Chapter 431 Little Fatty Cao

Han Fei kept Lian Qi's body just to overawe people and make a name. At this moment, they had reached the Steps into the Sea and his body was no longer of any use to him.

As for Li Hanyi, he actually intended to save him.

After all, Li Hanyi came from the Blue Sea Town. Although there were conflicts between them, it seemed insignificant compared to the fighting and killings in the level-three fishery.

Besides, Li Hanyi was actually not weak and had the mentality of becoming a strong man. Maybe, in the future, he could become one of the best talents in the Blue Sea Town. It would be a pity if he was to die like this!

Now, as suggested by this little fatty, Han Fei had a reason to let him go.

Han Fei reluctantly said, "I have been hanging him up for a day! I planned to eat him... Forget it! Since you have a Ghost Speed Divine Boat, you must be something. I'll listen to you."

Li Hanyi's tears almost fell. No one knew how he came over this day! He was so scared... Just now, when Han Fei was setting the pot, he almost blacked out.

Now, his luck had finally turned. He actually had the urge to weep with joy. Han Fei kicked him, sending him flying. "You're lucky. But you have a very bad habit of talking behind people's backs. This is very bad! Remember to tell people how good-hearted we are. At least, we're honest."

Li Hanyi plunged into the sea in a free fall and he was completely speechless! F*ck! Good-hearted? Honest? Bastard, you have no lower limit!

te no

The little fatty didn't care about Li Hanyi at all. After all, Li Hanyi was just an ordinary intermediate Dangling Fisher. In the level-three fishery, there were countless people like him.

The little fatty said cheerfully, "Hey! Fan Datong, is human flesh delicious?"

Han Fei answered with a smile, "The younger the person is, the better the flesh tastes. Besides, it depends on the body part. As for men..."

As he said, Han Fei looked at the little fatty up and down. "For example, the oil on your belly is good, and your fat little face must be very tender and smooth. And your palms would be very juicy."

The little fatty felt his hair stand on end under Han Fei's gaze. Who the hell is this guy? He sounds quite experienced in eating humans...

Xia Xiaochan giggled and said, "Little Fatty, what's your name?" The little fatty didn't get angry but said with a smile, "My name is Cao Qiu. I'm from the Cao Family in the Thousand Star City... I was extraordinary from birth and have a wide range of interests. I am quite proficient in refining, alchemy, formation, and invention. Especially my invention, look at this Ghost Speed Divine Boat. It is my invention."

“Puff...”

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan were dumbfounded. This was the first time they saw such a shameless person.

The Ghost Speed Divine Boat was invented by this little fatty?!

Han Fei rubbed the whetstone with the Blood Drinking Knife and asked, “So, Ball, why do you want to be with us? Aren’t you afraid of me?”

Cao Qiu pouted. “My name is not Ball but Cao Qiu, two words. What’s wrong with being with you? Would you really eat me?”

Then the little fatty suddenly said via voice transmission, Han Fei, Xia Xiaochan, you two are really daredevils! How dare you to come to the Steps into the Sea alone... With this alone, you two are very special.

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan’s faces both suddenly changed, the spiritual energy in their bodies surged, and they were ready to kill this little fatty at any time.

Han Fei was shocked. F*ck! Xia Xiaochan and I have been pretending for so long, but this guy saw through us at first glance?!

Cao Qiu lay on the ground. “Don’t get agitated. Don’t get agitated! I’m a genius, so I found out about you! Your disguise is really brilliant. If I hadn’t invented the Monster-Revealing Mirror, I wouldn’t have found out.”

Han Fei smiled and touched his nose. “Little fatty, didn’t you see it wrong? Do you think we look like Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan?” The little fatty sat up a little bit, took out a bunch of dried fish, threw one in his mouth, and said, “It’s because of your faces. The spiritual energy over your faces is a bit more than those of ordinary people. Besides, the spiritual energy seems to be circulating in a certain rhythm, so I guess you must have used some kind of disguise. Besides, you happen to be a man and a woman and are both intermediate Dangling Fishers...”

Xia Xiaochan said softly, “Just because of that, it doesn’t necessarily mean that we are Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan!”

The little fatty said confidently, “Yes, there are various kinds of people at the Steps into the Sea, but you have done too much! Especially Fan Datong, you even killed peak-level Dangling Fishers. Besides, the time when you appeared... Was about the same time as Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan left the Undersea City. On the surface, you deliberately showed people that they were going to Ten Thousand Smoke Valley, but the Black and White Ghosts suddenly popped up out of thin air on their way to the Steps into the Sea...”

Han Fei smiled. “Just so? The level-three fisheries have tons of talents. Can’t there be others as talented as Han Fei?”

The little fatty squinted his eyes and smiled. “Yes! But you have too many similarities. Most suspiciously, every time you purposely let people go and spread your name. Why is this? The only thing I can’t figure out is whether you’re really cannibals or not...” Han Fei said to Xia Xiaochan via voice transmission, This little fatty seems to be quite smart?

Xia Xiaochan responded, Yes... Although he can't be sure of our identity, he speaks with certainty. Noticing the two of them talking in private, the little fatty waved his hands. "Hey, don't kill me. We can cooperate! I have always wanted to kill Yang Deyu and Mo Feiyan, especially Mo Feiyan... Humph, each is more annoying than the other. Let's kill them together? And then I will help you solve their life monuments and escape the level-three fishery, OK?" Han Fei continued to sharpen the whetstone. "Alas! Fatty, you are wrong. We really are not Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan. As for Yang Deyu and Mo Feiyan... Who are they?"

The little fatty immediately said angrily, "Don't pretend. In my eyes, your disguise is full of flaws. Do you think I want to snatch the Sea Token? No, I don't care about that stuff at all! Only those who are not capable want to seize it. For a genius like me, exploring the secrets behind the Sea Quelling Painting is far more meaningful than that."

Suddenly, Han Fei's eyes turned cold and he was shocked in the heart. Was the Sea Token related to the Sea Quelling Painting? Now he just wanted to tie this little fatty up and ask him. Many people had mentioned the Sea Token, but it was the second time he heard someone mention the Sea Quelling Painting.

For the first time, it was Jiang Qin, who ran away with Old Jiang because of the Sea Quelling Painting. The two seemed to have gone to the Unknown Place.

The little fatty seemed to find that he was talking too much, so he hurriedly covered his mouth. "Oh! I didn't say anything... Well, anyway! The Sea Token is actually not as useful as you think. When I was eight years old, I just used it as a toy. It's not interesting..." Han Fei: "..."

Xia Xiaochan turned her eyes to Han Fei. "This little fatty seems to be from a very powerful family?"

Han Fei looked at the little fatty and said, "May I visit your fishing boat?"

Han Fei chuckled. "What are you eating? Here I am..."

The next second, the Ghost Speed Divine Boat disappeared and the little fatty sat on Han Fei's boat right beside the big pot. As he smelt the pot, his mouth watered.

Han Fei: "???!"

Xia Xiaochan: "???"

Han Fei asked, "Little Ball, aren't you afraid that I will kill you?"

The little fatty made a face at Han Fei. "You dare not! Even if you can kill me, you can't run away."

Xia Xiaochan looked puzzled. "Why? Because you also have a 'life monument'?" The little fatty rubbed his hands, looking eagerly at the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber in the pot and his mouth was watering. "It looks so tasty..."

When he saw the doubt on Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan's faces, he casually explained, "On the one hand, it is the life monument. On the other hand, all children from powerful families in the Thousand Star City who come to the level-three fishery will be shielded with life-saving treasures such as an Amulet and Dying Strike. Those truly talented will even be given an Immortal Seal... Anyway, you won't be able to kill me."

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei was speechless and cursing Old Bai in his heart! Look at them and look at what you have done to protect me!

I was only given a spiritual weapon and a Sea Swallowing Seashell... Which are everywhere in the level-three fishery. What the f*ck is the use of these two things?

Xia Xiaochan wondered, "What is a life monument? And what are the Amulet, Dying Strike and the other life-saving treasures?"

The little fatty murmured, "Life monument is something to inform your family the moment you're killed. An amulet is something protecting you, which can block many attacks. A Dying Strike is a blow from the strongest one of your family that is sealed in the body. When you're dying, it will shoot out of your body and attack your enemy. It is set based on your strength and is usually a whole realm above yours... As for the Immortal Seal, with it, you can come back to life even if you're killed."

Han Fei couldn't help but gasp. Fortunately, he didn't try to kill the Sun Mu trio when he was in the Sea Grassland. Otherwise, he might have been killed...

Chapter 432 Spiritual Sea Cucumber with Soy Sauce

The distance of five hundred kilometers was a very short distance for a fishing boat.

When the fishing boat reached the Steps into the Sea, Han Fei saw a super huge platform on which people covered. Many people sat on the ground, with a layer of fish skin under them, and various things on it. It was like a flea market here and the atmosphere was very lively.

Of course, Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan, who had come here for the first time, were still wondering where this platform came from!

They couldn't see any traces of land. There was only a huge above-water platform in this place. It seemed that the surface of the sea was frozen, forming a huge piece of transparent glass, and people were walking freely on it.

Unreasonable! Is the seawater frozen? It doesn't seem to be cold! Han Fei was still thinking.

"Look, the Black and White Ghosts are here."

Someone yelled, "Black and White Ghosts, get out of the Steps into the Sea. You are not welcome here."

Most people disliked them very much. When they saw the black-and-white fishing boat, they were very disgusted.

More people gathered around. They all wanted to see what the two cannibals looked like...

At this time, the black-and-white fishing boat disappeared. Han Fei held a pot even bigger than him with one hand and he fell from the sky. And Xia Xiaochan stood on his shoulder.

Each of them was wearing a tall and long crooked hat, with "Kill" and "Die" respectively written on them.

Because their costumes were very weird, with one of them completely black and the other completely white, they didn't look like good people at all.

Therefore, when Han Fei landed holding the pot, many people retreated to the sides. Coming down with Han Fei was Little Fatty Cao. As soon as he appeared, he was recognized.

"Oh! It's Cao Qiu."

"Huh? Why is Cao Qiu with the Black and White Ghosts?"

"Damn, does Cao Qiu eat humans too?"

"Oh my God, Cao Qiu is really a person born with a silver spoon. Are the Black and White Ghosts also from a powerful family?"

There was constant discussion and everyone was speculating about Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan's backgrounds.

Han Fei tilted his head and looked at Cao Qiu. "Are you famous?"

