Chapter 511 The Seed

Han Fei was quite shocked himself. What's going on here? Am I Superman?

However, the two beams of light quickly disappeared from his eyes. Han Fei could see nothing but redness in his eyes. The weird scene did not fade away until a long time later.

His vitality was surging out nonstop and healing his wounds at a very high speed.

About an hour later, Han Fei rose up. He looked at his data instead of looking for a way out.

<Owner> Han Fei

<Level> 39 (Advanced Dangling Fisher)

<Spiritual energy> 128,526 (6,499)

<Spiritual Power> 1,001/1,001

<Perception Range> 5,000 Meters

<Spiritual Heritage> Level-Five, High-Quality

<Spiritual Beast> Twin Yin-Yang Spirit Swallowing Fish (level 30) <Main Art> Void Breaking Technique, Volume Four of Void Fishing (Demon-Level, Divine-Quality)

Han Fei was briefly stunned when he saw the data. The upper limit of his spiritual energy reached a new height. His spiritual power hadn't been improved much, but it seemed to have surpassed the threshold. Had it reached a new level too?

"Huh!"

Han Fei was quite lost for words. Was it a result of his cultivation in the past two months, or because of the flames where he was burned?

But in any case, he was almost burned alive, and he had to get back at Ren Tianfen at some point.

That was really a scary experience. His veins might have been melted if he didn't have any tricks. In that case, he would've been crippled, if not killed.

"Damn you old jerk, you think everybody is just like you?"

Han Fei raised his head, only to see that the cave that he came from was long gone, and that many cracks had appeared on the crags because of the appalling temperature. The biggest crack of them was where he punched the wall here. There was a dark hole behind it that looked like a passage. "Is this another trap set up by that old fart?"

Han Fei was very suspicious. He had thought that he could go out easily after collecting the Candle Dragon Blood. He never expected that any of this would happen.

Once bitten, twice shy. Han Fei was very suspicious about Ren Tianfen right now. That old b*stard was quite a troublemaker.

While Han Fei stared at the dark hole, he suddenly found that it became as bright as day, and he saw a zigzagging road that led to somewhere he didn't know.

"Hiss!"

"Wait, something is wrong with my eyes!"

Han Fei took out a knife and used it as a mirror to examine his eyes.

But no matter how he examined them, he found that his eyes were normal!

"Have the Yin-Yang Divine Eyes been upgraded too? That can't be right! I don't have the Yin-Yang Divine Eyes unless I'm fused with Little White and Little Black."

Unfortunately, there was nobody else here, so Han Fei couldn't know if his eyes had changed at all. From what he could tell, they were absolutely the same as before except that he saw things more clearly in the dark.

He had to take the road.

After all, it was the only passage left.

But Han Fei knew that the road wouldn't be so simple. Therefore, he immediately put on a battle suit and a spiritual energy protective cover.

Stepping into the darkness, or the trail that seemed dark but was actually quite bright, Han Fei immediately saw a whole lot of other things.

All kinds of illusions were happening. He saw a batch of big green crabs coming at him.

"I knew nothing good would happen." Han Fei grinned but didn't take action, because he didn't see any information in his eyes, which meant that everything before his eyes was fake.

However, when the first big green crab crashed him and pinched Han Fei's elbow with its pincers, Han Fei's face suddenly changed.

"That's impossible!"

Han Fei was instantly shocked, as he sensed the pain and the collision. Could this crab be real?

That was unlikely! This was just the most common big green crab that was everywhere in the regular fishery. But why did it feel so real?

Han Fei lowered his head and looked back at the cave, only to find that everything was still there. This did not seem to be an illusion.

"How could that be?"

Han Fei was dumbfounded, as it didn't make any sense. If this was a regular big green crab, he should've been able to read its information.

BAM!

It was impossible for the big green crab to hurt Han Fei. Han Fei casually punched out, and the hundreds of big green crabs behind him were shattered into pieces.

However, after they were shattered, Han Fei saw that the shattered big green crabs turned into glittering spots of light and disappeared from the way.

However, following them, tremendous little white fish and big yellow fish were surging.

“You’re all fake!”

Han Fei was quite positive of that. He didn’t know why those regular creatures felt so real, but he was 100% sure that they were fake.

If they were real, they would’ve turned into broken shells and bodies. How could they simply turn into spots of light and disappear?

Therefore, Han Fei planned to press on. He was going to find out what was at the end of the road.

After Han Fei made the first step forward, he somehow felt a lot easier, as if something heavy in his heart had been removed.

“Huh? Something is wrong with this road?”

Han Fei wasn’t quite certain of that. He merely felt comfortable after the first step, and he wanted to walk on.

Boom!

Blowing up the big yellow fish, he moved on for another several steps.

After the several steps, the fish that came at him turned from big yellow fish to green turtles, Blade Fish and Snakebelts...

Han Fei moved on faster and faster. He found that he was enjoying the feeling. He felt that his heart was clear, and that he wanted to blow up all the obstacles before his eyes.

Yes, he wanted to clear all the obstacles.

Therefore, the swordfish, ball fish, spirit swallowing fish, purple tailed scorpions and other creatures from the level-one fishery were all shattered by Han Fei with one punch.

Then, the Strip Fish, the Piercing Bone Fish, the Dragon-Headed Fish, the prawns, the lightning crabs and other fish from the level-two fishery came up and were blown up by Han Fei too.

After that, there were the Anti-Heaven Blades, the Black-Moon Sickle Fish, the Mess Swallowing Worms and other things from the level-three fishery...

Han Fei moved faster and faster. In the blink of an eye, he had crushed more than a hundred types of fish that appeared before his eyes. At this moment, the Inferior Man-Fish showed up...

Han Fei found that it was difficult to continue the journey after the Inferior Man-Fish showed up. The road became narrower and narrower, and he had to be very strong to make every step.

Boom!

At this moment, Han Fei had an epiphany. This was not a regular road but a replay of everything he had seen. All the creatures he saw and knew were blocking his way.

After he killed an Inferior Man-Fish with the Art of Invincibility, Han Fei's whole body was glowing

Because the road was narrower and narrower and the creatures were more and more ferocious, he had to tear the road apart. With the Art of Invincibility and the Sacrificing Punch, two unparalleled skills, Han Fei only wanted to press on.

After he blew up a merman with the Sacrificing Punch, it was the end of the road.

Lying before Han Fei was absolutely darkness as if the road had been blocked. It looked like the world in Forge the Universe that was beyond the existing space. "Open up!"

Han Fei punched crazily and punched the darkness. However, after thousands of powerful punches, he felt that he was extremely tired, but he only expanded a dozen steps in the dark.

Eventually, a weird eye emerged in the darkness. Han Fei burst into fury for reasons he didn't know and launched the Sacrificing Punch at the darkness again with bloodshot eyes.

Shua!

Under an attractive force, Han Fei suddenly opened his eyes, he found that he was still inside the cave sitting cross-legged on the ground.

"Hu! Hu! Hu!"

Han Fei breathed heavily, but his body was suddenly stiffened!

It was because the crack on the wall caused by his punch was small and shallow. It was only half a meter deep, and there wasn't a road behind it at all.

"Huh! Where's the road?"

Han Fei rose and ran to the crack, but he found that it was just a regular crack, and there was nothing behind it at all.

"Was it a dream?" Han Fei didn't come back to himself until a long time later.

He looked at his stats again in a hurry, but unfortunately, his stats didn't change.

But he did feel something unusual about his abdomen. When he looked into his body, he found that a seed the size of a grain was floating there. "Huh? What's this?"

Han Fei was quite shocked. Why was there a seed in his abdomen? Where was it from?

He tried pulling the seed with his spiritual energy, but his spiritual energy simply bypassed the seed every time.

After several attempts, Han Fei realized that he couldn't move the seed at this. Since it did not seem to be a threat, he decided to let it go.

At this moment, Han Fei raised his head and found that the entrance he came from was still there.

“So, it was indeed just a dream.”

Chapter 512 Nine Death Soul Splitting Octopus

It was not until this moment that Han Fei finally confirmed that he had taken all the treasures left by Ren Tianfen.

On his way out, he entered the cave that he entered in the beginning and saw the bodies that were still lying on the ground or stuck to the wall.

Out of the cave, the white sword Qi was still slithering unhurriedly. “Hehe! It looks like I won’t find any more treasures!”

This time, Ren Tianfen didn’t leave anything for him. He didn’t mention leaving any treasures to Han Fei in the unknown worlds either.

Han Fei knew that he would probably meet this old man after he broke the third barrier of the Indestructible Body Art. The old man wasn’t here, but maybe he was in the Thousand Star City or somewhere else.

Han Fei didn’t intend to go out immediately. He had one more thing to do. Now that he already had five creatures, it was time he fused his third contractual spiritual beast.

He listed the five creatures in the Demon Purification Pot.

There was an Iron-Armed Lobster whose pincers were hard and could leave its body.

There was a mutated Devil Fish that could invoke fear.

There was an exotic Snake-Tentacled Shark-Faced Octopus whose nine heads were quite aggressive. Han Fei was almost of a mind to ignore this one and look for another creature he could fuse with.

There was an exotic Divine Seaweed Octopus that could remotely control seaweed.

There was also an exotic mutated Abyssal Water Serpent that boasted shocking defense abilities.

Looking at those creatures, Han Fei felt that he could definitely create a super powerful creature after the fusion. He only wondered if the creature he created could be beyond a legendary one.

After all, Little Gold was already of the highest quality among the legendary creatures. Although the five creatures that Little Gold was based on were all exotic creatures, none of them were mysterious. Besides, none of them were a giant octopus that could talk, or an Abyssal Water Serpent that had a dragon bloodline.

Demon Purification Pot

<Demons to Be Refined> Iron-Armed Lobster, Mutated Devil Fish, Snake-Tentacled Shark-Faced Octopus, Divine Seaweed Octopus, Abyssal Water Serpent

<Consumption> 3,000,000 points of spiritual energy <Fusion Result> Unknown

Fuse them or not?

Han Fei was briefly stunned. Something was not right! It only cost him ten thousand points of spiritual energy to fuse the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp, and it took fifty times more to create Little Gold.

But this time, the creatures that Han Fei thought to be very powerful required three million, six times more than what Little Gold cost.

“Huh? This doesn’t agree with the pattern!”

“Or is it because those lives aren’t advanced enough?”

Han Fei slightly frowned. Forget it. Was he really qualified to look down upon a creature that had to be fused with three million points of spiritual energy? He couldn’t dream of having one back then.

“Fuse!”

