

Chapter 541 Now You'll Have to Write Your Name Backwards

"Really?!"

Han Fei and his pals froze and then were all dumbfounded. What the hell was the Sky Hanging Mirror? Who the hell had heard of it? The faceless man laughed and said, "Look, I can actually take all of your wealth, but the ghost ship has always been fair and just. I can save your lives but only charge half of your money. You should be grateful." Han Fei was speechless.

Do you know how much half of our money is? Although he hadn't counted it yet, there were 3 billion mid-quality pearls in the Sun-Moon Shell, as well as other kinds of resources that would be worth at least 2 billion or even more.

Now you want us to give you half of it?!

The faceless man didn't urge on, but said indifferently, "You still have about half an hour to consider. I'm not in a hurry." The wheels in his head were turning quickly. Is this faceless man tricking me? But why?! Why should the faceless man trick me? While emphasizing that he is fair and just, he demands half of my belongings? But on the other hand, if what the faceless man said is true, then at this moment, even if he takes all my belongings, he is still helping me. But I didn't even know him before. Why would he help me? If I were him, I would probably make a move in advance, grab all my belongings, and leave directly.

This was just one of Han Fei's doubts. In addition, he was still wondering if he could get away if he hid in the door of the Hexagon Starfish?

Han Fei knew that if he hid in Forge the Universe, he could definitely escape, but then Forge the Universe would be exposed. Besides, if the Sky Hanging Mirror did exist, he would have to show up anyway. Then he still couldn't escape from the level-three fishery!

Luo Xiaobai said to him via voice transmission, I think what he said is credible. Zhang Xuanyu and Le Renkuang were dumbfounded, but after thinking about it, they both nodded. No one was an idiot. Yes, they had killed a Hanging Fisher, but could they kill a Hidden Fisher? Even if no Hidden Fisher came for them, what if they sent one or two Hanging Fishers? Han Fei looked at the faceless man. "OK, but if we can only stay on the ghost ship, it'll be meaningless. Sooner or later, we will still have to go out to use the teleportation array on the dragon boats." The faceless man laughed. "Who told you that only dragon boats have teleportation arrays?" Han Fei's expression changed. "Are there also teleportation arrays on the ghost ship?" The faceless man smiled. "Don't forget the ghost ship used to be a dragon boat! Although the teleportation array is damaged, it can be repaired. But of course! The price will be higher."

Han Fei: "..."

Han Fei was speechless. I knew it! That's why you only asked for half of our money, right? Because we'll still have to pay for the teleportation array! Han Fei gritted his teeth. "How much is that?"

The faceless man grinned. "Half of the money you have left. I didn't take it all because I like to give a chance to others. Do you like this chance?"

Han Fei snorted in his heart. Are you out of your mind? Who would want your “chance”?!

Han Fei tried to suppress his inner urge to go up and beat him up, secretly saying, I am not angry, I am not angry. Anyway, this money was snatched by me and I can still keep a quarter of it.

Suddenly, he saw this faceless man looking at the sky. “Decide in three minutes. They’ve come.” “Huh? So quickly?” Han Fei immediately responded, “Deal!” This faceless man immediately threw out a fishing rod, tying them up with the fishing line. “Don’t fight.”

Then he jumped into the water with a swish and Han Fei and his pals who were strung together were dragged into the water by him. However, at the moment when they entered the water, a blue light fell directly on their fishing boat.

With a boom, the fishing boat was blown to pieces. On the bottom of the sea, the faceless man raised a hand and many complex and strange patterns appeared on his hand, and these patterns formed a large circular array in a few minutes. “Huh?”

Han Fei was slightly surprised when he saw this big array. Why does the pattern of this array look familiar?

But he didn’t have the time to think about it. Suddenly, a golden glow appeared in front of the big array as if it had passed through the endless void. The faceless man stomped a foot and a defensive array appeared.

Boom~~

The entire bottom of the sea was fried up. The sand and stones within a kilometer were mercilessly crushed, the sea bulged, and a large pit was recessed under foot.

Han Fei and the others were shocked. This was definitely not an attack at the level of a Hanging Fisher. Has a Hidden Fisher come? “Faceless, we dragon boats and the ghost ship never interfere with each other. Hand over those little guys and we’ll remain in peace. Otherwise...”

The array on the palm of the faceless man was still stacking up and all kinds of weird lines were still entwining, and he said, “Someone paid me to save their lives. Sorry.” In the next moment, four rays of light darted at him at a terrifying speed. The faceless man snorted coldly and a strange light suddenly burst out of the array on his palm.

The faceless man directly pushed Han Fei into it, saying, “I told you to decide quickly, but you didn’t listen to me. Forget it... I will find you later.”

Han Fei and the others felt that it was dark in front of them, and the next moment they appeared on the surface of the sea and had no idea where they were.

Splash!

The waves beat and the wind roared, lifting up the hems of their clothes, and they were still in a panic.

Le Renkuang was horrified. “We are really being targeted, so what the faceless man said about the Sky Hanging Mirror turned out to be true?” The Hexagon Starfish clung to Le Renkuang. “Oh, I’m so scared. No, I can’t stay in this sea area. It’s too dangerous. I want to go elsewhere.” Han Fei sneered. “Go ahead.

Now there is a mirror hanging in the sky. I bet you will be caught as soon as you run out. I'm afraid all your treasure will be taken by others by then." The Hexagon Starfish rolled his eyes. "Well... Then forget it!" Zhang Xuanyu suddenly exclaimed, "Feifei, don't you feel that this place seems a bit familiar?"

Han Fei was not in the mood to think about it and just responded impatiently, "It's all f*cking water here. Why the hell do you find it familiar?" Zhang Xuanyu said, "The wind! The wind! It's sunny but the wind is so strong. This place is near the Abyssal Chasm!" Han Fei froze and then said, "Damn, yes!"

Xia Xiaochan said, "Then what are you waiting for? Let's get in! Otherwise, what if the mirror in the sky finds us?"

Luo Xiaobai agreed. "Let's get in quickly. Although I don't know what the Sky Hanging Mirror is, it seems that it can locate us indeed. I think maybe we can hide from the mirror in the Abyssal Chasm."

They took out the Wind God Boat and sailed straight to the windiest place. Han Fei said, "This is a bargain. I've decided when I have time, I'll come to the level-three fishery again to loot a few more dragon boats and take the mirror also." Xia Xiaochan scoffed. "Don't brag. If it weren't for the faceless man, we might have been killed."

Han Fei snorted. He was thinking that if the faceless man weren't there, he might have had to use the Sky Dissecting Finger. Less than half an hour after the Wind God Boat sailed out, a fishing hook darted at them from the sky.

With a jerk, Han Fei wielded the fishing boat to turn around, narrowly avoiding the hook. Han Fei yelled, "Watch out! Someone is attacking"

Then near the Abyssal Chasm, a red ray of light seemed to be dancing on the sea, turning, jumping, and sailing forward in a zigzag. Han Fei cursed while manipulating the fishing boat. "Why the hell do you guys only use fish hooks? Humph, if you can catch up with us, I'll write my name backwards."

At this moment, the sea tide was surging and huge waves tens of meters high were set off on the sea. The Wind God Boat was like an elf dancing on the sea and Han Fei shouted, "I will not stop but rush straight in when we arrive in the hurricane area. Yuyu! Did you come out like this last time?" Zhang Xuanyu paused and then said, "No! We came out from under the water, there were some twists and turns and some people died." Han Fei was taken back. "Really?" Suddenly, Le Renkuang's face changed drastically. "Stop talking. Look at the sky." Everyone looked up, only to see a silver light shooting down from the sky, and then two Hanging Fishers emerged from the silver light.

"Oh!"

Zhang Xuanyu looked at Han Fei. "Now you'll have to write your name backwards." Han Fei was speechless and then yelled, "F*ck, how can this be possible?! How can the Hanging Fishers be so strong?" Luo Xiaobai said with a sullen face, "They must have used some special array that can send them anywhere, but the price won't be low. It seems that we did piss off the entire level-three fishery."

Chapter 542 Was Han Fei Killed?

In an instant, Han Fei raised the speed of the Wind God Boat to the highest state possible, cursing, "Even if they catch up, so what? Can they be as fast as this boat? They can't even be compared to the ordinary fishing boats in speed. Humph!"

There was nothing wrong with what Han Fei said. Fishing boats were like a bug. No matter how fast Hanging Fishers were, they couldn't be faster than fishing boats.

However, Han Fei forgot that besides speed, Hanging Fishers also mastered very good fishing skills. Two fishing hooks were thrown out in the blink of an eye. Fortunately, Han Fei's perception range was large enough. As soon as the hooks were thrown out, the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers swept out directly.

It wasn't for an attack. Han Fei just wanted to change the drop points of the hooks. A miss was as good as a mile. Unfortunately, the Hanging Fishers had very good control of their fishing hooks, so the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers failed and returned. However, Luo Xiaobai and Le Renkuang succeeded in stopping the hooks. One of them used the Sky Swallowing Technique to divert the hook and the other tapped in the air with a finger and a vine sprouted out of the air and blocked the two hooks.

However, the two Hanging Fishers reacted quickly, summoned their fishing boats, and chased them frantically. While chasing, they waved their fishing rods. This lasted for about half an hour, and under the defense of Le Renkuang and Luo Xiaobai, Han Fei finally saw the hurricane almost engulfing the sky. Han Fei shouted, "Come on, let's hold on for another half an hour."

"Puff!"

Le Renkuang said, "The wind is too strong here, and my Sky Swallowing Technique is not working." Luo Xiaobai shouted, "Not good, they're attacking from underwater!" Han Fei said immediately, "Zhang Xuanyu, come control the Wind God Boat." Then he summoned the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Rod and cast the fishing hook straight into the water. He chose to use two fishing techniques, the Flash Hook and the Winding Snake Technique. In a fishing hook fight, the key was the angler's control of the hook. Otherwise, once Han Fei's fishing line was entangled by his opponent, he would have to either throw away the fishing rod or cut off the fishing line. It would take time to cut off the fishing line, so if he lost the fishing hook fight, he would lose an ultra-quality spiritual weapon. Underwater, there was a dense tangle of vines that all clung to the fishing boat. Luo Xiaobai's perception range was not that far, so she could only passively defend. And after Han Fei used the Water Vein Technique, the fishing hook entered the water, and both the fishing line and the fishing hook became invisible. Facing the opponent's fishing hook darting at him, he grabbed it and pulled it. Behind him, the expressions of the two Hanging Fishers changed slightly. "What kind of fishing technique is this? I can't see his fishing hook or fishing line at all." "Use a double hook."

