'm not tasty!"

Han Fei held a brick in his left hand and sharpened a kitchen knife with his right hand. "Human flesh tastes chewier than seafood. Would you like to have a try?"

Xia Xiaochan was looking at the young man up and down and then said, "Fan Datong, isn't he a bit too old?"

Han Fei shrugged. "Oh? Is he old?"

The young man nodded hard. "Yes, yes, although I look young, I am almost 40 years old. You don't believe me? Look... How tough my flesh is..."

With that, the young man rolled up his sleeves and took a bite on his arm, leaving a row of teeth marks.

Han Fei said with sarcasm, "I can't believe a person would try eating himself! That's gross! Fuck off... Don't let me see you again. Next time I see you, I will draw out your bones and make soup."

After this guy ran away, Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan rolled with laughter...

Xia Xiaochan laughed so hard that her hat fell from her head. "How many times have we met people like him these past few days?" Han Fei clutched his stomach. "I don't know. Dozens? They think we can be easily bullied because we are only intermediate Dangling Fishers."

As they talked, the dummy in the hot pot turned into a mass of water and was taken into Xia Xiaochan's body.

In the pot, a large Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber was steaming hot.

Xia Xiaochan covered her red cheeks with both hands. "But isn't it too obvious? You and I are both intermediate Dangling Fishers, yet so powerful. Would anyone guess our real identities?"

Han Fei suggested, "Maybe you can make a breakthrough?"

Xia Xiaochan picked up a piece of sea cucumber and stuffed it into her mouth. "What about you? Would you like to make a breakthrough too?"

"I feel I still need to cultivate in seclusion for a period of time."

Xia Xiaochan: "Then do it! Anyway, it's still early from the one-year deadline." Han Fei scratched his head. "Wouldn't it be too fast for me to break through to an advanced Dangling Fisher now?"

Xia Xiaochan shook her head. "No, I found that Dangling Fishers vary greatly in strength. People in the same realm can be completely different in strength."

Han Fei pondered and shook his head. "Forget it. I'm not in a hurry. Our current strength and weapons are completely different from before. Besides, we have changed our faces. So, we don't have to force a breakthrough. For the strong, there is no difference between the intermediate and advanced levels."

Xia Xiaochan thought about it for a while. Yes, what he said seemed to be true. Most of the advanced Dangling Fishers nowadays were too weak, including peak-level Dangling Fishers.

Han Fei said with a smile, "We should frighten some people more and make a name as the Black and White Ghosts!"

Driving an ordinary fishing boat, Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan travelled very slowly. Along the way, the two of them played lovey-dovey, hugging and kissing; or just eating...

So after travelling for almost half a month and being robbed dozens of times, they were still a long way from the Steps into the Sea.

In the past half month, the one who was happiest was the Hexagon Starfish. Drinking a pot of wine every day, he was so happy! Usually, as soon as this guy woke up, he would be stuffed into a pot of wine by Han Fei. He didn't have two mouthfuls before he lost himself to drinking.

Then no starfish would disturb the two-person world of Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan.

Xia Xiaochan asked, "Where did you get this starfish? He is such a heavy drinker."

"Well, his capacity for alcohol is a bit poor, but he is very capable. Just let him drink by himself."

During this period of time, Han Fei had been practicing the 108 Spirit-Absorbing War Bodies Art. Although the effect of this technique was getting weaker and weaker, it could greatly enhance body flexibility. In fact, Han Fei was making breakthroughs so fast that he didn't have much time to stabilize his cultivation. This 108 Spirit-Absorbing War Bodies Art had greatly helped Han Fei solidify his realm.

Xia Xiaochan was getting pickier and pickier on food these days because Han Fei gave her a spiritual fruit every day. Therefore, this girl was very energetic every day, often went to the sea to catch fish, and also took Han Fei to sweep for spiritual fruits under the sea.

The two of them practiced quietly for more than half a month. The people who wanted to rob them along the way were nothing but a joke to them!

In the half a month, the strength of Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan had been soaring. Eating tons of spiritual fruits, it seemed that they could break through to become advanced Dangling Fishers at any time.

On this day, the breeze was gentle and the sun warm.

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan lay on the ordinary fishing boat, basking in the sun and holding hands.

Since Xia Xiaochan was proposed to by countless men in the Heavenly Desolate City, she seemed to be familiar with matters between men and women and no longer kept to herself as before.

Under Han Fei's repeated "attacks", she didn't resist him any longer.

Han Fei crossed his legs delightedly and thought to himself, Actually, this is not bad! In the future, I will go back to school with Xia Xiaochan, go to the Unknown Place and the Thousand Star City together, and rebuild the Heavenly Desolate City together... The path of cultivation will be quite pleasant! Then he realized that he had many things to do.

Han Fei tilted his head. "Do you think Luo Xiaobai will choose Zhang Xuanyu or Le Renkuang in the end?"
Xia Xiaochan: "???" "Why does she have to choose one of them?"

"Look, we still have a long way to go! We need to go to the Unknown place, the Thousand Star City, and the Heavenly Palace... But there are only five of us in our team, so something is bound to happen among the remaining three of them, right?"

Xia Xiaochan tilted her head. "Kuangkuang."

Han Fei curiously asked, "Why? Is Zhang Xuanyu not handsome enough?" Xia Xiaochan snorted. "Zhang Xuanyu is annoying. He always likes to play with other girls."

Han Fei: "..."

What she said was true. Zhang Xuanyu, who was fickle in love, didn't seem to match Luo Xiaobai, the little iceberg. However, he didn't think that Luo Xiaobai would choose Le Renkuang...

So, Han Fei was basking in the sun, thinking, Anyway, Xia Xiaochan is mine.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

Suddenly, the sky darkened and dozens of spiritual energy arrows suddenly fell from the sky.

Xia Xiaochan just wanted to flash away, but Han Fei stopped her. "Don't teleport. We are the Black and White Ghosts."

With that, a sharpening stone appeared in Han Fei's hand. As the whetstone turned, it immediately became a boulder, protecting them overhead.

BAM! BAM! BAM!

When all the arrows exploded, Han Fei took back the whetstone and looked up, only to see that five fishing boats fell from the sky. There were nearly 20 people on the fishing boats, who were staring coldly at Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan.

The Hexagon Starfish hung on Han Fei's lap with a swish, feeling that human beings were really terrifying. He'd better attach to Han Fei's body as a pendant. Anyway, he didn't think Han Fei would be easily killed by others.

The leader of the group of people, who was a young man, yelled, "Black and White thieves, today we are going to enforce justice on behalf of the heavens and kill you both."

Behind the young man, a girl scolded, "You two are most wicked, cooking and eating human beings. It is intolerable! Today is your day to die."

Han Fei glanced at her. "Gee, aren't you the old spinster we let go two days ago? Gosh! I let you go, but you came back to take revenge? Oh... I must eat you today."

The girl shrank her head in fright. "Brother, did you hear him? Did you hear him? That day, I saw them cooking people with my own eyes. They are just two lunatics!"

The young man swallowed. Since childhood, he had never heard of a cannibal. They had really opened his eyes.

A man with a beard shouted, "Look what they are wearing! They are certainly not good people! How can anyone wear black and white with such a high hat? We can't let them off."

The armorists in their team put down their armor boxes and said, "We must cut you into pieces today." At this moment, Han Fei said in a voice transmission to Xia Xiaochan, It is time for us to make a name for ourselves! But remember, we can only use ordinary combat skills. Xia Xiaochan responded, There are so many of them. I'm afraid I won't be able to beat them with ordinary combat skills! Han Fei pondered. Then leave them to me! Let's learn some other combat skills after driving them away. I have hundreds of Sea Swallowing Seashells, in which there are a lot of combat skills for us to learn.