Cao Qiu proudly said, "Of course, I'm very famous. The first Ghost Speed Divine Boat was built by me here within a month. I still got a big chance here and many people were very envious of me. I am also///"

Cao Qiu began to brag about his past records, such as catching a big turtle from the Steps into the Sea, which broke some record, and refining a powerful weapon, blah, blah, blah... Han Fei's face turned black. This little fatty is so shameless. I really wonder how he became an advanced Dangling Fisher?

Yes, Cao Qiu was only an advanced Dangling Fisher. But this kind of person couldn't be treated as an ordinary advanced Dangling Fisher, just as Han Fei couldn't be merely treated as an intermediate Dangling Fisher.

Xia Xiaochan asked, "Let's eat first? Then we can go for a walk."

Cao Qiu rubbed his hands. "Yes, yes! We are now teammates. Apart from inventing, I also like cooking."

Han Fei rolled his eyes. "Fat people like to cook..."

"Who said that? This is a hobby. For example, you can't boil sea cucumber this way. You should add some spiritual fruits and it'll be better if you add different kinds of spiritual fruits."

Xia Xiaochan snorted. "Shut up. This hasn't been done yet."

Cao Qiu scoffed. "Huh? Isn't it already cooked?"

Han Fei smiled faintly. "Cooked? Yes, but it's not done yet. You underestimate my unrivaled cooking skills."

Cao Qiu: "???"

Han Fei poured the broth out of the pot with a splash under the surprised gaze of everyone. Then, he poured a spoonful of oil into the pot.

Another pot appeared in Xia Xiaochan's hands. She put the sea cucumber into the pot and drained it, while the Blood Drinking Knife was dancing in the sky. In the blink of an eye, more than a dozen spices fell into the pot. Sparks flew high and many people exclaimed.

Then, while Cao Qiu was dumbfounded, Xia Xiaochan poured the dried sea cucumber pieces from the pot into Han Fei's pot. Then Han Fei began to toss the pot vigorously.

With another splash, a piece of sea cucumber was tossed into the air three meters high with sparks and seasoning.

And Han Fei took out a spiritual fruit containing nearly 70,000 points of spiritual energy from Forge the Universe. While the as dancing with the sea cucumbers, the spiritual fruit was beaten to pieces by Han Fei and mixed in the pot.

At that moment, a mystic light burst forth and the fire burst out ten feet high.

When the sea cucumber and juice all fell into the big pot, Han Fei threw the pot to the ground and the aroma suddenly rose to the sky.

Han Fei raised his head high and shouted, "Come taste my Spiritual Sea Cucumber with Soy Sauce. How does it taste?"

A string of data appeared in his eyes.

<Name> Spiritual Sea Cucumber with Soy Sauce

<Introduction> A dish cooked with Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers and the essence of various ingredients, supplemented with spiritual fruits, has an endless fragrance. Tastes smooth and delicious, full of energy. It is a very rare dish.

<Level> Level 29

<Quality> Rare

<Contained Spiritual Energy> 86,688 points

<Edible Effect> Provides a huge amount of energy and strengthens your physique by up to 40% in a short time (three hours).

"Gulp..." Cao Qiu sat on the ground, his mouth watering. He stared at the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber in the pot dumbfounded and licked his lips from time to time.

Cao Qiu's mouth trembled. "Oh... My god! It's the first time I've ever seen someone cook like this!"

Not only Cao Qiu, but many onlookers were also dumbfounded. He cooked more fancily than fighting... This Fan Datong is such a freak!

The Hexagon Starfish hung on Han Fei's lap, saying to him via voice transmission, Can I eat it now?

Han Fei snorted. You are a stupid contractual spiritual beast in their eyes. You can't eat it until there is no one else left. Cao Qiu rubbed his mouth casually with his sleeve, picked up a large piece of sea cucumber and took a big bite. "Gulp..."

After a bite, the rich broth rolled over Cao Qiu's taste buds. The billowing fragrance rushed into his nostrils and dipped into his mind.

He shuddered all over and then said in a trembling voice, "Impossible, impossible... How can there be such a delicious thing in the world? Ahhh... Somebody, come!"

Immediately after the little fatty yelled, two peak-level Dangling Fishers from the crowd rushed over. "Master, what's your order?"

Cao Qiu shouted, "Go buy me a thousand Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers. From now on, I will eat this every day. Also, buy a large pot and a large spoon and make a kitchen knife and a whetstone... Nothing less. Do you hear me?"

"Yes, Boss."

Cao Qiu gobbled up with no regard for his table manners.

Xia Xiaochan also grabbed a piece of Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber, chewing and mocking, "Hey, Genius, do you still think you're good at cooking? Can you cook this dish?"

Cao Qiu's mouth was full of sea cucumber and he looked at Han Fei with shining eyes. "I'll learn it. I will definitely be able to learn well. There is nothing in this world that I cannot learn."

Han Fei ate a large piece of sea cucumber and mumbled, "Did I say I would teach you?"

"I've watched you cooking, so I'll learn it. Alas! But what kind of spiritual fruit did you use? I don't seem to have seen it before! Also, what's that black, sour water you used? Where did you get it?"

A smile appeared at the corner of Han Fei's mouth. "That's a secret recipe handed down from my ancestors."

Cao Qiu waved his hand. "I'll buy it from you!"

Han Fei shrugged indifferently. "But I don't lack anything! This is very precious and not for sale. I think it's worth a divine weapon at least."

"Puff..."

The onlookers whose mouths were watering were all shocked by Han Fei's words. A recipe is worth a magic weapon? Is this guy out of his mind? Cao Qiu's eyes widened. "Forget it. I can't afford it... But I will research it! I have already got the taste for it."

Han Fei smacked his lips and said, "But, for the sake of our friendship, I can give you a little... But, you've got to get the sea cucumber yourself! I only have one Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber."

Cao Qiu was overjoyed to hear that Han Fei would give him some seasonings. "No problem! I can give you some of the sea cucumbers I'll buy. I will only keep a few of them for trying it out..."

In the crowd, Li Hanyi, who swam here from underwater, finally breathed a sigh of relief.

However, when he saw the scene of Fan Datong cooking, he frowned suspiciously. Han Fei seems to be good at cooking too!

After the meal, the three of them were full of vigor and spiritual energy.

They didn't intend to cultivate, but instead wandered around on the Steps into the Sea.

Xia Xiaochan said to Han Fei via voice transmission, When shall we go down the Steps into the Sea?

Chapter 433 The Steps into the Sea

Cao Qiu's stomach bulged with food and he chuckled. "Do you want to go down the Steps into the Sea now? You really underestimate it!"

Xia Xiaochan was puzzled. "What do you mean?"

The little fatty's belly trembled as he said, "It's your first time coming to the Steps into the Sea. Don't believe the hearsay. I guess you must have heard that people of all levels come here and obtain treasures by fighting and killing each other, right? Let me tell you the truth: this is all false. The talented guys are all below."

Han Fei asked, "Huh? Isn't it said that each floor of the Steps into the Sea is a distinct world where tens of thousands of people are fighting? Is it not that simple?"

"Haha, which fool told you that?"

Han Fei's eyes turned cold. Did the idiot Li Hanyi tell him the wrong information?

The little fatty dropped a piece of black iron in a stall, then grabbed a jar of Sea Green Tree sap and sucked at it. Then, he said to Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan, "Basically, there are no decent things for sale at the Steps into the Sea. What you can see now are some low-level spiritual weapon materials and spiritual-level combat skills, which is of no use to us."

Han Fei asked, "But where did these people get so much material?"

The little fatty said, "By bartering!"

Xia Xiaochan wondered, "With whom?"

"With the Steps into the Sea! Oh... Do you know that the Steps into the Sea are actually not steps for you to walk down. It is just a name! In fact, this is a large altar. If you pay, there will be a return..."

Cao Qiu suddenly started to speak via voice transmission and explained, Let's speak this way! Most people don't know about these things. I can't tell them all.

Cao Qiu kept explaining for nearly half an hour and Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan's faces changed many times as they listened.

The two exchanged a glance from time to time. According to Cao Qiu, the Step into the Sea was an extremely weird place, so weird that it gave people the creeps as if someone was manipulating this treasure place that everyone yearned for.

In Cao Qiu's description, the Steps into the Sea was actually an altar in the sea. Anyone who wanted to get a chance from the Steps into the Sea, whether you were on the 1st floor or the 100th floor, you needed to offer sacrifices to the altar.

The only difference was that the sacrifice on the 1st floor was very cheap, while the sacrifice on the 100th floor was very expensive.

The sacrifices could be spiritual energy, weapons, materials, spiritual fruits, or ocean creatures. It was said that after reaching the 100th floor, a single sacrifice, if converted into spiritual energy, would cost at least 10,000 points of spiritual energy. As for how much it was, Cao Qiu was also uncertain.

In Han Fei's eyes, 10,000 points of spiritual energy was not much, it was quite little. But that was for him! In fact, the total amount of the spiritual energy an ordinary peak-level Dangling Fisher owned was only around 5,000 points. So, was 10,000 points of spiritual energy much? Yes, it was a lot.

However, for some wealthy people, such as this Fatty Cao, he asked his men to buy 1,000 Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers for him to experiment with... Just for a meal!

This kind of person who had money to burn could carry a lot of spiritual fruits. However, this little fatty was really generous. 990 of the 1,000 Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers were already in Forge the Universe. So the Steps into the Sea was not that simple.

You offered sacrifices, but you wouldn't necessarily get an opportunity. On the contrary, the price you paid was just for holding a summoning ceremony. You needed to fight against the creatures you summoned, and then it was possible to obtain something from these creatures.

Of course, some lucky guys directly summoned the corresponding reward after paying the price, but it was not certain how good the rewards would be.

According to Li Hanyi, for example, on the first fifty floors of the Steps into the Sea, there were a large number of people fighting and killing, which was because everyone wanted to rob one another.

The adventurers' agreement was that it was completely safe on the platform. No matter who you were, you would have to behave yourself. Otherwise, people would gang up on you.

However, it was a different story after you entered the Steps into the Sea.

For example, someone offered a sacrifice on the first floor of the Steps into the Sea and got a treasure. If someone else wanted this treasure after seeing it, they might attack you. According to Little Fatty, there was once an incredibly lucky guy who offered a sacrifice on the 49th floor and got a divine weapon. However, this guy ended up being killed with this divine weapon staying in his hand for less than five minutes.

Then, more and more people got to know the existence of this divine weapon. In the beginning, hundreds of people were scrambling for it, but in the end, tens of thousands of people were fighting for it. And then a dragon boat came over and a huge number of Dangling Fishers came over to join in on the melee.

In the end, according to incomplete statistics, as many as 50,000 people died at that time because of that divine weapon. This showed how terrifying the treasure could be!

