

Chapter 491 I'm Just Passing By

Han Fei let out a sigh of relief when he saw Zhang Xuanyu. Fortunately, Zhang Xuanyu was still on the dragon boat. If he went into the ocean alone, he really didn't know where to find him.

To be honest, Han Fei wasn't sure if Zhang Xuanyu was on the dragon boat or not. However, as long as he was brought in by the Specter, where else could he go except for the dragon boat?

Therefore, he felt that Zhang Xuanyu was probably on the dragon boat!

At this moment, Zhang Xuanyu had completely forgotten the crab and even the crab roe in his mouth fell out.

Zhang Xuanyu withdrew the seal with a swish, rushing at Han Fei, trying to give him a bear hug. Han Fei quickly avoided the embrace and kicked him in disgust. "Go away, I don't want to hug a drooling idiot."

"Ha, haha... Hahaha..."

Zhang Xuanyu happily laughed out loud. No one was more excited than him. Seeing this, the Sun Ruoruo trio was stunned.

Zhang Xuanyu slammed Han Fei's chest. "Fei Fei! If you had come a little later, I would have rushed out to fight them."

Han Fei sneered. "You're bragging! Rush out to eat the blue fish?"

"Watch out."

As Han Fei laughed and scolded, he heard Wang Baiwan's reminder.

However, Han Fei threw a punch without looking back. Under the surge of spiritual energy, seven or eight blue mutants were directly sent flying, rolling several times on the ground.

Han Fei grinned. "Oh, you learned how to use a seal?"

Zhang Xuanyu looked at the mutant humans that were rushing at them in surprise and asked in astonishment, "How did you get here?"

Han Fei grunted. "By foot! I had been calling you outside, but you couldn't hear me. Someone on the top floor told me that a dozen people went to the bottom floor after getting on the dragon boat."

Zhang Xuanyu hurriedly pulled Han Fei back, then waved his hand, and encircled them with a seal. "Come on, bro, give me something to eat. I'm so hungry."

Sun Ruoruo and the others quickly stepped aside and looked at Han Fei in shock. How did this guy pop up from nowhere? How could he get in? Sun Ruoruo tugged at Zhang Xuanyu's arm, looking at Han Fei and asking carefully, "Who is he?"

Zhang Xuanyu instantly beamed with a smile. "He is my buddy. Hahaha, my buddy Han Fei."

Han Fei also looked at them curiously and Zhang Xuanyu introduced them one by one. "Sun Ruoruo, Wang Baiwan, Liu Fenfang. We had a lot of people but now only four of us left.

Han Fei nodded slightly. "I see. It seems that you only have 20% or 30% of strength left. Tsk... Are you happy now? Why the hell did you run to the Abyssal Chasm?"

Zhang Xuanyu said helplessly, "I didn't have a chance to run elsewhere!" "Growl!"

At this time, Liu Fenfang's stomach growled and he quickly glanced at the big crab on the ground.

Before he pounced to eat it, Han Fei kicked the raw crab out of the seal. In an instant, a large group of blue mutants rushed up and dismembered the big crab in a blink, and even the sap on the ground was licked.

"Hey! What are you doing?! This was our last bit of food!"

Sun Ruoruo and the others immediately frowned and glared at Han Fei darkly, even with a murderous desire in their eyes.

Han Fei smiled and said, "Can that thing be eaten raw?"

Sun Ruoruo's face was cold. "Do you know how precious food is here?"

Zhang Xuanyu scratched his head awkwardly, chuckled but did not speak. Then he just sat on the ground and stretched out his hand to Han Fei.

Han Fei casually waved his hand and a pile of Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber crisps flew to them.

Zhang Xuanyu smiled. "What is this? Did you still have the time to study cuisine here?"

Han Fei sneered. "Did you think I was like
you?"

Crunch... Crunch... Crunch... The Sun Ruoruo trio, who were still murderous just now, were madly stuffing the crisps into their mouths, for fear that the crisps would be gone if they didn't swallow them as soon as possible.

Han Fei casually took out the pot, as well as a Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber and dozens of seasonings.

When they saw this scene, their eyes almost popped out.

"Wow!"

Liu Fenfang exclaimed, "Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber, this stuff is all energy!"

Wang Baiwan's body stiffened, and Han Fei felt that this guy would shed tears of happiness at any moment. "Gulp! God, am I dreaming?"

Sun Ruoruo directly sat on the ground, wishing to hold the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber in her arms right away.

Only Zhang Xuanyu scratched his head. "Come on, cook!"

Crunch! As Han Fei chewed the crisps, the Blood Drinking Knife floated automatically and then cut and sliced the ingredients. The fish oil was poured into the pot and stir-fried for a while. The seasonings were thrown into the pan with a sizzle, which was like the most beautiful music in the world to these people's ears.

Before the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber was put into the pot, the fragrance was already overflowing. The strong aroma directly caused these people to cry. When the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber was cut into sections and put into the pot, the flames soared to the sky and Han Fei began to stir-fry it.

Gulp!

Sun Ruoruo cried, this time she really cried.

"Brother, you will be my dearest brother from now on."

Liu Fenfang hugged Han Fei's thigh.

"Brother, from now on, my life is yours. You have my word!"

Saliva dripped from Wang Baiwan's mouth and he couldn't move his eyes away.

Only Zhang Xuanyu was still calm. "Watch your manners! Look at me, am I crying? Am I panicking? I'm not panicking at all, I'm very calm..."

Han Fei scoffed. "Zhang Xuanyu, don't stick your paws into my pot."

Then they enjoyed a gluttonous feast. Of course, it would have been perfect if there were not so many blue mutants flopping outside the seal.

Zhang Xuanyu and the other three had completely put aside their table manners. Their image was not important at all compared to the food.

Han Fei only ate two pieces of sea cucumber and occasionally put a crisp into his mouth, watching the four people devouring the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers.

After eating only half, the bodies of the four of them were exuding with energy, their faces all flushed, and their bodies were recovering at an extremely fast speed.

Unfortunately, Sun Ruoruo and the other two were too weak, and the strongest Wang Baiwan was only a peak-level Dangling Fisher. Sun Ruoruo, the weakest, was only an intermediate Dangling Fisher.

However, what surprised Han Fei was that Zhang Xuanyu was still eating. Even if his energy was already surging, he still didn't stop eating

"Hey! Yuyu! Are you going to break through to become an advanced Dangling Fisher?"

Zhang Xuanyu said, chewing. "Yes! If I hadn't entered this damn place, I would have made the breakthrough long ago."

However, Zhang Xuanyu's physique was still incomparable to Han Fei's. Even if the four of them were eating a single Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber, there was still one-third left.

They ate with their hands. Who knew if there was any drool or dirty stuff in the pot? So Han Fei said disgustedly, "Whoever finishes eating last will wash the pot." "Wash the pot?"

Liu Fenfang and the other two looked at Han Fei in astonishment. Han Fei blinked. "Well, I don't eat leftovers."

"Are you going to dump the food?"

Sun Ruoruo lunged to her feet and stared at Han Fei in shock. Zhang Xuanyu felt ashamed for them. "All of you, sit down! Just stuff the remaining food into your Sea Swallowing Seashells."

"Huh? Can we?"

Han Fei waved his hand. "Take it! I still have a lot."

These people couldn't believe what they heard! Who the hell would put so much seafood in their Sea Swallowing Seashell? The space in a Sea Swallowing Seashell was limited. Wasn't it supposed to be used for storing treasures?

Seeing the flesh and blood of these people recovering quickly, Han Fei asked Zhang Xuanyu, "What happened to you? I only heard that you had an accident in the Flowstone Pit. I was planning to save you, but then I heard that you entered the Abyssal Chasm, so I went to find Xia Xiaochan first."

Zhang Xuanyu smiled bitterly. "I was so out of luck..."

After listening to Zhang Xuanyu's account, Han Fei knew that it turned out that the Flowstone Pit was the source of the dragon boat's mineral deposits. But they needed people to dig the huge mine, so they cheated and kidnapped people to mine for them. Zhang Xuanyu was unfortunate and was trapped in that place from the beginning.

However, this guy actually found an opportunity from the Flowstone Pit. Because there were other people here, Zhang Xuanyu only briefly mentioned he got a sealing technique from there, and Han Fei didn't ask much about it.

And Han Fei also learned that Zhang Xuanyu didn't lead dozens of people to rebel but more than 600.

In that battle, nearly 400 people were killed on the spot and their blood even dyed the Flowstone Pit red, and no fewer than 30 peak-level Dangling Fishers died. But dragon boats kept this incident a secret, so it didn't attract much attention.

In the end, Zhang Xuanyu led some people to escape, all of whom were very strong. Unfortunately, no matter how strong they were, they couldn't resist the hunting of a group of peak-level Dangling Fishers. Therefore, they could only hide in the Abyssal Chasm.

Finishing his story, Zhang Xuanyu smiled. "Fortunately, you've come and we can finally go out."

However, Han Fei shook his head and said, "You can go out, but I'm just passing by." "Puff! Are you kidding me? What do you mean by 'passing by'?" Han Fei said seriously, "I did just pass by and save you by the way. I still have to explore this place." "Huh?"

Chapter 492 The Creature in the Mist

Zhang Xuanyu was stunned.

So were the other three. You are going to continue to explore this damn place? Are you trying to commit suicide...

Han Fei said to Zhang Xuanyu via voice transmission, I have to go explore. I have my reasons.

Zhang Xuanyu looked at him seriously. "I'm going with you."

Sun Ruoruo exclaimed, "Are you crazy?"

Zhang Xuanyu smiled. "It's okay! If I was a coward, I would have died a long time ago. How can I still live to this day?"

Han Fei shook his head. "No, if you have a way, take these people out."

Zhang Xuanyu's face changed slightly. "Don't! I can't promise you this. If I didn't see you, I would not have been able to stop you from going in alone. But now that you're right in front of me, how can I let you go alone?"

Han Fei thought for a moment. "It seems that it is more dangerous inside. Isn't the biggest danger of the Abyssal Chasm that the energy will be drained?"

Zhang Xuanyu shook his head slightly. "The direct cause of so many people's deaths in the Abyssal Chasm is indeed the dissipation of energy. On the way back, there will still be a section of the sea where fishing boats can't move. But I think if this is the case, there will still be many Heavenly Talents who can leave alive. As long as they are ruthless enough to kill many people and save their bodies as food, they can still swim out."