On the opposite side, a manipulator had summoned a large number of green vines and seaweed.

However, Han Fei growled and suddenly shot out like lightning holding the Blood Drinking Knife and the sharpening stone. Xia Xiaochan, holding a stick, stood on one of Han Fei's shoulders. The two of them looked extremely weird.

To these dozens of people, the other party had only two people, yet they were rushing towards them?

"Kill!"

Han Fei gave a grim smile. "Majestic Mystic Spell."

This was the first time Han Fei used the Majestic Mystic Spell because he had no chance to use it before. When he was in the Heavenly Desolate City, he hadn't had such a life-threatening event.

Moreover, in the battle of the Heavenly Desolate City, those Inferior Man-Fish only fought whoever was strong, so Han Fei did not dare to use it. After all, there would always be someone stronger than him in that place! But now, this combat technique could be used!

He and Xia Xiaochan had too many restrictions. They could use neither their spiritual beasts nor their contractual spiritual beasts, and Master Hexagon could only serve as a mobile formation giver.

Han Fei shouted, "Haha! My food, die!"

Chapter 425 Void Breaking Technique

To be honest, Han Fei was a bit unaccustomed to not using the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers.

The whetstone in Han Fei's hand was actually just refined. Due to recent events, Han Fei had obtained a lot of spoils. He found a mid-quality spiritual weapon from those Sea Swallowing Seashells and then re-refined it in Forge the Universe to make it a high-quality spiritual weapon.

The whetstone and kitchen knife were simply a perfect match for their new travels.

At this moment, Han Fei rushed into the group of people. There was no peak-level Dangling Fisher among them.

This was the first time Han Fei used the Majestic Mystic Spell, so he was not quite experienced with it yet. After being shot dozens of times and slashed dozens of times, he finally knocked over one of their fishing boats.

As the Blood Drinking Knife turned, the entire fishing boat was cut in half by Han Fei. Those people were shocked and they raised their weapons to block him. However, with a single slash, he shattered dozens of spiritual weapons and clattering sounds were heard one after another.

One of those people failed to respond quickly enough and was cut into two pieces along with his rod.

A dozen people were seriously injured in just one blow. Many people's arms were chopped off by Han Fei and some were about to run away in horror.

"Run!" someone suddenly shouted. Now they were not in the mood for enforcing justice on behalf of the heavens! With such a simple blow, he seriously injured most of them! What if he attacked again?

Han Fei held the whetstone in one hand and the Blood Drinking Knife in the other, laughing out loud.

"We, the Black and White Ghosts, will take your lives today! Now tremble under our feet..."

The young man picked up his sister and jumped into the sea. He felt like he had already peed.

"Crazy. The world is crazy."

Just as Han Fei opened his arms and posed to the sky, everyone escaped. These people just wished they could have eight legs so as to escape from the lunatic, Han Fei.

Xia Xiaochan was also dumbfounded. At this moment, she was still standing on Han Fei's shoulder! As soon as she raised the stick in her hand, she saw the blade flash, and then the enemy was defeated?!

What the hell happened?!

She knew Han Fei was strong, but never expected him to be this strong! Even she might still be seriously injured by that slash just now.

And when Han Fei made the cut, she could feel that he didn't use all his strength. Otherwise, the dozen or so people would have been all dead now.

Han Fei still kept that pose and glanced at Xia Xiaochan. "Are they all gone?" "Gulp!"

Xia Xiaochan lowered her head, looked at Han Fei, and suddenly screamed, "Gosh! How have you suddenly become so powerful?"

Han Fei signaled her to hush, before putting away the whetstone and Blood Drinking Knife, then he patted Xia Xiaochan's little feet. "Come down first."

Xia Xiaochan flashed to the fishing boat and then looked at Han Fei with her large watery eyes as if looking at an alien.

Xia Xiaochan shivered. "You just used a secret method, didn't you? It must be a secret method. What secret method can make you so strong suddenly? How much power did you use just now? 50%? You..." Listening to Xia Xiaochan blab, Han Fei was complacent.

Suddenly, Xia Xiaochan pulled his ears. "Come on, tell me... Where did you get such a powerful secret method? There isn't such a powerful secret method in the school library! And is there any side effect with your secret method? Are the side effects severe?"

"Hey hey! Let go, let go of my ear first..."

The two horsed around for a while, and then Han Fei lied to her that he obtained the secret method by accident.

When Han Fei said that this secret method could be used after he accumulated enough food, Xia Xiaochan's eyes widened. "Really? Are the side effects so small?" Han Fei rolled his eyes. "Can I lie to you? I accumulate energy by eating Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers, okay? Only high-energy foods can supplement energy faster... But, in the level-three fishery, there are too few marine creatures with extremely high energy such as Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers! If I eat ordinary foods, how much do I have to eat?"

Xia Xiaochan swallowed. "Then, if Kuangkuang uses this secret method..."

If Le Renkuang got this secret method, he would probably spend 11 hours a day eating... And use the one hour left for fighting.

After a pause, Xia Xiaochan said with shining eyes, "I want to learn it too."

Han Fei knew that Xia Xiaochan couldn't resist this temptation, so he said generously, "Girl, give me a smile, and I will teach you."

“Hee hee hee...”

Xia Xiaochan immediately gave him a fawning smile.

Han Fei said in an ostentatious manner, “Good, I like it! Now kiss me and I will teach you.”

Smack!

Han Fei grinned from ear to ear. When he got this Majestic Mystic Spell, he knew the other four would also want to learn it, especially Le Renkuang, he would never let go of this secret method.

And Zhang Xuanyu, he could even hug Han Fei’s legs and cry, begging him to teach him... As for Luo Xiaobai, well, she was like a fair lady and never ate too much, unlike Xia Xiaochan, who would eat like a horse when she got delicious food.

Han Fei narrowed his eyes, enjoying Xia Xiaochan’s ingratiating, grunting. “Ah, for some reason, I suddenly feel a little sore in my shoulders.”

After waiting for a while, Han Fei got no response from Xia Xiaochan, so he opened his eyes and looked up.

Xia Xiaochan was looking at him from above, grinning grimly. Suddenly, a pair of slim legs locked his neck.

“Master Han Fei, does it feel good to boss me around? Your shoulders are sore? What about your head...” “Hawk... Hawk...”

“Let go of my neck!”

Han Fei was lying on the deck, his neck was strangled by Xia Xiaochan, and his face flushed.

“I’ll teach you... I’ll teach you... Hawk, hawk...”

After a moment.

Han Fei complained helplessly, “Where are your manners? You’re a girl, OK?”

Xia Xiaochan was holding a jade slip right now and staring back at Han Fei. “Don’t bother me. Shut up.”

“I... &%...”

Han Fei was very angry. What a wretched girl! Why the hell do I take Xia Xiaochan as a cute little girl? Am I only in it for the pain?

In addition to the Majestic Mystic Spell, Han Fei also gave a bunch of combat skills for soul warriors to Xia Xiaochan. After all, Xia Xiaochan could no longer act as a hunter for some time to come. Therefore, she must learn some combat skills to temporarily pretend to be a soul warrior.

Xia Xiaochan went to cultivate in the sea and their journey was temporarily suspended.

At this time, Han Fei took out his fishing rod.