Han Fei couldn't help wondering, Who took Lian Qi's body in the end? How much turmoil did it cause?

Cao Qiu said to Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan with a smile, "So, in fact, the lower you go, the better the opportunity you'll get! Have you heard of the guy who reached the 208th floor?"

Han Fei shrugged. "Yes, what happened to him?"

Cao Qiu chuckled. "That was m..."

"You?!"

"My elder brother!"

Han Fei shouted, "Can you just say it all in one breath? Damn, I was freaked out."

Cao Qiu smiled. "But my brother's chance is also my chance! That day, he got a broken shipwreck, with which I created a Ghost Speed Divine Boat! Am I awesome? Come on, praise me, praise me..."

Han Fei glanced contemptuously at Little Fatty and said, "Then how about you? Which floor did you reach?"

Cao Qiu took a sip of the sap and said, "Actually, I've done OK. I have reached the 148th floor. By the way, I heard that you destroyed the Sea Grassland, so I went over to check it out! However, when I got there, I found that you had all gone. The current central area of the Sea Grassland is a complete mess, and many people have died there."

Han Fei was stunned. "Did you go into the Sea Grassland?"

Cao Qiu dropped the sap jar in his hand, and someone immediately picked it up. To him, this stuff was worthless. However, to others, this wooden jar was also a refining material, which could be used to refine at least a high-quality magic weapon.

Cao Qiu smiled. "Not only did I go to the Sea Grassland, but I also went to the Undersea City! But when I got there, the city collapsed into rubble and nothing was left! Then I heard you guys were going to the Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes, but I didn't think you would go to such a boring place... So I explored two secret realms on the way and came back. I never expected to meet you here. Isn't it amazing?"

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei didn't know what to say! Does this little fatty have nothing to do? They were more than two hundred thousand kilometers away from the Sea Grassland! And the Sea Grassland is not close to the Undersea City either! So the little fatty had traveled five to six hundred thousand kilometers these past few weeks.

Cao Qiu nodded. "Well, let's wander around! We will be at the center of the Steps into the Sea soon. The things in that place are slightly better, mostly from the 80th floor onward. If there is anything worth buying, buy it so that we have something to sacrifice when we enter the Steps into the Sea..."

Xia Xiaochan tugged at Han Fei's arm. "We don't seem to have that much money!"

Before Han Fei said anything, the little fatty said with a smile, "Oh... You don't have to worry about money. As your teammate, I can sponsor you with 5 million mid-quality pearls. It can't bring you to the 200th floor for sure! But the 150th floor will be no problem. Do you have anything on you? Or, if you don't have money or spiritual energy, it doesn't matter. You can grab some at the Steps into the Sea! Many people are doing this down there! Maybe you can make it to the 100th floor without spending a penny."

Xia Xiaochan grinned. "Haha, I like it. And I like your 5 million mid-quality pearls better."

Cao Qiu waved his hand generously. "It doesn't matter. This little money is nothing. As long as we cooperate to go down and kill Yang Deyu and the others. Yes, kill them!"

Han Fei couldn't help sighing. "You seem to really hate them."

Cao Qiu's expression turned grim. "Yes, indeed! The enemy of my enemy is my friend. When I first saw you, I knew our friendship would be firm." Han Fei: "..."

Xia Xiaochan: "..."

Han Fei didn't respond to him. They were all from the powerful families in the Thousand Star City. He couldn't just agree to this matter! Who knew what would happen if he got involved in this...

However, what made Han Fei excited was what he could do in this place. "Can I really rob the people down there at will?"

Cao Qiu patted his belly. "Sure. Now that you have a disguise, it becomes even easier for you. They won't even know who robbed them..."

Han Fei couldn't help looking at the little fatty speechlessly. "Have you done this a lot?"

"Why would I bother to rob those useless guys? I just need to rob my brother." Han Fei: "..."

Xia Xiaochan: "..."

Chapter 434 The Most Approachable Patrician

The appearance of Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan caused commotion along the way.

However, no one was afraid of them. Because this was above the Steps into the Sea, no matter how cruel and fierce the Black and White Ghosts were, they dared not touch them here.

But why were the Black and White Ghosts with the little fatty from the Cao Family?

Along the way.

"Oh! Young Master Cao, have you come back? This is the frozen fish marrow from the 66th floor. It has been kept on ice, refreshing and delicious. Would you like a cup of it?"

Cao Qiu shook his head. "No, my stomach is bursting. I can't drink anything more."

Someone also greeted him, "Young Master Cao, I have a broken mirror I got from the 82nd floor. Although I don't know what the use of it is, I think it looks extraordinary. Would you like to take a look at it, Young Master Cao?"

Cao Qiu took the mirror casually, turned it over, and immediately threw it to the side. "It's just an ordinary mirror. Maybe some girl dropped it on the ground. It's useless."

Someone hurried over, holding a stone and said, "Young Master Cao, please take a look at this. Is there anything special about this egg? I got it from the 99th floor. Maybe some peerless beast can be hatched from it."

Cao Qiu snorted. "If some peerless beast can be hatched from it, you'll have to show me. Get out of the way. This is just a damn stone."

Watching many people rushing over to show things to Cao Qiu expectantly, Han Fei couldn't help but ask, "Do you often come to collect junk?"

Cao Qiu was stunned. "What? Collect... Junk? I have a pair of eyes that are good at discovering. Nothing good can escape my sharp eyes. I'm a genius..."

Xia Xiaochan curled her lips. "But you look stupid."

Cao Qiu was very unhappy to hear that. "What are you talking about?! Although I look stupid... Bah bah... Although I'm a little bit on the heavy side, you can't call me stupid! I'm very smart..."

Han Fei shook his head with a smile. "Yes, yes, you are smart. Is this the core trading area you mentioned?"

In Han Fei's view, things here were indeed not bad. He just glanced casually and saw that there were broken extra-quality spiritual weapons on sale. If they were repaired, they could be as sharp as before...

Xia Xiaochan exclaimed, "Datong, look at this dagger."

Han Fei was surprised. "Ahem, well, Xiaoan! You are a soul warrior. Why do you need a dagger?"

Xia Xiaochan suddenly remembered that she was now called Xie Xiaoan. Oh, she forgot about it again! Seeing this scene, Cao Qiu secretly sighed. Come on, you guys just spilled the beans. You are Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan! Only a hunter would have that look when he or she sees a dagger...

After walking for a while, Han Fei saw numerous things on the side of the road, such as spiritual trees, spiritual plants, alien demonic fish, special crab claws, python tendons, snake gall, black stones and crystals, turtle shells, combat skills... All kinds of stuff. They looked pretty good! It was just... They were still far from what he wanted.

Despite this, Han Fei still bought a lot of things and spent mid-quality pearls like water.

These things Han Fei bought have a very interesting common feature, that was, they were particularly bright, shiny, and dazzling...

Cao Qiu asked, "Hey, why do you buy so many shiny things? Don't you be afraid to blind your eyes?"

Han Fei smiled strangely. "It's okay. I like shiny things."

Secretly, Han Fei complained to The Hexagon Starfish, Master Hexagon, that's enough! Do you know how much money I spent for you just now? As much as 300,000 mid-quality pearls! The Hexagon

Starfish responded, I have set formations for you and killed your enemies for you. However, before today, I haven't gotten a shiny treasure...

Han Fei smiled helplessly. Fine, I'll buy them for you! However, you can spend at most 500,000 mid-quality pearls... If it exceeds this number, I will sell you instead...

While they were talking, someone hurriedly ran to a clearing not far away.

He put a fish skin map on the ground and waved his hand, and then a mess of things fell on the fish skin map.

Among them, there was an extremely dazzling flash, and many people unconsciously looked away to avoid looking at it.

This person just wanted to peddle and suddenly glimpsed that Cao Qiu was not far away. He immediately waved at Cao Qiu and shouted, "Young Master Cao, Young Master Cao, I've got a treasure here."

And Han Fei heard the hurried shouts of Master Hexagon, "I want it, I want it... I want this treasure."

Xia Xiaochan scoffed. "This gluttonous and lazy starfish wants you to buy something again, right?"

The Hexagon Starfish said via voice transmission, This is a treasure, a big treasure.

Han Fei's face was black. "Shut up. I'll see myself if it's a treasure."

Han Fei and Cao Qiu stepped forward at the same time. Cao Qiu grabbed the luminous object and took a look at it and his eyes were dazzled by it, so he tilted his head and asked, "What's this thing? I can't even look at it. This kind of black crystal has appeared before. Wearing it for a long time can stabilize one's spiritual power and soul. It is not that good..."

But in Han Fei's eyes, there was different information.

<Name> Soul Crystal

<Introduction> A black crystal condensed from a shattered soul. It will only be produced from the souls of Hidden Fishers and above. It is ownerless and can boost the power of your soul if swallowing it after suppressing it with spiritual power and nourishing it with soul.

<Level> Level-1

<Effect> It can slightly strengthen soul power.

Han Fei paused. "Master Hexagon, you know what it is, don't you?"

The Hexagon Starfish opened his eyes secretly and then his eyes rolled slightly. "I don't know!"

Han Fei smiled. "Master Hexagon, you are becoming more and more dishonest now. Isn't this a Soul Crystal? Why don't you tell me? OK, since you tried to keep it from me, you're not going to get it..." "No! Wait a minute..."

The Hexagon Starfish was shocked. "Do you know it's a Soul Crystal?"

“From above I know astronomy, from below I know geography, from outside I know the universe, and from inside I know the heavens and earth. You lie to me. This is a big deal! I’ll keep the Soul Crystal myself.” The Hexagon Starfish’s tentacles held Han Fei tightly. “I’ll tell you, but give me this Soul Crystal, okay?”

Han Fei shrugged. “It depends on what you’ll tell me. Now tell me.”

The Hexagon Starfish’s tentacles drooped and he replied helplessly, “Creatures above level-50 will usually produce Soul Crystals after death. Some powerful creatures that are under level-40 can also produce Soul Crystals. Soul Crystals are ownerless, so any creature can actually absorb it to strengthen their soul.” Han Fei urged him, “And?”

The Hexagon Starfish dared not to lie to him any longer. It could only respond, “Also, Soul Crystals are divided into levels, just like the spiritual heritage of you humans and the demonic heritage of sea monsters... This white Soul Crystal is the most common kind. That’s all I know... I’m still young and I don’t know that much!”

W

Han Fei’s face changed slightly. “Don’t pretend to be young! You are already hundreds of years old!”

The guy peddling the Soul Crystal was a little disappointed to see Cao Qiu not interested.

However, before he put it away, he heard Han Fei suddenly say, “I want this thing. How much is it?”