Thus, for the first time, Han Fei saw the fishing technique with one fishing rod but two fishing lines and two fishing hooks. One of the hooks wound toward him, and the other shot straight at the Wind God Boat.

Han Fei sneered. "What makes you think two hooks will make a big difference? Naive, Void Breaking Technique!"

At that moment, one hook was fighting against four hooks, the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Rod shot out like a snake, biting the two Hanging Fishers from time to time and causing them serious trouble. Goddamn it, aren't you just a Dangling Fisher? Yes, I admit that you have good combat skills and physique, but where did you learn this weird f*cking hook technique? Xia Xiaochan was grasping the fishing boat and perceiving, looking at Han Fei in surprise every now and then. "What hook technique is this?” Han Fei even had the time to answer her. “This was invented by me, which combines the Water Control Skill of spiritual gatherers, the Winding Snake Technique, and the Instant Hook.” Han Fei blabbed on about the combat skill. Anyway, Xia Xiaochan wasn’t a spirit gatherer and was quite gullible.

The two sides fought for almost half an hour, the sky was completely dark, and the Wind God Boat had completely entered the hurricane waters.

Just when everyone thought they were about to rush into the Abyssal Chasm, something suddenly exploded underwater, blasting the Wind God Boat into the sky. “What happened?” Han Fei was shocked. He had been perceiving and there was no one within 10,000 meters! But just now, under the boat, there was clearly a burst of spiritual energy. As soon as the Wind God Boat was shaken to the sky, Zhang Xuanyu’s hand shook and he lost control of the boat. It was precisely because of this mistake that the two Hanging Fishers finally hooked the Wind God Boat. Han Fei immediately drew out the Blood Drinking Knife and threw out a chop, and all the four hooks snapped off. However, because of the sudden change, they couldn’t escape now.

Han Fei didn’t ask why. At the moment the Wind God Boat was shaken to the sky, he knew it was too late.

Han Fei roared, “Get ready to fight.”

Luo Xiaobai took the lead to launch an attack. She took advantage of the strong wind here to summon a large tract of petals. The petals flew all over the sky, fell on the Hanging Fisher who leaped over, and then exploded. Han Fei took out the Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Bow and shot three arrows in a row, but there was a small black ball hanging behind every spiritual energy arrow.

BAM! BAM! BAM!

The Smoke King Smoke exploded in the air, but because the wind was too strong and the Hanging Fishers reacted too fast, it had no effect.

A spiritual array suddenly appeared under his feet. Han Fei raised his hands and a great mass of seawater turned into flying water knives and pounced on the two Hanging Fishers.

However, they didn’t care at all. The two were skimming over at an extremely fast speed. And the weird hook in one of the two men’s hands was shooting at Han Fei.

But neither of them noticed the weird smile hovering on Han Fei’s lips. It was too simple to turn the Infinity Water into water knives that contained Poison King, which Han Fei didn’t think the two could handle.

However, the Poison King didn’t work that well this time. When the two of them were about to reach him, Han Fei shouted and his fist was blazing with flames as he punched at one of them. Zhang Xuanyu followed closely and blasted the Nine-Layered Waves in Furious Sea towards another Hanging Fisher. And Luo Xiaobai’s Bursting Flowers and Le Renkuang’s Bloodthirsty Broadsword also shot out.

As for Xia Xiaochan, she had disappeared when the two Hanging Fishers approached. The horror of hunters did not lie in a frontal attack, but sneak attacks, especially when the enemies were Hanging Fisher-level strong masters. It would be literally suicidal if fighting them head-on. The Sacrificing Punch collided with the hook and the ground under Han Fei’s feet was sunken. Within a hundred meters, the wind and waves were suddenly put to a halt and the water splashed and exploded. Han Fei vomited a mouthful of blood and was sent flying. One of the hanging fishers sneered. "Do you think we'll make the mistake Ruan You made?"

A weird black sharp-clawed Spider Crab suddenly emerged from the water and stuck on Han Fei. Luckily, he was wearing an ultra-quality combat suit. Otherwise, he would have been killed. Han Fei vomited blood again and launched the Draw Technique. The knife light collided violently with the crab shell and legs, but the latter remained unscathed. Han Fei shouted, "Xiaobai." On Luo Xiaobai's side, Zhang Xuanyu was fighting an opponent but was blasted into the water after only a minute. As for Le Renkuang, his Bloodthirsty Broadsword was directly blocked by a large shield by the opponent. At this moment, Luo Xiaobai's Bursting Flowers were bursting one after another. Hearing Han Fei's shout, Luo Xiaobai paused and then thousands of vines stretched out in the air and directly dragged Han Fei back. When the two Hanging Fishers were about to launch the next wave of attacks, suddenly their complexion changed and their stomach began to ache. "Not good! We've been poisoned." They didn't know how they were poisoned. They had dodged the Poison King Smoke! Could it be the water knives?

The two Hanging Fishers looked at each other and roared at the same time. Both of them took out long sticks and rushed at Han Fei. The surging air billow almost shook the sky, and Luo Xiaobai who shielded in front was directly sent flying by this terrifying air billow.

Le Renkuang shouted again, "Divine Turtle Shield..." However, before the shield came out, there was a sudden explosion in the air. Xia Xiaochan was shaken out in mid-air. She was drenched in blood and her eyes were bloodshot. She seemed to be about to lose control of herself. She struggled to shout, "They're hunters." At this moment, Han Fei was furious, a six prism-shaped object in his hand flashed, and at the same time, he shouted at Xia Xiaochan, "Calm down. Don't be impulsive."

However, immediately afterward, he felt cold all over, and a cold sharp blade suddenly appeared on the back of his neck.

"Puff..."

A mystic light flashed, and amid the crazy roar of Le Renkuang and under the shocked gaze of Xia Xiaochan, Han Fei was cut in half. "No!"

"Go to hell..."

"Hoooooo!"

At that moment, a dragon roar resounded, Xia Xiaochan's eyes turned all red, and a red flame ignited in her body.

She couldn't believe that Han Fei was killed!

Xia Xiaochan, who was on the verge of losing control, went crazy and fused with the Giant Arowana in an instant. She must kill the hunter.

Chapter 543 That Fish Skin Map

The hunter smiled at the moment when he cut Han Fei to pieces.

Even if you are a genius, so what? In the face of absolute strength, you'll have no choice but to die. However, when he cut open Han Fei's body, he was surprised to find salt.

Yes, Han Fei used the Mirror of Icy Salt at the moment Xia Xiaochan reminded him. It seemed that he was cut in half, but in fact, he hid into the sea with his clone.

While the hunter was still laughing, a red light appeared beside him instantly.

"How can this be?"

The man was horrified. How could Xia Xiaochan's speed be so fast? He admitted that Xia Xiaochan was almost a perfect hunter, but she wasn't this strong before now!

While he was paying attention to Han Fei, who was cut in half falling into the sea, Xia Xiaochan's figure flashed frantically and she had already attacked the hunter hundreds of times in the blink of an eye.

"Hoooooo!"

The dragon roar echoed in the ears of the hunter, causing his seven orifices to bleed and his internal organs to displace. The hunter tried to fight back, and a massive amount of poisonous spikes spurted out from his body, and each of them was enough to kill a peak-level Dangling Fisher.

But in that person's horrified stare, these poisonous spikes had directly penetrated Xia Xiaochan's body, but none of them could fall on her.

"How come? Is it a space secret technique?"

Le Renkuang was crying hard. He activated the Violent War Body and fused with the Spiritual Clam, turning into a fireball and ramming against the hunter.

Zhang Xuanyu rushed out of the water. It was only one minute before he entered the water. How could Han Fei be killed?!

He didn't believe it. He didn't believe it at all, but he saw a half of Han Fei's body in the water.

"I'm gonna kill you! You b*stard! Soul Explosion..." How could the hunter expect these people to go mad all of a sudden? A spiritual power exploded directly in his mind, and a dagger blazing with a red light had shattered his ultra-quality combat suit and was shredding his contractual spiritual beast. "Is this a Divine-Quality dagger?" The fireball-like Le Renkuang held two knives in both hands and pierced at his head. The Hexagon Starfish was trembling on the boat. It felt a bit strange. Han Fei is dead? Impossible! He didn't feel it! But he had no time to speak in such a short time. In the sky, another two Hanging Fishers were holding back abdominal pain and pouncing on Xia Xiaochan, Le Renkuang and Zhang Xuanyu. Luo Xiaobai shouted, "Calm down. Han Fei is not dead."

Luo Xiaobai was composed as usual, although at the moment Han Fei was cut in half, her heart sank in her chest.

However, everyone had forgotten that Han Fei had an Immortal Seal!

Would he be so stupid as to forget the Immortal Seal at that critical moment?

No, if the Immortal Seal didn't burst out of that corpse, it was definitely not Han Fei, which Luo Xiaobai was 100% sure.

Besides, at this moment, her vines underwater felt a figure rushing up frantically. Who else could that person be if it wasn't Han Fei? The other three had already gone crazy, and what Luo Xiaobai could do at the moment was to try her best to block the two Hanging Fishers. So a big blue flower bloomed in the sky, and tens of thousands of thin filaments stretched out from it, each of which was dark green with thick venom. The big blue flower tried to wrap the two Hanging Fishers.

"Go away." One of them brandished his stick, leaving thousands of stick shadows, ignoring Luo Xiaobai. If two peak-level Hanging Fishers could be trapped by a peak-level Dangling Fisher manipulator, it would simply be a disgrace to all Hanging Fishers. It was true. Although Luo Xiaobai was very strong, this was only relative to her peers. For example, Ye Baiyu, although his speed was extremely fast, no matter in terms of physique or combat power, he was incomparable to that of Hanging Fishers, so he wouldn't be able to resist Luo Xiaobai's various kinds of spiritual plants that were poisonous, paralyzing, or psychedelic. But Hanging Fishers were different. They could easily destroy her spiritual plants.

BAM!

Just at this moment, the surface of the water broke open and a fish skin map flew out, and then a large axe suddenly appeared and directly tore the air open, as if there was a great giant holding a large axe, trying to cut open the sky and split the sea.

The faceless man gave this to Han Fei when he was on the ghost ship.

"How come?"

"Didn't you die?"

"Damn it, it's the God-Killing Axe." Now, these two people had no time to chase Xia Xiaochan but tried to escape for their lives. At that moment, three huge doors suddenly fell from the sky.

Han Fei frowned. "Three Death Doors?"