After about fifty seconds, something suddenly threw itself on Han Fei.

The thing was soft and sticky as if it had a layer of grease on its body. Han Fei hurried to lift what was covering his head, only to find that he had been stuck to a sucking disc. Han Fei couldn’t have felt more disgusted. A sucking disc? A tentacle? An octopus?

He felt as though a dragon had just bashed into his chest. Why an octopus? Although there were two octopuses among the demons to be refined, both of them were hideous.

One of them was a freakish octopus that was downright an eyesore.

The other one was the Divine Seaweed Octopus, which was green and disgusting.

Han Fei almost felt that he was desperate. Why had such a creature been synthesized. He would’ve been happy even if it were a snake.

The Abyssal Water Serpent, for example, looked much more awesome than an octopus!

Struggling for a long time, Han Fei finally broke free from the suction disc and crawled out from under the octopus. He was dumbfounded when he saw the creature. Before him, the octopus was staring at him with its two big eyes. Also, the two big eyes were of different colors. One of the eyes was blue and clear, and the other was red. Now, both of the two eyes were gazing at him.

Apart from the eyes, this octopus was dark red in general. Han Fei’s heart was chilled the moment he saw the color. The only relief was that the octopus’s tentacles did not mutate, and it had a regular octopus head.

“Hu!”

Han Fei was slightly relieved. He could accept it as long as it wasn’t like the freakish octopus even though it didn’t look pretty.

The Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp looked awesome.

Little Gold was pretty cool too.

A string of data appeared in his eyes.

Contractual Spiritual Beast:

<Name> Nine Death Soul Splitting Octopus

<Introduction> This is a special beast from the primordial age that has a divine beast bloodline. It can absorb spiritual energy and vitality with its sucking disks. Its spiritual power is very high and can ignore all spiritual attacks ten levels above itself. It can also deflect ninety percent of physical attacks that come at it. It boasts powerful self-recovery abilities.

<Level> 38

<Quality> Legendary (Upgradeable)

<Spiritual Energy> 4,888 points

<Food > Carnivorous, prefers shrimp and crabs

<Battle Technique> Limb Regeneration, Blood Rebirth

<Note> In its ultimate state, the host can share Blood Rebirth with the Nine Death Soul Splitting Octopus. It can be used nine times in a lifetime. Vitality sharing is unavailable for now.

“Shoot...”

Han Fei was dumbfounded, as this creature seemed rather awesome!

It could ignore spiritual attacks and deflect ninety percent of physical attacks?

Its limbs could infinitely be regenerated when they were broken?

It could also be reborn with its blood? This creature seemed unkillable! “Hiss!”

Han Fei’s eyes bulged out. Good god, I can be unkillable too! Does it mean that I have nine extra lives now?

He didn’t know when the ultimate state would come, but it would certainly be awesome when it did come.

“I... I... I don’t know what to say...”

Han Fei’s eyes curled as he smiled hard. He found the octopus more and more agreeable. Little Gold seemed much less remarkable than the Nine Death Soul Splitting Octopus!

“Hahaha!”

Han Fei couldn’t help but laugh aloud. This was too delightful.

Also, other people seemed to only have two contractual spiritual beasts at best, but he already had a third one. It appeared that the limitation of contractual spiritual beasts didn’t apply to him.

While Han Fei was feeling great about himself, he suddenly heard a voice. “What a dumbass!”

“Who’s there?”

Han Fei’s first reaction was to look around, but he suddenly trembled and gazed at the giant octopus. “Were you talking?”

“Yes!”

“Huh!”

Han Fei immediately gasped hard. Damn it... Can a contractual spiritual beast talk? Why have I never heard the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp or Little Gold talk?

The big octopus glimpsed at Han Fei, as if it didn’t want to speak to him. Han Fei could clearly sense the contempt in the octopus’s crooked eyes which suggested that it was not in the mood to answer his question.

Han Fei wasn’t too pleased. “Hey, that’s outrageous! I’m your Master. You have to show me some respect!”

The big octopus glanced at Han Fei again. Then, it slowly shrank to half a meter.

“Recall me.”

The big octopus tilted its eyes and looked at Han Fei. Han Fei was so angry that he almost wanted to slap it. Han Fei said to himself, “It’s a pet. It’s my pet. I have to calm down.”

He snorted, “You haven’t met your brothers yet. I’ll introduce you to one another.”

After that, Han Fei summoned the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp and Little Gold.

All of a sudden, the three legendary creatures looked at each other in a triangle. Little Gold was acting silly. It flapped its wings and approached Han Fei.

The Nine-Tailed mantis Shrimp was like an ADHD patient. It simply drew close to the Nine Death Soul Splitting Octopus the moment they saw each other, and the big octopus had to move back.

“Go away.”

“Pa!”

The big octopus slapped the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp away, and it rolled on the ground nonstop.

The Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp certainly couldn’t hold it back. Seeing that it dared to slap it, the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp charged forth and swung its two limbs.

Han Fei saw that the big octopus extended two tentacles, which were bashed into its body by the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp in the next second. But it immediately sent out another two tentacles to the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp.

Next, the big octopus stuck its whole body to the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp.

The sucking discs of the octopus were so attractive that the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp couldn't move at all.

However, the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp wasn't weak either. It simply swung out the nine-star chain and clutched the octopus. For a moment, the two creatures were stuck together and rolled like a ball. Seeing that, Han Fei said quickly, "Okay, okay. Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp, let go... Little Fatty, you stop too." The Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp seemed to have realized that it couldn't beat this thing, so it obediently stopped, but the big octopus said above the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp, "I want another name."

Han Fei chuckled. "Aren't you hard to please? Do you think that name is below you?"

The big octopus glanced at Han Fei. "Another name!"

Han Fei decided that he would not give in to a pet that was challenging its master.

"Don't press too far! Come back in right now!"

With Han Fei's thought, the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp and the Little Fatty both disappeared into his body.

Little Gold innocently watched the whole fight and submerged into Han Fei's body too.

Han Fei clicked his tongue. "That's three of them. If I get another few contractual spiritual beasts of such a level, will I be able to retire early?"

Chapter 513 Hello! How Are You?

Han Fei tried fusing with Little Fatty. But Little Fatty only unwillingly attached itself to him after he called it three times.

Also, the Little Fatty's attachment was quite weird too.

The nine-star chains came with the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp, wings came with Little Gold, but two eyes came along with Little Fatty.

Han Fei was quite shocked. The two eyes were shadows that grew above his shoulders, allowing him to see everything that was around him.

The tentacles of the octopus did not appear at all. They would only emerge from the void when Han Fei wanted to attack with the tentacles.

After trying it out, Han Fei realized why Little Fatty was described as strong. He took out a mid-quality spiritual shield, but his tentacle squished the shield easily.

Han Fei could sense how powerful the tentacle was during that moment. It was probably no weaker than his full-strength attack without activating the Majestic Mystic Spell.

Han Fei was quite satisfied, because it was just a random test he had, and the octopus should be much more destructive than that in a real battle.

Naturally, Little Fatty had shortcomings. Its attack speed wasn't as high as that of the nine-star chains, and certainly not Little Gold's.

However, in terms of melee battles, the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp and Little Gold were probably not as strong as Little Fatty when they were combined.

Considering the advantages and disadvantages, Han Fei was generally satisfied.

But what surprised Han Fei was that something went wrong when he tried to attach the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp, Little Gold, and Little Fatty to himself at the same time. No matter how Han Fei tried, he could only attach two of them at best. Once two of them were attached to himself, there was no way he could summon the third one.

Han Fei realized that he wasn't omnipotent after all, and that there was a reason why most people only had two contractual spiritual beasts.

While he could use different combinations, he could only attach two contractual spiritual beasts to himself, or three, counting the naturally-endowed spiritual beast, just like everybody else.

In fact, it made a lot of sense. Otherwise, he would be the center of attention if he got ten contractual spiritual beasts in the future and attached all of them to himself.

As he left the cave, the sword Qi that was swimming in the sea seemed to have found their target and came at him overwhelmingly.

This time, Han Fei simply ignored them and swam back with a shield on his shoulder.

He didn't intend to press any further, nor was he capable of doing so for now. While he had been significantly strengthened by the treasures Ren Tianfen left behind, he was still not strong enough. The sword torrents outside were so terrifying that he probably couldn't reach the treasure trove at the end of it even if he became a peak-level Dangling Fisher.

Since he couldn't go there, he might as well let it go.

He also saved the treasure trove ahead for the future. If he didn't get a chance to explore it, so be it. There were too many treasure troves in the world for him to explore.

Han Fei passed the dragon boat on his way back, but he didn't board it.

Mostly, it was because he didn't want to get in touch with Xiao Se and the Dragon Carp of Time. The younger one was still being kept there, and the bigger one was too strong for him to mess with.

If he went there, he would lose a tremendous amount of food again. It was certainly not worth it.

Three days later, Han Fei swam across the dead sea.

He experienced all kinds of weird incidents. He was blasted by infrasound waves multiple times, and he was almost absorbed by a big hole that appeared out of nowhere.

Han Fei couldn't help but wonder how many people in Zhang Xuanyu's team made it out. Since he didn't know the way, he could only swim randomly when he got out.

He ran into many strange underwater vortexes and pits where a lot of weird creatures lived.

On his way out, Han Fei also met an exotic worm that looked like the Mess Swallowing Worm except that it was three times larger and had two heads. It looked rather scary.

Therefore, Han Fei simply punched it back even though it was an exotic creature. He didn't plan to subdue it.

Little Fatty came out during the fusion. Han Fei also realized that it was barely possible to create creatures that were better than legendary with exotic creatures.

If he pursued perfection, he needed to consider capturing stronger creatures in the future. He had to aim for mutated exotic creatures, or even the mysterious ones.

Eventually, with Little White's help, it took Han Fei two days to swim out of the sea.

When Han Fei arrived in the Tornado Sea, he had no time to search for the scattered treasures anymore, partly because he didn't want to be consumed by the Abyssal Chasm again, and partly because he felt that the Abyssal Chasm had more secrets. It was still a mystery how he ended up in the dead sea.

Besides, Han Fei didn't think that he could find any better treasures in a regular trove than what he already got. It was best to find Zhang Xuanyu and Xia Xiaochan and reunite with him.

He had planned to craft another Wind God Boat, but it would consume a lot of spiritual energy to do that, which didn't seem worth it for a journey of no more than a million kilometers.

He would have a Wind God Boat when he found Zhang Xuanyu or Xia Xiaochan.