Cao Qiu glanced at Han Fei strangely. “Why do you want to buy this thing?” Han Fei said casually, “I’m buying it for fun!”

Cao Qiu said to him via voice transmission, Do you know this is a Soul Crystal? This is only a level-1 Soul Crystal. Although it looks dazzling, it’s not that useful. Even if you can fully absorb it, it can’t promote your soul power much... Han Fei was surprised. “Then why did you say this was only an ordinary black crystal?” Cao Qiu rolled his eyes. “Of course I can’t tell the truth to ordinary people! If I do, the price of this thing will soar! Then how can I buy it in the future?”

Han Fei discovered that this little fatty was very cunning. Or maybe it was the consensus of the people like him that this kind of thing shouldn’t be known by ordinary people...

The man was overjoyed that Han Fei wanted to buy this crystal. He just came out of the Steps into the Sea, so he had never heard of the name of the Black and White Ghosts. Although Han Fei was weirdly dressed, he didn’t mind.

“Well, Bro, it pained me to get this. But you’re a friend of Young Master Cao, so you just need to pay 100,000 mid-quality pearls...” Before he finished speaking, Cao Qiu suddenly put his hands on his hips. “Hey! What? How much do you charge?”

The man looked embarrassed and then hurriedly said, “Uh... I’m mistaken. 50,000, only 50,000 mid-quality pearls. This price is quite fair!”

However, Cao Qiu waved his hand. “Okay, 30,000 mid-quality pearls then.” The seller: “???”

Han Fei widened his eyes. This was the first time he saw someone counteroffer like this!

Xia Xiaochan's beautiful eyes blinked. Such a counter-offer was so interesting!

In the end, Han Fei spent 30,000 mid-quality pearls to buy this Soul Crystal.

However, Han Fei didn't care about the Soul Crystal so much now. Instead, he looked at Cao Qiu suspiciously. "Do you know these people well? Why do I feel that everyone here knows you?"

Cao Qiu proudly said, "Because I am close to the people!"

Chapter 435 Little Fatty Cao With A Backstory

Han Fei was playing with the Soul Crystal, and the Hexagon Starfish on his shoulder was gently scratching Han Fei with its tentacles as if begging him.

Han Fei asked, "Are many of these Soul Crystals produced on the Steps into the Sea?"

Cao Qiu shook his head slightly. "No, not many show up before the 148th floor."

Han Fei's face was black. "Don't keep reminding me that you have reached the 148th floor! And what about the lower floors?"

Cao Qiu tilted his head, making a look of contemplation before saying, "I heard that as long as you're past the 150th floor, the output of Soul Crystals is good. Between the 100th and the 150th floor, a Soul Crystal will appear about every 100 times you make a sacrifice. And there may be two below the 150th floor."

"You call this good?" "Every one hundred times?"

Han Fei calculated in his head, In this case, Soul Crystals are actually not cheap at all. There is only one chance to obtain a Soul Crystal every hundred times you sacrifice something. This thing seems to be very rare!

Han Fei said to the Hexagon Starfish via voice transmission, Master Hexagon, do you hear that? If you want Soul Crystals, I can take you down. But you'll have to offer sacrifices with your own treasures!

The Hexagon Starfish: "???"

The tentacles of the Hexagon Starfish were twitching. "Give me this one first."

Han Fei threw the Soul Crystal into Forge the Universe. "Don't worry. I'll keep this one for a test to see how effective this Soul Crystal is."

The Hexagon Starfish grew eager. "It can greatly increase soul strength."

Han Fei couldn't help asking, "What's the benefit of increasing soul strength?"

"It can strengthen one's spiritual power."

Han Fei leaned closer. "And then?"

"There are many benefits! You can perceive farther away, set up formations faster, and have a stronger perception of danger..."

Han Fei sneered. "You mean you can escape faster than, don't you? Don't think about it. This Soul Crystal is mine. After we get down there, there will be tons of Soul Crystals... Or we can just rob others!" Cao Qiu took Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan to saunter around. At first, Cao Qiu led the way, and then Xia Xiaochan led the way.

Xia Xiaochan picked up something from time to time, sometimes it was a spiritual weapon, sometimes it was a crystal, and sometimes it was a combat skill. And Cao Qiu and Han Fei followed behind to pay... Mainly Cao Qiu paid, or to be exact, his men following him paid.

Cao Qiu looked at Xia Xiaochan who was on a shopping spree. "Do women like shopping?"

Han Fei smiled. "I think so."

"It must be. My sister also likes to go shopping and she buys a lot of junk every time. In the end, she throws everything to me and asks me to pick out useful things for her. But how can I find anything useful from a pile of junk?"

Han Fei smiled and said nothing. In fact, he told Xia Xiaochan to do this same thing. Anyway, the little Fatty Cao Qiu would pay for her.

But there was no free lunch in the world. No matter how rich the little fatty was, he didn't have to splurge like this, right? He had already spent 10 million mid-quality pearls for him and Xia Xiaochan. Was there really such a good thing in the world? He could even buy The Fish Dragons with this money!

Cao Qiu didn't care what Xia Xiaochan bought and approached Han Fei's side, saying, "Hey! I heard that Sun Mu, Yang Deyu, and Mo Feiyan all suffered a great loss because of you when you were in the Sea Grasslands. Is it true? What losses did they suffer? Did you beat them? Or slap them? Did you slap them hard? You should have slapped them as hard as you could! If only you could beat them to death!"

Han Fei said solemnly, "My name is Fan Datong, not Han Fei."

The little fatty said indifferently, "OK, OK, so which of the three of them suffered most? I heard that dozens of peak-level Dangling Fishers in the Sun Family died. Did you kill them? But it doesn't make sense! How could an intermediate Dangling Fisher manage to do that? Is it because of your secret method?"

Han Fei did not answer.

The little fatty continued, "You know what, Sun Mu looks like a gentleman but is actually very sinister. Yang Deyu is a fool but he always thinks he is super smart, and he is very rude. As for Mo Feiyan, that woman is scary, as scary as my sister."

Han Fei wondered, "You mean your biological sister?"

The little fatty nodded naturally. "Yes, of course. My brother is my biological brother and my sister is my biological sister. However, my brother is stronger. My sister... Is very beautiful."

Han Fei rolled his eyes and said, "It's none of my business whether your sister is beautiful or not."

The little fatty chuckled. "I think my sister also has a good personality! Although she is scary in other people's eyes, she is nice to her family. Would you like to date her?" "Ouff..."

Fortunately, Xia Xiaochan didn't hear these words. Otherwise, the little fatty would have been stabbed just now.

Han Fei asked, "Seriously, are Sun Mu and the others all below?"

Fatty Cao nodded angrily. "Yes, they are all below. These bastards are all below... They came a month ago, and it has been a month since! Not only them, but also other bastards, such as Zhang Wen from the Zhang Family; Li Heiye and Li Baizhou from the Li Family; Chen Aochen from the Chen Family; Wang Zitian from the Wang Family; Ye Baiyu from the Ye Family... They are all below. Yes, these damn people are all below..." Han Fei always felt that this little fatty was a bit strange! At this moment, he felt more so, so he asked, "Do you think that, except for your Cao Family, all the juniors of other families in the Thousand Star City should be killed?"

"Huh? How do you know what I'm thinking?"

Han Fei. "..."

Han Fei questioned, "Why?"

There was a trace of determination in Cao Qiu's eyes. Han Fei even saw a trace of sadness, but Cao Qiu quickly put away this emotion and said ferociously, "No reason! They deserve to die! All of them! It's best to kill them all!"

Han Fei was helpless. "As you've said, they all have something like an Amulet, Immortal Seal, Dying Strike or life monument to protect them... With so many life-saving methods, we can't kill them!"

Cao Qiu clenched his fists. "Then let's kill as many of them as we can."

Han Fei smiled and said, "What if we can't even kill one of them?"

Cao Qiu seemed to be frustrated. "Then... Then we still have to try. This is a great goal, and I will fight for it all my life." Han Fei laughed. "Then who do you want to kill the most?"

Cao Qiu's face suddenly changed. After a long silence, he said, "Cao Tian."

Han Fei was stunned. "Cao? Is he from the Cao Family?"

"He is my brother!"

"Your biological brother?" "Yes"

"Huhh..."

Han Fei gaped in shock. Is this little fatty out of his f*cking mind! He once mentioned that when he wanted something, he would snatch it from his brother. It turns out that the one he wanted to kill most was his brother, the record holder for the Steps into the Sea... Is this guy crazy?

Han Fei was almost speechless. "If your brother knows this, will he kill you?"

Cao Qiu disdainfully said, "He already knows. It's just that I can't beat him now. If I could, I would have killed him long ago."

Han Fei. "..."

What kind of family is this? The younger brother wants to kill the elder brother, which the elder brother knows about... But he still lets his younger brother snatch his things?

However, there must be some unknown story behind the situation. It seemed that it was just an obsession of this little fatty to kill the juniors of the other big families.

Although he didn't know how this obsession was formed, based on the little fatty's current strength, he obviously had no ability to kill any of them.

So, the little fatty wanted to cooperate with him and Xia Xiaochan.

Perhaps, in his eyes, anyone who could go against the juniors of the powerful families from the Thousand Star City were potential partners.

And the Sun Mu's trio suffered a great loss because of him when they were in the Sea Grasslands. Therefore, this little fatty traveled hundreds of thousands of kilometers to search for him and Xia Xiaochan.

Because he was very concerned about him, this little fatty could distinguish Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan at a glance. After all, he really cared about this matter.

Thinking of this, Han Fei couldn't help being shocked. Although this little fatty looked a bit stupid, he didn't seem to be lying to him. If what he said was true, this little fatty was actually a man of great perseverance. This slightly moved Han Fei. Han Fei said to Xia Xiaochan via voice transmission, Xia Xiaochan, don't buy anymore. It's enough.

Xia Xiaochan asked, "Are we going down?"

"Yes. These deals here are meaningless. Let's go down and have some fun."

With that, he looked at Cao Qiu. "Going down?"

Cao Qiu smiled cheerfully. "Wait a minute. We have to agree on something. Once we go down, the situation will be very complicated. We should make an agreement on the way of where to meet up again."

Han Fei frowned. "Are we not going to be together?"

Cao Qiu scoffed. "Of course not. Many secret realms only allow one person in each time. However, there is another special thing about the Steps into the Sea, that is, the further we go down, the more chances we will encounter..."

Xia Xiaochan had already walked over. "Why?"

Cao Qiu smiled. "Because... The further you go down, the smaller the steps!"

Chapter 436 Enter

Having seen the bustling scene on a dragon boat and experiencing the high-level transactions on the ghost boat, Han Fei really wasn't impressed with the products sold here.