BAM!

BAM!

BAM!

The three doors shattered one after another, and the axe's momentum was undiminished at all and the axe was flying straight ahead.

The two Hanging Fishers directly took out five or six ultra-quality spiritual weapons to shield in front of them.

But these spiritual weapons all shattered one after another. Even ultra-quality spiritual weapons couldn't block this overwhelming power.

In the blink of an eye, the two of them fell into the hurricane area that spanned a kilometer together with the axe light. The terrifying axe light directly split the hurricane in half. At this moment, Han Fei suddenly realized that spiritual weapons might no longer become the mainstream in the future.

Han Fei ignored the two, flapped his wings, and rushed to Xia Xiaochan.

He saw that the Hanging Fisher had been stabbed like a honeycomb by her, and the red jade-like dagger Xia Xiaochan was holding seemed to be a Divine Weapon. Han Fei's eyes flickered, and the nine-star chain shot out, directly buckling Le Renkuang and Zhang Xuanyu. "You idiots, how could I die so easily?" Le Renkuang was slashed by Xia Xiaochan on his belly and was bleeding like hell.

Zhang Xuanyu seemed to be trying to avoid her and was running, and Han Fei directly dragged him back.

Han Fei swallowed. How was he gonna handle the mad Xia Xiaochan holding a Divine Weapon? Han Fei gritted his teeth, put on an ultra-quality combat suit, and rushed over holding two Blue Sea Wandering Dragon Daggers, intending to stop Xia Xiaochan.

However, less than two minutes after Han Fei rushed over, only the hilts were left of the two daggers, and the ultra-quality combat suit on his body was all covered with knife marks.

"Xia Xiaochan, wake up." "Hey! Are you going to murder your husband?!" "Ouch! I'm not dead... My waist!" "Xia Xiaochan, I'm Han Fei..." When Han Fei said his name, Xia Xiaochan suddenly paused, with a trace of confusion in her eyes.

Han Fei saw it worked and quickly said, "I am Han Fei. I'm still alive, alive..."

The scarlet light in Xia Xiaochan's eyes flickered, and she said with difficulty, "You... Not dead..."

"Yes, yes, I'm not dead, I'm not dead..." The red flame on Xia Xiaochan's body suddenly flashed, and she closed her eyes and fell from the sky.

Han Fei hurriedly reached out to catch Xia Xiaochan, and threw the Divine Healing Technique on himself. Just a few minutes ago, he was stabbed seventeen times. Fortunately, he had practiced the 108 Spirit-Absorbing War Bodies and managed to protect the vital points of his body from being stabbed. Otherwise, he would have been dead.

Han Fei really sympathized with the hunter at this moment who was stabbed like honeycomb, but he deserved it.

On the fishing boat, Zhang Xuanyu couldn't believe his eyes and he gazed at Han Fei in shock. "Feifei! Are you still alive?" "Yes, yes, now quickly control the fishing boat. Let's go."

Only then did Le Renkuang notice his belly, which was almost slit open. Le Renkuang wailed, "Feifei! Help! Help..." Han Fei hurriedly threw the Divine Healing Technique on him and roared, "Hey, don't move. Don't f*cking move." Luo Xiaobai half knelt on the deck, panting hard. "Come on, let's leave here. The two men are still alive."

Han Fei looked back and was shocked. How are they still alive? Even the God-Killing Axe didn't kill them?!

"No, there is only one person in the hurricane."

Boom...

The thick hurricane seemed to be slapped away by someone and the faceless man walked out of the storm.

He was holding two Sea Swallowing Seashells in his hand and seemed somewhat unsatisfied, probably muttering why this was not a Sun-Moon Shell.

The faceless man immediately appeared on the bow of the Wind God Boat and shook his head. "Five fools, didn't I tell you the Sky Hanging Mirror is hanging high in the sky? Why did you still try to escape from the sea? Couldn't you find a secret place to hide like what you did before?" Han Fei grinned. "Anyway, we survived. By the way, why are you helping us?" The faceless man simply said, "I am a businessman." Han Fei was pressing one hand on his belly, trying to stop the blood from flowing out, but there were too many holes, so he threw the Divine Healing Technique on himself again.

Han Fei sneered. "A businessman? Will a businessman do a loss-making business? That fish skin map is worth at least 200 million, right?" The faceless man smiled grimly. "Can two hundred million buy your guys' lives?"

Chapter 544 The Ghost Ship Appeared

Han Fei didn't ask what happened to the two peak-level Hanging Fishers. But the faceless man was really strong. Being besieged by so many people, he could still appear so quickly.

Han Fei asked, "Who on earth are you?"

"Heh heh... Do you want to ask me questions or save your life first?"

While talking, the faceless man pushed with a single palm, and the weird array appeared again.

This was obviously a teleportation array. Just now, the five of them were thrown into this array, and then suddenly appeared in the Abyssal Chasm.

However, the previous time was relatively hasty, and this time, the faceless man spent three full minutes to complete the array.

The faceless man shouted, "Let's go!" At this point, Han Fei and the others certainly no longer had any doubts.

Strictly speaking, this faceless man's purpose was to save their lives and the money he charged was more like a pretext. Or else, with his strength, he didn't need to bother at all.

This was a gloomy water area. When they appeared from the teleportation array again, they saw the gigantic ghost ship suspended in the sea.

On and near the ghost ship, there were some large squids and octopus swimming, and from time to time, fish, shrimp and crabs burrowed into the holes of the ghost ship.

Seeing this scene, Han Fei was surprised. They had never seen a boat sailing under the water.

Han Fei had seen it before, but it was still very surprising to see the ship appear on the bottom of the sea.

This time, the entrance of the ghost ship was no longer the ordinary cabin wooden door, but a seal on the top of the ghost ship, exuding a gloomy light.

Han Fei carried Xia Xiaoqian in his arms and walked in front, and the Hexagon Starfish lay on his shoulders. "There is a big seal on this ship."

Han Fei was taken aback slightly but he didn't take it seriously. The ghost ship was certainly mysterious, or else it would not have survived in the level-three fishery for so long.

The wound on Le Renkuang's belly was almost healed, but he still stuffed some healing pills into his mouth from time to time.

Luo Xiaobai suddenly said, "Senior, will the dragon boats find the ghost ship?"

The faceless man shrugged. "Even if they find me, so what? I just do my business. What does it have to do with them?"

Following the faceless man to step into the seal, they appeared directly inside the cabin.

And then they saw many faceless people were busy in this huge cabin.

In the hall where there were only 12 trading halls, all the wooden boards that were supposed to be the walls of the cabin were all opened and turned into rooms, like shops along the street. Some faceless men hoisted pill furnaces up and threw all kinds of spiritual plants into the furnaces.

Some faceless men were forging weapons, and a giant eel was lying at the door of the blacksmith's shop, which seemed to be used in spirit sealing.

Some people were suspended above the puddles connecting with the sea in the middle of the hall, surrounded by spiritual energy and seeming to be cultivating.

There were also many people who seemed to be sorting out various kinds of treasures, including spiritual fruits, spiritual springs, weapons, jade slips, fish and shrimps, and so on, but not a single mid-quality pearl was seen.

When Han Fei and the others landed in the cabin, almost everyone stopped what they were doing, raised their heads one after another, and looked at them.

Han Fei couldn't help taking a breath. "What do you mean by showing this to us?"

The faceless man smiled. "There is no secret. Why can't I show it to others? Don't tell me you think the ghost ship is deathly silent when it is sailing on the sea?"

As the faceless man began to speak, all the faceless people started to work again, and no one greeted them as if they did not exist at all.

Han Fei absolutely didn't believe what the faceless man said. Everything looks so weird here. There must be some secrets here, but you told me that everything was normal?

Zhang Xuanyu supported Le Renkuang with his hands and whispered in a low voice, "I feel that we are involved in a huge conspiracy."

“I don’t care. Anyway, I’m still alive, which is wonderful.”

Han Fei and the others walked into a room with the faceless man. At this moment, Xia Xiaochan woke up in Han Fei’s arms, struggling to open her eyes.

When she saw Han Fei, Xia Xiaochan was stunned. “Han Fei? Am I dead too?”

Han Fei pinched Xia Xiaochan’s flesh and said, “Who told you that I was dead? In your opinion, I would die so easily? Stupid. I just got chopped into the sea before I had time to tell you.”

Xia Xiaochan stared at Han Fei for a long time.

“Boohoo~~~”

Suddenly Xia Xiaochan burst into tears and hammered Han Fei’s chest with her little hand. “I thought you were dead. I saw you cut in half.”

Han Fei tried to comfort her. “It was fake. You can touch me. I’m still alive.”

Xia Xiaochan stretched out her hand, squeezed Han Fei’s cheek, and then squeezed her own. After quite a while, she was finally sure that Han Fei was not dead, neither was she.

“Humph!”

Xia Xiaochan suddenly furiously said, “You almost scared me to death! Next time you do this trick again, tell me in advance! Do you know how scary it is to see you suddenly cut in half?”

“Ahem!”

Han Fei’s face was reddened because he found that Luo Xiaobai and the others were looking at them with a meaningful look.

Zhang Xuanyu was stunned. “Feifei! Xia Xiaochan... You two, when did you suddenly become lovers?”

Han Fei was hugging Xia Xiaochan and Xia Xiaochan was beating Han Fei’s chest, squeezing his cheek and hugging him. Gosh, what are they doing?

Le Renkuang said stupidly, “People in love are usually dumb.”

Han Fei scoffed. “Get lost.”

Luo Xiaobai was still looking at them with that strange look, but her eyes were also full of curiosity.

Han Fei said shamelessly, “It’s none of your business. Go find a girlfriend or boyfriend if you want to be in love!”

Zhang Xuanyu looked at Luo Xiaobai and said, “Xiaobai, we...”

Luo Xiaobai said with a cold face, “Get lost!”

“Well! OK!”

Xia Xiaochan flashed and disappeared into Han Fei's arms, but when she looked around, she immediately asked in surprise, "Is this the ghost ship?" After that, Xia Xiaochan looked at the faceless man who was looking at them with his arms folded over his chest.

Xia Xiaochan said in surprise, "Why are we here?"

Han Fei thought for a while and didn't know how to explain it, so he simply said, "I'll explain to you later. This senior saved us."

The faceless man said with a hoarse voice, "It's good to be young! I used to be young too and also... Forget it, why am I saying this to you?"

Then he stretched out his hand. "Give me money!"

Everyone: "..."

Zhang Xuanyu immediately said, "Senior, I really don't believe you saved us for money. Maybe we can become friends?".