Since he deduced the Void Fishing Technique to level four, he hadn’t had time to fish, let alone practice the Void Breaking Technique.

Now he hadn't made a name for him and Xia Xiaochan as the Black and White Ghosts yet and was not in a hurry to rush to the Steps into the Sea. Since he had time, he should practice his fishing skills. He couldn't just spend all his time playing lovey-dovey with Xia Xiaochan...

Han Fei shuddered as he thought about it.

Xia Xiaochan liked this feeling at first because the experience was fresh and new... Then, as they kissed a lot, she was no longer tense all over like the first time.

Once, when Han Fei tried to do something to her, she almost chopped his hand off, which almost scared him out of his pants.

Different from the first three levels of the Void Fishing Technique, which were only fishing skills and hook skills, the Void Breaking Technique was... "Fuck... Thousand-mile fishing technique?"

S

Han Fei blinked. Level-four of the Void Fishing Technique was actually a Thousand Mile Fishing Technique! With this magical hook technique, he would be able to fish thousands of miles away just like Wen Renyu and Xiao Zhan.

"Although there are limitations in time and space... The technique can break the void and help you fish tens of thousands of miles away in a flash..." Han Fei recited the mantra, which suddenly popped up in his mind. Almost subconsciously, Han Fei cast the hook.

Han Fei saw the fishing hook flash in the air, and after it disappeared for about 0.01 seconds, it appeared deep underwater. This technique really worked!

In the next few days, Han Fei swung the hook frantically.

Just as they were traveling at tortoise speed, on a dragon boat near the Steps into the Sea, the news about the Black and White Ghosts had already spread.

If only one or two people were talking about the Black and White Ghosts, it didn't matter... But there were dozens of people talking about them! This was worth paying attention to.

At this moment.

In the hiring hall of the dragon boat.

A young woman said softly, "Three players looking for one more player. We need a hunter who is also a peak-level Dangling Fisher, to team up to hunt the Black and White Ghosts. Does anyone want to join?" In the crowd, a young man with two scars running through his face came over. "Hey! I want in."

Chapter 426 Make A Name

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan had just come out of a secret realm.

At this moment, the two of them were sitting in front of a large pot with a skinned sea snake stewed in it. The soup was boiling, bubbling, and the aroma overflowed, and even the Hexagon Starfish was waiting by the pot eagerly. Xia Xiaochan supported her chin with her hand in depression. "Why have most of the places marked on our map been explored?" Han Fei shrugged indifferently. "Isn't this normal? We are only about 50,000 kilometers away from the bustling Steps into the Sea, so it's normal that the secret realms along the way have been explored."

Xia Xiaochan poked at the sea snake with chopsticks in boredom to see if the meat was done. When she glimpsed at the Hexagon Starfish who was sticking to the wine jar, she poked it with her chopsticks. "You lazy starfish. Can I stew you too?"

The Hexagon Starfish: "???"

Swish!

The Hexagon Starfish hung on Han Fei's leg immediately, and his six big eyes were full of horror. "I am not tasty. The starfish has no meat. My body is now full of alcohol, not tasty at all."

The Hexagon Starfish was really scared of Xia Xiaochan. In this short period of tens of days, he had seen Han Fei being abused by this woman many times. Powerful as Han Fei was, he was still abused by her. How horrible this woman could be!

Xia Xiaochan sighed, "Humph... These secret realms are really boring! Let's hurry up to the Steps into the Sea?"

Han Fei was also poking at the snake meat with his chopsticks, and making sure it was done, he picked up a large piece of meat and put it in his mouth. "No hurry... Only after we become famous as the Black and White Ghosts will no one suspect us Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan."

Xia Xiaochan twisted her head. "We are already very famous! Recently, many fishing boats ran away from a distance as soon as they spotted us. They must have known us."

Han Fei shook his head. "That's different. We still need a big victory. For example, a few peak-level Dangling Fishers, a famous figure in the level-three fishery, or a descendant of a powerful family in the Thousand Star City... Only by winning against such a person can we be considered famous. Well, ideally, our ranking on the Wanted List will rise and then we'll be qualified to enter the Steps into the Sea!"

Xia Xiaochan sighed, took a large piece of snake meat and threw it into her bowl. "Are the Steps into the Sea really that dangerous?" Han Fei said with a smile, "The Steps into the Sea are very safe and almost everyone can go there. As long as you are in the area of the Steps into the Sea, you are safe. However, it is said that those who can really descend into the depths of the Steps into the Sea are all extremely strong. For example, those on the Wanted List, descendants of big families from the Thousand Star City, influential figures in the level-three fishery, Heavenly Talents in the towns... If we're not famous enough, how can we compete with these people?" As he said this, he suddenly picked up the unboiled sea snake head and smashed it into the night sky.

The next moment, the snake's tongue flew back. A fishing boat descended from the sky and there were three peak-level Dangling Fishers on it, which demonstrated the strength of the people who came this time. Han Fei glanced at them. "A soul warrior, an armorist, a spirit gatherer... Huh! Shouldn't there also be a hunter and a manipulator?"

Xia Xiaochan muttered, "Is this wave of people strong enough?"

Han Fei chuckled. "I think so."

Xia Xiaochan picked up her rod and looked around.

She and Han Fei were not fools. Since only three people appeared on the other side, there must be the two others nearby. With her hunter's instinct, she guessed that the opponent's hunter must be looking for an opportunity to assassinate her!

Since the strength of Han Fei had been known, Xia Xiaochan would always be the first target to be attacked. Besides, she was a girl so the opponent's hunter would naturally pick her first.

The leader of these people was an armorist. At this moment, his armor box was opened and soon surrounded by nine weapons. The Black Moon Sickle among them was exceptionally dazzling in the dark night.

"Recently, I heard that there were two people named the Black and White Ghosts near the Steps into the Sea. This must be you, right? With the strength of an intermediate Dangling Fisher, you can wipe out more than 20 people? You're quite strong!"

The armorist laughed loudly. His body was full of steel thorn armor, and there was a big tortoise shield on his chest to protect his vitals.

Beside him, a soul warrior was holding two scimitars and carrying two others behind him, looking quite cool.

This soul warrior stepped over from the ship, and the two scimitars in his hand were thrown out, spinning like two huge rollers, one attacking their upper bodies and the other attacking their lower bodies.

Immediately afterward, he pulled out the two scimitars on his back and rotated them in his hands. The huge blade light swept across the sea, like two vertical wave scimitars, rolling towards Han Fei.

Han Fei grinned. "What's the use of all these bells and whistles?"

Bang...

The whetstone came out.

Following Han Fei's heavy smash, the two scimitars bounced off, and Han Fei took a step back. When the two blades rolled over at him again, he swung the whetstone at them again and took a step back.

Seeing this scene, the opponents' eyes were all lit up. Since Han Fei took a step back, it meant that he couldn't resist them.

The soul warrior smiled. This guy had to retreat even in face of his tentative blow, which showed that Han Fei was not his match.

When this soul warrior got close, the nine sword shadows fell from the sky, carrying a shocking power that darted at Han Fei. Swish... Swish... Swish...

With the Blood Drinking Knife in his hand, Han Fei shouted, "You are no match for me!"

Clatter...

As soon as Han Fei shouted these words, the fishing boat under his feet was suddenly lifted up. An octopus tentacle tens of meters long suddenly rose up and snapped onto the boat.

At this critical moment, a strange figure suddenly appeared behind Xia Xiaochan.

Boom!

In the blink of an eye, Xia Xiaochan disappeared. She didn't flash but used the Roaming Technique.