But Xia Xiaochan had never boarded a dragon boat or the ghost boat. Therefore, she was very attracted to the lively scene here.

The three agreed to meet on the 148th floor half a month later.

Why the 148th floor? According to Cao Qiu, the 148th floor was relatively easy. Starting from the 149th floor, it would be very difficult...

Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan looked at each other. Difficult? It must be that the little fatty didn't have the confidence to pass the 148th floor, so he asked Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan to wait for him on this floor.

But Cao Qiu would never admit that he wanted them to help him pass this level because he couldn't make it through himself.

At this moment.

The three of them were standing on a cliff. At the very center of the surface of the Steps into the Sea, there was a huge cliff that went all the way to the seabed. This cliff was circular, with a radius of nearly a hundred kilometers!

From here, seawater was gushing down, making big splashes and causing layers of white mist. On the surface, no one could tell how deep it was below.

If this platform was just a bottomless pit in the sea, it was normal! But in the middle of this large circular pit, there was a water column rising straight from the bottom.

Han Fei saw two groups of people walking out of the water column in the middle respectively from the left and the right, controlling their fishing boats to fly to the outer platform.

At the mouth of the cliff, people jumped off in different postures. Some entered on their stomachs, some on their backs, some plunged in head first, and some jumped in a fancy diving style...

Xia Xiaochan looked at these people in astonishment. "How deep is this? Is it okay for them to jump in like this?"

Cao Qiu smiled and said, "It's okay. It's very exciting and comfortable to jump down... Many people, in order to enjoy this process repeatedly, run back up after they jump to the first floor, repeating this process... And they never got bored."

As soon as Cao Qiu said this, Xia Xiaochan jumped. However, before she flew out, she was dragged back by Han Fei. "Do you have money on you?" "Yes! I've just bought a lot of things."

Han Fei was helpless. "No. Those things are not enough. I guess you've spent all your mid-quality pearls, right..."

As he said this, he took out a bag of Sea Swallowing Shells and gave it to Xia Xiaochan. "I don't have much, but this is a hundred or so Sea Swallowing Shells. It should be enough."

“Ouff...”

Cao Qiu was shocked. “So many Sea Swallowing Shell? How many people have you robbed?”

Han Fei said solemnly, “Am I that kind of person? I picked them all up.”

Cao Qiu rolled his eyes. Really? Where did you pick them up? I can’t believe I gave each of you 5 million mid-quality pearls! It turns out that you guys are so rich on your own... However, Xia Xiaochan did not take it. She also took out a bag of Sea Swallowing Shells and then compared it with Han Fei’s. “Why is yours so much fuller than mine?”

“Huh? Where did you get so many Sea Swallowing Shells?”

Xia Xiaochan blinked. “I grabbed them.”

Han Fei, Cao Qiu: “...”

Han Fei was helpless. For the first time, he gave away something to a little girl so solemnly, but she refused. This was f*cking embarrassing!

Han Fei put away the Sea Swallowing Shells and grunted. “Fine, let’s go down. See you in half a month.”

As soon as Han Fei finished speaking, Xia Xiaochan flew into the air in a graceful posture.

Upon seeing this, Han Fei glanced at Cao Qiu and said, “See you then.”

Then Han Fei also turned his back to the pit and jumped with a swoosh.

For some reason, Han Fei felt Cao Qiu was trustworthy. This was very strange. After all, what Cao Qiu said was a bit crazy and he didn’t look like a reliable person at all. However, Cao Qiu was very frank, which was the sheer opposite of Yang Ruoyun who was so cunning and sophisticated. Perhaps he had told many people that he wanted to kill his brother, which felt like something a childish kid would do...

In midair, Han Fei smashed through the misty clouds. After about a hundred meters, Han Fei felt that he had smashed through a marshmallow-like layer of water. After another hundred meters, another marshmallow-like layer of water was smashed by him, which felt so soft and airy.

“Gee, no wonder some people like to jump down repeatedly...”

The Hexagon Starfish’s big eyes were wide open and rolling. “I feel there are treasures here, many treasures.”

Han Fei was helpless. “Master Hexagon, are you stupid? Aren’t you talking nonsense? Everyone knows this place is full of treasures!”

Master Hexagon shouted, “No! I have a strange feeling.”

Han Fei rolled his eyes. “What do you feel? Do you feel there is a very precious treasure? Like a divine weapon?”

Master Hexagon was puzzled for a while. “I can’t describe it. Anyway, it feels very special here.”

Han Fei kept this in mind. The Hexagon Starfish was very good at treasure hunting! Maybe this was his talent. But Han Fei believed even if there were precious treasures, they were on the lower floors.

Han Fei passed through the layers of water mist, enjoying the soft and comfortable feeling of plunging into cotton. Suddenly, he felt a tingling pain in his wrist.

“Huh?”

Han Fei was shocked. Was the Demon Purification Pot reacting?

This was rare! Every time the Demon Purification Pot reacted, it represented an opportunity. Besides, this time it even stung him. Its intense reaction was unprecedented, indicating there was a great opportunity!

At this moment, Han Fei completely believed the words of the Hexagon Starfish. He glanced at the Hexagon Starfish avidly, thinking, The Hexagon Starfish is a treasure hunter indeed! Its perception of treasure is so keen! How can I keep him one year more...

The Hexagon Starfish had a chill down his spine under Han Fei’s stare and immediately closed his eyes. Then he climbed from Han Fei’s shoulders to his legs and hid somewhere Han Fei couldn’t see, which made him feel much safer.

BAM! BAM! BAM!

Han Fei smashed through many layers of water mist along the way and finally, he sank into a large piece of “cotton”.

When he woke up, he found he was less than 100 meters above the ground. Looking around, he found that there was a huge space covered by mist below.

In his field of vision, there were nearly a hundred people scattered everywhere.

Among them, some people were fighting with some marine creatures, such as White Bone Fish, Black-Moon Fish, Black-Moon Sickle Fish, Red-Hair Big-Mouthed Crabs, Red-Browed Prawns and other creatures.

Han Fei’s appearance should not have attracted much attention. After all, many people jumped off the Steps into the Sea! Almost every moment, someone was jumping down.

However, Han Fei’s costume was too conspicuous. He was like a dazzling star among the plainly dressed crowd.

He was wearing a black trench coat and a tall hat on his head, with the word “Die” written on it.

Immediately, someone exclaimed, “No, it’s Fan Datong. Run!”

Some people who had never heard of the Black and White Ghosts asked in surprise, “Who is Fan Datong? What are you running for?”

The running man answered in a panic via voice transmission, He is the Black Ghost of the Black and White Ghosts. He is very powerful and has killed many peak-level Dangling Fishers. As a cannibal, he kills without blinking. He is really scary...

“Shoot...”

Hearing it, someone let out a cry and immediately ran wildly, wishing that he had four legs.

When Han Fei landed, he found that there was not even one person around.

And those marine creatures, after their enemies ran away, all looked at Han Fei and then charged at Han Fei like crazy.

Han Fei: “???”

Han Fei chopped an Anti-Heaven Blade in half.

However, this Anti-Heaven Blade did not bleed, but turned into a cloud of water mist and disappeared. Then in the seawater, there was a piece of transparent gypsum in a gleaming mass of water mist.
“Huh?”

Han Fei was surprised. Are these ocean creatures not real? But why did it feel like a living creature when he chopped at the Anti-Heaven Blade just now?

Then he turned his eyes to a Mess Swallowing Worm and a string of data appeared in his eyes.

<Name> Mess Swallowing Worm

<Introduction> This is an omnivorous worm that will feed on its own kind when it is lacking food. It usually hides in the sand and can be thirty meters long when it matures. There are sharp hooks and circles of blades in its body. It also has Swallowed Pearls that can increase your speed when eaten.

<Level> 36

<Quality> Rare <Contained Spiritual Energy> 1316 points <Edible Effect> Unable to be Eaten

<Collectible> None<Non-absorbable>

“Huh?”

Han Fei frowned. He remembered that Mess Swallowing Worm’s body contained something called Swallowed Pearls, which didn’t exist now. Besides, it had become non-absorbable. This meant that he couldn’t get any spiritual energy from these ocean creatures.

Besides, marine creatures usually either had some edible effects or they were inedible, but this was specified as “Unable to be Eaten”.

“Inedible” and “Unable to be Eaten” seemed to be close in meaning, but actually had different meanings here.

Han Fei swung the Blood Drinking Knife and shattered more than a dozen marine creatures in the blink of an eye. At this time, in the water, more than a dozen kinds of things emerged.

There were ordinary black crystals, spiritual plants, spiritual wood, black irons, and crystal stones, and there was even a Treasure Hunting Fish in a mass of water.

“Oh! Will there be a treasure in the fish?”

Chapter 437 Offer Up A Sacrifice

Han Fei cut open the fish happily. However, there was nothing in it, so Han Fei slashed it in half in anger. However, when the Treasure Hunting Fish was split into two pieces by Han Fei, it did not turn into water mist, but into a block, falling on the invisible ground.

Then to Han Fei's surprise, this Treasure Hunting Fish disappeared without a trace on the smooth and invisible ground under his feet.

"Huh?"

Han Fei immediately understood that this Treasure Hunting Fish must be a so-called sacrifice reward, so it was real.

When he discarded it, it would be swallowed by the Steps into the Sea.

Han Fei casually grabbed the black iron, crystals, and other materials floating in the water. According to Cao Qiu, he only needed to communicate with the world in his mind to offer up sacrifices.

Then he found that the stuff in his hand... Disappeared. Immediately, the water rippled not far in front of him and then an Iron Hook Squid popped up out of nowhere.

As soon as this Iron Hook Squid appeared, Han Fei smashed at it with a stone. The tremendous power made the ink sac in its stomach shoot out.

If someone else watched this scene, they would be shocked. This squid had just come out and hadn't even aimed at a target before being squashed by Han Fei.

One or two minutes after he killed the squid, a gleaming mass of water appeared. The return this time was a shrimp spur, no more than half a meter long. Han Fei took it in his hand, fiddled with it, and tried to break it with 50% of his strength, but it didn't break, so he exerted a greater strength to crack it.

Crack!

It finally broke when he used 60% of his strength. Han Fei immediately threw the thing to the ground. After about five minutes, it was slowly swallowed by the ground.

"Shit! Trash!"

However, Han Fei did not stop immediately, but he gathered a group of spiritual energy at his fingertips, about 500 points and tried to use the spiritual energy as a sacrifice.

But it didn't work, so Han Fei added 500 points more, which was still not enough. Then, he added another 500 points and found that only 200 points would do and there were about 300 points left... "So much?"