The faceless man glanced at him. "Nice try."

Le Renkuang pleaded, "Senior, are you really going to take our money?! Then can we still buy things?"

The faceless man said lightly, "Sure! If you still have enough money left after paying the 5 billion you owe me!"

"Puff!"

Han Fei was speechless. How come you know how much money we have?!

But the faceless man said, "Don't play tricks! I'm watching you. Don't even think about fooling me."

What else could Han Fei do now? Nothing except to pay him!

Although the Sun-Moon Shell was precious, this guy saved their lives. If it weren't for the faceless man, even if they could get rid of the three Hanging Fishers, could they kill all the Hanging Fishers in the entire level-three fishery?

So Han Fei took the Sun-Moon Shell out, sighed, and threw it over.

After the faceless man took the Sun-Moon Shell, he grunted, and after examining it for a while, he chuckled eerily. "Not bad, but there should only be half of the resources of a dragon boat in it. This should be worth 5 billion. By the way, did you hide something?"

Han Fei said helplessly, "Have I had a chance to hide anything? And, is this Sun-Moon Shell only worth 5 billion?"

The faceless man sneered. "How much do you think it's worth? Ten billion? The things here are all common. Do you think it is very valuable?"

Han Fei didn't want to argue. "OK, I trust you. I just want to know how much we can keep."

The faceless man raised his head slightly as if he was thinking, after quite a while, he said, "It costs money to use a teleportation array. I don't think you'll have much left. If the dragon boat finds us, I guess it will not be enough."

"Puff!"

Han Fei was dumbfounded. What? Not enough? Are you kidding me?

Zhang Xuanyu and Le Renkuang stumbled as if they were suddenly struck by lightning. Gosh, it almost took their lives to snatch this Sun-Moon Shell! Although they did not snatch it personally, it was snatched by Han Fei who was their good buddy.

Besides, in the last two battles, they had lost a pile of ultra-quality spiritual weapons, which were probably worth hundreds of millions in total. Now even the Sun-Moon Shells had been taken away. They couldn't believe it!

Only Xia Xiaochan remained collected. Although she didn't understand what was going on here, she knew she couldn't reveal the 50 Sea Swallowing Seashells on her, which would be their only trophy.

Chapter 545 Seven Dragon Boats

It seemed that they couldn't get the Sun-Moon Shell back, but they had nothing to say.

It was them who went to the ghost ship to buy resources, robbed the dragon boat, and summoned the faceless man... It seemed that in the end, except for killing two Hanging Fishers and experiencing a near-death crisis, they didn't make any profit.

The faceless man left, leaving this room to them.

Le Renkuang sighed. "Alas, we've become poor again."

Zhang Xuanyu sighed too. "If the President knows that we have just spent 5 billion, he would skin us alive."

Luo Xiaobai didn't quite care about money, so she just calmly said, "Let's quickly restore our strength. Before we completely leave the level-three fishery, we must maintain our peak state."

Han Fei nodded. "Yes, return to our peak state and restore energy."

With that said, Han Fei took out the cauldron and the grill.

After a while, the five of them began to eat hot pot in the ghost ship.

After about five minutes, the door suddenly opened, and a group of faceless men were standing at the door, staring at the barbecue grill and the hot pot.

Some of them were swallowing saliva, some were pulling and pushing each other, and some were shoving and shouting. They seemed very interested in the barbecue and the hot pot.

Upon seeing this, Han Fei pushed with one hand, directly pushing the entire grill to the door.

Anyway, their identities had been exposed and they were not wearing masks. Perhaps they were the first group of people who came in without a mask in the history of the ghost ship.

Since these faceless men didn't seem hostile to them, it was not a big deal to treat them to a barbecue.

Then in the blink of an eye, the grill was empty, and then these faceless men began to scramble for barbecued food with each other.

"Humph! As the faceless man coldly snorted, the other faceless men immediately dispersed, leaving only a bare barbecue grill at the door.

The faceless man stood at the door. "The recipes for these two things. You know what I mean, right?"
Han Fei: "..."

Without waiting for Han Fei to agree, the faceless man said, "In two hours, the teleportation array can be set up. If there is no accident, I will send you back with the power of the heavens and earth. But you'll be sent to the sea and then the dragon boats will probably be attracted over because the money you paid is not enough." Han Fei was stunned and then shouted, "But we are out of money!"

The faceless man chuckled and didn't seem to believe him, but he didn't ask anymore.

Luo Xiaobai suddenly said, "Senior, thank you for helping us."

The faceless man grunted slightly, turned around, and left. Luo Xiaobai said, "He wouldn't help us without reason. Since the ghost ship has chosen to help us, it must have an inextricable link with us. This Sun-Moon Shell was well spent." Han Fei nodded. "Yeah! Let's recover as soon as possible. Fatty, have you recovered from your belly wound?"

Le Renkuang immediately screamed, "Xia Xiaochan, calm down next time, alright? We were almost stabbed to death by you."

Xia Xiaochan: "???"

"Me?"

Han Fei's face darkened. "No, he stabbed himself."

Han Fei didn't give Xia Xiaochan a chance to think and directly asked, "Do you have Divine daggers? Why didn't you use them before?"

Xia Xiaochan paused and asked, "How did you know?"

Xia Xiaochan glanced at Le Renkuang, wondering if she had taken out the Divine weapons and stabbed them just now.

Xia Xiaochan nodded. "Yes, but those two daggers seem to fuse into my arms. I have never summoned them before. Did I really use them just now?"

Han Fei rubbed Xia Xiaochan's hair. "It's OK. Divine weapons are not easy to use anyway. You just used them to stab a hunter to death."

When Xia Xiaochan thought of that hunter, her eyes suddenly turned cold. Xia Xiaochan asked, "Where did you get a clone of yourself?"

After hearing this, Zhang Xuanyu also asked, "Yes! Feifei, where did you get it? Did you also learn a combat skill like the Tertiary Body?"

Han Fei grinned. "It's not the Tertiary Body, but an opportunity I got. I can use a clone three times. Now I have used it twice and there is only one chance left."

Luo Xiaobai was surprised. "Only three times? A skill with limited use?"

Han Fei nodded. "Let's talk about this when we go back!"

Two hours later, the ghost ship went to sea, but the ghost horn did not sound.

It was late at night, three moons hung in the sky, and the salty sea wind gusted over.

Han Fei and the other four were standing on the top of the ghost ship, where there was a large rune array with a radius of about 20 meters, emitting a faint brilliance at this moment.

The brilliance became more and more intense, and after about one hour, a bright moonlight essence fell from the sky and landed on the big array.

The faceless man said lightly, "The study of arrays is extensive and profound. It's a pity that none of you have learned it, tsk..." Han Fei smiled and said, "In fact, I..." Before Han Fei finished speaking, the faceless man said, "As a spiritual gatherer, you've only mastered the Spirit Gathering Array. It's really shameful."

Han Fei: "???"

Han Fei was speechless. Fine, you're the boss. You have the final say, OK?!

The faceless man said lightly, "Enter the array in about a quarter of an hour by yourselves."

Han Fei couldn't help but ask, "Are you going back now?"

The faceless man snorted. "Go back? No! The enemy is coming."

Han Fei and the others were shocked. "How could it be possible? The level-three fishery is so big and the dragon boats are so slow. How can they come so fast? Even last time, didn't it take them half an hour to arrive?"

The faceless man said grimly, "The Floating Islands are arrays, so is the level-three fishery. Under certain circumstances, any array can be activated as long as a certain price is paid. You ignorant brats, remember, never underestimate any place, even ordinary fisheries."

While talking, Han Fei saw brightly lit ships approaching in the dark.

Luo Xiaobai turned pale. "There are so many of them."

Le Renkuang shivered. "Oh my God! Seven ships, there are seven ships."

The Hexagon Starfish directly jumped onto Han Fei's shoulders. At such a time, he should stay with the strongest guy. Just now, only three Hanging Fishers were already so hard to handle.

Now here came seven dragon boats! How were they going to handle them?

Han Fei's eyelids twitched. Gosh, how desperately does the owner of the dragon boats want to kill us? He sent seven dragon boats over at a time?! Are they crazy?

But the faceless man said, "This is no longer just your business. The ghost ship and the dragon boats have been piling up grudges against each other for a long time. You're not so capable as to attract seven dragon boats.

"Faceless!"

A long distance away, a sound wave rolled in, and above the sky, a Hidden Fisher stepped over in the air, holding two lightsabers burning with red flames in his hands.

The Hidden Fisher was followed by seven Hanging Fishers, who stood on the fishing boats, some holding swords, some stepping on golden wheels, and some carrying scimitars, rushing at the ghost ship at the same time.

The faceless man laughed out loud. "Boys, let's entertain our guests."

"Kill!"

His roar reminded people of the fierce fighting on the battlefield and surging billows on the sea.

The whole ghost ship continuously made a weird sound like a drum beating, and bursts of red and black mystic light rose up like lasers, covering the entire ghost ship. Han Fei exclaimed, "The killing array of the ghost ship!"

Two huge red axes suddenly appeared in the hands of the faceless man, and he leaped into the sky and chuckled creepily. "Nine Nether Killing Array."

At the same time as the array rose, Han Fei saw one after another faceless man appearing from both sides, landing on the top floor. Among them, several faceless men slid directly into the air, and jointly pounced on those Hanging Fishers. "Hanging fishers?"

Han Fei discovered that these people turned out to be Hanging Fishers too, but judging from their spiritual energy, these people seemed to be only junior or intermediate Hanging Fishers.

Then Han Fei saw tens of thousands of fishing boats flying towards the ghost ship in the sky.

Those people seem to be teams of peak-level Dangling Fishers.

"Gulp!"

Le Renkuang swallowed. "We seem to have made serious trouble!"

Han Fei was also stupefied on the spot. "But was the trouble really caused by us? Should we go up to help them?"

Luo Xiaobai frowned. "But we can't help them much. I think it's more like an explosion of their long-standing grudges."

Then they heard the Hidden Fisher say, "Faceless, this time I'd like to see how you block us!"

"Heh heh! I just need to hack you to death."

The next minute, an axe phantom hung upside down in the sky, and the fierce flames extended thousands of meters long.

The two flame swords of the Hidden Fisher almost burned through half of the sky, as if igniting the entire sky, and the blazing fire almost blinded everyone.

Zhang Xuanyu and the others couldn't help covering their eyes, except for Han Fei, who had adapted to this hotness after he was burned in the Abyssal Chasm.

Clang!