At the edge of the Abyssal Chasm, ten thousand kilometers before the Tornado Sea and fifty thousand kilometers away from the Abyssal Chasm, He Kaiyang was turning a fish skin map. "Huh? Wait. That's not right! This is the place marked on the map, but I don't see any treasure trove here. Do I have to press on?"

He Kaiyang frowned and hesitated. He would be entering the Tornado Sea if he sailed on!

In everybody's eyes, entering the Tornado Sea meant entering the Abyssal Chasm, which was well acknowledged to be the most dangerous place in the level-three fishery. Nobody would risk their life there for no good reason.

He Kaiyang gritted his teeth. "Forget it. I can't go there."

When He Kaiyang was about to leave, he was stunned to see that a boat flew out of the Abyssal Chasm.

"Hiss! This guy is rather bold."

He Kaiyang quickly prepared to leave. As far as he knew, nobody who could make it out of the Abyssal Chasm alive was simple.

But he found that the boat behind him was chasing him soon after he fled.

While He Kaiyang tried to keep a distance from Han Fei, he wasn't exactly scared. After all, he wouldn't have come to this place for treasure hunting if he wasn't confident in himself.

He was one of the remarkable peak-level Dangling Fishers, and one of the top three super experts in the Mystic Turtle Town. His pride made him step back, but he wasn't afraid of fighting

Seeing that someone was drawing near, He Kaiyang couldn't help but fly up on his boat to see who was coming to him.

He almost peed his pants when he saw Han Fei.

Right when He Kaiyang exclaimed, a fishing line appeared on his boat out of nowhere.

He Kaiyang instantly recalled the boat and squeezed a Flash Stone in the next second.

Han Fei was quite bummed when he finally came. "Aren't you a little bit too fast? Little White, let's go after him."

Half a day passed.

Hiding in a trench, He Kaiyang couldn't be more appalled by Han Fei's reappearance after being missing in the Abyssal Chasm for more than two months.

Didn't they say that nobody had ever left the Abyssal Chasm alive?

While He Kaiyang was hiding prudently, he saw an enormous octopus swimming to him from a thousand meters away.

The octopus stopped moving upon seeing him. Then, the octopus gradually changed its color and melted into the surroundings. "Huh? What a weird octopus."

He Kaiyang's eyes glittered. He had happened upon a special creature.

Immediately, he charged at where the octopus disappeared at full speed. Releasing his senses, he found that a stone-like creature was peeping at him.

"Haha! It's definitely an exotic creature. I'm going to be rich... Huh?"

After He Kaiyang launched an attack with an unstoppable sword Qi, he found that the sword Qi was blocked by some rocks and the octopus was running away. He certainly couldn't allow it to go away. He immediately came close and chased after it, but a smooth stone suddenly jerked from the ground, and he was absorbed by a powerful attractive force.

His eyes bulging out, He Kaiyang quickly took out another Flash Stone.

But before he did anything yet, a fishing hook suddenly emerged in his hand that grabbed the flash stone away.

In the next second, a golden fist descended magnificently.

Under these circumstances, He Kaiyang could not even defend himself.

After the exploding seawater calmed down again, he found that a man was standing ten meters before him. "Hello! How are you?"

Chapter 515 Han Fei Is Here (1)

He asked for Mo Qianshang's information because he would catch too much attention if he asked for his teammates'.

Since the battle was still going on in the Sea Grassland, he could find them when he found Mo Qianshang.

After paying ten thousand mid-quality pearls, Han Fei received a piece of accurate information about Mo Qianshang.

After acquiring the intelligence, he found that He Kaiyang's intelligence was already outdated, and the Sea Grassland had already turned into an enormous swamp.

It was believed that one third of the experts on the Wanted List were here. Also, those people were divided into multiple groups and had already joined the battle.

Why were they fighting? Because Luo Xiaobai and Mo Qianshang seemed to be competing over something.

But Luo Xiaobai didn't get the entirety of it. She and Mo Qianshang seemed to have split it up.

The experts on the Wanted List were divided into multiple groups chasing them. Luo Xiaobai and her partners were a team, Mo Qianshang and another few friends were a team, and the others were divided into multiple teams too.

Two days earlier, Luo Xiaobai's team and Mo Qianshang's team had a battle within the seaweed wall. Both of them suffered casualties.

A day earlier, Mo Qianshang had fought with another team. An armorist who was 19th on the Wanted List was killed on the spot.

Ten hours earlier, Luo Xiaobai's team encountered another team on the Wanted List too. A soul warrior who was 26th on the list was killed.

There had been no updates since then. Han Fei was very familiar with the place where they were last spotted. It was the sponge area.

After acquiring the information, Han Fei left the dragon boat. He stayed there for no more than an hour in total.

Because the information trade center adjoined the mercenary hall, Han Fei heard people shouting when he passed by the mercenary hall. "Four waiting for one! We need an armorist! Zhao Mo, 39th on the Wanted List has entered the Sea Grassland on his own. Anyone want to hunt him down?"

"Three waiting for two! We need a spirit gatherer and a manipulator! Our goal is to hunt exotic creatures! Come if you're interested!"

"We're a hundred-person group. Our target is the sponge section. We still need 22 candidates. We're hunting the member of the Thug Legend or Mo Qianshang's team. Come on if you're interested."

"We're a squad of pickers. We're all hunters. There's still one opening. We're set off the moment the team is full!"

Han Fei paused for a moment, wondering if he should join one of the teams.

But he smiled in the next second, as it did not seem necessary. Several dragon boats were here, and although he didn't see the Specter, it must be somewhere around.

With so many people here, there must be a lot of similar teams inside the Sea Grassland.

In such a case, it was pointless to join a team in disguise. It would be faster and more convenient if he acted alone.

Thinking that through, Han Fei left the dragon boat alone and set sail to the Sea Grassland.

However, after only a thousand kilometers, a boat descended from the sky and blocked Han Fei's way.

"Hey, brother, surrender your Sea Swallowing Seashell."

On the boat on his opposite side, the soul warrior jumped over to Han Fei's boat with a stick.

Han Fei's lips curled. "Two manipulators? Both Dangling Fishers? You think you can stop me?"

"Boom!"

The soul warrior hadn't performed any of his battle techniques, and he was about to talk to Han Fei, when a golden fish appeared before his eyes.

BAM!

The fist broke the soul warrior's rod and collapsed his chest.

"Pu!"

The soul warrior could not imagine that he would be crushed by someone of his level before he could utter a word.

On the other boat, the two armorists were appalled. They recalled the boat, squeezed their Flash Stones, and fled quickly.

Han Fei had no time to bother the two manipulators in the water. He simply darted dozens of daggers into the water.

The ultra-quality spiritual weapons were irresistible for some regular advanced Dangling Fishers. Amidst the shiny daggers, one of the manipulators was pierced through, and the other one had a broken arm but managed to escape by squeezing their Flash Stone.

Everything was within Han Fei's perception. He could even tell that the manipulator had flashed to the edge of his perception range and was quickly swimming further away.

Han Fei grinned, as Flash Stones were less and less effective for him. His perception range of five thousand meters was exactly the maximal distance of teleportation of the stones.

Not every Flash Stone could flash dozens of kilometers away. Sometimes, it could only flash within a thousand meters. It was completely random.

Han Fei was confident that, as long as he absorbed some more crystals and further increased his perception range, those probably couldn't get away from him unless they were to use Flash Stones more than twice in a row.

But of course, Han Fei didn't intend to chase the pirates at this moment. He was in a hurry.

During the ten-thousand-kilometer journey, Han Fei encountered eight ghost boats. It was not hard to imagine how chaotic the Sea Grassland had become.

The pirates had even considered this place as their paradise. Some of them weren't professional pirates, but when they saw that Han Fei was alone and only an advanced Dangling Fisher, they couldn't stop themselves from robbing him even though they had never robbed anyone before.

Unfortunately, Han Fei simply killed anyone on his way. No boats could possibly resist Han Fei for more than ten seconds. They all fled the moment they engaged him.

To save time, Han Fei simply flew above the Sea Grassland.

Many people were surprised to see what Han Fei was doing. They wondered what his purpose was. Was he trying to descend into the Sea Grassland? Or to search for some poisons from the high reeds?

A lot of people were scattered among the high reeds looking for things. Some were here to collect the poison of the Green Arrow Venomous Frog, and some were hunting creatures under the reeds.

All of a sudden, an enormous golden fish descended from the sky and caused a huge hole in the reeds.

Someone exclaimed, "Shoot! Someone came down from the sky."

Someone said with disdain, "Only an idiot would do that. This place is full of Spirit Devouring Bugs. He will be killed if he goes down."

Someone was confused. "But that man seems quite strong. I, for one, couldn't have taken that punch."

Han Fei didn't cause any attention. Whoever met him simply thought that he was a relatively strong expert. They didn't find anyone who looked like Han Fei on the wanted list, so they simply thought that he was a tough expert but not tough enough to make it to the wanted list.

In the water, Han Fei blew up the algae that drifted to him with a punch. Spirit Devouring Bugs were everywhere in the seaweed and in the water.

However, Han Fei couldn't care less about them at this moment. All the creatures that were within the reach of his fists were shattered. None of the Spirit Devouring Bugs could reach Han Fei.

A team of three advanced Dangling Fishers saw what he did clearly, and how his golden fist left a mark on the ground through the water.

"Boom!"

Han Fei blew a crab to pieces with a casual punch. Then, he locked someone's hands with his fishing hook.

Immediately, the other two people squeezed their Flash Stones and escaped. They wondered where this tough guy was from. That was a rarely-seen Purple Soldier Crab, and you blew it up with one punch? You're too strong for us!

The man who was captured by Han Fei was frightened. "Bro, let's talk nicely. You want my Sea Swallowing Seashell, right? I can give it to you. Please don't kill me."

Han Fei simply glanced at him casually. "Have you met anyone on the Wanted List here?"

The man was briefly stunned. "No, we haven't!"

He was actually rather speechless. How could we still be alive if we had run into any of them?

Han Fei looked around. "What is this place?"

The man replied in a hurry, "This is the Broken Stones Valley."

This place was about seven hundred kilometers from the seaweed wall, and one had to take a detour to go from this place to the sponge area. The journey was almost seven thousand kilometers.

Han Fei ignored him and stepped dozens of meters away. After another step, he vanished into Broken Stones Valley that was full of green moss.

"Phew! What a terrifying man. Who was that exactly?"

Tu Fang was 22nd place on the Wanted List.

At this moment, he was lying on a rock that was enshrouded by seaweed.

He wasn't here to fight anyone. As far as he knew, both Mo Qianshang and Luo Xiaobai were too strong for him to deal with.