Han Fei frowned. This was only the first floor of the Steps into the Sea! Besides, in terms of the rewards he just got, it wasn't that worthwhile.

But why did it require as many as 1,200 points of spiritual energy as a sacrifice? This was quite a lot. Even the spiritual energy of a peak-level Dangling Fisher could only be consumed 4 times.

This time, what appeared was a Black Moon Sickle Fish. After being hacked to death by Han Fei, only an ordinary transparent plaster was left behind, which was worthless.

After getting familiar with the rules here, Han Fei recited in his heart, trying to communicate with this world, only to feel that the hard invisible barriers under his feet seemed to have disappeared.

Swish...

Han Fei felt as if he had penetrated a cloud of soft, cotton-like mist, before appearing about 100 meters higher on the second floor.

“Oh! The Black and White Ghosts are here. Run...”

Some people didn't take it seriously as they stood up and glanced at Han Fei. Someone next to him immediately scolded, “What are you looking at? Quickly run! Fan Datong is here. Do you want to be eaten?” “Run! Come on!”

In the blink of an eye, these people ran away, leaving more than a dozen creatures summoned by sacrifice.

There was almost no difference from the first floor, even in the summoned creatures. With Han Fei's current physique, even if he stood still, these marine creatures had no chance of killing him...

After a moment.

Han Fei looked at the various materials wrapped in more than a dozen water balls and sighed helplessly. Aren't the stones, shells, and various spiritual plants the least valuable in the ocean? Aren't there any better returns?

Among the dozen water balls, only one water ball contained a Flash Stone. Han Fei didn't even want to pick up the other things. Han Fei couldn't help but wonder, Did I only get these garbage objects after paying so much?

In fact, these things couldn't even be used to make low-quality spiritual weapons. The further he went down, the higher the quality of materials, but the price he had to pay was also greater. This was a problem!

Han Fei used spiritual energy to offer up a sacrifice again. It took nearly 1,300 points of spiritual energy, but only summoned an Anti-Heaven Blade.

“Continue down.”

Han Fei smashed the Anti-Heaven Blade with a brick, took the things presented, and then appeared above on the third floor.

According to Cao Qiu, only after defeating the creatures he summoned and getting the return of the Steps into the Sea could he enter the next floor.

Han Fei wondered, After the 200th floor, what kind of creatures will be summoned?

The situation on the third floor was almost the same as the first and second floors. As soon as Han Fei appeared, someone screamed and then told his origin in horror.

This time, Han Fei sacrificed nearly 1,400 points of spiritual energy.

“Hiss...”

Han Fei clicked his tongue. There seemed to be a pattern! Every time he went to the next floor, he needed to consume nearly a hundred points more spiritual energy...

In order to verify his discovery, Han Fei went all the way down. The time spent on each floor did not even exceed ten minutes. Not only did he not spend money, but he also made a small profit. After all, so many people ran away, leaving him a lot of sacrificed items.

The large number of people who knew about the Black and White Ghosts ran off as soon as they saw Han Fei without any hesitation! So the creatures left naturally belonged to Han Fei.

This situation lasted until the 31st floor before it ended.

After entering the 31st floor, Han Fei saw a dozen or so people, far less than the hundreds of people on the upper floors. The creatures here were obviously a level stronger. There were no longer the most common Black Moon Fish, Anti-Heaven Blade, etc., but rather Black-Moon Sickle Fish, Mess Swallowing Worms, and crayfish.

Besides, in terms of level, the creatures here were one to two levels higher on average than those on the upper floors.

On the 31st floor, none of these people knew Han Fei, so no one tried escaping. However, the strange costume Han Fei wore still forced them to stay away from him.

Han Fei hadn't planned to rob these people. In his opinion, even after the 30th floor, the creatures here were still too weak.

Different from the upper floors, the number of fish like the Black Moon Fish and Anti-Heaven Blade had decreased, while the relatively advanced fish such as the Black Moon Sickle Fish had increased. That was all.

Han Fei offered up a sacrifice. This time, he used 3,300 points of spiritual energy... He didn't estimate very accurately, but the error should not exceed 200 points of spiritual energy.

When he saw that a Red-Browed Prawn was summoned, he was a little disappointed. He fired a stone at it, causing its internal organs to burst out.

“Gosh...”

Seeing this scene, everyone around him ran away, looking horrified.

Sure enough, no strangely dressed fishers were simple.

The 51st floor was another watershed.

After smashing a Sapphire Lobster on the 50th floor, Han Fei was rewarded with a palm-sized jade slip, which turned out to be a spirit-level high-quality combat skill.

In terms of the return he got on this floor, he definitely made a profit.

But then he thought of the rubbish items he got on the first 49 floors, so all together, he found that he seemed to only break even.

After he spent a lot of spiritual energy and got a pile of garbage in return, something good finally appeared.

This must be the reason that so many people still wanted to come in after knowing that this place was not simple!

Then he went directly to the 51st floor without hesitation.

This time, he actually met as many as 30 people fighting here. These people were all fighting one-on-one instead of in groups.

After Han Fei landed, he casually threw out 20 pieces of meaningless items. According to the previous experience, these 20 materials should be enough for a sacrifice. However, someone laughed and said, "Brother, this is not enough. This is the 51st floor." Seeing that those things hadn't been accepted as a sacrifice, he looked at the man who was fighting with a Red-Haired Big-Mouthed Crab not far away, and then threw out another 20 pieces of rubbish.

Swish...34 items disappeared.

"Huh?"

Han Fei's eyes suddenly brightened. The level of sacrifice on the 51st floor was higher than that of the 50th floor?

When a Purple Soldier Crab appeared, Han Fei confirmed that the level here had indeed been higher.

Han Fei smiled and then shook his head slightly. "But, it's still not enough."

He swung a stone and smashed the Purple Soldier Crab to death, which stunned many people.

Someone's face changed and then slowly moved away from Han Fei. But these people did not flee as they seemed to have something or someone to rely on.

After receiving a Flash Stone, Han Fei offered another sacrifice of spiritual energy and 10,000 points of spiritual energy disappeared instantly. "Shit... So much?"

Chapter 438 Start Looting

Continuing down, Han Fei stayed longer and longer on each floor.

According to his own experience, the 50th floor of the Steps into the Sea could be regarded as a watershed. Starting from the 51st floor, if sacrificing spiritual energy, it would consume at least 10,000 points of spiritual energy each time. Every floor down, the spiritual energy would be consumed by about 1,000 points more. This amount of spiritual energy to be consumed was something that many people couldn't afford, although the spiritual energy contained in a single spiritual fruit was enough for anyone to go down seven or eight floors.

However, correspondingly, the creatures summoned on each floor were getting stronger and stronger. Besides, if you took a spiritual fruit, unless you could quickly pass the coming floors within a few hours, the spiritual energy contained in the spiritual fruit was dissipating and you also needed to use spiritual energy in the fights with the summoned creatures.

Therefore, in theory, if a person had 100,000 points of spiritual energy, considering the spiritual energy used for fighting that dissipated and that was used as the sacrifice, they could probably only pass 5 floors.

As calculated by Han Fei, the price of buying an ordinary spiritual fruit on a dragon boat was about 800 to 1,000 mid-quality pearls, which could be used by ordinary people to pass 5 floors after the 50th floor. Of course, as the difficulty increased, the number of floors a person could pass would gradually decrease.

At this moment.

On the 100th floor, Han Fei sacrificed about 65,000 points of spiritual energy, which was equivalent to 6 low-quality spiritual stones and 1 ordinary spiritual fruit.

He took out the Embroidery Needle, and now his opponent was a Red Flame Python. At this moment, the Red Flame Python's head had been smashed by Han Fei's powerful blow.

Han Fei was overjoyed to see the reward, which turned out to be a Soul Crystal. Although it was only a first-level Soul Crystal, Han Fei had earned back all his previous investments with it alone.

It could be said that this time he didn't suffer a loss!

The Hexagon Starfish pleaded, "Give me this one. You've already got two."

Han Fei didn't enter the 101st floor in a hurry, but asked, "Master Hexagon, how shall I use this stuff? Eat it?"

"Yes, just eat it! But it's not delicious. Give it to me please!"

Han Fei smiled without saying a word and directly threw the Soul Crystal into his mouth. However, with a chomp, he almost broke his teeth.

"F*ck, it's so hard? Are you sure this stuff is eaten directly?"

Han Fei spat out the Soul Crystal and found that the small crystal had not changed at all.

The Hexagon Starfish rolled its many eyes. "Don't chew it! Just swallow it into your stomach directly."

Han Fei questioned, "Did you eat one?"

The Hexagon Starfish's eyes rolled. "I haven't eaten it, but I feel I can swallow it directly."

"Shut up."

Han Fei's face blackened. You feel? F*ck... I'm not a damn starfish. Just because you can swallow it doesn't mean I can do it too!

Han Fei thought that he needed to ask someone how to absorb the Soul Crystal. He had only two Soul Crystals, so he couldn't give one to the Hexagon Starfish.

With this in mind, Han Fei stopped for the first time on the Steps into the Sea.

Before, he stayed for ten minutes or so on each floor to test the amount of spiritual energy required to sacrifice on each floor. Therefore, he hadn't strolled on every floor.

Now Han Fei could guess that the 101st floor below would be another watershed. The amount of spiritual energy required to sacrifice on the 101st floor wouldn't be small. The garbage items accumulated on the upper floors wouldn't even be enough to support him to pass two more floors.

Should he use his stored spiritual energy?

Han Fei didn't think it necessary. He only needed to test the spiritual energy to be consumed on the first two floors after each watershed.

If he kept using spiritual energy, his spiritual energy would run out!

Unable to get what he wanted, the Hexagon Starfish could only hang onto Han Fei's calf, his tentacles gently scratching his leg. The Hexagon Starfish secretly complained in his heart, Didn't you say you would share treasures with me? But look what I've gotten now!

Each floor of the Steps into the Sea was like a square chessboard. No matter from which angle you looked at it, it looked like you were in the ocean. However, the feeling of your feet on the ground told you that you were standing on a flat plane.

Han Fei jumped out and ran for about 5 kilometers. Then he saw an armorist who was an advanced Dangling Fisher fighting with a Machete Crab. That Machete Crab was a mutant creature and could even be regarded as an exotic one.

Seeing Han Fei swimming over, with something glowing silver in his hand, the man couldn't help but frown.

Han Fei swam over happily, took out the Soul Crystal, and asked via voice transmission, Hey! Brother, do you know how to use a Soul Crystal?