Han Fei pondered, Yes! When the dragon boat came in, there were 180,000 people on it! Besides, there should be no shortage of food on the dragon boat. Why didn't these people make it out?

Besides, wasn't there a section of the sea where fishing boats couldn't travel? Then how did the dragon boat pass through that sea area?

Han Fei suddenly realized that he was far from understanding the horrors of this place. There must be a bigger obstacle awaiting him!

Han Fei smiled and said, "Let's go. Let's get out of here first... By the way, can these blue guys still be saved?"

Zhang Xuanyu shook his head. "There is no way to rescue them. Those above the fish tank may still be saved, but the people under the fish tank are almost hopeless." Wang Baiwan sighed. "Brother Han, you haven't seen them killing and gnawing on each other. At that time, they looked just like beasts."

Han Fei wondered, "Why don't they eat the blue fish?"

Liu Fenfang rubbed his belly that was no longer loose, saying, "They became like this just because they ate the blue fish. Those blue fish can be eaten, but you can't eat too much. The more you eat them, the more you'll get lost. In the end, they had lost the ability of fishing and wouldn't be able to catch the little blue fish anymore. So... They began to kill and eat each other."

10r

Han Fei took a deep breath. "Damn it... Let's go, go to the first floor. I think people above the first floor can still be rescued."

Han Fei was surely not a saint, but these people were all innocent. They had no intention to hurt him and most of them lost consciousness or even went crazy. In Han Fei's opinion, people could die in battle, be killed in robbery, or even be eaten by fish, but shouldn't starve to death. Since the four of them had recovered their peak state, they were no longer afraid to go out. After all, no matter the blue mutants or the people above the 1st floor, less than a tenth of their strength remained. At this moment, any of the five of them could easily kill those people. Han Fei couldn't help wondering, "Is there anything else strange below this level?"

Sun Ruoruo suddenly said, "Yes."

Wang Baiwan shot back, "You are mistaken."

Liu Fenfang added, "Ruoruo, what you saw was not true. Among us, only you saw that. And for such a long time, that thing you said hasn't come to us, indicating that it doesn't exist at all. You must have had an illusion at the time."

Zhang Xuanyu nodded. "But we can't be sure it doesn't exist."

Han Fei was puzzled. "What are you talking about?"

Sun Ruoruo quickly explained, "It's a monster. At the time, we were chased down from above and tried to activate the spirit absorption array on the dragon boat, but then I saw a monster in the water where contractual spiritual beasts used to be kept, which had a human face and was smiling at me."

Han Fei couldn't help but exclaim, "Oh, that sounds scary."

Sun Ruoruo said, "Yes, it surely was! The place where we are now is also scary!"

Han Fei frowned, remembering that Xiao Se had told him that there was danger under the boat. But he did not encounter any danger all the way down! Besides, he thought that even if he encountered danger, he would not be afraid.

Han Fei smiled. "Let's go! If there is really a danger, we won't be able to get out. But once we go out, the dangers below will have nothing to do with us."

Zhang Xuanyu nodded, carrying a mid-quality spiritual stick. "Let's fight our way out."

Han Fei smiled. "Shit, why are you still using a mid-quality spiritual weapon?"

Zhang Xuanyu: "???"

Han Fei casually threw him a high-quality spiritual stick and a high-quality battle suit. "I don't have time now. I will get you an ultra-quality spiritual stick later."

Zhang Xuanyu was dumbfounded. "Are, are you serious? An ultra-quality spiritual weapon?"

Wang Wanwan and the other two swallowed. F*ck, this guy is damn rich. It was a high-quality spiritual weapon! And he just casually threw it to Zhang Xuanyu!

But this was not the time to be curious. They should get out of here as soon as possible.

Han Fei smiled. "Have you ever taken these people's Sea Swallowing Seashells?"

Zhang Xuanyu nodded. "Of course I did. But most of these people are not strong, and there is nothing good in their Sea Swallowing Seashells. I suspect that they had traded their treasures for food. Therefore, there is nothing good left in them."

Yes, it made sense. If they were going to starve to death, what was the use of their treasures?

"Roar..."

"Hooooooo!"

As soon as the seal was removed, Han Fei's fists were glowing with golden light and he punched out as fast as the wind, sending dozens of people who tried to approach Han Fei flying in the blink of an eye.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

As Han Fei punched, a fierce huge gust of wind swept past. Wherever the fist wind hit, people flew across.

"Wow!"

Liu Fenfang and the two looked at each other. "So powerful, so fierce."

Zhang Xuanyu was also shocked. "Fei Fei, when did you learn a fist technique? Why didn't I know this?"

Han Fei sneered. "As soon as we separated, you were locked up in the Flowstone Pit. It would be strange if you knew."

Zhang Xuanyu frowned. "No! I knew that you were on the Wanted List. But I didn't have time to pay attention to it at the time. Where did you go after?"

Han Fei said lightly, "After the Sea Grassland, I went to the Undersea City to find Xia Xiaochan.

Then, I explored the Steps into the Sea with her. So, after you leave, don't go to these places. Hurry up and find your own opportunities."

Zhang Xuanyu gnashed his teeth. "Damn it, I was really out of luck! If I were outside, I would have been on the Wanted List too."

Han Fei laughed. "Do you think you are not on the Wanted List? Xia Xiaochan and I are both on the Wanted List. Although your name is not on it, if you dare to appear in public, I bet you'll be caught in the blink of an eye."

Zhang Xuanyu rolled his eyes at him. "Isn't that because of you two?" Han Fei chatted with Zhang Xuanyu while fighting those people.

Wang Wanwan and the other two were all dumbfounded. Zhang Xuanyu's buddy is really awesome! Is he also on the Wanted List?

Just as Han Fei and Zhang Xuanyu were chatting, suddenly Han Fei's face changed. He jumped away and punched out, and a golden fist shadow shot into the mist.

BAM!

Crack!

Wooden boards were cracking, the mist was dissipating, and Han Fei saw a big tail whipping at him again. "Humph! Die!"

As soon as he summoned the Blood Drinking Knife, the blade light swept along the way, shattering all the deck boards and splitting the mist into two vortices.

Bang!

A tail several meters long rolled down to the ground.

In a flash, Han Fei had already jumped up to chase that thing

Zhang Xuanyu exclaimed, "He's so f*cking strong! This bastard, how many opportunities did he get? How can he be so strong?"

Han Fei took the lead, only to see a black figure flash over in the mist.

"Where are you going? Come back!"

Swish, Swish, Swish!

The Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers whirled in the sky frantically. Now Han Fei didn't need to know the exact location of the thing at all. He didn't believe that this monster could be faster than his daggers!

"Boohoo!"

But what happened next surprised Han Fei. He heard a baby's cry.

Swoosh!

With the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers disappearing into his body, Han Fei turned to shout at Zhang Xuanyu, "Activate the seal. Stay in the seal."

Zhang Xuanyu said, "No! I have recovered my strength. Let me join the battle."

Han Fei laughed. "Fine go ahead! That thing ran very fast and I couldn't even catch up with it."

Sun Ruoruo hurried over. "Now you know what I said is true! I did see it. There was a monster!"

Han Fei put away the Blood Drinking Knife. "More than one."

Chapter 493 Ghost Baby Salamander

The mist itself was a very creepy environment, in which hid many unknowns.

Especially the cry similar to a baby's cry, in this kind of place, it made their hair stand on end.

Han Fei frowned slightly and asked, "Did you find anything out about this creature?"

Zhang Xuanyu smiled. "Of course. Since this thing came out, those blue mutants have disappeared. It seems that they are very afraid of this thing."

Han Fei nodded. "Let's go then! Go to the first floor. Don't worry about them. If they come again, we'll just kill them."

None of the five people spoke as they seemed to be listening. All Sun Ruoruo and the other two could do was to follow Han Fei and Zhang Xuanyu closely. There were actually five floors under the dragon boat, and Han Fei and the others were now on the bottom floor. However, because of the presence of Han Fei, they moved very fast. It only took them half an hour to reach the third floor.

This floor was where the black market was. Many people who couldn't afford to live on the first floor could live here for free, so it was also the messiest place on the whole dragon boat.

When Han Fei stepped on this floor, a sharp pain suddenly shot through his brain, and then a fat human face popped up in front of his eyes.

"F*ck..."

Boom...

Han Fei was really taken aback and immediately punched out. However, under the face, a big hole full of fangs suddenly appeared.

As soon as Han Fei punched out, his fist was bitten.

Zhang Xuanyu took a breath, activated the Nine-Layered Waves in Furious Sea, and knocked the hole with his stick.

However, to their surprise, the thing turned into a cloud of fog and disappeared.

Han Fei's eyelids flickered. "It's fake!"

Han Fei and Zhang Xuanyu immediately turned around, and Zhang Xuanyu suddenly struck out with his stick and the point of the stick struck a large mouth behind Liu Fenfang.

Han Fei immediately had Nine Tails attach to him and swung the chain at the big mouth.

BAM!

The human-faced monster was thrown to the ground by Han Fei. And Liu Fenfang had been stupefied in horror with cold sweat on his forehead. He didn't feel anything at all just now! When Zhang Xuanyu took a shot, he looked back, only to see a black hole-like big mouth, which almost scared him out of pants.

Liu Fenfang staggered. "Oh my god! Thank you for saving my life, Lao Zhang and Brother Han."

Zhang Xuanyu patted him on the shoulder, while Han Fei was staring at the monster without speaking.

In his eyes, a string of data was displayed.

<Name> Ghost Baby Salamander

<Introduction> After a Deep-Sea Salamander devours a human, it absorbs shards of the human's memory and creates a ghost face, which can be objectified. It is extremely fast and can transform food into energy and store it in the void.

<Level> Level 0

<Quality> Exotic

<Contained Spiritual Energy> 2,584 points

<Eating Effect> Eating it will cause insanity

<Collectable> Hallucinating Ghost Face

<Absorbable>

Han Fei curled his lips. This thing is simply disgusting! Almost comparable to the freak octopus. Zhang Xuanyu turned pale when he saw this thing. He shivered and felt his hair stand on end.

Sun Ruoruo screamed directly and wrapped herself in seaweed, trying to protect herself from the creepy thing.

Liu Fenfang tremblingly lifted his armor box and was about to smash it on the fish's head but Han Fei stopped him.