"Majestic Mystic Spell."

Almost at the same time, Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan used their secret method. In an instant, their soaring momentum directly formed a powerful energy shock.

The armorist's expression changed drastically. "Not good, retreat."

However, it was too late. Han Fei waved the Blood Drinking Knife in his hand and the guy was only two or three meters away from him.

The soul warrior tried to block his slash with two scimitars and drove the other two to hack at Han Fei from behind.

However, Han Fei didn't even dodge them as he slashed at the soul warrior.

"You..."

Swoosh!

An octopus tentacle slapped Han Fei horizontally, intending to block his blow, which must have been from the manipulator.

As a ray of spiritual energy fell, a spiritual energy armor fell on the body of the soul warrior. This was a means from the spirit gatherer.

A tortoise shield rose in the air, also to stop Han Fei's attack.

Assisted by the other three, the soul warrior launched a spiritual energy protective cover on his body with a cold look, and at the same time, a crab phantom appeared in front of him, pinching at Han Fei.

Puff...

Crack!

Crack!

Puff...

But in the blink of an eye, the tentacle flew out, the tortoise shell burst into pieces, the spiritual energy armor and the spiritual energy protective cover shattered at the same time, and the crab phantom was cut into two pieces.

This scene stunned everyone. What the hell was this power? How could this slash be so powerful?

Unfortunately, Han Fei was only an intermediate Dangling Fisher after all. Even though his strength increased fivefold, he still failed to kill the soul warrior with this blow. After all, the latter still had two scimitars to protect his body.

However, even so, this soul warrior was still sent flying upside down by him, and the two scimitars in his hand broke directly.

He was terrified and wanted to retreat. However, the whetstone had turned into a large slab tens of meters tall and smashed at him abruptly.

Bang...

The sea vibrated and huge splashes emerged. Han Fei stepped on the seawater, withstood the power of the nine sword shadows, and slashed out again.

Puff...

Clang, clang, clang...

That soul warrior, when he was dying, showed a look of horror. He, a peak-level Dangling Fisher assisted by his companions, couldn't even withstand two blows of this guy?

Han Fei's body was also marked with nine scratches by the nine sword shadows, and there was blood seeping out of his skin.

The armorist on the opposite side was dumbfounded, and his expression changed drastically when he saw the soul warrior who was split into two pieces by the slash. Of course, in addition to Han Fei's offensive power, he was even more alarmed by Han Fei's defensive power. He knew the nine sword shadows very well! The one in the middle was a high-quality spiritual weapon, and the outer ones were eight mid-quality spiritual weapons. This nine-sword killer move was actually physically resisted by this guy?

At this moment, the worldview of this armorist collapsed. Is this guy really a ghost?

The opponent's spirit gatherer directly controlled the fishing boat to take off. "Withdraw!"

Han Fei looked up with a smile and suddenly said, "Master Hexagon, now it's your turn."

Swish, swish, swish...

Purple beams of light rose into the sky.

Chapter 427 Show No Mercy

Above the sky, the fishing boat started. Han Fei waved his hand remotely and said, "Welcome to come again!" With that, Han Fei turned around and jumped into the sea.

In fact, Han Fei let off the armorist and spirit gatherer intentionally. After all, they wanted to make a name as the Black and White Ghost combination!

However, he would not let go of the manipulator hiding under the water and the hunter on his ship.

These people were peak-level Dangling Fishers, and unlike those advanced Dangling Fishers, their words counted. It was enough to have the two people go back to spread the news.

Han Fei did not worry that Xia Xiaochan would not be able to defeat the hunter. Now that the armorer and the spirit gatherer had both ran away, the remaining two people were bound to die. Xia Xiaochan no longer had to pretend to be a soul warrior... Underwater, the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers all came out, frantically cutting the big octopus. However, suddenly the big octopus disappeared. It must have been taken back by its owner.

At this time, he saw a young woman suddenly flash and then hit the six-gate formation with a bang.

Han Fei looked at her with a smile. "Yo! You can't flash out? Wanna try again?" The woman was horrified and crushed another Flash Stone, only to flash to a place only 20 meters away from Han Fei. "What, what formation is this?"

Han Fei shrugged slightly and Nine Tails' nine-star chain had already shot out, so did the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers.

If Han Fei was just an ordinary intermediate Dangling Fisher, his Million Knife Art would not be so terrifyingly powerful. However, Han Fei at this moment had five times the combat power of an ordinary intermediate Dangling Fisher. The Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers rotated like a tide, and when they rolled out, they were even more powerful than the torrent of swords and knives. Besides, because their speed was too fast, everyone could only see a stretch of light.

Although the manipulator was already a peak-level Dangling Fisher, she was no match for Han Fei no matter her reaction speed or strength.

In face of the Million Knife Art, in a fluster, this manipulator could only block it with her contractual spiritual beast or even spiritual beast.

"Are you Han Fei... Please spare my life..."

Han Fei gave her an apologetic smile and tilted his head slightly. "Sorry, I can't let you tell others my real identity. It's you who wanted to kill me first, right?"

As Han Fei snapped his fingers, driven by the Million Knife Art, the daggers rolled over at her frantically. Now all Han Fei could see was the glints of his daggers.

At this time, Han Fei fully understood how it felt to be a strong master!

Although Han Fei was not yet a peak-level Dangling Fisher, he felt what it was like to be strong. With a wave of his hand, a strong master who was once extremely powerful in his eyes turned into flying ash.

After killing the manipulator, Han Fei picked up a Sea Swallowing Seashell and prepared to board his fishing boat. If he let her go out alive, his identity would be exposed...

When Han Fei broke out of the water, two rays of light swished at him.

He instantly blocked them with the Blood Drinking Knife and discovered that it turned out to be two fine needles.

Holding her dagger, Xia Xiaochan was fighting fiercely against the hunter. The hunter's body was like a funnel, squirting needles everywhere.

"Huh? Xia Xiaochan, why haven't you won?"

Although the hunter had expected it, he still almost burst into tears when he heard Han Fei call her by her real name.

He had already paid attention to information about the Black and White Ghosts. At first, he didn't take them seriously, as they were only intermediate Dangling Fishers.

He estimated that their strength at best equaled to that of a peak-level Dangling Fisher. If he tried his best, two peak-level Dangling Fishers wouldn't be a problem for him. Besides, to be on the safe side, he also joined a team of all peak-level Dangling Fishers before coming.

But who would have expected that the soul warrior was killed in an instant and the armorist and the spirit gatherer also ran away? How the hell could he handle the two of them alone?

Xia Xiaochan said, "This hunter is very unusual! He is so powerful and has many tricks up his sleeve. I think I need to learn from him."

Puff...

This hunter must be desperate now! An intermediate Dangling Fisher was teasing him, a peak-level Dangling Fisher. It was simply incredible!

At this time, the hunter said, "Han Fei, Xia Xiaochan, this is a misunderstanding."

Han Fei ignored him but stood on the edge of his fishing boat. "Oh! My pot is broken. Where is the snake meat?"

"I accidentally knocked it over just now."

Han Fei: "... The hunter almost cried. I'm fucking fighting you! What are you doing? Chatting? Please show me some respect, okay?

V me some

"Han Fei, I'm Lian Qi. Let me go. I'm willing to tell you all the unexplored secret realms I know and give you all my wealth in exchange."

Han Fei paused. "Lian Qi? This name sounds familiar."

Then he took out the Wanted List, turned the pages on by one, and searched carefully.