But he couldn't feel happier at this moment, as he had looted more than fifty Sea Swallowing Seashells.

He thought to himself proudly, It's really great that I can just wait for people delivering their Sea Swallowing Seashells to me here. I'm not an idiot who fights over the Divine Weapon. I probably wouldn't even live long enough to use it even if I somehow get it.

Huh? Another Sea Swallowing Seashell is coming?

Chapter 514 Chaotic Situation

On the surface of the ocean...

He Kaiyang sat on the boat obediently. He had no idea how Han Fei tracked him down.

However, Han Fei had defeated him easily with nothing but one punch.

That made He Kaiyang extremely frustrated. He knew that Han Fei was not ordinary, but he was quite devastated to be crushed by an advanced Dangling Fisher so easily.

At this moment, before Han Fei said anything else, He Kaiyang had opened his mouth, "I know what you want to ask."

"Oh?"

Han Fei's eyes glittered. "Then why don't you tell me about it? I'll let you go if I'm satisfied."

He Kaiyang knew that it was impossible for him to get away from Han Fei, so he could only tell him everything in great detail. "You want to know where your partners are, don't you?"

Han Fei was briefly stunned. "You know my teammates?"

He Kaiyang smiled bitterly. "After you came out of the Steps into the Sea, all the information on your partners was publicized. Someone might have bought it from the Specter and disseminated it."

Han Fei was instantly enraged. Did anyone do that on purpose? Damn it. I will definitely kill them after I find out who.

He Kaiyang said, "Now, few people in the level-three fishery don't know the Thug Academy. The rest of your gang should be near the Sea Grassland at this moment."

"The Sea Grassland?"

Han Fei was shocked. "Are you saying that they're all there?" He Kaiyang nodded. "Yes, all of them! After the turmoil you caused at the Steps into the Sea, someone went there to look for you and ran into the guys who intended to kill you. The person killed dozens of peak-level Dangling Fishers in a row before he fled with heavy wounds."

Han Fei's eyes turned cold. "Who was it? Was it a man or a woman?"

He was certain that it couldn't have been Xia Xiaochan or Zhang Xuanyu.

Xia Xiaochan knew what she was doing. He had merely sent her out for her safety.

This person was even less likely to be Zhang Xuanyu, who had spent so long in the Abyssal Chasm that he didn't know what happened outside at all.

So, it could've only been Le Renkuang or Luo Xiaobai. They must've found a lot of treasures which enabled them to kill dozens of peak-level Dangling Fishers in a row!

Without wasting any time, He Kaiyang simply looked at Han Fei and said, "It was Le Renkuang."

"Le Renkuang?"

Han Fei slightly nodded. "Then what happened?"

He Kaiyang said that Le Renkuang fled with heavy wounds. Then why did he end up in the Sea Grassland with the others?

He Kaiyang shrugged. "I don't know what exactly happened after that. However, half a month ago, some guys on the Wanted List had a huge battle in the Sea Grassland. Nobody knew how it happened, but a person named Luo Xiaobai fought Mo Qianshang, the top of the Wanted List, in the Sea Grassland. Then, the battle went on for days. The rest of your team was all gathered there. It's still going on."

“It’s still going on?” Han Fei found that hard to believe. What kind of battle could be fought for more than half a month?

As if he knew what Han Fei was thinking, He Kaiyang said, “The havoc in the Sea Grassland isn’t completely over, and that place is suitable for hiding and long-term battles. It’s not strange at all that they’ve fought for such a long time.”

Han Fei considered for a moment and said, “The result of the battle is still unclear?”

He Kaiyang shook his head. “I don’t know! But when I learned the news, many experts on the Wanted List were already there. Not just the people on the Wanted List, the dragon boat and the Specter met each other and had a skirmish too.”

“Huh?”

Han Fei interrupted him, “Hold on a second. Are you saying that the dragon boat and the Specter had a fight?”

He Kaiyang nodded. “That’s right! Also, the Specter had fought against two dragon boats at the same time. Some Hanging Fishers were even suspected to be involved in the battle. But nobody was hurt or killed. It was just a brief affair.”

Han Fei was slightly puzzled. It didn’t sound right! Didn’t they say that the dragon boats and the Specter hadn’t fought for thirty years? It was believed that the dragon boats were traumatized from previous battles.

Why did the dragon boats become tough this time?

Taking a deep breath, Han Fei asked, “Anything else?”

After a brief silence, He Kaiyang said, “There’s a place that I don’t like going to. Something might’ve happened there because of you.” “Because of me?”

He Kaiyang nodded. “The Steps into the Sea has turned into a perilous place now.”

Han Fei: “???”

“Half a month after you left, the Steps into the Sea became steady again. But a month ago, the Steps into the Sea suddenly fell into mayhem. Tremendous creatures appeared out of nowhere and fought human beings. A marvelous weapon even appeared in the meantime... You know what marvelous weapons are, right? A lot of people died, but none has claimed the marvelous weapon yet. Few people dare to go there anymore.”

Han Fei was lost for words. Am I related to the whole thing? I’m not the person who dropped the marvelous weapon... But Han Fei was quite curious too. Where was the marvelous weapon from? He had taken all the good stuff, and he never saw any marvelous weapons on the altar. Why had a marvelous weapon appeared out of nowhere?

Han Fei couldn’t figure out the answer, so he simply stopped thinking. He should focus his attention on the Steps into the Sea instead of the Sea Grassland now.

Intrigued, Han Fei looked at He Kaiyang. “Do you have the Wanted List?”

He Kaiyang nodded and gave a leaflet to Han Fei, but he said, “I bought this Wanted List half a month ago. I don’t know if it’s still useful for you.”

He Kaiyang nodded and suddenly looked at He Kaiyang. “Your Sea Swallowing Seashell.”

He Kaiyang’s face stiffened. Eventually, like a balloon that had lost all its air, he gave the Sea Swallowing Seashell to Han Fei in frustration. But he was relieved that Han Fei did not mean to kill him, which was great. He could always get more Sea Swallowing Seashells as long as he was alive.

Han Fei did not waste any of his time but set off to the Sea Grassland directly.

On his way, he found that Le Renkuang was indeed on the Wanted List with a high rank.

The 21st place on the Wanted List:

Name: Le Renkuang

Gender: Male

Profession: Armorist

Spiritual Beast: Spiritual Clam

Contractual Spiritual Beasts: Thousand Blade Turtle, Unknown Creature (which is capable of swallowing an assortment of items)

Specialties: Battle Frenzy, Sword and Saber Specialization, Bloodthirsty Broadsword, Knife Burial Technique

Bounty: Three million

Other rewards: Three hundred kilograms of spiritual spring, one high-quality demon-level art, one high-quality spiritual weapon, and three hundred spiritual fruits. Remark: This man is extremely dangerous. A full-strength blow from the Bloodthirsty Broadsword is as strong as an attack from a Hanging Fisher.

Note: This man is one of the five members from the Thug Academy. He’s very tough. Kill him the moment you see him. He is believed to have acquired a legendary contractual spiritual beast.

Han Fei was slightly surprised, as Le Renkuang seemed to have been quite lucky. He got a new contractual spiritual beast which was a legendary one?

Han Fei believed it the moment he read the information. He knew that the fatty seemed greedy about everything but was actually only interested in the good stuff. The man had always wanted a stronger contractual spiritual beast.

As for Luo Xiaobai, Han Fei didn’t find her name on the Wanted List.

After all, Luo Xiaobai didn’t appear until half a month ago. At that time, He Kaiyang had already set sail for adventure, so his list did not include her name.

The boat that Han Fei was sailing was one of the best boats he had left. It could go 33,000 kilometers in a day, only half as slowly as his Wind God Boat.

Now that the whole team had been gathered, Han Fei believed that few people in the whole level-three fishery could beat them in a team fight.

Back when they were in the Fiery Mountain, Le Renkuang, Zhang Xuanyu, and Xia Xiaochan were already able to beat Li Hanyi's team of five. Now that they had all found treasures in the level-three fishery and grown much stronger, Han Fei wasn't too worried about them.

Five days passed. Han Fei finally arrived at the edge of the Sea Grassland. However, when he was fifty thousand kilometers away from the place, he had changed his look into a random person's.

That was because he found a dragon boat in this place. He boarded the dragon boat. Thanks to the Thousand Faces Technique, nobody noticed anything wrong.

His primary target was not to make deals, but to look for someone.

There were a hundred dragon boats in the level-three fishery, and he needed to find two of them, one of which being the dragon boat he boarded at the beginning. However, after wandering in the market, he found that this wasn't the boat, so he left immediately. The whole trip took less than half an hour.

At this moment, Han Fei saw another dragon boat ten thousand kilometers away from the Sea Grassland.

Something must be wrong with the Sea Grassland, or why would so many dragon boats be gathered here?

On the information trade center on the dragon boat...

A staff member asked, "May I know what you would like to buy?"

"I want a Wanted List, and information on Mo Qianshang."

Chapter 516 Han Fei Is Here (2)

In the eyes of the experts, those who were weaker than them were usually considered deliveries, and robbing those people was as exciting as opening a present.

At this moment, when Han Fei was about to pass Tu Fang, Tu Fang suddenly cast out his fishing hook and tied up Han Fei's feet. Then, a short spear was darted close as fast as a shooting star. Tu Fang grinned. It only took him one attack to deal with a regular advanced Dangling Fisher. He didn't even need to continue his attack. However, while Tu Fang was smiling, he found that Han Fei stopped and looked at him with a vague smile.

"Huh? Why is he smiling?"

In the next second, he saw that a golden fist smashed on the short spear so powerfully that the seemingly unstoppable short spear was easily blown away.

"Not good!"

Tu Fang's first thought was that this man was only pretending to be weak. His second thought that was the man was from the Thousand Star City.

In any case, since the man resisted his attack so casually, the man was definitely among the best experts of his level. He didn't know if the man was on the Wanted List, but he did know that many people weren't on the Wanted List not because they were weak but because they always kept a low profile.

Tu Fang's first reaction was to squeeze his Flash Stone. But the moment he took out his stone, a fishing hook appeared out of nowhere and grabbed it away.

Before Tu Fang took out a second Flash Stone, he had seen dozens of fist auras being punched at him.

Under the overwhelming fist auras, Tu Fang exclaimed in shock, "You're Han Fei?"

Tu Fang thought of Han Fei. There were experts who were good at using fists in the level-three fishery, but Cao Tian and Chen Aochen were well-acknowledged to be the best.