Only Wang Baiwan said in surprise, "A dragon?"

"Boohoo!"

This Ghost Baby Salamander was flopping about. However, everyone was staring at its body at the moment. This thing was more like a lizard than a fish. Its body was blue and black. On its head, there was a distorted woman's face, which was squirming at this moment. Seeing this scene, everyone wanted to throw up. Han Fei took a deep breath and said, "You may not believe it. This is an exotic creature. Which of you is interested in making it your contractual spiritual beast?"

Han Fei would absolutely not accept it. There was already a freak octopus in the Demon Purification Pot, and he would never accept another disgusting Ghost Baby Salamander.

Otherwise, during the next fusion, there was an 80 percent chance he'd produce a freak monster.

After all, there were four creatures hanging in the Demon Purification Pot at the moment. Except for one Iron-Wall Lobster, none of the other three were normal.

The Mutant Devil Fish only had one layer of skin.

The Snake-Tentacled Shark-Faced Octopus was a sheer freak.

The Divine Seaweed Octopus that looked like a big fat green pig intestine was also ugly.

If there came another, the Ghost Baby Salamander, when could he get a third contractual spiritual beast?

Zhang Xuanyu waved his hand quickly. "No way. No, I don't want this thing."

Sun Ruoruo shook with disinterest. "Neither do I, I... EW..."

Liu Fenfang added, "No, I feel dizzy when I see it, I..."

But Wang Baiwan squatted on the ground. "I'll take it."

"You want it?"

Even Han Fei exclaimed in surprise. Is there something wrong with your aesthetics? Even you want it?

Wang Baiwan smiled and said, "Anyway, this thing is just a creature, and it's not its fault that it looks ugly. Since it is so strong, why don't I take it?"

Han Fei nodded. "OK, you can take it. There must be more than one of these things. You'd better hurry up."

Without hesitation, Wang Baiwan began to conclude a contract with the fish.

Han Fei was staring at the mist in a daze, and suddenly a faint voice came from his ear, Help me! Help me! "Who is it?"

Han Fei suddenly yelled, which startled the others.

Zhang Xuanyu quickly looked around. "Fei Fei! What's wrong?"

Han Fei stared at him. "Did you hear someone calling for help just now?"

"Help?"

The others looked at each other in confusion. It was so quiet here that you could even hear a pin drop. Where did he hear the cry for help from?

Han Fei frowned when he saw the look of the others who obviously didn't hear anything. When he listened again, he could no longer hear the cry for help. This made Han Fei doubt whether or not he had an auditory hallucination.

When the Ghost Baby Salamander was taken by Wang Baiwan, they did not see other Ghost Baby Salamanders appearing, and then they went straight to the first floor.

On the third floor, they finally heard the roars of the blue mutants, which made them let out a sigh of relief. After all, facing those blue mutants who had gone completely crazy was definitely better than facing those creepy salamanders.

"Hiss!"

"Roar!"

Han Fei made his way with his fists, and Zhang Xuanyu dragged the stick to the floor unscrupulously, not minding being heard by those blue mutants at all.

And the other three were not afraid at all either because their strength had recovered.

Although hundreds of blue mutants were rushing at them from all directions, they were soon solved by Wang Baiwan and the other two, and Han Fei didn't even need to do anything.

The five of them went straight up, and after nearly half an hour, they arrived on the deck of the first floor.

Zhang Xuanyu took a deep breath, stretched out, and yawned. "So comfortable! We've finally escaped." Liu Fenfang agreed, "It feels so good to be back on the deck."

Sun Ruoruo looked around vigilantly. "Don't forget that these people on the deck haven't completely lost consciousness. They still have a little instinct, so they are much more difficult to deal with than the blue mutants."

Han Fei raised his head and glanced over, saying, "Let's go, go directly to the top of the boat!"

Zhang Xuanyu was puzzled. "Huh! Have you met Xiao Se?"

Han Fei smiled. "Otherwise, how would I have known your whereabouts?"

The dragon boat now had no defense seals, so it was very easy to get directly on the top of the boat from the deck of the first floor. All he needed was a throw of the fishhook and he could go up.

Han Fei couldn't help but smile. He was really stupid letting that delirious woman drag him along just now.

However, as soon as they cast their fish hooks, they heard a "flop". It seemed that something had fallen into the sea.

Han Fei was still wondering and was about to take a look, only to notice that the others' faces suddenly changed.

Han Fei knew that something bad must have happened, so he immediately asked, "What happened? What fell into the sea?"

Sun Ruoruo said, shivering a little, "Human! A human has just jumped into the sea." Han Fei wondered, "Did he want to die? Did he try to swim out? But that's impossible!"

But Zhang Xuanyu shook his head slightly. "Not to swim. These people simply jumped into the sea, then sank, and died in the sea."

Han Fei couldn't believe what he heard and asked in astonishment, "Suicide?"

Zhang Xuanyu nodded. "In a sense, yes."

Liu Fenfang's face was gloomy. "This is the consequence of eating the blue fish. Some people can resist by their own will at first. As long as they're still sober-minded, they will not jump into the sea. But once..." Han Fei leaned in. "What?"

Liu Fenfang sighed. "Once they lose their hope of survival, or they are too eager to leave this place, they will jump into the sea. No one knows why."

Wang Baiwan sighed. "You might not believe it, but when they jump down, there is a bright smile on their faces."

Han Fei: "..."

"F*ck, this is a typical ghost boat incident, almost exactly the same as my original guess!"

Chapter 494 Accident

In fact, Han Fei had some speculations the moment he saw the Yellow-Winged Flying Insects.

But after he came to the dragon boat, Han Fei found that they were still conscious even though they were crazy, so he dropped his speculations and thought that it was a coincidence.

However, at this moment, he realized that many coincidences in this world might not really be coincidences but were really connected in an unknown way.

For example, when Han Fei saw the yellow-winged bugs at first, his heart actually calmed down because of a story he knew. The story went like this. A family of four people rented a boat and traveled on the sea, but the boat sank because of an accident. The family drifted on the sea for a long time before they encountered a fishing boat. The family cried for help nonstop, but nobody came to their rescue even though the boat was only dozens of meters away. Also, the deck of the boat was empty. The family could only climb the boat through the rope ladder. Then, they found that the fishing boat was empty, the engine had been turned off, and the dusty desk had nothing but a log book on it.

However, according to the log book, this boat had set sail 27 years earlier than the family boarded it. The last item on the log was "Everything has gone well since we left the boat".

Eventually, due to the lack of food, the family thought of fishing. But they needed bait for that. Then, they suddenly saw purple bugs that were flying above the sea. They caught some blue fish with the bugs as bait.

At that time, they didn't think that there was anything wrong with the blue fish. They even found the fish extremely delicious.

During their spare time, the father in the family wrote this in the log: My whole body was itchy after I was bitten by a purple bug. I hated them and used them as bait, but then I caught some blue fish that I had never seen. Those fish tasted unique and delicious.

But next day in the morning, the father found that the cabin door was open and his younger son was gone.

He searched for his son, to no avail. He was very devastated, but his older son was gone on the next day too. Fearing that his wife would disappear, he simply pretended to be sleeping that night.

As it turned out, he found that his wife walked to the deck at midnight while she was sleeping. She said, "This is the most wonderful place in the world!" Then she was about to jump into the sea.

Fortunately, she was rescued by her husband.

Later, she told her husband that somebody whispered to her, "Follow me, and don't be hasty in case anybody is woken up!"

On the deck, she saw beautiful birds flying in the sky and the ground strewn with glittering treasures. It was like heaven on earth! The joyous people there all called out to him when they saw her. The only passage to that heaven was the ladder at one side of the boat, so she jumped there without any hesitation, only to be stopped by her husband. From places unknown, she heard the strange voice saying, "Come again tomorrow!"

At this moment, while Han Fei was dumbfounded, someone descended from the sky. Han Fei released his fishing hook to him and dragged the man up.

The bag of bones that had been having food crazily became still at this moment with a brilliant smile.

Han Fei's eyes cramped. "There's still hope for these guys. Let's see what we can do."

Clash!

There were noises from other places in the mist. Han Fei couldn't rescue them if he couldn't see them. They were already doomed after they threw themselves into the sea.

Zhang Xuanyu exclaimed and asked, "Huh? Why are so many people jumping into the sea? By logic, everybody except the uncontrollable ones should've been tied up!"

Han Fei: "???"

Zhang Xuanyu's face changed. "Let's go. Something must've gone wrong up there. Hurry up." At the top of the dragon boat, Zhang Xuanyu roared, "Xiao Se, say something if you can hear me!"

However, the top of the dragon boat was absolutely quiet. Even Han Fei knew that something must be wrong. Zhang Xuanyu became serious. "The top of the dragon boat isn't that big. Let's go at full speed and circumvent the hungry men. They're too noisy to escape our attention."

Han Fei slightly nodded, so all five of them rushed quickly in the mist.

It wouldn't have been a big deal if those people weren't crazy or starving, but at this moment, even Xiao Se's men were also extremely hungry, not to mention the others who were almost losing their minds.

After about ten thousand meters, the five of them heard roars.

Sun Ruoruo, "The fourth level."

After Han Fei entered the fourth level, he found a lot of bodies on the ground who were only killed just now.

Han Fei suddenly said, "Wait, I'm smelling the scent of the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber."

Zhang Xuanyu nodded. "I was going to say that. Did you give any food to them?"

"Yes!"

Zhang Xuanyu gasped. "That's not good. They had only been obedient because there was no food and the rules were strictly enforced. After you gave them food, even if Xiao Se could hold back, the others might not be able to."

Wang Baiwan gasped. "Hiss! Many of Xiao Se's men used to be peak-level Dangling Fishers, right?"

After Wang Baiwan pointed that out, everybody pressed on quickly.

However, Han Fei and his teammates caused a lot of noise, and they felt that someone was running two thousand meters away from them.

Han Fei bellowed, "Where do you think you're going?"

When they passed the place where someone had food just now, they found a lot of people lying on the ground. Most of them were dead. Xiao Se, on the other hand, was tied to a pillar.

Han Fei said, "I'll chase them. You stay behind. Let's meet at the top of the boat."

Like a ferocious beast, Han Fei penetrated through the walls. Though everything was covered in mist, he could track his targets down by the smell of the food they carried.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

The wooden walls of the broken ship were crushed by Han Fei. In no more than thirty seconds, Han Fei stood before the five people.