During this period, Xia Xiaochan asked, "Hey, is he on the Wanted List?"

Lian Qi almost burst into tears. F*ck! There are only 100 people on the Wanted List. Do you really need to search my name like that?

After quite a while, Han Fei suddenly shouted, "Found it."

Xia Xiaochan shouted, "Read his information."

“No. 75 on the Wanted List” “<Name> Lian Qi (nicknamed Shadow Hunter)”

“<Sex> Male”

“<Occupation> Hunter”

“<Spiritual Beast> Dark Spearfish (Exotic)”

“<Contractual Spiritual Beasts> Ice Crystal Shell (Exotic), Mad Blood Worm (Exotic)”.

“<Features> Has elusive body movements and is good at using hidden weapons. Combat Skills: Fury Blood Burst, Seventeen Shadow Attacks.”

“<Money to be Rewarded> 50,000 mid-quality pearls.”

“<Other rewards> 50 catties of spiritual spring, one demon-level low-quality combat technique, one mid-quality spiritual weapon, and 50 spiritual fruits.”

“<Evaluation> Dangerous, hired for 32 times without a miss, killed 8 peak-level Dangling Fishers.”

After reading it, Han Fei commented, “Your reward money is only 500,000 mid-quality pearls, which is far behind us. The spiritual spring is so little. A demon-level low-quality combat technique is nothing but trash! And a mid-quality spiritual weapon? Oh, you’re simply a disgrace to the Wanted List...” Xia Xiaochan asked, “What are the Fury Blood Burst and Seventeen Shadow Attacks? I haven’t seen him use them... Hey, use them.”

Han Fei threw the book into Forge the Universe and nodded solemnly. “This brother is really ambitious. If he kills us, he will be ranked third on the Wanted List! Maybe, he can still compete with Mo Qianshang who ranks first.”

Lian Qi begged, “Han Fei, since we are all on the Wanted List, I can make a vow to the God of Sea that I will never reveal your identities.”

Puff...

Han Fei laughed. “Is it such a f*cking prize to be listed on the Wanted List? We are all badassess... So badassess should be friendly to badassess? Do you mean that?” At this time, Xia Xiaochan suddenly turned into a shadow. In the mess of hidden weapons, her dagger suddenly appeared in the sky, flashing like a phantom.

Puff... Puff... Puff...

In the blink of an eye, Lian Qi was cut a dozen times by Xia Xiaochan.

Xia Xiaochan yelled, “Come on, use the Fury Blood Burst and Seventeen Shadow Attacks! Show me!”

Lian Qi’s face was all dark and the two scars on his face twitched.

In fact, he had guessed this result early on. How could the people on the Wanted List have any compassion? Even if they did, they wouldn’t show it to him who was also on the Wanted List.

Lian Qi smiled wanly, and suddenly, a strange red light flashed on his body, his eyes turned bloodshot, and his momentum was soaring. “Huh?”

Han Fei was slightly surprised. Why was it a bit like Xia Xiaochan's Frenzy?

Then Lian Qi, as fast as a phantom, suddenly turned into 8 bodies, which was like a clone technique. Immediately afterward, he launched a weird set of attacking and killing techniques, a bit similar to Xia Xiaochan's Thousand Strike Technique, but much less powerful.

However, it was certain that it was also a secret method and didn't seem to be weak. This secret method actually doubled his strength, whether it was speed or combat power.

After fighting for about half an hour, Lian Qi terminated his mad blood state. However, Xia Xiaochan was too excited and accidentally stabbed Lian Qi through again.

Xia Xiaochan: "..."

Han Fei muttered, "Not all secret methods can be compared with our secret method..."

Lian Qi's body was stabbed by Xia Xiaochan with seven or eight big holes in an instant, all his internal organs were damaged, and there was a big hole in his neck. If Han Fei was willing to use the Divine Healing Technique on him now, he might have a chance to survive.

In despair, Lian Qi grinned suddenly. "Guo'... Er, I'm... sorry. I can't... Go... Back... Cough Cough..."

Han Fei's eyes were icy at this moment. He stepped forward and stabbed Lian Qi again. This man must die. Everyone has a story... No fisher who could come to the level-three fishery was mediocre.

However, they chose to come and stay and got accustomed to fighting here. Their past and the people they left behind were no longer important because they were ready to die at any moment. Xia Xiaochan was panicked. "He..."

Han Fei smiled lightly. "Can he be more miserable than the people in the Heavenly Desolate City?"

Xia Xiaochan's body stiffened and she remembered the scene of millions of people graciously going to death outside the Heavenly Desolate City. Compared to people like Lian Qi, those people were more courageous and their fate was more tragic.

Han Fei used the Divine Healing Technique on Lian Qi's body, letting his flesh heal. "I may be cruel but others won't show mercy to us either!"

Chapter 428 The Poor Li Hanyi (1)

News of the Black and White Ghosts finally made waves on the dragon boats.

According to the armorist and the spirit gatherer who escaped, the Black and White Ghosts had a peerless secret method that could double their strength. Especially Fan Datong, who was able to hack to death the soul warrior who was a peak-level Dangling Fisher with two blows, he really shocked many people on the dragon boats. As for their weapons, as many people had said, the Black Ghost used a kitchen knife. And to everyone's shock, they actually ate human flesh!

Immediately afterward, those who had been robbed by the Black and White Ghosts all came out and described how vicious they were.

Ever since, the names of Fan Datong and Xie Xiaolan became very famous on dragon boats. It was even said that some people were preparing to gather many peak-level Dangling Fishers to hunt them down.

Of course, the purpose of these people was very simple, which was nothing but to catch the Black and White Ghosts and snatch their secret method of multiplying their strength.

Now that the Black and White Ghosts suddenly popped up out of thin air, they must have had a big opportunity somewhere. Secret methods were common, but a secret method that enabled an intermediate Dangling Fisher to easily kill a peak-level Dangling Fisher was extremely rare, rare even in the Thousand Star City.

Others said that any secret method had a price to pay. Maybe the cannibalism of the Black and White Ghosts was the price they needed to pay.

In short, no matter what, the Black and White Ghosts became famous.

On dragon boats, everyone was indignant, believing that the Black and White Ghosts were a disgrace to cultivators. Because of their extremely cruel methods, they were no different from fish and crabs in the sea.

But before the hunting team was built, another bit of information spread. It was said that the 75th person on the Wanted List, Shadow Hunter, Lian Qi, was hung on the bow of the fishing boat by the Black and White Ghosts for those to see.

For a time, many people fell silent.

It was not easy to be on the Wanted List. There were tens of millions of people in the level-three fishery and a person who was listed on the Wanted List with only 100 spots available could not be weak! Because of this news, the Black and White Ghosts became even more famous and everyone knew that they would soon be on the Wanted List.

The news about the Black and White Ghosts spread everywhere on dragon boats, causing a lot of shock among the cultivators.

At this time, Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan had already accelerated. Han Fei hadn't mastered the Void Breaking Technique and could only penetrate a hundred meters of space occasionally.

However, he did not continue to practice. The death of Lian Qi forced them to speed up.

Han Fei was lingering on the sea just to find someone or a team to overawe people.

Now, Lian Qi was tied up with a rope and hung on the bow. This would definitely make them a target of public criticism.

On this day.

Xia Xiaochan looked at the marine chart and said excitedly, "Han Fei, we are only 20,000 kilometers away from the Steps into the Sea. Shall we go full speed ahead?"