Most people did not know them, because they weren't on the Wanted List. Also, as the Heavenly Talents from the Thousand Star City, nobody dared to hunt them.

However, Since Han Fei beat Hanging Fishers with his fists out of the Steps into the Sea, his skills at boxing had been well-known.

On the Wanted List, there were no more than five people who were good with fists, and Han Fei was the best one. Remembering that Han Fei had a disguise technique, Tu Fang was shocked.

"Brother Han, wait a second!"

Tu Fang broke the fist auras with his high-quality spiritual weapon in frustration. What frightened him was that each fist aura was as powerful as the other. He stepped hundreds of meters back while resisting them.

BAM!

When the last fist aura smashed him, Tu Fang suddenly had an outburst. He unleashed a watery blast with his rod and injected one third of his spiritual energy into it.

Boom!

Tu Fang was flung away, leaving a trail of dozens of meters long on the ground. All the seaweed and coral on the way were crumbled.

In the next second, Han Fei had already stuck the long saber he was holding to Tu Fang's neck.

Han Fei said with a smile, "I didn't know until this day that the experts on the Wanted List are actually rather weak even though they're troublemakers. I'll give you a chance. Tell me where Luo Xiaobai and her partners are!"

Tu Fang swallowed hard. He had been seriously struck.

I am weak? How can you say that I'm weak?

I couldn't have resisted dozens of punches from you if I were weak, could I? If I were weak, I would've been killed after you punched me for the first time, alright?

But of course, Tu Fang dare not complain at all. He simply said carefully, "Brother Han, we finally meet. These ten Sea Swallowing Seashells will be my reparation. I can help you find Luo Xiaobai and your other friends."

As he talked, Tu Fang waved his hand, and ten Sea Swallowing Seashells floated in the water.

Han Fei also waved his hand and collected the ten Sea Swallowing Seashells matter-of-factly.

Without examining the Sea Swallowing Seashells, Han Fei asked with a smile, "You know where they are?"

Tu Fang spoke telepathically and awkwardly, I know the place where they'll have a big fight, but I don't know exactly where they are at this present moment. Han Fei grew impatient. "Go on!"

Looking at the knife in Han Fei's hand, Tu Fang said, "Brother Han, would you please sheathe your weapon first? This is completely a misunderstanding. You're the last person that I would ever rob in the world!"

Han Fei slightly tilted his head. "Do I know you? Stop calling me Brother Han. You talk first. I'll consider if I'll let go of you when you're done, provided that you don't lie to me."

Tu Fang slightly moved his neck and his body back, fearing that Han Fei would accidentally cut his head off. After all, he could sense that Han Fei was holding an ultra-quality spiritual weapon. Han Fei didn't care too much about that. The man couldn't go anywhere with his hands raised anyway. "You've come at a perfect time. Earlier today, Luo Xiaobai and the others appeared in the seaweed wall five thousand kilometers from here..."

Han Fei immediately roared, "Think carefully before you say anything. You were ambushing the passers-by here, but you know what happened five thousand kilometers away? Do you take me for a fool?"

Tu Fang said quickly, "Of course not! I wasn't ambushing in this place at the beginning. Back then, I was closer to the seaweed wall. But you know that the people on the Wanted List like me can't reveal ourselves too often, and there were people everywhere near the seaweed wall. I was afraid that I would be discovered and attacked together, so I came here. Besides..."

"Besides what?"

Tu Fang said with a smile, "Luo Xiaobai isn't fighting Mo Qianshang's team, but another group. You know that Zhang Liang, the 26th place, died, right? Many of his teammates were wounded too. I followed them here, but I had to quit pursuing them after I was found."

Han Fei was quite chilled. He realized that Tu Fang didn't care who would win the battle, and that the man would only take advantage of the team that lost it.

Han Fei thought for a moment and knew that he would probably make the same choice if he were in Tu Fang's shoes.

What good stuff could be there in an ordinary person's Sea Swallowing Seashell? Could they generously offer ten Sea Swallowing Seashells like Tu Fang did?

But this was definitely not a good man. If Luo Xiaobai had failed the battle, he probably would've tailed her.

Han Fei couldn't help but ask, "Where are they?"

Tu Fang pointed at Han Fei's back. "Over there. You'll reach the sponge area if you go on three thousand kilometers in that direction. Today, they fought from the sponge area to the seaweed wall."

Han Fei subconsciously looked at that direction, but the moment he was distracted, Tu Fang suddenly exerted strength on his feet and leaped back while he squeezed a Flash Stone.

Han Fei reacted fast enough. He didn't intend to let go of Tu Fang at all, who was shrewd, strong, and definitely had more than ten Sea Swallowing Seashells.

Han Fei's Blood Drinking Knife was instantly launched. It was so intimidating that even the seawater was cut open.

It was too fast.

Tu Fang was greatly appalled, as Han Fei was simply too strong and reacted too fast. He only sought a chance to squeeze his Flash Stone, but Han Fei caught that chance.

Crack!

When the brilliance of the knife burst out, Tu Fang protected himself with a turtle contractual spiritual beast even though it was very valuable.

Han Fei hadn't used the Drawing Technique for a long time, and his saber will had accumulated for a long time. Back then, even Gong Yuehan couldn't possibly resist three attacks from Han Fei, who was much weaker than right now.

After one crack, the contractual spiritual beast was chopped apart by Han Fei.

Almost at the same time, the Flash Stone was squeezed, and Tu Fang disappeared, leaving a broken arm behind.

In Han Fei's perception, Tu Fang appeared eight kilometers away and was running to the edge of the Sea Grassland at a high speed.

Han Fei slightly frowned, as the man was surprisingly smart.

He knew that Han Fei was going into the Sea Grassland to look for someone, so he ran out of the place the moment he fled.

Han Fei wasn't sure if Tu Fang was speaking the truth, but he didn't really care.

This was just the Sea Grassland, which was the first major treasure trove he explored after he came to the level-three fishery. He had the best survival abilities in this place. Also, he didn't think that anyone could stop him except the squads whose members were all on the Wanted List.

Thinking about that, Han Fei swam to the direction where Tu Fang pointed earlier.

What Han Fei didn't know was that the news of his arrival was spread out no more than an hour after Tu Fang escaped.

Knowing that it was impossible for him to avenge himself in his current state even though he hated Han Fei's guts, Tu Fang held his broken arm and declared brutally, "It's true that I can't kill you, but there are plenty of people on the dragon boats. If you linger on in the Sea Grassland, there's no way you can get away."

While Tu Fang crazily disseminated the news of Han Fei's arrival, Han Fei ran into a hundred-person team.

Chapter 517 My Home Field

Naturally, it was not a coincidence that Han Fei ran into the hundred-person team. With his perception, he had detected those people from ten kilometers away.

However, Han Fei didn't dodge them at all. He even canceled the Thousand Faces Technique and restored his original look.

At the same time, Han Fei summoned the Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp and swam to those people on its back.

For Han Fei at this moment, whether the enemy was a full-class squad, a ten-person group or a hundred-person group, it made little difference.

After he made it to Ren Tianfen's treasure trove against the sword torrents in the Abyssal Chasm, Han Fei had fully realized his capabilities.

Han Fei was like a super boss to the other people in the fishery.

If you want to beat me, you'd better try to break my defense first.

Besides, Han Fei didn't train himself so hard and strengthen himself through all kinds of opportunities just in order to keep a low profile.

Therefore, he had planned for this encounter.

This hundred-person team seemed to have just left the sponge area. Some of them looked miserable and worn. They had obviously run into the Star Chasing Sponges.

The moment they saw Han Fei, the hundred-person team was in turmoil.

"Han Fei?"

"My good god, are my eyes deceiving me?"

"It's really Han Fei! That's his Nine-Tailed Mantis Shrimp!"

“Sometimes you can find something you want when you stop searching for it. We didn’t find Mo Qianshang and Luo Xiaobai, but we’ve met Han Fei.”

“Has he made it out of the Abyssal Chasm alive?”

“Hiss!”

Everybody was excited and ready to take action.

Since those people were bold enough to come after Mo Qianshang and Luo Xiaobai, they naturally weren’t weak.

As far as Han Fei could see, there were more than twenty peak-level Dangling Fishers, and the rest were all advanced Dangling Fishers. If he had run into such a team earlier, he would’ve fled immediately.

But at this moment, Han Fei was utterly fearless unless the team was exclusively made of peak-level Dangling Fishers.

Before they took action, Han Fei had shouted first, “Hey, have you found Luo Xiaobai and her friends?”

Everyone: “???”

Someone said, “You’re asking us?”

“Hahaha...”

Someone laughed. “Han Fei, you haven’t realized the situation yet, have you?”

Someone roared. “Surround him and set up arrays...” They saw that Han Fei was absolutely fearless. They could tell that Han Fei despised them, but they thought that it was because of Han Fei’s arrogance. Not in a hurry, Han Fei said with a smile, “Hey, there’s still time for you to run. After all, it isn’t easy to make a living in the level-three fishery, but if we start to fight, don’t tell me that I didn’t give you a chance!”

Someone began to speculate after hearing that...

Nobody was an idiot. Han Fei, who was 3rd place on the Wanted List, certainly wasn’t one either.

If Han Fei wasn’t an idiot, how confident must he be to speak to a hundred-person team so cockily?

A peak-level Dangling Fisher roared, “Don’t be tricked by him! We’ll attack with our best! Every person only has limited spiritual energy. None of our teammates here are weak. Why should we be scared of him when he’s absolutely alone?”

Someone bellowed, “Han Fei is definitely carrying valuable treasures. We’ll split them up after we kill him.”

Very soon, the hundred people surrounded Han Fei.

This was the first time Han Fei had seen an array set up by multiple spirit gatherers and manipulators. Immediately, Han Fei knew what the array was.

If an array could be set up by multiple levels, the array was generally a low level.

Why? It was not hard to imagine that, since this team was established only recently, the array they set up couldn't be an ultimate skill from a major sect but one that they figured out recently. How powerful could it be? As a matter of fact, Han Fei had thought everything through before he took any action. But of course, while this array wasn't very powerful, a lot of people had been involved in it. Besides, the array was generally a mature one so it was quite powerful for a regular person.

Han Fei asked with a smile, "Are you afraid that I will escape with a Flash Stone?"

The few leading peak-level Dangling Fishers sneered. "You seem to know what's going on."

Not hasty at all, Han Fei looked at them with a big smile. "I won't kill all of you if we're really going to fight. I'll let you walk out of here. Oh, right, after you get away, don't forget to tell other people about me on the dragon boats. You don't need to come back for me. Just ask all the dragon boats to be prepared... Haha..."