Han Fei grinned. "I thought you would run separately, but you're very smart. Your capabilities are not fully recovered yet, and your chances of survival would've been lowered if you ran separately. Tsk, tsk... Did the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber taste good?"

The five people, including four men and a woman, were all highly vigilant.

Some of the flesh on the face of the man in the lead had even been bitten off by something. He stared at Han Fei with his eyes blinking. "We... Only want to live."

Han Fei sneered. "You killed so many men because you wanted to live? Did Xiao Se refuse to give you food, or did you think you could make it out of the Abyssal Chasm with the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber?"

Next to the man, a soul warrior who hadn't fully recovered roared and charged at Han Fei with a rod. He had resumed the strength of a peak-level Dangling Fisher.

Unfortunately, their enemy was Han Fei.

Han Fei punched the rod with one hand, and the soul warrior was blown up and broke through a wooden wall. He didn't stop until he rolled almost ten meters on the ground.

Han Fei grinned. "If you were all in your peak state, I might have not been able to catch you! However, do you have fifty percent of your combat ability left in your current status?"

"Bro, please spare us!"

The man in the lead stared at Han Fei, but he was already prepared for battle. His partners were the same. They seemed ready to launch a final attack.

Han Fei's lips slightly curled. "It's not up to me whether or not you can be spared." After he finished, the remaining four of them took action. Tremendous amounts of seaweed grew under Han Fei's feet. The man in the lead stabbed Han Fei with a short spear. Another man leaped and smashed down his hammer. The last person dashed to Han Fei's side and stabbed at Han Fei's armpit.

Clank...

BAM! BAM! BAM!

Golden shadows of fists glowed in the darkness like brilliant fireworks. After four punches, all of them were blown away.

"How is this happening?"

The man in the lead was dumbfounded. Shouldn't this guy be a peak-level Dangling Fisher? Why was he so tough as to take them down with four punches easily? Also, he clearly hit the guy with his spear just now. Why wasn't the guy hurt at all? How sturdy was the guy's body?

Han Fei dragged all five of them after tying them to his fishing pole. They were all silent and lethargic, like balloons that had lost all their air.

On the top of the boat, Xiao Se was recovering with his legs crossed. Many men were hiding in the mist and dared not approach him even though they were starving. When Han Fei returned, Xiao Se suddenly opened his eyes and stared at the five of them. "B*stards!"

Chapter 495 Rescue

After dragging the five people back, Han Fei learned the reason for their betrayal from Xiao Se.

Earlier, Han Fei had given Xiao Se a pot of Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber. Xiao Se had thought to split it up evenly for everybody to lower the negative effects of the blue fish.

But there were still more than five hundred people who were still conscious, and the food couldn't last three days if they all shared it. So, someone argued that the food should be given to selected candidates first, who would then go out and collect more food for others.

However, they had all stayed here for too long and seen too many treacheries to believe that anyone who went out would come back again.

Besides, even if they were willing to come back, it remained unknown whether or not they could escape in the first place. Therefore, the five people simply ambushed Xiao Se, stole his Sea Swallowing Seashell, and tried to escape. They didn't expect Han Fei to return so quickly. They even thought that Han Fei couldn't make it back. After all, some of them had seen the ghost babies at the bottom level and knew that other terrible creatures besides the blue humanoids existed there.

Among the people that Han Fei caught, the man in the lead sneered. "How many days can a Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber last? Xiao Se, you know that I made the right decision!"

Xiao Se looked awful. "You shouldn't have killed so many people."

"They were in my way."

The man in the lead roared crazily, "They were almost going crazy! They would do anything for something to eat. You and I are different. We know how to take advantage of the unexpected energy..."

Han Fei felt that his head was swelling when he listened to them. To some extent, those two seemed both justified, and he seemed to have done something bad even though he meant it well as an outsider.

The men who were almost lost were about to charge forward again, but Xiao Se simply stopped them. "Exile them."

The five people had lost their hope since Han Fei caught them. The man in the lead simply laughed and cursed. "Xiao Se, I am at least open and forthright, you are just a hypocrite. Have you forgotten how you survived in the beginning?" After that, the man looked at Han Fei and Zhang Xuanyu. "You're simply tricked by him. He's a liar, a liar..."

Xiao Se was gloomy. "Get lost! Have a safe journey!"

Xiao Se didn't execute them, but simply threw them into the fog, not caring what would happen to them.

But Han Fei thought of something. For some reason, he felt that something was weird.

He knew too little about Xiao Se, and he couldn't tell who was right and who was wrong. It was impossible for him to reason with the lunatics who saw nothing but food in their eyes.

Xiao Se, on the other hand, left Han Fei the impression that he was uncannily calm and steady.

Han Fei had no doubt that Xiao Se was a good guy, but he didn't know the definition of "good". For example, if there was one kid on a train track and three kids on the other one, and a train was coming, should one choose to let one kid or three kids die? In fact, either of the choices was as good as the other one.

Han Fei stepped back in the mist and threw a Sea Swallowing Seashell to the five people who were just exiled.

He was thinking that he should have a backup plan. Whether or not the five people could escape, it wouldn't hurt to give them some help.

If Xiao Se was indeed a good guy, the five people couldn't do anything to him even if they escaped. But if Xiao Se was a hypocrite, the five people would be an obstacle for him.

Han Fei's move escaped everyone's attention except Zhang Xuanyu's. The others didn't notice Han Fei's subtle movement, but Zhang Xuanyu knew Han Fei very well and paid attention to his barely noticeable action. Zhang Xuanyu asked telepathically, What did you give them?

Han Fei replied, A Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber. With any luck, they might be able to make it out alive. Zhang Xuanyu immediately had a guess. You think there's something wrong with Xiao Se?

Han Fei replied casually, I'm not sure, but Xiao Se has spent several months on this dragon boat, right? If he has been helping those people all the time, why has he never gone out?

Briefly stunned, Zhang Xuanyu replied expressionlessly, Got it. I'll keep an eye on him.

After their communication, Han Fei said with a smile, "Xiao Se, can you count the number of the people who are still conscious?"

Xiao Se heaved a long sigh. "Yes, please wait a moment."

Xiao Se shouted at the other people, "Bring the people who are still tied up here! Everybody, gather!"

After that, Xiao Se said with a bitter face, "I didn't have a choice. Nobody knew what would happen after you ate the blue fish. Today, it was a mess after those people robbed me of my Sea Swallowing Seashell. Many other people broke free and jumped into the sea."

Han Fei frowned and asked, "Has anyone that jumped into the sea been rescued?"

Xiao Se shook his head. "No. Their jump was too quick and unpredictable. Unless someone was right by their side, it was impossible to find them again in the mist once they disappeared from your sight." There was another person who was bound to Han Fei's fishing pole. He simply walked to him and stuffed a handful of crisps into his mouth.

The man was woken up by the smell of food. Then, he quickly swallowed almost twenty cucumber crisps. With redundant energy flowing out his body, his flesh was recovered, and his eyes seemed to be struggling.

This man was a lot less insane than the woman Han Fei encountered after he just got on board. Therefore, he soon regained his consciousness.

Han Fei asked, "Can you talk?"

The man tried several times, before he finally said slowly, "Yes... I can."

Delighted, Han Fei asked, "What did you see when you jumped into the sea? Why would you jump off?"

The man seemed frightened as he searched his memories. While everybody looked at him anxiously, he waited a hundred seconds before he finally said, "I think someone called out to me. I looked back and saw a coral sea with colorful coral and sea urchins. The seaweeds were floating in the warm currents, the fish were swimming, and the lobsters and crabs were hunting..."

The picture that the man described was almost dreamy, but come to think of it, the place he described was something similar to the coral reefs.

Leaving dangerousness aside, the coral reefs could definitely be called a paradise in terms of their splendor.

However, in the Abyssal Chasm, the wonderfulness was infinitely magnified by people's imagination. Han Fei knew very well that the man wanted to go to that place probably only because he wanted to have fish.

Sun Ruoruo stuck out of her tongue. "It's so weird."

“Gudu!”

Wang Baiwan and Liu Fenfang looked at each other. “Good thing that we have Brother Yu’s food, or we would’ve jumped into the sea a long time ago.”

At this moment, the men who were still conscious drew close to Han Fei in crowds. Some of them were still in the mist and couldn’t be seen until they were close.

“Help me!”

Han Fei was going to ask something, but his ears suddenly pricked. He instantly drew out his Blood Drinking Knife and slashed back.

Han Fei’s face became awful as his knife did not hit anything, but he did hear someone whispering and crying for help. The voice was childish and didn’t sound like that of an adult.

Everybody looked at Han Fei in shock, and Zhang Xuanyu approached him and asked, “Han Fei, what’s up? Why did you suddenly attack?”

Han Fei asked with an awful look on his face, “Did you hear a cry for help?”

It was the second time Han Fei had asked the question. Zhang Xuanyu immediately asked seriously, “No, did you really hear it?”

As he asked the question, Zhang Xuanyu looked at Xiao Se, wondering if he knew something after staying here for so long.

Xiao Se was surprised by Han Fei’s sudden attack too. He came back to himself and said, “Cry for help? I didn’t hear anything. Did you?”

But Xiao Se had asked the wrong people. All the newcomers were unwilling to talk unless it was for food, because talking was exhausting too. Besides, they were already numb after a long time of yelling. Hearing Xiao Se’s question, they all shook their heads.

Not thinking that it was a big deal, Han Fei asked, “How many people are out there?”

Xiao Se heaved a sigh. “Many people died just now. At present, only 453 people are still fully conscious.”

Without further ado, Han Fei simply threw out ten Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers and said, “Replenish them first.” “Hoo0000!”

“Hiss!”

“Hoo00000000!”

Those people almost went on a rampage, and Xiao Se roared aloud, “Don’t be hasty, don’t be hasty. One person at a time.” Han Fei slightly frowned and then suddenly smiled. “Let me do this. I’m faster.”

Feeling that it took too much time for Xiao Se to get them organized, Han Fei simply unleashed his Blood Drinking Knife and cut the ten Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers into almost five hundred pieces with the sword Qi. He said casually, “You can split them up now!”

Chapter 496 Something Up With Xiao Se

The energy that a complete Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber contained was enough to fill up four to five peak-level Dangling Fishers.