Han Fei carried a brush in his hand, which was covered with squid ink. Han Fei was brushing the hull diligently, painting half of the hull black. People usually brushed the hull white but Han Fei did exactly the opposite!

Han Fei looked up and smiled. "Just a moment. I'll finish right away."

Xia Xiaochan looked back at the half-black and half-white hull and asked with a frown, "Do I have to do this?"

Han Fei grinned. "Of course! Now we are the Black and White Ghosts who have nothing to do with Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan. We gain power from the secret method and are famous for cannibalism. Now we're going to the Steps into the Sea to seek opportunities."

Xia Xiaochan put her hands on her waist and tilted her head. "But we can't use our spiritual beasts and contractual spiritual beasts, we only have a starfish..."

The Hexagon Starfish's big eyes rolled. "The starfish doesn't fight."

Xia Xiaochan stomped her feet. "Look, he said he won't fight!"

Han Fei made the last stroke, dropped the brush in his hand, raised his head forty-five degrees and looked up at the sky, saying with reflection, "Yes, this is a problem. We need to make up a story..."

Ouff!

Li Han vomited a mouthful of blood and said to a peak-level Dangling Fisher behind him, "Of course I am not Han Fei."

Li Hanyi was going crazy. He didn't know how to explain himself. This was his third time on a dragon boat.

A while ago, he explored a secret realm and got a big chance, so his strength went straight up and he became an intermediate Dangling Fisher in one fell swoop.

He thought that few people were faster than him in cultivation speed in the whole level-three fishery.

He also knew that Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan became famous. Not only did the two of them get on the Wanted List, but they also caused a mess.

It was said that the Sea Grassland had undergone tremendous changes. In the center of the Sea Grassland, the most important tree was gone, which seemed to be related to Han Fei.

A few days ago, there was news that the Undersea City collapsed! This seemed to be related to Han Fei too.

Li Hanyi certainly didn't want to admit defeat. When they were in Blue Sea Town, they had fought. He admitted that Han Fei was not weak, but when they just came to the level-three fishery, Han Fei's realm was not higher than his own, but how could Han Fei do so many extravagant things?

So, he was determined to make a foray into the Steps into the Sea.

As far as he knew, it was not that there were no intermediate Dangling Fishers to enter the Steps into the Sea. On the contrary, a large number of junior, intermediate, and advanced Dangling Fishers gathered on the Steps into the Sea.

Anyone, regardless of their strength, could get a chance on the Steps into the Sea and everyone could try their luck.

He, Li Hanyi, was confident that few people in Blue Sea Town were better than him. How could he miss the chance?

But unexpectedly, as soon as he was 5000 kilometers away from the dragon boat, he was spotted. The first words of the other party turned out to be, "You are not Han Fei?" Li Han was almost speechless. "Of course I am not Han Fei! How could I be Han Fei?"

The peak-level Dangling Fisher snorted. "Of course I know that you are not Han Fei. Otherwise, I would not dare to come over. But although you are not Han Fei, you must know him, right?"

Li Han was surprised. "Why do you say that?"

The peak-level Dangling Fisher said hatefully, "In the Undersea City, he pretended to be you and crept into a hundred fisher team and I was the leader of the f*cking team. Because of him, only three people survived in the end... Tell me, what is the relationship between you and Han Fei?"

"???" :Li Han

Li Hanyi cursed Han Fei hard in his heart. How dare this bastard pretend to be him?!

Li Han was furious. Han Fei, aren't I your fellow-townsmen! Why did you do this to me?! You son of a b*tch!

Li Han responded immediately, "I... Han Fei and I are actually rivals."

However, the peak-level Dangling Fisher looked disgusted. "What? Are you f*cking bragging! Who do you think you are? Do you deserve to be Han Fei's opponent?"

Li Han: "???"

The peak-level Dangling Fisher snorted coldly. "Tell me the truth, or I will kill you now."

Li Han almost cried, "But I am telling you the f*cking truth!"

"I'm really his enemy. When we were in Blue Sea Town, we had confronted each other while exploring a secret realm, and even had a fight. Brother, I don't have to lie to you... If I were on good terms with Han Fei, he wouldn't have pretended to be me!"

The peak-level Dangling Fisher looked at Li Han for a few seconds and finally said slowly, "This seems to make sense. But I have to say, I admire you! He has already used your face, and you still dare to show up on a dragon boat... Tsk... Tell me, does Han Fei have any weaknesses? What kind of person is he? He..."

Hum...

While this peak-level Dangling Fisher was asking him, he suddenly frowned and then he saw a black-and-white fishing boat flying in his direction at full speed, and there seemed to be a person hanging on the bow. "F*ck..."

The peak-level Dangling Fisher immediately cursed and dove into the water.

Gosh, why was he so unlucky?! When he went to the Undersea City, he met Han Fei, and when he came to the Steps into the Sea, he came across the Black and White Ghosts.

Compared to the Black and White Ghosts, Han Fei was like an angel. At least, Han Fei would not kill for no reason.

However, the Black and White Ghosts were completely another story! They ate human beings... They were simply psychotic! If he didn't run, he might be eaten by them!

Li Hanyi's face had turned green. When he realized what happened, the black and white fishing boat was dozens of meters away and was suspended in the air. The two ghosts were looking at him. "Gulp!"

Li Hanyi's heart skipped a beat. "I'm doomed!"

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan looked at each other in surprise. They just passed by and saw a peak-level Dangling Fisher hijacking a fishing boat, so they came over to check it out. But when they approached, they were surprised to see an old acquaintance.

Han Fei said to Xia Xiaochan via voice transmission, In the Undersea City, I pretended to be him. What do you think we should do with him? Let him go? Xia Xiaochan thought about it. No, we can't. What if he tells others that the Black and White Ghosts are actually not that evil?

Han Fei nodded slightly. You've got a point there. Then kill him?

Xia Xiaochan was speechless. Why are you so cruel? Anyway, we're from the same town. How can we kill him?

Han Fei rolled his eyes. I can't let him go or kill him? Then what should I do? Keep him as our henchman?

Xia Xiaochan suggested, Or hang him up too?

Chapter 429 The Poor Li Hanyi (2)

"I'm doomed, I'm doomed, I'm doomed..."

The distance was so close that Li Hanyi didn't dare to run or move.

He was just an intermediate Dangling Fisher, a relatively ordinary fisher. Although he had a few tricks up his sleeve, he could only manage to beat average advanced Dangling Fishers.

However, the Black and White Ghosts were almost described as monsters on the dragon boats, who even ate people...

At this moment, these two people, one in black and one in white, wearing high hats, seem to be talking via voice transmission. Maybe he was going to be cooked...

With this in mind, Li Hanyi almost blacked out. In this case, he might as well be killed by the peak-level Dangling Fisher from before.

When Li Hanyi saw the fishing boat land on the sea and approach him, he thought he was going to die.

Suddenly, Li Hanyi suddenly took out his armor box and put it in front of him. "Don't even think of cooking me! Even if I blow myself up, I won't let you eat me."

Han Fei looked at Xia Xiaochan and clicked his tongue. "This guy doesn't look tender enough. If I fry him, will his flesh become too tough?"

Xia Xiaochan stared at Li Hanyi and looked him up and down. "Yes! Shall we steam him?"

Han Fei shook his head disgustedly. "Forget it. It'll be a waste of seasoning. I don't want to eat him."

Li Hanyi was dripping with cold sweat and his face turned green.

Seeing the two of them seriously discussing whether to fry or steam him, he really wanted to blow himself up.