Someone looked at Han Fei with a stunned look, wondering if he had brain injuries. Was he implying that he was going to the dragon boats for trouble?

The array with a span of a thousand meters was soon set up. The peak-level Dangling Fishers took action. Everybody attached their naturally-endowed spiritual beasts and contractual spiritual beasts.

The armorists led the charge. Each of the twenty armorists opened their armor boxes and unleashed more than ten weapons. Some even launched dozens.

But in Han Fei's eyes, these weapons were too weak. Han Fei didn't know if Chen Aochen had told other people that he had a set of ultra-quality spiritual weapons. He simply presumed that Chen Aochen did.

After all, that secret would be exposed sooner or later.

When he challenged a hundred people last time, all the circumstances were in his favor, but this time, he had nothing but recklessness.

Han Fei wondered if he could awe everybody and make them get out of his way in the future after his reckless fight today. He believed that nobody in the level-three fishery could possibly beat him unless Hidden Fishers showed up.

If Hidden Fishers did emerge, he didn't think that Old Bai would do nothing about it. Even though Old Bai was a long distance away, he was sure that Old Bai had always been paying attention to this place.

So, when overwhelming weapons came at him from various directions, Han Fei launched all his Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers.

The Million Knife Art was most destructive in a group battle.

In particular, all of Han Fei's weapons were ultra-quality spiritual weapons, which were almost invincible against other weapons.

Crack! Crack! Crack!

The 99 Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers swirled dozens of meters around Han Fei at an astonishing speed. All the weapons that flew to him were cut apart in the blink of an eye.

Even the high-quality spiritual weapons were crumbled when they were minced by multiple Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers.

“Pu... Pu... Pu...”

For a moment, all the armorists who attacked, including those who were peak-level Dangling Fishers, were vomiting blood.

Everybody was shocked.

Someone roared. “Recall your weapons! Recall your weapons!”

Han Fei had already attached Little Gold to him at this moment. He disappeared from the spot in the blink of an eye.

Someone bellowed, “Everybody, activate your secret techniques if you have any. Armorists, raise the shields...”

Han Fei chuckled and charged at the crowd. The seaweeds and vines that were flooding out were shattered into pieces the moment they showed up.

When he was blocked by shields from all directions, fist auras burst out.

BAM, BAM, BAM...

Dum! Dum! Dum!

In the blink of an eye, dozens of shields were all blown back.

Someone was accidentally breached by the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers and cut to pieces.

Someone escaped as a plant, but the plant was minced to smithereens by the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers.

Dozens of peak-level Dangling Fishers launched an attack together. Their magnificent energy pushed the seawater into a gigantic ball.

However, all their energy was slashed into halves under Han Fei’s knife.

Han Fei’s mocking voice echoed in everybody’s head. Is this your best? Peak-level Dangling Fishers, are you still holding yourselves back? Do you really think you can get away? “Majestic Mystic Spell.”

Han Fei’s eyes suddenly turned cold, and he became much more intimidating than before. He could tell that energy was exploding violently in his body.

Shua!

Like a phantom, Han Fei instantly appeared before a peak-level soul warrior and slashed his knife casually. The man had no time to counterattack at all but could only dart out the hundreds of bone spurs of his contractual spiritual beast.

Crack! Crack! Crack!

When the bone spurts were broken and the man died, Han Fei reached another side. None of the bone spurts even touched Han Fei. Thanks to the two months of ten-time-gravity training, Han Fei's reaction speed had been increased to an unbelievable level.

BAM, BAM, BAM!

Under the fist marks, someone's chest collapsed, and someone's internal organs were ruined.

"Hooo00o!"

In the crowd, some of the peak-level Dangling Fishers seemed to have activated a certain secret technique and became even stronger than before.

However, the golden fist aura penetrated the man's chest instantly. When the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers rolled into the crowd, some people's battle suits were dismembered, and they were cut into pieces.

Of course, faced by the Dangling Fishers, Han Fei was inevitably cut many times. He didn't want to be cut, but the attacks were too intense for him to dodge all of them.

However, those people discovered, to their shock, that Han Fei was wearing an ultra-quality battle suit which boasted amazing defense abilities. They couldn't hurt Han Fei at all with purely physical attacks.

A peak-level soul warrior passed through the Million Knife Art with his unusual archery technique and shot Han Fei's chest thirteen times. However, he found that Han Fei didn't even step back.

Han Fei even smiled at him. You think I'll be scared of a few spiritual energy arrows when I can resist the sword torrents launched by a peak-level Dangling Fisher?

At this moment, Han Fei summoned the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Bow and fired an arrow, which roared through the water and pierced the man's battle suit in the blink of an eye.

The man's face bled and his soul was crushed. He had died in one second. "Run!"

There was no telling who roared that, but everybody was equally frightened. What kind of freak were they fighting?

The attacks from the peak-level Dangling Fishers were absolutely useless against Han Fei. The Million Knife Art launched with ultra-quality spiritual weapons couldn't be dealt with at all in the group fight!

They were all rendered speechless. It was not like they could waste their mid-quality spiritual weapons on those ultra-quality spiritual weapons.

Han Fei waved his hand and recalled all the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers.

However, thirty people of the hundred-person team had already died. The survivors were half lightly injured and half severely wounded.

At this moment, they were all fleeing.

Han Fei shouted, "Remember what I said! From today on, the level-three fishery will be my home field!"

Chapter 518 Hey, This Place Is Lively!

After they all escaped, Han Fei collected more than thirty Sea Swallowing Seashells in total. Then he grinned for a while.

The fight was actually quite painful for him, but the pain was gone very soon.

“I hope that there won’t be so many fools who come to challenge my limits anymore!”

“Little White, let’s go. Lead the way.”

Somewhere in the seaweed wall...

Zhang Xuanyu said regretfully, “This is not working out! Too many people are coming! We need to find a way out. As long as we’re outside, we can get rid of them easily with the Wind God Boat.”

Xia Xiaochan glared at Zhang Xuanyu. “You shouldn’t have come here when Han Fei returned. Why did you leave after you escorted the survivors out?”

Zhang Xuanyu almost choked. “Ayah! I’ve explained it to you a million times... I went back after I escorted them out, but I couldn’t resist the sword torrents at all! Also, I bet that Han Fei certainly didn’t enter the first treasure trove, which was so dangerous that I dare not even approach it.” Xia Xiaochan smacked her lips. “What treasure trove can possibly be so dangerous?”

Zhang Xuanyu was lost for words. “I’ll take you there if you don’t believe me. Let’s get out of here first. Damn it. What’s Mo Qianshang’s problem? Is the half Divine Weapon so important?”

Luo Xiaobai said gravely, “We need to adopt a different approach. This is already our sixth attempt today. We’ve consumed a lot of spiritual fruits and pills over the past half month. We need another way.”

Le Renkuang said, with the fat on his face trembling. “Why don’t I try my Sky Swallowing Technique? We can swim upward while I make a way out for us.”

Luo Xiaobai shook her head. “Don’t. The Sea Grassland is a weird place. After you pass the seaweed wall, you will enter a different place if you go straight out. It won’t be the level-three fishery that we know of at all.”

Le Renkuang asked, “How do you know that?”

Luo Xiaobai explained, “Nobody who has gone out in such a way has ever returned. We need to think of another way if we want to rescue Han Fei.”

Xia Xiaochan pouted out her cheeks. “The Thousand Faces Technique doesn’t work either. Now, whoever leaves the seaweed wall will be attacked. Also, those who attack us are all on the Wanted List. How do they know where we are?”

Luo Xiaobai shook her head. “Those who are on the Wanted List all have their own tricks. I think they have ways to determine our precise location, or we wouldn’t have been caught by them six times in a row.”

Zhang Xuanyu heaved a sigh. "I wonder what Han Fei is doing. I really shouldn't have helped escort those people out when I hardly knew them."

Luo Xiaobai said coldly, "That was very necessary. You did them the greatest favor by saving their lives. Those who explore the Abyssal Chasm can't be simple. They are no fools and won't expose the secret that they made it out of the Abyssal Chasm alive, so they will definitely return the favor someday. Well, some of them will."

Zhang Xuanyu shot back, "I don't need them to return my favor!"

Luo Xiaobai shook her head. "It's not just a random favor. Thousands of lives were at risk back then. Besides, they weren't our enemies. Would you rather have watched them starve?"

Le Renkuang said, "Lack of food is really pitiful. I can accept dying in a battle or a treasure trove, but I can't accept dying of hunger. How miserable must it be if a cultivator starves!"

While everybody was resting and healing their wounds, the scenery around them suddenly changed, and all the seaweed turned into snakes.

Luo Xiaobai said, "Le Renkuang, guard us with your shields. Xiaochan, please help Le Renkuang with the defense. Senior Hexagon Starfish, use your Six Gate Array. Zhang Xuanyu, report their locations to Xiaochan. I'll get them rooted."

Instantly, Xia Xiaochan disappeared from the spot.

Purple pillars of light arose along with the Six Gate Array. The Hexagon Starfish clung to Luo Xiaobai while blinking its eyes.

Zhang Xuanyu immediately said, "Mo Qianshang is not around. Xia Xiaochan, a hostile soul warrior is eight hundred meters to your left front. Le Renkuang, lock onto the armorist six hundred meters behind you."

Luo Xiaobai's pupils became purely white. As she raised her hands, the illusionary snakes slithered in all directions. At the same time, countless branches grew out of nowhere and darted in all directions.

Boom!

The shield behind Zhang Xuanyu was hit, and overwhelming spiritual energy burst out behind the shield. An array of daggers suddenly descended and surrounded all of them.

Le Renkuang announced telepathically, Mo Qianshang, you son of a bitch, your Dagger Trap is just nothing in my eyes. Check my Armor Art out!

Zhang Xuanyu said telepathically, Xia Xiaochan, two hundred meters behind you. It's a hunter.

Xiaobai, you and Le Renkuang take care of Mo Qianshang. I'll help them... Tertiary Body! Shua... Shua...

Another two Zhang Xuanyu copies emerged. Le Renkuang cut the Dagger Trap open with an attack, and Zhang Xuanyu seized the opportunity and broke in. One of the three Zhang Xuanyu copies was reporting locations, one charged at the manipulator who was fighting Luo Xiaobai over a long distance, and the last one ran to Xia Xiaochan.

At this moment, Xia Xiaochan was fighting two enemies on her own, because the hostile spirit gatherer must have been around.