None of the four hundred survivors were weak. They were all no weaker than advanced Dangling Fishers in the past, or they couldn't have survived in this place.

Almost two hundred of them were peak-level Dangling Fishers, so ten Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers were naturally enough for them. They split up the food quickly, but they could only be restored to a beginner Dangling Fisher's level of strength at best.

But Han Fei didn't plan to give them any additional food, because these people could all be strong if they were fully recovered, and they could be out of control.

Liu Fenfang subtly approached Han Fei. "Is it really alright to give the food to them just like this?"

Wang Baiwan also said, "Those people aren't weak. We're outnumbered by them..."

Xiao Se looked at Han Fei gratefully. He immediately joined the crowd and distributed the food in an organized fashion.

Zhang Xuanyu grinned and asked, "Han Fei, how many Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers do you have in total?" Han Fei chuckled. "Hundreds, probably!"

After Han Fei said that, the top of the dragon boat fell silent. Even the people who were fighting for the food were dumbfounded too.

Xiao Se almost fell over. What the heck? Are your Sea Swallowing Seashells too loaded to contain anything else? Hundreds of Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers? Are you here for training or for a picnic?

Zhang Xuanyu said in delight, "Great! I knew that you wouldn't disappoint me!"

Han Fei took out dozens of Sea Swallowing Seashells casually and gave them to Zhang Xuanyu. "Here, these are for you!"

He said telepathically, They contain three hundred Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers, three hundred spiritual fruits that can improve your energy, twenty million mid-quality pearls, a boat that can go 65,000 kilometers in a day, a demon-level divine-quality disguise skill, an almost perfect technique named Majestic Mystic Spell, and almost a hundred high-quality spiritual weapons and battle suits... Okay, this is all the good stuff that I've looted in half of the level-three fishery. I really envy you for having such a brother as myself... Right, the boat was borrowed from someone else. You need to return it to me someday.

Yes, Han Fei had offered the second boat he forged to Zhang Xuanyu only a few days after it was created.

The reason was simple. He couldn't let Zhang Xuanyu enter the Abyssal Chasm with him. Besides, Zhang Xuanyu had been trapped for such a long time that he hadn't been to any places other than the Flowstone Pit in the level-three fishery. He was probably the weakest in the team.

Han Fei felt that he needed to let Zhang Xuanyu look for more treasures, but Zhang Xuanyu probably couldn't throw off the pursuers without the Thousand Faces Technique and the Wind God Boat. So, Han Fei didn't hesitate to give Zhang Xuanyu these things.

Those things were of little use to Han Fei at this moment anyway.

Also, he believed that his strength would be significantly improved after he found the treasures that Ren Tianfen left behind. By then, he wouldn't be scared even if he were to be faced with a Hanging Fisher.

Zhang Xuanyu's face was frozen. He cried under his breath, "F*ck! F*ck!" He felt that tens of thousands of Iron-Headed Fish just ran him over!

Gulp...

"Shoot!"

Zhang Xuanyu trembled and hurriedly hid the Sea Swallowing Seashells. Then he asked telepathically in shock, Where did you find all of this? Damn. This is really...

His hands were shaking, and he felt that his head was shutting down.

How many treasures had Han Fei found exactly? Almost a hundred high-quality spiritual weapons and battle suits? Three hundred spiritual fruits? Ten million mid-quality pearls? A boat that was faster than the Ghost Speed Divine Boat? Not to mention the awesome divine-quality disguise technique...

Zhang Xuanyu felt terrible, and his face turned red. He couldn't have felt more humiliated. He was also from the Thug Academy, but why was he so unremarkable compared to Han Fei?

But Zhang Xuanyu soon realized what was going on. He said seriously, "Asshole, why do I feel like you're not just giving me stuff, but you really just want me to leave?"

Han Fei looked at Zhang Xuanyu with a vague smile. "That's exactly my intention. Le Renkuang and Luo Xiaobai are still off the grid at this moment. Xia Xiaochan is free, but many people are chasing her. I'll need you to take care of her outside."

Zhang Xuanyu didn't come back to himself until a long time later. "Hey, wait. Do you plan to press on by yourself?"

Han Fei said with a smile, "What other choices do I have? You want to come with me with your mediocre combat ability? You'll only get killed!"

Zhang Xuanyu was silent again. "Actually... I have other trump cards."

Han Fei rolled his eyes. "However great they are, you aren't an advanced Dangling Fisher yet, and they won't help."

Zhang Xuanyu was rendered speechless. He said a moment later, "That's not right! The place is as dangerous for you as it is for me! We can take care of each other if we go together, but nobody will be there to help you if you go there alone."

Han Fei chuckled. "Okay, enough whining. Just go out now that I've asked you to! Find a ghost boat that's as big as a dragon boat if you have a chance. The name of the boat is Evil Shield..."

Zhang Xuanyu's face changed. He didn't insist any more after seeing how determined Han Fei was.

Han Fei suddenly changed his topic. "Xiao Se, how many people above the first floor are still hopeful besides those people?"

Xiao Se shrugged with a bitter smile. "I'm not sure. Many of those people are half crazy and unconscious. We can only search for and catch them one by one. But I estimate that there are more than a thousand of them."

Han Fei looked at Zhang Xuanyu with a smile, "Xuanyu, what do you think if we play the good guys this time?"

Zhang Xuanyu asked in confusion, "Why are we not good guys?"

Han Fei chuckled and thought to himself, you probably wouldn't think that way when you see the latest Wanted List where Xia Xiochan and I are listed as two cannibals!

Han Fei waved his fishing pole that had a Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber hanging on it. "Catching them one by one would be too much a waste of time, but it would be much simpler to let them come to us."

Everybody realized Han Fei's intention. Sun Ruoruo's eyes were full of hope, Liu Fenfang took a long breath of relief, and Wang Baiwan told Han Fei that a lot of food would be wasted...

Xiao Se couldn't help but frown after seeing that.

He didn't know who Han Fei was exactly, but was this guy really so unconventional? He didn't really want to rescue the people who already lost their mind. Even if those people were rescued, could they really make it out of this place, and would they really be grateful?

Zhang Xuanyu, on the other hand, was observing Xiao Se while he pretended to watch the people who were crazily swallowing the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber. He saw Xiao Se's every move.

Zhang Xuanyu said telepathically, Something is wrong with Xiao Se.

Han Fei was waving his fishing pole. He had crushed a spiritual energy fruit on the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber. He trusted that anyone who had survived for a long time in this place must be very sensitive to energy. He had no doubt that they would all swarm close as soon as he recalled the fishing hook.

Hearing Zhang Xuanyu's telepathic voice, Han Fei replied, I know it isn't easy to lead such a group of people. This man definitely has something extraordinary! However, I haven't discovered any ill intent yet, so you probably need to lead those guys out with him.

Zhang Xuanyu frowned. Is it really possible to take them out? When we came in, we found that this sea is very weird. You will be under the blast of invisible forces, or disappear in turbulent waters...

Han Fei said, Just follow the Spectral Ferryman. It's rather slow, but it won't be a problem as long as you make it through that part. After all, you're going out with hundreds of other people, not just by yourselves. Besides, this place isn't the real Abyssal Chasm. If you can't get out of here, you might as well kill yourself.

Zhang Xuanyu grinned. I'll try... The dead sea where no boats can sail and this sea where energy is absorbed have killed countless people. I don't think there can be anything more dangerous than them around here.

The people on the top of the boat sat cross-legged and recovered themselves after acquiring energy.

After about half an hour, the whole boat was shaking.

Xiao Se roared, "Everybody, fall back..." Sun Ruoruo and the others all stood behind Han Fei, as he was the only one who could provide food at this moment.

Han Fei wasn't petty at all. He threw out more than twenty Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers without hesitation.

"Hiss!"

"H00000000..." Bam! Bam!

Zhang Xuanyu frowned, as the newcomers seemed to be fighting one another!

Han Fei nodded and took out a few more Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers. He sliced them into a hundred pieces and tossed them into the mist.

It was not until this moment that the fighting noises in the mist finally lowered, replaced by the sound of people munching on food. The mist didn't fall completely quiet until an hour later. Then, skinny men appeared from the mist. The first man who showed up covered his head with one hand and looked at Han Fei and his partners warily.

Han Fei said, "Say something if you've restored your consciousness."

"E-Energy..."

"Hu!"

Zhang Xuanyu and the others were finally relieved after hearing that from him. The fifty Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers that Han Fei threw out finally woke them up a little bit.

Han Fei said telepathically, It's up to you now!

Hearing that, Zhang Xuanyu smiled and stepped forward. "Everybody, say something if you can understand me. We will leave this sh*thole today in two hours..."

When Zhang Xuanyu made the announcement, Xiao Se slightly narrowed his eyes in the mist.

Chapter 497 The Gone Men

As a matter of fact, Han Fei didn't rescue everybody.

Some people were completely crazy and lost. They didn't regain their sanity even after having the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers.

Zhang Xuanyu attracted the survivors to him easily without using any tricks. Here, anyone with energy would be the boss.

Han Fei had given Zhang Xuanyu three hundred Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers, which contained abundant spiritual energy. Those people could subsist on the food for one day even if they were all peak-level Dangling Fishers. Besides, neither Han Fei nor Zhang Xuanyu would make them full. Zhang Xuanyu was distributing the food individually and telling them that they should not eat it if they wanted to live because it was the only chance for them to escape alive. It was at this moment that Han Fei realized he couldn't save everyone.

There were three hundred people here who went crazy after they had the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers and digested them.

In their craziness, they charged back into the crowd, resulting in the deaths of dozens of people.

Eventually, Han Fei took action and kicked all of them out.

Based on the final statistics, the people who were sane in the end weren't as many as anticipated. There were only 1,001 of them.

But in fact, the number wasn't really small. Han Fei couldn't even imagine how he could've survived in this place for so long without any energy if he were in their shoes.

A lot of brutal and heartbreaking stories must've happened, but nobody was willing to talk about them.

The group of people under Xiao Se's lead lined up and received food from Zhang Xuanyu.

At this moment, it was Han Fei's turn to observe Xiao Se in secret.

The people who were receiving the food in lines were weeping with tears of joy and expressing their gratitude.

"Bro, I can't thank you enough. My life will be yours from today on."

"You're a lifesaver. If we make it out alive, I will never hesitate whenever you ask me to do anything."