Han Fei's eyes turned crimson, only to see the faceless man smashing the Hidden Fisher from the sky to the sea with one axe. Under the two of them, the sea was separated by a long ravine, which was hundreds of meters deep.

"Fu... ck..."

Chapter 546 Evil

The five of them, like flowers in the wind, looked so fragile and powerless under the dazzling starlight.

This level of battle had completely exceeded Han Fei's ability. It was like a battle of gods!

This reminded them of the battle between Xiao Zhan and the person from the Sun Family. Their battle even stirred up a tsunami which impacted a radius as far as dozens of kilometers, making people feel utterly powerless.

Over there, the faceless man took the upper hand, pressing the Hidden Fisher against the surface of the sea and beating him hard. Here, the battle between the faceless-men legion and the Hanging Fishers had also begun. However, they could only see a large number of faceless men thrown into the sky. Although they were strong, they were not even close to the peak-level Hanging Fishers in strength.

Without powerful secret methods like those Han Fei had, they certainly couldn't take the upper hand in the head-on confrontation.

However, Xia Xiaochan suddenly exclaimed, "Look, there are hunters."

In the night sky, hundreds of stars shone, and then actually scattered among those Hanging Fishers.

Zhang Xuanyu quickly asked, "Where? Where are the hunters?"

Le Renkuang looked around. "I don't see any! By the way, should we go up to help them?"

Luo Xiaobai suggested, "They must be Hanging Fisher hunters from the ghost ship. Only Xia Xiaochan can see them. We can't see them."

Hearing what Luo Xiaobai said, Han Fei frowned. Only Xia Xiaochan can see them? But I can too!

In Han Fei's eyes, light beam-like black shadows were bouncing between the stars as if weaving the starlight into a large net.

Swish, Swish, Swish...

Han Fei saw with his own eyes a giant ray from a Hanging Fisher opponent being cut into pieces, and an invisible black knife light flickered, cutting a Hanging Fisher in half.

“Oh!!”

Han Fei’s eyelids twitched. Damn, they are too strong! That’s a Hanging Fisher! But he was chopped in half by a single slash?

Xia Xiaochan said in surprise, “This combat skill is great. It inspires me.”

Han Fei turned his head and took a look. “Cut the crap. Get ready to fight. Those peak-level Dangling Fishers are coming.”

The faceless man said that the array would be ready in a quarter of an hour, but it had only been five minutes now.

Besides, the ghost ship was empty this time without any customers except for the five of them, so the ghost ship could only count on these faceless people. But those were tens of thousands of fishing boats! Even if there was only one peak-level Dangling Fisher on a boat, there would be ten thousand.

Even if the 10,000 peak-level Dangling Fishers stood still and let him attack them, how long would it take him to kill them all?

Thud!

Just when Han Fei was about to make a move.

The ghost ship roared and the red-black killing array suddenly spread out for tens of thousands of meters, enveloping all the fishing boats that had approached.

In an instant, Han Fei saw that the originally distorted laser light turned into terrifying beams like knife light.

Only in a flash, dozens of fishing boats fell apart.

Some people were being cut up and wailing.

Some hunters attempted to hook the ghost ship, only to be hit by a black glow together with the hook and the line and fell straight into the sea.

An armorist guarded himself with a turtle shield and narrowly survived.

However, not everyone was an armorist. Soul warriors and armorists could still resist for a while, but many spirit gatherers, hunters, and manipulators were hung immediately. To be honest, this was the first time Han Fei had seen the true power of the killing array.

He had seen Mu Ling use it on the Steps into the Sea, but that one was simply incomparable to this one.

The peak-level Dangling Fishers who were almost invincible in the level-three fishery couldn’t even fight back against this killing array. Zhang Xuanyu said blankly, “It seems that they don’t need our help!”

Le Renkuang shook his head and said, “I don’t want to enter this killing array. This is horrible. With so many killing beams, how can we get through?”

The Hexagon Starfish murmured, "Humans are horrible. Why do you like something like a killing array? Starfish never want to learn such a thing."

Han Fei looked at him. "Why not? When someone wants to catch you as their contractual spiritual beast, you'll find out how useless your Six-Gate Array is."

The Hexagon Starfish rolled its eyes. "They can't catch me. I run fast."

Everyone: "..."

There were battlefields on all sides. After seeing the battlefield in the Undersea City, these battlefields didn't quite impress Han Fei.

However, in the Undersea City, he was far away from the battlefield, while now he was watching these thrilling scenes close up!

Just as Han Fei expected, the Hidden Fisher was no match for the faceless man at all. Although it seemed that the flames were everywhere, the Hidden Fisher was actually dying and drenched in blood.

Outside the killing array, many people turned around and ran, thinking to themselves, Damn it, nothing is more important than my life. I'm here just because they paid me a lot of money.

Almost in a twinkling, thousands of fishing boats were swept away by the killing array. If they hadn't run, they would only end up being killed here.

A Hanging Fisher suddenly rushed into the killing array, shouting, "The killing array also requires spiritual energy. The ghost ship can't last that long." Then he called out a big turtle that shrank its head into its shell, ramming at the ghost ship.

Hey, brat, stop him!

In Han Fei's mind, the voice of the faceless man sounded.

Upon hearing it, Han Fei rushed forward and threw out the Sacrificing Punch.

Boom!

The turtle shell was punched away into the sky, spinning in the air and flying away.

However, to Han Fei's surprise, unlike other Hanging Fishers, this Hanging Fisher armorer completely blocked the Sacrificing Punch.

Han Fei quickly poured several mouthfuls of Candle Dragon Blood into his mouth, panting. "I can't kill him!"

As soon as he said so, an axe beam fell from the sky, splitting the big turtle in half, and the Hanging Fisher could no longer fly to the sky because his legs were cut off. "Ahhh!"

Accompanied by a shrill scream, dozens of dazzling beams swept up.

Luo Xiaobai clicked her fingers, and spiritual plants grew out of the legs of the Hanging Fisher.

"Wow..."

Han Fei asked in surprise, "What kind of combat skill is this?"

"This is not a combat skill. It is just a basic ability of manipulators." Han Fei secretly rolled his eyes. You call it a "basic ability"? Are you kidding me? Beep, Beep, Beep!

At this time, the seven dragon boats were already approaching, and Han Fei could even see the heads of the people on those dragon boats. When Han Fei saw a spiritual energy shock wave smashing towards the ghost ship, he was stunned.

He was indeed shocked. How did the ghost ship manage to win under the siege of five dragon boats? Against this terrifying shock wave?

Fortunately, the shock was cut into pieces by the beams after it fell into the killing array. After being dispersed, the spiritual energy shock wave was still strong, but would not be able to destroy the ghost ship.

Fortunately, the dragon boats had cannons, so did the ghost ship. And the latter's cannon was more powerful. The ghost ship also fired and the spiritual energy shock wave thus produced was dozens of times bigger than the former one.

"Damn, it's so powerful?"

Han Fei didn't even know when the spiritual energy shock wave was emitted... At this moment, he was trying to perceive.

As a result, he found that there was no artillery at all but only arrays. The spiritual energy shock wave was emitted from a large array, which gathered spiritual energy first, converged it, and fired it out.

This was as simple as spirit gatherer sending spiritual energy into other's bodies, except that spirit gatherers would do it in a gentle way, but this killing array did it quite violently. Now the ghost ship was firing "cannons" against the other seven ships.

For the first time, Han Fei knew that the arrays had this function. He was too damn ignorant.

Thinking of the Spirit Gathering Scripture that Old Jiang had left for him, he decided that he must master arrays when he went back this time.

Arrays were too powerful. Imagine what he could do if in combat with someone.

Suddenly, he could set up a killing array, which would bombard his enemy savagely. Who could stand it?!

Luo Xiaobai suddenly said, "Not good, the power of the killing array has begun to weaken."

Han Fei took a look. Yes, it was true. Although most of the thousands of fishing boats that rushed in were obliterated, a small part of them survived.

In the sky, the Hidden Fisher yelled, "Faceless, your ghost ship has done a lot of evil. This time you are doomed."

The faceless man scolded, "Shut the f*ck up! How do you have the face to say this? Disgusting shameless bastards! You are literally the most shameless people in the world! Since you say I'm evil, let me show you how evil I can be. Go to hell..."

Chapter 547 Really Faceless

When the power of the killing array weakened and the dragon boat's spiritual energy cannon finally landed on the ghost ship, the faceless man was angry.

As he stepped in the air, a huge shell shone in the sky, which was completely different from the shells ordinary people saw. It was more like a big axe than a shell. It stirred up a fierce gust of wind and slowly descended from the sky.

In Han Fei's eyes, data appeared.

<Name> God-Killing Clam <Qiu Lie's spiritual beast>

<Introduction> The offspring of the primitive creature, Sky Opening Clam. Its sharp shell can cut the mountains and the sea; its strong armor can resist the attack of Divine Weapons; it has unparalleled defensive and offensive capabilities, inherits superb combat skills from the Sky Opening Clam, and can turn into a battle axe.

<Level> ??? <Quality> Legendary <Food> Omnivorous

<Combat Skills> ???

<Contains Soul Power>???

"Wow!"

A legendary spiritual beast?

Han Fei was shocked. Are legendary creatures so worthless? How many have I watched so far?

Isn't the introduction to the God-Killing Clam a bit exaggerated?

As soon as the clam appeared, the Hidden Fisher was pressed into the water from the sky. He crossed his swords, intending to resist.

However, Faceless roared, "I must kill you today! Who do you think you are?!" "Stop!" "Hum..."

On the sky, a figure fell, but unfortunately, the axe had already chopped down, making the surging billows shoot into the sky, and the impact of this chop directly caused a monstrous tsunami.

The Hidden Fisher died.

"Faceless, you are too much."

An old man with gray hair appeared above the surging waves, pointing angrily at the faceless man.

The faceless man laughed. "You should know me by now! The ghost ship trades in good faith but if anyone wants to mess with us, I won't show any mercy."

Han Fei couldn't help swallowing. How domineering this guy is! He seemed to be fearless.

The ghost ship swayed with dozens of large holes blasted through the hull, but surprisingly, it was not sinking.

The Hanging Fishers had already retreated and looked very scared at the moment. Although they were guardians of the dragon boats, they didn't know much about the ghost ship. Their predecessors just warned them not to mess with the ghost ship, but no one knew that the ghost ship owner was so strong! He even easily killed a Hidden Fisher!

"Welcome, Lord Law Enforcer."

At that moment, those fishing boats that were hesitating outside all ran like crazy.