When he saw the disgusted look on Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan's faces, he couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief. As long as they wouldn't eat him, he could accept anything. Suddenly, he heard Han Fei say, "Xie Xiaoan, don't you think this guy looks familiar?"

Xia Xiaochan suddenly jumped into Li Hanyi's fishing boat and looked straight at him for a long while. "Yes, kind of..."

Han Fei said grumpily, "All you know is how to eat. Don't forget our purpose. We are going to the Steps into the Sea to hunt for treasure. Don't think about eating people all day long."

Xia Xiaochan sighed. "Okay then! His flesh looks tough anyway... Hey, wait... Didn't Han Fei use this face?"

Han Fei exclaimed in surprise, "Yes! Last time, the person we ate seemed to have painted a portrait of Han Fei, and it seemed to look like this."

Li Hanyi felt as if his brain exploded and there was nothing inside.

"F*ck... Han Fei, you son of a bitch! I'm gonna kill you!"

Han Fei also jumped on Li Hanyi's boat and stood upright, staring straight at Li Hanyi. "But he cannot be Han Fei. He is too weak!"

Xia Xiaochan scoffed. "A fool can see it."

"Hey, what's your name? My eyes can see into your heart. Once you tell a lie, I will throw you into a big pot, cook you for three days and three nights, and then eat you."

Li Hanyi's face was green. "I... Am Li Hanyi."

Han Fei nodded. "OK! I can see that you don't dare lie to me. Tell me, what kind of person Han Fei is. Along the way, everyone was talking about him. He stole our thunder! Next time I meet him, I'll have a good fight with him."

Xia Xiaochan bared her teeth. "Maybe he will be delicious."

Han Fei shook his head. "Stupid. I heard that Han Fei is a body refiner. His body is as tough as a stone. How long would it take to cook him?"

Li Hanyi's ears were ringing. Who the hell are these people? Do they really eat people? There are so many fish and shrimp in the sea. Why don't they eat them?

Li Hanyi was sweating profusely. "Han Fei... He, he is an asshole..."

Smack...

As soon as Li Hanyi said so, he was slapped hard and half of his face swelled.

Han Fei said sullenly, "No matter what, he is not someone you can insult! Think well before you speak. Well... Talk about his good points."

Xia Xiaochan tilted her head and glanced at Han Fei, really wanting to kick this guy away. Talk about his good points? He was so shameless! Han Fei didn't feel ashamed at all, narrowing his eyes with a look of enjoyment.

Li Hanyi was stunned. Would villains appreciate each other?

Li Hanyi stammered, "Han Fei, he is actually quite cunning..."

Smack...

Li Hanyi was slapped again. He was stunned. Damn, can't you beat me after I finish...

Han Fei said, "What do you mean by 'cunning'? That's called smart, OK? Although Han Fei is no match for us, he is still a hero. How dare you insult him again?"

Li Hanyi felt as if there were 10,000 Iron-Headed Fish racing in his heart. Damn, if I can beat you, I must slap you to death!

Li Hanyi took a deep breath. "Although Han Fei is not talented..."

Smack...

This time, Li Hanyi was slapped flying. Han Fei said with a straight face, "Above all else I hate liars like you! If he was not talented, could he kill thousands of people alone? Do you think I'm a fool?"

Xia Xiaochan couldn't stand it anymore. Wasn't what he said true? If you continued to slap him, he might really blow himself up!

Xia Xiaochan rolled her eyes at Han Fei. "That's enough! Are you going to ask him about Han Fei or not? If you knock out his teeth, how can he tell you about Han Fei?"

Han Fei smiled awkwardly at Xia Xiaochan. "Ha! Haha... Yes yes... I shouldn't be angry! But I really can't stand these people... Slandering others out of jealousy. They should show respect to their opponents."

Han Fei said lazily, "Forget it. Let's hang him up! Right next to Lian Qi. I think it looks more impressive to hang two people on the bow anyway."

Li Hanyi trembled hard and hurriedly shouted, "Wait a minute... Wait a minute... Let me finish, let me finish... Han Fei is quite handsome and strong. He can challenge opponents above his level. When he was a junior Fishing Master, he could fight an advanced Fishing Master and easily win. He is extremely strong physically and seems to have practiced some kind of powerful body-tempering method. Among the younger generation, no one can match him..."

After listening to Li Hanyi 's gushing words of praise, Han Fei nodded his head in satisfaction. "Well, not bad, this does sound like Han Fei. Continue..."

Smack...

Xia Xiaochan slapped Han Fei's arm and then pulled Han Fei's ears. "You're addicted to listening to the story, aren't you? We have to hurry up to the Steps into the Sea! Give me a break!"

"Hey hey! Let go of my ear first... Let's set off after I hang him up." Li Hanyi was immediately infuriated. "You... How can you be like this? Don't come over. Although I can't beat you, I would rather blow myself up..."

Han Fei gave Li Hanyi a sideways glance. "I'll just hang you up and won't kill you. Why are you nervous? I think you are a good storyteller. Tell me stories along the way..."

After a while, another cross was erected on Han Fei's black and white fishing boat and Li Hanyi was hung on it, looking ashamed and angry. However, he glanced at Lian Qi, who had long been dead next to him, and swallowed. He told himself, It is better to bend than to break. Only when I endure what ordinary people can't will I become successful! As long as I can survive, I don't mind telling stories!

At this moment, Li Hanyi, who was always cold and arrogant, turned into a chatterbox. Along the way, Li Hanyi talked about the Thug Academy, the Thug Legend, Han Fei, the Fiery Mountain, and so on. In his opinion, the Black and White Ghosts were so interested in Han Fei because they wanted to kill Han Fei and snatch his opportunities when they met him.

Therefore, the more details he told about Han Fei, the greater the chances of winning for the Black and White Ghosts. Even if it only added half a point of the possibility, it was worth it.

Now he just wanted to skin Han Fei alive and then severely abuse him. Using the ordinary fishing boat that Han Fei snatched from Jiang Tong, Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were not slow. Only after half a day, they had traveled across the sea area of 20,000 kilometers.

During this period, Han Fei and the others encountered no less than hundreds of fishing boats. However, most of them fled from a long distance as soon as they saw them.

So soon, there were rumors that there was one more person hanging on the bow of the Black and White Ghost's fishing boat.

Many people asked curiously who the guy was. However, no one could find him on the Wanted List.

The next morning.

The sun rose in the east and the sunshine reddened the sea. Suddenly, Xia Xiaochan said, "It seems that we're about to reach the Steps into the Sea."

Chapter 430 The Black and White Ghosts Are Here

Li Hanyi wished the fishing boat not to stop. As long as the fishing boat was still moving, Fan Datong had no time to cook.

After asking him about Han Fei, the Black and White Ghosts didn't ask him anything else but for information about the Steps into the Sea. He told them all he knew. After all, it was common sense. As long as you stayed on a dragon boat long enough, you would certainly know about these famous secret realms.

Han Fei had no intention to kill Li Hanyi. Instead, he actually saved Li Hanyi's life. After all, if Li Hanyi went out with this face, he wouldn't be able to make it to the Steps into the Sea at all.

The fishing boat traveled more than a thousand kilometers. At this place, there were more fishing boats, which literally came and went in an endless stream! As long as Han Fei raised his head, he would always see a fishing boat passing by.

However, wherever their black-and-white fishing boat went, no other ship dared to appear. Everyone avoided them as far as they could!

Different from the Sea Grasslands and the Undersea City, the Steps into the Sea didn't have so many difficulties and sea creatures and almost everyone was welcome here.