"Brother Zhang, Brother Han, thank you very much."

Han Fei simply smiled but didn't say anything, but Zhang Xuanyu talked to them now and then.

Xiao Se came to Han Fei. "Brother Han, it's so great that you're here! Had it not been for you, I really don't know how we could've survived this... It's really devastating." Han Fei said with a smile, "You're flattering me. This is just a regular good thing that I do."

"You are a great man, Brother Han. I know you're here only to save Brother Zhang, but you've also given a second life to so many other people."

Han Fei chuckled. "Brother Xiao, you're really exaggerating my contribution."

Xiao Se said uneasily, "I have yet another favor to ask of you. I wonder, can you lead us out of this area, Brother Han?" Han Fei was intrigued. He knew that the show was on.

He thought to himself, That's what you really want to know, isn't it?

Han Fei's face was slightly grim. "I'm afraid I can't go out with you."

Many people were shocked to hear that. "Brother Han, why don't you leave with us? The Abyssal Chasm is too dangerous to be explored!"

"Brother Han, we've consumed so much of your food. If you must continue your exploration, you'd better prepare enough food!"

"Brother Han..."

Xiao Se also said, "Brother Han, you are the strongest man here. If you don't come with us, we're afraid..."

Han Fei said with a smile, "Zhang Xuanyu, Wang Baiwan, and the others are still in their peak state without being weakened at all. Also, I can tell that Brother Xiao is an advanced Dangling Fisher, just like me. I'm certainly not the strongest man here."

Xiao Se added, "Well... Sigh! Brother Han, it will be a dangerous trip. You should return immediately if you find it too hard."

Han Fei said with a smile, "Thank you for your kindness, Brother Xiao."

Zhang Xuanyu was distributing food with his back against them. He rolled his eyes at those two hypocrites non-stop as he listened.

After Xiao Se asked the questions, Han Fei seized the chance and said to Zhang Xuanyu, "Xuanyu, it will be your responsibility to take them out of here."

Zhang Xuanyu was stunned. "You're leaving now?"

Han Fei said, "I'll explain everything to you when everything is over." Zhang Xuanyu pondered for a moment and said, "Okay, I'll wait for you outside."

Han Fei left very quickly. He simply jumped off from the top of the dragon boat and disappeared.

Sun Ruoruo asked, "Zhang Xuanyu, why is Han Fei gone? It's really dangerous out there? We haven't really entered the Abyssal Chasm yet, but it's already so hard. How much harder will it be inside?"

Liu Fenfang said, "That's right! Are you not worried at all that Brother Han is doing this on his own?"

Considering for a moment, Wang Baiwan said, "Why don't we go with him? We can at least take care of each other."

Zhang Xuanyu said with a smile, "That's alright. You will only be a burden for him even if you three are combined."

After that, Zhang Xuanyu roared, "Everybody, leave the boat with me and try your luck. We only have one chance... Let's go!"

Leadership was a stranger thing. Whether it was a big crowd or a small one, there would always be followers as long as they had a leader, especially on such an occasion where everybody had been given a chance for survival.

Nobody knew where the Spectral Ferrymen were from.

At this moment, Zhang Xuanyu was following a Spectral Ferryman with thousands of people. The Spectral Ferryman was slowly moving to the periphery with a boat on his shoulder.

They knew that the Spectral Ferryman was moving to the periphery because there was another Spectral Ferryman that was going in the same direction. Also, they encountered a third Spectral Ferryman that was sailing to the dragon boat.

At this moment, Xiao Se was swimming next to Zhang Xuanyu. "Brother Zhang, that thing is too slow. Now that we've already found out the direction, why don't we simply swim there? It would be much faster!"

Zhang Xuanyu grinned at Xiao Se. "That's different. We all have sailed boats before. The tiniest deviation on a boat may lead to a completely different direction in the vast sea. So, we must follow the Spectral Fisherman even though it's slow." Sun Ruoruo said, "That's right! When we came, everybody followed the ferryman, so we have to follow them to go back too. We would all be killed here if we lose our way."

Xiao Se smiled but didn't say anything.

Half a day passed.

The Spectral Ferryman moved faster. But at this moment, someone said telepathically, Brother Zhang, someone disappeared.

Zhang Xuanyu had a bad feeling after hearing that. He subconsciously looked at Xiao Se, but the man hadn't done anything unusual. Why did someone go missing? Zhang Xuanyu pointed. "You come, here."

After the reporter came close, Zhang Xuanyu asked, "How did you find this out?"

The man replied nervously, "I was behind him and chatted with him several times, but after I turned my head around just now, I found that he disappeared. I looked around but didn't see him anywhere."

Xiao Se turned grave. "Everybody, see if anyone around you is missing."

A moment later...

"One person is missing on my side."

"The guy who was with me just now has vanished."

"Not good. The guy behind me is gone."

For a moment, the crowd was in turmoil.

Zhang Xuanyu announced telepathically, Don't panic. Everybody, move forward in lines and keep an eye on your surroundings. Report to me whenever anyone disappears again. Don't slow down. Keep up with the ferryman.

Because only ten people had gone missing, and everybody else thought that Zhang Xuanyu's proposal was good, they weren't too worried.

After another half a day, the ferryman was a lot faster. Many people had eaten half of the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers they carried after a day of swimming. Zhang Xuanyu said telepathically, Liu Fenfang, distribute the food.

While Zhang Xuanyu talked to Liu Fenfang, someone suddenly exclaimed, "Not good! The lines behind us are gone!"

Immediately, the crowd was in a mess.

They could accept that one or two people went missing, but certainly not a whole line! Zhang Xuanyu looked around, only to see that there were dozens of people in each line! Dozens of people had disappeared for no good reason. Who could not be panicked? Everybody swam forward crazily. All the lines were messed up. It was utter havoc. Zhang Xuanyu roared, "Don't panic! Everybody, maintain your lines and ask ten people to swim around your line. Report to me if you find anything unusual."

At this moment, someone suddenly roared, "I'll cover your back! Everybody ahead of me, line up! I'll cover you!" Xiao Se said, "I'll go there too. Everybody, don't panic. I'll cover you too!"

Zhang Xuanyu nodded, "I'll remember you, the brother who covers our back. What's your name? We can take care of your family if anything happens to you."

The man announced telepathically, My name is Fan Datong. I live in Blue Sea Town. I'm quite famous. There's nobody except a few old jerks and some younger jerks in my family.

Zhang Xuanyu was almost infuriated and thought, When did I become a jerk?

Chapter 498 Exposure

Han Fei was quite bummed.

This had been a plan between him and Zhang Xuanyu. They foresaw that something would happen during the trip, so Han Fei hid himself among the crowd.

However, it was impossible to unfold his senses in this weird sea. Han Fei was actually the man who cried out when someone went missing for the first time.

He didn't really know what happened back then. The man just disappeared uncannily. He had been focusing his attention on other people since then.

This time, it was him who first discovered that a line went missing. A moment ago, he looked back and found that the line was there, but when he looked back again, nobody was behind him anymore.

Not just the people ahead of him, even he was quite terrified himself. Those people had disappeared without a sign as if they never existed.

Zhang Xuanyu appeased the rest of the crowd, and then Han Fei saw Xiao Se swimming to him.

Xiao Se looked at Han Fei and asked curiously, "Brother Fan, you look rather strange!"

Han Fei said, "Ha! My consciousness was gone for a long time. It's perfectly normal that you've never seen me, Brother Xiao. I don't remember what I did myself."

Xiao Se slightly nodded. "This is a dangerous trip. Be careful."

Han Fei hummed in response and swam on. After the accidents, everybody became a lot warrier and looked around now and then, which made Han Fei feel good. Problems were less likely to happen if everybody was observant.

Suddenly, Han Fei felt that the water current around him was strange. Something seemed to be blocking the water current right ahead of him.

Shua!

Han Fei quickly moved out of the way. He looked back, only to see a blue haze disappearing from his sight. "Brother Fan, what's wrong?"

Seeing Han Fei's strange movement, Xiao Se caught up to him and asked.

Han Fei glanced at Xiao Se warily and slightly shook his head. "Oh! It's nothing. I just had a bad feeling, so I changed directions." Xiao Se slightly narrowed his eyes and smiled. "Don't worry. I'm right here with you. Nothing will go wrong."

Han Fei complained to himself, I'm having bad feelings exactly because you're here with me. At the same time, he wondered what the blue haze was exactly. He was certain that the blue haze was partly the reason why people had been disappearing

Suddenly, Han Fei was slightly stiffened!

He remembered the blue slices he saw at the bottom of the Tornado Sea. At first, he thought that they were balls, but when he came closer, he found that they were merely slices that did not seem to have any thickness.

Back then, he tried tossing stones into it, but none of the stones got out from the behind of the blue slices.

He had thought that they were some kind of portals, but then he realized that there couldn't be so many portals. So, he never drew closer to these blue slices.

Now that he recalled it, he found that the blue haze he saw just now was so similar to the blue slices he saw at the beginning.

About two hours later, everybody slightly recovered from their panic. They were also a lot more reassured with Han Fei and Xiao Se behind them.

Besides, with observers swimming around them, they didn't think that any lurkers in the sea would attack them blatantly.

However, since they were faster and faster, Han Fei grew more and more careful. All of a sudden, Han Fei felt that the water current was blocked.

His eyes almost bulged out. He simply punched out, and gold light glittered on his body. "Attach!"

He couldn't care less about being exposed at this moment, because he felt that a wall seemed to be lying some dozens of meters ahead of him.

But he knew that it was not a wall but plenty of those blue slices.

While flapping his wings and flying back, Han Fei snatched Xiao Se with his fishing pole and announced telepathically, Something is wrong with Xiao Se. Kill him!

Xiao Se's face greatly changed too. He had been smiling, thinking that there was no way Fan Datong could dodge this one. But he had no idea that Fan Datong was actually Han Fei, or that Han Fei could react so fast.

Zhang Xuanyu said telepathically, Everybody, move on. Han Fei, I'm coming to help you!

Shocked, everybody looked around, only to see that Han Fei and Xiao Se were already fighting.

Xiao Se had already left the team, and the hook on Han Fei's pole disappeared into the void. It submerged into the transparent slices and ended up in a place nobody knew.

Han Fei roared, "Don't come closer! Keep an eye on the water current! Get out of the way when the water is blocked!"