The Hidden Fisher was killed and even Lord Law Enforcer had come. Gosh, why did they stupidly get involved in the battle between the dragon boats and the ghost ship?

As soon as the Law Enforcer landed, instead of fighting, he said to those Hanging Fishers, "Go!"

The Hanging Fishers couldn't believe what they heard. The dragon boat owner murdered on the spot, but Lord Law Enforcer didn't do anything to him?

However, how dare these ordinary Hanging Fishers defy the order of a Law Enforcer? They immediately retreated. In fact, even if the Law Enforcer did not say that, they would retreat.

They followed the Hidden Fishers to attack the ghost ship, not because of Han Fei and his pals. This was just an excuse for the dragon boats to attack the ghost ship.

But no one had thought that the ghost ship owner would be so powerful and kill the Hidden Fisher with a single chop. Who the hell could continue to fight him?

When the dragon boats withdrew, the sea was still rough, and there were still seven or eight minutes before the teleportation array was ready. In other words, this thrilling battle lasted only that short amount of time.

On the wave.

The Law Enforcer glanced at Han Fei, then looked at Faceless and said, "The ghost ship has made too many kills. Even if I don't punish you, someone else will definitely do it." Faceless sneered in contempt. "Too many kills? We have fought only once in decades, with no more than a thousand casualties. There are countless guys who wander in the fisheries every day and end up being killed. Now you say I've made too many kills?"

The law enforcer squinted. "That's different."

Faceless impatiently waved his hand. "Why different? I think they're the same. Are you going to fight me or not? If not, I'm leaving. I need to repair my ship." The Law Enforcer said indifferently, "Faceless, you've killed the Hidden Fisher guarding the level-three fishery. You should give me an explanation!"

"Bah, no explanation needed. You just tell the bastards in the Thousand Star City that I killed that guy. If they want to retaliate, I'll be waiting for them. Believe it or not, if they can't kill me, I will put the Thousand Star City in decline for 20 years!"

The Law Enforcer was not annoyed but just smiled faintly. "This is also an explanation. I'll just tell them your words. But, don't do this again. You know, there are not many who are actually afraid of you. You know what they are truly afraid of."

"Humph!"

The faceless man snorted coldly, not even looking at the Law Enforcer.

The Law Enforcer nodded indifferently. The death of a Hidden Fisher was trivial to him. He didn't even fish the body out, but instead walked away in the air with his hands behind his back.

Han Fei and the other four were stunned in the whole process. That's a Law Enforcer! Why don't you even show some respect to him?

In the sky, the bright moonlight still shone on the array, making the brilliance of the array more and more intense. The faceless man landed on the boat and glanced at Han Fei and the other four. "What do you think? Am I awesome?"

Everyone: "..."

Luo Xiaobai asked quietly, "So, who on earth are you, Senior? You chose to save us and are so hostile to the Thousand Star City. If you are not from the Thousand Star City, you certainly didn't save us for my family. So, you should be connected with the other four, but as far as I know, Han Fei and the other three don't have a powerful background and are unlikely to have elders like you, so... Senior, are you related to the Thug Academy?"

ec

The faceless man glanced at Luo Xiaobai and shouted, "Guess, guess, all you know is guessing."

Luo Xiaobai shrugged. "Okay, well I already know. So, you are... Junior Uncle?" Han Fei was shocked. "Xiaobai, you can even guess this?!"

Luo Xiaobai simply said, "He spares no effort to help us and looks so calm when I mentioned the Thug Academy, and he is also so strong. Isn't his identity obvious?"

Han Fei clicked his tongue. "If he is really our Junior Uncle, why did he take all our money?"

Coldly watching the performance of Han Fei and Luo Xiaobai, the faceless man snorted. "Why can't your Junior Uncle take your money? Junior Uncle also needs to make a living!"

Zhang Xuanyu and the others hurriedly exclaimed, "Oh, so you really are our Junior Uncle?"

"Hi, Junior Uncle."

Xia Xiaochan added, "Hello, Junior Uncle."

The faceless man grunted without denying it. But then he said, "This time, my ghost ship is seriously damaged. I'll use that 5 billion to repair it. Maybe that won't even be enough..."

Han Fei was speechless. Are you kidding me? Not enough? I've checked it. You just need to use ordinary spiritual level materials to repair the holes, and those materials are so common in the level-three fishery.

Han Fei asked, "What about the Spirit Awakening Fluid?"

Xia Xiaochan added, "And Soul Crystals?"

The faceless man waved his hand. "No, no, none of them. I've already given you a lot of benefits. And you still want to snatch my Spirit Awakening Fluid? No way."

Le Renkuang scratched his belly. "Junior Uncle, didn't we buy that?"

The faceless man sneered. "You can ask someone else to sell the Spirit Awakening Fluid to you and see who will sell it to you!"

Zhang Xuanyu said, "Junior Uncle, could you please sell us some more?"

"Get lost!"

Luo Xiaobai asked, "Junior Uncle, why are you in the level-three fishery? Why do you control a ghost ship? Why do you wear a mask?" The faceless man said angrily, "Shut up, you darn girl. Where do you get so many questions?"

Luo Xiaobai was stunned by his roar, a little at a loss.

Xia Xiaochan roared back, "Junior Uncle, why are you yelling? You scared Xiaobai!"

Han Fei was speechless. Now knowing Faceless was their Junior Uncle, these guys even dared to yell at him.

Being yelled at by Xia Xiaochan, Faceless was speechless too. What f*cking kind of students are these?!

The faceless man sighed. "It's getting harder and harder to educate students these days. You don't need to know why I am in the level-three fishery and I'm not going to return the money to you. But, I can show you my face." The faceless man waved his hand, and a cloud of light covered his face.

When he took off the mask, Han Fei and the others all took a breath.

"Oh!"

Luo Xiaobai and Xia Xiaochan took a step back almost subconsciously.

Han Fei's eyelids jumped. "Junior Uncle, where is your face?"

What appeared in front of them was really a faceless man, whose face seemed to be wiped off by a knife. There were no eyes, no eyebrows, and no nose on this face... And in the mouth, there was only a slit, which seems to be cut with a knife.

The faceless man snorted and immediately put on the mask. "I show you my face because I want you to remember that the future is very dangerous, the enemy is very powerful, and do take care..."

Everyone: "..."

Chapter 548 Let's Take A Vacation

They were truly shocked! The strength that Junior Uncle Faceless had just shown was breathtakingly strong indeed!

Han Fei even felt that even Xiao Zhan was no match for Junior Uncle Faceless. At least they hadn't seen Xiao Zhan launch such a strong attack before.

That axe even sliced through the seawater.

Han Fei smiled and said, "Junior Uncle, it's OK. I have a Thousand Face Technique. Do you want it? With it, you can have any face you want."

Having said that, Han Fei threw a jade slip over. Faceless Master took it and had a look, and was stunned. "Demon-level divine-quality? Didn't you buy a mystic-level disguise technique last time? Why did it become demon-level divine-quality?"

Han Fei smiled. "I picked it up."

"Really? Then you're really 'lucky'..."

Then the faceless man threw the jade slip back to Han Fei. "It's useless. A heaven-level divine-quality might do, but this is only demon-level."

Han Fei said slyly, "Junior Uncle, since it's the first time we've met... I wonder if you'll give me a little gift." "F*ck off!"

Faceless waved his hand and pushed the five of them into the big array.

Faceless shouted to them, "Money is a bad thing. It will erode your souls. You don't need it now. Also, don't wear an ultra-quality battle suit all day long. It will court jealousy."

At this moment, the big array seemed to have started, and they had felt that their vision was a bit blurred.

In the end, they heard Faceless say, "Han Fei, I used the eight trigrams to tell your fortune just now. The result is not good! You haven't overcome the romance trap set out for you! You have to be careful and be prepared."

Han Fei's expression suddenly changed. "Junior Uncle, don't slander me! What romance trap... Alas! Xia Xiaochan, don't move..."

Blue Sea Town.

The level-two fishery.

In the night, a bright beam of light in the sky suddenly slammed into the sea.

After a while, five heads emerged from the sea.

Han Fei was stunned. "Huh! Were we teleported to the wrong place? Why is it still at sea?"

Xia Xiaochan had already slashed over, cutting a Dragon-Head Fish in half.

Xia Xiaochan deducted, "Dragon-Head Fish? This is the level-two fishery."

After a while, the five of them lay on the fishing boat, Nine Tails lay on the top of the fishing boat, and the nine-star chain was drifting in the sea to prevent the daredevil creatures from climbing on the fishing boat.

Unlike the creatures in the level-three fishery, the creatures in the level-two fishery were still very dumb, without any intelligence, but they were very confident in their strength and never hesitated to challenge any human they saw.

Han Fei could only let Nine Tails guard outside and the five of them were eating hot pot in the cabin.

The Hexagon Starfish suddenly said, "Can I just stay here?"

Le Renkuang said, "Huh? Senior Hexagon, isn't it great for you to be with us? So many delicious foods for you! The level-two fishery is boring!" Xia Xiaochan added, "Big Starfish, why do you always want to slip away?"

The Hexagon Starfish was holding a jar of wine and his eyes kept rolling. Then he suddenly collapsed and wailed, "It's too dangerous to be with you! Every time you fight, I'm so f*cking scared. Starfish don't like fighting. Starfish only like hunting for treasures."

Han Fei slapped the deck, which startled the Hexagon Starfish and his tentacles shook.

Han Fei said, "Dangerous? But you remain unscathed, don't you? You want to stay here, right? OK, let me chop off one of your tentacles. Isn't it said a tentacle from a starfish can grow into a new starfish? Let your little brother stay here and you will still be with us."

The Hexagon Starfish immediately shrank his six tentacles. "Who told you that? That's the case for ordinary starfish, but a legendary starfish like me can't afford to lose a single tentacle. Besides, this sea area can't breed another Hexagon Starfish."

Han Fei grinned. "That's it. So cut the crap. Just eat, drink, and take what we give you. What else do you want?"

Threatened by Han Fei, the Hexagon Starfish immediately stopped talking, but he was still wailing in his heart. What a bitter and tiring life Starfish had! Why did Starfish meet this horrible human being?

They dined and wined to satiety.

Zhang Xuanyu asked, "When are we going back to school?"

Han Fei shrugged. "Do you want to go back?"

Everyone looked at Han Fei and Le Renkuang said, "No, do you have any suggestions?"

Han Fei said leisurely, "We've been working so hard for eight or nine months in the level-three fishery, right? There are still more than two months left before the deadline. Let's have a vacation, OK?"