The advanced Dangling Fisher, looking at Han Fei as if looking at a fool said in surprise, "Huh? Is this thing called a Soul Crystal?"

Han Fei: "???"

Han Fei was speechless and suddenly remembered that Cao Qiu said that most people didn't know much about these. It seemed that what he said was true.

The man suddenly drew a long knife from his armor box, which issued a dazzling light, and hacked the Machete Crab to death.

Then, without blinking, the man grabbed a small sword in the water ball and stuffed it into his Sea Swallowing Seashell.

Although the person's speed was very fast, Han Fei found out that what he got was only a high-quality magic weapon, which was not a good return. However, on the dragon boats, a high-quality magic weapon was not cheap. It could be said that this person had also made a profit.

This person quickly swallowed a pill, filled his body with spiritual energy, and then put the armor box in front of him. "Give me that stone."

Han Fei wondered, "Why?"

The man smiled grimly. "Because you are only an intermediate Dangling Fisher." This person certainly saw Han Fei's bizarre outfit and the word "Die" written on Han Fei's hat.

However, he was only an intermediate Dangling Fisher. Would there really be so many geniuses in this world who could challenge people of higher levels? He was very confident that he could win against this weird boy.

Han Fei couldn't believe what he heard. "So, you want to rob me?"

The armorist smiled coldly. "You can say so." Han Fei immediately sneered. "Don't my clothes make you wonder about me? Do you know who I am? Now, give me your Sea Swallowing Shell..."

"What?"

Han Fei knew that if he wanted to return to the sea surface, he needed to communicate with the Steps into the Sea. Just like entering the next floor, it would take several minutes.

When the armorist saw Han Fei's brilliant smile, he suddenly felt his heart skip a beat and immediately took out a Flash Stone.

However, something shocking happened. The seawater beside him was completely out of his control, and he didn't even have the time to crush the Flash Stone before he suddenly couldn't sense his hand.

"You..."

This person hurriedly called out a three-sided turtle shield. However, when a blade flashed across, the shield shattered, and a circle of invisible blades was madly cutting his body.

"No! Please spare me..."

Han Fei slowly hung the Blood Drinking Knife at his waist, and as his fingers slid gently in the water, the seawater turned into many looming sharp blades, cutting the armorist frantically.

Han Fei grinned and smiled. The Infinity Water that could kill imperceptibly was simply amazing, even better than the Blood Drinking Knife!

Han Fei said lightly, "Thank you for reminding me. Otherwise, I almost forgot that starting from the 100th floor, I can start looting." Before the armorist finished his words, his body was pierced by a strange water-shaped blade. At the last moment of his life, he seemed to understand a truth, that was, never ever think others aren't as smart as you.

Han Fei took this man's Sea Swallowing Shell, glanced at it, and shook his head helplessly. This person's belongings were much poorer than he expected.

There were less than 30 kinds of refining materials in the Sea Swallowing Shell, of which a piece of fish bone was the best. Judging by its quality, it could be used for making high-quality spiritual weapons.

Unfortunately, there was only one piece! To make a complete high-quality spiritual weapon, Han Fei would have to find at least 10 fish bones of the same size.

In addition to these materials, there were 5 spiritual fruits, less than 30 catties of spiritual spring, and five or six bottles of pills in this man's Sea Swallowing Shell.

But it was better than nothing. In this place, everything could be sacrificed. Although there were not many things in this man's Sea Swallowing Shell, they might be enough for him to continue down ten floors.

Putting away the Sea Swallowing Shells, Han Fei didn't feel pity for this guy at all. Everyone who came to the level-three fishery was prepared for their death. After you were used to death, you wouldn't easily pity anyone. This guy wanted to kill him first. Why should he sympathize with him?

Of course, it didn't mean that Han Fei was bloodthirsty. It completely depended on a person's attitude towards him if Han Fei decided to be hostile or friendly to a person.

Han Fei continued to swim in the water, without direction or goal, as long as he could meet people. Han Fei still didn't find a single person after swimming seven or eight kilometers. However, he didn't give up. He noticed that there were ripples underwater. If he guessed right, there must be some people fighting within swimming distance.

Chapter 439 I Want Money, Not Life

The Steps into the Sea was a very strange place, and the resources it had seemed to be endless.

In the level-three fishery, divine weapons were very rare, but almost everyone had one or two spiritual weapons. And a very important source for these was the Steps into the Sea.

At this moment, more than 20 people were fighting each other.

There were no summoned creatures here, which meant that no one had offered sacrifices yet. It was conceivable that these people were probably all trying to snatch each other's Sea Swallowing Seashells...

At this moment, Han Fei was negotiating with the Hexagon Starfish.

"Master Hexagon, tie them up with your six-gate formation. Then, all the shiny things in their Sea Swallowing Seashells will belong to you, and the remaining things will belong to me."

The Hexagon Starfish didn't quite believe him. "Then what about Soul Crystals?"

"Those things are precious, the first one belongs to me, and the second one belongs to you."

The Hexagon Starfish's eyes kept rolling. "But you've already got two."

Han Fei said earnestly, "I just don't want you to waste them. Look, we are already on the 100th floor. These people don't even know what a Soul Crystal is. What does this mean?"

The Hexagon Starfish wondered, "What does it mean?"

Han Fei said leisurely, "Being able to come here means that these people are no longer ordinary people. However, even so, Soul Crystals are something they have never seen. This shows that Soul Crystals matter more than we know. We can't eat them randomly."

The six eyes of the Hexagon Starfish were tilted at the same time. "You just don't want me to eat them!"

Han Fei stomped. "Damn! Am I a tightwad?"

"Then give me an extra-quality spiritual stone."

Han Fei. "..."

Han Fei replied, "Don't speak anymore. If you don't obey me, I will crush your essence blood."

The Hexagon Starfish had learned to show the whites of his eyes to express contempt now. Yes, you're a tightwad! You have so many spiritual stones. Why can't you just give me one? Humph, humans are all bastards, hypocritical bastards.

"Liu Qing, put down the Dragon Pattern Stone. Otherwise, you won't be able to go out of the Steps into the Sea!"

The one who was called Liu Qing was not a man but an attractive woman. In her hands, two nooses were winding around her body like spiritual snakes.

At her feet, there were large tracts of red vines.

What surprised Han Fei was that these more than 20 people were actually besieging this woman. The point was that they hadn't been able to kill her yet...

WO

However, when Han Fei saw the nooses in Liu Qing's hands, he noticed the reddish venom they were exuding and then he knew why they couldn't kill her yet. She was a peak-level Dangling Fisher manipulator who could use poison. Such a person was a bit similar to Yang Huan, to whom ordinary people weren't comparable.

Besides, all those who were trying to trap her were advanced Dangling Fishers, not a single peak-level Dangling Fisher. Liu Qing, surrounded by this group of people, was standing among the red vines that bloomed like flowers and looked around at those people. "Come on, I'd like to see how many of you can survive!"

"Kill! Kill her, sell the Dragon Pattern Stone, each of us can get at least 100,000 mid-quality pearls." Han Fei smiled. For advanced Dangling Fishers, 100,000 mid-quality pearls was already a lot of money. Unfortunately, in his opinion, this was a bunch of fresh and inexperienced people.

Just as they dashed at the woman together, suddenly, six purple lights appeared out of thin air.

Someone's face changed drastically. "Not good! Retreat!"

Someone crushed a Flash Stone but ended up bumping into the six-gate formation with a bang

Han Fei casually walked over, looking at these people coldly. "I'm the Black Ghost of the Black and White Ghosts. I want money, not Life. Put down your Sea Swallowing Shells, and you can leave."

Han Fei's sudden appearance stunned these people.

Liu Qing was also stunned. An intermediate Dangling Fisher?

Someone's face changed slightly. "Brothers, cut through this formation. He is just an intermediate Dangling Fisher. Find a way out!"

However, as soon as the person shouted this, he saw Han Fei jump over and cut at him with the Blood Drinking Knife that was dazzlingly shining

"No! Help!"

Some armorists summoned turtle shell shields and some manipulators' spiritual grass entangled him. However, these obstacles were easily shattered by Han Fei with a single slash.

At this moment, a fishhook broke through the air in an instant, fell in front of the clamoring soul warrior, and hooked his feet.

Swoosh...

This person was pulled out of the six-gate formation by Han Fei. Before he could cut the fishing line, a stone had already smashed into him.

"Ouff..."

The man vomited blood and was sent flying, his arms slumping softly. Han Fei threatened again, "You can buy your lives with money. Or else I'll chop off your limbs, gouge your eyes, and cut off your tongue..."

"Hiss..."

"No..."

The soul warrior who fell to the ground was horrified and secretly held a Flash Stone.

However, in the next second, he saw the whetstone smash at him like a huge seal, damaging his five internal organs, making him bleed from his seven orifices.

This person was horrified. "Aren't you only an intermediate Dangling Fisher? I give you my Sea Swallowing Seashell..."

Han Fei still cut down and the blade glint was dazzling. "You were trying to escape. As a punishment, I will break your limbs. Fortunately, you repented, so I won't take your five sense organs."

When Han Fei took the Sea Swallowing Shell left by this soul warrior, he ignored him. The soul warrior dragged his remnant body and fled like crazy. The six-gate formation opened and the person disappeared from his vision in a blink of an eye.

Han Fei straightened his hat and then said coldly, "I want money, not Life. You have one minute to consider."

After that, Han Fei dropped his hands, counting down glassy-eyed, “10... 9... 8... 3...”

“OK, OK.”

Han Fei was too heavy-handed and this purple light formation was also scary. The formation that they couldn't get out of even with a Flash Stone was definitely not something they could easily break.

When someone threw out his Sea Swallowing Seashell, a gap would open in front of him. And the person who surrendered his Sea Swallowing Shells would flee in a hurry.

Seeing someone leave, there would be a second one immediately, a third...

After a while, in the six-gate formation, only the manipulator named Liu Qing was left.

Han Fei tilted his head. “I want money, not Life... Are you going to give me your money or not?”

Liu Qing's eyes turned cold. “Cut it out... Come on, I'm waiting for you here if you want to kill me!”

Han Fei stepped into the six-gate formation and then stepped up to Liu Qing.

In an instant, the red vine raged, and the nooses were like snakes, directly covering Han Fei.

Liu Qing snorted. “You are very arrogant. Unfortunately, even peak-level Dangling Fishers aren't able to survive my Red Moon Poison Toad.”

BAM! BAM! BAM!

As soon as Liu Qing finished speaking, all the red vines shattered and Han Fei grabbed the two nooses and let the red poison spread on his palms.

Seeing this scene, Liu Qing was shocked and a red toad appeared behind her, with dark red poison bursting out. Immediately afterward, dozens of columns of dark red venom darted at Han Fei.