For a moment, dozens of people were charging close from all directions.

Someone roared, "Good for you, Xiao Se! We trusted you so much, but we didn't know that you were so vicious."

Someone unleashed a spear, someone launched a storm of blades, and someone fully activated their armor box.

Xiao Se couldn't have looked more awful. He suddenly waved his hands and darted out threads, and then hundreds of blue slices suddenly emerged in the seawater.

Pu... Pu... Pu...

In the blink of an eye, the dozens of people that were charging at Xiao Se vanished. Han Fei bellowed, "Keep swimming and don't come close!"

Zhang Xuanyu listened to Han Fei's warning and pushed himself back with waves the moment the blue slices appeared.

Han Fei said coldly, "You keep moving out. I'll take care of Xiao Se."

Xiao Se sneered, "You've ruined my business again and again. Who are you exactly? How did you find me?"

Dozens of fist auras answered Xiao Se's question. Han Fei had already activated the Majestic Mystic Spell and accelerated his speed.

The seawater was exploding, and the golden fist auras were so fast that they raised torrents wherever they reached, making Xiao Se surrounded

However, many blue slices emerged around Xiao Se, and Han Fei's fist auras disappeared after they passed the blue slices.

"Shoot!"

Han Fei was lost for words. He had never met such an uncanny enemy before. What was his method? He couldn't believe that a Dangling Fisher was capable of using the power of teleportation. Even Xia Xiaochan couldn't do that.

Xiao Se found a way out and ran crazily. "Han Fei, I'll remember you for what you did to me today."

However, on his way of escape, a man suddenly appeared. Waves surged in the blink of an eye, and in another blink, Xiao Se was blown hundreds of meters away.

Han Fei was dumbfounded. "Shoot. A clone?" Zhang Xuanyu himself was blocked on the other side of the blue slices, but another Zhang Xuanyu had emerged before Xiao Se, which made Han Fei rather surprised. He wondered when Zhang Xuanyu picked up such a skill. But while Xiao Se was being blown away, a third Zhang Xuanyu showed up and swung his rod into thousands of shadows. One of them simply stabbed through Xiao Se.

Crack!

Xiao Se suddenly blinked and disappeared into nothingness, leaving nothing but the pieces of a Flash Stone behind.

Zhang Xuanyu cursed, "Damn it. You really think that I'm good for nothing? Don't run away if you've got balls and see how I'll beat your ass!" Han Fei was dumbfounded. "All three of them were you just now? How is that possible?"

Zhang Xuanyu ignored him. "Let's go and keep up with them."

They had fought for no more than ten seconds, but most of the team had already disappeared. Actually, they were frightened when dozens of people suddenly vanished just now. They all fell back although they had planned to charge at Xiao Se. Some of them even dispersed.

Zhang Xuanyu cursed. "They've all run away! None stayed at all! Damn it. I really don't want to save them."

Han Fei patted Zhang Xuanyu's shoulder. "You have to! Those people seem useless right now but may be helpful in the future. Xia Xiaochan and I pissed off a lot of people outside. If we make friends with the people here, they may help us out later."

The two of them quickly chased after the team.

On the way, Han Fei glimpsed at Zhang Xuanyu weirdly, and the other two Zhang Xuanyu 'clones' were already gone. He couldn't help but ask, "Are these things your clones? How can clones be so powerful?"

Zhang Xuanyu grinned, "Don't presume that you're the only one who found treasures. You think I was stuck in the Flowstone Pit for nothing? What do you think of that move? All three of those were me. The name of the skill is the Tertiary Body. Unfortunately, it has a very high demand on the power of the soul, or I would've given it to you."

As they talked, they saw Sun Ruoruo who was waiting for them on the way.

Seeing that they were fine, Sun Ruoruo swam close and asked, "Xiao Se escaped?"

Zhang Xuanyu nodded. "Don't worry. He had been heavily wounded before he fled. I don't think he can cause any more trouble."

Right when Zhang Xuanyu was about to catch up with the team, Han Fei stopped.

Zhang Xuanyu was stunned. "Seriously? You're really going in?"

Han Fei said, "There's an opportunity waiting for me inside. You go out on your own. Remember, don't tell anyone what happened inside the Abyssal Chasm, or everybody will be hunted by the dragon boats. Also, there should be more dangers ahead, but since Xiao Se is not here, I think you can handle it."

Zhang Xuanyu gnashed his teeth, "Be careful. I'll come to your rescue if you don't come out in a month."

Han Fei turned around and swam away without hesitation.

Actually, his original purpose was only to get Zhang Xuanyu out. However, saving one person was no different from saving a group of people. It seemed useless to rescue the thousands of people, but they all owed their life to him and Zhang Xuanyu now.

He was up for it if he could save so many people at the cost of merely several hundred Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers. It didn't matter even if those people couldn't be of any help to him later.

At this moment, Han Fei was slightly gloomy. He needed to go back to the dragon boat sometime.

Xiao Se was not an idiot. He definitely had good reasons to keep those people behind.

Han Fei, for one, thought that the thing that Xiao Se kept so many people behind to work on couldn't be anything small, and that there must be more secrets on the dragon boat. As for the people who were fleeing at this moment, he didn't think that Xiao Se was capable of holding them back anymore after being heavily wounded.

Chapter 499 Daughter, I'm Your Dad

After he left the team, Han Fei's primary destination was naturally still the dragon boat.

He didn't encounter a Spectral Ferryman until half a day later. He jumped on the boat and had the Spectral Ferryman take him to the dragon boat.

About sixteen hours later, Han Fei returned to the dragon boat.

At this moment, barely anybody was left on the first floor of the dragon boat except those who were completely lost. But those people were no problem for Han Fei at all.

Han Fei started searching from the top to down one floor after another.

He felt that Xiao Se must've done something during his long stay here, and that there must be leads on the dragon boat.

Out of Han Fei's expectation, his search went surprisingly well.

In a room that was close to the rear of the boat on the fourth floor, he found a heap of worn bodies.

Yes, there were more than thirty worn-out bodies. Not only were they extremely skinny, but their hair was also white and their skin was wrinkled. Their bones seemed to have been completely calcified too.

Han Fei found it impossible to imagine how old those people were. Judging from their bodies, they were definitely very old, but how could there be so many old men on the dragon boat?

The only explanation was that those people's bodies aged quickly for some unknown reasons before they ended up like this.

Crack!

The crisp noise that came under his feet drew Han Fei's attention.

"Huh?"

Han Fei lowered his head, only to see some scattered shells below his feet.

"Are these... Eggshells?"

Han Fei wasn't very certain, because there were too few such shells. He only found a couple of them in the whole room, and none of them were very big.

Right while he was staring at the shells, that indistinct voice echoed in his ears again.

"Help me... Help me..."

Han Fei's body tightened up. "Who are you? Where are you?"

"Help me... Mom..."

Han Fei was rather scared. Mom? Why does it sound like a baby crying for help?

Han Fei searched the whole room, only to find nothing except the worn-out bodies and the white shells.

He subconsciously stepped out of the room, ready to leave.

"Not good!"

When one of Han Fei's feet stepped out of the door, he felt danger. He realized that he had fallen into a trap carelessly.

At the last second, Han Fei saw Xiao Se gazing at him palely while holding his stomach.

"Damn it!"

Han Fei disappeared from the room in the next second.

Yes, the door had been turned into blue slices. Because the blue side wasn't aimed at him, he didn't notice it at all.

When Han Fei could see things again, he was completely dumbfounded.

In his sight lay an infinite spread of coral. The seawater here was bright and glamorous too.

The seawater was extremely clear, with blooming coral everywhere. Some of them were red, some were white, some were green, and some were yellow.

Seaweed was floating along with the water. The clusters of sea anemones were scattered everywhere. The clams were hiding in the corners of the coral and catching the plankton with their tentacles.

Han Fei raised his head, only to see that the seawater was as clear as if transparent. The fish he was familiar with were swimming here in shoals.

There were the common little white fish, the slow big yellow fish, and the Blade Fish which came by now and then which startled the other schools of fish.

Now and then, a giant meat turtle would swim by unhurriedly followed by a smaller turtle that nudged the giant meat turtle occasionally.

“This is the regular fishery?” Han Fei looked around. Apart from those creatures, the big green crabs were crawling, the prawns were craning their heads and holding their pincers, and the tentacle lobsters were cutting the big yellow fish apart and dragging them to their nests.

“Shoot!”

Han Fei swallowed. He almost couldn't believe what he was seeing. Most of the creatures here belonged to the regular fishery, but they were different from the creatures that lived in the regular fishery. The regular fishery couldn't be this harmonious, because the creatures at the regular fishery had little wisdom, but only instincts for hunting.

But here, they were in harmony together. The picture was really beautiful.

Han Fei suddenly unleashed his aura. As the ripples spread out, all the creatures within several hundred meters shrank behind.

The crabs and the lobsters went into their nests, the sea anemones stopped expanding, the clams all hid in their shells, and the fish swam away.

Han Fei thought quickly, Could it be that the men who ate the blue fish didn't die but ended up in this place?

“That's not right! That's not right!”

Han Fei quickly said that to himself. The whole thing couldn't be so simple. One could only see illusions after they had the blue fish. How could illusions become reality?

He plucked a piece of seaweed and crumbled it in his hand. Then, he picked up a clam and tapped it. Everything felt so real. “Damn it. What is this place?”

Han Fei would never believe that this place was real because it was as beautiful as paradise. He didn't think that paradise could possibly exist in the Abyssal Chasm in the level-three fishery.

“Help me! Help me!”

The cry for help came into his ears again. Han Fei immediately looked around, only to see nothing.

But he was pretty sure that the cry for help became a lot clearer.

Han Fei looked around. "Who are you? Where are you?"

"Help me... Yeeeeee..." "Stop making noises. Don't ever let me find you." Han Fei could not stand the noises right now.

He always felt that the noises could've only been made by creatures such as the Millennium Snapper. He would never believe that anybody else lived here.

The problem was that Han Fei didn't know how exactly Xiao Se transferred him to this place.

If he was capable of sending Han Fei to a random place easily, why would he have been stabbed through by Zhang Xuanyu?

Besides, if Xiao Se wanted to kill him, he shouldn't have sent him to this beautiful place that had no threats at all.

"Gulu!"

Han Fei suddenly felt that his stomach was making noises.