Xia Xiaochan asked curiously, "Vacation?"

Han Fei said, "Yes! Let's rest for two months, floating on the sea every day, occasionally basking in the sun, fishing, eating hot pot, and relaxing. What do you think?" Luo Xiaobai wasn't easily persuaded. "I'm going back to school."

Zhang Xuanyu nodded. "Can I go back home?"

Everyone was surprised and Le Renkuang asked, "Didn't you float from another town? How will you go back?"

Zhang Xuanyu said matter-of-factly, "Float back, just like how I floated over!"

Han Fei had an idea. "We're going with you! Then we can see what other villages are like."

Zhang Xuanyu shook his head. "I want to go back alone. I have something to deal with."

"No, you can't."

Zhang Xuanyu screamed, "Why can't I?"

Luo Xiaobai glanced at him. "You can't cross no-man's land alone. I don't know how you floated over and how the President brought you back. But you can't do it alone. Either someone goes with you or we go back to school first."

Zhang Xuanyu: "..."

Le Renkuang shook his head. "I'm not going anywhere. I just want to bask in the sun, sleep, and eat hot pot."

Han Fei wanted to speak but was pinched by Xia Xiaochan. "I... Well, I will go home and have a look."

Xia Xiaochan agreed. "I'm with Han Fei."

Zhang Xuanyu was silent for a long while and then reluctantly looked at Luo Xiaobai. "Are you going back with me?" "OK."

On the next day, Zhang Xuanyu and Luo Xiaobai left, driving a Ghost Speed Divine Boat.

Han Fei looked at Xia Xiaochan and said, "Why don't we go with them?"

Before Xia Xiaochan answered, he heard Le Renkuang say, "Are you stupid! Why did Zhang Xuanyu float over from another town alone? There must be a reason! Since he said that he wanted to go back alone this time, there must be something that he didn't want us to see." Xia Xiaochan nodded. "That's right. Also, Xiaobai is from a very powerful family in the Thousand Star City. Her identity can help Zhang Xuanyu a lot." Han Fei snorted. "Humph! Whatever."

Seeing Le Renkuang humming an unknowing tone and making a hot pot, Han Fei sighed. Is he a f*cking pig?! He just ate two meals last night, and now he has a third meal started?

Han Fei said, "This fat gentleman, enjoy yourself! After eating and drinking enough, you can go back to school by yourself." Le Renkuang was immediately stunned. "Huh? Are you leaving too? Didn't you say you wanted to bask in the sun and eat hot pot?" Han Fei rolled his eyes. "No, I need to precipitate myself. I need to empty myself."

Xia Xiaochan instructed, “Kuangkuang, go back to school by yourself after finishing your meal.”

Then she pulled Master Hexagon off Han Fei’s shoulder and threw it to Le Renkuang. “Take the big Starfish back with you. If you let him escape, you’ll have to compensate!” Le Renkuang: “...”

...

On the way to the Heavenly Water Village.

Han Fei asked, “Xia Xiaochan, where is your home?”

Xia Xiaochan tilted her head and said, “I don’t know!”

Han Fei was surprised. “Isn’t there anyone else in your family?”

Xia Xiaochan thought for awhile and said, “I have a grandma, but she is gone.”

Han Fei paused and then said, “Oh! I’m sorry to hear that.”

“Bah bah bah... What are you talking about! My grandma is not dead. She just left.”

“Huh?”

Han Fei asked in surprise, “Left? Then where did she go?”

Xia Xiaochan shook her head. “I don’t know! It seems that she had gone far, far away! She said that one day, when I can defeat someone with wings, maybe I can find her.”

“Pu!”

Han Fei was astonished. “A Hidden fisher?”

Xia Xiaochan nodded. “Yeah! I found that part out later.”

Han Fei couldn’t help but think to himself, It seems that Xia Xiaochan is not from an ordinary family! She has to beat a Hidden Fisher to find her family?! When will that be?

Xia Xiaochan changed the topic. “What about you? Didn’t you say that you had no family members left?”

Han Fei smiled and said, “I have no family member left, but I still have mansions and much fertile farmland at home.”

Xia Xiaochan grunted in response and then asked, “But, why don’t we go straight back to school?”

Han Fei said with a frown, “I have a hunch that something bad will happen when I return to school. Our deadline has not expired, so let’s I’m afraid we won’t have such a chance later.” “Um, alright. I have nowhere to go anyway. Let me have a look at what your home is like!”

“OK!”

The fishing boat drew a beautiful arc in the sky and gradually disappeared into the colorful clouds and rosy sunset...

Chapter 549 Heavenly Water Village Today

Han Fei would never have enough of the scenery from the Floating Islands.

It was early in the morning, the rising sun enveloped the ocean, casting the golden-red light among the clouds, and countless fishers controlled their fishing boats to go to sea. This scene was beautiful and full of life.

In the plantation, Han Fei opened his eyes from cultivation, and when the first rays of morning light came over, the spiritual energy of the entire plantation would riot. Masses of spiritual energy gathered and dispersed in the plantation.

A flame ignited on Han Fei. However, a ball of water immediately wrapped him until the flame went out.

Han Fei stopped cultivating and looked up at the rising sun. This was his 10th time trying to absorb the spiritual energy from the fiery sun. However, he never succeeded.

But Han Fei was sure of one thing, that is, it seemed that the fiery sun contained not only spiritual energy, but also some mysterious energy that was more violent than spiritual energy, which could gather spiritual energy in an instant. The slightest carelessness would cause you to be burned to ashes.

Han Fei had been wondering why there were no creatures like birds and beasts on the Floating Islands. The place here was not small, and a large number of nests on the Floating Islands would be enough for hundreds of millions of birds to survive and inhabit, right?

Jingle, Jingle, Jingle!

While Han Fei was musing, Xia Xiaochan, dressed in beautiful clothes, lightly walked to the center of the plantation.

Since Han Fei left the Heavenly Water Village, the members of the Fish Dragons had been carefully taking care of his houses. The training ground where he and Jiang Qin used to fight against each other had been polished and paved with slates. They even built a path here, leading to the entrance of the plantation.

Xia Xiaochan, bleary-eyed, said to Han Fei, "I want to eat fried dumplings." Han Fei moved his body and said, "You can make it yourself. Haven't I taught you how to make it?!"

Xia Xiaochan hummed and said lazily, "No, my cooking is not as good as yours."

After a moment.

On the wooden table at the entrance of the plantation, Han Fei put four large plates of fried dumplings, two plates per person, for breakfast.

This was the benefit of being a cultivator. Cultivators could eat all the time as long as they wanted without the worry of getting fat.

Han Fei picked a fried dumpling with chopsticks and dipped it in vinegar. "Today, we are going to give a lecture to the teachers and students in the school of the village. Should we prepare some gifts or something?"

Xia Xiaochan was stuffing fried dumplings in her mouth with no table manners at all, and she raised her head and said to Han Fei with her mouth full of food, "You can give them some fish, or crabs, lobsters, or something."

Han Fei said in surprise, "Aren't they too cheap? Don't we still have more than 600 combat skills? I want to give them a hundred or so. What do you think?"

Xia Xiaochan shook her head. "Of those combat skills and techniques, even the lowest level is spirit-level, which they can't use at all. You can give them a dozen as rewards for outstanding students."

Han Fei nodded seriously. "That seems to make sense."

The layout of the Heavenly Water Village was slightly changed.

Besides the four major schools in the east, west, south, and north, there was one more school in the middle, whose name was "Fish Dragon Central Primary School". Han Fei gave the name to it casually.

At first, Han Fei just planned to let the children of the members of the Fish Dragons study in it. When they grew up, they could continuously bring new blood to the Fish Dragons. Then the Fish Dragons wouldn't have to hire a large number of outsiders to manage gang affairs as the Blue Sea Town did.

In Han Fei's words, this was called sustainable development.

Although he was not prepared to spend much time on the Fish Dragons, he didn't mind putting forward some constructive opinions.

But then he discovered that the students in Fish Dragon Central Primary School were generally stronger and more talented than other children due to the abundant supply of resources.

This had caused many people in the Heavenly Water Village to try to send their children into this school. Also because of this, many people were vying to join the Fish Dragons, so the Fish Dragons had been expanding and had become the largest gang ever in the Heavenly Water Village.

Because the Fish Dragons' tradition was not to bully ordinary people and promote sustainable economic development in the village, almost all villagers had joined the Fish Dragons.

At this moment.

In the office of Fish Dragon Central Primary School.

Han Fei's teacher, Wang Jie, was invited to serve as the honorary principal of Fish Dragon Central Primary School.

According to tradition, the position should belong to the village head, but the village head refused, saying that he didn't have enough time to manage the school.

Because He Xiaoyu had a good relationship with Han Fei, He Mingtang was invited to serve as the vice principal of Fish Dragon Central Primary School.

Han Fei came over with several cattles of fried dumplings and greeted Wang Jie and He Mingtang. "Teachers, good morning!"

Wang Jie had never thought that Han Fei would become one of his best students. When he saw Han Fei again, he was struck with emotion for quite a while. As for the other excellent student Tang Ge, he thought he might not see him again. He had entered the Thousand Star City and probably wouldn't come back again.

Wang Jie joked, "Hey, why did you come so late? The children have already begun their lessons."

Han Fei smiled and said, "Sorry, Mr. Wang, I came after breakfast. Here, I brought some for you and Mr. He."

Wang Jie quickly took the fried dumplings, grabbed one of them, and put it in his mouth, then handed them to He Mingtang and said, "Old He, would you like some?"

He Mingtang got up, grabbed a fried dumpling, and stuffed it into his mouth, and glanced at Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan next to him. "Han Fei! Won't you go back to the town? You have stayed in the village for almost a month. Won't your teacher punish you?" Han Fei smiled. "Our trial is not over yet. There is still half a month left before the deadline!"

He Mingtang took a deep look at Han Fei. "Lad, restrain yourself! The more outstanding, the less you can slack off... Are you two going to get married?"

"Puff..."

"Ahem!"

Xia Xiaochan blushed, and she had never thought of something like getting married or having a baby. Han Fei was embarrassed. Get married? How old am I?

Han Fei said awkwardly, "Well, no plan yet. It's just time for us to cultivate and study. And we'll still have to go to the Unknown Place. It's too early to talk about marriage."

"The Unknown Place?"

Wang Jie and He Mingtang both became serious. That was an ominous place! They didn't know where the Unknown place was and what it was like...