From junior Dangling Fishers to peak-level ones, there were countless people there. Everyone acted casual like they were just traveling through.

"Come on, let's go! The Black and White Ghosts are here!"

"What? Black and White Ghosts, how dare they appear on the Steps into the Sea so blatantly?"

"Huh? Why didn't anyone stop them?"

"The two really have too much nerve! How dare they come here?"

Along the way, everyone who saw the black-and-white fishing boat couldn't help but exclaim, including some peak-level Dangling Fishers, who thought that someone should stand up to kill the Black and White Ghosts.

At this time, Han Fei set up the big pot and held a big spoon, about to cook. Xia Xiaochan asked, "We will be there in a thousand kilometers. No one will stop us, right?"

Han Fei smiled faintly. "Probably not. Who will be the first to make a move? Does he want to die?"

When the fishing boat drove further five hundred kilometers, there were fishing boats everywhere on the sea. These people were not afraid of them. Although this was not the safe area of the Steps into the Sea, it seemed to have been agreed that in this area, people would only exchange cultivation experiences and chat or trade. Killing was not allowed.

When the black-and-white fishing boat flew over, many people exclaimed, "It is the Black and White Ghosts! How dare they come here?!"

Someone said nonchalantly, "Don't worry, in this area, let alone the Black and White Ghosts, even Mo Qianshang who ranks first on the Wanted List must behave himself."

Some people frowned. "These two people are infamous. Look, there are still two people hanging on their fishing boat."

Someone asked, "Aside from Lian Qi, who is the other person?"

Everyone was looking at Li Hanyi because they discovered that this guy was still alive, which was simply a miracle! Wasn't it said that the Black and White Ghosts were totally inhuman? Why didn't they kill this guy? Immediately, several fishing boats took off to block Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan.

Looking at the four or five fishing boats in front of him, Han Fei put down the big spoon in his hand. Next to the big pot, a Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber had been cut into pieces and the water in the pot had boiled.

A peak-level Dangling Fisher scolded, "Fan Datong, don't go too far. How long are you going to hang Lian Qi and this little brother on your bow?"

Han Fei held the whetstone in his left hand and the Blood Drinking Knife in his right hand, rubbing the Blood Drinking Knife against the whetstone.

He said with a smile, "I'm preparing the side dishes! Don't you see that the water in my pot is already boiling?"

"Hiss..."

Many people immediately felt a chill down their spines. Although Han Fei was smiling, he looked so scary. And the Blood Drinking Knife kept making unpleasant grating sounds.

Soon, a few fishing boats took off and someone stared at Han Fei. "Fan Datong, what do you think this place is? This is the Steps into the Sea. You have to behave yourself here. How dare you cook people here!"

"Giggle... Giggle..."

Wearing a crooked hat, Xia Xiaochan chuckled. "This is not the Steps into the Sea yet! Don't you dare meddle in our affairs!"

Han Fei echoed with a giggle, "Yes, will anyone in the level-three fishery have any pity for others? Just shut the f*ck up!"

Someone said coldly, "Although the level-three fishery is dangerous and full of vicious people, cannibalism is simply intolerable. Fan Datong, Xie Xiaoan, we know that you two have a very powerful secret method, but if you don't put down the little brother and Lian Qi, we'll rise up against you together!"

Han Fei laughed. "Well, what should I say? Actually, you just want Lian Qi's body, right? Although he died, you can still receive a reward with his body. Tsk tsk... But what if I don't give his body to you?" "Good point! I had thought that you were just fishing for fame, but now I discovered that you seem a bit interesting..."

A fishing boat landed from the sky and Han Fei's eyes narrowed slightly. "A Ghost Speed Divine Boat?"

Han Fei recognized that it was a Ghost Speed Divine Boat at the first glance, which was a white fishing boat densely engraved with speed arrays. A little fatty who was only fourteen or fifteen years old was laughing at Han Fei and even gave him a thumbs up.

Han Fei grinned. "Oh, it's rare to see a Ghost Speed Divine Boat!"

The little fatty laughed. "Why, do you want it?"

Han Fei chuckled. "If it's outside of here, I certainly would want it. But not here. I think you despise the reward for Lian Qi, right?"

The little fatty was as casual as ever. "Of course, how much money is Lian Qi worth? I don't want it. However, it is indeed a windfall for these people. I just wonder who can get Lian Qi's body in the end? How about you throw Lian Qi out to see who will take it?"

Han Fei laughed. "Interesting. It seems fun. OK then!"

With that said, Han Fei grabbed Lian Qi's body and threw it out regardless of the direction.

Han Fei said cheerfully, "Hey! Lian Qi is yours now. Come on, take it."

"Hula..."

The people who were standing in Han Fei's way immediately dispersed, chasing Lian Qi's body.

Someone shouted, "It's mine! Who dares to touch it will be dead meat!"

Someone ridiculed, "Yours? Are you kidding me? Anyone can take it!"

Someone had caught Lian Qi's body in one swoop, ready to run directly to the Steps into the Sea. Unfortunately, someone caught up to him even before he ran a kilometer away.

In the beginning, they were only quarreling but soon, some people started to fight.

Xia Xiaochan watched this scene with a frown. "Umm, everyone says we are evil. Look, this is the real evil!"

The little fatty on the Ghost Speed Divine Boat said with a smile. "Of course, this is how the level-three fishery is. Benefits are the most important. Fairness, justice, and righteousness are worthless here!"

With that, the little fatty glanced at Han Fei. "Aren't you going to grab it back?" Han Fei cast a leisure glance at the little fatty. "For what? We won't board any dragon boat, so we can't get the reward. Just take it as a gift to the Steps into the Sea."

The little fatty grunted in disappointment. He had thought that Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan would rush out to kill these people. However, he immediately looked at Li Hanyi and then was surprised. "Isn't this guy... Han Fei had pretended to be him, right?"

Han Fei shrugged. "Yes, we are about to cook him."

Xia Xiaochan pretended to complain, "No, his flesh is too tough and won't taste good."

With that said, Xia Xiaochan seemed to take out a head from a Sea Swallowing Seashell, which belonged to a pretty girl.

Xia Xiaochan said, "I want to eat someone like her."

The little fatty on the Ghost Speed Divine Boat was shocked and let out an exclamation. "F*ck, do you really eat humans?" Xia Xiaochan stared at the little fatty. "I think you should taste good! White, tender, chubby and cute."

The little fatty shuddered slightly, not because he was frightened by Xia Xiaochan's strength, but by her mentality. Damn, am I food in your eyes?

Han Fei pretended to blame Xia Xiaochan, "Hey, don't say that! Although he looks a bit delicious, he has a Ghost Speed Divine Boat! I am afraid his background must not be simple."

The little fatty sneered. "Come on, I almost believed what you said. Black and White Ghosts, Black and White Ghosts... Hey! Are you going to eat this man or not?"

Han Fei looked at Xia Xiaochan, and she pouted. "No, no, his flesh is as tough as a turtle shell. Yuck!"

Li Hanyi almost cried. Don't eat me, please! At this moment, he really liked Xie Xiaoan. Fan Datong had no lower limit. He always wanted to eat him...

Fortunately, Xie Xiaoan didn't want to eat him. Otherwise, he wouldn't know what to do! For the first time in his life, he felt that being disdained was a wonderful thing.

The little fatty chuckled. "If you don't eat him, let him go. If you really eat him, you will be beaten to death! However, I really like the two of you. Shall we form an alliance?"