By the time Zhang Xuanyu arrived, Xia Xiaochan had stabbed through the soul warrior again and again like a shadow.

However, the soul warrior was still alive even though he was stabbed thousands of times, because he was actually made of sand.

This soul warrior was evidently not as strong as Xia Xiaochan, but she simply couldn't kill him, which was a bummer for Xia Xiaochan.

As for the hunter, he was resisting the Shadowless Blade.

Seeing Zhang Xuanyu, Xia Xiaochan said, "You take care of the soul warrior. I'll go slay the hunter."

Xia Xiaochan blinked and disappeared after she said that. The moment she disappeared, hundreds of fresh green vines extended from the void and gripped the soul warrior.

The soul warrior, however, roared, "Luo Xiaobai, let's see how many people you can control at the same time!"

"Hoooooo!"

The roars of the Giant Arowana burst out, and the seawater was filled with the stench of blood. The hostile hunter turned into plumes of smoke and was fleeing.

In terms of destructiveness, Xia Xiaochan was the best on the battlefield, even better than Mo Qianshang. He would've been killed by Xia Xiaochan if he hadn't used his Torrent of Shadow Swords.

At this moment, Zhang Xuanyu suddenly said, "Not good, Xiaobai, another soul warrior is here. Le Renkuang, five hundred meters to your side, use the Sky Swallowing Technique." Le Renkuang suddenly opened his mouth, and a weird super big hole appeared gulping in all the seaweed within fifty meters.

However, while Le Renkuang swallowed the seaweed, the soul warrior threw out a handful of green poisons.

Le Renkuang simply roared, "I can eat everything, including poison!"

The battle was quite intense.

At this moment, Xia Xiaochan had heavily wounded that hunter, but she engaged another hunter. With the Majestic Mystic Spell activated, she beat the two hunters without any trouble.

They would've been killed already if one of them hadn't turned into smoke and the other one hadn't swapped with his shadow.

The most pitiful one was the soul warrior who was made of sand. His body had exploded almost ten times.

Luo Xiaobai was controlling everyone on her own. Her vines weren't hard enough to tie those people up, but she had a myriad of vines. Some of them were poisonous, some were paralyzing, some were whipping, and some were swallowing spiritual energy...

Creak! Creak! Creak!

When a weird noise echoed, Zhang Xuanyu, who was under Le Renkuang's protection, suddenly looked above and stopped the creaking noises with an invisible wave.

That was Mo Qianshang's third contractual spiritual beast, and Mo Qianshang was the only person in the level-three fishery who was known to have three contractual spiritual beasts.

The name of the third contraction spiritual beast was unknown, but it was an insect which could let out disturbing noises.

Once Le Renkuang and Luo Xiaobai were affected, the situation would change. Of everybody here, Zhang Xuanyu was the only one who could ignore the insect with his surprisingly high soul power. At this moment, someone said, "Luo Xiaobai, give me the thing, and I'll go away."

Le Renkuang cursed aloud, "Get lost, you son of bi* ch! Come and fight me if you've got balls! I'll cut you into pieces!"

Mo Qianshang sneered. "You're stuck in this place. You don't have any spirit gatherers with you. How much longer can you subsist on your spiritual fruits? Half a month? You'll all die here if you don't compromise."

Outside, Luo Xiaobai's vines slowed down.

Zhang Xuanyu simply said, "Xiaobai, don't listen to him. We can't get away even if we give it to him. They're our blood enemies. They won't stop until we all die. Don't be distracted."

Seeing that Luo Xiaobai was not deceived, Mo Qianshang tried to deceive the Hexagon Starfish. "Senior Hexagon Starfish, if you cancel the array, I'll offer you a hundred Six Gate Arrays that contain infinite treasures."

The Hexagon Starfish snorted. "You are a bad guy. I don't trust you."

Right when everybody was fighting hard, an unexpected voice suddenly echoed. "Hey, you're all here! What a lively place this is!"

Chapter 519 Unstoppable Killing

Everybody including Zhang Xuanyu and his friends were slightly stiffened.

Zhang Xuanyu roared angrily, "Son of a b*tch, I thought you died in there."

Le Renkuang shouted, "Oh! Han Fei, you made it out on your own!" Xia Xiaochan said telepathically, Hehe, you'd better be ready to apologize.

All the seaweed was on a rampage within thousands of meters. Because of the illusion, everybody saw that sea snakes were creeping excitedly.

On the other hand, Mo Qianshang's team were all shocked. Mo Qianshang simply roared, "Everybody, retreat!"

"Retreat?"

Han Fei sneered, "Let's see where you can retreat to!"

Han Fei roared at a low voice, "Keep them occupied. I'm coming!"

The soul warrior who was attracted to Le Renkuang felt that his heart was trembling and his hair was bristling.

Unfortunately, he had been fully tied up by the infinite seaweed and Le Renkuang's Sky Swallowing Technique, which made it impossible for him to exert any strength. He couldn't take any action.

His first reaction was to escape. He already took out a Flash Stone, but he felt his hand was painful in the next second. He lowered his head, only to see that his hand was gone.

Yes, his whole hand was gone, as if it had been bitten off by something.

But his lost hand was the least of his problems for now. When he looked back, he saw an enormous fist aura dozens of meters away.

The first aura was dark red and brutally magnificently. It was fast approaching with turbulence.

"Ho00000!"

"Explode! Explode! Explode!"

The soul warrior couldn't be more appalled by the powerful fist aura. Knowing that he could resist it, he launched three high-quality spiritual weapons at the first mark and detonated them.

At the same time, a crab and a giant squid protected in front of him.

At this moment, he was planning to sacrifice his two contractual spiritual beasts to save his life.

Under normal circumstances, the man could have resisted Han Fei's Sacrificing Punch by doing so.

However, now that Han Fei was enhanced by the Majestic Mystic Spell, his punch was much more powerful than that of any Dangling Fisher.

The three exploding spiritual weapons did not weaken the fist aura at all. The shell of the crab that was in the front was crushed instantly, and the giant squid was simply dismembered by the power of the punch. The soul warrior was desperate at this moment. He felt that his enemy was invincible, and he regretted that he accepted Mo Qianshang's request...

"I don't want to die yet..."

Boom!

Instantly, the soul warrior was crushed to smithereens by the fist mark.

But the Sacrificing Punch wasn't over yet. Instead, like a beam of light, it soared up to the surface of the ocean, shattering all the seaweed on its way, causing a hole in the seaweed wall.

The Dagger Trap that had been confining Le Renkuang and the others was destroyed! “Gudu!”

“Damn...”

Le Renkuang swallowed, and his eyes almost bulged out. Wasn't this attack too powerful and unstoppable? That was a real genius soul warrior on the Wanted List, but he had been blown up by one punch?

Zhang Xuanyu was instantly dumbfounded. Who could've possibly resisted that? What had this jerk acquired from the Abyssal Chasm?

Weird brilliance beamed out of Xia Xiaochan's eyes. “Wow. That's awesome!”

When Han Fei launched the punch, the enemy's manipulator was the first to run.

She had to run! Even the soul warrior had been blown up by one punch. She would definitely be killed easily here as a manipulator.

Then, the enemy's spirit gatherer left too, as it was impossible to fight the battle anymore after Han Fei killed someone the moment he showed up.

Mo Qianshang was greatly shocked and instantly squeezed his Flash Stone. His team was equal to Luo Xiaobai's team. He had called another two helpers here in order to consume Luo Xiaobai's resources. But he didn't foresee that Han Fei would join the battle in such a way. Didn't they say that this guy never came out after entering the Abyssal Chasm?

After Mo Qianshang ran away, only the hunter who could turn into smoke managed to escape.

The last two people left behind were the soul warrior who would turn into sand and the hunter who could swap with his shadow.

They too wanted to run, but the hunter was under Xia Xiaochan's attack and had no chance to use his Flash Stone he took out.

As for the soul warrior who turned into sand, he seemed indestructible but he wasn't really so. At this moment, all three Zhang Xuanyu copies were attacking him simultaneously, and Luo Xiaobai's vines had already tied him up. After drinking a few mouthfuls of the Candle Dragon Blood, Han Fei charged at them.

Seeing that Han Fei was coming, Zhang Xuanyu asked, “What do we do with the sand?”

Han Fei said with a smile, “Since he can turn into sand, we'll crush every grain of the sand and separate them.”

This time, Han Fei used the Art of Invincibility instead of the Sacrificing Punch.

Punching out a hundred golden fist auras, he blew up all the grains of sand that made up the soul warrior together with Zhang Xuanyu.

Then, Han Fei grabbed a handful of sand and squashed it crazily. The golden sand soon became red.

A voice came from the void. "Don't kill me. I can take you to Mo Qianshang." Zhang Xuanyu cursed, "You're begging for mercy now? Let me tell you, you won't get any." During the battle, Mo Qianshang was undoubtedly the trickiest enemy to deal with, this soul warrior ranked second, and the hunter who could turn into smoke came after that.

Han Fei grinned. "I can find him out on my own. I don't need you."

In no more than a hundred seconds, the man was crumbled alive. It was true that he could turn into sand, but he wasn't really undying even though he had unusual talents.

Then, Han Fei did not need to take action again. Having been chased by Mo Qianshang's team for a long time, Zhang Xuanyu and the others seized the rare opportunity of counterattack and attacked the hunter together.

Knowing that it was impossible to escape or beg for mercy, the hunter detonated himself.

Le Renkuang had foreseen that he would kill himself. At the moment of the explosion, he summoned multiple shields, and everybody was barely scratched under the explosion. "Exhilarating!" Zhang Xuanyu roared and gave Han Fei a bear hug. "You ass*ole, did you go into the Abyssal Chasm against the sword currents?"

Han Fei asked in surprise, "Huh? How do you know that?"

Zhang Xuanyu said gloomily, "How would I not know that? When I came back for you, I thought you went into the first treasure trove. I dared not to enter it, but I couldn't resist the sword torrents behind it..."

Han Fei patted Zhang Xuanyu's shoulder and said, "Good thing that you didn't enter it. I was too scared to enter the first treasure trove too." Clink!

Feeling the sting on his waist, Han Fei was quite lost for words. "Xia Xiaochan, would you stop stabbing me every time we meet? That's really a bad habit."

Xia Xiaochan said grimly, "Explain to me! Why didn't you come for me at the edge of the Steps into the Sea, but instead you went to the Abyssal Chasm?"

Han Fei shrugged. "I think you should understand me. I went for Zhang Xuanyu and to explore the treasure trove, and you had to stay outside to keep an eye on Le Renkuang and Luo Xiaobai. We had to split up, didn't we?"