The corners of Han Fei's mouth curled slightly. He pulled the nooses abruptly, and Liu Qing fell forward as pulled by him.

What greeted her was a rectangular slab... Um... Whetstone.

BAM!

Liu Qing was smashed to the ground by Han Fei like a cannonball. As for her red venom, it was led away by waves of water that couldn't even get close to Han Fei's side. Han Fei's voice was calm and there was no emotion in his eyes.

“You can buy your life with money. Put down your Sea Swallowing Shell and I can spare your life.”

Liu Qing sat up with difficulty, frowned, and looked at Han Fei. “Who are you?”

Han Fei didn't bother to speak to her but instead waved his knife, cutting the red vines into pieces, which all fell on Liu Qing in the end.

Bang..

“Huh?”

In Han Fei’s somewhat surprised eyes, Liu Qing appeared in another place. And what was cut just now was just a round red vine.

Liu Qing immediately took out her Sea Swallowing Shell. “I give you my money.”

Han Fei grabbed the Sea Swallowing Shell, looked inside, and took out a black stone in it.

Han Fei looked at it carefully, but the Demon Purification Pot had no response. However, he squeezed it hard and cut it gently with the Blood Drinking Knife, and there was only a shallow white mark left on the stone.

“Not bad.”

Han Fei raised his head and glanced at Liu Qing. “I give you time to get your reinforcements, go!”

Ever since Liu Qing was besieged, she had already planned to blow herself up. Later, this Han Fei popped up out of blue and seemed even tougher! As far as she knew, there were very few people like Han Fei in the level-three fishery, who didn’t kill her although he could easily kill her.

Everyone knew a truth: kindness to the enemy was cruelty to oneself.

However, Han Fei even told her to get her reinforcements. What did he mean?

Liu Qing took a look at Han Fei and left quickly without saying a word.

A Soul Crystal and a Dragon Pattern Stone, these were the two best items Han Fei had obtained here for now.

He immediately checked the Sea Swallowing Shells of the others, which were generally similar to the one he got from the armorer he killed, containing very few things but their quality was slightly higher. In short, none of these people had anything really good. This inevitably made him a little disappointed. Is the 100th floor not enough? Are the good things still down below?

Chapter 440 The Poor Dragon Eel

After about half a day, Han Fei robbed 43 people in total. He seemed to snatch a lot of Sea Swallowing Shells, but there were no useful things in them.

Han Fei suddenly felt that his strategy was wrong.

He shouldn’t rob people on the 100th floor. Most of those who stayed on this floor didn’t want to go down or were frightened by the huge consumption of the lower floors.

During the period, Han Fei encountered another robber. The man had 18 Sea Swallowing Shells and was a hunter who was good at sneak attacks.

On the 100th floor, the quality of this hunter’s treasure was the best. But even so, there were no Soul Crystals in his Sea Swallowing Shells, which made Han Fei a little disappointed.

Then what about the 101st floor?

According to Han Fei's estimation, starting from the 101st floor, the number of people would decrease. And those who had the ability to reach that floor were at least advanced Dangling Fishers.

Good things, of course, would be found from the strongest people. Therefore, Han Fei chose to enter the 101st floor.

This time, Han Fei only met one person, who was not fighting but seemed to be passing by. He saw Han Fei. "An intermediate Dangling Fisher?" This person paused in the water for a moment, seeming to be thinking about whether to rob Han Fei or not.

However, when Han Fei turned to look at him, this person directly crushed a Flash Stone and fled quickly.

Han Fei: "???"

Han Fei was speechless. The man was an advanced Dangling Fisher! But why did he escape as soon as he took a look at him?

And the man swore in his head, Damn, the Black and White Ghosts! Have these two bastards also entered the Steps into the Sea?

Han Fei had just entered this floor and didn't think it a pity that the man ran away.

He picked up a spiritual fruit containing 78,989 points of spiritual energy and directly sacrificed it.

However, to Han Fei's surprise, the Steps into the Sea didn't accept the nearly 80,000 points of spiritual energy.

"Huh... What's wrong? Does the 101st floor demand such a high price?"

Han Fei remembered that when he was on the 100th floor, if he sacrificed spiritual energy, only 65,000 points would be enough.

With only a one-floor difference, the level of sacrifice had improved so much?

Han Fei immediately took out another low-quality spiritual stone, which contained 12,116 points of spiritual energy, so he sacrificed more than 90,000 points of spiritual energy in total.

However, it still didn't work. "Does it require 100,000?"

Han Fei frowned and took out another low-quality spiritual stone.

This time, the spiritual fruit in his hand disappeared, one spiritual stone shattered, and another spiritual stone was full of cracks as if it was about to break at any time...

"Shoot..."

Han Fei was a little shocked. A sacrifice of 100,000 points of spiritual energy! In the level-three fishery, how many people could afford this price? Even if converted into mid-quality pearls, it would be nearly 1.5 million mid-quality pearls.

This price was not expensive in Han Fei's view. However, on the 100th floor, those people even had to fight for 100,000 mid-quality pearls, and the sacrifice of 1.5 million mid-quality pearls seemed very expensive...

The water was rippling, and in Han Fei's shocked stare, a creature he was very familiar with swam up from the water.

"A Dragon Eel?"

Han Fei's face went dark. A Dragon Eel on the 101st floor?

Han Fei swallowed. Dragon Eels were not low-leveled creatures! Although he had killed a Dragon Eel when he was still a great fishing master, he was almost killed by the Dragon Eel that time. Besides, only by relying on the Demon Purification Pot to suck up the spiritual energy of that Dragon Eel did he manage to kill

The Dragon Eel in front of him was much stronger than that one, 5 levels higher.

<Name> Dragon Eel

<Introduction> A demonic fish of dragon heritage, living on dragon bones, is extremely cold-resistant, has a tough body, and powerful high-voltage electricity.

<Level> 38

<Quality> Exotic

<Contained Spiritual Energy> 2,484 points

<Edible Effect> Inedible

<Non-Absorbable>

In terms of strength, this Dragon Eel was equivalent to an advanced Dangling Fisher. However, Dragon Eels were capable of discharging electricity and were extremely powerful in the ocean no matter in strength or speed.

"Sure enough, this level and the upper level are completely two different worlds."

Han Fei grinned, looked at the Dragon Eel that was pouncing at him, slightly turned, and punched the Dragon Eel's gills.

Sizzle...

A strong electric power rushed directly into Han Fei's body.

"Hum..."

Han Fei's body stiffened. However, as he shuddered, the electric current dispersed into his limbs.

Following that, a giant tail swept across.

Han Fei grabbed the Dragon Eel's tail. Its tremendous power made Han Fei take a step back. However, he turned over and rode on the eel.

“Come on! Keep going!”

Sizzle...

Bubble...

Han Fei spat out a string of bubbles, but he was not panicked at all.

Perhaps for some ordinary advanced Dangling Fishers, encountering creatures like Dragon Eels would be very troublesome and even a little scary. However, to Han Fei, the eel was simply harmless to him. Unless it was level 40 or above, it was just a mobile charger, pumping a lot of energy into his body from time to time...

Sizzle...

Sizzle...

The Dragon Eel was very angry, it kept rampaging and got extremely irritable.

After less than ten minutes, however, the Dragon Eel quieted down.

It was very upset. Is it because my electric power is not strong enough? Why doesn't the guy on my back react at all?

And Han Fei was enjoying the huge energy. He had to admit that a Dragon Eel was not even inferior to the famous freak octopus in terms of comprehensive capabilities. He couldn't imagine what would happen if an octopus bit a Dragon Eel? Based on the octopus's properties, it was likely to run away...

However, while Han Fei was enjoying his time, the Hexagon Starfish was suffering. Several times, the Hexagon Starfish was electrocuted and fell from Han Fei's calf. However, Han Fei grabbed him back and put him on his shoulder.

The Hexagon Starfish pleaded, “Human, can you kill this big fish? I feel that I am going to blow up from the power of the electric current.”

Han Fei said to him via voice transmission, Master Hexagon, you are already a level-43 creature. Why are you afraid of this level-38 eel?

The Hexagon Starfish's eyes turned glassy. “My body is not strong enough!”

Han Fei wondered. “Really? Oh, I'm sorry. However, the electric energy of this Dragon Eel can strengthen your body. Have you tried absorbing it?” “Give me my essence blood! I think I can go hunting for treasures alone.” “Gee! How troublesome it will be! There is strength in numbers. Many hands make light work.”

The Hexagon Starfish: “...”

The Dragon Eel had run out of electricity and was completely defeated by Han Fei. At this moment, it went limp and no longer moved, but with a “bang”, a brick hit its head.

“Swim! You haven’t even swum 10,000 meters. Are you a fish? You’re a disgrace to fish.” Han Fei was very aware of the properties of Dragon Eels. Although it ran out of electricity, it still had a lot of strength. He certainly wouldn’t let it slack off! Being knocked hard, the Dragon Eel rampaged again.

Then a strange phenomenon appeared on the 101st floor: a boy with air bubbles all over, riding on a dragon-shaped eel that was more than ten meters long, swimming in the water.

Liu De had been on the 101st floor for seven full days. In the past few days, he had repeatedly offered sacrifices and had gained a lot in return.

At this moment, he summoned a large Blue Ring Octopus, which was very rare! He felt that he might be going to make a fortune this time...

“Puchi...”

Liu De took out his glinting knife and a huge octopus tentacle was cut off by him. “Haha! I’m destined to get a great opportunity today.”

Just as Liu De was about to strike hard again, he saw a Dragon Eel rushing over in the distance.

“Huh? Why is there a single summoned creature? Is the summoner killed?”

However, when the eel approached, Liu De suddenly widened his eyes. A figure was sitting on the back of the Dragon Eel!

“Oh! Is this someone’s contractual spiritual beast?” Liu De glanced at the dying Blue Ring Octopus and suddenly gritted his teeth, and all nine swords shot out. As the nine swords danced, the Blue Ring Octopus was killed. Then Liu De quickly grabbed at the water ball.

At the same time, he cursed in his heart. Damn it, this is already the last step! How can I let someone else snatch my gains?

But before the water ball appeared completely, Liu De saw a spinning knife thrown over.

“Humph! How can a mere hidden weapon beat me?”

But the next second, when the six-gate formation rose, Liu De was stunned.

The Hexagon Starfish complained via voice transmission, Why did you throw me at him?

Han Fei said plainly, “If I hadn’t done so, he might have run away. Then we would have gotten nothing!”

Han Fei smiled. “Brother, now hand over your Sea Swallowing Shell!”