They didn't know what the level-three fishery was like either. Even He Mingtang was just a peak-level fishing master and hadn't become a great fishing master yet. How could they know so much?

But they had all heard about the Unknown Place and had never heard that anyone returned safely from the Unknown Place.

He Mingtang had mixed feelings. How long had it been? After a mere four years, Han Fei, who he used to look down upon, had become a heavenly talent that swept across the level-three fishery.

Yes, from He Mingtang's point of view, being able to go to the level-three fishery was already a heavenly talent.

His daughter had been working very hard for this period of time, trying to be a spirit gatherer and a hunter at the same time. Now she had made a name in the first academy of the Blue Sea Town. Even so, she could only go to the level-two fishery to gain fighting experience, and she still had to wait at least two years before going to the level-three fishery.

Giving a lecture was actually very easy.

Most of the students here were the children of the members of the Fish Dragons, and each one was full of admiration for Han Fei. They felt that Han Fei who destroyed the Tigers, created the Fish Dragons, and led the Fish Dragons to prosperity was really someone!

Han Fei gave some empty conventional talks like to study well and make progress, cultivate hard and strive to enter the Blue Sea Town, etc.

Li Qing had been following Han Fei, and even now, he still felt that it was a very wise choice for him to betray the Tigers and follow Han Fei.

Han Fei said to all the teachers and students, "Everyone, listen carefully. From now on, the cultivation resources will be doubled. Any student of this school who becomes a fishing master will get weapons and fishing rods. Anyone who can become a great fishing master will get a low-quality spiritual weapon and a spiritual fruit... Good luck."

"Wow!"

"Thank you, Leader."

"Leader, you're awesome!" "Leader, I love you."

"Leader..."

Wang Jie and the others smack their tongues. Are rich people all like this?!

Wang Jie gently elbowed He Mingtang. "Old He! Why didn't you seize the chance back then? If he marries Xiaoyu, he will become your son-in-law!"

He Mingtang sighed and said, "Who would have known this kid would become so outstanding now? However, I can't force it. And I also told Xiaoyu not to force it. After all, Han Fei's path is not something everyone can take. I heard that this kid killed a Hanging Fisher in the level-three fishery. No one knows whether it will be a blessing or a curse if Xiaoyu marries him!"

Wang Jie was shocked. "Really? No joking here."

He Mingtang sighed. "Xiaoyu's classmate, Xiang Zuozuo, a heavenly talent in the Blue Sea Town, told her that. I can assure you the news is true."

Wang Jie froze for a long time and then said, "So what? He is safe and sound, isn't he?"

Chapter 550 Han Fei's Research

After leaving Fish Dragon Central Primary School, Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan went to sea.

The village leader said that he would come to visit him at night, so he planned to go to the fishery to get some seafood. After all, he gave all the ordinary creatures in Forge the Universe to Little Time.

Now he only had Yellow-Blooded Sea Cucumbers, which the village leader might not be able to withstand.

Of course, in addition to fishing for some seafood, he also planned to wander around the eight villages.

One hour later.

Han Fei appeared in the sky above the Heavenly Wood Village. Just like its name, the Heavenly Wood Village was basically covered by big trees. Most people lived in trees or built treehouses in the forest.

Only the places near the port had no trees, probably for the convenience of going out to sea.

Han Fei flew around the Heavenly Wood Village several times, drawing something onto a fish skin map from time to time. Xia Xiaochan curiously asked, "Haven't you studied these villages thoroughly yet? Why are you painting these villages?" Han Fei shook his head and said, "Do you remember Junior Uncle Faceless told us that the level-three fishery is a big array?" Xia Xiaochan nodded. "Yes! Aren't there arrays among the Floating Islands?" Han Fei nodded. "Yeah! What kind of an array can span hundreds of thousands of miles?! I can't study the level-three fishery but I can study the arrays between the villages and the town first."

Han Fei had too many questions about the level-three fishery.

What secrets were hidden in the Sea Grassland? Why would people transform into fish there? And what was the book in Forge the Universe that he still dared not to open up?

Why did the Underwater City fall, and why did the people in the city fight fish tides in the sea for hundreds of years?

What was the altar on the Steps into the Sea? Where did the sacrifices go, and where did the rewards come from? What was sealed under the Steps into the Sea?

Who made the Abyssal Chasm with a slash? What was hidden in the secret realm that couldn't be entered and the one that couldn't be reached?

Han Fei felt that everyone was involved in a series of huge secrets.

Of course, Han Fei had no ability to explore those things now.

However, the trip to the level-three fishery made him fully realize the importance of arrays.

Especially the killing array, that thing was too terrifying and could even easily kill peak-level Dangling Fishers, and ordinary people wouldn't dare to challenge the killing array.

Xia Xiaochan asked, "What have you found out from your research?"

Han Fei pondered for a long time. "I found that every village must be an eye of an array." "Puff!"

Xia Xiaochan gave Han Fei a sideways glance. "You're telling me! Everyone knows that..."

Han Fei shrugged. He was not to blame. He really didn't know it before.

"OK, let's go back to the village."

At the plantation, Han Fei cooked some dishes and smiled. "Grandpa Leader, let me ask you something! Has there been any major event in our town over the past century?"

The village leader was staring at the steamed lobster. Suddenly hearing this question, he was taken aback. "A hundred years? That's very long ago."

Han Fei smiled and said, "It's a very big event, something that would be unforgettable for a lifetime. For example, the movement of the Floating Islands, or the arrival of a big figure from the Thousand Star City, something like that."

The village leader grinned. "Are these big events? Over the past 100 years, the Floating Islands have moved seven or eight times. Even our Heavenly Water Village was right next to the Heavenly Heart Village before, but then our village declined and was moved to where we are now."

Han Fei said in surprise, "Our village used to be next to the Heavenly Heart Village?"

The village leader picked up a large piece of lobster meat with chopsticks, stuffed it into his mouth, and nodded in praise. "Tsk, the taste is not bad... Our Heavenly Water Village used to have a lot of talents, but many of them died in the level-three fishery, so our village gradually declined."

Xia Xiaochan was puzzled. "Then didn't you continue to cultivate talents?"

The village leader smiled bitterly. "Sometimes, it depends on opportunities. When God's favored one is born in a village, the whole village will prosper. But if no good talent is born in a village in a certain period of time, then it will decline. This is the rule of this world."

Han Fei continued his investigation, "Were there any other major events? For example, weird things happening on the sea?"

The village leader said, "Yes! This is recorded in our Heavenly Water Village Annals. About 50 years ago, it was said that a giant dragon passed through the ordinary fishery and then plunged into it. However, I didn't see it myself but just heard of it. You can still go fishing on the ordinary fishery."

Han Fei frowned. Sometimes, he would rather believe some legends.

His experience in the level-three fishery made him deeply realize that his knowledge of the known fisheries was actually not much.

"Gulp."

The village leader took a sip of his drink and said, "It was like eight or nine years ago... When dozens of Hidden Fishers came to the Heavenly Water Village. I remember very clearly that day, there was a big boat in the sky, the clouds and fog in the sky were all dispersed. The Hidden Fishers stood on the bow of the ship and a pitched battle broke out in the sky."

Han Fei's eyes lit up. "What battle?" The village leader said, "How do I know? I couldn't even see who was fighting with whom. Anyway, this battle lasted less than half an hour before they left."

Han Fei picked up a drunk shrimp with chopsticks and put it into his mouth in disappointment. This battle sounded interesting, but it was a pity that the village leader didn't know much about it.

The village leader asked, "Why are you asking this? Is that why you treat me to this meal?"

Han Fei chuckled. "I just wanted to know more about the history of our Heavenly Water Village."

The village leader smacked his lips and said, "Why? By the way, when will you marry Miss Xiaochan? Have you thought of leaving your kid in the village?" "Puff... Cough, cough..." Xia Xiaochan directly spurted out a fishball and her face was flush.

Han Fei was embarrassed. "But Grandpa Leader, am I old? We young people should concentrate on cultivating, to enter the Thousand Star City, and uncharted waters."

Xia Xiaochan agreed, "Yes, Han Fei is right."

The village leader shook his head slightly. "Young people like to take adventures. You're like this, so is Xia Wushuang, and even He Xiaoyu... Alas!"

Han Fei: "..."

Suddenly, the village leader said, "This is the same case for your sickly father, who liked bragging and in the end lost his life in these unrealistic things."

Han Fei was taken aback. "Leader, did you know my father?"

The village leader sneered. "Sure. Your father's strength was not great, even slightly worse than mine. But he kept saying that he was going to the Unknown Place although he didn't know much about it. Come on, he was only a great fishing master back then! In the end, he died outside of it."

Han Fei frowned. Huh? This was different from what he remembered!

Although his memory about his father was vague, he remembered that his father died in the Unknown place!

Suddenly, Han Fei froze. No! The Unknown Place?! Didn't that mean that his father was at least a peak-level Dangling Fisher?

Han Fei couldn't remember it clearly. In his memory, it seemed that someone told him that his father had died in the Unknown Place outside the level-three fishery. Tang Ge also knew about this.

The key was not about where his father died... But if he was a strong master, why would he stay in a small place like the Heavenly Water Village?

On the next day, Han Fei and Xia Xiaochan went to explore the ordinary fishery again.

Just like Jiang Qin did in the past, Han Fei searched almost inch by inch, especially those places covered by seaweed.

However, he couldn't find anything unusual.

At this moment, he emerged from under the water and saw Xia Xiaochan's feet slapping the spray.

Seeing Han Fei, Xia Xiaochan said, "I'm bored."

Han Fei wiped the seawater on his face and said, "Okay, let's go back! Let's inform the village leader and go back to school."

Han Fei didn't bother to search here anymore. Jiang Qin had almost turned the ordinary fishery upside down and in the end, found some information about the Sea Quelling Painting by accident.

He didn't want to stay here for three to five years just to solve a small doubt in his heart. When the two of them were about to return to the village, they saw a fishing boat flying over in the sky, and He Mingtang stood at the bow and waved at them.

Before the fishing boat landed, He Mingtang shouted, "Han Fei, save Xiaoyu."

Han Fei's expression changed, and he quickly said, "What's the matter?"

He Mingtang was panting hard. "The village leader just got the news that some teachers and students from the First Academy had an accident in the Deep-Sea Jungle of the level-two fishery. Xiaoyu should be among them. Because the Blue Sea Town is far away and you happen to be here, the village leader asked me to come to find you."

Han Fei nodded. "Mr. He, don't worry. I'm going now."

He Mingtang added, "I'm going with you."

Han Fei nodded. "Get on the boat."