Xia Xiaochan snorted. "You didn't tell me that. I heard it from other people after you entered the Abyssal Chasm."

Han Fei said with a smile, "But I'm already back, am I not?"

Le Renkuang, on the other hand, jumped at him. "Han Fei, I've really suffered..."

Han Fei was rendered speechless. "How exactly did you suffer? I see that you can eat everything right now. You think that's suffering? Speaking of which, it's really a disgusting technique."

Le Renkuang begged, "I want to have hotpot. My Sea Swallowing Seashell exploded. All the seasonings in it were gone. You have no idea how miserable I have been since then."

Han Fei was dumbfounded. "Sea Swallowing Seashells can explode?" Le Renkuang snorted. "Let's get out of here already!"

Luo Xiaobai and Han Fei said at the same time, "We can't yet!"

Luo Xiaobai smiled at Han Fei. "Welcome back."

Han Fei rolled his eyes. "Do you have to be so courteous? Just drop the manners."

Luo Xiaobai looked at Xia Xiaochan weirdly and then back at Han Fei. "Do you want me to hug you too?"

Han Fei was briefly stunned. Sensing that the dagger that was stuck to his waist was pressing forward, he said quickly with a smile, "I was just kidding."

As he talked, Han Fei grew solemn. "Multiple dragon boats came from outside and surrounded the seaweed wall. There are spies everywhere. Also, what happened between you and Mo Qianshang?"

Luo Xiaobai's face slightly turned cold. "It's a long story. Let's finish them first and then go out."

Chapter 520 Everyone Had Their Own Opportunities

In the seagrass wall, the Hexagon Starfish lay listlessly on a piece of seaweed. The Hexagon Starfish almost burst into tears! As soon as Han Fei came back, he took the space inside his doors as a restaurant. At this moment, five people were surrounding a cauldron, in which, there were Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers and a pile of white crab meat.

Le Renkuang simply couldn't stop eating! In the end, because the energy contained in Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers was too much, they became full after finishing more than half of the food, and only then did they begin to talk about their experiences. Le Renkuang said, "Han Fei, I'm not bragging to you. As soon as I was teleported in, I encountered a vortex in the sea. Then, I got sucked in with my boat. Do you know what it was? A secret realm! I was directly teleported into a secret realm."

He said this while foaming at the mouth and the others listened with relish.

He did meet an old turtle, an old turtle that had been buried under the sea for a long time.

When Le Renkuang was teleported to the level-three fishery, he happened to encounter this old turtle having a meal. This turtle could even create a huge vortex on the surface of the sea when it was having a meal, swallowing countless tons of creatures.

Le Renkuang was almost swallowed by this turtle.

In his words, the turtle was too big. In terms of size, it was even much larger than the Rock-Holding Turtle. Therefore, the turtle didn't eat Le Renkuang in the end because he was too small for it. Le Renkuang went on volubly, "I am diligent and capable. I helped it brush its teeth and clean its shell. Finally, it was deeply moved by me..."

Han Fei rolled his eyes. "Come on, come off it."

Le Renkuang chuckled. "So, I made it a hot pot! Do you know how excited the big turtle was when it saw the hot pot?"

Xia Xiaochan said curiously, "That's different from what you said last time!"

Le Renkuang grinned. "Don't interrupt me. I cooked the big turtle hot pot for two months. And then it was finally moved by me..."

Han Fei asked, "So, you used delicious food to cheat it into giving you the Sky Swallowing Technique?"

Le Renkuang said crossly, "Cheat? No, it was moved by me... And the requirements for practicing this technique are very strict! First of all, you must be a big eater to get the essence of this technique. Secondly, if you want to practice this technique, you have to learn the secret technique for turtles, so as to digest food quickly and hide it in the spiritual sea. Spiritual sea, do you know where it is? I haven't found it yet." Han Fei suddenly interrupted, "Wait, do you mean that what you eat is not transformed into energy or spiritual energy, but is hidden in this 'spiritual sea'?" Le Renkuang said innocently, "Yes!" Han Fei continued, "Then can you transform that stored energy and spiritual energy into your own use?"

Le Renkuang scratched his head. "It seems that I can't for the time being. I have to find where my spiritual sea is first."

Han Fei's face was black. He really wanted to kick the fatty to death. Spiritual sea? The spiritual sea is full of spiritual beasts. The food you swallowed will only feed the spiritual beasts in the spiritual sea.

Han Fei was speechless. He almost believed what Le Renkuang said. If he hadn't been to the spiritual sea, he would have been fooled by this fatty.

Han Fei asked, "Then how do you find the spiritual sea?"

Le Renkuang scratched his head. "I don't know! The big turtle said it was very simple. I just needed to close my eyes and fall asleep and then I could go there. But I tried many times and still couldn't get there."

However, Le Renkuang wasn't quite frustrated and went on cheerfully, "The big turtle was so touched by me that it gave me one of its eggs. It took me three full months to hatch a little turtle."

Han Fei interrupted him again, "You hatched it?"

Le Renkuang paused and continued, "Well, I waited for three months and it came out of the egg itself, and then I signed an equality contract with it. Do you know that this big turtle is actually called Deep Blue Roar, born with the sea-swallowing secret technique? In the level-three fishery, it is almost barely seen because it's a legendary..."

Han Fei sneered. "Okay, come off it. Who knows if what you said is true? Maybe you gave it the name Sea Swallowing Technique yourself."

Le Renkuang blushed. "... I didn't give it the name."

Xia Xiaochan added, "Then what was its previous name?"

Le Renkuang shivered and said, "Just 'Sea Swallowing Technique'."

Xia Xiaochan scoffed. "But you said the Deep Blue Roar only knew about swallowing food. Maybe it had never even seen the sky. You're bragging."

Le Renkuang was speechless. Seeing that nobody believed him, like a deflated ball, he said, "Okay, okay! I admit that I modified it a bit. But the name "Turtle Swallowing Technique" sounds stupid, doesn't it? The Sky Swallowing Technique matches this powerful technique better." "Haha-"

Everyone rolled their eyes, even including Luo Xiaobai who was always quiet. They were almost fooled by this guy.

Zhang Xuanyu smiled and said, "You were so lucky to get this technique. Why are you picky about its name? You were much luckier than me. I was caught into the Flowstone Pit as soon as we parted. If it weren't for Han Fei, you might never have seen me again."

Han Fei was quite interested in Zhang Xuanyu's Tertiary Body, and couldn't help but ask, "I had wanted to ask you last time, how did your Tertiary Body come about?"

Zhang Xuanyu said, "In fact, the Flowstone Pit was very dangerous, in which an old monster lived and occupied an abandoned tunnel. Generally, no one dared to enter this tunnel because it was said that nobody could get out of it alive. I was only a junior dangling fisher back then and almost tortured to death by the guys who occupied the Flowstone Pit. So I wanted to escape and hid near the entrance of the tunnel, only to be caught in by that old monster. Then he took me as his disciple and taught me the Tertiary Body."

Zhang Xuanyu was obviously unwilling to give too many details. This was his opportunity and it might also involve some secrets, so Han Fei did not ask much.

However, this Tertiary Body was really strong. Three Zhang Xuanyu copies with the same strength fighting at the same time! Ordinary combat skills were definitely no match for it. Even a heaven-level divine-quality combat skill might not be able to achieve this effect. Zhang Xuanyu looked at Luo Xiaobai and said, "Compared with our experience, Xiaobai's story is like a mystery."

Han Fei curiously asked, "By the way, how did you meet Mo Qianshang? Also, what did you find, Xiaobai? How did you attract so many dragon boats to come?"

Luo Xiaobai said lightly, "Actually, I was also there when you were on the Sea Grassland."

"Huh?"

Han Fei was stunned. "Were you there too? Where were you? Did you go to the central area?"

Luo Xiaobai shook her head. "I didn't go to the central area. I was in the Worm Fish Abyss."

"Puff!"

Han Fei said incredulously, "Were you also in the Worm Fish Abyss?"

Luo Xiaobai nodded. "Yes! We literally brushed past each other. The most suitable place for me in the level-three fishery is actually the Sea Grassland, so my first goal was there. Because I could perceive spiritual plants, I had been exploring the secret realms there. The secrets outside the Seagrass City Wall had been mostly explored, so I had been inside the Seagrass City Wall....”

Han Fei suddenly asked, “Did you encounter a big octopus?”

Luo Xiaobai nodded. “Do you mean the Divine Seaweed Octopus? I caught one as my contractual spiritual beast and then killed seven or eight others...”

Han Fei was speechless. Killed seven or eight of the Divine Seaweed Octopus that made others tremble with fear?! And also caught one as her contractual spiritual beast?!

Luo Xiaobai explained, “I could blend into spiritual plants, so the Divine Seaweed Octopus couldn’t kill me at all. The Seagrass City Wall is its domain, and also mine.”

Han Fei nodded. “And then? Why did you go to the Worm Fish Abyss?”

Luo Xiaobai glanced at Han Fei. “There were as many as 30 secret realms under the Seagrass City Wall. I guess you didn’t know that, right? I thought the central area was too dangerous and my strength was too weak, so I shouldn’t go there until I was strong enough. However, there was a riot in the central area, so the secret realm I was in collapsed. Then I was dragged to the central area by unknown forces. Because of this, I was forced out of the Seagrass City Wall. However, when I was crossing the Worm Fish Abyss, the Lotus Fish was shaken to death by a strange energy. So, I fell into the Worm Fish Abyss.”

“Oh!”

Han Fei was astonished. “Did a Worm Tide break out when you went to the central area?” Luo Xiaobai took a deep look at Han Fei. “Thanks to you, it was the Worm Tide you caused.”

Han Fei was embarrassed for a while and then asked, “What happened later? How did you survive in the Worm Fish Abyss?”

Luo Xiaobai smiled. “Do you forget that I can blend into plants?”

Han Fei paused. He didn’t remember there were any plants in the Worm Fish Abyss.

Suddenly, Han Fei took a breath and said, “I guess you blend into the lotus of the Lotus Fish?”

Luo Xiaobai nodded. “Yes! Actually, the horrible atmosphere in the Worm Fish Abyss was just a disguise. In the deepest part of the Worm Fish Abyss, there was an ancient garden full of all kinds of spiritual plants and fruits. So, I cultivated there.”

Han Fei was dumbfounded. “There was a garden below it?!”

Luo Xiaobai said, “There was a seal below, and the creatures in the garden were quite special, with strong territorial awareness and combat power. I left there a few months ago when I met Mo Qianshang.”