"Really? I'm already getting hungry? I haven't stopped eating!"

Han Fei immediately put one chip into his mouth. Supposedly, one chip of the Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumber was enough for him for half a day, but at this moment, the thing completely became like eating regular chips. Han Fei wasn't satisfied until he was slightly satisfied. "Damn it. This place has been absorbing energy this whole time?" "That's not right! The absorption must've lasted for a long time. How could Xiao Se have sent me to this place? Is Xiao Se not a human being but transformed by a monster?"

Han Fei swam amongst the coral. There were so many things he didn't understand. Why was he so hungry while the regular sea creatures around him were absolutely fine?

Han Fei announced, "Xiao Se, I know you son of a bi*ch must be here. Do you really think you can kill me in such a way?"

Han Fei grabbed a random clam, squished its shell with one hand, and took out the meat. "This clam is a fat one! You want to exhaust and kill me through absorption? Then you should've killed all those sea creatures first, or I can always feed on them, can't I?"

"Chiliu!"

"Mom!"

While Han Fei was making declarations against Xiao Se, he suddenly heard a cute girl's voice.

Han Fei turned his head in a hurry, only to see a gold-and-white carp the size of a palm staring at him with big watery eyes.

"Seriously?"

Han Fei was at a loss for what was going on. He hurriedly kept a distance from the creature.

Information popped up in his eyes.

<Name> Dragon Carp of Time <Introduction> Unknown

<Level> 1

<Quality> Mysterious

<Spiritual Energy> 1,000 Points

<Effect> ???

<Collectible> ???

<Unabsorbable>

Han Fei could not say a word as if someone had just stuffed a shrimp into his mouth.

A mysterious creature that contained a thousand points of spiritual energy meant that it was on the same level as Little White and Little Black.

The Dragon Carp of Time said to Han Fei timidly, “M-Mom?”

Han Fei was instantly dumbfounded. “Who’s your... Well, daughter, I’m your dad!”

Chapter 500 Retribution for Cheating a Kid

Han Fei didn’t want to recognize her as his daughter. However, the Time Dragon Carp was at the same level as Little Black and Little White. Besides, maybe the chaos of this Abyssal Chasm was caused by this little thing, which showed how powerful it was! So he didn’t mind recognizing her as his daughter!

The Time Dragon Carp blinked her big eyes and asked stupidly, “Dad? Do I have a dad?”

Han Fei chuckled. “Before you were young and ignorant, but now you have a father!”

Suddenly, Han Fei frowned and threw the Embroidery Needle at the void. “Come out.”

In the clear water, a figure appeared. It was Xiao Se. He yelled, “Han Fei, you are courting death.”

Just now, when Xiao Se heard Han Fei let the Time Dragon Carp call him Dad, he was almost frightened out of his wits!

Are you kidding me? You don’t even know what the creature in front of you is and you dare to make her call you ‘Dad’?

Xiao Se nervously shouted at the Time Dragon Carp, “Little Master, don’t believe him. He is a liar!”

Han Fei blinked. Little Master?

Do I have a f*cking hearing problem? You, a human, are calling a fish ‘Master’?

The Time Dragon Carp blinked and her expression was exactly like a human’s. She looked at Han Fei aggrievedly, “You lied to me.”

When she said this, Han Fei felt that the energy in his body was rapidly depleting.

Han Fei didn't care about it, and immediately said with a serious face, "My baby girl, how can I lie to you? I'm really your father! Look how handsome and attractive your father is! Look at the two of us, we look exactly the same..."

Xiao Se's eyes almost popped out. How can you be so shameless? You two look exactly the same?! Are you blind or am I blind?

Xiao Se yelled, "Little Master, he, just like the people before him, is just food."

Han Fei's heart shivered. Food? So the people who jumped into the sea and those who were brought here by Xiao Si were all eaten by this Time Dragon Carp? The Time Dragon Carp blinked her big eyes. "Is he really not my father? But he is different from those others!"

"Little Master, you can feel the energy in him, he..."

"Roar!"

Han Fei suddenly roared. "Little Time, didn't your mother tell you not to eat people? Tell me, have you eaten people?"

"Ho00000!"

The Embroidery Needle in his hand was replaced with the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Bow, and three arrows were shot out, darting at Xiao Se.

Han Fei attacked and shouted, "You b*stard, how dare you lie to my baby girl? Who gave you the courage? Today, I must kill you."

The Time Dragon Carp was taken aback by Han Fei's actions and timidly drew back. And Xiao Se, still injured, was not an opponent of Han Fei at all and couldn't resist Han Fei's attack.

Swish, Swish, Swish!

Han Fei shot out one spiritual arrow after another, which were flying all over the sky. Although Xiao Se had a magical evasion technique, he couldn't handle so many arrows at the same time.

BAM! BAM! BAM!

In the frontal battle, Xiao Se couldn't even hold on for three minutes. In the face of absolute strength, no fancy tricks would help.

Xiao Se was continuously attacked by Han Fei, and his injuries that had not yet fully recovered were shot through by Han Fei again.

At this moment, Xiao Se kept vomiting blood. However, he still shouted to the Time Dragon Carp, "Little Master, I've never lied to you! I am your guardian. You should trust me! Hurry up and suck him dry. Hurry up." Han Fei frowned. This Time Dragon Carp was only at level 1! Although Little Black was also very powerful when he was at level 1, he wasn't as powerful as this carp! He was already a Dangling Fisher now and his strength was comparable to that of a Hanging Fisher. How could he be killed by a small fish of level 1?

Even if this was a divine beast, it would be impossible. Han Fei didn't believe it.

However, looking at this young and innocent Time Dragon Carp, Han Fei immediately threw out hundreds of pieces of crisps to her and said, "My baby girl, this so-called guardian is fake. Does he give you any delicious food? This is what I saved for you. Have a taste."

Crunch!

The Time Dragon Carp jumped up like an elf and then hundreds of her clones appeared in the water. The next moment, the crispy slices had all entered her mouth.

"Yummy! Yummy!"

Xiao Se shouted at Han Fei, "Asshole, you are courting death! You have no idea what you are doing!"

Han Fei went up and kicked Xiao Se in the stomach. "I'm afraid you don't know what you're doing! Why do you pretend to be my daughter's guardian?"

The Time Dragon Carp ate all the crisps and then appeared beside Han Fei with a swoosh. "Don't hit him. Brother Xiao Se has a contract with me."

Han Fei's eyes narrowed. Damn it, a contract? What contract? I've only heard that fish are mankind's contractual spiritual beasts. Can humans also become fish's contractual servants?

However, Han Fei's eyes rolled. Anyway, the Time Dragon Carp is still small and doesn't know anything. She should be gullible...

So Han Fei scolded, "Who told you to sign a contract with him? Have you asked your mom about it? Did your mom agree to it? Did I agree?"

The Time Dragon Carp had never met a person like Han Fei. Being reprimanded by Han Fei, she quickly stepped back a few meters, her head tilted and her eyelids drooped, and she almost burst into tears.

Han Fei went on, "Although as your father, I came a little late and couldn't watch you grow up, it's because I was tied up. Now you see, I'm here, right?"

With that said, Han Fei threw out other hundreds of crisps at the carp. Let me gain this little thing's trust first... As for Xiao Se, I'll get rid of him later. Now I still have many questions to ask him.

However, just when Han Fei felt that he was certain to win, Xiao Se suddenly vomited a mouthful of blood, which showed a strange pattern in the sea.

Xiao Se shouted grimly, "Little Master, ask for help..."

Han Fei: "???!"

Han Fei immediately kicked Xiao Se in the stomach again. "Shut up, I am the master. Don't fool my daughter."

BAM!

Han Fei was about to continue kicking him. However, in the next second, a sea wave suddenly hit his body, which seemed to weigh hundreds of thousands of pounds. Han Fei was directly thrown into a coral bush, smashing it to pieces. "F*ck, what is that?"

Han Fei hadn't gotten up yet and he felt the mud under his feet shake as if an invisible force blasted under his feet. At this time, another sea wave hit him.

BAM!

This time, Han Fei tried to get up, only to find that the seawater seemed to weigh tens of millions of pounds, which made him unable to move.

"Who is it?"

In the seawater, a huge water phantom emerged, with dragon's horns on top of her head, and her face exuded a bright golden light. Although it was just a phantom, it sent a chill down Han Fei's spine.

"Mom!"

The little Time Dragon Carp rushed towards the huge phantom, wanting to rub her body against the big fish.

However, her small body passed through the water phantom.

The big fish looked helpless and comforted her, "Baby, this man is a liar."

The little Time Dragon Carp was taken aback. "Isn't he my father? He gave me a lot of delicious food."

BAM!

Han Fei only felt that the weight on his body had suddenly doubled. Damn it! How could I know that this fish did have a mother? Isn't your mother here? Why did you still keep crying, 'I want my mom, I want my mom'?

If I had known your mother was there, I wouldn't have lied to you!

Whirr!

"Majestic Mystic Spell."

The pressure on his body was really too heavy, so he had to use the Majestic Mystic Spell. As soon as his strength was increased five times, Han Fei was immediately able to withstand this huge pressure.

However, his whole body turned red and he struggled to stand up with difficulty.

"Huh?"

This big fish was a little surprised. This person seemed a little different.

Han Fei felt another wave of water coming. With a muffled roar in his throat, his fists trembled, and as he raised his hand, a dazzling fist light burst out of the water.

Boom!

Han Fei was sent flying, but the water wave was also smashed by Han Fei's punch.

Han Fei glared at the big fish. "What do you want?! Nine Tails, Little Gold, attach."

Swoosh!

Clang Clang Clang!

When the nine-star chain danced wildly in the air and two wings popped up on his back, his strength rose further. Plus with the effect of the Majestic Mystic Spell, Han Fei was almost in his peak state.

Xiao Se was dumbfounded. Is this person so strong?

Han Fei let out a low growl. "You feed on people! Shouldn't I teach you a lesson? Take my punch!"

Boom!

Han Fei threw a punch with almost all his might. The huge fist mark, printed in the sea, burst out with brilliant golden light.

Han Fei could perceive that this phantom seemed to be just a wisp of thoughts. He had no choice but to fight. He certainly wouldn't await his doom! In the face of this powerful existence, he couldn't flinch.

Therefore, Han Fei must strike with this punch regardless of whether he can resist the phantom or not.
